Many from here who long ago were Taftville residents attended the Pioneers' outing at Rocky Point Sunday.

Philip Blanchette who was in a motorcycle accident Saturday in Occum is not from Baltic as stated in Monday's Norwich Bulletin. It is claimed he is but he is of parts unknown to his family, having deserted his wife and three small children nine years ago leaving them in dire circumstance.

The selectmen are having the iron bridge over the Baltic Mills Co. canal painted by the town painters.

BOLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Finley and family of Somers and Mrs. Henry Fryer of Willimantic, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Finley.

Clarence R. Fries of Boston is spending two weeks with his sister, Lavinia C. Fries.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley B. DeWolf, have returned from New York state, after spending a week with Mr. DeWolf's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kneeland Jones and son, were calling on Mrs. Howard Hart Sunday, in Cromwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and son of Hartford were calling at Judge G. White's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Alvord and son Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Lot Ward are to spend a week at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bently are in New York state for a week.

Miss Mary Ella Sumner of Bolton Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hilton and daughter Ruth, are spending some time in Buffalo.

Mrs. Mary Bogue of New Jersey is the guest of her brothers, Amos L. and Paul E. Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McGurk and family are at Block Island for a week.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick C. Taylor and daughter Dorothy, and Mrs. Elsie M. Jones attended the Christian Endeavor meeting in Andover and heard the talk given by Mrs. Howard Champe on Mexico.

Miss Lavinia C. Fries had as her guest recently Mrs. William H. Thornton and Alice Thornton of Coventry Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Hayes and son John, Mrs. Mary Hobby and daughter Ellen of Manchester.

Dr. and Mrs. Whapples and daughter of New York, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Nasson Phelps.

The play "Patsy" is to be given at Coventry.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Jones had as guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Norman Warner and family of Gilead, Mrs. Winthrop Porter and family of Hebron, Mrs. Clifford Perry and son of Gilead and Mrs. Bessie Cumming of Hebron.

Miss Arelena Donoue, of Manchester, is the guest of Miss Jeannette Sumner.

Mr. Taylor of New York is spending a few days with his brother, Rev. Frederick C. Taylor and family.

ONLY FEW OF CIVIL WAR NURSES LEFT FOR REUNION

BUCHAREST, Aug. 10—(AP)—Should a small band or gray-haired women, the last survivors of the army nurses of the Civil war, will represent their national organization at its annual convention, to be held here in connection with the Grand Army of the Republic encampment, Sept. 19 to 24.

Only five members of this heroic group, which administered to the suffering Yankees, were present at the reunion of the National association of army nurses of the Civil war, at Grand Rapids last summer.

Alice Cary Risley, Columbia, Mo., who has been national president for the past eleven years, estimates that no more than a half dozen of the fifty living members of the group will be able to be present this year.

One of the oldest surviving members is Catherine M. Beck, Wichita, Kans., department president of Kansas and Missouri, who is more than 94 years old. Nearly all of the other members average about 86 years of age.

JEWETT CITY

The executive committee of Pachaug Grange Fair association held a most enthusiastic meeting Monday evening in Grange hall. There are 17 members of this committee and only two were absent. There are to be several improvements made at the grounds this year. The water is to be pumped by an engine and piped out to the cattle sheds, with several faucets between for the convenience of the other buildings. There will be two telephones instead of one as in previous years. One will be at the superintendent's office at the gate and the other in Whiting's "dog" house. There are to be three new features—children under fourteen are to be admitted free on one day. There is to be a better baby contest, and three awards of fifty, thirty and twenty dollars are to be given for the best exhibits made by other granges. Pachaug grange not to be included. Harry Hull is superintendent of grounds, with F. H. Gilbert assistant superintendent.

Mrs. Sadie Lewis L'Heureux of Baltimore, Md., is a guest at Mrs. J. H. McLaughlin's.

Mrs. Alice Rainville of Hudson Falls, N. Y., is a guest at Dr. F. E. Rainville's.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Edmond of Voluntown sympathize with them in the loss of their infant son, who died Monday from cholera infantum.

The funeral of Wilfred Monty was held at St. Mary's church Tuesday morning, Rev. J. J. McCabe officiated at the requiem mass. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, Lisbon. The bearers were the boy's brother and three cousins, sons of Peter Monty of Baltic. Hourigan Bros. were in charge of the arrangements.

The bearers were Joseph Moody, Harold Moody of Sterling; Theodore Benac of Taftville and Lionel Monty, a brother, of Jewett City.

Present at the funeral were Charles Lafiamme of North Grosvenordale; Mrs. Marie Benac, Danielson; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Money and Lillie Monty of Sterling; Joseph and Stanislas Benac, Eva and Azilda Benac, Delia, Yvonne and Gerard Benac of Taftville and Joseph and Roseline Benac, Exore and Elia Benac of New Bedford; Calixte Petro, Mrs. Peter Talbuit, Mrs. Noil, Mrs. Gaska, Lena Gaska, John Gaska, Monique Gaska, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Plante and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plante of Jewett City.

Miss Chris Sarazin who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon to Glens Falls, N. Y., has returned to her home in North Attleboro, Mass. They have now as their guest Mrs. Gordon's cousin, Miss Blehop of Glens Falls.

HOPKINTON

The August meeting of the town council was held at the town hall, August 2nd with four members present. Nellie J. Howes was given a victualing license. William Hair and Stephen B. Andrews were appointed a committee to expend the state appropriation of $1,000 on stat highways as yet unconstructed.

Deeds of land for highway purposes from the Potter Hill Woolen Co., Inc., and Howard E. Thorp to the town were accepted and ordered recorded. Elmer C. Smith, the only bidder, was appointed tax collector with a bond of $15,000.

The bill of Roger W. Lewis for care of the Thurston burial ground to the amount of $2.50 was ordered paid out of the income from the fund for its perpetual care.

Bills to the amount of $1,126.80 were ordered paid.

In the probate court the Washington Trust Co. was appointed administrator of the estate of Herbert C. Burdick with A. Barclay Robertson as appraiser. The last will and testament of Albert E. Saunders was admitted to probate and Nellie S. Saunders confirmed executrix, with Herbert E. Lewis, appraiser.

The first and final account of Manton E. Edwards, administrator of the estate of Thomas R. Edwards, was allowed and ordered recorded. Inventory of the estate of Lewis L. Kenyon, deceased, was received and ordered recorded.

Elisha R. Bitgood was appointed administrator of the estate of William H. Watson with Adelbert B. Clarke, appraiser.

The account of Henry H. Crandall, administrator of the estate of Emily J. Yeaw, was referred to September 7th.

The account of Lucy P. C. Gardner, guardian of Margaret E. Robinson, was referred to Sept. 7th.

Petitions for appointment of administration of the estates of Harry H. Haggett and Betsy W. Eccleston were received and referred to Sept. 7th.

Mrs. John E. Wells, recently operated upon at the Westerly hospital, has left the hospital and is staying for a while with her sister, Mrs. Ella Clarke at Matunock.

Miss Bettie Brown, daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Frank H. Brown, has undergone a minor operation at the Westerly hospital.

A Franklin automobile bearing Massachusetts number 469,247, was badly wrecked by running into a stone wall about 75 yards south of the S. D. B. church at Hopkinton City, Friday night. A scratch on the nose of the operator and two on an arm of the woman were the only injuries. Names of the parties were not given out.

Frederick H. Lake, claim adjuster of the state board of public roads of Providence, was a business caller in town last Tuesday.

Mrs. William G. Mellen of New York is spending some time at her summer home at Hopkinton City.

Mrs. Joseph T. White is visiting her son and his family at Wakefield.

Albert Kenyon of Westerly, visited at the home of his brother, Alonzo P. Kenyon Friday.

Mrs. Daniel E. Blake is a patient in the Rhode Island hospital, Providence.

RUMANIAN KING WOULD SEE U. S. AS PRIVATE CITIZEN

DES MOINES, Aug. 10—(AP)—Only the King of Rumania go to the United States he should like to travel as a private citizen. Constant public receptions, in that royal view, "wear one out".

"I would want to give the American government the least trouble possible," King Ferdinand said, commenting on the uncertain possibility that he might join Queen Marie on her proposed fall trip to the United States. "Receptions are trying for the persons who arrange them, and trying for those in whose honor they are given. One day's official reception in the United States would be quite enough, I think. The remainder of the time I should like to travel as a private citizen."

FOR BURNING ECZEMA

Apply Zemo, the Antiseptic Liquid—Easy to Use

When applied as directed Zemo effectively removes Eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also Sores, Burns, Wounds and Chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive antiseptic liquid, that is especially adapted for daytime use because it does not show. Ask your druggist for a size 60c or large bottle $1.00.

DODGE BROTHERS DE LUXE SEDAN

People select motor cars by different standards.

Some desire luxury and ostentation. Others, utility and economy alone.

Dodge Brothers De Luxe Sedan strikes a fine and distinguished balance—both in appearance and price—between these two extremes.

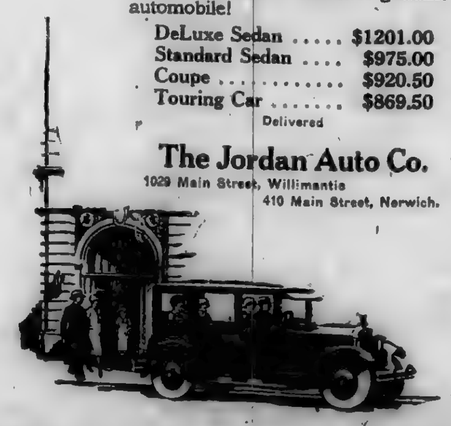
It provides unusual comfort and roominess; a refinement of line and design in which the owner takes deep pride; and everywhere in the world the name it bears is associated with the highest standard of integrity and workmanship.

With reasonable care, the De Luxe Sedan serves its owners for years, frequently delivers mileage running well into six figures, and on the resale market brings prices that strikingly reflect the solid value Dodge Brothers have built into it.

Dollar for dollar's worth of genuine automobile!

DeLuxe Sedan	$1201.00
Standard Sedan	$975.00
Coupe	$920.50
Touring Car	$869.50

Delivered



The Jordan Auto Co.

1029 Main Street, Willimantic

410 Main Street, Norwich.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

FIFTH AVENUE FAVORITES IN NEW FEATHERWEIGHT

FELTS At $1.95

Silver Green
Atmosphere
Parchment
Vanilla
Sand
Chanel Red
Black

Large Poppy Styles

Off-the-face Styles

Stroller Types

Small Pokes

Just Received Every one of them

Smartly Trimmed and Banded with Silk

Faille and Gros-grain Ribbons

All Head Sizes

Women's "Bonnie Burson" $1.00 SILK HOSIERY

IN A FOUR-DAY SPECIAL SALE

Wednesday — Thursday — Friday — Saturday

Service Weight Fashioned All Perfect

AT PAIR 63c

360 Pairs First Quality Super Value

These are Service Weight Silk Hosiery. Every pair is "Fashioned to Fit," is first quality and free from imperfections of any kind. In all the leading shades of the season—

Atmosphere	Champagne	Nude	Russet
Black	Gun Metal	Poudre Blue	Sunset
Blonde	Grain	Pablo	Sudan
Beige	Moonlight	Rosewood	Sombrero

AT 63c PAIR, Value $1.00—Four Days Only

SPECIAL TABLE — MAIN AISLE)

We Carry the Three Leading Makes in Women's FULL-FASHIONED SILK HOSIERY

PHOENIX GOLD STRIPE NO-MEND

ALL OF THESE MAKES WILL GIVE SATISFACTORY SERVICE

August Fur Sale

IT IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Offering Guaranteed Savings of 20 per cent on high grade Fur Coats in all the newest styles. Whether you want to buy now or not, we extend a general invitation to visit our Garment Section and see the fine showing of Furs which this August Sale offers. It will be a pleasure to show the new Coats.

THE AUGUST SALE PRICES

Silverside and Brown Coney Coats, self-trimmed or with Beaverette Collar and Cuffs, regular value $59.50—August Price $49.50

Leopardine Coat, with Beaverette Collar, Cuffs and Border, regular value $75.00—August Price $62.50

Extra quality Sable Coney Coat, with large collar and puff sleeves, regular value $75.00—August Price $62.50

Beautiful Sealine Coat, self-trimmed, with mushroom collar and puff sleeves, regular value $110.00—August Price $82.50

Brown Kit Goat Coat, with Fox Collar, a very serviceable Coat, regular value $119—August Price $89.50

Plain Beaverette Coat, with Mushroom Collar and puff sleeves, regular value $115.00—August Price $89.50

Sealine Coat, with Marmink Collar and Cuffs, splendid quality, regular value $115—August Price $95.00

Gray Kid Caracul Coat, with Wolf collar, stylish and serviceable, regular value $125—August Price $95.00

Sealine Coat, with Wanka Squirrel Collar and Cuffs, regular value $125.00—August Price $98.50

Beaverette Coat, with Fox Collar, excellent value, regular value $125.00—August Price $98.50

Fine quality Sealine Coat, with large shawl collar and cuffs of Marmink, regular value $129.00—August Price $105.00

Moline Coat, with large Gray Fox Collar, A beautiful coat, regular value $169.00—August Price $129.50

Fine Sealine Coat, with Natural Skunk Collar and Cuffs, regular value $159.50—August Price $129.50

Brown Caracul Coat, with large Fox Shawl Collar, regular value $189.50—August Price $149.50

Marmink Coat, with large shawl collar and turn-up cuffs, regular value $198.00—August Price $159.00

Sable Muskrat Coat, with Mushroom Collar and puff sleeves, regular value $185.00—August Price $159.00

Persian Paw Coat, with Mink Collar and Cuffs, regular value $215.00—August Price $169.00

Black Caracul Coat, with Natural Fox Collar and Cuffs, regular value $235.00—August Price $195.00

Silver Muskrat Coat, with Fox Collar, rich looking Fur, regular value $295.00—August Price $225.00

Genuine Scotch Mole Coat, with Collar, Cuffs and border of Sitka Fox, regular value $325.00—August Price $265.00

Brown American Broadtail Coat, with fine Fox Collar, Cuffs and border, regular value $350.00—August Price $269.00

Upon payment of a reasonable deposit Furs selected now, will be stored, free of charge, until fall. Charge customers, may at time of purchase, ask to have bills rendered November 1st.

1790 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 15c a week, 65c a month, $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3
Bulletin Job Room 35-5
Willimantic Office, 654 Main St. Telephone 1112.

Member of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Wednesday, August 11, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUGUST 7, 1926:
12,795

CLEMENCEAU'S APPEAL

No one knows any better than Georges Clemenceau that an open letter to President Coolidge in protest over the French debt settlement would draw no direct rejoinder from the president. It has already been indicated that the problem will be dealt with only by the debt funding commission created by congress solely for that purpose, and unofficial intervention is not welcomed. The "Tiger" has, however, done something intended to influence the trend of sentiment in his own country, and it would appear as if that might have been largely the purpose of his letter. Although he is no longer an active French political leader, he has many friends and supporters in France who will follow him because of their admiration for his remarkable personality. But to the American reader of the Clemenceau communication, it is apparent that such sentiments as he expresses, while they may be popular in France, will do little to hasten the end of the controversy or to restore normal financial conditions in his country.

At bottom Clemenceau's appeal is based upon sentiment, and the danger into which sentimentality may lead the greatest statesmen is illustrated in Clemenceau's presentation of the debt problem. When he says that the question involves considerations other than those of dollars and cents he is right. No one can doubt his sincerity or the accuracy of his declaration that France is not for sale. But the picture he draws is not, as a whole, either fair or true. The distortion is due to sentimentality and is sufficiently marked to weaken the effect of the arguments presented.

He professes to fear a final settlement of the debt, under American pressure, through the transfer of French colonial possessions to the United States, declaring: "Such a thing, Mr. President, I am bound to tell you we shall never accept." The French have no territory, that is coveted or ever will be coveted by the United States. It is equally unthinkable that the United States would ever attempt to collect the debt by force. There is no menace to French independence in America's loans.

Clearing up the financial chaos following the war has been the most gigantic undertaking in the history of the world, but some progress has been made by effecting agreements which, as is recognized, may be susceptible of later modification. In all of these settlements, which have been made with Great Britain, Italy and Belgium, all that the American congress has required is that debts should be funded according to the debtors' "capacity to pay." The American debt commission has interpreted this principle so liberally that Mussolini declared the terms he has received to be beyond criticism in their generosity. If the French, towards whom our traditional friendship is not abated one iota, would show their good faith by ratifying the agreement made by their representatives, they could have confidence that future developments and the American sense of fair play would take care of the debt installments as they mature. The ratification by the French of the debt settlement with this country would speedily mean less troubled days for Europe.

NEW YORK MILK GRAFTERS

One successful step accomplished in New York city has furnished the incentive to proceed further in running down the milk grafters and the scandal in the health department under former Mayor Hylan's regime. The conviction of William H. Kehoe, formerly an assistant corporation counsel, has been followed by the appointment by Mayor Walker of former Supreme Court Justice Charles H. Kelby to continue the investigation. Kehoe is convicted of conspiracy which had for its object the bootlegging of milk and cream upon which he is charged with having collected tribute at the rate of $1 per can. It was shown at the trial that he deposited $122,000 in a single bank during a period of two years, and his defense produced no convincing evidence that this large sum came from sources of legitimate enterprise. He is convicted of a peculiarly mean conspiracy which intended to evade the reasonable restrictions made for the protection of the public health. The obvious fairness and thoroughness of the trial justify the belief that the conviction will stand the test of appeal.

Kehoe's confession, the confession of one witness and the indictment of one of Kehoe's accomplices show the depths to which the health department administration had sunk when Mr. Hylan was mayor. But it is confidently expected that there are more revelations to come, and Mayor Walker's appointee will continue the investigations and prosecutions spoken of to fear the man to take this up. Men of milk contacts in society and enjoying the confidence and respect of all classes. The people of the city will expect him to be relentless and they will trust him to be impartial. Rumors of men higher up who have profited by the maladministration of an important city department will be followed up by Mr. Kelby, whose investigation will cover all the five boroughs and will show exactly how far the ramifications of a dirty conspiracy were extended.

THAT IOWA FLOP

Iowa republicans having nominated Col. Smith W. Brookhart for the senate in the June primary by an overwhelming vote over the late Senator Cummins, have turned around in their convention and selected David W. Stewart, a Cummins man, to fill the unexpired term of the deceased senator, which ends March 4 next.

Several reasons present themselves for this seeming flop. In the first place the nomination was made in convention and not in the primary, and the anti-Brookhart forces in the state have generally had control of the party organization. At the polls two months ago the organization was beaten to a frazzle by Brookhart. In a measure, Stewart, comparatively unknown in Iowa politics, has been dragged forward as a kind of compromise candidate between the Brookhart faction and the die-hards of the old guard. He is regarded as a progressive, although he campaigned for Cummins before the primary in June.

At a primary, doubtless Brookhart would have defeated any other candidate who might have been brought out against him. Certainly no man, as little known to voters as Stewart would have had a ghost of a show. But in a convention a vastly different situation is presented.

The people of Iowa were greatly incensed when the senate threw Col. Brookhart out last spring and seated Senator Daniel F. Steck, democrat, in his place. They believed that Brookhart had been properly elected and that the senate was in error in excluding him. Even former opponents of Brookhart voted for him in the primary for that reason. The same sense of a square deal among the people of Iowa may have had something to do with the selection of Stewart, a Cummins man, to fill out the Cummins term.

The democrats have announced that they will put no one in the field for the short term. Perhaps by not opposing Stewart, the regular, they hope to gain republican votes for Claude R. Porter, the democratic nominee for the long term against Brookhart. Mr. Porter, the democratic nominee for ator Steck in 1924, is the hope of receiving enough old guard republican votes in November to pass Col. Brookhart.

CLAIMS TO STATEHOOD

In view of the recent agitation for the admission of the Virgin Islands to statehood, it would not be at all surprising to find that Porto Ricans would be stimulated to renewed efforts to have their island share the same privilege. Should they do so, they would be able to present, in one respect at least, strong arguments for preference and priority in the consideration of their claim. Porto Rico has been a territorial possession of the United States since 1898, about 28 years, but it is only nine years ago that we bought the Virgin Islands from Denmark. In comparison with Porto Rico, the inhabitants of the Virgin Islands are thus comparative strongers in their experience with the American principles of government, while the Porto Ricans have had at least a generation in that field.

In the matter of population Porto Rico also puts the Virgin Islands into second place for consideration. According to the Porto Rico census of 1920, the population was divided as follows: White 948,709; black 49,246; mulatto 301,816; all others 38. Against this the Virgin Islands census in 1917 the year when the purchase was made, showed 19,523 blacks, 4,563 mulattos, and 1,922 whites. The value of the Virgin Islands is looked upon as principally from the military and naval point of view, but Porto Rico is rich in agricultural and mineral resources over its area of 3,435 square miles. The 132 square miles contained in the Virgin Islands make them insignificant from a territorial standpoint.

Whether conditions are ripe for the admission of either to statehood, it is apparent that when that time comes, Porto Rico would have no great task to establish its claim to prior consideration, should that question arise in regard to admission to statehood.

EDITORIAL NOTES

A bullet-proof vest for ministers of the gospel ought to find a ready sale in Kentucky.

The man on the corner says: It's a long way from a wet primary victory in Missouri to repeal of the Volstead act.

"Jersey lightning," had a reputation for being swift and sure, which Jersey justice is having a hard time to match.

The Fascist cabinet in Italy is going to choke out nonfascism, that being Italian political slang for carrying an election.

Nobody will deny Senator Borah's right to look forward to the White House, but his bill for field glasses will be a big one.

German financiers predict a fate for the paper French franc similar to that of the paper German mark. Misery loves company.

Sweden's crown prince was impressed with the industrial growth of the United States, one reason being that the Swedes had so much to do with it.

The crown princess of Sweden evidently was not angling for French friendship when she said the American women are the best dressed in the world.

Houdini spends 91 minutes in a metal casket at the bottom of a New York swimming pool. Besides other things, it is another way of escaping the heat wave.

The maps and the dictionaries have had to be re-made since the war, and it looks as if even the Ten Commandments might come in for a thorough reconstruction.

The New York actress who says she never pays less than $10 a pair for stockings probably had an ancestress who bought them four pairs for a dollar—or maybe didn't wear any.

THEY WANTED SHIRTS

The tall, handsome, courteous young man at the end of the shirt counter in the well known men's furnishing store greets the beginning of another shopping day with cheer and courage.

The first lady headed his way is of the stout, puffy brand and carries a large shopping bag, which she lays on top of the case, thereby obscuring a considerable portion of the wares beneath.

Stout lady (with satisfaction)—"Show me something a young man would like, and one quite along in years and my husband—oh, I don't know what color—just let me see 'em! No, I'd like 'em taken out of the case and off the shelves—I've got to get my hands on 'em before I can tell. Wash goods is so poor these days. George came home a while ago with a shirt that you could see right through when you held it up to the light. 'George,' I said to him, 'haven't you a mite of sense? You, an almost grown-up man, to be taken in by a pretty stripe that will vanish when it meets its first laundry tub!' I'm going to get him something durable, let me tell you! That might do, only he doesn't like yellow. Ever since he was a small boy and a neighbor's yellow cat scratched him like sixty that boy has a prejudice against that color—I am not taking up the whole counter, lady, and what if I am? I'm a customer buying things and you'll hafta wait—no, I can't move over! The nerve of some of these women who get downtown late! My husband might like that shirt, only it looks sort of dingy, don't you think? Maybe this blue and green and red stripe would be pretty. I've a notion to take the yellow one anyway—his size? My glory! I've come off without the slip that I wrote the sizes down on, and there isn't a bit of use in getting shirts that will hafta be exchanged, so guess I'll have to let 'em go this morning—I'll try and get back early tomorrow!"

Impatient woman pushing in—"Don't put these away. I think they're just what I—oh, dear no, not that quality! Something better—and all blues. My husband just won't look at a shirt that isn't blue. Is that all the blue you have? There's another in the case. Well, it looked blue when it was in there. No, I don't know his size, but he weighs 200. You can't tell from that? That's very funny, seems to me. Sleeve length? My goodness, how should I know? I thought men's sleeves were all alike! You're sure you've no more blues anywhere? Couldn't you pick out something sort of natty and that will wash well and be suitable for a hardware man who goes to lodge meetings—and have it wrapped and sent? Well, I like that! I thought this store made such a noise about trying to please customers! The idea!"

Sweet young thing with a low, alluring voice and come-hither eye—"A—a shirt, please, something pretty. It's—it's for my husband. No, I don't know his size—do you buy shirts by size? How funny! I thought they were just shirts and that was all there was to it! Dick had the prettiest shirt the summer we were first en—one summer, and I'd like to get another like it—a sort of olive and orange stripe with a thread of blue—you haven't? How funny! Will you have any in soon? Is that price mark right? Six dollars? For just a shirt! My goodness! Well, I guess you haven't anything I like at all."

Sharp-nosed woman (grabbing shirts with both hands and trailing them across to the light—"You can't tell a thing about goods until you see it in daylight, and I suppose that is why there isn't any daylight here! I'll tell you what I want, young man, after I've examined your goods and made up my mind, thank you, and I don't need any advice. I've bought shirts for brothers and husbands and friends for years and what I don't know about shirts—have you something for about a dollar sixty-five? In the basement? Oh, I never trade in the basement! The idea!"

About 4 o'clock a small, quiet woman edges in and hands the distraught young man a slip of paper. "The sizes and sleeve lengths are written down there," she says. "And my address. Send me five $6 white broadcloth shirts and charge."

"I'll be all right in a minute," the erstwhile handsome clerk muttered to those pouring water on his pale brow. "It was the shock! I didn't imagine there was such a woman left on earth!"—Chicago News.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Edward Miner Gallaudet Memorial Fund

Mr. Editor: The alumni of Gallaudet College for the Deaf at Washington, D. C., are trying to raise $50,000 for a memorial building in honor of its founder and president for fifty-six years, Dr. Edward M. Gallaudet. He was born and raised in Hartford, graduated from Trinity college in 1836 with the degree of B. S. and later received the honorary degree of LL. D. from the college in recognition of his remarkable achievements in his chosen field.

Dr. Gallaudet began his distinguished career as an educator at the American School for the Deaf as an instructor. He returned to Hartford to spend his declining years and was elected to the board of directors of the American school, on which he was an outstanding member. The alumni urged that the college be named after him but he declined with characteristic modesty and so it was named after his father, the celebrated founder of the instruction for the deaf in this country.

Connecticut, and especially Hartford, is famous as the location of the first permanent school for the deaf in this country and as the home of the Gallaudets and ought to lead the way in completing its quota of the tribute to the man who carried to fruition his father's dream of a higher education for the deaf. However, the far western states of Oregon and Idaho blazed the way to the goal. A new building is needed as Gallaudet to house the library and to contain a new gymnasium and provide an auditorium for parties, dances, lectures, moving pictures and dramatic performances. The alumni have raised about $17,000 and are forced to appeal to all the deaf and their hearing friends for assistance in raising the balance of the fund.

Connecticut's quota is only $598 of which $504 has already been raised. The quota for New London county is $45 of which $28 has been received; for Windham county $22 of which $8 has been contributed and nothing has been received on the Tolland county quota of $10. The memorial would not only be a recognition of Dr. Gallaudet's distinguished services in behalf of the deaf but it is a monument to one of Trinity's most eminent graduates. The college is the only college for the deaf in the world and is responsible for the higher intellectual, moral, religious and economic standing of the deaf in this country as compared with other countries. In England, for example, there are no deaf teachers or clergymen, a common occurrence in this country.

Connecticut people who desire to help this worthy cause are asked to make checks payable to the E. M. Gallaudet Memorial fund and mail them to the undersigned.

EDWARD P. CLARKE
322 Wethersfield Ave., Hartford, Ct.
Aug. 9, 1926.

Women Voters Aroused

Mr. Editor: Day after day, week after week, we see and hear about the evidence that there are those holding office who should not be reelected, if for no other reason because they do not try to uphold the United States Constitution and enforce the prohibition laws.

Perhaps women would be as careless as men, perhaps women grand jurors would be as slow to act as men, but why no try one year at least to see what women will do.

There are enough women voters with the help of men who would like to stop moonshine and bootleg business too. State police, county deputies, and constables are helpless with grand jurors in office who do not try to enforce the law. Women are the people to suffer if a husband comes home drunk and women should wake up to present conditions, go to the caucuses of both parties, nominate women grand jurors and back them up after election.

Come on women voters, let's dry up Connecticut.

A CANTERBURY WOMAN
Aug. 7, 1926.

Today's Anniversaries

1847—Benjamin R. Tillman, governor of South Carolina and United States senator, born in Edgefield county, S. C. Died in 1918.
1848—Grand illumination in San Francisco in celebration of peace between the United States and Mexico.
1856—The National Teachers' association opened its first anniversary convention in Cincinnati.
1876—The British house of lords was reconstructed as a court of final appeal.
1890—John Henry Newman, the great English cardinal, died in Birmingham. Born in London, Feb. 21, 1801.
1901—Francesco Crispi, eminent Italian statesman, died in Naples. Born in Sicily, Oct. 4, 1819.
1914—France declared war on Austria-Hungary and Montenegro declared war on Germany.
1924—John W. Davis, at Clarksburg, W. Va., accepted in a radio broadcast address the democratic nomination for president.
1925—The United States battleship fleet was enthusiastically received at Auckland, New Zealand.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

George W. Norris of Nebraska, who is expected to become chairman of the senate judiciary committee in succession to the late Senator Cummins of Iowa, has been one of the representatives of Nebraska in the upper house since 1913. As leader of the insurgent republican forces and chairman of the radical bloc he has in recent years been one of the most conspicuous members of the national law-making body. His record as a "progressive" was made first in the house of representatives during a ten years' term of service. He was then a leader in the revolt against the control of his party by elements that he believed to be reactionary, and in his general attitude he sympathized with the policies of Theodore Roosevelt. Senator Norris began life as a farm boy in Ohio. Afterward he taught school, thus earning the money to attend college and study law. He was admitted to the bar in 1883 and began practice in McCook county, Nebraska, in 1885.

Stories That Recall Others

Not Typewriting, Chemistry

A colored woman of ample proportions came into the office of Frederick Eq Schortemeier, secretary of state, not long ago and inquired whether a position could be found for her daughter. She explained that the girl was a high school graduate.

"Can she do any typewriting?" the secretary asked.

"Oh, yes," replied the mother.

"I suppose she studied it in school" Mr. Schortemeier asked.

"No, but she took chemistry," was the reply.

Security

A man dashed into the sanctum of his banker, reports an English paper, and asked for an immediate loan of 50 pounds.

"Yes," demurred the foficial, "but where's your security, Mr. Jones? I must have something, a bond or—"

"Ere, 'ere!" interrupted the applicant excitedly. "I've got the finest security in the world." He produced his poker hand with a flourish. "Four aces! Carry up, the game is waiting."

Today's Birthdays

Gifford Pinchot, governor of Pennsylvania and late candidate for senator, born at Simsburg, Conn., 61 years ago today.

Dr. Louis B. Hopkins, the new president of Wabash college, born at Hopkinton, N. H., 45 years ago today.

Joseph Weber, celebrated comedian and theatrical producer, born in New York city, 59 years ago today.

Earl Brower, former governor of Mississippi, born in Carrollton county, Miss., 56 years ago today.

IN THE DAYS NEWS

WHEN IS A FARM?

Recent English laws may abolish the grandfather of farms. It is the feudal farm of Lord Manvers in Nottinghamshire. If it goes a living picture of what English countryside looked like in the dark ages will disappear.

The feudal farm, some American farms, and a 35,000-acre ranch for "manufacturing wheat," are contrasted in a bulletin of the National Geographic society from its headquarters in Washington, D. C.

"The American Corn Belt farmer, who seldom deals in smaller units than 'the back forty' acres, or 'the west eighty,' would laugh heartily at one of Lord Manvers' feudal farm plots" says the bulletin. "Although the Nottinghamshire Manor has, in all, 900 acres, quite a satisfactory farm even by Corn Belt standards, it is divided into 1200 parcels of land. Each plot, averaging three-fourths of an acre, is separated from its neighbors by a path or dyke of sod. The plots are grouped in three fields of 300 acres each.

"The American farmer would be shocked by the utter wastefulness of the feudal system of agriculture. One of the three 300-acre fields lies fallow each year. To the feudal farmer's limited knowledge that was the only way of enabling land to recover its strength. The strips are too narrow to permit proper cultivation by cross harrowing. Moreover, the tenants' strips are all mixed up with Lord Manvers' strips, so that a cultivator must spend a good portion of the day walking from one job to another. Of course he must help work Manvers' plots too. No Manvers tenant lives on his rented land, since the plots are reallotted each year. The tenant cottages are tucked up close to the dignified and protecting walls of the manor castle.

"Dictionary compilers are taxed to define 'farm' as it is understood in the United States. A farm in New Hampshire is different from a farm in the Corn Belt States and neither of these types has a speaking acquaintance with a California 'farm.' One of the chief farm implements in New Hampshire is a crowbar. But your New Hampshire or Vermont farmer at least has the satisfaction of a permanent monument in stone fences to his work of sifting soil from rocks.

"In California a farm is a freak establishment. If you own land which raises oranges or lemons it is a grove. If you raise cattle, hogs, beans, beets or the like, it is a ranch. But if you grow alligators you operate an alligator farm. Southern California boasts of ostrich farms, goldfish farms, frog farms, rabbit farms, pigeon and two butterfly farms. But exhibit A in 'farms' is the lion farm at El Monte. About 75 lions thrive there on a five acre tract which is planted with North African shrubs. The lion farmer sells his stock on the hoof to the movies, zoos and circuses. He, at least, is a farmer who does not care what the weather will be tomorrow.

"A novel type of farm in North America is in the province of Quebec, Canada. Agriculture east of the city of Quebec, on the northern banks of the St. Lawrence river, is confined to a narrow strip between the Laurentian mountains and the river. The typical farm of a French habitant on this Beaupre coast is one arpent, or 200 feet, wide and from two to three miles long. This curious unwieldly shoestring farm is a direct survival of French colonization previous to the capture of Quebec by Wolfe in 1759. In early colonial times the St. Lawrence river was the only 'road,' so the residents, like the Dutch patrons on the Hudson, and the Virginia planters on the James, insisted on having land fronting on a river. While no pioneer was a greater roamer and adventurer in strange places than the French fur trader, the French habitant clung to his land as tenaciously as his kinsmen do in France. Many fences running together at the mountains like railroad tracks, have been held in the same families for more than 200 years.

"In France itself the financial troubles of the whole nation are often attributed to the small size of the farms. Two-thirds of the 5,700,000 farmers of France own less than 25 acres. Only 30,280 farmers own more than 250 acres, and less than 5000 individuals have more than 750 acres. The French custom of dividing the land among the children is said to result in minute division of land.

"Yet neither the feudal land parcels nor the French farms are as small as the staircase farms of the Incas. The Inca Indian, most remarkable of all agriculturists the world has even seen, terraced mountain sides steeper than the average slope of a roof. He grew potatoes, corn, peanuts, lima beans, pineapples, sweet potatoes and cotton on artificial shelves sometimes as narrow as three or four feet. He was a modern farmer at the time your European forefathers still shivered in skins and lived by the spear. The National Geographic society expedition to Machu Picchu, capital of the Incas found many banks with 50 or more terraces 10 feet high. This is equal to 500 feet, so anyone who has climbed the 898 steps of the Washington monument can appreciate the task of the Inca farmer merely in going to work.

"Probably the largest single 'farm,' if it may be called such, which has been held in the United States, is Maryland. Lord Baltimore was the sole proprietor of the grant and to this day all deeds in the state go back to his title. The English settlers coming to the southern colonies had a passion for land. They liked to be lords of all they surveyed, and placed their manor houses accordingly. One of the most famous land owners was William Fitzhugh, who acquired more than 50,000 acres. George Washington's Mount Vernon farm of 8,000 acres was small beside this.

"Thirty-five thousand acres is the size of a remarkable wheat ranch in Montana, where a college-trained farmer has introduced modern factory methods for producing grain. Machines do most of the work, and the cost accountant is one of the most valuable employees. On the same day that a tenant is plowing up a two-thirds acre plot on Lord Manvers' feudal farm, 15 tractors pulling gang plows break a 150-foot furrow six miles long. They plow a square mile a day."

Reddy and Jimmy See an Oyster Opened

Despise nobody, lest you find
That to their talents you've been blind
—Old Mother Nature.

Reddy Fox and Jimmy Skunk were staring down into a pool of water at the bottom of which lay several oysters. Creeping along the bottom was a queer fellow, having five arms, so that he made a perfect star. Of course, you know what it was. It was a starfish. Now, the starfish isn't a true fish, in spite of the fact that it is called starfish. Both Reddy and Jimmy had seen starfish before, many of them. They had found them crawling up on the shore dead. At least, they were dead so far as they knew. It never had occurred to them to think that these queer things could ever have been alive. So when they saw this one actually crawling along the sand at the bottom of this little pool, they had hard work to believe that they were not mistaken.

"Now, how can a think like that without any legs and without any fins move?" demanded Reddy.

"I don't know," replied Jimmy. "I wish he were a little closer, so we could see. But it does move. Look. It is crawling right over that oyster."

Sure enough, the starfish had moved over onto one of the oysters. But there it stopped moving. The attention of Reddy and Jimmy was drawn to something else and for a little while they forgot about the starfish. Reddy happened to think of it and looked down in the pool to see if it had moved. "Jimmy!" cried Reddy excitedly. "Will you look at this?"

Jimmy looked. At first he didn't see anything unusual. Then he noticed that the starfish seemed to be folded around that oyster. Yes, sir, that's the way it looked.

"What do you suppose he's doing?" asked Reddy.

"I haven't the least idea," replied Jimmy. "Let's watch and see."

So, having nothing better to do, they sat down and watched. For a long time they couldn't see that anything was happening. Then suddenly Jimmy leaned over with his nose close to the water that he might see down in better. At least, he thought he could see better that way. "As I live!" he exclaimed, "that oyster is opening! Now, what do you know about that?"

Reddy leaned forward. Sure enough, it did look as if the edge of that shell was parting. It was hard to believe, but it looked that way. They looked at the other oysters. None of the others were opening.

"I wonder why that particular oyster is opening," said Reddy. "I shouldn't think it would open with that fellow fastened to it."

"Do you know what I think?" exclaimed Jimmy.

"What do you think?" demanded Reddy.

"I think that somehow or other that fellow is making that oyster open."

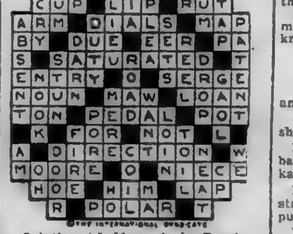
"Nonsense!" exclaimed Reddy. "I don't believe anything could open an oyster. Certainly that thing couldn't."

But there was no doubt about it, that oyster was slowly but surely opening. It was opening very slowly, but it was opening, and it looked decidedly as if that starfish had something to do with it. He did. He was opening that oyster. On the under side of that starfish were hundreds of little suckers like feet. These were fast to the shell, and by means of the five arms the shell was being pulled open. It didn't seem possible, but it was possible, and it was being done right under the eyes of Reddy Fox and Jimmy Skunk.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess)

"As I live!" he exclaimed. "The oyster is opening!"

The next story: "The Convenient Stomach."



Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

POETRY

Canopus

When quacks with pills political would dope us,
When politics absorbs the livelong day,
I like to think about the star Canopus—
So far, so far away.

Greatest of visioned suns, they say, who liar 'em;
To weigh it, science almost must despair.
Its shell would hold our whole dinged solar system,
Nor even know 'twas there.

When temporary chairmen utter speeches,
And frenzied henchmen howl their baltic hymns,
My thoughts float out across the cosmic reaches
To where Canopus swims.

When men are calling names and making faces,
And all the world's a-jangle and ajar,
I meditate on interstellar spaces
And smoke a mild segar.

For after one has had about a week of
The argument to friends as well as foes,
A star that has no parallax to speak of Conduces to repose.

—Bert Leston Taylor

A Conjecture

I wonder, dear, if you had been
The maiden queen's pet maid of honor,
A flower of that fair time wherein
A court of roses smiled upon her.

And if erewhile, by Trojan wall
Had fiercely fought for Grecian glory,
Beheld the pride of Priam fall,
And home in Athens told the story.

Whether up wandering in the glow
Of the Hereafter's radiant spaces,
Would there have mutely met, and so
Been love make bright our yearning faces.

—Charles Francis Richardson.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Fat Man (in a movie to little boy sitting behind him): "Can't you see, little fellow?"

Little Fellow: "Not a thing."

Fat Man: "Then keep your eye on me and laugh when I do."—Knickerbocker Press.

"The Notmuch family are great aspirants for social honors, are they not?"

"I should say so. Why, they are such climbers that they have even named their youngest daughter Ivy."—Boston Transcript.

Mother: "But why did you fight with this boy—a total stranger?"

Small Son: "Well, Mother, all my friends were away."—London Opinion.

Bus Magnate (testily): "Well, what do you want? Be short."

Prodigal Son (startled to the occasion): "I will, I am."—Tatler.

Judge—You weren't satisfied to eat a dinner at the complainant's restaurant without paying for it, you pocketed his forks and spoons besides.

Prisoner—I know, yer honor, but I took 'em from honest motives. I was goin' to raise money on 'em to pay for the dinner.—Exchange.

Madge: Beauty is but skin deep, you know.

Marie: Then don't despair, dear, yours may come to the surface in course of time.—Exchange.

She: So you think men get bald from thinking so much?

He: Well, I leave it to you—how many bald-headed women do you know?—Brown Jug.

KALEIDOSCOPE

When a fly eats sugar it spits on it and sucks the sweet solution.

Airplane pictures taken obliquely show the ground in perspective.

It is asserted that certain kinds of bacteria convert fertile soils into alkali wastes.

Eyeglasses recently were used to straighten the eyes of a cross-eyed puppy.

In 1913 there were six rubber manufacturers in Japan; now there are 180.

In summer the Washington Monument expands five and one-half inches in height.

The hottest stars probably reach a temperature as high as 40,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

E. Hoiboell, of Charlottenlund, a suburb of Copenhagen, invented the Christmas seal.

A reinforced concrete chimney, 400 feet high, said to be the tallest of its kind in America, was recently built at Trail, British Columbia.

The sun's force of gravity is so stronge that if a man could be carried to the sun he would be flattened to the proverbial pancake thinness.

The United States bureau of fisheries rescues millions of fish each year from land-locked ponds caused by the overflow of the Mississippi and some of its tributaries.

Discarded auto tires are now made into shoes that are worn by Spanish peasants. Similar shoes are worn by the Chinese and by native blacks in South African diamond mines.

Hens in Canada are becoming more efficient. Average annual egg production a hen increased from 78 in 1923 to 82 in 1925, a gain of four eggs a hen, according to a bulletin issued by the Canadian federal department of agriculture.

Over a period of seven years, San Francisco police have recovered 93 per cent of automobiles stolen within their jurisdiction, according to figures recently tabulated. A squad of 17 men under command of a lieutenant, devotes full time to stolen car complaints.

An air stream, blowing 700 miles an hour, has been perfected by the bureau of standards for testing airplane propellors. The experiments with the new high pressure air steam have shown that thin metal propellors, now coming into use, are more efficient at very high speeds than wooden propellors.

English postmen are demanded a new style of hat. The present official headgear of the postoffice department, a medium between a fireman's helmet and the cap of an ancient piece of armor, has become antiquated. The Postmen's Union declares. The union is petitioning the department to adopt a hat similar to that worn by mailmen in the United States.

Specimens of Kenya rats recently received at the London zoological gardens from Africa, are between three and four feet in length with a row of teeth like a fox terrier. They are the Titan sof the rat world. To add to their ferocious appearance they have cheek pouches which they can fill with nuts, fruits and grain until their heads bulge out to twice their normal size.

A Most Remarkable Showing
—of—
HIGH-GRADE FURS
—at—
Macpherson's, The Furrier

A PRE-SEASON SHOWING FOR ADVANCE SALF AT PERSUASIVE PRICES.

In thirty years of fur selling we have never placed before the Norwich public so complete a line at such attractive prices for better grades as we show this season in our August Fur Sale.

This store is, and has been, recognized as the authority on both fur fashions and dependable peltry. Our record is your guarantee of fair dealing and full values. Select your garments now, save on the price, secure honest values and pay in easy payments.

Macpherson, The Furrier
QUALITY CORNER

CLOSE-OUT SALE OF
LAWN MOWERS
$8.50 Machine $7.00
$12.00 Machine $10.00
$15.00 Machine $12.50

THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

BABY'S CHAFED SKIN

INSTANTLY RELIEVED BY

Comfort POWDER

HEALS THE SKIN

OVER 30 YEARS NOTHING AS GOOD

Special Wednesday

Vermont's Finest BUTTER

1 lb. Prints 49c

SHOULDER STEAK

lb. 24c

CUT FROM WESTERN STEER BEEF

J. M. Young & Sons

SAYS THOUSANDS OF DRIVERS NOT COMPETENT

At least 10,000 persons are driving automobiles in this state without proper operators' licenses.

The state motor vehicle department is seriously considering ways and means for reexamining operators who obtained their first licenses years ago before modern conditions of traffic had arisen.

The age requirement for licensed operators should be reduced to sixteen years.

These are the chief points made by Rozman B. Stoeckel, state commissioner of motor vehicles, in discussing present day conditions of automobile traffic in this state.

Commissioner Stoeckel said that the number he gave for unlicensed operators was based purely on personal estimate, since the records of his department contained nothing that would make a more scientific estimate possible. He arrived at the figure 10,000 by concluding that five per cent. of all the automobile drivers in the state were without proper licenses.

A large proportion of the number, the commissioner said, was made up of thoughtless motorists who forgot to renew their licenses at the expiration dates. This condition, he said, was reflected in the fact that as soon as the police in any part of the state began a campaign against automobile drivers, a great many drivers from that section would hasten to the capitol to perfect their faulty licenses. He remarked that it was not unusual for drivers to allow their licenses to lapse for a year at a time.

But the commissioner thought that very few drivers without licenses operated their cars with an intentional disregard for the law. Willful violators, he said, were chiefly those who for some reason or other could not get licenses. He admitted, however, that a great deal of driving without licenses took place among college students. This, he said, was not necessarily a serious condition, because nine times out of ten, the student did not own the car he drove and his driving was the result of impulse or force or circumstance.

Commissioner Stoeckel said that the tendency in all states was to make the examination of applicants for drivers licenses more strict. But he pointed out that the strictness of the examination depended upon the number of examiners that were provided. Thus he said in Connecticut, where the state had only twenty officers to conduct examination of seventy thousand applicants each year, the examination necessarily could not be so detailed as that given in Pennsylvania, where the state has ample funds to provide proportionately a much larger number of examiners. In this state the commissioner said, it was his policy to stress the mental condition of the applicant. The examination therefore, varied in strictness according to the apparent mental capacity of the applicant. Hence one who to the examiner appeared to have a low quotient of intelligence was submitted to a much more rigorous examination than one who was normal and therefore could quickly learn what he did not already know about driving.

An intelligence test, a law test, a driving test and an examination of the applicant's physical defects, it is also recommended that more should be done in the discipline and education of all operators while licensed. The commissioner said that one of the chief difficulties in inter-state automobile relations at present was the lack of uniformity in drivers' tests.

A condition among automobile drivers which Commissioner Stoeckel thinks should as soon as possible be corrected is the fact that a large number of older drivers are no longer competent to drive in modern traffic. In his opinion, the motor vehicle department of each state should institute a re-examination of all drivers who were licensed years ago. He thinks that such an investigation would disclose that a large number of regularly licensed drivers have, since their first examination for one reason or another, become incompetent.

It is the older men, Commissioner Stoeckel thinks, who are most likely to be incompetent. He explains this theory on the ground that an elderly man has more difficulty in adjusting himself to changing traffic conditions than a younger one.

TRUMBULL TO STUMP FOR GOV. BREWSTER IN MAINE

HARTFORD, Aug. 10—(AP)—Governor Trumbull will figure prominently in Maine politics some time within the next two weeks, when he will take the stump in behalf of Governor Brewster, candidate for re-election as governor of Maine. Governor Trumbull has promised the Maine executive that he will deliver one speech for him that is to be probably at Bangor at a date yet to be chosen.

Governor Trumbull and his family, accompanied by Colonel Charles H. Allen of his staff and his family, will leave for Moosehead Lake, Maine, on Saturday night, on a two weeks' vacation. The governor said today that as the Maine gubernatorial elections were held in September, his trip to Maine at this time affords him ample opportunity to keep his promise to speak in Governor Brewster's campaign.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms; modern improvements; garage. Call [illegible] School St. or at N. Y. Shoe Store. [illegible] augl1d

1776 1926

Norwich, Wednesday, August 11, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 7:28 (S. T.) this evening.

Everett Barlow of Westford has a severely sprained ankle, caused by a log rolling against it.

Mrs. Herbert W. Gallup will be hostess at D. A. R. museum from 3 to 6 p. m. today (Wednesday).

Howard Pratt has put in two concrete bridges at East Willington for the state road department.

Rail trouble delayed the Norwich Town cars late Tuesday afternoon, so that several trips were missed.

A number of ornamental flower beds near the entrance to Yantic cemetery are growing thriftily this season.

Next Sunday Dr. Clarence M. Gallup of Providence is to be the preacher at the Central Baptist church.

Squash vines in some local gardens have grown to unusual length this month and have produced a good crop.

Numerous quiet outing parties are enjoying the beauties of Lowthorpe Meadows at Norwich Town these summer days.

Good weather has favored the street department in hurrying along the road repairs on Washington street, near Backus hospital.

From Abington Carl Sharpe and family are spending three weeks at Oakland Beach. Priscilla Elliott is staying with them.

Having spent the winter in Florida, Mrs. Sarah Wolfe has arrived to open her cottage on Wesley circle, at Willimantic camp ground.

Horace White has concluded his work at the Lathrop Machine company in Mystic and has secured employment in Norwich.

At Long Pond, Lantern Hill, the ten cottages on the east side and the six cottages on the west side are occupied by their owners for the season.

Mrs. Charles H. Preston, who died in Norwich Monday, was a sister of the late Annie France Torrance, wife of Chief Justice David A. Torrance.

Arrangements have been made for Rev. Charles E. Reeves of Norwich to occupy the pulpit of Central Village Congregational church Sunday, August 22.

Government markers are being placed on 53 graves of veterans of Willington who fought in the French and Indian, Revolutionary, Mexican and Civil wars.

The flowers on the altar of St. James' Episcopal church, Poquetanuck, Sunday morning, were given by Miss Mabel Day from her gladioli gardens at Fort Point.

A section of the city which is outstanding still is that known as East Great Plain, where building continues, many cosy and some very pretentious houses being erected there.

In addition to a varied display of early dahlias and other flowers, W. F. Brown formerly of the East Side, Norwich, has grown some fine gladioli at his home in Uncasville.

Imported ribbons in fancy tinsel effects are selling well and there is a market tendency toward moire grosgrains, reflecting the broad silk development of this material.

The Farnsworth mill at Central Village continues on with curtailed production, not many aside from the overseers being employed at present. New orders are hoped for as soon as the season opens.

The fire department of Warehouse Point has selected Ralph Gesner and Irwin Mayer as delegates to the annual convention of the State Firemen's association to be held in New London on the 18th and 19th.

The surf at Watch Hill has been remarkably rough for several days, due in large part to a storm at sea, and high tide the water has extended upward under the pavilions and board walks along the ocean front.

Herbert H. Davis and his tractor and a large number of volunteer residents, following up previous work done by them, have emade marked improvements to the openway and bathing beach on the east side at Lord's Point.

The United States civil service commission has been seeking a policewoman for the metropolitan police department, Washington, D. C. The salaries in the police department are class 1, $1,500; class 2, $1,900; class 3, $2,100.

Harvesting of the open field tobacco in Connecticut is not quite ready yet, it taking at least two weeks more of growing weather to mature the plants. Some of the shade grown crops are receiving first picking of the leaves under cloth.

Italian Catholics here have been invited to Waterbury, where their countrymen are to have a big celebration, two days, Friday and Saturday, ending with fireworks, the annual commemoration of the feast of Madonna Della Assunta.

The Willows on Chase Hill Hopkinton, still shelters Emeline Wells and Adeline Wells Barber, 79-year-old twin sisters, born there Feb. 15, 1847. The sisters are the children of the late Peter C. Wells and Eliza Stillman Wells.

At Old Saybrook Richard Sableski of New Haven, while at work with the construction gang on the new work at the Junction had his feet crushed when a rail, while hthe gang was carrying, slipped. He was taken to the hospital in New Haven.

There was a procession of the Holy Ghost society of Stonington Sunday evening when the emblem was taken from the Charles Souza to that of Joseph Medaria on Omega street. August 15 it will go to the home of Joseph Pont, on Gold street.

James A. Ryan, head bookkeeper at the Rockville branch of Armour & Co., took up work in Hartford Monday. He has been employed by the Armour concern for 14 years, coming to Rockville in 1912. For the present he will continue to live in Rockville, but will later move to Hartford.

Mrs. John H. Trumbull and her daughters, Miss Florence Trumbull and Miss Jean Trumbull, will leave Waterbury this week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Halsey Allen of Rockville, and Brooke Cadwallader, for Moosehead lake, Me. They will be joined later by Gov. Trumbull.

WILL NAME MEMBER OF COMMISSION THIS WEEK

The new member of the state tuberculosis commission will be named this week, according to an announcement made by Governor John H. Trumbull. The governor has before him the applications of more than 100 persons, of which a half dozen have the backing of various wings of the republican party and who stand out head and shoulders above various individuals who wrote personal communications in quest of the berth.

The governor expects to announce his choice before Saturday when he leaves the capitol for a vacation period at Moosehead Lake, Me. He will return to the executive offices at Hartford after Labor Day.

PERSONALS

Richmond Carr of Norwich spent the week end with friends in Pine Grove, Niantic.

Miss Maybelle Scott and her niece, Miss Dorothy Scott, of Town street, are passing a few weeks in Rockville.

Miss Bella Scott of Edinburgh, Scotland is spending a week as the guest of her brother George Scott of Lafayette street.

Mrs. Rowland of Providence and Mrs. F. Kelsey of Norwich have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Chesebro at Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Pendleton and family have returned after spending three weeks in Hartford with Mr. Pendleton's mother, Mrs. H. E. Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sharaf of New London, entertained a party of 28 at a dinner party at Levy's hotel in Colchester Sunday afternoon in honor of their 15th wedding anniversary.

Miss Bessie M. Grant of Scotland road and Miss Lillian Browning of Plain Hill, having joined a personally conducted party, left Monday for Philadelphia, where they will spend ten days at the sesqui-centennial.

Mrs. Flora B. Wheeler motored to Atlantic Beach, R. I., Sunday accompanied by her children Florence, Woodard, and Nathan, also Fillmore Sage and John Whitechekowski of Norwich Town and Ralph Davis of Canterbury.

Mrs. Catherine W. Daly of 288 Central avenue, Norwich, entertained for a fortnight Annie and Rita Skelly, the little daughters of her niece, Mrs. J. Stafford Skelly, of Hartford, who have also visited relatives on West Thames street for a week.

B. Frank Noyes of Hastings, Neb., head of the violin department of Hastings college, and Mrs. Noyes, head of the French department of the same college, are spending a vacation at the home of Mr. Noyes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noyes, of Pequonoc Bridge.

FUNERAL

Zebulon Reath Robbins

Funeral services for Zebulon Reath Robbins were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his late home, 68 Cliff street, the service being conducted by Rev. Samuel H. Howe, D. D., pastor of Park Congregational church. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service and the many floral tributes bore testimony to the love and esteem in which Mr. Robbins was held by all who knew him.

Burial was in Yantic cemetery, where the committal service was read by Rev. Dr. Howe. The honorary bearers were J. P. Holloway, Charles B. Lee, William T. Crandall, Henry L. Bennett, Charles R. Butts and William A. Aycrigg. Arrangements for the funeral were in charge of Church & Allen.

WEDDINGS

Sullivan-Monaher

Miss Katherine L. Monaher, daughter of Joseph P. Monaher of 41 Park street and John J. Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan of No. 40 Oak street were united in marriage Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Memorial church by Rev. William A. Keefe, the pastor. The matron of honor was Mrs. Elizabeth M. Sheridan, sister of the bride, and Denn's J. Donovan.

The bride was gowned in white flat crepe, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The matron of honor wore belfe blue crepe and carried Columbia roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, relatives and friends being present.

After a wedding tour through New York state Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan are to reside at No. 129 Cliff street.

Bedard-Boucher

The wedding of Miss Alice Boucher and Hildevert Bedard took place Monday morning at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's church, Hartford. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hormisdas C. Belec. The maid of honor was Miss Aime R. Boucher, sister of the bride, and Godfar Lamontagne, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride on Valley street, at which guests were present from Meriden, New London, Norwich, Berlin, New Haven and Rochedale, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Bedard left for a wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec, Canada, after which they will be at home after September at No. 279 Ash street.

EAST SIDE CHILDREN HOLD ANNUAL CARNIVAL

The East Side playgrounds held its annual carnival at the Bishop school grounds on the East Side Tuesday evening with a large number in attendance. Everything was run off in a successful manner.

There was everything that goes to make up a larger show of this sort, including the side shows with the various freaks of nature, the athletic show where the wrestling and boxing bouts were staged and the booths where the ice cream, soda water, candy, etc., were dispensed to the large numbers in attendance.

Miss Mildred Peckham, instructor at this ground, was in charge of the affair and much credit is due her for the successful manner in which the affair was carried out.

The proceeds from the carnival will be used to help defray expenses for an outing for the children of this center later in the season.

Norwich Suffers Loss

Zebulon R. Robbins, of Norwich, one of the old republican "war horses" of that city, has passed away at the age of 76. He was for years prominent in the civil affairs of the town, holding various municipal offices which he filled with credit, and serving a long time as state central committeeman for his district, which comprises also the towns of Preston and Ledyard. Mr. Robbins was among the chief lieutenants of Charles D. Noyes, formerly county commissioner, now publisher of the Norwich Bulletin and until quite recently the leading republican organizer in the northern part of the county, frequently prominent in legislative battles and in convention halls, as to the latter, rather spectacularly during the Lake-Goodwin campaign, of ill-fated memory from whichever side one recalls it, or even in the middle.

Mr. Robbins, too, often came to Hartford and was well thought of at the capitol. He was interested in educational matters and a good many dispositions of legislation relative to Norwich corporations, public and otherwise. His courtesy and good appearance—almost always with a carnation in his lapel, his pleasant manners and graciousness even in defeat—made him rather difficult to forget.

In his social circles at home, which were of the best; in his fraternities and church, Norwich had in him one of its familiar and warmly esteemed figures. He was the father of State Senator Lee Roy Robbins, who in the last general assembly served his first term. —Hartford Times.

The Norwich almshouse is looking spic and span, after improvements which included laying new floors, painting inside and out, etc. Supt. and Mrs. Charles E. Ellis would welcome visitors, to see how the town's $3,000 has been spent for the comfort of the 14 women and 24 men in the household.

TOWN SCHOOL BOARD NAMES TWO TEACHERS AT AUGUST MEETING

Two resignations were received and two appointments were made for teachers in the grade schools of the towns at the August meeting of the town school board Tuesday night at the office of Superintendent E. J. Graham at the court house. The meeting was in charge of Walter F. Lester, chairman of the board and there was a good representation of members.

Resignations accepted by the board were those of Miss Marion L. Bailey as kindergarten teacher at Broadway school and Miss Ethel Odgers, special teacher at the Bishop school.

Appointments made were Miss Katherine V. Lynch, as yet unassigned and Miss Madeline Sullivan, who will probably be assigned to the kindergarten department at Broadway grammar school.

A discussion of the proposed school building for Norwich Town took place during the meeting and it was stated that plans would probably be at hand not later than Monday, August 16th. The board will meet as soon as these become available and after selection of the design best fitted for the school at Norwich Town, will call for bids from contractors. It is likely that the board will hold a number of special meetings until after bids have been received and the contracts awarded.

The new school, which is to be constructed on the Geer property at Norwich Town, the school yards to occupy several adjoining pieces of property, will be a sixteen-room school, with a large auditorium, also rooms fitted for domestic science and manual training departments. It is probable that the design for the building will be along the colonial type, rather than the straight, hard and cold square type of school building.

The members of the board also reported that practically all repair work in the various schools had been completed, although some additional work may be done at a later date, and that everything is in readiness for the opening of the schools on Wednesday, September 8th, for the fall term.

All teachers have been secured and some are yet to be assigned to their grades and schools, any vacancies occurring between now and the opening of the schools to be filled at any of the special meetings the board will be holding during the next several weeks.

OVER 500 NEW LONDON COUNTY COWS TESTED

In his monthly report submitted to County Agent Walter T. Clark, W. L. Spencer, cow tester for New London county shows that during July 502 cows in 24 herds were tested. The five highest herds and the month's honor roll follow:

Owner-Breed	No. Cows	Ave. Lbs. Milk	Ave. B. F.
Thomas Wood, Holstein	9	12.96.6	39.59
Reuben Manning, Holstein	11	925.3	34.54
Will Babbitt, Jersey	15	740.3	33.60
A. D. Barrett, Jersey	8	651.3	32.67
Fairy Lake Farm, A. & G.	21	742.4	31.11

Honor Roll.

Owner	Breed	Milk Lbs.	B.F. Lbs.
Thomas Wood	(H)	2411.8	73.64
Fairy Lake Farm.	(A)	1212.1	71.56
The Avery Farms.	(H)	1949.0	68.26
Thomas Wood	(H)	2315.7	64.48
Ponemah Mills	(H)	1159.4	61.42
The Avery Farms	(H)	1196.6	61.03
G. G. Grant	(A)	1494.3	60.89
Reuben Manning	(H)	1199.7	58.79
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1205.9	57.88
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1450.8	56.55
Thomas Wood	(H)	1708.1	56.00
Hugh MacKenzie	(H)	1159.4	54.49
The Avery Farms.	(H)	1742.2	54.01
F. B Ames & Sons	(H)	1553.1	52.81
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1466.3	51.32
Ponemah Mills	(H)	867.9	48.56
A. D. Barrett	(J)	1181.5	48.66
Fair Lake Farm.	(G)	887.0	45.55
Fairy Lake Farm.	(A)	1585.5	45.53
Manning Meadows	(H)	11.31.	45.45
Hugh MacKenzie.	(H)	1236.9	48.24
Hugh MacKenzie.	(H)	1044.7	48.06
Will Babbitt	(J)	942.4	48.06
The Avery Farms.	(H)	1323.7	47.65
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1320.6	47.54
Will Babbitt	(J)	1068.1	46.88
Manning Meadows	(H)	1212.9	46.74
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1157.3	46.31
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1481.8	45.94
Oscar Dimmock	(A)	1311.5	45.26
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1184.2	45.00
Hugh MacKenzie	(J)	1007.5	44.33
Hugh MacKenzie	(J)	1181.5	44.13
F. B. Ames & Sons.	(H)	1277.2	43.42
Thomas Wood	(H)	982.7	43.21
Will Babbitt	(J)	979.6	43.10
Thomas Wood	(H)	1258.6	42.79
The Avery Farms	(H)	1373.8	42.57
Oscar Dimmock	(H)	1571.7	42.44
Will Babbitt	(J)	902.1	42.40
Hugh MacKenzie	(J)	864.9	42.38
Reuben Manning	(H)	1215.2	42.21
Oscar Dimmock	(H)	1081.9	42.18
Fairy Lake Farm	(A)	1168.7	42.07
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1196.6	41.88
Oscar Dimmock	(G)	967.2	41.59
Ponemah Mills	(H)	928.8	41.57
F. B. Ames & Sons.	(H)	1091.2	41.47
F. B. Ames & Sons.	(H.	1255.5	41.43
Smith Brothers	(H)	1010.6	41.41
Manning Meadows	(H)	1178.0	41.28
Hugh MacKenzie	(J)	830.8	40.71
Oscar Dimmock	(J)	1069.5	40.64
E. W. Brown	(J)	775.0	40.30
Will Lathrop	(G)	1001.2	40.05
F. B Ames & Sons.	(H)	12050	39.80
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1106.7	39.73
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1240.0	38.44
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1205.9	37.38
Conn. State Farm.	(H)	1281.9	37.11
F. B. Ames & Sons	(H)	1218.3	36.55
The Avery Farms.	(H)	1348.5	36.41

DEATH RATE IN STATE LOWER LAST YEAR

The Connecticut death rate during 1925 was lower than in 1924 it was announced Tuesday by the commerce department which made public statistics for that year.

The 1925 death rate for the state was 1,1725 per 100,000 of population as against 1,1300 in 1924. The principal decreases in rates in 1925 were from tuberculosis, all forms and diphtheria. The principal increases were from diseases of the heart, nephritis, influenza and automobile accidents.

Automobile accidents caused more deaths in 1925 than did the much dreaded influenza with an increase from 18 in 1924 to 22. Influenza increased from 15 to 21 during the years in question per 100,000.

Tuberculosis decreased from 82 in 1924 to 74 in 1925 per 100,000 population.

Diseases of the heart increased from 194 in 1924 to 210 in 1925 per 100,000 population; nephritis from 82 to 93.

Total deaths in the state from all causes during 1925 numbered 17,680 as against 10,989 in 1924.

Diseases of the heart in Connecticut took a total of 2,298 lives in 1925 as against 2,214 in 1924; cancer and other malignant tumors came second with 1,656 deaths as against 1,579; pneumonia third, 1,502 as against 1,426; cerebral hemorrhage and softening 1,456 against 1,562; nephritis, 1,462 against 1,284; tuberculosis, all forms, 1,180 against 1,230; accidental and unspecified causes, external, 1,156 against 1,138; congenital malformations and diseases of early infancy, 1,116 against 1,228.

FOUR ARRESTED ON CHARGES OF INTOXICATION

Four men were arrested on Lake street early Tuesday evening on the charges of intoxication, by the local police. Three of them are Norwich men who have been in court before on similar charges and the fourth hails from Moosup. They will be presented in the city court this (Wednesday) morning.

SLIGHT DECREASE IN STORRS EGG PRODUCTION

There was a slight drop in production during the 40th week of the Storrs egg laying contest, the 1400 pullets shelling out a total of 4817 eggs, or slightly over 49 per cent. This is 190 eggs less than the lay for last week, but 89 eggs more than the production for the corresponding week a year ago. A grand total of 136,459 eggs have been laid in the first 40 weeks of competition. This is an average of 138 eggs per bird.

The Barred Rock entry of Harlan W. Kimball from Northboro, Mass., made the best score for the week with a lay of 55 eggs. The White Leghorn entry of Adam Glass from Mobile, Ala., was second with a score of 54 eggs, and another pen of the same breed entered by George E. Fortis from Grand Rapids, Mich., was third with a production of 53 eggs. Fourth place was taken by the Leghorn entry of Wilgerodt Bros., from Red Bank, N. J., with a score of 52 eggs.

A Pennsylvania pen owned by the Toivonen Leghorn farm from Girard continues to lead all pens in the contest, their score for the first 40 weeks being 1582 eggs. At the present time they have a lead of 31 eggs over another pen of the same breed entered by R. W. Colman from Medina, N. Y. This pen, along with another in the same division owned by Dudley Poultry farm from Webster, Mass., threaten to make things interesting for the Toivonen entry before the present competition has run its 51 weeks.

Announcement of plans for the annual automobile tour of the Connecticut Poultry association has been made by Poultry Specialist Roy E. Jones. This year's tour is scheduled for August 24, 25, 26 and 27, and will be held in eastern Connecticut. Many of the best poultry farms located in that region will be visited, and in addition provision will be made for entertainment along the way. The first night will be spent at Storrs. New London will be the stopping place the second night, where a banquet and entertainment will be provided. The third night will be spent at New Haven, where the poultry club of the city will provide entertainment for the party. There is still time for reservations, which can be made by writing to R. E. Jones at Storrs, Conn.

WCAC, the Connecticut Agricultural college radio broadcasting station, will not go on the air again until September, the exact date to be announced later. During that time there will be no radio reports of the Storrs egg laying contest broadcast.

The leading pens in each of the principal varieties are as follows:

White Wyandottes

The Locusts West Cornwall, Conn.	1616
Winlay White Wyandottes Colebrook, Conn.	1590

Barred Rocks

Ontario Agricultural College Guelph, Ontario	1621
R. W. Davis & Sons Rockland, Me.	1585
W. H. B. Kent Cazenovia, N. Y.	1564

Rhode Island Reds

John Z. LaBelle Ballouville, Conn.	1830
R. D. Sargent East Ryegate, Vt.	1607
Fabry Bros. East McKeesport, Pa.	1599
Shell Crest Farm Holliston, Mass.	1592

White Leghorns

Toivonen Leghorn Farm Girard, Pa.	1582
R. W. Colman Medina, N. Y.	1561
Dudley Poultry Farm Webster, Mass.	1543
Hanson's Leghorn Farm Corvallis, Ore.	1745
Marquis Poultry Farm Toms River, N. J.	1716

Other Varieties

A. T. Lenzen (White Rocks) North Attleboro, Mass.	1845
F. M. Wistner (Anconas) Monroe, Mich.	1174
Thurlow Travis (Dominiques) Peekskill, N. Y.	1154

COMPLAIN AGAINST ERECTION OF GASOLINE STATION

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 10—The Westerly town council met this evening in joint session to consider complaints from residents of the vicinity of Granite and School streets, against the erection of a gasoline filling station on that corner. After a hearing attended by 35 interested citizens, at which H. W. Rathbun represented H. W. Northrup of the Beacon Oil company, who had plans drawn for the station, it was stated that no court could change the zoning district. At this point the present zoning map considers the site as a business one, it having been prepared by Zoning Expert Whitten and is across Granite street as a manufacturing area.

Following the hearing of some ten speakers the council went into executive session and then announced that favorable action had been taken on the petition and that the business area had been voted a resident "C" area, which would prevent the erection of the filling station.

In favor of the proposition was William Howard who lives nearest the property and has a deed which has a restriction that the section shall remain a residential one. Warren H. Sheffield also claimed a deed of like nature and declared that the law was string enough to stand behind him.

Howard Thorp stated that it was generally understood that the areas was to remain a residential one and scarcely anyone knew that it was marked a business area.

Andrew S. Lowe declared that it was a wonderful opportunity for zoning to give citizens protection. Frank W. Coy thought that the business area should prevail, saying that home sold the lot and that the place would close not later than 11 p. m. Arthur J. Edmond told the council that twelve feet of his land had been declared as an industrial area, when his deed showed that it was restricted for residential purposes. J. A. Harvey, speaking for the Beacon Oil company asked for a continuance of the business area and called attention to oil stations in New London and Boston, belonging to the company.

He hoped that the present plans would be greeted with favor. Mr. Sheffield stated that the granting of an oil station would lead to a garage. Joseph Brown of 73 School street, the last speaker, quoted the constitution of the United States, and in an eloquent vein disparged the erection of an oil station there.

NORWICH VOITURE TO SEND NEW HAVEN DELEGATION

Members of Voiture Locale, No. 743, America Legion, of Norwich, New London and other eastern Connecticut towns, are planning to attend the Grande Promenade of the order at New Haven on August 27th. The Locale plans to participate in the parade and it is expected that Locale No. 743 will send a large delegation to the promenade.

Further plans for the New Haven trip are to be made this (Wednesday) evening at a meeting to be held in the rooms of Fletcher post, American legion, on Hetucket street, the meeting to be in charge of Jonathan L. Johnson of Norwich, chef de gare of the local organization.

COUNTY POMONA TO HAVE FIELD DAY NEXT WEEK

Members of New London County Pomona have received notification of the annual field day which is scheduled to be held in North Stonington Thursday of next week. There will be a chowder prepared by the Pomona chef, Teddy Blake, and at noon there will be a basket luncheon.

The afternoon programme will open at 1 o'clock with an address by National Master Louis J. Tabor of Ohio and other entertaining numbers are being planned for the meeting which it is expected will have an attendance of 500 or over.

AUTO DEATH RATE STILL ON INCREASE

That there are about 50,000 children born into Connecticut homes each year, of whom at least one in 100 "will sooner or later be killed by an automobile and at least one in four (or one for each family) will be injured," at the present rate of killing and maiming, is a conclusion stated by Professor Richard Shelton Kirby, of the Yale university department of civil engineering, in a pamphlet on "A Study of Motor Vehicle Accidents in the State of Connecticut," just issued at the state motor vehicle department.

It is stated that school children under 10 years old and persons past middle life are being killed at a more rapid rate than the rest of the population. Of each 100 children injured last year through their own fault, more than 50 were simply crossing the street carelessly, 30 stepped from behind some object, moving or stationary, a much less number were playing in the street and five were coasting.

The pamphlet has been published for the Hartley corporation. Mrs. Helen Hartley Jenkins of Norfolk patron and founder, by the Yale University press, in co-operation with the state motor vehicle department. It carries an introduction by Commissioner Stoeckel which states that the present publication is supplementary to a publication on the "Proceedings of a Conference on Motor Vehicle Traffic Held Under the Joint Auspices of Yale University and the State of Connecticut at New Haven, April 9, 10 and 11, 1924." There is also a description of the department's statistical records by Miss Ethel Usher, in charge of the section.

Starting out with the statement that "the motor vehicle accident situation in Connecticut does not show many signs of improvement," Professor Kirby proceeds to set forth graphically, both in words and diagrams, many important facts representative of present day traffic conditions, including statements to the effect:—

That the Connecticut death rate from motor vehicle accidents is nearly eight times as great as it was 15 years ago. In 1910 diphtheria killed eight times as many persons as were killed by automobiles; in 1925 automobiles killed three times as many as diphtheria. In 1910 typhoid fever killed five times as many persons as were killed by automobiles; in 1925 automobiles killed nine times as many as typhoid fever.

That motor vehicle accidents last year furnished more than 30 per cent of the accidental deaths in Connecticut last year. The proportion which automobile deaths bear to all accidental deaths is and usually has been 50 per cent greater in Connecticut than in the United States as a whole.

That Milford had the greatest accident rate out of the 34 Connecticut towns chartered in 1924, and Shelton the least.

That a pedestrian is struck in one accident in six and two-thirds of the motor vehicle accidents are between cars.

That the "automobile density" in Connecticut is two and one-half times as great as in 1918 and the "accident rate" for automobiles four times as great.

That nearly 8,000 new cars could be cought with an amount of money equal to the value of property destroyed in Connecticut automobile accidents last year, this being one-third the insured fire loss on buildings in the state, and 20 times the forest fire loss.

That the proportion of accidents is considerably greater among the younger drivers and caution comes apparently with years.

That in only about one case in four is the blame for striking a pedestrian laid on the driver of the car.

That "intoxication" was held to be the cause of only about one accident in 60 or 70 each year. "Driving under the influence of liquor" is the offense for which the aggregate punishment by courts has been the greatest, and drunken drivers have been dealt with more severely in 1925 than in 1924.

That nearly 8,500 drivers (3.2 per cent of the total number) were suspended during 1925 for various violations of the state statutes and for other reasons.

"There have been but few encouraging features to record," concludes Professor Kirby. "The situation will improve just as soon as right-minded people in each community apply themselves intently to their local problems of accident prevention. Motor vehicle accidents will be almost a thing of the past when each individual who uses the highway is not content simply to obey the law, in letter and spirit, but habitually regards the rights of others more than his own convenience."

The system of checking up and analyzing motor vehicle accidents is described by Miss Usher in a separate article. A clipping service is used "whereby items referring to any accident are culled from about 60 newspapers and are checked with records of the department. If the report is not already filed a written request for it is sent to the operators involved. To supplement this a plan has been worked out by which the records of the various police departments in the state are checked weekly with those in this department.

FOUR ARE HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Aug. 10—A Stux "bear cat' driven by Ralph Wolcott of Providence rests upside down on a stone wall on the south side of the Shore road several hundred yards from the Watch Hill road in one of the worst wrecks which have occurred this year in Westerly. The automobile rests between a guy wire of a pole used as a brace for a telephone pole on the opposite side of the road and is about six feet above the road level, having climbed the bank and the stone wall on top of it.

Guy Mayer of Providence, one of the occupants of the auto, is at the Westerly hospital and is seriously injured, having a fractured skull and suffering from concussion of the brain. Edmund Howard, another occupant, has a badly cut right hand and leg. Ralph Wolcott, an injured nose, and Jack Hennessey, the least hurt of the four, has minor cuts and bruises. The men were attended by Dr. Michael H. Scanlon of Westerly.

Just the time to smash the Stutz passed several machines at a fast clip and sideswiped the Ford sedan of Charles Connors of Pawcatuck, who had with him Joseph Gervasini of Westerly. The roadster was coming toward Westerly from Pleasant View, where the occupants were staying on Atlantic avenue, and apparently at a high rate of speed.

A fender, a hub cap, running board and rear mudguards on the left side of the Ford sedan were ripped and torn but the occupants escaped uninjured.

Several reasons were given as a cause of the accident, it being reported that the Stux had a broken steering gear; had struck a stone at the roadside and also that the roadway sloped steeply on that side.

Chief Thomas E. Brown of the Westerly police was called to the scene and directed traffic and the investigation, being assisted by Motorcycle Traffic Officer George L. Madison and Town Solicitor J. Ferguson. Traffic Officer Robert Kessel handled the traffic jam which followed the accident.

Orders were given to have the Stux left on the stone wall where it could be photographed in daylight. Officer George H. Champlin went to the Westerly hospital to complete the investigation.

NORWICH CO INCORPORATES WITH CAPITAL OF $115,000

Among the new corporations listed by the Journal of Commerce is the A. Rose company of Norwich, to take over the real and personal property of Aaron Gordon. The new company has been incorporated with a capital of $115,000.

NET EARNINGS EXCEED COMPANY'S YEARLY DIVIDEND

According to a report in a financial publication, President T. J. Falvey of the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Co., in a letter to stockholders states that during the first six months of 1926 net earnings after a substantial addition to reserves above legal requirements exceeded the annual $15 dividend on the increased $3,000,000 capital stock. This is without any credit for the appreciation in market value since Jan. 1, in securities held. The first half of the year is not normally the period in which the company shows it largest net gains.

Friends of Mr. Falvey in Norwich, where he formerly resided, will be interested to learn of his continued business success in Boston.

TO AUCTION STONINGTON LIGHT RESERVATION

The Stonington Harbor Lighthouse reservation near Stonington Point, is to be sold by the government under public bid in the near future.

The bids received must be sealed and must be in the office of the Third district of the U. S. Lighthouse department on or before 2 p. m. of Thursday, Sept. 2, at which time they will be opened. Twenty percent of the amount of the bids must accompany the bid submitted either in cash or certified check.

The buildings on the premises go with the land in question, which is that section on which the keeper's home, so called, now stands.

The land records of Stonington shows that this plot of land was sold by James L. and Lucretia A. Morris on May 30, 1868, to the U. S. government and has been in the lighthouse department ever since.

The end of Stonington Point does not figure in this state.

The property adjoins that recently bought by the Stonington Historical society, on which the lighthouse stands. The weather station plot still remains in the possession of the government.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Edward D. Fuller is at the Sunset House, Sugar Hill, N. H.

Mrs. Samuel Benjamin Hance, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coit.

Richard Bunnell, of Washington street is at a boys' school at Plymouth, N. H., during the season.

Miss Blanche Joynes, of Accomac, Virginia, spent a part of the past week with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coit, of Broadway.

Gen. William A. Aiken and daughters, Miss Mary Aiken and Miss Jane McG. Aiken are passing the remainder of August at the Ben Grosvenor Inn, Pomfret.

Miss Ruby Vaughn, of Warren street is visiting for two weeks in Rochester N. Y., with Miss Maud Setchell. Mrs Eliza Setchell Barnes is also a Rochester visit

TECHNICALITIES MUST BE IRONED OUT BEFORE DEMPSEY GETS LICENSE

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey will defend his world heavyweight title against Gene Tunney in a 15 round match at the Yankee stadium on September 16, just as Tex Rickard has planned, providing the champion survives one more round of his technical tussle with the state's boxing authorities.

There was every indication tonight that Dempsey would go the remaining distance successfully after the license committee of the state athletic commission, reaching the critical stage of this legal fray in a hectic session had "deferred" the champion's application for a license but also left the way clear for him to obtain the necessary permit by complying with certain rules and regulations.

The refusal of the committee to act today on the champion's license at first loomed as a distinct set-back but explanation of its decision by the license committee chairman, Colonel John J. Phelan, afterward made it clear that only technicalities of arranging contracts stand in the way of issuing Dempsey's permit.

Tunney, making similar application at the same time, was granted a license and, as if to make the gesture of assurance toward Dempsey more clear, the committee also issued a permit to Gene Normile, the champion's business representative, to act as a second.

Stripped of its technical elements, the license committee's action means that Dempsey will be granted a license as soon as the formal contracts for a bout with Tunney are prepared in accordance with the commission's rules and regulations and submitted for approval. Since the commission, by a two to one vote, already has gone on record as favoring the match, this will be only a formality.

Tonight Promoter Tex Rickard had the necessary papers prepared and signed by Tunney, since Dempsey is not yet licensed, he cannot attach his signature to them until they are laid before the commission and then the license committee. The entire matter may be consummated tomorrow at a special session of these official bodies, both of which are understood to be ready now to act quickly to clear up the situation and permit arrangements for the fight to go ahead.

Today's developments, while they added in the apparent certain prospect that the title battle will be held here, passed through a series of dramatic and at times confusing stages during deliberations that lasted for three hours in the office of the athletic commission, alternately thrusting Dempsey, Tunney and Harry Wills into the limelight.

Wills was the last of the three fighting men to appear on the scene but he played an important part, even though the result was his virtual elimination from the role of challenger which he has occupied for so long and which has stood as a stumbling block to Dempsey's fighting anyone else in this state.

The contract which Wills signed with Dempsey at Niles, Mich., last September was the vehicle which served apparently, to shelve the negro challenger's ambitions, as well as to open the way for Dempsey's return to good standing in this state. Called unexpectedly and appearing alone, Wills was shown Dempsey's copy of this contract. The negro confirmed his signature and also admitted, under questioning, that while he did not himself receive any money, his manager, Paddy Mullins, did—an amount understood to be $55,000.

In view of this, Colonel Phelan explained, the license committee took the position that Dempsey already had accepted the challenge of Wills—even though the terms of the Niles contract called for a no-decision bout "sometime before January 1, 1927," in one of five specified mid-western states. Since this contract did not bar either principal from engaging other opponents in the meantime, the champion, in Col. Phelan's opinion, is thus free to battle Tunney or anyone else, so long as local rules are complied with.

Dempsey and Tunney cooled their heels impatiently in the other offices of the commission during most of today's deliberations, submitting to a battery of camera "shots" or interviews by scores of newspapermen who crowded the scene when they were not being summoned before the licensing committeemen to discuss various phases of the situation. Dempsey was in an outer corridor at the moment that Wills arrived and the rivals shook hands just before the negro stepped into the committee meeting.

Outside the Flatiron building, in which the commission's offices are located, a crowd of several thousand jams lined the curbs, blocking traffic and keeping a squad of police reserves busy as they sought to catch glimpses of Dempsey, Wills, Tunney and other figures in the day's fistic events.

VARIED PROGRAM FOR POLICE FIELD MEET TODAY

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 10—(AP)—The pick of amateur athletes from this part of the country will meet in competition at the fourth annual police field day at Lighthouse Point, tomorrow. Tom Tracey, director of games, said tonight that the exhibitions at the meet will compare favorably with intercollegiate competition. The program will include field and track events for both men and women and a number of amateur boxing contests.

There are 40 entries for the state championship 100-yard dash, among them Frank Wilderming, New York, Elsa Edwards and Joe Moore, Century club, of New York; Harry Kats, Jersey; Royal Welch, Connecticut champion; and Oscar Speck, New Haven.

In the 440-yard state championship, George Gault, Yale half miler, will meet some strong competition. Pinkie Sobes, national half mile champion, will enter in the mile run.

The six mile road race which will start from City hall has 30 entries including Whitey Michelson and a number of other well-known harriers.

Girls will compete from Newark, Patterson, New York, Meriden and New Haven. There will be 12 boxing bouts on the card.

No Need for Any Apology

Sports Editor:—

I was much chagrined this morning to see in your paper an apology for what you published Monday morning concerning the ball game between the Elm City Giants and the Taftville club on Saturday.

I was present with numerous others from Norwich and will say that you should have let your article stand as first written for the reason that the umpiring was bad, in fact, it was so bad that it was rotten.

All umpires have excuses for their mistakes and the spectator does not bother to write about them generally, but I have been a spectator at ball games around Norwich for the last twelve and one-half years and this is the only time I have boiled over with indignation.

The Elm City Giants should have won the game, and one thing that they really did do was to act like gentlemen.

The public certainly likes to see a square ball game and this is something they did not see Saturday.

Did J. B. Benoit have a bet on the game that he wanted to win?

Did J. B. Benoit go down to the Bulletin office on Monday night to force a retraction of an obviously true statement by the exhibition of violence?

Yours very truly
C. F. WELLS.

WHITE SOX MISPLAY GIVES ATHLETICS A VICTORY

CHICAGO, Aug. 10—(AP)—Ray Morehart's fumble and Grabowski's throw to second in an attempt to get Hale who was stealing after two were out in the eleventh inning was followed by a single by Cochrane which gave Philadelphia a 4 to 3 victory over Chicago and four games out of the five game series. Thomas allowed only one hit until the eighth inning when he weakened and in the ninth inning the visitors continued the attack and took the lead. Mostil's home run smash in the ninth inning tied the count and forced the game into extra innings. Score:

Philadelphia (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Chicago (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Bishop,2b	5	1	2	4	0	Mostil,rf	4	1	3	0	0
French,rf	5	1	1	1	0	H'ndfield,ss	5	3	1	6	0
Lamar,lf	5	1	3	0	0	Sheely,1b	4	1	11	1	0
Hale,ss	5	1	2	1	0	Falk,lf	5	1	2	0	0
Simmons,cf	5	0	1	1	0	Barrett,cf	4	1	4	0	0
Poole,3b	4	1	11	0	0	Kamm,3b	4	1	2	1	0
Cochrane,c	3	2	8	2	0	Morehart,2b	5	1	2	6	1
Galloway,ss	2	0	1	3	0	Grabowski,c	5	1	6	2	0
xxWeiler	0	0	0	0	0	xxxHarris	0	0	0	0	0
Walker,ss	0	0	0	1	0	Thomas,p	2	1	1	0	0
xxxPerkins	1	0	0	0	0	xSollins	1	0	0	0	0
Dykes,ss	0	0	1	0	0	xxBurns	0	0	0	0	0
Grove,p	1	0	0	0	0	xxThurston	1	0	0	0	0
xRazer	0	0	0	0	0
Quinn,p	0	0	0	0	0	Totals	42	11	35	14	1
xxxRenne	1	0	0	0	0
Pate,p	2	0	0	1	0
Totals	41	8	31	14	0

(x) Batted for Grove in 6th.
(xx) Batted for Galloway in 7th.
(xxx) Batted for Quinn in 8th.
(xxxx) Batted for Wamby in 9th.
(x) Batted for Thomas in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Connally in 11th.
(xxx) Batted for Grabowski in 11th.

Score by innings:

Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	2	0	1—4
Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	2	0	0—3

Two base hits, Hunnefield, Bishop, Lamar, Poole. Home run, Mostil.

RUETHER PROVES TO BE PUZZLE TO CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Aug. 10—(AP)—Ruether was a complete puzzle to Cleveland today and Washington won 4 to 1. Ruether held the Indians to six hits, Levsen also pitching effectively until the ninth when Washington bunched three hits with a pass and an error to score three runs. J. Harris made three hits, his triple scoring the first run while he started the three run rally in the ninth with a single after two were out and none on.

Cleveland escaped a shut-out when Speaker doubled and scored on J. Sewell's single in the ninth. Score:

Washington (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Cleveland (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
McNeely,lf	4	1	2	0	0	Jamieson,lf	2	0	1	0	0
H Harris,2b	3	1	1	1	0	McNulty,lf	2	0	0	0	0
Bluege,rf	4	1	1	0	0	Spurgeon,2b	4	1	1	4	0
Myer,ss	4	0	1	4	0	Speaker,cf	4	1	2	0	0
Goslin,cf	4	1	1	0	0	Burns,2b	0	0	0	0	0
J. Harris,3b	4	1	1	2	0	J. Sewell,ss	4	2	2	2	0
Rice,rf,2b	4	0	2	0	0	Summa,rf	4	0	1	0	0
Tate,c	4	0	1	0	0	Lee,rf	2	0	1	0	0
Ruether,p	3	0	0	2	0	H. Sewell,c	3	0	1	0	0
						Luttke,2b	1	0	0	1	0
Totals	34	5	9	27	13	Pailgrift,2b	1	0	0	0	0
						Levsen,p	2	0	0	2	0
						xKnode	1	0	0	0	0
						xxTate	1	0	0	0	0
						xxxEichrodt	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	29	3	27	13	1

(x) Ran for Luttke in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Jamieson in 9th.
(xxx) Batted for L. Sewell,ss in 9th.

Score by innings:

Washington	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	4—5
Cleveland	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	1—1

Two base hit, Speaker. Three base hit, J. Harris.

WILLIAMS' HOME RUN GIVES BROWNS VICTORY

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns were outhit today but Ken William's home run in the eighth inning, his sixteenth of the season, gave a victory over the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 4, in the final game of the series. Williams scored behind Sisler. Score:

Boston (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	St. Louis (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Tobin,rf	4	0	1	1	0	Rice,rf	4	1	1	0	0
Rigney,ss	4	1	2	5	0	Sisler,1b	4	2	11	0	0
Jacobson,cf	4	1	2	0	0	Williams,lf	4	2	1	0	0
Todt,3b	3	0	1	3	0	Miller,rf	4	1	1	0	0
Regan,2b	3	1	2	4	2	McManus,2b	4	0	2	3	0
Granger,lf	4	1	2	0	0	Hargrave,c	4	1	4	1	0
Haney,2b	0	0	0	1	0	Gerber,ss	3	0	1	1	0
Gaston,c	4	0	3	0	0	Roberts,3b	3	0	0	4	1
Heimach,p	2	0	0	4	0	Vangilder,p	3	0	0	1	0
xRosenthal	1	1	0	0	0
Totals	35	6	24	19	0	Totals	32	8	27	15	1

(x) Batted for Heimach in 9th.

Score by innings:

Boston	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	1	x	x—4

Two base hits, Rice 2, Regan, Williams, Rigney, Hargrave. Three base hit, Shaner. Home runs, Jacobson, Williams.

TIGERS TAKE SHORT GAME FROM YANKEES

DETROIT, Aug. 10—(AP)—Detroit won the series from New York today, making it three out of four by winning today's game, 5 to 3. Trailing all the way to the seventh, Detroit rallied after Manush's home run had tied the score and drove in two runs off Shawkey, who relieved Shocker. Ty Cobb, pinch hitting for O'Rourke in the seventh, drove in the run that broke the tie. Only seven innings were played, the game being called to permit both clubs to catch trains. Score:

New York (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Detroit (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Combs,cf	3	1	2	0	0	Sum,1b	2	1	5	0	0
Koenig,ss	4	1	4	2	0	Fothergill,lf	4	1	2	0	0
Gehrig,1b	3	1	6	0	0	Manush,rf	3	2	1	0	0
Ruth,lf	3	1	1	0	0	Heilmann,rf	4	2	2	0	0
Paschal,rf	3	0	2	0	0	O'Rourke,3b	4	1	2	2	0
Lazzeri,2b	3	0	2	2	0	xx'Rourke,3b	3	1	3	1	0
Dugan,3b	3	1	1	2	0	Tavener,ss	3	0	1	2	0
Severeid,c	2	0	1	0	0	Woodall,c	1	1	2	1	0
Shocker,p	0	0	0	0	0	Bassler,c	0	0	1	0	0
Shawkey,p	0	0	0	1	0	Wells,p	1	0	0	1	0
						—Dauss,p	2	1	0	0	0
Totals	27	5	21	7	0	xWingo	0	0	0	0	0
						xxHoyt	0	0	0	0	0
						xxxCobb	1	1	0	0	0
						Totals	30	12	27	7	1

(x) Batted for Woodall in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Wells in 8th.
(xxx) Batted for O'Rourke in 7th.
Called end 7th to allow teams to catch trains.

Score by innings:

New York	0	0	0	0	0	2	1	0—3
Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0—3

Two base hits, Koenig, Dugan, Ruth, O'Rourke, Heilmann, Bassler. Three base hit, Lazzeri. Home run, Manush.

CARDS BEAT BRAVES IN ERRORLESS CONTEST

BOSTON, Aug. 10—(AP)—Rhem held Boston to six hits today, while St. Louis vanquished the Braves 3 to 1 in an errorless contest. The score was knotted when the teams started the ninth, but Hornsby's single off Goldsmith, and three more hits off Mogridge who relieved him, accounted for two runs. The play of Thevenow was a feature. Score:

St. Louis (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Boston (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Bridges,rf	4	0	1	0	0	Smith,rf	4	1	1	0	0
Schweitzer,rf	1	0	0	0	0	Dancey,ss	3	0	4	4	0
Hornsby,2b	4	0	2	1	0	Welsh,rf	4	0	2	0	0
Bottomley,1b	4	0	12	1	0	Maranville,2b	4	0	1	6	0
Frisch,3b	4	1	2	0	0	Gowdy,c	3	0	7	1	0
Blades,3b	0	0	0	0	0	Wilson,lf	4	0	1	0	0
Bell,2b	3	2	1	3	0	Brown,1b	4	0	3	0	0
Bell,rf	3	1	1	0	0	Cooney,cf	3	0	7	1	0
O'Farrell,c	3	1	2	0	0	Wilson,c	1	0	0	0	0
Thevenow,ss	3	1	3	5	0	Gautreau,2b	4	0	2	3	0
Rhem,p	1	0	0	0	0	Siewer,ss	3	1	5	1	0
						Goldsmith,p	3	0	0	3	0
Totals	29	3	27	10	0	xMogridge,p	0	0	0	0	0
						Totals	32	1	27	18	0

(x) Batted for Cooney in 9th.

Score by innings:

St. Louis	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1—3
Boston	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0—1

Two base hits, Hornsby, High. Three base hit, Blades.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

St. Louis 3, Boston 1.
New York 2, Chicago 0.
Pittsburgh 10, Brooklyn 2.
Philadelphia 10, Cincinnati 8.

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	61	44	.581
St. Louis	60	49	.550
Cincinnati	60	51	.541
New York	57	51	.528
Chicago	56	52	.519
Brooklyn	52	58	.473
Boston	44	63	.411
Philadelphia	41	64	.394

GAMES TODAY

St. Louis at Boston.
Chicago at New York.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia.
Only games scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Washington 4, Cleveland 1.
Detroit 5, New York 3, (7 innings).
Philadelphia 4, Chicago 3, (11 innings).
St. Louis 6, Boston 4.

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	71	39	.645
Cleveland	63	50	.558
Philadelphia	59	52	.532
Detroit	58	53	.523
Chicago	56	56	.500
Washington	54	54	.500
St. Louis	47	63	.427
Boston	35	73	.324

GAMES TODAY

Detroit at St. Louis.
Chicago at Cleveland.
New York at Washington.
Only games scheduled.

Eastern League

Waterbury 10, Bridgeport 6.
Springfield 6-1, Providence 1-2.
Only games played.

International League

Syracuse 3, Jersey City 2.
Baltimore 9, Buffalo 4.
Toronto 5, Reading 3.
Rochester 11, Newark 8.

PIRATES SWAMP DODGERS IN COMEDY OF ERRORS

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 10—(AP)—Pittsburgh piled another defeat on Brooklyn today, 10 to 2, making nine consecutive games that the Robins have now lost. Eight Brooklyn errors turned today's contest into a farce.

Lee Meadows held the Robins to eight hits, four of which went to Babe Herman's circuit wallop with one on day, had a perfect afternoon at bat Herman's circuit whallop with one on in the first gave Brooklyn its only runs. Score:

Pittsburgh (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Brooklyn (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Carey,cf	5	2	2	0	0	Mowrille,2b	4	0	1	3	1
Waner,rf	5	2	2	0	0	Jacobson,rf	4	0	2	0	0
Cuyler,lf	6	1	3	0	0	Herman,1b	4	1	14	0	0
Traynor,3b	4	1	0	4	0	Cox,rf	4	1	2	0	0
Grabb'm,1b	5	0	12	1	0	Fels,lf	4	1	2	0	0
Rhyne,ss	5	1	1	2	0	xxxFournier	1	0	0	0	0
Rawlings,2b	5	1	2	3	0	Marriott,2b	4	1	2	1	1
Smith,c	4	0	3	2	0	Ballou,ss	4	0	1	4	1
Meadows,p	3	1	1	2	0	O'Neill,c	2	0	1	1	1
						xxBrandaert	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	41	10	27	12	0	Williams,p	0	0	0	0	0
						McWeeny,p	0	0	0	0	0
						xWitt	1	0	0	0	0
						McGraw,p	0	0	0	0	0
						Greason,x	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	35	5	26	14	4

(x) Meadows out, stepped out of batter's box.
(xx) Batted for McWeeny in 8th.
(xxx) Batted for O'Neill in 9th.
(xxxx) Batted for Fels in 9th.

Score by innings:

Pittsburgh	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	1	0	0	4—10
Brooklyn	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0—2

Two base hits, Carey, Rhyne, Rawlings, Herman. Home run, Herman.

BARNES SETS CUBS DOWN WITH FOUR SCATTERED HITS

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—(AP)—Virgil Barnes was in fine form today and blanked the Cubs with four hits, the Giants winning 2 to 0. The victory put the Giants in undisputed possession of fourth place in the National league pennant race. Frisch's homer in the sixth and singles by Tyson, Terry and Mueller in the seventh accounted for the only runs of the game.

Due to the death of his father in Chicago Freddie Lindstrom, Giant's third baseman, was absent today. Score:

Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	New York (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Adams,2b	3	0	2	4	0	Frisch,2b	4	1	2	5	0
Bartholo,rf	4	0	2	0	0	Young,rf	3	0	0	0	0
Hartnett,c	4	0	7	1	0	Jackson,ss	3	1	2	3	0
Wilson,cf	3	0	1	0	0	xG Kelly,2b	1	0	0	0	0
Grimm,1b	3	0	9	0	0	Tyson,lf	3	1	1	0	0
Freigau,2b	3	0	1	3	0	Terry,1b	4	2	13	1	0
Cooney,ss	3	0	1	4	0	Mueller,cf	2	1	1	0	0
Gonzales,c	2	0	3	0	0	xxMuller,c	2	0	1	0	0
xxJ. Kelly	1	0	0	0	0	xxxMeusel	1	0	0	0	0
Levi,p	0	0	0	0	0	xxxxTierney,c	0	0	0	0	0
Hartnett,c	0	0	0	0	0	Barnes,p	3	0	0	2	0
Root,p	0	0	0	1	0
xxTolson	0	0	0	0	0	Totals	29	5	27	6	0
Milstead,p	0	0	0	0	0
Osborn,p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	30	0	21	13	0

(x) Batted for Gonzales in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Root in 8th.
(xxx) Batted for J. Kelly in 8th.
(xxxx) Batted for McMullen in 9th.

Score by innings:

Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	x—2

Two base hits, Terry, Frisch. Home run, Frisch.

PHILLIES TAKE SEE-SAW GAME FROM REDS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10—(AP)—The Phillies won a see-saw game from Cincinnati today 10 to 8. The Reds tied the score and were in the lead on two occasions but neither Donohue, who started, or Luque, who rescued him, could check the Phillies. Walker hit a home run with two on base in the fifth inning to tie the score. Score:

Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Philadelphia (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Critz,2b	3	1	1	4	0	Stand'ge	4	1	1	4	0
Roush,cf	4	0	1	0	0	Whitehill,2b	4	1	1	4	0
Walker,rf	5	1	3	0	0	Wilson,rf	5	3	5	0	0
Bressler,lf	5	1	2	0	0	Leach,lf	3	2	3	0	0
Pipp,1b	4	1	6	0	0	Bentley,1b	4	1	11	1	0
Wingo,c	2	0	4	1	0	Henline,c	3	1	2	0	0
xZitzman	0	0	0	0	0	Mokan,rf	3	1	1	0	0
Hargrave,c	2	2	2	0	0	Fothergill,2b	5	2	2	4	0
Dressen,3b	3	2	1	2	0	Willoughby,p	2	0	0	2	0
Ford,ss	3	1	1	5	0	Ulrich,p	1	0	0	0	0
Donohue,p	2	0	0	0	0	xxWilson	1	0	0	0	0
xxChrist'n	0	0	0	0	0	Knight,ss	0	0	1	1	0
Luque,p	0	0	0	0	0
Lucas,p	0	0	0	0	0	Totals	36	12	27	16	1
Totals	35	9	24	12	1

(x) Ran for Wingo in 6th.
(xx) Batted for Donohue in 7th.
(xxx) Batted for Ulrich in 7th.

Score by innings:

Cincinnati	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	3	3	0—8
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	2	1	x—6

Two base hits, Stand, Wrightstone 2, Donohue, Bressler, Wilson. Home run, Walker.

TAFTVILLE TOWNERS TO PLAY BON TONS THURSDAY

Thursday evening at the Providence street grounds the Taftville Town team will cross bats with the Bon Ton club of the Norwich twilight league in what is expected to be a fast game. The game will be called at 6.30 sharp and seven innings will be played.

On Sunday the Taftville Town team will play the Assawaga team at Dayville.

RIVERVIEW TO MEET CORBIN RED SOX AGAIN SATURDAY

The Riverview club will have for their opponents on Saturday the strong Corbin Red Sox of New Britain. This will be the rubber game between the two clubs, each having won a game from the other. West or Dugas will be on the mound for the Riverview club while Berg, formerly of the Springfield club of the Eastern league, will toss them up for the Red Sox.

SUSIE TAKES UP GOLF AGAIN BUT WITH DIRE RESULTS TO HER COMPLEXION

Susie's letter has arrived at last and is published here. It seems that Susie has been indulging in golf again and has suffered a casualty. Her letter follows:

Dear Sports Ed:—

My letter this week will be delayed owing to a golf wound. Now, that may sound kind of phony, but so is such. Whoever would think you could get wounded in such a mild and peaceful game as golf? Well, strange as it may seem, I am at the present time nursing a sore jaw as the result of the royal and ancient game and taking my daily nourishment through a straw. I told this story to a lotta folks but nobody don't seem to believe me; they think I spoke outa turn and the boy friend or some other close relation socked me one on the button. But it ain't so little Willie did the trick and here's how I was wounded.

Me and Willie was passing the day down on the farm and we gets hold of some golf sticks and a couple balls and we was whacking them around the lot. Willie had more vim than form, while I was the reverse. Well, both Willie's ball and mine was lying pretty close together and I steps up to address it as they say. No, I don't mean make no speeches; you make your speeches after you hit the ball, or don't hit it, as the case may be. Well, as I said before, I was addressing the ball and not paying no attention to Willie, which I seldom does. Neither was Willie paying any attention to me which is customary. Well, I was keeping my eye on the ball just the way that Vickery feller at the golfs club do, when I hears a swish close to me and the next thing I knows, I feels a terrific crack on the jaw and then I is gazing up at the bright, blue sky, wondering why all the stars is jumping 'round so frisky. I hears somebody yelling for a pail of water and out of the fog comes the voice of little Willie asking if he hit me. Well, somebody gets the water and without no discretion dumps the liquid contents of a ten-quart bucket in my face.

Well, after the deluge I gets up and things is a little clearer, the stars having gone away and the sun is shining bright and clear. I takes account of stock and finds that with care and great pain I is able to spit out a coupla teeth and a gold crown along with what at first I think is part of my tongue. I finds out later by observation that it ain't my tongue, so it musta been my chewing gum, or maybe I swallowed it. I know I had some before the battle. I bleeds profusely and feels kinda of dizzy, but I'm still on my feet. The crack on the jaw goes right through to the bone and my tongue looks like it had been stepped on by a feller with hobnailed boots. Well, after I gets all patched up with plaster and such like, I goes to practicing again, but believe me, little Willie and me is practicing in different pastures: If Willie can sock a golfs ball like he hit my chin, he's going to set some records for long driving when he grows up. No, it didn't hurt the club none, only bent the steel shaft a little, but that can be straightened all right.

Next time I go playing golf I is going to wear a baseball mask and one of the newmatic pertertors what them umpires wear. The only thing that bothers me is that I can't talk so much and when a woman can't talk to her heart's content (which is all the time) she sure is in misery. And not being able to talk so folks can understand me, I is losing ground in that vacation argument.

Speaking of vacations, that battle of words what we is having up to our domicile, is still waging, the only one what's beat a retreat is Pa, and he has become a innercent spectator, who throws in a andful of sarcastic remarks now and then just to keep things moving.

I ain't been doing much lately; only went on a weenie roast the other night with some friends. Didn't have no fun though, 'cause I couldn't open my mouth wide enough to get no weenie in. Them weenie roasts is getting to be popular all right, 'cause I heard a lot about them lately at Gardner's lake.

Didja hear about a certain fellar in Norwich, what calls up a girl the other night, and says, "This is the Gas and Electric office talking. Would you mind looking out the winda and see if the arch light is burning?" Well, the girl looks out and says it is, and then this feller says, "Would you be so kind as to climb the pole and blow it out?" I don't know what the girl told him, but if you call a certain number the operator says the phone is out of order. Musta been hot stuff. Say Ed., do you know the feller they call the "Mrs. Malaprop of Main street?" If you do let me know.

Yours as ever
SUSIE

DUWELL A. C. REPRESENTED IN NEW HAVEN MEET TODAY

The Duwell A. C. of Norwich will send 10 athletes to the Police field meet at New Haven today to compete in four events on the day's program.

In the five mile race which starts at the City Hall in New Haven and finishes once around the track at Lighthouse Point will be the familiar faces of "Johnny" Keeley, sensation of the Duwell Road race held on Memorial day, William Maggs who finished third in that race and "Johnny" Murphy formerly of the Holy Cross track team. "Joe" Jackson, ten second man, and winner of the dash last year in the K. of C games and Johnny Mara will run the hundred yard dash. Irvine Merrill, John Majewski and John Sullivan will run the half mile and Leo Hamil and Arthur Ward will run the mile.

Perfetti Beats Young Mulligan

NORWALK, Aug. 10—(AP)—Lew Perfetti, New York, was tonight awarded the decision over Young Mulligan, Norwalk, at the end of a 10-round bout here tonight. Perfetti led in every round of the match. They are bantamweights.

In the semi-finals, Robby Robideau, Allentown, Pa., scored a technical knockout over Al Valdo, New York. Ernie Perry, Bridgeport, was awarded the decision over Marty Huber, Stamford. Charlie Middleton, Norwalk, won the decision over Young Barney, Stamford, in the four-round opener.

TODAY'S SPORTS

Racing

Meeting of Saratoga association, at Saratoga.
Meeting of Connaught Park Jockey club, at Ottawa.
Meeting of Lincoln Fields Jockey club, at Chicago.

Golf

Western junior championship opens at Chicago.
New Jersey open championship closes at Montclair.
Texas professional championship opens at Houston.
Iowa women's championship tournament at Des Moines.

Tennis

National public parks championships, at Philadelphia.
Western Canada hard court championships, at Edmonton.
National junior and boys' championships, at Chicago.
Ohio Valley championship t

RAYMOND L. BROWN, NEW LONDON THIEF, CAUGHT AT AUNT'S IN DANIELSON

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 10—The police have been unable to obtain any trace of Raymond L. Brown, restaurant worker and discharged member of the United States coast guard. Brown stole a Pontiac coach belonging to A. E. Sherman, 23 Brainard street, yesterday afternoon, after having negotiated a worthless check on the proprietor of the New York Sales company, Crocker house block, for $50. It is positively known that Brown left New London and with him were a married woman and a single woman. The latter, it is believed, are headed for Portsmouth, N. H., where the single woman resides and to which place she had made reference to returning recently. The married woman is a native of Boston and has a police court record here. Although being but about 25 years of age, she has been arrested several times for intoxication and lascivious carriage.

Brown did not get as far as Portsmouth, as was believed he would head for, for this evening he was arrested in Danielson at the home of his aunt by state police from the Danielson barracks. Brown was in possession of the Pontiac auto and with it the prisoner was brought to New London and locked up at the police station. He was unable to secure a surety on his bond of $2,000 and was locked up. Brown will be presented in the police court tomorrow morning.

After stealing the automobile Brown undoubtedly drove direct to Danielson. The Danielson state police were acquainted with the fact that Brown's aunt resides in that town and they maintained a watch of her home. When Brown appeared at the house this evening, driving the automobile he was arrested. The two women with whom he left New London were not with him when he was arrested.

Three drunks that were hangovers from Sunday were in the police court, this morning. Only one of the three would plead guilty when the chance was given. One of them came up smiling though he was fined for the same offense Monday and then paid more than $20 for the indulgence in a spree. Today this man said he indulged in whiskey but once a year, though he had broken that rule within the past twelve months and had been arrested for intoxication three times. He said he was married but that he did not live with his wife, but hired three rooms at Midway which he shared with others. He was fined $20 today, which was an advance of 300 per cent. over the price he was penalized to pay Monday. He was warned about coming back to the court again.

Another man accused insisted that he was not drunk, though his arrest was asked for by his wife. Policeman Fay answered the call and found the aged man at home and drunk on a couch. Judge Prince appealed to the old man's judgment to abandon that part of innocence. He then found the accused guilty but did not impose a penalty.

The third case claimed that he was not drunk when arrested because he had not indulged in liquor yesterday. He said he had drank rather freely the day before and thought that his load was long over from that. He was fined and was satisfied to escape a severer penalty.

Lloyd Dewey of Groton was charged with reckless operation of an automobile last month when his car struck Mrs. John Carney, wife of a New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad employe, who was leaving a trolley car on Williams street. The woman was injured so that she is now in Lawrence hospital for treatment, with a probability that she will not be able to appear in court during the next fortnight or three weeks. The case against Dewey went over to the 23th inst.

Frederick Redden, Jefferson avenue, drove his automobile, an Essex coach, to Ocean Beach, last evening and remained away from the car about two hours. Redden returned to where he had parked the car only to find it missing. He made complaint to the police, stating that the automobile had been stolen and the state police at Groton and Centerbrook, as well as the Norwich, Westerly, Hartford and New Haven police were requested to be on the lookout for the auto. This morning Redden communicated with the police, stating that the automobile had not been stolen, but that it was taken and used by a friend, who today returned the auto to Redden.

Francis DeGange, 60 Ocean avenue, made complaint to the police this afternoon that while he left his automobile parked in front of 231 Bank street earlier in the day some one had broken one of the windows.

A. J. Silk, 1265 State street, Bridgeport, today requested the New London police to assist him in recovering two automobile tires stolen in New London Sunday. Silk stated that he left his automobile parked on Belden street several hours and when he returned the tires were missing. He did not report the theft when he discovered it, but returned to Bridgeport and made his complaint in writing to the New London department.

The funeral of Willis R. Dart was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at his residence, 12 Union court, and was attended by a large gathering of mourners, including a delegation of members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which organization Mr. Dart had been a member and office holder many years. The services were conducted by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, pastor of the First Church of Christ. Members of the Eagles acted as bearers. Burial was in Jordan cemetery.

The funeral of Frederick Bitters was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his home at Quaker Hill and was attended by many mourners. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Todd, Torrington. The bearers were Lawrence Eldridge, Andrew Smith, Hanson Shields and Walter Dolbeare. Burial was in Union cemetery, Waterford.

The funeral of John Kellen who was struck and instantly killed by a New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad express train near the Waterford station Sunday evening, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at 62 Washington street. The services were conducted by Rev. George H. Stroube, pastor of the Jordan Baptist church. Burial was in Jordan cemetery.

Mrs. Harriet Kopp, about 62, widow of Joseph Kopp, 17 Garfield avenue, died this afternoon at Home Memorial hospital, where she had been a patient several weeks. Mrs. Kopp is survived by two brothers, Nelson Lyon of Waterford, and James N. Lyon, Montauk avenue, this city. Mr. Kopp died about a year ago.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles R. E. Stoeckel today ordered the driver's license of Theodore Losch, 65 Federal street, returned to the owner. The license was suspended several weeks ago.

Addie E. Chaffee and Alice Mann Chase have sold the residence, 261 Pequot avenue to Frank B. and Nellie Rose.

Joseph Kelley of Waterbury; Samuel Katz, 47 John street; Albert Hale, United States coast guard, state pier; Andrew Campbell, Hotel Nelseco, at Groton; Griffith Roberts, Yacht Memomosha, and Mrs. Alice Griswold, West Hartford, patients at Lawrence-Memorial associated hospital, were discharged today.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Campbell, and children of New York are spending a few days with relatives in this city. Mr. Campbell formerly resided in New London and is now employed as clerk at a New York hotel.

Probation Officer Richard W. Mansfield, has returned to his home on Brainard street, after having spent a fortnight at the Moody school, Northfield, Mass.

MAN KILLED BY EXPRESS HAD FILLED UP ON HOOCH

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 10—Following the fatality at Waterford Sunday evening when John Kellen, quarry worker, was struck and killed by a New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad train and because of the report that Kellen had been at a hooch joint drinking a considerable time prior to the fatality, the residence of Joseph Cappoza, Poquyogh, was raided yesterday afternoon. As a result of the raid Cappoza was presented before Judge Frederick Dimmock in the Waterford town court last night charged with violation of the liquor law. He was held for trial Friday afternoon. Kellen, it is claimed, had been a frequenter at the Cappoza home for a year or two and although the place was reputed to be a resort where liquor was served the authorities never moved in the matter. After the killing of Kellen the Waterford authorities decided to raid the house. Prosecuting Attorney James Floyd presented evidence to Judge Frederick Dimmock, which resulted in that official issuing a search warrant. Constables Frank Peabody and Chester Brigham were assigned to conduct the raid, and accompanied by Sergeant David Marks, of the railroad police, the officers swooped down on the house and found evidence aplenty of the liquor law being violated. Seven barrels of wine, 30 bottles of home-brew, a still and wine press were confiscated.

Kellen had been a frequenter at the Cappoza place and Sunday afternoon he spent much of his time there. It is further claimed that it was after imbibing at Cappoza's house Sunday that Kellen started to walk along the tracks to go to his home and his intoxicated condition resulted in his being struck by the train.

The killing of Kellen will probably result in at least one arrest, for property stolen from the railroad was found in the place and it is known who stole the property, which is copper wire.

ASLEEP AT AUTO WHEEL DRIVER CAUSES ACCIDENT

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 10—A coupe, being driven by Walter Duggan, 87 Belmont street, Pawtucket, R. I., and with George Hoyas, 18, also of Pawtucket, as a passenger, collided with a commercial truck owned by the Mary Oliver Candy company, New Haven, and driven by Herbert M. Champlin, New Haven, this morning, near Saybrook. Hoyas was thrown through the windshield of the coupe and Duggan sustained slight injuries. Duggan and Hoyas were brought to Lawrence hospital by Centerbrook state police, the former being discharged after slight cuts about the hands and face were dressed. Hoyas, who suffered severe lacerations of the face, is still a patient at the institution.

The crash was the result of Duggan failing asleep at the wheel of the coupe. With Hoyas he had been to New York and was speeding along the Post road in an effort to reach Pawtucket before daylight. When at a point near Old Saybrook and on the Oyster Point section of the road, the coupe overtook the truck, Duggan was asleep, but with his foot supplying fuel for the engine. The auto gained on the truck with rapidity and shortly after crashed against the rear of the heavier vehicle, the bump hurling Hoyas through the windshield and Duggan against the jagged glass. The Centerbrook state police were notified of the accident and an officer caused the injured men to be brought to this city and taken to the hospital. Champlin escaped injury and the truck was not damaged of consequence.

The time limit for the filing of petitions for nominations for the annual city election, which will take place September 13, will expire next Saturday, but to date but a solitary petition has been filed with City Clerk Julian D. Moran. That petition is for the nomination of Selectman William L. White, present selectman, for re-election. Petitions for member of council are in circulation for Robert B. Chappell and Mrs. Emily Spiers, and for Councilors Edward L. Streeter Jr., Malcolm M. Scott and John F. Murray, the sponsors of the last three petitions desiring the re-election of the councilors. Councilors Waldo E. Clarke and Albert W. Woodruff decline to seek office again. P. LeRoy Harwood, president of the board of school visitors, is circulating nominating petitions for Dr. Joseph M. Ganey. E. Victory Goldsmith and Frederick W. Edgerton, present members of the school board, whose terms of office will expire October 1, with a view to assisting in their re-election.

The New Haven police this evening requested the New London police to be on the look out for a Lincoln sedan, valued at $7,000, stolen from one of the streets of New Haven earlier in the day. The auto carries Connecticut registration, A-8246.

An automobile owned by Robert Keefe, Bellevue place and driven by Mrs. Keefe and one of the big trucks of the Thomas Transfer company collided this afternoon on Union street, corner of Methodist street. The pleasure automobile was damaged.

A stranger in New London was arrested at the Union station, this afternoon, charged with vagrancy, but he was far from a vagrant for he had $9 in his possession when arrested and was attired in clothing of good material, which enabled him to make a good appearance. The man, who refused to reveal his identity, was on the platform and was soliciting funds from passengers as trains arrived or from passengers awaiting the arrival of trains. He stated that he was without funds and was desirous of reaching New York, where he had relatives to whom he could go to obtain assistance. Sergeant Martin Kane observed the stranger and arresting him escorted him to the police station. There he was searched and the money was found in one of his socks. The conductor of a train that arrived here from Boston at 3:45 o'clock stated that the fellow had been observed talking with passengers at the Boston terminal earlier in the day. The railroad police have received numerous complaints recently because of beggars "working" the platforms of various stations and it is believed that the fellow arrested here today is one of a gang that has begged from patrons of the road. He was locked up and will be presented in the police court tomorrow morning.

Mrs. John Stanners, wife of former Fire Chief John Stanners, is critically ill at her apartment in the Harris building, State street.

LEFT HORSE HITCHED TWELVE HOURS, UNFED

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 10—Cullen Potter of South Coventry was fined $1 and costs amounting to $16.80 and given a 30-days suspended jail sentence, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of cruelty to animals, in the Coventry town court Tuesday evening. In imposing the sentence and placing Potter on probation for two weeks, Justice of the Peace M. Gilman gave the man a severe reprimand for his negligence. Frank P. Fenton, local agent for the State Humane society, appeared as the complainant and Grand Juror Robert G. Brook prosecuted. Sunday noon Potter drove his horse to Coventry Village and hitched it to a tree, hired an automobile to take him to Andover and forgot to return. His alleged message to have the animal taken care of was not delivered and having been there over 12 hours the horse was weakened from want of food and water. Monday morning, when the case was reported to the authorities, Potter was arrested by Constable William J. Button.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Centenary of the birth of Andrew Jackson Davis, a New Yorker whose extraordinary clairvoyant powers attracted wide attention in the middle of the last century.

The Most Rev. James J. Keane today completes his fifteenth year as head of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Dubuque.

Italy today will commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of Francesco Crispi, the eminent Italian statesman and premier.

The largest exhibition of gladiolus the world has ever seen will be staged in Rochester today at the opening of the 17th annual convention of the American Gladiolus society.

Representatives of the United States Potters' association and the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters will meet at Atlantic City today in an endeavor to agree upon a new wage scale for the pottery industry.

A direct and highly specialized attack on the merchandising problems of the retail store will mark the first annual convention of the Merchandise Managers' Group of the National Retail Dry Goods association, which begins today in New York city.

Miss Ruth Morgan sails from New York today en route to Geneva, where she is to preside over a great conference called by the International Alliance of Women for Suffrage and Equal Citizenship to draw up an international peace program.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A medley of action, tense moments, romance and color feature "The Scarlet Saint," a powerful drama of May love and December intrigue which comes to the Breed theatre today and Thursday as the main attraction of a double feature bill.

Based on Gerald Beaumont's widely read story, "The Lady Who Played Fidele," the First National picture is laid for the most part in New Orleans during the colorful Mardi Gras season. Enhancing the picturesqueness of the festival, with its grotesquely arrayed merrymakers are thrilling horseracing scenes.

The picture, an ideal co-featuring vehicle for Lloyd Hughes and Mary Astor, was directed for the screen by George Archainbaud. In its brilliant cast are also such popular film players as Frank Morgan, Jed Prouty, Lorna Duveen, Antrim Short, George Nevville and Jack Raymond.

Frances Marion's magnificent picture production, "Simon the Jester," featuring Eugene O'Brien and Lillian Rich, will be shown as the second feature today and Thursday. This is a circus story, the heroine being a bareback rider. Mr. O'Brien is said to have one of the best roles of his screen career. The excellent supporting cast includes Edmund Burns and William Platt, the latter a well-known midget.

RADIO

WEDNESDAY
NEW YORK.

492—WEAF—610.

6:45-7:45 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
7:15-8:00 A. M.—Prayer service.
11:00 A. M.—Hazel Bliss, soprano.
11:15 A. M.—Health talk.
11:30 A. M.—Hazel Bliss, soprano.
11:40 A. M.—"Keeping Fit," Elsie Mead.
11:55 A. M.—Hazel Bliss, soprano.
12:00 M.—Market and weather reports.
12:15-1:15 P. M.—Rolfe's orchestra.
4:00 P. M.—Music.
4:30 P. M.—"Buttercup," Eugenia Dawson.
4:4:45 P. M.—Dorothy Paca, soprano.
5:00 P. M.—Dora Gutentog, piano.
5:15 P. M.—Music.
5:30 P. M.—Dora Gutentog, piano.
5:40 P. M.—W. H. Preston, baritone.
6:00 P. M.—Dinner music.
6:55 P. M.—Baseball scores.
7:00 P. M.—Synagogue services.
7:30 P. M.—United States Army band.
8:30 P. M.—Saxophone octet.
9:00 P. M.—Ipana Troubadours.
9:30 P. M.—South Sea Islanders.
10:00 P. M.—"Doctor of Alcantara."
11:00-12:00 P. M.—Pelham Heath orchestra.

526—WNYC—570.

6:10 P. M.—Piano selections.
6:20 P. M.—Market high spots.
6:30 P. M.—Spanish lessons, V. H. Berlits.
7:30 P. M.—Police alarms.
7:35 P. M.—Talk, Winter Russell.
7:55 P. M.—Baseball results.
8:00 P. M.—Mary Killoran, soprano.
8:15 P. M.—"Outdoor Life," H. W. Wack.
8:30 P. M.—Seventh Regiment band.
10:30 P. M.—Police alarms; weather.
10:35 P. M.—Summer health hints.

455—WJZ—660.

1:00 P. M.—Madison orchestra.
2:00 P. M.—Weather; news.
4:00 P. M.—Baseball reports; news.
4:05 P. M.—Daily menu, Mrs. J. Heath.
4:15 P. M.—Fashion talk.
4:25 P. M.—Health Speakers' Bureau; news; baseball.
4:40 P. M.—F. Wright, songs; Rash and Adams, songs.
5:30 P. M.—News; baseball.
6:32 P. M.—Market closing; summary.
5:30 P. M.—Farm market reports.
7:00 P. M.—News; baseball.
7:05 P. M.—Madison concert orchestra.
8:00 P. M.—Imperial Imps.
8:30 P. M.—Philharmonic concert.
10:00 P. M.—W. Gordon, tenor.
10:30 P. M.—News; Astor orchestra.

405—WOR, Newark—740.

6:45-8:45 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
2:30 P. M.—Roy F. Snyder, bass.
2:45 P. M.—Anna Erickson, piano.
3:00 P. M.—Roy F. Snyder, ass.
3:15 P. M.—Crystal orchestra.
6:15 P. M.—Shelton Ensemble.
6:45 P. M.—Sports; Bill Wathay.
7:00 P. M.—Shelton Ensemle; news.
7:30 P. M.—Le Roy Montesanto, tenor.
7:45 P. M.—"Topics of the Day," Spencer Armstrong.
8:00 P. M.—Philharmonic band.
8:45 P. M.—La France orchestra.
9:45 P. M.—Monterey orchestra.
10:30 P. M.—Special feature.
10:45 P. M.—Concert Quintet.
11:15 P. M.—Bernie's orchestra.

263—WAAM, Newark—1,140.

11:00 A. M.—Happy Hour program.
12:00 M.—Luncheon music.
6:00 P. M.—Montroyal orchestra.
6:20 P. M.—"Where Shall We Spend Our Vacation?"
6:35 P. M.—Montroyal orchestra.
7:00 P. M.—Sport talk, Fred Hartley Jr.
7:15 P. M.—James Browning, tenor.
7:30 P. M.—Churchill and Rutan, banjo.
7:45 P. M.—James Browning, tenor.
8:00 P. M.—Melody Boys.
8:30 P. M.—Caldwell Entertainers.
9:00 P. M.—Richmond Ramblers.
10:00 P. M.—Four Towers orchestra.

316—WBRT, Bay Shore—1,380.

7:00 P. M.—Brewster hour.
8:00 P. M.—Optometry talk.
8:15 P. M.—Piano solos.

224—WODA, Paterson—1,343.

12:00 M.—Dance music; news.
12:30 P. M.—Musicale.
5:00 P. M.—Musicale.
5:30 P. M.—News of the day.
5:50 P. M.—Sport talk.
6:00 P. M.—Orchestra.

380—WGY, Schenectady—790.

6:00 P. M.—Markets; baseall.
6:30 P. M.—Bedtime story.
7:00 P. M.—Talk, "Book of Knowledge."
7:25 P. M.—Baseball scores.
7:30 P. M.—Eastman orchestra.
8:15 P. M.—Rochester music.

278—WHAM, Rochester—1,080.

7:35 P. M.—Baseball scores; weather.
6:30 P. M.—Bedtime story.
7:00 P. M.—Talk, "Book of Knowledge."
7:25 P. M.—Baseball scores.
7:30 P. M.—Eastman orchestra.
8:15 P. M.—Rochester music.

319—WGR, Buffalo—940.

12:00 M.—Weather and market reports
2:30-4:30 P. M.—Concert.
6:30 P. M.—Artist recital.
8:00-10:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
11:00 P. M.—Weather.

200—WMAK, Lockport, N. Y.—1,137.

7:15 P. M.—News digest.
7:30 P. M.—Same as WGY.
9:00 P. M.—Musicale.

306—WJAR, Providence—830.

10:00 A. M.—Housewives' Radio Exchange.
8:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
9:00 P. M.—Baseball scores; music.
10:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.

476—WTIC, Hartford—630.

6:30 P. M.—Dinner music.
7:30 P. M.—Announcements; weather; talk.
8:30 P. M.—Capitol orchestra.
8:50 P. M.—Talk.
9:00 P. M.—Entertainers.
10:00 P. M.—Dance music.
11:00 P. M.—News; weather.

333—WBZ, Springfield, Mass.—900

7:00 P. M.—Dance music.
7:30 P. M.—Baseball results.
9:00 P. M.—Concert.
9:30 P. M.—Musicale; artist recital.
11:00 P. M.—Weather; missing persons.

545—WTAG, Worcester—550.

12:00 M.—Market and weather reports.
6:30 P. M.—Dance music; baseball.
7:30 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
8:30 P. M.—Concert.
9:30 P. M.—Same as WEAF; news.

348—WEEI, Boston—868.

6:45 A. M.—Same as WEAF.
10:15 A. M. Talk, Anne Bradford.
12:45 P. M.—Farm market reports.
5:15 P. M.—Musicale.
5:55 P. M.—Markets; business news.
6:00 P. M.—Radio reviews; news baseball.
7:00 P. M.—Big Brother Club.
7:30-11:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.

256—WCSH, Portland—1,170.

10:00 A. M.—Housekeepers' hour.
12:00 M.—Recital.
12:57 P. M.—Time signals; weather; stocks.
3:00 P. M.—Victor hour.
6:00 P. M.—Recital.
7:00 P. M.—Market reports.
7:10 P. M.—Weather.
7:12 P. M.—Lost and found.
7:15 P. M.—News.
7:30 P. M.—Sport results.
7:35 P. M.—State of Maine talk.
8:30 P. M.—Same as WEAF.

469—WRC, Washington—640.

12:55 P. M.—Time signals.
1:00 PU. M.—Organ recital.
2:00 P. M.—Washington orchestra.
6:00 P. M.—United States Marine band.

309—KDKA, Pittsburgh—970.

7:15 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
10:45 A. M.—Market reports; news.
12:55 P. M.—Time signals; weather.
3:30 P. M.—Baseball scores half hourly
4:30 P. M.—Market reports.
6:30 P. M.—Dinner concert.
7:15 P. M.—Final baseball scores; music.
8:00 P. M.—Children's talk.
8:40 P. M.—News; market reports.
9:00 P. M.—Orchestra.
10:55 P. M.—Time signals; weather

461—WCAE, Pittsburgh—830.

6:30 P. M.—Dinner concert.
7:45 P. M.—Market reports.
8:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
9:00 P. M.—Dance music.
10:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
11:00 P. M.—Baseball scores.

349—WTAM, Cleveland—770.

8:15 P. M.—Talks.
9:00 P. M.—Municipal concert.
12:00 P. M.—Dance music.

517—WCX, Detroit—850.

7:00 P. M.—Dinner music.
9:00 P. M.—Symphony orchestra.

517—WJR, Detroit—850.

9:00 P. M.—Same as WCX.
12:00 P. M.—Organ recital.
1:00 A. M.—Jewett Jesters.

352—WWJ, Detroit—850.

7:00 P. M.—Dinner concert.
8:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
8:30 P. M.—Dance music.
9:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
10:00 P. M.—Orchestra.

BROADWAY
LAST TIMES
2:15-7-9 Matinee, Children 15c
2 — FEATURES — 2
"THE OTHER WOMAN'S STORY"
A tense gripping drama with ALICE CALHOUN
ROBERT FRASER
"DEVIL'S PARTNER"
A fine cast in this fine western Thursday, Friday, Saturday
VAUDEVILLE
5 — GREAT ACTS — 5

DANCE
TOWN HALL, BROOKLYN
FRIDAY EVENING
AUGUST 13
MUSIC BY CHAMPION FIDDLER
UNCLE JOE SHIPPEE
And His Funny Trio
ROUND AND SQUARE DANCING

What Is Going On Tonight

Norwich Radio club, May building.
Buckingham council, No. 14, Jr. O. U. A. M. in O. D. H. S. hall.
Norwich grange No. 172, P. of H., in Steiner hall.
Norwich lodge, No. 12, A. O. U. W., in Owls' hall.
Sachem chapter, No. 57, O. E. S., in Masonic temple.
Sebequonash council, No. 11, D. of P., at No. 59 Broadway.

NORTH STERLING

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Crowell and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Spooner visited friends in Providence, Tuesday of last week.

Henry Lewis took a trip to the salt water and caught a five and one-half pound rock bass.

This being one of the highest points in the state, got what little breeze there was during the hot wave of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher are entertaining their son-in-law and daughter from New Britain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crowell and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Pierce spent a few days the past week at Oak Bluffs, Mass.

Mrs. P. Dexter is entertaining her sister from Pawtucket, R. I., Mrs. Dorothy W. Plumner.

Edward Carr and Miss Alice Lemelon spent Sunday at Groton Long Point.

John Piscotti is in a hospital for treatment.

BREED THEATRE
TODAY — THURSDAY
A Super Double Feature Bill of Superior Merit
The Big Surprise Dramatic Hit
"THE SCARLET SAINT"
—With—
Lloyd Hughes and Mary Astor
A sensational expose of beautiful June shackled to frosty December — the revelation of a young womanhood which rebels against marriage that flies her to old age—
AND LOOK!
What's in the Second Feature?
"SIMON, THE JESTER"
A complete circus, with its wild animals, Monkeys, Lions, performing Horses and Dogs, a dozen trained Cats, dancing Donkeys, many sideshow freaks, clowns, fat man, fat woman, Giant, Midget and other Freaks
—With—
Lillian Rich, Eugene O'Brien and Billy Platt, the smallest man in the world.

BAND CONCERT —Given by—
St. Jean Baptiste Band
WEDNESDAY, Aug. 11, 1926
8 P. M.
Ponemah Wheel Club Lawn
Taftville

FURS and FUR COATS
WATCH OUR ANNUAL
August Fur Sale
With the most beautiful selections in this vicinity.
BEGINS AUGUST 20, 1926.
Prices will speak for themselves.
MODEL FUR SHOP
310 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.
Next to Charles Hagberg's Phone 2108.

Bunions
Quick relief from pain. Prevent shoe pressure.
At all drug and shoe stores
Dr Scholl's Zino-pads
Put one on—the pain is gone.

"I've always bought SOCONY"

SOCONY
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
PUMPS are everywhere
STANDARD OIL CO. OF N.Y 26 Broadway

Wednesday and Thursday Specials
Greater Savings Made Possible by Lower Mohican Prices for These Midweek Specials
THE MOHICAN COMPANY

Finest Meadowbrook Creamery BUTTER, 2 lbs. 85c
—Special All This Week—
Fresh Peanut Butter, lb.. 21c
Round, Sirloin, Porterhouse STEAKS, lb. 30c
Sugar Cured Sliced BACON, lb. 39c

Fresh Ground HAMBURGER, lb 15c
Fresh Sliced LIVER, lb 12½c
Fresh Cut PORK CHOPS, lb..... 29c
Fresh LAMB or VEAL for stewing— Pound 15c
Lean Cuts CORNED BEEF, lb. 11c

Fresh Caught MACKEREL, lb.. 12½c
Fresh Block Island SWORDFISH, lb.. 39c
Fresh Striped BASS, lb..... 29c
Fancy White TUNA FISH, can 23c
Maine SARDINES —5 Cans 25c

Pure White LARD, 2 lbs..... 37c
Fine Large EGGS Every egg good— Two dozen 69c
Flake White SHORTENING, lb.. 18c
—Extra Special—
Phoenix Club CHEESE—3 pkgs.. 25c

Fancy Turlock CANTALOUPES, Ea. 5c
White Juicy Freestone PEACHES— Three quarts..... 25c
Crisp Native SPINACH, 3-lb. pk. 25c
Native BEETS, 3 bunches.. 10c
Native Summer SQUASH, Each.. 5c

Mohican 7c Bread
BETTER BREAD
Weighing 16 ounces after baking

Freshly Made Peach Pies, Each 25c
Fresh Made Cookies (all kinds) 2 dozen 25c

Money-Saving Specials in Grocery Department

Snider's Tomato CATSUP, large bot. 23c
Franco-American SPAGHETTI, 3 cans 25c
Babbitt's CLEANSER, 6 cans 25c
Finest Selected Red Butterfly TEAS— ½-lb. package 27c
Fine Crepe TOILET PAPER; 8 rolls.... 25c
N. B. C. Copia CAKES, lb..... 21c
Granulated SUGAR —Five pounds.... 28c
Fresh Made Cocoanut MACAROONS— Pound 17c

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

DIED

DONATH—In Mystic, Aug. 10, 1926, Karl Edward Donath, aged 74 years.

KOPP—In New London, Aug. 10, 1926, Harriet, widow of Joseph Kopp.

BORN

RIDDE—In New London, Aug. 9, 1926, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Riddle of Uncasville.

MINCHEN—In Westerly, R. I., Aug. 10, 1926, a daughter, Helen Marie, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Minchen.

BASTIEN—In Baltic, July 29, 1926, a son, Ernest, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bastien.

JOHNSON—In Detroit, Mich., August 7, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson (Florence Wuttkey).

JORDAN—In Putnam, Aug. 9, 1926, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan of East Woodstock.

MARRIED

SULLIVAN—MONAHER—In Norwich, August 10, 1926, by Rev. William A. Keefe, John J. Sullivan of 40 Oak street and Miss Katherine L. Monaher of 41 Park street.

CAULFIELD—MINGO — In Norwich, Aug. 9th, 1926, by Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May, John Caulfield and Miss Minnie J. Mingo.

HORAN—MALONEY—In Amsterdam, N. Y., Aug. 5th, 1926, by Rt. Rev. Msgr. William B. Browne, John F. Horan of Amsterdam, and Miss Katherine A. Maloney of New London, Conn.

FUNERAL NOTICES

EDMOND—In Voluntown, Aug. 9, 1926, David Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Edmond, aged 7 months.
Funeral at the home of his parents, Thursday, at 11 a. m., D. S. T. Burial in Pachaug cemetery.

PRESTON—In Norwich, Aug. 9, 1926, Margaret T. France, widow of Charles H. Preston.
Funeral services at her late home, No. 16 Hedge avenue, Wednesday, Aug. 11, at 2:30 (D. S. T.) Burial in Maplewood cemetery.

SABROWSKI—In Norwich, August 8, 1926, August Sabrowski.
Prayer at his late home, 214 Boswell avenue, Thursday, Aug. 12, at 2 p. m. Services in the German Lutheran church at 2:30 (D. S. T.) Burial in Yantic cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
16 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 610-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2729 Providence St., Taftville

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
122 Main Street
Phone 228-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City
DANIELSON

ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director and Embalmer
PHONE 147 DANIELSON
WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
88 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 598 Lady Assistant.
CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2

COAL AND WOOD

SEASONED hard wood, $10 a load, oak, slab-wood, $8. Delivered anywhere Phone 489. jun18tf

FOR SALE—Split wood and kindlings, 3 baskets for $1.00. Fountain St. Wood yard. Tel. 2116 mar17

POULTRY

FOR SALE—Chickens, broilers or for roasting, alive or dressed. Phone 1488-3. jy28SWF

FOR SALE—R. I. Red laying pullets, weight 5 to 7 lbs. and in best condition; lack of space; $2.50 each. E. G. Shauffler, Ballouville, East Killingly road. aug11d

THUMM'S
HOME MADE MAYONNAISE
25c per jar
THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 Franklin Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—An old established grocery store. 54 Golden St., New London. aug11d

FOR SALE—Everhot Jr. electric cooker. Roasts, bakes, browns and stews from ordinary lamp socket current. Special price $9.95. City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. aug11tf

FOR SALE—One Papec ensilage cutter, No. 13. Irwin M. Jones, P. O. Leonard Bridge, Conn. Tel. Lebanon 42-3. aug11d

FOR SALE—German puppies. $35 Central Ave. aug11d

FOR SALE—$1,000 cash will buy a six-room cottage with all improvements; balance on easy terms. Also beach cottages priced right for immediate sale. Burton, 744 No. Main St. jul17

FOR SALE—Chelsea 5-tube radio set complete; 120 hour A battery; 90 volt B battery, tubes and $25 loud speaker. Price $60. Phone 1491-4. aug10d

FOR SALE—A two-family house; Falls section; for quick sale $3,500. Two-family house on East Side, for quick sale, $2,300. Norwich Land Title and Imp. Co. Tel. 2279. aug10tf

FOR SALE—Farm in Salem, Conn., on state road; 160 acres; new eight room house and furniture; barn full of hay; hen house and other buildings. For particulars address Samuel McDonald, Colchester, Conn. aug10d

FOR SALE—My farm, whole or in plots, 10 or 20 acres. P. Curtin, Baltic. aug9d

PRIVATE SALE of furnishings and fixtures including pool table, desk, office safe, etc., now going on at Baltic Inn. aug9d

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, fine gladiolas and asters especially. William Weaver, 8 Huntington Ave., Norwich Town. aug9d

FOR SALE—Homes, in city, village or country; New London and Windham counties. Some rare bargains. A. C. Burdick, Realtor, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug7d

FOR SALE—Large roll-top desk; like new. 45 Fanning Ave. aug6d

FOR SALE—8-room house, No. 2 Soule St., Jewett City. Inquire F. E. Robinson, Jewett City. aug4tf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. may28

WUZ in our Franklin street delikatusen store 'n the clerk sez, "How is that frankfruiter on the ice like a pretty girl?" 'n I sez "I dano, why?" 'n he sez "Dogonice." Fine lot of 50c pipes. Noble, Old Coon cigars, 5 for 30c. The best of um, All King Perfecto, 5 for 25c. Manila cigars 10 for 25c. At Fagan's Smoke Shop, opp. Woolworth's. jul30

FOR SALE—Homes; in city, village or country; New London and Windham counties. Some rare bargains. A. C. Burdick, Realtor, Jewett City; Thayer Bldg., Norwich. jul29

FOR SALE—A high grade Columbia Grafanola; all latest improvements; beautiful mahogany cabinet; cost new $120. Our price $49.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A high grade 88-note player piano at half regular price. Used as demonstrator only. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A 6-tube Fine Arts radio set with built in speaker completely installed $30. This is a brand new set at half its value. Easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—23 acre farm located 1 mile from state road. Price attractive. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Three family house on state road, with several acres of land. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ideal poultry farm near Jewett City. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn jul14tf

FOR SALE—2 acres land with 2 cottages. Price $3,150. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ten acre farm located on the state road. Price $3,000. Easy terms. William McNicol, Maynard Bldg., Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—17 acre farm with good buildings. Ideal location for poultry. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

E. J. TETRAULT—Agent for New Home sewing machines. Tel. 874-32, Baltic, after 5 p. m. Repairing on all kinds of sewing machines promptly done. All work guaranteed. Thirty years' experience. jul7

THE Westinghouse Automatic Iron, 75c down; $1 a month. $1 allowance for your old iron, City of Norwich Gas & Elec. Dept. jun29tf

ON THE OCEAN FRONT

We have a good 7-room furnished cottage with large veranda and 2-car garage on lot 60 foot front with substantial sea wall that we can sell for $4500.

TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE

Gear avenue, 9-room residence. Large reception hall. Lot is 75x128—$7,500.

JAMES E. MOORE
REALTOR.

FOR SALE

In Chelsea Parade Section, a six-room cottage, with improvements, including heat, room for garage. Price $5,500. Owner leaving town. For particulars inquire

FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Phone. Norwich.

WE ARE OFFERING
RIDGEWOOD PARK LOTS
(OCEAN BEACH)
AT A SPECIAL PRICE OF $790
GOOD UNTIL AUGUST 15
MAY WE TELL YOU ABOUT THEM
WRITE — TELEPHONE— —CALL
JAMES L. CASE
REALTOR
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE

One of the best located Gasoline and Oil Stations in the state. Always doing good, profitable business. Sold on account of owner's death, so it's a great opportunity for someone.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER
44 Shetucket Street.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

TO RENT

TO RENT—6-room tenement; recently remodeled. 335 Central Ave. aug11d

TO RENT—Large furnished room. Gentleman preferred. 149 Church St. aug11d

TO RENT—2 tenements, 1 4 room, 1 6 rooms; all improvements. Inquire, 26 Cliff St. aug11d

TO RENT—One of those fine 7-room apartments in the "Marion"; heat and hot water furnished by owner. Phone 896-2. aug11tf

TO RENT—Large furnished room; light housekeeping. 14 Church St. aug11d

TO LET—5-room flat. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St. Tel. 2146. aug11

FOR RENT—Apartment, 366 Washington St. Write M. Fuller, Norwich Town jul9FMW

TO RENT—Furnished 3-room apartment; conveniences. Phone 412-3. aug10d

FOR RENT—3-room tenement with all improvements. 176 N. Main St. aug10tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 73 McKinley Avenue. aug10tf

TENEMENT TO RENT—Good location. All modern improvements. Rent reasonable. Inquire 3 Water St. Tel. 1495. aug9d

STORE TO RENT—Good location; rent reasonable. Inquire 3 Water St. Tel. 1495. aug9d

TO RENT—Tenement of 3 rooms; all improvements. 89 Asylum St. aug6d

FOR RENT—Six room apartment. Phone 459. aug6tf

FOR RENT—One 5-room tenement; all improvements. Inquire Commercial Garage. aug6tf

TO RENT—6 room apartment, all improvements. 35 Fairmount St.

TO RENT—6-room tenement; all improvements; call at night downstairs. 51 Division St. jul29tf

FOR RENT—Storage space on top floor of Majestic Building. Elevator service. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. jul27

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; all latest improvements, 316 Franklin St. Also 3-room apartment, 308 Franklin St Inquire of Thos. Buckley, real estate agent. jul27tf

TO RENT—Lower flat, 5 rooms; also furnished room on second floor, 120 Broadway; ring 2nd bell. jul23tf

TO RENT—6-room apartment, 78 School St. jul8tf

TO RENT—Apartment of seven rooms; hardwood floors, nice locality. Call 931-4. jul3tf

TO RENT—3 rooms; pantry, gas, lights. School St. $10 a month. Call 2474-2. jul1tf

TO RENT—One of the finest 7 room apartments in the city, in residential section. Phone 896-2. mar15tf

FOR RENT—At 175 Broadway 3 room furnished apartment, heated, hot water, the year round. Phone 1506 or 1811. apr29

TO RENT—6-room apartment, also 8-room cottage. Phone 259. apr8tf-ecd

TO RENT—10-room apartment on Church St. Very desirable; rent reasonable. Inquire C. W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. jun2tf

TO RENT—Beautiful modern apartment at 60 Broad St. Heat and hot water furnished. Moderate rent. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. apr23tf

STORAGE

IN THE FIREPROOF MAJESTIC BUILDING. APPLY TO Gilbert Furniture Co.
68 BROADWAY.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

NOTICE—We buy old fashioned furniture. R. H. Ward, 31 Huntington Ave. Tel. 1003-2. jun26d

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward, Box 159, Norwich. Phone 861-13. Norwich 406 Willimantic. sept6d

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY
A CONNECTICUT corporation doing business in New London, Norwich and its vicinity, has increased its plant and production and is willing to dispose of part of its seven per cent (7%) participating preferred stock. If interested, we invite your inquiries. Write Investment, Bulletin Office. aug9d

NOTICE—We buy old fashioned furniture. R. H. Ward. Tel. 1003-2. jun26d

MR. FRANK TRACY—Please write to your daughter Edith, 23 Plum St., Providence, R. I. aug9d

AGENTS—Either sex, be our representatives, sell magic lustre, silver and metal polish, rapid seller, 50 per cent profit, credit given. Write O. K. Specialty Co., Norwich, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—An electric ceiling fan. Call 1933-4 or 1105-2. aug4d

T. J. CONNELLY—Tree cutter and remover 65 Boswell Ave.

CALL 2661-W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 38 Market St. apr29d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1405, nov17d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A Bruckner, 107 Franklin St. Phone 669. nov17d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 82 Market St. Phone 2168. tf

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Married man; good paying opportunity. Apply Room 502 Plymouth Bldg., New Haven. aug11d

DON'T BE SATISFIED with small pay. Make Real Money representing a Real firm. A dandy spare time proposition. Outfit free. Heath Nurseries, Manchester, Conn. aug3d

WANTED—Position as chauffeur by one who is experienced and knows the city. Write to 61 Union St., Ronald Curran. aug10d

WANTED—Boy or young man who can drive auto to travel with salesman. Only those willing to work. Steady job. Write particulars and salary to Box 120, Bulletin Office. aug9d

BRICKLAYERS—For Hartford, Conn. Maximum rate $1.37 1-2 per hour, experienced tradesmen, steady work, normal conditions. Apply ready for work to Hartford Open Shop Building Trades Exchange, 721 Main St., Hartford, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—Young man for selling work outside. Liberal commission paid. Very pleasant work. Some of our men make as high as $50 weekly. Write Box 44, care of Bulletin. jul27tf

FOR SALE—HORSES

FOR SALE—Horse, wagon and harness. S. Pogolowitz, 61 Fairmont St. aug9d

FOR SALE—CATTLE

FOR SALE—Three year old Guernsey cow with week old calf. F. L. Kanahan, R. D. 4. aug11d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1 1924 Chrysler Royal Sedan, 1 1925 Chrysler 70 Roadster, 1 1922 Lafayette Sedan, 1 1923 Cleveland Touring Car, 1 1923 Ford Roadster, 1 1922 Buick Touring Car, 1 1925 Maxwell Panel Delivery. John J. Herbert, 195 No. Main St. aug11

FOR SALE—1921 Essex roadster; excellent condition. Call 2504J or 379 W. Main St. after 4 p. m. aug10d

FOR SALE—Latest improved Lincoln, 5-pass. sedan; driven about 3000 miles; demonstration. A wonderful bargain; over $1,000 off of list price; terms if desired; trade considered. Waterman & Wolfe, Inc., New London. Phone 3040. aug10tf

FOR SALE—Lincoln sedan, 1923, in perfect shape. Rhode Island Motor, Westerly. Phone 4806 day or night. aug10d

FOR SALE—Chrysler 80 touring, 1924, in excellent condition throughout. Rhode Island Motors, Westerly, R. I. Phone 4806 day or night. aug10d

FOR SALE—Red touring $58.50; 1923 Chev. touring, $75. Parts for all cars. Bargains in new and used tires. Hodes Auto Parts, 391 West Main St., Norwich. Tel. 1391. aug9d

WANTED—Ford coupe in trade for '23 Essex touring. Phone 1139-32. aug7d

NEW HUDSON seven-passenger sedan from factory at factory price $1,425. First check gets this once-in-a-lifetime bargain. Telephone 2833. Adams Tavern Garage. aug7d

FOR SALE—1 new 6 Star roadster; 1 new 4 Star touring; 24 Ford coupe; 26 Chrysler sedan; 24 Hup. coach; 28 Reo sedan; 25 Henderson cycle; 26 Ford Del.; 24 Buick coupe; 21 Cadillac touring. Cash or terms. Adams Tavern Garage, Auburn Sales and Service. Tel. 2882. aug4d

USED CAR SALE—Dodges, Buicks, Essex, Overlands, Fords, open and closed models. Price $75 up. Laurel Hill Garage, Laurel Hill avenue, in rear of Laurel Hill school. Easy payments. Your car in trade. Open evenings.

FOR SALE—1926 Ford coupe, 1924 Jewett brougham, 1926 Hup, demonstrator, 1924 Ford roadster. Several older cars; all reasonably priced. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. jul27

FOR SALE—1925 Rickenbacker roadster, 1925 Chrysler roadster, 1925 Hudson coach, 1923 Buick roadster, 1920 Cadillac coupe. Small down payment; balance 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. jul13d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, U-61, Victoria coupe; 1925 Hudson coach; 1923 Buick coupe; 1923 Hupmobile 4-passenger coupe; 1923 Dodge coupe; 3 1923 Ford sedans; 1924 Ford coupe; 1923 Chevrolet coupe. Krieger Motor Sales, 191 No. Main St. Phone 646. jul13

FOR SALE—1925 Chrysler sedan, model 70. Excellent condition; low mileage. Privately owned. Box 56, Danielson, Ct. jul7tf

FOR SALE—New and used Harley Davidson motorcycles. Real good machines for real live fellows. Prices reasonable. Easy terms. J. P. Donovan, 185 No Main St. mar24d

USED CARS

AUGUST CLEARANCE
of every used car in stock at tremendous reductions. Prices are now lower than ever. Come in today—it will pay you.

1922 Ford Roadster	$45.00
1922 Overland Coupe	$130.00
1924 Essex Touring	$120.00
1918 Dodge Roadster	$55.00
1923 Chevrolet Touring	$90.00
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring	$50.00
1921 Overland Touring	$45.00
1923 Ford Roadster	$80.00
1922 Gardner Roadster	$75.00

STAR GARAGE
Plainfield, Conn. Phone 196.

USED CARS

1925 Ford Touring	$200
1923 Jewett Touring	$175
1925 Essex Coach	$475
1922 Hupmobile Road.	$275

The Norwich Motor Sales Co.
HUDSON-ESSEX
Sales and Service.
394 N. Main St.—Tel. 1780

FOR SALE

One Buick 1923 coach body, 5 passenger. Good condition. Buick parts, all models. Parts for all models Hudson and Essex, Studebaker Specials and Big Six, also Cadillacs. Buick parts, all models. Bargains in used tires and tubes. Truck parts, 1 1-2 to 5 ton. Model 57 Cadillac limousine. Good condition. We pay highest prices for all cars in any condition. Willimantic Auto Parts Quarry St., Willimantic. Tel. 1304-2.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WOMEN—Plain sewing. You can earn up to $5 daily. Spare time. Inclose stamped addressed envelope for particulars. Aladdin Apron Co., Asbury Park, N. J. aug11

WANTED—100 teachers at once. Must be Normal graduates. Free registration. The Holman Teachers' Agency, 325 Williams St., New London, Conn. aug10d

WANTED—A woman to take care of an invalid woman and do light house work. Mr. J. Wander, Box 163, Plainfield. aug3d

WANTED—A position to care for an invalid. Experienced. Tel. 2701. aug4d

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Child's lavender cape coat, Monday afternoon between New London and Groton Long Point. Call N. L. 2902, P. L. Shea. aug11

LOST, strayed or stolen Saturday night or Sunday morning, shepherd dog, from his home on 24 Cliff St. Mixture of colors and very gentle. Answers to the name of Sport. Finder notify 24 Cliff St. aug11d

FOUND—Black and tan hound dog. No name or tag on collar. P. J. Navin, Clark's Corner. Tel. 645-3, Willimantic Div. aug10d

LOST—Monday noon, between Uncas Bank and Union St., sum of money. Reward if left at Bulletin Office. aug10d

LOST—Saturday, lady's Elgin wrist watch, with gray band. Finder rewarded if left at this office. aug10d

LOST—Bunch of keys between Jewett City and Norwich. Finder call 789-3. Reward. aug9tf

LOST—Thursday, Bate horse. Finder notify Alex Alugel, R. D. 7, Browning Place. aug9d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE

The Registrars of Voters for the Town of Bozrah hereby give notice that they will be in session at the town hall, Bozrah, on Friday, Aug 6th and Aug. 13th, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 9 p. m., standard time, for the purpose of enrolling electors for caucus purposes and privileges in compliance with the laws of the state. Those who have previously registered need not appear again.

OLIVER C. GORDON,
WILLIAM J. McMANUS,
Registrars.
Bozrah, Conn., July 30, 1926.

BANKRUPT SALE

ON WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11th, At 2 o'Clock in the Afternoon (D. S. T.) I will sell at PUBLIC AUCTION the premises, Nos. 9 and 11 Pukallus Ave., Norwich, Conn., consisting of lot 82 feet by 108 feet, with two-tenement modern house with two garages, with right of way in rear to Smith avenue. Sale made subject to confirmation of Referee in Bankruptcy Thomas M. Shields; terms 10 per cent cash balance within three weeks.

Sale Will Be Held at Premises
9-11 Pukallus Avenue.
William H. Wakelee, Official Auctioneer

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

Now is the time to have the radiator put in A-1 shape for spring work. HERE is the place to have it done. We remove scale, sediment, and rust; we stop PERMANENTLY those leaks. We straighten the weak spots against vibration.
We recore or repair ANY TYPE of STYLE.
W. E. SHANLEY
499 MAIN STREET.

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
Cor. Main and No. Main St. Phone 2118

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1500
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Authorized Service Station for Rusco Brake Lining. Brakes Inspected Free
JOE MOORE'S GARAGE
95 Chestnut St. Phone 2838

PAIGE, JEWETT AND GARDNER
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM O. NOYES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 731-2

General Repairing, Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2838
95 Chestnut Street

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS
PALACE ALLEYS
Thayer Building Franklin Square
"Chip" Dugas and "Mike" Morin, Props. Phone 2104.

BOWLING
HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS AT "CHIP" DUGAS
Telephone 753-12 TAFTVILLE

PORTSMOUTH, R. I.

CONTRACTORS

JAMES FURNIGNARO
Contractor, Excavating and Mason Work
Phone 2391—123 Oakridge St.

A. COSENTINO
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Excavation, Stone Work, Specialist in Plaster Work
6 Valley St. Tel. 627-4

CALL 2564-3 for painting and cement work, done reasonably and expertly. may22tf

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

ALEXANDER H. MANES
Certified Public Accountant
43 Broadway Norwich

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Sell It

Business Notices.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Rural Homes
Need a Sanitary Sewage Disposal System.
Let us show you the best Vitrified Septic Tanks on the market today and explain their most exceptional advantages.
—The—
Peck-McWilliams Company.

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

DENTISTS

DR. ALFRED RICHARDS
Dental Surgeon
Rm 308, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 298

INSURANCE

Suppose You Have a Fire Tonight —
Are you sufficiently protected with Insurance?
Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent.
91 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE
HAROLD S. BURT
120 LAUREL HILL AVENUE
PHONE 2121.

E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Room 14, Central Bldg. Tel 2495-2

MERCHANT TAILOR

SWAHN THE TAILOR
HAS MOVED TO 2 CLIFF STREET
Opposite Chelsea Bank Phone 2191

MATTRESSES

SUSSMANS BEDDING
"The Rest for Rest"
At All Furniture Stores
SUSSMANS MATTRESS CO.
Chestnut St. Phone 871

MACHINE SHOP

BARBER'S Machine Shop, (L. and A. P. Guertin, proprietors) 23-25 Chestnut St. Tel 2142, does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly day or night. jun14tf

MUSIC

HELEN L. PERKINS
TEACHER OF SINGING
Phone 2197 Studio, Alice Bldg.

EDWARD BRENNAN
TEACHER OF VIOLIN
Tel. 792 317 Main St.

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds, promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co. 69 Franklin St

PLUMBING

T. F. BURNS
91 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
189 Franklin St. Tel. 1382

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via the New London Line
One Way Fare $3.38 From Norwich
Special Summer Service
Effective June 28 to Sept. 11, inc.
NIGHT SCHEDULE—Daily
Lv. New London 10.00 P.M.
Due New York, Pier 40 (Houston St.) 6.00 A.M.
DAY SCHEDULE—Daily, Ex. Sun. and Mon.
Lv. New London 7.30 A.M.
Due New York, Pier 40, N. R. 4.30 P.M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
$4.00 Round Trip from New London
Popular 2 day excursions to New York and return. Tickets sold Monday to Friday inclusive, good on day or night steamers going and returning next day.
Tickets sold Saturday good only on day steamer going and night steamer returning same day.
Tickets and Staterooms on sale at Union Station New London.
Special rates for accompanied automobiles.
The New England Steamship Co.

To Block Island
Daily Excursions from Norwich and New London
—Via—
MOTORSHIP NELSECO II
Leaving Norwich Mondays to Fridays at 9 A. M.; Saturdays at 10 A. M.; Sundays at 9:15 A. M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
Round Trip Fare $2.00
Special Price Every Tuesday and Thursday, $1.50
Children Under 12 Half Fare
Bus Connections
Norwich, New London and Block Island Line, New London, Conn.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

TRUCKING

WANTED—Trucking and expressing. Good service. O. Eccleston. Tel. 1878-13. jun28tf

G. W. TRYON—Light trucking, parcel delivery. Reasonable rates. Tel. 3148. jun28tf

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING. Low rates. Phone 1342. jun28tf

CALL 797 FOR
Local and Long Distance Moving
W. F. CONGDON, 80 Chestnut St.

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. jun25d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1241.

C. D. JORLYN, 292 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3.

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR R. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking. Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WALL PAPER

FOR SALE—$2.00 a gallon for paint; 10 cents a roll for paper. 183 West Main street. Max Blazer. mar1

WINDOW WASHING

WANTED—Windows to clean. New England Window Cleaner Co. Phone 820. Calls answered immediately. apr8d

CHEMICALS MAY REPLACE FLOWERS FOR PERFUMES

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—(AP)—The chemist's laboratory has duplicated nature successfully, this time in the realm of scents, and the chemical formulae of odors much different than those usually associated with chemistry society meeting here September 6.

Research in perfumes head an imposing array of subjects which will include efforts to apblong life by the biological chemist, work in the dye industry, rubber production, petroleum research and hundreds of other fields.

The largest number of foreign chemists ever to visit America will be included in the three or four thousand attendants at the convention, among them being some of Europe's foremost research authorities.

Prince P. Ginori Conti of Italy, Irene du Pont, Gabriel Bertrand, professor of biological chemistry at the University of Paris; Camille Matignon, member of the French Academy of Science; Sir James Colquhon Irvine, head of the Scottish university of St. Andrews; Leonor Michaelis of the University of Berlin and others are among the leading visitors.

The Bulletin Pattern Service

5553. Ladies' Morning Frock
Cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size requires 3 3-8 yards of 36 inch material with 1 yard of contrasting material for plait insert, facings on collar and band cuffs, and a string girdle 1 1-2 inch wide. Price 10c.

5381. Ladies' Dress
Cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size, if made as illustrated in the large view, requires 4 1-2 yards of 40 inch plain material, and 3-4 yard of contrasting material. The width at the lower edge of skirt is 2 1-4 yard. Price 10c.

The Bulletin Co., 11-13 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

5569. Child's Dress
Cut in 5 sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years. A 3 year size requires 2 yards of 40 inch material. Price 10c.

5000. Girls' Dress
Cut in 4 sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. A 10 year size requires 2 5-8 yards of 32 inch material if made with long sleeves. If made as shown in the large view 2 1-4 yards will be required. Price 10c.

The Bulletin Co., 11-13 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

BARBARISM, RUM WAR AND STYLES OF OLDEN DAYS

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—(AP)—A wartime barbarism, that might have caused Sherman's horse to echo his master's words, is recalled in the Centennial exhibition of the New York Historical Society. "Caltrops," picked up on the battlefields of the past, are today museum curiosities. They are starshaped iron spikes, about two inches in diameter, intended to pierce horses' hoofs and cripple them.

A "rum war" existed also in the days of America's first fight for freedom, as the Revolutionary exhibit shows. "Rum was extremely prevalent during the revolution," commented Alexander J. Wall, secretary of the society, "judging by the number of rum bottles that have been picked up over the fighting areas, and presented in museums today."

"What the Well Dressed Man—" wore during the American Revolution and what his less well dressed conquerors wore, is shown in graphic detail at the exhibit. The green and blue coats of the "Queen's Rangers", the green touched with red of the "Westchester Cowboys," the blue coats, breeches and hose that shaped the famous name of the "Jersey Blues," the red-face blue jacket, white waistcoat and buckskin of Haslet's Delaware Regiment—"the best-dressed men in the colonial army" —all are on display in painted plates.

MAIL-AD

FILL OUT AND MAIL TO THE NORWICH BULLETIN
NORWICH, CONN.

10c a Line, Average 5 Words to a Line—Wants, To Let, For Sale, Etc.

Name _____ Classification _____
R. F. D. or Street _____ Number of Insertions _____
Post Office _____ Amount Enclosed _____
Write complete ad below including name and address —Or if blind address is wanted mark X here ☐

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks: Weak; high-priced issues fall 5 to 15 points.

Bonds: Heavy; French and Mexican obligations lower.

Foreign exchanges: Mixed; French franc easier.

Cotton: Barely steady; southern selling.

Sugar: Featureless.

Coffee: Higher; European buying.

Chicago

Wheat: Higher expectation bullish government report.

Corn: Firm; excessive heat.

Cattle: Irregular.

Hogs: Lower; slow demand.

SLUMP IN INDUSTRIALS

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—(AP)—High priced industrial stocks cracked wide open under the powerful selling attacks of professional traders today, extreme declines in a number of issues ranging from 4 to 16 points. Sympathetic declines took place throughout the general list, giving the market the first sharp setback since the present "bull" movement started nearly three months ago.

The reaction, while not directly associated with anything in the day's news, undoubtedly was influenced in part by the increase of nearly $87,000,000 in brokers' loans reported by the New York Federal Reserve bank in the week ended July 28 and by the heavy selling of loans today which sent the call money rate up to five per cent.

While there is a rather general feeling that the market has not discounted all the good news in sight, the advance in many issues has been regarded as much too fast in conservative banking quarters so that today's reaction was not altogether unwelcome. Growing uneasiness over the French and Mexican economic situations has been reflected in the heaviness of the bonds of these countries and the renewed weakness of French exchange but is believed to have little direct influence on the price movements of stocks.

The most interesting trade development of the day was publication of the yearly teanage statement of the U. S. Steel corporation which showed an increase of 123,580 tons, the first gain this year. While this increase was smaller than had been hoped for in some quarters, it was pointed out that it ordinarily shows a falling off in new business.

U. S. Steel common broke over five points to 149 3-8 in the late trading, closing at 150.

General Motors was the spectacular individual feature. It opened with a block of 16,000 shares at the "spread" price up 219 to 211 1-2, sold down to 209, rallied to 218 in the early afternoon, collapsed to 206 and closed at 206 1-2 for a net loss of 15 1-2 points on the day. Heavy selling of this issue was accompanied by rumors that no stock dividend would be declared at Thursday's meeting of directors, the basis for these reports, if any, was not disclosed. Dupont, which has large General Motors holding, also broke 15 1-2 points to 295.

Case Threshing Machine and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe each broke about 9 point sand among the many issues to show net losses of 3 points or more were Air Reduction, Allied Chemical, American Express, American Safety Razor, Commercial Solvents "B", Electric Refrigeration, Foundation Company, Hudson Motors, Remington Typewriter, Texas Gulf Sulphur and Woolworth. Loose-Wiles Biscuit broke 4 points to 146 1-2 in the early trading, more dot a new record high price of 164 3-4 and then fell backto 155 1-4 for a small fractional loss on the day. Sloss Sheffield was run up over 6 points to a new record high at 142 1-2 but later slipped back to 136.

Rails yielded with the industrials although the declines were not as large. Atlantic Coast Line broke 6 3-4 opints to 219 1-4, while New York Central, "Nickel Plate" common, Chesapeake and Ohio, Southern Railway, Rock Island and several others fell back 13 to 2 points.

The principal commodity markets pointed upward. Active wheat futures advanced 1 to 11-2 cents a bushel, with buying influenced by belief that the crop yield will fall below recent private estimates. Cotton closed 4 to 8 points net higher after an early period of heaviness. Raw sugar was unchanged and coffee prices rallied 17 to 20 points on trade buying and covering.

Call money renewed at 4 1-4 per cent advanced to 4 1-2 and thence to 5, closing at the top figure. Out of town banks are reported to have made heavy withdrawals during the day. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Renewed selling of French francs, which broke over 10 points to around 250 cents, featured the irregular foreign exchange market. Demand sterling held firm around $4 85 2-4. Belgian and Italian rates yielded slightly but Spanish pesetas made further recovery.

STOCKS.

Sales (in hundreds) | High. | Low. | Close.

2	Abra & Straus 49	49	49
2	Adams Expr . 114½	114	114¼
6	Adv Rumely . 16	15	15
4	Abumada Lead.. 8	8	8¼
240	Air Reduct ...145⅜	137	141⅜
4	Ajax Rubber . 9⅝	9½	9⅝
1	Ak P W Pap . 27	27	27
462	Al Ch & Dye.. 139½	135	135¼
34	Allis Ch Mfg. 91⅞	90½	91¼
51	Amerada Corp. 32	31	31
15	Am Ag Ch ... 17⅝	17¼	17⅜
4	Am Ag Ch pr. 62½	61¼	61¼
1	Am B M pr ... 57½	57½	57½
1	Am Best Sug .. 24⅝	24⅝	24⅞
1	Am Bosch Mag 19⅝	19	19⅛
1	Am Bosch Mag 19⅝	19	19⅛
3	Am Br Sh Fy 141	140⅝	140⅞
1	Am BrShFy pr119¾	119¾	119¾
172	Am Br Bov pr 96½	96½	96½
183	Am Can 62⅝	61⅞	61⅞
1	Am Car & Fdy 101	100	101
1	Am Car & F pr126⅜	126⅜	126⅜
1	Am Chicle ... 88½	88½	88½
197	Am Drug Syn 5⅜	5⅛	5⅛
6	Am Express . 131⅝	126⅛	126⅛
6	Am & F Pow. 21⅜	21	21
1	Am H & L pr. 36⅜	36	36
6	Am Home Prd 28⅝	28¼	28⅝
37	Am Ist Crp.. 35⅞	34⅝	35
3	Amer Lea.... 19¾	19¾	19¾
2	Am La Fr F En 13	12⅞	13
35	Am Linseed... 37⅝	36⅛	36⅛
7	Am Line pr .. 81¾	81⅞	81⅞
45	Am Loco 106⅜	105⅛	105¼
3	Am Meh & Fy. 72½	72½	72½
2	Am Metal Co. 52⅛	52½	52½
3	Am Metal pr .116	116	116
1	Am Piano pr.. 98	98	98
29	Am P & L 68¼	66	67½
18	Am Radiator .117	115½	116
1	Am Ry Exp .. 84½	84½	84½
87	Am Saf Ras.. 69½	66½	68
9	Am Sh & Clm 8¾	8¼	8½
67	Am Sm & Ref 139	136⅝	136⅝
1	Am Sm pr 117½	117½	117½
18	Am Steel Fdrs 45⅞	45	45
2	Am Sti Fd pr.112½	112¼	112¼
35	Am Sug Ref . 74¾	72½	72¾
1	Am Sug pr ...108½	108½	108½
9	Am S Tob A .. 33	31⅜	31⅜
35	Am T & T ...143⅜	142⅛	143⅜
4	Am Tob B xd.119	118¾	119
1	Am Tob pr ..111	111	11
3	Am Type Fdy . 21½	121½	121½
2	Am Type F pr 104	104	104
6	Am W W & El.60⅜	59¼	59½
6	Am Wool 24	23⅝	24
6	Am Wool pr .. 72	71	71
8	Am Wtg Pa pr. 1	¾	¾
21	Am Wt P prefs ¾	¾	¾
2	Am Z L & Spr 34¼	34	34
80	Anaconda Cop 51¼	50¼	50⅛
2	Ar Dan Mid .. 39⅝	39¼	39⅝
13	Arm&Co Ill A 14⅜	14⅜	14⅜
8	Arm&Co Ill B. 7¼	7¼	7¼
2	Arnold Con Cp 27⅞	27⅞	27⅞
33	Artloom Corp. 51⅞	50	51
8	Artim Cp 7pc.111	111	111
17	Art Metal Cons 20¼	20¼	20¼
33	Asso Dry Gds 45⅝	44½	45⅜
1	A Dry G 2 pr.105	105	105
117	Atchison . .. 142⅜	140⅛	140½
4	Atchison pr.... 99⅜	99	99⅜
13	Atl Coast Line226	219¼	219½
13	Atl G & W I.. 39½	37¾	37⅝
15	Atl Ref 113½	111¼	111⅜
1	Atlas Powder. 58¼	58¼	58¾
1	Aust Nichols pr 67	67	67
1	Auto Knit Hos ½	½	½
1	Automales pr .. 34	34	34
123	Baldwin Loco. 125⅝	122⅝	123½
217	Balt & Ohio.. 102	100⅝	101½
8	Balt & O pr . 72½	72¼	72⅝
1	Bang & Ar pr. 93⅞	90⅞	93⅞
3	Barns Cp A .. 26⅛	25⅝	26
34	Bayuk Cigar . 50⅞	48⅝	49
15	Beechnut Pack 63⅝	62	62⅝
7	Belding Hem . 70⅞	70½	70⅞
113	Beth Steel .. 48¾	47¼	47½
3	Bloom'dale Br. 33	32½	32½
3	Bloom'dale B pr106¼	106¼	106¼
5	Briggs Mfg Co 28⅝	28⅜	28⅝
31	Bkyn Edison .151⅝	149½	151
6	Bkyn Manh Tr .63⅝	62⅝	63⅜
23	Bkn Man Trm 63⅝	63⅜	63⅝
28	Bkyn Un Gas. 95	93¼	93⅝
16	Brown Shoe . 38½	35⅛	38½
10	Bruns B Col.. 30¼	30	30
1	Bruns T & R . 13	13	13
15	Burns Br A...135⅛	135	135
1	Burr Add Mch103⅜	103⅜	103⅜
2	Butte Coper ... 5¼	5	5
16	Butte & S Min 11¼	11	11¼
9	Calif Pack 73	73	73
29	Butterick Co.. 60¼	59	59
5	Cal Pet 32½	32½	32½
5	Callahan Z Ld. 2	1⅞	2
7	Cal & Ar M .. 73½	72	72
12	Cal & E C C. 18¼	18¼	18¼
23	Case Thresh .. 168	153½	159½
10	Case Th pr.... 118¼	116⅝	116⅝
5	Cent Leather . 8¼	8	8
5	Cen Leath pr. 53¾	52¼	52½
1	Cen R R NJ .288	288	288
10	Cen Rib Mills 17½	16¾	17½
38	Cerro de Pasco 72⅞	70⅝	70⅝
51	Ch & Ohio ...145⅞	143	143
1	Ch & Alton ... 6⅝	5⅝	5⅝
4	Ch & Al pr ... 8¼	8	8¼
1	Ch & E Ill Ry .. 31½	31½	31½
1	Chi E Ill pr.... 40¼	40¼	40¼
1	Chi Gt W 9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
14	Ch M & St P. 12¾	11¾	12
3	Ch M & St Pcf 11⅞	11⅝	11⅝
33	Ch M&StP pr. 20¼	19½	19½
7	Ch M&StP pcs 19½	19½	19½
21	Ch & N'west . 74⅞	73½	73½
3	Chi Pneu Tool114½	114	114
49	C R I & P .. 59½	58	58
3	C R I F 7 p pr100½	100½	100½
3	Childs Co 52	51½	52
20	Chile Copper... 34⅝	34¼	34⅝
20	Chile Cop 34¾	34¼	34⅝
308	Chrys Corp .. 37⅞	36¼	36¼
3	Chrys C p A...104	103½	104
24	Coca Cola 163	160⅜	161½
14	Collins & Alk n48¾	47⅞	48¼
4	Collins & Alk p107	106	107
30	Col F & Ir.... 46¾	44½	45½
1	Col & Stnw... 67½	67½	67½
4	Col G & E 53½	53¼	53¼
8	Col Carb 62¾	62¼	62¼
4	Com Credit 27¾	27½	27½
2	Com Inv Tr .. 66½	66	66
6	Com Sol B ...165	162	162
48	Cong Nairn .. 24½	23½	23⅝
2	Cong Cigar .. 42½	42½	42½
1	Conley T F st. ⅝	⅝	⅝
69	Cone Cigar .. 72½	70¾	70¾
1	Cons Cig pr .103⅝	103⅝	103⅝
276	Cons Dis . .. 4½	2½	2½
131	Con Gas xd ...100½	108½	109¾
82	Cont Mot . .. 12½	11½	11¾
111	Corn Prod 46	44½	45⅝
1	Corn Pr pr ...126⅞	126⅞	126⅞
3	Coty Inc 50	50	50
2	Cruc Steel .. 77½	76	76
2	Cub Can Sug . 9¾	9½	9½
9	Cuba Cn S pr. 40½	39⅞	40
16	Cuba Co The.. 51	50½	50½
4	Cuba Co rts .. 11⅛	10¾	10¾
8	Cuba Am Sug 26½	26	26⅜
4	Cudahy Pack.. 98½	98½	98½
1	Curtiss Sons Inc97	97	97
3	Cuh Sns 7pcpr107¼	107½	107½
100	Davison Chem. 39⅝	38	38
9	Del & Hud 166⅜	165	165
1	Del Lk & W ...145	145	145
1	Den Rio G & W 46¾	44⅞	45¼
3	Detroit Edi 136½	136	136
70	Dodge Br A .. 32¾	31⅞	31⅞
5	Dodge Br pr .. 88	87½	87⅞
1	Doug Pect . .. 34	34	34
10	DuP de N. ...309	295	295
1	DuP de N deb 108	108	108
1	East Kodak .. 114½	114½	114½
13	Eaton Axe & S 23⅝	23⅛	23⅛
10	Elec Auto Lite 72	70	70
86	Electric Boat.. 7¾	7	7¾
46	Elec Boat 7¾	7	7¾
18	El Pow & Lt. 19½	19½	19½
2	El P & L pr cf 97	96¾	97
8	Elect Refrig . 66¼	62½	63⅜
45	Elec Stor Bat. 87¾	86	86¾
2	Elk Horn C pr 24⅝	23¾	23⅝
1	Emer Brant pr. 12	12	12
1	Emer Brant prcl12	12	12
3	Endi Johnson.. 67½	67½	67½
5	Eng Pub Sve.. 24	24	24
2	Equit Of Bg pr123¼	123¼	123¼
16	Erie R R 35	34⅝	34⅝
87	Erie 1 pr 44½	43⅝	44½
10	Erie 2 pr 41⅝	41	41⅝
3	Eureka V Cl . 53⅜	52⅜	53
74	Fam Pl Las...117¾	116	116½
1	Fed Lt & Tract 33⅜	33	33
124	Fed Mot new. 23	21	21⅜
1	Fid Fne F Ins.155	155	155
2	First Nt Stores 33½	33	33
85	Fisk Rub 18⅝	18	18
1	Fisk R 1 prstpdS1	81	81
82	Fleischman Co 51½	50	50
32	Foundation Co 98	93¾	94
21	Freeport Texas 31	30¾	30¾
4	Gabriel Soub.. 32½	32⅜	32½
2	Gardner Motor 6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
14	Gen Am Tank 46	45¾	45⅞
58	Gen Asphalt . 72⅜	70	70
3	Gen Asph pr ..111⅜	111⅜	111⅜
8	Gen Cigar 50	49½	49½
121	Gen El new .. 99	88⅝	88⅝
15	Gen El pr 11¼	11⅛	11¼
62	Gen G & E A. 50⅜	48	49
3426	Gen Mot . ..219	206	206½
3	Gen Mot 7 pc.119⅜	119⅜	119⅜
2	Gen Out Ad A..54⅛	54⅛	54⅛
8	Gen Out A ctf 33½	33⅜	33⅜
33	Gen Ry Sig ... 89⅛	88¼	89⅜
42	Gib Bros 56¼	54	55⅞
33	Glidden Co .. 18½	18¼	18½
11	Gold Dust . . 52⅛	51½	51⅝
7	Goodrich BF Co 50⅝	49⅞	50
5	Gdy T&R pr..105	104⅜	104⅜
7	Goth Silk Hos 51⅞	51	51
1	Goth S Hos .. 50	50	50
3	Gould Coup A 16	16	16
48	Gr Con Min... 25½	24⅝	24⅝
3	Gt Nor I Ore.. 19⅞	19⅞	19⅞
23	Gt Nor Ry pr. 75	73⅞	74⅛
14	Greene Can Cop 21	20⅝	20⅝
3	Guant Sug 7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
3	Guant Sug 7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
7	Gulf M & N .. 35	34	34
1	Gulf M & N pr105⅞	105½	105½
22	Gulf Sta Stl . 74½	72¾	72¾
1	Hanna Co 1 pr 55	55	55
7	Hartm Corp .. 27½	27½	27½
1	Helme G W Co 77	77	77
6	Hoe & & Co A. 34⅜	34	34⅜
2	Housch Pr 43¾	43¼	43¾
1	Homest Min .. 55½	55½	55½
2	Houston Oil . 59⅞	59	59
6	Hods Sound Co 38	37⅝	37⅝
4	Hud & Man ... 33⅝	31⅝	32⅝
403	Hud Mot Car. 71¾	68½	69½
127	Hupp Mot Car. 27⅝	25½	26½
4	Illinois Cent . 121	120¼	121
33	Ind O & Gas.. 26⅛	25¾	26⅛
2	Ingers Rand .. 91¾	91¾	91¾
6	Inland Steel .. 43⅝	43	43
5	Insp Cop 25⅛	25⅛	25⅛
37	Inter Rap Tr. 42⅝	42	42⅝
10	Inter Rubber . 16⅞	16⅞	16⅞
1	Int Bus Ma ... 49¼	49¼	49¼
105	Int Cem rts .. ⅝	⅝	⅛
20	Int Cement .. 55¼	54	54½
333	Int Comb Eng 59¼	56¼	57
33	Int Harv Co . 132½	130½	132
48	Int M Ma pr . 30⅝	29	30¼
21	Int Nickel 37⅛	37	37
7	Int Paper 64	62	63
1	Int R of C A p 63	63	63
22	Int Tel & Tel.119¾	118¾	118½
23	Int Tel Tel rts 8¾	8¼	8¾
2	Jewell Tea . .. 39	38¾	39
6	Jordan Mot Car 24⅞	24¼	24¾
22	Kan Cy So Ry 45¾	44½	44½
1	Kayser J Co.. 39	39	39
2	Kelly Sp Tire . 13⅜	13	13
48	Kenn Copper . 58⅜	57⅜	57⅜
1	Kinney G R Co. 69½	69½	69½
15	Kresge S S Co 53⅞	52½	52½
1	Kreske Dept St 23¾	23½	23½
32	Lago O & Tr. 22⅜	21⅜	22
8	Lambert Co . 56	55½	55⅞
11	Lehn & Fk Pr 37⅜	37⅛	37⅛
4	Life Sav ctfs. 21¼	21	21¼
2	Lig & My Tb. 85	86	85
11	Lig & My T B 84⅝	83¾	83⅞
2	Lima Loco ... 62	61½	62
24	Loew's Inc ... 42¼	41½	41⅝
8	Loft Inc 7⅜	7⅛	7⅛
52	Loose W Eli...166⅜	146½	165⅜
4	Loose W B 2 pr166½	165	165⅞
27	Lorillard P Co 31⅝	31	31⅜
4	Louis Oil ref . 16⅛	16	16⅛
2	Lou & Nash .135	134½	134½
4	Ludlum Steel . 36½	35⅝	35⅝
973	Mack Trk . . 131	128¼	129
1	Mackay Cos .. 134¾	134¾	134¾
5	Macy R H Co .112¼	110	110¼
2	Magma Cop ... 41⅞	41	41
1	Mallison & Co 17⅞	17¾	17¾
24	Manh El Sup . 87¾	86	86⅝
4	Manh Ry m g. 53	53	53
5	Manila El Corp 35	35	35
1	Mar Oil Exp.. 22¼	22¼	22¼
3	Mkt St Ry 4⅝	4½	4½
1	Mar St Ry prpr40½	40½	40½
1	Mar S R 2 pr. 13½	13½	13½
122	Marl Oil 59	57⅞	58
20	Math Al W 79	78½	78½
5	May Dept St..122⅜	122⅛	122⅛
9	Maytag Co . . . 23⅜	23	23⅜
13	McCle St 60	60	60
14	Miami Corp . 15⅝	15¼	15¼
34	Mid Con Pet . 32⅜	31⅝	31⅝
2	Mid Sta Oil . . 1¼	1¼	1¼
4	Mid Sta Oil cf ⅞	⅞	⅞
2	Mid St Pr pr. 125	126	125
1	Minn & S L .. 1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
1	M SP & S S M 36⅞	36⅝	36⅝
5	Mo K & T 37	36	36
21	Mo K & T pr.. 92¾	91½	92
40	Mo Pacific 38⅞	38	38
31	Mo Pac pr 91⅞	89½	90
2	Mont Pow 80⅜	80⅜	80⅜
82	Mont Ward .. 73½	71⅝	72¼
7	Moon Mot Car 23⅞	23¼	23⅝
8	Mother L C .. 6¼	6⅛	6¼
1	Mot Pic Cap. 13¾	13¼	13¾
4	Moto Met A .. 42	41⅝	41⅝
2	Motor Wheel .. 23	24	24
7	Murray By Co. 8¾	8⅝	8¾
39	Nash Motors . 59⅞	58¼	58¼
10	Nat Acme stpr 9	8½	9
20	Nat Biscuit .. 94⅜	92⅝	93¼
1	Nat Bis pr .. 130	130	130
15	Nat Csh RegA 42	41½	42
1	Nat Clk & Suot24⅛	24⅞	24⅞
2	Nat Clk&Su pr 75	74⅝	74⅝
40	Nat Dair Pr .. 73	71½	72
1	Nat Dept Strs 26	26	26
1	Nat Dist Pr .. 21¼	21	21¼
1	Nat Dist Pr pr 44	44	44
3	Nat Ena & St .. 22¾	22	22⅜
8	Nat Lead 162	161½	162½
16	Nat P & Lgt.. 23¾	22	22
1	Nt Rys Mx 1 p 5⅞	5⅞	5⅞
2	Nt Ry Mx 2 pr 2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
5	Nat Supply .. 64¼	63¼	63¼
7	Nat Tea 160	156½	156½
22	Nev C Cp new 14¼	14	14⅛
18	N Y Air Bk .. 43⅞	42	42
44	N Y Canners . 50½	48½	49
115	N Y Central ..138	135¾	136⅜
3	N Y C & St L. 178	177	177
1	N Y C & St Lpf105	102	102
2	N Y Dock 23	22½	23
20	N Y & Har ...159⅜	159¼	159¼
32	N Y N H & H 45⅝	46	45
2	N Y Ont & W. 24¼	24¼	24¼
2	Nlag Fls Pw p 28	28	28
44	Nor & West ...158⅞	156	156
40	Nor Am Co 55½	54¾	54¾
1	Nor Am Ed pr. 95⅜	95½	95½
41	Nor Pac 75	74⅜	74⅜
2	Nor T & R 8	7⅞	8
1	Nunnally Co .. 16⅜	15⅝	15⅝
2	Oil Well Supply 35	34½	35
14	Omnibus Corp . 16½	15⅝	15⅜
1	Oppen Col 57	57	57
1	Otis Elevator . .122	122	122
5	Otis Steel 10	10	10
1	Otis Steel pf .106	100	100
1	Owens Bottle . 73	73	73
1	Pas G & El ..129	129	129
51	Packard Mot Co43⅞	43	43
34	Paige Det Mot 16⅝	16⅛	16¼
1	Pan Am Pet .. 67⅜	67⅜	67⅜
7	Pan Am Pet B 68	67⅝	67⅝
1	Pan Am WB...38	38	38
12	Panh Pr & R. 20¼	19⅝	19⅝
15	Pathe Ex A 57⅜	56⅝	57
1	Penick & Fd. 19⅛	19⅛	19⅛
1	Penn Coal & Ck 7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
15	Penn R R 54⅜	54⅛	54⅛
10	Penn Seab Stl 1¼	1¼	1¼
1	Peop Gas Chi. 124	124	124
41	Pere Marq ... 99⅜	98⅝	98⅝
1	Pere Marq pr. 90	90	90
3	Pere Marq pr p93	93	93
4	Pa & Rdg C &I 38½	38	38
1	Philip Mor&Co 22⅝	22¼	22¾
71	Phillips Pet. . 48	47½	47½
75	Pierce Ar Mot C31	29	29
9	Pierce Oil . ... ⅝	⅝	⅝
6	Pierce Pet . .. 3⅛	3	3
1	Pitts & W Vt 109⅜	109⅜	109¾
144	Postum Cereal 105½	102⅝	103½
31	Pub Ser CpNJ 91⅜	89¾	91
18	Pullman Co.. 119½	117	117
4	Punta Al Sug . 36	35½	35½
13	Pure Oil xd .. 29	26½	26½
32	Radio Cp Am.. 42⅞	43⅝	42⅞
24	Rad Con Cop . 15	15	15
35	Reading Co .. 96⅝	94⅝	95½
1	Read 1 pr 40¾	40¾	40¾
1	Read 2 pr 42	42	42
3	Reid Ice Cr... 46⅜	46½	46½
28	Reming Type. 122	118⅝	118⅝
3	Replogle Steel 9⅝	9¾	9¾
20	Rep Ir & St.... 62	60	60½
1	Rey Sping 6¼	6⅛	6¼
30	Reyn Tob B .. 97½	979	97
20	Roy D NY sh.. 50¼	49¾	50¼
42	St Jos Lead .. 44⅛	43½	43⅝
6	St L S F Ry . 97	96⅞	96⅞
6	St L S'west .. 69¼	68¼	68¼
3	Savage Arms . 79⅞	78¾	78⅞
127	Schulte Ret C 51⅝	48	50
13	Seab Air Line . 24	23	23
1	Seab A L pr . 37⅞	37¾	37⅞
27	Sears Roeb ... 57⅜	56¼	56¾
5	Seneca Cop ... 6	6	6
153	Shell Un Oil .. 28½	27¼	27⅝
25	Shub The Cor 67	67	67
16	Simm Petrol. 17⅝	17	17¼
29	Sinc Con Oil . 21⅝	21¼	21¼
25	Skelly Oil . .. 34½	33⅝	33⅞
60	Sl Sh St & Ir 142½	136¼	138
6	So Porto S .. 115	113	112⅜
30	Southn Cal Ed 31⅜	31	31¼
12	Southn Da A . 52	51	51⅞
12	South Dair B . 32	31	31⅜
56	South Pac . .. 107¼	106	106¼
47	Southn Ry 121½	120½	120⅝
1	Sou Ry pr 94½	94½	94½
9	Spicer Mfg ... 24⅞	23⅝	24
17	Std G & E 55⅞	55½	55⅜
1	Stan G & E pr 57	57	57
79	Std Oil Cal ... 59½	58⅝	58⅝
582	Std Oil N J ... 43¼	42	43⅜
7	Std Oil NJ pr.116¼	116¼	116¾
2	Sterl Prod ... 56¼	56	56¾
63	Stewart War sp 76¾	74¼	74⅝
2	Strom Carb .. 68½	67⅝	67⅝
60	Stude Corp xd .56⅝	53⅜	54⅝
1	Subm Boat .. 1⅝	1¼	1⅜
10	Superior Oil . 1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1	Superior Steel. 26	26	26
1	Sweets Co Am 13¾	13¼	13⅝
1	Symling Co 8¼	8¼	8¼
3	Symling Co A .. 17	17	17
2	Telaut Corp . 12¾	12	12¾
10	Tenn C & C .. 12¾	12	12
20	Texas Co 52⅝	52¾	52⅝
41	Tex Gulf Sulp.170½	167½	167¾
6	Tex Pac Ry .. 54½	54¾	54½
16	Tex Pac C Oil 14⅝	14¾	14¾
2	The Fair Co . 29	27⅝	27⅝
1	Third Av Ry . 35¾	35¾	35¼
4	Thomp J R Co. 46	46	46
2	Tide W Oil ... 31	31	31
21	Tim Rol Bear. 61¼	60½	60⅝
77	Tob Prod A 108⅜	106½	106½
1	Tob Prd A 112	112	112
31	Trans Oil 4⅝	4½	4½
3	Under Type . . 54	54	54
40	Un Bg & Pr.. 61¾	58

PARTLY CLOUDY TODAY; FAIR TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, August 11, 1926

THE WEATHER

Conditions

The northwestern disturbance is near and east of Hudson bay, with a [illegible] south and southeast. Pressure is high along and off the Atlantic coast. Bermuda [illegible]

The outlook is for showers on Wednesday, in the middle and north Atlantic states. It will be cooler on Wednesday in the north portion of the middle Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook and Sandy Hook to Hatteras [illegible] south and southwest; weather partly overcast [illegible]

Forecast

Eastern New York: Partly cloudy, [illegible] cooler [illegible] and central portions [illegible] southern New [illegible] possibly [illegible] Wednesday [illegible] Thursday

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature [illegible] Tuesday:

	Temp.	Bar.
[illegible]	[illegible]	30.20
[illegible]	[illegible]	30.30
[illegible]	[illegible]	30.40

Comparisons

Predictions for Tuesday: Fair, not [illegible] predicted.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

	Sun	Moon	Water
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	a m
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	7:52
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	8:19
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	8:45
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	9:09
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	9:34
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	10:04
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	10:25

[illegible] it is low [illegible] flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

[illegible] the Taftville [illegible] received [illegible] John [illegible] of Essex [illegible] have been [illegible] to resume [illegible] officers [illegible] women [illegible] convalescent [illegible] condition [illegible] in 3 [illegible] Vermont. A few [illegible] winds [illegible] W. Weller [illegible] were very [illegible] attention. [illegible] came the [illegible] A visit [illegible] where [illegible] and [illegible] the gov- [illegible] and [illegible] The club [illegible] trout, [illegible] boat sea- [illegible] and game to [illegible] and Game [illegible] by the num- [illegible] organization. [illegible] to im- [illegible] ing con- [illegible] angering for [illegible] and Gun [illegible]

[illegible] Avenue. [illegible] on the National [illegible] American [illegible] to. New [illegible] days. While [illegible] Mr. Lemont plans to go to Eliz- [illegible] ments have [illegible] paint [illegible] copper- [illegible] the new [illegible] will rev- [illegible] Mr. [illegible] of the lu- [illegible] was [illegible] Cot- [illegible] to loosen for [illegible] on the new loom [illegible] upon his [illegible]

[illegible] Master of [illegible] The [illegible] have returned to [illegible] after spending the [illegible] with Mr. and Mrs. Edward [illegible] and [illegible] moved [illegible] daughter [illegible] New Haven. Mr. [illegible] of Hartford [illegible] at her home [illegible] Hunt- [illegible] a few [illegible] visi- [illegible] P. [illegible] class of [illegible] meet- [illegible] tory to [illegible] her daugh- [illegible] of New Nor- [illegible] recent- [illegible] New Haven.

TRUMBULL CHAPTER, D. A. R. PLANS ANNUAL PICNIC

[illegible] Trum- [illegible] their list [illegible] or office in [illegible] picnic to [illegible] Wolf [illegible] was well [illegible] Lord a [illegible] ing and the [illegible]

[illegible] William Beaumont [illegible] were office as [illegible] on the Beau- [illegible] New Haven. [illegible] two pa- [illegible] on the He- [illegible] by Miss An- [illegible] served on Damon [illegible] he Mrs [illegible] The meeting closed [illegible] Mrs. Anna [illegible] Perry were [illegible] This- [illegible]

CONSTABLE ARRESTS WOMAN ON RESISTANCE CHARGE

[illegible] resisting an officer [illegible] Mary Lemont Archambault of Plainfield was arrested Tuesday [illegible] Constable Meyer Blumenthal. Constable Blumenthal accompanied Anthony Fiorentino to the woman's home to assist him in removing some furniture there belonging to him. While they were in the house Mrs. Archambault is said to have struck the constable several blows and her arrest followed.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS MAKE PLANS FOR THEIR ANNUAL OUTING

With Commander Leo L. Jacques presiding, the regular semi-monthly meeting of Richard Hourigan post, No. 594, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was held Tuesday evening in the post rooms on Main street, with a large attendance. Five new members were obligated at the meeting. A visiting comrade, Ord Leseman, of West New York, N. J., was present. Various matters of general interest were brought up for discussion. Sunday the fourth district of the Veterans of Foreign WarsofConn CHRDLUSHRR Foreign Wars of Connecticut will hold its annual clambake and field day at Barnes Point, R. I., and a number of the Norwich veterans are planning to be present. The fourth district includes Murphy Rathbun post of New London, Harley F. Chase post of Pawcatuck and R. E. Hourigan post of Norwich.

When the matter of the annual clambake was brought up for discussion, much interest was shown in the plans and indications are that a number of the Norwich veterans will be present. Those who are planning to make the trip will meet at the local post rooms Friday evening to discuss the matter of transportation.

NORTHFIELD CLUB HAS PICNIC AT NORWICH TOWN

Saturday proved to be another successful day for the Northfield club picnic held at the home of Mrs. Dwight W. Avery, Norwich Town. Although warm, there was a cooling breeze on her long veranda, where luncheon was served by Mrs. Avery, her sister, Mrs. Dwight C. Stone, of Hanover, and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Avery. A letter from Mrs. Harry Langworthy was read inviting the club members to Westerly, for their fall meeting.

Miss Blanche V. Smith, president, announced the different committees appointed at a previous executive board meeting, and Mrs. Richard M. Harding, vice president, read the report of the last meeting at Gales Ferry, in the absence of the secretary. Pictures were taken, and a rising vote of thanks was extended Mrs. Avery for her cordial hospitality.

Those present were Miss Blanche V. Smith, Franklin, Mrs. Frank J. Bailey and daughter, Danielson, Mrs. George H. Lincoln, and daughter, New London; Miss Nellie J. Starr, Uncasville, Rev. and Mrs. Dwight C. Stone, Hanover, Mrs. Rufus Turnage and two sons, and her mother, Mrs. Darby, Miss Maude E. Allen, Miss Alice G. Palmer and mother, Mrs. Richard M. Harding, Miss Mildred Zabriskie, Norwich and Mrs. Willard P. Haugh, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Avery and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Avery of Norwich Town.

MADE 815 MILE AUTO TRIP IN FOUR DAYS

Dr. and Mrs. Witter K. Tingley have returned home after a motor trip of four days, during which time they covered 815 miles to visit their children at widely separated summer camps.

Leaving Crescent beach Dr. and Mrs. Tingley drove to Portland, Me., on the first day and visited Mrs. Nelson C. Taintor, formerly Miss Ruth Thayer, at the State Street hospital. They found her resting comfortably and recovering nicely from an attack of appendicitis.

The following day they made Camp Maranacook, Readfield, Me., where they visited their son John Kinney Tingley, who was found to be in excellent health. On the Sunapee road, but from Bristol, they met a party of horseback riders. They were greatly surprised to find their daughter Barbara among the riders. They returned to Camm Interlaken with their daughter and visited for a time, then continued the return trip to Norwich.

The entire distance was made during daylight hours, no driving being done at night. The 815 miles was covered without a mishap and according to Dr. and Mrs. Tingley the trip was most delightful.

COUNTY ORCHARD TRIP SET FOR TUESDAY

The New London county farm bureau has invited members of the Connecticut Pomological society to go on the New London county orchard trip next Tuesday. The tour will get underway at 9 a. m., standard time, at J. R. Haley's orchards, Center Groton Mr. Haley has 15 to 20 acres of apples, the fruit being mostly sold at his roadside stand. The Haley farm is located on the road from Groton to Old Mystic. The cranberry bog of Elwin Haley will also be visited. Thence the party will visit orchards of W. I. Allyn in Ledyard (F. W. Burton, manager), where there are 25 acres of apples, 5 to 25 years old, one of the most successful apple orchards in the county. At the Allyn farm a basket lunch will be enjoyed.

The third stop on the tour will be at the farm of George Wheeler, Stonington, who has 1,000 to 1,200 apple trees of standard varieties. He also has an apple storage house and operates a cider mill to utilize the surplus and cull apples.

W. H. Darrow and others from the state college, and E. M. Stoddard of the Connecticut experiment station, will be on the tour and will discuss timely orchard topics as time permits.

PUBLIC CONCERT TONIGHT AT WHEEL CLUB GROUNDS

Announcement was made Tuesday that the Baltic band will give a public concert this (Wednesday) evening at 7:30 o'clock at the grounds of the Bonemah Wheel club in Taftville. Joe Berghinzo, leader of the band, stated that the program will be as follows:

Elmore, waltz	Huff
Extempore, overture	Hayes
Cecelia	Dreyer
Midnight	Donaldson
Exuberance	Hayes
Sea Flower Polka	Cornet Solo

Southern melodies and other well known and popular numbers will also be played.

NORWICH MAN FINED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

Abraham J. Stott of this city, arrested by State Policeman Arthur E. Whitmarsh on a charge of reckless driving was presented before Judge F. N. Dimock in the Waterford town court Monday. Scott pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $25 and costs. It is claimed he was operating his automobile at an excessive rate of speed and was cutting in on others on the road.

FRANKLIN WOMAN HURT IN FALL DOWN STAIRS

Mrs. Kate Johnson, 89, of Franklin, is a patient at the Backus hospital, in this city, suffering from a compound fracture of the wrist, bad bruises, a scalp wound and other minor injuries. She was found about 4.30 o'clock Monday afternoon, by Mrs. Styles and Miss Lydia Johnson, who reside with her, at the foot of the stairs leading to the cellar at her home. Dr. W. K. Tingley of Norwich was called and after treating the injured woman caused her removal to the hospital for observation and treatment. The fracture was reduced and on Tuesday the patient was resting as comfortably as could be expected. It is not known how Mrs. Johnson came to fall down the stairs.

WOMAN APPEALS JAIL SENTENCE OF 10 DAYS

Several cases were disposed of in the city court Tuesday morning by Judge Arthur F. Libby. Mrs. Hattie Taylor of Colchester, charged with a violation of the motor vehicle laws had her case nolled on payment of $3. Her offense was failure to have her operator's license with her.

Two cases of intoxication came next and were disposed of with the usual fines and costs.

The final case was that of Mrs. Louise Sawicki of No. 568 North Main street, charged with violation of the liquor laws, with actual sales. Attorney Thomas Kelly represented the accused and asked the court to hear particulars about the case before rendering decision. A plea of guilty was made.

The Sawicki woman, through an interpreter, told the court that she is the mother of six children, the oldest being 14 years of age. She had run the store since last March. Neither she nor her husband had ever been arrested and the party who asked for the liquor stated that he wanted it for his wife, who was sick.

Judge Libby fined the woman $200 and costs and sentenced her to 10 days in jail. Judge Libby stated that he was not being personal when he handed down the decision but it was because he wished to set an example of what might be expected in such cases. The woman appealed the decision and was released under bonds of $1,000.

TRANSFER BAKER IN HOPE OF REFORMING HIM

The transfer of Guy L. Baker, former assistant cashier of the First National bank of Putnam, Conn., from the Atlanta penitentiary to the United States Industrial Reformatory at Chillicothe, O., was done in the hope of reforming him, it is said.

The Ohio reformatory is the government's institution for young offenders, and Baker has until January 2, 1929 to serve, under a sentence of Judge Edwin S. Thomas in the United States court for Connecticut. A three-year sentence was imposed on Baker February 23, last, but he was credited with the time he had spent in the Hartford jail awaiting court action, which dated from January 2 of this year. He may be allowed some time for good behavior. It was as a hospital orderly in the Atlanta penitentiary that Baker was assigned to attend former State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatric of Connecticut, who was his chief in the Putnam bank, from which both embezzled. Baker was sent away ten days ago with a carload of other prisoners bound for the same destination.

PLAN TO ATTEND OUTING AT LAKE COMPOUNCE

Eastern Connecticut sportsmen are planning to attend the annual field day and outing of the Connecticut Fish and Game clubs to be held Saturday, September 4th, at Lake Compounce, under the auspices of the state board of fisheries and game. There will be 15 events and cups and prizes are to be awarded.

The events will include accuracy bait casting, distance bait casting, distance fly casting, dry fly accuracy, Connecticut field trail (to be run on pheasants) canoe races, rowboat races, swimming contests, canoe tilting contest, small bore rifle and pistol contest, trap shooting, archery contest, fancy diving contest and wood chopping contest.

SESQUI STAMPED ENVELOPES ARE EXPECTED SOON

The new type of stamped envelope issued in commemoration of the sesquicentennial exposition will probably be on sale in postoffices throughout the state within a few days.

The envelopes were first placed on sale in Philadelphia a week ago and have also been sold in Washington. Some of them are made in a special machine which is part of the post office department's exhibit at the exposition.

The design of the stamp on the envelope is an embossed liberty bell partly surrounded by a wreath with the years 1775 and 1926 on either side. Below are the words "Sesquicentennial Exposition." The envelopes are available in three sizes.

FAN USED 107 YEARS AGO IS FOUND IN NORWICH

Among articles of historic interest in Norwich, which have recently came to light, is a fan used one hundred and seven years ago in the pulpit of The Old South Church, Boston, by Rev. Joshua Huntington, father of the late Miss Sarah Ann Huntington of Norwich. Its use in this pulpit, a place sacred to reverence and sanctity would show that the sometimes intense heat of New England summers was then the same as now. The fan is made of whalebone, is in perfect condition, the makeup and pictured paper suggest Chinese origin. Printed on the holder are the words "Fan used by my father in his pulpit in The Old South Church, Boston."

An item in the Norwich Morning Bulletin Tuesday, July 18, 1876 stated that Sarah Ann Huntington was born under the shadow of The Old South Church, of which her father was pastor.

Death of Bishop Murray's Mother

At Waterbury Sunday night, Mrs. Mary E. Murray, mother of Rt. Rev. John G. Murray, bishop of Portland, Maine, died at her home, 48 South street following an illness. Bishop Murray was at the bedside of his mother at the time of her death. Mrs. Murray was a resident of Waterbury for the past 60 years and married William Murray, well known Waterbury citizen 50 years ago. Bishop Murray was her oldest child.

Before Bishop Murray was consecrated, while he was chancellor of the diocese of Hartford and during his tenure as auxiliary bishop of Hartford he visited his mother weekly. Since his installation as bishop of Portland he came to Waterbury as frequently as possible to visit her.

Besides Bishop Murray, Mrs. Murray leaves two other sons, Attorney James D. C. Murray of Rockville Center, N. Y., and Attorney Joseph F. of Maplewood, N. J., and two daughters, Misses Jane E. and May A. Murray of Waterbury.

ST. PATRICK'S LAWN PARTY COMMITTEES ANNOUNCED

Following are the committees for the annual lawn party of St. Patrick's parish:

General chairman, Rev. Myles P. Galvin; general vice chairman, Rev. John J. Reilly; general secretary, John F. Corcoran; entertainment committee, Rev. John J. Reilly, chairman; booth construction: Patrick F. Sweeney, chairman; electrical work; James McGrory, chairman; decorating: John P. Corcoran, chairman; sign printing: Morgan Cronin, chairman; children's matinee committee, Miss Anna McGrory, chairman; aides, members of the Connecticut Council of Catholic Women; grab-bag, Miss Anna Connell, chairman; fish pond committee, Mrs. Thomas O'Rourke, chairman; aides, members of the Catholic Women's club; admission tickets, Miss Loretta Bellefleur, chairman; cashiers, Walter Casey, chairman; aides, John W. Tarrant, Henry Powers, Frank Powers; ticket returns, Mrs. James J. Casey, chairman; door tenders, Alexander Kilroy, chairman; aides, William J. McKnight, George H. Dolan, Maurice Looby, Michael J. Murphy; ice cream and soda booth, Raymond La Fontaine, chairman; aides, Henry Murphy, Terrence Finnegan, John Murphy, Richard Fanning, Matthew Sheridan, John Brennan; all hots booth, Edward Londergan, chairman; aides, Fred Brown, Andrew Caples, John Burns; blanket booth, Daniel Mullin, chairman; aides, Edward McKay, Joseph Hartle, Martin Burns, Esther Madden, Margaret Sheridan, Alice McKnight, Anna Holmes, Mary McIntyre, Mary MacInnes, Geraldine Lang, Madeline Riordan, Norine Shea; doll booth, Miss Loretta Bellefleur, chairman; aides, Richard Marks, Jr., Harold Riordan, Leonard Desmond and members of the Children of Mary; domestic booth, Miss Anna G. Stanton, chairman; aides, Walter La Fontaine, Bernard M. Coyle, John McKenna and members of the Rosary society; cake booth, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, chairman; aides, Walter Clabby, Leonard Suntheimer and member of Div. 54, Ladies' auxiliary, A. O. H.; candy booth, Miss Eleanor Donovan, chairman; aides, Edward Brewer, Clarence Brewer, Edward Bogue, Clarence Disco and members of Mercier assembly, Catholic Ladies of Columbus; ham and bacon booth, John P. Lyston, chairman; aide, Dominick Bailey; fortune booth, Henry Davis, chairman; aide, Howard Ryan; cedar chest booth, James P. Sheridan, chairman; aides, Alfred LeMoine, Delphis LePre, Anna Kelly, Helen Twomey, Mary Hamil, Mary Weiler, Nonie Nagle, Gertrude Hamil, Catherine Finnegan, Marie Desmond, Geraldine Enos; lustre set booth, James McCormick, chairman; aides, Jeremiah Sweeney, Julia Ulrich, Anna Ulrich, Mary Ulrich, Gertrude Cook, Celia Cook, Julia Cook, Margaret Schaffhauser, Johanna Schaffhauser, Louisa Schaffhauser, Veronica Wenzel; Wallingford booth, William Fitzgerald, chairman; aide, John Kennedy; "lucky" booth, Patrick M. Coleman, chairman; aide, Michael Donovan; novelty booth, William P. Ward, chairman; aides, James J. Dutton, William La Rochelle, Katherine Hanrahan, Irene Welch, Mary Hanrahan, Irene Gallivan, Arline Fields; specialty booth, Daniel O'Brien, chairman; aides, George Madden, Michael Kirby, Joseph Keenan, Mary O'Brien, Mary Foley, Geraldine Moore, Sadie Kilroy, Katherine Corcoran; mystery booth, Michael J. Kelly, chairman; aides, James Quinn, James A. Crawford, John Wozniak, Austin Furlong.

Jolly Social Club Meets

Mrs. Ray Lee Hill entertained the Jolly Social club Friday evening at her home on Boswell avenue. After the sewing refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Martha Wunderlich, consisting of sandwiches, cake, peaches, with whipped cream and coffee. A social hour was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. LaValle, No. 21 Franklin street.

CHIEF LINTON AT POLICE CONVENTION

Chief George Linton of the Norwich Police department is in New Haven attending the Connecticut Police association convention. Chief Linton attended the executive session held on Tuesday and will also attend the regular convention sessions which begin today (Wednesday). Early this (Wednesday) morning Sergt. John Casey and Officers Patrick Murphy and Joseph Farrell are to leave Norwich for New Haven, to attend the convention and the big field meet at Lighthouse Point during the afternoon.

OVER FIFTY CASES OF MEASLES IN TOWN

Fifty-four cases of measles were reported from Norwich last week according to the weekly morbidity report issued by the state department of health. This is more than twice the number of measles cases reported in the state for the week previous. Increases are also in number of cases of typhoid fever, four cases of the former having advanced to seven and nine of the latter to sixteen.

Slight decreases have been reported in scarlet fever and whooping cough, the former from sixteen to fifteen. Whooping cough dropped from thirty-two to twenty.

Painters are touching up the entrance doors and other woodwork at the Wauregan house.

TO EAGER SEEKERS
AFTER TREMENDOUS VALUES
Our Big Closing Out Sale Shows
Another Drastic Cut in Prices.
In order to move our stock as soon as possible, we offer for—

WEDNESDAY—Three-piece LIVING ROOM SETS, in handsome velour, that were $150.00—For $79.50

THURSDAY—The balance of our GLENWOOD RANGES at 40% OFF OF LIST PRICES.

FRIDAY—KITCHEN CABINETS, 25% OFF.

SATURDAY—50 very heavy Copper Bottom WASH BOILERS that sold for $2.75— To go for $1.49

SHEA & BURKE

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Special Values In New, Seasonable Merchandise On Sale Wednesday

Quaker Filet Net Curtains
Lace edge, eight patterns—Specially priced at— Pair $3.19
DRAPERY DEP'T.—3RD FLOOR

Women's Raincoats
Colors, blue, red and green. Cemented and stitched seams— Specially Priced at $2.95
GARMENT DEP'T.—2ND FLOOR

Women's Frocks
Fashioned of English Prints, in a great variety of patterns and colors. These are all made with set-in sleeves and prettily trimmed with pipings of contrasting colors. An extraordinary value at 88c
GARMENT DEP'T.—2ND FLOOR

LION BRAND
Full-Fashioned Silk Hose
Lisle tops, double heels and toes. Colors black, white, moonlight, chamjagne, blind beige, etc.—Pair $1.50
HOSIERY DEP'T.—SHANNON BLDG.

"GET THE "Thoroughfare Habit"
New Special Items Every Day.
Take a walk through Economy Aisle and save money.
THE BOSTON STORE
"THOROUGHFARE"
In the Shannon Building.

Profit By These Savings!
Plaut-Cadden
August SALE of FURNITURE
It Is Values Such As These These That Are Bringing The Crowds To This Greatest Annual Event

$250 Jacquard and Cut Velour Suites with Reversible Cushions
The most extraordinary overstuffed suite value we have ever offered. Comprising three luxuriously overstuffed pieces—Sofa, Arm Chair and Wing Chair in your choice of several beautiful colors with reversible spring cushions in choice of pleasing color combinations. Of the finest spring construction throughout with webbed bottoms. Very fine quality Jacquard and Cut Velour upholstery throughout—front, back and sides. Don't fail to get one of these marvelous values.
In This Sale at $145

$75 3-Piece WICKER SUITES Offered in This Sale at $45

ARM ROCKERS
Reduced to $4.95
Regular $7.00 Bar Harbor Willow Arm Rockers, as illustrated

THESE CHAIRS Now Only. $3.45
Bar Harbor Willow Chairs, as shown, in natural finish. Reg. $5.50.

$18 Couch Hammocks
$11.90
Others at $7.90
Stands and Canopies Also Reduced

Reg. $155 3-Piece WALNUT SUITES—Bowfoot Bed, Three-Mirror Full Vanity, Chifforobe. $110
Regular $255 4-Piece WALNUT SUITES—Bowfoot Bed, Dresser, Full 3-Mirror Vanity and Chifforobe $159

PORCH ROCKERS
Reg. $6.00— August Sale Price $3.95
Natural finished chairs and rockers with cane seats and slat backs. Style as shown.

$9.35
Fine Cotton Felt MATTRESSES
Reg. $18 Value
Well made and very comfortable. Has roll edge and tufted. An exceptional value.

Reg. $130 3-Piece WALNUT SUITES—Consisting of Extension Table, Buffet and 6 Chairs. $72
Reg. 9-Piece QUEEN ANNE SUITES in Walnut—Extension Table, China, Buffet and 6 Chairs $98

9x12 and 8-3x10-6 Axminster Rugs
Values to $50.. $33.50
Fine assortment of handsome colors and color combinations

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 192. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1926. TEN PAGES—70 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

EXECUTIONS BY MEXICAN MILITARY AUTHORITIES

Two Catholic Priests and Between 27 and 37 Catholic Citizens Executed on a Charge of Heading an Uprising Growing Out of the Religious Situation—Report Made by Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz y Flores of Michoacan—In a Battle Lasting Two Days in the Town of Zahuayo About Fifty Persons Were Killed.

MEXICO CITY Aug. 11—(AP)—Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz y Flores, who has arrived from Michoacan, has announced to archdiocesan that two priests and between 27 and citizens were executed by authorities on Aug. 1 and charge of heading an uprising out of the religious situation.

The archbishop reported that the disturbances occurred in three towns states of Michoacan and Guanajuato. A battle between soldiers and lasted for a day in the town of Zinapecuaro, Michoacan. The bishop estimates at probably about 50 persons were killed in the battle. The other two towns where disturbances occurred were Acambaro and Irapuato in the state of Guanajuato.

Archbishop Ruiz y Flores said that the people of Zahuayo refused to deliver the Catholic churches to the municipal committees appointed to take charge after the priests had ceased functions on July 31. A group of 50 soldiers arrived from a nearby garrison and were fired upon by people who had taken positions in the church towers and house roofs and engaged in a lively exchange of shots. The next day federal reinforcements arrived and subdued the Catholics. The soldiers then executed two priests and the leaders of the citizens.

The archbishop said that the people of Acambaro also refused to turn over their churches. Two visiting government engineers, who attempted to assist the local officers, were killed by the crowd and their bodies hacked almost to pieces. The priests vainly appealed to the crowd to desist. Federal troops then arrived and executed three, and possibly more, of the leaders. All the Catholic priests fled and the authorities are searching for them.

The archbishop said that at Irapuato a Mexican Protestant woman taunted the Catholics as their services ceased, whereupon the crowd killed her and set fire to several residences of Protestants. Federal troops then arrested and executed three or four leaders of the mob.

After these troubles, Archbishop Ruiz y Flores reported, the states of Michoacan and Guanajuato became quiet. He said that he himself had not fled to Mexico City, but was merely here to discuss matters with the Episcopate.

EFFECT OF BOYCOTT IS BEING FELT IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 11—(AP)—Business depression, resulting in large measure from the economic boycott called by the league for the defense of religious liberty as a protest against the government's religious regulations, continued today.

The silver exchange ranged from between a discount of four and four and a half per cent., averaging about 4:20, the same as yesterday. With no prospects of an agreement between the Catholic Episcopate and the government, many business men fear that a prolonged continuance of the boycott may cause severe losses to some individual concerns.

It is understood that the committee of financial experts, appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury Pani, to study the financial and economic depressions, sees little prospect of an immdediate solution.

One of the fundamental difficulties in the financial situation from the Mexican point of view, is that Mexico produces so little of what it consumes. For example, it imports a large part of the butter, eggs, and foodstuffs used in the country, where the potential possibilities of production of such commodities are almost unlimited.

Government officials estimate that property valued at more than twenty-five million pesos may be seized by the government if pending "denouncements" of alleged church property are sustained.

This property consists of ranches, residences and business houses, chiefly in the states of Michoacan and Guanajuato. This property, denounces declare, is really owned by the Catholic church or its prelates, but its title appears in the names of various private citizens.

HOPES FOR SAVING LIVES OF THREE SLAYERS ARE DIM

BOSTON Aug 11—(AP)—Hopes of the three Waltham carbarn murderers for a stay of the sentence condemning them to die this week in the electric chair were alternately dashed and raised today.

After two petitions seeking to prevent the scheduled electrocution of John J. Devereaux, Edward J. Heinlein and John J. McLaughlin has been denied by Judge Henry K. Braley in supreme court, counsel for the convicted men was allowed exceptions for presentation to the full bench of the supreme court.

Word came to order a stay of sentence for the three men, who were found guilty of the murder of James Gilfedder, watchman at the Waltham carbarn. Judge Braley said he did not have the power to do so but informed counsel that 20 days were alloyed for preparation and filing of exceptions. The exceptions were filed several days later on the ground that the case was still pending before the courts. Prosecutors' counsel then announced their intention of appealing again to Governor Fuller, who previously had refused to exercise executive clemency.

The petitions denied today asked first for writs of habeas corpus seeking first to remove the condemned men from the death house at state prison, and second for writes of mandamus to compel the governor to submit to the executive council a petition for respite previously filed. Both petitions were based on the contention that Devereaux is insane. Should the governor grant a stay of sentence, it probably would extend until the full bench of the supreme court convenes in October.

MANY ASPIRE TO SWIM THE ENGLISH CHANNEL

BOULOVE France, Aug. 11—(AP)—Encouraged by the feat of Gertrude Ederle in swimming the English channel in 14 hours and 31 minutes, a German swimmer named Verkoffer has arrived at Calais with the avowed purpose of swimming the channel in 12 hours.

Miss Anne Jane Sion of France and Miss Benoault, of Canada, forced to abandon the channel attempts early this morning, the turbulent stretch of water proving free of the crush of swimmers which has challenged it in the past few days. Heavy seas and rain have impeded the two swimmers to their utmost after attempt.

Although the channel was successful conquered back these two latest aspirants to the honor it, another invasion is expected will be on in a few days. Miss Clare Bedle Barrett, of New Rochelle, who came within two miles of swimming the channel last week, plans to start on her second attempt Sunday. Miss Lillian Cannon of Baltimore who feels that she is in fit condition to beat Miss Ederle's record, hopes to start on Monday.

THREE TOWN CLERKS UNDER ARREST FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

WOLFBORO, N. H., Aug. 11—(AP)—The arrest here of John H. Garland, town clerk of Conway, on charges of embezzlement of more than $6400 of town funds, revealed that two other town clerks of the state are also under arrest on similar charges. They are Lee R. Babkirk of Greenland, and Irvin Mansfield, former town clerk of Meredith.

The discovery of the shortages followed the audit by Alfred B. Hartford of the state tax commission on the suggestion of Governor John G. Winant, who found that the local tax returns of the state motor vehicle department had never been checked against the sums received by city and town clerks for local automobile taxes.

"MA" FERGUSON RENEWS FIGHT FOR RENOMINATION

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 11—(AP)—Grounded on the proposition that the acceptance of a challenge made "by Jim is not acceptance of a challenge by Miriam," and dedicated to defeat of the Ku Klux Klan, the campaign of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson for the governorship of Texas was re-christened today in the garments it wore two years ago.

After two days of silence as to her plans, following certification of her name on the run-off primary ballot by the state democratic executive committee Monday, she plunged full tilt today into all the turmoil of political affray, with the battle cry of anti-klanism uppermost, and her promise to quit thrown overboard by a contention that Attorney General Dan Moody, her opponent, never really accepted her challenge.

Declaring she was in the race with all her heart, she issued a statement arguing herself free of all promises to quit, and laying down the gauge of battle to Moody, whom she charged is supported by the Ku Klux Klan. Politicians remarked that the statement smacked of the old time Ferguson political philosophy and the fighting method that has thrown the state into heated heights on many an occasion before this.

As the announcement seeped over the state, the reaction began to appear in the form of replies from Moody's followers, from members of the Ku Klux Klan who were mentioned in the statement, and from others interested in what appears will be the classic political tourney centering about the Fergusons.

ADMISSION CHARGE AT SESQUI ILLEGAL SUNDAY

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11—(AP)—In a sweeping decision late today, Common Pleas Court Judge Edwin O. Lewis held that operation of the Sesqui-Centennial on Sunday, if an admission is charged, is illegal under the old Pennsylvania statutes of 1794. The court held that in this state "the operation of anything not a necessity for which an admission fee is charged is wordly employment and therefore contrary to law."

Other points in Judge Lewis' decision were that operation of the exposition Gladway and other amusement features on Sunday is illegal; that playing baseball on Sunday for an admision fee or not is unlawful, and that E. L. Austin, director general of the Sesqui-Centennial is not responsible for either the opening of the exposition gates on Sunday, nor for the operation of amusement features.

The opinion was viewed by Mayor Kendrick as "one of the hardest blows of many delivered at the centennial." "It looks like Sunday closing," he said.

It was intimated that an appeal from Judge Lewis' ruling may be taken.

FRANCE SIGNS TREATY OF AMITY WITH RUSSIA

PARIS, Aug. 11—(AP)—The text of the French treaty of amity with Rumania is being withheld for reasons not disclosed, but it will probably be made public within a few days.

The pact is understood to provide for maintenance of the status quo in the Balkans and for arbitration of all differences between France and Rumania.

A Paris dispatch Monday, giving the report from Bucharest that such a treaty had been signed, said a similar agreement between Jugoslavia and France had already been initialed and would probably be signed soon thus completing the alliance of France with all the countries of the little entente.

Rum Smuggling to be Made More Difficult

Gen. Andrews Has Returned With Agreements With the British Government.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—General Lincoln C. Andrews, head of the prohibition enforcement division of the treasury returned today on the French liner France, expressing great satisfaction as to the agreements reached with the British government regulating smuggling from British possessions.

General Andrews said he will leave for Washington tomorrow and begin at once setting up the machinery for the operations of the new agreements signed during his recent visit to London.

He denied the government had adopted ruthless tactics in its campaign to enforce prohibition by poisoning industrial alcohol, as was prominently charged in New York newspapers today.

"That is just propaganda," he said "The law denaturing alcohol for industrial purposes was made in 1906 in order to protect federal revenues."

The general would not discuss the anti-liquor smuggling agreements at length, but said the machinery he would set up in Washington would be founded on "a matter of exchange of information and evidence." Each country, he said, would stand by "to see that its own laws are observed.

"The conference in England," he explained, "was a meeting of the representatives of the executive departments of both governments, getting together to discuss this smuggling with a view of arriving at a common understanding of the facts, and agreeing upon the administrative machinery which would tend to stop illegal shipping operations."

The conference was "125 per cent successful," he said, and will have "a very marked effect for more successful enforcement of prohibition insofar as it regards smuggling."

"They tell me at the British foreign office," he said, "that this is the first time that a thing of this kind has ever been done between nations instead of trying to come to an understanding through diplomatic correspondence, which is very difficult to understand some times, a very slow process at least, the British government, out of their natural sense of law and order were good sports enough to invite us to come and sit around a table with them and call these matters up in this way.

"The British feel and we feel that this is quite an advanced step in international relations."

General Andrews said that the agreements did not mean that fault had been found with the English enforcement of their own martime laws.

"There is nothing wrong with the English laws," he said. "I do not wish to give such an idea. The fault, if there is slackness, is with the colonial laws. Take the situation in the Bahamas for example. The British are no more cognizant of local violations in the Bahamas than we would be in a port of the Philippines.

General Andrews left the ship at quarantine, and was taken to the battery on a cuter. Arriving there he granted an interview to reporters, answering their questions readily except in matters he said would place valuable information in the hands of the smugglers.

He laughingly denied some of the stories concerning his abstinence from liquor while in England and France. One of these related how he had refused French wine, saying: "A pastry cook need not care for pastry."

"I made no such statements," he said. "They are most amusing."

The government had never denatured alcohol for commercial purposes with a view of inflicting death upon the community, as had been charged recently, he said.

"We are working for a formula," he said, "and have been for a long while, which will be absolutely 'bootleg proof.' Perhaps it will take the form of an alement which will have a disagreeable odor and this will warn any one taking it that it is bootleg."

SCIENTIST LAUDS CHEMIST AS GREAT PEACEMAKER

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 11—(AP)—The chemist was pictured as the great peacemaker at the Institute of Politics today.

"Many wars in the past," said Dr. John Teeple treasurer of the American Chemical society, "have been waged for the possession of land, and the land was commonly wanted because it produced certain raw materials that seemed absolutely necessary.

"The role of the chemist comes in his insistence that specific raw materials are less and less necessary each year to supply the world's needs, and so each year he reduces the cause of friction among nations."

Dr. C. L. Parsons, secretary of the Chemical society, expressed the opinion that the time would come when chemistry would be the controlling factor in the life of nations.

"In the future," he said, "it will be the nation which most thoroughly utilizes its chemical personnel that will control the world's affairs rather than the one that has the greatest resources of the present raw materials within its borders."

TERRIFIC ELECTRICAL STORM IN SOUTHINGTON

SOUTHINGTON, Aug. 11—(AP)—The worst electrical storm in years artuck this town shortly before 5 o'clock today, injuring two persons, flooding cellars and streets and putting out of order telephone and light service, and tieing up all traffic for thirty minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kane were stunned when a bolt entered their home. Mrs. Kane, who was in the kitchen at the time, was burned about the face and neck and did not gain consciousness until one hour and a half later. Mr. Kane regained consciousness shortly after the bolt struck.

Bolts also struck a garage and smoke stack of a factory owned by Thomas Thompson, but caused slight damage.

ORGANIZING A CHAIN OF BUSINESS SCHOOLS

BOSTON, Aug. 11—(AP)—Dean Everett W. Lord of the Boston university school of business administration announced today the completion of the first step in the organization of a chain of business schools throughout the world with the establishment of such an institution at the university of Porto Rico.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

John Zaharestieck, 38, of 41 High street, Ansonia, died last night while bathing near Bradley Point.

Wallace M. Bulkeley for nearly ten years an assessor of Fairfield, died at his home, Post road, Fairfield.

Frank W. Hackett, lawyer and former assistant secretary of the navy, died at the Portsmouth Naval hospital.

Sore throat is a prevailing ailment in Guilford just now and local physicians have been unable to definitely fix its character.

A Reuter dispatch from Moscow says it is semi-officially announced there that the Russian Baltic fleet has sailed for maneuvers in the Baltic Sea.

Expenditure of $722,916 for a plant improvements was authorized by the executive committee of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company.

The democratic state convention will be held in New Haven, September 15 and 16, it was announced by Alexander S. Lynch, secretary of the state democratic central committee.

Senator Hiram Bingham visited Governor Trumbull at his office at the state capitol yesterday morning. After a short conference the governor and senator went to lunch together.

Governor Terral was 12,875 votes behind Chancelor Martineau in tabulations of 1,595 precincts of 2,009 precincts in the state in Tuesday's democratic primary in Arkansas.

A cloudburst of tremendous proportions has caused great damage in the western part of Agram, Croatia. Bridges over the River Save collapsed under the rush of the flood waters.

Edward Nolan, of Pawtucket, R. I., confessed deserter from a Fort Ethan Allen regular army unit, was given a 12-months sentence in prison at St. Albans' Vt., for larceny of a watch and money.

Total resources of the 7,978 national banks in the United States, Alaska and Hawaii on June 30, the close of the fiscal year, aggregated $25,315,624,000, an increase of almost $1,000,000,000 over a year ago.

With four men already under arrest in connection with the raid by the state police upon a liquor distillery on a farm in Clintonville, yesterday, officials announced they were seeking three others.

The Canadian government is taking action towards a complete reorganization of the federal department of customs and excise, as an outcome of the customs investigation during the last session of parliament.

The liquor which killed more than a score of persons at Buffalo recently was made of methyl, or wood alcohol, government chemists reported to J. M. Doran, chief of the chemical division of the prohibition unit.

The American Federation of Labor, through its president, William Green, announced that it has in no way interfered with the attitude of the Mexican Federation of Labor regarding the religious controversy in Mexico.

Because his daughter solicited funds for the church from automobilists on Sunday, the Rev. Henry H. McGilvray, for 23 years pastor of the Bethlehem Presbyterian church at Grandin, near Clifton, N. J., has been asked to resign.

Highways of the United States must be constructed in the future with a view to protecting lives, and not merely to provide a temporary means of transportation, in the opinion of Secretary Hoover of the commerce department.

Governor Trumbull has approved a requisition from Governor Smith of New York asking for Isaac Smith, alias Morris Smith, Alias Isadore Smith, who is wanted in New York state for abandonment of his children in Brooklyn, N. Y., December 1, 1925.

Prof. Herbert L. Seward of Yale university has been appointed to direct field investigation in New Haven, as a part of a nationwide survey by the American Engineering council, which seeks to check the growing number of industrial accidents in this country.

Met for one of the most important convention programs in their history, Knights of Pythias from the 285 grand domains in the United States and Canada, assembled at Chicago for the formal convocation of the thirty-fourth biennial session of the supreme lodge.

The license of Captain Frank H. Avery of the Fall River Liner Providence, as master and pilot of inland waters, was suspended for 30 days by U. S. Steamboat Inspectors at Providence, who found him guilty of failing to operate at a moderate rate of speed in a fog.

The "Cyclops," the mystery plane of the United States army service, was christened yesterday at the Hussa-Laland company in Bristol, near Philadelphia. The plane is said to be the largest bomber in the world and to have the largest V-type Packard airplane engine.

The authorities report marked improvement in the cholera situation which has been critical in the Chinese areas around Shanghai. The improvement is attributed to sanitary protective measures taken. The drouth and the terrific heat which have aggravated the epidemic remain unbroken.

The same interests that yesterday acquired the entire property of the Hartford-Springfield Street Railway company this morning announced the purchase of the Hartford bus terminal at 20 Union place, and the Springfield bus terminal. The price for the two terminals was in excess of $200,000.

Andrew W. Mellon, American secretary of the treasury, emphatically denied through the Associated Press in Rome a report coming from Rome to the effect that he had been having official conversations with Premier Mussolini and Finance Minister Volpi regarding political and financial matters.

The brilliant career of an army air ace, Lieut. E. H. Barksdale, who was credited with having bagged half a dozen airplanes during the World war and who many times escaped death by a hair was ended at Mc-Cook field at Dayton, Ohio, yesterday when he jumped from his plane and his parachute failed to open.

Double Check Valves In Dual Water Systems

New State Sanitary Code Will Require Installation by December 31.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 11—(AP)—New regulations in the state sanitary code designed to protect public drinking supplies from contamination by back flow from the non-potable supply in dual water systems were announced today by Dr. S. H. Osborn, state health commissioner. The most important regulation which is number 118 in the code, prohibits the use of dual water supplies without the use of double check valves that have been inspected and approved by the state department of health.

The effect of this ruling, Dr. Osborn said, will be to render unlawful a large number of dual water systems in factories and buildings in the state, that are controlled by the single check valve. Such plants must be reconstructed by December 31, and the installation of the two valve apparatus, he said, would in many cases entail large expenditures of money.

These regulations, said Dr. Osborn, were the result of two hearings held early this summer at which the feasibility of changing factory water plants from the single to the double check valve system was discussed.

The regulations, he also said were a step in the direction of eliminating all possible means of pollution of the public drinking water. Dr. Osborn, in explaining the importance of the regulations said that a large number of factories and office buildings found it necessary to have, aside from the public drinking water, an independent water supply for factory and fire uses. These two supplies were run through the same pipes, separated in the usual case, only by a single check valve. The investigations of the health department have shown that one check valve often becomes weak, or opened by dirt so that back flow of the non-potable water into the drinking water supply often results. The use of two check valves will render such intermingling of the waters more difficult.

FRENCH PARLIAMENT HAS ADJOURNED SINE DIE

PARIS, Aug. 11—(AP)—After having decided the fate of seven premiers and eight finance ministers in the course of a year, parliament adjourned tonight with Premier Poincare "the cock of the walk."

The adjournment will continue probably until the middle of October and leaves the question of the inter-allied debts to examination by specially appointed sub-committees of the chambers' finance and foreign affairs committee during the two months' recess.

M. Dariac, chairman of the chambers financial sub-committee studying the debts, has been promised by Premier Poincare the complete documents of the Washington and London debt accords, as well as all details regarding the original circumstances of the contracting of those engagements. These documents, at the same time, will be communicated to M. Franklin Boullion, chairman of the sub-committee of the foreign affairs committee.

M. Dariac, who was a minister in the short-lived governments of M. Ribot in 1914 and M. Herriot this year, declared tonight he hoped to convoke his committeeman by the middle of September. The other subcommittee will be convoked soon after.

Premier Poincare reading the decree of closure in the chamber this evening, replied "that is a secret of the future" when a deputy from the left asked when parliament would be reassembled. He was equally non-committal regarding a rumor that he had made an incognito visit to Alsace Lorraine in order to combat an autonomous movement there.

WHITTEMORE LOSES FIGHT TO STAVE OFF THE GALLOWS

BALTIMORE, Aug. 11—(AP)—Richard Reese Whittemore's last fight in the Maryland state courts to stave off the gallows ended in defeat today when Judge Robert F. Stanton in city court dismissed habeas corpus proceedings and refused to issue a writ of error.

G. L. Pendleton, negro attorney who instigated the eleventh hour proceedings, left tonight for Beverly Farms, Mass., to lay the case before Associate Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes in a nattempt to have Justice Holmes issue a writ of supersedas. Pendleton expects to arrive at Beverly Farms late tomorrow. Whittemore is scheduled to die a few minutes after tomorrow midnight. Pendleton's contention is that the unqualified first degree murder verdict returned against the bandit chieftain last May violated Whittemore's constitutional rights.

Governor Albert C. Ritchie has announced he will not grant a reprieve unless specifically advised to do so by Attorney General Thomas E. Robinson. Attorney General Robinson argued against the granting of writs of habeas corpus or error before Judge Stanton today. Whittemore fatally wounded Robert H. Holtman, a Maryland penitentiary guard, in escaping from the institution February 20, 1925. He pleaded self-defense. The Baltimore supreme bench and the Maryland court of appeals denied him a new trial.

ARM CRUSHED BETWEEN HIS OWN CAR AND TRUCK

NEW CANAAN, Aug. 11—(AP)—William Eaton was taken to the Norwalk hospital early today, where his left arm was amputated at the elbow after it had been crushed in an accident between a car he was driving and a truck. Eaton was driving his car on Smith ridge with a party of friends. His left arm was partly outside the car when a five-ton truck owned by a New York trucker, came along in the opposite direction. Eaton's arm was caught between the car and the truck and was crushed. He lost control of his car and it ran off the road. No arrests were made.

FRIENDLY DRUSES ROUT DISSIDENT TRIBESMEN

BEIRUT, Aug. 11—(AP)—A detachment of Druses, friendly to France, today routed a large force of adherents of Sultan Attrache near Hout, in South Makran, after a fight lasting several hours, according to reports received here. The dissident tribesmen left 100 dead on the field and quantities of arms and ammunition. Only one of the friendly Druse was killed.

A satchel containing important documents was seized.

$2,270,000,000 LIMIT FOR FEDERAL BUDGET FOR 1928

Figures Set by President Coolidge for Fiscal Year During a Conference With Brigadier-General Lord, Director of the Budget—$55,000,000 More Than Provided for the Present Fiscal Year—$99,000,000 Less Than Preliminary Estimates Submitted by the Departments and Bureaus of the Government on July 15.

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 11—(AP)—A maximum limit of $2,270,000,000 for government expenditures in the fiscal year 1928 was set by President Coolidge today. This is $55,000,000 more than was provided for the present fiscal year, exclusive of post office department costs.

The figure was arrived at during a conference with Brigadier-General Lord, director of the budget, who came to White Pine camp to take up with Mr. Coolidge the budget program for next year and represents a cut of $99,000,000 by the chief executive in the preliminary estimates submitted by the departments and bureaus of the government on July 15.

The increase over the present year is attributed to additional fixed charges, occasioned principally by legislation in the closing weeks of the recent session or congress, and means, General Lord said, that the surplus next year will probably be negligible whereas in the fiscal year ended next year ended last June 30 the surplus was $377,000,000.

The result of today's conference is to be communicated by General Lord to the departments and bureaus which will be required under the law to submit final estimates by September 15. It is the hope that on that date the total requirements will be less than the limit set today. Whether any departments face especially heavy cuts was not revealed.

Under the policy of secrecy which surrounds all budget making until the final reports are transmitted to congress, few details were made public today. It was said, however, that the estimated increase in expenditures for 1928 over the present year was largely accounted for by new fixed charges.

Through legislation in the recent session, it was added, an additional $36,000,000 is required for pensions of civil and Spanish war veterans, $18,000,000 more is needed for the veterans bureau, $16,000,000 for providing for the first time payments by the government to the federal employes retirement fund, and $5,000,000 for schools and construction in the District of Columbia.

This new burden of $75,000,000, it was explained, was slashed in actual fact $20,000,000 by reductions in operating expenditures being made in a number of departments, so that the budget demands for next year will be but $55,000,000 more than for the present year.

The new fixed charges, it was said, had made impossible the realization of the hope expressed by the president at the last semi-annual business meeting of the government that estimates for 1928 could be held to $3,200,000,000

COOLIDGE HEARS ADVOCATE OF COOPERATIVE MARKETING

PAUL SMITH'S N. Y., Aug. 11—(AP)—The cooperative marketing problem for farm crops received renewed attention today from President Coolidge.

Turning from a conference on government financial policies with Brigadier General Lord, director of the budget, Mr. Coolidge received Arthur H. Rule of New York city, general manager of the Federated Fruit and Vegetable Growers Inc., one of the large national cooperative organizations, who later said:

"The farmer has no better friend in the country than the president."

The position of Mr Coolidge toward the farm cooperative problem however, was not revealed, although Mr. Rule expressed the conviction the president was favorable to a program for supplying the farmers with adequate credit machinery.

The visit of Mr. Rule, who was received at the executive offices was arranged at the suggestion of the departments of agriculture and of commerce, with whom he confers frequently on farm business matters.

He reported on crop conditions as he has found them throughout the country, and reiterated suggestions he has made to officials of the department of agriculture on technical matters involved in the setting up within the department of a separate division of cooperative marketing as provided for in legislation passed at the recent session of congress.

The suggestion was made by Mr Rule, without, however, Mr. Coolidge indicating his views, that the rural credits act be broadened in respect to the powers it gives for setting up national agricultural cooperatives handling the marketing of perishable products.

Producers of fruits and vegetables Mr. Rule said, should be given greater opportunity for developing cooperative marketing organizations with government assistance, broadly along the lines open to the livestock man who ha savailable government credits on cattle even three years in advance of the time it will be ready for the market.

The subject of cooperative marketing was of especial importance at this time in his field, Mr. Rule continued as the fruit industry is confronted with the biggest crops in the history of the country, especially peaches, apples and grapes.

It is the misfortune of both the consumer and grower, he said, that there is a lack of sufficient organization for marketing the crops "probably less than 20 per cent or the total field being organized at all."

DETECTIVE SHOT DEAD IN NEW YORK POLICE STATION

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Sudden death took its toll today from both the law and the outlaw.

A detective was killed in police headquarters by a prisoner who took advantage of a courtesy to seize the officer's own gun and shoot him down.

A robber was fatally wounded by a detective he had shot, perhaps mortally, after wounding a storekeeper.

A gang of robbers, believed to have been led by the notorious Bum Rogers, crossed the city line and escaped with $13,000 in cash from the Hewlett-Woodmere National bank at Woodmere, Long Island. This crime, however, was unmarked by bloodshed.

The first shooting occurred a few minutes after Detective John M Singer had brought Gene Pierce, a giant negro, from Hammonton, N. J., where he had been arrested in connection with an automobile theft. It was hot and Singer took off his coat. The prisoner asked if he might get a drink of water.

"Help yourself," Singer told him and motioned to a water cooler.

Pierce moved toward the corner and then suddenly turned to snatch Singer's revolver, exposed by the removal of his coat, from its holster. He fired five times. Only one bullet took effect, but that severed the jugular vein. In a moment the room where the detective lay gasping his last breath was filled with armed men, but the prisoner had fled. He was captured several hours later and exactly nine hours after the shooting he was indicted for murder and trial set for Aug. 23. The patrolman who made the capture was promoted.

DECLARES HE ATTACKED 12 WOMEN IN PACIFIC CITIES

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Aug. 11—(AP)—Phillip H. Brown, who declares he attacked 12 women in Pacific cities—one of whom he believes he strangled in San Francisco last May—was in the county jail today while authorities tried to weld a chain of evidence linking him with scores of crimes in the west.

Brown was arrested August 5 at Needles, Cal., for vagrancy. He was brought here by Sheriff Walter Shay of San Bernardino county.

On request of the Seattle, Wash., police department, Brown was asked if he had been in Seattle recently in an effort to solve the murder there June 16 of Sylvia Howard Gaines, of Northampton, Mass. Brown denied he had been in Seattle this year and officers said there was nothing to indicate he had been.

District Attorney Clarence Ward of Santa Barbara, who accompanied Brown from Needles, said he believed Brown was responsible for the strangling to death there last June of Mrs. Ollie B. Russell. Brown declared he could not remember this, but admitted he may have attacked a woman there.

Brown said he had been confined in the Patton, Cal., state insane asylum in 1916.

DECISIVE RETURNS FROM THE OHIO PRIMARIES

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati businessman, is the republican nominee for governor of Ohio.

His victory over Thad H. Brown Columbus, secretary of state, was assured tonight by a plurality of around 15,000.

In 8,267 of the 8,634 precincts, Cooper's plurality was 15,356.

The vote was: Cooper 165,823 Brown 149,369.

The Cooper-Brown fight, one of the hardest fought and most spectacular in the primary election in years in Ohio, commanded chief interest tonight.

Heads of the republican ticket at the November election will be Cooper and James O. Mills, Columbus restaurant proprietor, opposed to Governor Vic Donahey, who rolled up an impressive victory on the democratic ticket, and Earl D. Bloom, Bowling Green, former lieutenant governor.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE HAS AVIATION DIVISION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—(AP)—The aviation division of the department of commerce was officially launched today with the induction into office of the new assistant secretary for aviation, William P. MacCracken, Jr., of Chicago and the taking over of the airplane from the post office department.

The department plans to establish radio beacon towers at airports throughout the country through which a continuous series of signals will be sent along the airways as guides to flyers. Aviators now receive signals through ear phones but these are expected to be replaced by a device being perfected by the bureau of standards.

The new instrument will be provided with a needle, which controlled by the radio signals, will show when the plane is off its course.

STATE DEFENSE TEST THIS YEAR IMPROBABLE

HARTFORD, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Unless some event of sufficient significance occurs at an early date, there will be no state defense test this year, Governor Trumbull announced today. The defense test last year, he said, was prompted by National Defense day, held on July 4, Inasmuch as no date has been set for a national defense test this year the governor feels that a state test will not be necessary.

COMMUNISTS CLASH WITH REPUBLICANS IN BERLIN

BERLIN, Aug. 11—(AP)—Many persons were injured and taken to hospitals tonight when republicans and communists clashed after a torchlight procession by the republicans in honor of the seventh anniversary of the adoption of the republican constitution.

It was necessary to call out a strong force of police before order was restored.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1131-2.

MRS. PAULINE MARINO'S HOUSE BURNED WEDNESDAY MORNING

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 11—The home of Mrs. Pauline Marino, a one and one-half story wooden structure on the Flanders road, half a mile north of Willimantic river and in the town of Mansfield, was completely destroyed by fire along with practically all the furnishings this forenoon. The fire of unknown origin started in the cellar while the occupants of the house, Mrs. Marino, her brother and Babe Ethier of this city, were in the fields, working. Discovered by children shortly after ten o'clock, the blaze had reduced the structure to ashes in about two hours. A few chairs and articles of clothing were saved. An attempt to fight the fire through a bucket brigade proved useless. Due to the lack of wind a small dance hall and a barn on the premises remained out of danger. The farm, originally owned by the Capewell family was later purchased by John Ellis. The Marinos bought the place a mile over four years ago and for some time it had a shady reputation due to a series of successful liquor raids at the place. It was stated by members of the family that there was no insurance on the house or contents. The loss is estimated at about $1,500.

WEDDING

Avery-Parker

Edna Elizabeth Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hibberd Parker of Mansfield, Willington side, became the bride of Ames D. Avery, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Avery of Norwich at a quietly attended wedding at three o'clock Monday afternoon at Willington Hill church Rev. L. E. Sundt of Willington officiated. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Mariam Parker, as maid of honor. Charles Lorimar Baker of Orange, Conn., was best man. The ushers were George B. Parker and Nathan Parker of Willington Claude C. Gillette and Robert [illegible] of Storrs. The bride was gowned in white chiffon crepe and wore a [illegible] with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white [illegible] of lilies of the valley. She wore yellow [illegible] a picture hat and [illegible] Mrs. Parker, mother [illegible] wore dark blue canton crepe.

Over one hundred guests were present from Springfield, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Norwich, New London, Groton, Mystic, Hartford, Waterbury, Storrs, Mansfield and Willington. To the bridesmaid the bride gave a diamond-studded bar pin. The groom gave the best man a watch chain and knit buckle and to the ushers tie clasps and cuff links.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery are in the Berkshires after which they will make their home at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., where Mr. Avery is engaged by the New York Agricultural Experiment station. For traveling Mrs. Avery wore a green voile gown with hat to correspond. Both are graduates of Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs. The couple was a teacher at Cornell last year.

FUNERAL OF DR. M'GUINESS HELD ON WEDNESDAY

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 11—From his home, 31 Church street, the funeral of Dr. J. C. McGuiness was held Wednesday morning with requiem high mass in St. Joseph's church at nine o'clock. Rev. Charles M. Kelley sang the mass. Mrs. L. R. Portelance was at the organ and Miss L. Monica McKeon of Arthur Rox were soloists. There were [illegible] floral forms. Burial was in the family plot at St. Joseph's cemetery where Rev. Father Kelly read the committal prayers. The bearers were, [illegible] Samuel J. Turcotte, Robert E. [illegible] Michael F. Sullivan and [illegible] Morrissette. Kilbourey Brothers had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Dr. McGuiness, a native of Preston, was a resident of Norwich during his early manhood.

A drive on the part of the police to enforce the various parking ordinances resulted in the presentation of three cases in court Wednesday morning. Motorists who parked their cars over the time limit allowed in Railroad street (1 hour) were tagged by Traffic Officers Theodora Harold Connors, [illegible] the Hartford-Willimantic bus association, Eddie Alibozek and [illegible] local taxicab men. The cases were granted a continuance until Tuesday. Victor [illegible] Built on Railroad street for 31 minutes which was overstayed by the three men according to [illegible] testimony.

Donald R. Little, 21, of Andover, was [illegible] speeding when in police court here Wednesday morning, testimony being given by Motorcycle Officer Bombria that the young man was driving at about 32 miles an hour on Jackson street. Judge Foss imposed a fine of $1 and costs, amounting to $11.11 which was paid.

One of the New London-Springfield [illegible] auto passenger busses skidded on the wet road at The Ridges, about 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and came to a rest near a large elm after tearing down three rail lengths and two posts of the state highway fence, just east of the Frank Hrooks home. Five passengers in the bus from Springfield to New London were uninjured and the motor power of the vehicle was not affected. According to the passengers the machine [illegible] was proceeding at a very cautious rate of speed. The driver reported to State Policeman Clifford Willis of the Stafford Springs barracks that he applied the brakes to avoid striking an [illegible] automobile which was in the [illegible] road, causing the bus to skid and come into the fence.

A rear wheel was broken and fenders damaged on a Hupmobile sedan, owned and operated by Edwin J. Donnelly of this city and Hartford, which skidded on the wet road at Perkins' corner early Wednesday morning. Although finding the bend carefully the driver felt the machine begin to crawl to one side and applied the brakes which caused the car to swerve onto the tracks, pulling off the right rear wheel and allowing the machine to rest against a telephone pole. Donnelly escaped injury. The accident was reported to the police.

Mrs. Alfred LeClaire died at the White Home, in Hartford, Tuesday night, following a long illness. She was a widely known and respected resident of this city. She was a member of the Ste. Anne society and of St. Mary's parish. A native of Willimantic she was born December 27, 1890, a daughter of Ovide and Hedwige Morrau Lariviere. Besides her husband she leaves two children, Albert and Florence, her father, Ovide Lariviere, a brother, Joseph Lariviere, and a sister, Mrs. Alcide LaBelle of this city.

William S. Congdon of this city, who was dropped from the prohibition enforcement department service last March has been re-appointed, according to an announcement by Deputy Prohibition Administrator Frank T. Putney made Tuesday. Congdon has been assigned to duty at Hartford. He is the third of those discharged last spring to be areassigned to service, this being made possible by new appropriations which have made money available. Federal Agent Congdon has a host of friends here who are pleased to learn of his reappointment.

Engine Company No. 1 was called out about 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning to a chimney fire in the residence at 1232 Main street, owned by Merton Phillips and occupied by Mrs. Fred Popple. Six gallons of chemicals were used.

On or about August 25th the concrete road being constructed between North Windham and Chaplin will be completed, according to present expectations. The road is finished on the east side as far as the George England residence in Chaplin but the bog land beyond that is giving Contractor Arborio quite a bit of trouble. About 1000 feet of concrete yet remains to be laid and the stretch over the bog hole will be surfaced over next spring when it is hoped that the foundation of the road bed will have settled in the swamp which acts like quick-sand.

Louis and Vidal Chabut, sons of Dr. Louis Chabut of Youngstown, Ohio stopped here on an automobile tour Tuesday and called on their aunt, Mrs. D. B. Chartier and their cousin, Mrs. E. G. Kenney.

Alderman and Mrs. Robert H. Fenton and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Staebner motored to Deerfield, Mass., Tuesday to visit about 15 old houses which were opened to the public.

Members of the Willimantic Exchange club, with several visitors were guests at the home of Exchangite Alfred P. Abbe at Windham Center for the weekly meeting Wednesday evening. An excellent program prepared by Chairman Allen B. Lincoln was carried out. President Sherman P. Hollister was in charge of the session.

Heard and Seen

Mr and Mrs. P. J. Twomey and daughter, Miss Katherine Twomey and her guest, Miss Helen Kelley, are spending a vacation at Montreal and the Thousand Islands.

Conrad Dubeau and family are visiting at Bristol Ferry, R. I., for several days.

Mrs. E. A. Earl has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis and child of North Adams, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lewis and child, of Warwick, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Livesly have returned from a vacation spent in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Miss Frances Hall of South Willington was a luncheon guest Wednesday of Mrs. Helen Boss Cummings and daughter, Miss Carolyn B. Cummings.

Mrs. E. B Latham has as guest at her cottage at Pleasure Beach, Mrs. William Renton of Holyoke, Mass.

Miss Ada D. Littlefield has been called to Winterport, Me., by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Wiley who had been ill for two years.

Mrs. Louis H. Ashton has as guest her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nolan and son, Daniel of New York.

Mrs. Annie O'Connor is visiting her daughters Marion and Dorothy, in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Smith of North Windham, Mrs. E. J. Tryon and Mrs. John R. Loomis of this city motored to Westchester Tuesday.

Miss Doris Burnham has returned home, after a visit with friends in Hartford.

A. W. Cote left Wednesday to be the guest of a friend in New York.

Miss Elinor Hall of Hampton is with her grandparents, Commander and Mrs. A. P. Benner for a week.

Mrs. Philip H. Dean and daughter Nancy, of Glastonbury, are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. T. Frank Howie.

Miss Hazel Jones has returned, after spending a week at Lake Winnipiseogee, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dawley, Fred Dawley and Miss Mary Platt of Norwich and Mrs. W. J. Towne and granddaughter, Miss Alta Copeland of this city have been visitors at Quinebaug.

CORNS

Quick relief from painful corns, tender toes and pressure of tight shoes.

Dr Scholl's Zino-pads

At drug and shoe stores everywhere

NOANK

GEO. DEVEAU SWIMS 5 OF 8 MILES TO NEW LONDON

(Special to the Bulletin)

NOANK, Aug. 11—George Deveau, a local distance swimmer jumped off the north dock yesterday afternoon, for a swim to New London, a distance of 8 miles. He was followed by the power boat "Nellie" In the boat was his sister, Mrs. Catherine DeCarlo and two men. He left at 2 o'clock for his long swim and far off the shore of Groton Long Point he was going strong. It was a great day for a swim. After going about 5 miles he had to give up, the water being rough and cold, he was in a weak condition trying to make New London. He was pulled aboard the boat by Passi and G. Reed after being in the water about 5 hours. He wore a heavy bath ing suit. He is the only one in the village to try to swim from Noank to New London. He will train and later on will try it again. Mr. Deveau will not give up until he reaches the Whaling city.

Hollis Dywer of Boston is visiting friends in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wells and daughter have returned to Jamesport, N. Y., after visiting Noank relatives.

Mrs. H. Thorpe and daughter of New London are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Annie Tooker.

William Banks has returned from a visit on Block Island.

Post cards are being received from Mr. and Mrs. James Steele, from Prince Edward Island who left a few days ago. They expect to be gone a month. The greater part of the trip was made by train.

When the dirigible Los Angeles was flying over the village, at Jane Carson's store on Main street, there gathered some young men to watch it. A small boy saw the airship, floating along and cried to them "Look at the derrick scow in the air!"

Edward Ashly was a recent caller in Montville.

Miss Beatrice Tourjee is spending a few days on Mason's Island.

A large force of men were recently laid off at the shipyard. Only a few old hands are left at the yard had plenty of work for about eight months where nearly 200 men were employed. Now every craft has left the yard except two coast guard boats which are hauled out on the north ways for painting.

Harold Brown of Point Judith life saving station is home on a short furlough.

Raymond Sistare has gone to New York for a few days.

Mike Passi is employed in New London as mason.

Freeman Roger has left for a visit at Spring Hill.

Mrs. W. H. Newell of Groton Long Point has left for a week's visit in Hartford.

Miss Irene Mitchell has gone to Winsted to visit relatives for a week.

Earl Bogue has returned from a visit with his cousin, Dave Maxwell in Bristol, R. I.

Bulca Clark is visiting relatives in Essex.

Mrs. Alfred Banks has left for a visit in Boston.

Daughters of American lodge council No. 8, went over to New London Monday evening and helped celebrate the fifteenth birthday of Nancy Hempstead council No. 11 at the meeting which followed the supper. Mrs. Ella Howard present Mrs. Gertrude Sawyer of Noank a beautiful brooch, a gift from Nancy Hempstead council. Mrs. Sawyer instituted the council 15 years ago.

The school building is receiving repairs, getting ready for opening the term September.

STONINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Theoful Krizanets and family motored to Ansonia Sunday and spent the day.

Bathers enjoying their daily swim at Loper's, north of the borough, were startled by one of their number finding a large bag Tuesday afternoon, which, when untied revealed five drowned cats. Everyone left the water and returned home for that day.

Miss Mary Robinson left Monday for Old Forge, N. Y., to spend a few weeks' vacation.

W. P. Bindloss has been awarded the contract to furnish the coal for the borough school this coming winter.

Miss D. L. Allen of Westerly was in town Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Rogers of Shelton spent the week end with relatives here.

Douglas Banner of Westerly was a business caller here Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Leboring, who was buried at Westerly Monday, was the mother of Mrs. Amos Nugent, of Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson spent the week end with relatives at South Manchester.

"No Trespassing" signs have been posted on the southeast island recently purchased by Robert S. Johnston, of New York, who spends the summer on the island with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vennart entertained William Vennart of Brooklyn, N. Y., over the week end.

Joseph Herres has returned from a visit with his grandmother in Mystic.

C. A. Bleasdale of Westerly was in town on business Tuesday.

J. T. Smith of Fishers Island was here Tuesday.

Captain John Ostman of New Haven is on furlough and is visiting here.

The Stonington Fire Police wore their new uniforms for the first time in Saturday's parade.

Chief Engineer Charles D. Rose of the New London fire department was the guest of the local warden and burgesses and witnessed the annual parade Saturday afternoon.

Misses Carrie and Maxine Burrows of New London were Stonington callers Tuesday.

ROCKVILLE, R. I.

Mrs. Ida Mylod, of Harding, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elmer E. Kenyon.

Mrs. Lydia Church and Mrs. Phebe Crandall who have been ill are reported as somewhat improved.

Arthur G. Burdick, of New London, and La Verne Burdick and Charles Palmer and family of Westerly were callers at E. E. Kenyon's, Sunday.

Misses Lucie and Julia Irish are guests of relatives in Providence.

George H. Maxson of Quonochontaug was a week end guest of J. P. Greene.

JEWETT CITY

DONALD McNICOL PATIENT AT BACKUS HOSP., NORWICH

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 11—Donald McNicol, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McNicol is in Backus hospital, Norwich, where he was operated upon for appendicitis this afternoon. He was taken ill during the night, Tuesday.

Pachaug Ladies' Aid society conducted a lawn social on Pachaug Green, Tuesday evening, which proved a great success. There were one hundred and fifty present. Ashland orchestra, the Accd Four, furnished music. There were solos on the cornet by Eino Karjalo and on the saxophone by David Halka, accompanied by Miss Aili Halka, the two last named from New York. Arthur Burdick of Gelswold played violin solos and Miss Bessie McCluggage read. Ice cream, lemonade and cake were on sale and there were grab-bags and games. The committee in charge was Mrs. W. B. Monigomery, Mrs. Frank Wilcox, Mrs. LeRoy Holmes, Mrs. Benjamin Goldstein, and Mrs. W. A. Edmond. By the courtesy of W. P. Holmes and LeRoy Holmes the grounds were lighted by electricity.

Hamilton James of Long Island is visiting his cousin, Mrs. Alex McNicol.

Mrs. Thomas Cossar went to New York Wednesday and sails Saturday for her home in Harrogate, England. She has been visiting relatives and friends in this country for two months.

Guests at the Anderson home in Hopeville are Mr. and Mrs. B. Davis, Mrs Hayhurst, Mrs. Nellie Carpenter, Mrs. Alfred Dudley, Misses Avis Hawkins, Lillian Johnson, Sadie Barrett and May Buffington all of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. A. MacIntosh and sons John and William, Misses Katherine MacSorley and Florence Felsbury all of New York and Miss Maria Mager of Newark, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gibson of Athol, Mass., are visiting friends in Hopeville. Mr. Gibson is Edward Gibson's nephew.

Miss Susan Armstrong is visiting in Providence and Boston.

Adam Rojeke's son has been brought to his home from the Hartford hospital. He has infantile paralysis, and will be under the care of a specialist and a local physician.

Rev. G. Keene Gray has had a deep sea fishing experience which will be a pleasant recollection after he goes to where the ocean is but a memory. He went to Block Island last week got aboard a fishing boat and sailed out with the crew after sword fish. He saw them capture one which weighed one hundred and fifty pounds. He was most enthusiastic in praise of the courteous treatment and behavior of the six men of the crew.

Finn's tonight. Hoot Gibson in "Man in the Saddle."—adv.

Sol Mugovero has taken over the business next to his.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gutknecht and daughter Regina, Margaret and Henry Wallace and John Scott motored over the Mohawk trail for the week end.

Mrs. Alice Hillhouse of Norwich, is the guest of Miss Grace Olin.

Mrs. Alex McCluggage and children Misses Elizabeth, Harriet and Lucille and son Houston are at Lord's Point for two weeks.

As briefly mentioned Monday Joseph H. Seiferman for more than 50 years identified with the retail meat and grocery business of Middletown, died at his home, 106 Lincoln street, Saturday, after a week's illness of pneumonia. Mr. Seiferman was born in Durham, the son of Charles P. and Mary Casey Seiferman and would have been 73 years old had he lived to the 13th of the present month.

Although interested in all civic affairs, he never became active in politics, nor sought public office. His chief interest was his home. He was a devout member of St. John's church and keenly interested in all church affairs.

Mr. Seiferman belonged to the K. of C. and the Macabees, being a charter member of both.

He leaves two sons, Charles J., of Portland, who was associated with his father in business, and Rev. Joseph H. of St. Francis church, Naugatuck; three daughters, Mary E., at home; Nellie M., cashier and bookkeeper at the Remington-Noiseless Typewriter Corp., and Teresa M., a graduate nurse; a grandson, Charles Joseph Seiferman; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Galligan of New Haven and Mrs. Teresa Landers of Meriden.

Mr. Seiferman's son, Rev. Father Seiferman was for several years a very popular curate at St. Mary's church, Jewett City.

MYSTIC

The Pythias Boosters' club of eastern Connecticut met in Grange hall Monday evening to make final arrangements regarding the Pythian field day to be held in Mystic September 25. Knights of Pythian sisters from all over this state, New York, Rhode Island and Massachusetts will meet for the annual outing. Brief addresses were made by C. J. Clendearning of Mystic and the past chancellors, Fred Ames, Mr. Jane, Zenas Snyder, William Bosworth and George Haven of Westerly, Mrs. Snyder of Hartford, Mrs. Minnie Jeffry of New London. Ice cream, cake and punch were served by Mrs. Clendenning, Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Noyes.

Karl Edward Donatte, 74, who died at his home 11 Mistuxet avenue Tuesday morning after a lingering illness was born in Sprenberg, Germany, Jan. 10, 1852, the son of George Donath and Elizabeth Vorsatz. He has resided in Mystic most of his life. He leaves his wife, Mrs Christiania Donath, three sons Rudolph and Charles of Mystic, Fred Donath of Springfield and a daughter, Miss Martha Donath of New York. There are five grandchildren, Christine, Norman, Clarence, Edward and Raymond Donath. He was well liked and will be greatly missed.

The picnic of Mystic grange is to be held at Atlantic Beach Saturday afternoon. Mrs. W. C. Morgan and her committee have arranged for all to meet at the grange hall at [illegible] Those having room in their cars to take those who have no way to go. Tables will be furnished in the pavilion and all will eat together. Watermelon will be provided.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman and two children left Wednesday for Boston after spending two weeks here. They will visit Mr. Sherman's brother in Boston

The deacons and officers of the Baptist church met Tuesday evening to consider calling a pastor.

Mrs. Walter Sisk, while washing dishes Tuesday morning, broke one, cutting her hand badly. She went to a hospital in New London and had the wound dressed.

Henry Crumb is visiting his son on Pearl street.

The conference board of the S. N. E. Telephone company met here Tuesday in Masonic temple. Dinner was served at noon.

Mrs. John Debrot, who is spending the summer at Masons Island, has gone to New York for a visit.

W. A. Phillips spent Tuesday with his brother in Montville.

Mrs. John T. Brooks has returned from a visit in Hartford and Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradley and two children of Crawford, N. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Bradley.

Edward Brooks is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins in Bridgeport.

The Grand Army post met Tuesday afternoon. Williams Woman's Relief corps served ice cream and cake.

Miss Clara Sanford of Winsted is the guest of Mrs. John Lucy.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Eleanor Whitaker is spending her vacation with relatives in Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tetreault are entertaining Blanche and Leo White, of Long Island for two weeks.

Mrs. R. C. Kies and daughter Inez spent Sunday at the beach.

Mrs. A. E. Hall, Gertude Hall and Mrs. P. H. Coffey were in Norwich Tuesday and called on Miss Phebe Barber.

Mrs. Raymond Gates and children Virginia and Denton have returned from a few days' visit with friends at Oakland Beach.

J. F. Eldridge was overcome by heat while in the field one day last week. He has recovered sufficiently to attend to his duties.

Harry Young and family of Danielson and Mrs. P. H. Coffey and children had a picnic in a nearby grove Sunday.

Byron Place is having his house repaired and shingled.

Mrs. A. E. Hall and Gertrude Hall spent Friday in Providence.

Strawberry shortcake-

Serve with a generous helping of Tasti-Mallow and watch the plates come back for more. Costs a lot less than Whipped Cream. Keeps indefinitely and is ready to use from the can.

Two sizes—23c. and 35c. at Grocers.

Mail your recipe and suggestions. We pay $1.00 for each one we accept.

ECLIPSE FOOD PRODUCTS CORP. PROVIDENCE, R. I.

An Eclipse Product

TASTI-MALLOW

A PERFECT MARSHMALLOW CREME

THEY'RE

Smooth*est

* that's why you can smoke them

MORNING, NOON and NIGHT

If you are an early morning smoker, light up your first OLD GOLD Cigarette with the morning paper. And keep 'em going all day until pajama time . . . You can't get a tongue-bite or a throat-scratch out of a carload of them . . . but you'll get a world of satisfaction out of every cigarette.

OLD GOLD

The WORLD'S SMOOTHEST CIGARETTE 20 for 15 cents

The Product of P. LORILLARD CO., Established 1760

DANIELSON

COURT OFFICIALS MOVED THOUGH BLAMING LAFONTAINE

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 11—With the accused on the verge of tears and relating a tale of pitiful struggle to get along in the world, under the handicaps of lack of food and unemployment, the case of George LaFontaine took on something of a changed aspect, when it came up before Judge W. Fenner Woodward in the town court, this morning. LaFontaine was arrested Tuesday afternoon while engaged in removing copper bonding wires from the rails of the Connecticut company, at a point where the line runs along the river bank and through wooded country just north of the Dyer dam.

LaFontaine only recently obtained employment as a section hand for the New Haven road. He told of working on a curtailed allotment of food, of being penniless, discouraged and was tempted to steal the copper to obtain some money, through its sale to alleviate his troubles. While stealing could not be condoned by the court officials, their sympathy for LaFontaine was aroused. His case was continued for 30 days, arrangements made to get him a breakfast while Prosecuting Attorney Arthur G. Bill offered him some money to tide him over the period that will intervene before his pay day comes around. LaFontaine is married and has a child.

The charge under which LaFontaine was arraigned is a serious one—the statute providing that anyone wilfully removing property from a trolley or steam road may be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for a period not to exceed three years. There have been other thefts of copper bonding from the rails of the Connecticut company and every effort will be made to stop the practice.

LOCAL TOURISTS JARRED BY BRISTOL, R. I., EXPLOSION

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 11—Home again after a quiet vacation during which they visited at Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Max Fields and all today of Bernard street, Danielson, have settled down to the general routine of life. Mr. Fields is a tailor in Bristol, R. I. Monday night, the four people, sharing others and awaking the houses in the vicinity of the disaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields consider were planning along on their journey when the stunning explosion occurred and they were so close to where it happened that they were jarred by the concussion. They relate that there was almost immediately a great rush of cars to the wreckage area and then a stampede of machines to get out, as it became known that unexploded quantities of powder remained in the burning wreckage and that other explosions were imminent.

This year's annual field meeting of Quinebaug Pomona grange, No. 2, is to be held at Roseland park in the town of Woodstock, Thursday, August 26. It will be an all day affair, opening at 10:30 in the forenoon and continuing into the evening.

Features of the day will include competitive athletic contests between the different granges. Special events will include the famous suit case race, baseball croquet and barnyard golf. Special prizes are to be provided for women contestants. In the evening the grangers will dance at Stonebridge pavilion, under the auspices of Senexet grange of Woodstock. The committee arranging for the field day is made up of Freeman Nelson, Harry Wells, Frank Haines.

New London County Pomona grange has invited Quinebaug Pomona grange to neighbor with its members Thursday of next week, August 19, at North Stonington. United States Senator Hiram Bingham is to be in attendance at this gathering, at the North Stonington fairgrounds. Clam chowder and coffee are to be served.

Frank G. Dean, who for the past year has been connected with the gas departments of the Danielson and Plainfield Gas and Electric company and the Putnam Light and Power company is going with the Barstow Stove company of Providence, where he will have charge of sales to gas companies throughout New England, also act as consulting engineer in the construction of gas ranges. Mr. Dean has many years experience in the gas appliance business, and during his stay in this part of eastern Connecticut has made a great many friends all of whom wish him success in his new field.

Wednesday, the funeral of Leonard Herard, Jr., was held from the home of his parents in Attawaugan with funeral services at St. Joseph's church in Danielle at 9 o'clock. Rev. Augustin Chapignac, M. S., was celebrant of the requiem mass. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were Adelard Aubin, Romeo Beaulac, Raymond Herard and Emil Herard. L. E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Periodically, and this appears to be one of the times a drive against the sale of cigarettes to boys under the age of 16 years is made. Cigarette smoking by youngsters seems to have a boom each summer season, and this one appears to be no exception. Dealers who sell cigarettes to boys under 16, are liable to be penalized and it is by stopping the sales to these juniors that the best results are expected. Not all dealers by any means will sell cigarettes to persons under 16 years of age but there are said to be some leaks in the trade.

Today (Thursday) brings another half holiday for store forces in Danielson.

As from many places in the state reports are coming into Danielson relative to damage being caused to crops and young trees by deer, which are numerous all through this territory.

Work is being pushed as rapidly as possible on the big contract at Killingly High school and steady progress made, but so much remains to be done that it likely will be well along toward the cold weather season before everything is completed, though the school is scheduled to open September 20.

Touring Florida motorists who have been questioned here during the past few days as to bank failures and the collapse of various boom enterprises in their home state reluctantly admit that overreaching in developments is now exacting severe penalties, but express their belief that Florida has a great future.

Sure Relief
FOR INDIGESTION

BELL-ANS
25c and 75c Packages Everywhere

PUTNAM

SALE OF PERRYVILLE MILL— HAS BEEN RUNNING STEADILY

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 11—The Perryville Mill, located near the state line between the town of Dudley, Mass., and Thompson, Conn., has been sold to a corporation and will be conducted under the name of the Perry Woolen Mills, Inc., John G. Zabriskie of New York is the president of the new corporation and John B. Thompson of Webster, Mass., is treasurer. The shareholders include many of the former overseers of the mill. The mill itself is located in Dudley and the boiler house is in the town of Thompson, Conn.

The new firm is incorporated to manufacture woolen and worsted fabrics and textile goods in general and the value is placed at $200,000 in 2,000 common shares, par value $100, all issued. Negotiations for the sale have been in progress for several weeks. The sale being consummated, the business continues as usual the principal owners being a well known commission house, who joined with the overseers in the purchase.

Since the tragic death of J. Perry Parsons, the mill has been conducted by the estate and has been running steadily. It stars under the new ownership with every prospect of continued prosperity.

DISTINGUISHED LIBRARIAN GUEST OF DR. E. F. PERRY

PUTNAM, Aug. 11—William L. Corbin, director of libraries of the Smithsonian institute at Washington, D. C., has been the guest of a college classmate, Dr. E. F. Perry of Grove street. He has been giving a course of lectures this summer at Boston university. With Rev. Harvey M. Lawson of Union he was entertained by Clarence E. Bowen at his home in Woodstock. The Rev. Mr. Lawson is the author of Union and the Corbin genealogy and Mr. Bowen is soon to publish a history of Woodstock.

Professor Corbin visited many historical spots, mostly those associated with his ancestors, who were pioneer settlers of the town of Woodstock. He plans to spend a much longer time in this section of New England a little later.

George Steffo and Eutrous Olson, of Webster, were arrested Sunday night on North Grosvenordale by the state police of Danielson barracks, charged with the illegal transportation of liquor. Their automobile was stopped and a search revealed four gallons of alleged whiskey. When tried in the town of Thompson before Judge Tourtelotte, Seffo was fined $216 and Olsen drew a fine of $212.

The state of Connecticut got ahead of the Massachusetts Highway department in the matter of the North Woodstock-Southbridge new road, as the Connecticut Highway department has already set up the signs "This road is under construction," thus showing that the work is really started.

Dr. Edward F. Perry, Gilbert F. and Miss Gertrude Perry, with Mr. and Mrs A. L. Mansfield attended the funeral of Mrs. George F. Hart at Webster.

Miss Gladys May has resigned as a nurse at the Day Kimball hospital and has returned to her home at Fabyan. She expects soon to take a trip which will include Oklahoma and California, before taking up hospital work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bixby of Bridgewater, Mass., have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. Edward F. Perry.

Joseph Goulet age 16, of Danielson, is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital here. The young man fell from his bicycle and fractured his leg.

William Easton of Woonsocket has been spending a few days with his family on Pleasant street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bennett, daughter Miss Elizabeth and niece, Miss Eleanor Fraser of Mansfield, Ohio, are guest sof Mr. Bennett's mother, Mrs. M. W. Bennett and sister Miss Grace Bennett, of Bellevue street.

Police Captain and Mrs. William J. Jarvis have returned from a three weeks' trip to Canada, going over the same route that they followed on their wedding trip a year ago. The captain has resumed day duty and Sergeant Laird has astarted on his two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Case of Hartford are guests of Mrs. Case's mother, Mrs. Reynolds, on Fremont street. Mr. Case was a former business man of Putnam.

Mrs. Edward C. Fisher has return-

BAY STATE POULTRYMEN HEADED FOR NORWICH

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 11—Traveling in a big motor coach and in touring cars members of the Plymouth Poultry association came out of Massachusetts and into this territory Tuesday to inspect poultry farms. One of the places visited was that of Joseph Z. LaBelle, near Ballouville. The party lunched in the grove at Wildwood park. Leaving this section, the travelers, numbering nearly 50, headed for Norwich, where they were scheduled to spend Wednesday.

Danielson infantrymen who have re-cently returned from camp at Niantic say they hear there is a possibility of their going to camp in Maine during the summer of 1927.

Because of the serious illness of his wife, Charles Hale has been spending a few days at West Haven, where Mrs. Hale has been ill at the home of her mother.

Manager P. J. Sheridan of Wildwood park has announced the abandoning of dances at the pavilion there Thursday nights.

A cast of little people presented a very amusing and effective tabloid musical comedy at the Orpheum theater at Wednesday's shows.

Representatives of the installing company were engaged Wednesday in making readjustments of the new fire signal horn on the central fire station.

Nathan Blumenthal made a trip to Hartford to attend a recent conference of radio manufacturers and dealers.

Dr. Hugh B. Campbell of Norwich will come here Friday of this week, from 9:30 a. m. to noon, to hold a free clinic at the health station in the town hall building.

The considerable amount of rain that came Wednesday was exceedingly welcome in all the surrounding territory, which has been parched for lack of showers.

A good number attended the meeting held in the Majestic theatre Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Danielson Rod and Gun club.

James C. Donald of Worcester is visiting friends in Danielson for a few days.

Mrs. Alfred Pluze of Carter street is at Oakland Beach, R. I., for a stay of two or three weeks.

Uncle Joe Shippee of Plainfield, New England's champion fiddler, is tuning up for a season's campaign that is intended to extend through the winter. He is to play at dances.

WESTERLY

OAKS INN LICENSE ISSUED TO NORWICH MAN

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Aug. 11.—John Giatrelis of 51 Granite street, Westerly has been issued a tavern license for the Oaks inn on the Shore road. Application was made to the Westerly town council at its session Monday, Aug. 2nd, by Leslie Harry Gordon of Norwich, who appeared before the council with letters of recommendation. At that time his application was referred to the police committee of the council, who informed Mr. Gordon that he would be notified in a short time as to whether he was the successful applicant or not. Oaks inn tavern licenses have been held this year by Thomas Gotis and John E. Kinderis, both of Hartford, and were later revoked by action of the Westerly town council following their place being raided by Westerly police and the conviction of the managers of illegal liquor sales.

MISS DOROTHY D. BEAL BRIDE OF HENRY R. HAVENS

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 11.—Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlam P. Hakes on the Potter Hill road, where the bride has made her home, Henry Robert Havens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Havens of 58 Canal street, and Miss Dorothy Dunn Beal, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Beal, were married by Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church. The room was decorated with yellow gladioli, white hydrangeas, palms and ferns. The color scheme was yellow and white. Miss Martha Babcock was maid of honor and C. Alfred Havens, brother of the groom, was best man. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Mildred Whipple played "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell, and she also played the wedding marches before and after the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white beaded crepe. Her veil of Princess lace was caught with pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and swansonia. The maid of honor had a frock of yellow crepe and carried a sheath of yellow gladioli. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a supper served. Mr. and Mrs. Havens left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls. Upon their return they will reside at 16 Dixon street and will be at home after Aug. 23.

The bride is a graduate of Westerly high school and the Rhode Island College of Education. For the past two years she has been a teacher at the Pleasant street school. The groom is a clerk at Westerly post office.

Mrs. Albert O. Bennett of Pawca-tuck and Mrs. Ralph L. Segar returned to Westerly Monday from New London, N. H., where they were called for the funeral of their father, Thomas F. Brennan, whose death occurred there last week. At the funeral, requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Father Hogan. Burial was in Lebanon cemetery, New London, N. H. Brother Elks acted as bearers. Mr. Brennan, who for many years resided in Westerly and at Potter Hill, was employed in the textile industry. Besides his wife, who resides in New London, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Albert O. Bennett of Pawcatuck, Mrs. Ralph L. Segar of Westerly and Miss Beatrice Brennan of Springfield, Mass., and by four sons, John of Woonsocket, Thomas and Louis of Hartford and Arthur Brennan of California. A sister is Mrs. E. P. Lyons and a brother is Daniel Brennan of Baltic. He leaves six grandchildren.

Recorded in the office of Westerly town clerk is the transfer:

Aug. 9.—Gaetano Beraduci to Henry G. Behrens and wife a certain tract or parcel of land on Franklin street.

The sixth in the summer series of concerts by Westerly band is scheduled to be given this (Thursday) night at 8 o'clock in Wilcox park, under the leadership of Director Charles O. Gavitt.

Following is the program:

March, "Comrades of the Legion" Sousa
Overture, "Banditenstrike" Suppe
Waltz, "College" Missud
Popular Air—
"In My Gondola" Warren
Solo for Cornet, "Just a Cottage Small" Hanley
Master Milton Phalen.
12-year-old cornetist
Characteristic, "Cinderella's Bridal Procession" Dicker
Popular Air—"Valencia" Padilla
Gems from "Robin Hood" Wiegand
Reverie, "Eventide" Weldt
Popular Air
"Bye Bye, Blackbird" Remick
Fantasia on College Songs—"Campers' Echoes" Rollinson
Popular Air—
"I'd Climb the Highest Mountain" Berlin
March, "Black House Troop" Sousa
Finale, "Star Spangled Banner."

Funeral services for Mrs. A. Anne Nash, widow of James L. Nash, were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Narragansett house, Watch Hill. Rev. G. Edgar Tobin, rector of Christ Episcopal church, read the service in the hotel, also conducted the committal in River Bend cemetery. There were beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were George W. Hoxie, Walter Nash, Edmund P. York, Kenneth Hoxie, Leon York and W. Porter Hoxie.

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock funeral services for Herbert Edwards were held at 49 Beach street. The service was read by Rev. G. Edgar Tobin, rector of Christ church. The bearers were William J. Edwards, Thomas M. Spencer, Harry Francis and Howard McSparren. Burial was in River Bend cemetery.

Westerly chapter of the American Red Cross has placed a large metal danger sign at the mouth of the Weekapaug breachway, warning bathers of the heavy undertow. On Tuesday, Henry Turrisi, 37 Pierce street, and Lewis Guiliano, 34 Pleasant street, both passed all the requirements for the senior lifesaving corps. Both boys passed with high marks and are now full fledged members of the Red Cross corps.

Before Judge William A. Wilcox of Pawcatuck in a session of Stonington town court Wednesday morning Manuel Santos of Stonington was presented on a complaint of breach of the peace, preferred by Assistant Town Solicitor J. Albert Dennison of Mystic. In response to a telegram Santos took a taxi from New Bedford to Stonington and had a scuffle with his father-in-law when he demanded $25 of wages alleged due him which his wife had obtained at the velvet mill where he was employed. Officer William Ostman made the arrest. Santos was fined $25 and costs amounting to $42.94 which he paid.

Sometime during Tuesday night a truck backed into a telegraph pole on West Broad street just east of the entrance to the Campbell Grain Co., as the holder for one of the recently installed metal traffic parking signs was broken down. Officer C. Wilson Brown of Pawcatuck, in replacing the sign Wednesday morning, discovered that the back of a U. S. mail box fastened to the pole had been broken at the same time. He notified Postmaster Thomas F. Lenihan.

Members of Westerly Scottish so-cieties attended on Wednesday the 56th annual field day of Rhode Island Scottish societies at Rocky Point. A street parade in Providence was followed by Scottish games at the Point and the serving of a shore dinner.

The steam digger located on the Nardone lot at the site of the house on High street recently occupied by Dr. Ruisi, before being removed to the rear of the Alba inn, is making rapid work of clearing out the dirt and gravel in excavation for the basement of the Nardone block, to be erected at the junction of High and Canal streets.

Mrs. Jeannie L. Smith and daugh-ter, Miss Jeannie N. Smith, were in Providence Tuesday.

William F. Donovan of Potter Hill returned Monday evening from Providence.

George E. Dewey of New London was a Westerly business caller Tuesday.

George E. Phillips of Pleasant View returned to Providence Tuesday morning.

Henry G. Clark of Providence and South Kingstown, was a caller on business associates Wednesday in Westerly and Pawcatuck.

Emma Counterman of Norwich was the guest Tuesday evening of her cousin, Mrs. H. D. Peckham, in Westerly.

Walter H. Snyder, who has been ill for several days at his home in Westerly, returned this (Thursday) morning to his duties as manager of the Nash news stand at Watch Hill.

Arthur L. Perry of Westerly motored on business Tuesday afternoon to Montville.

Charles F. Champlin of Stonington has been ill for several days at his home, Maple Breezes, on the Norwich-Westerly road.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney S. Blake of Philadelphia are guests of Westerly friends and relatives.

Tuesday evening in Pawcatuck the Pawcatuck City club was organized when west side citizens of Italian descent, met at 88 Liberty street. The gathering was an enthusiastic one and the founders feel certain that the organization will flourish. The next meeting will be held next Monday evening at the Liberty street club house. The following officers were chosen: Joseph Palazzolo, president; Giuseppe Mazzarelli, vice president; Giuseppe Oriando, secretary; Joseph R. Grillo, financial secretary; Michaelangelo Rustici, treasurer.

On Broad street Tuesday afternoon the attention of many passersby was attracted by Lionel Rino, a traveling mentalist, who demonstrated his powers as a memory expert. Rino astounded the crowd by glibly reciting the list of all present state governors in the country, giving birth dates of important personages, adding long columns of figures without the slightest hesitation and performing mental gymnastics of other sorts. He also gave a lecture in which he exposed many of the favorite tricks used by fake mind readers and mediums.

BumsteadsWormSyrup

"To children an angel of mercy." Where directions are followed. IT NEVER FAILS. Despite scarcity and enormous cost of SANTONIN, it contains full dose. Stood sixty years' test. Sold everywhere or by mail, 50c a bottle.

Bst. C. A. Voorhees, M. D., Philadelphia

RUFFLED CURTAINS

Flat Lace Edge Curtains

Jacquard Panels

—and—

Curtain Cloth of Many Designs

At Our Remnant Store, 35 Furnace Street, Danielson.

Paco Manufacturing Co.

CHESTNUT HILL.

Arthur Dimon of Wethersfield is spending two weeks' vacation with his brother, G. B. Dimon.

Frank Cyrs of Malden, and his niece, Miss Kittie Mason, were guests at W. W. Palmer's from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Cyrs returned to Malden. Miss Mason remaining for a week or two.

Mrs. G. B. Dimon and son, Richard Dimon, attended the recent postmasters' convention in New Haven and were visitors at Savin Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hutchins and son, Miss Margaret Hutchins and Miss Cora Chappell enjoyed a motor trip of two days' duration in New York, visiting Bear mountain, also New York city. They returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Peckham accompanied their son Edmund J. Peckham and family on an automobile trip last week. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watson in Guilford for a few days, spending a day at Hammonasset Beach, also visiting New Haven and Manchester on their return trip.

Richard Dimon and Mrs. Eva Dimon called on friends in South Manchester the first of the week.

Miss Maude Oehlers who has been at the home of her parents for a few weeks, has returned to Hartford.

W. W. Palmer, Mrs. G. T. Chappell and daughters, Mary and Elinor Chappell, and Miss Kittie Mason visited relatives in Springfield Tuesday.

Callers at G. B. Dimon's Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Blackley of Middletown, Archie Smith and two sons of New Haven; on Monday, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of South Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Lathrop of Rockville and Mr. and and Mrs. Perry A. Lathrop of Vernon and Mr. and Mrs. Myron C. Peckham and daughters of Manchester were callers at A. S. Peckham's Sunday afternoon.

Premier Mussolini and Mouhtar Suad Bey, Turkish ambassador to Italy signed a judicial treaty between the two countries. A consular treaty will be signed soon.

GOSHEN

Rev. Frank A. Fuller of Putnam occupied the pulpit Sunday and preached a very helpful sermon. He also was leader of the Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening. An interesting discussion was inspired by the topic, "Books That Are Profitable to Read." Rev. Mr. Fuller was accompanied by his wife. They were entertained by their cousin Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Avery of Norwich Town were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Saturday.

Mrs. E. K. Jones of Buffalo N. Y. with her son and daughter and son-in-law arrived at the home of her father, J. Y. Thomas, Friday evening. They made the trip by automobile, leaving Buffalo at 1 a. m., and reached their destination at 5 o'clock that evening.

The Sunday School class formerly taught by Miss Mary A. Sturh, will have their annual reunion at the Trumbull home, Lebanon, Thursday, guests of Miss Adelaide Hallen. This event is much enjoyed by the various members.

Rev. Francis P. Bachelor, of Taftsville is to preach the morning sermon in Goshen church, at 11 o'clock, (Standard Time), Sunday August 15th. All former parishiners have been invited to be present.

BAYER

Genuine ASPIRIN

SAY "BAYER ASPIRIN" and INSIST!

Proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for

Colds	Headache	Neuritis	Lumbago
Pain	Neuralgia	Toothache	Rheumatism

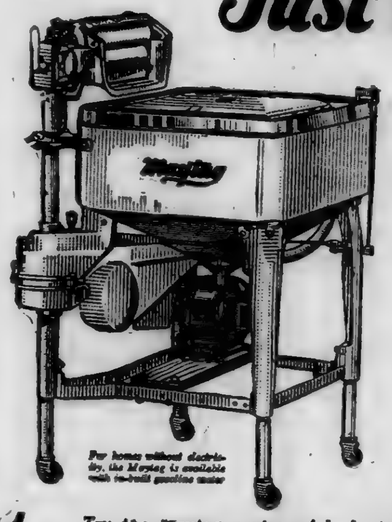
DOES NOT AFFECT THE HEART

Safe — Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets
Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

FREE
—a week's washing
Just PHONE



JUST phone us and we will send a Maytag to your home to do a week's washing FREE—without obligation of any kind. We can afford to rely solely upon your judgment because the Maytag sells itself in practically every home where it goes for this convincing free test.

See the Maytag wash big tubfuls of clothes in 3 to 7 minutes! See the Maytag do a whole washing—50 pounds of clothes (dry weight) in one short hour! See the Maytag wash everything—even collars, cuffs and wristbands without hand-rubbing! See how gently the Maytag washes your finest lingerie and laces—how thoroughly it washes greasy workclothes and grimy rompers—in 10 minutes!

Try the Maytag next washday! Assure yourself that the Maytag is "years ahead" of other washers—that it is the washer you want! Then, if it doesn't sell itself, don't keep it.

Easy Deferred Payments You'll Never Miss

Maytag Aluminum Washer

If it doesn't sell itself, don't keep it.

C. M. SHARPE

55 FRANKLIN ST., NORWICH, CONN.
Telephone 2820

WILLIMANTIC, 856 MAIN ST.
Telephone 880-3

PUTNAM
Telephone 717-3

1796 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3
Bulletin Job Room 35-2
Willimantic Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1151-2.

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Thursday, August 12, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUGUST 7, 1926:
12,795

GIVING US DUE CREDIT

The fact of persistent attempts [illegible] European quarters to [illegible] appear that America has been [illegible] creditor in the settle[illegible] of foreign debts, it is refreshing to find such a candid and unqualified statement as has just been issued by Viscount Rothermere in a [illegible] article to a leading New York [illegible]. Viscount Rothermere is the [illegible] of the London Daily Mail [illegible] other newspapers holding a po[illegible] that gives him opportunity for [illegible] appraisal of the situation and [illegible] his opinion to respectful hear[illegible] on both sides of the Atlantic.

Speaking of the debt settlement between Great Britain and the United States he says: "Already it is evident [illegible] instrumental countries with low [illegible] rates are being forced to protect themselves behind prohibitive tariff [illegible] and it is only a question of [illegible] when there will be no outlet for [illegible] manufacturers of intensely industrialized [illegible] high currency countries like the United States and Great Britain. Our [illegible] plight is not due to American [illegible] but to the incredible inept[illegible] of British statesmanship. The [illegible] of debt settlement about which [illegible] it is made were not thrust [illegible] at the pistol's point. They [illegible] on the contrary, eagerly con[illegible] by that curiously misguided [illegible] of financial theorists who cross[illegible] the Atlantic in 1923. Whoever was [illegible] for the settlement, it cer[illegible] was not America. She had made [illegible] moderate demands. The terms [illegible] settlement were to all intents and [illegible] purposes the free and voluntary offer [illegible] British representatives. President [illegible] and Secretary Mellon are [illegible] to the credit of suggesting or forcing [illegible] disastrous settlement on any of [illegible] allies of their country in [illegible] great war."

[illegible] been repeated time and [illegible] the principle of "capacity to [illegible]" was the guide for the Americ[illegible] representatives in the negotiation [illegible] debt settlements and that principle [illegible] applied with a liberality that has [illegible] become ashamed of. Against the [illegible] flourish with which Clem[illegible] weighs against French ac[illegible] of debt settlement terms can [illegible] the dispassionate observation of [illegible] London journalist who declares [illegible] a disastrous settlement with any [illegible] of our allies in the war would [illegible] the silliest thing to expect from [illegible] negotiations carried on with the [illegible] assistance of President Coolidge and [illegible] Mellon.

TEXAS FREAK POLITICS

[illegible] the ultimate result is not in [illegible] question the Texas governorship [illegible] right in the democratic party is [illegible] not settled, in spite of the large [illegible] for the Attorney General Moody [illegible] in the recent primary. Mr. Moody [illegible] a majority of the actual ma[illegible] over all which he needed, so [illegible] runoff primary is to be held [illegible] the 28th of this month.

Before the primary, Governor Ferguson declared that she would resign [illegible] office and withdraw from the contest if Mr. Moody led her by a single [illegible]. She was led by more than 100,000 votes, but after a slight delay she announced that she would not resign [illegible] a special session of the legislature has been held to enact certain [illegible] legislation. Now it is intimated that [illegible] may again change her mind and [illegible] enter the run-off primary.

[illegible] basis for this change of heart [illegible] is the fact that 23 of the 33 [illegible] members of the democratic state executive committee are avowed Ferguson [illegible] friends. The committee is about to [illegible] its canvass for the second primary [illegible] to canvass the returns [illegible] the first voting. There are hints of [illegible] irregularities and disclosures in some [illegible] campaign contributions that [illegible] affect the conditions under which [illegible] run-off occurs.

Meanwhile the country at large, [illegible] has been much interested in the [illegible] regime in Texas, is wondering [illegible] how the incumbent can square [illegible] her shifts of mind. The [illegible] that she was looked upon [illegible] a pliant governor, and that [illegible] administrator of the state [illegible] affairs would be disqualified [illegible] holding office, somewhat relieves [illegible] of apparently freakish [illegible]. Doubtless on her [illegible] she was ready to quit if [illegible] single vote" in the first primaries; but she may have [illegible] decided that the office is not actually [illegible] to relinquish.

THE KITCHENER PUZZLE

Doubt is cast by the British government upon the identification of a body found in Norway as that of Lord Kitchener, who was on the Ham[illegible] when she was sunk in [illegible] sea in 1916. An official statement issued in London recites the ordinary conclusion of the government that the Hampshire was destroyed by [illegible] more floating mines, which had probably been strewn in the sea in preparation for the emergence of the German ships from base in the mancuvre which came to a climax in the battle of Jutland. The statement likewise declares that Lord Kitchener went down with the ship, which sank in a few minutes, and finally it asserts that no bodies from the Hampshire have ever been found on the Norwegian coast, and that it is extremely doubtful whether any drift of the sea could possibly carry them there.

Whether the Hampshire was the victim of chance or treachery, as was an opinion strongly held in some quarters, the statement can hardly prove that proper precaution was taken for the protection of Great Britain's most illustrious military leader in the voyage he was about to make to Russia. The danger from mines and submarines was well known, yet the Hampshire was proceeding without convoy except two torpedo boat destroyers, which a storm drove back to port almost as soon as the voyage began. Although in sight of shore when she was struck by the mine, the Hampshire was without escort and there was no ship standing by to effect a rescue if that had been possible. The ship sank in a few minutes and only a handful of men reached shore on wreckage.

Identification of the body found in Norway as that of Kitchener is still possible. It is being taken to London. If it is proved to be that of the field marshal all doubt as to his fate will be set at rest. But there has never been any reason to credit the various stories, such as that Kitchener was not drowned but somehow reached Germany, there to be taken and held prisoner.

SOVIET SEEKING CREDITS

Signs are not lacking to indicate that the soviet government in Russia, driven by the need of money, is in a frame of mind to make new advances for recognition by the United States in order that banking contacts here might be established. Pinched for credit and paying rates up to 30 per cent in European capitals, soviet officials have had recent conversations with American bankers in Europe to determine on what basis they could square themselves with the market here and borrow money.

There has lately come the announcement from the Kremlin that the soviet government is prepared to reach a settlement on Russia's debts to the United States and would send delegates to Washington to discuss the matter whenever invited. But in any such settlement discussion, the obstacle that arises is the counter-claims that the soviet would undoubtedly expect to present and have considered, these comprising claims for heavy damages for action of American troops in the anti-bolshevik armies in Murmansk and in Siberia. It is just these counter-war claims, which might run into fantastic figures and lead to prolonged political speeches, that the government at Washington would doubtless exclude from any settlement discussion, and it is improbable that American banks would take any final steps towards granting new banking facilities beyond what are now enjoyed by some soviet trade organizations, until the way is cleared in Washington.

Another indication of the financial stress of the soviet government is seen in their raising their bid for debt settlement with France. They now offer 60 per cent., where their previous offer was on a 40 per cent basis, and they are prepared to drop their previous demands for an immediate large loan. The urgency of soviet credit needs is too plainly evident. They must have money in order to run factories at home and get goods abroad. The expected German credit of 300,000,000 marks proved a failure and France is in no condition to lend money. London banks have been alienated and nothing but America is left to turn to. The progress of events points to more soviet advances here and in Washington in the early future.

DRASTIC TRAFFIC REGULATION

Downtown Boston, the business district of the city, is faced with a peculiarly difficult situation as regards the regulation of pedestrian and automobile traffic. The narrow streets are absolutely inadequate to accommodate the throng of pedestrians on the sidewalks, so that the crowds overflow into the streets, and automobiles thread their way through the passing throng with caution. Added to this is the problem of parking, as cars lined along the curb still further limit the way allowed for passage of either those on foot or those in cars.

In consideration of some solution of the problem a traffic survey has disclosed that the average number of persons occupying private passenger cars driven into this district is 1.3. One solution of the problem that has been suggested is the complete prohibition of parking on downtown Boston. Another, inspired by the survey that disclosed how few persons per car there were, is the exclusion of all private passenger cars from this district.

The prohibition of parking might be looked upon as salutary because of the restricted street space, but it is hard to see how the exclusion of passenger cars would be tolerated. It would be a setback to legitimate transportation. No one would seriously suggest that taxicabs should not be permitted to convey passengers to the hotels or the theatres, and if taxicabs must continue to perform their essential functions in a city, private cars cannot be fairly discriminated against to the point of complete exclusion. Again, too, public sightseeing vehicles could not properly be denied access to the downtown district, and visitors who come from a distance in private cars to see Boston would expect the same privilege.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The announcement that skirts will be shorter this fall evidently [illegible] that hosiery will be longer.

Old fashioned oratory is now replaced by the carefully modulated expression of the radio announcer.

The man on the corner says: It's a poor day when no new arrests are promised in the Hall-Mills murder case.

Uncle Sam paid off $40,000,000 of his debt in July and he wasn't getting anything much from his creditors either.

The anti-evolutionists insist in delving into the remote past instead of tackling the problems of the immediate present.

COLLECTING EVIDENCE

Mrs. Jarring, champion newsgetter of the Fern Family hotel, frowned severely at the tall, good looking young man who stood several feet away near the entrance of the lobby. To say that Mrs. Jarring was annoyed is putting it mildly. For this was the first time in the annals of the Fern hotel that a guest had stayed three solid weeks without having his family history wrested from him by the tireless leader of the rocking chair brigade—to wit, the above-mentioned Mrs. Jarring.

A smile of welcome displaced the frown between Mrs. Jarring's thin gray brows as the young man faced about in her direction. With a motherly pat at the chair beside her, Mrs. Jarring invited him to a friendly chat. He sat down politely, though somewhat constrained.

"This is a lovely little place, isn't it?" beamed Mrs. Jarring with her brightest smile.

"Lovely," agreed the polite young man, whose eyes were an innocent blue.

"I think a small family hotel like this is so much better than the great big ones where nobody knows anybody else, don't you?" went on Mrs. Jarring. "Do you prefer chummy places like this or do you like large ones better?"

"Yes. Very much," the polite young man enthused in turn. "Very much indeed, Mrs. Jarring."

Mrs. Jarring shot a quizzical glance at her companion, but the blue eyes were bland. Had she misunderstood him? Her hearing wasn't what it should have been of late.

"Do you know, Mr. Blackstone, the first moment I saw you I said to myself that you were just the type of young man who would come here. 'Here,' said I to myself, 'is just the kind of person who would choose a place like this to live in.' You looked sort of lonely to me——"

"I frequently do," interrupted the polite young man in a dreamy voice.

"You do——?"

"Look lonely, Mrs. Jarring. Yes, now that you've been good enough to call my attention to it, I am certain that I do look that way quite often."

There was a full minute's silence. Then——

"I must say that you are a very punctual young man," appreciated Mrs. Jarring. "I've seen you leave the hotel every morning promptly at 9. There's nothing like punctuality for a young man who's trying to make his name in the world. Your work——?"

"It requires my presence every morning. Except Sundays, of course, and holidays," added the polite young man as an afterthought, "Sundays and holidays excepted, of course."

Mrs. Jarring drew her lace scarf closer about her throat. There was a distinct draft coming from somewhere—no doubt the outer door had been left open.

"There are a number of pretty girls staying here," stated Mrs. Jarring after a few moments.

"All girls are pretty today," agreed the polite young man with a smile that included Mrs. Jarring in his compliment.

Mrs. Jarring stopped him with a playful shake of her finger. "Oh, I know all about it, young man. I saw you buying roses at the florist's next door——"

"Violets, Mrs. Jarring," he corrected with great gravity. "Violets. Don't you like violets better? My mother does, too. And that reminds me," the polite young man rose suddenly, "I must run up to write a letter to my——"

"Ah, ha!"

"My tailor still has my suit and his phone's been disconnected. I suppose a letter would reach him by tomorrow morning?"

Mrs. Jarring frowned severely after the polite young man's retreating back. Never in the annals of the Fern Family hotel had a guest stayed three weeks——

A small neat card, evidently dropped from the pocket of the young man, caught her eye and its perusal brought a relieved expression to Mrs. Jarring. No, her talents had not failed her utterly. She had simply encountered great odds in the polite young man with the innocent blue eyes. The card read:

William A. Blackstone,
Attorney-at-Law.
—Exchange.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Well Deserved Recognition

Mr. Editor: Good news sometimes travels slowly. I have just learned that Howard L. Stanton, your capable and genial fire chief is not to retire.

This is fortunate for Norwich. It is all too rare to find combined in one man, as we do in Chief Stanton, long experience, sound judgment, progressiveness, fine personality, and a willingness for public service. For years I have been associated with Chief Stanton in fire prevention activities and have considered it a rare privilege to work with and know him. May he serve you and inspire the rest of us for many more years.

Yours truly,
C. W. MOWRY,
Director of Engineering, Inspection Department, Associated Factory Mutual Fire Insurance Companies.
Boston, Mass., Aug. 10, 1926.

Today's Anniversaries

1848—Speech of Daniel Webster in the United States senate on the Oregon bill.

1851—Allen B. Wilson received a patent for his improved sewing-machine.

1860—Organization of the first Baptist church in Portland, Ore.

1883—The Kimball House at Atlanta was destroyed by fire.

1890—H. H. Markham was nominated as the republican candidate for governor of California.

1914—John P. Holland, pioneer submarine inventor, died at Newark, N. J. Born in Ireland in 1842.

1925—The casket containing the bones of St. Christina the Virgin, who died in the early times after Christ, arrived in New York from Europe.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Lord Darling, who is sailing for Canada this month in acceptance of an invitation to address the forthcoming meeting of the Canadian Bar association at St. John, is a celebrated English jurist who for many years was a judge of the King's Bench division of the high court. Justice Darling was born in 1849 and admitted to the bar in 1874. Before his elevation to the bench he was for nine years a conservative member of parliament. He is a scholar, a linguist and an entertaining writer of prose and verse. He has been described as the "Chief Judicial Wit of the Law Courts." In addition to his literary gifts, he is an artist of considerable talent, and is as good a judge of pictures as of law. Lord Darling says he does not expect to visit Niagara Falls, as he understands that under prohibition Americans are using so much water that the falls are almost dry.

Today's Birthdays

Stephen Baker, president of the New York clearing house, born at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 67 years ago today.

Julius Rosenwald, the eminent Chicago merchant and philanthropist, born at Springfield, Ill., 64 years ago today.

Mary Roberts Rinehart, one of the most successful women authors, born in Pittsburgh, 50 years ago today.

TRAFFIC

By the Albert Russel Erskine Bureau for Street Traffic Research University of California, Los Angeles

Battle of Interested Factions Costly. Each Must Yield Something. Central Agency Needed to Bring Benefit to All.

The street traffic problem in any city is a complex of conflicts. Motor cars and street cars obstruct each other; vehicles war upon walkers, and walkers in turn obstruct traffic movements. Those who desire to move are at odds with those who desire to park.

The cost of street congestion is so great, and it is a problem so vitally connected with the orderly development and prosperity of the community, that it is necessary that the conflicting interests should be harmonized.

In the average city it is difficult to get all of these interests to consolidate. Yet the failure to gain this cooperation is the reason for much of the failure to deal effectively with the traffic situation.

Public authorities are frequently criticized for their lack of initiative and force in dealing with traffic matters. They are often more to be pitied than to be blamed. They find themselves the storm center of a mass of ill-digested and conflicting demands for traffic legislation. Compliance with the demands of one group brings denunciation from the conflicting group.

As a result there is to be found in practically every American city traffic regulations which are a hodgepodge of accumulated amendments to some code long since antiquated—rules and regulations which are often self-conflicting or so compromised in effect that they are useless.

The most basic requirement for traffic relief and reorganization in any city is the establishment of some agency which will be able to consolidate and harmonize the conflicting groups.

The movement for such a traffic committee or commission may come either from the public officials or from private individuals, but in every case it should have the full confidence of both office-holders and the representatives of the chief traffic interests, including the chief motor car associations, the street railway interests, retail groups, trucking companies and similar traffic and transportation agencies.

There is no city too small to profit from the assistance of intelligent citizens who are giving their continued attention to the relief of existing street traffic difficulties, and the planning of adequate facilities to meet future demands. Such a traffic commission properly organized and having the cooperation of public officials, will harmonize the otherwise conflicting interests, and will make possible an organization capable of approaching street problems in a scientific and unselfish manner.

The New York Times every day gives the most reliable, complete report of all the news of interest to intelligent, thinking persons. An Index on the back page daily is a convenient summary of the news. Order from your newsdealer.

The New York Times

The Convenient Stomach.

The Starfish has without a doubt
The most convenient stomach out.
—Reddy Fox.

If he has any stomach trouble, there is no reason in the world why the starfish shouldn't get rid of the trouble right away. There is no excuse for not knowing what the trouble is. He doesn't need a stomach pump. All he has to do is to turn his stomach wrong side out. As a matter of fact, that is the way he eats his food. He doesn't have to take the trouble of biting it, chewing it and swallowing it. He just turns his stomach inside out around the food and that is all there is to it.

Reddy Fox and Jimmy Skunk saw this done, though they didn't quite understand what was happening. They did know that somehow or other that starfish was opening an oyster. How he did it, they didn't understand, but they saw him do it. What he really did was to pull that oyster open. Then when that oyster was opened sufficiently, Mr. Starfish simply turned his stomach wrong side out over that oyster inside the shell, and that was the end of the oyster.

All that Reddy and Jimmy could see was that that starfish seemed to be very busy about something. They were so interested that they forgot all about everything else. They saw that shell forced open and then for some time they couldn't see that anything was happening. But by and by that starfish let go of the shell and began to crawl away. They could see down into that partly opened shell.

Reddy looked at Jimmy and Jimmy looked at Reddy, and they both looked down at that half-opened shell. There was nothing in it. No, sir, there was nothing in it. It was as empty as a shell could be. Again Reddy looked at Jimmy and Jimmy looked at Reddy.

"Do you suppose," said Reddy, "that that shell was empty all the time, and that that was the reason it opened so easily?"

Jimmy Skunk shook his head. "No," said he, in a most decided way. "I have seen a lot of oysters and a lot of oyster shells. Empty shells are never closed tight that way. There certainly was an oyster in that shell. It looks to me very much as if that oyster had been eaten right under our very noses. Look, there comes another one of those things. Let's watch him."

"Do you suppose," asked Reddy, "that that shell was empty all the time?"

Sure enough, another big starfish came creeping into view. Jimmy and Reddy watched. This one passed right over the empty oyster shell without paying any attention to it. But when it reached the next oyster, it stopped. Reddy and Jimmy saw it fold its arms about this oyster. Then as a reward for patient watching, they saw precisely the same thing happen that happened with the first oyster and the starfish. Slowly, very slowly, the shell opened. When it had become open wide enough, the starfish was very busy for a while, although it seemed to be just resting there. By and by it moved away and it left an empty shell. Then Reddy and Jimmy knew beyond a doubt that somehow those starfish opened the oysters and ate them. As a matter of fact, the starfish are the worst enemies of the oysters. They also feed on other kinds of shellfish, but they are particularly fond of oysters.

The starfish Reddy and Jimmy had watched was the common starfish, but there are many kinds. Some of them are very large and others are quite small. The common starfish has five arms, though sometimes it may have six or seven. But there are starfish with a great many arms.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "A Starfish Loses an Arm."

Refuse Imitations

Prepared at home in a minute by briskly stirring the powder in hot or cold water. No Cooking

Safe Milk and Diet

For Infants, Growing Children, Invalids, Nursing Mothers, etc.

Food-Drink for All Ages

Rich milk, combined with extract of choice grains. Very nourishing, yet so easily digested that it is used, with benefit, by ALL AGES, ailing or well. An upbuilding diet for infants, invalids, nursing mothers, etc. Convenient, Light Nourishment, whenever faint or hungry. A cupful, taken hot, upon retiring, induces sound, refreshing sleep.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

Morning Specials

THURSDAY — 8:30 to 12 NOON

Today we have our Summer Half Holiday—This Store Will Close Today at 12 o'clock. As an inducement to our patrons to shop in the morning we offer the following strong list of "MORNING SPECIALS"—from 8:30 until 12 noon. We invite you to take advantage of the substantial savings which these "MORNING SPECIALS" offer.

Women's Bathing Suits Reduced
All $3.95 Suits to . . $2.50
All $5.95 Suits to . . $3.95
All $6.95 Suits to . . $5.00
All $9.75 Suits to . . $6.95

$1.00 BATH SALTS, 45c
Bath Salts, odors are Narcisse, Chypre, Violet, Etc—Morning Sale Price 45c, originally $1.00.

Swimming Floats, 69c
Torpedo Swimming Floats, a safe swimming device for Men, Women and Children—Morning Sale Price 69c, values $1.25.

Pearl Necklaces, 69c
Debutante Pearl Necklaces, indestructible, assorted styles—Morning Sale Price 69c, regular value $1.25.

Folding Umbrellas, $3.39
Folding Umbrellas, black, men's and women's sizes. Can be carried in 12-inch case—Morning Sale Price $3.39, value $5.98.

Rayon Silk Socks, 29c
Children's Rayon (Silk) Socks, in white, pink, sky, peach, pongee and orchid—Morning Sale Price 29c a pair, regular value 39c.

$1.00 UNION SUITS, 79c
Women's fine Nainsook Union Suits—athletic style, in white, flesh, honeydew and lavender trimming—Morning Sale Price 79c a suit, value $1.00.

PHOENIX HOSIERY, 89c
Women's "Phoenix" Silk Hosiery, service weight, in 23 leading colors—Morning Sale Price 89c a pair, regular value $1.00.
(Ribbon Counter)

$1.00 BRASSIERES, 85c
Women's Brassieres, in flesh and white, all models selling at $1.00—Morning Sale Price 85c.

$1.25 APRONS, 95c
Women's Bungalow Aprons, of Percale, good assortment of styles and designs—Morning Sale Price 95c, regular value $1.25.

FOR MEN!

Men's Neckwear, 79c
Men's Neckwear, all the newest patterns as well as plain colors—Morning Sale Price 79c, value $1.00.

Union Suits, $1.19
Men's "Lawrence" Knit Union Suits, short sleeves, ankle length—sizes 34 to 48—Morning Sale Price $1.19 a suit, value $1.50.

$2.50 Pajamas, $1.95.
Men's Universal and Clermont Pajamas, of Broadcloth, Soisette and Poplin, all sizes — Morning Sale Price $1.95, value $2.50.

$5.00 Shirts at $3.19
All our $4.00 and $5.00 Shirts, including Broadcloths, plain color Silks and Rayon Stripes. Sizes 14 to 17—Morning Sale Price $3.19.

$1.50 Play Dresses, $1.19
Children's Play Dresses, with Bloomers and Cap to match, in blue and pink—Morning Sale Price $1.19, value $1.50.
(Second Floor)

BOYS' OVERALLS, 75c
Boys' Blue Overalls, trimmed with red—Morning Sale Price 75c a pair, regular value $1.00.

BOYS' KNICKERS, $1.45
Boys' Linen Knickerbockers, in white, gray and natural color — Morning Sale Price $1.45, regular value $1.95.

59c CRETONNE, 37c
500 yards Cretonne, splendid assortment—Morning Sale Price 37c a yard, regular value 49c to 59c.
(Third Floor)

$4.25 RUGS at $3.49
100 Wilton Velvet Rugs, size 27x54 inches—Morning Sale Price $3.49, regular value $4.25.

Rattania Rugs
Thursday Morn. Specials
6x9 feet—$9.75, value $11.50
7 ft. 6x10 ft. 6—$12.50, value $15.75
9x12 feet—$14.75, value $18.00

Kimlark Rugs
Thursday Morn. Specials
6x9 feet—$10.50, value $11.50.
8x10 feet—$15.50, value $16.50
9x12 feet—$16.50, value $19.50

5c Children's Handkfs, 1c
Children's Handkerchiefs, perfect in every way—on Thursday morning buy one at the regular price 5c—the second one at 1c.

$1.50 SILK GLOVES, $1
Choice of our entire stock of Women's Silk Gloves, with Novelty Cuffs—Morning Sale Price $1.00 a pair, regular value $1.50.

Apron Ginghams, 10c
27-inch Apron Ginghams, in the blue even checks—Morning Sale Price 10c a yard, regular value 15c.

Dress Ginghams, 15c
32-inch, fine Zephyr Dress Ginghams, (short lengths), checks, plaids and plain colors—Morning Sale Price 15c a yard, value 29c.

DOMESTIC DEP'T.

Dress Linens, 49c
36-inch ALL WHITE Dress Linens, thoroughly shrunk, noncrushable — Morning Sale Price 49c a yard, value $1.25.
(Not more than 5 yards to a customer)

Bridge Covers, 59c
Small lot of size 36x36 LINEN Bridge Covers, in rose, blue and gold borders — Morning Sale Price 59c, value $1.00.

$5.00 Blankets, $2.98
Size 66x80 (double-bed size) Part Wool Blankets (subject to slight mill stains) — Morning Sale Price $2.98, regular value $5.00.

$1.00 Silk Pongee, 58c
33-inch, all Silk Pongee, for Dresses, Slips and Underwear—Morning Sale Price 58c a yard, value $1.00.

$1.00 Rayon Crepe, 69c
Yard-wide, Washable Stripe Rayon Crepe, for Dresses, in gold, red, blue, green and peach—at 69c a yard, regular value $1.00.

Toilet Paper, 7 for 50c
Toilet Paper, 1000 sheet rolls — Morning Sale Price 7 rolls for 50c.
(Kitchenware Department)

Chinaware at 10c
An assortment of "Blue Dragon" Chinaware—Tea Cups, Saucers and Plates—Morning Sale Price 10c each.

Glassware at 10c
Safeedge Grape Juice Glasses, two patterns—Morning Sale Price 10c each, value $1.75 a dozen.

Chinaware at 25c
Sugar Bowls and Creamers to match—Morning Sale Price 25c each.

Fruit Jars, $1.10 Dozen
E. Z. Seal Fruit Jars, quart size—Morning Sale Price $1.10 a dozen.

BED SETS
$2.19, Value $4.50
25 Bed Sets, Spread and Sham to match, assorted colorings, ideal for Summer wear—Morning Sale Price $2.19 a set, regular value $4.50.
(Limit 2 to a customer)

TWO HOMES MADE HAPPY

By Women Who Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried," is the statement made by Mrs. Goldie Shoup of May View, Illinois. She declares that after taking the Compound she is in better health than before.

Mrs. J. Storms of 29 Lane Street, Paterson, N. J., writes: "I can not speak too highly of your medicine and I recommend it to all my friends."

These statements were taken from two enthusiastic letters which tell of the help that has been received from using the Vegetable Compound. Both Mrs. Shoup and Mrs. Storms were in a run-down condition which caused them much unhappiness. When women are suffering from lack of strength and from weakness, their own life and that of their family is affected. When they feel well and strong and are able to do their housework easily, happy homes are the result.

Are you on the Sunlit Road to Better Health?

ATTENTION,

BRICKLAYERS, MASONS and PLASTERERS!

Regular meetng this (Thursday) eve. Very important business.

A fine of 50 cents will be imposed on all members not attending this said meeting.

BRUNO R. WEINERT, President.

Special Thursday

ZU-REX FRUIT SYRUP—Bottle 29c

Delicious BOILED HAM, lb..... 65c

J. M. Young & Sons

"Catcher to Customer"

WARM WEATHER STEAKS

Salmon, Sword, Halibut, Flounder

Crab Meat, Crabs, Lobsters, Shrimp, Sea Scallops, Little Necks and Clams.

POWERS BROS.

18 Bath Street. Phone 114.

Store Open Thursdays—Closed Monday Afternoons During August.

FRECKLES

Tells How to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots and Have a Beautiful Complexion

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine from any drug or department store and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles.

The Lyons Co.

WAUREGAN BLOCK

NORWICH, CONN.

Thursday Morning

BALANCE OF OUR STOCK

—Of—

CHILDREN'S HATS

—At—

$1.00

Value $2.98 to $6.98.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

1784 1926

Norwich, Thursday, August 12, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 7.23 (S. T.) this evening.

Mrs. J. B. Chester of Spencer, Conn., spent Sunday with friends in Norwich.

The length of the day has decreased an hour and a quarter—the change beginning to grow noticeable.

John Alexander Corbin, who died at the week end at his home in Rockville, had reached the age of 91.

Dr. E. K. Dunhams' office in the Disco Bldg. will close until Aug. 16.—adv.

There was a brief shower about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning and two dashes of rain later in the forenoon.

The White Star Co., are offering Charleston Flare Broadcloth Dresses: at $1.58 each. See window display.—adv.

The janitor at the Arcanum clubhouse has a fine looking bed of zinnias and marigolds brightening the grounds.

In aiding toward the recent drive for the Aldrich Free library, Moosup, Charles Aldrich made a gift of $100 to the fund.

From Westerly, James Dowd of Spruce street and John Hennessey of Pleasant View have been visitors in Norwich this week

Annual lawn party and sale First Congregational church, Canterbury today, afternoon and evening.—adv.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. George B. Clark, have returned to Wardman Park Hotel, Washington after a month at Fishers Island.

Motorists going past Maplewood cemetery rarely fail to speak of its well kept appearance, the beauty of the grounds, flower beds and borders.

Miss Diana Marsh and Miss Dorothy Andrews of New London and Miss Evelyn Utley of Waterford are spending a week at a cottage in Lyme.

After the sun appeared, Wednesday afternoon, there was more humidity than was relished, although the temperature did not get above 86 degrees.

At Niantic, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bond of New York city are spending their vacation with Mr. Bond's mother, Mrs James Bond, at her Black Point home

George Stanton of Hamilton avenue, and Frank Steinke of Orchard street, are spending their annual vacations at Block Island, to be gone for two weeks.

Because of the New York strike which has curtailed the output of women's cloth coats, it is expected that the sale of fur coats will increase greatly this fall.

Because the state of New York is expecting an apple crop of $4,929,000 bushels this year, there will be no demand for Connecticut apples from across that state border.

It is noted in Lenox society news that a former rector of Christ church, Norwich, Bishop Thomas Frederick Davies has gone on an automobile trip to Provincetown, Cape Cod.

Even yet, with all the notice given, some people forget the clerks' half holiday Thursday afternoon and are surprised to find the stores closed. Motto: Shop Thursday morning!

Cape effects in neckwear for women promise to be a profitable item for the entire season, according to the United Neckwear League of America, both in made sets and in yard goods.

A South Coventry correspondent writes: Rev. Edward Ayer of Norwich preached a fine sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning. A good sized audience was in attendance.

The improved movement of colored cottons that was visible prior to the lull resulting from Monday's drop in cotton has placed the mills in Connecticut as elsewhere in considerably better shape.

It is mentioned at Washington, D. C., that Major and Mrs. F. C. Harrington are at Wardman Park hotel. Major Harrington will sail in a few days for Panama for duty and Mrs. Harrington will return to New London.

Delegates for Nathan Hale day, Sept. 22nd chosen in each town in Tolland county will go to Rockville Friday evening to hear a pageant read by Miss Lelia Church, who will have charge of that feature of the celebrating.

The White Ribbon Banner, published in Norwich, lists among volunteer captains who have sent in the names of ten new paid-up members to the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Jennie E. Ladd, Central Village; Mrs. G. Annie Bennett, Central Village.

Alvah B. Cone of Broad street, Groton, has been successful in raising gladioli this summer. Mr. Cone has experimented with over 300 varieties, cross breeding them, after purchasing a number from Luther Burbank, of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Beerwort of Hartford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wood at South Coventry early in the week. Mr. Beerwort has purchased a lot on the south side of Lake Wangumbaug and will soon begin work on a cottge.

The Camp Fire Girls of Groton spent the week end camping at Long Pond, Lantern Hill. Those at camp were Misses Doris Bailey, Isabelle Greig, Naomi Kart, Ruth O'Brien, Jean Anderson, Eleanor Schaefster, Charlotte Damon and Lucille Poppe.

After a rat had taken five of the 30 guinea hens at the Latham A. Smith farm, Gales Ferry, the house dogs, Buster and Don dug the offending rat out of his hole near the coop and made short work of him. Dead guineas in the hole fixed the guilt on him.

The United States civil service commission has been holding examinations for junior meteorologist at $1,860 for vacancies in the weather bureau, department of agriculture, for duty in Washington, D. C., or in the field, and in positions requiring similar qualifications.

Leo Francis Casey, machinist's mate on the coast guard patrol boat No. 283, stationed at the state pier, New London, is to marry Miss Ethel May Enos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Enos of New Bedford. Mr. Casey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Casey of Boston.

Friends will remember Friday of this week the 83rd birthday of Mrs. Minnie W. Byrnes, of 22 Union St., widow of Geo. A. Byrnes. Mrs. Byrnes is a daughter of the late Hon. J. G. Lamb, in his time State Comptroller of Connecticut and a leader in the state democratic party.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner of Springfield entertained a Miller family reunion at their summer home, the old Gardner homestead in Waterford, the other night in honor of Mrs. Gardner's sister, Mrs. Olive Miller Fuller of Chicago, who is visiting her for the first time in 27 years.

PERSONALS

C. J. Peterson, of Norwich, has been spending part of the week in New York on business.

Police Sergeant Mathew Delaney returned to duty Tuesday night after enjoying his annual vacation.

William Potts of Jewett City is visiting at the home of Mrs. James Emery, 54 Baker avenue, Groton.

George DeWolfe has returned to his home in Spencer, Mass., after spending some time with relatives at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Hope of Montville are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Freeland of Sutton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Tubbs and Elmer Tubbs, Jr., of Poquetanuck are spending two weeks at their cottage at Poquonnoc.

Misses Marian and Gertrude Sibley, of North Windham, spent Sunday at Groton Long Point at the cottage of Mrs. Wilson of Willimantic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gilmore and son, Ray and family, of Laurel Hill are spending two weeks at the Phoenix cottage at Poquetanuck drawbridge.

Mrs. J. Morgan of Canterbury is visiting friends in Westwood and South Norwood and will soon leave for a visit in Lawton and Independence, Ky.

Mrs. D. J. Sullivan of Fowler avenue is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Devereaux, at their summer home in Beechwood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willoughby and Mrs. Maude Roberts, of Scotland, will attend the New England Grange Lecturers' conference, leaving for Maine Friday.

Miss Margaret Nagle and her cousin, Miss Lillian Connolly of New London, have returned home after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapel in Montville.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Morton Button

Funeral services for Mrs. Morton Button were held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Myron Allen in Hanover, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Stone. During the service Mrs. Willoughby of Scotland sang Some Day We'll Understand and We'll Never Say Goodbye in Heaven.

Burial was in Scotland cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Stone. The bearers were Myron Allen, Fred Prothero Louis DeGrenier, and Charles H. Bushnell.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service and the many floral pieces gave evidence of the love and esteem in which Mrs. Button was held by her many friends.

Arrangements for the funeral were in charge of Church & Allen.

Mrs. Charles H. Preston

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles H. Preston were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at her late home, No. 15 Hedge avenue. Rev. Gurdon F. Bailey, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiated. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and the many beautiful floral pieces bore testimony to the esteem in which Mrs. Preston was held by all who knew her.

Burial was in Maplewood cemetery where the committal service was read by Rev. Mr. Bailey. The bearers were James Henderson, Dr. James J. Donohue, C. Frederick Cruthers and William Kramer, Sr. Arrangements were in charge of Church & Allen.

WEDDINGS

Lewis-Gray

Dr. Napoleon B. Lewis of this city and Mrs. Agnes Gray of Ledyard were married in that town Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the ceremony being performed at the Ledyard Congregational parsonage by Rev. G. F. Goodenough. The bridal couple was unattended. They left after the ceremony upon a wedding trip to Montreal and upon their return will reside in this city, where the groom has been a practicing physician for many years.

Conlan-Kenerson

At the rectory of Trinity Episcopal church Miss Ruth Avery Kenerson of Philadelphia and Thomas Henry Conlan, Jr., of Preston, were united in marriage at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Eldred Brown, rector, and the couple was attended by Mrs. Mary E. Conlan and Miss Dorothy E. Conlan, mother and sister of the groom, respectively.

NORWICH TOWN HEIRLOOMS TO BE GIVEN D. A. R. MUSEUM

Edward Harland Miller of New York, a native of Norwich Town, who is a guest at the Del-Hoff during his annual vacation visit to Norwich, is to present, some very interesting heirlooms to the D. A. R. museum at Norwith Town Green.

These include a white silk shawl, fringed, over 150 years old, which belonged to Mr. Miller's grandmother; a rose point lace handkerchief, 60 or 70 years old, carried by his sister to parties and balls in Norwich and New York and a steel-beaded velvet bag, fully 75 years old and a duplicate of the fashionable bags of today, which was used by his mother. Another interesting heirloom is a white crepe fichu, with fine lace border in perfect condition—probably over 100 years old. Very interesting, too, is a sample worked over 100 years ago in a variety of stitches and introducing a number of designs, the colors being as bright as though used this year.

Seven or eight years ago, Mr. Miller presented Slater Museum, through the president of the Academy trustees, the late Frank J. Leavens, a rare Florentine cameo brooch, showing the doves at the fountain in Rome, the specimen being unusually transparent.

HEAVILY LOADED TRUCKS SHOOT OFF ROAD

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 1.—Two heavy Mack trucks loaded with pipe and forms designated for the state road construction job between Willimantic and North Windham figured in a spectacular accident when both went off of the road at the foot of Bolton Hill, town of Bolton, early Wednesday morning. The first truck owned and operated by Santo Cultrera of Hartford, plunged through the fence, and went down a six foot embankment to the right of the road. Directly behind was a truck owned by the Joseph Messetti Co. of Torrington and operated by Raldo Alciato of that place, which went off to the left of the road.

HOTEL HOOKER POOL ROOM IS RAIDED

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 11.—In a raid on the pool room in the basement of the Hotel Hooker late tonight the police and County Detective William E. Jackson arrested Romeo Benoit for keeping a gaming house and the following as frequenters: Harry Smith, James Abbot, Raymond Haddad, George Roy, Edward Webster, Charles Murphy. All will appear in police court this Thursday morning.

Had Picnic At Lake

The employes of the Robertson Paper company enjoyed a picnic at Gardner lake recently. Games were enjoyed and a bountiful dinner was served.

CLAIM OF GAIR CO. EMPLOYEE IS DISALLOWED BY COMMISSIONER

The claim of Arvid V. Johnson of No. 101 Thames street, Groton, against the Robert Gair Co. of Montville, has been disallowed by Commissioner James J. Donahue of this city. Notice of the commissioner's decision to disallow the claim was filed Wednesday with the clerk of the superior court in this city. The hearing was held in the commissioner's office Aug. 6th. The decision says:

It is the contention of the claimant that on or about the 22nd of last December he got a foreign body into his eye while folding boxes at the plant of the respondent employer in Montville, and that the mill nurse took it out for him, the object being described by him as "something like an eyewinker." He continued to work with one eye, he claims, from this time up to March 8th and from that time up to May 15th he "did odd jobs." His period of disability is not very clearly stated. It is found that claimant was seen by an eye specialist on Dec. 24th and again on December 26th, 1925, and nothing definite could be found and he was also seen by a physician and finally was hospitalized in order to determine the nature of his trouble, as a knee and elbow trouble also seemed to have developed.

After tests had been made at the hospital his case was definitely diagnosed and it is found that the condition from which the claimant has been and is still suffering is in no way traceable to his employment but to a systemic trouble of a specific nature, which "in no way can be classified as an injury arising out of and in the course of his employment." For the above reason, his claim for compensation is hereby disallowed and dismissed.

MISS LUCY B. ABBOTT

BACKUS HOSPITAL SUPT. ADDRESSES ROTARY CLUB

With Miss Lucy B. Abbott, superintendent of the W. W. Backus hospital as the principal speaker of the day, the weekly meeting of the Norwich Rotary club was held Wednesday noon at the Wauregan hotel. James L. Case of the public affairs committee of the club had charge of the meeting and introduced Miss Abbott who spoke briefly on the nurses' home and plans for the future at the hospital. Miss Abbott's talk which was highly interesting was in part as follows:

May I express my appreciation of the friendly atmosphere that seems to be characteristic of Norwich? On my first visit I felt at home in Norwich. This feeling of "at homeness" has grown with each succeeding week.

Although I already feel that I belong, it seems presumptuous on my part to talk to the Rotary club because the majority of you have lived in Norwich most of your lives and the whole group are sufficiently in touch with the interests of the community and of the hospital to furnish them with such an excellent ambulance. Nevertheless I am delighted to have this opportunity to make the acquaintance of those I do not already know.

Neil Revell in her book "Right Off the Chest" refers to hospitals as "human garages" and the doctors as "master mechanics" for the human machine.

In the past six weeks I have been the victim or the quest of every motor salesman in Norwich. If you wish to know the selling points of the Dodge, Ford, Cadillac, Nash, Reo, Buick, Chandler or Chrysler, ask me. I might attach the right points to the wrong car but the song they have sung, singly and in unison, is the service they can render.

Now, at the Wm. W. Backus hospital, the city of Norwich has an excellent human garage, certainly efficient master mechanics and mechanics' assistants. Our aim, as a community, is to increase this service in quantity and quality.

In the past, the public has had the tendency to look on hospitals as heartless institutions, on doctors and nurses as cold, scientific disciplinarians. Possibly the hospitals, doctors and nurses have given them cause to feel that way. Yet it is the hospitals, doctors and nurses we all turn to in time of trouble and distress. Can't we all help to make the general public feel that hospitals as well as doctors and nurses are valued friends?

The reason for a community supporting a hospital primarily is the patients, that they should have the best care procurable and that they should be made as happy as possible while they are having that care. Secondly, it is supporting an educational institution. It is a place for physicians to study and do research work. It is a school to educate nurses to fill their places as citizens in the community. Their stay in the hospital should be of educational value to the patients. If a hospital does not fulfill these requirements it does not deserve the support of the community. To put it the other way, if it does meet these criteria, it deserves the moral as well as the financial support of the public.

Surely Norwich feels that the hospital belongs to the community, not to a group of corporators, to the executive board, nor yet to a group of doctors and if you feel that it belongs to you personally, you will use it, you will offer helpful criticism and suggest how the hospital can better serve the community needs.

The outstanding development that we are interested in now is the new maternity department. The building of the splendid new Nurses' Home has released the old nurses' home to be remodeled for a maternity wing which will enable us to care for a large number of maternity cases more efficiently for us. Removing the maternity patients from the main building will leave more private and semi-private rooms for surgical and medical patients.

I will not bore you with the details of other changes in which we are interested, but may I say in closing, that it is a great pleasure to work in an institution where trustees, patients, doctors, nurses and employes, are so cooperative and so loyal; in a community that has such an active Woman's auxiliary, efficient United Workers and such a helpful, friendly group of business men, all groups willing to do their share in helping to maintain and develop the splendid traditions of service of the Wm. W. Backus hospital.

Miss Abbott's talk was received with enthusiasm by the large gathering which included a number of guests from other Rotary clubs. Mrs. Archibald Mitchell Jr., and Mrs. Walter F. Lester, members of the hospital executive board were guests of the club. During the luncheon Mrs. Mitchell and James L. Case rendered two delightful solos.

President E. A. Harris presided at the business session of the meeting and Alex McNicol was the song leader. John Kean was at the piano.

VOITURE PLANS TO ATTEND STATE PARADE

Members of the 40 and 8, Voiture Locale, No. 743, of New London county, met Wednesday evening at the rooms of Fletcher post, American legion, in charge of Chef de Gare Jonathan L. Johnson. The meeting was for the purpose of discussing the activities of the Locale at the Grande Promenade of the Connecticut Voltures at New Haven, Friday, August 27th, during the state convention of the American legion. Many of the members gave notice that they are planning to attend the promenade and it is expected that the Voiture will be well represented in the big Voiture parade and also in the legion parade during the convention.

It was voted that all members intending to attend the promenade and who are going in automobiles notify Correspondent Meredith Lee, giving the time and place of leaving and the time and place in New Haven for the return trip. It is anticipated that there will be sufficient transportation available to carry all Voyageurs to the promenade.

The Locale also voted that all members attend the promenade and parade dressed in white shirts and dark trousers, the fore-in-hand tie to be black. Members are also to carry canes and wear the chapeau of the Voiture.

Plans for taking the Voiture box-car and engine to the promenade were discussed. It is also expected that the box-car and engine may be taken to Providence when the promenade is held in that city. Plans for a promenade in Norwich in the fall were discussed and details left in the hands of the general committee.

NORWICH BOATS SPEEDY IN WEEKAPAUG RACES

In 18 entries, the Blue Goose, owned by T. C. Blake of Montclair, N. J., forged to the front to win the fifth in the series at Weekapaug, of the week end handicap races being held on Quonochontaug pond. The Mahogany, belonging to Grosvenor Ely, of Norwich, was second in line while the Maquizomo, belonging to the North family of Montclair, and the No. 16, sailed by Blackstone Perkins of Norwich, were the third and fourth boats to cross the line, respectively.

In this race, the Blue Goose was given a handicap of 25 minutes. The Mahogany sailed with a 20-minute lead. The Maquizomo received a five-minute start and the No. 16 was granted its usual eight-minute handicap.

The list of 18 entries is the record for the present season. No. 16, belonging to Edmund W. Perkins of Norwich, is second in the list so far, with a total count of 47.

PROGRESSIVE MIS. CLUB GUESTS OF MRS. A. T. UTLEY

About twenty members of the Progressive Missionary club of the Central Baptist church had their annual outing Wednesday, at the summer home of Mrs. Albert T. Utley at Neptune Park. In the morning there was a brief business session, at which the president, Mrs. John E. Post presided, and during which it was voted to give the sum of $35 to the church.

For the annual luncheon, the table decorations were asters in lavender, purple and white. Salads, sandwiches, rolls, relishes, cake, ice cream, coffee and candy was the luncheon, the social hour being greatly enjoyed. The many attractions of the park and beach were improved by the club members, who spent a very pleasant day.

JUDGE AYLING READS PAPER ON PROBATE WORK

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 11—(AP)—Probate judges of Connecticut held their annual dinner at the Hotel Griswold, at Eastern Point, today, the first time in 19 years the annual dinner had been held outside of New Haven.

Thirty-eight probate judges from all parts of the state were present. Addresses were delivered by Judge Curtiss Bacon, of Middletown, Judge John L. Gilson, of New Haven, and Judge Arthur Caulkins, of New London. Judge Ralph A. Fay, of Rockville, presided. A paper on the progress of probate work was read by Judge Nelson L. Ayling, of Norwich.

VOLUNTOWN PLANT IS SOON TO CLOSE DOWN

The Briggs Manufacturing company at Voluntown is to close down in about two weeks, at which time it is expected that the last of materials in process of manufacture will run out. The closing is to be for an indefinite period. The employes of the company are to be released when the work is completed, and some of them are already painning to obtain work outside of Voluntown. The factories have been inspected by prospective purchasers but there is nothing in view to indicate an early disposal of the property.

EAST WOODSTOCK DRIVER KNOCKS DOWN BOY

(Special to the Bulletin)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 11—Edward Connors, aged 10 years of 49 Queen street, was injured slightly when he was knocked down at Walnut and Lebanon streets at 3.15 o'clock Tuesday by an automobile that was driven by George C. Phillips of East Woodstock, Conn. Phillips later told the police that he was driving south in Walnut street when the boy, who was on a bicycle, rode out of Lebanon street so suddenly that he was unable to stop in time to avoid striking him.

STRAY SHOT STARTLES ROAD TRAFFIC MAN

Just as darkness was beginning to settle Tuesday night a stray shot startled Herbert Smith, highway traffic man on the Norwich-Willimantic road. The bullet struck near Mr. Smith's shanty and sent gravel flying against the side of the shanty. A hunter was in the neighborhood of the shanty, it is thought, and carelessly discharged his rifle in the neighborhood of the shanty. Sheriff George Manis investigated the matter.

OBITUARY

Frank E. Williams

Frank E. Williams, 70, formerly selectman and tax collector for the town of Salem, died suddenly Tuesday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Josephine Gadbois of East Lyme, with whom he had resided for nearly three years. He was found dead in bed Wednesday morning. Death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Williams was a native of Preston, but lived for the greater part of his life in Salem, where for many years he was engaged in farming. He was unmarried and about three years ago he removed to East Lyme to live with his sister. He had been retired for several years.

Besides his sister he leaves a brother, Emmett Williams of Dunlap, Ia. He also leaves several nieces and nephews, among whom are Mrs. L. E. Monroe and L. C. Gadbois of New London.

John R. Manning

John R. Manning, 31, son of the late James and Catherine Manning, died Tuesday night at his former residence, 31 Colman street, New London, death being caused from the effects of wounds he suffered in the world war. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Helen Pitts, of Norwich; three children, Edward 5; Edna 3 and Winifred 1, a sister, Mrs. Joseph Quinn, Norwich and three brothers, James Manning, Norwich; Edward Manning, Roselle Park, N. J., and Thomas Manning, New London. Mr. Manning's father died about a year ago.

Mr. Manning was born in New London and resided there his entire life. He enlisted in the army at Philadelphia, June 1, 1917 and a short time afterwards was assigned to Company I, 103th infantry. He left for France, May 5, 1918, and remained in France until July 9, 1919. During his stay in France Mr. Manning saw much action and it was in battle that he received the wounds which eventually caused his death. He participated in the battle of the Marne, July 4-18, 1918, in which battle more than 200 of his company were killed, only eight returning; battle of Fismes, July 20-Aug. 6, 1918; battle of Aisne-Marne, Aug. 30-Sept. 16, 1918; battle of the Argonne, Sept. 26-Oct. 7, 1918. In this last battle Mr. Manning was wounded and gassed and suffered his severest injury.

Mrs. Charles P. Rogers

Following a short illness of typhoid fever the death of Ruth Marion Kinney, beloved wife of Charles Porter Rogers, occurred Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Rogers was born in New London, Oct. 12, 1901 the daughter of George R. and Bessie M. Benham Kinney. Her early life was spent in that city and she was a graduate of the schools there. In Bozrah December 24, 1921 she was united in marriage with Charles Porter Rogers and up to July 1st of this year has resided with her family in Norwich Town. In July 1st Mrs. Rogers went to Fishers' Island to spend the summer and while there was taken ill.

Mrs. Rogers was affiliated with the Grace Episcopal church at Yantic and was active in church work. Of a kindly disposition she easily made many friends throughout this locality and news of her death will be received with sincere sorrow. She was a loving and kind wife, daughter and mother and her death takes one from the family circle, whose place will be hard to fill.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Rogers is survived by a daughter, Ruth Kinney Rogers, an infant son, Charles Everett Rogers; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Kinney of Roosevelt avenue; five sisters, Mrs. Edward Snow, Norwich Town, Mrs. Lawrence Lathrop, Yantic; Mrs. Clifford R. Congdon, Jewett City, Myrtle and Roberta Kinney of Norwich; one brother, George Kinney of this city; two grandmothers, Mrs. E. R. Kinney of Norwich Town and Mrs. Mary E. Benham of Waterford; three uncles William H. Kinney, Allen R. Kinney of Providence, Charles Benham of Brooklyn, Conn., and an aunt, Mrs Joseph Greenman of Waterford.

Mrs. David McCune

Mrs. David McCune, daughter of the late Hugh C. Clark of Old Saybrook, died Monday at Preston. Mrs. McCune leaves besides her husband three sons, Clarence, Marvin and Elliott; a sister, Miss Alice Clark of Old Saybrook and two brothers, William of Old Saybrook and Norman of New Haven.

L. L. Davis

L. L. Davis, former conductor on the Norwich and Worcester line, died Wednesday night at 6:30 in Worcester. Mr. Davis' death was caused by a tumor on the brain. At one time Mr. Davis resided in this city and was well known to many local people.

Mrs. Patrick Sullivan

Mary R. Toomey, widow of Patrick Sullivan, died Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her son, John L. Sullivan, of No. 16 Deane street, Groton, following a short illness. She was visiting with her son at the time of her death and before going to Groton she had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Wilson of New Haven. For a number of years Mrs. Sullivan made her home in Norwich.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Toomey and is survived by a son, John L. Sullivan of Groton, a daughter, Mrs. Jennie Wilson of New Haven and a brother John Toomey of Springfield. She also leaves several nieces and nephews. She was a sister of the late Dennis I. Toomey, for years captain of the Norwich police department.

News of the death of Mrs. Sullivan will be received with profound sorrow by a large number of friends. Their sympathy is extended to the family in their time of sorrow.

Guest At Picnic

Miss Edna Leighton Tyler, chairman of the New London County League of Women Voters, was the guest of the Montville league at a picnic held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hubert Dart in Oakdale. Miss Tyler was the guest of Mystic league at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Karsten Gates in Mystic. Miss Lilie Haynes president of the East Lyme league, addressed the meeting on the advantages of the voting machine which has been in use for some time in East Lyme.

Women's Daintiness

Under the most trying hygienic handicap now assured. NEW way offers true protection—discards like tissue.

LIGHT frocks, sheerest gowns . . . wear them now any day, any time, anywhere, without a moment's doubt or fear!

The uncertainty and insecurity of the old-time "sanitary pad" has been ended.

Most women now use "KOTEX" . . . a new and remarkable way.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Deodorizes, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Obtainable at all drug and department stores simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. Proves old ways a needless risk. 12 in a package. In fairness to yourself, try it.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

FLY-TOX
Pleasant Odor
FLY-TOX
KILLS FLIES, MOTHS MOSQUITOES ROACHES, FLEAS BED BUGS, ANTS
Developed at World's Foremost Scientific Industrial Research Institute. Will not stain. Pleasant odor. Harmless to humans and animals.

AT YOUR RETAILER'S

These hikers all are glad it's noon,
Luncheon-time can't come too soon.
They have a splendid treat ahead—
Good Blue Ribbon spread on bread!
HELLMANN'S
BLUE RIBBON
Mayonnaise

Write for free Recipe Book, Calendar and Cooking time table to Richard Hellmann, Inc. Long Island City, N. Y.

A complete seasoner for cooking GULDEN'S Mustard

Oh! What A Relief

Stomach Sufferers Cannot Help But Recommend Pepsinic Seltzer.

People who have used Pepsinic Seltzer claim that it is the most wonderful remedy for relief of Gas, Acid conditions, Indigestion and Nauses that they have ever used and simply cannot help but recommend it to their friends. If you have pains around your heart, in your side or in your back, you may think you have heart trouble, Appendicitis or Kidney trouble but it's often gas that causes distress, or if you have Nervous indigestion from strain of responsibility, nervous or temperamental nature. Pepsinic Seltzer is a most remarkable remedy and can be obtained in Drug Stores. Absolutely safe for children.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Melts Away Every Freckle in 4 Days

New Discovery — Wonderful Cream—Easy to Use and Money Back if Flyte Fails.

Just what you have been wishing for, girls—the ugly spots that you have long been trying to get rid of, will quickly dissolve—and you can watch them speedily melt away.

And after every freckle has gone your skin will be cleaner, fairer and more youthful looking than ever before.

Start today to banish these blemishes that mar your beauty. Live druggists everywhere are selling lots of it. Just ask for Flyte—it is inexpensive. Lee & Osgood Co.

JOE JACKSON, LOCAL BOY, WINS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP 100-YARD DASH

Joe Jackson of Norwich became 100 yard state amateur champion Wednesday afternoon at New Haven when he won this event at the field meet of the New Haven police department at Light house Point. Jackson was pitted against some of the best men in the state and breasted the tape a full step ahead of his nearest rival. Jackson negotiated the distance in 10.2 seconds. Jackson was wearing the colors of the Duwell A. C. of Norwich.

Jackson was the only Norwich boy to gain a first place although Maggs of the Duwell club with Arthur Ward placed sixth and seventh in the six mile event while Johnny Keeley another Duwell runner was thirteenth. Keeley was clipped by an automobile during the race but was not injured. There were 30 starters in the race and six collapsed before the finish due to the extreme heat and humidity. De Maria of Waterbury won the event.

The summaries:

Connecticut association events:

100 yard dash, first, Jackson, Norwich; second, Higgins, New Haven; third Meany, New Haven. Time 10.2 seconds.

440-yard run, first, T. Roach, New Haven; second, Sullivan, Bridgeport; third, Heery, New Haver.

880-yard run, first, Bault, New Haven; second, Casher, New Haven; third, Vetromele, Bridgeport. Time 2 minutes, 4.8 seconds.

12-pound shot put, first, Hall, Roxbury; second, F. Ludwig, Roxbury; third, Raffone, New Haven. Distance 42 feet, 5 1-8 inches.

Handicap events:

100-yard dash, Wilbecan, Century A. C., New York, first; second, Watehouse, unattached; third, Buckner, St. Philip's, New York. Time 10.1 seconds.

One-mile run, Gus Moore, Century A. C., New York, first; second, Theobald, New York A. C. third, McMahon, New Haven. Time 4 minutes, 33 seconds.

Twelve pound shot put, first, Hall, Roxbury; second, Raffone, New Haven; third, Ludwig, Roxbury. Distance 43 feet, 9 1-2 inches.

Six-mile run, first, De Maria, Waterbury; second, Zira Stamford; third Sollie Silverstein, Brooklyn. Time 38 minutes, 30 seconds.

One-mile relay, first Century A. C., New Haven Harriers third Holy Name A. A., New York. Time 3 minutes, 30.8 seconds.

Events for girls:

100-yard dash, first, Eleanor Egg, Paterson, N. J.; second, Mary Smith, New Haven; third, Wieme, Paterson, N. J. Time 11.4 seconds.

440-yard relay, first, Paterson, N. J. second, Prudential, Newark, N. J.; third, New Haven Harriers.

Eight-pound shot put, first, Eleanor Egg, Paterson; second, Booth, Paterson; third, Binks, Paterson. Distance 31 feet, 3 1-2 inches.

75-yard dash, won by Mary Smith, New Haven Harriers; second, Crowl, Remis, New Haven; third, Collins, New Haven Harriers.

Industrial events:

100-yard dash, won by Higgins; second, Meany; third, Torellow, all New Haven. Time 11.5 seconds.

880-yard relay, won by Safety Car, New Haven; second, Prudential, Newark N. J.; third, Inslico, Meriden.

Girls 300-yard relay, won by Paterson, N. J.; second, Prudential, Newark, N. J. Time 44.5 seconds.

Closed to fire departments:

100-yard dash (open) won by Richardson, Stamford; second, Bassett, New Haven; third, Leach, New Haven Time 11 seconds flat.

100-yard dash (closed) won by Coogan; second, Bassett; third, Leach, all New Haven. Time 11.2 seconds.

Playground event:

300-yard relay, won by Jocelyn Sq.; second, Clinton avenue; third, Rice field.

Police department events:

100-yard dash (open) won by Stratton, New Haven; second, Heaney, New Britain; third, Coogan, New Haven. Time 11.3 seconds.

100-yard dash (closed) Stratton; second Coogan; third, Loughery, all New Haven. Time 11.2 seconds.

100-yard dash (ten years) won by Feeney, New Britain; second, George Sullivan, New Haven; third, Ferdinandus New Haven. Time 11.4 seconds.

50-yard dash (15 years) won by George Sullivan; second, W. Newburg; third, Ferdinandus, all New Haven. Time 6.2 seconds.

50-yard dash (20 years) won by George Sullivan; second, W. Newburg, third Frank M. Dooley, all New Haven. Time 6.4 seconds.

12-pound shot put, won by W. Connolly; second, James Welch; third, Charles White, all New Haven. Distance 32 feet 8 1-2 inches.

WARRIORS AND BEARCATS CLASH ON SATURDAY

A fast contest is promised local fandom for Saturday afternoon at Duwell field when the Warriors and Bearcats will clash in the first game of a series to decide the amateur championship of Norwich. The Warriors won the championship in the Jr. Twi League in 1925 while the Bearcats are sure winners in the Jr. Twi league for 1926 so the series will decide the amateur champ for the season.

Both clubs will present their strongest lineups for the fray in an attempt to gain the decision in the first game of this important series.

For the Bearcats either Dudek or P. Finn will pitch while Lamory will be on the receiving end. Phalen will probably cover first with Lagare on second, Martin on short and Lemieux on third. In the outfield S. Finn, Rockdale and Gero will perform.

Either Edwards or Couture will be on the mound for the Warriors with J Tombari on the receiving end. The regular infield composed of Kampf at first, Sadinsky at second, W. Burns at short and Hamill will be in action while Fitzgerald will patrol left field with Joe Jackson in center and Ell Segal in right field.

A large crowd is expected as this game should be fast and interesting from start to finish.

G. AND E. TEAM PLAYS WARRIORS THIS EVENING

The Warriors will play the Gas and Electric at the Academy campus this Thursday evening in what should be a fast contest from beginning. The scheduled league game which was to be played this evening between the Bearcats and Gas and Electric has been called off by the Bearcats and so as not to disappoint local fandom the Warriors and Gas and Electric will clash in an exhibition game.

For the Gas and Electric Woodmantee will probably pitch and Brumme. The rest of the lineup will be the same that has performed during the year in the Jr. Twi league.

The Warriors will present their regular lineup in this fray and a fast contest should result.

The game is scheduled to start at 1.30 p. m. sharp.

Baltic Saints After Games

The St. Joseph's club of Baltic challenge any team averaging 16 years of age for a game Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Baltic. If challenge is accepted answer through this paper or call 874-32 between 6 and 6 o'clock.

TATE'S HOMER GIVES SENATORS DOUBLE VICTORY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—(AP)—Tate's home run in the eleventh inning of the second contest gave Washington a double victory over the New York Yankees today, the scores being five to four in each contest. Babe Ruth hit his 37th home run of the season in the second game.

Stanley Harris, manager of the Senators, was banished for protesting a decision in the first encounter, and his substitute, Stewart, produced the single that won the game. Score:

(First Game.)

New York (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Washington (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Combs, rf	4	1	3	0	0	McNeely, lf	4	2	2	1	0
Koenig, ss	5	1	2	3	0	R. Harris, 2b	3	1	1	3	1
Gehrig, 1b	3	1	10	1	0	Stewart, 2b	1	1	1	0	0
Ruth, lf	2	1	2	0	0	Rice, rf	2	1	2	0	0
Pasqual, rf	3	0	0	0	0	Myer, ss	3	0	3	2	1
Carlyle, cf	1	0	0	0	0	Goslin, cf	3	2	5	1	0
Lazzeri, 2b	3	2	2	3	0	J. Harris, 1b	4	0	5	0	0
Dugan, 3b	3	0	1	3	0	Judge, 1b	0	0	2	0	0
Severeid, c	3	2	0	0	0	Bluege, 3b	4	1	1	1	0
Collins, c	0	0	1	0	0	Tate, c	4	1	4	1	0
Pennock, p	4	1	0	3	0	Coveleskie, p	1	0	0	1	0
Braxton, p	0	0	0	0	0	Marberry, p	0	0	0	0	0
xJones	0	0	0	0	0	zPeckinpaugh	1	0	0	0	0
xxMuesel	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	34	9	24	15	0	Totals	29	9	27	10	2

(z) Ran for Severeid in 7th.
(zz) Batted for Dugan in 9th.
(x) Batted for Coveleskie in 5th.
Score by innings:

New York	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0—1
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	1	2	0	1	1	0—5

Two base hits, Goslin, Bluege, Ruth. Three base hits, Severeid, McNeely.

New York (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Washington (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Koenig, ss	4	0	2	1	0	McNeely, lf	5	2	3	0	0
Combs, rf	4	0	3	0	0	Stewart, 2b	5	1	2	5	0
Gehrig, 1b	3	1	10	0	0	Rice, rf	5	1	2	0	0
Ruth, lf	3	1	3	0	0	Myer, ss	4	0	1	3	0
Meusel, lf	1	0	1	0	0	Peckinpaugh, ss	1	0	0	2	0
Lazzeri, 2b	4	0	1	4	0	Goslin, cf	4	2	1	0	0
Dugan, 3b	4	0	0	1	0	Judge, 1b	5	2	13	3	0
Gazella, 3b	0	0	0	0	0	Bluege, 3b	4	1	3	2	0
Collins, c	3	0	3	0	0	Tate, c	3	2	4	1	0
Jones, p	1	0	0	1	0	Crowder, p	3	2	1	2	0
Hoyt, p	1	1	0	0	0	zRuether	1	0	0	0	0
Thomas, x	2	0	0	0	0
Severeid, c	1	0	1	0	0	Totals	41	10	33	16	0
xCarlyle	1	0	0	0	0
xxPaschal	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	3	27	9	0

(x) None out when winning run scored.
(z) Batted for Dugan in 9th.
(zz) Batted for Carlyle in 9th.
(zzz) Batted for Myer in 3rd.
Score by innings:

New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1—1

Two base hits, Hoyt, Rice, Goslin. Three base hit, Ruth. Home runs, Ruth, Tate.

TIGERS BUNCH HITS AND BEAT BROWNS

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers bunched three doubles and two singles in the fourth inning for three runs and won from St. Louis Browns today, 4 to 1. A wild pitch and a fumble in this inning contributed to the result. Score:

Detroit (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	St. Louis (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Poun, lb	4	0	11	1	0	Rice, rf	4	2	3	0	0
Manush, rf	3	0	2	0	0	Heisler, lb	1	0	7	0	0
Fothergill, lf	2	0	4	0	0	Williams, lf	0	0	0	0	0
Heilmann, rf	4	1	2	0	0	Miller, rf	2	0	1	0	0
Gehringer, 2b	3	0	1	3	0	McManus, 2b	4	0	5	5	1
O'Rourke, 3b	3	0	2	0	0	Schang, c	4	0	6	1	0
Tavener, ss	4	1	2	5	0	Robertson, 3b	3	0	2	3	0
Manion, c	3	1	1	0	0	Gerber, ss	4	0	3	3	0
Gibson, p	4	1	1	2	0	Zachary, p	2	0	0	1	0
						Ballou, p	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	30	3	27	11	0	xBennett	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	32	3	27	15	2

Score by innings:
(x) Batted for Zachary in 7th.

Detroit	0	0	0	4	0	0	0	0	0	0	4—4
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0—1

Two base hits, Heilmann, O'Rourke, Tavener, Gerber, Schang. Three base hit, Rice. Home run, Manion.

WHITE SOX RALLY IN THIRTEENTH TO BEAT INDIANS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 11—(AP)—After pitching brilliantly for 12 innings, Shaute weakened after two out in the 13th inning and Chicago scored five runs, winning 7 to 2. Lyons started the winning rally with a single; Mostil doubled and Hunnefield singled, scoring two runs. Sheely doubled, scoring another, while Falk's home run scored two more. Falk made five hits in six times up.

An error of judgment by Shaute allowed Chicago to score its first run and prevented him winning in nine innings. With a runner on third, he elected to throw to first for the putout and allowed the runner to score.

Edward pitched effectively for seven innings but retired because of a lame knee.

Burns hit his fifty-third double of the season in the thirteenth. Score:

Chicago (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Cleveland (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Mostil, rf	6	2	2	0	0	Jamieson, lf	6	1	4	1	0
Hunefield, 2b	7	3	3	6	0	Spurgeon, 2b	6	2	3	5	0
Sheely, 1b	6	2	12	0	0	Speaker, rf	5	2	2	0	0
Falk, lf	6	5	6	0	0	Burns, 1b	5	3	10	0	0
Barrett, rf	6	1	3	0	0	J. Sewell, ss	6	1	4	6	0
Kamm, 3b	5	1	0	3	0	Sumner, rf	6	1	2	0	0
Schalk, c	5	0	3	1	0	L. Sewell, c	4	1	1	1	0
Berg, ss	5	0	2	3	0	Myatt, c	1	0	0	0	0
Edwards, p	2	0	0	0	0	Lutzke, 2b	1	0	1	2	0
Lyons, p	2	1	0	0	0	Shaute, p	1	0	0	2	0
						xxMcNulty	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	50	15	32	13	0	Totals	46	10	30	19	0

(x) Batted for Summa in 13th.
Score by innings:

Chicago	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	7
Cleveland	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	2

Two base hits, Falk, Mostil, Sheely, Speaker, J. Sewell, Lutzke, Burns. Home run, Falk.

DODGERS RALLY IN EIGHTH TO BEAT PIRATES

BROOKLYN, Aug. 11—(AP)—Four runs in the eighth inning off Yde, Aldridge, Songer and Adams today gave Brooklyn a 4 to 2 victory over Pittsburgh, the Dodgers' first conquest in ten games. Dazzy Vance, who started for Brooklyn, allowed 12 hits, but kept them well scattered. Score:

Pittsburgh (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Brooklyn (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Carey, rf	4	0	2	0	0	Fewster, 2b	2	0	2	3	0
Waner, rf	5	2	0	0	0	zzFournier	1	0	0	0	0
Cuyler, lf	5	1	4	0	0	Bohne, 2b	0	0	0	0	0
Traynor, 3b	5	2	2	2	0	Jacobson, rf	3	0	2	0	0
Grantham, 1b	4	1	9	0	0	Harmon, 1b	4	2	11	0	0
Wilson, ss	4	0	3	3	0	Cox, rf	4	2	3	1	0
O'Rourke, 2b	3	0	2	0	0	Felix, lf	2	0	3	0	0
Tarener, ss	4	1	2	3	0	McGraw, p	0	0	0	0	0
Manion, c	3	1	1	0	0	zStandaert	0	0	0	0	0
Gibson, p	4	1	1	2	0	zzHarriott, lf	1	0	0	0	0
						zzzWerrick	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	12	31	11	0	Wheat, c	4	1	5	1	0
						Elsner, p	1	0	0	2	0
						zzzzGruner, s	1	1	0	0	0
						Totals	30	7	27	12	0

(z) Batted for Felix in 8th.
(zz) Batted for Fewster in 8th.
Score by innings:

Pittsburgh	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	2
Brooklyn	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	0	4

Two base hits, Yde, Hermon. Three base hits, Waner, Yde, Gooch.

RING IS POUNDED HARD AND CUBS WIN

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—(AP)—Jimmy Ring was pounded from the box in the first inning and Chicago defeated the New York Giants today, 11 to 1. Two bases on balls, two errors and a hit gave the visitors four runs in the fourth. Hack Wilson led the Cub attack with a triple and a double. Score:

Chicago (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	New York (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Adams, 2b	5	1	2	2	1	Frisch, 2b	3	0	1	5	1
Hendricks, rf	5	2	3	0	0	Mueller, rf	3	0	0	0	0
Stephenson, lf	5	0	0	0	0	Jackson, ss	4	2	2	5	0
Wilson, cf	5	1	3	0	0	Meusel, lf	4	0	1	0	0
Grimm, 1b	3	1	13	0	0	Kelly, 2b	3	0	4	5	0
Fralung, 3b	5	2	1	4	0	Terry, 1b	3	0	12	1	0
Cooney, ss	5	1	1	6	0	Tyson, cf	3	0	1	0	0
Hartnett, c	4	1	5	1	0	Snyder, c	1	0	4	1	1
Gonzales, c	1	0	0	0	0	McMullen, c	1	0	2	0	0
Bush, p	5	0	0	2	0	Ring, p	0	0	0	0	0
						Davies, p	2	0	1	2	0
Totals	51	11	27	15	2	Totals	30	3	27	19	4

(z) Batted for Snyder in 9th.
Score by innings:

Chicago	0	1	0	4	0	0	0	0	6	0	11
New York	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1

Two base hits, Fralung, Wilson, Cooney. Three base hits, Wilson, Grim.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Washington 5, New York 4. (First game.)
Washington 5, New York 4. (Second game.)
Chicago 7, Cleveland 2, (10 innings.)
Detroit 4, St. Louis 1.
Only games scheduled.

THE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	71	36	.664
Cleveland	62	51	.553
Philadelphia	59	53	.53.
Detroit	59	55	.518
Chicago	57	56	.504
Washington	56	54	.509
St. Louis	47	64	.423
Boston	35	73	.324

GAMES TODAY

Detroit at St. Louis.
Chicago at Cleveland.
New York at Washington.
Philadelphia at New York.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

St. Louis 2, Boston 0.
Chicago 11, New York 1.
Cincinnati 21, Philadelphia 3.
Brooklyn 4, Pittsburgh 3.

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	61	45	.575
St. Louis	61	48	.559
Cincinnati	61	51	.545
New York	57	52	.523
Chicago	57	52	.523
Brooklyn	53	53	.477
Boston	44	64	.407
Philadelphia	31	64	.390

GAMES TODAY.

Chicago at New York.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia.
Only games scheduled.

Eastern League.

Albany 8, New Haven 1.
Bridgeport 7, Waterbury 3.
Springfield 7, Pittsfield 3.
Hartford at Providence, postponed, rain.

American Association.

Indianapolis 4, Kansas City 3. (First game.)
Indianapolis 7, Kansas City 6. (Second game.)
Louisville 6, Milwaukee 7.
Others postponed, rain.

International League

Jersey City 4, Syracuse 3.
Newark 7, Rochester 6.
Baltimore 4, Buffalo 3.
Toronto 8, Reading 6.

REDS ON BATTING SPREE SLAUGHTER THE PHILLIES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11—(AP)—Cincinnati ran amuck here today and evened the series with the Phillies by winning the fourth game, 21 to 3. Wally Pipp hit a homer in the third with the bases filled and Hargrave followed with a circuit drive into the bleachers. Walker hit a third home run in the seventh. Score:

Cincinnati (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Philadelphia (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Critz, 2b	7	2	2	4	0	Sand, ss	2	1	1	1	0
Roush, cf	3	2	1	0	0	Colter, ss	2	1	0	0	0
Allen, rf	2	0	0	0	0	Whitone, 3b	5	1	0	1	1
Walker, rf	3	2	2	0	0	Niehoff, rf	4	0	1	0	0
Bressler, lf	2	1	0	2	0	Leach, lf	4	0	2	0	1
Christie, cf	3	0	1	0	0	Bentley, lb	4	1	10	0	0
Pipp, 1b	4	3	10	2	0	Wilson, c	2	1	1	0	0
Hargrave, c	4	4	6	0	0	Henline, c	2	0	2	0	0
Wingo, c	1	0	1	0	0	Mokan, rf	3	2	4	0	0
Dresen, 3b	6	1	0	2	0	Fryberg, 3b	4	1	2	0	0
Ford, ss	6	2	1	3	0	Mitchell, p	0	0	0	0	0
May, p	6	2	1	3	0	Pierce, p	0	0	0	0	0
						xWillenbrg	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	56	21	27	18	0	Ulrich, p	0	0	0	0	0
						Knight, p	1	0	0	2	0
						zWilliams	1	0	0	0	0
						xxDeas	1	1	0	0	0
						Totals	37	10	27	9	3

(x) Batted for Knight in 7th.
(xx) Batted for Ulrich in 8th.
Score by innings:

Cincinnati	0	0	5	3	0	0	0	6	0	21
Philadelphia	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	3

Two base hits, Bressler, Pipp, Mays. Three base hit, Sand. Home runs, Pipp, Hargrave, Walker.

HAINES SHUTS OUT BRAVES WITH FIVE HITS

BOSTON, Aug. 11—(AP)—Jess Haines pitched his second shut out of the season against Boston and the Braves ended their current home stay by dropping a 2 to 0 game to St. Louis. Haines held the Warriors to five hits. Brilliant fielding staved off St. Louis runs until the eighth, when singles by Bottomley and Douthit and O'Farrell's double broke up the game. Score:

St. Louis (N)	ab	h	po	a	e	Boston (N)	ab	h	po	a	e
Blades, lf	4	1	2	0	0	Smith, rf	4	2	3	0	0
Ellsworth, rf	3	2	2	0	0	Bancroft, ss	2	0	1	2	0
Hornsby, 2b	4	0	1	3	0	Taylor, ss	0	0	1	0	0
Bentley, lb	4	2	12	1	0	zzWilson	1	0	0	0	0
Torporcer, 3b	3	0	1	2	0	Walsh, rf	4	0	1	0	0
Douthit, cf	4	2	4	0	0	Moore, 3b	4	0	2	0	0
O'Farrell, c	4	2	3	1	0	Brown, lf	2	0	1	0	0
Haines, p	4	1	2	1	0	Burns, 1b	3	0	11	1	0
						Gautreau, 2b	3	1	2	5	0
Totals	36	12	27	11	0	Stengel, c	3	0	5	0	0
						Watts, p	3	0	1	4	0
						xCooney	1	0	0	0	0
						Hearn, p	0	0	0	0	0
						Totals	35	5	27	14	0

(z) Batted for Watts in 9th.
(zz) Batted for Taylor in 9th.
Score by innings:

St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	2
Boston	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Two base hits, O'Farrell, Haines.

NAILDRIVERS HANG UP EIGHTH STRAIGHT VICTORY

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 11—The Naildrivers made it eight straight wins when they won from Conn. Mills 5 to 2, here tonight. The game was closely contested and proved interesting for the fans. The Naildrivers scored three of their runs in the initial frame, Joe LaBelle the Naildrivers pilot started off with a homer when he started when he hit the ball over the right fielders after Dagenais had struck out. George LaBelle walked and scored on Alex LaBelle's triple who also tallied on Kelley's error. The carpenters added a run in the third when N. Perreault doubled and Lowery singled and again in the fifth when Prevost doubled with two out and scored on an error by Joe LaBelle, Jr. Chartier was forced from the game to be replaced by Bonin when he caught off and was injured in sliding back to second. Tonight the Cleavers meet the Kilowatts on the Paco diamond at the usual time.

BON TONS AND TOWNERS IN CLASH THIS EVENING

The Taftville Town team will cross bats with the fast Bon Tons of the Norwich Twi league tonight, at 6:30, at the Providence street grounds. Lamory will catch, Dudek and Pete Finn p; Frazier, 1b; Bruelle, 2b; Lemn, 3b; Martin, ss; Rockdale, lf; Pheland, cf; Guerton, rf. The game between the Town team and Assawaga Mills nine Sunday has been canceled. The Town team would like to play the Warriors a three-game series, starting Sunday, at Duwell field. Answer through this paper.

Notice!

All letters to the Sports Editor should be signed by the writer with his full name and address even if a pen-name is used. Letters signed merely with one initial will not be published.

Red Tops Vs. Ashland Cubs.

If challenge is accepted the Taftville Red Tops will be ready to meet the Ashland Cubs at Taftville, Sunday, August 14, at 2 o'clock sharp. This game to decide series. Answer through paper.

EXPECT DEMPSEY-TUNNEY MATTER WILL BE SETTLED AT TODAY'S MEETING

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—(AP)—The state athletic commission will hold a special meeting tomorrow morning which is expected to straighten out the remaining tangles in the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight situation.

If they accept the invitation extended to them by Commissioner George Brower, the two members of the license committee, Colonels J. J. Phelan and D. Walker Wear, will meet at the same time to reconsider the application of Jack Dempsey for a license to fight Gene Tunney at the Yankee stadium on September 16.

The initiative designed to force a prompt and final show-down on the situation was taken today by Brower, who exercised his prerogative in calling the special session in spite of the fact that such meetings usually are subject to the call of the chairman, James A. Farley.

Unless there is an unexpected hitch over night, those close to the situation, including Brower and Promoter Tex Rickard, are confident Dempsey will be granted his license tomorrow, thus clearing the last obstacle from the path of the title battle.

Late today neither Col. Phelan nor Col. Wear had shed any further light on their attitude, which was expressed at yesterday's hectic session in their decision to "defer" action on Dempsey's license application, pending his compliance with the "rules and regulations of the commission." Brower, however, said he expected both licensing officials to attend.

Compliance with the commission's rules is interpreted to mean that Dempsey's license will be forthcoming upon present action of formal agreements for his match with Tunney. As a result Rickard and Dempsey both will go before the commissioners tomorrow armed with all necessary papers designed to show that the Tunney match has been arranged in full accordance with the regulations of the boxing solons.

Tunney's presence will not be required. The challenger received his license yesterday and returned afterward to his training camp at Speculator, N. Y.

Dempsey took a fresh step in the situation today by visiting the offices of the commission to leave copies of two more contracts for a match with Harry Wills. These were presented at the request of the license committee, which yesterday examined a third Wills-Dempsey contract, drawn up at Niles, Mich., last September.

One of those exhibited today was signed at Huntington, W. Va., October 6, 1925, and the other, made with B. C. Clements of the Coliseum club of Chicago, was signed at Los Angeles on March 6, 1926.

It was not indicated what further bearing these documents would have on the attitude of the license committee toward Wills' long standing challenge. It appeared yesterday that the licensing officials were inclined to dismiss the Wills issue on the ground that the champion, by signing at Niles, already had accepted the negro's challenge

MORE THAN 200 START TOURNEY AT SHENECOSSETT

The seventh annual men's invitation tournament for "The Griswold Trophy" will start this morning at 8 o'clock at the Shenecossett golf links with more than 200 starters.

Fred Knight, Merion Cricket club of Philadelphia, holder of the title last year, will defend it. He will have plenty of opposition in retaining the title. "Ducky" Yates of Rochester, N. Y., runner up last year, will be one of his strong opponents. Other stars who will compete are Jack Hennessey and Guy E. Mayer of Metacomet of Rhode Island, John E. Mackie, Jr., of Inwood, Long Island; Tommy Aycock of Jacksonville, Fla.; Barry and Quincy Ryan, brothers of Baltursol; G. Eyman Carroll, Jr., of Shenecossett, and D. W. Morton of Norwich.

Max Marston, a former amateur champion of the United States, who has a cottage at Eastern Point, will also compete.

The links are in perfect condition and arrangements have been made by the golfing committee to take care of a big gallery which will follow the semi finals on Saturday.

8.00 H. A. Cook, Jr., Harry Morse; 8.04 L. H. Dorchester Fred C. Allen; 8.08 V. L. Fine, P. C. Kohn; 8.20 James J. Wilson, William H. Rabell; 8.24 John A. Sullivan; 8.28, W. E. Waterman, E. A. Ward; 8.32 E. H. Lincoln, P. C. Lestrade; 8.40 Albert Hagstaff, Jr., Jack Sanford; 8.44 Robinson Cook, John J. Van Schaak; 8.48 M. L. McGiverin, Arthur G. Thompson; 8.52, C. A. Sheffield; 8.56 R. C. Powell, C. Y. Chettick; 9.00 E. J. Lake, N. H. Avery; 9.04 George DeForest, J. W. Gerguson; 9.08, C. B. Waterman, H. C. Buckmunster; 9.12, David Ackley, R. C. Marandeau; 9.16, Dr. E. P. McNamee, C. T. Fetzer; 9.20, A. B. Jenks, E. J. Francisco; 9.24, Lewis D. Mowry, Jr., Bayard H. Read; 9.28, John Wheeler, Floyd T. Starr; 9.32, Albert H. Chase, Archibald Mitchell; 9.36, F. V. Chaney, L. A. Downs; 9.40, Jarvis Williams, Robert F. Weed; 9.44, Paul Youngs, E. G. B. Riley; 9.48, T. M. Hancock, A. B. Lifoyd; 9.52, Jack Hennessey, Guy E. Mayer; 9.56, E. L. Scofield, Paul R. O'Connell.

10, Fred Knight, Jack B. Mackie, Jr.; 10.04, "Dicky" Yates, Tommy Aycock; 10.08, Eugene Homans, Philip Finley; 10.12, Henry Davis, Tom Semans; 10.16, Max Marston, Quincy

JAIL SENTENCE FOR RAYMOND BROWN AFTER NEW LONDON COURT HEARING

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 11.—Raymond Brown, a youth of 18, who entertained an idea that he could get money the easy way, without working for it, was before the police court this morning charged with and admitting forgery of a check for $50. Brown drew a check for the money on a form which he took from the counter in the banking rooms of the City National bank. He used the check to buy a suit of clothes for which he was to pay $35. As the clothes required some alteration they were left for a time in the store where they were bought. For the bogus check the store proprietor gave Brown the clothes and $15 in change. The $15 was genuine and with that Brown started off for a joy ride. But information from the state police preceded him and when he drove into Danielson with a new Pontiac car he was detained and the Groton barracks officers were notified, that they might secure the custody of the man and the auto they sought, by going to Danielson. Officer Albright brought Brown here last evening and today he was sentenced to six months in jail. On motion of the prosecutor judgment was suspended, on agreement of Brown to make good the amount of money he had obtained fraudulently, and pay the costs of his arrest and trial. This he promised to do and was mighty glad to get out of his scrape in that way.

ROBT. B. CHAPPELL SEEKS COUNCIL NOMINATION

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 11.—This afternoon the nominating petition of Robert B. Chappell for member of council was filed at the office of City Clerk Julian D. Morgan. The petition is the first for member of council that has been filed, although the time limit for filing petitions will expire next Saturday. The petition was circulated by Joseph A. Mono. Although this petition is the only one filed, it is known that several others are being circulated.

Robert Bishop Chappell married Elizabeth Camp, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Camp of Norwich.

Otto Sykes, 64, claiming to be a porter in an office building in New York city, was accused of being a beggar in public places when the court convened. He was accused by Sergeant Kane of the railroad police of having solicited money at the railroad station to get him to New York. Officer Kane was positive that he heard Sykes ask for money and he also heard the person solicited from refuse to give. There was no mistake about that. Officer Kane pointed out that a train conductor had complained about Sykes and accused him of begging in Providence. There was no testimony except that of Officer Kane to convict Sykes, but that was enough. He was found guilty and was sentenced to jail, but the execution of the penalty was suspended that Sykes might leave town and stay away.

John Keegan, a state road builder, was allowed to leave town when he was presented for intoxication today.

Joe Langelier, a man who failed to appear in court yesterday when a bond he deposited was declared forfeited, was there this morning, and explained that he became mixed up between daylight and standard time. The bond was reopened today and a fine was imposed that nearly consumed the amount of the bond.

The condition of Charles A. Baldwin of 579 Bank street, restaurant proprietor, who attempted suicide several weeks ago, does not improve as rapidly as was anticipated, at Lawrence hospital. Mr. Baldwin has recovered from the effects of the gas poisoning, but he is now suffering from an acute form of kidney trouble.

Max Siegel has sold to Frank M. Lanphere a building lot on Squire street.

Joseph A. St. Germain has sold to the Standard Oil company of New York a building and small tract of land, corner of Jefferson and Garfield avenues. It is understood that the purchasers will cause a gasoline filling station to be erected upon the [illegible]

Lieutenant of Police James C. Sullivan, vice president of the State Police association, together with Patrolman Dennis and Thomas Cavanaugh, attended the annual convention of the association in New Haven today. Officers Cavanaugh were delegates from the New London department.

Mrs. Bridget Ann Stanners, 65, wife of John Stanners, former chief of the New London fire department, died last night at Giant's Neck. She is survived, besides her husband, by three sons, Frederick, Joseph and John Stanners, Jr., and a daughter, Miss Madeline Stanners, all of this city. Mrs. Stanners, who resided in the Harris building apartments, had been spending the summer at Giant's Neck and Sunday suffered a shock.

LAWNER BROUGHT BACK— NEW YORK JUDGE CONVINCED

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 11—Detective Sergeant John Cavanaugh and Traffic Officer Frank Linehan returned to New London this noon from New York and brought Benjamin Lawner, New York Hebrew wanted here for the theft of a Nash roadster, owned by James M. Miner, 157 Huntington street, which was stolen from State street, nearly three weeks ago. Lawner will be presented in the police court tomorrow morning.

Lawner was arrested by New York detectives last week when found with the stolen automobile and after he had entered into negotiations for its sale. Through his counsel, Lawner fought extradition by means of a habeas corpus writ. This phase of the case was tried in the supreme court, New York, last evening and with Detective Cavanaugh proving a verbal confession that Lawner had made to him and in the presence of two New York detectives admitting the theft of the automobile and producing a diary containing Lawner's handwriting, found after the automobile had been recovered and returned to New London, Judge Guy ordered the prisoner turned over to the New London officers. Counsel for Lawner claimed that the prisoner was not in New London, but in New York the day that the auto was stolen, also pleaded insanity for the prisoner. But with the testimony of Detective Cavanaugh and Officer Linehan, testifying to seeing Lawner turn the automobile around on State street, being attracted to the thief because of turning on that restricted street and to being unable to commandeer a high-powered car to give chase to the fleeing thief, Judge Guy declared that the State of Connecticut was entitled to the custody of the prisoner. Lawner was delivered to the officers to be brought back to New London for trial.

TRIED TO WRECK TRAINS WHERE HE MET HIS DEATH

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 11—The death Sunday evening of John Kellen, formerly a quarry worker at Booth Brothers Hurricane Island Granite works, who formerly resided on Rosemary street, Waterford, when he was struck by a New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad express train near the Waterford station, has revived the statement that Kellen had attempted on at least two occasions and probably more, to wreck express trains on the New London division.

Several months ago ties were found placed across the tracks a short distance from the Waterford railroad station. Once the ties were thrown off by the pilot of the locomotive and again the obstruction was found by railroad employes and when the eastbound tracks were not used at that time of day because of repairs being made, the west-bound tracks at the point being used by both east and west bound trains.

So deliberate were the attempts to wreck the trains that special agents of the railroad were assigned to endeavor to determine the would be train wrecker. A special agent suspected Kellen or being the person who placed the ties on the tracks and so positive was the agent that Kellen was the man sought, that the officer even slept in the same building with Kellen a week so, to be able to watch every movement of Kellen, who was also known to frequent the home of Joseph Caposza, where Kellen obtain liquor. Because of insufficient evidence Kellen was not arrested, but the railroad police were positive that Kellen was the man who attempted the train wrecks. At another time when Former Special Agent Ebersole was watching the movements of Kellen, the officer was run down and killed by one of the night trains, but a short distance from where Kellen was killed and where the wrecking of the trains were attempted. The railroad spent a large sum of money in endeavoring to apprehend the would-be wrecker, with the death of Kellen. It is believed that the placing of obstructions on the tracks in Waterford has ended.

Commissioner Robbins B. Stoeckel this afternoon ordered the driver's license suspended of Winifred C. Busch, 40 Montauk avenue and a sailor aboard the U. S. S. Bushnell, submarine base.

Henry W. McMahon, agent of the Gulf Refining company, with filling station on Pequot avenue, made complaint to the police this afternoon, that boys continually break windows in the station. Mr. McMahon stated that windows had been smashed on several successive nights of late.

A city water main on Bentley avenue, rear of 10 Boardwalk, Ocean Beach, burst this afternoon causing a large amount of water to flow into the highway. A gang of repair men after several hours' work succeeded in repairing the break

Osman Smith, 40, of 15 Hines street, Groton, employed as lineman by the Groton borough electric light company, was painfully injured this afternoon when he fell from a pole upon which he was working, a distance of about 20 feet. Smith got severe bruises and a possible fracture of the right legt. Smith was close to the top of the pole, when the buckle of the strap which aided him in his support broke, causing him to pitch backward to the ground. Other workmen went to his assistance and Dr. E. W. Hewes was summoned. Because of the possible fracture, Smith was admitted to Lawrence hospital.

The funeral of Stephen Patriowski, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Patriowski, Oakdale, who was drowned in Oxoboxo Lake, Montville, Sunday, was held at St. John's church, Montville, at 9 o'clock this morning, a mass of requiem being celebrated by Rev. James A. O'Hears. Relatives acted as bearers. Burial was in St. John's cemetery, Montville.

Miss Claire L. Parker has returned to her home, Boston, after having visited several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Parker, 38 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Haynes, of Newark, N. J., are visiting Mr. Haynes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Haynes, Jay street.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. F. Klnudson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Usher and children, of Rockville, Mrs. Lucy Nsher, Tolland, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilcox, Merrow, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Usher, the date being Mr. Usher's birthday.

Misses Marion Wonchasek, Helen Pardus and Annie Service are delegates from the church school to the summer school of the Connecticut conference of religious education, at Storrs, Aug. 10-21.

Misses Ruth and Charlotte Korper of Hartford are guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Korper.

RADIO

THURSDAY.

NEW YORK.

492—WEAF—610.

6:45-7:45 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
7:46 A. M.—Morning prayer service.
11:00 A. M.—Norma MacCauley, soprano.
11:45 A. M.—"The Helpless Consumer—Is He Really Helpless?" W. C. Phillips.
12:00 M.—Market and weather reports.
12:15-1:15 P. M.—Greenwich Village orchestra.
4:00 P. M.—Phyllis Flanagan, soprano.
4:15 P. M.—Adolph Opfinger, piano.
4:30 P. M.—"Best Plays of the Year," Professor S. M. Tucker.
4:45 P. M.—Ralph Coles, entertainer.
5:00 P. M.—Music.
5:30 P. M.—May Singhi Green, banjo; Peter de Rose, piano.
6:00 P. M.—Dinner music.
7:00 P. M.—Mid-Week Hymn Sing.
7:30 P. M.—Davis's orchestra.
8:00 P. M.—Serenaders.
8:30 P. M.—Diana Minigha, soprano.
9:00 P. M.—Cliquot Club Eskimos.
10:00 P. M.—Silvertown Cord orchestra.
11:00-12:00 P. M.—Greenwich Village orchestra.

526—WNYC—570.

7:00 P. M.—Piano selections.
7:10 P. M.—Market high spots.
7:20 P. M.—"Keeping Fit," Joe Ruddy.
7:30 P. M.—Police alarms.
7:35 P. M.—"Timely Health Hints."
7:55 P. M.—Baseball results.
8:00 P. M.—Suber's Concert band.
10:00 P. M.—Cantor Louis Waldman, tenor; Joseph Saphier, piano.
10:30 P. M.—Police alarms and weather.

455—WJZ—468.

1:00 P. M.—Pennsylvania luncheon music.
3:00 P. M.—Weather; news.
4:00 P. M.—Baseball reports; news.
4:05 P. M.—"Daily Menu," Mrs. J. Heath.
5:15 P. M.—"Wall Paper," Louis Fillebroun.
4:35 P. M.—Meat talk.
4:35 P. M.—News; baseball; Zugler and Schaefer, ukulele.
5:30 P. M.—News; baseball.
5:32 P. M.—Market closing; summary.
5:50 P. M.—Farm market reports.
7:00 P. M.—News; baseball.
7:05 P. M.—Madison Concert orchestra.
7:40 P. M.—Humor and songs.
7:55 P. M.—Sport news.
8:00 P. M.—Incidental music.
8:30 P. M.—United States Marine band.
9:30 P. M.—Royal Salon orchestra.
10:30 P. M.—News; Fireside Boys.

405—WOR, Newark—740.

6:45 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
2:30 P. M.—J. A. Biggs, flute.
2:45 P. M.—Edith Pitcher, reader.
3:00 P. M.—Piano course, E. S. Breck.
3:30 P. M.—Casino orchestra.
6:15 P. M.—Shelton Ensemble.
6:45 P. M.—Sports, Bill Wathey.
7:00 P. M.—Shelton Ensemble.
7:25 P. M.—News.
7:30 P. M.—Oreste's Queensland orchestra.
8:00 P. M.—Vaughn de Leath, songs.
8:15 P. M.—Vanderbilt orchestra.
9:00 P. M.—Pryor's band.
9:45 P. M.—Arthur McCormick, baritone.
10:00 P. M.—Baltuarof orchestra.

263—WAAM, Newark—1,140.

10:30 A. M.—"Mysteries," Gertrude Knevels.
11:00 A. M.—Happy Hour program.
12:00 M.—Luncheon program.
6:00 P. M.—Krickett orchestra.
6:30 P. M.—Vacation talk.
6:35 P. M.—Krickett orchestra.
7:00-7:15 P. M.—Sport talk.
9:30 P. M.—Ida Gerndt, soprano; Lilian Beckel, piano.
10:00 P. M.—Arcola orchestra.

216—WBST, Bay Shore—1,390.

8:45-10:00 P. M.—Studio recital.

224—WODA, Paterson—1,340.

12:00 M.—Dance music; news; songs.
5:00 P. M.—Musicale.
5:30 P. M.—News.
5:50 P. M.—Sports talk.
6:00-11:00 P. M.—Diversified musicale.

360—WPG, Atlantic City—1,000.

6:30 P. M.—News; organ recital.
7:00 P. M.—Dinner music.
8:30 P. M.—Band concert; soloists.
9:00 P. M.—Concert orchestra.
10:00 P. M.—Dance, music.
12:00 P. M.—Organ recital.

275—WHAR, Atlantic City—1,000.

2:00 P. M.—Seaside Trio.
7:30 P. M.—Talk.
8:00 P. M.—Seaside Trio.
9:15 P. M.—Studio musicale.
11:00 P. M.—Dance music.

389—WGY, Schenectady—790.

6:00 P. M.—Market reports; news.
6:30 P. M.—Dinner music.
7:25 P. M.—Baseball scores; talk.
7:45 P. M.—Artist recital.
8:30 P. M.—Same as WJZ.
10:30 P. M.—Mixed quartet.
11:30 P. M.—Organ recital.

278—WHAM, Rochester—1,030.

7:30 P. M.—Baseball; markets; news.
7:30 P. M.—Same as WGY.
10:00 P. M.—Dance music.
11:30 P. M.—Same as WGY.

319—WGR, Buffalo—940.

11:00 A. M.—Home economics lecture.
12:00 M.—Weather and market reports.
12:45 P. M.—Statler Ensemble.
2:30 P. M.—Trades concert.
6:30 P. M.—Dinner music.
7:30 P. M.—Announcements; reports.
8:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
11:00 P. M.—Weather forecast.

306—WJAR, Providence—950.

1:05 P. M.—Musicale.
1:30 P. M.—Weather report.
3:15 P. M.—Baseball scores.
3:20 P. M.—Talk.
3:25 P. M.—Musicale.
9:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.

476—WTIC, Hartford—630.

7:30 P. M.—News; police and weather reports.
8:00 P. M.—Artist recital.
8:15 P. M.—Talk.
8:30 P. M.—Music.
9:00 P. M.—Quartet.
10:00 P. M.—Bond orchestra.
11:00 P. M.—News; weather report.

333—WBZ, Springfield, Mass.—900.

6:55 P. M.—Market report.
7:00 P. M.—Kimall Trio.
7:30 P. M.—Baseball results.
7:33 P. M.—Lenox Ensemble.
8:30 P. M.—Same as WJZ.
9:30 P. M.—Artist recital; musicale.
11:00 P. M.—Weather reports; missing persons.

546—WTAG, Worcester—556.

12:00 M.—Market and weather reports.
12:05 P. M.—Piano recital.
6:30 P. M.—Dance music; baseball.
8:00 P. M.—Talk; news.
9:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.

349—WEEI Boston—850.

6:45 A. M.—Same as WEAF.
10:15 A. M.—Anne Bradford.
12:00 M.—Radio review; markets.
4:00 P. M.—Musicale.
5:35 P. M.—Market and business news.
5:50 P. M.—Lost and found.
6:00 P. M.—Radio review.
6:10 P. M.—News; baseball.
8:00-10:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF

256—WCSH, Portland—1,170

10:00 A. M.—Housekeepers' hour
12:00 M.—Recital.
12:57 P. M.—Time signals; weather.
3:00 P. M.—Victor hour.
4:30 P. M.—Bible talk, Rev. Herbert Milligan.
6:00 P. M.—Recital.
7:00 P. M.—Markets; weather; announcements.
7:12 P. M.—Lost and found; news.
7:30 P. M.—Children's period.
7:50 P. M.—Sport results.
7:55 P. M.—Oliveyer Optics.
10:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.

246—WEAL, Baltimore—1,220.

7:30 P. M.—Dinner music.
8:30 P. M.—Mixed quartet.
9:00 P. M.—Musicale.
10:00 P. M.—Dance music.

469—WRC, Washington—640.

12:55 P. M.—Time signals.
1:00 P. M.—Organ recital.
2:00 P. M.—Hotel Mayflower orchestra.
8:00-10:30 P. M.—Same as WJZ.

309—KDKA, Pittsburgh—970.

7:45 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
10:45 A. M.—Market reviews; news.
12:55 P. M.—Time signals; weather; market reports.
3:30 P. M.—Baseball scores half hourly.
4:20 P. M.—Market closing.
6:30 P. M.—Dinner concert.
7:15 P. M.—Final baseball scores.
8:10 P. M.—Farm program; solos.
9:00 P. M.—Symphony players.
10:55 P. M.—Time signals; weather
11:05 P. M.—Flotilla concert.

461—WCAE, Pittsburgh—536.

6:30 P. M.—Dinner concert; talk.
8:30 P. M.—Program from WEAF.
11:00 P. M.—Baseball scores.

LIBERTY HILL

Vegetation is standing up well, although getting very dry again. Heavy dews help out gardens. Food is maturing fast in these warm sunny days.

Apples are plenty and of good quality. Recent showers have passed around us.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. George Clark, were happily surprised by a short visit from their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Colt Harris and their son Donald and Father Albert Harris, of New London. They brought with them Mrs. Harris parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Foote have gone on a vacation tour for a week.

The wholesale price of eggs in the Providence market is 55c.

Mrs. J. A. Choquette is visiting relatives in Southington.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Bailey and son Stanton, of Milford and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bailey of Woodmont, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Geo. Clark Sunday afternoon. Noyes Bailey lived here when a boy, 40 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Oehlers and son Homer went by automobile Sunday afternoon to Middletown and return, for a pleasure ride.

Wallace Cleland returned to his home in New York after two weeks' vacation with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnaird.

Relatives here have received word of the marriage of Miss Ruth Goddard, a former resident here, and Merrick Yost, both of Rockville, July 20th. Miss Yost is a registered nurse in Rockville City hospital. Mr. Yost is a mechanic.

NORTH STERLING

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dexter of Providence, have hired the place where W. R. Whaley formerly lived. Edward Schuman went with his mother to Storrs college the past week.

Mr and Mrs. John E. Griffiths and family attended the Farmers' meeting at Storrs.

Louis Erker has returned to New York.

Mrs. Priniodes daughter from New York has arrived for the summer.

About 33 members of the Help One Another class of the Baptist church, Danielson, held their annual picnic at the home of one of the members, Mrs. F. O. Plummer at White Rock farm, in Foster, Thursday. A picnic lunch was carried, stunts were done, and last there was a fat men's race on the lawn, several group pictures were taken.

Hugh Prentis and family, Mrs. Lucy Avery and Miss Mildred Avery, of Groton, Mrs. Charles Prentis, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prentis, of New London, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. George C. Spooner and Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Crowell, Sunday.

A number of local people attended camp meeting at Greene, R. I. Sunday.

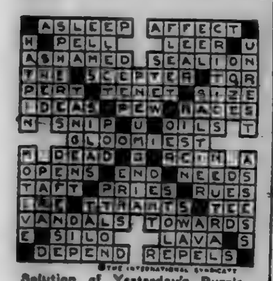
PETTAQUAMSCUTT CASINO
The PLACE in RHODE ISLAND
Where the Most Famous
DINNERS
OLD-FASHIONED CLAMBAKES and WONDERFUL
DANCE MUSIC
CAN BE FOUND.
Near Saunderstown

BREED THEATRE
—TODAY—
Double Feature Bill
"THE SCARLET SAINT"
—With—
Lloyd Hughes and Mary Astor
and
Frances Marion Production
"SIMON, THE JESTER"
Featuring—
Eugene O'Brien, Lillian Rich and Henry B. Walthall
Friday — Saturday
James Oliver Curwood's
Mighty Drama of the Great Northwest
"When the Door Opened"
Featuring PRINCE, the Dog Marvel

DANCE
TOWN HALL, BROOKLYN
FRIDAY EVENING
AUGUST 13
MUSIC BY CHAMPION FIDDLER
UNCLE JOE SHIPPEE
And His Funny Trio
ROUND AND SQUARE DANCING

DANCE
Tonight
At Pearson's Pine Brook Farm
Zim's Six Piece Band

BROADWAY
—TODAY—
FRIDAY — SATURDAY
Mat. 2:15—Children 15c
Eve.—Plat. 7-9:15—Vaud. 8:15
5 GREAT ACTS
VAUDEVILLE
THE THREE TASMANIANS
Speed Kings of Song and Dance
LESTER & EARL
Comedians
LEONHART & CO.
"Divertissements"
LANE & DAVEY
Cutting Comedy Capers
NOLLY TATE
And His Canine Artists
—Screen Attractions—
HURRICANE
A gripping story of the Northwest
—With—
ALICE LAKE
STUART HOLMES
JACK RICHARDSON
COMEDY—NEWS
SUNDAY NIGHT
2 FEATURES



Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Special Purchase and Sale of MEN'S FANCY SILK, SILK AND FIBRE and RAYON HOSE
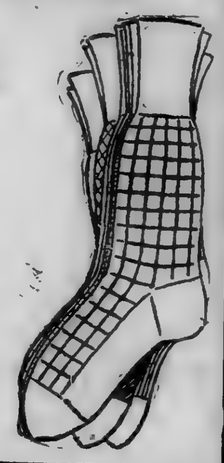
At 39c a Pair.



These are a second quality of a hose made by a well known manufacturer of high grade hosiery. The first quality retails everywhere for $1.00 a pair. Sizes 9½ to 12. A good assortment of patterns to choose from in the popular colors.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO SHOP THURSDAY MORNING IN THE MEN'S DEPARTMENT

THREE THURSDAY MORNING SPECIALS ON OUR "THOROUGHFARE"
POPULAR ITEMS AT PRICES LESS THAN YOU WOULD REASONABLY EXPECT TO PAY.

DAYTON HOT OR COLD VACUUM JUGS
Keep food hot or cold. The ideal thing for picnic lunches—
$1.00

WOMEN'S ENGLISH PRINT FROCKS
Well made, with set-in sleeves, prettily trimmed. An unusual value at 88c

WOMEN'S COSTUME SLIPS
Made of a good quality Rayon Silk, with camisole top and shadow-proof hem. In colors of white, flesh, Nile and honeydew. Sizes 36 to 44. $2.00 value—
Thursday Morning $1.39

Endurance

Graham Brothers Trucks are built to endure. That is why they make such mileage, last so long—and sell so readily to careful buyers.

[Graham Brothers Trucks with Dodge Brothers ¼-Ton Commercial Cars, meet 90% of all hauling requirements.]

1-Ton Chassis (G-Boy) $935
1½-Ton Chassis $1310
MBM Low Chassis $1360
Delivered

THE JORDAN AUTO CO.
1029 Main Street, Willimantic 410 Main Street, Norwich

GRAHAM BROTHERS TRUCKS
SOLD BY DODGE BROTHERS DEALERS EVERYWHERE

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

DIED

DAVIS—In Worcester, Aug. 11, 1926, L. L. Davis, formerly of this city.

MANNING—In New London, Aug. 10, 1926, John R., son of the late James and Catherine Manning, aged 31 years.

STANNERS—At Giant's Neck, Aug. 10, 1926, Bridget Ann, wife of John Stanners, of New London.

FENTON—In New Haven, Aug. 11, 1926, Michael J. Fenton, formerly of Norwich.

SULLIVAN—In Groton, Conn., Aug. 11, 1926, Mary R. Toomey, widow of Patrick Sullivan of 16 Dean street, Groton.
Notice of funeral hereafter.

WILLIAMS—Suddenly, in East Lyme, Aug. 11, 1926, Frank E. Williams, formerly of Salem, Conn., in his 71st year.

BORN

CLARKSON—In this city, Aug. 10, 1926, a daughter, Alma Beatrice, to Mr. and Mrs. William Clarkson of 454 Main street.

KRAMER—In Norwich, Aug. 10, 1926, a son, William Richard, to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kramer of 321 Central avenue (Miss Sophie Thoma, formerly of Lisbon).

AVERY—In Lisbon, Aug. 11, 1926, a daughter, Shirley Graham, to Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Avery (Agnes Graham).

LONG—In New London, Aug. 11, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Long of Lyme.

JEFFERS—In Providence, R. I., Aug. 9, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown Jeffers.

MARRIED

AVERY—PARKER—At Willington Hill, Aug. 9th, 1926, by Rev. E. E. Sundt, Amos D. Avery of Norwich and Miss Elizabeth Parker of Mansfield.

CONLAN—KENERSON — In Norwich, Aug. 17, 1926, by Rev. J. Eldred Brown, Thomas Henry Conlan, Jr., of Preston and Miss Ruth Avery Kenerson of Philadelphia.

HAVENS—BEAL—In Westerly, R. I., Aug. 11, 1926, by Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, Henry Robert Havens and Miss Dorothy Dunn Beal.

WRIGHT—BEEBE—In New London, Aug. 9th, 1926, by Rev. C. E. Spaulding, Henry Stoll Wright and Miss Thelma Gertrude Beebe.

ROATH—CHAPMAN—In New London, Aug. 7th, 1926, by Rev. Joseph A. Elder, Louis H. Roath and Miss Eleanor Chapman.

LEWIS—GRAY—In Ledyard, Aug. 11, 1926, by Rev. G. F. Goodenough, Dr. Napoleon B. Lewis of Norwich and Mrs. Agnes Gray of Ledyard.

FUNERAL NOTICE

ROGERS—In Norwich, Aug. 11, 1926, Ruth Marion Kinney, wife of Charles F. Rogers, aged 26 years.
Funeral from the home of her father, George R. Kinney, 64 Roosevelt avenue, Friday afternoon, Aug. 13, at 3:30 o'clock (d. s. t.) Burial in Maplewood cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
18 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN.
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 270. Lady Assistant.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Mcosup 222-2.

COAL AND WOOD

SEASONED hard wood, $10 a load, oak, slab-wood, $8. Delivered anywhere. Phone 489. jun18tf

FOR SALE—Split wood and kindlings, 3 baskets for $1.00. Fountain St. Wood yard. Tel. 2114. mar17

POULTRY

FOR SALE—R. I. Red laying pullets, weight 5 to 7 lbs. and in best condition; lack of space; $2.50 each. E. C. Shauffler, Ballouville, East Killingly road. aug11d

FOR SALE—HORSES

FOR SALE—Horse, wagon and harness. S. Pogolowitz, 61 Fairmont St. aug9d

FOR SALE—CATTLE

FOR SALE—Three year old Guernsey cow with week old calf. F. L. Kanahan, R. D. 8. aug11d

COWS—Three carloads, just arrived, 16 pure bred Ayrshires; all under supervision. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel. Lebanon 30. aug6d

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

EXCHANGE—Will trade building lots on Norwich and New London trolley line for city property. For particulars apply to G. P. Coates, 50 Franklin St. aug10d

FOR SALE—An old established grocery store. 54 Golden St., New London. aug11d

FOR SALE—Everhot Jr. electric cooker. Roasts, bakes, browns and stews from ordinary lamp socket current. Special price $5.85. City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. aug11tf

FOR SALE—One Papec ensilage cutter, No. 13. Irwin M. Jones, P. O. Leonard Bridge, Conn. Tel. Lebanon 43-3. aug11d

FOR SALE—German puppies. 335 Central Ave. aug11d

FOR SALE—Chelsea 5-tube radio set complete; 120 hour A battery; 90 volt B battery, tubes and $25 loud speaker. Price $60. Phone 1491-4. aug10d

FOR SALE—A two-family house; Falls section; for quick sale $3,500. Two-family house on East Side, for quick sale, $3,800. Norwich Land Title and Ins. Co. Tel. 2279. aug10tf

FOR SALE—Farm in Salem, Conn., on state road; 160 acres; new eight room house and furniture; barn full of hay; hen house and other buildings. For particulars address Samuel McDonald, Colchester, Conn. aug10d

PRIVATE SALE of furnishings and fixtures including pool table, desk, office safe, etc., now going on at Baltic Inn. aug7d

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, fine gladiolas and asters especially. William Weaver, 6 Huntington Ave., Norwich Town. aug7d

FOR SALE—8-room house, No. 2 Soule St., Jewett City. Inquire F. E. Robinson, Jewett City. aug4tf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. may28

WUZ in our Franklin street delikatasen store 'n the clerk sez, "How is that frankfruiter on the ice like a pretty girl?" 'n I sez "I dano, why?" 'n he ses "Dogonice." Fine lot of 50c pipes. Nobis, Cid Coon cigars, 5 for 30c. The best of um. All King Perfecto, 5 for 55c. Manila cigars 10 for 25c. At Fagan's Smoke Shop, opp. Wgolworth's. jul20

FOR SALE—A high grade Columbia Grafonola; all latest improvements; beautiful mahogany cabinet; cost new $120. Our price $49.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A high grade $8-note player piano at half regular price. Used as demonstrator only. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A 6-tube Fine Arts radio set with built in speaker completely installed $80. This is a brand new set at half its value. Easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—22 acre farm located 1 mile from state road. Price attractive. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Three family house on state road, with several acres of land. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ideal poultry farm near Jewett City. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—2 acres land with 3 cottages. Price $2,150. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ten acre farm located on the state road. Price $3,000. Easy terms. William McNicol, Maynard Bldg., Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—17 acre farm with good buildings. Ideal location for poultry. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

E. J. TETREAULT—Agent for New Home sewing machines. Tel. 874-3. Baltic, after 5 p. m. Repairing on all kinds of sewing machines promptly done. All work guaranteed. Thirty years' experience. jul7

FOR SALE
Two-apartment house with basement store, No. 148 Cliff street, near St. Joseph's school. A reasonable offer takes this desirable home.
Thos. H. Beckley
278 MAIN ST. PHONES.

ON THE OCEAN FRONT
We have a good 7-room furnished cottage with large veranda and 2-car garage on lot 60 foot front with substantial sea wall that we can sell for $4500.
TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE
Geer avenue, 9-room residence. Large reception hall. Lot is 75x128—$7,500.
JAMES E. MOORE
REALTOR.

FOR SALE
In Chelsea Parade Section, a six-room cottage, with improvements, including heat, room for garage. Price $5,500. Owner leaving town. For particulars inquire
FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Phone. Norwich.

WE ARE OFFERING
RIDGEWOOD PARK LOTS
(OCEAN BEACH)
AT A SPECIAL PRICE OF $790
GOOD UNTIL AUGUST 15
MAY WE TELL YOU ABOUT THEM
WRITE — TELEPHONE — CALL
JAMES L. CASE
REALTOR
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE
One of the best located Gasoline and Oil Stations in the state. Always doing good, profitable business. Sold on account of owner's death, so it's a great opportunity for someone.
For further particulars inquire of
JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER
44 Shetucket Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—6-room dwelling with barn and land for a good garden, electricity and water; located on shore road, Westerly, R. I., 10 minutes to beach. A. C. Burdick, Realtor, Jewett City and Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug13

FOR SALE OR RENT—New 7-room cottage, Black Point. Electricity, water, bath. Lebanon 35-3. Yantic Box 130. aug12d

FOR SALE—Two-family house, 40 Boswell Ave. 10 rooms. Estate of Helen Sumner Lennen. Inquire at house. J. L. Sumner, Exr. aug13d

FOR SALE—One fish-box, almost new. Could be used for milk cooler. Price reasonable. Hotel Hooker, Willimantic, Conn. aug13d

TO RENT

TO RENT—8 rooms, electricity, $30. 58 Washington St. aug13tf

FOR RENT—Two choice apartments in fine residential section. One of 5 rooms, heat furnished. One of 6 rooms. All modern. Garage for one apartment. Write Bulletin Box 56. jul13Tuth-tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms; modern improvements; garage. Call at 62 School St. or at N. Y. Shoe Shine Parlor, 29 Franklin St. aug11d

TO RENT—6-room tenement; recently remodeled. 355 Central Ave. aug11d

TO RENT—Large furnished room. Gentleman preferred. 49 Church St. aug11d

TO RENT—2 tenements, 1 4 room, 1 6 rooms; all improvements. Inquire 26 Cliff St. aug11d

TO RENT—One of those fine 7-room apartments in the "Marion"; heat and hot water furnished by owner. Phone 896-2. aug11tf

TO RENT—Large furnished room; light housekeeping. 14 Church St. aug11d

TO LET—5-room flat. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St. Tel. 2146. aug11

TO RENT—Furnished 3-room apartment; conveniences. Phone 412-2. aug10d

TO RENT—5-room tenement with all improvements. 116 N. Main St. aug10tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 78 McKinley Avenue. aug10tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 3 rooms; all improvements. 39 Asylum St. aug6d

FOR RENT—Six room apartment. Phone 489. aug6tf

FOR RENT—One 5-room tenement; all improvements. Inquire Commercial Garage. aug3tf

TO RENT—5 room apartment, all improvements. 35 Fairmount St.

TO RENT—6-room tenement; all improvements; call at night downstairs. 51 Division St. jul29tf

FOR RENT—Storage space on top floor of Majestic Building. Elevator service. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. jul27

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; all latest improvements, 316 Franklin St. Also 3-room apartment, 308 Franklin St. Inquire of Thos. Buckley, real estate agent. jul27tf

TO RENT—Lower flat, 6 rooms; also furnished room on second floor, 120 Broadway; ring 2nd bell. jul23tf

TO RENT—5-room apartment, 73 School St. jul8tf

TO RENT—Apartment of seven rooms; hardwood floors, nice locality. Call 931-4. jul8tf

FOR RENT—3 rooms; pantry, gas, lights. School St. $19 a month. Call 2474-2. jul12tf

TO RENT—One of the finest 7 room apartments in the city, in residential section. Phone 896-2. mar15tf

FOR RENT—At 175 Broadway 3 room furnished apartment, heated, hot water, the year round. Phone 1506 or 1511. apr29

TO RENT—6-room apartment, also 8-room cottage. Phone 259. apr8tf-eod

TO RENT—10-room apartment on Church St. Very desirable; rent reasonable. Inquire C. W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. jun3tf

TO RENT—Beautiful modern apartment at 50 Broad St. Heat and hot water furnished. Moderate rent. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. apr23tf

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—On or about August 23, return load of furniture or other freight to Maine, New Hampshire or Vermont. F. C. Davis, Danielson, Conn. Tel. 250. aug12d

CARS bought to wreck. Parts for all cars. Tires and tubes (new and used), big bargains. Hodes Auto Parts, 381 No. Main St., Norwich. Tel. 1391. aug12

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 389, Norwich. Phone 861-12, Norwich; 506 Willimantic. TuThSmar16

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY
A CONNECTICUT corporation doing business in New London, Norwich and its vicinity, has increased its plant and production and is willing to dispose of part of its seven per cent (7%) participating preferred stock. If interested, we invite your inquiries. Write Investment, Bulletin Office. aug3d

MR. FRANK TRACY—Please write to your daughter Edith, 23 Plum St., Providence, R. I. aug6d

AGENTS—Either sex, be our representatives, sell magic lustre, silver and metal polish, rapid seller, 50 per cent profit, credit given. Write O. K. Specialty Co., Norwich, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—An electric ceiling fan. Call 1933-4 or 1405-2. aug4d

T. J. CONNELLY—Tree cutter and remover 65 Boswell Ave.

CALL 2661-W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George E. Sanders, 33 Market St. apr29d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves, highest prices paid. Call 1405. nov17d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A Brackney, 107 Franklin St., Phone 559. nov17d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 28 Market St. Phone 2158 tf

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Double stole marten neck piece between Lake St. and Franklin Square, Wednesday evening about 8:30. Reward if returned to Bulletin business office. aug12

LOST—Thursday, bay horse. Finder notify Alex Ablugel, R. D. 7, Browning Place. aug9d

LOST—Monday morning, somewhere near center of city, twenty dollars. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at Bulletin Office and receive a reward. 12d

LOST—Black Boston bag near J. B. Martin Mills in Taftville. Finder please leave at Bulletin business office. 12

FOUND—Black and tan hound dog. No name or tag on collar. P. J. Navin, Clark's Corner. Tel. 645-2, Willimantic Div. aug10d

LOST—Monday noon, between Uncas Bank and Union St., sum of money. Reward if left at Bulletin Office. aug10d

LOST—Bunch of keys between Jewett City and Norwich. Finder call 789-3. Reward. aug9tf

LOST—Thursday, Bate horse. Finder notify Alex Alugel, R. D. 7, Browning Place. aug9d

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1924 Ford coupe. 116 Laurel Hill Ave. aug13d

FOR SALE—1 1924 Chrysler Royal Sedan, 1 1925 Chrysler 70 Roadster, 1 1923 Lafayette Sedan, 1 1923 Cleveland Touring Car, 1 1922 Ford Roadster, 1 1923 Buick Touring Car, 1 1925 Maxwell Panel Delivery. John J. Herbert, 195 No. Main St. aug11

FOR SALE—1921 Essex roadster; excellent condition. Call 2504J or 279 W. Main St. after 4 p. m. aug10d

FOR SALE—Latest improved Lincoln, 5-pass. sedan; driven about 3000 miles; demonstration. A wonderful bargain; over $1,000 off of list price; terms if desired; trade considered. Waterman & Wolfe, Inc., New London. Phone 3940. aug10tf

FOR SALE—Lincoln sedan, 1923, in perfect shape. Rhode Island Motor, Westerly. Phone 4806 day or night. aug10d

FOR SALE—Chrysler 80 touring, 1924, in excellent condition throughout. Rhode Island Motors, Westerly, R. I. Phone 4806 day or night. aug10d

WANTED—Ford coupe in trade for '23 Essex touring. Phone 1133-23. aug7d

NEW HUDSON seven passenger sedan from factory at factory price $1,425. First check gets this once-in-a-lifetime bargain. Telephone 2282. Adams Tavern Garage. aug7d

FOR SALE—1 new 6 Star roadster; 1 new 4 Star touring; 24 Ford coupe; 26 Chrysler sedan; 24 Hup. coach; 23 Reo sedan; 25 Henderson cycle; 26 Ford Del.; 24 Buick coupe; 21 Cadillac touring. Cash or terms. Adams Tavern Garage, Auburn Sales and Service. Tel. 2282. aug4d

USED CAR SALE—Dodges, Buicks, Essex, Overlands, Fords, open and closed models. Price $75 up. Laurel Hill Garage, Laurel Hill avenue, in rear of Laurel Hill school. Easy payments. Your car in trade. Open evenings.

FOR SALE—1926 Ford coupe, 1924 Jewett brougham, 1926 Hup. demonstrator, 1924 Ford roadster. Several older cars; all reasonably priced. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. jul27

FOR SALE—1925 Rickenbacker roadster, 1925 Chrysler roadster, 1925 Hudson coach, 1923 Buick roadster, 1920 Cadillac coupe. Small down payment; balance 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. jul13d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, U-61, Victoria coupe; 1925 Hudson coach; 1923 Buick coupe; 1923 Hupmobile 4-passenger coupe; 1923 Dodge coupe; 2 1923 Ford sedans; 1924 Ford coupe; 1923 Chevrolet coupe. Krieger Motor Sales, 191 No. Main St. Phone 646. jul13

FOR SALE—1925 Chrysler sedan, model 70. Excellent condition; low mileage. Privately owned. Box 56, Danielson, Ct. jul17tf

FOR SALE—New and used Harley Davidson motorcycles. Real good machines for real live fellows. Prices reasonable. Easy terms. J. P. Donovan, 185 No. Main St. mar24d

USED CARS
AUGUST CLEARANCE
of every used car in stock at tremendous reductions. Prices are now lower than ever. Come in today—it will pay you.

1922 Ford Roadster	$45.00
1922 Overland Coupe	$130.00
1924 Essex Touring	$120.00
1918 Dodge Roadster	$55.00
1923 Chevrolet Touring	$90.00
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring	$50.00
1921 Overland Touring	$45.00
1923 Ford Roadster	$80.00
1922 Gardner Roadster	$75.00

STAR GARAGE
Plainfield, Conn. Phone 196.

USED CARS

1925 Ford Touring	$200
1923 Jewett Touring	$175
1925 Essex Coach	$475
1922 Hupmobile Road.	$275

The Norwich Motor Sales Co.
HUDSON-ESSEX
Sales and Service.
394 N. Main St.—Tel. 1780

FOR SALE

One Buick 1923 coach body, 5 passenger. Good condition. Buick parts, all models. Parts for all models Hudson and Essex, Studebaker Specials and Big Six, also Cadillacs. Buick parts, all models. Bargains in used tires and tubes. Truck parts, 1 1-2 to 5 ton. Model 57 Cadillac limousine. Good condition. We pay highest prices for all cars in any condition. Willimantic Auto Parts, Quarry St., Willimantic. Tel. 1204-2.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Woman, aged 35-40 for waitress-chambermaid. Experience unnecessary; wages $10 per week, room and board. Lawton Inn, Plainfield. Phone 42-2 Moosup Div. aug13d

WANTED — Saleslady for women's ready-to-wear shop. Good salary. Only experienced woman need answer. Write Box 300, Bulletin. aug7d

WANTED—100 teachers at once. Must be Normal graduates. Free registration. The Holman Teachers' Agency, 326 Williams St., New London, Conn. aug10d

WANTED—A position to care for an invalid. Experienced. Tel. 2701. aug4d

AUCTION

AUCTION
D. M. BROWN, Auctioneer
As I have rented my place, known as the Tracy farm, located on State road, a little west of Canterbury Plains Church, I will sell at Public Auction on the premises on
SATURDAY, AUG. 14
At 10 o'clock A. M., New Time the following personal property:
Household furniture in good condition, including large stove, 7 fine bureaus and chiffoniers, 2 fine parlor suites, 2 marble top center tables, 2 oak dining tables, 1 large oak buffet, dining room chairs, ice box, carpets and matting, 6 iron beds, springs and mattresses, wicker porch chairs, kitchen chairs, rockers, clock, lamps, gas lamp, Edison Victrola and records, fine crockery and household utensils, some antiques, cider press, axes, acetylene gas machine for 25 lights, etc., etc.
Don't Miss This Splendid Opportunity!
Sale Rain or Shine
Terms Cash Caterer
M. A. DOOLEY.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE
I will be responsible for no bills contracted by anyone but myself.
WILLIAM J. MURRAY.
R. D. 5, Norwich, Conn., Aug. 11, 1926.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICE

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Montville, within and for the District of Montville, on the 10th day of Aug., A. D. 1926.
Present, DAN D. HOME, Judge.
Estate of Elias Beckwith, late of Montville, in said District, deceased.
The Administratrix exhibited her administration account with said estate to the Court for allowance; it is therefore Ordered, That the 17th day of Aug., A. D. 1926, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Probate Court Room in Montville, in said District, be, and the same, is, appointed for hearing the same, and the said Administratrix is directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order once in the Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said District, at least 5 days prior to the date of said hearing, and make return to the Court.
DAN D. HOME, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, SUSAN F. FLOUFFE, Clerk.

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Counter man. Apply to Mohegan Restaurant, 271 Main St. aug12d

YOUNG MAN, 17, strong and willing, finished three year electrical course, State Trade School, wants work. Paul Jannen, Mansfield Center, Conn. Tel. aug12d

WANTED—Married man; good paying opportunity. Apply Room 503 Plymouth Bldg., New Haven. aug11d

WANTED—Position as chauffeur by one who is experienced and knows the city. Write to 61 Union St., Ronald Curran. aug10d

BRICKLAYERS—For Hartford, Conn. Maximum rate $1.37 1-2 per hour, experienced tradesmen, steady work, normal conditions. Apply ready for work to Hartford Open Shop Building Trades Exchange, 731 Main St., Hartford, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—Young man for selling work outside. Liberal commission paid. Very pleasant work. Some of our men make as high as $50 weekly. Write Box 44, care of Bulletin. jul27tf

Business Notices.

ARTESIAN WELLS

Water! Water! Water!
WE ARE STILL DRILLING WELLS IN THIS LOCALITY.
SEE TRASK FOR THAT WELL.
TRASK ARTESIAN WELL CO.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Authorized Service Station for Rusco Brake Lining. Brakes inspected Free
JOE MOORE'S GARAGE
95 Chestnut St. Phone 2238

PAIGE, JEWETT AND GARDNER
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM O. HOYES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 731-2

General Repairing. Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 817-3

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2238
95 Chestnut Street

CONTRACTORS

JAMES FURNIGNARO
Contractor, Excavating and Mason Work
Phone 2291—123 Oakridge St.

A. CORENTINO
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Excavation, Stone Work, Specialist in Plaster Work
4 Valley St. Tel. 617-4

CALL 2566-M for painting and cement work, done reasonably and expertly. may23tf

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

ALEXANDER E. MANES
Certified Public Accountant
48 Broadway Norwich

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Rural Homes
Need a Sanitary Sewage Disposal System.
Let us show you the best Vitrified Septic Tanks on the market today and explain their most exceptional advantages.
—The—
Peck-McWilliams Company.

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Sell It

Business Notices.

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

DENTISTS

DR. ALFRED RICHARDS
Dental Surgeon
Rm 306, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 777

INSURANCE

E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Room 16, Central Bldg. Tel. 2426-2

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
to Pay All Those Small Bills That Are Worrying You
WE FURNISH THE CASH
and you repay us in monthly installments to suit your means—
On $ 50 you pay $ 5 monthly
On $ 75 you pay $ 6 monthly
On $100 you pay $ 8 monthly
On $150 you pay $10 monthly
On $200 you pay $10 monthly
On $300 you pay $20 monthly
plus legal interest on unpaid balance as designated by State law. Loans made to housekeepers on home furniture without removal, and to anyone on guaranteed note. We operate under State Banking Dept. supervision and are licensed and bonded under State laws. For details, call, write, or phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

MERCHANT TAILOR

SWAHN THE TAILOR
HAS MOVED TO 2 CLIFF STREET
Opposite Chelsea Bank Phone 2102

MATTRESSES

SUSSMANS BEDDING
"The Best for Rest"
At All Furniture Stores
SUSSMANS MATTRESS CO.
Chestnut St. Phone 577

MACHINE SHOP

BARBER'S Machine Shop, (L. and A. P. Guertin, proprietors) 23-25 Chestnut St. Tel 2142, does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly, day or night. jun14tf

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 68 Franklin St.

PLUMBING

T. F. BURNS
91 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
130 Franklin St. Tel. 1322

SUMMER HOTEL

NINIGRET HOTEL
Under New Management
Crescent Beach, Connecticut
Steaks, Chicken and Lobster Dinners
Rooms by Day or Week
Dancing—Earl Patch's Orchestra
FREDERICK W. KEEFE
WILLIAM F. McGUIRE, Managers
Telephone 118 Niantic

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via the New London Line
One Way Fare $3.38 From Norwich
Special Summer Service
Effective June 28 to Sept. 11, inc.
NIGHT SCHEDULE—Daily
Lv. New London 10.00 P.M.
Due New York, Pier 40 (Houston St.) 6.30 A.M.
DAY SCHEDULE—Daily, Ex. Sun. and Mon.
Lv. New London 9.00 A.M.
Due New York, Pier 40, N. R. 4.30 P.M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
$4.00 Round Trip From New London
Popular 2 day excursions to New York and return. Tickets sold Monday to Friday inclusive, good on day or night steamers going and returning any day.
Tickets sold Saturday good only on day steamer going and night steamer returning same day.
Tickets and Staterooms on sale at Union Station, New London.
Special rates for unescorted automobiles.
The New England Steamship Co.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 686-2

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

TRUCKING

WANTED—Trucking and expressing. Good service. O. Eccleston. Tel. 1873-13. jun28tf

O. W. TRYON—Light trucking, parcel delivery. Reasonable rates. Tel. 3145. jun28tf

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING. Low rates. Phone 1342. jun28tf

CALL 707 FOR
Local and Long Distance Moving
W. F. CONDON, 80 Chestnut St.

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. jun28d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.

C. D. JUSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1582-2.

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR E. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

WALL PAPER

FOR SALE—$2.00 a gallon for paint; 10 cents a roll for paper. 183 West Main street. Max Blazer. mar1

WINDOW WASHING

WANTED—Windows to clean. New England Window Cleaner Co. Phone 820. Calls answered immediately. apr6d

LET THE NORWICH WINDOW AND HOUSECLEANING CO.
Do Your Spring Cleaning for you early, at Reasonable Prices.
General Housecleaning and Office Cleaning
Office, Disco Building
Room 313. Phone 618-13
Louis Cuprak, Proprietor.

WINDHAM

The annual midsummer fair of the Congregational church was held August 4th. An excellent supper of ham, potato salad, biscuits, relishes, cake and coffee was served at 6:30. The tables were attractive with sweet peas, silver coffee urns and pink candles. A fancy work table netted $60. An enjoyable musical program was given by Miss Margery Palmer, contralto soloist, of Hartford, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Bates of Chicago; Mr. Gould, clarinetist and Mr. Pappenheimer, violinist of New York accompanied by Mrs. Pappenheimer. The proceeds were $105.

John Robbins of Farmington, formerly of Windham has presented several of his paintings to the new school house.

Miss Adelaide Hallen, of Lebanon was at Mrs. Gertrude Arnold's Thursday.

Eleven members of the Christian Endeavor society were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur W. Clifford of North Weymouth, Mass., at their cottage at Columbia lake, Saturday.

Rev. Arthur W. Clifford, a former pastor here will preach in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Miss Elinor Sherman returned Sunday from a week's visit in Westerly, R. I.

Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Plumb and children, of Edgewood, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown and sons of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gates of Hartford, Mrs. Frances Creamer of Huntington, Long Island were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas Larrabee Sunday, to celebrate Mr. Larrabee's birthday.

Rev. Walter Borchert of Edgewood, R. I. called on friends in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lathrop have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter Charlotte Ederkin and Eden Chandler Cook, August 24, in the Congregational church, at 4 p. m. with a reception to follow in the church parlors.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Guild, Dr. Harriet Guild, Miss Julia Guild, R. N., Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McGuire, and Samuel Chester of Willimantic are on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and other places of interest.

The members, their wives and young women friends, of the South Windham and Windham Men's community club had a picnic at Big Bluff Lodge, Samuel Chesbro's cottage at Columbia lake, Monday evening.

Miss Dorothy Brown has been the guest of friends in Mystic and Groton Long Point.

The Woman's Guild of St. Paul's church is to hold its annual fair at the rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Watrous are on a motor trip to New Hampshire. Miss Frances Campbell is in Salem, Mass.

AUCTION
SATURDAY, AUGUST 14
10.30 D. S. T.
Elm Brook Farm,
FLANDERS, EAST LYME
BOSTON POST ROAD
ANTIQUES
A. D. PERKINS — Auctioneer
SALE RAIN OR SHINE

THUMM'S
HOME MADE MAYONNAISE
25c per jar
THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 Franklin Street.

CLOSE-OUT SALE OF LAWN MOWERS

$8.50 Machine	$7.00
$12.00 Machine	$10.00
$15.00 Machine	$12.50

THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE.
New York.

Stocks: Irregular; Norfolk & Western at record high.

Bonds: Steady; rail issues slightly lower.

Foreign exchanges: Easy; French franc around 2 3-4 cents.

Cotton: Weak; bearish weekly weather report.

Sugar: Lower; easier spot market.

Coffee: Declined; commission house selling.

Chicago.

Wheat: Weak; bearish government report.

Corn: Easy; sympathy wheat.

Cattle: Generally steady.

Hogs: Irregular.

FALL IN STOCK PRICES

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—(AP)—Another sharp downward revision of prices took place in today's stock market. The reaction, which covered practically the entire list, reached its climax in the last few minutes of trading, and followed an early period of strength during which many issues had been marked up 1 to 9 points. These early gains were wiped out, for the most part, and replaced with net losses ranging from fractions to six points.

In the absence of any large overnight accumulation of selling orders after yesterday's drastic break, operators for the rise started to mark up prices soon after the opening. They were aided by a plentiful supply of call money around 4 1-2 per cent, and a favorable quota of trade news, including the announcement that freight traffic in the week ended July 31 had attained a new high level for the year and the publication of the weekly steel trade reviews, calling attention to the fact that August business was running ahead of July, with indications that 1926 will exceed 1925 as a steel year.

General Motors, which has been the feature of recent markets, opened 1 1-2 points higher at 208, crossed 212 before midday and then broke to 203 closing at the bottom. U. S. Steel common was hammered down from 151 5-8 to 147 3-4 and then rallied to 148 1-4, off 1 3-4 points net. Extreme weakness characterized the trading in these two issues due to the uncertainty as to what dividend action will be taken by General Motors directors at their meeting tomorrow.

Professional traders were of the opinion that General Motors dividend action is likely to determine the immediate trend of prices. Hope is still held out for a stock dividend of 50 per cent and a cash extra of $3 or $4, in addition to the regular payments.

Although it is generally conceded that the technical position of the market has been materially improved by the drastic decline of the last two days, commission houses advices continued to suggest caution in the making of commitments on the theory that further correction may be necessary.

Among the few stocks which were able to maintain part of their early gains were American Agricultural Chemical, American Safety Razor, Brooklyn Manhattan Transit, Interborough Rapid Transit, Murray Body, Goodyear Theatres, U. S. Industrial Alcohol and Ward Baking B. R. H. Macy, Butterick Publishing and Northern and Western attained new 1926 highs. The sharpest breaks took place in such issues as air reduction, American Brake Shoe and Foundry, Baldwin, Manhattan Electrical Supply and National Lead, all off four points or more.

The principal commodity markets were reactionary. Wheat futures dropped 3 to nearly 4 cents a bushel in reflection of the bearish interpretation placed upon the government crop report. Cotton also sold down 39 to 47 points on selling inspired by favorable weather. Raw sugar declined 1-32 of a cent a pound, and coffee sagged 3 to 7 points.

Call money held steady at 4 1-2 per cent till day. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Foreign exchanges moved irregularly lower. Renewed selling of French francs carried them down several points to around 2 3-4 cents, with accompanying declines in the Belgian and Italian rates. Demand sterling eased slightly to around $4.85 11-16 Scandinavian exchanges were firm.

STOCKS.

Sales (hundreds)	High.	Low.	Close.
Abi Pow & Pa..	81⅝	81⅛	81⅜
Abra & Straus..	49	49	49
Adv Rumely .	14⅜	14⅛	14⅜
Adv Rum pr ..	56⅞	56⅝	56
Ahumada Lead	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
Air Reduct ...	142½	136	136
Ajax Rubber .	9	9	9
Al Chem & Dye	137⅝	134⅛	134½
Am Bee Pa Pap	27	27	27
Am Canadian Mfg	90⅛	89⅛	89⅛
Amerada Corp .	32⅝	31	31
Am Ag Chem .	19⅝	17⅞	18⅜
Am Agr Ch pr	65⅛	63⅝	63⅝
Am Bank Note	49	49	49
Am Beet Sug .	24⅞	24⅜	24⅞
Am Brosch Mag	29⅝	25½	25½
Am Bus Sec Pf	100½	100	100
Am Int Pr Pf .	47½	46⅛	46⅛
Am Ice Pf	97	97	97
Am Can	61⅜	59½	59⅝
Am C & F 100	100	100	100
Am Chain A ..	26⅝	25⅞	25½
Am Chicle	58	58	58
Am Drug Syn .	8¼	8	8⅛
Am Express..	157	157	157
Am & F Pow..	20⅜	20⅛	20⅛
Am & F P pr.	91	91	91
Am H & L ..	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
Am H & L pr.	35⅞	35	35
Am Home Prd .	26⅝	26⅜	26⅛
Am Ice pf ..	84	84	84
Am Int Corp ..	35	34¼	34¼
Am Linseed ..	19⅛	18⅞	18⅞
Am Locomo ..	39⅝	38½	37⅝
Am Lime pf ..	81	81	81
Am Metal	20⅜	19⅞	19⅞
Am Mete Co ..	68	66	66
Am Mfg Pfd ..	73⅜	72⅝	72⅝
Am P & Lt ..	68¼	66⅞	67
Am Radiator ..	115⅞	115½	115½
Am Saf Raz ..	70⅛	68⅝	68⅝
Am Sh & Com.	8⅝	8⅛	8⅛
Am Sm & Ref	139⅛	136⅞	137⅛
Am Smelt pr.	118¼	118	118¼
Am Stl Fdy ..	45⅛	45⅛	45⅜
Am Stor Ref ..	73½	72⅜	72⅝
Am Sugar pr.	103⅝	103⅛	103¼
Am S Tob opA	52⅝	51⅞	51⅞
Am Tel & Tel.	145⅝	143⅝	143½
Am Tob	129⅞	115⅞	115⅞
Am Tob B	119	117½	117½
Am Type Fdrs.	121½	121½	121¼
Am W W & E.	60½	59	59
Am W W 7s I p	105	105	105
Am Wool	25	24	24
Am Wtg Pa pr	⅞	⅞	⅞
Am W P pr cf	⅞	⅞	⅞
Am Z L & S pr	32	32	32
Anaconda Cop.	50¼	50	50
Arm&Co Ill A	14⅝	14⅝	14⅝
Arm&Co Ill B	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
Arnold Cons .	26⅝	26½	26½
Art Metal Con.	20⅞	20⅜	20⅞
Asso Dry Gds.	45⅞	44⅜	44⅝
Atchison	142⅛	139⅞	139⅝
Atl Coast L ...	223	219	219
Atl Gulf & WI	40	39¼	39¼
Atl G & W I p	42⅝	42⅝	42⅝
Atl Refining .	113	111¾	111¾
Atlas Powder .	58¾	58⅛	58⅛
Aust Nich & C	12¾	12	12
Bald Loco ...	125⅞	118	118
Balt & Ohio ..	102⅛	100½	100¾
Balt & O pr ..	74	72⅞	73⅞
Barns Crp A .	26	25½	25½
Barnsd Crp B	24⅛	24⅛	24⅛
Bayuk Cigar .	50	48	48
Beechnut Pck .	63⅛	61½	61½
Beld Hemin ..	31	31	31
Beth Stl	47⅞	47	47
Briggs Mfg Co.	28⅝	28⅛	28⅛
Brook Edison .	151⅝	151	151
Bkyn Manh Tr.	65⅛	64	64½
Bkyn Un Gas.	94⅞	92¼	92¼
Brown Shoe .	38⅛	36½	36½
Bruns Ter & R	19½	19⅛	19⅛
Buf R & Pits.	84⅝	84⅜	84⅜
Burns Br A ...	135⅞	134⅛	135⅛
Burns Br B ...	83⅞	83Z	83⅝
Burr Ad Mch ..	106¼	104	105⅛
Butte & S M..	11⅞	11¼	11⅜
Butterick Co .	62⅝	58⅛	60½
Byers & Co AM	35⅞	35⅜	35⅞
Cal Pack	73	72⅛	72⅜
Cal Petrol	32⅝	32	32⅝
Callahan Z Ld	2	1⅝	1⅞
Cal & Ar Mng	71⅝	71¼	71¾
Cal & H Con.	18	17½	17½
Cana Pacific .	164	163⅝	163⅝
Case Thresh ..	165⅞	158	160
Cent Leather .	8	8	8
Cent Lea pr .	52¼	52	52
Cent R Mills.	17	17	17
Cerro de Pasco	71⅞	70⅝	71⅛
Certainteed Pr	46½	46	46
Chand Cl pr.	30½	30¼	30¼
Chi & Alton .	5½	5⅛	5⅜
Chi & Alt pr ..	7⅞	7⅝	7⅝
Chic & East I B	31½	31⅜	31⅜
Chic Gt West.	9⅛	9⅛	9⅛
Chi Gt W pr..	24½	23½	23½
Chi M & St P.	13	12	12⅜
C M&St P ctfs	12⅜	11⅜	11⅜
C M&St P pr.	21¾	20¼	20⅝
C M&St P ctfs	20⅝	19⅝	19⅝
Chi & N W ..	75⅝	73½	73⅝
C R I & P	59¾	57⅞	57⅞
Childs Co	53	51⅝	52
Chile Cop	34½	34⅛	34¼
Christie B & Co	47½	45	47½
Chrysler Corp.	26⅜	25⅞	25⅞
Chrys Corp A	105½	103½	105⅜
Cluett Peaby .	63¼	63¼	63½
Cluett Peab pr	114	114	114
Coca Cola ...1	61¾	160	160
Col & Alk	48⅝	48	48½
Col & Alk pr.	107½	107½	107½
Colo Fuel & Ir	46½	44⅛	44⅛
Colg & So	67	67	67
Colum Gas El	82¼	82	82¼
Col Gas El pr.	114⅞	114⅞	114⅞
Col Carbon ...	62¼	62⅛	62⅛
Com Credit ..	29Z	29⅝	29⅝
Com Solv B .	163⅜	162	162
Cong Nairn ..	24⅝	23½	23½
Congress Cigar	42⅝	42⅛	42⅝
Cons Cigar ...	72½	69⅝	69⅝
Cons Distrib .	3	3	3
Cons Gas 1	111½	108¾	108¾
Cons Textile .	1⅝	1⅞	1⅞
Cont Can.. ..	83⅜	82½	82⅜
Cont Motors ..	12⅛	11⅝	11⅞
Corn Prod ...	46	44⅞	45½
Coty Inc	50	50	50
Ch Wil Pa pr .	92⅜	93½	93½
Crucible St ..	76½	76¼	76¼
Cuba Cn Sug pr	40⅜	39⅝	40⅛
Cuba Co rts ..	10⅜	10⅝	10⅜
Cuba Co The..	50	50½	50⅜
Cub Am Sug .	26⅝	26⅜	26⅜
Cudahy Pack..	36⅝	94½	91⅛
Cush Sons 8pr	106	106	106
Cuyamel Fruit .	46⅛	46	46⅛
Davison Ch...	35⅛	36⅛	36⅛
DeBeers Con.	36	35⅝	35⅞
Del & Hud....	166	165	165⅞
Del Lk & W ..	144	144	144
Det Edison ...	136	136	136
Devoe & Ray A	37	36½	36½
Dodge Br A ..	32¾	31	31⅞
Dodge Br pr..	88	87½	87⅝
Dome Mines .	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜
Doug Pectin .	31	31	31
DuP de Nem.	301	291	292
DuP de N db.	106½	106½	106½
Duq Lt 1 pr....	116⅝	116	116⅝
East Kod 1	14⅝	114⅛	114⅛
Eaton & Spr	29⅞	29	29
Edsen & Br ..	13	13	13
Elec Boat ..	8½	7⅝	7⅞
El P & Lt	19⅜	19¼	19¼
El P&L pr cf.	96⅝	96½	96½
El P L 4½pcpre	105	105	105
Elec Ref	62⅜	62¼	62¼
El Stor Bat ..	86⅛	85⅝	85⅝
Elk Horn Cl pr	25⅞	25⅝	25⅝
Elm Br pr cf.	12	12	12
Eng Pub Svc.	24	24	24
Erie R R	53½	51¾	51¾
Erie 1 pr	44⅛	43⅛	43⅛
Erie 2 pr	41	41	41
Eureka V C ..	53½	52⅝	53½
Fair M & Co .	52⅝	52	52⅝
Fam Play L ..1	17	115½	116⅞
Fed L&T	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛
Fed Mot new .	34⅝	31⅝	32½
First N P 1 pr	103½	103½	103½
Fisk Rubber .	18	18	18
Fleisch Co ...	51⅜	50⅛	50⅛
Foundation Co	95⅝	93	94
Fox Film A ...	72	72	72
Freep Texas .	30⅞	30	30
Gabriel Snub .	32¼	31⅝	31⅝
Gardner Mot .	33⅝	32¾	32¾
Gen Am Tank .	46	45¼	45⅜
Gen Am T pr ..	105½	105	105½
Gen Asph	71½	69⅝	70
Gen Cigar ..	45⅝	49⅜	49⅜
Gen El new ..	59½	57⅞	58
Gen El spl	11⅞	11⅛	11⅛
Gen Ge & E A	48⅝	46⅝	47⅞
Gen Motors. .2	12⅛	203	203
Gen Mot 7 pc r	210¼	210½	210½
Gen Out A ctf	33⅞	333	33
Gen Ry Sig ..	90	58	58
Gn Ry Sig r..1	04	104	104
Gen Refract .	45	45	45
Gimbel Bros..	58	55½	56½
Glidden Co ..	15½	15⅛	15⅛
Gold Dust ...	81⅜	80½	80⅝
Good E F Co .	50½	49½	49½
Gdyr T&R pr	105½	105	105½
Gdyr T&R prpr	108	108	108
Goth S Hos ..	50¼	50	50⅜
Gould Cou A .	16	16	16
Gran Con Min.	25⅝	24⅞	24⅝
Grt N Ir O ctf	19¾	19⅞	19⅞
Gt Nor Ry pr	74⅜	73⅝	73⅝
Greene Can Cop	21	20⅞	20½
Gulf M & N ..	35	34⅛	34⅛
Gulf M & N pr	105⅞	105⅜	105⅜
Gulf Sta Steel	73	72⅛	72⅜
Hartman Corp.	27½	27½	27½
Hayes Wheel .	34	34	34
Helme G W pr	116¼	116	116⅛
Hoe R & Co A	35½	34⅞	34⅞
Houston Oil .	58⅝	58⅜	58⅛
Howe Sd Co ..	37⅝	37⅜	37⅜
Hud & Manh..	38⅝	38½	38⅛
Hud Mot Car.	70⅝	67½	67⅞
Illinois Cent .	120⅞	120¾	120⅞
Inde Off & Gas	26⅜	25⅝	25⅝
Int Ref	10⅜	9⅜	9⅜
Inger Rand ..	91	91	91
Inland Steel .	42⅝	42⅛	42½
Insp Cop	25⅜	25⅛	25⅛
Int Co . rts ...	⅛	⅛	⅛
Int Rap Tr	46¼	43⅞	45½
Inter Rub	16⅛	16⅛	16¼
Int Ag pr pr..	80	80	80
Int Bus Mach.	48½	48⅛	48⅛
Int Cement ..	54⅝	53¾	53¾
Int Com Eng .	58⅜	56	57
Int Har pr ..	134⅝	130	132
Int Mat par pr	64⅝	64⅜	64⅜
Int Mer Mar p	31⅝	30½	31⅜
Int Nickel . .	37¼	36⅝	36⅝
Int Paper . ..	54½	52⅞	53⅛
Int Rys og C A	63	63	63
Int Shoe	67	67	67
Int T & T 1	18¼	117¼	117⅜
Int T&T rt ..	8⅛	7⅝	7⅝
Jewell Tea Pr	125	124½	125
Jewell Tea	38⅝	38⅜	38⅜
Jordan Mo Car	24⅛	23⅞	24
Kan C So Ry.	45½	44¾	45
Kay J & Co ..	39	38½	39
Kelly Sp T ...	13	13	13
Ken Cop	58⅞	57½	57½
Kresge S S Co.	53⅛	52⅝	52⅞
Lago Oil Tr .	22	21⅝	21⅝
Lambert Co ..	56	55⅞	56
Lee Rub Tire .	8½	8⅜	8½
Lehigh Val ..	58⅝	58¼	58⅛
Lehn Fink Pro	37	36⅛	36½
Life Sav ctfs.	21¼	21	21
Lig My Tob ..	85¼	85¼	85¾
Lig My pr 1	22½	122½	122½
Lima Loco	61½	61	61
Loew's Inc . .	41⅞	41	41
Loft Inc	7¾	7½	7⅝
Long Bel L A .	43	42⅞	43
Loose W Bis..1	60	153	153
Loos W B 2 pr	160½	155	155
Lorll Pier Co .	32¾	31⅝	32
Louis Oil Ref.	16⅛	16	16
Louis Nash. ..1	35	133¼	134⅛
Ludlum Steel .	36	35	35
Mack Truck .	132½	129¾	129½
Macy R H Co.	114	110½	111½
Macy R H Copr	117¾	117⅜	117⅜
Magma Cop .	40⅞	40⅝	40⅝
Manhat El Sp	84⅜	81	81⅜
Manh Ry md gtd	56⅛	54½	55⅜
Manila Elec Cp	35	35	35
Mara O Exp .	22½	22	22
Mkt St Ry ..	4½	4⅜	4⅜
Marland Oil ..	58⅜	57½	57⅛
Marlin Rock .	29⅜	29	29
Mathie Al W .	77	77	77
May Dpt St ..	124⅝	124	124⅜
Maytag Co ..	23⅛	23¼	23¼
Mex Seab Oil.	11	10¾	10⅞
Miami Cop	15⅛	14⅝	14⅝
Mid Cont Pet .	32	31	31
M Cont Pet pr	100	100	100
Mid Sts Oil ..	1¼	1¼	1⅜
Minn & St L ..	2¾	2	2¾
M St P & SSM	35¼	35	35⅛
Mo K & T	36½	36	36
M K & T pr..	92⅜	92¼	92½
Mo Pacific ..	35⅝	33	33
Mo Pac pr	90⅜	89	89
Mont Pow N ..	78½	78½	79½
Mont Ward ...1	73½	72⅛	73⅛
Moon Mot Car.	23⅞	22⅝	23⅝
Mother Lodr Cl	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
Mot Pic Cap . .	18	19	19
Mot Meter A .	41⅜	41¼	41⅜
Motor Wheel .	24½	24⅛	24⅜
Murray B C ..	11¼	8⅝	10⅝
Nash Motor .	55⅞	53	53
Nat Bisc	94⅜	94½	94½
Nat C R A ...	41⅝	41¼	41⅜
Nat C & S ...	24	24	24
Nat Dair Pr..	72	71¼	71⅝
Nat Dept St ..	26	26	26
Nat Dist Pr ..	22⅜	21	22
Nat Dist Pr pr	47⅝	47	47
Nat E & S ...	21⅞	21⅞	21⅞
Nat Lead . . .1	65½	158	158
Nat Lead pr .	116⅜	116⅛	116⅝
Nat P & L ...	22½	21½	21½
Nat Sup	68⅛	63	63
Nev C Cop n.	14⅝	14	14
N Y A B	43	41⅞	42
N Y Can	49½	45⅞	48½
N Y Can pr ..	84	83	84
N Y Cent ...	136⅞	134⅝	134⅝
N Y Dock ..	34⅞	32⅝	34
N Y Dock pr.	71½	71	71⅛
N Y & Har ..	200	200	200
N Y N H & H	45⅝	44½	44⅛
N Y Ont & W ..	25	24⅛	24⅜
N Y Rys C pref	10	10	10
Niag Fls Pw pr	20	20	20
Norf Southn. .	38⅛	38	38⅛
Nor & West .	159⅞	157½	158⅝
Nort & West pr	85⅝	85⅜	85⅝
North Am Co .	54⅛	53¾	53⅞
Nor Pacific ..	74⅞	73⅝	73⅝
Nor T & R ...	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
Oil Well Sup.	35	34⅝	34⅝
Omnibus Corp.	16⅛	15⅝	16
Onyx Hos .. .	40½	40½	40½
Oppenh Col ..	57⅞	57	57
Otis Elevator	123⅞	121½	123⅞
Otis Steel ...	9½	9½	9½
Otis Steel pr .	99⅝	99⅜	99¾
Outlet Co pr.	102	102	102
Owens Bottle .	73⅛	72½	72⅝
Pacific Oil	1½	1⅜	1⅜
Packard Mot .	43	42⅛	42⅛
Pan Am Pet.	67½	67	67
Pan Am Pet B.	67⅞	67	67
Panh Pr & R .	19½	19	19⅛
Panh pr	80	80	80
Pathe Ex A ..	58⅝	56½	56½
Penn C & C .	7¾	7⅝	7⅞
Penn R R	54½	53	54
Pen Sea Steel.	1⅞	1¼	1¼
Peop Gl Chic.	123⅞	123¾	123⅞
Pere Marq ...	98	97⅝	97⅝
Pere Marq pr.	90	89	89
Phila Co .. .	74½	72½	74½
Phila Co 6 p pr	50⅛	50⅜	50⅜
P & R C & I.	39	38½	38½
Philip Mor&Co	22⅝	21⅞	21⅞
Phila Petrol .	47⅜	41⅞	47⅜
Pierce Ar M C	31⅝	29⅝	30⅜
Pierce Oil ...	⅞	⅝	⅞
Pierce Oil pr.	31⅜	29⅝	30⅛
Pierce Petro .	3½	3	3⅛
Pierce Coal . ..	⅝	⅝	⅝
Por Ric Am T	67	67	67
Postum Cereal	105½	103	103⅞
Press Stl Car.	36	36	36
Press Stl Car p	83½	83	83½
Prod & Ref ...	11¾	11½	11½
Pub Ser N J .	90⅞	89⅝	89⅝
Pub Ser N J pcp	100⅛	100⅛	100⅛
Pub Ser E & G	102½	102⅛	102⅛
Pb Ser E Pw pf	113	113	113
Pullman Co..	178¼	176½	176⅝
Punta Al Sug.	35¼	33½	35½
Pure Oil	26½	26⅜	26⅝
Pure Oil pr ...	111	111	111
Radio Cp Am	48⅞	48⅛	48⅜
Radio Cp pr .	48	48	48
Ray Cons Cop .	15⅛	15	15
Reading Co ..	96⅜	94½	94⅞
Rdg rts exp-1'27	17½	17½	17½
Reid I Cream.	47	46⅞	47
Reid I Cr 7pcp	99	99	99
Reis & Co Robt	10⅝	8½	10⅝
Rem Type . .	119⅝	117½	117½
Replogle Steel	9⅞	9½	9⅞
Rep I & St ...	61¼	59⅝	59⅝
Rep Ir & St p	95	95	95
Rey-Tob B ..	97	97	97
Roy D NY sh	50½	50	50
Rutland R R pr	58½	56½	56½
Safety Cable Co	51	51	51
St Jos Lead .	44⅜	43¼	44⅜
St L S Fr Ry.	96⅞	95¾	95¾
St L S W	69	68¼	68¾
Schulte Ret St	51	50	50
Seab A Line ..	33⅜	32½	32½
Seab A L pr..	35½	35⅛	35½
Sea Corp	13½	12⅞	13⅛
Sears Roeb ..	57⅜	56⅜	57
Seneca Cop ..	6½	5⅞	6⅛
Shell Tr & Tr	41⅞	41⅝	41⅝
Shell Un Oil..	28	27⅝	27⅞
Shell Un O pr	105¼	105¼	105¼
Shub The Crp	69½	67½	68¾
Simmons Co. .	33½	33	33¼
Sinc Con Oil .	21½	21⅛	21⅜
Sinc C Oil pr.	99¼	99	99⅛
Skelly Oil .. .	33⅜	33	33
Sloss Sh S & I	142½	138½	140
So Por Rio S .	114	112⅜	112⅜
So Cal Ed .. .	57½	57	57⅛
So Dairies A .	53	52	53
So Dairies B .	32⅝	31⅝	31⅝
Southn Pac . .	106½	106	106
Southern Ry .	121¼	119	119⅜
Spicer Mfg ..	23⅞	23½	23½
Stand G&E ...	55½	55	55⅛
Stan G&E pr.	57	56⅝	57
Stand Mill	74⅜	74⅛	74⅛
Std Oil Cal ..	59⅛	59	59
Std Oil N J	43⅜	42⅝	42⅞
Std Oil NJ pr	116⅝	116⅜	116⅜
Std Pl Glass..	6¾	6	6
Ster Prod ...	86¼	85⅞	86⅞
Stew War Sp .	76⅝	74⅛	74⅜
Studeb Corp .	55⅞	54⅛	54⅝
Subm Boat . .	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
Sun Oil Co ..	31⅝	31⅝	31⅝
Superior Oil..	1½	1¾	1½
Sweets Co Am	13⅛	13	13
Syming Co ...	8¼	8⅛	8⅛
Tenn C & Ch	12¾	12	12
Texas Co	53⅞	52⅝	53⅛
Tex Gulf Sulp	169	163⅝	165
Tex & P Ry .	55	53½	53½
Tx & P C & O.	144⅝	141¾	143⅝
Third Av Ry .	36⅞	35⅝	36½
Thomp J R Co.	47	47	47
Tidew Oil pr.	91⅝	91⅝	91⅝
Timk R Bear.	60⅞	60⅜	60½
Tob Prod	107	105⅝	106
Trans Oil	4⅞	4⅝	4⅞
Un Bag & Pa.	59⅞	58	58
Un Car & Car	96	88¼	89¼
Un Oil of Cal.	82⅜	82½	82⅜
Union Pac .. .1	55⅞	154⅛	154⅛
Un Pac pr	86	86
Unl Cig Strs .	104	99⅝	101
United Drug .	161	159⅞	160
Unit Fruit ..	116	115⅛	115⅛
US C I P & F	240	238½	234½
US Dist	55⅞	53⅝	54⅝
US Ind Al . .	67½	64½	66
US R & I	61¾	60	61
US R	59	58½	58
US S & R ...	39	38¾	39
US S & R pr.	48½	48⅛	48⅛
U S Steel Corl	151⅞	149⅝	148⅞
U S Stl pr ...1	29⅜	128⅝	128¾
Uni P & R	25⅜	23	23⅝
Uni P & R pr.	77⅛	75	75
Util P & L A..	30	30	30
Van Corp	37½	36½	37
Van Raalte 1 pr	59⅞	58⅞	59⅞
Vick Chem ...	49⅝	49⅜	49⅝
Virg C C new	12¼	13	13
V C C 6 pr pr n	45¼	44⅛	45¼
Vivaud Inc ...	31⅝	30½	31½
Wabash Ry ...	45⅛	44¼	44¼
Wabash pr A .	75	74½	74⅝
Waldorf Sys .	21	20⅝	20⅝
Walworth Co..	16½	16½	16½
Ward Bak B .	36½	33½	35
Ward Bak pr .	91	91	91
Warner Br Pic	27⅞	26⅝	26⅞
Warren Br Co.	50	49	50
Web & Hell ..	59	59	59
West Maryl ..	18⅜	17⅞	18⅛
West Pac	35¾	35	35
West Un Tel ..	144⅛	144⅛	144⅛
West Air Bk .	134	130½	131
West El & Mfg	69⅜	68½	69
West El Ins..	18⅛	17½	18
West El Ins A	31½	31½	31½
Wh & L E	24⅝	24	24
Wh & L E pr .	44⅝	44	44
White Eag Oil.	26⅛	26⅛	26⅛
White Mot Co.	63	61	61
Willys Ov	28⅝	27⅝	27⅝
Willys Ov pr .	93½	93½	93½
Wilson Co nw	10½	19	19
Wils Co A n .	19½	19	19⅛
Wil Co pr	57	56	56
Woolw Co .. .1	67⅛	164⅛	164⅝
Wor P&M ...	28	28	28
Wor P&M p A.	66	66	66
Wright Aero..	36⅛	36⅛	36⅛
Wrigley Jr Co

PARTLY CLOUDY TODAY; FAIR TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1786 1926

NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Thursday, August 12, 1926

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

Pressure is also low over the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Harrington 29.86 with an ill-defined trough extending southwestward to Maryland and thence westward to Kansas.

The outlook is for showers and thunderstorms on Friday in the lower lake region. Elsewhere the weather will be fair Thursday and Friday in the states east of the Mississippi river. Temperature changes will be unimportant.

Winds.

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh southwest shifting to northwest and weather partly overcast Thursday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Moderate southwest over south portions and moderate northeast over north portion and weather partly overcast Thursday.

Forecast.

Eastern New York: Partly cloudy, not so warm in southern portion on Thursday. Friday thundershowers.

For northern and southern New England: Fair Thursday and Friday; no much change in temperature.

Observations.

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Wednesday:

	Temp.	Bar.
8 a. m.	69	30.30
2 p. m.	79	30.30
8 p. m.	76	30.39

Highest and lowest 69

Comparisons.

Predictions for Wednesday: Partly cloudy, showers.

Wednesday's weather: Cloudy.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises (Standard Time) a. m.	Sun Sets p. m.	High Water a. m.	High Water p. m.	Moon Sets a. m.
	4:56	6:56	10:26	7:52
	4:57	6:55	11:15	8:19
	4:58	6:53	11:54	8:45
	4:59	6:52	12:22	9:09
	5:01	6:50	1:14	9:34
	5:02	6:49	1:55	10:00
	4:56	6:49	2:42	10:28

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. A. J. RONDEAU

Recently a surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. A. J. Rondeau at her home in Versailles. During the evening many games were enjoyed. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Regina Sauvageaux, accompanied by her sister, Miss Alice Sauvageaux. Several quartette numbers were rendered by Eloi Frageau, Albert Martin, Wilfred Pepin and Letty Dugas. There was also a ukulele contest in which Miss Gladys Lawton won first prize. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. J. Rondeau and Mrs. C. House. These were hot dogs, cake, lemonade, ice cream and candy.

Those attending were: The Misses Leona Gadue, Agnes Gadue, Mary Gadue, Edna Lawton, Gladys Lawton, Daisy Bernal, Jennie Bernal of Occum, Alice Sauvageaux, Regina Sauvageaux, Florida Ducharme, of Taftville, Hilda Rondeau, Susie House of Versailles, Blanche Lucier of Baltic, Viola Frederte, Mary Martin, Evelyn Gadue, Mary Varrieur, of Williamantic, Dora Lamoine of Leominister, Mass., Mr Gauchier, Eloi Frageau, Albert Martin L. Dugas, Wilfred Pepin, Patrick Sullivan, Ernest Phaneuff of Taftville, Leon Ducharme, Theodore Bisson, Alec Warmsley, Fred Dugas, Victor Dugas, Dell Rondeau, of Occum, Joe Gillis, Charles Fergerson, Lawton City, Paul Smith, Alfred Renaud of Norwich, Alfred Frederte of Williamantic.

CHIEF WOLFE HOLDS RECORD PINOCHLE HAND

Police Chief Martin Wolfe of Goodyear created a sensation at the rest room at the Norwich police headquarters during lunch hour early Wednesday morning when in a pinochle game with police officers he held all aces, thousand aces." Chief Wolfe stopped off in Norwich late Tuesday night en route to the police convention in New Haven and paid a visit to the local police headquarters. During each one he challenged three of the officers to the rest room to a pinochle game.

The next hand was dealt out and as Chief Wolfe picked up his cards a surprised expression swept his face for he was holding eight perfectly good aces. "This is the first time I ever held a hand like that," said the police official from up north. "I have heard of such hands, but never saw one. You boys will remember Martin Wolfe's visit August 11, 1926," he added laying down the aces and cinching up a game to his credit.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

The Royal Mail liner Orbita, on which Miss Elizabeth Trumbull was a passenger bound for Paris, reached Cherbourg Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund A. Prentice, who are spending a vacation in Mystic, have been entertained by Stonington friends.

Master George C. Buttis, of Sachem Terrace, is visiting a classmate at Fay Street, John Prescott son of Mr. and Mrs. Frances Prescott, of Grafton, Mass.

W. Tingley Cook has returned to Schenectady, concluding a vacation spent at the home of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Cook, who motored with him on a trip to Marblehead to visit relatives.

Miss Rosalynd Cranska, of Laurel Hill avenue has returned home, after several months' stay in New York and Pennsylvania.

Henry Bill Selden, son of Mrs. Joseph H. Selden, of Broadway, who, during the summer vacation of Connecticut college is instructor in painting for the Boston School of Fine Arts, has left Florence for Venice. Mr. and Mrs. Selden will return from Europe the last of September.

ITCHING

Can be relieved within an hour.

That tormenting burning rash which tortures you almost beyond endurance would be soothed by a touch of

Resinol

LOCAL POLICE RAID ALLEGED LIQUOR JOINT ON WEST SIDE

Armed with a search warrant Officers John O'Neil and William Sharvan raided the basement at No. 6 Cove street about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and after finding a quantity of bottled beer and alleged moonshine, arrested Benny Poselovsky, 45, as the proprietor of the place. The officers watched Poselovsky unlock the door and enter the basement. Shortly afterwards they saw him come out and lock the door after him.

Just as he completed locking the door the officers stepped up and demanded that he admit them to the basement. Poselovsky let them into the place and the search revealed a case of beer, a pint bottle containing a small quantity of alleged moonshine, two two-gallon glass jugs smelling strongly of liquor, a bottle of coloring matter, such as is used in the making of whiskey, a glass tumbler and two or three whiskey glasses.

The beer, liquor, jugs and glasses were seized by the police as evidence and Poselovsky was arrested on a charge of violation of the liquor law. He was booked and locked up, his bonds being set at $1,000. Poselovsky disclaimed ownership of the beer and liquor.

NORWICH TELEPHONE PEOPLE AT DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Two conferences of telephone men and women were held at Ocean Beach Tuesday. One was the district commercial conference, which was held at the Bungalow, where an address was given by Arthur Goodyear, commercial representative at New Haven, on the subject of New Developments of Interest to Commercial Employes. A dinner was served preceding the business and speaking and after it those present enjoyed bathing and the other attractions at the beach in company with members of the district traffic conference board, which had been in session simultaneously at Wunderli's pavilion where a business session took place under direction of Traffic Superintendent A. L. Osborn following a dinner.

Those present at the commercial conference besides Mr. Goodyear were Exchange Manager E. C. Ford, and District Commercial Superintendent R. H. Gray of New London, R. C. Booth, Putnam exchange manager; Jack Frazer, manager, Willimantic; Henry Lyon, Norwich manager; Miss Ethel Johnson, Mystic; Miss Mabel Reid, Saybrook; Miss Mertis Warren, Danielson; Frank McGorty, Henry S. O'Brien and Fred Kingsbury of New London; William R. Balcom, Norwich; Norman Frazer, Norwich; Alfred Shugrue, Willimantic; Miss Effie Danielson, Putnam.

At the traffic conference besides Mr. Osborn were the Misses Rose Levitt, Willimantic; Marion Johnson, Willimantic; Margaret Coyle, New London; Edith Spencer, Mystic; Josephine Murphy, Norwich; Grace Hoar, Norwich; Helen Jones, Willimantic; Miss Alice Monahan, Putnam; Dorothy Fish, Jewett City; Miss Murray of New London, Miss Mather of Deep River, Miss Mary Smith and Miss Morrill of Saybrook.

STATE POLICE TEAR DOWN ILLEGAL SIGNS

Hundreds of illegal signs have been torn from their places by Connecticut state policemen, scouring state highways in an intensive campaign against unlicensed and otherwise illegal outdoor advertising, under the "billboard act" of 1925.

In addition, careful watch of the highways is being maintained by the troopers, who are permitted to arrest anyone caught erecting signs in violation of the state law. Those arrested will be vigorously prosecuted, the department of state police has promised.

Officers have also been detailed to serve written notices on advertisers and landowners acquainting them with the law and offering them three options. According to these options, parties interested may take out an advertising license, they may take down the offending signs or they may have the legality of the sign passed on by local courts.

Candy and tobacco signs, placed about the state without regard to property rights the state police say, are the worst offenders and small commercial signs placed within the limits of the public highways also constitute a menace. These, of late, have been ripped off at random.

WEEKLY LIST OF DRIVERS WITH SUSPENDED LICENSES

The weekly list of operators whose licenses to drive automobiles in Connecticut have been suspended for one year for driving while under the influence of liquor was given out Wednesday by the state motor vehicle department as a part of the effort to reduce the highway menace. There are 21 names on the list. Two were Connecticut operators convicted in other states. Two cases were appealed. The department advised people to turn the department or the police in case they should see any of the suspended drivers operating motor vehicles.

Andrew Bobrovski, New Britain; E. J. Burgey, Hartford; Daniel R. Carlin, White Plains, N. Y.; Roy C. Church, Hartford; John M. Combes, Darien; Fred Couth, Cromwell; William Guerin, Stamford; George W. Harwood, Meriden; Edward Henderson, New Britain; John F. Hoey, West Haven; Walter T. Mahoney, South Manchester; Steve Mazolin, Fairfield; Frank McKenna, Stratton; John G. O'Connor, Hartford; Peter Pogorely, Hartford; Frank Sanford, Terryville; Charles Silva, South Norwalk; Frank Stewart, Pittsburgh, Pa.; John Terry, Hartford; Raymond Tracy, Hartford; Arthur E. Westcott, Lewisboro, N. Y.

SIX GO TO JAIL TO WORK OUT FINES

In the city court Wednesday morning Judge Arthur F. Libby gave 9 men fines of $5 and costs on intoxication charges. Another man obtained a discharge. Six of the ten went to jail to serve time while another is endeavoring to get the money to purchase his release. Those in jail have a 16 day stretch to do.

The case occupying most of the court's time was that of resisting an officer. Gerald Ryan 27, pleaded not guilty to being intoxicated and testimony introduced bore out his plea. The three others arrested with him on Franklin street Tuesday night, Edward Monahan, Duffey LaRochelle and Charles Driscoll, pleaded not guilty but the court found them guilty.

Mrs. Mary Edmond Archambault of 73 Thames street obtained a nolle in her case. She was charged with resisting an officer and the case was heard in chambers.

TO DEDICATE CAMP SCHULZE AT NIANTIC

Camp Schulze, Niantic, for disabled veterans, will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p. m., standard time.

Similar to the encampment of 1925, the veterans will pitch their own tents. Senator Frederick A. Beckwith of Niantic will place tent floors.

The camp, which will be near the Niantic river, is named in honor of Brigadier General Edward Schulze of the Connecticut national guard.

Following will be the camp routine: First call, 7:50 a. m.; reveille, 7:45; breakfast, 8; roll call, 9:30; dinner, 12:30 p. m.; sick call, 2:45 and 5; roll call, 5:45; retreat, 6; supper, 6:15; taps, 10; quarters, 10:45; tans, 11.

GRANGERS LEAVE FRIDAY FOR MAINE CONFERENCE

Mrs. Roswell J. P. Brown of 99 Osceo street, lecturer for Norwich grange, No. 172, Patrons of Husbandry, is to leave Norwich in company with other grangers, Friday afternoon, for a ten days' automobile trip to Maine.

Lecturer Brown is sent from Norwich grange, to the New England lecturers' conference, which will be in session Monday and Tuesday, August 16th and 17th, at Orono, Me. With the other members from Norwich, she will go to Kingston, R. I., remaining over that night at Rhode Island State college. There they are to meet the Connecticut lecturers, and Saturday morning all will proceed to Roger Williams park, Providence, where they will join the Rhode Island lecturers and continue to Cambridge, Mass., for dinner. While there, arrangements have been made to have the company of lecturers shown around Harvard university by guides.

Durham, N. H., will be the next objective, stopping there over Saturday night, leaving Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock for Portland, Me., at which place all will attend religious services at the First Baptist church. The morning sermon is to be broadcast by radio. Plans are being considered for the tourists to listen to an organ recital by the largest organ in the United States. From Portland the next stop will be at Brunswick, remaining there over night, paying a visit to Bowdoin college, before leaving Monday morning for Orono, where a stop of three days will be made while attending the conference. When reaching the state border in Maine, the tourists will be escorted by state police.

During the conference, each morning and afternoon, the several states will put on a special programme, including prominent speakers, among them Louis G. Tabor, national grange master, of Columbus, Ohio. After the conference a tour will be made of Aristock county. One night will be spent in Holton and one night in Presque Isle, returning thence to Orono. In returning, the journey will be through Farmington, Gorham, Jackson, Bartlett, Crawford Notch, Twin Mountain, also Concord, Manchester, Nashua, N. H., stopping en route, through Massachusetts and Connecticut cities, home.

If the party desires while at Orono, opportunity will be given to visit Mt. Desert Island, the national park of Maine.

Those from Norwich who will accompany Lecturer Brown are Mrs. Ida Richardson, worshipful master of Norwich grange, in whose car the company will travel, Miss Belle M. Rathbone and Miss Edith Butler of Preston City.

It is expected that the Norwich party will return about August 23rd.

RECREATION COMMISSION MEETS AT COURT HOUSE

A meeting of the recreation commission was held on Wednesday evening in the court house with Chairman William J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. D. Louise Atterbury, Mrs. Alex Pasnik, John M. Lee, Jonathan L. Johnson and Ernest E. Brigham, superintendent, present.

Reports of the committees indicated that the work is being handled very well at the various grounds and much favorable comment was passed on the initiative of the several instructors who have arranged for the carnivals, bazaars, lawn parties and picnics at Ocean Beach which have been so much enjoyed by the children at the grounds during the past few weeks.

Mr. Brigham reported on plans for the remaining weeks of the season which include the final swimming and track meets, dramatic exhibition and final demonstration at Greeneville on Wednesday, Sept. 1st.

Much interest is being created in the bicycle parade to be held on Wednesday, Aug. 18th. Girls as well as boys are expected to compete for the handsome prizes which include a bicycle donated by Jack's Sport Shop and a scooter by the Alling Rubber Co.

The cups, including the Mayor Waters swimming trophy and other prizes will be on display in the Main street store of the Pasnik Co. during the next two weeks.

NEW YORK AND NORWICH MACHINES COLLIDE

Cars driven by Jacob Pearson of 179 Manhattan, New York and by Ira A. Anderson of 221 Broadway, this city, were in collision Wednesday morning in front of the former Manning store at Yantic.

Constable Lucius Fenton was called to investigate the accident and found that Pearson had pulled out from in front of the store to make the turn to proceed toward Fitchville. In starting he failed to give a signal and the Anderson car, which was passing at the moment, was sideswiped, the running board and fenders of the right side being badly damaged. The Pearson car had an axle sprung. The two agreed on a settlement of the damages and no arrests were made.

Going to Bridgeport

Miss Ethel Odgers has resigned her position as a teacher at the Bishop school to accept a position at Bridgeport.

Furnished Ice Cream For Patients.

The patients at Uncas-On-Thames are very thankful to H. F. Dawley, who on one of the recent hot days furnished sufficient ice cream for the whole institution.

COMPRESSOR BLEW UP ON BOSWELL AVE.

William Delaney, an employe of the street department, and working on the steam compressor in use on Boswell avenue, received lacerations about 10.45 o'clock when the compressor blew up. At the time of the accident the steam compressor was in use at the ledge near the Boswell avenue school. Other people in the immediate vicinity were also somewhat bruised. His wounds were given immediate treatment and it is not believed that any serious effects will come out of the accident.

Some property damage was also caused by the force of the explosion, the house owned by Miss Jane Welch and also occupied by Mrs. Leonard F. Murray, located at No. 132 Boswell avenue, lost ten panes of glass, while a section of the gable and roof was also damaged by flying debris. Mrs. Murray stated that the explosion made a terrific noise and that she and others in the house were shaken up. Members of the city department immediately began to repair damage at the Welch home.

Street Commissioner John C. Donovan stated that the head of the compressor blew off, causing the explosion. The accident was investigated by Engineer John A. Holland, representing the Travelers Insurance company and he stated that an excessive amount of oil dropped from the compressor into the air tank and with the air becoming overheated, expansion began and the strain caused the explosion.

CHIEF LINTON NAMED ON EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Chief George Linton of the Norwich police department was elected to the executive committee of the State Police association at the meeting held Wednesday in New Haven. The convention was attended by several members of the local force, who also remained into the afternoon and evening to attend the field day of the New Haven police at Lighthouse Point.

Sent Body to Bridgeport

The body of Grace Dibisso, who died in Preston Tuesday at the age of 26 years, was taken in charge by Cummings & Riffing and on Wednesday morning was sent to Bridgeport where burial is to take place. The home of the deceased was in Bridgeport.

WOMAN HELD FOR HAVING TWO HUSBANDS

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 11—Florence Walsh, alias Florence Halliday Morle, 26, is very much married for she has two husbands, both of New London and both of the same address, 36 Franklin street. As a result of her double marriage, the young woman was arrested at Washington, D. C., this afternoon on a charge of bigamy, at the request of the New London police. She will be brought back to this city the latter part of the week for trial as she has waived extradition and this evening Detective Sergeant John Cavanaugh left on the Federal express for Washington to take charge of the prisoner.

The woman maried Harry Morle, ex-service man who has been under treatment at an army hospital, but who is now residing here in New York in 1923. Last month the woman married John Francis Walsh, radio man, first class, United States Coast Guard and stationed at local section base, No. 4, state pier.

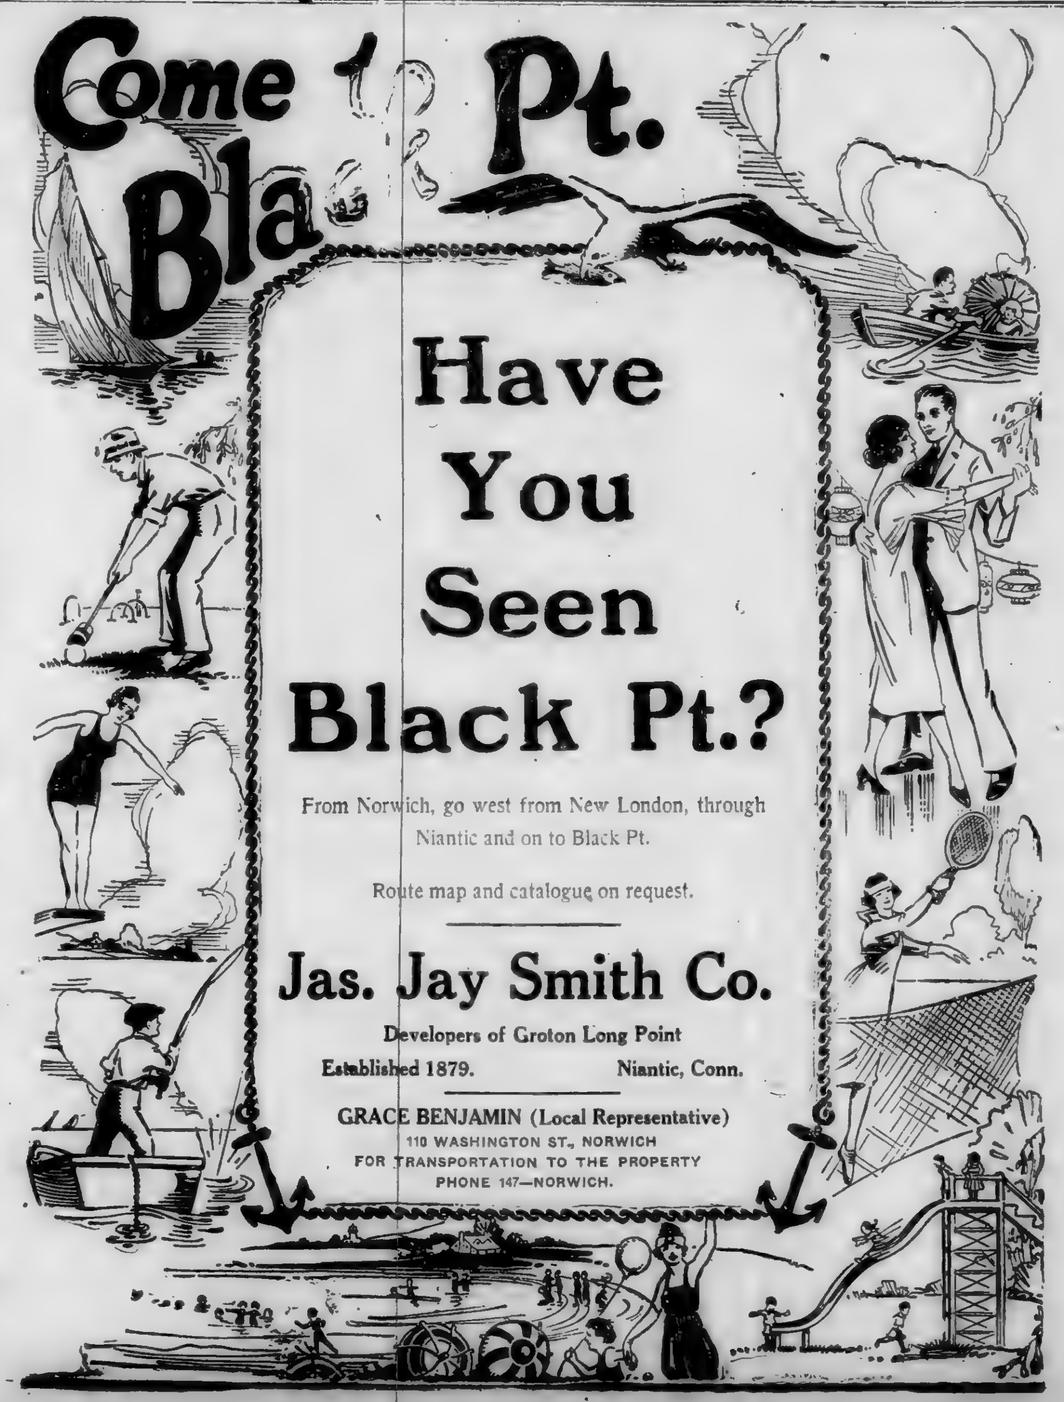
A week ago Morle and Walsh were discussing their matrimonial alliances and during the conversation it came out that each had married a girl residing at the time at 32 Cohoes road, Watervliet, N. Y. Because of the peculiar coincidence of being married to a girl whose residence was the same, Morle and Walsh soundd their possessions and each produced a picture of his wife and it was then that the fact came out that both were married to the same girl. Each visited the office of Acting Prosecuting Attorney Perry J. Hollandersky, who, hearing the statements of Morle and Walsh, issued a warrant for the girl's arrest. The warrant was forwarded to the police of Watervliet, but the girl had left there before the arrival of the warrant. She was traced to Washington, and the police there being requested to arrest the girl, she was located this afternoon and taken into custody.

That Delicious "SALADA" TEA

Improves a Meal at Any Time

U25

Come to Black Pt.



Have You Seen Black Pt.?

From Norwich, go west from New London, through Niantic and on to Black Pt.

Route map and catalogue on request.

Jas. Jay Smith Co.

Developers of Groton Long Point

Established 1879. Niantic, Conn.

GRACE BENJAMIN (Local Representative)

110 WASHINGTON ST., NORWICH

FOR TRANSPORTATION TO THE PROPERTY PHONE 147—NORWICH.

POETRY

The Poet

Gather all kindreds of this boundless realm
To speak a common tongue in three
Be thou—
Heart, pulse and voice, whether pent hate o'erwhelm
The stormy speech or young love whisper low.
Cheer them, inmitigable battle-drum!
Forth, truth-mailed, to the old unconquered field,
And lure them gently to a laurelled home
In notes more soft than lutes or viola yield.
Fill all the stops of life with tuneful breath;
Closing their lids, bestow a dirgelike death!

—Cornelius Mathew.

A Guess

I'd kind o' like to have a cot
Fixed on some sunny slope; a spot
Five acres more or less,
With maples, cedars, chestnut trees
And poplars whitening in the breeze.

'Twould suit my taste, I guess,
To have the porch with vines o'erhung
With pendant bells of woodbine swung
In every bell a bee
And round my latticed window sprout
A clump of roses white and red

To solace mine and me.
I kind o' think I should desire
To hear about the dawn a choir
Of wood-birds singing sweet
And in a dell I'd have a brook
Where I might sit and read my book.

Such would be my retreat!

—Frederick S. Greene.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

First Guest (at country mansion): "Charming place this is — scenic, the old wing—"

Second Guest: "Oh yes, had a good lunch. —Passing Show.

Mannishly-dressed lady: "Does you catch any fish, little boy?"

Country Boy: "No'm."

M. D. L.: "No, what?"

Boy (gazing dubiously at her): "Durned if I know. —Boston Transcript.

First Negro Gent: "Don't talk big boy, you is so thin yo' ma could feed you on grapejuice and use you for a tho'mometer."—Pathfinder.

"Women," declared the quiet little man in the corner seat, "endure pain more heroicaly than men. I know it from experience."

"Are you a doctor, may I ask?" queried a fellow passenger.

"No, sir—I am a shoemaker," replied the little man.—London Weekly Telegraph.

"John-ee-ee!" called his mother. "Come in the house this instant!"

"Aw, shucks!" whined Johnny to his buddy, "the company's gone already."—Capper's Weekly.

"How strikingly this reminds me of the words of the poet," remarked the boarder, after complying with a third request to pass the butter.

"What words?"

"'Life's butter passing dream.'"—The Progressive Grocer.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Light waves exert a pressure.

Camphor is used in making celluloid.

Almost 150 uses have been found for peanuts.

Iron locks and keys were known in barbarian Europe a century before Christ.

Tribes of pigmies almost unknown to civilized man inhabit the interior of Dutch New Guiana.

In the prehistoric bronze age it was the style for women to wear half a dozen or more bracelets at once.

Aluminum is the most abundant of all metallic elements in the earth's crust and forms about 15 per cent of the solid substance of the world.

At a joint conference of Peking carpenters, masons, tilemakers and painters, it was decided to ask an increase of ten coppers—about 2 cents United States—in their daily wages.

When an insurance agent at Hackney, England, called for the weekly premium of Edward Osborne recently, the latter opened the door and fell dead on the collector. The Hackney coroner, with a jury investigated and reported a verdict of "death due to natural causes."

Queen Marie of Roumania has become an expert typist since the use of American machine, the gift of an American admirer. At first she used only the "two-finger" system, but now, after some months of practice, she employes eight fingers. For 20 years she was a devotee to the fountain pen, using all her literary work autographed in hand.

At Philadelphia, Fred Kelley, 30, was badly burned when a bottle of wine in his hip pocket as he sat down on a step. His trousers caught fire and the blaze was extinguished by a passerby who threw a pail of water on Kelley. It was a bottle of wine Kelley is a paper renovator and it must be some wine the out of his pocket upon finishing work.

Australia is about to follow the example of the United States and Canada in the farming of fur-bearing animals. The skins of many Australian animals notably opossums, native bears, kangaroos, wallabies and other marsupials, are in keen demand in the fur markets of the world. The first fur farm is in the island state of Tasmania, where arrangements have been made for the farming of opossums and native bears.

Rain set fire to a lumber yard at Folkstone, England, recently. A train containing lime and lumber stood in the center of the yard. In the course of a heavy rainstorm the rain beat its way through a tarpaulin covering the lime. The water combining with the lime generated heat which set the timber on the trucks on fire. This in turn set part of the lumber yard on fire. The blaze was extinguished, however, before much damage had been done.

Benefits of Massage Without Massage

You all know the splendid benefits of expert facial massage. But do you also know that if improperly done, or too frequently, it tends to loosen the skin, weaken the muscular foundation, producing sags and wrinkles?

If more women only knew it, all the good of massage, and more, with no harmful effect, may be had by applying a simple mixture of Powdered Tarkroot and lemon juice, a spoonful of each. This, instead of making the face flabby, does the very opposite. Its action is perfectly astounding. In your mirror you see wrinkles, age lines and sagginess literally "ironed out"—in less than fifteen minutes! A beautifully rounded contour results and a youthful pink glow mounts the cheeks. You can obtain an original package of Powdered Tarkroot from any druggist, enough to bring the cost of each treatment down to three cents or less! It's the greatest thing yet discovered to make old-looking faces young looking.

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 193. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1926. TWELVE PAGES—92 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

GENERAL MOTORS HAS CUT 50 PER CENT STOCK MELON

Directors Also Authorized the Payment of the Regular Quarterly Cash Disbursement of $1.75 on the Increased Common Stock—Action Makes Total Number of Shares Outstanding Nearly 9,000,000—The Annual Dividend Requirements, if the Present $7 Rate is Maintained, Will be Nearly $63,000,000—Last March the Stock Sold as Low as $113.25 a Share.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13—(AP)—Directors of the General Motors corporation today cut their long awaited "melon" in declaring a stock dividend of 50 per cent on the common stock, and authorizing the payment of the regular quarterly cash disbursement of $1.75 on the increased common stock, including that distributed as a stock dividend. All dividends on the common are payable Sept. 11 to stock of record Aug. 21. The regular quarterly dividends also were declared on the three senior securities—5 and 7 per cent preferred stocks and 6 per cent debenture stock.

The corporation has outstanding 5,-000,000 shares of common stock, including 623,400 issued for the Fisher Body properties, of the 10,000,000 shares authorized, so that the distribution of the stock dividends will bring the total amount outstanding to nearly 9,000,000 shares. The annual dividend requirements on the common, if the present $7 rate is maintained, will be nearly $63,000,000. In the first six months of this year the corporation's earnings applicable to common dividends were $93,235,674, or roughly 1 1-2 times the regular dividend requirements on the augmented stock issue.

"The outlook at the present time is satisfactory," was the only comment made after today's meeting by President Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., of the corporation.

The unusual prosperity of the General Motors corporation, whose earning sin the first six months exceeded those of the United States Steel corporation, widely regarded as the premier industrial concern of the country, has been reflected in the marked appreciation of the quoted value of its common stock on the New York stock exchange. In the drastic general reaction last March, the stock sold down as low as $113.25 a share.

Wall street at that time was flooded with reports that the automobile industry had reached the "saturation point," that sales were falling off and that extensive price cutting was inevitable. A backward spring, which temporarily retared the sale of cars, seemed to lend color to this theory for a time but General Motors executives, convinced that fundamental business conditions were sound, went ahead with the expansion program, with the result that car sales broke all records. In the first quarter, net income of $38,-733,843 was double that shown in the first quarter of 1925, being equivalent to $7.80 a share on the common.

General Motors stock started to climb. The advance from 140 to 190 was without any break of consequence. Then appeared the famous "Cochran interview" in which the J. P. Morgan partner was quoted as predicting a further advance of 100 points in the stock. This started wild public speculation in the issue which carried it up to a record high for all time at 225 3-4 early this week. Three days of hard selling and heavy profit taking in anticipation of the "good news" carried the stock down to 193 today, but it snapped back to 203 1-2 at the close.

REPORTS OF RELIGIOUS CONDITIONS IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The possible arrest and trial of the Most Rev. Mora y Del Rio, venerable archbishop of Mexico and the most picturesque figure of the Catholic church in this country, was the chief topic discussed by Catholics today.

This talk was occasioned by a statement from the ministry of interior that the alleged interview given by the archbishop to an American newspaper would be investigated by the attorney general that it may have violated the constitution. The special clause is the one which prohibits clergymen from criticising the fundamental laws of Mexico or the Mexican government.

Something of a concession on the part of the government is seen in the arrival of the mayor of Mexico City in connection with the committees having charge of the Catholic churches from which the priests withdrew on July 31, simultaneously with the going into effect of the religious regulations. The mayor has decided that these committees may be composed of three citizens appointed by the municipal board and five Catholics. Up to now the committees have been made up of municipal appointees.

The religious situation continues deadlocked, and the archbishopric says that if the boycott of the League for the Defense of Religious Liberty fails to induce the government to yield or it does not yield otherwise, the situation will continue deadlocked indefinitely, because the archbishopric is under papal instructions not to accept under any circumstances the new religious regulations.

The commission of experts appointed by the department of finance recently has begun its investigation of the economic situation in an effort to find a solution for the exchange disorders, brought about by the depreciation of silver currency, and the general business depression.

TO PUT SOMETHING STRONGER IN INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Something stronger than gasoline—just what has not been determined—is to be put in industrial alcohol in an effort to outwit the resourceful bootlegger.

Prohibition officials reached this decision today, and passed onto government chemists the problem of finding an effective denaturing process. Whatever is used, it was predicted, probably will smell bad and make the alcohol taste bad, but will be "harmless."

After a conference with Frank Dow, legal chief of the prohibition forces, and James M. Doran, chief chemist of the prohibition unit, Acting Secretary Winston of the treasury admitted that gasoline and other ingredients put in industrial alcohol to render it unfit for beverage use, had not proven sufficient deterrents to crafty bootleggers, and that a new denaturing substance must be found.

The problem of working out a new and effective formula is one of the mass, connected with prohibition enforcement, which will confront Assistant Secretary Andrews, chief of the prohibition forces, on his return to Washington tomorrow from his mission to London.

A. F. OF L. TO ORGANIZE PASSAIC TEXTILE UNION

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor through its United Textile Workers of America, agreed today to organize a union of the Passaic textile strikers. But with the condition that Albert Weisbord, leader of the strike and his 20 odd associates must sever all connection from the strike.

Announcement that an agreement had been reached was made by President Thomas F. McMahon of Providence, R. I., chairman of the emergency committee of the United Textile Workers, at a meeting attended by the strikers' citizens' committee.

W. Jett Lauch, chairman of the citizens' committee, and other members of the committee, agreed to accept conditions of the United Textile Workers, and plans will be immediately carried forward to form the union.

LATEST RETURNS FROM ALABAMA PRIMARIES

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Bibb Graves, candidate for governor, who told the voters that if he were elected "Alabama would not be the tail for the Tammany Tiger" was leading his nearest opponent, Charles S. McDowell, Jr., by 4,377 votes tonight. A count of second choice votes will be necessary but McDowell's friends concede that Graves' second choice votes will exceed McDowell's.

First and second choice votes are combined for each of the two higher candidates in any race when the high man fails to receive a clear majority of all votes cast.

Graves' campaign was featured by an attack upon the larger newspapers of the state which he said were seeking to dominate not only state politics but favor Al Smith in his presidential aspirations. He was believed to have received the vote of the Ku Klux Klan.

With about 290 precincts missing out of 1,800 the returns gave:

Graves 54,632; McDowell 51,258; A. H. Carmichael 50,002; A. G. Patterson 37,553.

Hugo L. Black held a lead of about 20,000 over his nearest opponent, John H. Bankhead, and was believed to have won the nomination for the senate to succeed Senator Oscar W. Underwood, whose term expires March 1, 1927.

TEMPERATURE 67 DEGREES AT SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(AP)—His engagement list clear of visitors, President Coolidge spent today at the executive offices attending to government business and in the solitude of White Pine camp while the mercury stood at maximum of 67 degrees as reports were received of temperatures around the century mark in Washington.

An overcast sky with occasional light falls of rain, whipped by a chilly breeze, caused little discomfort to the president and he spent several hours at his desk disposing of matters which were described as routine in character.

A report of business conditions in the country is to be made to Mr. Coolidge tomorrow by Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce, who will also take up a number of departmental matters with the chief executive. En route to California, Mr. Hoover plans to remain here but a few hours.

ORDERERED TO EXAMINE COWS ON GUILFORD FARMS

HARTFORD, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Dr. George T. Crowley has been ordered by the state commissioner of domestic animals to examine cows on the Meadowcroft, Mulberry and Cohen farms at Guilford tomorrow in order to determine the cow or cows responsible for Guilford's septic sore throat epidemic, Dr. George E. Corwin, deputy commissioner, announced tonight.

At the same time, Dr. Millard Knowlton, of the state health department will continue his examination of employes of three farms, which have been prohibited from selling milk to distributors until they have been given a "clean bill of health."

A laboratory test of the milk of all cows in the three herds may be necessary in determining the cows infected, Dr. Corwin indicated this requiring a period of 24 hours or more. Infected cows will be placed in isolation.

TEACHER KILLED WHILE ON A VACATION TRIP

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Killed in a head-on collision with a train near Pottsford, N. Y., today, Miss Evangeline Istas was with her parents and brother on a vacation trip to Niagara Falls, N. Y. The family left this city on Sunday and had planned to be gone two weeks.

Miss Istas was a teacher in a Hamden public school and Paul J. Istas, her father, is a foreman at the Winchester Repeating Arms company's plant.

Henry Troy Istas, a cousin, graduated from Yale college last June with high honors, despite the fact that he was totally blind.

CABLED PARAGAPHS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 12.—(AP)—A message from Tiflis says that Miss Evelyn Eastman, Near East Relief worker who was recently reported missing in Russian Armenia, has been found safe by a searching party under Peter Floyd, of Cuthberth, Ga. Miss Eastman is the daughter of Harry A. Eastman of Chicago.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The diplomatic representatives of Jugoslavia, Rumania and Greece handed a collective note to the Bulgarian foreign minister regarding the activities of the Bulgarian comitadji, or irregulars. The substance of the note was withheld but it is known that it is not in the nature of an ultimatum.

MIDDLESBROUGH, Eng., Aug. 12—(AP)—J. Havelock Wilson, president of the Seamen's union, told a meeting of the men here today that nearly every trade union in Great Britain is bankrupt as a result of the recent general strike. Hundreds of thousands of men, he added, had declared they would pay no more money to their unions.

BANDIT WHITTEMORE HANGED IN BALTIMORE

Maryland Penitentiary, Baltimore, Aug. 13—(AP)—Richard Reese Whittemore, head of a now shattered million dollar crime trust, was hanged this morning for the murder 18 months ago of Robert M. Holtman, a Maryland penitentiary guard.

"I wish to say goodbye. The best that I could wish anybody," Whittemore said, simply, just before his body shot through the trap.

The 26-year-old slayer entered the death chamber at 12.06 a. m., just two minutes before the trap door opened under him.

He was smiling faintly as he came through the small door leading from the death cell tier to the gallows platform, 18 feet above the witnesses. Chaplain Charles Shannon Biggs talked with the condemned man in the corridor before he entered the death chamber.

"Will you have something to say?" asked the chaplain.

"Only good-bye—that's the best I could wish anybody," Whittemore answered.

"I will say it or you can say it," he told the chaplain.

"I would rather you would say it," Chaplain Biggs answered.

"All right," Whittemore answered briefly, and stepped through the door.

As his arms were pinioned behind him he turned white, but came into the death chamber steadily, and stepped unaided to the trap. His legs were strapped and he made his brief statement in a slightly strained but clear voice.

The hood was drawn over his head just a moment before the trap was opened.

Although at outs with the law from the age of short trousers, Richard Reese Whittemore's criminal career left him cast in a petty role until, at the age of 25 and with a noose dangling above his head, he crowded into the space of a few months most of the highlights of a fiction bandit's life.

He was a comparatively little known gunman, with a prison reputation for being "hard", when, serving a term for burglary, he walked out of Maryland penitentiary on February 20, 1923, with the keys of a mortally wounded guard. Thirteen months later, when a New York police night patrol picked him up as a suspicious character after a chase and guns' points from the door of a night club, he was the active head of one of the east's most successful criminal organizations of recent years.

Whittemore went to the gallows for slaying the guard—Robert H. Holtman—the first important act for his brief, spectacular career. Holtman, his skull crushed by an iron bar, died two days after Whittemore escaped. Whether Whittemore actually was guilty of other murders laid by police at his door or that of his gang, may never be known.

Baltimore, New York, Chicago, Cleveland and Buffalo were included in the Whittemore gang's scope of operations. Many lucrative hauls were made from New York jewelry establishments. The "million dollar crime trust," so dubbed later by police because of the fabulous goal set, and reported nearly reached when the crime organization was shattered, revealed itself as an almost entirely self-supporting crime unit, when police dug into its secrets.

The slayings of "Chicago Tommy" Langrella, an underworld character of Chicago and Baltimore, who was found shot to death in North Arlington, N. C., last February, and of Simon L. Gilden, of Baltimore, believed a former member of the Wittemore gang, in New York last December, were attributed by police to Whittemore or his followers. Neither of the crimes, however, was ever fastened directly on the gang. Whittemore admitted shooting Edward "Spike" Kenney, at a Middle River roadhouse on the outskirts of Baltimore, last Hallowe'en night. Kenney recovered in a hospital with a police guard around the building.

Whittemore pleaded poverty when arraigned in Baltimore. What became of his reputed fortune in loot was never developed. Edgar Allen Poe, who was appointed by the court to defend him, was a former states attorney of Baltimore, former attorney general of Baltimore and former president of the Baltimore Bar association.

FORMER INMATE OF INSANE HOSPITAL BECOMES AUTHOR

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 12.—(AP)—From inmate of the state hospital for the insane, at Norwich, to author of a book of tales for children which has just been published, is the gamut of experience for Herman Buderus Von Carlshausen, whose volume, "Tales of a Dram World" has just been issued.

Although he renounced his title of baron, which was inherited by him as the last of a line under the old regime in Germany, to become an American citizen; although he suffered the tortures of inquisition as an alien enemy during the war, when at the age of 16 he was interned at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where he was badly beaten by other interned Germans for his "pro-American" sympathies; although he has shared the tribulations of the inmates of one of Connecticut's institutions for the insane, his stories in "Tales of a Dream World" have nothing of this darker side of life. They are aimed to appeal to imaginative children, and an idea of their content is gained from the titles: "The Call," "Moonbeam Magic," "Billy Jones and Whale," and "The Princess of Daisy Valley."

Two Arrests For the Hall-Mills Murders

Willie Stevens and Henry B. Carpender Are in Custody, Charged With Committing the Crime.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 13—(AP)—Willie Stevens, a brother and Henry B. Carpender, a cousin, of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, were committed to the county jail tonight for a hearing tomorrow on warrants charging them with the murder in 1922 of Mrs. Hall's husband, the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, his choir singer. Both pleaded not guilty.

The warrants were issued this afternoon by Judge Frank Cleary on complaint of Captain J. J. Lamb of the state police. Stevens was arrested at the home of his sister in New Brunswick and Carpender accompanied by Timothy Pfeiffer, New York attorney, surrendered to the state police here.

In addition to the two arrested today, Mrs. Hall is at liberty in $15,000 bail on the same charge. All the arrests were made as a result of the investigation recently ordered by state authorities.

Carpender and Stevens, after being questioned by investigators, were taken to the office of Judge Cleary. Their entrance was presaged by the explosion of numerous camera flashlights Carpender, obviously nervous, entered first. He stared uncertainly about him and then took a seat. He was followed by Stevens, who dabbed excitedly at his lips with a handkerchief.

Attorney Pfeiffer examined the warrants and said:

"I notice that Mr. Carpender is charged only with the murder of Mrs. Mills. I also notice that Mr. Stevens is charged only with the murder of the Rev. Mr. Hall."

Judge Cleary explained that while two complaints charging Stevens and Carpender with both murders had been made by Captain John J. Lamb of the state police, warrants had only been issued on one of the two complaints against each.

Both rose to their feet to enter their pleas of not guilty.

Judge Cleary then committed both to jail without bail. They were taken from Judge Cleary's office through a heavy rain, the flashlights of photographers vieing with flashes of lightning.

Judge Cleary said that the hearing, set for two o'clock tomorrow would probably be postponed, as it was merely a date set in lieu of a date to be furnished by their attorneys.

"I assure you," Judge Cleary said, after the arraignment, "that it will not take much evidence for me to hold them. I do not wish to usurp the powers of the grand jury. Even if I were to dismiss them they could be indicted. I think that the hearing will probably be held some time next week for counsel for the defendants will wish a little time to prepare themselves."

MEMBER OF THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE DENIED IMMUNITY

BOSTON, Aug. 13—(AP)—A plea of immunity to civil process on the ground that he is a member of the diplomatic service was denied Nicholas Politis, secretary of state of Greece and a former diplomatic representative to France, by Referee Joseph F. Doyle here today.

Mr. Politis, who is lecturing at the Institute of Politics at Williamstown, had asked to be held in contempt when his plea was rejected. He was then informed that a capias for his arrest would be issued if he did not appear. He had been summoned to testify in mandamus proceedings brought against the Hellenic Greek Orthodox church of St. Vassalios of Peabody to compel the church officials to recognize the authority of the archbishop of New York and the bishop of Boston.

Arriving in Boston this morning he appeared at the hearing and testified concerning events in Greece before, during and after the revolution and the circumstances surrounding the removal of Vassalios Konvopoulos as a metropolitan in the church.

MORE THAN 3,000 BOTTLES OF CANADIAN ALE SEIZED

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Aug. 12—(AP)—Seizure of more than 3,000 bottles of Canadian ale was made today by members of the land and lake customs patrol, according to reports received by Collector of Customs Harry C. Whitehill. Lake Champlain patrol boats found an unoccupied scow off Stave Island with 2,000 bottles of ale in the hold. All of these, with the exception of a sample, was poured into Lake Champlain this afternoon.

A five inch water main was discovered in the bottom of the scow, arranged so that water could be let in and the boat would sink. Water-tight bulkheads were also found which could be closed and the boat pumped dry. Five hundred and seventy bottles of ale were seized by border patrol men near Newport this morning and George Buckley of Glens Falls, N. Y., was arrested as driver of the beer car. A second machine was found abandoned near Newport by state officers, with 500 bottles of ale.

PEACHES NOW ARE MORE PLENTIFUL THAN POTATOES

CHICAGO, Aug. 12—(AP)—Peaches at present are more plentiful than potatoes. A report today from the government bureau of agricultural economics says peach shipments this week shatter all records.

Nearly 7,500 carloads have rolled to city markets, as against 5,900 the preceding week and 3,200 a year ago. No other product had a volume half as great. Much of the time the country's combined peach shipments were almost equal to a car every minutes day and night.

Owing to the immense supply, peaches in some sections are now bringing less than the cost of production.

DRY AGENTS RAID MOOSE CLUBS IN KEYSTONE STATE

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Thirty-seven men, arrested by prohibition agents in raids on clubs of the Loyal Order of Moose in several western Pennsylvania counties, signed pleas of nolo contendre in the office of United States Attorney John D. Meyer today to charges of violating the prohibition law. They were ordered to appear in federal court Tuesday for sentence. Similar charges have been filed against 52 other men in connection with the Moose club raids.

Stay of Sentence For Car Barn Murderers

Gov. Fuller Grants Respite to Nov. 18 to Provide an Opportunity for Hearing of Exceptions.

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—(AP)—With death in the electric chair a few short hours away three men in the death house of Charlestown state prison tonight received news that they still had three months to live. At the 11th hour Governor Alvan T. Fuller, who previously had refused four times to stay the death sentences of John J. Devereaux, Edward J. Heinlein and John J. McLaughlin, so-called carburn murderers, granted the men respite until November 18 that the courts might pronounce on appeals filed by their counsel.

The governor's action came at the close of a day packed with action by defense counsel. Earlier in the day Judge Fosdick, who presided at the murder trial, had heard and dismissed in Middlesex superior court a motion for a new trial for the three condemned men but this motion, like others presented yesterday to Justice Braley in supreme court, and dismissed by that justice, were based on the allegation that Devereaux, one of the defendants "was at the time the crime was committed, and is now, insane."

Yesterday Justice Braley in refusing a petition of habeas corpus and another of mandamus to compel Governor Fuller to grant stay of execution, gave defense counsel 20 days in which to file exceptions. The justice refused, however, to grant a stay, declaring that it was the responsibility of the governor to take such action. Today the superior court judge also permitted defense counsel to take exceptions to his decision.

Immediately after Judge Fosdick's action, defense counsel transferred their activities from the courts to the state house, presenting an appeal to the governor for a stay of sentence until the courts could hear and pass upon the exceptions. After a lengthy conference with Attorney General Jay R. Benton, Governor Fuller announced that he had decided to grant a respite until Nov. 18.

The governor's council tonight confirmed the action of Governor Fuller in granting a respite of three months to the three condemned men. Lieutenant Governor Frank G. Allen proposed to the council in special meeting that the decision of the governor be approved and the vote was unanimous.

Two state troopers in the uniform at once set out for Charlestown to convey to Warden William Hendry of the state presion official notification of the reprieve.

RESCUED MINERS TELL STORY OF ENTOMBMENT

SALEM, Ky., Aug. 12.—(AP)—A story of prayer meetings rather than of human suffering was brought out of the Hudson zinc and spar mine today by five miners imprisoned in its depth for 138 hours.

It was a cheerful tale, as bright as the "Hello, boys, I ain't sick," of Randolph Cobb, first of the quintet to see the sunlight again. It recounted how during the long hours without food and with but little water the men became convinced in the simple fashion of the western Kentucky folk that their souls were saved.

One of them did not yield until long after the others did and he was the subject of long prayer and when they emerged this morning on their cloth caps was pencilled the message:

"If we are dead when you find us, we are saved."

Seven men were working on a special night shift at the mine near here when collapse of a wall blocked their outlet at 10 o'clock last Thursday night. Two of them escaped, and Roy James could have saved himself also, but he ran father back to call the other four and found himself cut off.

The five, George Castiller, Harry Watson, U. B. Wilson and Randolph and James, ranging in age from 27 to 35 and all married save Wilson, spent their time in prayer and song. When they finally were rescued by the unrelenting toil of a force of 200 men working in relays, they were in fairly good condition except that Castiller had wrenched his back in falling off a scaffolding when the cave-in occurred and was suffering severe pain and had a cold.

MAY TURN STATE'S EVIDENCE AND ASK PARDON FROM PRISON

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 12 (AP)—Fighting for his liberty from the state prison, Harris Fienberg of 409 Keep St., Brooklyn, N. Y., father of six children and sentenced to from two to five years in prison for setting fire to his cloak and suit store in this city in November 1924, may take steps in an attempt to adopt a procedure rare in Connecticut, it was indicated today, by applying for a pardon from the state board of pardons after turning state's evidence in criminal superior court against a man now awaiting trial for his alleged part in the same arson plot.

NO CHANGE IN CONDITION OF CHIEF JUSTICE TAFT

QUEBEC, Que., Aug. 12.—(AP)—There has been no change whatever in the condition of Chief Justice William H. Taft, who had been suffering from an indisposition at his summer home in Murray Bay, Dr. F. P. McNaughton, his physician, said today. Dr. McNaughton told the Canadian Press that there had been no change in his condition for the last two weeks.

OBITUARY

Evelyn B. Strong

MIDDLETOWN, Aug. 12—(AP)—Evelyn B. Strong, 74, lumber dealer, died in his home here today after a short illness. He was one of the founders of the Strong and Hale Lumber company of Portland and had been active in the direction of the business for about 40 years until his retirement 15 years ago. Mr. Strong was a member of the Sinking Fund commission of this city for 10 years until the commission was retired two and a half years ago. He is survived by a son and two daughters.

Chauncey Hart Eno

SIMSBURY, Conn., Aug. 12—(AP)—Chauncey Hart Eno, tobacco farmer and well known in town and county, died today aged 74. He had been in the General Assembly, and was deputy internal revenue collector for this district for many years.

He leaves two sons and three daughters.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Long on one side, short on the other, such is the hairdresser's latest dictum, for the bobbed head.

One child was killed and three other persons seriously in a tornado which struck a mile east of Padroni, Cal.

Alva N. Lumpkin, of Columbia, S. C., was elected supreme vice-chancellor of the Knights of Pythias on the fourth ballot in Chicago.

R. J. Petersen, Buffalo, N. Y., was elected president of the National Wholesale Jewelers' association in annual convention in Philadelphia.

NThe Mexican health department has announced that it intends to conduct a nationwide educational campaign for the elimination of social diseases.

Foster & Gifford Silk Mills, Inc., manufacturers of silk cloth at Gloversville, N. H., filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in federal court in Utica, N. Y.

A steady increase in the number of small loan companies throughout the state has been noted by State Bank Commissioner John B. Byrne during the past year.

A committee of supreme officers of the Knights of Columbus will call upon Secretary of State Kellogg this week to discuss the religious situation in Mexico.

John E. Thropp, 81, president of the John E. Thropp Son Company of Trenton, pioneer manufacturers of rubber tire machinery, died at his home in Penn Manor, Pa.

Uncle Sam dipped a punitive hand into the Rockefeller millions yesterday to withdraw $476.20 as penalty for the attempted tariff violation of one of the family's youthful heirs.

Guilford's sore throat epidemic which has had many scores of victims and which prevails among scores of other townspeople and summer visitors is well under control.

The war department yesterday approved the application of the Hartford Electric Light company to install conduits through the Hartford dyke along the Connecticut river.

The general construction contract for the new veterans hospital near Northport, L. I., was awarded to Algernon Blair, of Montgomery, Ala., on the basis of his bid of $2,719,956.

Profit of the Chrysler corporation and subsidiaries for the first six months of this year were $9,016,245 after charges, but before federal taxes, against $8,197,000 in the first half of last year.

Continuation of the sickening weather which has besieged Washington for several days caused numerous government agencies yesterday to close early to enable their workers to seek relief.

Last minute discovery of a "hot box" which threatened to throw a wheel narrowly averted disaster on a Wabash train carrying the Detroit Tigers to St. Louis for their two game series with the Browns.

Louise Fazenda, motion picture actress was granted a divorce in superior court in Los Angeles, Calif., from Noel M. Smith, film director. She charged desertion. The Smith's were married March 7, 1917.

Messages received at Constantinople from Aleppo say that Druses have sacked a train between Aleppo and Damascus, killing all the Armenian passengers, including a former chief of police of the latter city.

William Specter Zukoski, 17 year old son of Mrs. Samuel Buck, wealthy resident of Cape May, N. J., and Wildwood, N. J., was sentenced to 4 years in the penitentiary for having terrorized girls by night prowling.

Records of a breach of promise suit filed 49 years ago against William Edenborn, Louisiana capitalist and railroad magnate, who died last May 14 at the age of 78, leaving a $75,000,000 estate, were presented in federal court in St. Louis.

Fifty precinct judges and clerks of election in Chicago, charged with making false canvasses of the vote in the April primary were cited by County Judge Jarecki to show cause why they should not be held in contempt of court.

Evidence as to undue attentions paid by Wallace Cloys Gaines to his daughter, Sylvia, was introduced yesterday in the father's trial at Seattle, Wash., on a charge of slaying the 22-year-old graduate of Smith college, at Seattle, July 17.

James F. Flaherty, head of the Knights of Columbus, will confer with Secretary Kellogg today regarding the resolution adopted by the national convention of the order at Philadelphia last week, urging intervention in the religious dispute in Mexico.

Though still maintaining he would ultimately be the victor, Governor Tom J. Teral, of Arkansas last night apparently had been defeated for renomination as governor of Arkansas by Judge J. E. Martineau, one of the candidates defeated by Terral two years ago.

The capture in Elizabeth, N. J., of the escaped chimpanzee after it had dodged a score of shots fired by police raised the hopes of a quinter of big game hunters who have assumed the responsibility of ensnaring the leopard which escaped Thursday.

Because of the large number of undesirables an increase in the governor's salary would attract to that office, Governor Trumbull declared that he will never support a bill calculated to make his successor's salary an adequate return for services rendered.

Deportation proceedings against William Dujeste, Jr., held in the Hartford county jail since May as a runaway Canadian, were brought to an unexpectedly abrupt close when the boy's mother appeared with a birth certificate, proving that her son was born in Bristol.

William H. Kehoe, former assistant corporation counsel of New York, convicted of conspiring to obtain graft through the sale of bootleg milk, yesterday was sentenced to serve an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary. The maximum of the sentence is three years and the minimum will depend upon action of the parole commission.

HEAVY DAMAGE CAUSED BY STORM OVER A VAST AREA

A Man Was Killed in Windsor—In Various Sections of the State Fruit and Vegetables Were Damaged and Many Telephones Were Put Out of Commission—A Stock Barn Was Burned at Suffield, Entailing a Loss of $10,000—In New York the Storm Broke at the Rush Period and Thousands of Passengers Were Delayed on the I. R. T. and West Side Subways.

NEW HAVEN, Au. 12.—(AP)—One man was killed, many telephones were put out of commission and considerable damage was done to fruit and vegetables throughout this state as the result of a severe electrical storm which swept over Connecticut late today.

Charles Powlaukas, 52, of Windsor, was killed at his home when he attempted to turn on an electric light after the storm had short-circuited a transformer on a pole in front of his house.

A stock barn owned by William J. Sullivan, at Suffield, was burned to the ground after having been struck by lightning. Eighty tons of hay were destroyed and a horse and a number of chickens were killed. The loss was estimated at $10,000.

The storm, which swept over the state from west to east, was accompanied by darkness which made lights necessary on trolley cars and automobiles and in offices and homes. Fro mall appearances, nightfall fell about four hours too early.

More than a half inch of rain fell during a little more than an hour in the New Haven district and the total downfall recorded officially by the weather bureau, was .85 of an inch.

More than 200 telephone lines were out of commission for a time in Waterbury and a staff of men worked all night to repair the damage.

Crops were damaged considerably in the Danbury area and streets were flooded. All toll telephone lines were out of commission in Norwich and a number of wires were blown down.

The storm at Bridgeport caused considerable damage to property and much traffic congestion due to floods at several points. Most of the suburban towns escaped damage as they were not subjected to the real fury of the storm.

A 400 pair cable of the telephone company was damaged by the storm. A 50 pair telephone cable in Stratford was rendered useless by the rain. Six hundred subscribers in the territory covered by Bridgeport exchange were without service tonight because of damage done by the storm.

A lightning bolt which struck a tree in East Norwalk started a fire which spread to the barn of J. Wallace Marvin, of Pine Hill avenue. The tree blazed up and before the fire could be put under control it had spread to the barn. The barn was totally destroyed. Marvin was unable to estimate the damage tonight.

STORM IN NEW YORK OF GREAT MAGNITUDE

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Thor, God of Thunder, smote a heavy hand over New York this afternoon, when the city, after two days of sweltering, muggy weather, was visited by a thunder storm of magnitude seldom witnessed here.

The storm broke as the rush period from offices to homes began. Thousands of passengers on the East Side line of the I. R. T. subway were delayed by a tieup in the express train service as a result of the storm.

Lightning struck the roof of the McGraw-Hill Publishing company building, at Tenth avenue and 36th street, during the height of the storm. Although 1,500 persons were in the building, no one was injured. A ton of bricks was knocked from one corner of the building.

Wet third rails on the West Side subway stopped service in the lower part of the city for more than an hour. Two trains were stalled in the tunnell under the East river. Other trains were coupled to them and passengers walked through to the Bowling Green station.

REPORT OF STORM AS SENT OUT FROM HARTFORD

HARTFORD, Aug. 12.—(AP)—A violent electrical storm accompanied by high wind struck the city and surrounding valley towns here at mid-afternoon and left in its wake a tangled wreck of telephone and electric light lines, and more than a dozen buildings and street cars struck by lightning. Fires started in several places. Large sections of New Britain, West Hartford, East Hartford, Windsor, Elmwood and Hartford proper were without lights for a few hours. Crops were lashed by the high wind, which attained a velocity of 33 miles an hour, but were reported not badly damaged. Between 2.42 and 3.10 there was a rainfall of 1.13 inches. The total precipitation was 1.40 inches.

PROHIBITION AGENTS MAY BE SENT TO FOREIGN PORTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Immediate organization of a bureau of foreign control in the prohibition department, to direct the practical application of the prohibition agreements between this country and foreign nations, was announced today by Brigadier General Lincoln C. Andrews.

It is even possible, he acknowledged, that the work of this new bureau may entail sending prohibition men to foreign ports.

General Andrews, who returned last night after conferring on an agreement with English statesmen on the liquor smuggling situation, spent this afternoon at the University club in conference with United States Attorney Buckner and an assistant.

"My first work in Washington," he said, "will be to build up the machinery that will put into practical effect the compacts we now have with Canada, Mexico, Cuba and the European countries, and especially the agreement just consummated with England. My plan to establish a new, small bureau of foreign control which will have active supervision of this work."

Asked if this means that he would have special agents abroad he replied: "It means the United States will if there are any. But I expect we can do most of the work through the American consuls." Gen. Andrews was asked concerning the status of A. Bruce Bielaski, who testified during the trial of members of the Dwyer rum ring that he was a special agent of Mr. Andrews here receiving about $1,100 a month.

"Mr. Bielaski is a secret agent," Gen. Andrews said today. "That is why there is no record of him. He is not paid $1,100 a month or any other salary. He is paid for what he accomplishes and that might amount to $20,000 a year. He is paid out of a fund for the purchase of evidence which congress provided at my request."

SIR WILLIAM RIDGEWAY FOUND DEAD IN BED

LONDON, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Sir William Ridgeway, well known archaeologist and anthropologist, was found dead in bed this morning.

Sir William Ridgeway, professor of archaeology of Cambridge university from 1892, has been at various times affiliated with archaeological and anthropological organizations in all parts of the world. He has written much on the subjects which interested him and books and articles in the encyclopaedia Britannica and encyclopaedia Biblica. He took a leading part in founding the Cambridge departments of anthropology and architecture and was president of the Classical association of England and Wales some years ago.

Sir William was born in Ireland August 6, 1853, and was created a knight in 1919.

SWORDFISH HAD RUBBER BAND AROUND ITS SWORD

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—(AP)—A swordfish with a rubber band around its sword has aroused much speculation among fishermen here. The fishing boat, Aeolus, brought the fish to port today and it was exhibited at the pier.

In past years mackerel have been brought into Boston tagged with rubber bands but investigation also failed to show who placed the bands on the fish. The fishermen are as mystified in the present case as in the instances of the tagged mackerel.

REPORTS OF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS IN THE STATE

HARTFORD, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Hartford, third among Connecticut cities in reported automobile accidents two weeks ago, jumped to the top of the list last week, when 45 accidents were reported within the confines of the city, the state motor vehicle department's weekly accident report showed today.

New Haven, second a week ago maintains that position with a total of 37, while Bridgeport, the erstwhile leader, has dropped to the position vacated by Hartford, Bridgeport's total was 35.

Slight declines in state and city totals from figures reported the same week last year, are indicated in the report. The total in the state for the first week of August, this year, is 470, against 487 for the same week last year. In the 14 cities of the state, the totals are almost identical for 1926 and 1925, 240 being reported this year and 242 last year.

Last week there were three fatalities resulting from automobile accidents, less than half the total of the corresponding week in 1925, when there were eight.

Accidents reported in the 14 Connecticut cities from August 1-7, are as follows:

Hartford 45; New Haven, 37; Bridgeport, 35; New Britain, 15; Waterbury, 17; New London, 17; Meriden, 16; Stamford, 12; Norwich, 8; Greenwich, 8; Norwalk, 7; Danbury, 7; Middletown, 6; Winsted, 4.

POLICE ASKED TO SEARCH FOR VANDERBILT JEWELRY

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 12.—(AP)—The aid of the Newport police was enlisted late today in the search for valuable jewelry stolen late Saturday from the Vanderbilt mansion here. Two of the missing jewel boxes with contents intact were found and returned to Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt yesterday. The third was found empty today.

Chief of Police Patrick L. Sweeney had a conference tonight with Harry P. Cross of Providence, counsel for an insurance company which had issued a policy on the jewelry. No statement was given out after this conference. In the meantime a report spread that a quantity of silver had disappeared from the home of Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly, adjoining the Vanderbilt estate. Members of the Twombly family and Newport police refused to discuss this report.

Earlier in the day a watchman on the Twombly estate had found a jewel box under some shrubbery. This box, which had contained the most valuable of the missing jewelry, had as contents only a key to the old Vanderbilt mansion in New York.

The find today was made near the spot where Louis Shantler, a gardener's helper on the Twombly estate, yesterday discovered the two unemptied boxes. No estimate of the value of the missing property was given out but it was said to be considerable. The robbery was committed while a dinner party was in progress at the Vanderbilt home. The Breakers.

EMPLOYMENT REPORTED AS FAIRLY SATISFACTORY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The country as a whole is on a "fairly satisfactory employment basis" in the opinion of the labor department which made public today its July industrial survey. Seasonal slackening and the vacation period were largely responsible for decreased employment and industrial activity.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1181-2.

HOTEL HOOKER POOL ROOM RAID RESULTS OVER $150

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 13—Fines were imposed, or bonds forfeited, in the cases of seven men arrested in a raid on the pool room in the basement of the Hotel Hooker late Wednesday night, at the session of police court this morning. Romeo Benoit was fined $30 and costs, amounting to $41.35 for keeping a gambling house. Harry Smith, James Abbott and George Roy did not answer when their names were called by Prosecuting Attorney Gauchat and their respective bonds of $25 were called by the court. Raymond Reddad, Charles Murphy and Edward Webster were each fined $5 and costs for frequenting, the totals being $11.60. Captain of Police Frank McLean, County Detective William E. Jackson and Patrolman William Hurley testified to making the raid, after receiving a complaint, finding about $28 on the table. Poker was being played, they stated. The fines and costs and forfeited bonds amounted to $150.95.

HEAVY RAIN CAUSES DELAY TO CAR TO SOUTH WINDHAM

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 13—Lightning caused trouble on the Willimantic end of the Norwich-Willimantic trolley line during the severe storm this afternoon and the car due out of here at 4:25 D. S. T. was held up for about a hour in its way to South Windham, after making a start from the local terminal and reaching Windham Road. The car due at the terminal here at 5 o'clock awaited the arrival of the other at the power station in South Windham.

Surrounding towns reported a very severe shower. No damage from lightning was made known but farmers stated that their corn crops had suffered. In some cases acres of corn were levelled by the heavy wind and deluge of rain. Other varieties of crops, also flower beds were also reported damaged by wind and washouts.

Over half a dozen arrests are said to have been made Wednesday by state policemen doing traffic duty at the foot of Bolton Hill, where two heavy Mack trucks loaded with pipes and concrete forms designated for the road construction job between North Windham and Willimantic plunged off the road early in the morning. State Policeman Hignold followed by State Officer Willis stopped automobiles which came speeding down the hill toward the location of the accident where a number of cars were parked to watch the work of pulling the trucks out of the swamp. Among these several were found to be driving without registration or license and in such cases the drivers were notified to appear in Bolton town court next Monday night when the operators of the two trucks will also appear. With these cases and possibly others to be heard Monday night it is expected that the docket for the Bolton court will be the heaviest in some time.

Prosecuting Attorney Harry B. Gaucher, accompanied by his father, Henry A. Gaucher and sisters, Misses Carmelia and Bibiane will leave in his automobile Saturday on a ten days' trip to Canada. They will visit in Quebec and other places of interest. Mrs. Gaucher and infant son will leave to be guests at Oswegatchie, Waterford.

Frank W. Millard of Marrow was a guest of friends here Thursday.

A terrific, though brief, lightning storm with heavy rain halted all motor and pedestrian traffic in the city, about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon and put certain lines of Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company and the Southern New England Telephone company out of commission for several minutes. Lights were affected in several buildings in the business section and with night darkness brought on by the storm, work in some offices had to halt for a time. It was evident that the lightning had struck several times about the city and the police and fire department were in readiness to energy to call in the event that buildings or other property had been damaged.

Mary Jane Olin, 85, widow of William H. Williams died early Thursday morning at her home, 136 Pleasant street. Mrs. Adams was born in Plainfield, June 16, 1841, a daughter of George W. and Zippette Green Olin. Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Alice Goodwin and Mrs. E. H. Williams of this city; three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Julia Higginbotham of this city and Mrs. Norman Barwise of Denver, Colorado.

Arland M. Chapman, 71, died at his home in Scotland Wednesday night. He was a native of Scotland, born April 6, 1855, a son of Amos and Jane Morgan Chapman. Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Wayland M. of Storrs and Hadial A. Chapman of Scotland. He was a widely known and respected resident of his community.

Notice was given Thursday that the officers from the United States army recruiting station at Providence, R. I., would be in this city Monday for one week to secure recruits for all branches of the service. A tent is to be erected in the center of the city where anon-commissioned officer will meet applicants. A parade is to take place during the week in which decorated army ambulances and the famous Moxie horse will be featured.

Thursday afternoon's thunderstorm followed several hours of intense humidity which was sapping the pep and vitality of the citizenry. About 4 p. m., half an hour before the storm, the mercury stood at 86 degrees, with dampness penetrating every fibre.

Willimantic's report in the employment situation in Connecticut during June was to the effect that a surplus of workers in the textile and three industries exists, only a part of whom are able to find employment here.

The Italian Citizens' Band of this city, through Business Manager William E. Jackson has an engagement to play for an Italian celebration in Westerly, R. I., next Saturday. The organization is to furnish music for the parade in the afternoon and appear in concert in the evening. Professor A. Puca, of Norwich, will direct.

Motorists found driving over the highways an extremely difficult proposition Wednesday night due to a dense fog which settled for miles around and which could not be pierced for more than ten feet by the best of automobile headlights.

Archibald W. Buchanan, of Mansfield Center, agent for the state board of education gave examinations to six children between 14 and 16 seeking employment, certificates at the town building here, Thursday forenoon.

Joseph 9, and Frederick 5, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Astmann underwent minor operations at St. Joseph's hospital Thursday morning.

Members of Engine company No. 1 of the fire department had a pleasant jolt one day this week, consuming one gallon of ice cream presented to them by B. C. Hallock, and for which they were very grateful.

State Policeman Fred Taylor of the Stafford Springs barracks was at the patrolmen's room in the town building Thursday as inspector of automobile license applicants. He gave tests to a large number between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Misses Margaret Parsons, Doris Willard and Lelia Scripture left Thursday morning to spend two weeks at Camp Mohawk, near Litchfield, where they will join Miss Marion Branch, daughter of Robert O. Branch, who has been there for some time.

Miss Julia A. Bugbee returned to resume her duties with her brother, Dr. Arthur C. Bugbee in New York, Thursdays, after a visit with friends in Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGuinness of Highland Park, Ills., are at the home of Mrs. D. C. McGuinness where they were called by the sudden death of Mr. McGuinness' father Sunday. Mr. McGuinness will return Saturday, but Mrs. McGuinness will remain for a visit.

Attorney E. Frank Bugbee returned Wednesday night from a fishing trip at Lake Sebago, Me., where he was guest at the camp of C. C. Helmold of this city.

Miss Florence Hevrin is spending part of her vacation as the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. J. Pare, Jr., in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Elliott and daughter Miss Barbara were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Moran R. St. John at their summer home, at Giant's Neck.

Miss Helen Loisell is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harold E. Jacobs at Atlantic Beach, R. I., for part of her vacation.

Miss Elinor Foote and brother, Hawley Foote, are guests of Mrs. Hawley Foote at the Kingsbury cottage, Pleasant View, R. I.

Mrs. George Hall of Hampton, daughter of Commander and Mrs. A. F. Benner is in New Haven for the week.

Mrs. James H. Aspinwall has her sister, Mrs. H. J. Wagner of Fort Eustis, Va., as her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon E. Little and Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Crane are on a motor trip along the Maine coast.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Connor are entertaining Mrs. Fred A. Hart and daughters, Dorothy and Irene, of Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hutchins and daughter, Miss Margaret Hutchins of Columbia motored over the Storrs King highway recently.

Henry Robinson of Manchester Green is the guest of friends here.

Miss Bertha Harris and Mrs. Henry Belanger, of Hartford, spent Thursday in Worcester.

SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser were in New London Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider of Hartford, are visiting at Fred B. Ames'.

R. A. Day and family, Ray Bliven and family, R. A. Day, Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Day and Richard Tibbitts were at Golden Spur Sunday.

Miss Gladys Chapman returned home Sunday after three weeks' visit at Great Neck, L. I.

Mrs. Alfred White and daughter are visiting at Louis Chapman's.

Mrs. John Rathbun and daughter spent the first of the week visiting in New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Daniels were in Norwich Sunday, to see Mrs. Daniels' mother.

Harold Darling and family of Colchester visited his father Sunday.

Miss Alice Rix who has been attending Yale summer school returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest Spencer and son Laurence were at Hammonasset Sunday.

Mrs. George Moore and daughter returned home Sunday, after visiting Mrs. Harry Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chapman were in Bridgeport Sunday.

Mrs. Lois Rowe was a caller in Norwich Tuesday.

Miss Ella Darling, who has been visiting in Norwich, returned home Tuesday.

WINDHAM

Eden Cook's new house in South St. is nearing completion. An artesian well is being drilled.

Miss Margaret Bixby, who has been traveling in Norway starts for home Saturday.

Mrs. Margery Fisher Dennis and daughter Arline of Hartford are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Potter.

TANGLEFOOT SPRAY
FLY SPRAY
KILLS FLIES,
BY THE THOUSANDS
Thousand other disease-spreading household insects die in every room when Tanglefoot Spray fills the air. For complete fly elimination follow the spray with Tanglefoot Fly Paper and get the mosquitoes that come to dinner the day.
THE TANGLEFOOT COMPANY
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

JEWETT CITY

WIND AND RAIN DO DAMAGE IN AND ABOUT THE BOROUGH

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 12.—The worst storm this summer, as far as rain and wind is concerned, struck this section about 4:30 this afternoon. Thunder and lightning of not great severity accompanied the rain. Some damage was done by the wind and water. The awning on the front of Abremency's store on Main street blew down and smashed the show window, the goods displayed getting a wetting. On East Main street the rear foundation wall of Edward Blanchard's garage caved in, tearing off the back part of the building. A large limb was broken off a tree in front of John Mort's house, and just missed falling on Perley Melvin's house. Corn in some sections was reported blown down. The telephone exchange had every toll switch but one out of commission and a number of steady lights. The electric light system went up and down, like a sliding scale, but the lights were on most of the time, several branches having to be removed from the wires.

ASHLAND DIVING TEAM TO GIVE EXHIBITIONS

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 12.—Ashland diving team is to give an exhibition at Red Top at the outing of the Norwich City Gas and Electric Co. in two weeks. They are also to go to Bristol Sept. 4th to exhibit at the meeting of the State Game and Fish association.

Edward Rousseau, agent for the Silent Glow oil burner was in Hartford Wednesday, attending the annual convention of agents, at the factory. The main attraction was the demonstration of a new and improved range burner and furnace burner. After a fine banquet, the 250 agents and distributors from all over the country were taken sight-seeing, in decorated advertising cars.

Mrs. Sarah Paine of Red Bank, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. George Card and daughter, Madeline of Daviaville, R. I., are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perry at their home in Sylvandale.

Frigidaires—reduced $20 to $90. Order now. Edw. Rousseau, Agt.—adv

Miss Hallie Burleson went to New York Wednesday and is to take an automobile trip with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron McCluggage and daughter, Gertrude have returned to Boston after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. William McCluggage. Thomas McCluggage of Wilsonville has also been their guest. The men are brothers of Mr. McCluggage.

Mrs. C. H. Potter of Norwich is a guest at the Anderson home, Hopeville.

Mrs. Arthur Officer of Wethersfield has been caring for her mother, Mrs Francis Campbell, who has been ill.

Misses Margaret and Anne Counihan and May Nolan of Norwich, spent the Thursday afternoon holiday at Mrs. J. H. McLaughlin's.

Mrs. Walter Hyde entertained the Newent Ladies' Aid society at her home on East Main street Thursday afternoon.

The place for the examination for automobile licenses is to be changed next week Thursday to the place formerly occupied by Burris garage on North Main street, as the Jewett City Auto Sales is being transferred to that locality. Mr. Burr is locating in Lisbon.

Many people in this vicinity who have known the railroad men, learned with regret of the death of Conductor "Doc" Davis, as he was familiarly known, in Worcester hospital. He was a conductor for years on this line.

WESTMINSTER

Several from Westminster attended the Union, Sunday evening service at Brooklyn appreciating the sermon, singing and attitude of worship shown by the large audience.

Mr. Duley of New York is spending a few days in his home, before turning it over to the Tracys of South Canterbury, who plan to take possession about the middle of the month.

Elwood Hubbard spent last week end with his parents, coming with relatives from East Chester, New York.

Surveyors sent from State Road Commissioner's office, spent nearly all last week completing the survey of the road between Scotland and the Plains, not completed by the surveyors two years ago; and made complete maps of the region, including the names of all property owners adjacent. This does not insure what all good citizens greatly desire, the early completion of the trunk line.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Helstrom are entertaining Mrs. Linden of Westbury, Long Island. Mrs. John Berg and little sons, John and Frank, and Eleanor Edith and Evelyn Stahlberg of New York. Mr. Berg joins his family, later for his vacation.

Mrs. Frank Koch, who came to join her boys on their farm last week is entertaining several friends, among them Miss Baker and Mr. Sweeney of New York the former a niece.

Mrs. Louis Greeman has been entertaining a married sister and her children and a friend with a child from New York.

Some others who are, and have been having summer guests are, Mr. and Mrs. C. Barstow, Mr. G. Barstow, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Soderberg and other families the names of these guests not having yet been reported.

After several days of illness at home in care of a doctor and nurse, Frank Pellett was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, Friday. Mr. Pellett's reported to be gaining satisfactorily and be able to return home within several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eliel arrived at their summer home last Thursday bringing a friend who remained one night and took the train at Willimantic. The Fliels plan to remain several weeks.

Elmer Stahlberg, with his mother and sisters, summer guests for some years at the Helstroms, motorcycled here from Long Island, with friends, making the trip in about six hours, exclusive of stops, returning Sunday afternoon for their duties Monday. Elmer was graduated from a high school in New York, with honor, last February, and is now the business head of the laundry in New York, that he served similarly last summer. He has also entered New York college evening course, which he expects to complete, thus providing his own expenses.

Miss S. Whittlesey, Miss B. Davis Miss M. A. C. Avery and Miss M. Warbinshe of Norwich, were recent guests in Westminster.

Harry Gardiner of Quidnick, is assisting his brother Lester Gardiner, in making improvements on his home place, formerly the Coulter farm.

Mr. Vitias whose second home here was destroyed by fire in June, has begun to rebuild on the foundation fronting the main road. The reported sale of a part of his large farm failed as the expected buyer did not fulfil the money contract.

Mrs. Milton Watkins and son of New Rochelle, N. Y., guests of Mrs. Koch, were at church, Sunday.

The three Misses Rathbun and Miss Dickenson of Mystic, friends of Rev. and Mrs. Davies when they lived in that town, were callers Sunday on their return trip after attending the 11 o'clock morning worship at Hanover, whose pastor and wife are also from their region.

Westminster church school plans to hold an ice cream picnic inviting friends; each to bring picnic food to be put together and passed around, Thursday, August 12th., on the church lawn.

There will be Union Evening service among the churches of various denominations in this region until the first Sunday in September, when they will meet at Sterling Hill, Rev. Mr. Higgins of Packer the preacher.

The new porch on the Helstone house extending the length of the south side is a decided addition to the appearance as well as comfort of the place.

Murray Meade of New London and Fred Meade of Anerum, N. Y., were guests of Mrs. Jessie A. Meade Sunday.

The Misses Burns of Richmond Hill, N. Y., are visiting their sisters, Mrs. Ida M. Shorter and Mrs. Meade.

Mrs. Jessie A. Meade returned from New London the first of last week reporting that her son Murray's wife is doing well after a surgical operation, and hoped to visit here before long.

The weather being more favorable this past week, farmers have worked hard "making hay while the sun shines" some having completed that task. The crop is generally light.

Albert Pellett is cutting a field of oats, four and one-half feet high.

Fred Sacrett is substituting on the R. F. D., as he has for some years, while Dudley Ferguson, regular carrier is on a vacation.

Mrs. Senie Douglas has returned from a fortnight spent in the home of a niece in Worcester, Mass.

"Vacation time, its Joys and Dangers" was the subject at Westminster Morning worship. Text St. Mark 6:31. A number of summer guests were present.

Sunnymeade Farm has been sold by its owner, Fred Meade of Anerum, N. Y. to Henry Silva of New Jersey, who may not come here to live before December.

Xavie Blain's young son, Raymond, who underwent a critical operation for appendicitis several weeks ago at St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, is doing well, and hopes to return home this week.

HANOVER

Miss Alice Robinson of Westerly and Miss Edith Robinson of Baltic recently celebrated their twelfth birthday together, at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Fred Ladd. The girls are cousins. The guests were entertained on the lawn.

Mrs. Lebourveau and family are spending some time at Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lachapell are entertaining relatives from Massachusetts.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Jenny Wilde and sister, of Jewett City, called on the Handy's one day last week.

Belle Langelier was in Putnam with relatives over the week end.

The Sobosikis family is entertaining relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Handy and daughters were in Webster Wednesday.

EAST COLCHESTER

Wallace Skawinski who has had a bad attack of rheumatism is somewhat improved.

L. Petrosse has about fifteen teams drawing the dirt from the steam shovel as it digs the dirt from the basin of the reservoir, and is also pouring cement into some forms.

LEFFINGWELL

The Sunday school of the First Baptist church of Bozrah, at Leffingwell, held its annual picnic at Gardiner Lake, in Brown's grove, Wednesday last. A bountiful picnic lunch was provided at noontime and was followed by watermelon.

Miss Mildred A. Swan of Connell street, Norwich, was a guest of Mrs. William White Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Beard returned Saturday after a five days' motor trip to Canada.

Miss Dora Mason of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beebe.

Milton Caroline has fully recovered from the effects of a recent accident and is able to be about.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and son, Lester, of Hartford were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Spicer.

About 50 attended the Social Corner picnic Wednesday, at the church. Dinner was eaten at noon in the vestry and the entertainment was held on the church lawn, in the afternoon.

Miss Ruth J. Ellis, of Asylum street, Norwich delightfully entertained about 25 young people, Tuesday evening, at a weenie roast. After the roast games and music were enjoyed.

A silo that was blown over on the farm of Edward Caroline is being rebuilt.

Mrs. Timothy Sullivan and daughter, Barbara, of Maple street, Norwich were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bedat.

Clear The Pores Of Impurities With Cuticura Soap

SHAVING IRRITATION INSTANTLY RELIEVED BY Cuticura Talcum Powder

Cuticura Talcum Powder Comfort HEALS THE SKIN

FOR 30 YEARS NOTHING AS GOOD

COOK BOOK COOK BOOK

For Delicious Flavoring

Wherever your cook book calls for flavoring, use Baker's Certified Flavoring Extracts and avoid disappointments.

There is an indefinable "something" about Baker's Extracts that gives to table dainties a piquancy of flavor and delicacy of aroma pleasing to the most discriminating palate.

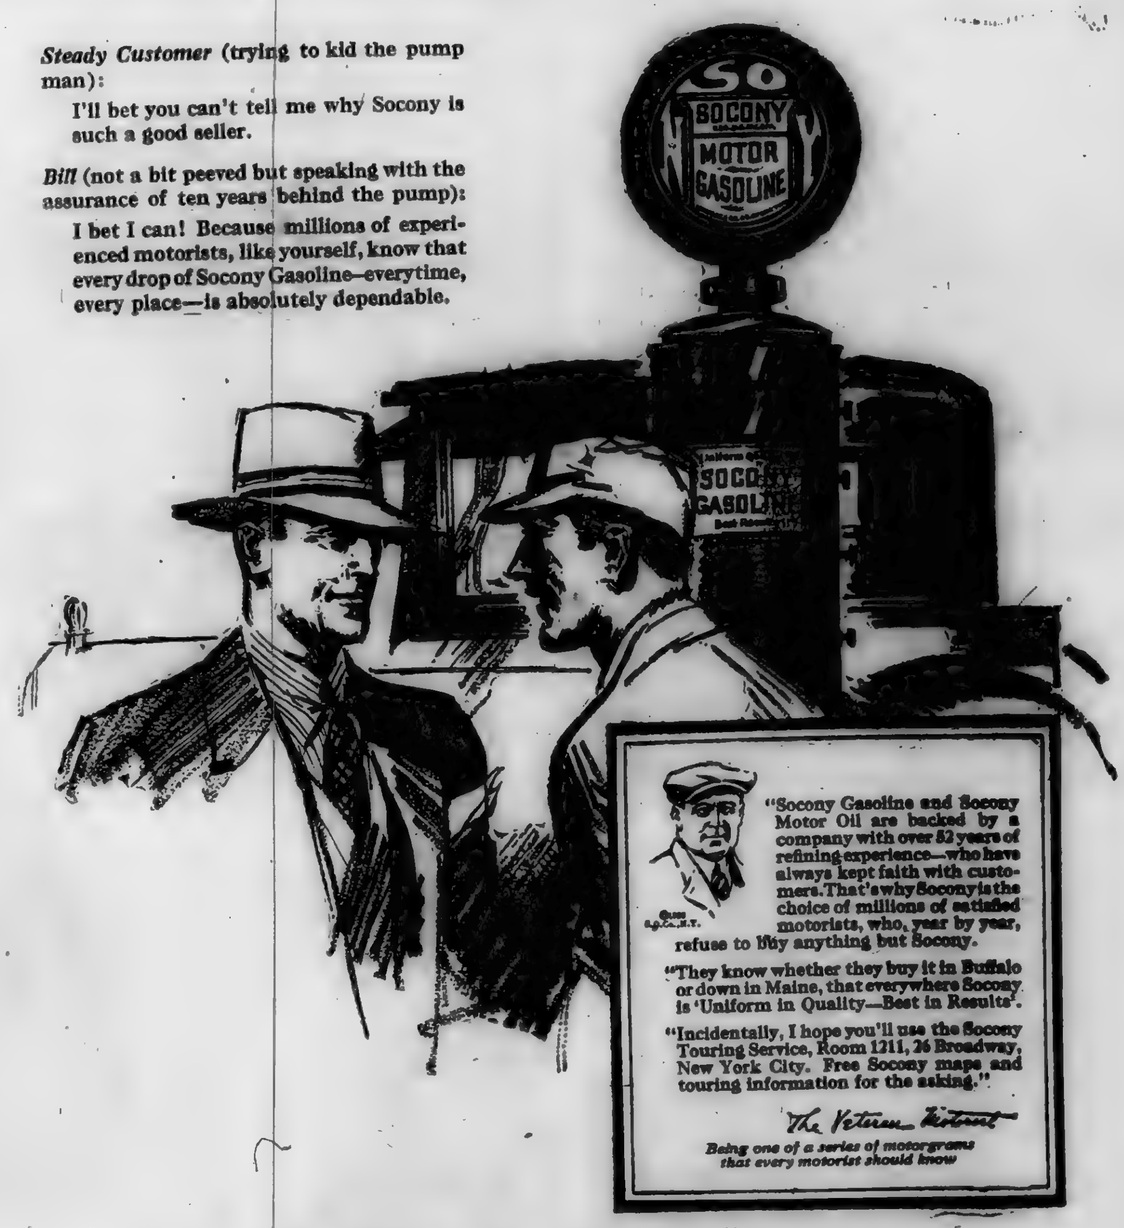
BAKER'S Vanilla—Lemon & 19 other EXTRACTS

Steady Customer (trying to kid the pump man):

I'll bet you can't tell me why Socony is such a good seller.

Bill (not a bit peeved but speaking with the assurance of ten years behind the pump):

I bet I can! Because millions of experienced motorists, like yourself, know that every drop of Socony Gasoline—everytime, every place—is absolutely dependable.



"Socony Gasoline and Socony Motor Oil are backed by a company with over 52 years of refining experience—who have always kept faith with customers. That's why Socony is the choice of millions of satisfied motorists, who, year by year, refuse to buy anything but Socony.

"They know whether they buy it in Buffalo or down in Maine, that everywhere Socony is 'Uniform in Quality—Best in Results'.

"Incidentally, I hope you'll use the Socony Touring Service, Room 1211, 26 Broadway, New York City. Free Socony maps and touring information for the asking."

The Veteran Motorist

Being one of a series of motorgrams that every motorist should know

SOCONY

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

GASOLINE

STANDARD OIL CO. OF NEW YORK
26 Broadway

POWERS · MILLIONS · OF · MOTORS

DANIELSON

BENEFIT GAME PLANNED FOR AN INJURED PLAYER

DANIELSON, Aug. 12—Thoughtful and considerate of each other's welfare are the members of Danielson's Twilight league. Last week Edward Frechette, playing with the Kilowatts, the D. and P. Gas and Electric company team of the league, fractured a bone in his ankle during a game. The accident has put him on crutches and temporarily cut off his earning power.

Mindful of his plight, a team of Twilight leaguers, representing various teams, and having as their opponents a team picked from the Wauregan Twilight league will play an exhibition game—a benefit game—for Frechette Friday evening. As it will be Friday night, no league game is scheduled. The Wauregan and Danielson Twilight leaguers will be playing exclusively in a good cause. There won't be a cent of revenue for them, Danielson will particularly appreciate the coming of the Wauregan team to aid in staging the event, for its a high-ly praiseworthy act. The public can make it a real wow by being on hand by the hundreds.

MINCED LIVER AND HEARTS BEING FED TO 1,000 FISH

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 12—There's a wonderful sight for sportsmen over at the Snake Meadow club these days. The state fish and game commission has 1,000 trout, 9 and 9 1-2 inches in length, in what might be termed temporary storage over there. These fish have been placed in a gravel bottom pool that is fed from an icy cold spring and they are there to protect them from the destruction that would befall most of them were they released at this hot weather period into brooks where the water is tepid and warmer certain to cause their death. Later in the season, when the early showers have come and the temperature of the brooks is much lower than at present, the fish will be released. Before that the fish receive an allotment of several pounds of minced liver and hearts. They are being fed, for the present by Deputy Game Warden W. M. Jackson. Mr. Franklin says they rise to the water in the shallow pool at the feeding hour as they flash after feeding their rations. Precautions have been taken to prevent the overflow of the pool and the washing away of the trout in case of sudden and heavy rains that might cause Snake Meadow brook to rise quickly. The trout may be seen at any time, for there is no more than 15 or 16 inches of water in the pool where they are confined.

Chairman E. L. Darbie of the republican town committee said Thursday that a caucus of the republican voters of Killingly will be held August 21. The caucus will be called to name delegates to the republican, state, congressional and senatorial district conventions, for 1926 as a year that will bring various elections and the fall season promises to be a busy one for those having concern with political affairs.

From a list of 30 candidates for the place, Horace F. Turner has been elected superintendent of schools in Melrose, Mass., and will go from Plymouth, Mass., to take the more important and higher salaried position. Those town will be particularly interested in this announcement, for this Turner was superintendent of schools here for several years. Running over the list of school superintendents and principals of the high school in this town in the past score of years, one finds that Killingly must have had some able men, for almost invariably they have gone to other and larger places for higher salaries and have continued to move to greater prominence in educational fields. The list is not lengthy, but it is impressive, and serves for one thing to demonstrate that Killingly's schools have had the benefit of able direction through the years. If Killingly could afford to pay what many larger and more affluent communities tender in the way of salaries to their superintendents and principals it would not have allowed some of the men who have served here to slip away. And, going a step farther, Killingly continues to be exceptionally fortunate in having such able men directing its educational system. May be, what has been said here about Supt. Turner and the principals may have to be said again in the not distant future about their successors who will have been lost to Killingly.

William S. (Bill) Brown, philosopher, farmer, hotel landlord, cattle expert, etc., etc., keenly relished the telling of a story Thursday morning while enjoying one of his rare spare minutes while in Danielson. Here it is:

"I was coming up from the farm at Wauregan in my old flivver this morning when I encountered a mule on the state highway down near the Lyer dam. The mule was cross-wise of the highway and I had to stop. That mule cast an inquiring eye from end to end of my old gas buggy and then inquired of the machine, 'What are you, anyway?'

"The car replied 'I am a Ford automobile; what are you?' 'I'm a horse,' the mule replied, and then they both laughed, and so did I, by heck!"

That's a hard one to believe, but it might be true.

East Killingly's annual Old Home day attracted about the usual attendance Thursday, with representation of numbers of eastern Connecticut communities among those who attended. There was the usual reunion of former residents of the place with those who have elected to remain on the hilltops of the town. A short dinner prepared by King George Jacques was one of the events that claimed the attention of a large number. Formal exercises at which addresses were made also featured this annual gathering.

The plants of the Paco Mfg. company are to open Monday morning, following the annual two weeks' vacation period for the several hundred employes. Repairs and renovations have been underway at the plants since they have been closed.

Another bit of industrial news is that the mill of Davis and Brown at East Killingly has resumed operations. This plant has been slack for a considerable length of time.

Although the current premium lists of the Windham County Agricultural society list the coming annual September show as the 77th annual fair and exhibition, there has been, as a matter of fact, an agricultural show in Brooklyn for more than 100 years, and the fair rates the oldest in the United States.

An increased staff of teachers will be on duty at Killingly High school when it reopens for another year, the new teachers being made necessary by the increase of the size of the school and addition of new courses of study including domestic science and manual arts.

Sunday afternoon, the St. James school baseball team likely will have one of its hardest contests of the season, for the Sacred Heart school team of Taftville will be here to furnish the opposition. The Sacred Heart team won the championship of the parochial

PUTNAM

LOCAL FRIENDS AT WEBSTER FOR DR. SAUNDERS' FUNERAL

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 12.—Funeral services for Dr. Thomas H. Saunders of Webster were held this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Louis' church of that city with a solemn requiem mass. He was buried in Calvary cemetery, Webster. Dr. Saunders married Anna G. Mullan of Putnam, daughter of the late Edward and Mrs. Mullan. Three children survive, Esther, Janet and Mary Saunders, his wife and a sister and brother, all of Webster. He was known here and many Putnam people attended the funeral.

Dr. Saunders was born September 27, 1878, the son of Thomas C. and Isabelle Haggerty Saunders. He was graduated from Jefferson college, Philadelphia and completed his studies at the University of Maryland in 1904, winning his degree of doctor of medicine. During the World war he offered his services to the government, was made a member of the National League of Defense and held the rank of lieutenant in the Volunteer Medical Reserve corps.

THOMAS TAYLOR, 80, WAS POWDER MONKEY ON MONITOR

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 12.—Possibly the last survivor of the crew of the Monitor, Thomas L. Taylor of this city, celebrated his 80th birthday this week. Mr. Taylor does not look his four score years but is still active around his home and goes down town every day.

Mr. Taylor came to Putnam about 40 years ago and has been employed in various lines of work, more recently as a janitor of a school, church, bank or office building. For the past few years he has not followed active work, except keeping his home in excellent shape and tilling a garden plot. He receives a substantial pension from the government. He is seen about the streets every day, is well known and a highly respected citizen of the town.

He has received occasional publicity during the past few years, particularly on each anniversary of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac, or on the death of some member of the crew of the Monitor "believed to be the last surviving member of that crew." Mr. Taylor does not know whether or not he is the last man now living who fought for the Union in that historic battle, but he looks hale enough to live for many years yet, and expects to outlive any unknown contender for the honor.

Born in slavery about August 10 1846, he lived for the first 16 years of his life as a slave in Carrituck county, North Carolina, and was 14 when Fort Sumter was fired upon. It was not until the winter of 1862 that he made a break for liberty. With another slave boy he started north on a horse belonging to his master; the boys reached Hampton Roads, Va., with little difficulty.

Young Taylor reached Fortress Monroe the day the Monitor came steaming up the coast. An officer of the Monitor took him on board as a cabin boy, and when the famous iron-clad left the fort he was a member of its crew. In the midst of the hot fight there was no room for a cabin boy and Taylor was pressed into service as a powder monkey, and as such served through the famous battle. After the fight, he was a patient at Fortress Monroe hospital for a time and later enlisted in the naval service until the close of the war.

After his honorable discharge he returned south for a time, then shipped as a sailor to the West Indies. Then came north and worked for several years in Boston, Salem and Worcester, before coming to Putnam.

OTTO E. WULF TO LEAVE CITY THOUGH PLANS ARE NOT STATED

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 12.—It was announced yesterday that the Bugbee and Wulf store is now the Bugbee Corporation. It is owned and controlled by Ralph X. Bugbee as president of the company and his father, Byron D. Bugbee is the secretary and treasurer. August 5, the partnership of Bugbee and Fulf was dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Wulf retiring.

About seven years ago, Mr. Wulf came from Norwich where he had been treasurer of the Porteous and Mitchell store for a number of years. Forming a partnership with Ralph X. Bugbee, they bought from Byron D. Bugbee the store he had established more than 35 years ago. Mr. Wulf is a very capable executive, took an active interest in the affairs of the city and fitted easily into the life of the community. As yet he has made no announcement as to his future plans other than that he will leave Putnam. He and Mrs. Wulf are at their summer home at Gales Ferry. Both will have the best wishes of many friends here to take with them to their new home, wherever that may be.

There is no more experienced or school teams in the Norwich district this season. St. James has won 14 and lost 3 of its games to date, a splendid record.

Mr and Mrs. E. C. Babson and daughters have returned from a motor trip over the Mohawk Trail, to Albany, the Storm King highway and over the Bear Mountain bridge on the route back into Connecticut.

Mrs. Charles Hale was reported dangerously ill, Thursday, following a surgical operation to relieve a highly critical condition. Mr. Hale is at New Haven with Mrs. Hale.

Keeping up the heat drive, the weather man turned in a maximum temperature of 92 degrees for Danielson, Thursday afternoon.

Thursday evening members of the town school committee held a meeting to hear the pros and cons on the matter of closing the South Killingly school from residents of that section of the town.

"Snow removal costs seem the most unusual things to be considering this time of weather," said an auditor of a neighboring town as he labored on statistics for the annual town report, Thursday.

This is a day during which the superstitious will suffer with apprehension—Friday the 13th.

William McDermott of High street is remaining in Arkansas during the summer season because of the pressure of business. He had intended to spend part of the summer at his home here.

Thirty-three members of the Help-One-Another class of the Sunday school of the Danielson Baptist church recently held an outing at the White Rock farm of F. O. Plummer in Foster.

Miss Eloise V. Babson of the office force of the American Thread company, Willimantic, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Babson of the West Side.

Killingly's registrars will be engaged again today (Friday) in perfecting an enrollment of voters for use at the coming caucus.

Assistant Chief C. A. Hamilton and Gurdon E. Withey will be among the members of the Danielson fire department attending the state firemen's convention in New London next week.

Six of the eight arrests made in the liquor raid here last Friday night have been disposed of except that of John Bassinet and Grace Luzor. These two, through their attorney, Irving H. Miron, asked for a continuance and the same was granted until Tuesday next.

Henry Welch pleaded guilty and was fined $200 and cost of $61.62 and which he promptly paid. On the others practically the same penalty was imposed, except in the case of John Rucki of South Meadow street. This is a third offense for him and he was fined $200 each on two counts, given a 15 days' jail sentence and a second sentence of 60 days, the last being suspended.

Twenty-one officers, including Captain Jarvis and his men, made the raid, under the direction of Stanton Briggs of Willimantic, prohibition officer, W. E. Jackson of Willimantic, county investigator and Deputy Sheriff Ayer. This is the largest number of arrests in a liquor raid in Putnam since January, 1925, when 15 were taken into custody and were prosecuted by the late Charles E. Searls, state's attorney.

James Manning Plimpton of Hartford who died recently was born in Putnam in July, 1854 and was educated at Woodstock Academy. He left Putnam when but 18 and entered the employ of an uncle at Hartford and has been with the same company ever since. Besides his wife, Ellen Jones Plimpton he leaves a son, Dr. Edward James Plimpton, a physicist on the faculty of Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. B. P. Murphy has been induced to act as coach for the ball team of the Belding-Hemingway Silk company. The team is known as the B-H Silk Sox. Dr. Murphy in his youth was Putnam's greatest ball player and an all-around athlete and he has not forgotten the game or any of the essentials that go to make a successful player. He will coach during the late afternoons, as his professional duties permit.

The Scouts of Troop No. 1 of Putnam will join the members of the Danielson Troop No. 1 for a week's encampment period September 3. The camp is expected to accommodate about 80 members of both troops at Old Killingly pond. Scoutmaster Sidney P. Marland of the Danielson troop will be camp director. He will be assisted by Scoutmasters Andrews, Woodward, Mayotte and Scribe Bulger, all of Putnam. Assistant Scoutmaster Gales of Danielson will also be on the staff. This encampment period will be first meeting between the two troops and a good time is expected. The weekly Boy Scout meeting which was held Thursday night in the state armory on Livery street at 7:30.

The daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley F. Bacon of Farrows street is to be named Priscilla Mullins Bacon. The name comes down from Priscilla Alden, who came over on the Mayflower to Plymouth with the Pilgrims. According to the records of the D. A. R. historian, Mrs. Mary B. Bishop, the baby's mother, Mrs. Helen Bradley Bacon is a direct descendant of Priscilla Alden, who was Priscilla Mullins before she married John Alden, the friend of Capt. Myles Standish. Priscilla Bacon is of the eighth generation of the Aldens.

Mrs. George Webster and little daughter, Louise, of Boston have been guests of Mrs. Webster's father, Irving H. Roberts and sister, Miss Emma Roberts of School street.

The annual Ballard reunion is to be held this year at Roseland park today (Friday) August 13. A picnic lunch is planned.

Mike Coleman, Fred Wells and Marvin Thatcher left Thursday on their motorcycles for Rochester, N. Y., to attend the motorcycle rally.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Holmes and daughter, Miss Zilla, of Oneida, New York, are visiting friends and relatives in the city. They left Putnam 17 years ago. Mr. Holmes was formerly superintendent of the Hammond and Knowlton Silk mills.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wheaton and family have returned from a short visit to Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Booth have been entertaining Mr. Booth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Booth of Shelton, Conn., also Mr. and Mrs. Eli Baldwin and Miss Nanette Swift of the same place.

Miss Winifred Mellor has been entertaining Miss Dorothy Louise Ennis of Providence and Miss Alice F. Halsall of Fairhaven, Mass.

Miss Esther Wilson of Sunnyside has left for a visit with friends at Harrisburg, Pa. She will also visit in New Jersey before returning home.

COLCHESTER

Frederick Rogers and Arthur Holmes of New London were in town Wednesday.

Fred B. Ames and wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. Snyder of Hartford, were calling on local friends Wednesday.

Ike Cohen has returned from a weeks' visit in Savannah, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chapman of New London, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Rudd of Savannah, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Baker and children, of Meriden, were callers the past week, at Mrs. Sarah J. Bingham's, on Broadway.

Nathaniel Foote, chapter, D. A. R., held open house at their chapter house on Norwich avenue, Wednesday afternoon. A number of out of town people visited the house.

John Lowry of Williamstown, Mass., formerly of this place, is spending a few weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles F. Brown, on Norwich avenue.

Miss Marian Sullivan, registered nurse, who has been caring for Mr. Akabus, who was stricken with a slight shock last week, accompanied him to his home in New York, where she will still have care of him. They left Thursday morning.

William Hyman of Norwich, was a business caller here Wednesday.

Miss Elizabeth Damm of Providence, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Damm, on Lebanon avenue, for a few weeks' vacation.

Mrs. William Carpenter was the guest of friends at Giant's Neck a few days the past week.

Rev. Michael A. Sullivan of Hartford, is a guest of his sister, at their summer home, on Windham avenue, this week.

Manager Friedman of the Colchester baseball team, is working hard to get a good team for a game the coming Saturday.

Come Now To Get These Great Values!

August Furniture Sale

AT

EVERYTHING REDUCED

Plaut-Cadden's

LIBERAL CREDIT

Only Once a Year—In August—Are Such Big Savings Possible

$250 JACQUARD AND CUT VELOUR SUITES—CHOICE OF COLORS—REVERSIBLE CUSHIONS—EXTRAORDINARY AUGUST SALE VALUE

The three luxuriously upholstered pieces—Sofa, Wing Chair and Club Chair—are of the finest spring construction throughout with webbed bottoms. Covered all over in fine quality Jacquard and Cut Velour in your choice of several handsome colors with reversible spring cushions also in choice of attractive color combinations. One of the greatest values we have offered in a long time ... $145

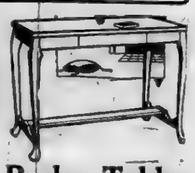
CEDAR CHAIRS

Large, comfortable arm chairs and rockers as shown. Seats, backs and arms have smooth weatherproof finish. Regularly priced at $12.50 — SALE PRICE $7.90

$26 Gateleg Tables

$19.50

Beautifully designed and finished in mahogany. 8 legs.



Parlor Tables

Regular $18 Val. $12.75

Attractive Queen Anne style, finished in mahogany. With drawer.

$7 Porch Rockers With Cane Seats and Backs

$4.65

Ideal for year 'round use. Natural finish. Great value.

$6.50 Doll Figure Lamps $3.25

Doll stands of attractive-ly decorated bisque. Pretty georgette shades.

ALL MIRRORS and PICTURES ONE THIRD OFF

Good Display to Choose From

$35 BABY CARRIAGES $25.50

Strong, light, easy-running upholstered carriages of closely-woven fibre.

$12 ARM ROCKERS $6.90

Mahogany finished with genuine leather seats and slat backs as shown.

$14 WICKER ARM CHAIRS $9.90

Backs and box spring seats upholstered in cretonne. Ivory or cafe finish.

NEW GUARANTEED PIANOS

In the August Sale at $285

Splendid instruments of well known standard quality make, FULLY GUARANTEED. Beautiful in tone and design. Dependable action, in fine mahogany case.

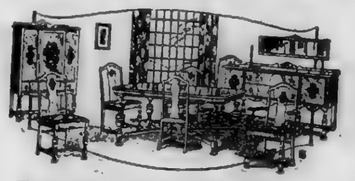
SERVEL Electric Refrigerators —and— OIL-O-MATIC Oil Burners

TERMS TO SUIT

This $165 9-Piece Suite

Walnut finish. Queen Anne design. Suite includes Oblong Extension Table, China Closet, Buffet and 6 genuine leather seat chairs (one with arms) $98

Same Suite — 8 Pieces, $72



Beautiful 9-Piece Walnut Suites — Reg. $225 Value

Included are Oblong Extension Table, Buffet, China Closet, 5 Side Chairs and 1 Host's Chair with genuine leather seats. Distinctive period design $139

This Fine Walnut Bedroom Suite — Regular $165 Value

Three high grade, beautifully made and finished pieces—Full Size Bowfoot Bed, Large 3-Mirror Vanity and Spacious Chifferobe $109

This High Grade 4-Piece Walnut Suite — $255 Value

Four handsome pieces as shown—Bowfoot Bed, Large Dresser and 3-Mirror Vanity with fine plate mirrors and Chifforobe. Of the best construction, beautifully finished.. $159

TAPESTRY RUGS—Values to $35

9x12 and 8-3x10-6 Sizes. Variety of attractive patterns $23.50

BEAUTIFUL CHINESE RUGS

Regular $39 values. Choice of gorgeously beautiful patterns $29.50

AXMINSTER RUGS—Values to $50

9x12 and 8-3x10-6 Sizes. Wide choice of fine patterns $33.50

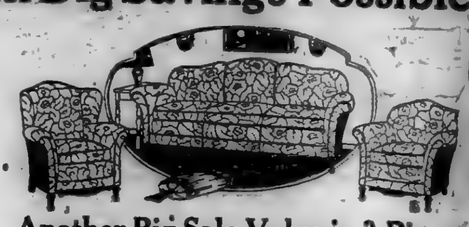
36x60 and 36x70 AXMINSTER RUGS

A splendid assortment of attractive patterns—Reduced to $7.90

INLAID LINOLEUM

Special Lot Reduced
$1.25 Sq. Yard Was $2
$1.69 Sq Yard Was $2.75

Another Big Sale Value in 3-Piece Velour Suite — Reg. $160 Value



Don't judge this suite by its price. It is splendidly constructed and upholstered; each piece—Sofa, Wing Chair and Club Chair—being of full spring construction with removable spring filled cushions. Covered throughout in a fine grade of long wearing velour $79

$18 Fine Cotton Felt MATTRESSES

Wonderful value in fine, well made, very comfortable roll edge tufted mattress with strong tick $9.35

$28 WARDROBES

$21.50

Mah. or Oak

In mahogany or golden oak finish. Five drawers, compartment and wardrobe with hangers.

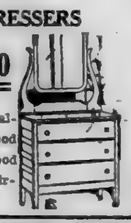
$18 CHIFFONIERES

$12.75

Walnut finish. Well made with five drawers and good quality plate mirrors.

$26 DRESSERS

$19.50



Finished in walnut. Roomy, good looking, with good quality plate mirrors.

$21 KITCHEN Cupboards $16.50

Style as shown in golden oak finish, providing plenty of storage space.

ALL ODD BEDS SACRIFICED

METAL BEDS—Floor Samples—Values to $15 .... $4.95
WOOD BEDS—Floor Samples—Values to $25..... $9.50
BRASS BEDS—Floor Samples—Values to $35.. $12.50

Kitchen Tables

Reg. $8.90— Sale Price $6.50

Finished in white or gray enamel, with porcelain tops and drawer. Rigidly built. Unusually good value.

DINERS $2.65

Reg. $3.50. Strongly built and finished in walnut.

ICE BOXES REDUCED

All styles to select from —at Sale Prices Low As $7.85

GRAMADA

THE ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLAS On Special Easy Terms

Prices As Low As $85

8-Day MANTEL CLOCKS

Mahogany finished cases. Dependable movement. Hour and half-hour gong strike. Reg. $12.50 ..... $6.75

Special Lot of Vocal and Instrumental Double-Faced 75c VICTOR RECORDS 25c

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

ESTABLISHED 1872

135-143 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONNECTICUT

New London Store—224-236 Bank Street

1768 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 15c a week, 65c a month, $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 85-3
Bulletin Job Room 11-1
Willimantic Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1121-2.

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Friday, August 13, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUGUST 7, 1926:
12,795

THE OHIO ELECTION

More than the mere selection of candidates for the tickets in the November elections is involved in the primaries that were held in Ohio this week. In Atlee Pomerene who won the democratic nomination for senator over his woman opponent, Florence E. Allen, who is supreme court justice, the democratic party has discerned a possible candidate for the presidential nomination in 1928. He has the backing of a group of leaders in the democratic party who fear the possibility of another Smith-McAdoo contest. They believe they can make Pomerene a compromise candidate before the next convention if he can show convincing evidence of his strength in Ohio. His nomination and election would permit them to say that he again had the support of Ohio, and that, if given the presidential nomination he would carry the state whose electoral vote the party needs to win.

In the primary contest, Judge Allen was labor's choice and was known as a rigid dry. Pomerene was opposed by labor and is credited with being wet since he voted against the prohibition law during his term in the senate; he was also opposed to woman suffrage. His margin in the primary over Judge Allen was not so large as to be impressive, and if he is to attract national attention sufficiently to be chosen as the democratic party's national standard bearer two years hence, he must make a better showing in the election than he has in the primaries.

A hot and possibly a close campaign will be waged in the election. Pomerene's republican opponent will be Senator Willis, the present incumbent, who was renominated over seven contestants. Prohibition enforcement promises to be the principal issue. Willis is as dry as Pomerene is wet. Ohio is the home state of the anti-saloon league, which will give him undivided support, just as organizations favoring modification of the Volstead act will assist the democrat. Ohio, insofar as modification is concerned, offers more possibilities than any other state in which there will be test votes. But Pomerene must win decisively if he is to be longer considered as a presidential possibility.

INTERNATIONAL TRUSTS

The emergence of the "international trust" in Europe is giving economists and statesmen food for considerable cogitation. Such is the combination of German and French iron, coal and steel interests, which apparently was put upon a legal footing by the recently signed Franco-German treaty.

We have long had national concerns which crossed boundary lines both in the matter of the field exploited and ownership of stock. We have had various national groups sharing the development of single spheres, such as that of Mosul oil. But the Franco-German combination seems different from these.

The question of regulation is the vital point. Financial and business history shows there is almost no limit to the growth of a trust if it is unhampered by national laws and national constitutions. A trust existing by sanction of an international treaty would with great difficulty be brought under national regulation.

How, for example, can either the French or German law be applied to this new iron and steel giant of industry? It seems to be above national law—and there is no international law to cover it.

This development was bound to come. The national boundary lines of a continent such as Europe were too weak to stand against it. The financial and business history of the future is likely to be largely concerned with the growth of the "international trust" and the efforts to bring it under some sort of law and regulation.

GOVERNMENT CARE FOR AVIATION

It will take more than the appointment of a new assistant secretary of commerce to build up the still infant industry of commercial aviation. William P. MacCracken, selected for the newly made post, cannot create the thing which he is to direct, but he can do much to promote its growth. In this respect his appointment is a step in the right direction.

Government will not now more than at any other time bring an industry into being. Civil aviation must earn its own profits in order to live and grow. If it were a subsidized business, its position would be a precarious one. Certain countries have built up aviation as a business by subsidizing commercial flight, but they have done so purely for reasons of defense much more compelling in their scheme of things than such reasons are generally deemed in ours.

Nor does it seem that the greater prominence given to commercial flyers in the affairs of the national government by the present step implies any shift of intention towards greater generosity in subsidies for the flyers. It means, or should mean, simply that everything is to be done to promote the activities of self-paying, self-justifying flight as a useful private business.

WANING ROYALTY

Royalty is now so far from plentiful that the remnants which remain in Europe find the field for choice in matrimony a limited one. The eligible daughters of suitable antecedents, royally speaking, are few in number, and the same is true of unmarried monarchs and near-monarchs. By a concession here and there in the matter of race and religion the situation can be met, when it has to be. Something of the grandeur and glory of other days is gone from the decaying business of kingship. The reported search of King Boris of Bulgaria for a mate arouses no great furore. More attention is paid to reports from time to time that the Prince of Wales may be getting ready to consider a wedding. Even then the interest is as much due to the world popularity of the prince as an individual as to the fact that he is the heir apparent to the British throne.

All of which merely testifies to the vanishing profession of royal ruling. Those born to the calling are not only fewer but they count for less in the lives of nations. The British throne ranks more as a tradition than anything else, as far as sovereignty is concerned, and as such it is likely to continue indefinitely. The same status applies to many other of the remaining royal families in Europe. The house of Savoy in Italy counts little or not at all in determining national policies. There may be more truth than fiction in a facetious remark that the reason King Alexandria of Jugoslavia got a salary increase a few days ago was because he had the good sense to practice a graceful obscurity.

Dictators have risen in several European nations in recent years, but it is noticeable that they are not of European blood. The one exception is Belgium, where parliament recently made Albert absolute for six months as far as financial administration is at stake. However, the action was voluntary, and, in any event, the Belgian monarch differs radically in temperament from the traditional king. The old institution is dying. Hardly a vestige remains and its future is open to doubt.

PARTNERSHIP IN THE WAR

Regarding the current discussion of the proportion that the Great War was just as much ours as any other nation's, it is altogether probable that there would be less inclination to insist on our partnership had the war cost nothing. In the nature of the case the necessary expenditures made it desirable to distribute European obligations in the United States. But fortunately those who are inclined to make us the largest holders of the obligations kindly refrain thus far from charging us with responsibility for bringing on the affair. Even if the war became partly ours, it is admitted—at least thus far—that the precipitation of it belonged wholly to others.

The original theory was that Germany alone was responsible for starting it. It is a fairly good theory yet, though a further study of European conditions before the war has led some to distribute portions of the responsibility for starting the affair among the would-be innocent Allies. Much emphasis is placed upon the acute ante-bellum economic rivalry and also the rivalry for colonial resources. Whatever truth there may be in these post-bellum claims, it is impossible to involve us. So far as economic and commercial conditions were responsible, they were European.

This leaves the theory of our partnership in the war limited exclusively to ownership in the stopping rather than the starting. We were prompters of the business. We came in to wind it up and among our motives for so doing it would be rather difficult to discover the notion that we went in to wind it up for the purpose of acquiring the debts of others who were directly or indirectly concerned in starting it.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The man on the corner says: There is more hope in a sinking fund than its name indicates.

One trouble about a vacation is that no matter where the vacationist goes the mosquitoes go with him.

Debts are said to wreck more homes than vamps, but sometimes it's the vamps who cause the debts.

The Japanese are to build a navy ship with four acres of deck space, that being one way to increase their island possessions.

The Kansas wheat crop is reported to be hail-proof this year. Apparently it suffers the same immunity as the Georgia peach crop from frost.

Prohibition enforcement is said to cost as much as the old drink bill did, but public sentiment seems to agree that even at that it is better than having nothing to drink.

Road improvements are going on at a rapid pace in all parts of the country but provisions for parking space are lagging behind. Keep moving is the slogan of the age.

The test of a great statesman in Europe appears to lie in his ability to induce his country to pay up and look pleasant. A good natured creditor is always a highly valuable asset.

A New York dancer received a divorce on the ground that she didn't remember the marriage, which sets a record that Hollywood publicity men will have to work overtime to beat.

The president's hope that Americans abroad will behave themselves discreetly may not be fulfilled, but it seems likely that if they would behave themselves better the natives would, too.

Ned Harrigan's "name knows no fame" has been dropped by a Beverly, Mass., family who insist on being Danas. They are not the first to feel the burden of living up to a reputation.

Statisticians figure that 2,000,000 Americans play golf and spend on it annually about $468,500,000. But golf has one big economic advantage over motoring. There is no installment buying and no mortgage on future earnings.

LITTLE OLD LADY

A little old lady who collected tickets in an "L" station near the end of the line was adding up her accounts for the day. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a time when few passengers appeared to wait in the small station.

There was a frown on the little old lady's forehead. She had checked over the figures four times and there were still two extra pennies to be accounted for. Of course, these two pennies might have been put in the little old lady's own pocket book and everything would have been evened up. But she would have been horrified at the suggestion.

The little old lady was very little and very old, indeed, but she was also very active. She hopped around inside the inclosure trying to solve the mystery of those two extra pennies, appearing very much like an energetic chicken inside a coop too small for it.

Hearing a step, she straightened up at last to blink her bright eyes at the sight of a black automatic pistol staring her in the face. Back of the weapon was the figure of a youth, his features partly hidden by an overcoat turned up around his ears.

"Come on!" said a voice from the overcoat. "Quick with the dough, lady! I ain't got too much time to waste."

The little old lady's withered cheeks flushed with anger. Her eyes snapped.

"I'm sick and tired of this nonsense!" she declared, irritably. "You're the fourth one of these bandits in three months. Put that ugly thing away and get out of here!"

The little old lady was not particularly brave, but she was unusually angry because of those two extra cents.

The man holding the gun seemed to stiffen. He made a forward gesture with his weapon and his grip on it tightened.

"If you don't want to get shot," he suggested, "you'll hand over that money."

"Shot indeed," retorted the little old lady. "Do you know what would happen to you, young man, if you shot an old woman like myself? You'd be hunted down and you'd be caught. And you'd be lucky to get inside jail before a mob caught you!

"I was reading only last week," she continued, reminiscently, "about how a mob lynched a man. It said they almost tore him limb from limb before he was strung up to a tree."

She gazed curiously at the half-hidden figure of the man with the gun.

"Anyway, there's only $14 here," she remarked. "What do you want to risk jail for just to get that little amount?"

"You'd better hand over that $14 or I'll be risking more than jail," said the man with the gun.

But his voice had lost some of its assurance and he glanced uneasily over his shoulder.

"Do you know what jails are like?" asked the little old lady. "I used to visit 'em often when the ladies' aid was going in for that kind of thing. They're dark and quiet and the men sit all day just brooding to themselves. Once in a while you get a chance to get out and walk up and down in a room where there's not much fresh air. Not much fun in a jail, young man, I never saw a more dreary place."

The bandit glanced uneasily inside the cage and then outside. There seemed to be no one approaching but he dreaded the sound of footsteps.

"That's a queer kind of gun," said the old lady, regarding the weapon with interest. "I never could get scared much of these modern guns. Now, my husband had one a foot long. If you had that in your hand I'd have screeched so they could have heard me a mile away. Then, you might have got nervous and pulled the trigger and where would you be now? A fugitive from justice with $14 to your credit and thousands of policemen on your trail ready to shoot you down. You couldn't hire a lawyer for $14.

"As it is," she concluded. "You're just as safe as you ever were if you leave quick before any one comes. I won't tell on you."

The man with the gun thought he heard a footstep. With a half snarl he stooped and disappeared from the old lady's sight. A moment later she saw him hastening down the street.

"Such a pity, all these young fellows gone wrong," sighed the little old lady.

Then a frown wrinkled her forehead.

"My goodness!" she exclaimed. "I wish I knew where those two extra cents came from!"—Chicago News.

Stories That Recall Others

Probably Tootin' Her Own

The young college girl, whose first hand knowledge of country life and all things pertaining thereto was rudimentary, visited a friend on the latter's farm.

Among the many things of interest to her was the cow and to her surprise she learned that the animal had horns. She stood watching the cow for a while, discussing with her friend this feature of the animal's physiology and then turned away. The cow bawled.

"Oh, which one of her horns did she blow?" breathlessly demanded the college girl as she grasped her friend's arm.

Two Hours to Wait

Paul, age nine, had returned from the drug store after buying a bottle of medicine. He was told to give it to his older brother. At this he replied: "He can't take it for two hours." When asked why, he solemnly said: "It says on the bottle, 'take every two hours.'"

Today's Anniversaries

1805—Dr. Ashbel Smith, who served as secretary of state of the Republic of Texas, born at Hartford, Conn. Died in Harris county, Texas, Jan. 21, 1886.

1835—Col. Isaac R. Sherwood, for many years an Ohio representative in congress, born at Stanford, N. Y. Died at Toledo, Oct. 15, 1925.

1876—The Wagnerian festival opened at Baireuth in the presence of the emperors of Germany and Brazil and numerous other sovereigns.

1888—Through communication by rail established between western Europe and Turkey.

1901—Funeral of the Dowager Empress Frederick of Germany took place at Potsdam.

1905—The vote in Norway on the separation from Sweden was practically unanimous in favor of dissolution.

1906—Riot at Brownsville, Texas, in which Negro soldiers of the United States Army killed and wounded several persons.

1924—Fifty thousand lives were reported lost in floods in China.

1925—Mustapha Kemal Pasha, president of Turkey, issued a decree proclaiming his divorce from his wife.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Sir Ronald Lindsay, the new British ambassador to Germany, has many ties with America, having resided in Washington some 20 years ago as secretary of the British mission under Sir Mortimer Durand. It was there that he met and later married Miss Martha Cameron, daughter of Senator Don Cameron of Pennsylvania. Sir Ronald is a younger son of the Earl of Crawford and of Balcarres, and a member of one of the oldest and most historic of the great houses of the Scotch nobility. He began his diplomatic career in 1898 as an attache of the British embassy in St. Petersburg, and since that time he has seen service at Teheran, Paris, Constantinople, The Hague and other capitals of the world. His new post as ambassador at Berlin is regarded as one of the most important in the British diplomatic service.

Today's Birthdays

Brig. Gen. Henry L. Abbott, U. S. A., retired, oldest living graduate of West Point, born at Beverly, Mass., 95 years ago today.

Marquis of Cambridge, eldest brother of Queen Mary, born in London, 58 years ago today.

Dr. Felix Adler, founder of the Society for Ethical Culture, born in Germany, 75 years ago today.

Major General William N. Haskell, who was head of the American Relief Administration in Russia, born at Albany, N. Y., 48 years ago today.

James R. Sheffield, United States ambassador to Mexico, born at Dubuque, Iowa, 62 years ago today.

Thin Men and Women Add Healthy Flesh New Way Quickly

No Matter What the Cause of Your Thinness, Here is a Real Way to Improve Your Figure.

Whatever the cause of your lack of normal weight, whether loss of appetite, indigestion, nervous weakness, fatigue or overwork, or worry, stop fretting about it. There is now a sure pleasant way to quickly gain healthy flesh, not flabby fat. Everybody knows the wonderful effects of Cod Liver Extract, but few people can stand its unpleasant fishy taste. Any doctor will tell you there is nothing better for building up the body and thus overcoming almost every ailment.

And now Science has removed all the unpleasant features of Cod Livers by giving you their vital food factors in the form of pleasant-tasting, sugar-coated tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Just a few weeks treatment with McCoy's Tablets and you gain weight and with it better health. In fact, they have been so successful in literally thousands of cases that you can go to Lee & Osgood Co., or your favorite druggist and buy McCoy's Tablets, with the specific guarantee that if you do not add at least 5 pounds within 30 days, your money is to be instantly refunded. Start today rounding out your hollow spots, and mark how much better you feel generally after just a few days' treatment. 60 tablets 60 cents.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

A Starfish Loses an Arm

The Starfish finds it is no bother
When one arm's lost to grow another.
—Old Mother Nature.

Reddy Fox had new respect for starfish. He felt that any fellow that could open an oyster was entitled to respect. But Jimmy Skunk is no respecter of persons, so when Jimmy found a starfish that had become entangled in some seaweed and rolled up on the beach by the water, Jimmy promptly decided to see if the starfish would be good eating. So he got hold of one arm and pulled it off. Then he decided that he didn't care for starfish.

"If you are not going to eat him, what did you pull his arm off for?" inquired Reddy just as if he never did such a thing himself.

"Oh, he doesn't mind a little thing like that," said Herring Gull, who, unseen by the others, had alighted on the beach just back of them.

"Why doesn't he mind it?" demanded Reddy.

"Because he will just grow another to take its place," retorted Graywing.

"Just as the lobster grows a new claw to take the place of the one that's lost?" inquired Reddy.

Graywing nodded. "Just that way," said he. "What is more, I suspect that that arm you have torn off will by and by become another starfish."

You should have seen Jimmy Skunk stare at that arm! "You don't really expect me to believe that, do you?" he inquired.

"Whether or not you believe it doesn't make the least difference in the world," retorted Graywing. "I have lived all my life along the seashore and I've seen that thing happen dozens of times. I don't suppose you fellows know what oysters are."

"Certainly we do," replied Reddy Fox. "We know more than that. We know that one of those fellows can open an oyster." Reddy was looking at the starfish as he spoke. "That's more than anybody else that I know of can do."

"You forget those two-legged creatures called men," said Graywing. "They can open oysters. They are very fond of oysters. For that reason they hate these starfish. I've seen starfish fairly cover the bottom for a long distance. You have no idea what a lot of them there are in the sea. They would just clean out all the oysters where they happened to be. So men used to collect the starfish around where the oysters lived and thought they were killing the starfish by chopping them up. Then they would throw the pieces overboard into the water and each piece would begin to grow. So, instead of making fewer starfish they were making more. It was a joke on the men. It always made me laugh when I watched them doing it. I knew better than that."

Jimmy Skunk and Reddy looked with more interest than ever at that starfish which now had only four arms.

"Why doesn't he mind it?" demanded Reddy.

Jimmy turned it over on its back. All over the under side were funny little moving things. They were really tube-like feet, each one a little sucker. It was with these that the starfish they had watched had clung to the shell of an oyster and pulled it open. Looking at all these little moving feet, they couldn't possibly have mistaken it for anything but a living creature. But when it was turned over so that they were looking down on its back, it didn't seem as if it could be alive at all. The tide was coming in. The water crept nearer and nearer. Presently the starfish and the arm Jimmy had torn from it were both in the water.

"You found one starfish and you've made two," said Graywing. And spreading his wings he flew away.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "The Little Driller."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wants Women Grand Jurors

Mr. Editor: I read with interest the letter from a Canterbury woman about grand jurors.

When men grand jurors do not even listen to evidence as has been over and over again proven in this town, the Canterbury woman has "method in her madness" at least.

Stealing should follow her lead and do the same thing. Let's get rid of spineless men and elect women with back bones so that the spectacle of men grand jurors, laughing and joking over the defeat of officers trying to enforce the law will end.

A STERLING WOMAN.

Aug. 11, 1926.

Congratulates Norwich

Mr. Editor: I recently had the pleasure of visiting your city and was delighted to hear that my good friend Chief Stanton had been prevailed upon to continue as chief of the fire department after an active service of some 25 years.

Chief Stanton has endeared himself to us all through his contact as a member in the National Fire Protection association, not only because of his personal characteristics, but also on account of his ability as a fire engineer.

It was my pleasure to visit some of the stations in your city and I was very much impressed by the personnel, equipment and maintenance of the stations. I think your city is to be congratulated upon having such a man as Chief Stanton at the head of the fire department.

WILLIAM B. WHITE,
Superintendent, Survey Department, New York Board of Fire Underwriters.
New York, Aug. 11, 1926.

IN THE DAYS NEWS

ON A EUROPEAN SLEEPER

Life on a Continental "sleeper" is described in the following bulletin from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic society. The bulletin is one of a series dealing with current European travel:

"French sleeping cars are different from the usual sleepers in America, although they have some things in common with the most recent American compartment coaches," says the bulletin. "An aisle extends down one side of the car, about the length of an American coach, and from this aisle doors open into the compartments. The latter have a door plan somewhat like that of a grand piano; they are narrow at the entrance door, and flare to a greater width at the other side of the car. In the 'scallop' is a door leading to a small lavatory which is sandwiched between two adjoining compartments and is shared by their occupants. An ingenious device bolts both the lavatory doors at once, insuring privacy. You are almost ready to believe that the electrical designer sought to play a joke on the passengers. Switches are cleverly hidden so that they seem a part of the decorations. You poke about until you are lucky enough to touch them by accident.

"In the compartments two bunks may be prepared, a lower and an upper, placed across the train, not in the direction of travel as in America. No curtains are used and you necessarily share the little room rather intimately with whomever the other ticket has been sold to. Ticket agents must, of course, be exceedingly careful in their sales. There can be no haphazard selling of uppers and lowers to men and women as in America.

"Continental sleeping cars are filled to overflowing with 'gadgets,' particularly the upper berth, by way, perhaps, of consolation for loss of the lower. Little nests of nickled hooks fold out of each other fan-wise so that you may hang every garment you possess on a separate hook, and still have racks and nets and hammocks besides. The lower berth even has a special little sloping plush rest and hook for your watch so that you may hang it open beside your head. From the ceiling a broad web strap extends down to the side of the upper berth at the middle to keep its occupant from rolling out—the original, no doubt, of the similar devices now being introduced into America.

"The generally accepted custom at bed time is for the holder of the lower berth to surrender the compartment to his fellow traveler until the latter retires, and then to retire himself. In the morning the order is reversed; the occupant of the lower rises first unless destinations differ and the upper traveler must leave the train first. There are no smoking rooms on Continental sleepers. In the corridor, held against the outer wall by a spring, are hinged seats which may be lowered. Here one sits and smokes if he likes, while his compartment companion dresses; and at other times if he prefers the scenery on the corridor side of the train. When lowered, unfortunately, these seats pretty well block the aisle, so that you must hop up whenever passengers or train attendants wish to pass."

The draw of the Lincoln highway bridge over the Hackensack river at Kearney, N. J., recently expanded so much from heat that it would not fit into the rest of the structure. Traffic was held up forty-five minutes while the steel beams cooled off and contracted to their normal length.

SMOKE

Light-winged smoke! Icarian bird
Melting thy pinions in thy upward flight;
Lark without song, and messenger of dawn,
Circling above the hamlets as thy nest;
Or else, departing dream, and shadowy form
Of midnight vision, gathering up thy skirts;
By night star-ceiling, and by day
Darkening the light and blotting out the sun;
Go thou, my incense, upward from this hearth,
And ask the gods to pardon this clear flame.

—Henry David Thoreau.

Top Notch Bargains for Friday and Saturday
REAL MONEY-SAVING SPECIALS!

—BEEF— Cut from Heavy Western	—VEAL— Milk Fed	—LAMB— Swift's Genuine
Pot Roast Beef, lb.... 15c	Short Cut Legs, lb.... 25c	Leg of Lamb, lb..... 31c
Chuck Roast, lb... 18-22c	Roasting Pieces, lb... 25c	Loins, lb..... 27c
Boneless Rib Roast, lb 32c	Stewing Veal, lb... 12½c	Fores, lb..... 23c

Fresh Ground HAMBURGH, lb .. 15c | Fresh PORK LOINS, lb..... 25c | Stewing LAMB, lb..... 12½c

PLATE NAVEL BRISKET CORNED BEEF One Head of CABBAGE FREE With Each Order lb. 11c

SPECIAL, WHILE THEY LAST! Milk Crackers, 2 lbs ..... 25c | FINE GRANULATED SUGAR—5 lbs..... 29c

Confectionery XXXX SUGAR, 2 lbs..... 19c | Mohican Special BREAD FLOUR... $1.29 1-8th BARREL | Campbell's PORK and BEANS, 3 cans 25c

SNIDER'S CATSUP—Bottle ..... 23c | CRASHLIN TOILET PAPER—8 rolls 25c

Mohican Bread BETTER BREAD WEIGHING 16 OUNCES AFTER BAKING lb. 7c

Fresh Fruit PEACH PIES, each. 25c | Don't Forget Saturday Hot Beans — Brown Bread | BUNS—All kinds— Two dozen 35c

FRESH CREAMERY MOHICAN BUTTER, lb..... 42c

Selected EGGS—Two dozen 69c | Best Pure LARD—Two pounds 35c

No. 1 LONG ISLAND POTATOES, 15-lb. peck 38c

Native TOMATOES —Three pounds... 25c | Fancy Freestone PEACHES—3 qts.. 25c

Hard Ripe BANANAS—Dozen 19c | California Seedless GRAPES—lb. 10c

—Direct From Block Island—
SWORDFISH—Pound 33c
STEAK TILE FISH, lb..... 29c
BUTTER FISH, lb..... 33c
LIVE LOBSTERS, lb..... 45c
STEAK COD—lb. 23c
CLAMS—For Chowder—Pint 39c

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

The quicker you are to take advantage of this feast of Sale Values, the better the choosing will be—for good news like this spreads like wildfire! Generous discounts have brought prices on good furniture well within your buying range—making it possible for you to invest in beauty and comfort for your home that will pay rich dividends in contentment and happiness for years to come!

HOURIGAN BROS.

62-66 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

Pile Sufferers

You can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Nothing but an internal remedy can do this—that's why cutting and salves fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, is guaranteed to quickly and safely banish any form of Pile misery or money back. Lee & Osgood and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee.

Bob's Men's Shop

162 Main Street

One-Cent Sale

NOW ON

$1.00 Interwoven FANCY SILK HOSE

2 Pair for $1.01

$2.50 Genuine Broadcloth —and— Fancy Collar Attached SHIRTS

2 for $2.51

TIRES ON CREDIT $1.00 as low as per Week

All Sizes — All Quality — Tires on Credit at Cash Prices

CENTRAL AUTOMOBILE TIRE CO.

301 TRUMBULL STREET HARTFORD, CONN.

LOCAL AGENT WANTED

Friday Specials

Beechnut Prepared Spaghetti—2 cans for 25c

Fancy Plate Corned Beef, lb 10c

J. M. Young & Sons

Oh! What A Relief

Stomach Sufferers Cannot Help But Recommend Pepsinic Seltzer.

People who have used Pepsinic Seltzer claim that it is the most wonderful remedy for relief of Gas, Acid conditions, Indigestion and Nausea that they have ever used and simply cannot help but recommend it to their friends. If you have pains around your heart, in your side or in your back, you may think you have heart trouble, Appendicitis or Kidney trouble but it's often gas that causes distress, or if you have Nervous Indigestion from strain of responsibility, nervous or temperamental nature. Pepsinic Seltzer is a most remarkable remedy and can be obtained in Drug Stores. Absolutely safe for children.

Will Be In Camp At Fort Wright

The 242nd Coast Artillery regiment, Connecticut National Guard, comprising 129 men and 20 officers from Bridgeport will embark on an army mine planter for Fort H. G. Wright August 22. They will be under command of Major [illegible]

Quaker Oats "stands by" you through the morning

Important for Children and Grown-Ups Alike

HOW you feel all morning depends largely on what you eat for breakfast. Thousands have unenergetic forenoons because of wrong breakfast eating.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is hurried—often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamines and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Quaker Oats

Norwich, Friday, August 13, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Friday and the 13th!

Light vehicle lamps at 7:22 (S. T.) this evening.

The baseball nine from the submarine base is scheduled to play at Saybrook Sunday.

East Beach at Quonotaug is getting popular. Six new houses have been built on Burdick's Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burdick motored from Dayville, for a week-end visit on Westerly and at Potter Hill.

Thompson grange picnic this year is to be an evening affair at Pom Breeze, Monday, August 23rd.

Lawn party, Canterbury church, postponed to this (Friday) afternoon and evening.—adv.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Montville, has been named Carol Comstock Johnson.

A new piazza or terrace is being constructed on the north side of the Watch Hill Yacht club's building.

The Rosary society of St. Patrick's church is to receive holy communion in a body at the 7:30 mass Sunday.

George B. Way's building a concrete sea wall at Plumbank beach in Saybrook, preparatory to building a cottage.

In dress goods and millinery, new shades for fall are: Armagan [illegible] rose, and "Florentine" blue, soft, hazy blue.

Ox eboys' camp at Gardner Lake maintains a stable of 16 or 18 saddle horses, with a riding master, throughout the season.

Groton residents Miss Virginia L. Waldmann and Miss Esther A. Moore have returned from an automobile trip to Putney, Vt.

Highway department men have been given Saxon turnpike a thorough sanding of late, adding to the safety of that fine highway.

At Scotland, over seventy were present at the last meeting of Scotland grange when the program was furnished by Andover grange.

There was a grateful drop in temperature following the [illegible] shower Thursday. During the day the mercury had reached 95 degrees.

Norwich summer cottagers Nathalie Cook, whose home is [illegible] followed by disagreeable weather, the season being accounted very poor.

Of the six cows at Norman Wilcox's farm two have young calves and Clarence D. Ellis gets about 4 quarts of milk daily for use in his business.

Dealers here who are offering coal coverings state that business is quiet at summer average but that they expect demands to pick up after Labor Day.

Some of the Pachaug men are having in Hampton for the Ingalls Brothers and have harvested one crop of hay from the Gorman Hill place.

Miss Eleanor Monge has resumed her duties at the Lawrence and Memorial hospital after three weeks vacation spent at her home in Scotland and in Branford.

Visitors to the museum Thursday afternoon found [illegible] Dan the Bermuda [illegible] movement; northeast.

Active bidding for weather [illegible] at the quaint [illegible] a Hudson [illegible] the Fall [illegible] the August auction of [illegible] New York this week.

An anniversary mass of requiem has been requested for the repose of the souls of Mary Murphy and Margaret Noah, at the Lebanon [illegible] on Labor Day.

The guests were shaking [illegible] weeks and were [illegible] so that the weather [illegible] expect the heavy [illegible] same Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Lee Reeves, daughter of William H. and Martha [illegible] Reeves, New London and Rose Place of Lausanne, Switzerland, were united Wednesday at Lausanne.

Stanley P. Dilworth and Miss Ina Huesing were witnesses at a [illegible] held in the Police Court [illegible] the motor boat [illegible]

Shop models for [illegible] at half cost are being [illegible] in the [illegible] Shop. [illegible] one of the [illegible] Eastern Connecticut [illegible] Pictorial [illegible]

Work on the new [illegible] school house in Groton [illegible] district is progressing rapidly. [illegible] ment foundation is being laid [illegible] main part of the building [illegible] constructed.

Albert Lanzworthy has sold a piece of land on the road leading to Wauregan from Westerly part [illegible] Clarence E. Peckham of Pomfret [illegible] and. The land is on the west side of the highway.

In his growing of garden Alvah [illegible] of Groton declares that [illegible] would be a fortune in it for the [illegible] who could produce [illegible] cucumbers. Blue ribbon [illegible] successfully.

A correspondent notes that Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coles and children of Norwich and Mr. and Mrs. A. [illegible] Wethersfield have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Eldredge of the Old Mystic Road.

Sports belts of cowhide with fancy [illegible] inserts are said to be in an outstanding item in the men's trade just now. Cocoa is the favored shade of the leather, as it harmonizes with [illegible] of any color.

With so many of the stores closed for the clerks' half holiday, Thursday the appearance of the city was [illegible] of a deserted Sunday afternoon. Large stores, restaurants and news stands kept business moving.

Selectman and Mrs. W. C. Rose and family of West Wilmington have taken the Ocean View Inn at Quonochontaug for two weeks. The Ocean View has not been used this season prior to the arrival of this party.

Plans are getting under way for the [illegible] September 22nd commemorating the 150th anniversary of the death of Nathan Hale. Dr. William L. Higgins of South [illegible] has been appointed chairman of the committee.

[illegible] town [illegible] and road with [illegible] the [illegible] Norwich Town which [illegible] on the [illegible] of the drug store when [illegible] Arnold served as [illegible] The [illegible] between the Palmer and Dunne properties.

A new type of bar pin is curved instead of being straight and flat, and is so made that the strands of a necklace will pass through it. It serves to hold the necklace in place, and being set with rhinestones, is ornamental as well as useful.

The government has been seeking an associate poultry husbandman, at $2,600 for vacancies in the bureau of animal industry, department of agriculture, for duty at Glendale, Ariz., and vacancies in positions requiring similar qualifications, for duty at Washington, D. C., or elsewhere.

PERSONALS

Miss May M. Hall of Glenside, Penn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ellis of Asylum street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auwood of New London are visiting in Montville at the home of George H. Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boyd, of Norwich have been registered at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, this week.

Miss Myrtle Buteau of Cliff street is the guest of Mrs. Mary Stanley at the Elkhorn cottage, Pleasant View, R. I.

Rev. J. Topa, assistant pastor at St. Joseph's church, is spending a few days in Rochester, N. Y., and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Lucy H. Ross has returned to her home in Rochester, N. Y., following a visit with Mrs. James Sawyer, of Montville.

Miss Mary Dunn of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Alice McNally, has left to visit relatives in Noank.

Samuel S. Richmond of Philadelphia, Pa., who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogie of Trading Cove, has returned to his home in that city.

Miss Alice Strong of Malden, Mass., who is at "Rest Cottage", Willimantic Camp ground, has with her, Mrs. S. J. Worcester, from Boston, for the month.

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Thurston have [illegible] cottage, Quonochontaug. [illegible] Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lamb and Mrs. Beckwith of Norwich.

Miss Mary Moore and Miss Helen L. Murphy, [illegible] nurse trained in the United Workers, are spending [illegible] vacation on a motor trip to Canada.

Miss Margaret L. Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Barbour of West Pittsfield, Mass., is spending her [illegible] Wauregan, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boyle, of Trading Cove.

Miss [illegible] Bacon and daughter of McKenzie, [illegible] and Clarke, [illegible] late returned from a trip to Canada [illegible] New York [illegible] and lakes.

FUNERALS

August Sabrowski

[illegible] August Sabrowski [illegible] Thursday [illegible] No. 334 [illegible] Funeral [illegible] Lisbon and [illegible] Hanover [illegible]

[illegible] relatives of [illegible] the service [illegible] were most [illegible]

[illegible] where [illegible] conducted [illegible] The bearers [illegible] Jerseyville. [illegible] Alfred Berg[illegible] Howard [illegible] Kutner. Arrangements in charge of Church [illegible]

[illegible] floral [illegible]

[illegible] Heart. [illegible] Wisconsin; [illegible] and [illegible] Mother Norbert [illegible] Sister Augustus [illegible] Agnes [illegible] Sister Antonia [illegible] Paul [illegible] Mary [illegible] Mary [illegible] Wisconsin; [illegible] Sister Mary [illegible] Children: [illegible]

Agatha Lopez

[illegible] Agatha Lopez [illegible] death occurred [illegible] were held at [illegible] church [illegible] and [illegible] road to St. Patrick's [illegible] in St. Joseph [illegible] Burial was made in [illegible] were [illegible] Lopez was born [illegible] Islands [illegible]

OBITUARY

James W. Reiss

[illegible] James W. [illegible] to care of [illegible] at his home [illegible] p. m. [illegible] days. He [illegible] New York [illegible] Mrs. B. H. Arnold of [illegible] Mrs. L. P. Clark [illegible] Robinson, both of [illegible] and son I. Harold [illegible] Mass., and [illegible] Richard Avery [illegible] by three sisters and [illegible] Lizzies of Norwich [illegible] P. Kent of and Mrs. [illegible] besides [illegible]

Frank Fanning Jewett

[illegible] the Congregational [illegible] of Frank [illegible] son of Dr. Charles [illegible] temperance orator. Mr. [illegible] was formerly a resident [illegible] Tower. He graduated [illegible] academy and [illegible] At one time he [illegible] teaching staff [illegible]

EMPLOYMENT SITUATION FAIR IN NORWICH

[illegible] Connecticut during [illegible] seasonal demand [illegible] over the country [illegible] report of [illegible] meeting of directors [illegible] the United [illegible] While [illegible] reported reduced [illegible] others found employment [illegible] with a shortage [illegible] The metal trades [illegible] a surplus of [illegible] near thread and textile [illegible] to part time employment [illegible] the mixed activities [illegible] made with a satisfactory situation.

[illegible] Director [illegible] and registered [illegible] work [illegible] and [illegible] Norwich—The labor supply and demand are very evenly balanced. All [illegible] are running full time and there is no unemployment evident.

Inspected Farms

Members of the Young Farmers' club of Lebanon with Professors Manchester and Putnam of Storrs and [illegible] Agent Walter T. Clark of [illegible] their annual [illegible] arrangement trip [illegible] weeks visit [illegible] Franklin, Preston, Montville and Waterford.

ELECTRICAL STORM PUTS TELEPHONE TOLL LINES OUT OF COMMISSION

An electrical storm which swept in from the northwest late Thursday afternoon broke the heat spell which has held Norwich in its grasp for the past two days. The storm clouds appeared in the northwest shortly before 4 o'clock. In the next 15 minutes there was an appreciable drop in the temperature. By 4:30 o'clock it had become so dark that automobile headlights were switched on and lights were found necessary in stores, offices and houses. Daylight was practically obliterated by the heavy, black clouds that swept over this section. Shortly before 4.15 o'clock rain began falling and it continued to rain until well after six o'clock.

There were two distinct storms. One followed the Thames river toward Long Island sound and the other evidently centered over Willimantic. A high wind accompanied the storm. Branches were blown from trees and wires in several sections of the town and city were blown down.

Lightning struck a tree in Taftville, shattering it badly and causing limbs to fall onto high tension wires carrying them to the ground. No serious damage by lightning was reported in the city although many houses were crippled for electric light and telephone service, because of the burning out of house fuses.

The Connecticut company suffered considerably because of the two storms and trolley service was badly crippled. High tension trouble caused delays for 45 minutes during the storm of the afternoon and again at 8 o'clock in the evening power was hit during a second storm to the south of Norwich. Cars were kept moving but at retarded speed causing all lines to be operating at from 15 to 20 minutes behind schedule practically all evening.

The greatest trouble came on the Norwich-Willimantic line. The trolley leaving Norwich at 3 o'clock in the afternoon did not arrive in Willimantic until 6 o'clock, being held up on Barrell curve, between Occum and Baltic, because of deep piles of sand on the rails. After several hours of work by the trolley crew and workmen with them on the trip, the rails were cleared, but the sand continued to block traffic almost all the way to Baltic.

At the New London end of the line water on the rails and washouts caused considerable trouble, that section of eastern Connecticut experiencing a regular flood at the height of the storm. To the north of Norwich the service was also badly disrupted.

The local exchange of the Southern New England Telephone company was badly crippled by the storm and at one time every toll line out of the city was out of order. The lightning and rain accounted for the disrupting of service on 100 lines out of the city, effecting 300 stations.

Trouble men were kept busy placing lines back into service. Toll service was in working order early in the evening and many of the stations were reported in order but in the outlying districts the repair work will require a longer period.

The City of Norwich Gas & Electrical department also had considerable trouble due to the storm. The high wind which accompanied the storms broke branches from trees, carrying down wires on East Main street near the Bishop school and at Norwich Town in front of the Methodist church. No great damage was reported in local houses but the department was called upon for considerable work in replacing burned out fuses.

About 10 o'clock in the evening a tree on Franklin street, near Little Park, came down across electric light and telephone wires.

About 10:30 o'clock there was another light rainfall accompanied by sporadic flashes of lightning and distant thunder.

ROAD CONDITIONS IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT

Road conditions and detours in eastern Connecticut made necessary by highway construction and repairs announced by the state highways department as of August 11th, is as follows:

Willimantic-Putnam road (route 5) is under construction at Windham. Open to traffic.

Willimantic-Hartford road (route 3), section of concrete pavement just west of Willimantic being reconstructed and widened. Traffic may pass.

Willimantic-Putnam (routes 3 and 101), is under construction in Chaplin. Concrete pavement being laid. Two sections of one way traffic regulated by telephone.

Norwich-Putnam (route 12) grade crossing being eliminated in Plainfield. Short detour.

Norwich-New London road (route 12) is under construction in towns of Norwich and Montville. Open to traffic shoulders incomplete.

Norwich-New London road (route 12), in the towns of Waterford and Montville is under reconstruction. Open to traffic. Through traffic will avoid the work on using the Norwich-Groton road on the east side of the Thames river.

Norwich-Willimantic road (route 32), is under construction in Franklin. Concrete pavement is being placed. Section of one-way traffic regulated by telephone.

East Lyme (route 11) on the Post road the Golden Spur bridge is being reconstructed. Detour posted.

Norwich-Groton road (route 32) section on cut-off at submarine base is under construction. No detour.

Halfway road (route 179) in Preston grading is being done. detour posted.

Woodstock, West Woodstock-South Woodstock road (no route number), is under construction; grading is being done, open to traffic.

MONTHLY BUSINESS MEETING OF NORWICH LIONS CLUB

The weekly meeting of the Lions club was held Thursday noon at the Wauregan hotel with President William A. Anderson in charge. Herbert Corey was songleader for the meeting. Various matters of club interest were discussed as the meeting was the monthly one for business. President Anderson announced the following committees for the ensuing year. Civic committee—Abner Schwartz, Rudy Heuschel, Joseph L. French, William O'Neil and Joseph Panos. Finance committee—J. B. Caron, R. H. Montgomery, Louis Pomaine, Edward Rob, William R. Frisbie, Dr. Kopand K. Markoff and Dr. David Sussler, fellowship committee—John Barnes, Dave Kerr, Tom Savard, Jean Kiefer and A. Agavanovich; welfare committee—Louis Crandall, C. Elward Carpenter, Dr. Charles Solomon, Charlie Frink and Rev. E. C. Dunbar; entertainment committee—Earl Tazgart; publicity committee—Max Hanover, Ben Pullen, Herbert Corey, Frank Eccleston and Tyler Stanton.

During the meeting the resignation of Dr. Clarence G. Thompson was accepted and Lion C. Edward Carpenter was welcomed home after an absence from town for several weeks. Those to assist in furnishing programs for the next four weeks, were announced as follows by Lion Earle Taggart; Abner Schwartz, Tyler Stanton and Tom Savard.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and the salute to the flag.

TOLLAND VOTERS WORK FOR BETTER ORGANIZATION

The Connecticut League of Women Voters is working for better organization in Tolland county. Miss Sally Bailey Gleaton, field secretary, is conducting the work there now. Mrs. Charles E. Daniels and Mrs. L. Tilden Jewett of Tolland have consented to serve on the executive board of the county league. Both Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Jewett in interviews have said that they agree heartily with the principles advocated by the league; and in view of the coming elections have particularly stressed their agreement with Miss Belle Sherwin, national president, who says: "Women who refuse to vote because they have to disclose their age are out of date and handicap women's political progress. The refusal of women, on such ground, to take part in the choice of men and women who are to conduct the government, is as antiquated as many customs now discarded which for centuries bound women within a narrow sphere of activity—social and political. The voting power is a serious one. It should not be impaired by trifling."

JOHN LEIRICH FIRST IN EAGLES' PINOCHLE

In the seventh evening's play in the Eagles' pinochle tourney, John Leirich and John Avery, starting as partners, continued through the evening and finished with scores of 8,005 each. John Leirich took first prize on the cut, A. Hasted took third prize with a score of 7330.

Other high scores for the evening is follows: E. P. Mullins 6635, W. R. Hastedt 6570, E. J. Mullins 6570, L. Michette 6365, H. Herring 6235.

PLAYGROUNDS LAWN PARTY IS POSTPONED

The lawn party which was to be held at the Hobart avenue playgrounds on Thursday evening was postponed because of the inclement weather and will be held tonight, (Friday.)

All the features that were to be in evidence on Thursday evening will be at the lawn party this evening and a large crowd is expected for there will be something to entertain from beginning to end. The show is scheduled to open at 6:00 o'clock.

Shower-baths have been installed at the Lake street playgrounds and were in use on Thursday for the first time. The local recreation commission, William J. Fitzgerald, chairman, has worked hard towards getting these showers for this play-center and much credit is due them. The children at this ground will no doubt enjoy this new feature very much for to have these shower-baths at a city playground is quite an innovation.

The local recreation commission consists of the following: William J. Fitzgerald, chairman; Jonathan L. Johnson, secretary; Robert J. Swanton, John M. Lee, Mrs. Alex. Pasnik, Mrs. D. Louise Atterbury and Mrs. Elizabeth Drew.

NORWICH AUTO DRIVERS SUMMONED FOR HEARINGS

Hearing on seven applications for restoration of automobile drivers' licenses will be held at the county court house in New London next Wednesday at noon, standard time. Commissioner Robbins B. Stoeckel of the state motor vehicle department has announced that th following applicants will be heard:

Robert E. Kelly, 46 West Colt street, New London, operating under influence of liquor.

John F. Schule, Station 16, Waterford, reckless driving.

Frank W. Hempstead, Center Groton, operating under influence of liquor.

John Jones, 128 Broadway, Norwich, operating under influence of liquor.

Sturges G. Redfield, Jr., 160 Broad street, Providence, speeding.

Marietta T. Barrett, Snowden street, Waterford, fatal accident.

Owen Perkins, R. F. D. 2, Waterford, overloading.

John B. Caron of 552 North Main street, Norwich, and Henry Chowlard of 472 North Main street, Norwich, have been summoned for conference.

NEW TYPE FIRE TRUCK PASSES THROUGH NORWICH

The new aerial fire truck for Bethel, en route to that city from the Combination Ladder company of Providence, was driven to the Central Fire station in this city Thursday and a brief stop made. The truck, which is known as a city sized fire department truck, has a complement of 250 feet of ladders, the long being a 50 foot extension ladder. The truck is also equipped with a 35 gallon chemical tank in addition to three four gallon tanks.

The truck was inspected by Mayor Milo R. Waters and members of the board of fire commissioners while in this city. It is felt that Norwich is in need of a truck of this size, to be used where the big aerial truck would be too large.

The truck is operated by one man, the driver, and there is no tiller man. The truck is built on a two-ton Reo chassis, lengthened out.

SAVE BATHING BEACHES SAYS HEALTH BULLETIN

Save the bathing beaches, says the weekly health bulletin, issued by the Connecticut state department of health. Styling the beaches as nature's playground, the bulletin says:

Bathing and swimming are a healthful form of recreation. The cooling effect of a plunge on a hot day refreshes and invigorates. Swimming brings into play many of the body muscles and is a splendid form of exercise. Each year the demand for recreational facilities increases. The automobile has placed within the reach of thousands shore areas which heretofore have been undeveloped. Construction of vast numbers of new summer homes has brought about rapid growth in value of shore front property. Bathing beaches are more than ever in demand.

Bathing beaches, then, have a twofold value—the provision of recreational facilities for large numbers of the state's citizens and the economic worth of shore front property which depends for its value upon the existence of bathing facilities.

The discharge of sewage by our cities and towns and of waste materials from industries is seriously menacing these important recreational resources of the state. With the best practical installations of sewage treatment, it will be impossible to reclaim some areas now abandoned for bathing, but we are faced with even worse curtailment. In the inner waters of harbors which have been used for the enjoyment of thousands for years past, and increasingly so recently, conditions are rapidly approaching the danger point. Promiscuous pollution of entirely clean areas constantly threatens and must be kept in check.

The state department of health views with concern the possible necessity of closing bathing areas for the protection of the public health with attendant loss of recreational facilities. Surveys of bathing areas are being made as a measure of public protection and must be carried on with increasing diligence.

Conservation of this great natural resource is necessary. In many instances, the beaches are threatened with contamination from the very homes occupied by the families of the bathers.

Public opinion should be awakened to induce our cities and towns to do their share by providing sewage treatment. Arguments for installation of wastes' treatment plants are numerous but the threatening of one of nature's great gifts, the state's playgrounds, is alone enough to draw forth the deepest consideration. Public opinion, of course, must decide the issue. "Shall the bathing beaches be saved?"

YACHT MAYFLOWER ARRIVES IN NEW LONDON HARBOR

There was Norwich interest in the New London news note Thursday that the presidential yacht Mayflower had been ordered from Norfolk navy yard to New London, to await the arrival of her commander, Capt. Wilson Brown, U. S. N.

Captain and Mrs. Brown, (Lydia Ballou Almy) motored from Paul Smith's in the Adirondacks, where the former had been in attendance on President Coolidge since the opening of the summer white house. They were due in New London Thursday night and will be guests of Mrs. Brown's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellery Allyn, of Goshen Point, Waterford, probably for a month.

There was a rumor Thursday that the Mayflower might base at New London until President and Mrs. Coolidge were ready to leave the mountains to return to Washington, but this was not confirmed.

Captain Brown accompanied President Coolidge on his recent trip to his father's old home at Plymouth, Vt.

Captain Brown received his appointment as commander of the Mayflower in April last, succeeding Capt. Adolphus Andrews, who was sent to Geneva as one of the technical advisers of Minister Gibson in connection with the meeting of the preparatory commission on disarmament.

Before his appointment as naval aide to the President Capt. Brown served as aide to the commander of the destroyer squadrons of the battle fleet in the Pacific. From 1911-13, he was aide to the commandant of Brooklyn navy yard. During the World War, he served with the destroyer squadron based at Queenstown, Ireland, being commander of the destroyers Parker and Wilkes. They were engaged in patrolling the submarine zone and in escorting troops in these waters. His work in this connection won him the award of the navy cross. Capt. Brown was appointed to the naval Academy from New Jersey in 1898.

His wife is the elder daughter of the late Dr. Leonard Ballou and Carrie Webb Almy, whose home was on Washington street, Norwich. She was formerly Mrs. Donald Chappell, of New London. She divorced Mr. Chappell at Reno about two years ago shortly afterwards becoming the wife of Capt. Brown, who at that time had the rating of commander.

Mrs. W. Ellery Allyn, sister of Mrs. Brown and whom she is visiting was Marguerite Almy, of Norwich.

20 YEAR SERVICE BUTTON FOR WILLIAM R. BALCOM

Members of the Telephone council of the Norwich exchange of the Southern New England Telephone company enjoyed a hot-dog roast Thursday evening at the central office of the exchange, the affair, which was to have been held at Mohegan park, being transferred to the office owing to the unfavorable weather. There were about 30 members in attendance and the evening proved most enjoyable.

The feature of the evening was the presentation to William R. Balcom, commercial agent of the local exchange, of a 20 year service button, the presentation being made by Manager H. S. Lyon who spoke in part as follows:

On July 7, 1906 Mr. Balcom entered the employ of the Southern New England Telephone company as contract agent in Norwich. Some of you will remember that until about 1917 we canvassed from house to house for new subscribers. Mr. Balcom was one of the many canvasers and his record for the number of new subscribers placed him among the leaders. Since 1917 there have been numerous changes in classes of service and whereas Mr. Balcom has through untiring effort completed in record form, the work assigned to him, his workmanship is A1.

Mr. Balcom's loyalty is unsurpassable and his influence with his associates I will leave to you to answer, for I know you will all agree with me that Mr. Balcom is always most happy when he is doing something for others.

About seven weeks absence, due to illness, during his 20 years of service, is another record of which he may well be proud.

In expressing his appreciation of the praise given his work, Mr. Balcom stated that it was his aim to continue the record of service which had brought praise from the officials of the company, and that he regarded his 20 years of service as simply work in line of duty and a service rendered through interest in his work.

At the conclusion of the speaking Mr. Balcom received the congratulations of his fellow employes. It was anticipated that many of the state officials would be present for the meeting but this became impossible owing to the heavy rain during the early evening.

ADD PERS

Mrs. William Mason of Norwich and Mrs. Emma Danielson of Brooklyn spent a day recently at the homes of Mrs. C. E. Hallen and Miss Ellen Huntington in Lebanon.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

One of the circles of the Women's League was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Calvin L. Swan, at her cottage at Groton Long Point.

Miss Henrietta Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Browning of Kitemaug, who has been abroad during the summer is to return on the Aquitania at the end of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins, members of the summer colony at Weekapaug for the season, had as their guest early in the week Hume E. Flagler of Providence, a former Norwich resident.

Mrs. Herbert A. Bixby, of Bliss Place has been the guest of Mrs. N. T. White, at East Woodstock. Mrs. Bixby and her daughter, Miss Esther Bixby have returned from a week's visit with Webster relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stewart and family of Broad street, who had been detained because of illness in the household, left Tuesday for Lord's Point and are occupying Edelweiss cottage for the remainder of the season.

The diplomatic representatives of Jugaslavia, Rumania and Greece handed a collective note to the Bulgarian foreign minister regarding the activities of the Bulgarian comitadji, or irregulars. The substance of the note was withheld but it is known that it is not in the nature of an ultimatum.

Norwich Produce Market

(Furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture of Connecticut.)

Owing to the half holiday trading on the market was slow this morning. The supply of native apples is increasing but only moderate offerings of berries. There are liberal supplies of shipped in fruits with peaches 2.00-2.50; pears 3.50-4.00; plums 2.00-2.25; cantaloupes 2.00-3.00; honey dews 2.25-2.50 and watermelons .40-.50.

String beans and shell beans are offered in moderate amounts while the supply of limas is quite limited. Sweet corn is abundant and cheaper with a demand for yellow varieties. Large stocks of brought in tomatoes of rather inferior quality have injured the sale of the better native stock. Squash is very abundant with a slow demand.

Eggs are holding firm with strictly fresh scarce at any price.

Poultry, butter, dressed meats and grain are steady with no price changes.

The arrival of heavy supplies of native vegetables caused generally lower prices than were in evidence earlier in the week. Arrivals of native tomatoes increased to the extent that prices declined $2.00 per basket on some of the larger markets. Potato markets were weak and heavy supplies of shipped-in as well as native stock sold at lower prices. Potatoes are now being received from Long Island, Virginia, New York state and New Jersey and selling at practically the same price basis. The supply of native potatoes increased to the point where they are an important market factor. Supplies of native sweet corn were heavy and stock sold at the 2nd lower prices. Demand for Golden Bantam corn was better than for white varieties. Crookneck squash was in poor demand.

Native apples of larger size and better quality were offered than a week ago. Red Astrachan apples, well graded, brought from $3.00-3.50 per 14 quarts on the Hartford market. Huckleberries were in demand and trading being done mostly at $3.00-3.50 per crate. Red raspberries arrived in moderate supplies and sold readily. Prices of shipped-in peaches were lower than a week ago with heavy supplies of Alberta stock available. Native peaches appeared on the Hartford and New Haven markets. Good stock brought from 75-90c per 14-quart basket.

Native veal was in light supply and the market for good stock ruled firmer. The supply of western dressed meats was moderate and demand fair for heavier weights stock. Lamb prices were unchanged and supply and fair for native stock. No heavy hogs were in excessive supply for live stock. Prices were slightly lower. Dressed broilers were in good demand and markets mostly unchanged. Receipts of native eggs were light and markets firm. Light offerings of pullet eggs resulted scarce markets. The New York city quotation for pullet eggs ranged from 35-36c per dozen.

Fruits, vegetables: *Apples, 14 qt. .50, 1.00; *blackberries, qt. .20, .25; *blueberries, qt. .20; oranges, 7.00-216, 6.00, 7.00; *raspberries, red pt. .18 .20; *beans, green bu 1.50, 2.00; *Beans, lima, bu 3.50, 4.00; *beets, dozbun, .40, .50; *cabbage, bbl, 1.00, 1.50; *carrots doz bun .25, .35; celery, 2-stalk bun 1.00, 1.75; *corn, sweet, 100 ears 2.00, 2.50; *cucumbers, doz .25, .75; onions, bu 1.75, 2.00; *potatoes, bu 1.35, 1.75; potatoes new, bbl 3.50, 4.25; *squash, bu 1.00, 1.75; *tomatoes 14 qts 2.00, 2.50.

Poultry, dress: *Broilers, dressed lb 40, .50; *broilers, live lb .28, .32; *fowl, dressed lb .23, .28; *fowl, live lb .28, .30; *eggs, Conn. N.H. farm, w; *eggs, Conn. average, .30, .35; *eggs, Conn. gathered .42, .48; eggs, western .34, .40; butter, best tubs, lb .44, .45; butter, best print, lb .44, .46.

Meat products: *calves, best live lb .12, .14; *calves, heavy, lb .09, .10; *cows, live, (1400 lb.) 4.00, 5.50; *cows, live, com 2.00, 3.00; ham, best smoked, lb .34, .38; lard pure, lb .17 1-2; beef, prime, lb .17; beef, medium, lb .15, .16; cows, dressed, lb .11, .14; *cows com, dressed, lb .06, .09; lambs fancy, lb .28, .30; veal, med, dressed lb .15, .18; veal, fan, western, lb .19, .21; *veal fancy, lb .22, .24.

Grain (retail) door: Beef scraps, 100 lbs. 3.25, 3.35; bran, 100 lbs. 1.55, 1.60; corn, No. 2, 100 lbs. 2.05, 2.10; cottons'd meal, 100 lbs. 2.25, 2.30; dry mash, 100 lbs. 2.70, 3.00; flour, 196 lb. sack, 11.00, 12.00; gluten, 100 lbs. 2.30, 2.30; hominy chop 100 lbs. 1.85, 2.05; linseed meal, 100 lbs. 2.90, 3.00; middlings, std, 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; oats, No. 1, 80 lbs. 1.75, 1.85; poultry, grain, 100 lbs. 2.75, 2.85; Timothy, bale, 100 lbs. 1.50, 1.60; *Timothy, loose, 100 lbs. 1.40, 1.50; wheat, 100 lbs. 2.95, 3.50.

*Denotes native products.

Appropriation for State Pier

The state board of control has approved a proposal to set aside the sum of $2,000 from the receipts from the state pier, New London to be used for current expenses at the pier.

PICNICS

Don't let the trouble of preparing the food and packing the basket worry you. Let us know in advance and we will do it for you—we follow orders or make suggestions.

BAKED HAM
BOILED HAM
ROAST PORK
OX TONGUE
COOKED CORNED BEEF
PRESSED HAM
MINCED HAM
MEAT LOAF
POTATO SALAD
MAYONNAISE

All kinds of Imported and Domestic Cheese
Pickles and Olives in bulk and bottles.

THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 FRANKLIN STREET

Pile Sufferers

You can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Nothing but an internal remedy can do this—that's why cutting and salves fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, is guaranteed to quickly and safely banish any form of Pile misery or money back. Lee & Osgood and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee.

Bob's Men's Shop

162 Main Street

One-Cent Sale

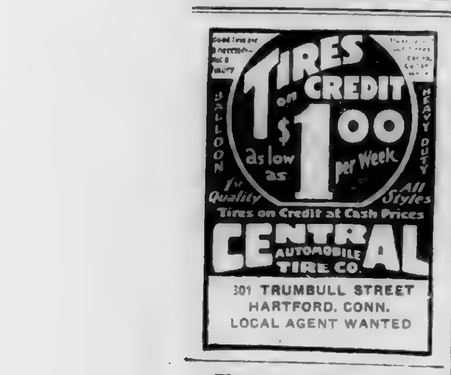
NOW ON

$1.00 Interwoven FANCY SILK HOSE

2 Pair for $1.01

$2.50 Genuine Broadcloth —and— Fancy Collar Attached SHIRTS

2 for $2.51



Friday Specials

Beechnut Prepared Spaghetti—2 cans for 25c

Fancy Plate Corned Beef, lb 10c

J. M. Young & Sons

Oh! What A Relief

Stomach Sufferers Cannot Help But Recommend Pepsinic Seltzer.

People who have used Pepsinic Seltzer claim that it is the most wonderful remedy for relief of Gas, Acid conditions, Indigestion and Nausea that they have ever used and simply cannot help but recommend it to their friends. If you have pains around your heart, in your side or in your back, you may think you have heart trouble, Appendicitis or Kidney trouble but it's often gas that causes distress, or if you have Nervous Indigestion from strain of responsibility, nervous or temperamental nature. Pepsinic Seltzer is a most remarkable remedy and can be obtained in Drug Stores. Absolutely safe for children.

Will Be In Camp At Fort Wright

The 242nd Coast Artillery regiment, Connecticut National Guard, comprising 120 men and 20 officers from Bridgeport will embark on an army mine planter for Fort H. G. Wright August 22. They will be under command of Major [illegible] E. Dyer of [illegible].

Quaker Oats "stands by" you through the morning

Important for Children and Grown-Ups Alike

HOW you feel all morning depends largely on what you eat for breakfast. Thousands have unenergetic forenoons because of wrong breakfast eating.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is hurried—often badly chosen

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamines and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Quaker Oats

Norwich, Friday, August 13, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Friday and the 13th!

Light vehicle lamps at 7:22 (S. T.) this evening.

The baseball nine from the submarine base is scheduled to play at Saybrook Sunday.

East Beach at Quonochontaug is getting popular. Sixty houses have been built on Burdicks Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burdick motored from Dayville, for a week-end visit in Westerly and at Potter Hill.

Thompson grange picnic this year is to be an evening affair at Point Breeze, Monday, August 23rd.

Lawn party, Canterbury church postponed to this (Friday) afternoon and evening.—adv

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Montville has been named Carol Comstock Johnson.

A new piazza or terrace is being constructed on the north side of the Watch Hill Yacht club's building.

The Rosary society of St. Patrick's church is to receive holy communion in a body at the 7:30 mass Sunday.

George E. Way is building a concrete sea wall at Plumbbank beach, Old Saybrook preparatory to building a cottage.

In dress goods and millinery new shades for fall are "Reagon [illegible] red and "Burgundy" blue, [illegible] haze blue.

Camp Yantic camp at Gardner Lake maintains a stable of 16 or 18 riding horses, with a riding master, throughout the season.

Groton residents Mrs. Virginia L. Wadhams and Mrs. Edna A. Moore have returned from an automobile trip to Putney, Vt.

Highway department men have given Salem turnpike an improving sanding of late, adding to the merits of that fine highway.

At Scotland, over seventy-five present at the last meeting of Scotch Hill grange when the program was furnished by Andover grange.

There was a grateful drop in temperature beginning the [illegible] over Thursday. During [illegible] the mercury had reached 94 degrees.

Norwich summer cottagers on Napatree Point, some of [illegible] have been followed by disagreeable days, the season being accounted very freaky.

Of the six cows at Norwich Almshouse two were stung lately. Supt. Charles E. Ellis sells about 3 quarts of milk daily for use in the household.

Dealers here who are offering floor coverings state that business is about at summer average, but that they expect demands to brisk up after Labor Day.

Some of the Phoenixville men are haying in Hampton for the Ingalls Brothers and have harvested a big crop of hay from the George Fuller place.

Miss Eleanor Mosier has resumed her duties at the Lawrence and Memorial hospital after three weeks' vacation spent at her home in Salem, and in Branford.

Visitors to the theater Thursday afternoon found no traces of the high tides which have been resulting from the Bermuda hurricane, in improvement northeast.

Active bidding for northern muskrat of the quality suitable for making a Hudson seal dye was the feature of the August auction of fur [illegible] New York this week.

An anniversary mass of requiem has been requested for the repose of the souls of Mary Murphy and Mrs. Catherine Noyes at the Immaculate Conception church Baltic.

Tax lists were shown late Wednesday and were viewed as grass, so that the weather [illegible] did not expect the heavy thunder storm which came Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Ann Reeves, daughter of William H. [illegible] Mary A. Reeves, New London and Rene Papin of Lausanne, Switzerland were married Wednesday at Lausanne.

Stanley P. Dewey and Miss Dora Hartig were witnesses in a treasure hunt held last week at the Plimpton hotel, Willimantic, for guests of the [illegible] Thursday.

Simple model for home decoration are not only being produced in wood, but also in [illegible] the naturalists or Columbus and the ships of the Pilgrims are faithfully reproduced.

Work on the new annex to the school house in Groton third school district is progressing rapidly. The cement foundation is being laid and a large part of the framing has been constructed.

Albert Langworthy has sold a piece of land on the road leading to Weekaquang from Westerly post road to Clarence E. Peckham of Fishers Island. The land is on the west side of the highway.

In his growing of gladioli, Alvah Cone of Groton, declares that there would be a fortune in it for the grower who could produce a blue-colored gladiolus. Blue phlox [illegible] possible.

A correspondent notes that Mr and Mrs. Lee Coles and child of Norwalk and Mr and Mrs. A. Clarke of Wethersfield have been guests of Mr and Mrs. Perry Eldredge of the Old Mystic Road.

Sports belts of cowhide with fancy silk inserts are said to be an outstanding item in the men's trade list now. Cocoa is the favored shade in the leather, as it harmonizes with a [illegible] of tan color.

With so many of the stores closed for the clerks' half holiday, Thursday, the appearance of the city was [illegible] of a glorified Sunday afternoon. Large stores, restaurants and [illegible] kept business moving.

Selectman and Mrs. W. C. Rubb and family of West Willington have taken the Ocean View Inn at Quonochontaug for two weeks. The Ocean View has not been used this season prior to the arrival of this party.

Plans are getting under way for the fair celebration September 22nd commemorating the 150th anniversary of the death of Nathan Hale. Dr. William L. Higgins of South Coventry has been appointed chairman of the committee.

Strangers in town continue to stop and read with interest the sign at Norwich Town which marks the location of the drug store where Benedict Arnold served as apprentice. The sign is between the Palmer and Donahue properties.

A new type of hat pin is curved instead of being straight and flat, and is so made that the strands of a necklace will pass through it. It serves to hold the necklace in place, and being set with rhinestones, is ornamental as well as useful.

The government has been seeking an associate poultry husbandman, at $2,000 for vacancies in the bureau of [illegible] industry, department of agriculture for duty at Glendale, Ariz., and vacancies in positions requiring similar qualifications, for duty at Washington, D. C., or elsewhere.

PERSONALS

Miss May M. Hall of Glenside, Penn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ellis of Asylum street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auwood of New London are visiting in Montville at the home of George H. Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boyd, of Norwich have been registered at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, this week.

Miss Myrtle Buteau of Cliff street is the guest of Mrs. Mary Stanley at the Elkhorn cottage, Pleasant View, R. I.

Rev. J. Topa, assistant pastor at St. Joseph's church, spending a few days in Rochester, N. Y., and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Ella H. Ross has returned to her home in Rochester, N. Y., following a visit with Mrs. James Sawyer, of Montville.

Miss Mary Finn of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been the guest of her cousin Miss Alice McNally has left to visit relatives in Noank.

Samuel S. Richmond of Philadelphia, Pa., who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Royce of Trading Cove, has returned to his home in that city.

Miss Alice Strong of Malden, Mass., who is at "Rest Cottage," Williman-tic Camp ground has with her, Mrs. S. J. Worcester, from Boston, for the month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thurston have entertained at Pequot cottage, Quonochontaug, Joseph Hall Mr. and Mrs. Hosier Lane, and Mrs. Beckwith of Norwich.

Miss Mary Meagher and Miss Helen L. Murphy [illegible] visiting nurses service, for the United Workers, are spending their vacation on a motor trip to Cape Cod.

Miss Dorothy H. Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Barbour of West Pawtucket, R. I., is spending her summer vacation at the home of Mr. [illegible] Hazard Rhode Island Trading [illegible].

Mrs. Daniel Brennan of McKinley avenue, and Miss Anna and Catherine Brennan have returned from a motor trip to Canada [illegible] northern New York. They covered one thousand miles.

FUNERALS

August Sabrowski

[illegible] for August Sabrowski [illegible] 2 o'clock Thursday [illegible] home No. 314 [illegible] be private. Luther an [illegible] Hunzinger conducting the service.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service and the floral tributes were most beautiful.

Burial was in Yantic cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Rev. M. Hunzinger. The bearers were [illegible] Sabrowski of Jersey City, [illegible] Wischnewski, Alfred Bercy, Frederick Sabrowski, Howard Kackutt and Charles Kufner. Arrangements were in charge of Church & Allen.

Among the many beautiful floral pieces were the following:

Pillow from Wife; standing heart, Mr and Mrs John Wischnewski; Gates Ajar, Charles J. Sabrowski and family; wreath, Mrs. Minnie Kackutt [illegible] wreath, August [illegible] crescent, August Mysech and family; star Arthur Sabrowski and family; heart, Paul Winkler and family; basket, Mr and Mrs. Erich Wertin; spray, Mrs. Frank Piper and Harry Wischnewski; wreath, George Dufner; spray, Mr. and Mrs. William Sautter; wreath, Mrs. Henry Mueller and children; crescent, Miss Mary Kackutt.

Agilio Lopez

[illegible] for Agilio Lopez 29, Darien, Conn., whose death occurred this city Wednesday, were held at o'clock Thursday morning at the undertaking parlors of Cummings and Ring. The service was read by Rev. Myles P. Galvin of St. Patrick's church. Burial took place in St. Joseph's cemetery, where friends acted as bearers. Mr. Lopez was born in Manila, Philippine Islands.

OBITUARY

James W. Reiss

[illegible] friends of James W. Reiss, 73, will be surprised to hear of his death which occurred at his home, 31 Arnold street, Thursday at 6 p. m. He had been sick only a few days. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, May 22, 1853, the son of James and Christina (Dyesel) Reiss. When a boy [illegible] parents to [illegible] and as a young man he mastered the [illegible] and coppersmith trade in the shops of Myron Sears, where he gained the distinction of being one of the finest special workers in eastern Connecticut. He was united in marriage with Mary A. Tinney by the late Fr. Daniel L. Mullen, Oct. 21, 1869. Besides his widow he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. B. H. Arnold of Leominster, Mass., Mrs. E. F. Clark and Mrs. William Hanson, both of Elizabeth, N. J., a grand son, J. Hurlbut Arnold of Leominster, Mass., and [illegible] Richard Arnold. He is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. August F. Eggers of Newark, N. J., Mrs. S. P. Keppler and Mrs. George Lang of this city, besides nieces and nephews.

Frank Fanning Jewett

[illegible] Congregational church, of Trans[illegible] a son of Dr. Charles [illegible] temperance orator, [illegible] was formerly a resident of Norwich Town. He graduated from [illegible] academy and [illegible] At one time he was [illegible] teaching staff at the academy.

EMPLOYMENT SITUATION FAIR IN NORWICH

Employment in Connecticut during [illegible] showed the usual seasonal declines [illegible] every [illegible] country [illegible] by reports of [illegible] of District [illegible] the United [illegible] week. While some sections of the state reported recession, however others found employment at a high peak. A shortage of skilled labor in the metal trades exists coupled with a surplus of workers in the [illegible] and textile industries due to part time employment. There are [illegible] unemployed actively [illegible] with a satisfactory [illegible] situation.

[illegible] as reported by Director Broun follows:

New London—Construction and repair work on ferry boats afford work for hundreds of mechanics and shipbuilders. One silk mill is closed, but the released workers have been absorbed in other mills.

Willimantic—A surplus of workers in the textile and thread industries exists only part of which is able to find employment locally.

Norwich—The labor supply and demand are very evenly balanced. All plants are running full time and there is no unemployment evident.

Inspected Farms

Members of the Young Farmers' club of Lebanon with Professors Manchester and Putnam of Storrs and County Agent Walter T. Clark of [illegible] inspected the farms of [illegible] Lebanon, Preston, Montville and Waterford.

ELECTRICAL STORM PUTS TELEPHONE TOLL LINES OUT OF COMMISSION

An electrical storm which swept in from the northwest late Thursday afternoon broke the heat spell which has held Norwich in its grasp for the past two days. The storm clouds appeared in the northwest shortly before 4 o'clock. In the next 15 minutes there was an appreciable drop in the temperature. By 4:30 o'clock it had become so dark that automobile headlights were switched on and lights were found necessary in stores, offices and houses. Daylight was practically obliterated by the heavy, black clouds that swept over this section. Shortly before 4:15 o'clock rain began falling and it continued to rain until well after six o'clock.

There were two distinct storms. One followed the Thames river toward Long Island sound and the other evidently centered over Willimantic. A high wind accompanied the storm. Branches were blown from trees and wires in several sections of the town and city were blown down.

Lightning struck a tree in Taftville, shattering it badly and causing limbs to fall onto high tension wires carrying them to the ground. No serious damage by lightning was reported in the city although many houses were crippled for electric light and telephone service, because of the burning out of house fuses.

The Connecticut company suffered considerably because of the two storms and trolley service was badly crippled. High tension trouble caused delays for 45 minutes during the storm of the afternoon and again at 8 o'clock in the evening power was hit during a second storm to the south of Norwich. Cars were kept moving but at retarded speed, causing all lines to be operating at from 15 to 20 minutes behind schedule practically all evening.

The greatest trouble came on the Norwich-Willimantic line. The trolley leaving Norwich at 3 o'clock in the afternoon did not arrive in Willimantic until 6 o'clock, being held up on Barrell curve, between Occum and Baltic, because of deep piles of sand on the rails. After several hours of work by the trolley crew and workmen with them on the trip, the rails were cleared, but the sand continued to block traffic almost all the way to Baltic.

At the New London end of the line water on the rails and washouts caused considerable trouble, that section of eastern Connecticut experiencing a regular flood at the height of the storm. To the north of Norwich the service was also badly disrupted.

The local exchange of the Southern New England Telephone company was badly crippled by the storm and at one time every toll line out of the city was out of order. The lightning and rain accounted for the disrupting of service on 100 lines out of the city, effecting 300 stations.

Trouble men were kept busy placing lines back into service. Toll service was in working order early in the evening and many of the stations were reported in order but in the outlying districts the repair work will require a longer period.

The City of Norwich Gas & Electrical department also had considerable trouble due to the storm. The high wind which accompanied the storms broke branches from trees, carrying down wires on East Main street near the Bishop school and at Norwich Town in front of the Methodist church. No great damage was reported in local houses but the department was called upon for considerable work in replacing burned out fuses.

About 10 o'clock in the evening a tree on Franklin street, near Little Park, came down across electric light and telephone wires.

About 10:39 o'clock there was another light rainfall accompanied by sporadic flashes of lightning and distant thunder.

ROAD CONDITIONS IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT

Road conditions and detours in eastern Connecticut made necessary by highway construction and repairs announced by the state highway department as of August 11th, is as follows:

Willimantic-Putnam road, (route 3) is under construction in Windham Open to traffic.

Willimantic-Hartford road (route 3), section of concrete pavement just west of Willimantic being reconstructed and widened. Traffic may pass.

Willimantic-Putnam (routes 3 and 101), is under construction in Chaplin. Concrete pavement being laid. Two sections of one way traffic regulated by telephone.

Norwich-Putnam (route 12), grade crossing being eliminated in Plainfield. Short detour.

Norwich-New London road (route 12), is under construction in towns of Norwich and Montville. Open to traffic, shoulders incomplete.

Norwich-New London road (route 12), in the towns of Waterford and Montville is under construction. Open to traffic. Through traffic will avoid this work by using the Norwich-Groton road on the east side of the Thames river.

Norwich-Willimantic road (route 32), is under construction in Franklin. Concrete pavement is being placed. Section of one-way traffic regulated by telephone.

East Lyme (route 1) on the Post road the Golden Spur bridge is being reconstructed. Detour posted.

Norwich-Groton road (route 32), section on cut-off at submarine base is under construction. No detour.

Hallville road (route 179), in Preston, grading is being done, detour posted.

Woodstock, West Woodstock-South Woodstock road (no route number), is under construction; grading is being done, open to traffic.

MONTHLY BUSINESS MEETING OF NORWICH LIONS CLUB

The weekly meeting of the Lions club was held Thursday noon at the Wauregan hotel with President William A. Anderson in charge. Herbert Corey was songleader for the meeting. Various matters of club interest were discussed as the meeting was the month's one for business. President Anderson announced the following committees for the ensuing year.

Civic committee—Abner Schwartz, Rudy Henschel, Joseph E. French, William O'Neil and Joseph Panek; finance committee—J. B. Caron, R. H. Montgomery, Louis Fontaine, Edward Rich, William R. Frisbie, Dr. Kopland K. Markoff and Dr. David Sussler; fellowship committee—John Barry, Dave Kerr, Tom Savard, Jean Kieffer and A. Agranovitch; welfare committee—Louis Crandall, C. Edward Carpenter, Dr. Charles Solomon, Charlie Frink and Rev. E. C. Dunbar; entertainment committee—Earl Taggart; publicity committee—Max Hanover, Ben Pullen, Herbert Corey, Frank Eccleston and Tyler Stanton.

During the meeting the resignation of Dr. Clarence G. Thompson was accepted and Lion C. Edward Carpenter was welcomed home after an absence from town for several weeks. Those to assist in furnishing programs for the next four weeks, were announced as follows by Lion Earle Taggart: Abner Schwartz, Tyler Stanton and Tom Savard.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and the salute to the flag.

TOLLAND VOTERS WORK FOR BETTER ORGANIZATION

The Connecticut League of Women Voters is working for better organization in Tolland county. Miss Sally Emery Gleaton, field secretary, is conducting the work there now. Mrs. Charles E. Daniels and Mrs. L. Tilden Jewett of Tolland have consented to serve on the executive board of the county league. Both Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Jewett in interviews have said that they agree heartily with the principles advocated by the league; and in view of the coming elections have particularly stressed their agreement with Miss Belle Sherwin, national president, who says: "Women who refuse to vote because they have to disclose their age are out of date and handicap women's political progress. The refusal of women, on such ground, to take part in the choice of men and women who are to conduct the government, is as antiquated as many customs now discarded which for centuries bound women within a narrow sphere of activity—social and political. The voting power is a serious one. It should not be impaired by trifling."

JOHN LEIRICH FIRST IN EAGLES' PINOCHLE

In the seventh evening's play in the Eagles' pinochle tourney, John Leirich and John Avery, starting as partners, continued through the evening and finished with scores of 8,005 each. John Leirich took first prize on the cut. A. Hasted took third prize with a score of 7339.

Other high scores for the evening is follows: E. P. Mullins 6635, W. R. Hasted 6570, E. J. Mullins 6570, L. Michette 6365, M. Herring 6235.

PLAYGROUNDS LAWN PARTY IS POSTPONED

The lawn party which was to be held at the Hobart avenue playgrounds on Thursday evening was postponed because of the inclement weather and will be held tonight. (Friday.)

All the features that were to be in evidence on Thursday evening will be at the lawn party this evening and a large crowd is expected for there will be something to entertain from beginning to end. The show is scheduled to open at 8:00 o'clock.

Shower-baths have been installed at the Lake street playgrounds and were in use on Thursday for the first time. The local recreation commission, William J. Fitzgerald, chairman, has worked hard towards getting these showers for this play-center and much credit is due them. The children at this ground will no doubt enjoy this new feature very much for to have these shower-baths at a city playground is quite an innovation.

The local recreation commission consists of the following: William J. Fitzgerald, chairman; Jonathan L. Johnson, secretary; Robert J. Swanton, John M. Lee, Mrs. Alex. Pasnik, Mrs. D. Louise Atterbury and Mrs. Elizabeth Drew.

NORWICH AUTO DRIVERS SUMMONED FOR HEARINGS

Hearing on seven applications for restoration of automobile drivers' licenses will be held at the county court house in New London next Wednesday at noon, standard time. Commissioner Robbins B. Stoeckel of the state motor vehicle department has announced that th following applicants will be heard:

Robert E. Kelly, 46 West Colt street, New London, operating under influence of liquor.

John F. Schule, Station 16, Waterford, reckless driving.

Frank W. Hempstead, Center Groton, operating under influence of liquor.

John Jones, 120 Broadway, Norwich, operating under influence of liquor.

Sturges G. Redfield, Jr., 160 Broad street, Providence, speeding.

Marietta T. Barrett, Snowden street, Waterford, fatal accident.

Owen Perkins, R. F. D. 2, Waterford, overloading.

John B. Caron of 552 North Main street, Norwich, and Henry Chowlard of 475 North Main street, Norwich, have been summoned for conference.

NEW TYPE FIRE TRUCK PASSES THROUGH NORWICH

The new aerial fire truck for Bethel, en route to that city from the Combination Ladder company of Providence, was driven to the Central Fire station in this city Thursday and a brief stop made. The truck, which is known as a city sized fire department truck, has a complement of 250 feet of ladders, the long being a 50 foot extension ladder. The truck is also equipped with a 35 gallon chemical tank in addition to three four gallon tanks.

The truck was inspected by Mayor Milo R. Waters and members of the board of fire commissioners while in this city. It is felt that Norwich is in need of a truck of this size, to be used where the big aerial truck would be too large.

The truck is operated by one man, the driver, and there is no tiller man. The truck is built on a two-ton Reo chassis, lengthened out.

SAVE BATHING BEACHES SAYS HEALTH BULLETIN

Save the bathing beaches, says the weekly health bulletin, issued by the Connecticut state department of health. Styling the beaches as nature's playground, the bulletin says:

Bathing and swimming are a healthful form of recreation. The cooling effect of a plunge on a hot day refreshes and invigorates. Swimming brings into play many of the body muscles and is a splendid form of exercise. Each year the demand for recreational facilities increases. The automobile has placed within the reach of thousands shore areas which heretofore have been undeveloped. Construction of vast numbers of new summer homes has brought about rapid growth in value of shore front property. Bathing beaches are more than ever in demand.

Bathing beaches, then, have a two-fold value—the provision of recreational facilities for large numbers of the state's citizens and the economic worth of shore front property which depends for its value upon the existence of bathing facilities.

The discharge of sewage by our cities and towns and of waste materials from industries is seriously menacing these important recreational resources of the state. With the best practical installations of sewage treatment, it will be impossible to reclaim some areas now abandoned for bathing, but we are faced with even worse curtailment. In the inner waters of harbors which have been used for the enjoyment of thousands for years past, and increasingly so recently, conditions are rapidly approaching the danger point. Promiscuous pollution of entirely clean areas constantly threatens and must be kept in check.

The state department of health views with concern the possible necessity of closing bathing areas for the protection of the public health with attendant loss of recreational facilities. Surveys of bathing areas are being made as a measure of public protection and must be carried on with increasing diligence.

Conservation of this great natural resource is necessary. In many instances, the beaches are threatened with contamination from the very homes occupied by the families of the bathers.

Public opinion should be awakened to induce our cities and towns to do their share by providing sewage treatment. Arguments for installation of wastes' treatment plants are numerous but the threatening of one of nature's great gifts, the state's playgrounds, is alone enough to draw forth the deepest consideration. Public opinion, of course, must decide the issue, "Shall the bathing beaches be saved?"

YACHT MAYFLOWER ARRIVES IN NEW LONDON HARBOR

There was Norwich interest in the New London news note Thursday that the presidential yacht Mayflower had been ordered from Norfolk navy yard to New London, to await the arrival of her commander, Capt. Wilson Brown, U. S. N.

Captain and Mrs. Brown, (Lydia Ballou Almy) motored from Paul Smith's in the Adirondacks, where the former had been in attendance on President Coolidge since the opening of the summer white house. They were due in New London Thursday night and will be guests of Mrs. Brown's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellery Allyn, of Goshen Point, Waterford, probably for a month.

There was a rumor Thursday that the Mayflower might base at New London until President and Mrs. Coolidge were ready to leave the mountains to return to Washington, but this was not confirmed.

Captain Brown accompanied President Coolidge on his recent trip to his father's old home at Plymouth, Vt.

Captain Brown received his appointment as commander of the Mayflower in April last, succeeding Capt. Adolphus Andrews, who was sent to Geneva as one of the technical advisers of Minister Gibson in connection with the meeting of the preparatory commission on disarmament.

Before his appointment as naval aide to the President Capt. Brown served as aide to the commander of the destroyer squadrons of the battle fleet in the Pacific. From 1911-13, he was aide to the commandant of Brooklyn navy yard. During the World War he served with the destroyer squadron based at Queenstown, Ireland, being commander of the destroyers Parker and Wilkes. They were engaged in patrolling the submarine zone and in escorting troops in these waters. His work in this connection won him the award of the navy cross. Capt. Brown was appointed to the naval Academy from New Jersey in 1898.

His wife is the elder daughter of the late Dr. Leonard Ballou and Carrie Webb Almy, whose home was on Washington street, Norwich. She was formerly Mrs. Donald Chappell, of New London. She divorced Mr. Chappell at Reno about two years ago, shortly afterwards becoming the wife of Capt. Brown, who at that time had the rating of commander.

Mrs. W. Ellery Allyn, sister of Mrs. Brown and whom she is visiting, was Marguerite Almy, of Norwich.

20 YEAR SERVICE BUTTON FOR WILLIAM R. BALCOM

Members of the Telephone council of the Norwich exchange of the Southern New England Telephone company enjoyed a hot-dog roast Thursday evening at the central office of the exchange, the affair, which was to have been held at Mohegan park, being transferred to the office owing to the unfavorable weather. There were about 30 members in attendance and the evening proved most enjoyable.

The feature of the evening was the presentation to William R. Balcom, commercial agent of the local exchange, of a 20 year service button, the presentation being made by Manager H. S. Lyon who spoke in part as follows:

On July 7, 1906 Mr. Balcom entered the employ of the Southern New England Telephone company as contract agent in Norwich. Some of you will remember that until about 1917 we canvassed from house to house for new subscribers. Mr. Balcom was one of the many canvasers and his record for the number of new subscribers placed him among the leaders. Since 1917 there have been numerous changes in classes of service and whereas Mr. Balcom has through untiring effort completed in record form, the work assigned to him, his workmanship is A1.

Mr. Balcom's loyalty is unsurpassable and his influence with his associates I will leave to you to answer, for I know you will all agree with me that Mr. Balcom is always most happy when he is doing something for others.

About seven weeks absence, due to illness, during his 20 years of service, is another record of which he may well be proud.

In expressing his appreciation of the praise given his work, Mr. Balcom stated that it was his aim to continue the record of service which had brought praise from the officials of the company, and that he regarded his 20 years of service as simply work in line of duty and a service rendered through interest in his work.

At the conclusion of the speaking Mr. Balcom received the congratulations of his fellow employes. It was anticipated that many of the state officials would be present for the meeting but this became impossible owing to the heavy rain during the early evening.

ADD PERS

Mrs. William Mason of Norwich and Mrs. Emma Danielson of Brooklyn spent a day recently at the homes of Mrs. C. E. Halen and Miss Ellen Huntington in Lebanon.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

One of the circles of the Women's League was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Calvin L. Swan, at her cottage at Groton Long Point.

Miss Henrietta Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Browning of Kitemaug, who has been abroad during the summer is to return on the Aquitania at the end of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins, members of the summer colony at Weekapaug for the season, had as their guest early in the week Hume E. Flagler of Providence, a former Norwich resident.

Mrs. Herbert A. Bixby, of Bliss Place has been the guest of Mrs. N. T. White, at East Woodstock. Mrs. Bixby and her daughter, Miss Esther Bixby have returned from a week's visit with Webster relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stewart and family of Broad street, who had been detained because of illness in the household, left Tuesday for Lord's Point and are occupying Edelweiss cottage for the remainder of the season.

The diplomatic representatives of Jugoslavia, Rumania and Greece handed a collective note to the Bulgarian foreign minister regarding the activities of the Bulgarian comitadji, or irregulars. The substance of the note was withheld but it is known that it is not in the nature of an ultimatum.

Norwich Produce Market

(Furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture of Connecticut.)

Owing to the half holiday trading on the market was slow this morning. The supply of native apples is increasing but only moderate offerings of berries. There are liberal supplies of shipped in fruits with peaches 2.00-2.50; pears 2.50-4.00; plums 2.00-2.25; cantaloupes 2.00-2.00; honey dews 2.25-2.50 and watermelons .40-.50.

String beans and shell beans are offered in moderate amounts while the supply of limas is quite limited. Sweet corn is abundant and cheaper with a demand for yellow varieties. Large stocks of brought in tomatoes of rather inferior quality have injured the sale of the better native stock. Squash is very abundant with a slow demand.

Eggs are holding firm with strictly fresh scarce at any price.

Poultry, butter, dressed meats and grain are steady with no price changes.

The arrival of heavy supplies of native vegetables caused generally lower prices than were in evidence earlier in the week. Arrivals of native tomatoes increased to the extent that prices declined $2.00 per basket on some of the larger markets. Potato markets were weak and heavy supplies of shipped-in as well as native stock sold at lower prices. Potatoes are now being received from Long Island, Virginia, New York state and New Jersey and selling at practically the same price basis. The supply of native potatoes increased to the point where they are an important market factor. Supplies of native sweet corn were heavy and stock sold at slightly lower prices. Demand for Golden Bantam corn was better than for white varieties. Crookneck squash was in poor demand.

Native apples of larger size and better quality were offered than a week ago. Red Astrachan apples well grades brought from $3.00 to per 14 quarts on the Hartford market. Huckleberries and blueberries were liberal and trading being done mostly at $6.50-7.00 per crate. Red raspberries arrived in moderate supplies and sold readily. Prices of shipped-in peaches were lower than a week ago with heavy supplies of Elberta stock available. Native peaches appeared on the Hartford and New Haven markets. Good stock brought from 75-90c. per 14-quart basket.

Native veal was in light supply and the market for good stock ruled firmer. The supply of western dressed meats was moderate and demand fair for heavy-weight stock. Lamb prices were unchanged and demand fair for fancy native stock. Native broilers were in excessive supply for live stock. Prices were slightly lower. Dressed broilers were in good demand and markets mostly unchanged. Receipts of native eggs were light and markets firm. Light offerings of pullet eggs reached some markets. The New York city quotation for pullet eggs ranged from 35-36c per dozen.

Fruits, vegetables: *Apples, 14 qt. .50, 1.00; *blackberries, qt. .20, .25; *blueberries, qt. .20; oranges, 7?-216, 6.00, 7.00; *raspberries, red pt. .18, .20; *beans, green, bu. 1.50, 2.00; *Beans, lima, bu 3.00-3.50; *beets, doz bun. .40, .50; *cabbage, bbl. 1.00, 1.50; *carrots, doz. bun. .45, .55; celery, 12-stalk bun 1.00, 1.75; *corn, sweet 100 ears 2.00, 2.50; *lettuce, doz .50, .75; onions, bu. 1.50, 2.00, *potatoes, bu. 1.35, 1.75; potatoes, new bbl. 3.50, 4.25; *squash, bu. 1.00, 1.50; *tomatoes, 14 qts. 2.00, 2.50.

Poultry, dairy: *Broilers, dressed, 35, .40, .50; *broilers, live, lb. .25, .35; *fowl, dressed, lb. .32, .35; *fowl, live, lb. .26, .30; *eggs, Conn. N.H. fancy, *eggs, Conn, henery .50, .55; *eggs, Conn gathered .43, .46; eggs, western .34, .40; butter, best tub, lb. .40, .42; butter, best print, lb. 44, .45.

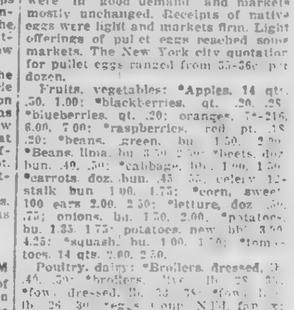
Meat products: *calves, best live lb .12, .14; *calves, heavy, lb. .09, .11; *cows, live, (100 lb.) 4.00, 5.50; *cows, live, com. 2.00, 3.00; ham, best smoked, lb .34, .38; lard pure, lb .17, 1.5, beef, prime, lb .17; beef, medium, lb .13, .16; cows, dressed, lb. .11, .14; *cows com. dressed, lb. .06, .09; lambs fancy, lb. .28, .30; veal, mid. dressed lb. .15, .18; veal, fan. western, lb. .18, .21; *veal taffev, lb .22, .2[illegible]

Grain (retail): dom. Red scraps 100 lbs. 3.25, 3.35; bran, 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; corn, No. 2, 100 lbs. 2.05, 2.10; cotton'd meal, 100 lbs. 2.25, 2.30; dry mash, 100 lbs. 2.70, 3.00, flour, 196 lb. sack, 11.00, 12.00; gluten, 100 lbs. 2.30, 2.50; hominy chop, 100 lbs. 1.95, 2.05; linseed meal, 100 lbs. 2.90, 3.00; middlings, std. 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; oats, No. 1, 80 lbs. 1.75, 1.85; poultry, grain, 100 lbs. 2.75, 2.85; Timothy, bale, 100 lbs. 1.50, 1.60; *Timothy, loose, 100 lbs 1.40, 1.50; wheat, 100 lbs. 2.95, 3.30.

*Denotes native products.

Appropriation for State Pier

The state board of control has approved a proposal to set aside the sum of $2,000 from the receipts from the state pier, New London to be used for current expenses at the pier.



PICNICS

Don't let the trouble of preparing the food and packing the basket worry you. Let us know in advance and we will do it for you—we follow orders or make suggestions.

BAKED HAM
BOILED HAM
ROAST PORK
OX TONGUE
COOKED CORNED BEEF
PRESSED HAM
MINCED HAM
MEAT LOAF
POTATO SALAD
MAYONNAISE

All kinds of Imported and Domestic Cheese
Pickles and Olives in bulk and bottles.

THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 FRANKLIN STREET

INTENTIONAL SECOND EXPOSURE

COMMISSION APPROVES BUT LICENSE COMMITTEE IS SILENT ON BOUT

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—(AP)—The state athletic commission today gave its unqualified approval to the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight title battle and ordered Promoter Rickard to go ahead with all arrangements to stage the fight at the Yankee stadium on September 18 in spite of the fact that Dempsey has not yet received his license and has no immediate prospect of getting it.

The outer offices of the boxing board were thrown into an uproar by a fiery tilt between the champion and Paddy Mullins, grey-haired manager of Harry Wills, that nearly ended in the pair coming to blows.

Mullins set off the spark of a long-smouldering feud by spurning Dempsey's greeting as they bumped into each other in a crowd of newspapermen and other onlookers.

Mullins accused Dempsey of double-crossing in his various dealings for a match with Wills, and called the champion a liar as the latter denied sending a telegram of re-assurance from Los Angeles last March. In spite of his white hairs and fifty years, Mullins jumped to his feet as Dempsey turned away with a remark that "It's a good thing you're too old."

"I'm not too old to take you on," shouted Paddy, raising his fist. "If you won't fight my fighter I'll lick you!"

Intervention by calmer spirits prevented the clash from going further. Mullins flung a final bomb-shell when he charged that he had been offered and refused $50,000 to withdraw the challenge of Wills for a title match, now on file with the commission.

Today's special session of the commission, ironed out what were presumed to be the remaining difficulties but the refusal of the license officials, Colonel J. J. Phelan and Colonel D. Walker O'Ware, to attend leaves the final outcome of the controversy still in the air.

Colonels Phelan and Wear not only bluntly refused to sit with the commission but exhibited an attitude of antagonism which convinced observers they are likely to reject Dempsey's license application.

Colonel Phelan asserted he believed it advisable in the interest of all concerned that both bodies function separately." Colonel Wear expressed himself more forcibly in this reply to Commissioner George E. Brower's invitation to attend today's meeting.

"I deeply regret that you did not have the public interests in mind previous to your wire of today and I could not under any condition so forget my selfrespect by meeting with the athletic commission."

The license committee, according to Colonel Phelan, will not meet before next Monday to reconsider Dempsey's application but Commissioners Brower and William Muldoon, who forced today's action over the dissenting voice of Chairman James A. Farley, made it plain they will leave no stone unturned to clear the path for the Dempsey-Tunney contest.

Rickard advised to go ahead with his plans, ordered his tickets printed, with a top price of $27.50, and instructed Dempsey to go at once to his training camp at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

The champion left for his up-state quarters early this afternoon.

PLAYGROUNDS SPORTS

Baseball

The Lake St. and Jail Hill playgrounds baseball teams will clash this afternoon at the Academy campus in a National league contest. The game promises to be fast and interesting from start to finish as both teams have some good ball players in their line-ups and will go out for the victory from the start. The game is scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock sharp.

Track Meet

The Laurel Hill playgrounds won the third and last of the preliminary track meets of the season at the Academy campus on Thursday afternoon, defeating the East Side and Thamesville grounds in a tri-cornered affair. The winners amassed a total of 46 points while the East Ends was second with 32 and Thamesville at with 12 points.

The meet was fairly close throughout and some nip and tuck contests were held in the different events.

Duckerman, Wyana and Dunn were the shining lights for the East Side team while Marshall did well for Laurel Hill and Weisgraber and Covalesko did well for Thamesville.

The summaries in the various events follow:

100 yd. dash—1st Marshall, L. H.; 2nd Taber, L. H.; 3rd Weisgraber, T.

60 yd. dash—1st Dickerman, L. S.; 2nd Wilmot, E. S.; 3rd Archibald, L. S.

440 yd dash—1st Marshall, L. H.; 2nd Jov, T.; 3rd Conaty, L. H.

60 yd. dash, girls—1st W. Wana, L. H.; 2nd A. Smith, L. H.; 3rd A. Toebak, T.

220 yd. dash, junir boys—1st Dickerman L. S.; 2nd Wyana, E. S.; 3rd Dunn, E. S.

1-2 mile relay—1st L. H.; 2nd E. S.; 3rd T.

50 yd. dash, girls—1st M. Curran, L. H.; 2nd Vallequette, L. H.; 3rd A. Cosnow, T.

Standing broad jump, senior—1st Lada, E. S.; 2nd Wyana, E. S.; 3rd Covelesky, T.

Running broad jump, senior—1st Marshall, L. H.; 2nd Tabor, L. H.; 3rd Weisgraber, T.

The meet was run off under the supervision of Instructor John P. Murphy of the local playgrounds.

Much interest will be attached to the final track meet to be held on Monday afternoon, August 16 at the Academy campus. Elizabeth St., Lake St., Thamesville and Jail Hill will compete for honors.

BRAVES SHUT OUT GIANTS IN FAST GAME

WAUREGAN, Aug. 12—On Wednesday evening Dessert's Braves turned back Maynard's Giants in a very fast and exciting game.

Gilbeault was hit hard but brilliant fielding saved him from a more decisive trimming.

Goyette's catch of a hard hit line drive proved to be the feature of the game. The score:

Braves	ab	h	po	a	e	Giants	ab	h	po	a	e
J. Hern, c						Bl. P'lerin, 2b	3	0	0	0	1
Desjardins, lf						2g Maynard, ss	3	0	1	0	0
Dessert, p						6Gilbeault, p	2	1	1	4	0
Pompeo, c						7Goyette, lf	2	2	1	0	0
Jacobs, 1b						9 Durel, 1b	2	1	1	0	0
Nadeau, ss						8 Prechette, 2b	2	1	1	0	0
Goyette, rf						4 Dugal, rf	2	0	2	0	0
Mayo, cf						5 Belanger, c	2	0	9	0	0
Marshall, 3b						3 Daniel, cf	1	0	0	0	0
						xFlanley	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	25	7	15	6	2	Totals	20	5	15	1	1

Score by innings:
Braves ..... 0 1 0 1 6—8
Giants ..... 0 0 0 0 1—1
Two base hits, Dessert. Bases on balls, off Gilbeault 1, off Dessert 1. Struck out, by Gilbeault 9, by Dessert 5, by Dessert 2.

Warriors Without Game

Owing to their game with the Groton Pioneers scheduled for Sunday being cancelled by the Groton team, the Warriors are without a game for that date and would like to hear from any fast team for a game. They especially would like to hear from Taftville Town team, Sachems, etc. Call 2352 for arrangements.

BROWNS HAVE TWO BIG INNINGS AGAINST TIGERS

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns bunched hits in the third and eighth innings today and won from the Detroit Tigers, 7 to 2, thus splitting the two-game series. Schang hit a home run in the second inning. Sisler and Manush each got three safeties. Score:

Detroit (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	St. Louis (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Naun, 1b	4	0	8	1	0	Rice, cf	2	1	1	1	0
Manush, cf	4	3	0	0	0	xSisler, 1b	4	2	12	0	0
Fothergill, lf	4	0	3	0	0	Williams, lf	4	1	1	0	0
Hallmann, rf	3	1	2	0	0	Miller, rf	3	1	1	0	0
O'ringer, 2b	4	2	2	4	1	McManus, 2b	3	1	0	4	0
O'Rourke, 3b	1	0	0	0	0	Schang, c	4	2	6	1	0
Warner, ss	1	0	1	1	0	Roberts'n, 3b	4	1	2	2	0
Tavener, c	2	0	5	2	1	Gerber, ss	2	0	1	2	0
Bassler, c	1	1	3	1	0	Nevers, p	3	0	0	3	0
Stoner, p	2	1	0	0	0
zWingo	1	0	0	0	0	Totals	31	10	27	12	0
xxCobb	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	8	24	9	2

(z) Batted for O'Rourke in 8th.
(xx) Batted for Stoner in 9th.
Score by innings:
Detroit ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—2
St. Louis ..... 0 2 2 0 0 0 0 4 x—7
Two base hits, Manush, Sisler, Bassler, Hellmann, Miller. Three base hit, Rice. Home runs, Schang.

WATERBURY SIGNS TORPHY AND BRADSHAW FOR SEASON

WATERBURY, Aug. 12—(AP)—Manager Kitty Bransfield, of the Brasscos today announced the signing of Infielder Walter Torphy and Catcher James (Yams) Bradshaw, of Naugatuck and the release of Outfielder Walter Genin. Torphy, a member of the 1925 championship Brasscos has been with the Bridgeport club until yesterday when he was released. He will play second base in place of Shorty Demoe who is out of the game probably for the rest of the season, with a fractured right thumb.

Catcher Bradshaw, who was released by the Brasscos a few weeks ago, was re-signed to aid Alex Schauffel with the backstop work. Bradshaw was formerly a member of the Hartford Senators at the opening of the season and joined the champions around the latter part of May.

PEANUTS TAKES FEATURE RACE AT SARATOGA

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—(AP)—R. L. Gerry's Peanuts, at 4 to 1, captured the Canadian handicap at Saratoga today in heavy going. The victory came as a surprise following Peanuts' poor showing under like conditions in the Saratoga handicap on opening day.

Display ran second in the event and Flagstaff was third, the time for the 1 1-8 miles was 1:54. Nurmi, Extra Dry and Biondin were outside.

Jockeys Barnes and Breuning were set down for five days at Saratoga for disobedience at the post in the first race. Breuning rides Pompey.

Paula Shay defeated Devon and Lakme in the mile event at Lincoln fields in 1:42.

TAFTVILLE A. A. TO PLAY SHAMROCKS ON SATURDAY

The attraction for the Providence street grounds, Taftville, on Saturday afternoon will be the fast Shamrock club of Manchester against the Taftville A. A., in the second game of the series between these two clubs. The Manchester club trimmed the Taftville team in a close game last Sunday at Manchester and the local boys are out for revenge. Lefty Buckland will be in the box for Taftville and the remainder of the line-up will be the same as has represented Taftville during the season.

The umpires for this game will be Arthur Roy behind the plate and Archie Mueller on the bases.

SWEEPSTAKES TOURNEY AT GOLF CLUB THIS WEEK-END

N. P. Vickery, "pro" at the Norwich Golf club, announces that over the coming week-end, there will be a sweepstakes tournament for those members of the club who are not playing in the Shennecossett invitation tournament this week. It is expected that there will be a large number of entries for this event as the regular club handicap will be applied.

The rain of Thursday afternoon was a welcome visitor to the course as the fairways are becoming burned under the intense sun of the past week. Superintendent Skelly has been putting in a busy summer on the greens which are fast getting into first class condition.

TODAY'S SPORTS

Racing

Meeting of Saratoga association, at Saratoga.

Meeting of Lincoln Fields Jockey club, at Chicago.

Golf

Western junior championship opens at Chicago.

Iowa women's championship tournament at Des Moines.

Tennis

National public parks championships, at Philadelphia.

Western Canada hard court championships, at Edmonton.

National junior and boys' championships, at Chicago.

East-West matches begin at Forest Hills, N. Y.

Roque

National championship tournament, at Winona Lake, Ind.

BOXING

Fidle La Barba vs. Emil Paluso, 10 rounds, at Chicago.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Philadelphia 5-5, Boston 1-0.
Cleveland 5, Chicago 0.
St. Louis 7, Detroit 2.
Washington 5, New York 2.

THE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	71	42	.628
Cleveland	64	51	.557
Philadelphia	61	52	.540
Washington	57	54	.514
Detroit	59	56	.513
Chicago	57	57	.500
St. Louis	48	64	.429
Boston	35	76	.315

GAMES TODAY

Philadelphia at Boston.
New York at Washington.
Only games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Cincinnati 9, Philadelphia 2.
Chicago-New York—rain.
Only games scheduled.

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	61	45	.575
St. Louis	61	49	.555
Cincinnati	62	51	.549
New York	57	52	.523
Chicago	57	52	.523
Brooklyn	53	53	.477
Boston	44	64	.407
Philadelphia	41	66	.383

GAMES TODAY.

Chicago at Pittsburgh.
New York at Philadelphia.
Only games scheduled.

Eastern League

Bridgeport 6, Albany 5.
Providence 5, Hartford 4.
Springfield-New Haven postponed.
Waterbury-Pittsfield, rain.

International League

Buffalo 3, Baltimore 4.
(All other games postponed by rain)

American Association

Toledo 4; at St. Paul 2 (first game).
Toledo 1, St. Paul 4 (second game).
Louisville 6; at Milwaukee 1.
Indianapolis 1 at Kansas city 3.
Columbus 5; at Minneapolis 7.

CLEVELAND BLANKS CHICAGO IN LAST GAME OF SERIES

CLEVELAND, Aug. 12—(AP)—The Cleveland and Chicago teams finished their series for the season today. Cleveland winning 5 to 0, it being their ninth victory in the series. Miller kept the Chicago hits well scattered and registered his second shut-out of the Chicago team this season. He started the campaign by blanking the White Sox with three hits.

Manager Speaker, of the Indians, made three doubles. The St. Louis Cardinals dropped en route from Boston to St. Louis and watched the game. Score:

Chicago (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Cleveland (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Mostil, cf	4	2	1	0	0	Lodisson, lf	1	2	2	0	0
H'nefield, 2b	4	1	2	4	0	Spurgeon, 2b	5	1	3	3	0
Peverly, 3b	3	1	1	3	0	Speaker, cf	4	2	1	0	0
Falk, lf	3	0	2	0	0	Burns, 1b	4	1	11	0	0
Barrett, rf	4	2	4	0	0	Sewell, ss	2	1	1	6	0
Nelson, 3b	4	1	1	1	0	Quinn, rf	4	2	3	0	0
Sewell, c	2	0	1	0	0	L. Sewell, c	3	0	1	6	0
Grabowski, c	1	0	0	0	0	Lutzke, 2b	0	0	0	1	0
Berg, rs	0	0	1	2	0	Miller, p	4	1	0	2	0
Fisher, c	1	0	0	0	0
Thurston, p	2	1	1	1	0	Totals	36	12	27	12	0
Totals	33	9	24	9	0

(a) Berg out, hit by batted ball.
Score by innings:
Chicago ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Cleveland ..... 1 0 1 1 1 0 1 0 x—5
Two base hits, Mostil, Barrett, Speaker 3. Three base hits, Jamieson, Sewell.

WASHINGTON TAKES THIRD STRAIGHT FROM YANKS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—(AP)—Geo. Murray, once a Yankee, held his former teammates to three hits today, the Senators copping the third straight. Some from the league leaders, 5 to 2. Walter Beall, former Washington sandlotter, lasted seven innings in the box for New York.

Babe Ruth not only failed to get a hit but fanned once. Manager Harris was not in the Washington line-up, having been suspended by Ban Johnson for his run-in yesterday with Umpire Owens. Score:

New York (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Washington (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Koenig, ss	4	0	2	2	0	McNeely, lf	4	0	2	0	0
Combs, cf	4	0	2	0	0	Stewart, 2b	3	1	1	1	0
Gehrig, 1b	2	0	1	0	0	Ruel, rf	4	1	2	0	0
Ruth, rf	3	0	1	0	0	Myatt, ss	3	0	0	2	0
Meusel, lf	3	0	2	0	0	Goslin, cf	3	1	2	0	0
Durst, 1b	3	0	7	0	0	Judge, 1b	4	0	10	0	0
Dugan, 3b	3	0	1	4	1	Bluege, 3b	3	1	0	3	0
Severeid, c	3	1	3	1	0	Tate, c	3	1	6	0	0
Beall, p	1	0	0	2	0	Murray, p	4	0	0	1	0
Mogridge, p	0	0	0	0	0
xCarlyle	1	0	0	0	0	Totals	32	5	27	8	0
Totals	29	3	21	11	1

(x) Batted for Beall in 8th.
Score by innings:
New York ..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1—2
Washington ..... 1 2 0 0 1 0 1 0 x—5
Two base hits, Gehrig. Three base hit, Goslin.

ATHLETICS WIN DOUBLE VICTORY FROM RED SOX

BOSTON, Aug. 12—(AP)—Boston opened its home stay here today by dropping two games to Philadelphia, the Athletics taking the opener 5 to 1, and shutting out the Sox 5 to 0 in the second. The game was called at the end of the seventh because of rain.

Howard Ehmke, Red Sox cast-off, held his former mates to five hits in the first game, while Rommel allowed only as many in the later meeting. The batting of Simmons was a feature. Score:

(First Game.)

Philadelphia (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Boston (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Bishop, 2b	5	1	2	3	0	Tobin, rf	4	2	4	1	0
Barbee, rf	4	0	2	0	0	Rigney, ss	3	0	1	2	0
Welch, lf	4	1	0	1	0	Jacobson, cf	4	2	2	0	0
Hale, 3b	4	1	1	0	0	Todt, 1b	4	0	8	0	0
Simmons, cf	4	2	2	0	0	Regan, 2b	3	0	6	2	0
Poole, 1b	3	1	12	1	0	Shaner, lf	3	1	2	0	0
Perkins, c	3	1	3	0	0	Ruether, 2b	2	0	0	3	0
Gallowa'ay, ss	3	0	4	3	0	Gaston, c	3	0	2	1	0
Ehmke, p	2	1	0	5	0	xHoneychut	1	0	0	0	0
						Hinchliff, c	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	33	10	27	15	0	Wilson, p	2	0	0	1	0
						zWelmach	1	0	0	0	0
						Wingfield, p	0	0	0	1	1
						Totals	37	5	27	11	1

(x) Batted for Gaston in 8th.
(zz) Batted for Wilson in 8th.
Score by innings:
Philadelphia ..... 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 3 x—5
Boston ..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Two base hits, Simmons, Galloway.

(Second Game.)

Philadelphia (A)	ab	h	po	a	e	Boston (A)	ab	h	po	a	e
Bisher, 2b	3	2	1	4	0	Tobin, rf	4	1	4	0	0
French, rf	3	1	3	0	0	Rigney, 2b	3	0	1	3	0
Lamar, lf	3	1	1	0	0	Jacobson, cf	3	0	2	0	0
Hale, 3b	3	2	0	0	0	Todt, 1b	3	0	5	7	0
Simmons, cf	3	1	2	0	0	Regan, 2b	3	0	2	4	0
Perkins, c	3	0	6	1	0	Shaner, lf	3	0	2	1	0
Galloway, ss	3	0	1	3	0	Gaston, c	3	0	6	1	0
Rommel, p	2	0	0	2	0	Ruether, ss	3	1	1	2	0
						Wilson, p	1	0	0	1	0
Totals	27	10	25	7	0	Wera'ch, p	1	0	0	0	0
						xxHoneycutt	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	30	2	24	18	1

(x) Simmons out, hit by batted ball in 1st.
(xx) Batted for Zahniser in 7th.
(xxx) Batted for Welzer in 8th.
Score by innings:
Philadelphia ..... 0 0 1 2 1 0 0—5
Boston ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
(Called in 7th, rain.) Two base hits, Simmons 2, Shaner. Three base hit, French.

ASHLAND TO PLAY SUB. BASE SUNDAY

The attraction at Ashland park Sunday will be the fast Sub. Base team in the second game of the series. The sailors won the first game last Saturday at New London, 3 to 2, after a hard fought battle and are out to cop the second game, but it is hoped that the local club will take a fall out of the gobs and even up the series.

The lineup for both clubs will appear in Saturday's Bulletin.

THREE TIE FOR MEDAL IN QUALIFYING ROUND OF SHENECOSSETT TOURNEY

EASTERN POINT, Conn., Aug. 12.—(AP)—More than a third of the 250 players who teed off for the qualifying round of the seventh men's annual amateur invitation golf tournament at the Shenecosset Country club today played many of the 18 holes in a driving rain. Coming up unexpectedly about the middle of the afternoon, the downpour turned the course, which had been in almost perfect condition for the forenoon rounds, into a marsh through which only five men splashed to enter the championship flight of 16.

Fifteen starters turned in cards of 78 or better, three finishing in 75 to tie for medalist honors. The play-off for the gold medal is expected to be held over until after the championship final Sunday.

Six men completing the trip in 79 today are to play tomorrow for the chance to be the 16th man in the championship flight.

The biggest surprise of the day, outside of the rain, was the failure of Fred W. Knight of Atlantic City, twice winner of the tournament and once medalist, to qualify for the first 16. His score of 85 was well down on the list.

Paul Haviland of Bridgeport, former Yale captain and Carl H. John Hiemenz, Lancaster, Pa., central Pennsylvania champion 1924 and 1925, and Paul R. O'Connell of Worcester, Mass., were the three tied for medalist.

Each finished the first nine holes in 36, par for the outward trip, and each took 39 coming in. Haviland was down in birdies on four greens, and played par golf on eight other holes.

Hiemenz playing a steady game for his first time over the course kept close to par on his round. He got birdies on only two holes. O'Connell was one under par on each of three holes.

Cards:

Par
Out	444	353	744—36
In	435	543	444—36—72
Haviland—
Out	436	443	443—36
In	444	643	354—39—75
Hiemenz—
Out	444	354	543—36
In	444	743	544—39—75
O'Connell—
Out	453	453	543—36
In	627	643	544—39—75
Knight—
Out	565	253	544—39
In	553	653	764—46—85

The bravest one of those who started was J. C. Worth of Norwich, who let his card of 124 be posted as the highest score. Many of those who failed to break 100 refused to allow their cards to be spread before the public, being content with "no card" going opposite their names.

Worth's card:

Out	786	574	787—59
In	767	1276	876—65—124

Max Marston, former national amateur champion who was medalist here in 1922, scored 39-39-78.

John Sills of Hartford, and George Smart, West Hartford, two of the five who qualified despite the rain handicap, finished 36-40-76 and 39-39-78, respectively. Two other Connecticut men were also among the five to turn in dripping cards which permitted their entrance into the first flight. They were D. S. Gamble, 3d, New Haven, 38-38-76, and Spencer Brainard, Branford, 40-38-78. The fifth was Harry Schaarf, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, 37-41-78.

The applause of the gallery, sitting comfortably under cover on the club house verandah where play for the home green is easily observed, went to Don H. Curtiss of Willimantic.

Curtiss drove from the tee into the rough to the right of the fairway during the hardest downpour.

His partner, M. S. Riorden, also of Willimantic, was straight out for a good distance. When Curtiss went for his second shot, he was unable to locate his ball. Riorden decided to pick up and made a dash for the clubhouse. Curtiss found the ball and shot. Then for a second time he was unable to find it and started to follow Riorden's lead to the showers.

Encouraged by the onlookers, some of whom thought they saw the ball, Curtiss renewed the hunt however, to locate the ball about 100 yards from the green, but still in the rough. His approach from a difficult lie was beautiful and he was well on the green which had become a series of puddles. Two putts gave him a five, a score of 42-41-83, and a big hand from the gallery.

There were other heroes of the storm, including the caddies who ploughed along behind their "heroes" vainly trying to keep the clubs dry.

The card of Lieutenant Leigh Wade, round-the-world flyer, had three interesting figures. The lieutenant went out in 45, playing par golf on only two holes. The 11th was also passed at par. He reverted to form on the next to get down one over par and then came the difficult 13th hole. Here Wade took 11. Undaunted, he continued, getting a birdie three on the 14th and a birdie two on the 15th. On each of the remaining three he was down in one over par to complete the journey in 90.

First and second rounds of the championship flight will be played tomorrow. Play in five other flights will begin tomorrow morning.

Qualifiers for championship flight were:

H. John Hiemenz, Lancaster, Pa., 36-39-75.

Paul R. O'Connell, Worcester, Mass., 36-39-75.

Paul Haviland, Bridgeport, 36-39-75.

F. M. Hancock, Providence, R. I., 37-39-76.

Jack B. Mackie, Jr., Inwood, L. I., 37-39-76.

Tommy Aycock, Jacksonville, Fla., 38-38-76.

John Sills, Hartford, 36-40-76.

D. S. Gamble, 3d, New Haven, 38-38-76.

Robinson Cook, Hartford, 38-39-77.

Harry Schaarf, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, 37-41-78.

Henry Topping, Greenwich, 41-37-78.

Max Marston, Philadelphia, 39-39-78.

Quincy Ryan, Srort Hills, N. J., 36-42-78.

George Smart, West Hartford, 39-39-78.

Spencer Brainard, Branford, 40-38-78.

And one of the following to be decided by play-off tomorrow:

N. H. Avery, Groton, 43-36-79.

Lewis D. Mowry, Englewood, N. J., 41-38-79.

Henry Davis, New York city, 37-42-79.

E. W. Hoyt, Garden City, L. I., 36-43-79.

Tom B. Seamans, Philadelphia, 39-40-79.

John T. L. Hubbard, Bridgeport, 39-40-79.

Pairings for the first round championship flight follow:

O'Connell and Cook, Mackie and Smart, Hiemenz and Marston, Sills and Schaarf, Haviland and Topping, Aycock and Brainard, Hancock and Ryan, Gamble and winner of play-off of six tied at 79.

Players representing the Norwich Golf club besides Mr. Worth turned in the following scores: A. H. Chase 98, F. S. Wilcox 86, Dr. V. Eldred 90, D. W. Morton 89, W. G. Park 85.

VELVETMEN TO CLASH WITH SONS OF ITALY

On Sunday the club to oppose the J. B. Martin nine will be the Sons of Italy of South Manchester. This club comes to Norwich well recommended and should give the local boys a good argument. This team has been traveling at a good clip this season, losing only eleven games out of thirty-four starts.

Manager Vendrillo of the Manchester club has secured the services of Holland and Fisher for the mound duty, also other stars that are well known to baseball fans in this vicinity, being Sippios, Strattton, Lamphere, and Ballsieper. Both complete line-ups of these two clubs will appear in Saturday's paper.

RELATIVES TO CELEBRATE VISIT OF MISS EDERLE

STUTTGART, Germany, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Thrilled by having one of their relatives the center of world interest, numerous uncles, aunts, cousins and more distant kinsmen of Gertrude Ederle, are eagerly awaiting the arrival tomorrow of the brilliant young swimmer who is the first woman ever to have conquered the English channel.

The main celebration of Gertrude's visit to her grandmother in Bissinger, will occur in the place where Gertrude's father was born and where 19 of his brothers and sisters still live. Gertrude's grandmother, who is the owner of the Lambs' inn, is 77 years old.

JR. TWILIGHT LEAGUE

Brasscos Vs. Centennials

The Brasscos and Centennials will meet in a Jr. Twi league game at the Academy campus this evening in what should be a fast contest from beginning to end. Both teams have fast players in their lineups and a tight game should be the result in this evening's game.

Rankin will probably pitch for the Brasscos with Tombari catching, while P. Labenski will without doubt do mound duty for the Centennials with B. Labenski catching.

The game is scheduled to start at 6:30 p. m. sharp.

Sachems Looking For Games.

The Sachems of Norwich, a traveling team, are now looking for games for the remainder of the season. They would especially like to hear from the following teams: West Ends of Willimantic, Moosup T. T., Fort Wright, North Grosvenordale, Wauregan, Hanover, Mystic, Groton Pioneers, Glasgo, Baltic A. A., Yantic A. A., Assawagas of Dayville, Paco Mfg. Co., or Quinebaug A. A. of Danielson, or any other team wishing to book them for a Sunday or Holiday game. For information call telephone 1126-3, between 6:15 and 6:45, or write Manager Sachem B. B Team, 34 Lafayette street, Norwich, Conn.

Attention Tin Can Alley

The game that was to be played between the Ashland Cubs and the T. C. A. Saturday will be postponed until Sunday, August 15. If it is accepted telephone 156, Edward Blanchard between 6 and 6:30 Friday night.

Attention Everreadys

The Ashland Acco's will play the Everreadys of Taftville this (Friday) night, at Ashland park, at 6:30 p. m sharp. A good game is expected between these two teams, for they each claim to hold a record.

Highland Club Golfers Feature

MERIDEN, Aug. 12—(AP)—In a field of 70 golfers representing clubs from all parts of the state, members of the Highland Country club, of this city, carried off eight of the ten honors in the handicap all-day golf tournament held here today. Rain in the afternoon prevented many of the players from completing the second 18 holes.

Versailles Cubs Challenge

The Versailles Cubs challenge the Taftville Sluggers, Baltic Saints or Rosedales for a game Sunday at Versailles. If the challenge is accepted call 1222-5 or 2230.

Red Tops Accept Challenge

The Taftville Red Tops accept the challenge of the Baltic Saints for a game to be played on Saturday afternoon at Baltic.

TRUMBULL TO TAKE STUMP IN BREWSTER'S CAMPAIGN

Governor Trumbull will figure prominently in Maine politics sometime within the next two weeks when he will take the stump in behalf of Governor Brewster, candidate for re-election as governor of Maine. Governor Trumbull has promised the Maine executive that he will deliver one speech for him, this to be probably at Bangor at a date yet to be chosen.

Governor Trumbull and his family, accompanied by Colonel Charles H. Allen of his staff and his family, will leave for Moosehead lake, Me., Saturday night, on a two weeks' vacation. The governor said yesterday that as the Maine gubernational elections were held in September, his trip to Maine at this time affords him ample opportunity to keep his promise to speak in Governor Brewster's campaign.

MANSFIELD CENTER

Mrs. Adrian Reed and children, Adeline, Mary and Edward, who have been staying with Mrs. Reed's mother, Mrs. G. L. James, since the death of Mr. James, left Tuesday for their home in Mamaroneck, N. Y. Miss Edith L. Bacon of Plainfield, N. J., is spending a few weeks with Mrs. James.

Mrs. Harold S. James is chairman of the cafeteria supper which the Christian Endeavor society is planning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Chapin have gone to Hartford, where Mrs. Chapin is a patient for at least a month at Hartford hospital.

Andrew W. Mellon, American secretary of the treasury, who has been visiting in Europe, arrived here today from Rome. Mr. Mellon plans to spend several weeks in Switzerland in company with his daughter, Mrs. David Bruce, wife of the American vice consul at Rome.

Henry N. Kittson, former member of the Ontario railway board, died in Hamilton, Ont., aged 77.

It's merciless!

IT doesn't stun..doesn't stupefy..doesn't put 'em to sleep. It kills them—every fly, every mosquito, every roach. Not 1 escapes when you use BLACK FLAG—deadliest of insect-killers.

They can't escape—BLACK FLAG kills in the surest way ever discovered. Bugs breathe it and die. They strangle—every last one of them. Why? Because BLACK FLAG contains a secret, vegetable ingredient which is absolutely fatal to bugs—but absolutely harmless to humans and animals.

BLACK FLAG is sudden death to every kind of bug that home is heir to. It kills every flea, bed-bug, ant, roach and moth that gets in. Keeps others from coming in. Rids a place of these pests. Give this master insect-killer a trial. Buy the form you like best—liquid or powder. At drug, grocery, hardware and department stores. Powder is 15c up. Powder Gun, 10c. And just read the low prices of the liquid shown below. Compare them.

SEE HERE—
Sprayer 45c
Black Flag Liquid, quart, only . 85c
Black Flag Liquid, pint, only .. 45c
Black Flag Liquid, ½ pint, only 25c

BLACK FLAG
LIQUID or POWDER
KILLS INSECTS

© 1926, G. L. Co., Inc.

"If It's Made of RUBBER, We Have It."

Going Camping?

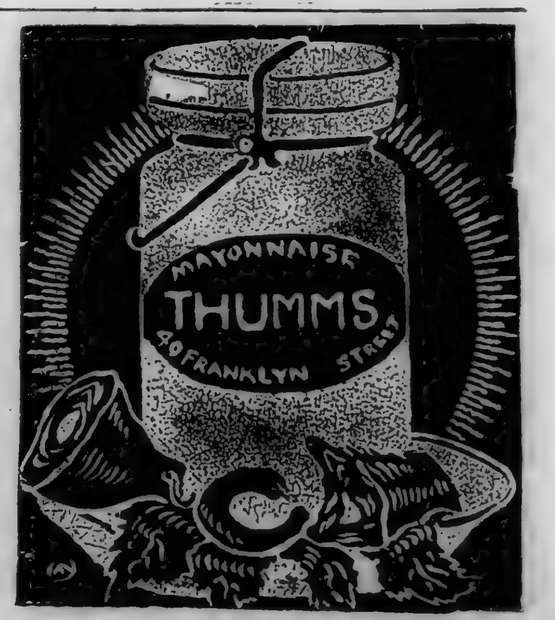
TOURIST CAMPING TENTS for two or four persons—A real PLAY TENT for the kiddies—PUP TENTS for the hiker—COTS, CHAIRS, STOOLS, TABLES, MESS KITS, STEEL TENT PEGS, CAMP STOVES

EVERYTHING FOR THE CAMPER

Alling Rubber Co.

THE HOUSE OF SPORTING GOODS

New London—191 Main St., Norwich—Westerly



WESTERLY

NOVOGROSKI HEARING IS PUT OVER FOR A WEEK

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 12—The case before United States Commissioner Russell Cochran in the Custom House, New London, United States vs. Max Novogroski of Westerly, for obstructing a navigable stream was continued Thursday afternoon to Thursday, Aug. 19th, at 11 a. m. There is a possibility then that a further continuance may be made, according to Commissioner Cochran.

Following the morning adjournment from 12:45 to 1:45 for lunch, A lengthy conference was held between Assistant United States District Attorney George E. Cohen of Hartford, representing the government and Attorneys Frank L. McGuire, of New London, Herbert W. Rathbun of Westerly, Morris Lubchansky and Henry Harris, who represented Mr. Novogroski and Representatives of the United States Engineers' office. Numerous propositions were made and finally the matter was left so that complete blue prints of the proposed business structure be filed with Attorney Cohen in which it would be shown that caissons placed in the Pawcatuck river south of the Broad street highway bridge would not prove any more of an obstruction to navigation of "theoretical navigation," said Attorney Rathbun than the caissons and piers already in the river, which it was pointed to remove when the new ones were in place. It was brought out by attorneys for Mr. Novogroski that the new caissons would be placed in true alignment with the old ones and when these were removed a new channel would be cut on each side of the new caissons for navigation. Under the present existing law the head of navigation is at the bridge in Westerly.

Opening of the morning session was delayed about an hour on the ground it began with Judge Albert E. Sisson presiding. The witness for the defense was followed by Frank N. Wilcox, coal dealer on West Broad street, Pawcatuck, whose property was at the head of navigation and who for 12 years was in the lumber business in Westerly. Henry A. Stable of Pawcatuck, vice president of the Pawcatuck Bank and Trust Co. Stonington selectman for seven years and who own a grocery store on West Broad street, Deputy Sheriff William H. Cross of Pawcatuck, with whom resides and who has at one time a steamer of a Pawcatuck river boat route, Thomas Doyle, 75 years a native of the town of Westerly and lived all his life on Pawcatuck river, Hezekiah Pleasant Vim, retired boat builder, Stephen Babcock, who has been a resident of Pawcatuck for 37 years and for 10 years was a Manufacturing company which owned the property previous to Mr. Novogroski. All these men testified that they knew of no navigation at this point in the Pawcatuck river to anything.

In time for the hearing at the afternoon session although no session was held there appeared at the custom house Louis Shorter, assistant manager of the Westerly branch of the Industrial Trust company and president of the Westerly Chamber of Commerce, Frank L. Furness, proprietor of the Elm Tree Inn in Pawcatuck, and Harold Clark of the Pawcatuck Board of Trade, witnesses present who did not get a chance to testify and who had come from [illegible]

EIGHT DESIGNS SUBMITTED FOR PAWCATUCK MEMORIAL

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 12—Friday evening in Vets hall, West Broad street, Pawcatuck, there will be held a joint meeting of the committees from Harley P. Chase Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Pawcatuck Board of Trade, Admiral Herbert O. Dunn, general chairman, at which the type of memorial to the World War Veteran of Pawcatuck will be decided upon. Members of the committee are from Chase Post, Harry Powers, secretary, Alfred H. Chapman, Charles W. Opie, William Russell Dower, Elvin J. Byers, Lawrence Hook, James Keane, Harry M. Bricker, Louis J. Rossi and Merton L. Lewis. From Pawcatuck Board of Trade H. M. Barber, Karl G. Stillman and Lawrence C. Purtill.

This joint committee will have eight designs for a World War memorial from which to make a final selection.

Leon Pozzi of Morristown, N. J., presents a strong design in which he reverted to his original idea, after making fourteen drawings. An artist drawing shows a semi-circular bench or settee, which would be somewhat octagonal, fifty feet across with forty-four feet for the public to sit down on. The granite and no cement with grades taken out at Westerly is the composition of material. The seat, as well as the space enclosed has a pitch of one quarter of an inch to the foot to take care of rain, water and snow. In the center is an ornamental monument with a bronze top for a 50-foot flag pole, the same being eleven feet ten inches high and four feet, four inches wide of sufficient height to be in proper proportion. The ornamental landscaping with path approaches of one foot width contemplates the whole locked up with evergreen. The cost is between $14,000 and $15,000.

Harry Lewis Rout of New Jersey has presented three designs which include two small models and a water colored drawing, to use only Westerly granite and some bronze. Mr. Rout has made his home for several summers in Mystic. The designs include two monuments of granite with a panel with sculptured figure, "Spirit of Valor," one in action and one in repose. The height, 17' 6" and material of the best Sullivan blue granite. The cost $13,953. Of red Westerly granite, cost $12,153. With names on reverse of face with bronze tablets of sculptured figures, $14,326 and $12,526.

His third design was a conventional statue of a World war soldier in bronze, 9 feet high on a pedestal to cost $12,647.

Isaac G. Smith of the Smith Granite Co., Westerly, submits two designs in water color drawing. The first, a [illegible] top with wiring through the monument by which it can be electrically lighted. Names of service men and supporting lettering appear on the face. The height to the top of the lantern 19 feet, width 7 feet and weight 80 tons. The cost $12,000.

The second design is a fluted doric column in three drums, surmounted by a great granite eagle. The shaft is about 3 feet in diameter and 23 feet high and if cut as a monolith to cost about $300 more. The base is 12 feet and the material for both, blue gray Westerly granite. About the monuments is a walk of granite flagging, the monument weighs 55 ton. The cost to be $13,000.

Henry L. Norton of Winthrop, Mass., furnished a water colored drawing of a monument 13 feet high, 10 1-2 feet wide with a 25 foot flag pole on each side of the flanking sections of the monument. In the center panel is the figure of the crusader with a shield on which is inscribed the names of the dead. On the back would be the names of the 280 Westerly service men. A bronze crusaders sword appears on the side panel. The base 32 feet wide and has five steps. The cost, $12,000.

Lewis A. Whitehouse of Quincy, Mass., supplies a symbolic ensemble in a wooden model. In the center of his granite group, 24 feet, 6 inches breadth, 8 feet, 6 inches depth and 13 feet, 6 inches height was the figure of a World War veteran, 6 feet 2 inches in height. On panels were symbolic figures representing arms of the service and other phases of the war and a bronze panel on each side of the center stone which would have as many as 150 names each of World War men. The cost would be $14,500.

In a general outline of what he thought should be first considered in the adoption of a suitable memorial for Pawcatuck, General Chairman of the Committee Admiral Herbert O. Dunn enumerated three things—necessity of care in the future; the elimination of flag poles as they, when painting was neglected, would rot and fall; also to do away as much as possible with bronze on granite, because of the unsightly staining of the granite which usually followed its use.

Orson R. Clark of Danvers, Mass., was the guest Wednesday of his brother, Walton F. Clark.

Patrolman Robert M. Kesel Wednesday succeeded for a week's tour of day duty Police Officer Michael Curtin, who returned to night duty.

Miss Lina Beckwith, formerly of Westerly, visited local friends Wednesday.

EKONK

(Sterling Hill)

Several from here attended Camp meeting at Greene R. I. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gallup of Danielson, were callers here Sunday.

Mrs. Byron Gallup spent several days at Lord's Point last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Slocum of Westerly spent Thursday at their cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burk of Westerly spent Sunday with relatives here.

The Ladies' Aid society of Sterling Hill met Tuesday in the vestry and tied two comforters.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Tanner of Malden Mass., have been visiting the former's brother George Tanner and sister Mrs Hamilton Wilcox, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanner motored with them to Bradford, R. I.

Byron Young and family spent a day at Storrs college last week.

Ella Gardner as guardian of the Camp fire girls of Plainfield, is at Lord's Point for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Gallup with daughters Laura and Evelyn, motored to Lord's Point Friday afternoon. Mrs. Gallup and Evelyn remained for a visit until Monday with Mrs. Charles Hopkins.

Rachel Carr of Moosup has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Gallup.

Mr. and Mrs. Morriss and children of Providence visited Mr. Morriss' sister Mrs. Mary Sayles on Sunday. One boy remained for a longer visit.

Frank Gallup of Danielson with Stuart and William Williams of Moosup and Florence and Laura Gallup spent Sunday at Pleasant View.

ROAD SOCIETY

Miss Marie Wheeler spent the week end at New Haven.

Miss Mary Starr Wheeler of Philadelphia was at her home here over the week end.

Dr. Ruth Stone and Mrs. Mary Doty of New London were guests at A. G. Wheelers Sunday.

The garage at Ralph C. Wheeler's burned Saturday, destroying many tools and farming implements.

Miss Esther Billings has returned from several weeks' stay in New York.

Byron Billings with his family spent Sunday at Masons Island with his son-in-law and daughter who are there for two weeks.

Harry Flood of Ashaway, Mr. Hale of Hartford and Mr. Burnet of Va. were recent callers at Maple Lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Burrows were callers at Maple Lawn Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs Henry Sinclair of Woodhaven spent the week end with A. G. Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Watrous and Moses Gallup are now living at the old Gallup place, owned by Mrs. Havens, of Westerly.

Donald Wheeler of Brooklyn spent the week end at home.

Mrs. J. Parker Johnson of Springfield and children are guests at A. G. Wheeler's.

Harry Dixon of Wickford was at the home of his mother, Mrs. Olive Dixon recently, as Mrs. Dixon has been ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ricker and children and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cheney of Springfield were guests at William Billings' Sunday.

Miss Flora White, R. N. is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel White.

Mr. and Mrs Sydney Morehouse of Dunn's Corners were callers at Mrs. Antoinette Ripley's Sunday.

Miss Emelyn Billings is spending two weeks at Masons Island.

MANSFIELD CENTER

Rev. and Mrs. T. Hawthorne Jones are spending the week with friends in Torrington and Wallingford.

There will be no service at the Congregational church next Sunday morning, this being camp meeting Sunday and a part of the vacation of the pastor.

Kenneth Little and Ray Davoll returned last week from a 11,000 mile motor trip. The young men left here June 2 and drove to Portland, Oregon. From there they motored to San Francisco. At San Francisco they visited Mr. Davoll's sister, Miss Ruth Lawson. They visited Yellowstone Park and returned by way of Salt Lake City to Chicago.

Mrs. Robert E. Stearns and sons, Howard and Theodore, are spending several days on Clintonville guests of Mrs. Brockett.

MYSTIC

The League of Women Voters met at the home of Miss Kariska Gates on Gravel street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Carl C. Cutler, the president, presided and introduced the speakers. Miss Effie Haynes, president of the East Lyme league spoke on the advantages of the voting machine. East Lyme is one of the towns that have used them for some time. Miss Edna L. Tyler of New London chairman of the county league was present and spoke words of encouragement. The principal address was by Mrs. Harry Whitney of the Pennsylvania league. She is well informed on the work and a very pleasing speaker and her address received strict attention. About twenty five were present, some new ones attending each meeting. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Moore on Cottrell St.

Those serving in the tea room at the art exhibition Thursday were Mrs. Lloyd Moore, chairman, Mrs. L. E. Kinney, Mrs. P. N. Stowe, Mrs. W. H. Lathrop, Mrs. Gardner Gillespie, Mrs. George Costello, Miss Margaret Bindloss and Mrs. L. D. Boynton.

Mrs. John W. Pierson and two sons have returned to their home in Hartford. Mrs. Pierson's father, Wainwright Bentley accompanied them for a visit.

Miss Lizzie Doyle, who has been ill for the past four months, is recovering slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Slatersville, R. I., spent Sunday with the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jones.

Mrs. Alexander Barr returned Wednesday to her home in Rochester, N. H., after spending seven weeks here with relatives. Her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyman of Chicago, accompanied her for a visit.

The rhododendrons on the estate of the late Sarah Dickerson on Elm St., are shaded by the large trees so that they are in bloom now.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoy were in New London to attend the funeral of a relative.

Louis Hall has been calling on friends in the Ashwillet district, North Stonington.

Felix Shardon returned Thursday from a business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs Everett Lawton and Mrs. Jane Lewis of Westerly visited relatives here Wednesday.

The committee appointed by Mystic grange to hold a fair met in grange hall, Wednesday evening to commence working out plans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Geer spent Thursday with relatives in New London.

Mrs. Orrin Sanford and Miss Bessie Barr were callers in New London Wednesday.

Mrs. L. F. Doyle and Miss Frances Davis, of Little Compton, R. I., visited relatives in Noank Wednesday.

Frank Buckley and Emer Calkins have been in Goshen, N. Y., for a few days.

Elwood Lathrop is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Lathrop at Yantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Donath of Springfield, Mass., have been here to attend the funeral of Mr. Donath's father, Karl E. Donath held Thursday afternoon.

Miss Jane Richards, discharged now from Lawrence hospital, has returned home.

Judge Frank H. Hinckley attended the summer meeting of Connecticut Probate assembly held at the Hotel Griswold, Eastern Point Wednesday He was one of the committee on arrangements.

When two conferences of telephone employes were held simultaneously at Ocean Beach Tuesday, Miss Ethel Johnson attended the commercial conference and Miss Edith Spencer, the traffic conference.

Letters from Miss Maud D. Congdon who is studying French in Paris received by her parents Dr. and Mrs C. F. Congdon state that she is enjoying her stay there and meets American tourists.

Ye Olde White House Inn

On the Boston Post Road
Between Westerly and Stonington

OPEN FOR THE SEASON OF 1926

Specialty—Chicken, Steak and Lobster Dinners.

Accommodations for Private Dinner Parties.

Unsurpassed Cuisine and High Class Service a la carte.

Restaurant Open Daily at 1 P. M.

Telephones—Westerly 2140 and 33 Ring 51.

ROCKVILLE, R. I.

Mrs. Lula Palmer was taken suddenly ill Monday night.

Mrs. Annie B. Kenyon and son, Leslie B. Kenyon, were recent callers at Cross Mills.

666

is a prescription for

Colds, Grippe, Flu, Dengue, Bilious Fever and Malaria.

It kills the germs.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better, than through The Bulletin.

No wonder my grocer says that Rinso is his biggest selling laundry soap! Why, from the day I first tried it, I haven't used anything else! And it's the same way with all my friends. My clothes never turned out so snowy white—yet I haven't the least bit of hard rubbing or even boiling to do, because the Rinso suds soak out the dirt for me. That's why clothes last so much longer now! I also use Rinso for the dishes and other cleaning, because it's not only quicker, but more economical than bar soaps or washing powders.

MRS. JOHN HOURIGAN,
Mt. Pleasant St.,
Norwich, Conn.

Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.

Mrs. J. Hourigan, Mt. Pleasant St., says:

Look! Soaked whiter than if scrubbed

—no boiling either, and so safe

YOU couldn't rub things as snowy white as this new kind of soap soaks them!

Now the whole week's wash is done at home—in half the time—without scrubbing. Even without boiling—unless you like to. Rinso sterilizes, too!

And clothes last ever so much longer. Those grimy parts that are usually rubbed and rubbed until they wear threadbare—the hems and cuffs and edges—now soak white without a bit of hard rubbing!

You just can't imagine what a difference it makes to use Rinso instead of ordinary soap. You won't know until you try it.

Goodbye washboard!

Rinso is the amazing granulated soap that loosens dirt and stains. It's all you need on washday—no bar soaps, chips or powders. It gives thick, lasting suds even in hardest water.

All you do is soak, rinse—and there's your wash, sparkling and white, ready to hang on the line! Even the most soiled parts become snowy with just a rub or two between the fingers!

Saves clothes—saves hands

Contains no acids, bleaches or harmful chemicals; you could soak your finest white table cloth in Rinso for days without harm.

Saves your hands, too—they don't get red and washworn.

Let Rinso do your next week's wash, and see for yourself why millions now use this quick, easy way. Just get Rinso from your grocer instead of ordinary soap. For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on package.

In washing machines, too

The makers of 28 leading washing machines recommend Rinso for safety, and for a whiter, brighter wash. Try it!

Guaranteed by the makers of LUX
LEVER BROS. CO

Rinso

2 sizes
most women
buy the BIG package

The Granulated Soap—Soaks Clothes Whiter

40 years ago

some of the best bread makers in New England began buying Dietz Bread

FOR they recognized in this loaf the same choice of ingredients, the same scrupulous care they had given to their own baking.

They found that this troublesome, time-taking task could be delegated to Dietz without in any way lowering their standards. Dietz Bread was at home with the other well-cooked foods on their tables.

During forty years the high reputation of Dietz Bread has not changed. For no loaf of bread bearing the Dietz name has ever been made of inferior ingredients or with relaxed care.

Every baking has been an attempt to realize the Dietz ideal—perfection in appearance, in nutriment, in texture and in flavor.

Now the new Dietz Bread—Better than ever!

THIS ideal Mr. Walter Dietz had before him in purchasing the Dolly Madison bakery and bringing it under his personal control and management.

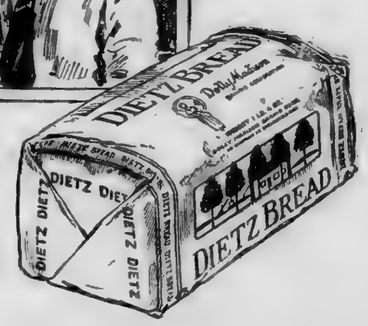
For Mr. Dietz believes that the independent, locally owned and personally supervised bakery is best equipped to produce the kind of fine bread which will satisfy New England housewives.

In reorganizing the bakery, Mr. Dietz has had an opportunity to introduce improvements which make Dietz Bread better than ever.

A marvelous new type of oven, for one thing, which marks an epoch in bread baking. It insures more even, perfect baking of the delicious loaves and it makes possible two bakings a day so that Dietz Bread now goes to your grocer fresh from the oven twice each day.

RICHER, crustier, more evenly browned, with a texture fine and firm, yet so soft and fresh it seems to melt in your mouth—that's the new Dietz Bread in its new red and green wrapper with the homey farmhouse and New England maples. Get it from your grocer today and watch the pleased look on your husband's face when he eats it. Dolly Madison Baking Corporation, Springfield, Mass.

Made of pure, nutritious ingredients—fresh milk, Fleischmann's Yeast, Pillsbury and Gold Medal flours—Dietz Bread has the honest wholesomeness you require for your family



DIETZ BREAD

FOLLOWING THE LEAD OF THE FARM

(Written Specially For The Bulletin)

'I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.'

Not if you're a farmer, Mr. Poet. The farm is both 'master' and 'captain' in that case. You and your 'fate' will be about what the farm happens to make it. And you and your 'soul' will toddle along after the farm and say 'Yes, Ma'am,' very respectfully and submissively.

You'll do about what the farm says about the crops and the farm pets, and the time and pace the farm sets.

That is, you will if you possess discretion and a becoming sense of your own comparative insignificance in trying to do anything different.

Some young farmers start in with the idea that they're going to manage their farms in their own way at their own convenience, and to their own profit. They assume that their farm is going to have a dominant voice upon what the farm shall produce, when it shall produce, and in what quantity.

There is any great cause for wonder, in this, Ralph has always had more or less swelled head. We did, when we were young. We firmly proposed then to stop the old world from revolving and set it spinning as it should. We especially had our ideas about the way we'd manage the farm. We'd say to one field 'Do this, and do it now.' To that and then would do it. We'd show them who was boss.

If the hard knockings of experience have knocked a few of us to a true appreciation of our real position, we are inclined to share somewhat indulgently even the preposterousness of a fellow things who are stepping so cockily in our old footprints. They'll learn. That is, they'll learn if they've any inherent learning. They'll learn That is, they'll learn if they've the farming gene. They'll recognize master's voice and come to heel as obediently and submissively as we have done. Give 'em time. The farm will do the rest.

Now that I've been forced to give my active farm work I find more time to watch the ways in which the other farmers of the neighborhood go their ways. And it's mighty hard sometimes not to succumb to the temptation of giving them unsolicited advice.

Let me tell you about myself when I first began doing something with my hands. I was foolish in my ignorance, I suppose, but I appreciate the sense of relief it gives me to unload a confidence in a general way, without exposing myself to any particular backfire, but sort of broadcasting my reflections, letting them fall where they may.

In the first place, there's all the difference in the world between tending farm and tending a machine. Oil the machine, turn on the power, and your machine will do what it was constructed to do, one time as well as another, summer or winter, daylight or dark. But your farm knocks off and refuses to do a blame thing for you, some days, months of every year, with nothing of spells of frosty or dry, sun-drenched weather in the so-called growing season.

You decide that you'll raise a couple of hundred bushels potatoes on the south 40. You fit the soil the best you know how and plant the best seed potatoes you can lay hands on. And then the farm takes a few innings of its own. Cold, wet days and frosty nights delay the seed in sprouting or kill the young shoots as they venture above ground. Then comes a drought to stunt and yellow the vines. Then comes fine days for the little black flea beetles who appear in countless swarms and drill the white leaves full of tiny holes. If the drought finally passes, and the flea beetles kill themselves off of a plethora, and the unlucky potato vines seem to have a chance for their lives, then the Colorado bugs descend, like the locusts of Egypt, and strip half the plants of their leaves before you can cover them with your Paris green or arsenate of lead. Every time you go over the patch with your horse-hoe and tear up the multifarious weeds, a drenching thunder-storm looms over the hills to reset and water in the pests you've tried to kill. Next the blight makes its appearance. So it goes. And with each new visitation goes more and more of your hope. When digging time comes you're lucky if you get your seed back.

You see, your idea was that if you tilled the soil well and fertilized generously and planted superior seed, the farm would simply have to give you a good yield of potatoes.

The farm's idea was different. And what it says, goes. Not by any means what you say.

The truth is that the farmer, if he hopes to get anything from his farm, has got to guess at its whims, and then go as far as he can make them out, and then take what comes. This doesn't mean that he can't improve his crops, if he only guesses right at the start-off. Nor that he can't expect any results from good farming, if he only knows what good farming is for that particular crop on that particular field that particular year. But the real outcome is what the farm does for him, rather than what he entreats it to do. In the end it is the master and the wisest farmer is the one who accepts his place as just first assistant, keeps his ears open for orders and his eyes open for chances, and, for the rest, toddles along behind the boss.

A few years of practical farming make a full course in the college of humility.

Another thing: Farming is a stern master in the practice of opportunism, i. e. the art of taking instant advantage of every opportunity which offers.

The would-be successful farmer watches his farm as a doctor watches a fever patient, every sense alert to the most fleeting symptom and every fibre taut for instant response.

When it bids him 'Come here' or 'Go there', he stirs his stumps and is on his way before the signal is fairly completed. He does what the farm tells him needs doing, not what he happens to want to do. Moreover, he does it when the farm calls, not when he happens to feel like it.

His plans? His purposes? His convenience? Pouf! They do not count. He may want to go to the ball game, but he won't if the bugs choose that time to hatch out on his potatoes. He may be all set for the picnic, lunch all put up 'n everything, but he will stay home and cut that clover, if he finds it's beginning to lodge. He may be simply crazy to go fishing. Instead, he will put in a parboiling, gnat-defying summer day mending the west pasture fence against the woods, if he finds that the feed on the east pasture is getting thin and the cows going off in their milk. He will very seldom do what he prefers to do, but what the farm tells him he must do. And he won't wait to be told twice.

There will be days when the calls of the farm will seem confused and contradictory. He won't know which way to turn. There's the time for him to use the best judgment he can beg, borrow or steal, or to make the best guess he can. There will be other days when he can't do a thing but sit and twiddle his fingers, waiting for the clouds to roll by. There will be still other days when he will have to put in sixteen hours between dawn and dark just to save what the farm is good-naturedly tossing his way. It all depends much more on what the farm does than on what he says.

So far as I can judge from such examples as lie within my observation, the modern farmer, especially the modern young farmer is inclined to take a wrong view of the relations between himself and his farm. He tries to think that he is boss where, in fact, he is simply servant and valet.

This may seem a shameful confession of subservience to those whose self-conceit leads them to believe that the universe was made for them and their comfort. But the farmer's world is one of facts, not of opinions or even of wishes and hopes. And even the thickest head isn't likely to make much of a hole, butting however valiantly against the stone wall of the inevitable. As some one has said, 'Facts are stubborn things.' They must be faced, sooner or later. As a general rule it may be accepted that the sooner they are faced and taken for granted, the better it will be for the facer.

When I began gardening, I had something of the idea of the farm theorists that I could make anything grow anywhere, with sufficient fertilizer and tilth. Later, I discovered that there were areas in my ten acres which wanted to grow peas and other areas where didn't care to, which potatoes did well and others on which they produced like the rankest weeds, areas where cabbages grew like weeds and others where they were to club-root, areas which would sooner than grow with ripe muskmelons in August and others which wouldn't even set a melon till September frosts time. And so on and so on.

Simple common sense warned that the way to get early crops of best quality and high productiveness was to find out where the soil would return such crops at the smallest cost of money and labor.

In other words, to find out what my soil was willing to do and then help it in every way ingenuity could devise to do its best.

And, most important of all, to be always on the job, ready to render such help at the very first call of the crop, regardless of personal convenience or desire for rest or amusement.

Instead of making for slack and easy-going farming, this conception of the farmer's true relation to his farm tends to keener attention, deeper interest, and greater industry.

When the farmer can control the weather, and direct all the ten thousand mysterious chemical reactions of the soil, and find fertilizers which will grow crops and not weeds, and stave off insect raids and bacterial blights before they arrive, then, perhaps, he can grow what he wants, where he pleases and whenever he chooses.

But, till that time arrives, he will usually get farther by following the farm's lead than by trying to drive.

One can often get a pig along faster by walking behind and twisting its tail than by going ahead and dragging at its snout.

The Farmer.

STONINGTON

The annual picnic of the First Baptist church which was to have been held Thursday at Atlantic Beach was postponed until today (Friday) because of inability to get buses for Thursday.

Misses Frances Findley and Alice Adams have returned from two weeks' stay at Camp Hoffman, South Kingston, R. I.

Mrs. Catherine Hahn, local librarian, was awarded first prize for a collection of 44 types of wildflowers entered at the Garden club meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Janet Brown of Long Island is visiting P. J. Sheffield and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Monjo and family are entertaining Mrs. Harry Davenport of Mountain View, N. J., and Miss Ethel Smith of Little Falls, N. J.

Henry Hall and family have returned from a visit in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wayland have returned to Boston, following a brief visit at the Wayland summer home here.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paul of Broad street has been named Robert.

Mrs. Angus Chesebro returned to her home Monday after a surgical operation in Westerly hospital.

CHAPLIN

Natchaug grange gave a public entertainment and ice cream sale at the church vestry last Friday evening. There was a good attendance. The proceeds were about twenty dollars.

A feature at the church service Sunday that was much enjoyed was the fine solo—I Walk With the King, by Mrs. Robert Purvis a summer visitor in town. Mrs. Purvis is soprano in the quartette of the Baptist church in Westfield, N. J.

Miss Julia L. Martin and Miss Mabel A. Lanphear, teacher have returned from attending the summer school at New Haven.

The Congregational Sunday school will hold a picnic today (Friday) on the attractive grounds by the lake owned by C. L. Mansure. Mr. Mansure has made the picnics held there in former years highly enjoyable and has furnished an orchestra and ice cream for all, at his expense.

Herbert Plass is receiving a visit from his classmate Kingman Crosby of Glen Ridge, N. J.

George A. Reed has hatched over 30 young turkeys under hens this season, that are doing well. He has three fine spring pigs, five months old that are worth looking at.

Two dogs got into the flock of sheep owned by Clifton J. Church the past week and bit and damaged some of the flock to the extent of $20.

Miss Mabel A. Lanphear is visiting Miss Medbury, at Black Hill, Plainfield, this week.

J. Wilbur Lanphear is assisting his sister Mrs. Lena Duckee, at Warrenville, for several weeks.

LEBANON

Mr. and Mrs. Morton C. Talcott of Hartford called on Miss Ellen Huntington Wednesday.

Miss Adelaide S. Hallen has been spending a few days in Willimantic, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Collins.

Miss Elizabeth Sweet of Washington, D. C., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Perry at Redwood.

Mrs. William A. Mason of Norwich and Mrs. Emma G. Danielson of Brooklyn, Conn., were callers at the Trumbull home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Holmes of Columbia and Mrs. Dart of Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Anna Abel and son, Edwin, were week end guests at Mrs. Ida Abel's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bruce spent Thursday in East Lyme and New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wade of Clark's Corners, Mrs. Anna Abel and son, Edwin, of Norwich, E. P. Abel and family, Mrs. Mary Williams, Mrs. Ida Abel and Mrs. Alice Bill spent Sunday at Atlantic Beach.

Jonathan Trumbull chapter, D. A. R., held a regular meeting at the war office Monday at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Revere Beebe are observing their first wedding anniversary which occurred Aug. 8, by an automobile trip, which will include visits to Niagara Falls, Detroit, Mich., Columbus, Ohio, Fort Wayne, Ind., Virginia, and a few days' visit with friends in Baltimore. They will also attend the sesqui-centennial at Philadelphia.

Harold Manning of Norwich has been spending a week at the home of his uncle, A. C. Hoxie.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Plitz and son, Morton, motored to Ridgefield Friday to spend the week end with Mrs. Plitz's niece, Mrs. Willis DeForrest. Miss Florence Plitz returned home with her parents after spending two weeks in Ridgefield with her cousin.

Miss Henry Howatt has been spending a few days in Yantic, the guest of Mrs. A. R. Manning.

Mrs. Doffman and family and Miss May Sutton of Norwich, were recent callers at C. M. Geer's.

Mrs. W. H. Brown of Mansfield, Mass., has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Foster for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald have been entertaining their son-in-law and daughter from New York for three weeks, also Mr. McDonald's sister from Boston.

Prof. and Mrs. Dresser and daughter, Priscilla, from Mansfield, were callers at Mrs. Elizabeth Troland's Sunday afternoon.

O. W. Swisher of Meriden spent the week end at Mrs. Ella Foster's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Geer entertained Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. William Boldt and daughter of Buffalo, N. Y., also Mr. and Mrs. S. Strickland.

Mrs. Clayton Williams and son, Errol have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams.

Miss Hemings from Norwich, is spending her vacation with Mrs. George McDonald.

Miss Myra Geer spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Santo, at Bean Hill.

Miss Mabel Tanner of Hartford was a recent guest of Mrs. Ella Foster.

Misses Mildred and Delphine Ladd of Norwich are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Troland.

Rev. Stanley Selfick spent the week end in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bushnell and two children of Norwich Town spent Sunday afternoon at Clark Standish's.

A number from this place spent Sunday at Memorial Beach, R. I.

GOSHEN

Large numbers of young green katydids are seen in the hay fields. Sounds of the locusts and crickets are reminders of the gradual approach of fall. "The Arkansas Traveler" (descriptive) was one of the many old-time selections greatly enjoyed as given by Eugene Maynard, state champion violinist at the last meeting of Goshen.

The delicate pink of wild roses is still noted along country roadsides.

EAST HADDAM

Mrs. I. M. Lobdell and daughter, Miss Bessie Lobdell, Miss Martha Alden and Miss Elsie Lobdell of Hartford are on an auto trip to Cutler, Maine. Mrs. Lobdell's house "Sunset View," is being occupied by Mrs. Edward Oberholser during their absence.

Crary Brownell is building a cottage on the Brownell property, on the north end of Bashan lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Emmons of South Manchester are spending two weeks' vacation at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Emmons.

Dr. G. B. Vroom was in Chester Monday.

Mrs. Florence Nichols and Mrs. Mary McElroy of New York, are at "Pointed Firs," for the month.

Mrs. Fannie Lee and Ralph Comstock of Quaker Hill, were visiting friends in Chester Tuesday evening.

Daniel Doane of Essex is cutting the hay on Walter M. Gillette's farm.

President Coolidge sent a message of congratulations to President von Hindenburg of Germany on the seventh anniversary of the birth of the German republic.

ALL SIZES NOW
26 oz - Moxie for the whole family
16 oz - Order this size at your club or hotel
7oz - KID MOXIE the new single drink size
And here's the new handy Moxie Carrying Bag, exclusively a Moxie Feature—snugly holds just Six Kid Moxies. The rush of dealer demand is being met just as rapidly as this famous bag can be manufactured.
Devised by F. M. Archer for Moxie. Registered Drink
MOXIE

To the Trade

We are pleased to be able to announce a MOXIE C DEAL. We ask you to call, phone, write or wire your Moxie jobber at once so that by no possible chance the MOXIE C DEAL will get away from you as it is only of short duration.

Only authorized Moxie Jobbers to whom we have issued a Certificate of Authority can handle the MOXIE C DEAL.

May we request that if you do not receive the 100% attention to which you are entitled, that you bring it to our attention at once.

ISSUED FROM MOXIELAND, BOSTON.

P. S.—Only the 26-oz. Moxie is referred to in this special MOXIE C Deal.

Respectfully yours, THE MOXIE COMPANY. By F. M. Archer.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

FEATURE FOR FRIDAY

The Spot Light is Turned on

TURKISH TOWEL BARGAINS

Better than usual values are attracting Norwich Customers in great numbers. Exceptional fine values at 29c, 39c and 59c

BARGAIN SQUARE

BARGAIN SQUARE is located just inside the Shetucket street entrance and at the right of the "THOROUGHFARE." The merchandise that we place on this bargain section is special lines that we want to sell quickly. The prices are always lower than you ever knew the same merchandise to be sold regularly! It is a rule that none but exceptional bargains are ever allowed on this interesting bargain square.

FRIDAY MORNING

SPECIAL OFFERINGS ON THE NEW BARGAIN SQUARES.

CRETONNE COVERED PILLOWS in a variety of designs and colorings, well filled attractive pillows for porch or living room—Each 50c

WANKRAFT FELT BASE MATS—Variety of colorings and designs—Each 25c

WOMEN'S HOOVER DRESSES in a fine assortment of colors. Made of good chambray—Special $1.00

WOMEN'S BLOOMERS of good quality Windsor Crepe, in the popular colors—

Regular Sizes 69c

Extra Sizes $1.00

THE PRINCESS SHOP

FRANKLIN SQUARE NORWICH, CONN.

Closing Out

ALL SUMMER GARMENTS

NO LONGER A QUESTION OF PRICE—EVERY SUMMER GARMENT IN THE STORE MUST BE SOLD, TO MAKE ROOM FOR OUR ADVANCE SHOWING OF FALL MERCHANDISE.

SALE STARTS FRIDAY, AUGUST 13th, 9 A. M.

ENGLISH BROADCLOTH DRESSES $1.29 — Sizes 18 to 52, Guaranteed Fast Colors, Value $3.95

SILK DRESSES $4.95 — Of the Newest Shades and Colors

BETTER SILK DRESSES $7.95 — Formerly Sold up to $12.95

NEWEST JERSEY DRESSES and SUITS $5.00 — Value $8.50

LADIES, TAKE NOTICE!

WE ARE PUTTING ON SALE 300 NEW FALL MODELS IN DRESSES FLAT CREPES, SATINS, MOIRETS — NEWEST SHADES — SNAPPY MODELS — THE BEST VALUES EVER OFFERED HERE OR ANYWHERE.

REGULAR $16.75 Now $9.95 ALL SIZES

OUR ENTIRE COAT STOCK AT PRACTICALLY YOUR OWN PRICE.

WOMAN CAMPAIGNS FOR WOMAN COUNCIL CANDIDATE AT NEW LONDON

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13—Nominating petitions for Dr. Joseph M. Ganey, E. Victory Goldsmith and Frederick W. Edgerton for the office of school visitors, were filed at the office of City Clerk Julian D. Moran this afternoon. The petitions were circulated by P. Lefroy Harwood, president of the board of school visitors. The term of office of the nominees will expire Oct. 1, and Messrs Ganey, Goldsmith and Edgerton seek a return to office.

No additional petitions for the office of member of council were filed today, but it became known that Frank S. Shea, of the law firm of McGarry and Shea is seeking the office. His petition is being circulated by his law partner, John McGarry.

The petition of Mrs. Emily Spiers for office of member of council will be filed tomorrow, for her circulator. Mrs. Walter Horton concluded her canvass for signers this afternoon, having obtained twice as many signatures as is necessary to validate the petition. The time limit to file petitions is next Saturday.

MICHAEL LEVIN, NORWICH, BUYS EXTRA STRIP OF LAND

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13—Michael Levin, 113 Washington street, Norwich, today purchased of Antone Leverone a one-half strip of land on Midway place, Ocean Beach. Mr. Levin purchased the land because the cottage he owns there, Two-Some cottage, encroached upon the Leverone land.

IN DEFAULT OF $2,000 BAIL LAWNER COMMITED TO JAIL

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13—Benjamin Lawner, 23, who stole a Nash roadster automobile from James M. Miner, and who was caught in New York and brought back here yesterday, did not have an attorney to represent him when he was given a hearing in the police court this morning. However he had a lot of shrewd common sense and demurred to the complaint against him charging the theft of the car. He was held for trial in the superior court at its September term, in a bond of $2,000. He could not furnish the bail and went to jail where he will have opportunity to make up his mind whether he will be as wise in the proceedings before the criminal superior court. He is understood to have admitted to a fellow countryman after the session of the court today that he had been associated with auto thieves in New York and that he had stolen and sold other automobiles besides that owned by Mr. Miner. Lawner is said to have made substantially the same admission to Detective Cavanaugh when that officer was in New York after Lawner. He named the party who bought the stolen property. The theft of the Miner auto was a bold bit of work for the seat in which Miner had ridden to State street had not become cold after Miner left it before Lawner was in the car and was speeding away to New York. A traffic officer, too far away to capture Lawner, sounded his whistle to stop him, but the latter did not heed and speeded out of town. The telephone beat him to it, however, and he was caught before he could sell the car he stole. The value of the Nash roadster is fixed at $1,000 in the complaint under which Lawner is being prosecuted.

A considerable group of violators of the parking ordinance was in the police court this morning, those accused being residents here as well as dwellers outside the city. They were first-time offenders and for that reason judgment was suspended in each case. They were warned against offending again. One man accused gave a bond of $5 for appearance when he was ticketed for appearance, but he failed to answer when his case was called so his $5 went into the court treasury.

One drunk was accused, but he escaped penalty.

The Pequot Realty company has sold to C. Shepard Lee a building lot on the southerly side of Worthington avenue, the land being a part of the former C. S. Guthrie place.

Henry H. Coogan has sold to Annie Mussler a building lot on Addison street.

Miss Ellen Feeley, of Franklin, Mass., has concluded a week's visit with relatives in this city.

The funeral of Mrs. Harriet L. Kopp, widow of Joseph Kopp, was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at 48 Shapley street, and was attended by many mourners. The services were conducted by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, pastor of the First Church of Christ. The bearers were Charles R. Stoll, Everett Lyon, Clarence Parmelee, Robert Lyon, Alfred W. Stoll and Tyler Lyon, the last named from New Haven. Burial was in the family plot in Cedar Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Josephine Perrini, 48, wife of Frank Porrini, 52 Howard street, died this morning at Home Memorial hospital, where she had been a patient for several days. Besides her husband, Mrs. Perroni is survived by a daughter, Miss Jane Perroni.

The funeral of James Reagan was held this morning at 9 o'clock. The services at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church was attended by a large gathering of mourners. A solemn mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Raymond O'Callahan, with Rev. Dr. Timothy M. Crowley deacon and Rev. Michael Reagan sub-deacon. The bearers were Thomas Quill, Michael Reagan, Thomas Kelley, Richard McGill, Daniel Devine and Timothy Ahearn The committal prayers in St. Mary's cemetery were read by Rev. Fr. O'Callahan.

Christos Paul, waiter at the Star restaurant, State street, made complaint to Acting Prosecuting Attorney Percy J. Hollandersky this morning, alleging assault upon him by James Bernan, a sailor attached to Submarine S-49, submarine base. A warrant for Bernan's arrest was issued by Prosecutor Hollandersky and given to Motorcycle Officer Augustus Ray to serve. Officer Ray went to the submarine base and delivered the warrant to the captain of the submarine as the civil authorities are powerless to take prisoners from a military reservation without the consent of the treasury department. This formality will probably be waived, as the captain of the submarine upon hearing Bernan's statement believed that the sailor was provoked into making an attack upon Paul, but will deliver the prisoner in person if such action is desired by the prosecutor, after hearing all the facts leading up to the assault.

Bernan was in the vicinity of the restaurant, between 10 and 11 o'clock last night and visited the restaurant several times, but did not remain there any length of time on either visit. About 11 o'clock and when there were no patrons in the place, Bernan went to the rear of the restaurant where Paul was standing and without any ceremony delivered Paul a right hand smash on the mouth that opened the upper lip. It required three stitches to close the wound at Lawrence hospital. Bernan then ran from the restaurant, entered a waiting automobile and was driven away. Paul came from the restaurant immediately after Bernan disappeared and made complaint to Patrolman John Sullivan, but Bernan was nowhere to be found, having returned to his ship.

According to Bernan, who had made known the fact that he intended to attack Paul, the former was in the restaurant last Sunday night and while there, he declares, he was insulted and humiliated by Paul, who, Bernan stated, called him vile and obscene names. He did not have shore liberty again until last night and going to the restaurant he waited until a favorable time to chastise Paul for his alleged insults of two nights before.

This city had its severest storm of the summer this afternoon, when thunder and lightning accompanied by torrents of rain gave something of a scare. The downpour was very heavy and some streets were badly washed. On Broad street, near Ledyard, the catch basins were choked with rubbish that had gathered in the gratings and the street was flooded so that the sidewalks were below the surface of the water. On Green street, the highway was flooded from curb to curb, while on lower Bank street near Truman, a place that has always been an annoyance in heavy rains, the walks were covered and water entered some of the stores on the west side of the street. The New London trolley car service was interrupted somewhat, but on the Norwich route and on the Groton and Stonington lines cars were delayed something like a half hour. The crowd at Ocean Beach hustled to get away when the downpour began. Many of the visitors were women and children and there were a considerable number from Norwich and vicinity for an outing at the beach. The atmosphere was very humid during the day and up to the hour of the downpour, but the rain changed the temperature, so that evening was as cool as could be wished for during a summer night.

Mrs. Annie Burnham, 63, wife of Cyrus E. Burnham, died last night at her home in Waterford, death resulting from chronic heart trouble. Mrs. Burnham, besides her husband, is survived by a son, George Richards, and a daughter, Miss Iola Richards, both of Waterford.

The New Haven police today requested the New London police to be on the lookout for three stolen automobiles, that thieves drove away from the street of the former city. One automobile is a Ford coupe, 1923 model and carries Connecticut registration, E-1582; another is a Studebake touring, 1924 model and has registration Y-1256, Connecticut issue and the third is a Ford open delivery, Connecticut registration, 19-152.

Representative Warren B. Burrows, of Groton, is anxious to receive nomination for senator from the 18th district at the approaching senatorial convention. Mr. Burrows is prosecuting attorney for the town of Groton.

Miss Mary Avery of Eastern Point, Groton; Mrs. Harry Crandall and infant son, 58 Georgiana street; Elwood Maynard, Mystic and Robert Almedia, 39 Huntington street, patients at Lawrence-Memorial hospital, were discharged today.

Harry McLaughlin and family, until recently residing at 35 Connecticut avenue, have moved to Bath, Me.

Kenneth Street, son of Councilman and Mrs. Edward L. Streeter, Jr., Ocean avenue, was admitted to Home Memorial hospital today and will be operated upon for appendicitis.

Director of Finance Carey Congdon, started by automobile today for Booth Harbor, Squirrel Island, Me., where he will join Mrs. Congdon, who is visiting friends there. Mr. and Mrs. Congdon will spend the greater part of two weeks at York camp and Loon lake. The trip is being made by automobile.

News has been received in Groton of the death of Lawrence Smith of Hartford, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, former residents of Groton Mr. Smith had been a patient at Hartford hospital for a month for meningitis, which developed from an abscess of the ear. He was a graduate of Groton schools and of Bulkeley high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Adams and son, Morgan Adams, personal tax collector, Groton, have returned to their home on Monument street, after an automobile trip to Calais.

After weeks of much police court business there was but one case scheduled to be presented before Judge Victor Prince when court convened tomorrow morning, that case being a fellow charged with intoxication and who was arrested this afternoon by Motorcycle Officer Augustus Ray on North Bank street. This is a contrast to conditions that have prevailed for many weeks, some days there being anywhere from a half dozen to 40 cases to claim the attention of the court.

MAY HAVE THREE HUSBANDS INSTEAD OF MERELY TWO

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 12.—Detective Sergeant John Cavanaugh, it is expected will arrive in New London during the night with Florence Halliday Mowrie, alias Florence Walsh, charged with bigamy and who was arrested at Washington, D. C., for the New London police Wednesday afternoon. Since the arrest of the girl and the fact being revealed that she has two husbands, Harry Mowrie and John Francis Walsh, United States coast guard, both residing in New London, it has been revealed that until the middle of July she was employed as waitress in a Green street restaurant. When she discontinued work she informed the proprietor that she was going away to be married and it may be that she has a husband in another city if what she said was a truthful statement.

The presidential yacht, Mayflower, arrived in port last night and is at anchor at the mouth of the harbor with her crew of 200. The Mayflower, the pleasure yacht of President Coolidge, will remain in port indefinitely, being here to await orders from the nation's chief executive. The yacht has no guests aboard.

The New London police are maintaining a watch for Sylvia Scaranzi, patient at the Norwich State hospital, who escaped from the institution this afternoon. The woman is described as being about 30, about five feet, one inch in height, weighs about 125 pounds, has dark brow neyes, black bobbed hair and is of dark complexion. When she escaped the woman was dressed in a black satin dress, tan sleeveless sweater, white stockings and gray shoes.

CLASS TO MAKE COOKIES FOR CLOSING EXERCISES

Twenty housewives at the lecture room of Norwich Gas and Electric Dept. were given a practical free cooking lesson Wednesday afternoon, by Miss Gladys L. Peckham, home service expert. The demonstration was the preparation of plum conserve and making peach and orange marmalade.

Next Wednesday, the 18th, the lesson will be on Chili sauce and pepper relishes. That will be the last lesson until Wednesday Sept. 8th, as Miss Peckham has her vacation until after Labor Day. She was assisted Wednesday by Miss Irene L. Broadhurst.

The previous evening, the class at St. Joseph's community rooms numbered 54, being given a lesson on making doughnuts. The free course there will end after next week's lesson, when it will be determined what pupils are entitled to certificates for the course of six lessons. The lesson next Tuesday evening will be on vanilla ice cream and chocolate sauce.

The big night for St. Joseph's class comes Thursday, the 19th, at 7.30, when the energetic and public-spirited pastor of St. Joseph's, Rev. Stanley A. Iciek will present the certificates. The exercises will be public and the class members will make cookies to serve with the punch for those present. This is a very enthusiastic class, eager to learn and punctual at every lesson.

SHOWER BATHS FOR LAKE ST. GROUNDS

The Hobart avenue playgrounds will hold their annual lawn party this (Thursday) evening and a large number is expected to be in attendance. The grounds will be especially decorated for the event and the children under the supervision of Miss Meresa Fitzgerald, instructor, have worked hard for the success of this party.

Showe baths have been installed at the Lake St. playgrounds through the efforts of the recreation commission. William J. Fitzgerald, chairman. The commission has worked hard toward this end and the children of that center were enjoying the showers for the first time on Wednesday.

The instructors of the Greeneville playgrounds appreciate the kindness of John Morrison for printing a large sign which has been erected at this center. The sign bears out the tiding of "Good Sportmanship" and is about 40 inches in height.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Broadway Theatre

What young man has never dreamed of returning to the old home town in a limousine and a fortune at his command, to be welcomed by the cheering villagers?

It is doubtful if any enthusiastic youth ever set forth to wrest wealth and fame from the universe without the mental reservation that he would return and show the home folks they had not appreciated his exceptional talents.

Denny plays the role of the ambitious wanderer who strays from "Lower Falls" to conquer the world and shame the Rockefellers and Morgans with his business sagacity and financial wizardry.

Like most young men who had hopes but few plans, he discovers that the world is somewhat reluctant to turn over its riches to him without something in return, and the events which follow his departure from home, with his subsequent return, provides excellent comedy of the usual Denny-Seiter quality.

Supporting the star in "Rolling Home" is an unusually large cast, including Marion Nixon, E. J. Ratcliffe, Ben Hendricks, Jr., Margaret Seddon, George Nicholls, George Marion, Anton Vaverka and others.

Rex Taylor adapted "Rolling Home" to the screen from the play by John Hunter Booth, and the continuity was written by William A. Seiter and John McDermott.

The second feature stars Billy Sullivan in "The Speed Champion."

Why I Like Teaching In Schools of Nursing

The Backus hospital training school for nurses will receive a new entering class in September, offering greater facilities to a greater number than ever before to take the course. One of its graduates describes and gives the reasons why she likes teaching in schools of nursing as follows:

Perhaps if I tell you a few of the reasons why I like teaching, you can understand better a nurse choosing this branch. What is more inspiring than to see a young woman start out with an ideal? In this case it is to be an "ideal nurse." I feel a great responsibility rests on me as a teacher, for I must not allow this ideal to become lowered or dimmed. I must instead, through my teaching and example, keep this ideal ever in front of the young nurse. An ideal is often destroyed by realities; that would not happen if some one was ready to help guide and teach that young nurse to remodel her "ideal" by educating herself in every available way and giving her a broader viewpoint to judge from.

I find nothing more satisfying than to have a young woman enter as a probationer with all her enthusiasm and ambition gradually becoming more and more capable, still keeping her ideal and earning her cap and hospital uniform. Then follow her through her course, steadily becoming able to meet an emergency that might arise, doing her daily routine faithfully and being the nurse that the patient so loves to have around because of her kind, tactful efficient manner. Then follow her to that day of graduation. What is more wonderful than to have attained an ideal? She is now going out into the world as a graduate nurse, to do her bit; for the relief of suffering by her teachings and her deeds.

This only vaguely explains why I like teaching but haven't I seen the results of my efforts and teachings when I see the patient so happy and well cared for, and the young woman that had only an ideal now an "Ideal Nurse"!

RUTH RAYMOND, R. N.

Breed Theatre

"When the Door Opened," the William Fox picture directed by Reginald Barker and now at the Breed theatre, contains all the ingredients that go to make a photoplay a perfect entertainment.

It has thrills.

When you picture a terrific flood sweeping its destructive way over the countryside, or a spine-tingling race in canoes through the turbulent waters of a mad rapids or a towering pine tree crashing to earth within a few inches of the heroine, you have an inkling of the gigantic thrills incorporated in the film by one of the best thrill-creators among present-day directors.

It has love interest—beautifully carried throughout the fast action by Jacqueline Logan and Walter McGrail both stellar screen players recognized for thir eundisputed talent and artistry.

It has comedy—clean effective humor, dispensed by Walter Chung and Roy Laidlow, two chuckle makers of the first rank.

It has beauty—the magnificent rugged mountains of the north, and the towering forests of Canada reproduced with vivid photography.

It has plot, gripping, thrilling and tense—woven by one of the master builders of adventurous narratives—James Oliver Curwood.

And it has a great cast. The chief supporting roles are portrayed by players of world renown. Frank Keenan, Robert Cain, Margaret Livingston, Roy Laidlow and Walter Chung are the featured members supporting Jacqueline Logan and Walter McGrail.

Appointment of a committee to study the commercial aspects of gladiolus culture, with a view of stabilizing the industry was recommended by Dr. S. I. Moody of Brockton, Mass.

DANCE
TOWN HALL, BROOKLYN
FRIDAY EVENING
AUGUST 13
MUSIC BY CHAMPION FIDDLER
UNCLE JOE SHIPPEE
And His Funny Trio
ROUND AND SQUARE DANCING

DANCE TONIGHT
ASHLAND CASINO
Jewett City.
8:30 to 12
D'Atri's Orchestra

DANCE
Pachaug Grange Hall
Saturday, Aug. 14
Round and Square Dances

DANCE TONIGHT
MAPLE SHADE CASINO
Salem.
Dancing Every Friday Night

PETTAQUAMSCUTT CASINO
The PLACE in RHODE ISLAND
Where the Most Famous
DINNERS
OLD-FASHIONED CLAMBAKES and WONDERFUL
DANCE MUSIC
CAN BE FOUND.
Near Saunderstown

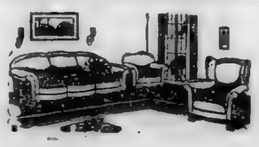
BREED THEATRE
TODAY — SATURDAY
Reginald Barker's Production of James Oliver Curwood's Mighty Drama of the Great Northwest
"WHEN THE DOOR OPENED"
—Featuring—
PRINCE ROYAL, the dog marvel, with Jacqueline Logan, Margaret Livingston, Frank Keenan and Walter McGrail
"THE RADIO DETECTIVE"
MERMAID COMEDY | NEWS
—Coming Sunday—
RICHARD BARTHELMESS
—In—
"THE BEAUTIFUL CITY"
With Dorothy Gish

BROADWAY
TODAY — SATURDAY
(2:15-7 to 10:30)—(Cont. 2 to 10:30)
MATINEE—CHILDREN 15c
KEITH-ALBEE VAUDEVILLE
5 ACTS
—Screen Attractions—
"The Adventurous Sex"
—With—
Clara Bow and Earle Williams
COMEDY—NEWS
SUNDAY—2 FEATURES
Main Attraction
REGINALD DENNY
in "ROLLING HOME"

LAWN FETE
Saturday
Leffingwell Church.

SAVE!
August Clearance Sale
Buy here and bank the difference! Savings like these are indeed rare and only a great sale like this could make such super savings possible. That's why we invite you to come now and save on quality furniture as never before.

Rockers
$16.75
Comfortable rockers with deep spring filled seats and backs, upholstered in genuine Spanish leather.



Living Room Suites Must Go
An outstanding suite value for tomorrow! It includes the three pieces. Arrange to see this luxurious suite early tomorrow at just $129.00

Dining Room Special
This distinctive suite is constructed of genuine American gumwood finished in rich walnut color. It includes a large buffet, an oblong extension table, five side chairs and host chair upholstered in genuine leather. All eight pieces for just $72.50

25% OFF
—On All—
Refrigerators including the famous "Alaska" Cork-lined Refrigerator. Prices as low as $7.90

Steel Beds
$5.95
Gracefully designed with continuous posts and substantial fillers, finished in either white or brown color.

New Bedroom Creations
Even the latest creations are included at these tremendous reductions! This charming group includes a dresser, chiffarobe, bow-end bed, end vanity dresser, constructed of walnut veneer in combination with other woods. A wonder value at $95.00

BREAKFAST SET SPECIAL
Be early tomorrow morning if you want one of these charming breakfast groups at the lowest price we have ever offered. They are richly finished in attractive colorings that will add a touch of color to your home. Greatly reduced for tomorrow to $16.85
The set includes drop leaf table and four chairs, as pictured.
A Small Deposit Delivers It—The Balance Payable as Convenient.

SPECIAL AUGUST VALUE
Cotton Felt Mattress
Well made, roll edge construction, finely tufted.
All sizes $8.45

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF HAMMOCKS
to close out at cost. Select yours now—
As low as $7.90

WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD
SCHWARTZ BROS.
The BIG STORE with the LITTLE PRICES
76-78-80-82 MAIN ST.
OUR REPUTATION BUILT ON QUALITY
OUR BUSINESS BUILT ON VALUE

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S
Pills for Constipation
A purely vegetable laxative that works in harmony with the Vegetable Compound.

Prepared by
Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company
Lynn, Mass.

Your Favorite Foods
A&P
Where Economy Rules
At the A&P you are sure to find your favorite, nationally advertised brands of groceries —at low prices!
FRIDAY — SATURDAY
New POTATOES . 15 lb. 43c
FANCY MACHINE SLICED BACON . . . . . 39c lb.
Selected EGGS . . . . 35c doz.
GRANDMOTHER'S BREAD . . . . . 9c Loaf
GRANDMOTHER'S DOUGHNUTS . . . . . 12c Box
THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

BEIT BROS.' MARKET
Free Delivery — Phone 454 — 35 Franklin Street
Our principal aim at every turn of each business day is to give our patrons the highest quality foods at the most reasonable prices. For Quality and Satisfaction try Beit Bros.
Money-Saving Specials for Friday and Saturday!

Fresh Killed Native FOWL, lb. 35c	Sugar Cured Boneless HAMS, lb. 34c	Native SQUASH 5c	Extra Fancy New POTATOES 37c PECK
Sugar-Cured Smoked SHOULDERS, lb. 22c	Extra Fancy Native CHICKENS and BROILERS	Native CARROTS, 4 bun. 25c	With $1 purchase at our Fruit Department
Extra Fancy POT ROASTS, lb. (Boned and Rolled) 25c	Fancy DRIED BEEF, lb. 54c	Extra Fancy Large PEACHES, basket 25c	Fancy Ripe Native TOMATOES, lb. 10c
Lean, Boneless CORNED BEEF, lb. 14c	Sugar-cured BACON, lb. 33c	Large California Bartlett PEARS—7 for 25c	Native ONIONS—Five pounds 25c
Best Quality Shoulder STEAK, lb. 25c	Fresh Creamery Print BUTTER, 2 lbs. 88c	Honeydew MELONS 25c	Large Native CUKES—Each 5c
Legs of Genuine SPRING LAMB, lb. 36c	Swift's Silverleaf Pure LARD, pkg. 19c	Boston HEAD LETTUCE 10c	California Sunkist LEMONS, dozen 33c
Meaty Fores of Genuine SPRING LAMB, lb. 25c	Fresh Selected EGGS—Two dozen 74c	Fancy California ORANGES, dozen 33c	Large California Sunkist ORANGES—Dozen 64c

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

DIED

BURNHAM—At Waterford, Aug. 11, 1926, Annie, wife of Cyrus E. Burnham.

FERRINO—In New London, Aug. 12, 1926, Josephina, wife of Frank Perrine, aged 48.

BORN

SENIOR—In Pawcatuck (Stonington), Aug. 6, 1926, a son, Richard Herbert, to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Senior.

FELLOWS—In Norwich, Aug. 9, 1926, a son, Gordon Wallace, to Mr. and Mrs. Imbert F. Fellows.

BACHAND—At Jewett City, Aug. 12, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bachand.

BACON—In Putnam, Aug. 7th, 1926, a daughter, Priscilla Mullins, to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley F. Bacon of Farrows street.

SULLIVAN—In Norwich, Aug. 11, 1926, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Maynard J. Sullivan (Ethel Curran).

FUNERAL NOTICES

REISS—In this city, Aug. 12, 1926, James W. Reiss, aged 77 years.
Funeral from his late residence, 14 Arnold street, Saturday morning, Aug. 14, at 8:15. Requiem mass in St. Mary's Memorial church at 9 o'clock. Burial in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery.

ROGERS—In Norwich, Aug. 11, 1926, Ruth Marion Kinney, wife of Charles P. Rogers, aged 25 years.
Funeral from the home of her father, George R. Kinney, 64 Roosevelt avenue, Friday afternoon, Aug. 13, at 2:30 o'clock (d. s. t.) Burial in Maplewood cemetery.

SULLIVAN—In Groton, Aug. 11, 1926, Mary R. Twomey, widow of Patrick Sullivan.
Funeral from the home of her son, John L. Sullivan, 15 Deane street, Groton, Saturday morning at 8:45. Requiem mass at St. Patrick's church, Norwich, at 10 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

Incident to the illness and death of Leonard Herard, Jr., we wish to thank all of those who by their kind acts and gifts of flowers made our sorrow easier to bear.
MR. AND MRS. LEONARD HERARD.
Attawagan, Ct., Aug. 12, 1926.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
16 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 628-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
18 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 616-5
DAVID H. WILSON

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2729 Providence St., Taftville

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-3 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic/ Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
DANIELSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Special Attention to Every Detail.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2.

COAL AND WOOD

SEASONED hard wood, $10 a load, oak, slab-wood, $8. Delivered anywhere. Phone 469. jun18tf

FOR SALE—Split wood and kindlings 3 baskets for $1.00, Fountain St. Wood Yard. Tel. 2116. mar17

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Position in an office. Knowledge of bookkeeping, stenography and typewriting. Good education. Box No. 66. aug13

WANTED—Experienced girl for housework. Phone 1768. aug13

WANTED—By young girl, position to assist with housework. Write Bulletin, Box 33. aug13

WANTED—Woman, aged 35-40 for waitress-chambermaid. Experience unnecessary; wages $10 per week, room and board. Lawton Inn, Plainfield. Phone 42-3 Moosup Div. aug12d

WANTED—100 teachers at once. Must be Normal graduates. Free registration. The Holman Teachers' Agency, 325 Williams St., New London, Conn. aug16d

WANTED—A position to care for an invalid. Experienced. Tel. 3701. aug4d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

DA YA remember the old days when you usta kill the umpire and throw soda bottles at him. Ya can't do that any more. Heimar cigarettes, 20 for 20c. Myrad and Melachrino, 20 for 30c. Old Coon and Noble cigars, 5 pack 30c. A fine leather tobacco pouch 35c. Old Gold cigarettes are goin' good. Try a pack today, 20 for 15c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Woolworth is opisit us. aug13

FOR SALE—An old established grocery store. 54 Golden St., New London. aug11d

FOR SALE—Everhot Jr. electric cooker. Roasts, bakes, browns and stews from ordinary lamp socket current. Special price $9.95. City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. aug11tf

FOR SALE—One Papec ensilage cutter, No. 13. Irwin M. Jones, P. O. Leonard Bridge, Conn. Tel. Lebanon 43-3. aug11d

FOR SALE—6-room dwelling with barn and land for a good garden, electricity and water; located on shore road, Westerly, R.I., 10 minutes to beach. A. C. Burdick, Realtor, Jewett City and Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug12

FOR SALE OR RENT—New 7-room cottage, Black Point. Electricity, water, bath. Lebanon 33-2. Yantic Box 130. aug12d

FOR SALE—Two-family house, 40 Boswell Ave. 16 rooms. Estate of Helen Sumner Lennen. Inquire at house. J. L. Sumner, Exr. aug12d

FOR SALE—One fish-box, almost new. Could be used for milk cooler. Price reasonable. Hotel Hooker, Willimantic, Conn. aug12d

FOR SALE—German puppies. 335 Central Ave. aug11d

FOR SALE—A two-family house; Falls section; for quick sale $3,500. Two-family house on East Side, for quick sale, $2,500. Norwich Land Title and Ins. Co. Tel. 2279. aug10tf

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, fine gladiolas and asters especially. William Weaver, 6 Huntington Ave., Norwich Town. aug7d

FOR SALE—5-room house, No. 9 Soule St., Jewett City. Inquire F. E. Robinson, Jewett City. aug4tf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. may28

FOR SALE—A high grade Columbia Grafonola; all latest improvements; beautiful mahogany cabinet; cost new $120. Our price $49.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A high grade 88-note player piano at half regular price. Used as demonstrator only. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A 6-tube Fine Arts radio set with built in speaker completely installed $80. This is a brand new set at half its value. Easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—22 acre farm located 1 mile from state road. Price attractive. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Three family house on state road, with several acres of land. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ideal poultry farm near Jewett City. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—2 acres land with 2 cottages. Price $2,150. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ten acre farm located on the state road. Price $3,000. Easy terms. William McNicol, Maynard Bldg., Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—17 acre farm with good buildings. Ideal location for poultry. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

E. J. TETRAULT—Agent for New Home sewing machines. Tel 874-2, Baltic. After 5 p. m. Repairing on all kinds of sewing machines promptly done. All work guaranteed. Thirty years' experience. jul7

ON THE OCEAN FRONT

We have a good 7-room furnished cottage with large veranda and 2-car garage on lot 60 foot front with substantial sea wall that we can sell for $4500.

TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE

Cottage of eight rooms, all improvements. Lot 75x130; house could easily be made into two apartments. Bargain for quick buyer. Very little cash required. For further information inquire of

PANEK & TYMCHECK
301-302 Disco Bldg., Norwich, Conn.

FOR SALE

Gear avenue, 9-room residence. Large reception hall. Lot is 75x128—$7,500.

JAMES E. MOORE
REALTOR.

FOR SALE

In Chelsea Parade Section, a six-room cottage, with improvements, including heat, room for garage. Price $5,500. Owner leaving town. For particulars inquire

FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Phone. Norwich.

WE ARE OFFERING
RIDGEWOOD PARK LOTS
(OCEAN BEACH)
AT A SPECIAL PRICE OF $790
GOOD UNTIL AUGUST 15
MAY WE TELL YOU ABOUT THEM
WRITE — TELEPHONE— —CALL
JAMES L. CASE
REALTOR
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE

One of the best located Gasoline and Oil Stations in the state. Always doing good, profitable business. Sold on account of owner's death, so it's a great opportunity for someone.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER
44 Shetucket Street.

FOR SALE—CATTLE

FOR SALE—Three year old Guernsey cow with week old calf. F. L. Kanahan, R. D. 4. aug11d

COWS—Three carloads, just arrived, 16 pure bred Ayrshires; all under supervision. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel. Lebanon 36. aug6d

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

TO RENT

FOR RENT—Apartment, 366 Washington St. Write M. Fuller, Norwich Town. jul9FMW

TO RENT — Nine-room tenement. Spaulding St. Phone 992. aug13tf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; newly furnished at 58 Cedar St. Inquire next door. aug13d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment with all modern improvements. All recently remodeled. Apply to Charles Rubin, 200 West Main or call 2212-3. aug13d

TO RENT—8 rooms, electricity, $30. 58 Washington St. aug12tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms, modern improvements; garage. Call at 62 School St. or at N. Y. Shoe Shine Parlor, 29 Franklin St. aug11d

TO RENT—6-room tenement; recently remodeled. 335 Central Ave. aug11d

TO RENT—Large furnished room. Gentleman preferred. 49 Church St. aug11d

TO RENT—2 tenements, 1 4 room, 1 6 rooms; all improvements. Inquire 26 Cliff St. aug11d

TO RENT—One of those fine 7-room apartments in the "Marion", heat and hot water furnished by owner. Phone 896-2. aug11tf

TO RENT—Large furnished room, light housekeeping. 14 Church St. aug11d

TO LET—5-room flat. Jeweler's. 77 Franklin St. Tel. 2146. aug11

FOR RENT—5-room tenement with all improvements. 110 N. Main St. aug10tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 78 McKinley Avenue. aug10tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 3 rooms; all improvements. 89 Asylum St. aug6d

FOR RENT—Six room apartment Phone 489. aug6tf

FOR RENT—One 5-room tenement; all improvements. Inquire Commercial Garage. aug3tf

TO RENT—5 room apartment, all improvements. 35 Fairmount St.

TO RENT—6-room tenement; all improvements; call at night downstairs 51 Division St. jul29tf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; all latest improvements. 316 Franklin St. Also 3-room apartment, 308 Franklin St. Inquire of Thos. Buckley, real estate agent. jul27tf

TO RENT—Lower flat, 6 rooms; also furnished room on second floor, 120 Broadway; ring 2nd bell. jul23tf

TO RENT—6-room apartment, 75 School St. jul8tf

TO RENT—Apartment of seven rooms; hardwood floors, nice locality. Call 921-4. jul3tf

FOR RENT—3 rooms; pantry, gas, lights. School St. $10 a month. Call 2474-2. jul1tf

TO RENT—One of the finest 7 room apartments in the city, in residential section. Phone 896-2. mar15tf

FOR RENT—At 175 Broadway 3 room furnished apartment, heated, hot water, the year round. Phone 1506 or 1811. apr22

TO RENT—6-room apartment, also 3-room cottage. Phone 259. apr21tf-sod

TO RENT—10-room apartment on Church St. Very desirable; rent reasonable. Inquire C. W. Cassidy, 40 Main St. jun21tf

TO RENT—Beautiful modern apartment at 60 Broad St. Heat and hot water furnished. Moderate rent. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. apr23tf

WANTED—Miscellaneous

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward, Box 359, Norwich. Phone 861-13. Norwich 404 Willimantic. sept7d

NOTICE
IMPORTANT—Will Mrs. Hattie C. Record communicate with the following address, Box XYZ, Bulletin Office? aug13d

WANTED—Carpenter work of all kinds. Estimates cheerfully given for large or small jobs. M. Krugruan, 97 Mechanics St. Phone 574. aug13tf

WANTED—On or about August 23, return load of furniture or other freight to Maine, New Hampshire or Vermont. F. C. Davis, Danielson, Conn. Tel 250. aug12d

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY
A CONNECTICUT corporation doing business in New London, Norwich and its vicinity, has increased its plant and production and is willing to dispose of part of its seven per cent (7%) participating preferred stock. If interested, we invite your inquiries. Write Investment, Bulletin Office. aug9d

AGENTS—Either sex, be our representatives, sell magic lustre, silver and metal polish, rapid seller, 50 per cent profit, credit given. Write O. K. Specialty Co., Norwich, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—An electric ceiling fan. Call 1933-4 or 1402-2. aug4d

T. J. CONNELLY—Tree cutter and remover 65 Boswell Ave.

CALL 2681-W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 35 Market St. apr29d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1405. nov17d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A Bruckner, 107 Franklin St. Phone 559 nov17d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 22 Market St. Phone 2158 tf

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Thursday, bay horse. Finder notify Alex Ablugel, R. D. 7, Browning Place. aug9d

LOST—Monday morning, somewhere near center of city, twenty dollars. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at Bulletin Office and receive a reward. aug13d

FOUND—Black and tan hound dog. No name or tag on collar. P. J. Navin, Clark's Corner. Tel. 645-3, Willimantic Div. aug10d

LOST—Bunch of keys between Jewett City and Norwich. Finder call 789-2. Reward. aug9tf

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Position as chauffeur. Eddie Harrison, P. O. Box 193, Taftville. aug13d

WANTED—Counter man. Apply to Mohegan Restaurant, 274 Main St. aug12d

YOUNG MAN, 17, strong and willing, finished three year electrical course, State Trade School, wants work. Paul Jansen, Mansfield Center, Conn. Tel. aug12d

WANTED—Married man; good paying opportunity. Apply Room 503 Plymouth Bldg., New Haven. aug11d

BRICKLAYERS—For Hartford, Conn. Maximum rate $1.87 1-2 per hour, experienced tradesmen, steady work, normal conditions. Apply ready for work to Hartford Open Shop Building Trades Exchange, 721 Main St., Hartford, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—Young man for selling work outside. Liberal commission paid. Very pleasant work. Some of our men make as high as $50 weekly. Write Box 44, care of Bulletin. jul27tf

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1926 Hupmobile 6 cyl. sedan, 1924 Hupmobile sedan, 1923 Hupmobile sedan. Several older cars. Exceptionally low priced. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. aug13

FOR SALE—Ford sedan $65; Buick with winter enclosure $125; 1923 Star roadster $45. West Side Garage, 194-196 West Main St. aug13d

FOR SALE—1924 Ford coupe. 116 Laurel Hill Ave. aug12d

FOR SALE—1 1924 Chrysler Royal Sedan, 1 1925 Chrysler 70 Roadster, 1 1922 Lafayette Sedan, 1 1923 Cleveland Touring Car, 1 1922 Ford Roadster, 1 1922 Buick Touring Car, 1 1923 Maxwell Panel Delivery. John J. Herbert, 195 No. Main St. aug11

FOR SALE—Latest improved Lincoln, 5-pass. sedan; driven about 3000 miles; demonstration. A wonderful bargain; over $1,000 off of list price; terms if desired; trade considered. Waterman & Wolfe, Inc., New London. Phone 3040. aug10tf

WANTED—Ford coupe in trade for '22 Essex touring. Phone 1129-32. aug7d

NEW HUDSON seven passenger sedan from factory at factory price $1,425. First check gets this once-in-a-lifetime bargain. Telephone 2852. Adams Tavern Garage. aug7d

FOR SALE—1 new 6 Star roadster; 1 new 4 Star touring; 24 Ford coupe; 26 Chrysler sedan; 24 Hup. coach; 23 Reo sedan; 25 Henderson cycle; 26 Ford Del.; 24 Buick coupe; 21 Cadillac touring. Cash or terms. Adams Tavern Garage. Auburn Sales and Service, Tel. 2852. aug4d

USED CAR SALE—Dodges, Buicks, Essex, Overlands, Fords, open and closed models. Price $75 up. Laurel Hill Garage, Laurel Hill avenue in rear of Laurel Hill school. Easy payments. Your car in trade. Open evenings. jul13d

FOR SALE—1925 Rickenbacker roadster, 1925 Chrysler roadster, 1925 Hudson coach, 1923 Buick roadster, 1920 Cadillac coupe. Small down payment; balance 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. jul13d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, U-61, Victoria coupe; 1925 Hudson coach; 1923 Buick coupe; 1923 Hupmobile 4-passenger coupe; 1923 Lodge coupe; 2 1923 Ford sedans; 1924 Ford coupe; 1922 Chevrolet coupe. Krieger Motor Sales, 191 No. Main St. Phone 646. jul12

FOR SALE—1925 Chrysler sedan, model 70. Excellent condition; low mileage. Privately owned. Box 56, Danielson, Ct. jul7tf

FOR SALE—New and used Harley Davidson motorcycles. Real good maxmines for real live fellows. Prices reasonable. Easy terms. J. P. Donovan 165 No. Main St. mar24d

USED CARS
AUGUST CLEARANCE

of every used car in stock at tremendous reductions. Prices are now lower than ever. Come in today—it will pay you.

1922 Ford Roadster	$45.00
1922 Overland Coupe	$130.00
1924 Essex Touring	$120.00
1918 Dodge Roadster	$55.00
1923 Chevrolet Touring	$90.00
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring	$50.00
1921 Overland Touring	$45.00
1923 Ford Roadster	$80.00
1922 Gardner Roadster	$75.00

STAR GARAGE
Plainfield, Conn. Phone 196.

USED CARS

1925 Ford Touring . . . $200
1923 Jewett Touring . $175
1925 Essex Coach . . . $475
1922 Hupmobile Road. $275

The Norwich Motor Sales Co.
HUDSON-ESSEX
Sales and Service.
394 N. Main St.—Tel. 1780

FOR SALE

One Buick 1923 coach body, 5 passenger. Good condition. Buick parts, all models. Parts for all models Hudson and Essex, Studebaker Specials and Big Six, also Cadillacs. Buick parts, all models. Bargains in used tires and tubes. Truck parts, 1 1-2 to 5 ton. Model 57 Cadillac limousine. Good condition. We pay highest prices for all cars in any condition. Willimantic Auto Parts Quarry St., Willimantic. Tel. 1204-3.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 6th day of Aug., A. D. 1926.
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
Estate of Michael E. Nolan, late of Preston, in said District, deceased.
Ordered, That the Administratrix cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

NOTICE
All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at 13 Allen St., Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.
VIOLA M. NOLAN,
Administratrix.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich within and for the District of Norwich, on the 10th day of Aug., A. D. 1926
Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
Estate of Margaret J. Preston, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.
Ordered, That the Administrator cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper have a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.
NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

NOTICE
All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at care Hotel Dimeling, Clearfield, Pa., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.
CHAS. H. PRESTON,
Administrator

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

LEGAL NOTICE

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Montville, within and for the District of Montville, on the 11th day of August, A. D. 1926.
Present, DAN D. HOME, Judge.
Estate of William A. Cooke, late of Montville, in said District, deceased.
Amelia A. Gilbert of Montville, Conn., appeared in Court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that administration be granted upon the estate of said deceased, alleged to be intestate.
Whereupon, It is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in Montville, in said District, on the 17th day of Aug., A. D. 1926, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order once in the Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said District at least four days prior to date of said hearing, and that return be made to the Court.
DAN D. HOME, Judge.
The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.
Attest, SUSAN F. PLOUFFE, Clerk.

FOR SALE—HORSES

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Horse for cow or bull. Geo. Saderstrom, Voluntown. aug12

FOR SALE—Horse, wagon and harness. S. Pogolowitz, 61 Fairmont St. aug9d

POULTRY

FOR SALE—Chickens, broilers or for roasting, alive or dressed. Phone 1488-3. jy24SWP

AUCTION

AUCTION
SATURDAY, AUGUST 14
10:30 D. S. T.
Elm Brook Farm,
FLANDERS, EAST LYME
BOSTON POST ROAD
ANTIQUES
A. D. PERKINS — Auctioneer
SALE RAIN OR SHINE

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanics, Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work, Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
Cor. Main and No. Main St. Phone 2118

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

CARS bought to wreck. Parts for all cars. Tires and tubes (new and used) big bargains. Hodes Auto Parts, 381 No. Main St., Norwich. Tel. 1391. aug13

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Authorized Service Station for Rusco Brake Lining. Brakes Inspected Free
JOE MOORE'S GARAGE
95 Chestnut St. Phone 2258

PAIGE, JEWETT AND GARDNER
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM O. NOYES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 731-2

General Repairing. Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2258
95 Chestnut Street

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

ALEXANDER H. MANES
Certified Public Accountant
48 Broadway Norwich

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Rural Homes
Need a Sanitary Sewage Disposal System.
Let us show you the best Vitrified Septic Tanks on the market today and explain their most exceptional advantages.
—The—
Peck-McWilliams Company.

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Sell It

CONTRACTORS

JAMES FURNIGNARO
Contractor, Excavating and Mason Work
Phone 2391—123 Oakridge St.

A. COSENTINO
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Excavation, Stone Work, Specialist in Plaster Work
6 Valley St. Tel. 627-4

CALL 2564-M for painting and cement work, done reasonably and expertly. may23tf

Business Notices.

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

DENTISTS

DR. ALFRED RICHARDS
Dental Surgeon
Rm 306, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 339

INSURANCE

E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Room 16, Central Bldg. Tel. 2425-2

Suppose You Have a Fire Tonight —
Are you sufficiently protected with Insurance?
Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent.
91 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
to Pay All Those Small Bills That Are Worrying You
WE FURNISH THE CASH
and you repay us in monthly installments to suit your means.—
On $ 50 you pay $ 5 monthly
On $ 75 you pay $ 6 monthly
On $100 you pay $ 8 monthly
On $150 you pay $10 monthly
On $200 you pay $10 monthly
On $300 you pay $20 monthly
plus legal interest on unpaid balance as designated by State law. Loans made to housekeepers on home furniture without removal and to anyone on guaranteed note. We operate under State Banking Dept. supervision and are licensed and bonded under State laws. For details, call, write, or phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG
16 FRANKLIN STREET

MERCHANT TAILOR

SWAHN THE TAILOR
HAS MOVED TO 2 CLIFF STREET
Opposite Chelsea Bank Phone 2101

MATTRESSES

SUSSMANS BEDDING
"The Best for Best"
At All Furniture Stores
SUSSMANS MATTRESS CO.
Chestnut St. Phone 577

MACHINE SHOP

BARBER'S Machine Shop, (L. and A. P. Guertin, proprietors) 23-25 Chestnut St. Tel 3142, does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly day or night. jun14tf

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 68 Franklin St.

PLUMBING

T. F. BURNS
91 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
169 Franklin St. Tel. 1382

SUMMER HOTEL

NINIGRET HOTEL
Under New Management
Crescent Beach, Connecticut
Steaks, Chicken and Lobster Dinners
Rooms by Day or Week
Dancing—Kai Patch's Orchestra
FREDERICK W. KEEFE
WILLIAM F. McGUIRE, Managers
Telephone 113 Niantic

TRUCKING

WANTED—Trucking and expressing. Good service. O. Eccleston. Tel. 1573-12. jun28tf

G. W. TRYON—Light trucking, parcel delivery. Reasonable rates. Tel. 3143 jun28tf

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING. Low rates. Phone 1342. jun28tf

CALL 797 FOR
Local and Long Distance Moving
W. F. CONODON, 80 Chestnut St.

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. jun28d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.

C. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3.

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ANTHUM E. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

RADIO

FRIDAY

492—WEAF—610.
6:45-7:45 A. M.—Setting-up exercises.
7:45 A. M.—Morning prayer service.
11:00 A. M.—Virginia Schuits, piano.
11:15 A. M.—"Cat", Bernard Faymonville.
11:30 A. M.—Virginia Schuls, piano.
11:40 A. M.—"Preserving Fruit," Ida Gibson.
11:55 A. M.—Virginia Schuls, piano.
12:00 M.—Market and weather reports.
12:15-1:15 P. M.—Reife's orchestra.
4:00 P. M.—Claude Reese, tenor.
4:15 P. M.—Flo Wagner, piano.
4:30 P. M.—"Letter Writing," S. A. Taintor.
4:45 P. M.—Jenny Barth, soprano.
5:00 P. M.—Helen Vogel, violin.
5:20 P. M.—Paul Hunt, baritone.
5:40 P. M.—Anca Seidlova, piano.
6:00 P. M.—Waldorf-Astoria dinner music.
6:55 P. M.—Baseball scores.
7:00 P. M.—Ingraham's orchestra.
7:30 P. M.—Mabelanna Corby, piano.
8:00 P. M.—"The Drifting Home," Ernest Grows.
8:15 P. M.—Maurice Brown, 'cello.
8:30 P. M.—Wandering Minstrels.
9:00 P. M.—La France orchestra.
9:30 P. M.—Kathleen Stewart, piano.
9:45 P. M.—Earl C. Little, bass.
10:00 P. M.—Whittall Anglo-Persians
10:30 P. M.—Albin's orchestra.
11:00-12:00 P. M.—Pelham Heath orchestra.

526—WNYC—570.
6:00 P. M.—Piano selections.
6:10 P. M.—Market high spots.
6:20 P. M.—Piano selections.
6:30 P. M.—French lessons, V. H. Berlitz.
7:30 P. M.—Police alarms.
7:35 P. M.—Calvin Bashore, tenor.
7:55 P. M.—Baseball results.
8:00 P. M.—Joseph Cirkus, violin.
8:20 P. M.—Pates and Poper, banjo.
8:50 P. M.—"Know Your City," John Cuff.
9:00 P. M.—Piano selections.
9:15 P. M.—Joseph Davies, baritone.
9:30 P. M.—"Everyday Speech," Professor R. Mayne.
9:50 P. M.—Gertrude and Harry, duets.
10:20 P. M.—Arthur Wechsler, piano.
10:30 P. M.—Police alarms; weather.

455—WJZ—660.
1:00 P. M.—Ambassador Trio.
2:00 P. M.—Weather; news.
4:00 P. M.—Baseball; news.
4:05 P. M.—Daily menu, Mrs. J. Heath.
4:15 P. M.—"Fashions," Suzanne Brown
4:25 P. M.—"Home Decorations," Dorothy Walsh.
4:35 P. M.—News; baseball.
4:40 P. M.—Lolita Gainsbarg, piano; Maria Gainsbarg, soprano; J. Cabrera, tenor.
5:30 P. M.—News; baseball.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via the New London Line
One Way Fare $3.38 From Norwich
Special Summer Service
Effective June 28 to Sept. 11, inc.
NIGHT SCHEDULE—Daily
Lv New London 10.00 P.M.
Due New York, Pier 40 (Houston St.) 6.00 A.M.
DAY SCHEDULE—Daily, Ex. Sun. and Mon.
Lv. New London 9.00 A.M.
Due New York, Pier 40, N. R. 4.30 P.M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
$4.00 Round Trip from New London
Popular 4 day excursions to New York and return. Tickets sold Monday to Friday inclusive good on day or night steamers going and returning next day.
Tickets sold Saturday good only on day steamer going and night steamer returning same day.
Tickets and Staterooms on sale at Union Station New London.
Special rates for accompanied automobiles.
The New England Steamship Co.

To Block Island
Daily Excursions from Norwich and New London
—Via—
MOTORSHIP NELSECO II
Leaving Norwich Mondays to Fridays at 9 A. M.; Saturdays at 10 A. M.; Sundays at 9:15 A. M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
Round Trip Fare $2.00
Special Price Every Tuesday and Thursday, $1.50
Children Under 12 Half Fare
Bus Connections
Norwich, New London and Block Island Line, New London, Conn.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

WALL PAPER

FOR SALE—$2.00 a gallon for paint; 10 cents a roll for paper. 153 West Main street. Max Bixner. mar1

WINDOW WASHING

WANTED—Windows to clean. New England Window Cleaner Co. Phone 820. Calls answered immediately. apr6d

THUMM'S HOME MADE MAYONNAISE
25c per jar
THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 Franklin Street.

CLOSE-OUT SALE OF
LAWN MOWERS
$8.50 Machine $7.00
$12.00 Machine $10.00
$15.00 Machine $12.50
THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street.

496—WEAF—610.
5:32 P. M.—Market closing; summary.
5:50 P. M.—Farm market reports.
7:00 P. M.—News; baseball.
7:05 P. M.—Olsen's orchestra.
8:00 P. M.—West Point program.
9:00 P. M.—Sunjia Serenaders.
10:00 P. M.—Leon Goldman, violin.
10:20 P. M.—News.
10:32 P. M.—Bellecliare orchestra.

306—WFG, Atlantic City—1,000.
6:30 P. M.—News; organ recital.
7:00 P. M.—Dinner music.
8:15 P. M.—Organ recital.
9:15 P. M.—Orchestra; band concert.
10:30 P. M.—Orchestra.

384—WODA, Paterson, N. J.—1,340.
12:00 M.—Dance music; news.
12:30 P. M.—Concert selections.
5:00 P. M.—Entertainment.
5:30 P. M.—News; sport talk.
6:00-7:00 P. M.—Orchestra.
11:00 P. M.—Clifford Lodge Frolics.

348—WGY, Schenectady—790.
6:00 P. M.—Baseball; news; markets.
6:30 P. M.—Sunday school lesson.
7:00 P. M.—Van Curler orchestra.
7:25 P. M.—Baseball scores.
7:30 P. M.—Health talk.
7:35 P. M.—Artist recital.
8:15 P. M.—Comedy, "Tenants."
10:30 P. M.—Orchestra.

278—WHAM, Rochester—1,080.
6:30 P. M.—Dinner music.
8:15 P. M.—Same as WGY.

366—WMAK, Lockport, N. Y.—1,127.
7:15 P. M.—News digest.
7:30 P. M.—Same as WGY.

319—WGR, Buffalo—940.
9:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
9:30 P. M.—Artist recital.
10:00 P. M.—Same as WEAF.
11:00 P. M.—Weather; dance music.

306—WJAR, Providence—830.
10:00 A. M.—Housewives' Radio Exchange.
1:02 P. M.—Studio recital.
1:30 P. M.—Weather report.
8:20 P. M.—Tag Day talk.
8:30 P. M

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks higher; Atchison and Norfolk and Western at new peaks.

Bonds steady; Norfolk and Western 6s strong.

Foreign exchanges easy; franc and sterling slightly lower.

Cotton barely steady; disappointing cables.

Sugar easy; increased spot offerings.

Coffee lower; selling by importers.

Chicago

Wheat lower; disappointing export demand.

Corn steady; unfavorable crop reports.

Cattle higher.

Hogs firm.

MARKET WAS STRONG.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(By The A. P.)—Revival of speculative and investment interest in the railroad shares, several of which sold at new high levels, featured the resumption of the upward movement in today's stock market. Industrials had a temporary sinking spell when selling pressure was renewed against some of the recent leaders soon after the opening, but strong buying support was quickly forthcoming and the subsequent recovery continued through the rest of the session, with closing prices generally around the highest of the day.

Two of the most important developments of the day took place after the close of the market. One was the declaration of a stock dividend of 50 per cent. on the common stock of the General Motors Corporation in addition to the regular quarterly cash distribution of $1.75 which will also be paid on the additional common stock. The other was the raising of the New York federal reserve re-discount rate from 3 1-2 to 4 per cent., the first change since April 22 when the rate was cut from 4 to 3 1-2.

Most of the day's business news was constructive in character. The federal reserve board reported record-breaking industrial activity in the fiscal year ended June 30, the department of labor stated that the country was in a state of satisfactory employment; stocks of refined copper were reported to be the lowest in years, and gasoline prices were advanced 1 cent a gallon in the middle west and leading sugar and rubber executives reported improvement in these industries.

Owing to the uncertainty regarding the general Motors dividend, trading was the subject of a nervous character. It opened 3 1-2 points higher at 6 1-2, advanced to 207 and then broke to 195 under heavy selling of what sellers who apparently acted on the theory that there were huge buying orders around the 200 mark. It touched off, would lead to a sharp break. They were disappointed however, when strong buying support appeared, the stock snapping back to above 205 on new buying and short covering. It subsequently sold down to 203 1-2 for a small fractional loss on the day. Reports of an increased demand for structural steel, coming close upon the publication of the weekly steel trade report, brought fresh buying into the group U. S. Steel common closing 2 points higher at 130 5-8 after it had fluctuated between 147 1-2 and 147. States and Republic each moved over a point.

Many of the rails appeared to be in line for excellent operating results in the first half of the year and well above predictions for record-breaking net earnings on several for the full year. Atchison soaring 4 points to 146 1-4, the highest on record; Norfolk and Western bounded a new high level for 1926 at 204 and New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio touched new high for 1926 1-4 respectively, the latter the first time in over a decade. Atlantic Coast Line, Chesapeake and Ohio, Erie and Hudson, Lackawanna, Missouri Pacific Pere Marquette, Reading and Wabash all closed fractions higher. At the close of trade, the average of 20 leading rails was at the highest point in 1926.

Trading again active in a number of issues with substantial gains shown by Allied Chemical, American Locomotive, Case Threshing, Consolidated Textile, Electric Refrigeration, United Drug and Woolworth.

Other commodity markets were dull. Active wheat futures moved about a cent a bushel on reports that the Canadian government's crop estimate probably was too large and sold down 16 to 22 points on favorable weather reports. Raw sugar was unchanged and coffee closed steady to five points lower.

Sterling was renewed at 4 1-2 per cent. and held steady at that figure all day. Offerings were in plentiful supply and some loans in the "outside" market were reported as low as 3 1-2 per cent. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Continued heaviness of the paper currencies in Europe featured the irregularity in lower foreign exchange markets. Demand sterling was slightly easier around $4.85 5-8 with some of the selling undoubtedly inspired by the increase in British imports. French francs broke down to another fine points around 3.70 cents with small recessions also taking place in the Belgian and Spanish rates.

STOCKS.

Sales (hundreds)

	Sales	High.	Low.	Close.
Adams Express	1	114¼	114¼	114¼
Adv Rumely	1	14⅞	14⅞	14⅞
Advance Rum pr	1	65	65	65
Ahumada Lead	1	8⅛	8	8
Air Reduct	1	135½	135½	137
Ajax Rubber	1	9¼	9¼	9¼
Allied Chem & D	1	137½	134½	136⅞
Allis Chalm Mfg	1	89¼	89	89¼
Amerada Corp	1	31¼	31	31
Am Agric Chem	1	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝
Am Ag Ch pr	1	65⅞	64½	65
Am Bank Note	1	40	40	40
Am Best Sug	1	24⅜	24½	24½
Am Bosch Mag	1	18¼	18	18
Am Leath	1	18⅝	18⅝	18⅝
Am Br Sh Fdy	1	135	135	135
Am Br Sh F pr	1	116	116	116
Am Br Sv Elec	46	45⅝	45⅝	46½
Am Can	1	61	59½	61
Am Car & Fy	100	99⅝	100	100
Am Drug Syn	1	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
Am Express	1	127½	127½	127½
Am & F P	1	20⅜	20⅜	20⅜
Am H & L	1	7½	7½	7½
Am H & L pr	36	36	36	36
Am Home Prd	36	26⅛	26⅛	26⅜
Am Ice	1	124	124	124
Am Int Corp	1	24½	24½	24½
Am La Fr F En	1	13¾	13	13
Am Linseed	1	40⅝	37¾	40⅝
Am Linseed pr	82	81	81	81⅝
Am Loco	1	106¼	104½	105¼
Am Lo pr	1	116⅝	116⅝	116⅝
Am P & L	1	67⅝	66¼	67
Am Radiator	1	116	115¾	115⅝
Am Ry Exp	1	82⅛	82	82½
Am S Razor	1	70	67½	69½
Am Sm & R	140	135¼	135¼	140½
Am Steel Fdrs	1	45¾	45¾	45½
Am Sugar Ref	73	72¼	72¼	73
Am Sum Tb A	24	21¾	21¾	24
Am T & T	1	142½	142⅜	142⅜
Am Tob	1	118⅝	118¼	118⅝
Am Tobacco	1	118⅝	118¼	118⅝
Am Tob B	1	118	118	118
Am Tob pp	1	111	111	11
Am Type Fdrs	22	121½	121½	121½
Am W W & E	59	59¾	59	59¾
Am Wool	1	24⅝	24⅜	24⅝
Am Wool pr	1	73	72¼	72¾
Am Mch & Fy	76	73¼	73¼	73¼
Am Smat T N	30	29½	29½	29½
Albany P W P	93	93	93	93
Am W P pr cf	⅝	⅛	⅛	⅝
Am Z & S pr	32	32	32	32
Anaconda Cop	50	49⅞	50	50⅛
Arch Dan Mid	39	39	39	39
Arm & Co I A	14	14⅜	14⅜	14⅜
Arm & Co I B	1	7½	7½	7½
Arm Cen Cor	56	25⅜	25⅜	25⅜
Artloom Corp	1	51½	51½	51½
Asso Dry Gds	44	43⅜	43⅜	43⅜
Atchison	146	139¾	139¾	145¾
Atchison pr	99	99⅝	99⅝	99⅞
Atl B & A	⅝	½	½	½
Atl Coast L	224	217½	217½	220½
Atl G & W I	89	89	89	89
Atl Ref	110	110¾	110	110¼
Atlas Powder	58	58	58	58
Austin Nichols	11	11¾	11Z	11⅝
Aust Nich pr	65	65	65	65
Baldwin Loco	120	118½	118½	119
Balt & Ohio	103	100½	100½	104
Balt & O pr	73	73	73	73
Bang & Aro pr	100	100	100	100
Barnet Leather	46	46½	46½	46½
Barnsdall Cp A	26	25⅝	25⅝	25⅜
Bayuk Cigar	48	48	48	48
Beechnut Pack	62	61⅞	61⅞	61⅞
Belding Hem	31	30⅝	31	31
Beth Steel	47	46⅝	46⅝	47⅛
Beth Stl 7 pc pr	102	103⅜	103⅜	103⅜
Bloom'dale Bros	32	32⅜	32⅜	32⅜
Booth Fisheries	5	5⅞	5⅞	5⅞
Briggs Mfg Co	28	28⅜	28⅜	28⅛
Bkyn Edison	151	150¼	150¼	150⅞
Bkyn Man Tr	65	64⅜	64⅜	64⅜
Bkyn Man T pr	85	85⅛	85⅛	85⅛
Bkyn Un Gas	93	91⅜	91⅜	92⅞
Brown Shoe	37	35⅞	35⅞	37
Bruns r & R	13	13¼	13¼	13¼
BTurns Br pr	100	100	100	100
Burr Add Mch	111	107	107	111
Bush Term deb	92	92	92	92
Butte Copper	6	5	5	5
Butte & S Min	11	10⅜	10⅜	10⅝
Butterick Co	61	59⅜	60½	60⅛
Byers Co A M	36	36	36	36
By Prod Coke	56	56½	56½	56⅝
Cal Pack	72	70½	71½	71½
Cal Pet	32	32⅛	32⅛	32⅝
Callahan Zc Ld	2	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Cal & Ar Min	71	71	71	71¼
Cal & Hec C C	17	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛
Can Pac	164	163½	163½	164⅞
Case Thresh	163	160	160	163⅜
Case Thresh pr	117	117	117	117
Cent Leath pr	52	52	52	52
Cerro de Pasco	71	70⅝	70⅝	71⅜
Certainteed Pr	46	46⅛	46⅛	36½
Chand Cl pr	30	30⅝	30⅝	30⅝
Ches & Ohio	145	142	142	145⅜
Chi & Alton	5	5⅛	5⅛	5⅜
Chi & Alt pr	8	8	8	8⅜
Chi Gt West	9	9⅛	9⅛	9⅜
Chi Gt W pr	24	23½	23½	24⅛
Chi M&St P	13	12½	12	12
Chi R I & P	139	138	138	139⅝
Chi & N W	75	73⅝	73⅝	75½
Chi & N W pr	23	20⅜	20	22
Chi Rock Isl & P	12	12¾	12¾	13⅜
Chi St P M & O	1	50	50	50
Chi & West Ind	1	94	94	94
Chile Copper	32	32	32	32⅜
Chile Exploration	30	29⅞	30	30
Chrysler Corp	36	35½	36⅝	36⅝
Chrysler Corp pr	103	102¾	103¼	103¼
Coca Cola	160	158½	160	160
Collins & Aik	49	48	49	49⅞
Colo & Alk pr	108	108	108	108
Colo Fuel & Ir	44	43⅝	44	44⅛
Colo & Southn	67	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜
Colo & So 1 pr	70	70	70	70
Colo & So 2 pr	65	64⅜	64⅜	64⅜
Colo G & E	82	82⅛	82⅛	82⅜
Colo G & E pr	115	115	115	115
Colum Carbon	62	62¼	62¼	62⅜
Com Credit	28	27⅞	27⅞	27⅞
Col Cred 6½ pc	92	92	92	92
Com Solv B	160	160	160	160
Cong Nairn	23	23¼	23¼	23½
Congress Cigar	70	69¼	70	70⅝
Cons Dist	5	2½	2½	2⅝
Cons Gas	110	110¼	110¼	110¾
Cons Textile	2	2	2	2⅛
Con Can	33	32⅝	33	33
Cont Ins	129	129	129	129
Cont Mot	12	11⅞	12	12
Corn Prod	45	45⅜	45⅜	45⅝
Crucible Stel	76	73½	76½	76½
Crucible St pr	101	101½	101½	101⅝
Cub Cn S pr	40	39⅝	40	40
Cuba Co The	50	50⅛	50⅛	50⅜
Cuba Sug	25	25⅝	25⅝	25⅝
Cudahy Pack	96	94	95	95
Cushm Sons Inc	99	96⅞	99	99
Cuyamel Fruit	46	46¼	46¼	46¼
Davison Chem	37	36	37	37⅛
Deere & Co pr	109	109½	109½	109½
Del & Hud	165	164½	164½	168
Del L & W	146	146	146	146
Den R G & Wp	45	44⅜	44⅜	45⅛
Devoe & Ray A	37	37	37	37
Dodge Br A	35	30¾	30¾	31⅝
Dodge Br pr	88	87½	87½	87⅝
Dome Mines	11	11⅝	11⅝	11⅞
Doug Pectin	32	31½	31½	32
DuP de Nem	296	286½	294¾	294¾
DuP de N deb	106	106¼	106¼	106¼
Duq Lt 1 pr	116	116¾	116¾	116⅞
Eastman Kodak	114	114	114	114
Eaton Axle & Sp	29	28⅝	28⅝	28⅝
Elec Auto Lite	70	70	70	70½
Eng Pub Svc	24	24	24	24
Electric Boat	8	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
Eng Pub Svcpr	96	96	96	96½
El Pow & Lt	19	19¼	19¼	19⅝
El Pow & L pr	96	96⅛	96⅛	96⅛
Elec Refrig	66	61⅞	65½	65½
Elec Stor Bat	86	86	86	86⅞
Elk Horn Coal p	25	25½	25½	25½
Endi Johnson	67	67⅛	67⅛	67⅛
Endi John pr	117	117	117	117
Equit Of Bg pr	125	122⅜	122⅜	122⅜
Erie R R	34	34	34	34
Erie 1 pr	44	42⅜	42⅜	44⅛
Eur Vac Cln	53	53⅜	53⅜	53⅜
Fairb Mor&Co	51	51⅞	51⅞	51⅞
Fam Play Las	117	115⅝	115⅝	117⅝
Fed Lt & Trct	32	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛
First Nat Strs	33	33	33	33
Fisk Rubber	18	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝
Fleischman Co	51	50	50	50⅝
Foundation Co	95	94	94	94
Fed Mot new	33	32	32	32⅞
Fox Film A	71	71⅜	71⅜	71⅞
Freep Texas	30	29⅞	30	30
Gabriel Snub	32	31⅝	32	32
Gardner Motor	7	6⅝	7	7⅛
Gen Am Tank	46	44⅝	46	46
Gen G&E B	48	46	48	48
Gen Asphalt	71	70	71	71
Gen Asph pr	110	109⅜	110½	110½
Gen Cigar	49	49⅝	49⅝	49⅝
Gen Elec new	90	87⅞	90	90⅛
Gen Elec spl	11	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
Gen G & E	48	47	47	47
Gen G&E pr B	48	45	48	48
Gen Motor	207	198	203⅛	203⅛
Gen Mt Tpe pr	119	119	119	119
Gn Outd Ad etf	32	32⅜	32⅜	32⅞
Gen Rail Sig	88	87⅞	88⅛	88⅛
Gn Rl Sig pr	104	104	104	104
Gen Refract	65	65	65	65
Gimbel Bros	58	57	57	57
Glidden Co	19	18⅜	18⅜	18⅛
Gold Dust	51	50⅛	50⅛	51
Goodr BF Co	50	49⅞	49⅞	49⅞
Gdyr T&R pr	106	106	106	106⅞
Gd T&R pr	105	105	105	108
Goth S Hole	53	51½	53¼	53¼
Grh Sk H new	50	50	50	50¼
Gn S H 1 pr	111	110¾	111⅛	111⅛
Gould Coup A	15	15⅞	15⅞	15⅞
Granby Con Mn	25	24⅝	24⅝	24⅝
Gt Nr I Or etf	20	20	20	20⅜
Gt No Ry pc	74	73⅝	73⅝	74⅝
Gr West Sug	91	91¼	91¼	91½
Gr Can Cop	20	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
Guat Sugar	7	7	7	7
Gulf M & N	35	34⅝	35	35
Gulf St Steel	74	73	74	74
Hartm Corp	27	27⅛	27⅛	27⅛
Hayes Wheel	34	34¼	34¼	34⅛
Homestake Min	85	85½	85½	85½
House Prod	43	43	43	43
Houst Oil	58	58	58	58
Howe Sd Co	37	37¼	37¼	37⅛
Hud & Man	38	38⅛	38⅛	38⅝
Hudson Mot Cr	69	67¾	68⅛	68⅛
Hupp Mot Car	23	23⅛	23⅛	23⅛
Indep Oil Gas	25	25	25	25⅛
Inger Rand	91	91	91	91⅛
Inland Steel	42	42⅛	42⅛	42⅝
Inspir Copper	25	25	25	25
Inter Rap Tr	46	46¾	46⅝	46⅝
Inter Rub	16	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛
Inter Agri Corp	13	12½	12½	12⅝
Int Ag pr pr	82	82½	82½	82⅝
Int Bus Ma	48	48½	48⅛	48⅛
Int Cement	54	54⅛	54⅛	54⅛
Int Comb Eng	57	55⅝	56⅛	56⅛
Int Harv Co	132	131⅞	132¾	132¾
Int Harv pr	126	125⅛	126¼	126¼
Int Mat par pr	64	64	64	64
Int Mer Mar p	30	30	30	30
Int Nickel	36	36¼	36¼	36⅛
Int Paper	54	54	54	54⅞
Int T & T	118	117⅝	117½	117½
Int T&T (ex-1)	8	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
Jewell Tea	39	38½	39¾	39¾
Jordan Mot Car	24	24	24	24¼
Kan C P&L pr	110	110½	110½	110½
Kan Cy So Ry	44	44½	44⅜	44⅜
Kan Cy S pr	67	67	67	67
Kelly Spr Tire	13	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
Kennecot Cop	57	57	57	57⅛
Atchison pr	99	99⅝	99⅝	99⅞
Atl B & A	⅝	½	½	½
Atl Coast L	224	217½	217½	220½
Atl G & W I	89	89	89	89
Atl Ref	110	110¾	110	110¼
Atlas Powder	58	58	58	58
Austin Nichols	11	11⅞	11Z	11⅝
Aust Nich pr	65	65	65	65
Baldwin Loco	120	118½	118½	119
Balt & Ohio	103	100½	100½	104
Balt & O pr	73	73	73	73
Bang & Aro pr	100	100	100	100
Barnet Leather	46	46½	46½	46½
Barnsdall Cp A	26	25⅝	25⅝	25⅜
Bayuk Cigar	48	48	48	48
Beechnut Pack	62	61⅞	61⅞	61⅞
Belding Hem	31	30⅝	31	31
Beth Steel	47	46⅝	46⅝	47⅛
Beth Stl 7 pc pr	102	103⅜	103⅜	103⅜
Bloom'dale Bros	32	32⅜	32⅜	32⅜
Booth Fisheries	5	5⅞	5⅞	5⅞
Briggs Mfg Co	28	28⅜	28⅜	28⅛
Bkyn Edison	151	150¼	150¼	150⅞
Bkyn Man Tr	65	64⅜	64⅜	64⅜
Bkyn Man T pr	85	85⅛	85⅛	85⅛
Bkyn Un Gas	93	91⅜	91⅜	92⅞
Brown Shoe	37	35⅞	35⅞	37
Bruns r & R	13	13¼	13¼	13¼
BTurns Br pr	100	100	100	100
Burr Add Mch	111	107	107	111
Bush Term deb	92	92	92	92
Butte Copper	6	5	5	5
Butte & S Min	11	10⅜	10⅜	10⅝
Butterick Co	61	59⅜	60½	60⅛
Byers Co A M	36	36	36	36
By Prod Coke	56	56½	56½	56⅝
Cal Pack	72	70½	71½	71½
Cal Pet	32	32⅛	32⅛	32⅝
Callahan Zc Ld	2	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Cal & Ar Min	71	71	71	71¼
Cal & Hec C C	17	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛
Can Pac	164	163½	163½	164⅞
Case Thresh	163	160	160	163⅜
Case Thresh pr	117	117	117	117
Cent Leath pr	52	52	52	52
Cerro de Pasco	71	70⅝	70⅝	71⅜
Certainteed Pr	46	46⅛	46⅛	36½
Chand Cl pr	30	30⅝	30⅝	30⅝
Ches & Ohio	145	142	142	145⅜
Chi & Alton	5	5⅛	5⅛	5⅜
Chi & Alt pr	8	8	8	8⅜
Chi Gt West	9	9⅛	9⅛	9⅜
Chi Gt W pr	24	23½	23½	24⅛
Chi M&St P	13	12½	12	12
Chi R I & P	139	138	138	139⅝
Chi & N W	75	73⅝	73⅝	75½
Chi & N W pr	23	20⅜	20	22
Chi Rock Isl & P	12	12¾	12¾	13⅜
Chi St P M & O	1	50	50	50
Chi & West Ind	1	94	94	94
Chile Copper	32	32	32	32⅜
Chile Exploration	30	29⅞	30	30
Chrysler Corp	36	35½	36⅝	36⅝
Chrysler Corp pr	103	102¾	103¼	103¼
Coca Cola	160	158½	160	160
Collins & Aik	49	48	49	49⅞
Colo & Alk pr	108	108	108	108
Colo Fuel & Ir	44	43⅝	44	44⅛
Colo & Southn	67	67⅜	67⅜	67⅜
Colo & So 1 pr	70	70	70	70
Colo & So 2 pr	65	64⅜	64⅜	64⅜
Colo G & E	82	82⅛	82⅛	82⅜
Colo G & E pr	115	115	115	115
Colum Carbon	62	62¼	62¼	62⅜
Com Credit	28	27⅞	27⅞	27⅞
Col Cred 6½ pc	92	92	92	92
Com Solv B	160	160	160	160
Cong Nairn	23	23¼	23¼	23½
Congress Cigar	70	69¼	70	70⅝
Cons Dist	5	2½	2½	2⅝
Cons Gas	110	110¼	110¼	110¾
Cons Textile	2	2	2	2⅛
Con Can	33	32⅝	33	33
Cont Ins	129	129	129	129
Cont Mot	12	11⅞	12	12
Corn Prod	45	45⅜	45⅜	45⅝
Crucible Stel	76	73½	76½	76½
Crucible St pr	101	101½	101½	101⅝
Cub Cn S pr	40	39⅝	40	40
Cuba Co The	50	50⅛	50⅛	50⅜
Cuba Sug	25	25⅝	25⅝	25⅝
Cudahy Pack	96	94	95	95
Cushm Sons Inc	99	96⅞	99	99
Cuyamel Fruit	46	46¼	46¼	46¼
Davison Chem	37	36	37	37⅛
Deere & Co pr	109	109½	109½	109½
Del & Hud	165	164½	164½	168
Del L & W	146	146	146	146
Den R G & Wp	45	44⅜	44⅜	45⅛
Devoe & Ray A	37	37	37	37
Dodge Br A	35	30¾	30¾	31⅝
Dodge Br pr	88	87½	87½	87⅝
Dome Mines	11	11⅝	11⅝	11⅞
Doug Pectin	32	31½	31½	32
DuP de Nem	296	286½	294¾	294¾
DuP de N deb	106	106¼	106¼	106¼
Duq Lt 1 pr	116	116¾	116¾	116⅞
Eastman Kodak	114	114	114	114
Eaton Axle & Sp	29	28⅝	28⅝	28⅝
Elec Auto Lite	70	70	70	70½
Eng Pub Svc	24	24	24	24
Electric Boat	8	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
Eng Pub Svcpr	96	96	96	96½
El Pow & Lt	19	19¼	19¼	19⅝
El Pow & L pr	96	96⅛	96⅛	96⅛
Elec Refrig	66	61⅞	65½	65½
Elec Stor Bat	86	86	86	86⅞
Elk Horn Coal p	25	25½	25½	25½
Endi Johnson	67	67⅛	67⅛	67⅛
Endi John pr	117	117	117	117
Equit Of Bg pr	125	122⅜	122⅜	122⅜
Erie R R	34	34	34	34
Erie 1 pr	44	42⅜	42⅜	44⅛
Eur Vac Cln	53	53⅜	53⅜	53⅜
Fairb Mor&Co	51	51⅞	51⅞	51⅞
Fam Play Las	117	115⅝	115⅝	117⅝
Fed Lt & Trct	32	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛
First Nat Strs	33	33	33	33
Fisk Rubber	18	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝
Fleischman Co	51	50	50	50⅝
Foundation Co	95	94	94	94
Fed Mot new	33	32	32	32⅞
Fox Film A	71	71⅜	71⅜	71⅞
Freep Texas	30	29⅞	30	30
Gabriel Snub	32	31⅝	32	32
Gardner Motor	7	6⅝	7	7⅛
Gen Am Tank	46	44⅝	46	46
Gen G&E B	48	46	48	48
Gen Asphalt	71	70	71	71
Gen Asph pr	110	109⅜	110½	110½
Gen Cigar	49	49⅝	49⅝	49⅝
Gen Elec new	90	87⅞	90	90⅛
Gen Elec spl	11	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
Gen G & E	48	47	47	47
Gen G&E pr B	48	45	48	48
Gen Motor	207	198	203⅛	203⅛
Gen Mt Tpe pr	119	119	119	119
Gn Outd Ad etf	32	32⅜	32⅜	32⅞
Gen Rail Sig	88	87⅞	88⅛	88⅛
Gn Rl Sig pr	104	104	104	104
Gen Refract	65	65	65	65
Gimbel Bros	58	57	57	57
Glidden Co	19	18⅜	18⅜	18⅛
Gold Dust	51	50⅛	50⅛	51
Goodr BF Co	50	49⅞	49⅞	49⅞
Gdyr T&R pr	106	106	106	106⅞
Gd T&R pr	105	105	105	108
Goth S Hole	53	51½	53¼	53¼
Grh Sk H new	50	50	50	50¼
Gn S H 1 pr	111	110¾	111⅛	111⅛
Gould Coup A	15	15⅞	15⅞	15⅞
Granby Con Mn	25	24⅝	24⅝	24⅝
Gt Nr I Or etf	20	20	20	20⅜
Gt No Ry pc	74	73⅝	73⅝	74⅝
Gr West Sug	91	91¼	91¼	91½
Gr Can Cop	20	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
Guat Sugar	7	7	7	7
Gulf M & N	35	34⅝	35	35
Gulf St Steel	74	73	74	74
Hartm Corp	27	27⅛	27⅛	27⅛
Hayes Wheel	34	34¼	34¼	34⅛
Homestake Min	85	85½	85½	85½
House Prod	43	43	43	43
Houst Oil	58	58	58	58
Howe Sd Co	37	37¼	37¼	37⅛
Hud & Man	38	38⅛	38⅛	38⅝
Hudson Mot Cr	69	67¾	68⅛	68⅛
Hupp Mot Car	23	23⅛	23⅛	23⅛
Indep Oil Gas	25	25	25	25⅛
Inger Rand	91	91	91	91⅛
Inland Steel	42	42⅛	42⅛	42⅝
Inspir Copper	25	25	25	25
Inter Rap Tr	46	46¾	46⅝	46⅝
Inter Rub	16	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛
Inter Agri Corp	13	12½	12½	12⅝
Int Ag pr pr	82	82½	82½	82⅝
Int Bus Ma	48	48½	48⅛	48⅛
Int Cement	54	54⅛	54⅛	54⅛
Int Comb Eng	57	55⅝	56⅛

SHOWERS TODAY AND TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1926.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Friday, August 13, 1926

WEATHER

Conditions

The outlook is for showers on Friday in the lower lake region and northern New England and for fair weather on Saturday. Elsewhere the weather will continue warm with local thundershowers Friday and Saturday in the states east of the Mississippi river.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh east and southeast weather partly overcast with occasional showers on Saturday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh east over north portion and moderate to fresh south and southwest over south portion. Fair Friday except for occasional showers over extreme north west portion.

Forecast

Southern New England: Local showers and thunder showers Friday and probably Saturday; not much change in temperature.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Thursday:

	Temp.	Bar
8 a. m.	70	30.30
2 p. m.	84	30.40
8 p. m.	76	30.30

Highest 86, lowest 60.

Comparisons

Prediction for Thursday: Fair, not much change in temperature.

Thursday's weather: Fair, warm, thunder shower in late afternoon.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	p. m.
	(Standard Time)
9	4 30	6 56	10 56	7 57
10	4 31	6 55	11 15	8 19
11	4 32	6 54	11 34	8 45
12	4 33	6 52	12 22	9 09
13	4 34	6 50	1 14	9 34
14	4 35	6 48	1 55	10 00
15	4 36	6 46	2 42	10 25

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Owing to the inclement weather the "weenie" roast, which was to have been held Thursday evening at Beach pond by the members of the Maennerchor Turning Section, was postponed. The roast will be held this (Friday) evening at the pond and members who are intending to go, should be on hand at Maennerchor hall in time to leave at 6:15.

Upon arrival at the pond the members will indulge in the "weenie" roast after which swimming and aquatic sports will be enjoyed. Other entertaining events are in store for those who attend and the committee in charge anticipate an enjoyable evening for all. Transportation will be furnished.

LINE OF MARCH FOR BICYCLE PARADE

The bicycle parade to be held under the supervision of the local playgrounds on next Wednesday evening promises to be one of the largest affairs of this kind ever attempted in this section.

Additional prizes have been donated by local merchants so that a large number of entries is expected from now until the day of the race. A handsome new bicycle will be awarded as first prize to the one having the best decorated bicycle in the parade while tires will be given as second prize. Third prize will be a brand new saddle while fourth prize will be a bell. The bicycle and tires have been donated by Jacks Sport shop while the saddle has been donated by Jim Dunn's motorcycle and bicycle shop and the bell is given by Supt. Louis E. Brigham. A scooter has been donated by the Atlas Rubber Co. to be given to the one having the best decorated scooter in the parade.

Entry blanks are now on display in the window of the Psaniki Co. store on Main street and will be there until the day of the parade.

The line of march for the parade will be a start at Preston bridge at the north end through Main street to Washington square, counter march, then through Main street to East Main street. The finish is to be at Howell park with a march around the field. The judges who will be prominently seen, will review the parade from either the post office or Davis corner.

The East Side Drum corps has been secured to lead the parade and this will add to the interest in the parade.

A decorated bicycle by which local entrants can pattern is now on display in the window of the Cranston Co. store on Broadway. The bicycle is a sport model, from Jack's Sport shop.

The winners of prizes to suit their ages so that boys and girls, young and old should send in their entries as soon as possible to their playground instructors as no one will be allowed to participate in the parade if he or she is not registered.

NORWICH PEOPLE TOUR MASSACHUSETTS AND NEW YORK

A vacation trip through Massachusetts and New York state is being enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Yerrington of this city. They are now on the way home after a visit to Niagara Falls. Writing of their trip Mr. Yerrington says:

"Leaving home last Friday afternoon we went to Springfield, Mass., stopping with G. Avery Ray over night. Saturday morning we left in his car, accompanied by Mrs. Ray and daughter Ruth, going via the Mohawk trail, Albany and Schenectady to Utica, where Sunday was spent and a good view of the city was obtained from the Roscoe Conkling park, given to the city by Mr. Proctor. In riding through New York state, we were impressed with the uniformly good roads, also with the great fields of oats, some of which were being harvested in good condition, while others had stood too long. In one place we saw large fields of celery, some two miles in length. As we neared this place grape vines became more abundant; also there were many peach orchards. The rolling country makes an ever changing picture for the tourist.

Of course we have been the rounds here today and this evening viewed the falls as they were illuminated with colored lights.

Tomorrow we expect to begin the homeward journey."

HEAD COLDS
Melt in spoon; inhale vapors; apply freely up nostrils.
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

NORWICH MAN DESCRIBES CONSTRUCTION AND OPERATION OF U. S. AIRSHIPS

Lieut. Desmond Murphy, son of former Postmaster John P. Murphy of this city, and who is at Langley Field, Va. for two weeks' intensive training with the 19th Airship company, is one of seven officers chosen from the eastern and southern areas for the lighter than air training period which is conducted annually at two fields in the country. These fields are Scott Field, Ill., and Langley Field, Va., which operates a combatant fighting organization in connection with the heavier than air flying machine troops.

During the first week of encampment Lieut. Murphy reports having had 20 hours flight in the non-rigid airships, T. C. 9 and T. C. 5, the latter making a week end flight from Langley Field to Philadelphia, for demonstration purposes at the Sesqui-Centennial. A stop was made at Lakehurst, N. J.

In a free balloon Lieut. Murphy accompanied Captain Robert E. Lassiter, Captain Geiger and Lieut. Starkey. Night flights in the airships have been taken and also flights in the observation balloon in connection with practice artillery fire. Duties as pilot in the airships alternate between steering and altitude climbing, one man relieving the other, Lieut. Murphy writes. During this, the second week of training, more intensive work is being taken up.

Lieut. Murphy, with the sanction of Robert E. Lassister, officer of the 19th Airship company, has been permitted to make the following accurate report of the lighter than air service and the work done at Langley Field.

19th Airship company—This company is maintained as combatant at Langley Field, including one company and six officers under command of Captain C. P. Clark. Scott Field, Ill., maintains the only other field, considerably larger, flying seven airships, and handling larger ships, but mainly for training purposes.

The lighter than air school was maintained at Langley Field from the fall of 1919 until the summer of 1922 when it was moved to Scott Field. This period included the time the Italian ship Roma met disaster. Members of the 19th Airship company were victims of the disaster. Langley Field conducts its organization in heavier than air with its six squadrons and service detachment. The 19th Airship company, lighter than air, assists the heavier than air fliers in bombing, observation, reconnaisance, combat fighting and organization.

Non-rigid ships—The 19th Airship company flies two non-rigid ships, the T. C. 9 and T. C. 5, as well as the T. A. 7 which is a type maintained for instruction where one man pilots for both direction and altitude. The T. C. ships consist of an envelope made of three-ply rubberized fabric, 196 feet long, filled with 210,600 cubic feet of non-inflamable helium gas. This gas is worth $30 per thousand cubic feet, care must be taken to save the gas as much as possible and when it falls to a purity of 85 per cent. it is removed and shipped back to Lakehurst to be repurified to 95 per cent.

The helium replaces the hydrogen gas which is explosive, as in the case of the Roma disaster. In the ship's envelope are two ballonets, inclosed to carry air. They are constructed of two layers of fabric fastened to the bottom of the envelope and permit taking on 40,000 cubic feet of air. This replaces the space lost in contraction of the helium gas when the ship is in descent from altitude. The air in the ballonets likewise permits taking off from the ground and rising to an altitude of 13,000 feet without loss of gas. This is done by valving the air to counteract the expansion of the helium gas. The ship has front and rear dumpers fastened into the bottom of the envelope to force air in three air scoops when it is desired to take air into the envelope by the blast of air from the propellors when in descent.

This immediately builds up the pressure to the desired figure. Valves are used to let air out of the ballonets and these are controlled by the altitude pilot. For landing purposes are provided two pontoons inflated on the bottom of the ship to act as shock absorbers when the ship strikes the ground.

From the envelope of the ship is suspended a two compartment car, separated by a platform extending out six feet to right and left. At the ends of these platforms are placed the engines. The front car is occupied by the two pilots, one to steer the ship and the other to operate the altitude wheel, control the speed of the engines and operate the other controls. There are also seats for the navigator and wireless man. The rear compartment has accommodations for the engineer and rigger, and a crew of from two to six men. The weight of the car is 3,200 pounds. An improved design has been made for a car constructed of derallion in place of wood, and this car will weigh only 2,200 pounds. The envelope can support a load of 13,000 pounds, of which 8,300 are dead weight.

For cross country flights the ship carries 250 to 400 gallons of gas and on a revolution of 13,000 per minute uses about 20 gallons of gas an hour. A ballast of sand and water is also carried in one of the Scott Field ships is used the same pattern of keel to replace the car, that was used in the semi-rigid ship Roma. This keel runs the length of the ship and is inclosed to permit walking the entire length and to provide access to the fuel, oil, ballast, etc., which are suspended from the keel.

The engines of the T. C. 5 and T. C. 9 are of the V-type model, 180 horse power pusher type. Experiments are being made with the Lawrence J air cooled type which develops 250 horse power. For bombing purposes the ships carry from six to twelve bombs, in weight 50 to 300 pounds. These bombs are dropped from a compartment in the car and can gain a perfect score and are the most accurate form of bombing from the air.

The 19th Airship company holds its restricted area on the field for bomb dropping, while the ships must observe in flight the rights of other restricted areas, including that of Fortress Monroe, reserved for calibrating and firing of the big guns. Night flights are taken regularly for training work in conjunction with artillery fire.

The hangar for the airships, built to hold the ship Roma, is 470 feet long and 250 feet high, made of galvanized iron and having sliding doors opening one entire end.

The free ballons used by the 19th Airship company are of four sizes, ranging from 9,000 to 35,000 cubic feet. They are made of rubber fabric, covered with aluminum and are inflated with hydrogen.

The basket carries four persons. The wind directions for different altitudes are taken before flights and the balloon takes off and steers its course by air currents. Rise and fall is controlled by unloading sand ballast and valving the hydrogen. After a landing is made the rip cord is drawn, allowing all the hydrogen to escape, and the empty balloon is rolled up and shipped back to the ground near where desired.

The object of free balloon work, is for the dual purpose of training for observation purposes on the airships, the officers will be in training to land the ship as a free balloon, by conducting it through the proper air currents.

Some training practice is given with the 19th Airship company in the observation balloon. They are made of two ply rubber fabric and inflated to a capacity of 35,000 cubic feet with hydrogen. These are run up on a cable to a height of 500 to 3,000 feet, and in war time, behind the line of fire. The observer makes his observations of the activities of the artillery, and reports them by telephone to the ground. The report covers where the shells fired are believed to have landed and also the locality of the enemy guns. This brand of balloon work, works directly in conjunction with the artillery in war time.

Every man entering on a flight in any type balloon or airship is equipped with a parachute. The kind now in use are the service type, made of silk, and in three styles, back, seat and lap type. In case of the necessity to drop from the ship or balloon, the person who jumps counts three then pulls on a ring which causes the parachute to open before he has fallen 150 feet.

The officers of the 19th Airship company are men who have had not only training with their own ships, but also with the rigid and semi-rigid type, now owned by the navy only, in this country. Nearly every man has had training on the former ship Shenandoah, or the Los Angeles, the two big navy ships. The airship work, due to lack of appropriation is restricted and is just making strides forward for army use. The selection of a group of the reserve officers, who were in active duty in that branch of work during the World war, is now being taken up and the war department has begun to push the work as far as finances will permit. While the public in general is familiar with planes and their service the airships and their work is just coming before its attention.

Lieut. Murphy speaks in particular of the hospitality shown and the efficient training given the reserve officers in training at Langley field.

G. O. P. To Meet At Pleasure Beach

The biggest political gathering of the summer, according to its sponsors, will be staged at Pleasure Beach on Saturday, August 21, when the Bridgeport republican town committee will play host at Bridgeport's republican day.

Fully 2,500 are expected at the dinner which will be the high spot of the outing. Many thousands more are expected to enjoy the field and acquatic sports that will precede the dinner.

The guest list for the dinner includes: Governor John H. Trumbull, United States Senator Hiram Bingham, Congressman Schuyler Merritt and State Chairman J. Henry Roraback. It will be Mr. Roraback's first appearance at a Bridgeport political gathering in several years.

CONN. GAS FIELD EXPANDS IN JULY

According to the Connecticut committee on public service information, the field of the gas industry in Connecticut is expanding annually despite the fact that only a decade or two ago, it was generally looked upon as a dead industry. Last month, service was extended to the Sound Beach section of Greenwich for the first time in history. By September a large portion of Greenwich, which covers a widespread area will be enjoying gas service for the first time, and applications for new service are pouring in, in excess of the number originally estimated.

During the past two years, gas service has been extended to 76,940 new customers in Connecticut, while a large increase is also taking place this year. It is estimated that of the million and a half people who now reside in this state, about 1,350,000 enjoy the use of gas in their homes. This large growth of the gas industry in Connecticut has been due to the use of gas as a heating fuel for cooking, room heating, and industrial heating. The total number of meters in the state today, including both residential and industrial meters, is about 270,000.

Not only is the number of gas users increasing annually, but the use of gas is also increasing. Connecticut people burned 185,000,000 more cubic feet of gas in 1925 than they did in the previous year, the total consumption of the state for 1925 having been 7,535,000,000 cubic feet of gas. Gas today is well established as the universal cooking fuel and is gradually coming into its own as a heating agent for home and industrial heating.

RESERVOIRS IN STATE HIT LOW LEVELS

Connecticut water company reservoirs have reached their usual low mid-summer levels, despite expectations to the contrary this year, according to the Connecticut committee on public service information. It was expected that there would be no large shortage of water in the reservoirs this year, but on August 1, most of the supply basins in the state were practically at the same level as they were a year ago, that is about four feet below the normal water line.

This is due chiefly to a deficiency of more than four and a half inches in rainfall in Connecticut during the last three months. During the first four months of the year, there was an abundant amount of rainfall which filled the reservoirs throughout the state. In May, the rainfall began to fall off and the levels of the reservoirs began to drop gradually. May was 2.08 inches short in rainfall. The precipitation in June was likewise short, only 1.97 inches of rain falling while the normal rainfall for the month is 3.17 inches. July had an even greater deficiency than June, being 1.40 inches short of the normal precipitation of 4.78 inches.

Predictions are that both August and September will be deficient in rainfall and normal precipitation will not again be reached until the fall months. This would indicate a possibility of a large falling off in the water supply before the end of the summer, which may develop serious aspects. Water company men are therefore urging their customers not to waste water in any way even though conditions at present are not serious.

Eastern Conn. Health Report

The following cases of communicable diseases were reported from eastern Connecticut to the state board of health during the week ending August 7th:

Scarlet fever: Jewett City, 1; Norwich (T) 1; Stafford Springs, 1.

Typhoid fever: Norwich (C), 1; Plainfield, 2.

Measles: Norwich (T), 54.

Whooping cough: Colchester, 1.

Cases of measles reported during the week increased from 25 to 78, the town of Norwich accounting for two thirds of the increase. Other communicable diseases also increased but not in large proportion.

NINE INJURED EMPLOYES GIVEN COMPENSATION

Nine compensation agreements were filed Thursday with the clerk of the superior court in this city.

Windham Lumber & Realty Co., employer and John Legare, 42, Ledyard, employe, fracture on April 20.

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church Corp., (Rev. William T. O'Brien, pastor), Baltic, employer, and Bolia Blais, 60, Baltic, employe, crushed hand on June 18.

N. L. Ship & Engine Co., employer, and J. T. Deveau, 24, New London, employe, sprained left ankle on July 7.

New London Ship & Engine Co., employer and Alfred Frachette, 24, Groton, employe, middle finger of left hand amputated between first and second joints on July 2.

New London Ship & Engine Co., employer and H. Sasha, 19, New London, employe, contused muscles of abdomen on May 18.

American Thermos Bottle Co., employer and Vincent Scott, 16, 18 High street, Norwich, employe, cuts on thumb of left hand, second and third fingers of right hand on June 16.

J. D. Harrison Court Co., employer, and Joseph T. McGuiness, 51, New London, employe, middle finger of left hand and back of right hand bruised on June 12.

Ponemah mills, employer and Selina LeClair, 39, Taftville, employe, crushed right index finger on July 19.

Wauregan Hotel Corp., employer, and William Murray, 25, 42 Boswell avenue, Norwich, employe, water on right knee on June 5.

GIVEN 10 DAYS IN JAIL AND $200 FINE

After a lengthy session of the city court Thursday morning Benny Poselovsky of 6 Cove street, was found guilty of violation of the liquor law and Judge Arthur F. Libby sentenced him to ten days in jail and fined him $200 and costs.

Poselovsky for his own testimony at first denied owning the place or that he had sold liquor.

Judge Libby in summing up the evidence stated that there was every indication that liquor was sold by Poselovsky and that the testimony if taken before a jury would surely end in conviction. The accused, through his attorney, then agreed to plead guilty.

One of the witnesses for the state was Daniel Polsky, proprietor of the Yantic Grain company, who stated that several girls employed by the company were compelled to pass through Cove street. He offered testimony indicating that liquor had been sold. When the court closed Mr. Polsky turned his witness fee over to the police department to be added to the pension fund.

Other cases heard were those of a Canterbury man fined $5 for violation of a city ordinance and that of William Murphy of Willimantic, who went to jail to work out his fine of $10 and costs, after being found giulty of intoxication.

MISS RUTH ELLIS ENTERTAINS YOUNG PEOPLE

About 35 young people of the Lefingwell Baptist church were delightfully entertained by Miss Ruth Ellis at her home on Asylum street Tuesday evening. In an adjoining lot a huge bonfire blazed at the close of which a frankfurter roast was indulged in. Following this adjournment was taken to the spacious lawn where games and a general good time brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.

FINED IN MONTVILLE ON SPEEDING CHARGE

Charged with speeding, Harold Quidgeon of Mohegan Hill was presented before Justice Oscar Church at Montville Wednesday and was fined $10 and costs for his offense. Quidgeon was arrested by Officer Whitmarsh of the Groton barracks on an original charge of reckless driving, following an accident on Mohegan Hill Monday evening.

The evidence gathered showed that Quidgeon ran into a car driven by Daniel Tongren of Julian street, Norwich, both cars being considerably damaged. The occupants of both cars escaped without injury. It is said that the Quidgeon car went 150 feet after hitting the Norwich car and came to a stop against a telegraph pole.

HAPPY-GO-LUCKY CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Members of the Happy-Go-Lucky club held their first meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Peggy Young at No. 85 West Town street. A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Miss Alice Cummings, Bernice Fritz, Mildred Carter, Elizabeth Lavarge, Mary Meehan, Dorothy Jarvis, Jack Young and Miss Peggy Young.

The New York Federal reserve bank raised its rediscount rate from 3 1-2 to 4 per cent.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

Final Clearance Prices on SUMMER RUGS and HAMMOCKS

A GOOD TIME TO BUY—SAVINGS WORTHWHILE

COUCH HAMMOCKS HALF PRICE AT $12.50
Regular Value $25.00
Just 5 Couch Hammocks, plain and striped duck, with spring upholstered back—Final Clearance Price $12.50, regular value $25.00.

WOVEN HAMMOCKS HALF PRICE AT $2.50
Regular Value $5.00
Just 6 Woven Hammocks, strongly made and will give good service—Final Clearance Price $2.50, regular value $5.00.

HALF PRICE Just 5 SUMMER CREX RUGS. Size 8x10 feet—Rugs that sell regularly at $7.50—Clearance Price $3.75

COTTAGE SETS AT 79c
Regular Value $1.25
100, Five-piece Cottage Sets or Double Dutch Curtains, ruffled, with Tie Back—Clearance Price 79c a set, regular value $1.25.

PORCH SHADES At Clearance Prices LESS 20 PER CENT
The well known Aerolux and Koolite Porch Shades. Sizes 4 to 12 feet—Clearance Price 20 per cent off regular prices.

Rattania Rugs — Kimlark Rugs All Marked at Clearance Prices

RATTANIA RUGS
6x9 feet—$9.75, value $11.50
7 ft. 6x10 ft. 6—$12.50, value $15.75
9x12 feet—$14.75, value $18.00

KIMLARK RUGS
6x9 feet—$9.50, value $11.50
8x10 feet—$13.50, value $16.50
9x12 feet—$16.50, value $19.50

PRESERVING REQUISITES
As usual, this store is headquarters for Preserving Requisites. Everything needed for preserving will be found here in complete assortments.

E. Z. SEAL JARS
Half-pint ..... $1.00 doz.
Pints ..... $1.10 doz.
Quarts ..... $1.20 doz.
2-quarts ..... $1.85 doz.

MASON JARS
Quarts ..... $1.20 doz.
Jelly Tumblers ..... 60c doz.

COL-PAC CANNERS
These are in three sizes, at the following prices according to size: $1.50 — $1.70 and $1.75
Racks to fit these Canners—at 50c and 65c

Mason Jar Caps ..... 35c doz.
Good Luck Jar Rubbers, at 3 doz. for 25c, or a dozen for 10c

PETER RABBIT BABY POWDER 3c

NORWICH DOLLAR STORE
THE MANHATTAN BUILDING

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP 6c

LACE COVERED PILLOWS
Round, Square and Heart Shape
SATURDAY 50c

MOTH and DUST PROOF Garment Bags
SATURDAY 10c EACH

ASTER RAG RUGS
Size 27x54
SATURDAY $1.00

SATURDAY

WOMEN'S SILK and RAYON HOSE
All Latest Shades
79c PAIR

A REAL BUY Rayon Chemise
Pink, Orchid, Maise and White
SATURDAY 89c

CHILDREN'S Rayon Socks
Plain Colors
25c Value
19c PAIR

CHILDREN'S PLAY SUITS
Assorted Colors and Sizes
SATURDAY 88c

THE CHARLESTON Bathing and Overnight Bag
$1.00 Value
SATURDAY 50c

CHILDREN'S BOSTON BAGS
Assorted Colors
SATURDAY 10c

SPECIALS

Big Saturday Special WOMEN'S and MISSES' Crepe Dresses
Values up to $5.00.
Buy two for this price and save money
$2.50

Women's and Misses' HATS
A Cleanup of Our Summer Styles
SATURDAY 50c

A Real Buy Saturday SILK and CREPE DRESSES
Values to $7.00
A wonderful assortment of Colors and Styles
You Save on This Purchase
$5.00

REPUBLIC SOLID TIRES

MR. TRUCK OWNER!

WE COULD WRITE A VOLUME on the performances of REPUBLIC STAG SOLIDS, but much preferred would be our desire to have you inquire from those who are using REPUBLIC STAG SOLIDS, as to their worth as a TRUCK TIRE. We can vouch for SERVICE ABOVE 25,000 MILES from many of the users listed below, and MR. WILLIAM RYAN SAYS, "WE did not use one foot of chain last winter on our REPUBLIC SOLIDS as against 68 feet on another make." Think that over! REPUBLIC SOLIDS are an ALL YEAR TIRE, under ALL KIND of ROAD CONDITIONS, WITH A MINIMUM GUARANTEE of 15,000 MILES OF SERVICE.

Phone or write for particulars and we will have our representative call on you.

LOCAL USERS OF REPUBLIC SOLIDS

Massasoit Manufacturing Co., Oakdale, Conn.
Palmer Bros., Fitchville, Conn.
Andrew Avery, New London, Conn.
F. H. & A. H. Chappell, New London, Conn.
Willie Chenette, Taftville, Conn.
E. B. Patterson Corp., New London.
Wm. Ryan & Sons, Sand and Gravel.
Eastern Conn. Power Co., Power.
The Shetucket Coal & Lumber Co.
Yantic Grain & Products Co.
Tryon & Fish, Mystic, Conn., Trucking.
The Max Gordon Corporation
The National Paper & Metal Co.
The Town of Groton, Groton, Conn.
The Town of Montville, Montville.
Oscar Main, Sand and Gravel.
Louis Sadinsky, Junk Dealer.
C. B. Bromley, Trucking.
Harry Ford, Ice Dealer and Trucking.
Levine Bros., Produce.
Ruby Blinderman, Trucking.
The Callahan Oil Co., Gas and Oils.

ALSO USED AS STANDARD EQUIPMENT BY THE TEXAS OIL CO., AND THE STANDARD OIL CO.
SOLE DISTRIBUTORS FOR NEW LONDON COUNTY

HENSCHEL TIRE AND RUBBER CO.

331 MAIN STREET TEL. 1299 NORWICH, CONN.

THE OLDEST SOLID TIRE HOUSE IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT.
FOR 100% SOLID SERVICE WE STAND ALONE.

Norwich Bulletin

1786 1926

VOL. LXVIII—No. 194. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1926. TWELVE PAGES—88 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

HOOVER TELLS COOLIDGE OF BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Farm and Textile Manufacturing Industries the Only Branches Where Conditions Are Not Up to the General Economic Level—With Those Exceptions Mr. Hoover Asserted the Country Was Never in Such an Excellent Condition as at Present—Exports of Manufactures Were 12 Per Cent. Greater Than Last Year.

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(AP)—With a country enjoying in general a widespread prosperity, President Coolidge is working to aid the agricultural and textile manufacturing industries where conditions are not up to the general economic level.

While details were withheld, it was said today after a visit of Secretary Hoover of the commerce department with Mr. Coolidge, that the government was attempting to improve the farm situation by steps which depended upon a coordinated effort of the agencies that provide agricultural credits to the country. Such moves as have been made, it was indicated, have been of a tentative character and directed through banks, insurance companies and mortgage loan concerns.

Efforts of the commerce department in the textile industry were said to have been especially centered upon the cotton spinning trade. While this, too, was not described in detail, it was said some progress had been made in adjustments in the industry of a beneficial character and that in the past month or six weeks there has been a distinct improvement.

Mr. Hoover arrived from Washington this morning and left for California at noon after reporting upon the business situation and commercial aviation progress.

In general and apart from some lags in agriculture, textiles and bituminous coal, Mr. Hoover said the country was never in such excellent condition as at present. Even with agriculture, he added, there has been an improvement in the prices of some commodities, while construction is 15 per cent greater in volume than a year ago.

Asked by the president about foreign trade conditions, Mr. Hoover said that exports of manufactures were 12 per cent greater than last year, a favorable point in the opinion of the president who was said to regard the figures on such products as of more importance than those on raw materials entering the export trade, insofar as the balance of trade is concerned.

The foreign commerce of Europe is about the same as before the World war, Mr. Hoover reported, with England showing a slight gain and Germany and France a slight loss. Reduced to pre-war prices, he added, the exports of the United States are 57 per cent greater than before the war and the imports 37 per cent greater.

There was a falling off in the American balance of trade last year as compared with the preceding year, it was explained, due largely to prices on three items. Although the amount of cotton and wheat exports was as large as the preceding year, it was said the prices were not as good last year, meaning a reduction in terms of dollars.

At the same time, it was added, there was a large increase in the cost of rubber imported last year as compared with the preceding year, so that on the dollar basis imports showed an advance.

Mr. Coolidge went to the executive offices both in the morning and afternoon, and when he received the newspaper correspondents late today for his regular Friday conference he was accompanied by Chief Justice Arthur P. Rugg of the Massachusetts supreme judificial court, who is a house guest at White Pine camp.

For luncheon at the summer white house the president and Mrs. Coolidge had as guests Ogden Reid, publisher of the New York Herald-Tribune, and Mrs. Reid, who are at their camp on upper Stregis lake.

John Coolidge, son of the president and Mrs. Coolidge, will arrive from Burlington, Vt., tomorrow, upon the completion of his six weeks' summer course at the University of Vermont.

ATLANTA BANKER IS INDICTED FOR FELONY

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 13.—(AP)—W. D. Manley, president of the Farmers and Traders bank of Atlanta and also president of the Bankers' Trust company of Atlanta, which is in receivers' hands, was indicted by the Fulton county grand jury here today on a charge of felony, in that the Farmers and Traders bank became fraudulently insolvent at the time he was in charge of its affairs.

The indictment was announced by Solicitor John A. Boykin.

A warrant for the arrest of Manley was issued. His attorneys state that he is ill in a hospital at Milledgeville, Ga.

Manley is also president of the Bankers' Trust company of Atlanta, which was placed in the hands of receivers recently. The receivership of the institution was directly responsible for closing 52 small banks in Georgia for which it acted as fiscal agent.

Receivers of the Bankers' Trust company have filed a petition in federal district court here asking that Manley be required to turn over to the receivers "personal assets" aggregating $500,000. The receivers charged the defendant banker withheld the alleged assets with intent to defraud the institution's creditors.

HELD ON CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY TO DYNAMITE

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Bond of $5,000 was fixed today by County Judge W. F. Blanton, in the case of Kempton Greene, Hialeah civic organization promoter, arrested yesterday on a charge of conspiracy to dynamite the home of E. A. Hamp, president of the Hialeah chamber of commerce. The arrest was made on a warrant sworn out by Hamp.

Green charges that W. A. Wells approached him with an offer "to blow up any house in Hialeah for $1,000." Greene said he did not accept the offer because he "wasn't interested."

Physicians and laymen composing a sanitary commission, examined Greene today and revealed he had been declared insane on March 3, 1926, while confined in a hospital here, but was later released on parole.

STATE POLICE RAIDED PLACE IN MIDDLETOWN

MIDDLETOWN, Aug. 13.—(AP)—State police from the Hartford barracks accompanied by Middletown police, raided a place conducted by Edward J. Tynan at 41 Rapallo avenue tonight seized two pitchers of liquor and two slot machines and made three arrests.

Those arrested were Tynan, who was charged with violation of the liquor law and operating gaming devices, and George Zachary and Daniel Haley, charged with violation of the liquor law. The men were released on bonds and will be given court hearings August 16.

Tynan was sentenced to 120 days in jail on two counts last April and the case is now under appeal. A year ago he was convicted of a liquor law violation and served 15 days in jail.

THIEF FOUND STOLEN GAS REPLACED BY WATER

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 13—(AP)—Trying to run his "flivver" with water as fuel clinched the arrest today of Edmond Gagne.

Gagne was mowing the lawn in front of John C. Whittaker's house when he thought longingly of his automobile and the stuff required to make it go. A large tank of gasoline was stored back of the Whittaker home so Gagne drew five gallons and hid it in a can in the garage. Another employe became suspicious, poured the gasoline back into the tank and filled the can with water.

Today Gagne sallied blithely forth in his automobile. A block away the car emitted a sputter, a pop, then gasped and died. An officer standing on the curb laid a hand on Gagne's shoulder. He was placed on probation when he pleaded guilty to larceny.

BELIEVES MISS GAINES WAS KILLED DELIBERATELY

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 13—(AP)—Chief Deputy Coroner Jones told the jury trying Walter Gaines on a charge of slaying his daughter Sylvia, that he believed the young Smith college graduate was killed deliberately and not by a fiend whom she encountered accidentally. He said she was beaten to death with a rock. The body of Miss Gaines was found June 16 on the shore of Green Gakger.

Jones testified that blows on the side of the young woman's head were delivered after she had been choked into unconsciousness and that the choking in all probability would have caused her death. The state hoped by this testimony to explain the absence of blood on Gaines' clothing. Bruises on Miss Gaines' shoulder, Jones said, were caused by the woman being dragged. After a fight by the defense, enlarged photographs of the body of Miss Gaines were admitted as evidence.

Prosecutor Edwin D. Colvin declared the photographs relevant as showing by the situation of the wounds how unlikely it was that the clothing of the person who beat and choked her to death would show much blood.

Colvin had announced that between the death and the discovery, the body was moved ten feet and arranged so as to support the idea that a fiend had attacked Miss Gaines and had then fled the city.

BRIDGEPORT'S "PHANTOM STABBER" AGAIN AT WORK

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The "phantom stabber" under cover of darkness and heavy falling rain, claimed two more victims tonight, when two girls were stabbed in rapid succession in the same section of the city. A steeplejack hearing cries of help from one of the victims jumped from a first story window and gave chase to the fiend who disappeared into a driveway and over back yard fences. The appearance of the stabber was the second in the past eight days. Previously to the stabbing on August 5, when Mary Corcoran was stabbed, there had been no stabbings since last December when the stabber at that time terrorized the city with more than a score of stabbings.

The victims tonight were Anna Borggard, 26, of 2140 Park avenue, who was stabbed on Broad street, and Mary Lentite, 14, of 848 East Main street, who fell a victim to the fiend at Hats and Warren streets. Both were treated by Dr. C. E. Haverlin at the emergency hospital and afterwards taken to their homes by detectives.

PEDESTRIAN EDWARD PAYSON WESTON MISSING

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Edward Payson Weston, 88, world-famous walker, has been missing from his home since Tuesday, members of his family informed police today. Mrs. Anna O'Hagan, niece with whom he lived, told police he left home Tuesday to go to New York and return by bus. When he failed to return she notified New York police and a hotel where Weston usually stays when in that city, but no trace of him was found.

Mr. Weston was born in Providence, R. I. He gained fame when only 22, walking from Boston to Washington, a distance of 443 miles to attend Lincoln's first inauguration.

BEARSE, SLAYER OF MOTHER, FOUND INSANE BY BOARD

SPRINGFIELD, Mass, Aug. 13—(AP)—Richard C. Bearse, 26, who a week ago killed his mother, divorced wife of County Treasurer Fred A. Bearse, inflicting unspeakable mutilations on her body, was today found insane by a board of alienists and was committed to the Bridgewater State hospital for an indefinite period by Judge Wallace R. Heady of district court. The alienists reported Bearse to be an "extreme case," of insanity.

CABLED PARAGAPHS

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Queen Victoria of Sweden has been weaker during the last few days. Her heart action has been calmer and stronger and her sleep has been good.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A violent explosion occurred at the Manfried Weisen ammunition factory on Shepelis Island, below Budapest Several lives were lost, one report placing the number at 14.

BISSINGEN, Germany, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Gertrude Ederle is resting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. George Ederle, after two triumphant receptions of welcome, first at Stuttgart and then at this little village, where the thousand or so inhabitants turned out to greet her.

MAN CAPTURED DENIED OWNERSHIP OF GUN

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 13—(AP)—Maintaining that he was not the owner of the gun which had been taken from him by Policeman William Newberg at the railroad station here today, but that he had found it a few minutes before, Michael Massamino, of 18 Oak street, this city, insisted during a long questioning by the police that he had not planned to do anything wrong.

In the meantime he is being held under $10,000 bond on charge of idleness and carrying concealed weapons. Throughout several hours of questioning he steadfastly denied that he was guilty of the charges against him.

The story told by Massamino differed slightly from that told by Policeman Newberg who claimed that he had seized the gun from the man's hand after which the latter fled, being finally caughter, after a shot had been fired at him, in a 32 family house at Christopher and Portsea streets, by Policeman William Hayes.

Massamino claimed that he left his automobile at the railroad station to get a timetable and that it was then that he picked up a small package. Returning to his machine, he opened the pacake, he said, and found that it contained the revolver. It was then, according to his story, that Policeman Newberg approached and told him he would have to go to headquarters.

Claiming that he was frightened, Massamino said he had dashed away, not realizing that "my running away would make things look so bad."

CASE AGAINST FORMER DRY DIRECTOR DISMISSED

NEW YORK, Aug. 13—(AP)—An indictment returned five years ago against Colonel Herbert G. Cathrow, former assistant prohibition director, the Hill and Hill Distillery company and five others for allegedly conspiring to defraud the government through the improper issuance of whiskey withdrawl permits, was dismissed today upon motion of U. S. Attorney Buckner.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Hitchcock, who investigated the old indictment for Mr. Buckner, reported that there was no evidence to prove that the defendants improperly received any money or acted improperly in connection with the issuance of permits or otherwise.

With Cathrow, a prominent member of the National Republican club, there were named with him and the corporate defendant, in the indictment, Samuel P. Steckler, head of the Progressive Drug company, David F. McGowan, Benjamin Silver, Walter Ruby and Frank Fallon.

The indictment was in part based on the testimony of William H. Barnes, a witness, who said that $17,500 had been paid by McGowan for four permits to withdraw 1,000 cases of whiskey in all —the same to be delivered by the Hill and Hill Distillery company, a Kentucky corporation, to Mr. Steckler. The whiskey, it was alleged, was eventually received by Mannie Kessler, known as the "Bootleg King."

NO ANTIPATHY AGAINST AMERICANS BY FRENCH VETS

ROCKLAND, Me., Aug. 13—(AP)—The declaration that antipathy towards Americans does not exist among the French veterans of the World war, was contained in two cablegrams from the French minister of foreign affairs received here tonight by the France convention committee of the American Legion.

The messages were in answer to queries sent the French government by the legion in regard to the attitude of the French people towards the proposed legion convention to be held in France next year. One of the cablegrams said:

"Inasmuch as certain newspapers in America have circulated hostile rumors, you have inquired of the French government what may be the attitude existing in France in regard to the convention of the American Legion.

"The Comite d' Entente and the Semaine du Combatant have informed you that members of the American Legion will be received with enthusiasm by their comrades. You may be assured that for my part the coming to France of your members, placed as it is above all controversy and all political problems, will be considered as a friendly and courteous visit and a sacred pilgrimage to the graves of American soldiers who rest in France. There is not a Frenchman but will greet your members as they pass and kneel with them on these graves."

DISTRIBUTING A NEW SCARLET FEVER SERUM

HARTFORD, Aug. 13—(AP)—A new scarlet fever serum, now being distributed among Connecticut physicians by the state department of health, is expected to cut the scarlet fever death rate in the state in half and at the same time eliminate many of the complications following the disease. Dr. Stanley H. Osborn, state commissioner of health, said today.

The distribution of the serum, called in health officers' bulletin number 46, scarlet fever sterptococcus antitoxin, marks the first time that the state has been in use for perhaps he last 12 months. However, until just recently, no antitoxin strong enough to warrant our distribution has been produced.

"Connecticut has averaged more than 4,000 scarlet fever cases a year since 1920, of which number from 1 to 1 1-2 per cent have proven fatal. In addition to the fatalities, and much more probable, are the resultant complications, such as deafness, abscessed ears and heart conditions."

The chief value of the antitoxin, Dr. Osborn indicated, lies in its immediate use in the early stages of the disease. "We are not at all certain that it will cure complications resulting from scarlet fever," the doctor observed. "We do not claim that it will. But we do hope that, taken early, it will prevent complications."

Report no Disorder Anywhere in Mexico

Governors of All States Announce No Disturbance as Outcome of Religious Situation.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13.—(AP)— Reports received from the governors of all the states of Mexico, says an announcement issued by the department of interior today, show there is no disorder anywhere in the country as an outcome of the religious situation.

All Catholic churches with the exception of a few where inventories have not been completed or where church treasures are missing, are in charge of municipal committees. It is announced the concession made to the Catholics in Mexico City, whereby the committees looking after the churches may be composed of five Catholics and five citizens appointed by the municipality, is to be extended throughout the country.

The department of interior says that seven priests in the state of Puebla have announced acceptance of the government's religious regulations, and the belief is expressed by the department that more priests will gradually assume a policy of acceptance.

But, so far as an outward truce is concerned, the government and the episcopate continue deadlocked, and there is no prospect of an agreement.

CONSTABLE AND ALLEGED MOONSHINER KILLED

WINEGARD, Wis., Aug. 13.—(AP)—George Rutherford, a constable, and William Stanley, an alleged moonshiner from Kentucky, were killed, and Elmer Monk, deputized after Rutherford was shot, and Jerry Brandenburg, were seriously wounded last night after the constable sought to serve a warrant charging a prohibition law violation.

Brandenburg, with C. L. Boring and his son, Henry, are being held for complicity in the death of Rutherford, who with his wife drove to the alleged moonshiners' shack to serve the warrant. Mrs. Rutherford, who remained behind when her husband walked to the shack, heard two shots, and drove here for help. A posse found Rutherford's body, and a short time later captured Boring.

Another posse led by Monk, entered the woods from another side and shortly encountered two men. In an exchange of shots Monk was wounded and Stanley killed. Brandenburg was captured after being wounded.

CONDEMNED MAN BEAT EXECUTION BY STARVATION

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 13—(AP)—An aged Arkansas negro went to his grave today triumphant in a slow and stealthy race against death by electrocution. While Governor Tom J. Terral, campaigning for re-nomination, delayed fixing a date on which Tom Stribling, Crittenden county, should be executed for murder, Stribling for 65 days refused the meals that were given him and died yesterday from pneumonia, induced by starvation.

Stribling always denied he killed a negro who had attacked his daughter some time before. A jury and the supreme court failed to accept his alibi.

His sentence was affirmed three months ago and he was placed in a cell with two other condemned negroes. On the day the other two were executed, Stribling began his fast.

Penitentiary authorities did not know of it until two weeks ago. He took the meals that were passed through the bars and consigned them to the drain pipes.

After removal to the hospital he abandoned his attempt at concealment and declared himself on a "hunger strike." Friends of the old negro believe however, that his purpose was not to bid for freedom or commutation, but in his own words, to "beat the electric chair," by starvation.

CONVICTED OF THE MURDER OF MRS. HARRIET VICKERS

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Paul W. Fuerstein, formal leader of the Camden Philharmonic orchestra, was convicted today by a jury for the murder of Mrs. Harriet Vickers.

The jury made no recommendation for mercy and Justice Katzenbach sentenced him to be electrocuted on September 20.

OBITUARY

Major Walter H. Thomas

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Aug. 13—(AP)—Major Walter H. Thomas, who enlisted as a drummer boy in the union army at the age of 13 and was an orderly to General Phil Sheridan on the famous ride from Winchester to Cedar Creek, is dead at his home here. A veteran of the Civil, Spanish and World wars, he was one of the most widely known military figures in New England. He was born in Portland, Me., November 12, 1850, and began his military career as a drummer in the 29th Maine infantry at the outbreak of the Civil war.

Renders Valuable Service for All.

Certainly you are interested in the things designed to give you greater comfort, better living, more real enjoyment in life.

It is exactly along these lines that the advertising columns of The Bulletin furnish you with a service of inestimable value, and they show you where to get your money's greatest worth. They print out where and when to secure just what you are looking for.

The arvertiser makes you a promise because he believes in the goods he is offering. Neither the advertiser nor the buyer can afford to overlook the mighty and indispensable service which The Bulletin columns repder each day.

The following news matter appeared in The Bulletin in the past week:

Bulletin	Telegraph	Local	General	Total
Saturday, August 7	135	155	434	724
Monday, August 9	134	122	435	691
Tuesday, August 10	128	143	296	567
Wednesday, August 11	129	103	340	572
Thursday, August 12	113	95	333	541
Friday, August 13	120	104	391	615
Totals	759	722	2229	3710

Six Persons Killed in Long Island Wreck

Train Was Derailed and Overturned at a Switch—Ten Persons Were Injured, Several Seriously

CALVERTON, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Six persons were killed and 10 injured, several seriously, when two engines and three cars of a seven-car Long Island Railroad train were derailed and overturned at a switch tonight.

The cause of the accident was not known but investigations were begun shortly afterwards.

Engineer William J. Squires and Fireman John Montgomery, both of Greenport, in the lead engine, were among those killed. Railroad officials said that others killed were J. C. Fisher and H. L. Wayne and two children named Angel, whose mother was reported seriously injured. A Mrs. Schusarb and her Negro maid were also reported seriously injured, together with seven other persons whose names could not be learned.

The train left Jamaica, Long Island, for Greenport at 4.28 p. m., with about 700 passengers.

The train was a Friday special, and 300 or 400 of the passengers were bound for a week-end in the country.

Both locomotives were battered and twisted int os mass of wreckage, but the crew of the second engine escaped injury by leaping to safety. The first of the passenger coaches, a parlor car buckled upwards and crashed down through the roof of a pickle cannery alongside the tracks. There was no fire and passengers were able to make their way out of the cars through doors and windows.

Owing to the heavy rains which fell last night, traffic on the New York end of the line was delayed and the train was late. The accident occurred about 1,000 feet west of the Calverton railroad station.

SENATOR M'LEAN TO OPEN REP. STATE CONVENTION

HARTFORD, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Chairman J. Henry Roraback of the republican state central committee, announced today that United States Senator George P. McLean, of Simsbury, had accepted an invitation to serve as temporary chairman of the republican state convention which will be held in Foot Guard hall here on September 13. As temporary chairman, Senator McLean will deliver the "keynote" address of the convention on the opening night. The usual procedure has been for the committee on organization to recommend that the temporary organization be made permanent.

Former Judge Alexander W. Creedon, of this city, will be temporary secretary of the convention and with Mr. Roraback will appoint those to act as temporary assistant secretaries. This organization, if th usual procedure is followed, will be made permanent for the convention on report of the committe on organization.

Senator McLean delivered the opening address and presided at the special convention in November, 1924, at which Senator Bingham was nominated as the candidate for the place left vacant by the suicide of Senator Bandegee, the preceding republican republican state convention.

BELIEVES LIMITATION OF BIRTHS IS "INEVITABLE"

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 13—(AP)—Limitation of births is "inevitable and unavoidable" because the population of the world is doubling every century, Dr. Joseph Krimsky, a Brooklyn physician, said today at the Institute of Politics.

Asserting that primitive tribes resort to infanticide unless famine and plague intervene, to prevent a too rapid increase of their races, Dr. Krimsy said civilized people should face the problem by resorting to birth control.

Dr. A. C. Dieffenbach, editor of the Christian Register, termed the current religious unrest and controversy as one of the hopeful signs in this country. A union of churches, he said, would never occur, "For as we rise in the scale of vital intelligence differences become finer and not fewer."

MRS. NANCY L. K. CHANDLER WINS DIVORCE IN PARIS

PARIS, Aug. 13—(AP)—Mrs. Nancy L. Krebs Chandler, was given a divorce today from Percy M. Chandler of New York on ground of abandonment of domicile. They were married Nov. 1, 1907, at Manchester, Va.

Mrs. Caroline Bayard Stevens Condon was awarded a decree against Edward Beach Condon on ground of abandonment. They were married at Bernardsville, N. J., June 30, 1921. Mrs. Condon is a member of the family which founded the Stevens Institute of Technology at Hoboken.

Mrs. Rosamond Lancaster Warburton was given a divorce from Barclay H. Warburton Jr., grandson of John Wanamaker, on ground of abandonment. They were married at Elkton, Md., Dec. 10 1919.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Germany has registered with the league of nations fifteen treaties, four of which are with Russia.

Edward G. Ciardi has retired as president of the Union Tank Car Co. His successor has not yet been named.

Colonel Stanhope E. Blunt, formerly commandant at the United States armory in Springfield, left an estate valued at $582,695.

The Rev. Dr. Walden Myer, canon of the Washington cathedral, died at Gloucester, Mass., where he was spending the summer.

Two men were shot to death and three persons wounded, one of them, a woman, in a pistol fight in a downtown saloon in Detroit.

Unfilled orders on the books of the International Combustion Engineering corporation approximate $23,000,000 as compared with $20,000,000 on May 1.

Sheriff John A. Kelihey announced in behalf of Pansy, airedale mascot of the Charles Street jail, Boston, the birth of 13 puppies to her yesterday.

Anson B. Handy, superintendent of schools in Enfield for the past four years, resigned to accept a position as superintendent of schools in Plymouth, Mass.

Free bus service from the Baltimore and Ohio railroad terminal in Jersey City to midtown points in New York will be inaugurated next Thursday.

The lumber industry is being maintained at a high rate of operation, judging from reports received by the National Lumber Manufacturers' association.

The outlook for cigar leaf tobacco has shown general improvement in the past month, according to a survey announced by the New England crop reporting service.

The British Sunday school is "slipping" because there is diminished interest in church life generally, says a report of a committee of the Methodist church conference.

The sore throat ailment in Guilford which has spoiled vacations of scores of visitors and which has been held responsible for five deaths, was believed to be on the wane.

Five boxes of jewelry and not three, as at first reported, were stolen late Sunday night or early Monday morning from the Breakers, the estate of General Cornelius Vanderbilt at Newport.

Four men were killed yesterday near Nakina, Ont., in the Thunder Bay district, when a gas speeder on which they were traveling on the Canadian National Railway was hit by a train.

Early arrival of cool fall weather is predicted by Professor Gayle B. Pickwell, ornithologist at Northwestern university, Chicago, from the congregating of purple martins near the campus.

Willard Parker, commercial aviator, Cleveland, went about his affairs yesterday without a scratch to show for a 3,000 foot plunge with his plane into a tree-top in a forest in Woodbury Pass, Pa.

Antonio De Palo, sought since the finding of the body of his wife, with the head almost cut off by an axe in their Brooklyn home yesterday, walked into police station several hours later and surrendered.

Patsy Young, for 20 years construction foreman for the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, committed suicide by hanging in a tool house at Great Barrington, Mass. He is survived by a widow and two sons.

John J. Cummings of Boston, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, yesterday withdrew from the race, leaving Colonel William A. Gaston the only other democrat seeking the office, without opposition.

Dr. Willard J. Fisher of the Harvard observatory declared yesterday that it was highly improbable if scientific knowledge of meteors would be increased by observations made of the seasonal shower which began Aug. 10.

Lottie M. Ogden, of Hartford, doing business under the name of the Gift shop, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy with the clerk of the United States district court. Liabilities are listed at $4,774.04 and assets at $1,000.

City Solicitor Joseph P. Gaffney of Philadelphia does not believe the sesqui-centennial exposition will have to be closed on Sundays as a result of the ruling of Judge Edwin O. Lewis which indicated that Sunday opening was illegal.

The time has come to get rid of "industrial quacks" and to go directly to the "greatest of all doctors on industrial ills, Jesus Christ," in the opinion of Dr. John McDowell, secretary of the Presbyterian board of national missions.

Physicians probing the arm of Anthony Valenta, 43, injured a week ago in the explosion or an aerial bomb in a fireworks display in Chicago found the thumb and forefinger of another man who was hurt in the blast buried in Valenta's arm.

Civil and military commissions are now at Csepel Island, near Budapest, Hungary, investigating the explosion which caused the destruction of the Mnafred Weisz works, the only munitions factory permitted in Hungary under the peace treaty.

Emissaries of the Knights of Columbus who called yesterday on Secretary Kellogg are believed to have gained a definite impression that the hands-off policy of the government regarding Mexico's domestic religious difficulties is to stand unchanged.

Governor Trumbull approved a requisition for counsel fees of $10,000 for Carmody and Thoms, of Waterbury who represented the state at the hearing before the interstate commerce commission relative to a new rate on bituminous coal shipped from West Virginia to Connecticut.

California tax payers who divided their income between husband and wife for purposes of income taxation are liable to face deficiency proceedings by the government assessing the entire tax against the husband, it was held by the board of tax appeals.

COUNTRY TO HAVE NETWORK OF COMMERCIAL AIRWAYS

Announcement Made by Secretary Hoover During Visit With President Coolidge—Chief Executive Favors Airways From New York to the Pacific Coast and From Chicago to Fort Worth, Tex.—Atlantic Coast Line Will Include a Route From Boston to Miami, Fla.

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Plans for blanketing the country with a network of commercial airways were announced by Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce today during a visit with President Coolidge.

At the same time the progress the department is making in supervising the development of commercial aviation was indicated when Mr. Coolidge approved two routes it recommended be laid down, one for a transcontinental airway from New York to the Pacific coast and the other for a southwestern service from Chicago to Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas.

In announcing the action of the president, Mr. Hoover expressed the belief that within six months full passenger, express and mail service will be in operation on the transcontinental route.

At the same time he indicated that announcements would be made soon for other commercial airways, providing, in general, lines along the Atlantic coast, in the Mississippi valley, the great lakes region, the northwestern states, and the Pacific coast, including the far northwest.

Government encouragement and assistance in the development of commercial aviation has been made possible by legislation which grew out of the investigation of the Chief aviation situation by the president's air board last winter.

The development will also be of first importance, it was pointed out by Mr. Hoover, in creating an air reserve for the national defense. Because of the importance of this aspect of the situation, the commerce department has had the co-operation of the army and navy department in laying its plans for commercial flying.

Two national advisory committees are also to be appointed by President Coolidge to assist the commerce department in its work.

One will aid in the establishment of national air routes, and will co-operate with the assistant secretaries in charge of aviation for the army and navy as well as with the commerce department in this work.

The other will assist the department in the formulation of rules for navigation, inspection of planes and licensing of pilots on national airships.

Both will be made up of representatives of the commercial aviation industry and of the army flying services.

Under the present plans, Chicago and Salt Lake City will be important local points for the network of airlines.

Definite announcement concerning other routes will await decisions as to extensions of some private lines now in operation over parts of the territory concerned, a further co-ordination of the broad programme being worked out in the commerce department, national defense and other questions.

The Atlantic coast line, however, it was said, probably will run from a point north of Boston, to Boston, New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore, Washington, Raleigh, N. C., Savannah or Atlanta, Ga., Jacksonville, and Miami, Florida.

In general the commerce department will own all ground equipment and stations for the new industry and supervise the operation of the national airways, while actual flying operations will be conducted by private companies.

Under the direction of Assistant Secretary William P. MacCracken, Jr., of Chicago, who was appointed only this week, the department will determine the location and routes of the national airways, improve and maintain the landing fields, provide commercial pilots who operate on the lines, create rules for navigation over the routes, and conduct inspection for safety.

Mr. Hoover emphasized the important assistance to be gained by private companies from air mail contracts. The revenue from this source, he said, provides an important starting point for the new industry, which must proceed from that point to expand the business to take in passengers and express or even freight.

While the post office department was said to be expending $45,000 a year for air mail operations, it is expected that a greater sum will be required by the commerce department for civil aviation.

Less than three months will be necessary, in the judgment of Secretary Hoover, for the commerce department to complete physical arrangements for the two routes decided upon today.

PROHIBITION REFERENDUM IN NEW YORK DECLARED LEGAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—An application to enjoin submission of the state prohibition amendment to the voters was denied today, but the judge who ruled against the application also expressed the opinion that the referendum is futile.

The application was brought by Helen M. Albert as a citizen and sponsored by the New York women's committee for law enforcement. She charged the referendum was unconstitutional. The action was brought against the board of elections and the mayor.

Supreme Court Justice Crain ruled that the board of elections is a state agency and that action against it could not be taken by a taxpayer.

He wrote in his opinion that the referendum question really means, shall congress take from the statue the definition of an intoxicating beverage and let each state decide this for itself so long as the beverage in question is not intoxicating in fact.

"The question proposed as thus construed," he said, "is futile because congress could not constitutionally do that which those voting in the affirmative would by such vote suggest that it should do."

"Congress cannot abdicate its power to define for purposes of enforcement through the federal courts what shall be deemed an intoxicating beverage and confer upon the states the right to define for purposes of enforcement through federal tribunals what shall not be deemed a violation of the 18th amendment."

Justice Crain then gave his opinion of intemperance.

"Few if any will deny," he said, "that for centuries the intemperate use of intoxicating liquor has been an evil, and few if any will deny that this evil is present in the United States today. Habitual drunkenness weakens the body and brain, hastens age, saps virtue, shames friends and pleases foes. It exiles reason and makes virtue a stranger. Its blighting hand for the past 150 years has produced in our land houses without windows, gardens without fences, fields without tillage, barns without roofs and children without clothing, principles or morals."

SECRETARY MELLON HAS ARRIVED IN GENEVA

GENEVA, Aug. 13—(AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, who arrived here yesterday from Rome, spent the day resting and shopping with his daughter, Mrs. David Bruce. This afternoon he received Hugh Gibson, chief of the American delegation to the preparatory disarmament conference.

Professor Manley O. Hudson of Harvard, who is attached to the legal section of the league of nations called on Mr. Mellon and invited him to visit the headquarters of the league of nations. Secretary Mellon, however, expressed his regret at being unable to accept the invitation since he is here on a vacation and has arranged for all of his time until his departure to Evian, France, tomorrow.

DEFIANT MURDERER WAS ARRESTED BY SHERIFF

CINCINNATI, Aug. 13—(AP)—Scott Workman, 40, a farmer, who shot and killed his wife, Nora, 36, at their home near New Richmond, Ohio, today, was taken to the Batavia, Ohio, jail early this morning after he had defied Sheriff Fred Crosswell and a posse to arrest him.

Sheriff Croswell, after being held at bay for some time, ignored the threats of Workman, entered the house and placed the slayer under arrest.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN HALL-MILLS MURDER CASE

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 13—(AP)—A woman pig raiser's story discredited four years ago is the basis of the state's hope for indictment of three persons charged with the murder of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills.

That was revealed today at the first session of the hearing of Henry Devruyere Carpender, New York and New Brunswick millionaire, and Willie Stevens, eccentric brother of the rector's widow, arrested yesterday and held without bail. Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the widow, is at liberty on $15,000 bail, also charged with the double slayings.

The woman pig raiser, Mrs. Jane Gibson, said by state Senator Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor directing the renewed investigation to be the state's chief witness, pointed in turn to Carpender and Stevens and pitching her voice in a dramatic key said they were the men she saw at the crabapple tree the night of Sept. 14, 1922. Carpender, she said, had "something shiny" in his hand just before four shots were fired.

Mrs. Gibson said that while following a wagon she thought contained corn stolen from her, she came upon the alleged slayers and saw their faces in the glare of automobile headlights. A moccasin she said she lost in Dervey's lane, near where the bodies were found, was produced as evidence and identified by her. The circumstances of its finding were not revealed.

TRAFFIC RESUMED UNDER EAST RIVER TUNNELS

NEW YORK, Aug. 13—(AP)—Service on the Long Island railroad from Manhattan to Long Island via the two East river tunnels was resumed at 7:45 o'clock tonight, more than 36 hours after the heavy rains of yesterday had flooded the tunnels and caused a suspension of traffic.

The New York Telephone company announced that nearly 13,000 telephones in the metropolitan area, northern New Jersey and suburban Long Island were temporarily out of service as a result of the storm.

A check-up today showed that 31 buildings were struck by lightning in the metropolitan area late yesterday during the storm, one of the worst electrical disturbances ever witnessed in this city. A record rainfall of 4.3 inches in 12 hours was recorded.

ARGENTINE AVIATOR HAS COMPLETED HIS FLIGHT

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 13—(AP)—Bernardo Duggan, Argentine sportsman, who began a flight from New York to Buenos Aires on May 24, arrived at his destination at 3:53 o'clock this afternoon.

Arriving from Montevideo, the flier completed a trip which carried them about 16,000 kilometers (9,376 miles) in actual flying distance. Their flying time was 114 hours.

Immense crowds welcomed the aviators who were escorted to the government house where they were received by President Alvear.

Bernardo Duggan, Argentine sportsman, began his 5,920 mile flight to Buenos Aires from New York on May 24. He had hoped to make the trip in about three weeks, but poor weather, several accidents, and a delay of several weeks in South America held up the flight.

Postmaster Roland Baker of Boston was authorized to employ 23 additional regular letter carriers on August 16.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1181-2.

CITY GOT OFF LIGHTLY IN THURSDAY'S STORM DAMAGE

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 13—A check-up today of the damage done by the electrical storm which swept over this vicinity late Thursday afternoon showed that it was slight. Several trees were struck. The 50-foot chimney of the Goyer Manufacturing company plant, corner of Bank and Valley streets, was struck at the southeast corner and the outer layer of bricks was loosened for about ten feet. The bolt followed down the chimney blowing out the flue door at the base of the stack and the doors of the boilers in the engine room. Inspectors have been summoned to determine the exact amount of damage to the chimney. Some 65 lines, affecting 200 stations of the Southern New England Telephone service were put out of commission. Four underground cables in the city were damaged and as a result the services of the American Thread company and the lower end of the city was partially crippled. In Lebanon, ten lines, including 45 stations and four cable lines, were affected. Manager Frazier stated that the lines would be under repair for about two days. The burning out of fuses also caused trouble on some of the lines of the Western Union Telegraph company.

As stated, the power and lighting service of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company was also affected, but a quick shift for power was made to the Uncas Power company and electricity from that source was used until Friday morning, when regular connection with the New England Power company was resumed. There was some good to the storm, however, as the heavy rain which continued at intervals for several hours served to replenish brooks and rivers. Some of these smaller bodies of water were practically bone dry and farmers had had to carry water long distances to their stock. The water in the pumping station pond at Mansfield rose nine inches and Friday morning was but three inches below normal.

OHIO HOUSE ON WHEELS HAS COVERED 2,500 MILES

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 13—Charles Emaris, farmer, tobacco grower and tourist and his wife, from Brookville, Ohio, stopped in their unique "home on wheels" to look this town over Friday morning. They told readily made friends that they had already covered 2,500 miles on a three months' tour and were having a fine time. Their little home, which speeds about the country on the strength of an 85 horse power motor, offers all home comforts, lacking only the increasingly popular "cellar." The Emaris family has been touring in Canada. Mr. Emaris was anxious to reach Connecticut because he had heard that tobacco is grown under screens here.

From the family home, 806 Main street, the funeral of Mrs. Alfred Leclaire was held Friday morning. Requiem high mass in St. Mary's church at nine o'clock was sung by Rev. E. A. Mathieu. Special hymns were rendered by the Ste. Anne choir, with Mrs. J. F. Gaudreau at the organ. When being borne into the church the body was met by an escorting delegation of the Ste. Anne society, the banner bearers being Mrs. Gedeon Cote, Mrs. G. B. Pepin and Mrs. Odilon Lamontagne. The canopy bearers were Mrs. J. B. Beaulieu, Mrs. Philip Tellier, Mrs. Michael Burns and Mrs. Wilfred Roy. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives and beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were Henry Ledoux, Edward Florence, Raoul Lariviere, Herman Lariviere, Roderick Lariviere and George Leclaire. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery where Rev. Father Mathieu read the committal prayers.

A Nash touring car owned by Mrs. S. M. Najarian, 230 East Main street, New Britain, and operated by her husband, Marry Najarian was backed into a new Ford car demonstrator, owned by the Elmer Auto company of this city and driven by Harry Wales, of Scotland, on the new Chaplin-North Windham concrete highway at noon Friday. Constable Wilbur G. Stevens of North Windham who investigated, found that the New Britain car had come to a sudden stop in front of Moore's store in North Windham village. The driver had then shifted into reverse without giving a signal. The right front mudguard on the Ford was damaged. Brought before Captain of Police Frank McLean, the drivers were inclined to argue, but Najarian finally agreed to assume responsibility and he settled for the damages.

Andrew Thomas Nichols, 83, a native of Mansfield, Conn., died in Los Animas, Colo., August 5th. He was the son of Thomas and Hannah Nichols and a Civil war veteran, having made his home in the west since the close of the war. He leaves his wife, two sons, Frank and William and two daughters, Mrs. Belle Hanson and Mrs. Zula Bernard, all in the west, and a sister, Mrs. Amelia Paysone, of this city. Mr. Nichols was a member of the Baptist church and the G. A. R. in Los Animas.

Funeral services for Arland M. Chapman were held at three o'clock Friday afternoon at the family home in Scotland. Rev. M. Sanger officiated. Burial was in the Scotland cemetery. The bearers were Chauncey Gager, Elmer Carter, Robert Tomlinson and Morrih Roberts. Avery and Van Zandt had charge of the arrangements.

Owing to a serious automobile accident in the family of the groom, the marriage of Miss Helen Anna Cohen and Henry Leo Murwitz, which was to take place Sunday at the home of the bride, was quietly performed by Justice of the Peace Arthur T. Kelley Thursday, followed by a ceremony solemnized by Rabbi Silverman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Goldberg, in Hartford. The bride wore a king blue crepe roma traveling dress. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Cohen of 183 Pleasant street, a graduate of Windham high and the State Normal schools. She taught school in Groton for the past two years. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hurwitz of Boston, Mass. After a wedding trip through the middle west Mr. and Mrs. Hurwitz will make their home at Foster street, Brighton, Mass.

Detected driving his automobile to the left of the silent policeman on Lincoln square, Friday morning, Albert Yates of Philadelphia, claimed that he did not hear Traffic Officer Bombria's whistle as a warning to stop. Officer Bombria mounted his motorcycle and overtook the machine on West Main street. Yates put up a bond of $10 for his appearance in police court this (Saturday) morning on a charge of violating the traffic ordinances.

Miss Evelyn S. Bertrand was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home, 329 Union street, Thursday night in honor of her approaching marriage with Richard Herrick. Beautiful gifts were presented the bride-elect. The house was decorated with golden glow and larkspur. Present were Mrs. F. Herrick, Mrs. A. Vegiard, Mrs. M. Grimes, Mrs. A. Allard, Mrs. A. Fontaine, Mrs. Alfred Bertrand, Mrs. E. Palmer, Mrs. P. Gauvin, Mrs. R. Gauvin, Mrs. Delphis Boucher, Mrs. L. Bonin, Mrs. V. Gauvin, Mrs. Xavier Boucher, Mrs. D. Lebouef, Mrs. A. Deblois, Mrs. Arthur Bertrand and Misses Loretta Lussier, Blanche Caisse, Gilda, Yvonne and Florence Matte, Agnes, Beatrice and Dobina Bertrand, Delia Pageau, Jeannette Langlois, Donalda Lariviere, Paula Perreault, Alice and Agnes Turcotte, Rose Gingras, Rose Bergeron, Agnes Mullen, Margaret Hagen, Ethel Simonds, Anna Brindamour, Aldea and Rose Bertrand.

Fred Herricks, chef at the Connecticut Agricultural college reported to the police Thursday night that his Dodge roadster had been taken from where it was parked on Broad street, while he was attending a theatre. The car was found Friday morning on Selden street. The theory in that it had been taken by some one for a joy ride.

Notices from the state motor vehicle department received Friday by Chief of Police Thomas F. Grady were to the effect that the operators' licenses of Euclude J. Pimpare of 1231 Main street; Dobina Luciana of Birch street; Charles Carpenter of R. F. D. No. 1 and George W. Dorsey of 1027 Main street, all of this city, had been suspended from August 12, 1926.

Members of the Salvation Army Sunday school had a picnic and enjoyed the bathing at Lake Wangumbaug, South Coventry, Thursday. They traveled in a truck loaned by Fred Leclaire.

Briefly Stated

Mrs. Charles J. Gifford gave her young son Wallace a party on his second birthday at her home on Walnut street Friday afternoon.

Raymond F. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. D. Shafer and Misses Eva and Catherine Shafer of Dubois, Pa., arrived here for a week's visit with Mrs. McCarthy's aunt, Mrs. Katherine McCarthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashton C. Persons, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Gane and daughter, Sophia and Principal and Mrs. Egbert A. Case and daughter Virginia left Friday to spend a week in camp at Crystal Lake, Eastford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson are at Quonochontaug inn, Ashaway Beach, R. I., for a week.

Miss Mildred Johnson is the guest of Miss Margaret Dawson at Lake Wangumbaug.

Miss Florence Macfarlane has gone to spend the remainder of her vacation with friends at Martha's Vineyard, after a stay at Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Collins and son Wesley, of East Hartford, are week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Harroun.

LeGrand J. P. Fichthorn of Washington, D. C., arrives today (Saturday) to spend two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fichthorn.

Alderman and Mrs. Robert H. Fentoh have as guests for a week, their cousins, Misses Nancy and Mary Hoisington, of Rye, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Pollard and daughters, Misses Ruth and Evelyn left Friday to spend ten days at Pleasant View.

Miss Betty Ingle of Paris, France, a schoolmate of Miss Carolyn B. Cummings while there, is a guest of Miss Cummings at her home here for a week.

George A. Bowen will entertain Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown of Newark, N. J., over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hurteau have as guest, Mrs. Alma Toupin of New Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Everest are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. William A. Tracy and her son Arthur, of Windsor.

Miss Bernadette McCarthy of Boson is guest for a week of her aunt, Mrs. Katherine McCarthy.

Miss Alice Andertin of Washington, D. C., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wells S. Wilcox.

David Laidlaw of Ayrshire, Scotland, is a guest at the home of Arthur L. Bill.

Mrs. Romeo Benoit and son Billy have returned from a visit in New Haven.

Mrs. William Carnagan left Friday to visit in Greenwich and New York.

Mrs. Emma Dickson of Bristol is the guest for a few days of her daughters, of her daughters, Mrs. W. E. Hendry and Miss Anna Dickson.

SWALLOWS SONG BIRDS, SO THE COURT HAS RULED

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILIMANTIC, Aug. 13—Robert Vaughn, 22, William Ratcliff, 21, and Walter Leans, 18, all of New York city and summer vacationists at Columbia lake were in the Columbia town court last night for having killed swallows, which are recognized in the eyes of the law as being in the category of song birds. Complaints received by Grand Juror Joseph N. Clarke were to the effect that the boys had killed swallows more than once. Constable Harvey Collins served a warrant for the arrest of the three. Several witnesses testified that the young men had been shooting at the birds with a .22 calibre rifle. Constable Collins could only fine where two of the birds had been killed and Leans pleaded guilty to shooting them. The charges against the other two men were observed to illegally discharging firearms, but as the court could not find conclusive evidence against them, Vaughn and Ratcliff were discharged. Leans was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $18.55 which he paid. Justice of the Peace Robert P. Collins held the court session.

Raymond Palmer and Edward Johnson, of Andover, were charged with catching undersized black bass from the waters of Lake Wangumbaug, Saturday July 24, when presented in the Coventry town court Thursday night. Harry A. Codman, of Rockville, Tolland county game warden, the complainant in the case, claimed that each man had six black bass from one to one and one-half inches below the legal length, ten inches. The men admitted that they were taking a chance. Justice of the Peace Albert M. Gilman imposed fines of $5 and costs each for the first fish and one dollar each for the other five. The individual totals of fines and costs were $22.65.

The death of Luella Perkins, wife of Charles F. Larrow, occurred on Thursday afternoon at her home in North Windham, after a long illness. She was born in East Lyme, April 6, 1897, the daughter of Thomas E. and Frances Hathaway Perkins.

GALES FERRY

Recovering the roof and other repair work were begun on the Gales Ferry house on Janes avenue, at Willimantic camp ground Tuesday when C. Alton Chapman of the Lester district accompanied by Rev. Wilfred D. Hamilton, Dudley C. Perkins and J. Otis Winchester motored there and began the work which was to be concluded Friday. Women members of the camp house committee, Mrs. R. Irving Hurlbutt, Mrs. C. H. Bartlett and Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins motored there also Friday to attend to preparations for opening the house during the camp meeting which begins Saturday, Aug. 14. Mrs. C. H. Bartlett will be hostess of the house during camp meeting.

Residents here were given a fine view of the navy dirigible, Los Angeles Monday afternoon on her flight over and past the submarine base, coming nearly to Gales Ferry, floating in mid-air over the river before turning and flying in a south-easterly direction.

Mrs. Franklin H. Brown of Norwich who has made some improvement in health was able to motor here accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. V. Mann to her summer home at Red Fern cottage Wednesday.

A follow-up meeting of the annual community picnic committees was held at the M. E. vestry Monday evening with C. E. Colver, chairman.

Mrs. A. O. Faford accompanied her nephew, John Tweedly, who has been spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Faford to his home in Onset, Mass., Tuesday, and returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Noyes have as their guests this week their nieces, Agnes Lester Greenman and Mary Greenman of Norwich.

Mrs. Robert Clapp of Clark's Corner and her aunt, Mrs. Alice Murdock of Medford, Mass., who have been guests of Mrs. Susan M. Dean and family of Norwich at the residence of Nathan A. Gibbs, during the absence of Mr. Gibbs and Miss Gibbs, returned Thursday. Mrs. Murdock accompanied Mrs. Clapp to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Mathewson of Chicopee, Mass., motored here Monday to visit the former's sister, Miss Susan Mathewson.

Prof. and Mrs. Chester E. Demick have returned from a short visit to Miss Perry at Bristol, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. James Abbott of the Lester district entertained the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Peltier and her daughter, Miss Vila Peltier, with Miss Alice Shebeault all of Occum last week.

Miss Caroline B. Freeman has returned after two weeks' visit in Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Rev. and Mrs. Wilfred D. Hamilton with their children have taken a cottage at Willimantic camp ground and are leaving here Saturday. Rev. George H. Wright will supply the M. E. church Sunday August 15 Rev. Mr. Hamilton is beginning a two weeks' vacation including the camp meeting.

The Long Cove auxiliary of the Ladies' Aid society held the Wednesday afternoon meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. Fred E. Richards.

Mrs. George St. John Sheffield of Providence was a dinner guest Friday of Mrs. E. H. Latimer while motoring to New Haven from Providence.

Mrs. Latham A. Smith was a dinner guest Wednesday of her relatives, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen in Norwich.

Mrs. Ella H. Bigelow and her sister, Miss Nellie Wood of Webster, Mass., who have been spending some time at the home of Mrs. Lucy B. Hempstead on their annual visit, returned home Monday.

NORTH STONINGTON

Miss Mary T. Maine, principal of Brandwood Hall school, Bronxville, N. Y., after ten days' visit at her home here, returned to Bronxville Wednesday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. F. T. Whitman.

Miss Dorothy Partington, who was graduated recently from the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, is with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Inot Partington at the Congregational parsonage.

Miss Constance Pendleton is visiting a college friend in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. H. M. Pendleton and Miss Delia A. Wheeler were in Boston last week. From there they took a motor trip along the north shore and another trip down Cape Cod.

Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Fisher of Sutton, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson Fisher, from the west, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norton M. Fisher, at Wheeler school dormitory.

A new organ has been installed in the Congregational church.

Mrs. Ralph P. Wheeler, a patient in Westerly hospital, is reported in a critical condition.

Mrs. H. M. Perkins spent last week end with friends in Providence.

Warren W. Brown is in failing health.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Avery are entertaining a party of family friends.

The Baptist Sunday school held its annual picnic at Atlantic Beach Wednesday, with a large attendance of members and friends. A fine dinner of sandwiches, salads, pie, cake, fruit, coffee and lemonade was served, under direction of Superintendent Herbert L. Maine, assisted by Mrs. Maine and the teachers of the school. The children were treated to ice cream.

Clarence R. Maine made a business trip to New York Wednesday.

OCCUM & VERSAILLES

The villages of Occum and Versailles, in common with neighboring places, suffered from the severe electrical storm of Thursday afternoon. Telephones were put out of commission, limbs stripped from trees and numerous washouts were reported.

Lightning entered the dynamo room of the Totokett Manufacturing company's plant burning out the generator which furnishes light to its employes and the churches. Private owners of both villages receiving their light from the Eastern Connecticut Power Co., had their lights turned off on account of power trouble.

When a cork has fallen inside a bottle, if enough strong ammounia to float the cork is poured into the bottle and allowed to stand a few days, it will break or eat up the cork so that it can be easily removed.

WESTERLY

AUTO CASES FIGURE IN COURT TRIALS FRIDAY

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 13—In the Third District court Friday morning Judge Oliver H. Williams read the dockets.

In the case of State, Thomas E. Brown vs. Ralph A. Wolcott of Providence, Mr. Wolcott was charged with the operation of an automobile August 10th on the shore road recklessly. This complaint followed the wrecking of a Stuts roadster, which climbed the bank by the roadside and turned upside down on the stone wall, as the result of which three men were cared for at the Westerly hospital. He entered a plea of not guilty and requested a continuance of two weeks, so that parties now in the hospital might be in better condition. Town Solicitor Ferguson asked for but one week's continuance and the case was set down to be tried on Friday next. Recogizance was required in the sum of $500.

State vs. John Cummings. This case in which a previous plea of not guilty was retracted to one of guilty. State Trooper Riddell told the court that the defendant was stopped when operating his automobile at a forty-five mile per hour rate in the built up section at Pleasant View. The respondent told the court that it was impossible to operate a Ford truck at such a rate, but the state trooper insisted that his speedometer had been tested. The offense occurred at 4.05 p. m. from Lamb's store to a point near The Andrea. Judge Williams imposed a fine of $50 and costs.

State, Thomas E. Brown vs. Arthur B. Prentice of New London. This complaint of the operation of an automobile under the influence of liquor was continued two weeks for it was stated to the court that one important witness who could not be present, Attornies John C. Geary and Arthur Keefe of New London appeared in court to represent the defendant. Mr. Geary said that he would like the longer continuance also because the day was Friday the 13th and he was in a strange land and would also like to be away on a vacation. Although Mr. Ferguson demurred on the longer continuance, saying that the calendar would be clogged, he agreed to the longer continuance. Recognizance was required in the sum of $500 bonds.

Civil docket, Clifton D. Hall vs. Angelo Pucci. Continued nisi. Hazard J. Lord vs. Tefft Motor Mart. Continued one week. Addison S. Archie vs. H. A. Flood, alias. Continued nisi. Angelo J. Capuccio vs. William J. Smith. Continued one week. Charles A. Fuller, collector of taxes of the town of Richmond vs. Charles W. Barber. Continued two weeks. Charles A. Fuller, collector of taxes of the town of Richmond vs. William F. Perkins. Continued two weeks. Arthur C. Harvey company vs. William McKnight. Continued one week.

On the trial calendar, Charles P. Darrington was arraigned on complaint of Chief Thomas E. Brown that July 29th he did steal from Harry W. Maxson a Buick automobile value of $1000. Judge Williams adjudged the respondent probably guilty and bound him over to September 20th in bonds of $2000, to await the action of the grand jury in the September term of superior court for Washington county, at Kingstown, R. I.

William J. Moylan of Hartford was arraigned on complaint of Chief Brown that on August 8th he operated an automobile on Atlantic avenue, Pleasant View, recklessly. A plea of not guilty was entered and he was ready for trial.

Robert M. Kessel, Westerly motorcycle patrolman on duty at Pleasant View, August 8th at 7.30 p. m. on Atlantic avenue, saw the defendant pass three cars ahead in front of the Wigwam hotel, while operating a Ford coupe up Atlantic avenue and bound for home.

Judge Williams found the defendant guilty and fined him $100 and costs. The respondent's lawyer said this was an unfair decision and in asking for mitigation or fine, said he was one of a family of ten children. In overlooking some of the statement made said the violation was most flagrant and that the necessity of witnesses from Hartford was not shown. Arrangements were made for the taking of a appeal.

Andrew Mennick, charged with operation of an automobile, while under the influence of liquor, withdrew previous plea of not guilty and admitted sufficient evidence to convict, amounting to a plea of nolo. Pleas for clemency were made by Attorneys Flynn and Ledwidge in substance that domestic relations between Mr. and Mrs. Mennick had been improved and that the husband of two small children had been taught a lesson. Judge Williams in consideration that the accused had passed two days in jail, found him guilty and fined him $10 and costs.

In a case of Deputy Chief of Police William L. Kay of Hopkinton, for a motor traffic violation, Attorney Robert Mason of New York appeared to answer for the defendant, saying that Mr. and Mrs. Mason could not appear and wished to present affidavits. Judge Williams informed him that the defendant must appear in court in person. A continuance to September 10 was granted.

Horace Lindfors of 387 East 31st street, New York, entered a plea of guilty with a request for explanation to the complaint of Chief Brown in failing to stop in Westerly on August 12th, when signalled by an officer. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed.

Richard L. Coon for the operation of an automobile on the shore road on July 31st in a reckless manner, was a case which occupied the rest of the forenoon and in the afternoon session up at 3.30 o'clock, when Judge Williams directed the discharge of the defendant.

Present in New London Thursday and in attendance at the custom house in addition to those previously named, at the hearing before United States Commissioner Russell H. Cochran of the case of the United States vs. Max Uovogroski of Westerly, charged with the obstruction of a navigatible stream were Col. Arthur N. Nash of Westerly, formerly of Pawcatuck who conducts a news stand in the Barrows block. Others present were William J. Phetteplace, a bostman on the Pawcatuck river for a number of years and a number from Westerly and Pawcatuck.

Recorded in the office of the Westerly town clerk are the following transfers:

August 11. Harold Doney to Ethel R. Doney, land with buildings and improvements on the west side of Hobart street.

August 12. Nellie C. Donahue to Concetiana Grilli, land on the west side of East avenue.

DEATH OF WARREN W. BROWN AT NORTH STONINGTON

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 13.—Warren W. Brown, 83, Civil war veteran, died at his home in North Stonington this morning. He was born in North Stonington Sept. 30, 1842, the son of Smith Brown and Rahabah Miner Brown. During the Civil war he was a member of Co. G, 21st Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, and saw service in many of the major engagements of the war. Upon his return he lived mainly in Providence, where for several years he was a foreman for the Providence Telephone Co. During that time he superintended the installation of the first telephone in the town of North Stonington, at the residence of W. H. Phillips.

He returned to North Stonington to make his home about seven years ago. He was united in marriage with Mary Bliven of Westerly, who died in 1919. Surviving him are a son and daughter, Frank H. Brown of North Stonington and Miss Eunice V. Brown of New Haven.

ASSUMPTION OF THE VIRGIN TO BE NOTED BY ITALIANS

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 13.—Pawcatuck residents of Italian birth will fittingly observe the Feast of Madonna della Assunta Sunday, the day's program, starting with religious service in the morning and ending at 10 o'clock in the evening with a display of fireworks. At 8 o'clock in the morning high mass will be celebrated at St. Michael's church, and at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon a procession will be held through the streets in the vicinity of the church. The Willimantic Italian Citizens' band will parade through the business section of the town at 3 o'clock and adjournment will then be taken to the lot at the end of Stillman avenue. There will be two concerts by the Willimantic band, one for the afternoon and the other at 7 in the evening. The fireworks display is scheduled to start at 10 o'clock. As all the Pawcatuck citizens of Italian descent are expected to take part in the various activities of the day, the committee in charge, of which Joseph Marco is chairman, has requested their fellow countrymen not to work tomorrow.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Crandall, 95, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William E. Spear in Pawcatuck, Rev. A. L. Schoning, pastor of the Broad street Christian church conducted the services. Burial was at River Bend cemetery. There were beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were William Stillman, William Spear, Sr., Henry Crandall and William Patterson.

For a return match between teams of the Winnapaug Golf club of Westerly and the Norwich club at Norwich, Sunday, eleven Westerly players under the management of William R. Chapman will go to the Rose of New England. The players named to go from here follow: Jim Dowd, club professional; James McCormick, club champion; Jack Hennessey, Frank G. Ahern, M. Walter Flynn, Jr., Maurice Nye, William Chapman, S. H. Davis, Clarence E. Roche, John L. Twomey and C. Leo Higgins. The first match is scheduled to start at 9:30. In the first meeting of the teams two weeks ago on the Winnapaug course the local players scored a 16 to 3 victory by the Nassau system of scoring.

Brevities

Trainmaster William J. Smith from New London was a Westerly visitor Friday.

Jabez West of Norwich was a Westerly business visitor Friday.

Bourdon A. Babcock has been confined to his home in Pawcatuck by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ward Alger and daughter, Betty, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Alger and son, Jarvis of Pittsburg, motored to Rocky Point Thursday.

Due to rain floods in New York Friday the early morning Pennsylvania railroad expressed, Federal and New England, were several hours late in making the Westerly station stop.

William Segar and William W. Pike have returned after an automobile trip to the Berkshires.

Mrs. Waldo Gardiner of Exeter, was a Westerly caller Thursday.

The Thursday evening band concert in Wilcox park was postponed on account of rain.

MYSTIC

Darkness settled over the village about 6 p. m. Thursday and soon a terrific tempest was raging and it was necessary to use lights and soon they were put out and did not come back until about 9 p. m. It was necessary to use lamps and candles. The down pour of rain was heavy and was greatly needed.

The Sadona mills were unable to run Thursday night owning to the electric service being crippled. Considering the severity of the storm Mystic was fortunate in not having more damage done.

The Old Mystic Baptist church Sunday school had its annual picnic at Atlantic Beach Thursday. The bus furnished transportation and the picnickers were delayed in returning owing to the thunder tempest and rain.

The Mystic W. C. T. U. was invited to join the Pawcatuck union in a picnic at Atlantic Beach Thursday and those who went were the president, Mrs. W. H. Lamb, Mrs. A. E. Cutler, Mrs. C. E. Newbury, Mrs. Martha Stinson, Mrs. Mary S. Brown, Mrs. Abbie Chapman, Mrs. Henry Chesebro, Misses Clara S. and Emily N. Murphy and Mrs. Jabez Brook of Old Mystic.

Rev. J. G. Osborn of Danbury is to preach in the Union Baptist church at both services. The adult Sunday school is to be held as usual.

Mrs. Robert Clapp has returned to her home at Clark's corner, after visiting Mrs. Stephen Austin at Fort Rachel place.

Odell D. Tompkins and daughter, Lucy, returned Thursday from a short stay at Mount Vernon, N. Y. Friends accompanied them for a visit.

Mrs. James Berth and daughter, Edith, of New York, are visiting Mrs. Berth's sister, Mrs. Ellery Burdick.

Mrs. Myra Brown Dawson of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Buildons.

Dr. C. F. Congdon was at Stonington town farm Thursday.

Rev. George P. Jones is to preach at Old Mystic Baptist church Sunday morning.

Miss Florence M. Johnson has returned from a visit at Martha's Vineyard, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Wilcox of Quilambaug left Friday afternoon for Kingston to join the Connecticut delegation and the Rhode Island Saturday morning at Roger Williams park, to attend the New England grange lecturers' conference. This is to be held at the State Agricultural college, Orono, Maine, Aug. 16-17-18. Mrs. Wilcox is lecturer of Stonington grange, Miss Schroder lecturer of Mystic grange is to attend also.

YANTIC

Mrs. E. Morrison, of New Haven spent a brief time Thursday with local friends.

Miss Goldie Fishbone, Miss Rosie Fishbone and Miss Sarah Fishbone are spending the week in Gloucester, guests of the Misses Katz.

Miss Kate Lyons has returned to her home in Worcester, after two weeks' stay with Yantic relatives.

Roll Carden is spending the week at Gardner's Point with his aunt, Mrs. Louis Engler.

Mrs. Samuel Carden and daughters Grace and Marion have returned, after a brief stay at Gardner's Point with Mrs. Carden's sister, Mrs. Engler.

Miss Anna Brennan, Miss Mary Brennan and Miss Nellie Lyons, of Peace Dale, R. I., were guests at Pine Tree cottage, early in the week.

Mrs. Charles N. Congdon has returned to Stafford Springs after a stay of several days with Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Congdon.

Henry Homisky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Homisky was taken to W. W. Backus hospital Monday night because of an acute attack of appendicitis. He is resting comfortably.

Miss Ruth Lee of Hanover was a recent guest of Miss Marion Gibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Briggs and daughters Ruth and Gladys have returned, after a lengthy stay at Lord's Point.

Kenneth Hamilton has returned from a brief stay in Montville.

VOLUNTOWN

Monday evening Annie M. Petroman, Jr., of Griswold, was presented before Justice of the Peace Warren E. Tanner, charged with driving an automobile Saturday evening, without having an operator's license. The accused pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs amounting to $18.55. State Policeman Gardner of Danielson and Deputy Sheriff Dolan of Jewett City, made the arrest. Grand Juror Thomas M. Donald prosecuted.

Tuesday evening the Jewett City All Stars defeated the local ball team 6 to 5. The game proved to be a hectic affair with some good playing and a good deal of comedy.

The locals threw the game away in the third inning, allowing five runs to be scored after the side should have been retired. A seventh inning rally brought in three runs. It was claimed that a poor decision at the plate in this inning robbed them of a tie score. The game was close and exciting in the last stages and the visitors went home elated. Dudkowski's home run was a feature of the game.

The registrars of voters met last Friday afternoon to enroll electors for the perviliege of voting at the coming caucuses. Another session was held Friday from noon until 9 a. m. for the same purpose.

The sympathy of the Community has been extended to Mr. and Mrs. George R. Edmond's in the death of their infant son, David.

A large number of Norwich people passed through the village Sunday to attend the closing of the Older Scouts' camp, at Camp Tippecan, at Beach Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Boucher and daughter Lillian are guests at the home of Mr. Boucher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boucher.

Leo Derosier of the Coast Guard station, Block Island has spent five days' furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Derosier.

Mrs. Hazel Hall of Hillsgrove, R. I., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bigood.

Large numbers of local people who have been thrown out of work by the closing of the mills are finding work in other plants near by. Norwich Falls, Taftville, Mystic, Goodyear and Jewett City have been supplied with some hands from this village.

PLAINFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Chaput and daughter, Miss Blanche Chaput, of Plainfield arrived home Wednesday on the 7:17 p. m. train after a trip of five weeks in Canada. They visited Montreal, Quebec, also St. Anne De Beaupre, P. Q. where some of Mr. Chaput's relatives live. They also visited London, St. Joachim, Belle River, Windsor, Walkerville and Ford City, Ont. Mrs. Chaput has two sisters and three brothers living in that section. While away Mrs. Chaput met one of her uncles Delphis Dufrane whom she had not seen for 35 years. On their return trip they visited Detroit and Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and Albany and many other places.

While in Canada they rode over 3,500 miles in train and automobile. Miss Blanche Chaput has a collection of views taken with her camera to show to her friends on her return home. While visiting Canada, Mrs. Chaput was taken in the Hotel Dieu (hospital) Windsor, Ont., for a serious operation in the head performed by Dr. W. G. Douglas, a specialist of Windsor and has been under Dr. Douglas's care for two weeks. She is now feeling greatly improved.

COLCHESTER.

Gilbert J. Murray and Samuel McDonald were in Norwich Thursday.

A heavy storm passed over the village Thursday afternoon commencing about three o'clock. It was accompanied by high wind, thunder and lightning, although Colchester evidently did not get the brunt of the storm. The rain fell in torrents. Cars were obliged to come to a standstill as the rain and wind beat against the windshields so that the drivers were unable to see ahead. The rain was badly needed as water in several wells about town was getting low.

Charles T. Wilson of Worcester was in town Thursday.

Soby Sterns was in Hartford Wednesday. Mr. Sterns and party will leave here Sunday morning for a trip through Northern New England and Canada. They expect to be gone about a week.

Wooster chapter O. E. S. held its annual picnic at Sears Park East Hampton Thursday. A large number of the members attended and had a good time although the storm broke up the gathering early.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Morgan and daughter Miss Katherine returned Thursday from a 10 days' automobile trip through northern New England. The trip was made in Miss Morgan's car.

Robert A. Millar of Hartford was in town Thursday. Mr. Millar is at his summer cottage at Hayward's Lake.

Colchester Fire Co. No. 1 held a meeting in the parlor of the Fire station Thursday evening. The company is to hold a bazaar this month and the committees report progress in the arrangements. There will be a parade before the opening. The Moodus drum corps will furnish music. It is planned to have the old members of the Hayward Fire company turn out with the old hand engine in the parade. There are of the original company which was organized in 1884 ten in town and an invitation has been extended them to take part.

Several members of Co. No. 1 will attend the big parade in New London.

Mrs. Sarah J. Bingham, who has been confined to her home for the past nine weeks with a broken leg is able to get about the house again.

At the First Congregational church, Rev. W. O. Berckman, pastor, there is planned a missionary service Sunday night 7:30 (S. T.) Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Hoadley Berckman, foreign missionaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, stationed at Shanghai, China, are to present in addresses, stories, and objects, missionary life and trave land Christian service in China.

HEBRON

Mrs. Howard Hart and children of Cromwell and Mrs. Kneeland Jones, of Bolton, called on relatives and friends Wednesday.

The Sunday schools and community picnic is to be held at Columbia Lake Tuesday Aug. 17.

Mrs. F. H. Raymond, Mrs. E. A. Raymond and daughter Ruth attended the Ladies' Aid society meeting in Westchester Friday.

Members of the W. O. W. were entertained at the home of C. W. Kinney Wednesday evening. Mrs. Kinney served a bountiful lunch.

The fastest revolving wheel in the world, according to estimates of experts, is the turbine wheel on the special supercharger of the airplane used by Lieut John Macready in his recent attempts to better the world's altitude record. It revolves at the almost inconceivable speed of 40,000 revolutions a minute—almost 700 a second, says Popular Science Monthly. This is about twenty times the highest speed of an automobile crankshaft.

ICED "SALADA" TEA

T107

Dispels summer fatigue. Try it.

Most Women

Have stopped old hygienic methods to assure real immaculacy. NEW way gives true protection—discards like tissue

FEW modern women but employ a new and different way in hygiene. A way that supplants the old-time "sanitary pad" with true protection.

Wear filmy frocks and light things . . . any time. Dance, motor for hours without doubt or fear.

It is called "KOTEX" . . . five times as absorbent as the ordinary cotton pad!

Thoroughly deodorizes . . . thus ending ALL fear of offending.

✓ Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You ask for it without hesitancy at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." Costs only a few cents. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

KOTEX

No laundry—Discard like tissue

These new-type Willys-Knight cars offer

7 Major Principles of European Design

Why this new "70" Willys-Knight Six has stepped into first place in sales in the shortest time on record

WHEN the new "70" Willys-Knight Six was first announced 7 months ago, we told you that here was a new-era car . . . modernly designed, modernly engineered . . .

That it would out-perform anything that had ever been built of its size or type or price-class.

We told you it was the liveliest car of its price ever built . . .

That it presented an order of efficiency and economy all its own.

We told you about its European-type mechanical 4-wheel brakes—the same type of braking system you find on 97% of foreign cars—that would give you a new conception of quick stopping.

We told you that, with more compact external dimensions, the new "70" Willys-Knight Six provided more inside room than any other car of its wheelbase you had ever driven.

That was 7 months ago.

What happened in the interval?

In the first thirty days, the new "70" Willys-Knight Six was the talk of America.

A new order of performance had come . . .

Modern engineering had provided a new sensation for the jaded motoring palate.

Within 60 days the new "70" Willys-Knight Six had swept this country from one end to the other . . .

It had arrived . . .

$1495 For This Deluxe Knight Motored 4-Door Sedan

F. O. B. factory

Speed between 60 and 70 honest miles an hour. Extraordinarily long sustained high speed. Power on any hill to pass most cars in high. Quick as a cat—5 to 25 miles in 7½ seconds. Powerful four-wheel mechanical brakes, the last word in safety. 34 horsepower, long stroke motor, rated at 20. The tax saving is only part of its economy.

It was a proven proposition . . . It had more than lived up to every claim we had made for it.

From the start, the news spread like wildfire. Sales were tremendous.

One owner told another.

The story spread.

The new "70" Willys-Knight Six has become the fastest-selling new Six in its price class.

And each

DANIELSON

ANTONIO NAPOLIAN STABBED—NO ONE WILL CLAIM BODY

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 13—Relatives here will not claim the body of Antonio Napolian, 33, who is dead of stab wounds inflicted in a row over a card game in Chelsea, Mass. A telegram from Chelsea police asked Chief John McFarland to notify Napolian's relatives here of the man's death. The request was fulfilled, but the body will not be claimed by anyone here. Mrs. Napolian has been living apart from he husband for more than a year, she having the care of one of their children here, while he took charge of the other one.

Ralph Cacciaputi, 34 a cousin of Napolian's is held to face a first degree murder charge because of the death. Napolian was stabbed four times in a fight over a card game the past week end and lingered through a part of the present week before he died. He is alleged to have told the police that there four men in the game, but Cacciaputi says that only he and Napolian were playing and that his attack upon the man now dead was made only in self defence.

Cacciaputi escaped after the stabbing was discovered but later gave himself up to police. As the police knew where to find a wife in Wilkinsonville, Mass. and was apt to try and make her way there, they covered the railroad stations and arrested him as he [illegible] to take a train.

[illegible] lived in Danielson for a [illegible] and been employed [illegible] Mass and by the [illegible] company as a weaver. He [illegible] about a year ago and was [illegible] wife, who is now [illegible] her parents at the Mazz[illegible] two miles east of [illegible] Providence road.

[illegible] Napolian well gave [illegible] other picture of him [illegible] said that Napolian was a [illegible] he would work. [illegible] Gambling was [illegible] He fared little or [illegible] but could [illegible] fare of the gam[illegible] He would work for two or [illegible] ending his [illegible] He has been [illegible] and then [illegible] came to a busi[illegible] and asked for [illegible] going to Webster. [illegible] with an [illegible] It is not recalled [illegible] spent any time in [illegible] wife and one of [illegible] here.

[illegible] more or less of an [illegible] since he left [illegible] that he had not [illegible] a great deal and [illegible] to gamble whenever [illegible] for that purpose.

EAST KILLINGLY ISOLATED—TROLLEY RAILS REMOVED

[illegible] to the Bulletin)

[illegible], Aug. 13—East Killingly is witnessing the completion [illegible] from the outside world [illegible] transportation service. The rails of the [illegible] company's trolley line between [illegible] and East Killingly are [illegible] and the overhead [illegible] certain parts of it as are [illegible] also will be removed [illegible] being taken over [illegible] to be added on flat cars [illegible] to such destinations as [illegible].

[illegible] East Killingly experienced a bad break in a trolley [illegible] transportation to all [illegible] Pawtucket and Providence. [illegible] passing of the old [illegible] Danielson road, the [illegible] taken out between East Killingly [illegible] North Scituate. Last year [illegible] were taken up between North [illegible] and the Providence city line. [illegible] of last year the Connecticut [illegible] suspended service on all [illegible] and since that date [illegible] has been without either [illegible] or motor coach service. Residents [illegible] there keenly feel the loss of [illegible] transportation facilities, and [illegible] hoped almost against hope that [illegible] means of giving them service [illegible] be found. It is claimed by transportation [illegible] authorities that a line to East Killingly does not provide enough [illegible] to meet operating costs, even [illegible] a motor coach line.

So the removal of the rails of the last link of the old P. and D. road between Elmville and East Killingly is [illegible] underway, the distance about four miles. East Killingly people feel a bit sentimental about it. The work recalls to memory the days when East Killingly enjoyed its service by trolley in and out of Providence and Danielson and to all points along the line. The community feels isolated now. However, there is the prospect of Rhode Island and Connecticut extending a motor bus trunk line highway over the old Providence-Hartford pike through East Killingly, and when work is done there will be the usual motor coach service and East Killingly people can get about again without seeking private transportation.

[illegible] tonight. Kum-Along-Inn [illegible]. West Side Good music.—Adv.

A number of people in Brooklyn will [illegible] witness that the new fire horn [illegible] the central fire station can be heard [illegible] long distance whatever Danielson [illegible] say about its being sort of anemic and weak-lunged. In fact the horn stirred up a commotion over in that community when it blew in a box call [illegible] recent evening.

There is no denying that the horn does send forth a sort of sound that resembles one of a cow in bellowing distress. Hearing it over in Brooklyn just as one was returning from a motor trip, one woman made a dash for her home, under the spell of an impression that a wild cow or bull was roaming the neighborhood. About the same time another Brooklyn woman telephoned the company all over there to inquire if some farm bull was loose. She was informed that such was not the case. Best of all though, is the report from one Brooklyn woman, relative to returning home shortly after 10 o'clock and trying to find the place locked up. She had been at Danielson attending the theater. Finally gaining admittance she found her daughter, terrified and with a gun on the table awaiting some strange calamity. The daughter explained that she had heard the cry of some terrible beast out in the backyard and had locked the house and brought out the revolver to repel any attack it might make.

From all of this it would appear that the fire horn can be heard at long distances from its location.

Young men who live hereabouts and happen to be at a loss to know what to do with themselves will have an opportunity to get into Uncle Sam's service next week if they so desire. Beginning [illegible] a recruiting party will come here from Providence to enlist men for the various branches of the service. A recruiting tent is to be erected at some central point in the borough and from [illegible] members of the recruiting force will work. It is stated that applicants can be enlisted at this time for practically any branch of the service.

Aside from putting numbers of telephones out of order and making trouble for the electric light people, it did not appear Friday that the severe thunderstorms of Thursday afternoon and night did any great damage in this immediate territory. Four telephone poles were reported splintered by lightning near South Killingly.

Considerable work has been done on school buildings in various parts of the town of Killingly during the long vacation period. A metal ceiling has been put in the primary room in the Dayville school and desks and seats at the schools in Dayville, Goodyear, Killingly Center, Ballouville, Attawaugan and the valley have been cleaned and varnished. Electric lights have been installed in all rooms in the Danielson, Dayville and Goodyear schools. A water system, with bubbler, sinks, etc., has been installed in the Attawaugan school. Running water is being supplied for the Ballouville and Valley schools.

When the annual meeting of the Brooklyn Center Fire district is held the coming week a matter before the voters will be a proposal to extend the limits of the district to take in certain additional properties northerly on the Danielson highway and thence southerly along the Pomfret highway.

At St. Vincent's hospital in Worcester, Mrs. Joseph Natorski is steadily improving, after undergoing a surgical operation.

Mr. and Mrs Stephen Major and son, Elmer, are on a motor trip in Canada.

Donat Gaudreau has been at Edgartown, Mass., for a week's vacation.

Rev and Mrs. Harding W Gaylord have been on a motor trip through the White Mountain region the past week.

The first meeting of McGregor, W. R. C. in a number of weeks is scheduled to be held next Wednesday evening.

Dr. Hugh B. Campbell was at the health station in the town hall Friday from 10 to 12 to conduct a clinic.

Raymond Stone and members of his family from Bedford Springs have been visiting with Mrs. Ella Stone of Academy street for a few days.

Misses Ruth Spalding and Helen Hutchins are attending the summer school of Religious Education at Storrs.

Mrs. Frank Young has returned to Hartford after visiting in Danielson for a few days.

Leo N. Bousquet of Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending a vacation with his mother, Mrs. Omer Bousquet.

This week's talk before the members of the Danielson Rotary club was by Roland H. Gray, his subject "Tire Fabrics."

Mrs. Eva Bodo and Miss Annie Gates have been spending a few days at Oakland Beach.

Miss Nellie Head of Academy street fell, after stepping upon a spool, and suffered a severe sprain of the wrist.

PUTNAM

James E. Murray, past exalted ruler of Putnam lodge, No. 574, B. P. O. E., gave a very interesting report of the Elks convention at the last meeting of the lodge. Mr. Murray was the delegate from the local lodge to the convention at Chicago.

Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, has published the honor roll for the last semester. Honors of the First Grade include the names of Raymond L. Pierce of Putnam and Carl A. Gaissler of Abington. Both young men are graduates of the Putnam high school.

Frank G. Dean, for the past year connected with the gas department of the Putnam Light and Power company, and The Danielson Gas and Electric company has a position with a stove company at Providence.

Judge and Mrs. F. F. Russell have returned from an automobile trip through northern New England, mostly through New Hampshire. They made stops are Plymouth, Lincoln and other places, making the journey in a leisurely manner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sanderson, Mrs. Orin Weeks, Miss Nellie Kent and Miss Mabel Kent have returned from an automobile trip over Bear Mountain Bridge into New York state to King's Highway to West Point and through the Catskills returned by way of the Berkshire Hills to Northhampton, Mass., and from there home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Newton Vaughn have returned from a vacation spent at various resorts in New Hampshire. Part of the time they were at Lincoln where they met Mr and Mrs Ralph C. Jenkins of this city. Mr. Jenkins has charge of a summer school there.

Emily Z. Heath of Putnam has been appointed executrix of the estate of Clarence E. Heath, late of Putnam by Judge David Flagg.

William Feye of Worcester has been the guest of Miss Doris Card of Frank street.

Mr. and Mrs. Madison Lane have been the guests of Mrs. Madison's mother, Mrs. Lydia Whittemore at Webster, Mass.

Miss Mildred McPherson of Webster has been the recent guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Benoit and little son, have returned from a weeks vacation at Webster Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Holden are making an automobile trip to Pleasant Harbor, Me., to spend two weeks' vacation. They will stop for a short visit at Boston.

Mr. and Mrs John H Moss and little son Joseph Russell, were returned from a visit with Mrs. Moss' mother Mrs J. J. Russell at her summer home at Juniper Point, Brooklin Harbor Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Williams of Center street have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peck of Bridgeport for a few days. Mrs. N. P. Greenlaw mother of Mrs. Williams who has been visiting them for several weeks returned to Bridgeport with them. They made the trip by automobile.

Mrs Robert King and two children of Bridgeport are guests of Mrs. King's parents, Mr and Mrs. Thomas Marlow of Barrow street.

Ruby Booth, Dorothy Morse Gladys Shaller and Mary Cody are at Crystal Lake this week with a camping party.

George Fourtelotte is spending this week with his mother, Mrs. Ada Tourtelotte of South Main street.

Prof. and Mrs. Malcolm Wiley have been guests of Prof. Wiley's mother Mrs Helen Wiley and grandmother Mrs. Macdonald on Oak Hill. Prof. Wiley is one of the instructors in sociology at Dartmouth college.

Mrs Grace A West, housekeeper at the Keith garage will leave Sunday for Washington, D. C., for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett of New Haven, formerly of Putnam, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McAllister, who are spending the summer with Mrs. McAllister's mother, Mrs. Janet Shepard on the Senexit Road.

Old Home day will be held on September 2nd at G. P. Burrill's Pine Grove on the Putnam and Providence road. This is an annual event with the people of East Putnam.

During the next three Sundays the Methodist church will be closed and the Union services will be held at the Second Congregational church. August 22 will be camp meeting Sunday at Willimantic when it is expected that a number of the congregation will attend. There is to be no church school for the balance to the month at either of the two churches.

Miss Gladys Young of South Woodstock has returned from New Haven where she has been attending Yale summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tourtelotte left this week for two weeks' automobile trip and will visit at Alton Bay, N. H., and other points in New Hampshire.

Armond Lizotte was in Boston Friday on a business trip.

John H. Bulger of this city left Thursday morning for Burlington, Vt., to attend the funeral of his sister, Miss Winifred Bulger, who died suddenly late Wednesday night.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

YOUTHS TRANSPORTING BEER—DRIVER IN TOLLAND JAIL

(Special to the Bulletin)

STAFFORD SPRINGS, Aug. 13—Overtaken by State Police Officer Wills and Sergeant Harmon of the local barracks of the state police, on the Stafford-Union road yesterday, John DeMorris, 20, of 161 Milbury St., Worcester, driver of a Reo truck containing 200 cases of beer, and his companion, Edward R. Murphy, 17, of 36 School street, Boston, were arrested by the officers and brought to the borough lockup.

The boys were in borough court on Thursday afternoon before Judge William H. Heald, charged with transporting spirituous liquors without a government permit. De Morris, the driver, was fined $450 and costs of $22.25 and sentenced to forty days in Tolland county jail. His companion, Murphy, drew a fine of $150 and costs of $16.25, on the same charge, as an accessory.

In both instances the fines and costs were paid by friends of the boys from Worcester who were reached by telephone during the day and came to the borough court with sufficient funds to pay up the charges. DeMorris was taken to the Tolland county jail Thursday evening by an officer from the local barracks.

The truck containing the load of beer, a valuable cargo, with 24 bottles to each of the 200 cases manufactured to retail at 25c a bottle, was registered in Massachusetts as the property of the L. & P. Transportation company (New York and Boston) of Worcester, Mass. Owners of the truck took it back to Worcester on Thursday night.

DeMorris, who was apparently unfamiliar with the route from Springfield to Worcester and was several miles out of the direct course from Springfield when his truck was stalled with a flat tire, claimed that it was his first trip as a booze runner. After being delayed with the trouble DeMorris had just driven through the borough when he was observed by a local sleuth who telephoned the barracks. The suspected load of liquor was seized on the Stafford-Union road, after officers had scouted on both the Staffordville and Union road for the boys. All claim to the cargo was waived by DeMorris and the beer was stored in a local vault to await the order for destruction which will issue from the borough court.

A lawn festival has been held at St. Joseph's parish in Staffordville this week, to defray the expenses of renovating the chapel, work on which was recently completed. Booths with a variety of articles on display, refreshments, short sketches on the outdoor stage, and music by Haight's orchestra and the Phoenix band of Stafford combined to make the affair a success.

WEST KINGSTON

Miss Frances Crandall, of Kingston, is visiting her grandparents, Dr and Mrs. Kenyon.

Mrs. Norman Grant of Kingston was a caller here Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight of Exeter, were recent callers in this village.

R. H. Briston and family, Mrs. Annie K. Welster and Miss Mildred spent Wednesday evening with relatives in Westerly.

A delegation from here attended Old Home day at Liberty, Wednesday. The dinner was fine but the threatening weather kept many away.

Mrs. C. D. Arnold stuck a piece of glass in her hand Wednesday. She was taken to the South County hospital where the glass was extracted by Dr. Potter.

Mrs. J. J. Cottrell and children and Mrs. F. W. Smith and children are spending this week in the T. T. Knowles cottage, at Salt Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Knowles and daughter are spending a few days at Mr. Knowles cottage, at Salt Pond.

Mrs. G. Leanterback was at Wakefield, Wednesday.

Elmer Smith and helpers are painting the buildings, at the Fair Grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Youngs went to Jamestown Wednesday.

Milton A. Woodmansee, who works near Boston, is spending this week, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Woodmansee.

The Girl Scouts here are to give a play in Richmond Monday evening.

Dr. Kenyon was in Providence, Thursday.

Miss Nellie V. Hendrich who is teaching in Cranston, is spending the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Greene Hendrich.

Miss Ida M. Kendall and brother, Edward, have returned home after a week's visit with their sister, Mrs. Fred Brown and family, of Matunock.

Everett Hatherway and family of Slocum visited relatives here Monday evening.

UNION

The annual Old Home days in Union will be Saturday, August 21 and Sunday, August 22. There will be a cordial welcome for everyone who lives, or has lived, in Union, and their friends both on the 21st and the 22nd., It is expected that the band will open the first day exercises at 10 a. m. (standard time), in the grove at Union Center. The speaking program will open at 1 p. m. (standard time). There will be dancing in the town hall in the evening. The church Old Home day service will open at 10 a. m. (standard time) August 22. There will be a public song service and illustrated lecture in the church that evening at 7:30 (standard time).

Mrs. Palmer of Danielson is spending the week at the Palmer log cabin, on Marcy Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tinker and little daughter, Betty, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tinker in Springfield. Little Ella Blanche, who has been with her grandparents in Springfield since coming from the hospital, returned with her parents to Union. Her fractured arm seems to be entirely well.

Miss Ida Bartlett of Eastford is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ora Young.

Little Edward Rizner of West Dudley, Mass., is at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Rizner.

Miss Emma Gaudette spent part of last week with her aunt, Mrs. Eva Flynn in Wales, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heck of Holyoke, Mass., spent the week end with his brother, Myron Heck.

Mrs. Ralza Horton has returned from a week with her sister, Mrs. Fred Ball in Naugatuck.

Mrs. Russell I. Harmon and little son, Russell I. Jr., spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Ora Young.

Mrs. W. P. Marcy returned to Hartford Sunday, after spending a week at the Palmer log-cabin.

JEWETT CITY

A. L. STEBBINS DESCRIBES SIGHTS IN TENNESSEE

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 13.—A letter received from A. L. Stebbins, who is touring the south with his wife, two sons and Mrs. C. D. Cornell, while on a visit to his father in Tennessee, is of interest to his friends here. He writes: We are having a fine trip and enjoying ourselves immensely down here in the sunny south. We had a lovely trip through the Shenandoah valley. The weather here is quite warm, but not so hot as it was in Jewett City the week before we left. The scenic and historic center of the south is Chattanooga, and is one of the most interesting cities on the American continent. On the Look Out mountain magnificent views of Chattanooga, the Tennessee river and the surrounding country can be seen. To reach the summit, 2,700 feet above sea-level you board the Incline railway which runs from St. Elmo at the base to the top of the mountain. The track is 4,750 feet long, crosses historical battlegrounds, and is the steepest cable incline in the world. The summit can also be reached by automobile over one of the most striking scenic highways in the world which passes through Jonas Bluff. From the top of the mountain several different states can be seen, also four battlefields. Half way up the mountain can be seen the Craven house which was General Walthall's headquarters, around which, Nov. 24th, 1863 one of the most romantic battles of the Civil war took place. The house was wrecked but has been rebuilt on the same foundation and close by, New York and Iowa have erected handsome monuments. Above are the rocky Palisades and Point hotel. A $100,000 monument has been erected on the very top by New York state.

Nearby stands Umbrella rock which is an object of great interest to the visitors as well as are the Lula falls. These falls are 100 feet high and the scenery about is wild.

At the extreme end of Lookout mountain overlooking Chattanooga and the Tennessee valley is located Point park, where the battle above the clouds was fought. The park is called Fairyland and is full of monuments erected by different states, cannon used in the war and tablets marking the positions occupied by the different brigades and containing detailed account of the happenings. On three sides of the park the slope is so steep that visitors are warned not to throw stones as persons along highways and railroad nearby, one-half mile below, would be liable to be struck and also would be severely injured if not killed. In the park there is a building containing over 5,000 war relics.

Across the valley can be seen Missionary ridge which was General Bragg's headquarters during the four days' battle. Within the reservation the government has erected a 70-foot steel observation tower, from which a splendid view of Lookout mountain and the entire Chattanooga valley and a glimpse of Chickamauga park may be obtained. The state of Illinois has erected a beautiful monument near and a Roman pond was covered with blood. The writer was fortunate in securing a sword dug up near this point which is being brought back to Jewett City.

There is an exhibition at the railroad museum depot the locomotive General, used by Andrew's Raiders which was confiscated at Big Shanty on the Western and Atlantic railway, in a attempt to burn bridges and cut the Confederate supply from its base of supplies. They were overtaken after they ran out of fuel. Being soldiers in civilian clothes, eight were executed as spies, six were paroled and eight escaped. This famous engine General is kept as a memorial and a table tells the story of the raid. In the national cemetery, a large monument has been erected in honor of these raiders. In the top of the monument is carved an open Bible, on the General in the cemetery are buried over 12,000 union soldiers killed in and about Chattanooga. This one of the most beautiful and largest cities of the dead in our country. The whole surrounding county is covered with handsome monuments, wonderful scenery, and descriptive tablets which would require several weeks to visit and describe. We are preparing to continue our trip which is to be over the trail Sherman's march to the sea.

Hear tonight, Charles Ray and Eleanor Boardman in "The Auction Block".—adv.

Rev. G. Keene Gray left Jewett City Friday morning for New Haven. After a stay there he will spend some time in New York. He commences his new duties in Baltimore the first of September and may visit his family in Kentucky before then.

Miss Susan Armstrong, who has spent five years in China, is to occupy the Baptist pulpit Sunday morning.

Elmer Tarbox is spending a week's vacation in Brooklyn, N. Y., with Mrs. Tarbox's brother's.

Announcements have been received of the engagement of Arnold P. Brown of Malden, Mass., to Miss Marian Pike, of Brooklyn, Conn., and Boston.

The Puchaug church is to hold a meeting (this) Sunday afternoon.

The unusual [illegible] and [illegible] floral remembrances sent to the funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edmond, of Voluntown, were mute testimonies to the charm of the very lovable baby and the esteem in which the parents are held.

CANTERBURY GREEN

The plans for the annual lawn party scheduled to take place Thursday evening were somewhat frustrated by the shower. Supper was served to those who wished and the various sales were conducted inside the church building, the entertainment was postponed. The affair was repeated Friday evening.

Rev. Ralph Knight and family motored from Avon Tuesday and are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, and calling on friends. Mr. Knight leaves Avon in about a month for a position in the west.

At the last grange meeting the program was in charge of Miss Grace Dawley, who gave a pleasing entertainment.

A community picnic under the auspices of the Sunday school is to be held Tuesday the 17th at Babcock's grove. In stead of funds being solicited before hand as usual, a collection is to be taken at the picnic for necessary expenses. The ladies are to bring cake, but the other good things that spell picnic are in charge of a committee and will be furnished from the general fund. This is a community affair.

NATURE CALLS TOURIST TO MANY LAKES REGION

CHICAGO, Aug. 13—(AP)—Nature's handiwork and primitive people's monumental remains strive with North Woods atmosphere for predominence in attraction in the Great Lakes region.

Michigan's entire west coast along the lake of the same name is dotted with lakes and summer villages, with Mackinac Island one of the chief attractions. This island is crowned by an old French fort, standing as it was when captured by the British in 1763 but the remainder of the island still retains its primitive state, except for a modern road circling it.

Forest Primeval

Summer colonies are scattered along the Lake Michigan shore of the Wisconsin side while the state's central northeastern and northern sections are sprinkled with lakes and forest camping sites. Fishing abounds in all the lakes. Nature holds full sway in the heavy terrain of its northwoods territory. Indian lore is found in many places, one of the most picturesque reservations being that of the Menominees.

Devil's Lake, near Baraboo, is visited by thousands each year. The lake is fed by subterranean springs and has no visible outlet. Indian mounds nearby add to the mysteries of this section. Madison, the capital, is surrounded by three lakes.

Noted Arrowhead Country

Shaped like a long, jagged flint arrowhead, the Minnesota Arrowhead country containing the Superior National Forest, the Jay Cooke state park the three richest iron ranges in the world and the largest inland port, offers unusual attractions.

The region contains a land area of 20,000 square miles, more than half of which is wilderness, and another thousand square miles of lakes.

At Hibbing is the largest open pit iron mine in the world. Duluth, the second largest port contains immense docks, loading western and aerial bridge. Huge sawmills are at Virginia and Cloquet.

Nation's Watershed

The Minnesota National Forest holds one of the largest water reservoirs. The forest is located at the headwaters of the Mississippi river and the watershed for North America is a little north of Lake Winnibigoshish. It is traversed by the Roosevelt and Minnesota Scenic highways.

At Minneapolis is Minnehaha Falls, source of Longfellow's romantic poem of the redskin. Statues of Hiawatha and his maiden stand aside.

Ohio Mounds

Ohio points to its Indian mounds as among its attractions. The chief of these is Serpent Mound, 30 miles southeast of Columbus, an earth and rock work 1,300 feet long with three coiled tails and winding through the shape of a serpent to distended jaws which extend almost to a cliff.

South and southeast of Columbus also are Mound city and Fort Ancient, the former a great burial ground of large mounds restored to their original condition, and the latter an immense earthwork which scientists believe once served the twofold purpose of war and primitive religion.

Indian Sand Dunes

The southern tip of Lake Michigan is edged by the Indiana dunes where for thirty miles, hills of sand, often 300 feet high, lie in slowly shifting masses. Flowers representative both of tropics and northern countries grow wild here, while the sand bristles with branches of dead trees covered in past time.

Indiana also boasts of Wyandotte Cave, near Corydon, and Turkey Run park, seven hundred and fifty acres of forest unchanged by the hand of man.

Lincoln's Boyhood

Starved Rock on the highest of the limestone cliffs near Utica, Ill., is now a tourist haven, but its name commemorates a band of Indians who chose starvation there rather than surrender.

The Sangamon river, flowing by Petersburg, Ill., is famus as the water on which Abraham Lincoln once plied a flat-boat, and New Salem, nearby, is being rebuilt as a complete log cabin village in memory of the same man. Lincoln's tomb is at Springfield.

Wife May Use Pistol

BERLIN, Aug. 13—(AP)—The Women's Rights league hailed with delight the court decision which virtually established a precedent whereby wives can bring wayward husbands to time at the point of a revolver and even shoot without penalty of the law.

Frau Helene Kugler admitted that while her husband was fleeing their apartment in a huff after a quarrel threatening never to return, she grabbed a revolver and fired five times in his direction. But when the district attorney demanded that his wife be jailed, Kugler pleaded that the shooting "was merely his wife's manner of making love to him."

"Every woman has a right to hold her husband," the court said. "I fail to see that Frau Kugler overstepped the bounds of either propriety or law."

Save Beauregard's Home

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13—(AP)—The home of Gen. P. G. T. Beauregard, will not become a macaroni factory. When a company was about to purchase the ground on which the General's horse stands for a factory the Beauregard Memorial association agreed to purchase it and a first payment of $4,000 has bound the contract

GOLDBLATT'S
AUGUST CLEARANCE SALE
FOOTWEAR FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY FOR EVERY SEASON OF THE YEAR AT A GREAT SAVING.
LADIES' PUMPS and OXFORDS in lots from
29c to $4.75 a Pair.
MEN'S SHOES and OXFORDS from
95c to $4.95 a Pair.
BOYS', GIRLS' and CHILDREN'S SHOES at surprisingly low prices.
SNEAKS and TENNIS SHOES at prices that will tempt you to buy.
Goldblatt's Shoe Store
147 FRANKLIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.
(Opposite the Velvet Mill)

Dominick Giambattisia
BROOKLYN, CONN. Phone 27-12.
Staple and Fancy Groceries
3 Cans Campbell's PORK AND BEANS 25c
One Pound Can MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE 50c
100-Pound Bag SUGAR $6.50
One-pound Can DAVIS BAKING POWDER 20c
Three Packages KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES 25c
One Large Can TOMATOES 15c
—TIRES—
31x4 GOODRICH $13.75
All sizes are very cheap and fully guaranteed.
—WOOD—
HARDWOOD (seasoned) Oak and Maple $9.00
(If delivered in Danielson, $10.00.)

Summer-Heat Depresses Vitality
SCOTT'S EMULSION
Rich in Cod-liver Oil Vitamins
Builds Strength
Scott & Bowne Bloomfield, N. J. 26-3

ACCUMULATE!

Spend wisely and save wherever and whenever you can.
Save on a system of making regular weekly deposits in this strong bank and you will soon have the necessary capital to make a first payment on
A HOME OF YOUR OWN
Don't Spend It All Don't Spend It All
The Brooklyn Savings Bank
DANIELSON, CONN.

A. LONGO
52 MAIN STREET. DANIELSON
Phone 46.
SATURDAY SPECIALS
PEACHES—Basket 39c
GRAPES—Two pounds 25c
BANANAS (Extra Large)—Dozen 25c
HONEYDEW MELONS (Extra Large) 39c
LEMONS—Dozen 39c
ORANGES—Dozen 39c
CANTALOUPES—Two for 25c
POTATOES—Peck 43c
ONIONS—Five pounds 25c
NATIVE TOMATOES—Two pounds 25c
WATERMELONS—Each 40c
CUCUMBERS—Five for 25c
PEPPERS—Pound 15c
PLUMS, PEARS, GRAPEFRUIT, SHELL BEANS, STRING BEANS, CORN, CELERY, LETTUCE, EGGPLANT, CABBAGE.

1798 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3
Bulletin Job Room 35-2
Willimantic Office, 354 Main St. Telephone 1131-2.

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Saturday, August 14, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUGUST 7, 1926:
12,795

REED'S DICTATOR PLANS

In a striking article entitled "If I Were Dictator," published in the Nation's Business, which is the official organ of the chamber of commerce of the United States, Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania declares himself an adherent of the radical doctrine of strict individualism in government. There are too many regulatory bodies in the country and too much government on every hand is his complaint. "We are inspecting everybody too minutely, investigating too far, harassing everybody too much," he avers.

If he were in the position of dictator, there are at least three bodies he would abolish, viz: the interstate commerce commission, the federal trade commission and the shipping board. This would set an example for the states to abolish their utility commissions, and burn the books containing the orders affecting railroads and other privately owned public utilities.

He advocates the use of the criminal code to take care of the danger of rebates, excessive rates, unjust discrimination and the like, but would punish statutory offenses so would not hamper control executive in advance and he would [illegible] closely.

Declaring numerous [illegible] investigations in progress at present is safe to say, would be [illegible] delight if Mr. Reed were given opportunity to put [illegible] ary policy into effect. He is not alone believing that there is too much government in certain directions, but he [illegible] in the illustrations he [illegible] may be that regulation of public utilities is at present [illegible] Half [illegible] but the situation [illegible] of the commissions [illegible] control were abandoned. [illegible] would leave the way open [illegible] competition, [illegible] without [illegible] numbers.

[illegible] would thrive on suspicion and condemnation, and investors [illegible] on railroad and public securities. Credit would [illegible] and would be followed [illegible] in favor of less control [illegible] states.

Mr. Reed is [illegible] enough, does not [illegible] whether he would revise [illegible] with [illegible] and [illegible] reform the rules of [illegible] commission expenditures, [illegible] watering [illegible] or [illegible] the railroads.

A PERSISTENT PROPHET

[illegible] forecasting cannot be said [illegible] a success of much [illegible] these summer months of [illegible] as far as Herbert Janvrin Brown [illegible]. Nor for the summer of [illegible] the same prophet. Mr. [illegible] remembered as the man [illegible] predicted a shameless year in [illegible] now some strange or, as it appeared to him unaccountable reason, there was an unmistakable summer [illegible] year, but this failure in his prediction was not discouraging to Mr. Brown, who decided to try again with a summerless prediction for 1926.

For a time in the early part of the year the portents seemed to favor him and doubtless brought him a considerable sense of satisfaction for the cold and late spring made summer delicious in arriving. But July started in with a few sizzling and thrilling days and August has not been far behind the July record so that, to be perfectly frank about it, we have been having about as summery a summer as the oldest inhabitant can remember.

It is all too apparent that the 1926 prediction must be put in the same class as that for 1925, but Mr. Brown is not willing to give up yet. He has faith within his own powers that he hazards the prediction that it will be 1927 when we are due for the summerless summer and for good measure he adds that the coming winter is to be more severe than any one can remember. This latest prediction, in view of the Argentine weather bureau's announcement that for the next seven years we are in for a series of cold winters and hot summers, seems to prove Mr. Brown's belief in the saying that success comes to him who keeps persistingly at it.

It is recalled that in 1816 there actually was a summerless year, and it is not impossible that we may have another some time. Given time enough and persistency enough to make repeated predictions, Mr. Brown may yet be able to say: "I told you so."

CONFERENCES IN EUROPE

On vacation bent, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon finds his visit to Europe interpreted rather generally as of possible significance with relation to the tangled finances of France, Italy and Belgium. In any event he will gather impressions from conferences and observation, for his training and career would make it impossible for him to do otherwise. What will come of these, either immediately or later, no one can say. They will have their influence, though, and will bear, no doubt, on the future granting of credits by American bankers to powers in Europe. It is an unwritten rule that advances are not made unless they are agreeable to the government at Washington. This policy is to avoid commitments that might not conform to what are regarded as our best diplomatic interests.

The visit of Secretary Mellon gains in interest from the fact that Benjamin F. Strong, governor of the federal reserve bank of New York, has been across the Atlantic for several months. He has conferred at length with Montagu Norman of the Bank of England and he is expected shortly to confer with Hjalmar Schacht, head of Germany's reichsbank. These three men have conferred before and there may be nothing afoot financially in their recent or contemplated visits. Neither may there be any significance to the calls by Secretary Mellon upon Italian treasury officials or his visit in Paris. Even though they are merely for the safe of courtesy, as is usually explained, they are bound to yield a residue of information that will have practical aspects.

Conclusions on the basis of conjectures are not justified. It is doubtful if the leading financiers of America and Europe have arrived at any. There have been recent rumors that both France and Belgium again were considering credits for currency stabilization purposes. Whatever happens finally,—and it may be nothing concrete—the announcement of a comprehensive financial programme for France, Italy and Belgium within a few months would cause little surprise.

INCREASE IN GOVERNMENT

The constantly increasing field in which government activities are to be seen is brought to mind by a sentence from an article by Congressman John Q. Tilson in the current issue of the Review of Reviews in which he says that "government is easily the fastest growing industry in the United States." When he compares the increase in population with the increase in the cost of government, he finds that the population has less than doubled over a 32-year period, but government expenses, federal, state and municipal, went up ten times.

Up to about 30 years ago the federal government confined itself pretty well to the duties laid down in the constitution. Since then it has taken a hand in the conduct of private business, assumed the duty of running railroads and steamship lines, turned forester and rescuer of arid and semi-swamp lands, taken over the guardianship of parks and bird refuges, involved itself in mining, the details of farming and the intricacies of the home. Uncle Sam lays down rules for mothers and tells brides how to cook. He issues a famous book upon the horse and probably will publish one that no automobilist can do without. In the same way that the general government has expanded its labors, so have the states and cities gone into affairs that were formerly of private responsibility.

The conxressman makes the usual complaint that there are too many laws. But of course one reason for the excessive number of laws is the public attitude—the rather sudden and erroneous discovery by the people that almost anything can be done by legislation, or at least attempted. If there were anything to be done, the solution grasped has been to make a law about it and turn over the task to federal, state or municipal authorities.

Probably the solution of the problem of reckless law-making, and also that of rising government expenses, will be public resentment. So far this resentment is formless, scattered, not very eloquent. The complaint does not even touch the sensibilities of the taxpayers. But just as citizens have been aroused against corruption so can they be aroused against government officiousness, bureaucracy and waste that cost probably $50 for every dollar stolen by crooked office holders.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Another good thing about a radio is that sometimes it doesn't work at all.

Mexico has had a number of dictators but is yet to experience one of the Mussolini type.

In British South Africa gasoline is 98 cents a gallon. That region must be a pedestrian's paradise.

Typewriters clatter and telephone keys click. Jack Dempsey is preparing for one of those literary climaxes, a prize fight.

The man on the corner says: At this rate it won't be long before the swimmers make traffic congestion in the channel.

Clemenceau's letter indicates that he is long on aggression but short on policy, something that has been observed about him before.

It has been reported that the wettest area in the United States is around Detroit, and no other city will strive to wrest the distinction from it.

Whales off the coast, an escaped leopard cavorting in the woods, and new arrests in the prominent murder case, New Jersey is doing its share to keep in the headlines.

Restfulness in a cell will be the prescription for a New York governess who turned shoplifter because she said children got on her nerves, so that she had to change her occupation.

A first edition of "The Pilgrim's Progress", sold in 1923 for $10,000, brought $34,000 in the London market a few days ago. Many investments are safer and more profitable than the bonds of doubtful nationalities.

Our 48 state treasuries took in last year $6,400,000 for licenses granted to fishermen and hunters. Let us not mourn too much about the menace to wild life. Bluff is a big element in national sportsmanship. Game are still in the woods and fish in a thousand rippling streams.

A supreme court justice, sitting in Rochester, solemnly decides that a summons is legally served by broadcasting. So far as we know, this is a wholly new evidence of judicial responsiveness to new conditions. Gallantry was at least apparent. A wife was suing her husband for divorce.

THE MAN WHO TALKS

Thoreau in his letters says that when we make an appeal we should always go direct to the highest. He puts it in this unique way: "Let nothing come between you and the light. When you travel to the Celestial City, carry no letter of recommendation. When you knock, ask to see God—none of his servants." This is putting value on individuality with a vengeance. And yet is there not a background of reason in the statement? Is there not a great deal of fawning and toadyism in this world that is disgusting? If there is such a thing as equality of personal rights in this world—and is not this one of the fundamental principles of democracy?—why then should there be so often the expression of inferiority? If God himself is no respector of persons, why then should it be so largely expressed between those whom the Almighty has created equal?

When our Master went down "to the coasts of Tyre and Sidon," what purpose did he have in view? Or, on the other hand was it entirely purposeless? Is it reasonable to suppose that he went down to the Mediterranean shore without some definite idea in mind than it would for us to go to Atlantic Beach or Atlantic City without now or [illegible] in view? After his strenuous experiences in the region of Capernaum, there is every reason to believe that he yearned for the cool breezes of the Great Sea. Whether he found in these regions exactly what he sought is quite another question. There is reason for believing that he was somewhat disappointed; if so, his was not a unique experience. There is the best of reasons that we should all of us [illegible] possible get some change in the [illegible] part of the year.

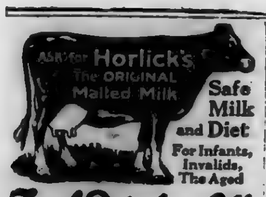
It is quite evident that Jesus did not prepare [illegible] addresses beforehand. There is no record showing that he was ever invited to speak at a gathering weeks, or even days ahead. On the other hand it is perfectly plain that He was very familiar with the philosophy of life, and when the occasion arose out of the vast stores of his [illegible] information, he could make religion apply to any experience of man. This was brought out clearly when the [illegible] his hearers to "lay up treasure in heaven." He had been expounding to them how they would [illegible] when brought before [illegible] the Holy Ghost would tell them what to say. At this point [illegible] interrupted by a hearer who [illegible] to the discussion an [illegible] remark. He said, "Lord, speak to my brother that he divide the [illegible] with me." Then our Lord [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] consciousness, which [illegible] had [illegible] out beforehand.

Is it not possible for one to be [illegible] [illegible] without having a vast range of knowledge? That is [illegible] to enter the realms of the kingdom of God and still have very little of this world's wealth? This world has been obsessed with many men so engrossed with the love of heaven as not to make any lack of world wisdom noticeable. A fine illustration of this was found in the life and character of Dwight L. Moody. When he held revival services in London, there was in that Oxford professors, learned men [illegible] him closely. It was not because of his vast learning, for Mr. Moody was not a learned man. It was because he was [illegible] [illegible] had it not been [illegible] explain why he [illegible] as they [illegible] before.

The fundamental distinction between material [illegible] is this; the things we must necessarily leave behind us, we can take with us. The things we [illegible] them is also [illegible] we are unable [illegible] Material riches [illegible] must be classified as [illegible] material consists of gold, [illegible] materials that have a [illegible] precious gems, stocks, bonds, houses and lands. The [illegible] of goodness, mercy, [illegible] anything, [illegible] kindness and [illegible] to help others. These [illegible] readily seen cannot be [illegible] by [illegible] nor can [illegible] be secured by [illegible] methods. Therefore [illegible] that we should [illegible] perfection in heaven [illegible] the greater opportunities [illegible] But gold and silver and [illegible] things [illegible] represent [illegible] [illegible] because there is no [illegible] for [illegible].

The story is told of a miser who was [illegible] miserable when he was told by the [illegible] days of his [illegible] were numbered. He had never done [illegible] act in his life. He [illegible] a picture of love [illegible] and human [illegible] His only satisfaction [illegible] [illegible] was simply in [illegible] He found no [illegible] [illegible] even for [illegible]. He and his only [illegible] [illegible] to live. At [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] great [illegible] he would do with his [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] relatives in desperation [illegible] [illegible] advice of a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] well. After he [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] suggestions [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] better take [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] would be [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

We are told in the New Testament [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] are to be [illegible] and [illegible] by faith, not by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] is born good or bad but [illegible] [illegible] However we seem determined to [illegible] in the right or the wrong [illegible] But children are born rich as [illegible] worldly goods go, but not spiritually. But a more important question is, how can this wealth [illegible] [illegible] be kept? The answer is not [illegible] and here we see [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] go together. There are [illegible] three ways in which we [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] first we call [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] weekly and unwise-[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] up and then [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to be found either [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] thirdly, we can [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]



Safe Milk and Diet For Infants, Invalids, The Aged

Food-Drink for All

Rich milk, combined with extract of choice grains, reduced to powder. Very nourishing, yet so easily digested that it is used, with benefit, by ALL AGES, ailing or well. An upbuilding diet for infants, invalids, nursing mothers. Convenient, Light Nourishment; when faint or hungry. Taken hot, upon retiring, it induces sound, refreshing sleep. Instantly prepared at home—no cooking.

Special Saturday

Brown Berry Coffee Pound 45c

Swift's Premium Bacon (sliced) lb.... 50c

J. M. Young & Sons

WYOMING WARDEN FINDS MAN-TO-MAN TALKS HELP

RAWLINS, Wyo., Aug. 13.—(AP)—A former "two-gun" western sheriff, as warden of the Wyoming penitentiary here is turning criminals back into the straight and narrow path by man-to-man talks on the "facts of their lives."

Long trusting of cattle and sheep rustlers, outlaws and stage robbers in which gun battles were mixed aplenty taught Warden Hadsell that "man-to-man" talks with criminals brought out their hidden virtues. He regularly [illegible] with every one of the 350 prisoners. He says no [illegible] are so terrible in character and life that they cannot be reached by some one who will take the time to understand the convict's viewpoint.

But he says he gets to and he understands, in less than an hour. I am opening with them," declared Warden Hadsell, who says that nearly ninety-five percent of the convicted prisoners have "gone straight."

WIFE OUT, HUSBAND IN, SHARE OFFICE 14 YEARS

JUNCTION CITY, Kan., Aug. 13.—(AP)—The office of treasurer of Geary county is a partnership between Charles H. Gove and his wife Helen Sorrell Gove.

Fourteen years ago Gove was selected county treasurer. He appointed his wife as his assistant when he took office. Forbidden by law to serve more than four years in succession Gove ascended his wife from the county treasurer to succeed him. At the end of a second term, however, Gove decided to become Mrs. Gove's assistant.

Mrs. Gove is the boss now and she is a candidate for re-election.

CHILD THEATRE TRAINS YOUTH IN CREATIVE ART

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A juvenile theatre not in which children of all nationalities, from the tenement to the fashionable "Gold Coast" merge in the interest of dramatics the Children's Civic theatre of Chicago is now in its tenth season with nearly 1,000 children participating.

Every summer since 1916 this children's theatre has been maintained at the Municipal Pier auditorium, leaving the social lines of birth and wealth to unite Chicago's children in the common interest of art.

Develops Leadership

It is financed by the city council, directed by Miss Bertha L. Iles and a permanent staff, sponsored by the Drama league of Chicago, and aided by the Civic Music association.

Sugar coated training. Miss Iles says the work, far beneath the fun the children have the organization is intended to develop leadership, creativeness, initiative, tolerance and teamwork.

Children Plan Programs

Most of the programs are suggested by the children who also plan the costumes and stage settings. The season begins the first week in June and continues until September. Meetings are held three afternoons each week, with the third afternoon witnessing the production of programs prepared in the two previous rehearsals.

While the programs are almost entirely of children's operas, dancing, short plays and sketches, the theatre does not encourage dramatics or the stage as a profession.

"If any of them become true artists it will be from their own love of art rather than any one movement from us," Miss Iles said.

Lesson For Mothers

Each season the children are granted one night at the Ravinia Opera, and this year they presented a pageant of their own creation entitled "Our Chicago," depicting the history of the city.

But there are lessons for mothers as well.

There was a well dressed American mother from an exclusive section talking with a foreign born mother from a less fortunate section, while they watched their children standing beside each other on the stage as symbol bearers in an Arabian playlet.

Later the American mother turned to a friend: "Why she's so interesting—but I almost was embrassed—why she speaks five languages and I have a terrible time with just my English."

WHEAT CROP SO GOOD HAIL FAILED TO HURT

MEADE, Kan., Aug. 13.—(AP)—The wheat crop in Meade county was so good this year that hail storms could not destroy it.

Wheat on the large Cummins farm was pronounced a total loss after hail stones as large as golf balls had battered to the ground every head of grain several weeks before harvest. Unusual prolonged rains neither kept the field moist. Now stalks sprang from the roots. Hardy Cummins obtained a yield of twenty-five bushels an acre.

Another farmer, who had collected hail insurance, harvested thirty-five bushels from every acre. The insurance company, having admitted its loss, found no recourse to compel the farmer to return his insurance money.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

WANTED—Bookkeeper and stenographer. Address Box 63, Bulletin office. 8aug14

Norwich, Saturday, August 14, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 7:21 (S. T.) this evening.

The moon quarters Monday the 16th at 10:39 a. m.

Lawn Fete today, afternoon and evening, Laflingwell church.—Adv.

It is noted at Lebanon that Misses Mildred and Delphine Ladd of Norwich are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Troland.

Today (Saturday) the vigil of the fast of the Assumption, is a day of fasting for Catholics of the age to fast.

It is stated that in and about Eastford the fields of silo corn were never looking better than before Thursday's rain.

Mrs. George Winsor, of Central Village cracked a rib the other day, when a hammock in which she was sitting broke down.

Thermometers along Franklin street, registered 90 degrees about noon Friday, when the humidity was even worse than the heat.

Dr. T. F. O'Neil's office will open on Monday, August 16th.—Adv.

Mrs. Albert S. Comstock is to be hostess at the D. A. R. museum, Norwich Town this (Saturday) afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

The last of the contractors who were at work on the overhead bridge since April, cleaned up and left Saybrook for other points this week.

George Weston, the short story writer, whose home is in the town of Plainfield, has written a new story, "A Temporary Millionaire."

A Moosup girl, Miss Ethelyn Barber, class of '25, P. H. S., is planning to enter a nurses' training class at Bellevue hospital in September.

The Ready Helpers reunion picnic is to be held today (Saturday) at the Community camp, South Coventry lake, afternoon and evening.

At Hampton this week, the Catholic Women's club held a meeting at the home of Miss Mary McMahon, making plans for a September sale.

The phlox in the garden at "Pinehurst," Washington St., the residence of Miss Alif Stephens, has been a beautiful sight for several weeks.

The favor accorded Canton broad silks for fall is one of the most noticeable things in a comparatively dull period in the trade of Connecticut mills.

D. E. K. Dunham's office in the Dime Bldg is closed until Aug 16.—Adv.

At Quonochontaug Miss Grace Royle and her guest, Miss Gwendell Barbour of Philadelphia, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McGlone, of Mystic, at their cottage.

During the week, the First Congregational church of Colchester, uniting with the church at Westchester, held its annual picnic at Mohegan park, Norwich, spending Tuesday there.

A demonstration of painted furniture was given at the hall at Columbia Thursday afternoon under the auspices of Tolland County Farm Bureau, a large number being present.

At Lords Point, Henry A. Lord, Miss Alice Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Avery of Norwich, and Miss Louise Clark of Ledyard are passing the week at Grandview bungalow, at the Openway.

It is announced by the Catholic Transcript that St. Thomas' seminary, Hartford, is to open September 9th with registration of new students at 3 p. m. Resident students will report at 5 p. m.

Peach is the newest shade featured in colored glassware. Amber and green also are outstanding colors in these wares, which include compotes, flower bowls, candlesticks, Colonial lamps, stemware etc.

Toy dealers say that one of the best-selling items in children's wheel goods is the two-wheel scooter bike. Aside from its smaller size, this bicycle for use on the sidewalk is identical with the ones used by older people.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Day, who left New York Tuesday for a cruise in Long Island Sound on the Billings yacht Laurentia, have Mr and Mrs. George W. Davison as their guests and are expecting to stop at New London.

Growers of flowers and vegetables were looking about. Friday, finding that considerable damage had been done to growing things, which in some instances ha dbeen beaten flat by Thursday afternoon's heavy rain.

Fast day today. Native sword, mackerel, flounders, porgies, butters, prime soft crabs, fancy lump crab meat, little necks clams, sea scallops at Powers Bros, 16 Bath St. Phone 114.—Adv.

Buyers in the metropolis Wednesday for the opening of fancy worsteds by the American Woolen company expressed the belief that the favored men's wear cloths for next spring would be medium colored mixtures.

The breakers have bee nunusually high as they rounded the shore end of the west breakwater and the shores of Wamphassuc Point, Stonington, have been covered with all sorts of marine growth cast up by the waves.

Rev. Andrew Mutch, D. D., of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian church, Bryn Mawr, Pa., is to conduct the union service at the Watch Hill chapel Sunday morning. Bernhard Levitow, violinist, has offered his services for that morning.

A $25,000 brick addition of two stories, to contain four rooms on each floor, is being built to St. Rose's parish school, Meriden, by the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Neale, LL. D., a former Norwich priest, so crowded has the school become.

There is to be a United States Civil Service examination for editor of scientific publications. Vacancies in the office of the secretary, department of agriculture, and in positions requiring similar qualifications, will be filled from this examination. The entrance salary is $3,000 a year.

Of the materials at the New York fashion show this week velvets have first place and were shown for all occasions. A new color called Neptune, a light water green, predominated. Three other important new shades were featured, romance a rose coral; autumn, a golden brown, and gypsy, a deep wine shade.

LOVE SCENES' BACKGROUND MUST BE KEPT IN HARMONY

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 13.—(AP)—The old fashioned parlor with puritannical atmosphere is no place to stage a modern love scene, even in a picture film.

The background for a scene embracing amorous liberalities must be in sophisticated harmony not to offend picture audiences.

"Of course, boorish love in a castle would appear ludicrous on the screen," said Charles Cadwallader, art director at the Metropolitan studios here. "A specific form of love scene in the films loses much of its suggestion when it is made secondary to a room design that is ultra-daring.

"American audiences have come to a point where they accept certain types of love as being possible only in a distinctive environment."

PERSONALS

George R. Hall of Hartford was a visitor at Round Hill farm Thursday.

Letter Carrier Silas N. Sandberg of Division street, is back on his route, following his vacation.

George Hollingsworth has returned from an automobile trip to New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark H. Standish of Lebanon entertained recently Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bushnell of Norwich.

Mrs. Charles Madigan of New Britain was a visitor last week at her brother's home, D. J. O'Connell at Bushnell place.

Mrs. Ida M. Richardson, Mrs. R. J. P. Brown and Miss L. Belle Rathbone left town Friday for a ten day automobile trip to Maine.

Harry R. Raphael has returned to Wheeling, W. Va., after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Raphael of this city.

Miss Dorothy J. Barber of Westerly and James B. Gray of Norwich are mentioned among dinner guests at the Wigwam cottage, Pleasant View.

Mr. John Madigan, Charles and John Jr., Misses Jennie Madigan and Mary O'Connell of New Britain spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. O'Connell of Bushnell place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coughlin of Indianapolis, Ind., are spending the month with Mr. Coughlin's mother, Mrs. William H. Coughlin of Norwich, at her summer home on Crandall avenue, at Pleasant View.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Hayes and son, Thomas Jr., Mrs. Victoria Kelley and H. M. Kelley of Hartford, spent a few days recently as guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Minkert of Poquetanuck drawbridge.

OBITUARY

Frank Fanning Jewett

In the current issue of the Congregationalist appears an obituary of Frank Fanning Jewett, well known temperance orator.

Mr. Jewett was a former resident of Norwich Town and was a graduate of Norwich Free Academy and Yale university. At one time he was a member of the faculty at Norwich Free Academy.

The Congregationalist says: "Prof. Frank Fanning Jewett, for 32 years head of the department of chemistry at Oberlin college, recently died at his home in Honolulu where he had been living since 1923.

Professor Jewett was born in Newton, Mass., Jan. 5, 1844. He was a direct descendant of Governor Bradford of Massachusetts and Miles Standish.

He was graduated from Yale with the class of 1870 taking an A. M. degree three years later. He was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa scholastic honor society. After leaving Yale Professor Jewett taught for two years, returning to Yale for further study. He later went to Goettingen university, Germany, specializing in chemistry.

Returning to America he was associated with Prof. Wolcott Gibbs of Harvard university, later going to Japan to become professor of chemistry in the Imperial university. He held this latter post from 1878 to 1880. In 1880 in Tokio he married Miss Frances Gulick, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick. He returned shortly afterward to become head of the chemistry department at Oberlin college which post he held for 32 years, building the department up from a small unit to one of the highest ranking in the country.

Professor Jewett was a member of the American Chemical society, the American Association for Advancement of Science and the Deutsche Chemische Gesellschaft. He was the author of several recognized books on chemistry.

In addition to his college duties Professor Jewett took an active interest in the town affairs of Oberlin. He was a member of the city council for eight years and for many years president of the board of public affairs. For 42 years he served the Ohio state meteorological bureau. He was a lifelong member of the Congregational church and a supporter of its benevolences.

Professor Jewett was taken ill in Honolulu in November, 1924, and his health failed gradually until his death.

FUNERAL

Mrs. Charles P. Rogers

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles P. Rogers were held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of her father, George R. Kinney of No. 64 Roosevelt avenue. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and the floral tributes were most beautiful.

The service was conducted by Rev. Gurdon F. Bailey, pastor of the Norwich Town Congregational church, who also conducted the committal service at the grave in Maplewood cemetery. The bearers were Edward Snow, Clifford Congdon, Clarence Lathrop and John Rogers. Arrangements for the service were in charge of Charles A. Gager.

DIVISION 54 TO HOLD ANNUAL OUTING SUNDAY

The fourth annual outing of Division 54, Ladies auxiliary, A. O. H., will be held Sunday, Aug. 15, at Watch Hill, Mrs. Thomas Connelly, chairman of the committee of arrangements, requests all members and friends desiring to attend, to be at Buckingham Memorial at 9 o'clock. The committee in charge has left nothing undone to make this the largest and best outing ever held by the auxiliary this season.

BRINGS COURT ACTION ON LAND PARTITION

Irving H Jones of Stonington has filed in the superior court for this county an action against William E. Jones, also of Stonington, asking a partition of property in Stonington, in which both plaintiff and defendant have an equity. The papers in the action was filed Friday with the court clerk in this city. The property involved contains about 17 acres.

Tea Room Committee

The tea room committee at Mystic art exhibition this (Saturday) afternoon is composed of Groton Long Point women, Mrs. C. F. Weston, chairman; Mrs. Holbrook, Mrs. Dodd, Mrs. S. H. Culver, Mrs. H. L. Raul, Miss Doris Gesner, Miss Sally Avery, Mrs. Douglass and Mrs. Owens.

Visited Lakes Pond Newlyweds

A group of relatives and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman at Lakes pond Wednesday night and helped them celebrate their recent marriage. Games and music were enjoyed, after which luncheon was served.

Broke Right Wrist

While cranking a truck Thursday afternoon, Donald Rowley, 14, of Gales Ferry, broke his right wrist when the crank slipped out of his grasp and struck him on the wrist.

At Cape Cod

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Williams of Stonington, formerly of Christ church rectory, Norwich, have left for Cape Cod where they will attend the wedding of a relative.

To clean fur collars and cuffs, rub them thoroughly with cornmeal soaked in gasoline.

ITALIAN RESIDENTS TO CELEBRATE WITH STREET PARADE, CONCERT AND FIREWORKS

The Italian residents of the city have completed plans for a public celebration of the Feast of the Assumption Monday. The programme, as arranged, includes the firing of bombs, a high mass at St. Patrick's church, a street parade, concert and fireworks in the evening. The official programme announced Friday evening follows:

7 a. m., firing of six bombs; 9:30 a. m., festal solemn high mass at St. Patrick's church; noon, firing of six bombs; 7 p. m., firing of six bombs, concert, followed by fireworks.

The Italian band will march from Steiner's hall, through Main street, up Broadway to Union square, where a concert programme will be given under the direction of Prof. Pasquale Pucca. The programme will be as follows:

Teago, March .....G. Manente
Barber of Seville, Overtrude .....G. Rossini
Traviata, Selection .....G. Verdi
Mirrja, Fox-Trot .....M. Bartolucci
Caramanico, March Symphonique...
.....L. D. Penna
Merry Widow, Gran Selection.....
.....F. Lehar
Faust, Fantasia .....C. Gounod
Flower of May, Waltz ...F. DeBueris
The Star Spangled Banner.

Following the concert there will be fireworks on Hinckley Hill at 9:30 p. m. There is still time for anyone who desires to assist to send their contribution to Treasurer James D'Atri, 110 Franklin Street, the committee announces.

The committee in charge comprises Rocco Barbetto, president; Nicola Mastadomenico, secretary; James D'Atri, treasurer; L. Rinella and Domenic Charles, trustees; Justino DiSera, Giovane Citroni, Enrico DiPuklo and Sam Vosington.

PLAYGROUNDS CHILDREN GIVE TWO PLAYS

Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the Rockwell street entrance of Mohegan park the Laurel Hill and Falls playgrounds gave short plays as their dramatic work for the year. The good sized crowd which attended was well pleased with the entertainment.

The Laurel Hill playground presented the play entitled "The Mothers' Reform Club." The characters were:

Dorothy, Mary Curran; Alice, Marie Woods; Gladys, Mary Counihan, Bessie, Elizabeth Dick; Jennie, Beatrice Adams; Emma, Ida May Johnson.

The Falls playground gave the play entitled "The Deacon's Spotted Calf." The characters were.

Marina Spooner, Irene St. Lawrence; Hiram Spooner, Geraldine Finnegan; Bobby Spooner, George Ring; Mr. Green, Florence Domineg; Mr. White, Raymond Ring.

Following the play harmonica selections were given by John Dosh of the Falls. A special number was a character exhibition by Mary Curran of Laurel Hill playground, Irene St. Lawrence and John Ring of the Falls playground, accompanied by John Dosh. The entertainment closed with clever tricks by John Dosh while Joseph Finnegan proved very amusing by imitating him.

Much credit is due to Instructor Eleanor Counihan of Laurel Hill, and Instructor Marcia Stanton, of the Falls, for the way in which the plays and the other members were presented.

NOTED CLERGYMAN COMING FOR UNION SERVICE

Rev. Hubert C. Herring, secretary of the department of social relations of the Congregational churches of the United States will be the preacher at the union service of the Park and United Congregational churches to be held Sunday at the United church. Rev. Mr. Herring has recently been to Mexico, as chairman of a committee of 25 selected by the Federated Churches of the United States for the purpose of establishing more friendly relations between the United States and Mexico.

The committee was received most cordially by the Mexican president and his cabinet and given every opportunity to study conditions. The subject of Rev. Mr. Herring's address will be Mexico's Spiritual Rebirth.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS TO PREPARE REUNION DINNERS

Sedgwick Woman's Relief corps, No. 16, met at the Buckingham Memorial Friday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Maude A. Moody in the chair. The regular reports were read and approved. Many spoke in memory of Mrs. Bertha Peisler a member of the corps, who died about two weeks ago. General orders announced the 44th national convention to be opened at Des Moines, Sept. 19 and the [illegible] for the 22nd. Home day at [illegible] will be Sept. 1 instead of [illegible] is customary. Next Tuesday [illegible] nesday the corps will prepare [illegible] nual dinners for the 26th [illegible] regiments. The meeting closed with the salute to the flag and singing of America.

COMPENSATION FOR THREE INJURED EMPLOYES

Three compensation agreements were filed Friday with the clerk of the superior court in this city as follows:

Chapman and Tripp, Jewett City and Albert Shorey, Jewett City; fracture of right forearm, July 12th; compensation began July 20th.

Inland Paper Board company, Inc., Versailles, and Joseph Jurcak, Versailles; sprained back, April 25th; compensation began May 15th.

J. N. LaPointe Company, New London, and Henry Newbury, New London; crushed second and third fingers of left hand June 21st; compensation began June 30th.

Guests of Mrs. Genter

The Mothers' Guild of New London Methodist church had an enjoyable outing at Willimantic Camp grounds Wednesday as guests of Mrs. Myron E. Genter, of Norwich, organizer and former president of the guild. A basket luncheon was eaten on the porch of the elderage. Later in the afternoon ice cream and cake were served by the hostess and her daughter, Miss Ruth Genter.

Seeks Richard Kelley

Mrs. Lucy Hawkins of 61 East street, Attleboro, Mass., is trying to locate Richard Kelley, believed to be a member of some branch of the federal service at New London.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler D. Guy of 11 McKinley avenue leave town today to spend an extended period in the Catskill Mountains.

Miss Ella M. Norton, entertained at an informal piazza tea, Thursday and Friday afternoons, at her home on Washington street.

The French liner Rochambeau, from Havre, on which Miss Ruth H. McClenathan is a passenger, is due in New York Monday.

Mrs. Charles C. McNamara, of Broadway, entertained with three tables of bridge Thursday afternoon, at her cottage at Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Whitney and daughter, Dorothy, returned Friday from a motor trip to visit Miss Mildred Whitney at Squirrel Island, Me.

Miss Amelia M. Young, of Williams street, and party of friends who have been abroad since late in June, have been sightseeing in and about Venice.

Miss Marion Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Palmer, of Vergason avenue, and Miss Eugenie A. Dean, of Cliff street, left town Friday and are sailing today (Saturday) from New York on S. S. Fort Victoria for Bermuda, for a vacation visit.

AMERICAN WOOLEN COMPANY TRIES TO HELP BUSINESS

The American Woolen company has in Norwich (Thamesville), Yantic and Moosup plants of its 60 or more mills. That the company is doing its best in a patriotic way to boost industry came out this week in New York.

When the opening was held of its fancy worsteds for the spring trade it was disclosed that cuts of from 10 to 50 cents a yard have been made. The fabrics affected are fancy and semi-staple worsted and worsted suitings. The average price reduction of these types of fabrics, according to company officials, is just a little less than that made on tropicals when the latter cloths were opened a few weeks ago. In cases where the reduction is small it was said the company has added to the weight of the fabric or otherwise improved it.

In the woolen trade it was stated that the company's cuts in prices on piece dyes are proportionately greater than on mixtures, which are expected to be in great favor for spring.

Buyers were disposed to regard the new prices as low, which was also the opinion of competing manufacturers and jobbers in the trade. One representative of a big agent said that he did not see how such substantial reductions could be made, considering that there has been no opportunity for reduction in prices of raw materials.

Company officials in discussing the price action of the company explained that they were out to get business and were supplying every incentive to buyers to place orders.

Naturally, if the company can increase the demands for its cloths by making prices favorable it will go a long ways toward keeping its plants busy even while it cuts the profits to the company.

FENTON HAS BEEN MISSING SIX WEEKS

A month and a half has passed since Dunlap Fenton, [illegible] lieutenant at the Groton plant of the Sea Sled Corp., disappeared, and the solution to the mystery of his disappearance remains remote while all clues have been exhausted by state police or the Groton barracks.

Fenton's disappearance became known on the morning of June 2 with the discovery that one of the sea sleds at the Groton plant was missing. A few days later the craft, partly damaged, was found beached at Thamesville, Norwich Fenton who resides in Groton, has not been seen or heard of since.

It is the belief of state police and officials of the Groton plant, that Fenton took the sea sled from Groton without permission and passed up the river together. The craft was beached because of disablements or by accidental grounding, has not been determined, but it is believed that Fenton, fearing the consequences of his complicity in damaging the craft, fled.

JOLLY SOCIAL CLUB TO VISIT CONEY ISLAND

Mrs. John LaValle entertained the Jolly Social club at her home, No. 21 Franklin street, Friday evening. After the sewing the hostess served a delicious supper, being assisted by Mrs. Irene Burns. The menu consisted of sliced tomatoes, sliced pickled beets, olives, sandwiches, cake, ice cream and fruit punch. The table was prettily decorated with garden and fan baskets.

During the meeting plans were completed for the outing to New York. The members of the club are to leave for New York Sunday morning and will enjoy a trip to Coney Island. The next meeting of the club is to be held at the home of Mrs. Martha Wunderlich, Norwich avenue, Taftville.

GOVERNORS' FOOT GUARD IN CAMP AT NIANTIC

Nearly 100 members of the Second company, Governor's Foot Guard of New Haven, arrived at Camp Trumbull, Niantic, Tuesday on the annual encampment of the troop. Appearing in dress white uniforms of service dress in time for noon mess call and the ranks were gradually swelled as the members kept arriving in small groups throughout the afternoon and evening. Major Edward A. Judge, is commanding officer of the guard.

The torrential rains which soaked down everything forced the Peeters to find diversion indoors, the most popular amusement being cards. The troopers had little time to become acquainted with the changes which have been made on the camp during the past year, before the first of a succession of rain storms visited the grounds, chasing everyone under shelters.

FUNERAL

Hardell-Coggswell

The wedding of Miss Marion Louise Coggswell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson Coggswell of Derry, N. H., an alumna of Connecticut college, to Ralph Burbank Hardell took place Friday at the Central Congregational church in Derry. Miss Coggswell was graduated from Connecticut college in June.

During her four years there, she was one of the most popular girls of her class and played a prominent part in the social and athletic activities of the college. She was treasurer of her class one year leader of the Glee club last year also forward on the basketball team and a member of many of the social committees of the class. In the senior program given at commencement time, Miss Coggswell played the part of Menelaus in the Helen of Troy group.

Leaves for Martin's Ferry

Prof. Waldo S. Newbury, who has been spending his vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Newbury of 55 Greene avenue, left Thursday noon for his home in Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

He was accompanied on the return trip by his sister, Miss Gladys B. Newbury who will spend the remainder of the summer with her brother.

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND PROGRAM OPENS TONIGHT

Speaking of the Willimantic Camp grounds, Rev. Myron E. Genter of this city, district superintendent of the Methodist church said Friday evening that the grounds are in unusually good condition and have been made especially attractive with new shrubbery, painting and roadmaking. The entrance gate which is new extends a cordial welcome to all. The avenues are humming with conversation, tennis courts and equipment are in better condition and a spirit of eagerness and expectation fills the camp.

Inquiries have been received from other states and already reservations have been made from people in Massachusetts and Rhode Island. But one change is announced in the program and because of a vital meeting in Pittsburg, where Bishop Anderson must preside, he will speak on Wednesday evening instead of preside on Friday afternoon.

A brief meeting of the executive committee is called for Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock at the elderage.

At 8 p. m. the Manuel Concert Co., will present a varied program of song, whistling and instrumental music in the tabernacle, after which the president who is the district superintendent, Rev. Myron E. Genter, will give a brief address on "What We Are Here For." The friendship hour will follow this and a unique method of introducing everybody present will be used.

It is expected taht Bishop Badley of India will be present to be introduced and bring a greeting at this time.

Bishop Badley will be the preacher Sunday morning and afternoon, and in the afternoon Rev. Joseph Cooper of South Manchester will preside. In the evening, Dr. W. H. Davenport of Mystic will preach and Rev. A. S. Muirhead will preside.

Dr. Milton S. Rees, a distinguished gospel preacher, who has led evangelistic campaigns from coast to coast and Canada to the Gulf, will arrive from New York state where he has been conducting a big tent meeting with nine churches combined, on Monday.

His wife will accompany him and will take charge of the large chorus which will sing afternoons and evenings. "Golden Bells," the new song book will be used throughout the meetings, which will close on Sunday night, August 22.

Dr. Philip L. Frick arrives on Monday for his class class in the morning on Old Testament Interpretations of Rome and Paris. He is popular [illegible] and broadcaster from Schenectady through WGY.

D. E. E. Gornall arrives from Michigan on Monday afternoon next and will remain for the week. Miss Pollard in charge of the Church school periods, is expected on Sunday afternoon, and Mrs. Frank W. Gray will take charge of the children's meetings on Sunday as well as Mrs. Cora Downes Steeves in charge of meetings for Youth. These are at 2.10 to 4 p. m.

Every detail is now complete for the Woman's Missionary Field day on Monday, August 16 in the afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Charles W. Barte of New Haven will speak for the home field and Miss Florence L. Nichols of India will represent the foreign phase of the subject.

The program for the State W. C. T. U. gold medal contest will be held on Tuesday, 2 p. m. in the Tabernacle.

On Wednesday afternoon Dr. R. E. Gornall of Michigan will speak on the subject "The World Service Program to Save the World" and at night Bishop W. F. Anderson, bishop of the New England area of Methodism will preach.

Dr. Milton S. Rees will preach each night except Wednesday and Saturday, will [illegible] classes in evangelism each morning except Monday, and will preach on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. H. H. Corkley, who had such phenomenal success in evangelism last year will speak on Monday morning, in absence of Dr. Rees. On Thursday afternoon Dr. Rees speaks on "The Need of the Churches Launching Out Into the Deep."

Interdenominational day on Friday afternoon and evening, is expected to bring large numbers of other communities and Dr. H. W. Hulburt, secretary of the Eastern Conn. Ministers Conference will respond to the welcome. Rev. A. N. Foster of Norwich will offer the prayer. Dr. David N. Beach of Guilford will take part if present and the addresses of the day will be given as follows:

Dr. David D Pitt of Norwich "The Church in Christ's Stead," Mr. Edwin R. Hill, Y. M. C. A. Sec. Norwich, "The Need of a Militant Church Now."

Dr. H. Lawrence Lee of New London, "The Church and World Redemption."

Hundreds of men are expected on Saturday afternoon, August 21 which is field day for Norwich district men and their friends. Dr. Gornall of Michigan will give the address, at which ladies are also invited and afterward the recreation committee will provide matches in tennis, baseball, volley ball and quoits and awards will be made to the winners.

In the evening, two superb features will be presented. Signor Mario Capelli, world ditenor, just back from a tour of Europe and already engaged for grand opera there next season, will sing and Dr. Philip L. Frick will give his popular address on "Nightingale Island."

There will be a camp meeting Sunday, August 22, as follows: The day will be opened at 9 a. m. with a feast of song and fellowship led by Rev. F. C. Baker. Dr. Frick will preach in the morning at 10:30. Dr. G. H. Spencer of Boston will preach in the afternoon at 2 and Dr. Rees at 7:30 p. m. Capelli will sing at all three services.

WHEAT PIT IS FOREST OF WIGWAGGING ARMS

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—(AP)—To see the Roman salute given in all its classic perfection, visit the Chicago Board of Trade. On an exciting day, the crowds of brokers in the wheat pit really outdo the Fascisti.

Especially of late with wheat prices whirling wildly, tourists in Chicago seem never to tire of the picturesque spectacle of a forest of waving arms thrust skyward on 'change.

Gestures Mean Millions

The life-and-death earnestness of the action appears all the more fascinating because of strange accompanying gestures. Their significance is rarely understood by outsiders, but every detail is full of meaning—an indispensable deaf-and-dumb language of the grain trade.

The bizzarre pantomime—however much it may resemble a salute to Mussolini—is demonstrated by experience to be the best method yet devised for transacting like a flash business that runs daily for up into millions of bushels.

Sign Of Buying

The eager oblique upward stretch of the right arm of each of the multitude of brokers standing tip-toe in the trading-pit, signifies not merely that he is striving to buy or sell, but also expresses in exact form the definite amount and the actual intended price. Where everybody is shouting, even the best lungs have their limit, and some thing more is needed.

Whole Hand, 25,000 Bushels

The device is simplicity itself—a sign manual in which the whole hand displayed vertically means 25,000 bushels, each finger counting as 5,000 bushels. Price in even cents is indicated by the clenched fist, held horizontally. Each horizontal finger separately extended represents an added eighth of a cent up to five eighths. The extended hand entirely with the fingers horizontal but close together means three-quarters, and the thumb raised separately is a signal for seven-eighths. Whether the grain is offered or being bid for is shown by a slight motion of the hand to or from the trader himself.

Grotesque as the system may look, the signaling not only closes contracts involving millions but also instantaneously enables the official reporters every moment to note at a glance the actual price of grain—the price transmitted from Chicago to all the markets of the world.

CRANE, DEAN OF STAGE, LIVES AMID MEMENTOS

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 13.—(AP)—In the heart of the colony of the film world, William H. Crane, dean of the American stage, now retired, reclines among the momentos and remembrances of nearly 60 years before the footlights.

His suite or rooms creates the impression of books and photographs. The photograph of not a single one of the old-time stage stars is missing. There also are autographed photographs of Presidents Cleveland, McKinley and Roosevelt, and two others of which he is especially proud.

His "All Star" Cast

One was taken at a dinner tendered him by New York theater managers in remembrance of his fiftieth anniversary on the stage. The other includes members of the cast of "The Rivals", which Mr. Crane says was the only stage produced with a genuine all-star cast within the last fifty years. The cast included Nat Goodwin, Frances Wilson, E. M. Holland, John Mantone, Joseph Holland, Robert Tabor and Mr. Crane.

Mr. Crane believes his collection of newspaper clippings and criticisms is the largest accumulated by any actor. It fills twenty scrap books and includes comments on plays dating back to 1865.

Bass Voice Popular

While the veteran actor loved plays from his early youth, he never dreamed of taking part in them. It was his deep bass voice that won him his first opportunity on the stage, he believes.

After appearing in amateur minstrels, Mr. Crane made his professional bow July 12, 1857 at Mechanics Hall, Utica, N. Y. with he became the apprentice member of the Holman Opera company which once was widely known throughout the east.

Regrets Stage Of Nudity

Mr. Crane avoids commenting upon the apparent destination of the stage. He feels that no one is really qualified to speak. He does regret, however, the present trend of so many plays. The current profanity, nudity and vulgarity of the stage he looks upon as nothing short of shocking and he prides himself upon the fact that he never played a piece that a mother could not take her daughter to see. "The Father and the Boy," which was popular some years ago with Mr. Crane as father, was one of his constructive parts.

Relieve Irritations By Using Cuticura

Bathe the affected parts freely with Cuticura Soap and hot water, dry without rubbing, then apply Cuticura Ointment. For eczemas, rashes, itchings, irritations, etc., they are wonderful. Use Cuticura Soap daily to keep your skin clear.

Soap 25. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 30T, Malden, Mass."

Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

PICNICS

Don't let the trouble of preparing the food and packing the basket worry you. Let us know in advance and we will do it for you—we follow orders or make suggestions.

BAKED HAM
BOILED HAM
ROAST PORK
OX TONGUE
COOKED CORNED BEEF
PRESSED HAM
MINCED HAM
MEAT LOAF
POTATO SALAD
MAYONNAISE

All kinds of Imported and Domestic Cheese
Pickles and Olives in bulk and bottles.

THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 FRANKLIN STREET

MAX CAREY, BABE ADAMS AND BIGBEE ARE TO BE RELEASED BY THE PIRATES

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 13—(AP)—The unconditional release of Babe Adams and Carson Bigbee, and the suspension of Captain Max Carey, without pay, indefinitely, was announced tonight at Pittsburgh baseball headquarters after a meeting of the players with officers to discuss dissension in the ranks.

Club officers said waivers would be asked on Carey and that he would be shipped immediately to any club claiming him.

Pie Traynor was named captain to succeed Carey.

The shakeup followed a movement led by the three players to oust from the players' bench Fred Clarke, vice-president of the club and advisor to Manager McKechnie.

With the champions leading the National league pennant chase at this final stage of the race, Sam Dreyfuss, treasurer of the club and son of the owner, Barney Dreyfuss, who is in Europe, decided late today to go to the bottom of the affair at once. When the players arrived from the east on a special train they went to Forbes field, home of the Pirates, where a meeting was held. Before the session broke Dreyfuss said "I'll do all the talking."

The release of the veterans Adams and Bigbee and the passing of Carey from the Pirate picture, was Dreyfuss' reply to charges of some players that two men, Clarke and McKechnie, were bossing the club. The drastic shake-up came after Clarke had announced he would not return to the bench until heavy penalties had been inflicted upon the offenders.

Internal strife in the ranks of the champions dated from the recent loss of a double-header to Boston, the Braves winning the Pirates twice.

Carey, in a statement, said he had heard several players comment adversely on the presence of Clarke on the bench.

He approached McKechnie and after telling the manager of the criticism he said, McKechnie appeared to favor the captain's stand. It was stated, Carey said, to put it up to the players. Carey explained that in acting as he did, he, as captain of the team, was spokesman for the discontents. He said he felt he had the confidence of the players.

Reports have it that a vote of the players later showed but six men voting against Clarke, the three included in tonight's action and three others as yet unnamed.

Clarke, learning of the movement, demanded action. Co-operating in the management of the club with young Dreyfuss, he stood in position to get action. He said he was surprised to learn of any such movement, since it hurt the club's chances to gain a second World's championship and seriously affected the morale of the players. His every suggestion, he said, had been made in good faith, with the idea that it would help win ball games.

McKechnie upheld Clarke. He spoke of their friendly relations on the playing field and commended Clarke highly for his assistance in managing a championship nine.

Carey, in explaining his part in the anti-Clarke movement, made it plain there was nothing personal, that he had the interest of the club at heart, and that what he sought to do was placate the players who felt the team needed but one boss.

After winning the pennant of 1909, Clarke went west to handle his personal business. Last year, while the Pirates were in a slump, rumor had it that Clarke was to purchase an interest in the club. As the Pirates got ground in the race, Clarke was named as vice-president and Barney Dreyfuss placed him in uniform, on the bench where he was to give McKechnie the benefit of his baseball knowledge. Soon after Clarke took his seat, the team started forward, and after a victorious race in the National circuit, plunged on to a World's championship by downing Washington.

At the meeting Dreyfuss, delivering the decision agreed upon himself, Clarke and McKechnie, said:

"We engage players to play and to stay in condition on and off the field. Clarke, McKechnie and I each have our separate and distinct duties to perform. Those tasks cover a multitude of responsibilities but we can not tolerate that which has happened in our ranks.

"After considering the matter with extreme care we have come to the following conclusion with regard to the three involved:

"Charles Adams, unconditionally released.

"Carson Bigbee, unconditionally released.

"Charles Adams, unconditionally released.

"Max Carey, suspended without pay, pending action on waivers requested.

"The Pirate officials found it very hard to take this action on these players who were the oldest in the point of service but it was our only way out.

"If the opportunity comes to purchase stars who will help the Pirates, the Pittsburgh management will spend unlimited sums to add to the efficiency of the club."

PLAYGROUND SPORTS

Baseball

In a listless nine inning game Lake street vanquished the Jail Hill ball team, yesterday afternoon at the Academy campus. Flaherty, Lake street utility pitcher proved ineffective against the batting onslaughts of Les Carolin men. Gillis, star twirler for the visitors with the exception of the seventh inning pitched a stellar game.

The lineups: Jail Hill, Matthews ss, Hamilton 2nd, O'Neill 3rd, Gillis p, Matthews A. c, Kuker 1b, Zana lf, Amber cf, Cox rf, Lake street: V. Mingo 3rd, Flaherty p Anton 1b, Nick lf, Connell cf, P. Labenski c, Zigy rf.

L. S.	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	0— 3
J. H.	2	2	0	3	1	0	0	1	0—10

Girls Events: The Lake street girls took the straddle ball and field hockey contests, while Jail Hill emerged victors in the dodge ball contest.

Umpire: John P. Murphy.

JR. TWILIGHT LEAGUE

Brasscos Blank Centennials

Last night at the Academy campus Eddie Segal pitched the Brasscos to a 5-0 game in a four inning Junior Twilight game with the Centennials. In spite of the darkness Ellie showed plenty of control as well as stuff on the ball. P. Labenski and Kellar were the twirlers for the losers.

The lineup: Brasscos, Blinderman ss, Segal p, Sadinski 2b, Irbicki c, Joe Ulrich lf, John Ulrich 1b, W. Rankin ss, McCarthy cf, R. Rankin rf; Centennials, P. Labenski c, P. Labenski p, Vittiano 2b, Tibbetts 1b, Flaherty cf, Supplicki ss, Kellar 2b, Connell lf, Ruffo rf.

Brasscos	2	2	0	0	—5
Centennials	0	0	0	0	—0

Umpire: John P. Murphy, time 45 minutes.

While these sudden thunder showers spell a lot of picnic parties they do a lot of good to the parched earth.

JONES PITCHES YANTIC TO WIN OVER BONTONS

Gil Jones pitched another fine game in the twilight league Friday night, and Yantic defeated the Bon Tons 5 to 1. Yantic's star pitcher allowed the Bon Tons but two hits, and fanned seven in five innings.

Glover, a newcomer in the league, started in the box for the Bon Tons and pitched the first three innings. Although Yantic made only six hits, errors by his team-mates lost Glover the game. Robinson, pitched the last inning and blanked Yantic without a hit.

Yantic scored enough runs, in the opening inning to win the game. In this frame, singles by Hoxie, and Rathbone, a double by Jones, and a couple of errors accounted for three runs. In the next inning, Yantic pushed another run across on a single by Normandin, a stolen base and another misplay. In the third, Yantic scored their last tally on Rathbone's single, a stolen base and another error.

The Bon Tons scored their only run in the fourth, when Frost singled, stole second and came home on DeBarros' double to center.

Rathbone, led the hitters with two hits out of as many times at bat. The score:

Bon Tons	ab	h	po	a	e	Yantic	ab	h	po	a	e
Frost,2b	2	1	0	0	0	Normandin,ss	2	1	0	2	0
Hart,3b	2	0	1	0	1	Reale,2b	2	1	4	2	0
Robinson,p,lf	2	0	1	2	0	J.Lakes,rf	2	0	0	1	0
DeBarros,1b	2	1	2	0	0	Jones,p	3	1	0	0	0
Scott,lf	2	0	0	0	0	Rathbone,3b	2	2	3	0	0
Morgan,rf	2	0	0	0	0	Hoxie,1b	1	0	4	1	0
Roderick,cf	2	0	0	0	0	Hamel,c	2	1	7	0	0
Dunkins,c	2	0	0	0	0	Charlie,cf	1	0	0	0	0
Glover,p,ss	1	0	0	2	0	McCall,lf	0	0	0	0	0
						H.LaBelle,rf	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	17	2	12	6	0	Totals	18	6	16	5	1

Score by innings:

Bon Tons	0	0	0	1	0—	1
Yantic	2	1	1	1	0—	5

Two base hits, DeBarros, Hamel. Three base hit, Jones. Hit by pitcher, by Glover (Normandin). Struck out, by Jones 7, by Glover 4, by Robinson 2. Bases on balls, off Glover 2.

Standing of Twilight League

Team	W	L	Pct
E. C. P. Co.	6	1	.857
Yantic	5	2	.714
St. Joseph's	5	3	.625
East Ends	4	4	.500
Warriors	2	6	.250
Bon Tons	1	7	.125

DANIELSON TWILIGHT GAME IS POSTPONED—RAIN

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 13—The Twilight league contest scheduled for Thursday evening between the Kilowatts and Cleavers was postponed until next Monday evening because of rain. The league has started the final round, this contest will end the first week of this round. The Naildrivers and Buddies enter the race almost even and so far in front that it looks impossible for any team to catch them. If the Buddies win all their contests including the one with the Naildrivers next Tuesday night, they will finish in front. The Naildrivers may tie the Buddies by beating them in this contest and winning their remaining games.

The Standing

Buddies	9	2	.818
Naildrivers	8	3	.727
Cleavers	5	5	.500
Paco	4	7	.364
Kilowatts	3	7	.300
Conn. Mills	3	8	.273

Monday night—Cleavers vs. Kilowatts.

Tuesday—Naildrivers vs. Buddies.

Wednesday—Cleavers vs. Pacos. Mills.

BENEFIT GAME AT DANIELSON ENDS IN SCORELESS TIE

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 13—A team of picked ball players from the Danielson Twilight league battled for five innings with a picked nine of the Wauregan Twilight league to a scoreless tie here tonight, darkness bringing the game to a close. Tonight's contest was the closest fought game the local fans have seen this year. It was a pitchers' battle throughout neither hurler seeming to gain much headway against the other. Of fifteen men to face the Wauregan pitcher, Dessert, who fanned six and walked Gasiorik, the only Danielson man to reach first. Ben Bernier, pitching for Danielson, struck out nine of the sixteen men to face him and allowed two scattered hits, the only ones of the contest. Dessert reached first on a hot grounder past second, but was left on base when Bernier struck the next three men out. In the third Pellerin got on through a scratch hit over first, but he was caught off by Bernier. A difficult catch by the Wauregan third baseman, Gibeault, of a foul ball, which he garnered after a hard run through a crowd of spectators on the sidelines featured. Tonight's game was a benefit contest for Catcher Frechette of the Kilowatts, who fractured his ankle in sliding into second in a game last week. The score:

Wauregan	ab	h	po	a	e	Danielson	ab	h	po	a	e
Bernell,ss	2	0	1	1	0	Lambert,1b	2	0	5	0	0
Gervais,c	2	0	4	1	0	Gaudet,c	1	0	9	1	0
Goyette,rf	2	0	1	0	0	Bernier,p	2	0	0	2	0
Dessert,p	2	1	0	1	0	Gisik,s	2	0	0	0	0
Duval,1b	2	0	4	0	0	LaBelle,3b	2	0	0	1	0
Burns,rf	1	0	0	0	0	H.LaJe	2	0	0	0	0
A.Gib'ult,3b	2	0	2	0	0	Hubert,lf	1	0	0	0	0
E.Pel'rin 2b	1	1	1	1	0	Richette,2b	1	0	1	0	0
Dorion,lf	1	0	0	0	0	Thomas,rf	2	0	0	0	0
Jarvis,rf	1	0	0	0	0	Beeres,rf	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	16	2	15	4	0	Totals	15	0	15	5	1

Score by innings

Wauregan	0	0	0	0	0—	0
Danielson	0	0	0	0	0—	0

Struck out, by Dessert 6, by Bernier 2. Bases on balls, off Dessert 1.

NOT A STREET FIGHTER DECLARES JACK DEMPSEY

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 13—(AP)—"Hoodlums fight in the street."

This was the answer of Jack Dempsey when told today of the offer of Harry Wills to knock the champion out any time he wants, for nothing. Dempsey said he did not make his living fighting in the streets and has always tried to uphold the boxing game.

"If Wills is very anxious to fight," said Dempsey, "I suggest he come right up here and meet my chief sparring partner, Big Bill Tate. The last time they met, at Portland, Ore., Tate beat Wills decisively, and we would like to bet $10,000 that he can do it again."

Gene Normile, Dempsey's manager, announced the champion would begin his road work tomorrow and would undertake extensive training Sunday.

Fort Trumbull Stars vs. Airlie.

This is a game that is sure to attract many fans this afternoon to the Airlie field at Hanover. The Fort Trumbull Stars always have a well-balanced team and as the Aarlies have lately been winning their way through all opposition a rear treat is in store.

Dundee-McGraw Bout Postponed

NEW YORK, Aug. 13—(AP)—Rain tonight caused postponement of the boxing bouts at the Coney Island stadium featuring the Johnny Dundee-Phil McGraw clash. The program will be staged Monday night.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

All games postponed, wet grounds.

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	61	45	.575
St. Louis	61	49	.555
Cincinnati	62	51	.549
New York	57	52	.523
Chicago	57	52	.523
Brooklyn	53	58	.477
Boston	44	64	.407
Philadelphia	41	65	.387

GAMES TODAY.

Chicago at St. Louis.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
Boston at Brooklyn.
New York at Philadelphia. (2)

Sunday Games

Chicago at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Cincinnati.
Boston at Brooklyn.
Only games scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

New York 7, Washington 5.
Philadelphia-Boston, wet grounds.

THE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Cleveland	64	51	.557
Philadelphia	61	52	.540
Detroit	59	55	.518
Chicago	57	57	.500
St. Louis	48	64	.429
Boston	35	76	.315
New York	72	42	.632
Washington	57	55	.509

GAMES TODAY

Philadelphia at Boston.
St. Louis at Cleveland.
Detroit at Chicago.
Washington at New York.

Sunday Games

St. Louis at Cleveland.
Detroit at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Boston at New York.

Eastern League

Albany 7, Hartford 0.
Providence 3, Bridgeport 0.
New Haven 1, Springfield 0.
Pittsfield 10, Waterbury 9.

American Association

Indianapolis 1, Kansas City 7.
Louisville 2 Milwaukee 3.
Columbus-Minneapolis, double header postponed, rain.
Toledo-St. Paul double header, postponed, rain.

International League

Syracuse 3-1, Jersey City 1-2.
Toronto 8-5, Reading 6-3.
Newark 3, Rochester 0.
Only games played.

GEHRIG'S HOMERS HELP YANKS BEAT SENATORS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Gehrig, with two homers, led New York to a 7 to 5 victory over Washington after the Yankees had dropped three games in a row here. Gehrig made both of his circuits hits off Johnson, in the fourth inning with on one on and in the sixth. Combs scoring also. In the seventh Combs got a homer off Morris. Score:

New York (A)	ab	r	h	o	a	e	Washington (A)	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Koenig,ss	5	0	0	1	3	0	McNeely,lf	4	1	2	1	0	0
Combs,cf	4	1	2	0	0	0	Stewart,2b	4	1	2	2	5	0
Gehrig,1b	4	2	2	12	1	0	Miller,rf	4	1	1	3	0	0
Ruth,lf	4	1	1	3	0	0	Myer,ss	3	0	0	2	4	0
Pennock,rf	4	0	2	1	0	0	Goslin,cf	4	1	1	1	0	1
Lazzeri,2b	4	1	1	2	3	0	Judge,1b	4	0	1	10	2	0
Dugan,3b	4	0	0	4	0	0	Bluege,3b	3	0	0	2	4	0
Collins,c	4	1	2	4	0	0	Tate,c	4	0	0	6	0	0
Hoyt,p	0	0	0	0	0	0	Johnson,p	2	0	0	0	2	0
							Morrell,p	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	7	12	27	15	1	Crowder,p	0	0	0	0	0	0
							Ballenger	1	0	0	0	0	0
							Totals	35	5	7	27	15	1

(a) Batted for Morrell in 9th.

Score by innings

New York	1	0	0	3	0	1	0	0	2—	7
Washington	0	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	0—	5

Two base hits, Ruth 2, Lazzeri, Stewart, Goslin. Three base hit, McNeely. Home runs, Gehrig 2, Combs. Stolen bases, Koenig, Ruth, Lazzeri, Stewart, Goslin, Bluege. Sacrifice hits, Koenig, Hoyt, Lazzeri, Myer. Double plays, Koenig to Lazzeri to Gehrig; Stewart to Myer to Judge. Left on bases, New York 8, Washington 6. Bases on balls, off Johnson 1, off Morrell 1, off Crowder 1. Struck out, by Hoyt 3, by Johnson 1, by Morrell 1. Hits, off Johnson 6 in 8 innings, off Morrell 1 in 1 inning, off Crowder 0 in 0 innings. Losing pitcher, Johnson. Umpires, Messrs. Geisel, Hildebrand and Owens. Time, 2:00. Attendance, 4,000.

SONS OF ITALY AND VELVETMEN PLAY SUNDAY

J. B. Martin meets one of the strongest opponents yet to appear on the schedule this season when the Sons of Italy of South Manchester will oppose the Velvetmen at the J. B. Martin grounds on Sunday. This Club is one of the fastest semi-pro teams in the state and the lineup includes most of the most prominent players in semi-pro ball. This club has a wonderful record this season, out of 31 starts having won 23 lost 9 and played 2 tie games. They have defeated some of the best clubs in the state including Glastonbury, Windsor Locks, All Kensington, Middletown, Yellow Cab of Providence, Bristol Clock Co., Naugatuck and also broke the winning streak of the Insilco's of Meriden, this club winning twelve straight games. They will lineup as follows: Le Bel rf, Stratton or Partons 3b, Wright or Barton ss, Sipples cf, St. John rf Ballsieper or Farrell 1b, Wallett or Lamphere c, Zwick 2b, Holland or Fisher p.

The J. B. Martin manager will use the same lineup that defeated Ashland A. A. last Sunday: J. Murphy c, Pepin or Lemieux p, J. Joubert 1b, F. Smith 2b, F. G'ev 3b, DeCelles ss. In the outfield will be W. Glev cf, E. Joubert rf and E. Murphy lf. Utility, U. Pepin.

Game to be called 3:15 D. S. T. Simcox and Roy will officiate.

RIVERVIEW CLUB TO CLASH WITH RED SOX THIS AFTERNOON

At 3 o'clock at the Norwich State hospital diamond the Riverview club will clash with the Corbin Red Sox in the third and deciding game of the series between these two clubs. Each club has a victory to its credit and both teams will put its full strength on the field this afternoon in an effort to take the series. The Red Sox, although having lost slight claim to the state semi-pro championship, could badly smear up the nice record of the Riverview, leading contenders for the title.

The Red Sox will use Berg, formerly of the Springfield Easter league club, against Riverview with a team greatly strengthened by a number of new players of state-wide reputation. Manager Zemke of the Riverview team will send Tony West against the famed Berg and more or less of a pitchers' battle is to be expected.

The lineups for the teams are as follows:

Riverview—Liberty 3d 3b, Moore cf, Mills lf, Clabby rf, Farrell 1b, Hamil 2b, Normandin ss, Belair c, Dugas p, West p.

Corbin Red Sox of New Britain—Fitzpatrick 3b, Snyder rf, Blanchard 1b, Barnett ss, Smith cf, Huband c, Jervis lf, Wojack 2b, Flynn p, Berg p.

Alpert Wins Junior Title

CHICAGO, Aug. 13—(AP)—Shooting an uphill game through most of the 36 holes, Sam Alpert, a 15-year-old Chicago southpaw, won the Western Junior Golf championship today by upsetting Francis Clary, an 18-year-old Lincoln park progidy and former caddy, 2 and 1.

Sam, the youngest member of the Illinois Junior Golf association, is the first portsider to win a major association tournament in the United States in 25 years.

There is always room at the top, especially for improvement.

SEMI-FINALS IN SHENECOSSETT TOURNEY WILL BE PLAYED TODAY

EASTERN POINT, Conn., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Max Martson, former national amateur champion, and J. B. Mackie, Jr., of Inwood, L. I., former New York state junior champion, survived today's two preliminary rounds of match play in the upper bracket of the championship 16 of the seventh men's annual amateur invitation golf championship for the Griswold trophy.

Of the eight matched in the lower bracket for the first round this morning Spencer Brainard of Branford, and F. M. Hancock of Providence, R. I., went successfully through the succeeding round to enter the semi-finals which will be played tomorrow morning.

Mackie who played the best golf of the day, made short work of his two opponents, winning both matches, 7 and 6. He defeated George Smart of Hartford in the morning and Paul R. O'Connell of Worcester, Mass., in the afternoon. He went out in par during the forenoon and in one under par in the afternoon.

Marston advanced at the expense of H. John Hiemenz, Lancaster, Pa., in the morning, 2 and 1, and John Sills, Hartford, 1 up, in the afternoon.

Paul Haviland, of Bridgeport, battled Henry Topping, Greenwich, to the 23rd hole before winning his forenoon match, 1 up, only to be defeated this afternoon by Brainard, 1 up. Brainard won his first round match from Tommy Aycock, Jacksonville, Fla., 3 and 2. The former's card for the 18 holes in the afternoon was one over par 72.

Hancock advanced to the semi-finals by defeating Quincy Ryan, Short Hills, N. J., 2 and 1, in the first round, and D. S. Gamble, New Haven, 2 and 1, this afternoon.

Semi-finals in all divisions will come tomorrow morning. In the afternoon the finals in all divisions except the championship flight will be played. The latter, for 36 holes, comes Sunday.

The three who tied for medalist with a 75 each yesterday for the qualifying round will play off tomorrow afternoon. They are Paul Haviland, former Yale captain, H. John Helmenz, Lancaster, Pa., former central Pennsylvania champion, and Paul R. O'Connell of Worcester, Mass. All three were eliminated today from further championship play, Hiemenz in the first round, and the other two in the second.

DEMPSEY'S HEARING AT INDIANAPOLIS POSTPONED

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Aug. 13—(AP)—Unexplained absence of the judge today prevented hearing in a Marion county superior court of a petition for a temporary injunction to prevent Jack Dempsey from defending his heavyweight crown until he fulfills a contract claimed to be held by the Chicago Coliseum club.

Attorneys for the Chicago organization, which maintains Dempsey is under contract to it to box Harry Wills, negro challenger, and legal representatives of the champion awaited in vain the arrival of Judge Clinton H. Givan. The judge was reported to be at his summer home near here.

When no word had been received at noon, attorneys for the complainant sent a representative to the summer home in search of the missing judge, but to no avail. At the end of the court day, representatives of Dempsey said they had answered the call, issued a statement and indicated they were through with the local case.

A. F. Driscoll of New York city an attorney for Dempsey prepared the statement which denied that Dempsey ever was under contract to the Chicago Coliseum club.

"The leading boxing promoters of the country are of the opinion that a fight between Dempsey and Wills would hurt the boxing game and they do not want any part in it," the statement said.

MISS WILLS MAY QUIT TENNIS FOR THE SEASON

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Helen Wills, women's tennis champion, indicated tonight she might withdraw from the national title play next week as a result of her defeat today in the semi-finals of the New York state tournament by Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, 6-8, 6-4, 6-2.

The three time title holder, admitting she was very tired after the first set, wired her father, Dr. C. A. Wills of Berkeley, Cal., asking whether she should continue her play. Her participation in the championship play next week is expected to hinge on his reply.

"I felt fine in the first set but later that things didn't go well," the youthful champion said. She has been trying to regain from after a two months' absence from the court following an operation for appendicitis in Europe.

SUB BASE AT JEWETT CITY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Sunday afternoon at Ashland park Jewett City the Ashland A. A. takes on the fast traveling Sub Base team in the second game of the series. The base is at the present time leading the New London city league and have defeated some of the fastest semi-pro clubs in that state including the Connecticut Aggies.

For Sundays game Manager Liberty has secured the services of "Freddie" Hemming of Worcester, Mass., one of the leading semi-pro pitchers in Central Massachusetts.

The Sub Base will lineup: McConn c, Weichen p, Lefty Harrel 1b, Burchette 2b, Bergeal ss, Raffur 3b, Parker lf, Harrington cf, Meska rf.

Ashland's lineup will include Bill Liberty c, Hemming p, Robertson 1b, Cimikoski 2b, Joe Kendricks ss, Chip Dugas 3b, Joe Gilbert lf, Raill cf, Benjamin rf, Lee Gilbert, Stanley and Weston, utility.

Tommy Corcoran will hold the indicator.

WARRIORS TO PLAY BEARCATS TODAY

This Saturday afternoon at Duwell field the Warriors and Bearcats will clash in the first game of their series to decide the city amateur championship for the season. A fast game should be the result as both clubs are the bitterest of rivals.

Both clubs will present their strongest lineups in the fray and attempt to gain the decision in the first game of this important series.

The probable lineups follow:

Bearcats—Dudek or P. Finn, p; Lamory, c; Phalen, 1b; Lagare, 2b; Martin, ss; Lemieux, 3b Finn, lf; Rockdale, cf; Gero, rf.

Warriors—Healey, p; Tombari, c; Couture, 1b; Sadinsky, 2b; Hamill, 3b; W. Burns, ss; Fitzgerald, lf; Jackson, cf; Segal, rf.

TAFTVILLE A. A. OUT FOR REVENGE THIS AFTERNOON

The Taftville A. A. is all set to get revenge on the Shamrocks of Manchester this afternoon at the Providence street grounds for the beating that the Shamrocks handed Taftville last Sunday. Manager Troland ran against a tough proposition last week when he lost a pitching duel to the Shamrocks but expects to even up matters this afternoon with the visitors.

Manager Troland is depending on Lefty Buckland to turn back the Manchester club and with the team at full strength should have little difficulty in turning the trick. Buckland has been pitching good ball for Taftville this season and has put this club up among the leaders for state honors. Manager Troland has announced that Archie Meuller and Arthur Roy will be the umpires for the game. The lineups for the teams will be:

Manchester—Smith, p; Kelly, c; McLaugh, 1b; Kellar, 2b; Brennan, 3b; Brownell, ss; Mantellie, lf; Gray, cf; Genevese, rf.

Taftville—Buckland, p; Eccleston, c; Cardie, 1b; Tombari, 2b; Yerrington, 3b; Gauthier, ss; Leo Jarvis, cf; Dona, rf.

TODAY'S SPORTS

Racing

Meeting of Saratoga association, at Saratoga.

Meeting of Lincoln Fields Jockey club, at Chicago.

Meeting of Dorval Jockey club opens at Montreal.

Tennis

National public parks championships, at Philadelphia.

Western Canada hard court championships, at Edmonton.

National junior and boys' championships, at Chicago.

East-West matches begin at Forest Hills, N. Y.

Atlantic Coast championship opens at Ocean City, N. J.

Roque

National championship tournament, at Winona Lake, Ind.

Golf

Iowa women's championship tournament at Des Moines.

CANOEING

American Canoe association regatta opens on Lake George.

YACHTING

Lake Michigan Yachting association regatta.

SACHEMS AND WARRIORS IN BATTLE SUNDAY

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Duwell field, the Warriors and Sachems will book up in the second game of the series. The Warriors won the first game of this series played several weeks ago but the Sachems will be out strong to take this second game and even up the series. The Sachems have also disputed the Warriors claim to any city championship honors and will enter Sunday's fray determined to show the Warriors some real baseball.

However, the Warriors will also present their strongest lineup which has performed so well thus far this season and an interesting contest should be the result.

The probable lineups follow:

Sachems—Tombri, c; Orlando or Greene, p; Burke, 1b; Morin, 2b; Finnegan, 3b; Rankin, ss; R. McBurney, cf; Segal, rf.

Warriors—J. Burns, c; Couture, p; Kampf, 1b; Sadinsky, 2b; Hamill, 3b; W. Burns, ss; Fitzgerald, lf; Jackson, cf; Healey, rf.

This Fan Also Saw the Game.

Sports Editor: I was a spectator of the baseball game last Saturday between the Taftville A. A. and the Elm City Giants at Taftville, and upon reading the letter in Wednesday's Bulletin from Mr. Wells, I would like to put in a word, too, as regards the umpiring I witnessed there.

To begin with I heartily concur in all Mr. Wells said, only he did not make it half strong enough. I witnessed the game from the grand stand immediately behind the plate. I have played the game both as an amateur and pro off and on for the past 35 years, and in my experience in all that time I never have seen umpiring to equal it. It made me, a stranger and a disinterested spectator, boil over and I haven't got over it yet. I made the remark after the game to some of my friends that the umpire was either grossly ignorant of the rules of the game as also grossly unfair, and in either event was totally unfit to be in the position he occupied.

I give the visiting team credit for showing themselves to be gentlemen. They refused to start an argument even after the spectators advised them to quit. I don't know how they stood for it and kept on playing. I know I couldn't have done so. The love I have for the national game and fair play has induced me to write you this letter. For the good of the game and good feeling all around I don't want to see another game handled as that one was.

FAIR PLAY.

Owen Sold to Profs

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 13—(AP)—Lem Owen, star pitcher of the Hartford club of the Eastern league, has been purchased by the New Haven club, it was announced tonight by G. W. Weiss, owner of the New Haven team. He will report here Sunday. Owen last year won 19 games for the Hartford club.

NEW WORLD'S SWIMMING RECORD MADE BY WOMAN

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 13—(AP)—Brita Hazelius, a 17-year-old swimmer, made what is claimed to be a new world's swimming record for women today when she won the 400-metre race breast stroke in six minutes 59.3 seconds.

The world's record 400 metres breast stroke for women is seven minutes 20 seconds. It was made by I. Gilbert, British swimmer, at Bradford, England in October, 1923.

BASEBALL SUNDAY
J. B. Martin Grounds, Taftville.
J. B. MARTIN CLUB vs.
South Manchester Sons of Italy
Batteries—J. B. Martin, Pepin, Lemieux and Murphy. Sons of Italy, Holland, Fisher and Wallett.
At 3:15 (D. S. T.)

BASEBALL TODAY
STATE HOSPITAL DIAMOND
RIVERVIEW CLUB vs.
CORBIN RED SOX
Batteries—Riverview, West or Dugas and Belair. Red Sox—Berg and Huband.
Game Called at 3 o'Clock.
BUSSES TO AND FROM THE GAME.

BASEBALL SUNDAY
ASHLAND PARK, Jewett City
ASHLAND A. A. vs. SUB. BASE
Game Called at 3:15 (D. S. T.)
Batteries—Sub. Base, Weichen, p; McCann, c. Ashland A. A., Hemming, p; Liberty, c.

BASEBALL TODAY
PROVIDENCE ST. GROUNDS, TAFTVILLE
At 3:15 o'Clock
TAFTVILLE A. A. vs.
MANCHESTER SHAMROCKS
Batteries—Taftville, Buckland and Eccleston. Manchester, Smith and Kelly. Umpires—Roy and Meuller.

ARMY-NAVY CLUB SIGNS KID SMOKE AND AL BEAUREGARD FOR MAIN BOUT

For the main bout of the first boxing show to be given by the Army-Navy club of Taftville on Sept. 1 at Parish hall Matchmaker Armond Beauregard has signed "Kid Smoke" Sylvia of Taunton, Mass., and Young Al Beauregard of Taftville, former state flyweight champion. Matchmaker Beauregard has shown good judgment in the choice of his main go for both boys are known in this section of the state. Young Beauregard being a local boy and Kid Smoke a fast lad that holds a decision over Beauregard when he was fighting under the name of Young Coulon.

AL BEAUREGARD

Those who saw Beauregard knock the state flyweight crown from the head of Young Rollason at Duwell field about a year ago know that he has the goods. Any boy that can gain a decision over Beauregard must be a boy that will make a fast fight for the customers. The Taunton lad has quite an impressive record for he has beaten Joey Williams, another boy who is well known here, Charley Baxter of Pawtucket, Young Mara of Lawrence, Mass., and Tommy Duff, who beat Tony Mandell at Providence only recently. Sylvia holds a decision over Beauregard at New Bedford last winter and from all accounts this was one of the top-notch fights of the boxing season in the textile city.

Both Beauregard and Sylvia have been anxious to meet again as neither will be satisfied with a lesser victory than a knockout. Beauregard is now stationed at Camp Devens with the regular army and tons the flyweights of the army area. He is always in fighting trim and will be in even better shape than when he fought Rollason.

For the semi-final Matchmaker Beauregar dhas brought Red Mourdan of Fall River together with Young Connelly of the Coast Guard division at New London. Young Connelly is a scrappy little lightweight and local boxing followers were very much pleased with his exhibition here at the K. of C. lawn party several weeks ago. Connelly holds the Coast Guard Pacific Coast lightweight title which means that he had to fight aplenty to win it.

A six rounder is also planned as well as a four round preliminary bout and for the six-rounder Scotty Carroll of New London is to be one of the principals while it is possible that Kid Wagner of Taftville may be his opponent. However, these two touts are yet in the works.

LESS WORDS AND MORE ACTION FOR AVIATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—(AP)—Aviation, choice subject for extended debate in congress two years ago, was slighted in words but rewarded in more action at the last session.

Three bills designed to build up aviation were enacted into law, one each for the army, navy and the commercial industry. They created additional assistant secretaries in the war, navy and commerce departments to supervise and promote aviation development.

Fix Age Of Plane

In the two acts dealing with the army and navy air services, congress also declared a policy that for the next five years no airplanes could be classified as of the first line of defense if more than three years old. Other provisions included:

For The Army

For the Army air service:

Changing the name of the service to Air corps.

A strength of 1804 new planes and a number of small airships, free and captive balloons.

Ninety per cent of the officer personnel must be fliers.

An increase from two to three in brigadier generals.

Increased representation on the army general staff.

For The Navy

For the Navy air service:

Expenditures of $85,000,000 over a five-year period for new equipment 1,000 new airplanes by the end of the period.

Two new dirigibles each three times the size of the wrecked Shenandoah.

Provision for flying officers to command airplane carriers and other air detachments.

Frigidaire
THE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR for MODERN HOMES
CARL W. BROWN, Inc.
Telephone 348.
ASK FOR LIST OF OVER 100 LOCAL USERS.

POETRY

Roadside Flowers

Lovely are roadside flowers,
Straying from garden grounds;
Lovers of idle hours,
Breakers of ordered bounds.

If only the earth will feed them,
If only the wind be kind,
They blossom for those who need them,
The stragglers left behind.

And, lo, the Lord of the Garden,
He makes His sun to rise,
And His rain to fall like pardon
On their dusty Paradise.

On them He has laid the duty,
The task of the wandering breed,
To better the world with beauty,
Wherever the way may lead.

—Gems.

A Smiling Demon of Notre Dame

Quiet as are the quiet skies
He watches where the city lies
Floating in vision clear or dim
Through sun or rain beneath his eyes;
Her sighs, her laughter, and her cries
Hour after hour drift up to him.

Her days of glory or disgrace
He watches with unchanging face;
He knows what midnight crimes are done
What horrors under summer sun;
And souls that pass in holy dearth
Creep by him on the morning's breath

Alike to holiness and sin
He feels nor alien nor akin;
Five hundred creeping mortal years
He smiles on human joy and tears.
Man-made immortal scorning man;
Grave grotesque Olympian

—Sophie Jewett.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Mother: Well, Bobbie, what do you think of your teacher on your first day at school?

Bobbie: Not much—she had to ask me how to spell rat.—American Legion Weekly.

[illegible] long before she'll make [illegible] appearance?

Sister (opening door bell)—She's already missing it now.—Whirlwind.

You and your husband seem to get along better nowadays, Mrs. Hope." "That's because we have now set aside a day in the week to do all the fighting. On the other days we keep [illegible]."—London Passing Show.

Sam: The Lord made us beautiful and dumb.

Jess: I believe that.

Beautiful, so the men would love us and dumb so that we could love them. —Navy Log.

One Neighbor (to another)—"Is this your advertisement in the paper for a lost dog?"

Yes."

Why, you never had a dog to lose."

I know; but I want one now, and think I can make a satisfactory selection from the animals the advertisement is describing."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Here, you!" bellowed the superintendent of the zoo. "Our $10,000 South American sloth has gone!"

"Oh, he can't have gone!" expostulated the new keeper. "I put him in the cage with the boa constrictor."—Bursts.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Paper money will stand being folded [illegible] times before it breaks.

A woman is estimated to have about [illegible] cent. as much ability and endurance as a man of similar weight.

[illegible] Bunker Hill, in nightly use [illegible] for 151 years, is the target for [illegible] lamps of 15,000,000 candle power as the result of a new system [illegible] the monument at its [illegible] station for twelve miles. Two [illegible] 500 holes each supporting [illegible] green-hued incandescent lights [illegible] powerful beams on the [illegible]

The Yellowstone National Park jail has had a prisoner in its thirty-[illegible] existence and now has [illegible]. The only thing the jail [illegible] has been liquor which has [illegible] to run runners from the [illegible] resident. A park official asserted. The jail was built in 1894, [illegible] past way, under the administration of the United States army. [illegible] some prisoners were housed in [illegible] guard house.

[illegible] per cent. efficiency against [illegible] smoke is the standard adopted by the United States bureau of [illegible] for gas masks to assure protection from smoke and dust. Many [illegible] chief respirators and many [illegible] ranging from cheesecloth [illegible] cotton to canton [illegible] were used in the laboratory tests [illegible] by S. H. Katz, G. W. [illegible] and E. [illegible] Mott... Tobacco smoke was used as a criterion because it is especially difficult to [illegible] affords a severe test for the respirators. While their use among such dusty industries as [illegible] should be encouraged, the [illegible] that respirators can not be regarded as a final safeguard, the [illegible] says.

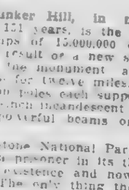
[illegible] balloon stations are often [illegible] some of the dangers [illegible] began to attend balloon [illegible] the races recently held [illegible] Lake Erie. Aside a new danger [illegible] cared for meteorological char[illegible] according to a report to the [illegible] States weather bureau from [illegible] A. Riley of the aerological station [illegible] Brown-Arrow, Okla. "While [illegible] the pilots were sailing over [illegible] mountains of Kentucky and Virginia," says Mr. Riley, "several of the [illegible] proceeded to shoot them [illegible] A piece of the balloons was hit, [illegible] evidently merely an admonition [illegible] these native sons for the pilots [illegible] of their way." It is supposed [illegible] the mountaineers mistook the aerial [illegible] for "revenuers" on the lookout [illegible] for stills.

GENEVA Aug. 12.—Andrew W. Mellon, American secretary of the treasury, who has been visiting in Europe, arrived here today from Aix-les-Bains, Mr. Mellon plans to spend several weeks in Switzerland in company with his daughter, Mrs. David Bruce, wife of the American vice consul at Paris.

Tortured by rash on face

Resinol stops itching and makes skin clear and smooth

Piney Creek, N. C., Jan. 4:—"I had a breaking out on my face that looked like chicken pox. I suffered so from it that at night I would not sleep for hours at a time. I tried various remedies, but nothing did me any good until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. It stopped the itching and burning instantly and after a few applications the skin peeled off and left my face clear and smooth, instead of rough and pimply. I don't know of anything better than the Resinol products." (Signed) W. E. Mitchell.



IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

In the Norwich Bulletin of 1876 appears an interesting article on "Eastern Point", giving the names of first cottagers to locate there and mentions that Norwich capital and Norwich enterprise has been responsible for the growth of this section as a summer resort.

Other items of interest taken from the Bulletins of 50 years ago are in part as follows:

Monday, August 7, 1876—At 12:45 o'clock this morning Officer Irish discovered smoke issuing from the front basement window of Cosgrove's shoe store on Franklin Square and gave the alarm from box 23. The firemen soon put in appearance with their apparatus and under the leadership of Chief Carrier had two lines of hose at the rear of the building. Owing to the bursting of two hydrants the fire gained rapid headway before the Norwich city water works got fairly at work, and then it was a simple matter to extinguish the flames. The loss could not be learned but it is estimated to be heavy as considerable packed goods were stored in the basement. The cause of the fire was unknown.

The Stars and Hood pistol shop played a game of baseball on the Norwich Town green, Saturday, the Stars winning 17 to 6. The batteries were: Stars, Bond, pitch and Gilbert, catch; pistol shop, Connor, pitch and Davis, catch.

Contrary to the usual custom the Otis library is to remain open this month, which fact the purchasers of tickets will do well to remember.

A sister ship to the Stonington steamer Rhode Island, will be launched this month.

Tuesday, August 8, 1876—The Norwich Rowing club has raised $120 for its boat and will not solicit outside subscriptions. The association has begun a healthy life and it is hoped that it may long continue it.

The Norwich Rifle club has accepted the challenge of the Crescent City rifle club of New Orleans, for a shoot on October 12th.

At the common council meeting last evening a committee was appointed to see that all back sewer assessments were collected without further delay. Alderman Gibbs pointed out that the policemen had refused to accept the cut in salary as made by the committee after the city meeting had cut down the appropriation. The officers, he stated, claimed that the city ordinance fixing their salaries had not been repealed. The council voted to repeal the former ordinance and voted that the council be empowered to fix the salaries at a rate to correspond with the diminished appropriations The ordinance was also changed to read that the police force shall not exceed, instead of shall not consist of more etc. Several petitions were granted, one of them the unusual petition that the lines of certain streets be changed so as to save many fine trees.

Wednesday, August 9, 1876—At the request of Judge Shields the common council has appointed an auditor to go over the city court records. The council forgot to appoint an auditor last year and Judge Shields requested them to appoint one this year. Judge Shields is very accurate and we know his accounts will be found correct.

At an adjourned meeting of the Lorenzo Blackstone Hose company, held last evening, Frank A. Wells was elected foreman and treasurer, vice James McQuire Jr. resigned.

During the past three days the mercury has reached an average of 95 degrees, yesterday with 97 degrees being the hottest of the three days.

There will be a race on the river Saturday night between J. Connor and R. Stack in the Luna and M. Beebe and Jessie McCord in the Gussie.

At Danielsonville the plans and specifications for the Music hall building have been received and the building committee is ready to receive bids.

At New London the city council has granted the railroad company the use of the water in front of the city property for a term of three years, the price for the lease not yet being settled upon. A city meeting is to be called if the railroad desires a longer lease.

Thursday, August 10, 1876—Tickets for the round trip from Norwich to Philadelphia either by boat or by rail, have been fixed at $7.25. This low price will probably induce many Norwich people to attend the centennial at Philadelphia.

The enumeration of people liable to military duty was begun yesterday by Messrs. Daniel Lee, Palmer Bill and C. D. Leslie.

Money is easy in New York. This refers to spending it not to getting it back after lending it.

Over 3,000 Connecticut people enjoyed an outing at Rocky Point yesterday. The Wauregan lodge No. 6, Knights of Pythias, of this city sending nearly 200 to the shore. The trip was by train to Providence, thence by boat to Rocky Point.

J. M. L. Drake, late principal of the Westerly High school is soon to go to Hartford, where he will become principal of the South school of that city.

Friday, August 11, 1876—The Hon. Henry Bill has retired from the book publishing and hereafter will devote his time to the management of his extensive real estate and other interests. Mr. Bill formed the firm which bore his name and which for years stood at the head as the most successful book publishing company in the country. Mr. Bill has invested heavily in Norwich property and was the founder of the Rose Lawn cemetery. Laurel Hill now a part of the city. For all of this the community owes him a debt of gratitude. The publishing business is to be carried on by the firm of Henry Bill Publishing company, a stock company of which Mr. C. C. Haskell, formerly of Maine, is president and manager, and John L. Denison, engaged with Mr. Bill for over 20 years, is secretary and treasurer.

The St. Mary's T. A. B. society had over 2000 persons on the excursion on the City of Lawrence, to Rocky Point yesterday.

At Jewett City last evening the Knights of Undaunted lodge K. of P. dedicated their new lodge room with most appropriate ceremonies. Many Knights from Norwich attended the dedication.

A number of Norwich people were at Stonington yesterday to attend the celebration and witness the big parade held in commemoration of the 61st anniversary of the battle of Stonington, fought by the peoman of the town against the British in 1814.

Saturday, August 12, 1876—That portion of rocky land which juts out into Fisher's island sound on the eastern side of New London harbor has been known for many years to the citizens of eastern Connecticut as Eastern Point. Until a few years ago the only buildings there were were farm houses. Later the Edgecomb house was built, a favorite place for Norwich people. Later Norwich capital and Norwich enterprise in the erection of twelve handsome cottages for private residences onto this section a boom and it is growing rapidly. Whatever may be the future of this section Norwich people will always have the credit for giving it the start as a summer colony.

Mr. A. Plaut, the well known jeweler has in his possession an eight day clock over 150 years old. It was made by Thos. Jackson of Preston and bears his name. At the time of its construction, Preston was a part of Jewett City and it was there that the clock was found. It gives not only the hours, minutes and seconds, but the days of the month, and keeps excellent time.

The two magnificent elms in front of the Norwich Town tannery are supposed to be 130 years old.

Black bass are being caught by boys fishing in the Shetucket river and many fishermen are preparing for several weeks of sport.

A gentleman at Bean Hill has raised 40,000 cabbages this summer.

NOANK

The trolley company is putting in The trolley company is putting in a cement sidewalk and platform at the waiting room on East Main street. While the men were digging for the platform the children of the village were about, to find money. The men and the children found over $25 in coins which had been lost down through the crevices of the planks while people were waiting for the trolley.

Frank Pray is spending a few days in Providence.

Robert Lemay, while walking at Rogers' boat yard helping to put in a marine railway to haul out boats lifted a heavy steel rail and strained the muscles in his back. He was attended by a physician and will be laid up for several days.

Mrs. Lizzie Potter has left for Waterford to spend a few days with relatives.

Willis Smith of New York is home for several days' visit.

Captain Henry Wilcox of the boat Martha, was fishing around the ocean side of Fishers Island and hauling aboard his net found it had a sturgeon which weighed 150 pounds. The fish was brought to Wilbur's dock and was on exhibition for a day before it was forwarded to Fulton Market, New York by truck. It was the largest sturgeon ever brought into Noank. It is a southern fish, not very often caught in waters around here.

Robert Maynard of Staten Island is visiting his family for a few days.

Boat Betty C. went into Newport this week with a catch of 30 sword fish. So far this season the skipper has got over 100 swordfish. Captain Chris Christenia said the fish are more numerous now and not so wild.

Miss Betty Williams has returned to Hartford after a vacation at Groton Long Point.

Lewis Lamb is employed with the Whitehall Electric Co., in Westerly, as helper.

The outing of the employes of the Rossie Velvet mill in Noank is to be held today (Saturday) at Elm Lawn grove, Mystic. The Stonington band will be at the mill in the morning where they will play a few selections, then march through the streets of the village at the head of the parade. Charles Welch and William Crowell will carry a large banner which will read: "Rossie Employes' Outing." The band will stop at different places and will play selections. The girls will wear white dresses and the men white shirts and blue trousers. After the parade the marchers disband at the mill yard, where a truck will be waiting to convey the employes to Elm Lawn grove. Ice cream and soda will be provided during the day and chowder at noon. There will be games and prizes in the afternoon, also dancing. At 4.30 there will be a dinner of fricasse chicken, potatoes, sweet corn, etc. The committee is C. Welch, Max Miller, Neary Deveau, Frances McDonald, E. McDonald and Margaret Mahoney.

Miss Maude Fitch is spending a few days with New York relatives.

Mrs. Etta Main of Stonington is spending several days with relatives in the village.

Harold Rathbun has gone to Long Island on a business trip.

The baseball game between the Old Timers and Mechanics which was to be played Friday evening was called off until a later day on account of some of the men working late. Manager John Bentley of the old timers has found another old ball player, R. Steman, who is strong with the stick; he is a three-bagger man. Manager Ebbetts for the Mechanics will stand pat with the same lineup he had this ween when his nine won.

At the meeting of Mechanics' lodge, No. 1, recently, four out of town visitors were present, three from New London and one from Sag Harbor, L. I. It was voted to hold a fair. The Mechanics baseball team will go to Old Lyme Sunday afternoon by automobile to play the team of that town. The battery for Noank will be Canorbal Thompson Wilder Johnson, pitch, with Speed Carson, catching.

Mrs. Joseph Chesebro of Center Groton is the guest of Mrs. Walter Potter.

Albert Banks was at Atlantic Beach Thursday.

Miss Annie Hendrick of Boston is home as her mother, Mrs. James Hendrick, is ill.

George Banks has returned from a fishing trip at Block Island.

Fred Phillips has left for a brief visit to Glen Falls, N. Y.

Mrs. John Touree is in New York for a few days' visit.

LEDYARD

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark had for week end guests Mrs. Clark's mother Mrs. Lamb and Mr. Paul Shepard, from New Jersey.

Leslie Holdridge returned home Saturday after attending the summer school at New Haven.

Miss Frieda Goodenough is spending the month at the Bill Parsonage.

Miss Virginia Goodenough is also at home for two weeks' vacation.

Miss Louise Clark is spending a few days at Lord's Point, the guest of Miss Dorothy Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Avery, Miss Dora Main, Miss Nellie Geer and Mrs. Carl Holdridge also Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gallup and daughter Emily, of Laurel Hill attended the wedding of Amos Geer Avery, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Avery and Miss Elizabeth Parker, of Mansfield. The marriage took place in Willington Hill church. Mr. and Mrs. Avery will reside in Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island, where the former is employed.

Mrs. Earl B. Geer recently had as dinner guests, Mrs. C. D. Geer, Mrs. Carl Holdridge, Mrs. Geo. Garypie, Miss Nellie Gallup and Miss Olive Mather.

The C. E. meeting was held Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Garypie, with Leslie Holdridge, leader.

Nearly a half hour is required to open or close the steel doors of some of the largest hangars, such as the one at Lakehurst, N. J., and the cost of operation is about $100.

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

Special Saturday Offerings

These week-end offerings comprise some of the most desirable merchandise in our store — all at Special Prices. The savings are real and substantial and every item has been chosen with utmost care. They are the things that will appeal to, and be of service to the majority of our customers.

AGAIN TODAY!

MEN'S PALM BEACH SUITS

AT $13.50

These are the dependable "Goodale" Palm Beach Suits, in grays, tans, blues and the popular fancy stripes. They are well made throughout, with Silk-piped seams—Suits that will fit well and give satisfactory service.

At $13.50, regular value $16.50

Regular and Stout Sizes

MEN! Accept This Remarkable Gift Offering

FREE! — A Silver-plated Genuine Gillette Safety Razor will be given free, with a full-sized 35c tube of Palmolive Shaving Cream.

(Toilet Goods Dep't.—Main Floor)

FOR TODAY—SATURDAY

A GREAT DRESS SPECIAL

75 Women's Silk Dresses—models that usually sell at $15.00 to $25.00—

Flat Crepe, Printed Crepe Satin, Georgette over Silk, Printed Chiffon Over Silk — TODAY At $10.95 — Self Trimmed, Lace Trimmed, Braid Trimmed, Velvet Ribbon Trimmed, Light and Dark Colors

A full range of sizes for Women and Misses

FOR TODAY — ANOTHER LOT OF Women's Rubberized Rain Coats

AT $3.95

The Regular $5.00 Grade

These are made with straps on collar and cuffs—Colors are rose, green and blue. Sizes 16 to 44. Every garment is fully guaranteed.

Boys' Wear — Women's Sweaters

BOYS' SLIP-OVER SUITS, at 65c

Boys' Slip-over Suits, washable, in sizes 3 to 6, blue only —Today at 65c a suit, regular value $1.00.

KHAKI KNICKERS, at.... 75c

Boys' Khaki Knickerbockers. Sizes 6 to 17—Special price 75c a pair, regular value $1.00.

LINEN KNICKERS at.. $1.45

Boys' Linen Knickerbockers, in gray, natural and white—at $1.45 a pair, regular value $1.95.

Women's Angora Sweaters, at $4.95

Women's Angora Coat Sweaters, in gray, tan and brown —Special price $4.95, regular value $6.00.

MAIN FLOOR SPECIALS

CANDY SPECIALS

20c Salt Water Taffy 15c
29c Russell's old-fashioned Chocolates, in 12-ounce boxes—Saturday Only 19c
39c Delicious Gum Drops, assorted flavors—at 29c
49c Toasted Marshmallows ... 39c
50c Assorted Austrian Candies with soft fillings 39c

Toilet Goods Specials

12c Boals Rolls 9c
15c Stork Castile Soap 11c
25c Seidlitz Powders 17c
25c Feenamint 17c
50c Borden's Malted Milk 29c
39c Phillips' Magnesia 31c
75c Lavoris 57c
75c Noonan's Lemon Cream ... 59c
$1.50 Oriental Cream $1.10

Jewelry Specials

Earrings, assorted styles and colors, were 50c to $1.00—Now 39c
Stone Trimmed Bracelets, were 50c to 75c—Now 39c

Bathing Caps Reduced

At 25c—from 39c
At 39c—from 50c and 59c
At 69c—from $1.00 and $1.50

Women's Rubber Bathing Shoes, the well known "Miller" brand —Now 69c

Vacation Stationery

Writing Paper and Envelopes in handy packs for vacation use —at $1.00, 50c and 25c

Shopping Bags, 39c

Jumbo Shopping Bags, made of heavy Dupont cloth, waterproof — Special price 39c.

$2.98 Hand Bags, $1.98

Women's Hand Bags, Silk Novelties, with jeweled frames, nicely lined, good assortment of colors — Special price $1.98, regular value $2.98.

Last Day of August Blanket Sale

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THESE SPECIAL PRICES TODAY

69c CRIB BLANKETS 49c

100 Crib Blankets, standard size pink and blue designs—August Sale Price 49c, regular value 69c.

PART WOOL BLANKETS ... $1.49

200 Single Blankets, size 66x80, Part Wool, Plaid effects, unshrinkable—August Sale Price $1.49 each.

CAMEL'S HAIR BLANKETS ... $5.95

Just 25 All Wool and Camels Hair Blankets, light weight, warm and sanitary, tan color only—at $5.95, regular value $7.98.

WHITE BLANKETS ... $7.95

Size 70x80, All Wool White Blankets, wonderfully fleecy and thoroughly unshrinkable—at $7.95 a pair.

EXTRA SPECIAL! 50 Camp Blankets, the regulation olive drab Army color, 88 per cent wool, the ideal Blanket for general utility purposes— August Sale Price $3.95

PLAID BLANKETS ... $4.95

Size 66x80, Part Wool Plaid Blankets, in rose, blue, tan and gray effects—August Sale Price $4.95 a pair.

WHITE BLANKETS ... $4.95

Size 66x80, All White Mixed Wool Blankets, with rose and blue contrasting border—August Sale Price $4.95 a pair.

GRAY BLANKETS ... $4.95

Size 66x80, Gray Wool Blankets, with contrasting borders of blue and pink—August Sale Price $4.95 a pair.

GRAY BLANKETS ... $7.95

Size 70x80, All Wool Gray Blankets, warm, cozy Blankets, fluffy and soft —August Sale Price $7.95 a pair.

PLAID BLANKETS ... $7.95

Size 70x80, Plaid Wool Blankets, in bright colorings of rose, blue, tan and gray—August Sale Price $7.95 a pair.

FINE WOOL BLANKETS ... $9.95

All Wool Plaid Blankets, 100 per cent pure Wool, in assorted colors —August Sale Price $9.95 a pair, regular value $14.50.

NOTE! Upon payment of a reasonable deposit, we will store all Blankets, bought during the August Sale, until wanted.

Special Hosiery Values for Today

SAMPLE SOCKS at 25c

Children's Rayon (Silk) Short Socks, samples and odd styles—all at 25c a pair, value 39c.

Three-Quarter SOCKS at 25c

Three-quarter length Socks (for Boys and Girls) not quite all sizes—Special price 25c a pair.

50c CHILDREN'S SOCKS at 39c

50c CHILDREN'S SOCKS at 39c

This offering comprises 360 pairs of Children's Three-quarter Socks (Boys' and Girls') that sell regularly at 50c. A full assortment of sizes in some of this season's most wanted styles—now 39c a pair, former price 50c.

$1.00 SILK HOSIERY at 48c

240 pairs of Women's Silk and Rayon Sports Ribbed Hosiery, leading Spring shades (subject to slight irregularities)—Special price 48c a pair, value $1.00.

$1.95 SILK HOSIERY, at ... $1.09

360 pairs of Women's Full-Fashioned Silk Hosiery (subject to slight irregularities) — Today at $1.09 a pair, regular value $1.95.

Women's "Bonnie Burson" $1.00 SILK HOSIERY

Service Weight Fashioned All Perfect — AT PAIR .. 63c — 360 Pairs First Quality Super Value

These are Service Weight Silk Hosiery. Every pair is "Fashioned to Fit," is first quality and free from imperfections of any kind. In all the leading shades of the season—

Atmosphere, Black, Blonde, Beige, Champagne, Gun Metal, Grain, Moonlight, Nude, Poudre Blue, Pablo, Rosewood, Russet, Sunset, Sudan, Sombrero

AT 63c PAIR, VALUE, $1.00

SPECIAL TABLE — MAIN AISLE

We Carry the Three Leading Makes in Women's FULL-FASHIONED SILK HOSIERY

PHOENIX GOLD STRIPE NO-MEND

ALL OF THESE MAKES WILL GIVE SATISFACTORY SERVICE

CLEAN-UP PRICES ON

SUMMER-WEIGHT UNDERWEAR

An Event for Women and Children That Fairly Rings With Economy

WOMEN'S RAYON SILK VESTS, 59c

300 Women's Rayon (Silk) Vests, cut full length and first quality throughout — Today at 59c each. — ALL AT 59c — The color assortment includes flesh, peach, orchid and maize—Today at 59c each.

BOYS' UNION SUITS at 42c

Boys' Nainsook Union Suits, athletic styles. Sizes 24 to 34—Special price 42c a suit, regular value 50c.

GIRLS' UNION SUITS at 48c

Girls' Nainsook Union Suits, Bloomer style, all sizes—Special price 48c a suit, regular value 59c.

60 dozen Women's Summer Weight Ribbed Vests and Bodices, both regular and extra sizes, all at one special price. — ALL AT 29c — These are fine combed cotton, in a variety of styles of Vests and Bodices, perfect in every way, regular 39c quality.

THE SOCIAL CORNER

KEEPING BUSY IS NATURE'S PHYSICIAN.

SOCIAL CORNER POETRY

Pineapple Rice Pudding

Here is a pudding
That we think is fine,
It costs just a trifle
And tastes delicious.

In one quart of water
Cook one cup of rice;
Of course, you must salt it
(I would not be nice.

When this is ready
Just set it to cool.
Add one cup of sugar
(I think that's the rule).

One can of pineapple
We add to the rice;
Let stand that it may be seasoned
And not by the stove.

Then just before eating,
Add a pint of whipped cream
And you'll have a pudding
That's fit for a queen.
IN A BOX

Service

You never hear the robins brag about
The sweetness of their song,
Nor do they ston their music gay
Whenever a poor man comes along.
And taught them how to sing an'
When they'd learned the art He sent them here
To use their talents day by day the dreary lives o' men to cheer.
An' rich or poor an' sad or gay, the only an' the fair to see
In tune an'
God gave Nor its bird, because is givup or is than
God gave unto the sky.
grows as he gets fine.
does the
Will Divine.
I can neighbor man.
his soul an the way
there"
Sent in by The BANSHEE

Bacon and Greens

And had in full share of life's
changeful swings,
My woes have been solaced by good greens and bacon.
And my joys have been doubled by
bacon and greens.
What a thrill of remembrance e'en
now they awaken,
Of childhood's gay morning and
plateful of bacon.
And the next we had bacon and a
plateful of greens

Oh! how well I remember when sad
and forsaken,
Heartwrung by the scorn of a Miss
in her teens;
How I fled her sight to my loved
greens and bacon
And forgot my despair over bacon
and greens.
When the tanks refused specie and credit was shaken.
I shared in the wreck and was ruined in means
My friends all declared I had not saved my bacon
But I lived for I still had my bacon
and greens.

If a fairy a grant of three wishes,
could make one
So worthless as I and so laden with sins
I'd wish all the green in the world—
then the bacon,
And then wish for a little more ba-
con and greens.
Oh! there is a charm in this dish
richly taken,
That from centuries and idyls on
picture weans;
Stick your fork in the fat, wrap your greens round the bacon
And you'll vow there's no dish like good bacon and greens.
Sent in by CENTURY PLANT.

The Wants of Man

Man's wants are many, and, if told,
Fill his soul with sorrow;
Wants are many, and, if told,
But the one to-morrow.

Wants of gold,

—and wine—of nature spread and dine.

I want next I want, at princely cost,
A chariot fair,
Rich sables furs for Winter's frost,
And silks for summer's fire.
Cashmere shawls, and Brussels lace
My bosom's front to deck—
And diamond rings my hands to grace,
And rubies for my neck.

I want (who does not want?) a wife—
Affectionate and fair;
A solace all the woes of life,
And all its joys to share
Tenner sweet, of yielding will,
Of firm yet placid mind—
With all my faults to love me still
With sentiment refined

And as Time's rapid current runs,
And Fortune fills my store,
I want of daughters and of sons
From eight to half a score.
I want (a last unmortal dare)
Such bliss on earth to crave")
That all the sons be chaste and fair
The boys all wise and brave.

I want a warm and faithful friend,
To cheer the adverse hour;
Who ne'er to flatter will descend,
Nor bend the knee to power—
A friend to chide me when I'm wrong,
My inmost soul to see:
And that our friendship's proves as strong
For him as his for me.

I want the seals of power and place,
The ensign of command;
Charged by the People's unbought
grace
To rule my native land.
No crown nor sceptre would I ask
But from my country's will,
By day, by night, to ply the task
Her cup of bliss to fill.

I want the voice of honest praise
To follow me behind,
And to be heard in future days
The glory of humankind.
That after ages, as they rise,
Exciting rear posterity
To choose [illegible] on the skies
These blessings on my name.

These are the Wants of mortal Man—
He cannot want more;
For life hath not more to woo,
And earthly bliss—a song,
My last great Want—absorbing all—
Is, when beneath the sod,
And summoned to my final call,
The Mercy of my God.

—By John Quincy Adams.

One, Two, Three!

It was an old, old old Lady
And a Boy that was half-past three,
And the way they played together
Was beautiful to see.

She couldn't go running and jumping,
And the Boy, no more could he;
For he was a little fellow,
With a thin little twisted knee.

They sat in the yellow sunlight,
Out under the maple-tree,
And the game that they played I'll tell you
Just as 'twas told to me.

It was hide-and-seek they were playing;
Though would never have known it
to be,—
With an old, old, old old Lady,
And a Boy with a twisted knee.

The Boy would bend his face down
On his one little sound right knee.
And he'd guess where she was hiding
In guesses One, Two, Three:

"You are in the china-closet!"
He would cry, and laugh with glee,—
It wasn't the china-closet;
But he still had Two and Three.

"You are up in Papas' big bedroom,
In the chest with the queer old key!"
And she said: "You are warm and warmer;
But you're not quite right," said
she.

"It can't be the little cupboard
Where Mamma's things used to be.
So it must be the clothes-press, Gran'- ma!"
And he found her with his Three.

Then she covered her face with her fingers,
That were wrinkled and white and
wee,
And she guessed where the Boy was hiding
With a One and a Two and a Three

And they never had stirred from their places,
Right under the maple-tree,—
This old, old, old old Lady,
This dear, dear dear old Lady,
And the Boy who was half-past three

—By Henry Cuyler Bunner
Sent in by OLA

God Save All Here

Across a prayer that's breathed along
In dear old Erin's land
'Tis uttered on the threshold stone
With smile and clasping hand.
And oft, unchosen, this murmured low
With sigh and falling tear
The grandest greeting man may know
The prayer, "God Save All Here."

In other lands they know not well
How priceless is the love
That hedges with a sacred spell
Old Ireland's cabin door
To those it has no empty sound
Who think with many a tear
Of long-lived memories wreathing
round.
The prayer, "God Save All Here"

Live on, O prayer in Ireland still,
To bless each threshold there
The echoes of her home to fill
With sacred fervence
And guarded by the holy spell
The soul and conscience clear
Be graven on each heart as well,
[illegible]
Sent in by The BANSHEE

Out under the maple-tree,
And the game that they played I'll tell
you
Just as 'twas told to me.

It was hide-and-seek they were playing;
Though would never have known it
to be,—
With an old, old, old old Lady,
And a Boy with a twisted knee.

The Boy would bend his face down
On his one little sound right knee.
And he'd guess where she was hiding
In guesses One, Two, Three:

"You are in the china-closet!"
He would cry, and laugh with glee,—
It wasn't the china-closet;
But he still had Two and Three.

"You are up in Papas' big bedroom,
In the chest with the queer old key!"
And she said: "You are warm and
warmer;
But you're not quite right," said
she.

"It can't be the little cupboard
Where Mamma's things used to be.
So it must be the clothes-press, Gran'- ma!"
And he found her with his Three.

Then she covered her face with her
fingers,
That were wrinkled and white and
wee,
And she guessed where the Boy was hiding
With a One and a Two and a Three

And they never had stirred from their places,
Right under the maple-tree,—
This old, old, old old Lady,
This dear, dear dear old Lady,
And the Boy who was half-past three

—By Henry Cuyler Bunner
Sent in by OLA

God Save All Here

Across a prayer that's breathed along
In dear old Erin's land
'Tis uttered on the threshold stone
With smile and clasping hand.
And oft, unchosen, this murmured low
With sigh and falling tear
The grandest greeting man may know
The prayer, "God Save All Here."

In other lands they know not well
How priceless is the love
That hedges with a sacred spell
Old Ireland's cabin door
To those it has no empty sound
Who think with many a tear
Of long-lived memories wreathing
round.
The prayer, "God Save All Here"

Live on, O prayer in Ireland still,
To bless each threshold there
The echoes of her home to fill
With sacred fervence
And guarded by the holy spell
The soul and conscience clear
Be graven on each heart as well,
[illegible]
Sent in by The BANSHEE

Bacon and Greens

And had in full share of life's
changeful swings,
My woes have been solaced by
good greens and bacon.
And my joys have been doubled by
bacon and greens.
What a thrill of remembrance e'en
now they awaken,
Of childhood's gay morning and
plateful of bacon.
And the next we had bacon and a
plateful of greens

Oh! how well I remember when sad
and forsaken,
Heartwrung by the scorn of a Miss
in her teens;
How I fled her sight to my loved
greens and bacon
And forgot my despair over bacon
and greens.
When the tanks refused specie and
credit was shaken.
I shared in the wreck and was ruin-
ed in means
My friends all declared I had not saved my bacon
But I lived for I still had my bacon
and greens.

If a fairy a grant of three wishes,
could make one
So worthless as I and so laden with sins
I'd wish all the green in the world—
then the bacon,
And then wish for a little more ba-
con and greens.
Oh! there is a charm in this dish
richly taken,
That from centuries and idyls on
picture weans;
Stick your fork in the fat, wrap your greens round the bacon
And you'll vow there's no dish like
good bacon and greens.
Sent in by CENTURY PLANT.

WHY THE ROBIN'S BREAST WAS RED.

The Saviour, bowed beneath his cross, climbed up the dreary hill.
And from the agonizing wreath ran
many a crimson rill:
The cruel Roman taunted Him on with unrelenting hate,
Till, staggering slowly mid the crowd,
he fell upon the sand.

A little bird that warbled near, that memorable day,
Flittered around and strove to wrench
the single thorn away;
The cruel spike impaled his breast—
and thus, 'tis sweetly said,
The robin has his silver breast incarnadined with red.

Ah, Jesu! Jesu! Son of man! My dolor
and my sighs
Reveal the lesson taught by this winged Ishmael of the skies.
Despair,
Have plucked no thorns from Thy dear brow, but planted thousands
there!

—James Ryder Randall.

SOCIAL CORNER EVENTS

Tuesday, Aug. 17—Shore Line club picnic in Grange hall, Mystic.

NEW SOCIAL CORNER MEMBERS.

Four new members are added to the Social Corner family this week. Odds Bodkins (Helper), Chaser and Wide Legs your names have all been added to the Social Corner membership.

WILL BE AT PICNIC

Dear Editor and Corner Sisters: I am making a desperate effort to write a few lines to the Social Corner Sisters, this beautiful morning.

Some of the ones were asking why I did not write more letters as it was the duty of each member but because of poor health I have attended but one meeting, which I enjoyed very much. I don't want to take up space for there are so many who can write much better than I.

Did not see any letter from Lucile Drew—always look for her letters because they are so interesting.

Am glad I was able to attend the church picnic yesterday at which I met many Social Corner friends.

Melisa—Enjoyed your company very much at the picnic—hope ye meet again Tuesday.

B. Natural: It is so kind of you to offer the hall for our next meeting. You are giving and helping wherever you can. I don't suppose you recognize my pen name, but I am one of your many friends. You will soon learn who I am. If my health permits I will see you next week.

E. L. M.: What would our club do without you? You always try to make everyone have a good time and see that everything is done right.

Necia: Have not seen or heard from you in a long time, but have thought of you a great deal since your sorrow.

Can't you meet with us at our next meeting in Mystic the 17th.

Perhaps you can get a load to go from there. Best wishes to all.

MILA

WHEN TO MIX CAKE.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Well, I hope all that like the hot weather are getting enough of it. I, for one, could do with a little less.

Sorry it rained today, but I'm sure all those that went to the picnic at Leffingwell will feel well repaid.

I had planned to go but when I saw it was so threatening I decided to stay at home. I do wish it was more convenient for me to attend the meetings and picnics, for I always enjoy them.

Wasn't it Skipper that said she was mistaken for me?

I'm sure you must have felt complimented. But to any who inquire, tell them that Lady Lou and I are twins. So if they know her they know what I look like and those that know me know what she looks like, eh? How about it Lady Lou? Ha, ha.

Well August is half gone and we have had no picnic to Ocean Beach yet. Was hoping we would have one, anyway. Last year we met so many new sisters.

Our page has been full the last few weeks so I hope it will keep up. We have nice letters and good recipes, but we can't try them all this hot weather.

Tried Majestic's baked custard pudding and it was fine. Others I will try when it's cooler.

One trick I have found out is to mix all your cake except flour and baking powder at night, then in the morning early, right after you get up and its cool, stir in your flour and baking powder and in a few minutes your cake is in the oven and out again before it gets too hot, so you don't have to keep your fire going all morning to bake. I mix mine and set it in the ice box then in the morning as soon as we have breakfast before I do another thing, I finish mixing my cake and its in the oven baking while I wash the dishes and pick up. Then I can turn out my fire until ready to get dinner.

Was so pleased to see letters from Wiltwyck, Crétia and others of the older writers and congratulate those that got yellow slips.

The Friendly Voice: Enjoyed your letter immensely. Hope to meet you some time.

Yes, Ma of Green Gables, friendship is a wonderful thing and I guess if a great many of us would not think so much of creed and nationality we would soon find a great many true friends if we would all "do unto others as we would be done by," eh!

I remember a few years ago I enjoyed a letter from Billy in the Social Corner on that same subject and it was right to the point. She or he is certainly to be congratulated on their sentiments.

Well I guess I've taken up more than my two cents worth of space so here's hoping I can meet with you all soon.

Sympathy to all the sick and shut-ins.

BLACK EYED SUSIE.

LESSON FROM ROBINS' SONG

Dear Social Corner: Summer brings with it so much joy and out of door pleasures. It is a time of flitting around and as a dear old lady friend once said "wearing ones self out looking for pleasure". Not so with me but I did go away for one night in June and was taken ill and spent nearly two weeks in bed. During that time I was treated to a concert every morning by a chorus of robins. Had heard robins sing all my life, but my soul was never so touched with the melody and sweetness as of their every morning song. I could not help but think how little we appreciate the efforts and goodness of others to make our lives comfortable and happy. I agree with Ma of Green Gables that we be true friends and not the kind that are given to scandal to the detriment of good people. Enough for this time.

ORIOLE

SHORE LINE CLUB MEETING

Dear Social Corner Members: The next meeting of the Shore Line club will be held in the Grange hall at Mystic on Tuesday, Aug. 17 and we hope to have a large attendance. It is very easy to reach as the trolleys go right past the door. B. Natural is the hostess. Some of the ladies from Stonington are to serve the dinner and the Mystic ladies will have charge of serving ice cream. Every one try and bring a new member with them. Any member from other Social Corner clubs will be welcome.

Catnip: Glad you remember me. I hope to see you in Mystic, Noank, Brownie and Tootsie shall look for you.

Nema: I enjoyed your letter in last week's paper. Give us some more.

Necia: I am hoping we shall see letters again from you before long.

True Blue: Can't you start a crowd to come down Tuesday.

E. L. M.

REPEATS CHOCOLATE COOKY RECIPE

Dear Editor and Social Corner Friends: In my recipe for chocolate cookies, last week, the soda was omitted and the cream of tartar measurement was wrong, so I am sending the full rule again.

Chocolate Nut Cookies: 1 cup sugar, 1-3 cup butter, 1 egg, 1-2 cup milk, 1 1-2 cups pastry flour (scant), level teaspoon soda, 1 heaping teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup walnut meats, chopped, 2 squares chocolate, melted. Drop in size desired and bake in moderate oven.

Estel: I'd like very much to come to Mystic, August 17, and meet the members of that club and others who will be there. It is surprising what good times we have at our Social Corner gatherings. I think there must be some secret talisman, anyhow I am glad I belong.

DAISY DEAN.

JOINS SOCIAL CORNER

Social Corner Editor: I would like very much to join the Social Corner, having heard of same through "Skipper" from Club 6. Hoping I may be accepted as a member of the Corner, will take for my pen name

AUNT LIZ

EXPERIENCES WITH PIES

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: We are all aware that variety is the spice of life, and no better place is it demonstrated, than on the Social Corner page, in regard to subjects. My last two contributions were concerning "Cats" and "Fans," but at this time, I will send in a few suggestions, and experiences about pies. Among the long list of pies that we may be familiar with, I will specialize on the apple.

In the early days of my housekeeping, and in learning the art of pastry cooking, I supposed that any and all kinds of apples, would make good apple pie, with my experiences, and disappointments I learned differently. It was not all the fault of the apple itself, but much depended on the method of cooking. From my recipe books, I followed instructions, I remember the first apple pie, I made. After putting the dough into the pie tin, I laid in the uncooked sliced apples, heaped it up full, to allow for shrinkage, then carefully put on the top crust, and placed in a hot oven. When the pie seemed to me thoroughly done, as the crust was good and brown, I removed it from the oven, and proceeded to take off the top crust, to season the apples, with sugar and cinnamon, according to directions, but to my surprise, I found th apples only about half cooked, and they should not I was to know why be fully cooked, as well as the crust. I realized this would not be an attractive desert to offer a young husband, so I decided on a remedy for the deficiency, where there's always a way, there's a will, apple filling out, put I took all that pan, and on top of the into a sauce stove it finished up cooking, till it was really alone, then back again into the crust, the top lid re- and being sweetened, placed, and my first apple pie was presentable. My new neighbor, who was much older than I gave me many helpful suggestions. I learned that certain tart apples would bake very quickly, but to be on the safe side, it is better to stir them first, add sugar to taste, a very little cinnamon, and let it become cool, before filling into the lined pie tin, often put little pieces of butter, on the cooked apple before putting on the top crust, it adds a rich flavor. To prevent the apple juice, or any other kind of pie juice, from running out on the edge of the tin, I dip my finger in cold water, and run it around the edge of the lower crust, before putting on the top crust, then piece them together firmly, and use the fine of a silver fork. About six or eight small openings on the top crust will allow escaping steam; also an extra precautive, for all juicy pies, take a stiff piece of paper, (I use those that come in the shredded wheat boxes), cut it three inches by two inches, roll it the longest part around a lead pencil, to form a little tube then insert it in the center opening of top crust. An additional security for preventing juices from escaping between the edges of the crusts, take a clean piece of old white cotton cloth, (perhaps an old sheet or pillow slip), about one and one-half inch wide, and long enough to go around the edge of the pan, and lap over well, have it wet wi h cold water, bind it around the edge tightly, and secure with common little pin, after the pie is baked, the strip of cloth comes off easily, and no juice is there, or found its way underneath the bottom crust, which often spoils an otherwise, good pie. As to the best or favorite way of serving any kind of pie, some are preferable hot, and others cold. In regard to my subject, I think most tables enjoy a good hot apple pie, some think a nice piece of cheese is necessary, but not for me. A cold piece of apple pie, with a pyramid of ice cream, is delicious with many.

Whipped cream for a top dressing, on an apple pie, that is chilled, is not often refused. While the apples are plentiful now, this is the season to best enjoy the favorite pies.

Best wishes to all

JENNIE.

JELLY LAYER CAKE

This cake brings $1.35 a loaf. 1 cupful sugar, 2 table spoonfuls butter, eggs, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cupful milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cupfuls flour, 3 teaspoonfuls baking pouder.

Filling: 1 scant cupful of sugar, 2 teaspoonfuls butter, yolks of 2 eggs, 1 cupful milk, 2 heaping table spoonfuls chocolate, juice 2 lemons, rind 1 lemon. Cream butter, then add sugar and the eggs beaten well, add the milk, vanilla, then the flour, salt and baking pouder sifted together. Bake in 3 layers.

Filling: Mix sugar and corn starch thoroughly, add milk, beat egg yolks until light, then add the juice and rind of a lemon. Add this to the other mixture, add the butter. Put in double boiler and stir constantly until thick when cool spread between layers.

To Wash Your Corset: Make a suds neutral soap and warm water, add two teaspoonfuls of ammonia and 2 table spoonfuls of borax to 4 to 5 quarts of water. Take the corset on a flat surface and with a small brush, (pure vegetable brush), scrub the corset vigorously with the suds, rinse in about 4 different waters, and hang out in the sun to bleach.

If there are any stains on your corset use peroxide.

Fresh colored corsets can be retinted with red crepe paper. Put about 4 inches of paper in 2 quarts of water, add 1 teaspoonful of alcohol. Stiffin the corset with rice water. 1 cup of rice to 8 quarts of water, boil 1 hour then drain water off of rice, rub this in with a cloth and hang to dry.

ETHELYN.

TAKING OUT IODINE

Dear Social Corner Members: I haven't written for some time as I have been busy most of the time trying to keep the woodchucks from cleaning up my garden.

One day I spilled some iodine on a white cover and was surprised to find from experience by putting two wet cloths with the spot between it all disappeared I used cold water.

Skipper: Thanks for the wish. I caught my train as per schedule, had a good time. I didn't get lost.

E. L. M.: No, I was not berrying. I was ironing; too hot to go anywhere but the beach.

True Blue: I got your number the other night. Shall be sorry to see the summer gone as it has seemed so short.

American Girl: Think the ceiling idea a good one but it must have been some job.

COSMOS

SENDS FAVORITE RECIPE

Dear Cornerites: If the mosquitos let me alone long enough I will write a few lines to the corner to keep within the rules.

Milky Way: It has been rather so, hasn't it? I heard from our friend Mrs. R. Am glad to hear she is better in some ays.

I hope the weather will be fine on Tuesday, as I am planning to go to Mystic if nothing happens.

I am sending a recipe which I have used and we like it very much. I think it's splendid for picnic sandwiches, using just butter on any favorite filling.

Whole Wheat Nu Bread: 2 cups whole wheat flour, 1 cup bread flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 teaspoons salt, 1-4 cup water, 5 tablespoons brown sugar, 1-2 cup molasses, 3-4 cup milk, 1 cup walnuts, cut in small pieces, 2 tablespoons melted crisco or other shortening. Mix whole wheat flour, bread flour, soda, baking pouder, salt and sugar together. Add molasses, milk and water, (I use milk instead of water if I have it), and mix well. Add nuts and crisco or shortening and beat thoroughly. Pour into a greased loaf pan and let stand 20 minutes. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.), 1 to 1 1-2 hours. All measurements given are level, this makes one loaf.

I hope some one tries this and likes it as well as we do. I think this will do for KATRINKA.

GREETINGS FROM LONG LOST BILLIE

Dear Cornerites: It is always pleasant to me to see the names of members from whose pens I have read so many times in the sweet long ago. Among them, Ready, Betsy Bobbett Theoda and others. Sometime ago I saw Faye Verna's name, then I began wondering about Glenwood. It is so natural to associate them, being away from home so much I miss a great deal about the corner. When I returned this spring I found in my post-office box a very pretty calendar, "To Billie from a Social Corner member." I wonder who? Nevertheless she has my belated thanks. Have it on my desk and very often refer to it.

Rural Delivery: Can you give me the author of this quotation: Man's Love is a man's life, a thing apart: 'tis a woman's whole existence. Now do not think that I am getting spooney.

Joan: You can never know how I enjoyed my call to you. On leaving your house, I as in a quandary whether to walk down the hill or roll down. Some day you may read another story of that group.

Interested Reader: Why not return my call? You were out riding that afternoon. I was disappointed.

Crimson Rambler: You crowned yourself with glory. Saw an account in Mirror.

American Girl: I painted the walls of a bedroom with sani flat paint over the paper. If any breaks in the paper they must be mended before starting in. I used a light buff, the border was bright so I brushed lightly on to it, blending like on canvass. New buff shades and buff hangings. The floor is covered with plain Japanese matting and a woven rug with buff in that. You can imagi how it looks. Regards to Pocohontas.

Must save some for next time

BILLIE.

THE PICNIC AT ELVA'S

Dear Editor and Sisters of the Social Corner: There is an old saying us old as the hills, better late than never; and that is why I am writing about the picnic of August 4th. Taking the early morning peep out of doors, we saw the mist was dark and heavy in the valley below. We wondered would it be sunshine or rain but soon the sun in all its fiery splendor arose above the hilltops in the mid-summer heat, the mists disappeared and a picnic day was before us. In many a home the lady of the house was busily engaged preparing to join the social ranks; the line of march that would take them to sister Elva's home by invitation for an all-day picnic. Arriving at the pretty bungalow with its many potted plants giving it the cosy homelike look, finding the path we passed through the well kept garden with many bright flowers growing by the wayside, we arrived at the bank of the flowing stream and the picnic ground with its canopy of heavy foliage shutting out much of the heat.

The morning hours were spent in various ways. At the noon hour an exceedingly fine dinner was placed before us. The summer breeze and the whispering leaves joined in the praise of a picnic song. No. 5's social picnic entertained fifty-four on that hot day. The familiar faces we so often meet at our social gathering, we missed at the picnic and for the sick we hope for a speedy recovery. The afternoon programme was rather short but good. Miss Francis Beebe from Dover, N. J., gave several pleasing selections that were heartily applauded.

How quickly the time passes when pleasantly engaged. We were surprised at the lateness of the afternoon hour. The sisters that have the long drive before them thought it time to start on their return trip home. The remaining picnickers thought the same; and so, bidding sister Elva good night, thanking her for our pleasure of the day at her home and the ideal picnic ground, we too were soon speeding over the glistering rails homeward bound.

GUSTA.

WRITES AFTER YEAR'S SILENCE

Dear Social Corner: Well I am a slacker for sure as I haven't written in a year but have enjoyed the other letters very much.

Thank you very much, Whirlwind, for the birthday card. I hear your birthday is the same as Lilac Lady's.

How did you enjoy the Fiddler's convention, Peggy Alder. Were you all in the next day. I took B to Danielson but she acted as if she were tired.

Mrs. Dan. Was by your house last week and it looked as if you had been canning as I saw some jars in your windows. They looked like string beans and beets. Nelly Grey has canned forty nine quarters of string beans in the last couple of days, also sixteen of chard.

Eavara. Did you enjoy the convention o, did you feel well enough to go in? I hope you will feel better.

Gipsy Wanda. Heard you caught the fever. Good for you. Every one is doing it. Even Lilac Lady did also.

Yes, Cenzi, I hope to see yours soon. How do you like it? Isn't it great? I wish Johnny on the Spot would but she wont.

I think she ought to write us a letter before she goes to school again and is too busy. Don't you, Tildy?

1492: You and Mrs. Dan seem to be about the only ones from E. K. that write except a letter now and then from Lilac Sally: Peggy Alder and Butterfly. Where are they all?

Will see if I can't do better hereafter although my letters aren't hardly worth the room they take. I like to read the letters telling of the different trips. My trips are all short ones especially now with two months old Barbara.

HARRY E.

AN INQUIRY

Dear Ethelyn: Will you kindly state how much subnitrate of bismuth and glycerine to mix and use where the hair has been plucked out with tweezers. Would like to know the proportions, was glad to find your helpful suggestions.

I am not a member of the corner, but will be loking for an answer, however, as I read everything written by the sisters. Will say thank you in advance.

MARION HAMPTON.

A message from Tiffis says that Miss Evelyn Eastman, near east relief worker who was recently reported missing in Russian Armenia, has been found safe by a searching party under Peter Ekrit, of Cuthbert, Ga.

DESCRIBES ENJOYABLE TRIP

Dear Social Corner Friends: I am pleased to see the page full of very interesting letters. Sorry to hear of so many aquaintances passing on but such is life. Paula, Paula, poor dear, writes of the passing on of her husband. She sure has my heartfelt sympathy and Neighbor Everready, a very hard thing to do to part with father. I will return your kindness soon. I have had company, my son and wife for three weeks now. Another member and her family are here, and more coming later.

But I want to tell you about my trip to North Conway, for just two weeks from the first on the whole Optimistic club went, 27 in all, had dinner at Mr. Wendal Woodbury's cosy home, Hillcrest, held our usual business meeting, then all motored to Surprise Mountain, none other than Mount Kearsarge, winding round and round until we had gained the top where we could look down on the farms that the houses looked no larger than a small hen coop. Away up in the sky. The benches were all scared up and we had our pictures taken. After a short stay we again returned to our cars to start homeward. The sweet smell of the new mown hay gave us an appetite and we did justice to the many goodies prepared for our coming.

We have been having very, very warm weather this year, much warmer than for some time in past seasons. Quite often it has been 100 on our back porch.

Nice and cool today.

Pleased to see Ready's name once more and ever so many new ones.

Regards to all, from

BALSOM FIR.

MAKING LUCKY BADGE

Dear Social Corner ones, I make a lucky badge from used envelope flaps write street number, post office, wet, stick on one corner handkerchief, carry some badges in my pocket book, put on bundle that will not go into my shopping bag. Received envelope today with my best handkerchief in. Some honest person must have found it, many thanks if this catches their eyes. Do any of the sisters make corn toast? Husk, silk, cut three kernels all around, cut from cob but not to cob, scrape cob to get the core. Place in sauce pan, add butter, milk, 1-4 teaspoon sugar 1-4 salt, cook five minutes. After it starts to boil butter bread and pile the corn on top—good—some summer.

JET

ORIOLE JOINS THE CORNER

Dear Editor of Social Corner: After attending a recent meeting of the Social Corner where I met several old friends and made many new acquaintances, I think I would like to join. Will take for my pen name

ORIOLE

NEW MEMBER JOINS

Dear Social Corner Sisters: I enjoyed the picnic I attended and would like to become a member and will take the pen name

CONNIE.

RADIO

SATURDAY

492—WEAF—610.

6:45-7:00, 7:20 A. M.—Tower health exercises.
7:45-8:00 A. M.—Morning prayer services.
12:45-1:45 P. M.—Waldorf-Astoria orchestra.
4:00 P. M.—Grosso orchestra.
5:00 P. M.—New Yorkers orchestra.
6:00 P. M.—Waldorf-Astoria dinner music.
7:00 P. M.—Greenwich Village orchestra.
7:30 P. M.—Musical Village orchestra.
7:50 P. M.—Musical comedy hits.
8:30 P. M.—Goldman band; children program: Del Staigers, concert.
10:15 P. M.—Bernie's orchestra.
11:15-12:00 P. M.—Rolfe's orchestra.

526—WJZ—570

7:00 P. M.—Piano selections.
7:10 P. M.—Summer health hints.
7:20 P. M.—Lawrence Metcalf whistler
7:30 P. M.—Police alarms.
7:35 P. M.—Harold Muer, tenor.
7:55 P. M.—Baseball results.
8:00 P. M.—Arthur Wechsler, piano.
8:30 P. M.—Bendix orchestra
10:30 P. M.—Police alarms; weather.

455—WJZ—660.

1:00 P. M.—Park Lane orchestra.
2:00 P. M.—Weather; news.
4:00 P. M.—Baseball reports; news
4:05 P. M.—Marguerite Cartwright, soprano; W. King, songs.
4:20 P. M.—News; baseball.
5:30 P. M.—News; baseball.
5:32 P. M.—Market closing summary.
5:50 P. M.—Farm market reports.
7:05 P. M.—Waldorf-Astoria orchestra
7:30 P. M.—News; baseball.
8:00 P. M.—L. Saxon, tenor
8:25 P. M.—Philharmonic concert.
10:15 P. M.—W. H. Preston, baritone.
10:30 P. M.—News; dance music.

316—WGBS—950.

1:30 P. M.—Scripture reading.
1:35 P. M.—Vladimir Tolmachnick, tenor
1:45 P. M.—Amado and Chevillon, duets
1:55 P. M.—Millinery talk.
2:05 P. M.—Gym class.
2:25 P. M.—Amado and Chevillon, duets
2:30 P. M.—Dance music
6:00 P. M.—Uncle Geebee.
6:30 P. M.—William Chosnyk, violin.
7:00 P. M.—Dave Elman, entertainer.
7:15 P. M.—Baseball results and news items.
7:20 P. M.—J. C. Ziegler, baritone.
7:30 P. M.—Bob Macdonald, ukulele.
7:45 P. M.—dance music
8:45 P. M.—"Philosophy of Numbers" C. Cheasley.
9:00 P. M.—Marshall entertainers.
9:30 P. M.—Elsa Clement, songs
9:50 P. M.—String ensemble.
10:00 P. M.—Lewis Woodruff, piano.
10:15 P. M.—Myrtle Purdy, soprano.
10:30 P. M.—Arrowhead orchestra.

341—WMCA—880.

10:25 A. M.—Employment opportunities
10:30-11:30 A. M.—12:00 M.—Market reports.
1:00 P. M.—String ensemble.
6:30-6:55 P. M.—Employment opportunities.
7:00-8:00 P. M.—Dance orchestra.
8:00 P. M.—F. M. Ehrenberg, musical saw.
8:15 P. M.—Alfred Orner, tenor.
8:30 P. M.—Margaret Garland, soprano.
9:15 P. M.—To be announced.
9:30 P. M.—Hansen and Howard, entertainers.
9:45 P. M.—Dick Hughes, ukulele.
10:00 P. M.—Edgemere orchestra.
10:30 P. M.—Len Saxon, tenor.
11:00 P. M.—McAlpin orchestra.
12:00 P. M.—McAlpin entertainers.

373—WEVD—800.

11:00 A. M.—Isaacson's Symposium.
12:00 M.—John Von Aspe, tenor.
12:15 P. M.—Ralph Christman, piano.
12:30 P. M.—Simeon Sabro, baritone.
12:45 P. M.—Doris Tauber, piano.
1:00 P. M.—Popular music.
6:55 P. M.—Weather report; sport, rays; commercial digest.
7:15 P. M.—Dick Hughes, ukelele.
7:30 P. M.—Orlando's orchestra.
8:00 P. M.—Music.
8:45 P. M.—Doris Tauber, piano.
9:00 P. M.—Len Saxon, songs.
9:15 P. M.—Wolf Kaufman, musical saw.
9:30 P. M.—Children's entertainment.
10:00 P. M.—Vause and O'Flynn, songs.
10:15 P. M.—Lou Hayes, ukele.
10:30 P. M.—Two Bills, songs.
10:45 P. M.—Lou Hayes, ukelele.

509—KDKA, Pittsburgh—970.

7:45 A. M.—Setting up exercises.
10:45 A. M.—Market review; news.
12:55 P. M.—Time signals; weather; markets.
2:30 P. M.—Baseball scores every half hour.
6:20 P. M.—Dinner concert.
7:15 P. M.—Final baseall scores.
9:00 P. M.—Band concert.
10:55 P. M.—Time signals; weather.

461—WCAE, Pittsburgh—650.

6:30 P. M.—Dinner concert; markets.
7:30 P. M.—Sunshine Girl, songs.
7:45 P. M.—Police reports.
8:15 P. M.—Dance music.

389—WHAM, Cleveland—770.

7:15 P. M.—Baseball scores; music.
9:00 P. M.—Orchestra.
10:00 P. M.—Musicale.

517—WJR, Detroit—580.

5:00 P. M.—Orchestra; soloists.
9:00 P. M.—Symphony orchestra.
12:30 A. M.—Jewett Jesters.

353—WWJ, Detroit—850.

5:00 P. M.—Baseball game.
5:30 P. M.—Same as WEAF

286—WREO, Lansing—1,050.

7:00-8:00 P. M.—Dinner music; news; organ recital.
11:00 P. M.-1:30 A. M.—Dance music.

422—WEBC, Cincinnati—710.

11:00 P. M.—Orchestra.
12:00 P. M.—Sam Jones' entertainers
12:15 A. M.—Orchestra; classical music.

422—WLW, Cincinnati—710.

9:30 P. M.—Entertainers.
10:00 P. M.—Dance music.

326—WSAI, Cincinnati—920.

9:30 P. M.—Sextet; soloist.

WILLINGTON

Howard Pratt, contractor, and Mrs. Grace Farrand of Plainfield, N. J., were married Saturday night by Rev. Edwin E. Sundt, at the parsonage. They are occupying the new house Mr. Pratt has just built.

Miss Elizabeth Parker of Mansfield and Amos G. Avery of Coldspring Harbor, N. Y., were married Monday afternoon at Willington Hill church, by Rev. Edwin E. Sundt. Miss Miriam Parker, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Milton Baker of New Haven was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held on the green at the church. Mr. Avery is assistant at the experimental station at Coldspring Harbor, N. Y. Mrs. Avery has been teacher of botany and biology at Cornell university, and both are graduates at the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs. Mr. and Mrs. Avery will reside at Coldspring Harbor, after a wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Stout, of Asbury Park, N. J., spent the week end with Mrs. Ida Brown. Their mother and two children return home with them.

Miss Carolyn Mirtl and Miss Hazel Amidon are delegates from the church school on Willington Hill, to the summer school of the Connecticut Council of Religious Education at Storrs, August 10 to 21.

Mrs. Hans Hansen and daughters Misses Esther and Huzel Hansen, are spending a vacation at Fishers Island Mr. and Mrs. Burdett White, of Quonochontaug, R. I., were week-end guests of Mrs. Nellie White and Mrs. Julia Clark.

Mrs M Bashore has returned to Willimantic after spending two months here.

Miss Edith Upton has returned after two months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Calista Bisco at West Ashford.

Charles Cowles has gone to Ellington to work in the tobacco fields.

Charles Edwards, of Rockville, visited the old cemetery Monday, looking for graves of ancestors.

Mrs. Estelle Pratt, who has been staying with Mrs. DeWitt Crane at Newport News, Virginia, left Monday for Boston, to visit her son, Robert Pratt and his family.

Ernest Gleason has built a tea room on his premises near the state road.

Miss Virginia Gagne and Ralph Joslin of Hartford were guests of the latter's parents Saturday.

Rev. Edwin Sundt and family have gone to Schroon Lake, N. Y., for a vacation.

Prof. Palmer of New York spent the week end with his sister, Miss Dante Palmer.

Miss Stella Bartok has been visiting friends in Hartford for a week.

Fred Meeker of Bristol spent the week end at Maple Corner.

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Converse Miss Jessie Converse Miss Jessie Bennett and Allen Bennett attended a clambake and family re-union at Woodstock Sunday. It was given in honor of Henry Bennett of Pittsburgh, Pa., a brother of Mrs. Converse and Miss Bennett, who is visiting relatives. There were forty present at the picnic.

WARRENVILLE

Dr. Herdinger preached an eloquent sermon Sunday morning on the Power of Personality

NOMINATING PETITIONS FILED FOR NEW LONDON COUNCIL MEMBERS

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13. — Mrs. Emily Spiers, Mohegan avenue, member of the city planning board who was defeated at the polls a year ago for the office of member of the council, is also desirous of occupying a chair in the council chamber and taking part in the conduct of the city's affairs and is determined that she will be a candidate. This afternoon a petition nominating her for office was filed with City Clerk Julian D. Moran, making the second one to be filed for the council within two days. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Jessie M. Horan filed a petition for Mrs. Spiers' nomination and the one filed today was circulated by the candidate herself.

Other nominating petitions for member of council were filed by William S. Apley and Charles C. Perkins of Edward L. Streeter, Jr., John McFrank S. Shea and Timothy J. Sullivan for John F. Murray. A petition nominating Lawrence S. M. Plant, nominated by Franklin P. Shumway, selectman was also filed. Monday was the final day in which petitions could be filed but several others, undoubtedly, as it was known that three or four nominating papers for members of council were being circulated.

CITY TO FURNISH CASES FOR CRIMINAL SUPERIOR COURT

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13.—New London will present the most important cases that will be tried at the forthcoming term of the criminal superior court for this county. There are almost a dozen cases of a serious nature and others are likely. The south end of the county has been productive of the greatest interest and it has not lost that questionable distinction.

"They will not learn," said a police- today when several violators of were in court ignoring the regulations to prevent congestion were safer than it is Palmer was arraigned before Judge John Hennessey; Joseph car on Bank to attend business Schumann drove instopped in restricwere in an open and not fine the he was inclined monished them that into court again they not escape the penalty their might bring them.

Byron Vine was charged with reck- of an auto, but it was was not guilty. A highway in front was knocked down, but left of Vine. The

Two men were charged with intox- streets. They the city so judgas they had not Edward McItem Long Island He said he had $10 at his work, and to be allowed to go without a penalty. He displayed honand that won Joe King, was found drunk speed, early yesHe had been in the ars so he, too, a sus-

The hot weather and the humid atsphere drove thousands to the Armstrong today sold on the former Brundegee property. south side of was purchased by New Britain, and lot on Willetts through Raymond S. MacFarlane.

The funeral of John B. Manning, son of the late James and Catherine this morning at Mary's Star of the Sea was attended by a large Solemn was celebrated by Rev. Dr. deacon and Rev. subdeacon. Archbishop Edward F. Hehir, "Come to Thee." The were Rockwell, Robert Watterson, Simon Mansfield and James in St. Mary's committal service Rev. Dr. Crowley.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget A. Stan- wife of John Stanners, was held this morning at 10 o'clock at St. Star of the Sea church and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends. The solemn mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Raymond O'Callahan, with Rev. Dr. Timothy M. Crowley, deacon and Rev. Michael Reagan, sub-deacon. The bearers were Charles J. Ducy, John M. Callahan, William T. May, Edward M. Sweeney, James R. May and Edward S. Nellan. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Spits, of Ocean avenue and Attorney and Mrs. Morris Lubchansky, Bellevue place, left this morning by automobile for Montreal where they will remain a fortnight.

Miss Edith Roath, of Montauk avenue, clerk in the office of City Clerk Julian D. Moran, is having her annual vacation.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today ordered the drivers' licenses of Pedro Callmiln, 549 Main street, and William Jones, submarine base, suspended. Commissioner Stoeckel also ordered the license of George A. Shaw, 40 Franklin street, returned to the driver and approved the right to drive of John W. Meacham, United States coast guard destroyer Cassin, state pier.

George E. Hammond, about 70, of Jersey City, N. J., died suddenly of heart disease yesterday afternoon at the residence of his brother-in-law, George Haven, 99 Bliss man street, death coming to Mr. Hammond while he was visiting his sister and when he apparently was in the best of health. Mr. Hammond was well and favorably known here for he had been coming to New London many years as a summer resident. He arrived in New London several weeks ago and had not been complaining. Late yesterday afternoon after having spent the greater part of the day on the veranda of the Haven home, he complained of feeling ill and a short time later suffered the heart attack. As Mr. Hammond labored for breath a hurry call for a physician was sent and Dr. Alfred Labensky responded. When the physician arrived at the Haven home Mr. Hammond was semi-conscious and he failed to respond to treatment, expiring a short time later.

George Main of Hotel Winthrop, State street; Joseph Schaffner, 958 Putnam; Mrs. Raymond Stanhope and infant daughter, and C. Guthrie, 558 Bank street, patients at Lawrence-Memorial hospital, were discharged today.

FLORENCE WALSH IS BACK— MAY HAVE HAD FOUR HUSBANDS

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13—Detective Sergeant John Cavanaugh returned to New London this evening with Florence Walsh, alias Florence Halliday Morie, the latter having been arrested in Washington Wednesday, charged with bigamy by the New London police. The young woman will be presented in the police court tomorrow morning. In default of a surety on her bond tonight the alleged bigamist was delivered into the custody of Policewoman Jane Cassidy.

The Walsh woman married Harry Morie, World war veteran in New York in 1923 and in May of this year she married John Francis Walsh, 36 Franklin street, of this city, radio man, first class, stationed at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, state pier. The woman left New London recently and it was then that Walsh learned that his wife had been married to Morie in New York three years ago. He sought Morie and the double marriage was quickly established, especially when the two husbands exhibited photographs of the woman. The woman was supposed to have gone to 32 Cohoes road, Watervliet, N. Y., and a request of the police of that city was made for her arrest. She however, had left there and had gone to Washington. There the police located and arrested her.

It is stated by acquaintances here that the woman has a child 10 years of age, which if so, means that she has had a third husband. The same acquaintance intimates that the woman, who is but about 25, has been married at least four times.

PUTNAM DRIVER ARRESTED WHEN WILLIAM LAVERY DIES

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 13—William Lavery, 27, of Beach street, Hartford, died tonight at Lawrence hospital from a fractured skull, suffered yesterday afternoon, when the automobile in which he was riding with his wife, his son, William Jr., 7; Mrs. Annie Young and John Smith, also of Hartford, overturned, following being in collision with a commercial truck. Lavery's wife and son are patients at the hospital, the former having a fractured hip and the boy lacerations. Mrs. Young, who is also a patient at the institution, is suffering from shock. Smith escaped injury beyond bruises.

The automobile in which they were riding had reached a point near Finley's garage, Sound View. In an attempt of the drivers to pass each other the two machines crashed, and the Hartford automobile being the lighter, overturned. The injured were placed in an automobile and brought to the hospital. The commercial truck was driven by H. B. Glawson, of Putnam. He was arrested charged with reckless driving and was presented before Justice of the Peace George Griswold. The case was continued a week and Glawson furnished a surety on his bond of $2,500 for his presentation in court on the latter date. He will probably now be presented on a technical charge of manslaughter.

Sloop Ella Cummins, owned by Theodore Leiter, of Greenport, which was seized off Port Jefferson by a United States Coast Guard patrol boat several days ago suspected of being a rum runner, was released by coast guard officials yesterday afternoon. When seized Leiter's brother was the only person aboard the boat. In the hold was found 100 cases of empty beer bottles.

Harry Morris, 28, insurance agent, residing at 24 Waller street, was painfully injured this morning when his right arm was lacerated. Morris rose during the night and in attempting to raise a window, his hand slipped and broke the glass, making a deep and ugly cut. He was weakened greatly by the loss of blood and was in an exhausted condition when admitted to Lawrence hospital. There several stitches were required to close the wound.

Miss Helen Wightman, of Williams street, teacher in the public school, got a fright this evening. Miss Wightman, with friends was at the private bathing beach on Pequot avenue, opposite Glenwood avenue. During the afternoon they donned their bathing suits, and were swimming some time and afterwards lounged on the beach. About 7 o'clock the bathers went to the bathhouses to dress and then Miss Wightman received her scare. When she went from the bathhouse to enter the water she left a handbag, containing a diamond ring, valued at several hundred dollars nd a red onyx ring, together with other valuables on a shelf. When she returned there the bag was missing and no trace of it could be found. Although Miss Wightman did not believe it could have been stolen, because of the bathhouse having been within sight all the time the young women were in the water and on the beach, she requested the aid of the police in the recovery of her property. Patrolman Edward Riordan was sent to the beach and after hearing Miss Wightman's story, a search was made, but the bag could not be located. Finally when the search was about to be abandoned, Officer Riordan, removed a section of the flooring of the bathhouse and beneath it was found the bag and jewels. The bag had been jarred or knocked from the shelf and had fallen between the planks.

Henry R. Bond, now of New York, arrived in this city this evening for a stay over the week end.

James R. May, agent for the Fournier estate, owning realty on Bank street, made complaint to the police this evening that boys had smashed 100 windows in the place within a few nights.

John Polowski, 175 Crystal avenue, was arrested tonight charged by his wife with breach of the peace. He was locked up and will be presented in the police court tomorrow morning. Polowski went home about 7 o'clock and had been drinking. He engaged in a war of words with his wife and when the quarrel became serious, Polowski is alleged to have seized a flatiron from the kitchen stove and started to "smooth" his wife with it. The woman ran from the house and located Patrolman Braxton Hill to whom she made complaint. The officer accompanied the woman to her home and placed Polowski under arrest.

An automobile owned and driven by Edwin C. Ford, manager of the local branch of the Southern New England Telephone company, and an automobile in which were two sailors, collided corner of State and Huntington streets this evening. The damage was slight, but the driver of the sailors' automobile evaded responsibility for he failed to stop. The automobile carried Connecticut registration, L-2348.

Attorney Frank L. McGuire has sold his residence on Vauxhall street, to Harry E. Sharaf, 17 Grand street. Mr. McGuire recently purchased the former residence of Henry R. Bond, Pequot avenue, and will move to that residence soon.

Miss Bessie Gordon, of 201 Montauk avenue, and George James, 546 Thames street, Groton, patients at Home Memorial hospital, were discharged today.

Women And Publicity

LONDON, Aug. 13.— (AP) —British newspapers are constantly intimating that all Americans are publicity mad, but the Daily Sketch admits the Duchess of Roxburghe, who recently entertained the Duke of Wales at Floors Castle, has a "great dislike of publicity, despite her American origin."

The Duchess was Miss May Goelet of New York, daughter of Ogden Goelet, and has a beautiful home in Carlton House terrace, London, as well as Floors Castle. But very little finds its way into the newspapers about the Duchess' entertaining. She has a thirteen-year-old son, Lord Bowmont and Cessford.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Broadway Theatre

Reginald Denny has definitely taken a position among the very few great comedians of the screen.

He stepped into it first with "Oh, Doctor." He convinced a great many picture fans of his eligibility in "I'll Show You the Town," "Where Was I," "What Happened to Jones," and other pictures.

But in "Rolling Home" his latest Universal production, which opens at the Broadway theatre Sunday, he leaves no ground for argument on the question.

"Rolling Home" is, without doubt Denny's funniest picture since he stepped into feature-length farce comedies two years ago, and he has eclipsed all of his previous performances.

The picture is greatly enhanced, from a visual point of view by the presence of charming little Marion Nixon, who plays the feminine lead, and by the excellent performances of E. J. Ratcliffe, Ben Hendricks, Jr., Margaret Seddon, George Nichols, Alfred Allen, C. E. Thurston, Anton Vaverka, George Marion and others.

Ravart's "The Speed Champion," starring that redoubtable young man, Billy Sullivan, is the added feature for Sunday night only.

For the dyed-in-the-wool fight fan, there is many a thrill in this comedy drama which concerns itself with the activities of a young man who, living in the Middle ing in a small town West, is suddenly taken under the wing of a fight promoter from the big cities who makes a champion of him. Those who enjoy a real fighting toy, Sullifight will find in this two-fisted fighting van, a thrill a minute. Because young Sullivan tosses a nasty punch with either hand and can—and does—stand it no matter how rough the going gets. In fact, we don't know when we have seen a more realistic fight than the one which Mr. Sullivan puts over in this instance.

Virginia Vance is exceedingly attractive and appealing as the small town belle whose hand the champ wins after his victory over the crook pugilist.

A Kinograms completes the bill.

Breed Theatre

One of the big scenes of "The Beautiful City," Richard Barthelmess' new picture, which comes to the Breed on Sunday as a First National attraction, takes place in a Chinese theatre on New York's East Side.

For these scenes Barthelmess' studio staff reconstructed the actual Chinese theatre now in operation in the Bowery of old Manhattan. The Chinese company playing at the theatre was engaged for two weeks and several hundred Chinese were signed up to play members of the audience.

All this was comparatively easy. It was not until the actual camera work started that Mr. Barthelmess' staff encountered genuine difficulties. Then the cameramen were confronted with the deep rooted Chinese dislike of photography. Here and there through the audience the Chinamen would hide their faces when they heard the camera grinding.

This difficulty was overcome in two ways. Cameras were hidden and the Orientals did not know when pictures were being taken and when they were merely between scenes. Then bushels of dried watermelon seeds, the favorite delicacy of the theatre-going Chinamen, were secured and distributed. Any visitor to a real Chinese theatre carries away memories of the Celestial audience munching watermelon seeds. You will see all this in the theatre scenes of "The Beautiful City."

N. E. Conference

Announcement that the Second New England conference of representatives of all the agricultural, industrial and commercial organizations of New England will be held at Hartford, Connecticut, Thursday and Friday, November 18-19, was made by the New England council at Boston. This announcement is contained in the current issue of the council's "Progress Report" which is being mailed this week to 5000 organizations and individuals in the New England states. The formal call for the conference will be issued soon by the council, which was created by the First New England conference convened later last November at the suggestion of the six New England governors.

Hartford was chosen as the meeting place for the second New England conference on the invitation of the Connecticut section of the New England council. Governor Trumbull of Connecticut is deeply interested in plans for the conference, and has indicated his desire to tender the nearly 1000 delegates and guests of the conference a complimentary dinner. This dinner will take place on the evening of November 18, which has been designated as "Governors' Night." The governors of all the New England states will be invited to attend the sessions or the conference, and Governor Brewster of Maine, has already accepted an invitation to be one of the speakers of the Governors' Night program.

"HEART OF THE COMMONWEALTH"

Nowhere in all New England has there been so remarkable a transformation in the appearance of a particular locality, due to the upbuilding, which recently has taken place there, as in the Park Square section of Boston. One immense monument of architecture after another has been, and is in process of erection, until the whole section is literally transformed. The stupendous structures known as the Park Square Building, and the John Hancock, of recent construction, with which the public is more or less familiar, have now been followed by the Statler hotel, Boston police headquarters, and the new Post Office building, and last but by no means the least of these imposing structures, the new Salada Tea company's building at Stuart and Berkeley streets. The present modern structure is undergoing such an extension and enlargement as to be transformed beyond recognition.

The building as it is to be when the work already begun is completed, will be more than twice as long and therefore even more monumental than at present, and the main entrance will be on Stuart street instead of Berkeley.

This building, while it is for mercantile use, will be symmetrical and altogether attractive, and will be a distinct addition to the already impressive and steadily increasing group of large buildings within view.

There will be a frontage of 200 feet on Stuart street and 100 feet on Berkeley street. From the principal entrance will extend a large lobby. The main office on the street floor will be 60 by 175 feet. Eight floors will be used for the preparation and shipment of tea, such as sorting, blending, packing and shipping, in connection with which efficent modern machines are used. The ninth and tenth floors are to be devoted to welfare activities for the employees.

Directors of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours and company, meeting for dividend action next week, are expected to pass along to shareholders most of the benefits derived from the 56 per cent stock dividend recently declared by the General Motors corporation.

DANCE TONIGHT

Hilltop Casino

Dancing, 8:30 to 12

—Music by—

THUMM'S ORCHESTRA

TODAY'S EVENTS

Fifty years ago today the first wire of the great Brooklyn Bridge was drawn over the East river.

Mme. Emma Calve, long one of the most celebrated of operatic singers, reaches her 60th birthday anniversary today.

A general conference of all independent textile workers' units has been called for New York today to discuss plans for amalgamation.

Hundreds of veterans of the war with Spain will gather in Des Moines today to attend the national encampment of United Spanish War veterans.

For the coming week, beginning today, the cities and towns of New Hampshire will welcome back their native sons and daughters, this being the official "Old Home Week," the observance of which originated in that state.

Sunday, August 15

Annual observance of Assumption day.

Centenary of the birth of Father Joseph Barnard O'Hagan, president of Holy Cross college.

A tablet to Sidney Lanier, beloved poet of the south, will be unveiled today at Calvary church, in the town of Fletcher, near Asheville, N. C.

The town of Manitwaki, Ontario, today celebrates with appropriate religious ceremonies the 75th anniversary of its founding and the first arrival in that region of the Oblate Fathers.

This being the anniversary of the battle of Blenheim the reigning Duke of Marlborough is obliged to repair to Windsor and there hang a new flag. This is the tenure on which the estate is held.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Why I Like Institutional Work

It almost seemed a chance happening that the day I finished my course in nursing the superintendent of my training school needed someone to take charge of a busy ward and gave me the opportunity of my first executive work. Much to my surprise I found that I seemed better adapted to that type of nursing work than that I had originally planned on doing. With longer association and further experience I continue to enjoy it and to easily see some of its advantages.

I have been able, always, to learn many new methods and applications of the art of nursing and to daily see the growth and advancement of the hospital. I have had the opportunity of seeing almost daily various phases of the nursing field such as the obstetrical, surgical, medical, dietary and social service.

Besides the educational advantages of it I have appreciated regular hours, freedom from outside expense generally, good accommodations and the spirit of comradeship; of working together for the forwarding of one of the greatest necessities of a community "Our Hospital."

ANNA M. GORTON

SUNDAY SUBJECTS

The Union Service of the Park and United Congregational churches will be held at the United church at 10:30 a. m., with sermon by Rev. Hubert C. Herring, of the department of social relatives of the Congregational churches of the United States.

At the Third Baptist church the preacher will be Rev. Orion Hess of New York. There will be morning service at 10:30; subject, "The Use of Trouble." Bible school at 12; Christian Endeavor at 6:30; evening service at 7:30; subject "The Significance of the Silences."

At the First Evangelical Lutheran church there will be a morning service at 10:30; the pastor, Rev. H. Hunzinger, will preach on The Right Manner to Please God; Luke 18 9-14.

At the McKinley avenue A. M. E. Zion church, Rev D. A. Brown, pastor; no morning service; Sunday school at noon; preaching in the evening at 7:45 o'clock by Rev. S. S. V. Holland of Mystic.

At the Christian Science chapel, 215 Thayer building there will be Sunday service at 10:45 o'clock; subject, Soul Sunday school at 11:45 o'clock, open to pupils up to the age of 20.

At the Central Baptist church, Rev. David A. Pitt, D. D., pastor, services will be held as follows: 10:30 a. m., morning worship, Rev. Clarence M. Gallup, D. D., of the Central Baptist church, Providence, R. I., preacher; 12 noon, church school; City Men's Bible class in auditorium; adult school in prayer, meeting room; juniors in parish house; 7:45 o'clock, evening worship, Rev. Clarence M. Gallup, preacher.

At Trinity Episcopal church there will be Holy Communion at 9:30 a. m. and morning prayer and sermon at 10:30. The congregations of Christ church and St. Andrew's church are cordially invited to attend.

NEW LONDON COUNTY

Mystic—Congregational church, Rev. Walter B. Denny of New Haven is to preach Sunday morning. Duet to be sung by Mrs Reginberg and Trefly Morin are entitled "Come unto Me" and "Rejoice in the Lord."

Episcopal church at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Rev. Lucius W. Shey, D. D. rector will officiate at morning prayer with address 10:30. A session of the church school will follow.

Methodist Episcopal church at 9 a. m. preaching by the pastor, Rev. Walter Rice Davenport, D. D. Epworth league at 7:30. Rev. Mr. Davenport will preach in Willimantic in the evening.

Leffingwell. Baptist church. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. A candidate from Maine will preach. B. Y. P. U. at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Roy L. Beard will lead; subject, "Modern Translations and How to Use Them." Neh. 8: 1-8; II Tim. 2: 15.

Pawcatuck. Congregational church. Preaching at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. Erick I. Lindh, pastor of the Bethany Congregational church of Quincy, Mass. Sunday school at 12 noon.

Gospel hall, West Broad street. Christians gathering in the name of the Lord. Morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. Sunday school and Bible class at 3 p. m. Evening worship, with gospel service, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mission, West Broad street. Saturday evening prayer and testimony meeting, leader, Mrs. Alexander Smith at 7:45 o'clock. Sunday school morning at 9 o'clock.

Clarkeville. Clarkeville chapel. Tuesday evening worship at 8 o'clock, the leader, David Shaw.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, R. I.

Westerly. Broad Street Christian church, Rev. Arnt L. Schoning, pastor. Morning worship 10:30 o'clock, a union service at Calvary Baptist church, with sermon by Rev. B. H. Von Glahn, D. D., of Trinity Methodist church, Paterson, N. J. Sunday school 11:45 omitted during August. Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:30 o'clock.

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Lewis A. Walker, pastor. Sermon by Rev. B. H. Von Glahn, D. D., of Trinity Methodist church, Paterson, N. J.; union service with congregation of Broad Street Christian church.

Christ Episcopal church, Rev. G. Edgar Tobin, rector. Holy communion at 8 o'clock. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by Rev. Walter F. Borcher of the Church of Transfiguration. Church at 12 noon suspended during the summer. Young People's Fellowship meeting at 7 o'clock. Evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 o'clock omitted during the summer.

Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by the pastor. Sunday school at noon. Evening worship and sermon at 7:30 o'clock, omitted during August.

Pawcatuck (Westerly) Seventh-day Baptist church, Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, D. D., pastor. Sabbath morning worship at 10:30 o'clock, with sermon by the pastor. Sabbath school at 11:45 o'clock. Christian Endeavor meeting at 5 p. m.

First Baptist church, Rev. Byron U. Hatfield, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock with sermon by Rev. H. W. Watjer, D. D., of Warren, R. I. Sunday school at noon.

PETTAQUAMSCUTT CASINO

The PLACE in RHODE ISLAND

Where the Most Famous DINNERS

OLD-FASHIONED CLAMBAKES and WONDERFUL DANCE MUSIC

CAN BE FOUND.

Near Saunderstown

BROADWAY

5 FINE ACTS KEITH-ALBEE VAUDEVILLE

TODAY—(Continuous, 2 to 10:30) Mat. Children 15c

"ADVENTUROUS SEX"

With CLARA BOW, Earle Williams and Herbert Rawlinson;

SUNDAY NIGHT at 7:00 (S. T.)

A ROLLICKING MEDLEY OF JOYOUS FUN

A REAL JOY MAKER—LONG, LARRUPING, LILTING LAUGHTER

—Added Feature—

BILLY SULLIVAN

—in—

"The Speed Champion"

GASPS! THRILLS! FUN!

KINOGRAMS

Doors Open at 6:30 (S. T.)

STRAND

SUNDAY—2 SHOWS—7-9 (D. S. T.)

2 FEATURES

2 SHOWS SUNDAY EVE. 7 and 8:45

BREED THEATRE

CONTINUOUS SHOW TODAY 1:30 to 10:15

Sunday — Monday — Tuesday

Richard Barthelmess with Dorothy Gish

—IN—

"The Beautiful City"

Dick Barthelmess gives another of his sterling performances—with the Ghetto district of New York—the famous "East Side" —as the background.

Clyde Cook Comedy | Pathe News | Topics of the Day

Second Chapter of the History of the Telephone "FIFTY YEARS OF TELEPHONE PROGRESS"

TODAY—"WHEN THE DOOR OPENED", James Oliver Curwood's Mighty Drama—"RADIO DETECTIVE"—NEWS—COMEDY

Excursion to New York

Round Trip Fare Norwich-New London $3.00

The Connecticut Fire Insurance Company of Hartford

Sunday, Aug. 15

Special Coach Train

Lv. Norwich . . 6.30 a.m.

New London . 7.00 "

Due New York (G.C.T.) 10.10 a.m.

Returning

Lv. New York (G.C.T.) 6.00 p.m.

(Eastern Standard Time)

*Arrives and Leaves—Lower Level

VISIT Coney Island, Metropolitan Art Museum, the Aquarium, Grant's Tomb, Riverside Drive, Bronx Park or Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor

ENJOY a Big League ball game or take a boat trip to Bedloe's Island (Statue of Liberty.)

Tickets Limited—Buy Early—Avoid Disappointment

The White Star Co.

"THE OLD RELIABLE"

147-153 MAIN STREET. PHONE 213 NORWICH, CONN.

300 MORE NEW

"Charleston Flare"

DRESSES

$1.58

OF FAST COLOR BROADCLOTHS

Last Saturday we sold out by 3 o'clock. We were fortunate in receiving this additional lot. Come early as quantity is limited.

Sizes 16-44

PATTERNS GALORE!

AUGUST SALE OF FURS NOW ON!

The Greatest of All Senses

—the one from which we derive the most pleasure and incidentally the most profit—is vision. There is nothing that breaks down efficiency in business, in social or intellectual life more quickly or more certainly than inability to see clearly and accurately the things which require quick and ready perception.

Eyes which have lost the elasticity of youth cannot be expected to do the things they used to do unless they are aided in their functions. That is where we can help.

J. F. MARCH

Optometrist and Optician

Disco Building Rooms 201-204

Norwich, Conn. Phone 1312

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

MARRIED

BRADFIELD—STILLMAN—In Columbia, O., Aug. 6, 1926, by Rev. Chester Cunningham Dr. Richard Bradfield of Columbia, O., and Miss Hannah Amelia Stillman, formerly of Westerly.

SWEENEY—BAKER—In Canterbury, Aug. 10, 1926, by A. Hale Bennett, J. P. Thomas J. Sweeney and Miss Mabel A. Baker, both of New York city.

BORN

GEARA—In North Stonington, Aug. 12, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Geara, a daughter, Mary Patricia.

DIED

HAMMOND—Suddenly, in New London, Aug. 12, 1926, Charles Hammond, formerly of Jersey City, N. J.

FUNERAL NOTICES

BROWN—In Norwich, August 13, 1926, Mary M. Brown, aged 82 years. Funeral services at the Packer Memorial Chapel, 302 Washington Street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Yantic cemetery. Kindly omit flowers.

LARROW—In Norwich, Aug. 13, 1926, Joseph Larrow, aged 72 years. Funeral at 2 p. m. Sunday from his late home, 27 Boswell Ave. Burial in Yantic cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our husband and father, and for the many floral tributes.

MRS. ANNA MARION ALLEN
MISS JEANNE L. TON

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
49 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 610-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
422 Main Street
Phone 238 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Successors to JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Kiliourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 200 Lady Assistant

DANIELSON

ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director and Embalmer
PHONE 147 DANIELSON

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Wednesday, near 1 P. M. Mar... [illegible]

FOUND—Last Tuesday, finger ring [illegible] 31d

FOR SALE—HORSES

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Hor... [illegible] aug14

FOR SALE—Horse, wagon and har... [illegible]

FOR SALE—CATTLE

COWS—Three carloads, just arrived [illegible]

POULTRY

FOR SALE—Chickens, broilers or fo... [illegible] Phone 1483-W

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—[illegible] Call at 20 Prospect St., Norwich, or phone [illegible] and identify. aug14d

LOST—Pin, [illegible] between Jewett City and Norwich. Finder please notify [illegible] aug14d

COAL AND WOOD

SEASONED hard wood, $10 a load, oak, slab-wood, $8. Delivered anywhere Phone 489. jun18tf

FOR SALE—Split wood and kindlings. Baskets for $1.00, Fountain St. Wood yard. Tel. 3116. mar17

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Dump cart with double harness. Tel. 1473-3. aug14d

EPILEPTICS write for free information on latest methods of treating this disease. Box 332, Lander, Wyo. aug14d

FOR SALE—$1,000 cash will buy a six-room cottage with all improvements; balance on easy terms. Also beach cottages priced right for immediate sale. Burton, 744 No. Main St. jul17

EXCHANGE—Will trade building lots on Norwich and New London trolley line for city property. For particulars apply to G. P. Coates, 50 Franklin St. aug10d

DO YA remember the old days when you usta kill the umpire and throw soda bottles at him. Ya can't do that any more. Heimar cigarettes, 20 for 20c. Mogul and Melachrino, 20 for 30c. Old Gold and Noble cigars, 5 pack 30c. A fine leather tobacco pouch 25c. Old Gold cigarettes are goin' good. Try a pack today, 20 for 15c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Woolworth is quiet us. aug13

FOR SALE—An old established grocery store. 54 Golden St., New London. aug11d

FOR SALE—Everhot Jr. electric cooker. Roasts, bakes, browns and stews from ordinary lamp socket current. Special price $8.95. City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. aug11tf

FOR SALE—One Papec ensilage cutter, No. 11. Irwin M. Jones, P. O. Leonard Bridge, Conn. Tel. Lebanon 42-3. aug11d

FOR SALE—8-room dwelling with barn and land for a good garden, excellent water, located on shore road Westerly, R. I., 10 minutes to beach. A. C. Burdick, Realtor, Jewett City and Thayer Bldg., Norwich. aug12

FOR SALE OR RENT—New 7-room cottage, Back Road. Electricity, water, bath. Johnson 252. Yantic Box 150. aug12d

FOR SALE—Two-family house, 40 Broad St. 10 rooms. Estate of Helen Sumner Lemon. Inquire at house. J. L. Sumner, Ex'r. aug12d

FOR SALE—One fish-box almost new could be used for milk cooler. Price reasonable. Hotel Hooker, Willimantic, Conn. aug12d

FOR SALE—A two-family house; Falls section, for quick sale $3,500. Two-family house on East Side, for quick sale, $3,800. Norwich Land Title and Trust Co. Tel. 2229. aug10tf

FOR SALE—Cut flowers, fine gladiolas and asters especially. William Weaver, 1 Huntington Ave., Norwich Town. aug7d

FOR SALE—8-room house, No. 2 Soule St., Jewett City. Inquire F. E. Robinson, Jewett City. aug4tf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463. may28

FOR SALE—A high grade Columbia Grafanola; all latest improvements; beautiful mahogany cabinet; cost new $150. Our price $49.50. Hanover-Curtland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A high grade 88-note player piano at half regular price. Used as demonstrator only. Hanover-Curtland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A 6-tube Fine Arts radio set with built in speaker completely installed $80. This is a brand new set at half its value. Easy terms. Hanover-Curtland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—22 acre farm located 1 mile from state road. Price attractive. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Three family house on state road, with several acres of land. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ideal poultry farm near Jewett City. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—2 acres land with 2 cottages. Price $3,150. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ten acre farm located on the state road. Price $3,000. Easy terms. William McNicol, Maynard Bldg., Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—17 acre farm with good buildings. Ideal location for poultry. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

E. J. TETRAULT—Agent for New Home sewing machines. Tel. 874-32, Baltic, after 6 p. m. Repairing on all kinds of sewing machines promptly done. All work guaranteed. Thirty years' experience. jul7

FOR SALE

Geer avenue, 9-room residence. Large reception hall. Lot is 75x128—$7,500.

JAMES E. MOORE
REALTOR.

FOR SALE

In Chelsea Parade Section, a six-room cottage, with improvements, including heat, room for garage. Price $5,500. Owner leaving town. For particulars inquire

FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Phone. Norwich.

WE ARE OFFERING
RIDGEWOOD PARK LOTS
(OCEAN BEACH)
AT A SPECIAL PRICE OF $790
GOOD UNTIL AUGUST 15
MAY WE TELL YOU ABOUT THEM
WRITE — TELEPHONE— —CALL
JAMES L. CASE
REALTOR
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE

One of the best located Gasoline and Oil Stations in the state. Always doing good, profitable business. Sold on account of owner's death, so it's a great opportunity for someone.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER
44 Shetucket Street.

FOR SALE

Two-apartment house with basement store, No. 148 Cliff street, near St. Joseph's school. A reasonable offer takes this desirable home.

Thos. H. Beckley
278 MAIN ST. PHONES.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

WILL SELL—Six-shot .44 revolver, Mandellette camera and tripod, U. S. coins, old sword, bayonet. L. Racicot, 21 Ripley Place. aug14d

FOR SALE—Two new rowboats; also boats made to order. Tel. 102-16, Jewett City. Emey Dupont, Voluntown. aug14d

FOR SALE—Two stoves one coal and one gas range, in excellent condition; also other household furnishings. Adams, 7 Boswell Ave. aug14d

FOR SALE—Baby Grand Hoover Sweeper, slightly used, very reasonable. Phone 374-14. aug14d

FARMS! FARMS!

Send for my new Farm Bulletin No. 26. First edition just off the press—describing over 100 Connecticut and Rhode Island Farms. Sent free on request. Your choice of 400.

WILLIAM A. WILCOX
FARM SPECIALIST
Westerly, R. I. Tel. 2365.

75 ACRES HIGH ELEVATION

7-room cottage, in best of condition. Good stock barn; plenty of fruit; trout brook. Price $3500—$300 cash.

TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

TO RENT

TO RENT—Six-room tenement with modern improvements. 11 Division St. aug14d

TO RENT—Tenement of 6 rooms, modern improvements; garage. Call at 62 School St. or at N. Y. Shoe Store, Parlor, 29 Franklin St. aug14

TO RENT—Light housekeeping rooms 172 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 2691-R. aug14

TO RENT — Six-room apartment, 23 Winchester St., all improvements. Phone 638-12. aug14d

TO RENT — Five-room house and garage; electricity and gas in the house; $20 for all. 63 Tenth St., Norwich, Conn. aug14d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; newly furnished at 58 Cedar St. Inquire next door. aug13d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment with all modern improvements. All recently remodeled. Apply to Charles Rubin, 200 West Main or call 2212-3. aug13d

TO RENT—8 rooms, electricity, $30 58 Washington St. aug13tf

TO RENT—One of those fine 7-room apartments in the "Marion"; heat and hot water furnished by owner. Phone 896-2. aug11tf

TO RENT—Large furnished room; light housekeeping. 14 Church St. aug11d

TO LET—5-room flat. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St.—Tel. 2146. aug11

FOR RENT—5-room tenement with all improvements. 110 N. Main St. aug10tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 78 McKinley Avenue. aug10tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 3 rooms; all improvements. 89 Asylum St. aug6d

FOR RENT—Six room apartment. Phone 489. aug6tf

FOR RENT—One 5-room tenement; all improvements. Inquire Commercial Garage. aug3tf

TO RENT—5 room apartment, all improvements. 35 Fairmount St.

TO RENT—6-room tenement; all improvements; call at night downstairs. 51 Division St. jul29tf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; all latest improvements, 316 Franklin St. Also 3-room apartment, 308 Franklin St. Inquire of Thos. Buckley, real estate agent. jul27tf

TO RENT—Lower flat, 6 rooms; also furnished room on second floor, 120 Broadway; ring 2nd bell. jul23tf

TO RENT—6-room apartment, 78 School St. jul8tf

TO RENT—Apartment of seven rooms; hardwood floors, nice locality. Call 921-4. jul8tf

FOR RENT—2 rooms; pantry, gas, lights. School St. $10 a month. Call 2474-2. jul7tf

TO RENT—One of the finest 7 room apartments in the city, in residential section. Phone 896-2. mar15tf

FOR RENT—At 175 Broadway 3 room furnished apartment, heated, hot water, the year round. Phone 1506 or 1811. apr29

TO RENT—6-room apartment, also 8-room cottage. Phone 259. apr8tf-eod

TO RENT—10-room apartment on Church St. Very desirable; rent reasonable. Inquire C. W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. jun2tf

TO RENT—Beautiful modern apartment at 50 Broad St. Heat and hot water furnished. Moderate rent. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. apr23tf

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Middle aged woman to take care of an invalid lady now at nearby summer place; can have permanent position if satisfactory. Phone 2800 Saturday forenoon or write Mrs. Botnick, 3 Cove St., Norwich. aug14d

$25.00 WEEKLY EASY—Spare time, addressing cards at home; no experience; particulars 2c stamp. Madison Service, 123 West Madison, Chicago. aug14d

WANTED—Women $6.00 daily, spare time, taking orders new patented sanitary belt; pay daily. Jones, 804 N. Clark, Chicago. aug14d

LADIES—No more discomfort; new invention prevents lingerie straps from slipping; comfort at last; every woman adores them; sells on sight; representatives wanted everywhere; wonderful money-making possibilities. Write direct to factory for particulars. Lingerie "V" Co., North Windham, Conn. aug14d

LADIES—We pay $7 per hundred for gilding greeting cards; pleasant, easy work. Write immediately, King Card Co., 155 East 42nd St., New York. aug14d

LADIES—Make money at home, spare time, addressing cards; no canvassing, no experience required. Write immediately, enclosing 2c stamp. J. C. Jerrold, 268 Sixty-Seventh St., Brooklyn, N. Y. aug14d

WANTED—100 teachers at once. Must be Normal graduates. Free registration. The Holman Teachers' Agency, 325 Williams St., New London, Conn. aug10d

WANTED — Saleslady for women's ready-to-wear shop. Good salary. Only experienced woman need answer. Write Box 800, Bulletin. aug7d

WANTED

Girls to work on light machines. Must be quick. Good pay. Apply Monday morning 10 o'clock.

Carpenter Manufacturing Co.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1922 Maxwell touring; good condition; will sell cheap. Norwich Radiator Works, 375 Main St. aug14

FOR SALE—1924 Hupmobile coach, 1 new Star 6 roadster, 1 new Star 6 touring, 1925 Olds. sedan, 1923 Chevrolet coupe, 1924 Buick coupe, 1923 Reo sedan, 1925 Henderson cycle, 1921 Cadillac 7-pass. touring, 1926 Ford del. Cash or terms to suit you. Adams Tavern Garage, Auburn Sales and Service. aug14

FOR SALE—1926 Hupmobile 6 cyl. sedan, 1924 Hupmobile sedan, 1923 Hupmobile sedan. Several older cars. Exceptionally low priced. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. aug13

FOR SALE—Ford sedan $65; Buick with winter enclosure $125; 1923 Star roadster $45. West Side Garage, 194-196 West Main St. aug13d

FOR SALE—1924 Ford coupe, 116 Laurel Hill Ave. aug12d

FOR SALE—1 1924 Chrysler Royal Sedan, 1 1925 Chrysler 70 Roadster, 1 1922 Lafayette Sedan, 1 1923 Cleveland Touring Car, 1 1922 Ford Roadster, 1 1922 Buick Touring Car, 1 1925 Maxwell Panel Delivery. John J. Herbert, 193 No. Main St. aug11

FOR SALE—Latest improved Lincoln 7-pass sedan; driven about 3000 miles; demonstration. A wonderful bargain over $1,000 off of list price; terms if desired; trade considered. Waterman & Wolfe, Inc., New London. Phone 3040 aug10tf

WANTED—Ford coupe in trade for '25 Essex touring. Phone 1133-32 aug7d

FOR SALE—1925 Rickenbacker roadster, 1925 Chrysler roadster, 1925 Hudson coach, 1923 Buick roadster, 1920 Cadillac coupe. Small down payment; balance 10 months. 62 Spetucket St. jul13d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, U-51, Victoria coupe; 1925 Hudson coach; 1923 Buick coupe; 1923 Hupmobile 4-passenger coupe; 1923 Dodge coupe; 2 1923 Ford sedans; 1924 Ford coupe; 1923 Chevrolet coupe. Krieger Motor Sales, 191 No. Main St. Phone 646. jul12

FOR SALE—1925 Chrysler sedan, model 70. Excellent condition; low mileage. Privately owned. Box 56, Danielson, Ct. jul7tf

FOR SALE—New and used Harley Davidson motorcycles. Real good machines for real live fellows. Prices reasonable. Easy terms. J. P. Donovan 135 No. Main St. mar24d

LAUREL HILL GARAGE
USED CAR SALE

Buick Six, 5-pass. Touring, 1923 model	$445
Cadillac Sedan	$85
Essex Four, Touring	$75
Ford Sedan	$85
Overland Sedan	$235
Star Touring	$235
Star Coupe	$165
Dodge Touring	$65

Small down payment on any of the above cars. Your car in trade.
LAUREL HILL AVENUE
(In rear of Laurel Hill School)
Open Evenings and Sundays

USED CARS
AUGUST CLEARANCE

of every used car in stock at tremendous reductions. Prices are now lower than ever. Come in today—it will pay you.

1922 Ford Roadster	$45.00
1922 Overland Coupe	$130.00
1924 Essex Touring	$120.00
1918 Dodge Roadster	$55.00
1923 Chevrolet Touring	$90.00
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring	$50.00
1921 Overland Touring	$45.00
1923 Ford Roadster	$80.00
1922 Gardner Roadster	$75.00

STAR GARAGE
Plainfield, Conn. Phone 196.

USED CARS

1925 Ford Touring	$200
1923 Jewett Touring	$175
1925 Essex Coach	$475
1922 Hupmobile Road.	$275

The Norwich Motor Sales Co.
HUDSON-ESSEX
Sales and Service.
394 N. Main St.—Tel. 1780

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE
1925 Chrysler (70) Roadster
1925 Hudson Coach—like new
1924 Ford Coupe
1922 Buick Touring—Bargain
1924 Maxwell Coach
SMALL DOWN PAYMENT
BALANCE 10 MONTHS
A. C. GARAGE
62 Shetucket Street.—Phone 765.

FOR SALE

One Buick 1923 coach body, 5 passenger. Good condition. Buick parts, all models. Parts for all models Hudson and Essex, Studebaker Specials and Big Six, also Cadillacs. Buick parts, all models. Bargains in used tires and tubes. Truck parts, 1 1-2 to 5 ton Model 57 Cadillac limousine. Good condition. We pay highest prices for all cars in any condition. Willimantic Auto Parts, Quarry St., Willimantic. Tel. 1204-2.

THUMM'S
HOME MADE MAYONNAISE
25c per jar
THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE
40 Franklin Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

AUCTION

Auction

Will be sold at public sale without reserve or by-bidding

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1926
At 10:00 O'clock A. M.

at my farm on the Whippoorwill Hollow Road in No. Franklin, about one mile east from the Willimantic and Norwich Road.

The lifetime accumulated antique furnishings of my Colonial House.

1 Field bed with canopy, 1 mahogany card table, 1 Marsh clock, 1 other old clock, copper warming pan, brass kettle, 6 mirrors, Colonial lantern, foot stools, 50 old pictures, Currier and Ives; 1 settle, dozen Pewter pieces including coffeepot and teapot, a large collection of china and crockery, 1 Piel Colonial cradle with hood, 1 baby chair, candlesticks, 2 fireplace sets, Windsor arm chairs, Bannister back, rush-seat arm chairs, fiddle-back rocker, Boston rockers, ladder back rocker, splint seat rockers, ribbon back basket-seat rocker, Hitchcock cane seat chairs and a large quantity of odd chairs.

Wash stands, 5 tables, bedsteads, bureaus, sewing tables, 1 Martha Washington; chests, hair cloth sofa and chairs, a large quantity of hook and rag rugs and rag carpeting, beds and bedding, 2 poke bonnets, 2 Mantillas, antique silk dress and apron and other articles too numerous to mention.

Not a dealer's collection.

M. L. BAILEY,
North Franklin, Conn.

If stormy next fair day. Caterer in attendance

AUCTION NOTICE
—BY—
WITTER BROS.,
AUCTIONEERS,
Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Conn.

We will sell for Herman Frink, at his farm, located on Elconk Hill, in the town of Sterling, Conn., on

FRIDAY, AUG. 20, 1926,
at 1 o'clock p. m., standard time,
RAIN OR SHINE,

40 — HEAD OF CATTLE — 40

consisting principally of Ayrshires and Holsteins, of large size, good age, and carrying plenty of flesh, including many 2-quart cows either strictly fresh or near by; several beef cows, a bull, a lot of veal calves, 1 fat shoat and 1 good roan farm mare. Mr Frink informs us that these cattle are as choice a lot as stands in his section of the state today, therefore the sale should be well attended. Terms cash

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Immediately, a top-notch farm hand who is willing to work on a good farm for man willing to pay highest wages. W. S. Brown, Shepard Hill Farm, Central Village, Conn. Tel. Moosup, 28-12. aug14d

WANTED—Two energetic salesmen; must be producers. To men who can qualify we have an A-1 proposition. Write Bulletin, Box 7-N. aug14d

DO YOU WANT MORE MONEY?—We need men and women to represent us in your city and vicinity. Let us show you how to increase your income during spare time. A postcard will bring full details. Dept. E46, International Magazine Co., Inc., 119 West 40th St., New York, N. Y. aug14d

WANTED—Established manufacturer will employ several willing workers for local sales work. Right men will be trained and earn from start. Address Sales Manager, 133 So. Peoria, Dept. 79, Chicago. aug14d

$30.00 A WEEK—Man or woman wanted to distribute nationally known food products to steady users in Norwich. No experience necessary. Write at once. The J. R. Watkins Co., 301-33 Johnson Ave., Newark, N. J. aug14d

SALESMEN—Sell used tires, new tubes and skived shoes to dealers. Liberal commission paid weekly. Exclusive territory. Sales Manager, 916 Willow St., Chicago. aug14d

AGENTS: $65 TO $100 A WEEK—High Grade All Wool Suits made to measure $25 and $28; biggest commission in advance; money back guarantee; free sample outfit. Write C. J. Ferrin, Mgr., Box 1097, Chicago. aug14d

AMAZING NEW SHIRT LINE priced alarmingly low; sell on sight; outfit free to men who will start quick. Fashion Wear Shirts, Dept. 108, Cincinnati. aug14d

WANTED—Reliable and capable man to take orders guaranteed nursery stock. Liberal pay weekly. Apply at once. Mr Spencer, Central Village, Conn. aug14d

RELIABLE MAN—You can earn $25 to $150 weekly selling "Genesee" trees, shrubs, plants; no delivering; permanent position; weekly check; equipment free. Write at once. Genesee Nurseries, Rochester, New York. aug14d

WANTED—Position as chauffeur. Eddie Horrison, P. O. Box 193, Taftville. aug13d

WANTED—Counter man. Apply to Mohegan Restaurant, 271 Main St. aug12d

YOUNG MAN, 17, strong and willing, finished three year electrical course, State Trade School, wants work. Paul Jansen, Mansfield Center, Conn. Tel. aug12d

BRICKLAYERS—For Hartford, Conn. Maximum rate $1.37 1-2 per hour, experienced tradesmen, steady work, normal conditions. Apply ready for work to Hartford Open Shop Building Trades Exchange, 721 Main St., Hartford, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—Young man for selling work outside. Liberal commission paid. Very pleasant work. Some of our men make as high as $50 weekly. Write Box 44, care of Bulletin. jul27tf

CLOSE-OUT SALE OF LAWN MOWERS

$8.50 Machine	$7.00
$12.00 Machine	$10.00
$15.00 Machine	$12.50

THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Sell It

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Tenement, cottage preferred; central location. Write Box 122, Bulletin Office. aug14d

MARRY—Lonely hearts, join our club; we have a companion for you, many worth from $5,000 to $50,000; descriptions, photos, introductions free; send no money. Standard Corr. Club, Grayslake, Ill. aug14d

CATHOLICS, wishing to marry, wanting introductions, write C. C. Club, Grand Rapids, Mich. aug14d

BE A DETECTIVE — Great demand; travel; experience unnecessary. Write Dept. 114, American Detective System, 1666 Broadway, New York. aug14d

LONELY GENTLEMAN, worth $100,000, desires marriageable correspondents (Milton-R.), Box 100, Detroit, Mich. aug14d

CHARMING YOUNG LADY, worth $75,000, lonely, will marry. Eva, B-1022, Wichita, Kas. aug14d

MARRY IF LONELY—For results, try me; best and most successful "Home Maker;" hundreds rich wish marriage soon; strictly confidential; most reliable; years experience; descriptions free. "The Successful Club," Mrs. Nash, Box 556, Oakland, Calif. aug14d

WANTED—Vaults and cesspools to clean. H. L. Harris, R. F. D. 1, Box 138. apr3d

NOTICE—We buy old fashioned furniture. R. H. Ward, 21 Huntington Ave. Tel. 1003-2. jun26d

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 389, Norwich. Phone 361-13, Norwich; 506 Willimantic. TuThSmay16

NOTICE
IMPORTANT—Will Mrs. Hattie C. Record communicate with the following address. Box XYZ, Bulletin Office? aug13d

WANTED—Carpenter work of all kinds. Estimates cheerfully given for large or small jobs. M. Krugman, 97 Mechanics St. Phone 574. aug13tf

WANTED—On or about August 23, return load of furniture or other freight to Maine, New Hampshire or Vermont. F. C. Davis, Danielson, Conn. Tel. 250. aug12d

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY
A CONNECTICUT corporation doing business in New London, Norwich and its vicinity, has increased its plant and production and is willing to dispose of part of its seven per cent (7%) participating preferred stock. If interested, we invite your inquiries. Write Investment, Bulletin Office. aug9d

AGENTS—Either sex, be our representatives, sell magic lustre, silver and metal polish, rapid seller, 50 per cent profit, credit given. Wells O. K. Specialty Co., Norwich, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—An electric ceiling fan. Call 1933-4 or 1405-2. aug4d

F. J. CONNELLY—Tree cutter and remover 65 Boswell Ave.

CALL 2661-W. Upholstering, crating carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 39 Market St. apr29d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1405. nov17d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner, 107 Franklin St. Phone 659 nov17d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 32 Market St. Phone 2158 ff.

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work
Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
507 TO 515 NORTH MAIN STREET

BODIES MADE NEW
RADIATORS REPAIRED AND RECORED
Bodies and Fenders Straightened
SMASHUPS OUR SPECIALTY
AUTO METAL WORK
ALL KINDS OF SOLDERING DONE
Full Stock of New and Used Tires and Tubes for Sale
Norwich Radiator Works
375 Main St. Telephone 2215.

Now is the time to have the radiator put in A-1 shape for spring work. HERE is the place to have it done. We remove scale, sediment, and rust; we stop PERMANENTLY those leaks. We straighten the weak spots against vibration.
We recore or repair ANY TYPE of STYLE.
W. E. SHANLEY
499 MAIN STREET.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

Business Notices.

ARTESIAN WELLS

Water! Water! Water!
WE ARE STILL DRILLING WELLS IN THIS LOCALITY.
SEE TRASK FOR THAT WELL.
TRASK ARTESIAN WELL CO.

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

CARS bought to wreck. Parts for all cars. Tires and tubes (new and used), big bargains. Hodes Auto Parts, 551 West Main St., Norwich. Tel. 1400 aug12

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Authorized Service Station for Rusco Brake Lining. Brakes inspected Free
JOE MOORE'S GARAGE,
95 Chestnut St. Phone 2137

PAIGE, JEWETT AND GARDNER
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM O. NOYES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 721-4

General Repairing, Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-3

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2538
95 Chestnut Street

BOWLING AND BILLIARDS

HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS
-PALACE ALLEYS
Thayer Building Franklin Square
"Chip" Dugas and "Mike" Morin, Props. Phone 2104.

BOWLING
HIGH GRADE BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS AT
"CHIP" DUGAS
Telephone 753-12 TAFTVILLE

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

ALEXANDER H. MANES
Certified Public Accountant
43 Broadway Norwich

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Rural Homes
Need a Sanitary Sewage Disposal System.
Let us show you the best Vitrified Septic Tanks on the market today and explain their most exceptional advantages.
—The—
Peck-McWilliams Company.

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

CONTRACTORS

JAMES FERNIGNARO
Contractor, Excavating and Mason Work
Phone 2391—123 Oakridge St.

A. COSENTINO
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Excavation, Stone Work, Specialist in Plaster Work
4 Valley St. Tel. 627-4

CALL 2264-M for painting and cement work, done reasonably and expertly. may22tf

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

DENTISTS

DR. ALFRED RICHARDS
Dental Surgeon
Rm 305, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 293

INSURANCE

E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Room 14, Central Bldg. Tel. 2425-2

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE
HAROLD S. BURT
120 LAUREL HILL AVENUE
PHONE 2121.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

Business Notices.

NURSING

The National Independence We Have

and celebrate at this time should make us wonder if we have enough INSURANCE TO GUARANTEE US FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE.

B. P. Learned & Co.

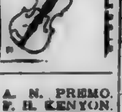
(Est. May 1846.)

MUSIC

HELEN L. PERKINS
TEACHER OF SINGING
Phone 2197 Studio, Allen Bldg.

EDWARD BRENNAN
TEACHER OF VIOLIN
Tel. 792 317 Main St.

ERNEST E. BULLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Also Plays
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend.



A. N. PREMO.
F. H. KENYON.
General Agent.
C. N. DELAP.
Special Agent.
JAS. F. FUORD.
Special Agent.
Hartford, Conn.
Special Agent.
New York, New Haven

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS

to Pay All Those Small Bills That Are Worrying You
WE FURNISH THE CASH

and you repay us in monthly installments to suit your means.—
On $ 50 you pay $ 5 monthly
On $ 75 you pay $ 6 monthly
On $100 you pay $ 8 monthly
On $150 you pay $10 monthly
On $200 you pay $10 monthly
On $300 you pay $20 monthly
plus legal interest on unpaid balance as designated by State law. Loans made to housekeepers on home furniture without removal and to anyone on guaranteed note. We operate under State Banking Dept. supervision and are licensed and bonded under State laws. For details, call, write, or phone 1478.

New England Equity Corp.

Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 806 THAYER BLDG
16 FRANKLIN STREET

MERCHANT TAILOR

SWAEN THE TAILOR
HAS MOVED TO 8 CLIFF STREET
Opposite Chelsea Bank Phone 2101

MATTRESSES

SUSSMANS BEDDING
"The Best for Less"
All Kinds Furniture Stores
SUSSMANS MATTRESS CO.
Chestnut St. Phone 671

MACHINE SHOP

BARBER'S Machine Shop, (L. and A. P. Guertin, proprietors) 25-26 Chestnut St. Tel 2162, does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly, day or night. jun14tf

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co. 63 Franklin St.

PLUMBING

C. P. BURNS
91 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
159 Franklin St. Tel. 1331

TRUCKING

WANTED—Trucking and expressing. Good service. O. Eccleston. Tel. 1478-13. jun21tf

O. W. TRYON—Light trucking, parcel delivery. Reasonable rates. Tel. 2148. jun23tf

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING Low rates. Phone 1342. jun23tf

CALL 792 FOR
Local and Long Distance Moving
W. F. CONGDON, 25 Chestnut St.

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. jun23tf

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Cheerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.

C. D. JOSLYN 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1583-3.

Established 1879 Telephone 178
ARTHUR S. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Unexcelled Service

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 926-2

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York

Stocks: Firm; Atchison leads rally after early slump.
Bonds: Heavy; government issues react on higher bank rate.
Foreign exchanges: Steady; French franc firm.
Cotton: Steady; foreign buying.
Sugar: Featureless.
Coffee: Lower; New Orleans selling.
Chicago
Wheat Easy; sympathy com—
Corn: Weak; good rains.
Cattle: Steady.
Hogs: Firm.

FLURRY IN STOCK PRICES

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Stock prices broke sharply today on the unexpected increase in the New York federal reserve re-discount rate and then developed a surprising outburst of strength which wiped out most of the earlier losses of 1 to 10 points and sent dozens of issues 1 to 7 points above yesterday's final quotations. It was one of the most complete reversals of form in recent stock exchange history, and had a bewildering effect on many traders and investors.

Wall street's first impulse today was to sell stocks on the theory that the "good news" on General Motors, directors of which declared a 50 per cent stock dividend yesterday, was out and that the higher bank rate probably would be construed by many as a check on extravagant speculation in stocks.

The nervousness of traders, made apparent by the erratic fluctuations in many issues in the early trading, was taken advantage of by professional "shorts", who succeeded in touching off a number of "stop loss" orders, resulting in precipitious declines in some of the high priced specialties.

While little effort was made to bid up the high grade industrials during the morning, it was noticeable that they received good buying support on the "dips" and that there were little urgent liquidation of large lines of "long" stocks. When a strong investment demand appeared in the rails which carried Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, Northern Pacific and Southern Railway preferred to new record high prices, an active covering movement started in the industrials. Sudden displays of bullish enthusiasm in American Smelting, General Electric and other industrials which had not shared extensively in the recent upswing, sent the shorts in these and other industrials scurrying to cover, closing prices generally being at or near the high levels of the day.

The weekly mercantile reviews reported a further improvement in business, despite the intense heat in many sections of the country. Stress was laid on the fact that in no other year at this time have the major industries shown the same degree of activity and vitality as now, but fall buying was nevertheless characterized as conservative, although there was good promise of further commercial expansion.

The confused price movement in the stock market is well illustrated by the fluctuations in General Motors, which opened one point lower at 202 1-2, soared close to the 200 mark, rallied to 203, broke to 196 3-4, climbed back to around the 200 mark, by early afternoon and then spurted up to 208 for a net gain of 4 1-2 points on the day. U. S. Steel common showed a net gain of 2 3-8 at 103 after having touched 104. Du Pont rallied from 287 to 302 and then slipped back to 300, up 5 1-4 net. U. S. Cast Iron Pipe rallied from 328 1-4 to 336 1-4 and Case Threshing from 156 3-4 to 171 and then back to 168 3-4, up five points net.

American Smelting was one of the late features, soaring 7 points to 147 1-2, the highest price since 1907. American Brake Shoe and Foundry closed 10 points higher at 145 and American Woolen, common and preferred, Brooklyn Union Gas, General Electric, National Lead and Sloss Sheffield Steel were among the many issues to show net gains of two points or more.

Call money held steady at 4 1-2 per cent all day, although banks are reported to have called about $15,000,000 in loans. Time money was in greater demand and a stiffening price tendency was noted for the longer accommodations. Commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Commodity markets showed little change. Wheat futures yielded a fraction of a cent a bushel after an early rally, based on the unexpected strength in foreign markets, had petered out. Cotton options closed 13 to 15 points net higher, after touching new low levels for the movement. Raw sugar was unchanged and coffee prices held firm.

With the exception of a slight weakening in sterling exchange, demand bills ruling quarter of a cent lower around $4.83 3-8, there were few changes of interest in the foreign exchange market. French and Belgian francs held relatively steady around 2.70 cents.

STOCKS.

Sales (in hundreds)	High.	Low.	Close.
16 Air Reduct ...169	134	130
3 Ajax Rubber .. 9¼	9	9
244 Al Ch & D ...139½	134⅛	139½
1 Al Ch & D pr.122	122	122
5 Allis Chalm Mfg 90	88⅝	90
13 Amerada Corp 31¼	30¾	31
2 Am Ag Chem. 19¼	19¼	19¼
8 Am Ag Ch pr. 63	62½	64½
1 Am Beet Sug .24½	24½	24½
7 Am Bos Mag . 18⅝	17⅞	18
25 Am Br Sh Mfg146	136	145
9 Am B Sh Fd pf116	116	116
53 Am Br Sv El. 47⅞	45¼	47⅞
510 Am Can 61	58½	61
8 Am Car Fdy .180⅜	99⅝	100⅜
1 Am Chain A . 25¾	25¼	25¼
3 Am Drug Syn. 7⅞	7⅝	7⅞
2 Am Express . 126½	126	126½
4 Am For Pow. 21½	20½	21
1 Am For P pr. 90	90	90
1 Am Hide & L. 7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
7 Am Home Prod 26	26	26
2 Am Ice 124	123½	123½
5 Am Inter Corp 35	34½	35
830 Amal Leath .. 19	18	19
102 Am Linseed .. 42½	40½	42
102 Am Loinseed . 42½	40½	42
3 Am Linseed pr 82	81¾	82
5 Am Loco 105	103⅞	104½
8 Am Mach Fdy. 75	73½	75
7 Am Match pr.120½	120¼	120½
7 Am P & Lt ... 66⅛	66¼	66⅞
3 Am Radiator .117	115¾	117
2 Am Republic.. 56½	56⅛	56⅝
18 Am Saf Razor 69	66⅝	69
8 Am Sh & Com 7¾	7½	7⅝
380 Am Sm & Ref147½	128⅞	147½
1 Am Sm pr .. .118¾	118¼	118¾
1 Am Snuff .. .127	127	127
1 Am Snuff pr . 98	98	98
8 Am Steel Fdrs 45½	45⅛	45½
12 Am Sug Ref .. 73¼	72	73¼
2 Am Sugar pr. 102⅞	102⅝	102⅞
11 Am Sm Tob opt 33½	31⅞	32¼
20 Am Tel & Tel143⅞	142¼	143¼
14 Am Tobacco . 119½	118	119⅛
33 Am S Tob new 30¼	29¼	30
9 Am Tob B 118¼	117¾	118¼
1 Am Ty Fdrs pr104½	104½	104½
3 Am Wat W&E 59½	59⅛	59⅝
69 Am Wool .. . 27¾	24	27½
12 Am Wool pr . 75⅞	72	75⅞
16 Am W P pr .. ⅝	½	¾
14 Am WP pr cf ⅝	½	½
3 Am Z L&S pr. 32	31⅝	31⅝
86 Anaconda Cop 51	49⅝	51
1 Arch D Mfd .. 39	39	39
2 Arm&Co D pr. 94	94	94
6 Arm&C I A .. 14⅝	14⅜	14⅝
1 Art Corp 51	51	51
2 Art Met Con ... 21½	21¼	21½
15 Asso Dry Gds 43⅞	43⅛	43⅞
1 Asso Oil 50	50	50
168 Atchison 150¼	143⅜	145¼
3 Atchison pr .. 99⅞	99⅜	99⅞
2 Atl B & A 5	5	5
2 Atl Coast L ...220	219	225½
8 Atl G & W I.. 39¼	37¼	39¼
1 Atl G&W I pr 42⅜	42⅜	42⅜
6 Atl Ref. 112½	110	112½
153 Bald Loco 120½	117½	120
257 Balt & O 104½	101¼	104½
2 Balt & O pr.. 72⅞	72⅞	72⅞
2 Barns Cor A .. 25⅜	25	25⅜
1 Barns Cor B .. 24	24	24
9 Bayuk Cigar . 48	47¼	48
5 Beechnut Pack 63	62	63
51 Beth Steel ... 47½	46½	47½
6 Beth St 7 pr. 103½	103	103½
1 Booth Fish .. 5⅞	5⅞	5⅞
7 Briggs Mfg Co. 28¼	28	28
6 Bkyn Ed xd.. 148	147	147½
94 Bkyn Man Tr. 65⅞	64½	65⅞
4 Bkyn Man Tr p 86	85¼	86
60 Bkyn Un Gas. 96¾	95¾	95¾
4 Brown Shoe . . 38	37⅝	37¾
1 Bruns Bal Col 29½	29½	29½
3 Bruns T & Ry 13	12¾	12¾
7 Bgrns Br A .. 135	134½	135⅞
18 Bur Add M xd111	108	110
14 Bush Term ... 29	28¾	28¾
8 Butte Cop 5½	5	5⅜
3 Butte & S M.. 10¾	10¼	10½
14 Butterick Co.. 60¾	59¾	60
32 Calif Pack 72	70½	72
11 Cal Pet xd ... 32¼	32	32¼
3 Cal Zinc Ld .. . 2	1⅞	1⅞
13 Cal & Ar Min. 71¾	70¼	71⅝
5 Cal & H C Cop 17½	17	17⅜
5 Cal & H C Cop 17⅝	17	17⅜
19 Cana Pacific . 164¾	163	164½
37 Case Thresh . 171	156¾	168¾
1 C Thresh pr..117½	117½	117½
1 Cent Leath pr. 51⅝	51⅝	51⅝
1 Cen R of NJ 285	283	285
28 Cerro de Pasco 71¼	70	71
4 Certainteed Pr 46⅝	45⅝	46⅝
9 Ch Cl Motor . . 12¾	12⅜	12⅝
4 Ch Cle pr 30½	30	30
31 Ches & O 146½	143	146⅝
10 Chi & Alton . . 5⅞	5⅝	5⅞
4 Chi & A pr .. . 9	8½	9
1 Chi & East I R 31	31	31
4 Chi Gt W 9⅞	9¾	9¾
36 Chi Gt W pr.. 26	24	25
58 Chi M & St P 13¾	12½	13¾
43 Chi & St P cf 12¾	12½	12¾
268 C M&StP pr... 23¼	21½	22¾
99 C M&StP p c 22¼	21	22¼
78 Chic & N W... 76¼	74	76
87 C R I & P 59½	57⅞	59⅝
1 C R I P 6 p c. 89½	89½	89½
2 C R I P 7 pc . 101⅜	100⅞	100⅞
1 Chile Cop . . . 34⅝	34¼	34¼
243 Chrys Corp ... 37	35½	36⅝
1 Chrys Corp prA103½	103½	103½
1 Clett Peab .. 63¾	63¼	63¾
53 Coca Cola 161⅞	156	161⅞
2 Col & Alk 49¾	49¼	49¾
10 Col F & I 44¾	42⅝	44¼
1 Col & Southn . 66⅝	66⅝	66⅝
28 Col Gas & El 82	81¼	81⅞
1 Col G & E pr.115	115	115
2 Col Carbon .. 62¼	62¼	62½
1 Com Credit . . 27⅝	27⅝	27⅝
1 Com Inv Tr . . 66¼	66½	66½
10 Com Solv B .164¾	160	164¾
2 Congress Cig.. 42	41⅝	41⅝
31 Cons Cigar .. 70½	68½	70½
130 Cons Dist. 2¾	1½	1¾
280 Cons Gas 110⅝	107	110¼
13 Cons Textile . 2¼	2	2¼
23 Cont Can .. . 82½	82¼	82¼
7 Cont Insur ...133	129	132
19 Cont Motors . 11⅝	11½	11⅝
42 Corn Prod . . 45¾	44⅝	45⅝
1 Coty Inc .. . 51	51	51
10 Cruc Steel . . 75⅛	72½	74
6 Cuba C Sug pr 39	39	39
13 Cuba Co The. 51	50	51
16 Cuba Co rts.. 10½	10¼	10¼
4 Cuba Am Sug . 26⅛	26	25⅝
17 Cudahy Pack . 97	95⅝	95⅝
6 Cuyamel Fruit 46⅝	46⅛	46⅛
23 Davison Chem.. 37	36	37
3 Del & Hud ..167⅝	166	167
13 Del Lk & W . 146⅛	145	145⅜
4 Den Rio G W . 45	44¾	44⅞
2 Detroit Edison 139	134⅝	135
104 Devoe & Rey A 37½	37½	37½
21 Dodge Bro A .. 31½	29⅞	31½
11 Dodge Bro pr.. 87¾	87¾	87¾
21 Dome Mines .. 11⅝	11¼	11⅝
2 Doug Pectin .. 33	33	33
65 DuP de Nem. 302	287	300
1 DuP de N deb 107½	107½	107½
2 Prod & Ref ... 11	11	11
30 Pub Ser C NJ. 90⅝	89½	90⅝
1 Pub S NJ pe p107	107	107
22 Pullman Co ...178⅜	176	178⅜
5 Punta Al Sug . 96⅝	94⅞	96⅝
18 Pure Oil 26⅝	26¼	26⅝
17 Rad Crp A ... 44	42⅝	43⅝
1 Rad Corp pr.. 48	48	48
2 Rair Sec .. . 74¼	74	74
1 Ray Con Cop . 14⅝	14⅜	14⅜
85 Reading Co .. 96½	94⅝	96½
4 Read rts exp... 17⅜	17⅜	17⅜
39 Rem Type 118	113	116½
6 Replogle St ... 10¼	9⅞	10¼
26 Rep I & S xd.. 60⅝	59¾	60
1 Rey Spr 6¼	6¼	6¼
11 Rey Tob B ... 97¼	96½	97¼
1 Roy D N Y sh. 50¼	50⅛	50¼
5 Safety Ca Co.. 51	50½	50½
8 St Jos Lead .. 44⅝	44	44⅞
24 St L S F Ry. 97¼	96	97¼
2 S L S F pr ... 91¾	91	91¾
1 S L S W 69⅝	69⅝	69⅝
4 Schulte R St.. 49¼	49	49¼
29 Seab A L 34¼	32¾	34¼
37 Sears Roeb... 56⅝	55⅜	56⅝
3 Seneca Cop ... 5½	5½	5½
39 Shell Un Oil . 28½	28⅛	28⅛
11 Shell U Oil pr106	106	106
12 Shub T Corp . 68½	67	68½
15 Simmons Co .. 83⅜	83	83⅜
19 Simms Petrol . 17½	17⅛	17⅛
47 Sinc C Oil 21¼	20⅞	21¼
2 Sinc C O pr... 99⅝	99	99⅝
4 Skelly Oil 33⅛	32⅞	32⅞
15 Sl Sh S & R...140	136½	140
13 South P R Sug 111¼	109⅝	111¼
14 Sthn Cal Ed .. 21⅝	21	21¼
13 Sthn Dairies A 53	52	52¼
9 Southn Dair B . 21¼	20⅝	21¼
151 Sthn Pacific . 107	105	107
56 Southn Ry .. . 121⅝	119	121½
4 South Ry pr .. 96½	95⅝	95½
11 Spicer Mfg ... 23⅜	22⅞	23½
26 Std G & E ... 54⅜	54⅛	54⅝
114 Std Oil Cal ... 60⅜	59⅛	60⅜
144 Std Oil N J ... 43⅝	42⅞	43⅞
14 Std Oil NJ pr116⅜	116⅛	116⅝
1 Std Pl Glass .. 6¼	6¼	6¼
2 Sterling Prod .. 84	83⅝	84
21 Stew War Spd 75¼	74½	75¼
82 Studebaker Cp 54⅞	53½	54⅛
5 Subm Boat .. . 1⅜	1⅜	1⅞
11 Superior Oil .. 1⅝	1½	1½
1 Sweets Co Am. 13⅛	12½	13¼
3 Texas Co 53¼	52¾	53¼
35 Tex Gulf Sulp 167⅝	165	167½
31 Tex & Pac Ry 56⅜	53¾	55⅞
10 Tex & P C & O .14⅝	14¼	14½
5 Thomp J R ... 47	46	47
5 Tide W Oil 30	30	30
19 Timk R Brg.. 61	60¼	61
67 Tob Prod 105⅞	104	105½
4 Tob Prod A ...111⅞	111¾	111¾
86 Trans Oil 5	4⅝	4⅞
5 Under Type .. . 54½	54⅛	54¼
38 Un Bg & P .. . 55	52	55
27 Un Crb & Crp . 89	87⅜	89
52 Union Oil Cal. 52⅝	50⅝	52
45 Union Pac.... 137	135½	137
2 Union Pac pr. 80¼	80	80¼
2 Uni Alloy Stl. 33½	33½	33½
132 Uni Cig Strs.. 105⅝	102	105⅝
8 United Drug .. 159	157¾	158½
1 Uni Drug 1 pr 57½	57½	57½
5 United Fruit .. 115	114⅝	116
59 US C I P & F.236¼	228½	235¼
11 U S Dist 55	54	55
118 U S Ind Al 70⅝	67½	69
14 U S Real & Im 61	60	61
44 U S Rubber . 58⅝	56⅝	58⅜
1 U S Rub 1 pr.107	107	107
5 P S Stm & Ref 38⅜	38	38⅜
2038 US Steel Cop.153	143	153
1 U S Steel pr 128⅝	128⅝	128⅝
1 U S Tob pr ...112	112	112
28 Un P & Rad... 24½	23	24½
4 Uni P & Ra pr. 75	72	75
2 Util P&L A .. 29¼	29¼	29¼
22 Vana Corp 38¾	37½	38⅝
1 Van Ra 1 pr .. 58	58	58
7 Vic Chem 49	48½	48½
5 V C Ch 7pc... 90⅝	90¾	90⅝
6 V C C 6 pr ... 45½	44½	44½
11 Viva Inc 31¾	31	31⅝
56 Wabash Ry ... 46½	45	46⅜
4 Wabash pr A .. 78⅝	75	75⅝
20 Waldorf Sys.. 20½	20	20
1 Walworth Co.. 16⅜	16⅜	16⅜
107 Ward Bak B.. 36½	36½	36½
1 Ward Bak pr.. 91½	91½	91½
32 Warn Bro Pic A 27⅜	26¼	27⅜
8 Warr Bros Co. 50⅜	49¾	49¾
9 West Mary .. . 13¾	12⅞	13⅜
2 West Mary 2 pr 21⅞	21⅞	21⅞
1 West Pac pr .. 84½	84½	84½
2 West Un Tel ..144¼	144	144
32 West Air Br.. 132	128½	131⅝
37 West Elec Mfg 70	68⅝	70
3 West Elec Ins. 18½	17½	18¼
1 White S M pr. 48⅝	48⅝	48⅝
32 Wheel & L E 25	24	24⅝
10 W & L E pr.. 44¾	43⅝	43⅝
1 White Eag Oil. 26	26	26
44 White Motor .. 61½	60¼	61¼
1 Wick Sp St cf 1	1	1
246 Willys Over .. 28½	27¼	28¼
1 Wilson&Co n. . 10	10	10
78 Woolw FW Co168	164¾	168
6 Wright Aero .. 35½	36	35¼
357 Yellow T & C. 31¾	29¾	31¾
2 Yel T&C Tpcpr105	104¾	104¾
49 Young S & T .. 92	90	92

BOND MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Firmer credit conditions, indicated by the advance in the New York federal reserve re-discount rate to 4 per cent started a selling movement in today's bond market which carried all classes of issues to lower price levels. Time money rates, which were marked up several weeks ago, showed a further hardening tendency.

United States government obligations bore the brunt of the selling pressure today as a result of the change in the money outlook. Treasury 4s were hammered down almost a half point and with one exception liberty bonds were scaled down rather sharply.

In the face of strong buying support for high grade railroad stocks, bonds of these companies were reactionary. Norfolk and Western convertible sixes were the only outstanding exception to the downward trend, following the road's shares into new high ground. Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central, Southern Pacific and other standard investment issues receded fractionally. Wabash 4s declined nearly 3 points. Prices also displayed a softening tendency in the industrial division but trading was devoid of features.

Foreign obligations were influenced to a lesser degree by the change in the bank rate, and in some instances registered moderate gains. French and German issues were conspicuously firm.

U. S. BONDS.

	High	Low	Last
1st Lib 2½s '32-47	101.4	101	101.2
1st Lib 4¼s '32-47	102	101.28	101.28
2d Lib 4¼s '27-42	100.28	100.20	100.21
3d Lib 4¼s 1928	101.5	101.2	101.3
4th Lib 4¼s '33-38	102.9	102.3	102.5
Treas 3¾s 1956	101.22	101.6	101.6
Treas 4s 1954	103.24	103.12	103.12
Treas 4¼s '47-51	107.30	107.10	107.13

(U. S. Government Bonds in Dollars and Thirty-Seconds of Dollars.)

MONEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. —(AP) — Call money firmer; all loans 4 1-2; closing bid 4 1-2; time loans firmer; mixed collateral, 60-90 days 4 1-2-4 3-4; 4-6 months 4 3-4-5. Prime mercantile paper 4 1-4.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Treasury balance, Aug. 11th, $168,621,734 83.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

Sterling—	Yesterday	Year Ago
Demand $4.86 7-16	$4.85½
Cables 4.85 15-16	4.85⅝
Francs 5.72	4.67½
Lire 3.29⅛	5.61½
Swiss francs 10.82	19.42
Pesetas 15.34	14.44
Belgian francs ... 2.65	4.50
Greece 1.10½	1.66⅝
Guilders 40.13	40.26
Marks 23.81	23.81
Kronen 0014⅛	.0014⅝
Sweden 24.79	24.88
Denmark 26.65	26.68
Norway 21.92	18.45
Argentina 109.00	91.90
Brazil 15.48	12.10
India 36.50	36.70
Japan 47.30	41.20

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Despite greatly enlarged export buying that total 2,000,000 bushels, the wheat market today receded from early upturns in price. Heavy profit taking sales on corn forced the corn market down, and indirectly weakened wheat. Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 5-8c lower, with corn 2 1-2 to 2 1-4c down, oats 3-4c to 1 and 1 1-8c off, and provisions unchanged to 27c up.

Preceding the wheat price reaction, which took effect chiefly in the final hour of trading, the wheat showed a decided upward trend today. An unexpected advances in quotations at Liverpool brought about a prompt response from the market here, advices in Chicago indicting that British buyers were re-entering the market abroad and had already taken a fair volume of breadstuffs. Besides, current reports said European stocks of wheat and flour were far from burdensome, and that imports by Great Britain alone should average 3,250,000 bushels.

Threshing delays in the American northwest due to wet weather tended further to lift wheat values, and so likewise did the fact that mills are continuing to absorb cash wheat with a surprising degree of readiness. Moreover, commission houses were active in spread trading between wheat and corn, with spreads consisting largely of simultaneous buying of wheat against sales of corn. Toward the last however, the acute weakness in corn acted as a big drag on wheat.

Besides the weight of profit taking sales and of general speculative pressure, the corn market was influenced by absence of aggressive purchasing that has been much in evidence of late. One reason was more favorable weather conditions for the new corn crop, together with prospects of an unusually large carry over of old corn. Oats went lower with corn.

Provisions reflected upturns in the value of hogs.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

	High	Low	Close
Wheat—
Sep. ...	136¼	135¼	136⅝
Dec. ...	141¾	145	145¾
May	147	145	145¾
Corn—
Sep. ...	83¼	83¼	83¼
Dec. ...	87½	87½	86½
May	95⅝	92⅝	92½
Oats—
Sep. ...	40¾	40	39⅝
Dec. ...	44	43¾	43¼
May	47⅝	47⅜	47⅝

CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—A sharp downward movement was the curb market's initial response to the unexpected increase in the New York federal reserve rediscount rate. The unsettlement continued through most of the session although a moderate rally started in the last hour in sympathy with the broad buying movement on the "big board." At the close, however, net losses exceeded net gains, although in most cases substantial recoveries were made from th day's low levels.

The admission to trading privileges of the additional shares of the General Motors corporation to be issued as a 50 per cent stock dividend enlivened trading in the early afternoon. The initial quotation was 134, and was followed by a few sales which carried the price down to 133, but an outburst of buying at the close boosted the price to 138 1-2. The trading is on a "when issued" basis, the market quotations conforming to Wall street's valuation of the stock after the distribution of nearly 3,000,000 additional shares as a stock dividend.

Other motors failed to share in the bullish enthusiasm, however. Durant, Reo, Rickenbacker and Stutz all losing ground. Baking shares ran into heavy profit taking, Continental Baking A and B losing 2 points and one point respectively and the others yielding fractionally.

Establishment of a new high record for the year by Freshman at 38 7-8 featured the radio group. A break of nearly 10 points in Tubize Art Silk was the only development of importance in the artificial silk group. Coal shares were firm. Stanley company of America touched a new top at 78 but such ordinarily inactive issues as Celluloid Company, Celotex and Duz were heavy.

Heavy trading in Kay copper and National tin featured the trading in the mining shares.

COTTON

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Cotton, spot quiet; middling 17.80.

METAL MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Copper dull, electrolytic, spot and futures 14 3-8-14 1-2.

Tin easy, spot and nearby 64.37; futures 63.12.

Iron steady; prices unchanged.

Lead steady, spot 6.90.

Zinc steady, East St. Louis spot and futures 7.30-7.32.

Antimony, spot 16.00.

Fire Insurance.

Aetna Fire Ins	525	535
Auto Ins	..	810
Hartford Fire Ins	51 0	520
Nat Fire Ins	740	760
Phoenix Ins	565	580
Rossia Ins	85	90

Life and Indemnity Insurance.

Aetna C S	790	..
Aetna Life Ins	660	675
Aetna Life fl pr rts ..	660	675
Aetna Life A pr dpt ..	510	520
Conn Genera	1675	1750
Htd Steam Boil	670	680
Travelers	1200	1225

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

TRANSPORTATION

New York

Via the New London Line — One Way Fare $3.38 From Norwich

Special Summer Service
Effective June 28 to Sept. 11, inc.
NIGHT SCHEDULE—Daily
Lv. New London 10.00 P.M.
Due New York, Pier 40 (Houston St.) 6.00 A.M.
DAY SCHEDULE—Daily, Ex. Sun. and Mon.
Lv. New London 9.00 A.M.
Due New York, Pier 40, N. R. 4.30 P.M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME

$4.00 Round Trip from New London — Regular 4 day excursions to New York and return. Tickets sold Monday to Friday inclusive, good on day or night steamers going and returning next day.

Tickets sold Saturday good only on day steamer going and night steamer returning same day.
Tickets and Staterooms on sale at Union Station New London.
Special rates for accompanied automobiles.
The New England Steamship Co.

To Block Island
Daily Excursions from Norwich and New London
—Via—
M

SHOWERS TODAY AND TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Saturday, August 14, 1926

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

The disturbance that was near Hudson bay Thursday night is over eastern Quebec. Father point 30.00 with a trough extending southwestward to Kansas; pressure is high from the Canadian maritime provinces, Sydney 30.20 southward to Bermuda, 30.26 and thence westward to the South Atlantic states.

The outlook is for local showers and thunderstorms Saturday and Sunday in most of the states east of the Mississippi river. Temperatures changes will be unimportant.

Winds.

North of Sandy Hook: Moderate to fresh south and southwest, weather partly overcast with some fog Saturday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Moderate to fresh and southwest, weather partly overcast Saturday.

Forecast.

For eastern New York and southern New England: Local thundershowers Saturday and Probably Sunday; not much change in temperature.

Observations.

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Friday:

	Temp.	Bar.
7 a. m.	69	30.30
12 m.	82	30.30
6 p. m.	77	30.30

Comparisons.

Prediction for Friday: Local showers.

Friday's weather: Partially cloudy and humid.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	(Standard Time)
9	4.50	6.56	10.36	7.52
10	4.51	6.56	11.15	8.19
11	4.52	6.55	11.54	8.45
12	4.53	6.53	12.32	9.09
13	4.54	6.52	1.14	9.34
14	4.55	6.51	1.55	10.00
15	4.56	6.49	2.42	10.23

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morehead and two children of Boston, Mass., were calling on friends in the village Friday. Mr. Morehead was a resident of Taftville many years ago, residing on Providence street.

Mrs. Leo Glenn Yeagley has returned to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. James Graham at their home in Lisbon.

Dr. F. A. Troie, a former resident, who was recently promoted in the U. S. naval service, is soon to leave San Francisco, Cal., for Honolulu, H. I. Dr. Troie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Troie of Providence street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beebe and family of Millville, N. J., have moved here and have taken a house on Terrace avenue.

Miss Malvina Root of Three Rivers, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Columbe of South B street.

Miss Mary Ring who is touring Europe, has arrived in Italy.

John Thoma of Lisbon met with a painful injury to his shoulder recently while diving at the Poquetanuck drawbridge.

Leslie Manchester of Norwich was a caller in the village Friday.

The executive committee of the Taftville Rod and Gun club has liberated the 60 young pheasants which were alloted to the club by the Fish and Game commission of the state of Connecticut. Twelve of the birds were liberated in Lisbon, as there are some members of the club who reside and hunt in that town. This act shows the policy of the organization, planting both fish and game in territory where its members reside. The other 48 birds were loosed in the woods in this locality, but a report is to be made at the next meeting of the club as to the exact spot in which every bird was given its freedom. The club has made rapid strides since it was organized and now has 83 members on its roll.

Some of the local dog fanciers are to motor to Newport, R. I., today (Saturday) to attend the annual dog show of the Rhode Island Kennel club.

Mrs. Lillian Pora has resigned her position with the weaving department of the local mills and with her family has moved out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Sullivan and daughter Dorothy, of Cleveland, on their way to Block Island, visited Mrs. Sullivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Hensler of Germania avenue.

Mrs Thomas Sears of Providence street is spending the month of August at Pleasure Beach.

Mr. Sutton of New York was a business caller in the village Thursday.

Mrs. Rose Findlay of College Point, L. I., is spending a few days with friends on Hunters avenue.

Charles R. McClellan of Hartford was in town on business Friday.

The state highway department has been busy the past few days improving the road bed along Occum road also erecting a new fence parallel to the river.

COMMON COUNCIL TO INSPECT NEW RESERVOIR

At the invitation of Mayor Milo R. Waters, members of the court of common council are to go to the Deep river reservoir site next Thursday afternoon for the purpose of inspecting the work which has already been completed and gaining a better insight into the proposition before the city.

When the question of the new reservoir first came up Mayor Waters and several members of the council went to the location to look it over. Now that work is progressing rapidly Mayor Waters is informing the council members that it would be a good thing for them to make a point of going to the location next Thursday afternoon.

It is expected that every council member will take the inspection trip with Mayor Waters and the start is to be made from the mayor's office in the town building at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, transportation to be provided.

STATE OFFICES SECURE EMPLOYMENT FOR 2818

A total of 2,818 situations were secured for applicants totalling 4282 at the five free public employment bureaus throughout the state during the month of July, according to the report issued by the state bureau of labor. The number supplied was 2.9 per cent. less than the number of applicants supplied during June. In Hartford 1179 applications were received and 801 situations secured for applicants. There were 1429 applications for help; 90.3 per cent. of these were filled.

NEW AND SUBSTANTIAL GIFTS FOR THE SHELTERING ARMS BUILDING

Seldom has a building of a semi-public character, created so much favorable comment as is being given to the new Sheltering Arms building at the corner of McKinley avenue and Rockwell street.

Most attractively located and imposing in architecture, it makes a decided appeal to the eye of the lover of symmetry and beauty and expressions of admiration are universal.

But back of the beauty of form and furnishings is the object for which the building was constructed and the love for humanity which has inspired the months of work and careful study, which have been put into its every detail.

No one, no matter how happily circumstanced, looks forward to old age and one may imagine that old age, without comforts and care, must indeed be desolate.

That this home for those aged ones who would not otherwise have the attention necessary for the peace of their declining years, is making a strong appeal to the public spirited citizens of Norwich, is evidenced by the gifts which have been made.

The committee gratefully acknowledges the kindness and thoughtfulness of friends who have done much to beautify the interior of the home with chairs, tables, a banjo clock, a grand piano, a victrola, lamps, mirrors and rugs. Such gifts have been a great joy to those having the furnishings in charge and will be a lasting pleasure to the family.

Three new and hitherto unpublished gifts have been made recently.

Mrs. Geo. W. Carroll has by a gift of $1,000 brought the actual construction to completion and furnished a double bed room.

Mrs. Carroll is a member of the Sheltering Arms standing committee and an untiring worker for the welfare of the home.

Carl W. Brown, Judge Allyn L. Brown and Daniel Brown have given $750 to honor the memory of their uncle, Charles H. Brown, a permanent resident of Norwich and Gales Ferry. This sum pays for the construction and furnishes a single room.

John P. Huntington is honoring the memory of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers Huntington by the gift of $2,400 which constructs the very attractive entrance hall.

Mrs. Huntington was the president of the United Workers for ten years from 1895 to 1905 and ever had the welfare of the organization at heart. Her son is at present a member of the advisory board and previous to that was their attorney for several years.

Up to the present time seven rooms have been financed by those interested in this home. The committee is deeply grateful for all the gifts large and small and hopes that many others will want to have a share in this community asset.

The family is moving Monday from its old quarters on the Harland Road into the new house and will be glad to welcome any who are interested in them and their home.

In front of the new home is a large and finely graded lawn. Just inside the main entrance is the reception hall, the floor of which is covered with battleship linoleum of a brownish hue. The electric light fixtures are of the colonial type, antique polished brass with crystal globes and prisms. The mulberry color scheme is followed in the furnishing of this attractive reception hall.

Facing the reception hall is a large elevator which is capable of whatever transporting is to be done to the three floors.

The next room is the dining room which can accommodate 82 people. The yellow color scheme is followed in this room, and again the lighting fixtures prove attractive. The furniture in this room, which is of walnut, consists of eight dining tables accommodating four to a table, sideboard, serving table and chairs which are of the Windsor type.

From the dining room to the kitchen one must pass through the serving pantry, which is done in white. This pantry is equipped with an up-to-date butler's sink and also has a dumb waiter. The floors of the serving pantry and also the kitchen, which is next visited, are of red tile. Built-in kitchen cabinets done in gray, filled with all the necessary kitchen utensils are one of the first things to catch the eye. The kitchen is equipped with a large double Vulcan gas stove with center heat control to which is attached a toaster and broiler.

The sinks and drain-boards in the kitchen are of stainless steel, one known as the pot sink and one as the dish sink. Through the center of the kitchen runs a long table, with another small sink attached to it. In the kitchen is a phone connected to all the main rooms in the building.

The kitchen pantry, is also done in gray, large built-in cabinets taking up considerable room. The floor of the kitchen pantry, like those of the serving pantry and the kitchen, is also of red tile. The lighting fixtures in both the kitchen and the kitchen pantry are white.

A sun parlor is located off the dining room. The porches and all of the windows in the building are screened. The sun-parlor is equipped with green Airlock porch screens. The furniture in this room is of gray wicker which gives the room a most comfortable appearance. The floors are covered with Ratania porch rugs and several floor lamps are used to help brighten the room. The sun parlor can also be entered from the gardens on the sides of the building.

There is an assembly room about 30 feet square, the walls of which are of cream tone, the woodwork being treated in ivory tone. Both the fire place and electric light fixtures give the room a Colonial appearance. As in the reception room the fixtures are of antique polished brass, with crystal globes and prisms.

An interesting place on the ground floor is the switch-board room where the lighting system of the building is controlled.

Passing through the corridors which run lengthwise in the building, the linen closets, well lined with shelves, the medicine closet which can well take care of the equipment in this line, are enclosed in glass closets, are sure to attract attention.

On the main floor there are eight bed rooms, one of which is to be used as an infirmary. The infirmary is finished completely in white. The matron's suite of rooms, consisting of sitting room, bed room and bath room, also are part of the main floor.

On the second floor is the general sitting room where there are large built-in- book cases which will be filled with books for the use of the old folks, a piano and victrola to furnish music and plenty of comfortable chairs.

The pure whiteness of the diet kitchen attracts the attention after leaving the general sitting room.

The bedrooms which occupy most of the space on the second floor like those throughout the house are furnished in a uniform way in walnut. The windows in the bedrooms are made gay with chintz-valance with woven runs to match to carry out the color scheme.

On the right end of this floor is the men's porch which is substantially furnished. The porch on the left is equipped with brown wicker furniture, floor lamps and also Ratania porch rugs.

On the second floor are the maids' closet and also more linen closets.

The bathrooms on this floor, as throughout the building give evidence of sanitary plumbing and are real attractive as a result of the neat way in which they are laid out.

The vegetable room, divided into bins, is large enough to care for the vegetables to be used throughout the months.

The laundry is unusually large, airy and bright and is modernly equipped with soapstone wash trays, electric washing machine, electric mangle, and drying room which is lined with pipe coils.

The large sectional boilers, covered with asbestos will furnish the heat for the building, while a large gas heater will keep the 250 gallon hot water boiler well replenished.

The building committee comprises Wallace S. Allis, chairman, Mrs. C. Tyler Bard, Miss Adelaide L. Butts, Mrs. Frederic W. Cary, Miss Mary H. Paddock, secretary, Mrs. Charles H. Palmer, Shepard B. Palmer.

Mrs. Francis Gilman is chairman of the publicity committee and the equipment committee includes Mrs. F. W. Cary, and Mrs. Walter T. Camp.

The Sheltering Arms committee numbers: Chairman, Mrs. Allan Clesworth, who was recently chosen in place of Mrs. F. W. Cary, resigned; secretary, Mrs. W. Russell Baird; assistant secretary, Miss Alice L. Bennett; Mrs. Walter T. Camp, Mrs. Geo. W. Carroll, Mrs. William H. Dawley, Mrs. Charles A. Gager, Miss Elizabeth Hall, Mrs. Rollin C. Jones, Mrs. Eben Learned, Mrs. Charles B. Lee, Miss Isabel H. Mitchell, Mrs. Charles W. Prentice, Mrs. Howard L. Stanton, Mrs. Archibald Torrance.

THREE TOWNS HAD NO AUTO ACCIDENTS

There are three towns in Connecticut from which no motor vehicle accidents were reported last year, it is shown by a pamphlet entitled "Analysis of Automobile Accidents" which has been issued by the state motor vehicle department as a supplement to its February bulletin on "Another Year's Damage Done by Autos." They are Ashford, population 673; Canterbury, population 886 and Hartland, population 448. The state's smallest town, Union, was named as the place of one accident and New Haven, the largest city in the state, was named as the place of 2,716. As was recently announced by the department, this latter figure was not the largest accident total reported by any city of the state, the city from which most accidents were reported being Hartford, the third largest in the state, which had 3,085 accidents chalked up against it.

Eleven towns of the state reported no convictions during the year for violations of the motor vehicle laws. They are Bozrah, Canterbury, Franklin, Goshen, Hebron, New Fairfield, Roxbury, Scotland, Voluntown, Weston and Willington. Bozrah had 15 accidents according to the reports received; Canterbury none, Franklin 17, Goshen 4, Hebron 2, New Fairfield 5, Roxbury 3, Scotland 1, Voluntown 1, Weston 7 and Willington 13.

Hartland, although reporting no accidents, reported two convictions for motor vehicle law violations, and the department suspended the licenses of three Hartland operators. Ashford, which had no accidents, reported eight convictions and two Ashford operators were suspended and one operator from Canterbury, the third accidentless town, lost his right to drive through suspension by the motor vehicle department.

The supplementary pamphlet from which this data is taken is the first of its kind to be issued by the department. The purpose of its publication is to make accessible all available detailed information in printed form to individuals and organizations who are interested in the subject, with the idea that the more attention that is given to the subject the more corrective schemes will be attempted.

FINED FOR FAILURE TO GIVE RIGHT OF WAY

For failure to give the right of way John Tatro of White Rock, R. I., paid fines and costs totalling $23.03 in the city court Friday morning. The accident which led to Tatro's arrest occurred at Norwich avenue, near the Newent road Thursday, the second car being operated by William L. Spencer of Niantic. Mr. Tatro admitted being at fault and offered to settle.

George C. J. Bergchneider of New Haven paid $5 fine for violation of a parking ordinance. He had parked his car in front of a local restaurant and it is said had been informed by one of the waiters that it would be safe to remain there. His car was in a five minute zone.

A local man and an old offender on intoxication charges faced a fine and costs totalling $15.75. He begged for another chance and promised to leave town. The court informed him that the only trip open for him was to the jail where he will be a guest of Jailer Main until he works out his court bill.

TWO MINOR ACCIDENTS IN CITY FRIDAY

Two accidents which occurred in this city Friday were reported to the police. The first was that of a motorcycle driven by Edward Pudlo of Bozrahville, which collided with a car, registration 26-633, on West Main St. The damage to the motorcycle was estimated at about $50.

The second accident was that of a Ford touring car owned and driven by William Feldman of 92 Mechanic St., which struck Joseph Burke, 6, of 64 Roath street, while Mr. Feldman was driving through Roath street. The child was taken to the home of Dr. J. J. Donohue and it was found that the boy had escaped with only a slight shaking up.

CITY EMPLOYE LOSES TIP OF FINGER

Thomas Angelo of 31 Roath street, employed by the city on work at Boswell avenue lost the tip of one of his fingers Friday morning. Mr. Angelo was moving a large stone and it suddenly slipped, crushing his finger. He was taken to the Backus hospital and attended by Dr. Joseph Gadie, after which he was removed to his home on Roath street.

AWARD FOR WIDOW OF LINEMAN POIRIER

Mrs. Emeline J. Poirier of 143 Thames street, Groton, widow of Laurent A. Poirier is awarded compensation in the amount of $18 per week for a period not to exceed 312 weeks in a finding handed down by Compensation Commissioner J. J. Donohue against the Connecticut Power Co. The sum of $100 for funeral expenses is also allowed Mrs. Poirier, and the employer is held responsible for all reasonable medical bills incurred.

On Sunday, Aug. 1, 1926, Laurent A. Poirier, employed as a lineman by the Connecticut Power Co., fell from a pole on which he was working, and received a crushed chest and punctured lungs. The accident occurred at the Williams street sub station, in New London, arising out of and in the course of his employment, and resulted in his death.

The finding was filed Friday with the clerk of the superior court in this city.

ANNOUNCE JUDGES FOR LOCAL BICYCLE PARADE

The judges for the bicycle and scooter parade to be held under the supervision of the local playgrounds were announced Friday evening by Supt. of Recreation Earle E. Brigham as follows: Mayor Milo R. Waters, Edwin A. Harris, president of Norwich Rotary club; William A. Anderson, president of Norwich Lions club; William J. Fitzgerald, chairman of the recreation commission and John J. O'Rourke, secretary of the Norwich chamber of commerce.

A change has been made in the line of march so that now instead of going to Washington square after starting from Preston bridge, the parade will circle the three traffic beacons on Franklin square and then return through Main and East Main streets to the Duwell field.

An additional prize was announced on Friday making six prizes to be given to those having best decorated bicycles and scooters. The additional prize is a pair of handle bars donated by Alling Rubber Co.

Chief of Police George Linton is to co-operate with the recreation commission in handling traffic at the parade.

Again local entrants are requested to hand in their names to their playground instructors as soon as possible as no one will be allowed to participate in the parade if he or she is not registered beforehand.

The Greeneville playgrounds went on a picnic to the drawbridge at Poquetonock cove on Thursday. Games were played and a basket lunch served. Instructors Edward Sullivan and Constance Raymond supervised the affair and much credit is due them for the successful way in which all arrangements were carried out.

The Lake St. playground has plans underway for a carnival to be held next Friday, with afternoon and evening performances. Instructors Terrence Finnegan and Irene Werth in charge at this center are working hard for the success of the affair.

Much interest is expected in the final track meet to be held next Monday afternoon at the Academy campus track. The tracksters from the Lake St., Laurel Hill, Jail Hill and Elizabeth St. grounds are scheduled to compete for honors.

The equipment for use by picnickers, which was voted at a recent meeting of the recreation commission, has been purchased and is now in the office of Supt. of Recreation Earle E. Brigham. It consists of a catcher's glove, mask, protector, volley ball and net, bat and baseball. Any club or society wishing to borrow this outfit should get in touch with Supt. Brigham.

Plans are rapidly being formed for the demonstration of the work carried on in the local playgrounds during the season, to be held during the final week of the season.

OVER 400 ATTEND HOBART AVE. CARNIVAL

The carnival and social at the Hobart avenue playground on Friday enriched the members by nearly $75, over 400 people attending and lending support to all activities. The proceeds from the social are to be used for a picnic for the children of the playground.

Several members of the playground commission attended the affair and were liberal in their patronage. The plans for the social were in charge of Miss Fitzgerald, instructor at the playground. The lights were donated by the gas and electrical department. The pupils gave a vote of thanks to all those who helped make the affair a success and also wish to thank the public for co-operating with them.

The various booths and those in charge were as follows:

Ice cream and soda: Jerry Fitzgerald, Ted Buckley, John Brown, Dick Fitzgerald, Frank Crooks, George Lambert.

Candy bars: Bill Sheridan, Jack Gallivan, John Leary.

Candy booth: Jim Fenton, Joe Sheriden, Tommy Lynch, John Lynch.

Peanuts and pop corn: Bill Fitzgerald, Ruth Nicholson, Helen Payment.

Cake booth: Anna Mae Smith, Alice Blanchard, Helen Seidel.

Novelties: Miriam Seidel, Margaret Payment.

Fortune teller—Conny Constanti.

Grab bag: Marion Constanti.

Athletic events: Bob Chappell, Geo. Lambert, Lloyd Lambert, Neil Leary, Benny Bruckner, Billy and Charlie 'Rice" and Johnie Lukowski.

HOME AFTER TEN DAY AUTO TRIP TO CANADA

Mrs. Annie F. Buckley and daughters, Katherine and Alice and son, Francis, have returned home after a ten-day automobile tour which took them to Niagara Falls, Canada and Vermont. They also visited the Thousand Islands, the shrines of St Joseph at Montreal and St. Anne de Beaupre in Quebec, the Montmorency Falls, the historic home of the Duke of Kent and had luncheon at the Kent house. Relatives in St. Albans, Vt., were visited also. The tourists covered 1,975 miles.

STORRS FAMILY TO HOLD 36TH REUNION

The 36th annual reunion of the Storrs family will be held at Elizabeth park, Hartford, on August 25. It will be held at the Pon house at 10 a. m., standard time. There will be a basket lunch as near 11 (standard time) as possible.

Gifts On Birthday

During Friday, Mrs. Minnie W. Byrnes of 22 Union street, Norwich, received numerous congratulatory cards with gifts, flowers and calls, the date being her 83rd birthday.

Have Change for Newsboys

Bulletin subscribers who pay their newsboys weekly would save time and bother for the boys if they were to hand them the exact change each pay day—or at least a bill of small denomination. Few of the boys are prepared to give change for a $5 or $10 bill—yet some thoughtless subscribers will dazzle the urchins by tendering such a

NEW SHELTERING ARMS HOME AT McKINLEY AVENUE AND ROCKWELL STREETS

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

Extreme Savings In Frocks

$10.00 Models
—AT—
$5.00

An assortment of Chic Summer Frocks from which many will choose with keen enthusiasm the savings made doubly attractive by the fact that many models will be suitable for early Fall wear; Crepe Net, Figured Crepes and Stripes. Large assortment of colors to choose from.

$16.50 Silk Dresses at $10.00

A group of much higher priced Dresses reduced! Dark and light colors—many different styles—Georgette, Printed Crepes, Combination Trimmed.

Women's Waist Vestee

White, Oyster colors and others in figures

SPECIAL

$1.95

Women's Rain Coats

Colors Green, Blue and Red, two patch pockets, cement and stitched seam, tight fitting neck collar, corduroy lined—Bargain at $2.95

Sport Felt Hats

A collection of Felts in small and large head size. Correct types for vacation, travel and sports wear. Large range of colors and white—CLEARING PRICE

$1.95

Boys' Wearthings

BOYS' WASH SUITS—Peggy Cloths, Ginghams and Chambrays, Middy and Oliver Twist styles. These suits are made to sell for $1.50—Saturday Only

79c Each

BOYS' SPORT BLOUSES—Just arrived—a new assortment. Many different color combinations, also plain colors—Percales, Mercerized Cotton, Pongees and Printed Madrasses, $1.00 value—SATURDAY

59c Each or 2 for $1.00

Men's English Broadcloth SHIRTS

$1.19 Each

More of those very popular, best selling materials—fine full count white, blue and tan, English Broadcloths, full cut and tailored to perfection. Both collar attached and neckband styles. Now's the time to buy them by the half dozen—Saturday, each $1.19.

Men's Athletic Union Suits

Of English Broadcloth and Striped Soisette. All suits cut full and tailored well. Value $1.50—

Saturday, 89c Each

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 195. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN. [illegible]DAY, AUGUST 16, 1926. EIGHT PAGES—64 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

DEMANDS PROSECUTION OF THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Representative Tinkham of Massachusetts Sends Letter to Attorney-General Sargent—Charges Violation of the Corrupt Practices Act—Contends That Facts Disclose a Systematic, Intentional and Criminal Purpose to Violate the Law on the Part of the Anti-Saloon League.

WASHINGTON, Aug 15.—(AP)—Prosecution of the Anti-saloon league of America on criminal proceedings under the corrupt practices act was demanded by Representative Tinkham, republican, Massachusetts, in a letter to Attorney General Sargent made public today.

Mr. Tinkham declared the Anti-saloon league which he described as an "ecclesiastical political organization" had violated the corrupt practices act of 1910 as follows:

"1—No report of receipts and expenditures of any character made prior to 1920, and;

"2—From 1920 to 1924 inclusive, reports made of receipt and expenditure of only a few thousand dollars, which reports were sworn to by the said Wayne B. Wheeler."

Mr. Tinkham related that the act of 1925 requires the return under oath every three months of all receipts and expenditures made by any organization for political purposes.

"Until June, 1926, the Anti-saloon league of America under this act," he wrote, "reported under oath that no subscriptions had been received and no expenditures had been made. No report was filed by any subsidiary, not even by that of the state of New York, where an expensive independent campaign has been carried on by highly paid agents of this excessively subsidized subsidiary for its own candidates for public office.

"These facts disclose a systematic, intentional and criminal purpose to violate the law on the part of this organization which has entirely set aside one of the great guarantees of American freedom and liberty as asserted in the constitution of the United States, namely, the separation of church and state.

"Moreover, this organization which now controls the congress of the United States and has made a mockery of the constitution of the United States, namely, the separation of church and state.

"Moreover, this organization which now controls the congress of the United States and has made a mockery of the constitution and of law, has paid campaign express of Senators and representatives, and has even had the unspeakable audacity to place some of them upon its payroll.

"It is indefensible that you should allow to continue the nullification of the Federal corrupt practices act of 1925, and I demand that you immediately institute appropriate criminal proceedings against the league and subsidiaries, as provided in the act of 1925, and also against the officers of the organization who may have guilty of perjury.

"Democratic self-government and civil freedom in their struggle for popular liberties have no greater menace than those in public authority who allow the expenditures or who do not enforce laws because of political cowardice or the influence of wealth."

Declaring that it had been admitted before the senate campaign expenditures of nearly $50,000,000 "in the last few years," Mr. Tinkham insisted that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution "has been bought and paid for."

SIX VIOLENT DEATHS IN STATE OVER WEEKEND

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Six violent deaths occurred in Connecticut over the week end, four persons drowned and two meeting death as the result of automobile accidents.

Mrs. Mary McDonnell, 63, of 85 North Cliff street, Ansonia, was killed today when she was struck by an automobile carrying a party of five New Haven persons. She had just left Mount St. Peter's cemetery in Derby and was on her way to the trolley station nearby when the machine hit her. Four of those in the automobile were arrested and the police tonight were searching for the operator said to be William Jones, of New Haven.

Newell A. Badger, 55, of Abington, was the victim of a grade crossing accident at Elliott today when his automobile was struck by a north-bound passenger train on the New England road. He was instantly killed.

The body of Frank Johnson, 51, who lived in a shack near Hitchcock's lake in Wolcott, was taken from the lake today. It is believed that he slipped into the water while sitting on a bank watching bathers nearby.

Leo Lynch, 14, was drowned in the Stamford canal yesterday when he was caught in the undertow of the freighter City of Stamford. His body was recovered after a 24-hour search.

Walter Vail, eight, disobeyed his mother and went bathing in the Housatonic river at Stratford yesterday. He waded out beyond his depth and went down before help could reach him. His mother dashed into the water in an attempt to save him but her efforts were unsuccessful.

George Gustafson, 40, of Bristol, was drowned in Cedar pond last evening when his boat overturned. He was on a fishing trip with a companion who was rescued.

BROKE GLASS ON TOMB IN PARIS OF UNKNOWN SOLDIER

PARIS, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Donald G. Crocker, who says he was born in Boston, is an ex-service man and lost a leg in the war, was arrested this afternoon for drinking champagne to the health of the unknown soldier and then breaking the glass on the tomb.

Few persons were around the Arc De Triomphe when Crocker arrived about 2:30 p. m., but the policeman detailed to guard the tomb saw him pull a bottle of champagne from his pocket, sit down beside the tomb, drink and then break the glass.

The policeman remarked that the grave of the unknown soldier was not to be honored in the same way as a battleship is christened, and requested the veteran to follow him to the police station. Crocker told the commissary of police that he was a clerk in Potterdam and had been drinking somewhat freely since he arrived in Paris two days ago and did not mean any harm. The commissary was unable to draw anything more out of the prisoner, and decided to hold him and present the case to the public prosecutor.

The charge registered against Crocker is "doing damage to a sepulchre."

OBITUARY

Charles S. Clark

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Charles S. Clark, part owner of the New Orleans Times-Picayune, died in Paris Friday, according to cables received by friends here.

Mr. Clark, who was 82, was living with his daughter, having left New York three months ago for Paris. The body will probably be brought to this country for interment.

Mr. Clark was a member of the Manhattan club in New York and the Boston club in New Orleans.

FAILED TO SWIM FROM HARTFORD TO MIDDLETOWN

HARTFORD, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Seized with a severe cramp in his left leg, Richard Whitcomb, of South Manchester, was forced to give up his attempt to swim from Hartford to Middletown today after having been in the water 15 minutes, during which time he had covered nearly two miles. A slight breeze blowing down the river made conditions favorable for the swimmer. Whitcomb expects to attempt the swim again later in the month.

REPORT ON FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC COMMERCE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—This country's exports of approximately $2,000,000,000 in finished manufactures during the fiscal year just closed reflects "the ever rising efficiency of American industry and the energy and intelligence of American salesmanship in foreign markets," Director Klein of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce declared in a review made public today.

The total represented a 19 per cent increase over exports of manufactured goods in the previous fiscal year and it was 50 per cent greater than in the 1921-23 figure.

"The American manufacturer," he said, "has evidently disposed of Sunday tattered scarecrows which used to startle his timid predecessors as they ventured along the stranke paths of export. He no longer turns back at vague warnings regarding 'slipshod American packing', 'inadequate credits', 'inexperienced export technique' or 'inferior foreign trade financing.'

"Those threadbare bugaboos have been most effectively dispelled by the uninterrupted expansion of the overseas markets for our manufactures. Regardless of depreciated European currency and low wages—in fact, partly because of the low standards of living which they employ—the intelligence and resourceful adaptability of the American manufacturer, backed by a firm policy as to quality in goods and services as against cut prices, have made a place over-seas for American fabricated wares which bids fair to continue its steady growth."

RUDOLPH VALENTINO, FILM STAR, COLLAPSED

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Rudolph Valentino, film star, was rushed to the Polyclinic hospital here today following a collapse.

His condition was reported "very satisfactory" tonight.

Stricken suddenly in his apartment at the Hotel Ambassador, Valentino was removed to the hospital, where he underwent an operation for the removal of a gastric ulcer and the appendix.

"Mr. Valentino is still unconscious and it will be three or four days before we know anything definitely about how he is going to come out of this," his physician said late tonight.

With only his valent in his apartment with him at the time, the motion picture actor collapsed shortly before noon. E. George Ullman, Mr. Valentino's manager, and a friend, were called in. They summoned a doctor and had Mr. Valentino removed to the hospital at 4:30 o'clock. The dobule operation was performed about an hour later.

GERRY PREDICTS DEM. MAJORITY IN SENATE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 15—(AP)—Control of the senate by a democratic majority in the fall, due to a reaction against the "lack of leadership" and the tariff policy of the republican administration, was predicted today by United States Senator Peter G. Gerry of Rhode Island, chairman of the Nationdemocratic senatorial campaign committee.

Evidences of an undercurrent of sentiment favorable to the democrats were noted by Senator Gerry "as candidates in the primaries continue to be nominated." He saw the republicans wanting "unity of purpose," and accused the administration of failing in constructive legislation.

REDUCED ATTENDANCE AT MOVIES IN MEXICO CITY

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The league for the defense of religious liberty has issued a bulletin asserting that the attendance at some of the moving picture houses in Mexico City has been reduced from 50 to 75 per cent because of the economic boycott in protest against the new religious regulations.

Attorney General Ortega today announced that the department of justice expects soon to accept the resignation of every agent who is not sympathetic with the government's religious policy. The attorney general recently circularized all employes requesting a statement as to their attitude.

CABLED PARAGAPHS

PARIS, Aug. 15.—(AP)—There was a train collision in the Lyons station in Paris this evening. It is reported that several persons were killed or injured, but details are lacking as yet.

VIENNA, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Almost simultaneously with the delivery to Bulgaria of the joint note of the little entente protesting against border raids by Bulgarian comitadji, another such incident is reported.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 15.— (AP) —With falling temperatures, the cholera epidemic that has been ravaging the Chinese population in the environs of Shanghai is subsiding. This also is due to the drastic precautionary measures enforced by the authorities.

PEKING, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Leaders of the allied forces of Marshals Wu Pei-Fu and Chang Tso-Lin claimed that they had captured Hankow pass, the key to the position of the Kuomino Un, or national armies, at Kalgan. Flags are being flown here in celebration.

PARIS, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Negotiations for the formation of a continental steel and iron trust have been virtually completed. The agreements will be submitted to the industrial interests of France, Belgium, Germany and Luxemburg, who are concerned with them, for approval.

EMDEN, Germany, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The first section of the direct cable which is to connect Germany and the United States by way of the Azores has been completed. This section stretches from Emden to the English channel. The second section, from the channel to the Azores, will be laid next month.

SARAWAK, Borneo, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The "wild man of Borneo" soon may be talking by wireless with his friends in London. John Grey, an Englishman, who lives here, has managed to establish wireless communication with J. Partridge, Wimbledon, England, and keep up an exchange of messages for half an hour.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—John Francis Hall-Edwards, who devoted 28 years of his life to experimenting with and perfecting the X-ray, died tonight at Birmingham. He was one of the pioneers in X-ray investigation and continued the work, despite the heavy handicap of the loss of both hands through ray burns.

LONDON, Aug. 15.— (AP) —Prince Frederick Duleep Singh died today at his residence at Diss, Norfolk, was 58 years of age and had been in ill health. Prince Duleep Singh was a noted archeologist. He was born in London, the son of the late Maharajah Duleep Singh of Lahore. He served in France during the war.

PREPARING EVIDENCE IN THE MELLETT MURDER

CANTON, Ohio, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Joseph R. Roach, "clean-up" lawyer, will devote his full time in the next few days in preparing for the Stark county grand jury the evidence he has uncovered in the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher.

Roach yesterday announced that while he has been conducting the inquiry into an alleged liquor conspiracy in Canton he has accumulated evidence in the Mellett case. Prosecutor C. E. McClintock, who, up to that time had said there was not enough evidence to warrant a grand jury inquiry, announced that the case would be carried before the jury at once and that anyone having evidence would be urged to come forward with it.

Roach declared that grand jury investigation has been blocked by political cliques in Canton, and that arrests of murder suspects have been impossible because of the unstable conditions of the police department. He said the evidence he has implicates members of the police force and various underworld leaders.

NEGROES CHEERED NAME OF MARCUS A. GARVEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Thousands of negroes today cheered the name of Marcus Aurelius Garvey, at one time provisional president of the American republic, admiral of the Black Star line, and president general and founder of the Universal Negro Improvement association, at a parade opening the association's local convention.

Garvey's absence on account of imprisonment in the Atlanta federal penitentiary seemed to stir the crowd to even greater applause than if he were leading the parade himself. For more than a score of blocks negroes crowded the pavements and leaned out of windows to watch the parade pass. Numerous banners bore the name of the self styled "leader of all the negro people of the world," and two gold braided lieutenants of Garvey's army supported in an automobile a life size oil portrait of him in full dress.

MASKED MOB STORMED JAIL AND SHOT NEGRO

WYTHEVILLE, Va., Aug. 15.—(AP)—A [illegible] mob today stormed the Wythe county jail here and shot to death Raymond Bird, 31 year old negro, held on a charge of attacking a white girl. The crime is alleged to have been committed several months ago in the Westernhart of the county.

The mob obtained entrance to the jail by calling the jailer to the front door and covering him with shot guns and pistols while others entered the jail and shot the negro in his cell.

The negro's body was then taken to the neighborhood in which the crime is said to have been committed and hanged to a tree.

BULGARIAN IRREGULARS RAID JUGOSLAV VILLAGE

LONDON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The West Westminster Gazette learns from Belgrade of a fresh raid by 20 Bulgarian comitadji (irregulars) on the Jugoslav village of Badalina, near Strumitsa last night. Shots were exchanged and a Serbian gendarme is said to have been seriously wounded. The raiders retired to their own territory before daylight.

The Westminister Gazette calls attention to the seriousness of the incident at a time when the Jugoslav, Greek and Rumanian governments have sent a joint not of protest to Bulgaria over border raids by comitadji.

MISS CANNON TO TACKLE ENGLISH CHANNEL TODAY

BOULOGNE, France, Aug. 15—(AP)—Miss Lillian Cannon, of Baltimore, will enter the water in an another attempt to swim the English channel about midnight Monday, weather permitting. She expressed full confidence in her ability to repeat Miss Gertrude Ederle's performance.

Trend of Business Continues Upward

Railroad Freight Traffic Continues at the Highest Level of the Year.

NEW YORK, Aug 15.—(AP)—The upward trend of business, with its accompanying expansion in money requirements, was fromally recognized last week when the New York Federal Reserve bank authorized an increase to 4 per cent in its re-discount rate. Which had been maintained at 3 1-2 per cent since April 32.

Larger borrowings, centering particularly in the local money market, have signalized a much more active demand for funds for trade and crop moving purposes. At the same time, broadening activity in the stock market has caused a drain upon the country's credit resources, the increase in brokerage loans for the last week of July amounting to $56,000,000.

Although business and financial circles will watch closely for any effects of the higher rate on their activities, it is not expected that the change will exert much of a restrictive influence, especially on trade. So far as the money market is concerned, the Federal Reserve action merely brings the bank rate nito closer harmony with prevailing open market quotations.

While financial attention for some time has been focused on developments offering a key to the fall trade situation, confidence has been strengthened by accumulating evidence of prosperity in the first half of the year. The Federal Reserve board last week reported record-breaking industrial activity for this period, despite slight recessions in April and May, with a noteworthy enlargement of output in the steel and automobile industries.

Predictions that 1926 would eclipse 1925 as a banner year in the steel industry were made by the trade reviews last week and were partially borne out by the latest statistical reports.

Railroad freight traffic continued at the highest level of the year as a heavy movement of grain to market got under way. Crop conditions were reported good in most western states, with the prospect that fair prices would aid in the economic comeback of this territory.

Reports from other important industries indicated that manufacturers were facing the second half of the year with greater confidence.

EARTH SHOCKS COVERED WIDE AREA IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—England which once or twice recently has experienced earth tremors so slight as to raise doubts as to whether they were really of seismic origin, today had the extraordinary experience of earth shocks covering an extremely wide area extending almost through the whole midland counties and as far south as Hernet, within ten miles of London. A part of Wales also felt the shocks.

No damage has been reported and there were no casualities, but news from dozens of places indicates that the shocks, all of a similar nature, occurred about 5 o'clock this morning. Disturbances at this early hour usually are described as crashes, and this morning's was said to have been accompanied by the swaying of furniture, and the breaking of crockery. The tremors lasted a few seconds, producing consternation among the people aroused from their sleep, especially children.

The counties affected were Derbyshire, Somerset, Devonshire, Herefordshire, Warwickshire, Northampton, Leicestershire, Radnorshire, and also Bath and Bristol and Landrindod.

PERSIAN VICE CONSUL WAS ROBBED OF $300 AT STAMFORD

STAMFORD, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Milton C. Seropyan, Persian vice consul, stationed in St. Louis, was robbed of $300 here today as he stepped aboard a train, he told police. Seropyan was boarding a train for Springfield, accompanied by friends from New Rochelle, with whom he is staying, when he was jostled by strangers, he said. When he took his seat in the coach he missed his wallet. After reporting the theft, he took another train to Springfield. He said he was on his way to Amherst, where his son has been entered.

SHERIFFS AND COWBOYS HUNTING MAIL ROBBERS

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Sheriffs, ranchers, cow punchers and government mail pilots joined hands today in an attempt to capture two bandits who early Saturday looted more than a score of mail pouches on a Union Pacific train between here and Rawlings.

Post office authorities have not yet determined the loss in the robbery.

OBITUARY

A. Edward Olmstead

HARTFORD, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A. Edward Olmsted, 58 years old, noted civil engineer who as division engineer had direct charge of the construction of the New York subway, died today at his home, 93 Prospect street, East Hartford, after several months illness.

Mr. Olmsted was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and of the New York Academy of Sciences. He built the southern division of the Connecticut Valley railroad, from Saybrook to Deep River in 1876-72. He also constructed railroads in New York, Pennsylvania and many states in the west and on the Pacific coast. His most notable work was on the construction of the New York subway where he was division engineer under B. L. F. Deyo, chief engineer of the New York Subway Construction company from 1900 until his retirement in 1913.

Rev. Paul Larocque

SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Rev. Paul Larocque, lord bishop of Sherbrooke, died today after an illness of several months.

He was the second bishop of Sherbrooke, succeeding the late Msgr. Antoine Racine, and was consecrated bishop on November 30, 1893. He was born at Ste. Marie De Mannoir, Que., in 1846. From 1869 to 1875 he was vicar at Key West, Fla., and was cure from 1875 to 1880.

Madison Edwards

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Madison Edwards, for 25 years chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel and free reading room here, and widely known among seafaring men on the Atlantic coast, died at his home here today. He was 74 years old.

Jealousy Given as the Cause of Tragedy

John T. Derhan Found Dead and Alphonse F. A. Smith in a State of Collapse.

LONDON, Aug. 15—(AP)—Jealousy is alleged to have been the cause of the quarrel between Alphonse Francois Austin Smith and John Thomas Derhan Friday night at Whitestable near Canterbury, which had as its sequel the death of Derham in a nursing home a few hours later and the arrest of Smith with murder.

Smith is the grandson of the late Hugh Ryan, who with Sir Frank Smith and Lord Strathcona was instrumental in building up the Canadian Railway system. Derham was the grandson of Brigadier General Tylar, V. C., a noted general of the British army.

Owing to the wealth and high social standing and antecedents of those concerned in the tragedy, unusual interest has been aroused. The police of Tankerton, which is a fashionable suburb of the seaside resort of Whitestable were summoned just before midnight Friday to Stella Maris villa, the residence occupied by Smith, his wife and family. They found Derham dying from a revolver wound in the abdomen, and Smith in a state of collapse, his face terribly bruised and blood streaming from two gashes in his forehead. The drawing room was in the utmost disorder, showing signs of a fierce struggle.

Derham was removed to a hospital where he died, and Smith was arrested. When informed he was charged with attempted murder, Smith exclaimed: "Where is he; where is the seducer?"

It is alleged Smith was jealous of Derham's attentions to his wife, and that the quarrel which ended so fatally occurred after the two men and Mrs. Smith had supped together at a local hotel.

It appears that the Smith family went to live at Herne Bay last Easter, and there Mrs. Smith made the acquaintance of Derham, who was living with his mother nearby. According to current gossip Derham began giving lessons in automobiling to Mrs. Smith, whereby their friendship ripened and the two were constantly together. In the meantime Smith had gone to live in London, but visited his wife periodically.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Smith moved into Stella Maris, where she resided with her children and two sisters. Smith joined them the beginning of the week, and on Friday the Smiths and Derham all spent the evening together, supped at a hotel and returned to the villa, where Derham and Mrs. Smith sat down to a game of cards. What followed will be revealed only at the inquest.

Derham married at Herne Bay in 1913 Consuelo, daughter of the Marques and Marquesa Del Torre Hermosa, but had not lived with his wife for some years. Like Smith he, was educated at Eton and Cambridge university, was in easy circumstances and well known as an athlete.

Smith's family history is connected with the early day of Canadian development, while he himself had had a stirring career. He was born in Toronton in 1889 and through his relationship to Hugh Ryan, a huge fortune was bequeathed to him through a trust, which eventually came to him. He was brought to England at the age of nine, and after Eton and Cambridge he joined the regular army. He soon resigned his commission and toured the world, spending much time in the South Sea islands. He fought in the World war with distinction.

Smith was always socially popular and a lavish spender. In 1913 he married Ruth Wynne, daughter of the late Robert J. Wynne, once United States postmaster general and consul general at London. She divorced him in 1922 and he subsequently married Catherine White, a pretty English woman, by whom he had three children.

SEVEN DROWNINGS IN NEW YORK STATE

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Seven persons were drowned in week end accidents in up-state waters. Another accident threw 18 persons, including several prominent summer guests into Lake George when a small dock collapsed at Lake George Village, but no fatalities resulted.

The dead:

Thomas, George and Joseph Ritz, Coxsackie, aged 20 months to six years, drowned when their father's car backed off a Hudson-Thens ferry boat.

Joseph Carnell, 14, Troy, drowned while bathing in Saratoga lake.

Hoover Tucker, 29, Albany, drowned when a canoe overturned in Hudson river.

Antonio Petrola, 23, drowned while swimming at Midway beach, near Albany.

John J. Baker, 23, Rochester, drowned while swimming at East Port bay, Lake Ontario, near Wolcott.

The three children drowned from the Hudson-Athens ferry boat were sons of A. J. Ritz, grocer, of Coxsackie, and Mrs. Ritz.

SEASON OF INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITY AT GENEVA

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A brilliant reception today at the lakeside chateau of Mrs. Stanley R. McCormick, of Chicago, opened a season of international activity at Geneva which will continue until the close of the league of nations assembly the end of September.

Fifty American professors and their wives, who are guests of the Carnegie endowment for international peace and who will remain in Geneva for the assembly, attended the reception.

COLLEGIATE COURSE IN ACCIDENT PREVENTION

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The first collegiate course in accident prevention will be offered next month by New York university.

In announcing the course today, Arthur Williams, president of the American museum of safety, sponsoring the course, said the decision of the university to train men and women for leadership in accident prevention work is "one of the most significant developments since the beginning of the safety movement."

The United States liner Leviathan, was selected by the France convention travel committee, meeting in Vinal Haven, Me., at the summer home of Alton T. Roberts, as the flagship for the convoy of 24 vessels which will carry more than 30,000 former doughboys next year to Paris for the annual national convenution of the American Legion.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

The Smith & Wesson company, revolver manufacturers, Springfield, will resume production today, after a shutdown of three weeks.

The Catholic church at Louisville, Que., 15 miles from Three rivers was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $300,000.

Twenty three pouches of mail were opened by the Union Pacific Mail Train bandits, who held up and robbed train No. 5, in Wyoming.

Canned foods have been placed on the list of products eligible for storage in licensed warehouses, the Agriculture department announced.

After a search of 24 hours, the police yesterday afternoon recovered the body of Leo Lynch, 14, who was drowned in the Stamford canal.

Pike's Peak from timber line to the summit is covered with a two-inch blanket of snow, the first heavy fall of snow on the mountain this summer.

Establishment at Fordham university, New York, of a coast artillery unit of the reserve officers training corps, was announced at the War department.

Mrs. Mary McDonnell was killed near Mt. St. Peter's cemetery, Derby, late yesterday when she was struck by an automobile containing two negroes and three negresses.

Thousands of dollars damage was done to crops in Mad river valley Friday night, the storm being the worst that has passed over this section of Vermont in years.

The third Sunday of devotions in the Catholic churches without priests passed peacefully in Mexico city. To all outward appearances the city's life is proceeding normally.

A month in jail and a fine of $500 was the sentence imposed in district court in Springfield, on Walter Kanycky, arrested after pursuit for transportation of liquor.

George Lewis, alias Kaplan, was shot to death in his rooms in a fashionable apartment house in Detroit, the fifth victim in as many days of the Gang war for Detroit liquor privileges.

The aggregate supply of cotton in the United States for the cotton year which ended July 31 was announced by the Census bureau as 17,933,406 bales and the aggregate distribution 18,036,-603 bales.

Building activity in Washington reached a record peak during the last fiscal year with the total value of new buildings placed officially at $63,599,-280. This compared with $62,362,990 the year before.

Deputy sheriffs left San Diego, Calif., last night at 7:45 o'clock for Dulzura, where department of justice officers were said to be holding 40 prisoners and two truck loads of machine guns and ammunition.

Emerson Coolidge of Rutland, Vt., said to be a distant relative of the president, died in Boston, at the Deaconess hospital. He was born 83 years ago in Plymouth, Vt., the son of Lorenzo C. Coolidge.

A continuous closed season has been declared on the hunting of black-bellied and golden plovers throughout the country by the Agricultural department which is charge with enforcement of the migratory bird law.

The supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythians paused yesterday in the busy program of the Biennial convention in Chicago, for services in memory of members of the fraternity departed since its last general session.

Police in Newark, N. J., held Harry Tidor, 74 years old and partially paralyzed, for questioning in connection with the death of his 72-year old, wife, Lena, who was strangled with a towel early last Monday, in their home.

Pasadena, Calif., officials will seek government aid in combatting millions of white ants, known as termites, whose inroads on wooden structures, Walter Putnam, chief building inspector, says may result in the collapse of man.

At parachutes tests at North Island Naval Air station, California, a 1,100 pound dummy torpedo dropped 1,000 feet in 38 seconds attached to a 50 foot parachute. The torpedo landed so gently that the paint on it was not scratched.

Twenty-four young men who have completed four years of preparatory study at the Passionist Preparatory college at Dunkirk, N. Y., were admitted to their novitiate at the Passionist Monastery of Our Lady of Sorrows, in Springfield.

The body of Frank Johnson, 51, of Wolcott, was taken out of Hitchcock's lake in Wolcott at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Johnson was last seen at 6 o'clock last night. Johnson had lived alone in a shack near the lake for three years.

After the death in St. Mary's hospital, Hoboken, N. J., of Thomas Dwyer, 38, a seaman, of 33 Agus street, Webster, Mass., from injuries sustained in a fight with Henry A. Burns, of Hoboken, Burns was arrested today on a charge of manslaughter.

Joe Morris, 34, a farm hand, shot and killed his brother-in-law, Arthur T. Page, 55, farmer near Topeka, Kansas. Ed. Rooney, assistant county attorney, who was called to the Page farm after the shooting shot and severely wounded Morris.

Edward Payson Weston, 88 years old, famous pedestrian who has been reported missing from his home in Philadelphia, was found Saturday by a policeman on Nostrand avenue, Brooklyn. He was in an exhausted condition and apparently dazed.

Penniless and with his nearest relative, his brother, living in Germany, Paul W. Fuersten, former leader of the Camden Philharmonic orchestra, was taken to the state prison at Trenton, N. J., to be electrocuted there the week of September 30 for the murder of Mrs. Harriet Vickers.

Suicide pact was believed by police to have been responsible for the death in Charleston, W. Va., of Alex Mitchell, Ashland, Kentucky and the serious illness of his companion, Viola Dye, also of Ashland. Mitchell was dead when found in a hotel room and the girl was taken to a hospital suffering from the effects of a poison which she said they drank.

UNITED STATES NOW LEADS THE WORLD IN AVIATION

Claim Made by Col. Paul Henderson, General Manager of the Air Transport—Nearly 9,000 Miles of Airways Today Are Being Conducted on Schedule, With 2,500 More in Immediate Contemplation—There Now Exists in the United States a Total of 3,608 Landing Fields.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The United States today leads the world in aviation, according to Colonel Paul Henderson, general manager of the National Air Transport.

The unequivocal statement is based on a nation-wide survey of the aeronautical chamber of commerce, findings of which were announced tonight by Colonel Henderson, vice president and governor of the organization. The study shows that in the last year 5,500,000 miles were flown, more than 200,000 passengers were carried, and air express in excess of 113 tons was transported by the 290 commercial operators reporting to the chamber.

Epitomizing the situation in which aviation found itself at the beginning of 1925, the survey says: "It was underrated by a few influential officers of the army and navy. It was ignored insofar as practical action was concerned by leaders in public life; it was regarded askance by business.

"But now, in midsummer 1926, it may be stated that much of the former reserve in the high commands of the army and navy has disappeared; positive and definite attention has been given by the administration and congress, and finally, with the entrance of responsible men and substantial capital into air transport, the place of aviation in commerce and industry is now very generally recognized. There has been, undoubtedly, a renaissance of flying."

The survey, which was made by Luther K. Bell, traffic manager of National Air Transport, and former traffic manager of the United States air mail service, shows that no other country in the world approaches the existing and proposed air mail activities in the United States.

"The United States has now in operation thirteen air transport routes, mileage of which totals 4,076," the survey states.

"We have probably more commercial operators than any other nation, due, undoubtedly, to the vast extent and the natural characteristics of our country. In twenty-eight foreign nations there is a total of 102 air transport lines, most of them not regularly operated and none, so far as the aeronautical chamber of commerce could determine, lacking some sort of subsidy. In the United States not one of the existing or proposed air transport lines is receiving a cent of subsidy.

"With nearly 9,000 miles of airways now being conducted on schedule and with 2,500 more in immediate contemplation, the United States undoubtedly takes the lead in world aviation. This network, which radiates from Chicago to practically every part of the United States, has had the effect, so far as the conduct of business is concerned, of reducing the transportation map to one third its former size.

"The survey shows that, without national guidance, there actually exists in the United States today a total of 3,608 landing fields.

SECRETARY KELLOGG AT SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 15—(AP)—Secretary of State Kellogg arrived at White Pine camp today to discuss departmental affairs with President Coolidge before proceeding on Wednesday to Plattsburg where he is to deliver an address at the dedication of a monument to Commodore Thomas MacDonough, commander of the American naval forces at the battle of Plattsburg in the war of 1812.

It is understood that the secretary, who was accompanied by Mrs. Kellogg, will report to the president on the Mexican situation and on the Geneva preliminary arms conference. It is also indicated that Mr. Kellogg may desire to go over with the chief executive some phases of his Plattsburgh speech.

Motoring to the Adirondacks, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg reached the summer white house about an hour after the President and Mrs. Coolidge, with their son John and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, Boston, Chief Justice Arthur P. Rug of the Massachusetts supreme court, and Mrs. Rugg had returned from morning worship at the First Presbyterian church in Saranac Lake.

GREATER LATITUDE FOR RADIO COMPASS STATIONS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Radio compass stations along the Atlantic coast from Boston to Norfolk probably will be opened to serve naval and other aircraft travelling the costal air ways within the next month due to the unexpectedly rapid work of the dirigible Los Angeles in calibrating these stations in order to determine the factor of error for each radio compass center.

The Los Angeles is scheduled to leave her Lakehurst, N. J., hangar Monday morning, weather permitting, for a trip down the coast as far as the Poyner's Hill, N. C., radio station. She will circle each radio compass station on the coast on the way down, checking up by visual compass bearings with the radio compass bearings as she has previously done with all the stations on the Long Island shore, Narragansett bay and Cape Cod.

Ultimately the ship will make a similar check on all of the Atlantic coast stations when they will be available to furnish directions for aircraft under low visibility conditions as they now guide ships at sea approaching or leaving the coast.

Use of the radio compass stations, which were first established at the close of the war, has increased so greatly that during the last year they furnished bearings in more than 150,-000 cases, answering requests received from distant ships.

CONCERNING ALLEGED BODY OF LORD KITCHENER

LONDON, Aug. 15—(AP)—The Kitchener mystery had a new development today, when Scotland Yard officers removed the case alleged to contain the body of the British field marshal from the undertakers. It will remain intact until tomorrow morning, when the matter will be officially reported to the coroner, who will decide whether to call for an inquest.

Frank Power, British newspaperman, recently announced that he found the late Lord Kitchener's body in Norway. He had it removed to London, and then notified Premier Baldwin. The British government apparently gives no credence to the announcement that the body within the coffin is that of the field marshal, and it is not known whether the police have acted at the instigation of the government, or on their own authority. At any rate no further official notice has been taken of Powers communications to the government.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS FOR BANJO PLAYERS

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 15—(AP)—This city, famed for its world wide fiddling championship contest, today announced world's championship contests for banjo players and stump speakers in connection with the Maine state pageant of progress October 11 to 16.

MISS BARRETT POSTPONES ATTEMPT TO SWIM CHANNEL

DOVER, Aug. 15—(AP)—Miss Clare Belle Barrett postponed her second attempt to swim the English channel today because of unfavorable weather conditions.

"ACROBATIC BURGLAR" ESCAPED FROM HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A wizened little Greek, known to the police as "the acrobatic burglar", jumped out of a window of the prison ward of Harlem hospital early today, clad only in pajamas and bathrobe and limping because of a bullet wound through his left thigh. He leaped across an eight foot alleyway to the top of a one story annex, crawled along a 13-foot picket fence, flung himself to the street, and escaped in a taxicab.

The prisoner, John G. Pollatos, wanted for more than a year for a series of "acrobatic burglaries," had been captured a few hours earlier by eight patrolmen and two detectives after a midnight chase over the back fences of the west side.

He had been surprised, as he climbed from an apartment house fire-escape, by the police summoned by the tenants. He made a leap from the fire-escape and landed on a ten-foot fence as his left thigh was pierced by a bullet. Trailed by blood stains, he was apparently cornered a few minutes later, but again he made a flying leap and disappeared through a small window overhead. He was found inside a small laundry basket in the boiler room he had entered.

At the hospital he was watched by a patrolman, until the entrance of an intoxicated negress created a disturbance which the patrolman was called upon to quell. Five minutes later Pollatos was seen clinging to the fence, and by the time the patrolman had reached the street, the "acrobatic burglar" had limped his way to a taxicab.

POLITICAL STATEMENT BY WAYNE B. WHEELER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Results of the primary elections in the first 25 states which have held congressional contests have indicated no reaction against prohibition, Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league of America, declared today in a statement.

"More than 75 per cent of the congressmen and more than 80 per cent of the senators nominated in those districts and states, where the nomination ordinarily means an election," Mr. Wheeler said, "are candidates who stand for the maintenance and enforcement of prohibition.

"This is the best referendum this year to reveal public sentiment on the prohibition issue. In November another test of sentiment will be made in the election and we predict a similar result if the drys are alert.

"The wets ar spending more money, building a stronger organization and spreading more propaganda than ever, but the average voter remembers the conditions when liquor ruled and continues to vote dry."

BRITISH AVIATOR HAS ARRIVED AT MELBOURNE

MELBOURNE, Aug. 15—(AP)—Before a crowd of 75,000 persons, Alan J. Cobham, English aviator, swung his airplane to the ground today, completing the first half of his flight from England to Melbourne and return.

Police barriers were broken down by the enthusiastic throngs anxious to catch a glimpse of the airman.

In the ensuing crush several minor casualties were reported, and many women fainted.

Cobham's plane was said to be in as good condition as when it left England on June 6, its engine not having required repairs during the flight.

The flight, however, had been marred by one tragedy. While flying over the Euphrates, Cobham's mechanician was fatally wounded by an Arab's bullet. A month later, with a new mechanician Cobham continued his journey, touching at India and Port Darwin, South Wales before coming to Melwin, Australia, and then flying to Newbourne.

24 FAMILIES DRIVEN TO STREET BY FIRE

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Twenty four families living at the Oakmere, a large tenement house at 372 and 374 Oak street, were driven to the street this afternoon when the building was damaged by fire. The blaze started in the attic and worked up to the roof, the loss being estimated at $2,000.

Tony Galba stepped out of a two story window, fell through a glass roof over the sidewalk and escaped with a few minor scratches.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1191-2.

LOOK FOR RIALTO'S BODY WHEN WELL IS OPENED UP

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 15—Suspended operations Sunday, a force of men under the direction of County Detective William E. Jackson is to resume Monday morning excavation work at the reputed well on the property of Frank Marsala on the north side of the South Windham road, a short distance from the top of Dugway Hill and a half-mile from the city line. Here Tom Rialto believes that the body of his brother, Joseph, also known as Joseph Wright, is buried.

Seventeen months ago, Joseph Rialto, of Bantam, disappeared suddenly from his home in Brick Row. Relatives and friends are of the opinion that he met with foul play and his brother, Tom, has on various occasions been in touch with the authorities petitioning that action be taken.

County Detective Jackson has secured permission from the state, through State's Attorney Howard C. Bradford, to excavate the well and the work was started Friday afternoon. When the workmen completed their labors Saturday noon, they had reached a depth of 13 feet and there were no traces of the dead man.

Tom Rialto, it is understood, has not accused anybody in particular, but says that the last place his brother was seen in this city was in the vicinity of Dugway Hill. It is said that about the time of Joseph Rialto's disappearance Frank Marsala was digging a well on his property. According to reports, the work was suddenly suspended and the well was filled up in one night. Receiving notice from the county detective of what was to be done on their property, the members of the Marsala family were somewhat perturbed, but the head of the family went to his work as usual.

According to Marsala's daughter, her father had dug a well (the one in question) for her more than a year ago so she had just been married, but when no water was discovered he refilled it.

According to the records of the police department, Joseph Rialto is 44, 5 feet six inches in height, and weighs 140 lbs. He left town February 28, 1926, when his wife complained to the police that he had stolen her money.

The missing man was said to be frugal and had saved considerable money, at one time displaying a roll of two hundred dollars. Captain Frank McLean of the local police department is assisting County Detective Jackson, although the case is being conducted by the county authorities.

YOUTHFUL AUTO THIEVES ARE QUICKLY SPOTTED

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 15—Theft of two automobiles is the charge preferred against George Feeney, 17, of 141 Crescent street and a fifteen year old boy from Quercus avenue, who were arrested by Captain Frank McLean Saturday evening about ten o'clock, as they were occupying a Dodge sedan owned by James F. Twomey, of Windham Road, which they were heading in the direction of South Windham. Following their arrest, the boys confessed to taking the Dodge roadster owned by Ernest Herrick Thursday evening. This car was later found on Belden street. The culprits will be in police court Monday morning. The fifteen year old minor was before the local court on a charge of breaking and entering recently and at that time was sentenced to the state reformatory at Meriden, but was placed on probation for six months. Saturday evening, after the youths had taken Mr. Twomey's car, they drove the machine past the owner unknowingly and the latter immediately communicated with the police. Captain McLean and Officers Roderick Lariviere took part in the chase.

Other week-end arrests included Joseph Moriarty, intoxication, by Officer Pierre Marrotte; Thomas Lessard of Pawtucket, R. I., by Officer William Hurley; and Eli J. Bergeron, West Springfield, Mass., reckless driving, by Officer Albert Montie.

COURT GIVES STIFF FINES FOR BREACH OF THE PEACE

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 15—Presented in the police court on a charge of breach of the peace Saturday morning, Louis Breton, 25, Edgar Breton, 20, Wilfred Blanchette, 19, and Arthur Roberts, 19, were fined by Deputy Judge Russell A. Andrews, their appearance in court being the result of a complaint preferred by Isaac Rotblut. The complainant testified that Friday about midnight he was crowded into the road, near the entrance to Recreation park by the four men, who also made insulting remarks to him and were generally belligerent. Louis Breton aimed a blow at Mr. Rotblut but this did not reach its goal. In court Saturday, all except Louis Breton entered a plea of guilty. A fine of twenty-five dollars and costs, amounting to $29.86, was imposed upon Louis Breton, it being his second offense within a few weeks. Judge Andrews fined the other three ten dollars and costs each.

Albert Yates of Philadelphia, who was arrested Friday on a charge of violating the local traffics laws by driving his automobile to the left of the silent policeman at Lincoln square, was not present in court and his bond of ten dollars was declared forfeited.

Thursday of this week will be the annual Clerks' day and the stores will be closed all day. Many of the clerks will visit the beaches. In years past, excursions have been conducted, but this year the clerks will arrange outings individually.

A large banner, announcing the annual county fair of Willimantic lodge No. 1211, B. P. O. E. to be held at Elks' park is suspended over Main street, at the head of Railroad street.

Troublemen of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting Co. have completed repairs to the circuit for the damage caused by Thursday evening's storm, resetting seven poles that were blown down in Willington. The 45 lines, covering 300 stations, of the Willington exchange of the Southern New England Telephone company, that were put out of commission during the storm have been restored to service.

Miss Elsie Katz of New York city, a summer resident at Columbia Lake, through her attorney, Arthur T. Kelley of this city, has instituted civil proceedings for one thousand dollars against Meyer and Minnie Bitten of Columbia. She alleges that July 16 last she was bitten by a dog owned by defendants, which caused her considerable pain, trouble, and anxiety as well as requiring medical attention. Deputy Sheriff Allison L. Frink has attached property belonging to the defendants to the amount of $1,500. The case is returnable in the Tolland county superior court the first Tuesday in September.

Mortoring to New London Friday afternoon, U. S. Hills and Miss Elizabeth W. Peterson returned home in the early evening with Mrs. Hills who arrived in the Whaling City on the Colonial Express, after several weeks' trip in Pennsylvania, with Mrs. Lois Norton Williams.

Mrs. Luella Perkins Larrow, wife of Charles Larrow of the North Windham Road, who died at her home late Friday afternoon, was born in East Lyme, April 6, 1867, a daughter of Thomas E. and Frances Hathaway Perkins. Besides her husband, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Edith Hopkins of Windham Center; and a brother, Howard E. Perkins of Mansfield.

Mrs. Rose Justice Obernesser died at her home in New Haven Saturday morning. Mrs. Obernesser was a former resident of this city and was well-known and highly respected here. Besides her husband, Adolphe Obernesser she is survived by a son, Marcel.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jane Adams were held at ten o'clock Saturday morning at her home on Pleasant street. Rev. A. Stanley Muirhead officiated. Burial was in Mountain View cemetery, Bloomfield.

Brief Personal Items

Mrs. Frank P. Lombardo and daughter, Claire, of Walnut street, Mrs. J. Connors of Winter street and Miss Marion Longe of Danielson have returned to their homes, after a short visit in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Perkins and son, Junior, and Mrs. Cora E. V. Nye attended the Brown family reunion at Norwich Town.

Walter and Morris Fox of Chicago, are in the city, visiting their sisters, Mrs. G. C. Rathburn of Park street and Mrs. C. L. Jones of The Ridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McSweeney and son, George, left Sunday for two weeks' vacation, which will be spent in various places of interest in this country and Canada.

Miss Annie H. Smith is spending a week with Miss Clara E. Smith at the latter's home in Northford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. E. Carpenter and guests, Miss Julia Jenkins and her brother, Jack Jenkins, of Bristol, motored to Boston, Saturday for Ralph Carpenter, Jr.

Mrs. F. E. Blackmar of the J. B. Fullerton acompany is spending two weeks' vacation at Pine Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Burt Connor entertained at their home Friday evening in honor of the former's birthday.

Mrs. Peter McIntosh and daughter, Fanny, of Lebanon avenue are at Watch Hill and Westerly, for two weeks.

Miss Frances Crane, of Bellevue street, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Harry Grattidge, of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses B. Haddad and sons, Russell and Mitchell, were in Hartford and Middletown Friday.

Mrs. Cora E. V. Nye entertained the Willing Workers of the Methodist church Friday.

JEWETT CITY

RAIL ACCOMMODATIONS LIMITED BUT SPEEDY

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 15. — Local passengers on the Waterbury express Friday were furnished an opportunity to witness the gilt-edge running being made, quite often when leaving Boston late, by the engine drivers between the eastern terminal and Putnam. The Waterbury express due to leave at noon (advanced time), left at 12:15. Regular stops were made at Back Bay, Franklin and Blackstone and at 1:34 the train was still in the Putnam station, making the run of 61 miles, with three stops, in 79 minutes flat. At no time since the New Haven road was built were there as few trains from Jewett City to Boston as at present, only two each way daily. Notwithstanding the severely curtailed schedule now in operation, never has there been as many direct three-hour connections to be made between Boston and Jewett City. Besides the two trains at 9:10 a. m., and 5:55 p. m., "city time," one may leave at noon and at 3 p. m., and be in Jewett City in three hours, via close bus connections from Putnam. Again, if one wishes to leave the Hub at 3 p. m., he may do so now, via the Shore Line express, the Puritan, changing at Providence for the 4:10, R. I. time, train for Plainfield, connecting there with the Jewett City bus, and he will be home at 6 p. m.

People returned from short trips Sunday were telling of their surprise at the damage done the corn crop by the storm of Thursday afternoon. In several fields small areas of corn were laid. In other parts, acres of oats were approaching the cradling stage, were "lodged" to such extent, that to get what salvage as possible, much of them had been cut by laboriously raising the stalks, and clipping them with a scythe, to be used as fodder.

The storm appears to have been central over the Hopeville section of Griswold, as here the lightning struck several times. Just as the storm broke, and at the precise time when one of the liveliest bolts was connecting over in the nearby woods, George Geer was unhitching his horse. Mr. Geer's horse never considered as anything but "kind and gentle," suddenly appeared in the broncho role and drew him 100 yards down the road, hanging to the breeching in true Tom Mix style. The driver however, won out, as he generally does.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Couri of Portland, Me., Mrs. Mitchell Thabet and daughters, Virginia and Betty of Charleston, West Virginia, and Dr. Assad Kummer of Tripoli, Syria, a physician in the English army in Syria, have been guests at Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Zegeer's. Sunday the party, with Mr. and Mrs. Zegeer and daughters, Olga and Corinne, and Miss Mariana Kummer, went to visit relatives in Worcester. From there Mrs. Zegeer and children, Miss Kummer and Dr. Kummer go to Malone, N. Y., for two weeks' to visit Mrs. Zegeer's sister.

The law quarantining dogs has not been removed yet, but a few people have had their dogs vaccinated, and that accounts for at least one dog's appearance with its master, and not on a leash, on the street. The animal wears a tag to that effect.

The congregation of 85 persons at the Baptist church Sunday was not privileged to hear Miss Susan Armstrong, as expected, as she found it impossible to be present. Rev. Mr. Scates announced that Rev. Dr. D. A. Pitt, pastor of the Central Baptist church, Norwich, would occupy the pulpit here next Sunday and secretary Edward Hill of the Norwich Y. M. C. A. the following Sunday. It is now planned to hold evening meetings on these two Sundays. Three of the deacons will have charge of the mid-week meetings. Rev. and Mrs. Scates and family leave this (Monday) morning to spend their vacation in North Bellerica, Mass.

Misses Maud and Anna Nelson of New Orleans, La., are guests at Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Shea's.

Whatsoever circle of the King's Daughters is to hold its annual picnic on the lawn of Miss Ruby Thornton's home Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Whalley and two sons are at Lord's Point for a week. Mr. Whalley spending the week end there.

PUTNAM

NEWELL A. BADGER KILLED ON ELLIOTT'S R. R. CROSSING

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 15.—Newell A. Badger, 55, of Abington, was instantly killed this morning when his car was struck by a north-bound New Haven R. R. passenger train at the crossing at Elliott's. The accident happened shortly after 9 o'clock.

Badger had started for the home of two women near Elliott's to take them to the morning services at the Abington Congregational church. He knew that it was near train time, but as he approached the track, he saw some people coming toward him from a point north of the crossing.

With his eyes directed toward them he turned automatically to cross the tracks. The train from the south could have been seen if he had glanced in that direction, but not until his automobile, a Dodge sedan, was on the rails and the locomotive but a few feet away, did he realize his danger. His car was thrown a considerable distance and demolished. Mr. Badger's death must have been instaneous. The back of his head was crushed and he was so bruised and mangled as to be almost unrecognizable.

Dr. S. B. Overlock of Pomfret, medical examiner was called and gave permission for the removal of the body to the Badger home. The dead man for many years had been a blacksmith and recently had added a garage and filling station to his business.

His wife died a few years ago and there are no children.

LIVES IN ENG. CASTLE, VISITS AUNT AT POMFRET

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 15.—Harry W. Marsh of New York city, the present lessee of Warwick castle in England, was a visitor at the Ben Grosvenor inn, at Pomfret during the past week. Mr. Marsh came to Pomfret to visit his aunt, Mrs. Thomas S. Chard, who is a guest at Middlebrook cottage. Mr. Marsh has made his home at Warwick for several years. This famous castle was leased to him by the Earl of Warwick shortly after the ending of the World war.

WOODSTOCK ALUMNI REUNION AT ACADEMY

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 15.—About 500 alumni and friends of Woodstock Academy were present at the exercises Saturday afternoon in celebration of the 125th anniversary of the founding of the Academy. Following the dinner, which because of the threatening weather, was served in the Congregational church instead of on the Academy campus, there was a number of short addresses.

George M. Sampson, chairman of the committee on arrangements, presented Rev. Welles M. Partridge, Boston minister and Woodstock Academy alumnus, as toastmaster. Among the speakers were Dr. Hamilton Holt, president of Rollins college in Florida, Clarence W. Bowen, Mrs. Ann Hall Gaylor, Clarence H. Child, William P. Dutemple, a former president of the Academy, and Dr. Robert C. Paine of Thompson.

It was announced that $17,500 had been raised toward the fund of $30,000 for the Hall memorial gymnasium. Over 200 persons have given money to aid in the building of this gymnasium, the amounts running from a gift of $5,100 to several of $100.

The gymnasium committee, of which William C. Child is chairman, Mrs. Albert Hibbard, secretary and Rev. Henry C. Baker, treasurer, has engaged LaFarge, Warren and Clark of New York as architects to draw the plans. The plans as submitted, with certain changes, have been approved by the committee. The proposed cost of $30,000 is a smaller sum than is usual for a gymnasium; yet the committee feels that if a building costing less than this were constructed, the result would be unsatisfactory.

It was voted to hold another reunion in five years.

It has been found that eight-year old Cecelia Bousquet, who was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. P. P. Tourtelotte of North Grosvenordale is not seriously injured. The child stepped from the sidewalk near Bradway's store on School street into the path of the machine. Dr. Bullard who was summoned reported that the injuries were confined to bruises and that the child was more frightened than hurt.

Rev. James F. English, chaplain in the Officers' Reserve corps, Second Lieutenant Jerome W. Andrews and First Lieutenant Martin J. Robertson, have returned from two weeks' intensive training at Camp Devens, at Ayer, Mass.

Miss Eva Bouley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Bouley, who died at Hartford, was buried in St. Mary's cemetery and the funeral services were held at St. Mary's church.

In city court Stanley O'Claire of School street pleaded not guilty to the charges of owning and keeping liquor for sale and of an actual sale on August 1. Under bonds of $500 his case was continued to Tuesday when, the other liquor cases will be tried.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Malo of Danielson have been guests of Mrs. Malo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chandler of Livery street.

Miss Rachel Brady has returned from her vacation which she spent with relatives in New York.

Miss Sadie Zaitas of Norwich spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Zaitas of Front street.

Mrs. Michael Zotto and two children of Church street have returned from a visit with relatives at New London.

Miss Rose Duffey of Hartford is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Roe Duffey of High street.

Mrs. Mark Lewis of Abington is the guest of her son, Ernest Lowis and his family of Walnut street.

Miss Sophie Harrison of Bridge street is spending two weeks' vacation at a girls' camp at Derby.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin D. Farrows of Woodstock and their daughters, Misses Lucy and Ella of Springfield, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller at Asbury Park, N. J. They are also going to Atlantic City and to Philadelphia, to visit the sesquicentennial.

Miss Bessie Rosenberg of Providence is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diamond of Boston are guests of Mr. Diamond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Diamond.

Mrs. J. Otis Fox and little daughter, Barbara, are at Lord's Point for two weeks.

Mrs. Harry Houghton and daughter, Miss Madelyn, are spending their vacation at the Wigwam, Pleasant View, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter of New York city, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Averill have gone to East Greenwich, R. I., to visit Dr. and Mrs. Taggert before returning to their home.

Mrs. Carl E. Josefson and children, of Providence, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Josefson's sister, Mrs. Herman Johnson. William and Eleanor Johnson returned with them and will visit at Providence and Narragansett Pier.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Labelle of New York have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard James. Mr. Labelle is a brother of Mrs. James.

Mrs. Dalbert MacKensie and son, Harold of Worcester have been visiting Mrs. MacKensie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams.

Sister M. Chrysotom and Sister St. John-Baptist of New Haven have been guests for the past week of Miss Sarah Brady. Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Guertin and daughter Mary Louise of Woonsocket have also been guests of Miss Brady.

Mr. and Mrs. William Easton have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. James Easton of Walpole, Mass.

Pauline St. Jean has returned from a visit with friends and relatives at Plainfield.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

This year there have been more applicants for positions vacated through resignations of teachers at the end of the last school term and during the past two months, than in previous years and less difficulty than usual has been experienced by Superintendent of Schools Brick in selecting the teachers, who are as follows:

High school; Alfred L. Tower, principal; Earl Witt, science; Dorothy Upham, English; Regina Russell, mathematics; Edith Turner, history; Lena Gravel, commercial department; Inez Wingersky, foreign languages.

Borough Junior school; Mrs. Marjorie Snow, mathematics; Florina Tonon, English, Alice Bartlett, history; Margaret Mullins, geography.

Borough Elementary school; Lillian Bartlett, grade 6-A; Wilhelmina Macinda, grade 6-B, 5-A; Anna Ryan, grade 5; Mrs. Clara Cox, grade 4; Miss Alice Fox, grade 4; Esther Broderson, grades 3-5; Mrs. Janet Towne, grade 3; Genevieve Hewett, grade 3; Euretta Leonard, grade 1; Isabelle Jackson, grade 1; Ethel Moore, kindergarten.

Village schools; Pinney school, Mrs. Isadore Sharpe, grades 7-8; Lean Stevens, grade 5-6; Elsie Thompson, grade 3-4; Mrs. Ruth Gary, grades 1-2. Staffordville school, Mrs. Eva Greaves, grades 1-2; May Belrne, grades 3-4; Eileen Kelley, grades 7-8; Beatrice Roberts, grades 5-6; West Stafford school, Miss Doris Avery, grammar grades; Mrs. Edith Sullivan, primary grades.

Rural schools; Leonard school, Mrs. Zelma Augustson; Birch school, Mrs. Edith Davis; Stafford street, Miss Margaret Taylor; Orcuttville, Anna Curto; Rockwell Hill, Rose Aipret; Crow Hill, Marion Tobin.

The suicide rate in cities of the United States is more than 30 per cent. higher than the rate in rural districts.

DANIELSON

JOHN HIGGINS, OF ELMVILLE APPOINTED TO STATE POLICE

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 15.—John Higgins of Elmville has received word from the state police department that his application for membership on the force has been accepted. Mr. Higgins has been employed by the Connecticut Co. for the past three years, during which time he has served as a motorman, at the sub-station at Putnam and South Windham, and is now at the company's station at Dyer Dam. Mr. Higgins was from the many applicants aspiring to become a member of the state force. He was in Hartford Friday where he was put through a mental examination to test his fitness. Upon receiving a call from the state department he will go to the Ridgefield Connecticut Training school, for seasoning, before he becomes an active member of the troopers.

REPAIRS TO LIBRARY NEARING COMPLETION

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 15.—The repairs in the library are well under way and the work of replacing and rearranging the books is expected to be completed this week. The library has been closed for the past two weeks for repairs, probably will not open before the middle of this month. The repairs consist of decorating the walls and ceiling of the various rooms varnishing the woodwork, floors, desks, table and chairs. The library is to be provided with steam heat, the work of replacing the old hot air heater with a steamheating plant has been completed. The library has been badly in need of repairs for some time. Librarian Harry E. Back has advised such repairs in his numerous reports. It was voted at the last town meeting to make these renovations during the summer months. The improvements have added greatly to the appearances inside the building and have increased the light considerably.

Several army officers put up a tent on the southwest corner of the park Saturday which will serve as a recruiting station during the next week. This includes a part of the nationwide drive for more men in the service.

Showers Saturday night came as a relief after sultry weather of the past week. Approval of the farmers throughout this territory was voiced, their crops having been in great need of rain.

Danielson residents went to the summer resorts or various nearby lakes to find relief from the heat over the weekend.

St. James baseball team defeated the Sacred Heart team of Taftville, Sunday afternoon, 3 to 1. The Sacred Hearts were winners of the school championship of Norwich, winning the pennant in the Norwich school league.

Tonight (Monday) the Cleavers meet the Kilowatts on the Paco grounds in a Twi-league contest. This contest was to have been played Thursday but was postponed because of rain.

A team representing Connecticut Mills went to Fitchfield, Mass., to play a town team Sunday afternoon and came home with a 7 to 6 victory.

August is the popular month for tourists judging from the number that went through here over the weekend. Camping outfits were included in the baggage of scores of tourists.

Donat Gaudreau has returned from a week's vacation from Parksville, Mass.

Jacob Alpert of Putnam and Henry Johnson of Danielson were in New Haven Friday on business.

Mrs. Ethel Hale is still on the danger list at the New Haven hospital. Charles Hale was home over the week end, but went back Sunday to West Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Major and sons, Elmer and Edgar, returned Saturday from a week's vacation tour which took them over the Mohawk Trial into Canada, where they visited Montreal and Quebec. They also went through New York state and into Pennsylvania. A feature of the trip was a visit at Dempsey's training camp at Saratoga Springs.

WESTERLY

LARKIN FAMILY REUNION NORWICH MAN PRESIDENT

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I. Aug. 15.—The twenty-seventh reunion of the Larkin family association, descendants of Edwin Larkin of Avondale is to be held this year Thursday, August 26th, at the Atlantic Beach casino. The president of the association is T. Irving Larkin of Norwich and the Secretary Mrs. Lillian M. Browning, of North Franklin.

DESIGN OF POZZI ACCEPTED FOR MEMORIAL

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 15.—The design of Emil Pozzi of Morristown, N. J., was accepted, by the joint committee by Harley P. Chase Post, No. 1265, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Pawcatuck Board of Trade. The committee met Friday evening in Vets hall, Walton block, and came to the decision at a late hour for the world war memorial, to be erected at the junction of West Broad and South Broad streets, Pawcatuck. The joint committee meeting was held at the close of the regular meeting of the Veterans' post. Admiral H. O. Dunn, chairman, presided. After all had had ample opportunities to express their opinions, the chairman called for a ballot, with the result that Mr. Pozzi's design was chosen. On motion, the choice was made unanimous.

The secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Pozzi of the action taken and to request that he appear before the committee at an early date, as some minor changes are to be made in his plans.

It is expected that work on the erection of the Memorial will start soon and the following committee was chosen to have charge: Admiral H. O. Dunn, general of Veteran committee; Karl G. Stillman, chairman of Board of Trade committee; Harry T. Powers, secretary; Harry M. Bricker, quartermaster; W. Russell Dower, auditor; Louis Rossi and Merton Lewis, memorial engineers; Al J. Twomey, Charles W. Opie, Lawrence E. Rook, L. C. Purtill, Alfred H. Chapman, Henry C. Crandall, Howard M. Barber, and James A. Keane.

Architect Pozzi was a former Westerly boy, who went to New York and who presenting his design to the committee stated that he had returned to his original plan, after making fourteen drawings. The memorial is generally characterized as being a strong and powerful one. Mr. Pozzi will have the general superintendency of the construction of his memorial, which he would like in a pink Westerly granite and no cement will be used in place of stone. The estimated cost will be between $14,000 and $15,000. Surrounding the central monument, 11 feet, 11 inches high, four feet, four inches wide, which is surmounted by a bronze cap for an inscription will be a circular bench of octagonal shape with 44 feet of space for the public to sit upon. The bench will be about eight feet high, backed up with shrubbery and with a pitch of about one quarter of an inch to the foot for both seat and enclosure to take care of rain, snow and water. The triangular plot will be given a pleasing treatment, with five foot sidewalk approach.

Recorded in the office of the Westerly town clerk are the following transfers: August 13. Trustees in bankruptcy of B. B. & R. Knight, Inc., to Knight Finance corporation. An indention showing all the rights, titles and interests together with buildings and improvements, in four parcels of land as follows, the first, 2.77 acres; second, 153 acres; third, 73.8 acres and fourth 27.4 acres.

August 13. Trustees in bankruptcy of B. B. & R. Knight, Inc., and B. B. & R. Knight, Inc., to Knight Finance corporation. An indention showing all the rights, titles and interests together with buildings and improvement in three parcels as follows, the first, 28 acres: the second, 25 acres and third, rights to waters of Pawcatuck river, riparian rights.

"Tomato King," Joseph Gabrielle, mounted on a two wheeled gig, horse-drawn vehicle, with small boy attendant was passing along Broad street, Sunday, when one wheel crumpled and the occupants were thrown to the highway. Patrolman George H. Champlin was on the spot to enforce the democratic principles of a clear highway and when it was ascertained that Joe and the boy sustained no injuries, they were directed forthwith to remove the one horse equipage from the thoroughfare. The horse was unhitched and led away. The gig drawn by the boy with Mr. Gabrielle as postilion moved over the Pawcatuck river bridge, down Coggswell street to a blacksmith shop. Some bystanders averred that the stalled line of automobiles extended from Westerly to Stonington. Some marketmen's delivery of tomatoes may be delayed as a result of the King's downfall.

Saturday evening at 8:30, Miss Elizabeth Reid Finley and Clifford Thomas Barber were married at Pawcatuck Seventh Day parsonage by Rev. C. A. Burdick. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Adams of Stonington. Only relatives were present. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Barber left on a wedding trip. Upon their reutrn they will make their home at Potter Hill, where the groom is postmaster, also proprietor of the Potter Hill store.

Gustave Adolph Marsh, 69 years, died at his home in Solomonville, Stonington, Conn., Sunday morning after an illness of everal months. He is survived by his wife, Mary E. Whitford Marsh, and nine children.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock funeral services were held for Warren W. Brown, Civil war veteran, well known in Washington and New London counties. The funeral was held at his home in North Stonington. The officiating clergyman was Rev. C. A. Burdick, pastor of Pawcatuck Seventh Day Baptist church in Westerly, and he was assisted by Rev. Lucian Drury, pastor emeritus of the North Stonington Third Baptist church. Burial was in the Brown family cemetery at North Stonington. The bearers were George H. Stone, T. Edwin Brown, Reuben C. Cook, Charles C. Gray, Charles E. Hilland and George W. Tryon.

The annual clambake and outing of Westerly Masonic club, No. 176, John O. Mills, president, was held Saturday afternoon at Barnes' Point, Brightman's Pond, there being about 75 present at the bake, which was opened at 5 o'clock. Chowder was provided at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. During the afternoon the members busied themselves pitching quoits, and a ball game was played between picked nines. The committee in charge of the outing comprised Samuel Bailey, Russell Dower, David Lowry, Richard Mitchell, Robert Wilcox and John W. Ople.

About Sunday noon in Pawcatuck, at the corner of Liberty and Morgan streets, John Richards, aged three, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richards was struck by the Ford automobile, operated by Mrs. Leo C. Nye, of East avenue, Westerly. It was reported that the child just missed being struck by a automobile with Massachusetts plate and in making his escape got into the path of the Nye automobile, which was headed up Liberty street at a moderate rate of speed. The driver did all in her power to avert the accident, it was said, but the child was struck and knocked down.

Francis McMahon, former Pawcatuck patrolman, saw the child from his home right after he had been struck and he rushed to the scene, picked the boy up and took him to the office of Dr. C. P. Crandall.

Blood was flowing from a gash over his left eye and seven stitches were needed to close the wound. He also had a bruise and abrasion on his left ankle and there is a possibility of a skull fracture. Unless his condition improves by today (Monday) an X-ray will be taken. After treatment at the physician's office he was taken to his home.

Mrs. L. Napoleon Boston returned on the Colonial express, Sunday morning to her home in Philadelphia, after being the guest of her father, Ira B. Crandall, in Westerly.

Harry Radcliffe has returned to Boston, after passing a week in Westerly.

Misses Bridget D. and Elizabeth M. Farrell of Pawcatuck have had as their guest their cousin, Miss Mary Dunham, of Stonington.

Nelsen A. Sly of Providence, formerly of Westerly, was the week and guest of Westerly friends.

Cyrus F. Mitchell of Wequetequock has returned to Westerly after a week's vacation.

Miss Gertrude A. Lewis of Pawcatuck, a graduate of St. Joseph's hospital nurses' training school, Providence, has returned to that city for a two months' course in public health service.

Attorney J. Leon D'Connell of New Work is in Westerly for a week's vacation.

Miss Frances L. Burdick starts today (Monday) for Aztec, New Mexico, making several stops en route, before reaching the southwest state, to resume her duties as a high school teacher, after being the guest of her father, Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, in Westerly for several weeks.

L. Ward Algor returns today (Monday) to his duties as a letter carrier from the Westerly post office, after a week's vacation.

William W. Grant, after a two weeks' vacation as the guest of his sisters, Misses Elizabeth M. and Sarah J. Grant in Westerly has returned to his duties in Allentown, Pa.

MYSTIC

The Shore Line club of the Social Corner is to meet in Grange hall Main building Tuesday, Aug. 17th. This is the first meeting held in Mystic since the club was organized and it is expected that members of the other clubs will attend and that new members added especially from Mystic. A program has been arranged to be given as soon as dinner is over and it will be necessary to call it at 1:30 owing to one on the program having engagements for later in the afternoon. Those coming are to bring one kind of food, each, also dishes for their own use. Two young ladies will give a demonstration that will be very interesting.

The employes of the Standard Machine company had their annual picnic Saturday at Bushy Point.

The Dinty Moore club met Friday at Clark's at Quinebaug. The first prize was won by Mrs. Eva Burdick and the consolation award was given Mrs. Jewett.

Marcus Jones who has been suffering from an infected knee and was obliged to have surgical treatment is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lavine motored to New York Sunday and will return Tuesday.

Miss Eva Edwards and Miss Martha Decker spent Thursday at Ocean Beach.

Miss Frederika Denison, of Providence and Mrs. Augusta Kingsley of Pequonoc Bridge, spent Friday with Miss Elizabeth Burrows, of West Mystic.

Miss Margaret Sheehan, R. N. has returned to Waterbury, after spending her vacation with her parents here.

Elsworth Edwards, Kenneth Paine and Joseph Foley spent a day recently with Alden Mull at Burnetts Corners.

Mrs. Le Seur has returned to Guilford after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Otto Grossman.

Helen Starkey chapter of St. Mark's church was entertained by Mrs. George Johnson at her cottage at Lantern Hill Thursday.

Miss Betty Sullivan, of Waterbury, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Foley.

The ways and means committee on the proposed war memorial met last week and will meet again Tuesday evening for the purpose of deciding what kind of memorial to select. A meeting will be called Aug. 23 and every representative from the different societies will be notified to attend. The meeting is open to the public. A location for the memorial is to be selected.

Miss Florrie Jessup has returned to the home in Providence after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chambers, of High street.

Capt. and Mrs. S. N. Macomber and Mr. and Mrs. John Macomber of Portland, Me., have been guests of Mrs. Otis Douglas.

Mrs. Albert B. Crafts of Providence is visiting Mrs. Edith N. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chambers spent the week end in Providence.

NOANK

Charles Reid is entertaining friends from Hartford for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Swift and daughter Ruth, has left for a visit in Philadelphia.

Friday Walter Willis was getting his truck ready for the day, filling the tank with gasoline and got hold of a can of water and out in the tank instead of gas. After working on the truck for an hour he found out his mistake and some one told him it was Friday, the 13th.

Mike Passi swam to Mystic Island Friday morning from the town dock. He was followed by the boat De De, Capt. Ehilu Rathbun at the wheel. He is the manager of George Deveau, the long distance swimmer of the village, on wiraining for the swim to New London. Later on Passi made Mystic island, a distance of one mile in 27 minutes and finished strong. Frank Muse kept the time on the boat De De. Edward Ellis started with Passi but had to give up half way across, getting a cramp.

Uman Brown has resigned as flagman at the East Main street railroad crossing. His place is teken by William Wilcox.

William Franklin left for Bridgeport for over the week end.

Clarence Spink of Fall River is spending a few days at his home here.

John Tourjee is in Brooklyn, N. Y., for a few days.

Charles DeBisial is home after a visit ith friends in Block Island.

While Clark Peck was around Groton Long Point getting his orders for the day, with Edward Andrew in the car, on Shore avenue they saw a black snake in the road six feet long and two and one half inches around. His head was on one side of the road and his tail half way across the road. Mr. Andrews said it was the largest snake he had ever seen and he lived for a good many years on a farm in Center Groton. They tried to kill the snake but it was too quick for them and was soon in the tall grass out of sight.

Harry Robertson is in Columbia for a few days' visit with relatives.

Richard Weeks of East Providence is spending his vacation in Noank.

John Camercy has left for a short visit with his cousin, George McBride in New Haven.

Angus McQuarrie has gone to Montauk, L. I., where he is employed as a civil engineer.

Lester Smith is spending a few days in New York.

Rain which fell last week was a great help in the village, as gardens needed rain badly and some of the cisterns were dry.

Mrs. Henry Langworthy is confined to her home by illness.

Arthur Fitch of Westerly is visiting for a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fitch.

The condition of Mrs. Margaret Hendrickson, who is ill at her home, remains unchanged.

Raymond Sistare has returned from a business trip in Brooklyn, Conn.

At the special town meeting held in Poquonoc recently, thirty attended, a few from the village being on hand. Appropriation of $5,427.48 for repairs to the Groton Long Point bridge and for a voting machine were rejected. An agent from the Automatic Registering Machine Co., explained about the voting machines and how much time it saved, but the motion was rejected. The meeting voted over $3,000 to be used on improvements.

Eli Schoolmaker has left for a few days' trip to Huntington, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Eldrigh and daughter, Leona, motored to Wells Maine, to spend their vacation with relatives.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Boccolilucci has been named Joan Josephine.

William Crowell has returned from a visit with Danielson friends.

Miss Edna Cole of Brooklyn is spending her vacation in the village.

John Lawler spent a day in Saybrook during the week.

THOMPSON

Rev. E. Talmadge Root preached here Sunday morning.

Mrs. L. N. Elliott and Miss Maxine Elliott have returned from a visit to Hartford.

Mrs. Carrie Bratt entertained the bridge club Tuesday afternoon.

Ruinnatisset grange members are to hold their picnic at Riot Breeze, Monday, August 23rd, at 5 P. M.

The Junior class of the Sunday school gave a missionary program entitled "Listening In", Sunday the 8th

Mr. and Mrs. Crane and daughter Betty have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Martland.

CENTER GROTON

Miss Gladys Bailey, of New London is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. H. Kelley at Ye Old Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bailey of the New London Y. M. C. A. have been at Mrs Edgar H. Kelley's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gray have been on a motor trip to Newport, N. H.

H. E. Savage of Rockwell, Virginia is at John Haley's.

Chas. Thompson whose house has been remodelled this summer has it all most finished, the renovation costing several thousand dollars.

The addition to the school house in District No. 3 is progressing steadily. The cement foundation is in and the frame going up rapidly. It will cost about $1,700.

Smart New Rumble Seat For Sport Roadster

Rumble seats are justly popular. They add a smart, rakish touch to roadster lines, and increase the carrying capacity by two passengers.

That Dodge Brothers Sport Roadster now provides this convenience, will be welcome news to thousands.

Like the main seat, it is deeply upholstered in gray Spanish genuine leather, and the seat back is high and well

ASHLAND AND SUB. BASE BATTLE FOR 18 INNINGS TO AN 11 TO 11 TIE SCORE

Ashland A. A. and the Sub. Base clubs hung up a new endurance contest in baseball Sunday afternoon when the clubs battled eighteen innings to a 11 to 11 tie score. This establishes a record for extra inning games in eastern Connecticut and is all the more unique as the score was tied and the game called on account of darkness.

The game was a free-hitting affair with the Base collecting 20 hits while Ashland garnered 12 off the deliveries of four Sub. Base pitchers. Hemming hurled the entire game for Ashland and kept the 20 hits well scattered out over the 18 innings. He also fanned 13 men and passed but three men.

Ashland started off with a smash getting six runs across the plate in the first inning and adding four more in the fifth. The Base coming from behind pushed three runs across in the third and then duplicated Ashland's feat by scoring six more runs in the fifth. The tying run came in the sixth inning. From then on it was a pitchers' battle to the finish, many times sharp fielding cutting down possibly chances of scoring. Both teams scored one run in the fourteenth.

On three occasions Joe Gilbert, midget left-fielder for the Ashland club, spiked the chances of a Base score by pretty running catches of hard hit balls. Pete Raill also saved the game for Ashland in the sixteenth when he smeared a ball that was labeled for a home run. The score:

Ashland A. A.	ab	h	o	a	e	Sub Base	ab	h	o	a	e
Gilbert lf	6	1	5	2	1	Raffus m	8	2	5	0	1
Hanley 2b	7	1	2	3	1	Long lf	8	1	2	0	1
Deegan 3b	6	2	2	6	1	Mac'n cf-p	9	3	0	0	0
Kendricks ss	8	2	4	6	0	Meaka rf-1b	8	2	12	0	1
Doherty c	9	0	15	0	0	Mellon 3b	8	1	2	3	0
Robertson rf	8	1	0	0	0	Parker lf	7	2	1	0	0
Hollis cf	7	2	3	0	0	Barchette 2b	9	2	3	4	0
Rodrick 1b	5	0	9	0	0	Flanigan c	6	0	12	0	1
Gunning p	4	2	2	0	1	Riegle p-rf	4	0	0	0	0
						Harrell 1b	2	0	6	0	0
Totals	66	12	54	16	4	Fournier p	1	0	1	0	0
						Walker p	2	0	0	1	0
						Totals	71	20	54	20	3

Score by innings:
Ashland A. A. ..... 0 0 0 0 6 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—11
Sub Base ..... 0 0 0 0 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—11

Two base hits, Kendricks, Robertson, Dugas, Raffus, Harrington; three base hits, Harrington, Kendricks.

WARRIORS SPLIT EVEN IN WEEK-END GAMES

The Warriors split even in their week-end program of games, losing the first game of their championship series to the Bearcats on Saturday by a 9 to 4 score and winning from the Sachems in their series on Sunday by the score of 15 to 10.

After piling up a lead in the first game the Warriors lost out on Saturday when the Bearcats staged late inning rallies. Jackson's fielding and Lamory's hitting featured this game.

Sunday's game was a loose contest with the result being in doubht until the last two innings when the Warriors scored 9 runs.

A running catch in left field by Fitzgerald was the fielding feature of this game. The score:

Warriors	ab	h	o	a	e	Saltons	ab	h	o	a	e
Gamble 1b	5	1	9	1	0	Burke 1b	3	1	12	0	0
Hallahan 2b	4	1	4	1	0	Mayin 2b	3	1	2	3	0
Wenzel ss	4	1	1	6	0	Garrion cf	4	0	4	1	1
W. Burns c	4	1	6	1	0	Tenbarl rf	4	2	1	0	0
Tenbarl rf	4	1	1	0	0	Carey c	4	1	6	1	0
Burns c-1b	4	1	4	2	0	Nevins rf-2b	3	0	1	4	0
Fitzgerald cf	4	0	2	0	0	Orr p ss	3	2	1	4	1
Hubard p	2	0	0	2	0	Rankin ss-p	4	1	0	3	0
Bagwell p-rf	3	1	1	0	0	McH ll ss	4	0	0	4	0
						Hell rf	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	9	27	11	7	Totals	38	10	24	20	3

Score by innings:
Warriors ..... 1 0 5 0 0 0 0 1 0—9
Saltons ..... 0 0 0 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—15

Two base hits, Morin, Tenbarl Orlander, Hamill, Burke.

Bearcats	ab	h	o	a	e	Warriors	ab	h	o	a	e
Hamill c	4	0	8	1	1	Gamble 1b	4	0	8	1	0
Bellamy 3b	4	1	1	2	1	Hallahan 2b	4	1	3	1	1
Carbels 2b	4	1	1	0	1	Wenzel ss	4	1	1	4	0
Jackson cf	4	2	2	0	0	W Burns c	3	0	7	2	0
Tenbarl 1b	4	1	4	1	0	Tenbarl rf	4	1	4	1	0
Pfaff rf	4	1	1	0	0	Hubard p	1	0	0	0	0
Hasler ss	4	0	1	3	0	Bagwell p	2	0	0	0	0
Couture p	3	0	1	2	0
Totals	36	7	27	10	3	Totals	26	3	27	9	1

Score by innings:
Bearcats ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 7—7
Warriors ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2—3

Two base hits, Lamory.

AIRLIE WINS THIRTEEN INNING GAME FROM STARS

With the count three and two on him, Chapman, center fielder for the Fort Trumbull Stars crashed out a home run in the ninth inning to tie the Airlie club at one all and forced the game at Hanover on Saturday to thirteen innings. The climax came in the last of the thirteenth when Brown pitching for the Stars weakened and filled the bases and then hit a batsman forcing in the winning run.

The game was one of the best seen a Hanover in the past ten years and will be remembered as one of the high spots of the town's baseball history. Rabbitt Gauthier and Morris Brown hooked up in a pretty duel and both were given exceptionally good support. The score:

Airlie	ab	h	o	a	e	Fort Trumbull Stars	ab	h	o	a	e
Brown ss	5	2	2	2	0	L. Brewer 2b	6	1	2	3	0
Gauthier 2b	5	2	3	2	1	Keary c	6	1	7	1	0
Dugas 2b	4	0	3	4	0	Tumosky c	0	0	1	0	0
Morgan 3b	5	1	1	1	0	Gadbois 1b	4	1	10	0	0
Lamore c	5	0	7	0	0	W Chap'n lf	5	1	3	0	0
Parker rf	5	0	2	0	0	Tyden ss	5	1	1	3	0
Bishop rf	4	0	0	0	0	Bishop rf	5	1	3	0	0
Sanford rf	1	0	0	0	0	G Chap'n lf	5	1	0	0	0
Pardo rf	4	0	0	0	0	E Brewer 2b	5	0	1	3	0
Schreiber p	3	0	0	1	0	Brown p	5	1	0	3	0
Totals	43	6	19	17	1	Totals	46	7	28	13	0

Score by innings:
Fort Trumbull Stars—
Airlie ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1
Base runs, W. Chapman.

RIVERVIEW LOSES LOOSE GAME TO CORBIN RED SOX

In a loosely played game at the Norwich State hospital diamond on Saturday afternoon the Riverview eight was beaten, 6 to 4, by the Corbin Red Sox in the third game between these two clubs. Inability to hit with men on bases coupled with poor base running caused the downfall of the Riverview team.

Chances to score, two to be exact, were thrown away by loose baserunning. Jack Clabby being caught off twice when runs would have scored on succeeding hits.

The Red Sox did not play exceptionally good ball although their errors did not prove especially damaging. The Red Sox started off the game with a sharp bunting attack that chased up the Riverview infield and filled the bases and two hits by Barnett and Schmidt drove across four runs. Twice in this inning were men trapped off the bags but errors allowed them to advance. The Red Sox tallied again in the second inning when three hits brought in the run another run being cut down at the plate. Their sixth run came when Mills pegged wild after making a spectacular stop and the runner was safe. He was sacrificed to second and came home on Wojaks single.

Riverview started the first inning strong when Dinty Moore beat out a bunt for a hit and stole second scoring a moment later when Normandin doubled to right field. Normandin was run down between third and second when he tried to advance on Mills' infield roller. Mills got as far as third but was unable to score. In the third inning Moore singled and again stole second scoring when Schneider dropped Normandin's Texas leaguer, Normandi stole second and went to third on Clabby's sacrifice fly scoring when Barnett mussed up Farrell's hit. The final tally came in the next inning when Wojak fumbled Belair's grounder and threw wild to first Belair going to second. Belair scored on Dugas' long single to right field.

Riverview had men on bases in every inning but could not bring them across the plate. Dugas pitched nice ball after the first two innings and fanned 10 men. West pitched the final inning and allowed one hit but fanned two men. Flynn also pitched good ball allowing the Riverview club but seven hits, keeping them well scattered. The score:

Corbin	ab	h	o	a	e	Riverview	ab	h	o	a	e
Fitzpat'k 2b	6	1	2	2	0	Moore lf	3	2	1	0	0
Schneider rf	4	3	3	0	1	Norman'n ss	5	1	3	2	0
Bl'chard 1b	3	1	11	1	0	Mills 3b	3	1	1	0	2
Barnett ss	5	2	4	2	2	Clabby cf	2	1	1	0	0
Hubard c	3	1	4	0	0	Farrell 1b	5	0	4	1	0
Schmidt cf	5	2	1	0	1	Barnet 2b	3	1	5	2	0
Wojak 2b	5	1	2	4	1	Allard rf	3	0	0	1	1
Jervis lf	5	0	0	0	0	Belair c	4	0	12	1	1
Berg lf	1	1	1	0	0	Dugas p rf	4	1	1	3	0
Flynn p	3	0	0	2	0	West p	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	49	12	27	11	6	Totals	39	7	27	8	3

Score by innings:
Corbin ..... 4 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—6
Riverview ..... 1 0 2 1 0 0 0 0 0—4

Two base hits, Normandin.

SENATORS RALLY IN 8TH TO BEAT OUT ATHLETICS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—(AP)—The Senators rallied in the eighth inning today to score twice and break a deadlock, defeating Philadelphia 5 to 3. Five double plays featured the game. Score:

Philadelphia	ab	h	o	a	e	Washington	ab	h	o	a	e
Dykes 2b	4	0	2	3	0	McNeely rf	4	1	2	0	0
French rf	4	1	1	0	0	Stewart 2b	4	0	1	2	0
Lamar lf	4	1	4	0	0	Rice lf	4	2	2	0	0
Hale 3b	3	2	2	1	0	Myer ss	4	0	2	1	0
Simmons cf	3	1	0	0	0	Goslin 3b	3	2	0	3	0
Poole 1b	3	1	8	2	0	Tate c	3	0	3	1	0
Welch c	3	1	7	0	0	Coveleskie p	3	1	0	3	0
Cochrane c	1	0	1	0	0	Leverett p	0	0	0	0	0
Galloway ss	3	0	1	1	0	Judon xxx	1	1	0	0	0
Wamby ss	1	0	0	1	0
Walberg p	2	0	0	2	0	Totals	32	12	27	15	2
Quinn p	1	1	0	1	0
Bishop xx	0	0	0	0	0
Mosser z	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	31	9	24	16	1

x—Batted for Galloway in 6th.
xx—Batted for Quinn in 9th.
z—Batted for Coveleskie in 8th.

Score by innings:
Philadelphia ..... 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3
Washington ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—2

Two base hits, Lamar, Stewart, Myer, Poole; three base hits, Dykes.

INDIANS AND BROWNS DIVIDE THE HONORS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 15—(AP)—The Cleveland and St. Louis teams split a double-header today, St. Louis winning the first 11 to 7 while Cleveland took the second by 7 to 4, it being Uhle's nineteenth victory of the season. Cleveland tried out Hudlin, recently purchased from Waco, Texas, in the first game but he lost his control and had to be replaced. Schang hit a home run with the bases filled.

Burns made the 54th double of the season in the first game, while Speaker drove home the final run in the second. Williams also hit for four bases, it being the seventeenth of the season. Score:

Cleveland	ab	h	o	a	e	Cleveland	ab	h	o	a	e
Rice cf	4	0	1	0	0	Jamieson lf	3	1	1	0	0
Blue 1b	2	1	13	0	0	Spurgeon 2b	4	1	3	3	0
Williams rf	4	2	1	0	1	Speaker cf	3	2	1	0	0
Miller rf	4	1	3	0	0	Burns 1b	2	2	11	0	0
McManus 2b	2	0	2	5	0	J. Sewell ss	3	1	2	3	0
Haagen c	2	1	0	0	0	Summa rf	0	0	2	0	0
Robert's 3b	3	0	1	1	0	L. Sewell c	4	0	4	0	0
Gerber ss	3	0	1	1	0	Lutzke 3b	0	2	1	4	0
Wingard p	2	1	0	1	0	Ehlo p	2	2	0	4	0
Totals	30	6	21	12	1	Totals	30	12	21	18	0

Score by innings:
St. Louis ..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Cleveland ..... 1 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 x—4

Game called in seventh to allow team to catch train.

Two base hits, Wingard; three base hits, Lutzke, Williams.

St. Louis	ab	h	o	a	e	Cleveland	ab	h	o	a	e
Rice cf	5	2	4	0	0	Jamieson lf	4	1	1	0	0
Blair 1b	4	2	10	1	0	Spurgeon 2b	3	2	2	3	0
Williams rf	4	2	2	1	0	Speaker cf	3	0	4	1	0
Miller rf	4	2	3	0	0	Burns 1b	4	2	7	0	0
McManus 2b	4	2	5	6	0	J. Sewell ss	3	0	1	3	0
Haagen c	4	2	6	0	0	Summa rf	0	0	2	1	0
Robert's 3b	4	2	1	2	0	L. Sewell c	4	1	6	0	0
Gerber ss	3	0	1	3	0	Lutzke 3b	2	1	0	2	0
Giard p	0	0	0	0	0	Hudlin p	1	1	0	0	0
Falk p	2	0	0	1	0	Karr p	0	0	0	0	0
Ballou p	2	0	0	1	0	Buckeye p	0	0	0	0	0
						Miller p	0	0	0	1	0
Totals	36	13	37	15	0	McNulty x	1	1	0	0	0
						Myatt xx	1	0	0	0	0
						Knode xxx	1	1	0	0	0
						Eichrodt z	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	35	15	27	16	1

x—Batted for Buckeye in 8th.
xx—Batted for L. Sewell in 9th.
xxx—Batted for Lutzke in 9th.
z—Batted for Miller in 9th.

Score by innings:
St. Louis ..... 0 0 0 3 1 0 0 1 0—5
Cleveland ..... 3 0 1 2 4 0 0 0 1—11

Two base hits, Williams, McManus, Summa, Burns; home runs, Schang, Williams.

YANKEES SPLIT DOUBLE BILL WITH RED SOX

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—(AP)—The New York Yankees divided a double-header with the Boston Red Sox today, coming out in front in the opener by, 4 to 3 and dropping the closing struggle by 5 to 3.

Babe Ruth produced his 39th home run of the season in the third inning of the first game and also scored three of the New York's runs.

Pitcher Zahniser mastered the Hugmen in the second contest, keeping their hits well scattered while Boston knocked Thomas out of the box in the sixth, starting a four-run rally. Score:

Boston	ab	h	o	a	e	New York	ab	h	o	a	e
Tobin rf	4	2	2	0	0	Koenig ss	3	0	2	3	0
Rigney ss	4	0	0	7	0	Pascal cf	4	1	2	0	0
Jacobson cf	4	1	2	0	0	Gehrig 1b	4	0	12	0	0
Todt 1b	4	0	11	1	0	Ruth rf	3	1	2	0	0
Regan 2b	4	1	1	1	0	Meusel lf	4	1	2	0	0
Ruether lf	0	1	0	0	0	Lazzeri 2b	4	0	2	3	0
Ehmke c	3	0	4	1	0	Dugan 3b	4	0	1	3	0
Ferry 3b	3	0	1	1	1	Collins c	3	1	6	0	0
Wingfield p	3	0	1	3	0	Pennock p	2	0	0	3	0
Totals	33	5	24	16	0	Totals	30	4	27	12	0

Score by innings:
Boston ..... 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0—2
New York ..... 0 2 1 0 0 0 1 0 x—4

Two base hits, Tobin, Meusel, Pennock; three base hits, Lazzeri; home runs, Ruth, Regan.

Boston	ab	h	o	a	e	New York	ab	h	o	a	e
Tobin rf	5	0	0	0	0	Koenig ss	3	1	0	3	0
Rigney ss	4	0	0	0	0	Pascal cf	4	1	2	0	0
Jacobson cf	4	2	2	0	0	Gehrig 1b	4	1	9	0	0
Todt 1b	3	1	12	0	0	Ruth rf	3	2	2	0	0
Regan 2b	4	1	2	3	0	Meusel lf	4	0	2	0	0
Ruether lf	4	1	1	0	0	Lazzeri 2b	4	0	2	3	0
Ehmke c	4	0	5	0	0	Dugan 3b	4	1	1	0	0
Ferry 3b	2	1	0	4	0	Ruether p	0	0	0	0	0
Zahniser p	0	1	0	0	0	Thomas p	2	0	0	2	0
Totals	31	5	27	17	0	Shawkey p	1	1	1	1	0
						Adams xx	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	36	6	27	12	0

x—Batted for Severeid in 9th.
xx—Batted for Shawkey in 9th.

Score by innings:
Boston ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 1 0—5
New York ..... 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3

Two base hits, Gehrig 2, Ruth 2, Koenig, Jacobson, Ehmke, Meusel, Pascal.

KAPLAN-GOODRICH BOUT HAS BEEN CANCELLED

MERIDEN, Aug. 15—(AP)—Louis "Kid" Kaplan's scheduled 8-round bout with Jimmy Goodrich at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, Wednesday night, has been cancelled, Manager Denny McMahon announced today.

A splintered bone in Kaplan's left thumb, sustained in the local boxer's bout with Tommy Cello at the Queensboro stadium two weeks ago, will prevent him from going through with the match and may require an operation. McMahon's decision to call off the bout followed an examination of Kaplan's hand by Dr. G. F. Fralick, New York bone specialist, in New York, Saturday.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Brooklyn 4, Boston 1. (1st game)
Brooklyn 11, Boston 3. (2nd game)
Cincinnati 6, Philadelphia 3.
St. Louis 7, Chicago 2.
Only games scheduled.

SATURDAY'S RESULTS

Philadelphia 4, New York 3 (8 innings, rain).
Boston 4, Brooklyn 3, (first game).
Boston 5, Brooklyn 2 (second game).
Chicago 8, St. Louis 2.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh (rain).

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	61	43	.587
St. Louis	62	50	.554
Cincinnati	63	51	.553
Chicago	58	53	.522
New York	57	53	.518
Brooklyn	55	60	.478
Boston	46	68	.417
Philadelphia	42	66	.389

GAMES TODAY.

Chicago at St. Louis.
Boston at Pittsburgh.
Only games scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Detroit 0, Chicago 0. (5 innings—rain).
Washington 5, Philadelphia 3.
New York 4, Boston 2. (1st game)
New York 3, Boston 5. (2nd game)
St. Louis 11, Cleveland 7. (1st game)
St. Louis 4, Cleveland 6. (2nd game)

SATURDAY'S RESULTS

Boston 2, Philadelphia 1. (1st game)
Philadelphia 3, Boston 2. (2nd game)
New York 4, Washington 2 (1st game)
Washington 10, New York 5. (2nd game)
Detroit 5, Chicago 2.
St. Louis at Cleveland, (rain).

THE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	74	44	.627
Cleveland	65	53	.556
Philadelphia	62	54	.534
Detroit	60	56	.517
Washington	59	56	.513
Chicago	57	58	.496
St. Louis	49	65	.430
Boston	37	78	.322

GAMES TODAY

St. Louis at Boston.
Cleveland at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Detroit.
Only games scheduled.

Eastern League

New Haven 4-5, Pittsfield 0-3.
Providence 2-3, Hartford 3-1.
Springfield 6-1, Waterbury 4-2.
Albany 3-0, Bridgeport 2-1.

American Association

Toledo 4, Minneapolis 5.
Indianapolis 3, Milwaukee 4
Columbus 2, St. Paul 3 (first game)
Columbus 3, St. Paul 4 (second game)
Louisville 0, Kansas City 3, (first game).
Louisville 4, Kansas City 3, (second game).

International League

Newark 8, Buffalo 1.
Syracuse 5, Reading 0.
Toronto 8-4, Jersey City 0-1.
Rochester 8-1, Baltimore 4-3.

DODGERS WIN DOUBLE VICTORY OVER BRAVES

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 15—(AP)—Brooklyn evened the count in the four-game series with Boston by annexing both ends of today's twin program by 4 to 1 and 11 to 3, the second encounter being called at the end of the eighth inning to permit the two teams to catch a train for the west.

Vance kept the seven Braves' hits well scattered in the first contest, while Jess Barnes pitched a steady game in the second tussle, his mates gathering 16 hits off two opposing pitchers to help him to the victory.

Umpire Quigley was injured when hit by one of Vance's deliveries in the first inning of the opener and was forced to retire. He recovered sufficiently to officiate in the second game. Score:

Boston	ab	h	o	a	e	Brooklyn	ab	h	o	a	e
Gautreau 2b	3	0	2	2	0	Fewster 2b	4	1	2	4	0
J. Smith cf	4	0	2	1	0	Jacobsen cf	4	1	1	0	0
Walsh rf	4	1	1	0	0	Herman 1b	4	2	10	0	0
Moore ss	4	1	1	0	0	O'Connor rf	4	0	2	0	0
Brown lf	4	0	3	0	0	Felix lf	4	2	2	0	0
Barnes 1b	4	1	10	0	0	Marriott 3b	4	1	0	2	0
E. Taylor 3b	3	1	1	2	0	Butler ss	4	1	1	4	0
Wenzel ss	3	0	2	5	1	O'Neil c	4	1	7	1	0
Goldsmith p	0	0	0	1	0	Barnes p	4	2	0	0	1
Sherdel p	2	0	0	0	0
						Totals	37	10	27	11	2
Totals	32	3	25	13	3

Score by innings:
Boston ..... 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 1 0—3
Brooklyn ..... 2 5 1 0 0 1 0 2 x—11

Called in 8th to allow players to catch train.

Two base hits, J. Smith, Herman, Cox; three base hits, Butler.

Boston	ab	h	o	a	e	Brooklyn	ab	h	o	a	e
Gautreau 2b	3	0	2	3	0	Fewster 2b	3	2	2	3	0
J. Smith cf	4	1	2	0	0	Jacobson rf	2	0	2	0	0
Moore ss	4	1	2	2	1	Herman 1b	4	2	10	0	0
Walsh rf	4	1	2	0	0	Cox cf	4	1	3	0	0
Brown lf	4	0	1	0	0	Felix lf	4	1	0	0	0
Barnes 1b	4	1	8	1	0	Marriott 3b	3	1	1	4	0
E Taylor 3b	3	0	2	4	0	Butler ss	4	1	1	4	0
Wilson c	1	0	0	0	0	Deberry c	4	1	5	0	0
Lienler c	2	1	3	1	0	Vance p	4	1	0	3	0
Werts p	1	0	0	2	0
Mogridge p	0	0	1	0	0	Totals	31	12	27	12	0
Totals	33	7	24	15	1

x—Batted for E. Taylor in 8th inning.

Score by innings:
Boston ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1
Brooklyn ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 x—1

Two base hits, Herman, Deberry.

REDS TAKE LISTLESS GAME FROM PHILLIES

CINCINNATI, Aug. 15—(AP)—The Reds celebrated their return home from a long eastern trip by defeating Philadelphia 4 to 2, in a rather listless game here today. While the visitors made the greater number of hits, four double plays and the sharp fielding of Curt Walker were important factors in keeping down their score. Score:

Philadelphia	ab	h	o	a	e	Cincinnati	ab	h	o	a	e
Sand ss	3	0	4	3	1	Critz 2b	4	2	2	3	0
Williams rf	4	0	1	1	0	Roush cf	4	1	2	0	0
Mokan lf	3	1	1	0	0	Walker rf	3	2	1	0	0
Leach cf	4	1	2	1	0	Bressler lf	4	1	2	0	0
Henline 1b	4	1	14	1	0	Pipp 1b	3	2	9	1	0
Wilson c	3	1	6	2	0	Hargrave c	4	0	1	5	0
Huber 3b	3	0	2	2	1	Dressen 3b	2	1	1	2	0
Ulrich 2b	0	0	0	0	0	Ford ss	3	1	0	3	0
Bentley xx	1	0	0	0	0	Rixey p	2	0	0	1	0
Baecht p	0	0	0	0	0	Donohue p	1	1	0	0	0
Friberg 2b	4	1	4	5	0
Mitchell p	2	2	0	1	0	Totals	30	11	27	9	1
Willaugh'y p	0	0	0	0	0
Wright's 3b	1	1	1	1	0
Totals	32	10	34	18	2

x—Batted for Willaughby in 7th.
xx—Batted for Ulrich in 8th.

Score by innings:
Philadelphia ..... 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0—2
Cincinnati ..... 1 1 0 0 0 2 0 7 x—11

Two base hits, Critz 2, Walker, Friberg.

LANDIS TO GIVE HEARING TO THREE PIRATE PLAYERS

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 15—(AP)—K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, tonight notified Max Carey, Charles (Babe) Adams and Carson Bigbee, former members of the Pittsburgh National baseball club, that he would give them a hearing in New York on their appeal from the Pirate management's action which resulted in the asking of waivers for Carey and the unconditional release of Adams and Bigbee.

Discourtesies to American visitors in Europe appear to be based on the idea that tips and exorbitant profit bring the money in too slowly to be worth considering as a matter of governmental finance.

MARSTON BEATS HANCOCK IN FINALS SHENECOSSETT INVITATION TOURNEY

EASTERN POINT, Conn., Aug. 15—(AP)—Max Marston of Philadelphia, national amateur champion in 1923, today defeated F. M. Hancock of Providence, R. I., three times Rhode Island state champion, 6 and 5, in the 36-hole finals of the seventh men's annual amateur invitation golf tournament for the Shenecossett cup. At the end of the forenoon round Marston was 6 up.

Paul Haviland of Bridgeport, former Yale star and captain, was low man in the second play-off of the triple for medalist. He went the 18 holes today in 76, while Paul O'Connell of Worcester, Mass., and H. John Hiemens, Lancaster, Pa., twice central Pennsylvania champion, each required 84. The three tied at 75 in the qualifying round and yesterday were all even at 81 at the end of the first playoff.

Playing in championship form, Marston took a good lead on the first nine holes of the morning 18 holes and was never caught. Hancock was at his best during the outward trip in the afternoon when he won four holes and halved two.

Marston's well placed approaches and his superiority on the greens gave him hole after hole when his opponent was over with his approaches and required two and, on several occasions, three putts to sink his ball.

Driving honors were about even, the former national champion being better in the forenoon and the Rhode Island man excelling in the afternoon.

Marston went out in the morning in par 36, getting a birdie on the par 5 seventh to offset five he had on par four third. He was down in par on the other seven holes. Coming in he found par on five holes, requiring one extra on each of the other four, and completed the round in 76, four over par. Hancock went out in 39 and came in in 43 for an 82.

Hancock went the first nine holes in the afternoon in one over par, having birdies on the fifth and sixth and getting down in par on four others. Marston went out in three more strokes than his opponent.

Several times when Hancock had the hole within reach, his putter refused to work. At other times he sank long ones seemingly with ease. Running up to the cup on the fourth green in the afternoon he stymied himself and lost the hole when he had a chance to halve it as Marston took two putts. Marston stymied Hancock on the 17th in the morning to win the hole, 4 to 5.

Starting out the first hole was halved. Marston took the second, Hancock squaring the match on the third. Marston again forged ahead by taking the fourth, but H

1760 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month $5.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms 21-2
Bulletin Job Room 35-3
Willimantic Office 854 Main St. Telephone 1121-2.

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to the paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Monday, August 16, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 14, 1926:
12,778

THE COAL SITUATION

The coal situation in the bituminous fields can best be discussed when both sides of the question are presented, but even one side may be interesting. Operators have been talking about coal at the institute of politics in session at Williamstown, Mass. They attacked the organized mine workers with vigor. It was predicted that when the wage situation comes up again next January, the mine workers will decline to entertain a proposal to reduce wages, that a strike will be called and that the entire soft coal field will be placed on a non-union basis. The speakers declared that there are 240,000 more coal miners than are needed, that wages ought to be fixed on a regional basis and that the union is to blame for a gradual lessening of coal production. These speakers asserted also that coal mining and politics are too closely related and that a few leaders dominate the mine organization and that the situation has reached a point where the operators will show their unwillingness to go ahead unless there are drastic changes. It is safe to assume that the leaders of the United Mine Workers would deny most of the assertions made by the operators at Williamstown.

The public has grown exceedingly weary of coal strikes and of the interruption of the fuel business at a time when the coal is needed most. It is possible that some of the operators are talking merely to learn what effect their declarations may have, but any hint of trouble finds the public in no mood to tolerate another controversy.

RESTRICTED IMMIGRATION

In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, immigrant aliens admitted to the United States numbered 1,218,480, while aliens who returned abroad totalled 303,338. The twelve months' period referred to immediately preceded the world war, and is regarded by the department of labor as being a fair example of the working of the old general immigration law. In the last fiscal year, figures for which were made public last week, immigrants admitted under the restricted quota legislation numbered 304,488. The departures were 76,922. If the old law had been kept, there is reason to believe that incoming aliens would have been as numerous as in 1914. Restrictive immigration has proven effective in the manner indicated.

The distribution of the aliens now coming to the United States, when analyzed, reveals that New York becomes the residence of more of them than any other state. That was also true under the old general immigration act. Michigan is next to New York and Texas is third. This is a change from 1914, when Pennsylvania and Illinois held second and third places. The rapid industrial expansion of Michigan, and to some extent of Texas, may be responsible for their increased attractiveness to immigrants, on the lookout for early opportunity for employment. If that is true, it would appear that industry, rather than agriculture, still commands the chief interest of the incoming aliens, although reports at different times reveal that many settle near rather than in large cities, engaging in truck farming to supply the civilization centers.

The new law has not been in effect long enough, or results under it tested sufficiently, to allow many conclusions to be drawn, but it is obvious that the United States is being called on to assimilate quickly fewer persons of different language and blood, which was one of the principal aims of the new regulations applying to immigration.

A VANQUISHED ISSUE

As far as the state of New York is concerned there is not much left of prohibition as an issue dividing the great political parties. Both these parties, if they are truly represented by their leaders, are against the Volstead act. Governor Smith's position has long been clear and the democratic party is with him in that state. Recently, Senator Wadsworth, candidate to succeed himself, probably the most influential republican leader, has declared in favor of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment as soon as it seems practicable, and would deal at once with the Volstead law. In his speech opening his campaign, Senator Wadsworth said: "Two groups are genuinely interested in the law—good persons who honestly believe that total abstinence should be forced on the people, and the bootleggers who grow rich and pay no taxes. We have not gained anything by substituting the bootlegger and the speakeasy for the saloon."

What the republican candidate for senator says is also the democratic position in New York and so there is no political issue between the parties involving prohibition and the Volstead law. The situation thus presented is certainly interesting. The only inference possible is that the people of New York state are overwhelmingly against national prohibition, for it can hardly be that the political leaders, shrewd as they are, or that the political parties, keen as they are for votes, would have taken the course they have adopted, unless they had the best of reasons for thinking that they would have the people with them.

There is no special reason for surprise over this development, since New York has, from the beginning of the agitation, been anti-Volstead. Nevertheless it is something remarkable that even in New York there should be such apparent unanimity. Hitherto political parties have agreed in endorsing national prohibition or agreed in ignoring it, occasionally one party has favored and the other party opposed it. This is, as far as we recall, the first case of bi-partisan opposition.

Of course, prohibition will continue to be an issue in New York, as elsewhere, but it will be an issue between those who favor it and those who oppose it, quite without reference to party lines. The people will have a chance to express themselves at the referendum election this fall, of which the outcome will be eagerly watched by both sides, all over the country. In the New York election republicans and democrats will vote dry, and republicans and democrats will vote wet. But democrats and republicans, as such, are in pretty close accord on the question, if their political leaders are truly representative. As a party political issue, for the time at least, prohibition has disappeared in New York state.

REAL LEADERSHIP

Continuing its courageous efforts, the Poincare ministry in France has obtained from the national assembly legislation designed to remove from the field of politics certain parts of the problem of stabilizing the currency of the country and restoring confidence in the credit of the country. Poincare has displayed real leadership of the kind that his country needed in inducing the national assembly to vote the measures that he advocated.

The national assembly, which is the two houses of parliament sitting in joint session, merely ratified acts previously passed by parliament. But by thus incorporating into the constitution of France a definite provision for a sinking fund earmarked specifically for the redemption of the floating debt, as well as for definite sources of revenue to feed that fund, the government and its supporters have made it difficult, if not impossible, for future cabinets or future parliamentary majorities to whittle down or destroy the Poincare financial programme.

The American and British debt-funding agreements were not presented to parliament for ratification before it was dismissed for a recess of two months. Ratification of those agreements, though recommended by nonpolitical exports, was blocked by demagogical and factional opposition to the terms of the pending settlements.

Now the Poincare ministry, having gone far in the right direction, should undertake a campaign of education with regard to the necessity and the expediency of paying foreign debts under arrangements sincerely based on the principle of capacity to pay without imperiling the national standard of living or increasing taxation beyond reasonable limits.

TAKE-A-CHANCE DRIVERS

Take-a-chance drivers are to be considered the worst enemies of safety. They are on every road and in every crowded city thoroughfare. They are always in a hurry. Every second counts with them.

When country highway or city street traffic is crowded, take-a-chance dodges in and out and races the field for the next red light. When everybody else is stopping in obedience to signals, he finds opportunity to crowd ahead of two or three and hog a little space. Half the time he is on the wrong side of the road. If there is a white line down the center to serve as a traffic regulator, it is a mere invitation for him to take a chance. He races along where he has no right of way and makes those who have slow down or be wrecked.

As a matter of fact, the take-a-chance driver on streets controlled by automatic signals gains little time. He races past you endangering and life and property, but you generally find him waiting at the next intersection where the signal is against him. The honest driver who has valid reasons for being in a hurry will, if he has good sense, leave the main thoroughfares and proceed on those less frequented where he can drive as fast as speed restrictions permit. But take-a-chance is not reasonably in a hurry. He is merely adventurous. He likes the thrill of horning in, bullying the timid out of his way and missing at high speed by the thickness of the varnish.

The take-a-chance driver is a fit subject for weeding out and gathering in by police officers assigned to traffic duty. He is a menace to the peace and safety of the motoring community.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Half of August left for vacationists.

What is doubtless puzzling M. Briand is how M. Poincare gets away with it.

What will France do for excitement, now that the chamber of deputies has gone on vacation?

Gang gunfights in New York and Chicago add new dangers to the role of the innocent bystander.

Ma Ferguson says she is in the race with all her heart and everybody knows she has a big heart.

The man on the corner says: The driver who hits and runs away may live to be arrested another day.

The more the English channel turns back its challengers the greater does the little stunt of Gertrude Ederle appear.

Friday the 13th passed without anything noticeable transpiring to bolster up those who believe in the unlucky omen.

Any tennis exhibition by Suzanne Lenglen in this country will be sure of like patronage if it can be guaranteed that she will exhibit her characteristic tantrums. Americans dearly love "temperament."

WOMAN IN LIFE AND IN THE KITCHEN

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

When boiling a cabbage or a cauliflower, tie up a crust of bread in a muslin bag and place it in the saucepan. This will prevent the smell from pervading the house.

If paper is used on your pantry shelves put on three thicknesses at once. It is as easy to cut three layers as one. They can be removed then, one at a time, as they become soiled, a few dishes being removed and replaced as the paper is rolled away.

Do not cover green vegetables when they are cooking and they will retain their color.

When the sink is greasy try the following: Dip a piece of flannel in kerosene oil and rub all over the surface of the sink with it. Then wash well with warm water and soap and leave the cold water faucet running for a few minutes.

Pastry requires a sharp, steady oven, where it can be baked quickly. Careful watching is necessary. A wise cook will test her oven with a piece of paper or thin slice of bread before placing the pastry in it.

"Wear red" is the latest edict from Paris and red in all its tones, from a light rather pinkish tone to the deep strawberry and wine reds is conspicuously exploited in the newest models to come from the salons of famous designers.

Some most lovely things are shown in chemises and step-ins. The tendency is to a fineness in the manner of trimming, much lace, Irish, Cluny or Valenciennes in both the real and imitation being used. Embroidery is introduced with discretion, a delicate touch here and there, usually as a motif in the front, and an edge of lace, footing or georgette is seen on many of the daintiest garments. Drawn work and the combination of open work done so well by the Italian needlewoman are shown on some of the new chemises.

Nearly all of the so-called simple dresses now have some such interesting details as an open front showing a waistcoat beneath, or skirts scalloped at the hem. The backs usually show scarfs or wing pieces knotted at the back, while still others are trimmed elaborately with buttons in steel, gold or silver.

Pajamas made of cotton crepe are cut on the lines of a Chinese coolie's suit and have appliques of a contrasting colored linen embroidered in Chinese designs. They are very inexpensive and just the thing for camp wear.

COLOR IN HOSIERY

Color in hose is too fascinating a subject to sacrifice for mere white. The well-dressed woman today no longer wears downright white hose with her white shoes. She wears the iris-mauve, or parchment with white. Sometimes she wears champagne, atmosphere or nude.

Occasionally she wears hosiery hinting the color of her frock. With certain greens, there is a green hose the French call "chartreuse" which is really a white with a greenish cast. The faintly blue stocking is also discreetly worn.

White, strapped footwear is the thing. However, gaily patterned slippers are not negligible. Colored kid or straw are used, with hand-painting, lattice-work insets, or a piece-work effect in vari-colored leathers, with the quarters and straps white.

MIDSUMMER COLOR

A brilliant clear shade of yellow is much in evidence in midsummer modes. It is especially effective in chiffon dinner frocks which have skirts composed of many gathered ruffles.

BERRY STRAINS

Berry and other fruit strains are prevalent at this time, but the mother who gets out her embroidery hops, encircles the strains, places the hoops over an open bowl and pours boiling water through the strains until they disappear, doesn't need to worry about her linen.

IMPROVING FISH

A few drops of lemon juice added to the water in which fish is boiled will help make it firm and white.

BUBBLE APRON APPEARS

Children's bubble aprons with fancy designs and story-book folk painted on them in vivid colors have made their appearance in rubberized styles, the pockets fitted with a cake of soap and a small doll. The bubble pipe has a wooden bowl and metal stem with a rounded wooden end to prevent sharp metal from coming in contact with the child's lips.

WELL ARRANGED WORK

The wise housekeeper will try to finish her cleaning and more active work in the morning, giving her a chance to get off of her feet during the afternoon. Mending and sewing should be saved until then. This little rest makes the dinner getting easier.

BETTER RESULTS

The secret of rice and macaroni is to give them plenty of water to cook in, so they need not be stirred. Allow two teaspoons of salt to each quart of water.

CONCERNING WOMEN

As a compliment to Lady St. Helier who has served in the London County council as an Alderman for more than 13 years, it is proposed to name a new municipal housing project in her honor.

To gather rare flowers for Kew Gardens museum two English women have started from Edmonton, Alberta, on a trek of several thousands of miles, part of it in the Arctic Circle, in Canada and Alaska.

Of the many novels published by Jane Austen not one bit of manuscript is extant. Of those published after her death only two short chapters in manuscript are to be found, being now at the British museum.

The Rev. Joyce Daplyn, who has come into prominence as the first woman to become assistant pastor of a London church, dislikes frumpish dress and has designed her own dress and cassock, which is described as being very "chic."

CRYSTAL JEWELRY

Nothing is smarter to wear with printed or light-colored chiffon frocks than crystal jewelry.

CHIC BAGS AND KERCHIEFS

Bags are an integral part of the summer costume. They are smartest in the combination of hues which appear in the ensemble. But when they accompany the sport mode they are likely as not to be of raffia, or of straw painted in the hues which color the whole outfit.

The handkerchief, too, has assumed an importance in exactly reverse proportion to its steadily diminishing size. It strikes that one note of color which puts the perfecting touch to the smart toilet. Sometimes it has the two tones of the frock and hat; when it is a scrap of chiffon, one shade, with a cut-out initial of another tone in the corner.

THE GAY ACCESSORY

Flowers accentuate some note in the costume. Thus a gardenia, surprisingly green, cheerily adorns the lapel of a white flannel coat which protects a white and green frock.

LAUNDRY HINTS

When washing blouses, handkerchiefs, etc., put a small lump of orris root into the rinsing water, and it will give them a delightful perfume of violets. This is much more lasting than if a sachet is placed among the clothes.

Muslin dresses should not be allowed to soak before being washed, but should be rubbed quickly through a soap lather. Do not allow muslins to become thoroughly dry and then dampen them as in the case of other and thicker materials. Roll them in a cloth until partly dry and then iron.

To clean a white satin blouse, mix well half an ounce of powdered magnesia with a pinch of blue, add a few bread crumbs rubbed through a fine sieve. Lay the blouse on a clean sheet and sprinkle the mixture well and all over it and then rub gently with a piece of soft white rag the grain of the satin. When all dirt is removed dust off and iron on the wrong side with a cool iron.

A few drops of turpentine added to the rinsing water when washing white silk hose, underwear, skirts, etc., prevents them from turning yellow.

GOOD POINT TO KNOW

It is impossible to do successful dyeing over a layer of dirt or grease. Always wash the material to be dyed with white soap and warm water.

DAY-BED COVERS

For the summer house the most attractive covers for the day bed are made of hand-blocked linen with large designs in striking color effects.

HOT BISCUIT AND KEEP COOL

Where the housewife is cook also she is often not in the mood on a hot afternoon to prepare biscuits for the evening meal, no matter how much the family may appreciate her hot breads. But she can have hot biscuits and keep cool herself if she will prepare the biscuit dough in the early morning, cut it in shape and put it in the refrigerator until needed. And the baking process will be accelerated if a light-weight baking pan, tin or aluminum, is used.

TENDER SOONER

When cutting apples for apple pie, cut them into irregular pieces instead of slices. Then they will not pack tightly and the apples will be done sooner.

MAKES GOOD RELISH

Mustard and horseradish mixed makes an excellent relish for cold meats. Mix the mustard and add to it an equal quantity of grated horseradish which has been boiled ten minutes. Thin the mixture with a little of the water in which the horseradish was boiled.

RECIPES

Fancy Cold Slaw.—Save the vinegar from your pickled beets for coloring cold slaw. A mound of washed potatoes surrounded by this pink slaw, edged by the white and bordered by a wreath of curly parsley, makes a wonderfully attractive and appetizing dish.

Preserved Cherries.—To every pound of fruit allow one pound of sugar. Stone the cherries, cover with sugar, and let stand in a cool place over night. In the morning put over the fire and cook slowly without stirring until the fruit is soft and the sirup clear. Skim carefully and put in jars.

Apple Jelly—Select firm, well flavored, tart apples, cut in quarters, and remove blemishes. To every dozen good sized apples take a pint of cold water and a slice of lemon. Put together in the preserve kettle and boil for twenty minutes. Count the time from when it begins to cook. Take from the fire, put through a press and measure the juice. To every pint of juice take one pound of sugar, cook for twenty minutes, test, and if it jellies put in glasses. Different kinds of apples take varying lengths of time for cooking.

YOUR HEALTH

Preventive Medicine

By John Nevin, M. D., Jersey city, N. J. Member Gorgas Memorial Institute.

This is the age of preventive medicine. In the past, most of the efforts of the medical profession were in the direction of cure; while many activities now are engaged with the prevention of disease.

Many diseases are insidious in character. Diabetes, kidney diseases, tubercular and cancerous conditions, heart diseases, and paralysis do not always present premonitory symptoms that are recognized or appreciated by the layman.

A periodic examination will develop a surprisingly large number of cases who are not physically fit, many of whom are amenable to treatment with a good prospect of being restored to at least a fair condition of health. Don't wait for the crash. Avoid it!

Persistent headaches, lassitude, lack of energy, shortness of breath, internal disturbances, insomnia, nervousness, may have some basic elements that may be considered as danger signals. It is important from the personal, family and community standpoint that the cause be discovered as soon as possible. Each life has an economic value.

Much can be done for mental and nervous conditions if recognized early. Patients who in the past would become institutional cases are now restored to normal health and become useful citizens.

Obesity is a menace to health; it is a contributory cause of diabetes, kidney and heart diseases. Do not attempt any reducing measures based on advertisements. Many of these are fraudulent; some actually dangerous. Seek competent advice along the lines of diet and medication.

Underweight usually means a lessened resistence to disease and an effort should be made, under medical direction, to rebuild and restore to a normal standard. Many proprietary food preparations are recommended for this purpose, but ordinary foods under proper regulations are sufficient and much less expensive. It is most important that the cause of underweight be ascertained.

The Gorgas memorial recommends that whether any symptoms that are disturbing exist or not, have an inventory made of your physical condition, at regular intervals. That is, generally speaking, the most certian way of insuring a long, healthy life.

Today's Anniversaries

1826—The Willey family and a servant, nine in number perished in an avalanche in Crawford Notch, N. H.

1831—Daniel Manning, secretary of the treasury in the Cleveland cabinet, born at Albany, N. Y. Died there, Dec. 24, 1887.

1853—John D. Spreckels, noted capitalist and philanthropist, born at Charleston, S. C. Died at Coronado, Calif., June 7, 1926.

1878—Emil Hodel was executed in Berlin for an attempt on the life of the German emperor.

1885—Julius Converse, former governor of Vermont, died at Dixville Notch, N. H. Born at Stafford, Conn., Dec. 17, 1798.

1889—The new State of North Dakota decided upon Bismarck as the capital.

1893—A train on the Atlantic & Danville line broke through a trestle near Milton, N. C., killed seven persons.

1924—The Dawes plan became an accomplished fact through the signing of the agreement of London.

1925—Three persons perished in a hotel fire at Long Branch, N. J.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Fred K. Nielsen, who has been appointed American member of the General Claims commission of the United States and Mexico, has had much experience in the federal service that is calculated to fit him for the duties of his new post. He is a native of Denmark and accompanied his parents to America as a boy. His early education was received in the public schools of Omaha and later he was graduated from the University of Nebraska, he became assistant solicitor of the department of state, and since that time has represented the United States all over the world. He attended the conference on the limitation of armament in 1921, and was later appointed agent of the United States in the American and British claims arbitration.

Today's Birthdays

His Eminence Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia, born at Girardville, Pa., 61 years ago today.

Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, born at Lowell, Mass., 75 years ago today.

George Wingfield, a one-time appointee to the United States senate from Nevada, born at Fort Smith, Ark., 50 years ago today.

Joe Cantillon, for nearly 50 years a prominent figure in baseball, born at Janesville, Wis., 65 years ago today.

Alonzo A. Stagg, the veteran director of athletics at the university of Chicago, born at West Orange, N. J., 64 years ago today.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Ottawa, capital city of the Dominion, today begins a two weeks' celebration in honor of its centennial.

The State of Vermont keeps a holiday today in honor of the anniversary of the Revolutionary battle of Bennington.

Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad and at one time executive head of the Northern Pacific, is 75 years old today.

Beginning today and continuing through the greater part of the week the national encampment of United Spanish War Veterans will be entertained in Des Moines.

One thousand plant scientists, including 100 from foreign lands, will gather at Cornell university today for the opening of the first International congress of plant science.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breed Theatre

The majority of authors, when writing a story of New York life, invariably placed their settings in the mansions of the millionaires, neglecting entirely "the other half" of the city's big population.

That genuine drama can be spun without a luxurious background is proved by "The Beautiful City," a First National picture starring Richard Barthelmess, which is being shown this week at the Breed theatre.

The story, written by Edmund Goulding, is laid in the famous "East Side"—that thick forest of tenements where grass and flowers are unknown in their natural state and where limousines never traverse the streets.

The loves and hates of these victims of the social order constitute one of the strongest dramas ever penned, the hero being Tony Gillardi, a flower seller, who is animated by one great ambition—to have a store of his own so that he can marry his Irish sweetheart, Mollie. But he is innocently drawn into a gang feud, and then follow a series of tensely spectacular adventures.

Dorothy Gish and William Powell are in the cast of this picture, which was directed by Kenneth Webb and presented by Inspiration Pictures.

The second chapter of a series of pictures showing the progress of the Telephone in the past fifty years, a Clyde Cook comedy and the Pathe News are included in this program for today and Tuesday.

Excursion to New York, Sunday

Another opportunity to visit New York will be afforded residents of this city and vicinity next Sunday, August 22d, when the New Haven Road will again operate an excursion to that city.

Excursionists will find many varied ways on enjoying the day visiting Coney Island, Riverside Drive, Bronx park, the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, or, not least among the attractions, watching a big league baseball game. This week the New York Yankees will play the St. Louis Browns at the Yankee Stadium.

Special coach train will leave Norwich 6:30 a. m., New London 7:00 a. m., due New York 10:10 a. m. Returning excursion train will leave Grand Central terminal at 6:00 p. m., Eastern standard time.

Broadway Theatre

The dream of returning to the old home town in a big limousine, with plenty of money, has probably buzzed in the brain of every young man in the world at some time or other.

And upon this very common and youthful ambition is built, "Rolling Home," the Universal production starring Reginald Denny, which opened last night at the Broadway theatre, is built.

Only Reginald, believed by the admiring home towners to be a millionaire, plays the role of a penniless young man who has found that the world isn't as willing to give up its fortunes as he had been led to believe.

He has promised to return home on his birthday, however, and can't bear to tell his mother and the villagers that he is a failure, so, with the help of a friend, he carries it through by bluffing.

Denny, with all his recent farce successes, has never been funnier than in "Rolling Home." It is a story ideally suited to his talents as a farceur, and he makes the most of every opportunity. He should add hundreds of admirers to his large army of fans with his work in this picture.

Dainty little Marion Dixon plays the feminine lead opposite the star, and provides an excellent reason for Denny's wanting to go back to the old town.

More hearty laughter is in the mermaid comedy "Light Housekeeping with Lige Conley", while a new Kinograms with the world's events completes the program.

A Useful Tongue

Some folks can always find excuse
To put their nimble tongues to use.
—Old Mother Nature.

A tongue is an exceedingly handy thing to have. Probably you have discovered that. You use it in talking and you use it in eating, and which is the more important of the two uses it is sometimes a bit difficult to tell. There are tongues and tongues. There are tongues we want to run away from, and tongues we like to have near us.

You will remember that Old Mr. Toad has a very handy tongue, a kind-side-before tongue, as it were. Jimmy Skunk had seen him use this many times, and always, it had seemed to Jimmy one of the most wonderful tongues in all the great world. But he found that down on the seashore there were tongues quite as wonderful as the tongue of Old Mr. Toad. To be sure, you wouldn't have known them to be tongues had you seen them and no one told you what they were. But when he saw the work they did, he had to admit they were wonderful tongues.

Ever since Jimmy had first come to the seashore, he had been greatly interested in the shells. Before coming to the seashore the only shells he had seen were the shells of land snails and of fresh water mussels, sometimes called clams. But at the seashore he found big shells, little shells, middle-sized shells, smooth shells, rough shells, twisted shells, scalloped shells, round shells, long shells, all sorts of shells. All the shells that were at all twisted like a snail shell, he called snail shells. It was one of these little shells that he discovered belonged to the Oyster Drill. It was hard work for Jimmy to realize that the queer little fellow that lives in that little shell could possibly drill a hole through an oyster shell. But Graywing the Gull had shown him one at work on an oyster, and he had with his own eyes seen the hole.

"What did he do it with?" cried Jimmy.

"His tongue," replied Graywing.

"I don't believe it," retorted Jimmy.

"That doesn't make the least bit of difference in the world," replied Graywing. "He did it with his tongue just as that big fellow over there bores through shells with his tongue."

The big fellow that Graywing meant was what Jimmy would have called a giant snail. It wasn't a giant snail, but what is called a Giant Whelk, having a coiled or twisted shell, and being the largest of the shellfish of this kind.

"I don't believe it," retorted Jimmy

"Do you mean to tell me that that great big snail over there," said Jimmy, "can bore through an oyster shell?"

Graywing nodded. "That's just what I mean to say," said he. "He has a ribbon-like tongue, the surface of which is covered with a great number of very tiny teeth, and he bores through oyster shells and clam shells. If you live around here long enough, you'll find that a lot of these innocent-looking things on the beach are living on other things, just as is the case in the green meadows and the green forest. Oysters and clams may look to be safe when they have their shells closed, but they are not."

The Whelk Jimmy and Graywing were looking at is what is called the Channeled Whelk. If Jimmy had looked a little further he might have found the shell of the Knobbed Whelk, so called because of little knobs on the shell. Almost under his nose were some egg cocoons of the Channeled Whelk, but Jimmy didn't know it. They looked like a row of yellowwish discs fastened upon a cord. Each little disc contained about two dozen eggs.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "The Collar Made of Sand."

BREED THEATRE
TODAY — TUESDAY
At 2:15, 7 and 8:45
RICHARD BARTHELMESS
—With—
DOROTHY GISH
—in—
"THE BEAUTIFUL CITY"
Second Chapter of the History of the Telephone
CLYDE COOK COMEDY | NEWS
Coming—Two Days Only
JACKIE COOGAN
—in—
"OLD CLOTHES"

BROADWAY
Today — Tues. — Wed.
Mat. 2:15—Evng., 7 and 9
CHILDREN 15c
Laugh, Smile, Grin With
Reginald Denny
Rolling Home
A UNIVERSAL JEWEL PICTURE
Mermaid Comedy | News

Excursion to New York
Sunday, Aug. 22
Round Trip Fares
Putnam, Danielson 4.00
Jewett City, Plainfield 3.50
Norwich New London 3.00
VISIT Coney Island, Metropolitan Art Museum, the Aquarium, Grant's Tomb, Riverside Drive, Bronx Park or Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor
ENJOY a Big League ball game
Or take a boat trip to Bedloe's Island (Statue of Liberty.)
Time Shown—Eastern Standard Time
Lv. Putnam . . 5.15 a.m.
Lv. Danielson . . 5.33 a.m.
Lv. Plainfield . . 5.53 a.m.
Lv. Jewett City . . 6.05 a.m.
Lv. Norwich . . 6.30 a.m.
Lv. New London . 7.00a.m.
Due New York (G.C.T.) 10.10 a.m.
Returning
Lv. New York (G.C.T.) 6.00 p.m.
Tickets Limited—Buy Early—Avoid Disappointment

A&P
Where Economy Rules
Keep Your Kitchen Cool
You will find that the A&P has a selection of tempting foods for cooling meals. Foods that are easily prepared—at pleasingly low prices.
NAMCO—Fancy Japanese floating pack—a very low price!
Crab Meat CAN 33c
We've sold this tea for 66 years—try it at this low price!
Our Own Tea ½ LB 19c
Healthful cleanliness—the cleanser of a thousand uses!
Old Dutch CLEANSER 4 CANS 25c
A very special price on this old standard milk!
Van Camp's EVAP. MILK 3 TALL CANS 25c
Untouched by human hands until you unwrap it!
Palmolive SOAP 3 CAKES 20c
The famous A & P extracts—full strength and guaranteed!
Extracts ALL FLAVORS 2 OZ BOTTLE 25c
For the face and hands—as fine as soap can be!
Guest Ivory AT A VERY LOW PRICE DOZEN CAKES 47c
Just the juice from selected New York grapes!
Grape Juice QUART 45c PINT 23c
Grandmother's Bread
Hundreds of thousands of these loaves are sold in New England every week—because it is better bread
LARGE LOAF 9c
Doughnuts 1 DOZ 12c
Raisin Bread THURSDAYS 12c
The A & P News, published weekly, contains many recipes and helpful household hints. Ask the store manager for your copy
THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

FLY-TOX

Developed at World's Foremost Scientific Industrial Research Institute. Will not stain. Pleasant odor. Harmless to humans and animals.

AT YOUR RETAILER'S

TIRED, ACHING FEET INSTANTLY RELIEVED BY

Sykes Comfort POWDER

HEALS THE SKIN

FOR 20 YEARS NOTHING AS GOOD

HAS NEW PLAN TO PROTECT DAIRY INTERESTS

Plans for the introduction of additional safeguards against the infection of [illegible] cattle while being transported [illegible] into this state are in the process of formulation, State Commissioner [illegible] has returned from a conference held on August 10 and 11 at the Buffalo stock yards at which representatives from New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut, and officials from the bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture were present.

The purpose of the conference was to map out plans for the segregation of crated cattle as they are passing through the stock yards, so that the commingling with other animals, as now happens will be avoided. It was pointed out that if this were possible many expenses and time would be saved to dairymen seeking to restock their herds with healthy cattle.

Commissioner Whitteney said that New York which is the first attempt of [illegible] would probably affect Connecticut more than any other state because of the fact that this state is not now engaging in dairy cattle and is forced to import more than 5 000 cattle every year. Most of the cattle come from Vermont, Michigan and New York. In order to avoid possibility of infection, the individual dairymen have to go to individual sellers of cattle for their stock. The plan now being proposed, the commissioner explained, is to have a section of the stock yards set off as a quarantine pen in which only tested cattle will be met with the approval of the state representatives at the stock yards in Buffalo, N. Y., and [illegible] its institution at that point will be followed by [illegible] other states.

SOUTH GRISWOLD

[illegible] Greene visited Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Greene in North Stonington [illegible]

[illegible] Culver and Mrs. E. O. Culver attended the funeral of Mrs [illegible] Mrs. Mary E. Barbour in Pawcatuck Thursday.

[illegible] Richardson spent the week-end in New York with relatives.

[illegible] service at Bethel M. E. church August 8th.

[illegible] Chapman and daughter [illegible] Stonington, were recent guests at A. G. Greene's.

[illegible] Culver, Mrs. Peter Grant and children, Miss Lucy Grant and Mrs. A. Culver, motored to Watch Hill on Saturday the 7th, and were guests of Charles Pendleton and family.

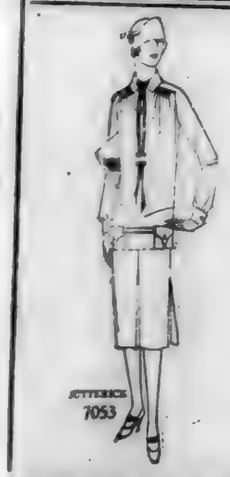
[illegible] neighbors of Mrs. Herbert [illegible] were entertained Tuesday evening, to welcome her after a two month's [illegible]

[illegible] invited to a luncheon to be given today (Monday) at the Bay Harbor [illegible] Island, by Mrs. William [illegible] of Englewood, N. J. is [illegible] Carew Buckingham, of [illegible]

The Boston Store

The REID & HUGHES CO.

Norwich, Conn.



WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

1786 1926

Norwich, Monday, August 16, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

It is daybreak now at 2:58.

Light vehicle lamps at 7:17 (S. T.) this evening.

Dr. Coyles' office will be closed till August 23rd.—adv.

Renovations and painting are going on at the Jerome homestead, below Uncasville.

The mercury rose to 89 degrees Sunday afternoon, but clear air tempered the heat.

Numerous outing parties left Norwich early Sunday morning for farms and beach resorts.

Plainfield group of Camp Fite girls was at Lord's point the past week with Miss Ella Gardner as chaperone.

Work is progressing on the addition being built to the Sunday school room of Broadway (United Congregational) church.

Shipments of peaches from the south are breaking all records and fine fruit is selling at very reasonable prices in the local stores.

Reed Filkin has returned to his home in Buffalo, having spent a month at the home of his father Charles Filkin, in Central Village.

It is reported that several tobacco growers in the state have sold their crop in the field, the reported price being from 28 to 30 cents in the bundle.

A New York society paper mentioned Saturday that Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. T. Riggs of Old Lyme will return to the Plaza today (Monday)

Golden rod and wild carrot are dividing possession of some of the fields, generally to the disgust of the farmers, who see little poetry in either.

It is a reminder that the summer is passing, to see the signs out for the annual wigwam of the Mohegan Indians, at their reservation, below Norwich.

Attorney E. A. Aborn of Chicago, Ill., is spending the month at the Aborn farm Crystal lake, also visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Skinner of Rockville.

At East Northfield, Mass., the Northfield general conference for Christian workers, which has been in session for two weeks, closed its 44th assembly Sunday.

Harold White is preparing to build a cottage on the land at Saybrook which he recently purchased on the Boston Post road, near the Oyster River bridge.

A handsome residence for Dr. and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Neill is being built below Laurel Hill, near the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Lester.

At Westford, George Buck has sold the timber on the Thomas Anderson place to Joseph Emmons of Manchester who is to put a mill on and cut it off at once.

"Sacrifice," by George Agnew Chamberlain, will be produced soon in New York, with Ramsey Wallace in the cast. Mr. Wallace married Miss Dondero, of Willimantic.

Saturday was accounted one of the most uncomfortable days of the season. It was claimed that at one point in a New London street the thermometer reading showed 105 degrees.

Following is the July report of Phoebe Griffin Noyes library at Old Lyme, as rendered by Mrs. Alice Hooks, acting librarian: Books circulated, 1,700; reading room attendance, 582.

Arthur Barnard, for many years a summer resident on the Weekapaug Dunes, is making a trip through the Trent Water Ways on his steam yacht, the Corduna, accompanied by two friends.

Organists in Norwich have been notified that the 19th annual convention of the National Association of Organists is to be held in Philadelphia from Tuesday, the 31st, to Friday, September 3.

The flowers at the Central Baptist church Sunday were given by Miss Alif Stephens, of Pinehurst. The beautiful gladioli on the previous Sunday were the gift of Mrs. J. T. Cherry, of Division street.

About 307 left Norwich in ten cars, Sunday morning on the special excursion announced by the N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad. The well pleased excursionists returned by special train about 10:40 Sunday night.

A carrier pigeon, number 1F26WK-533 stopped at the home of Mrs. Charles Peck at Hamburg the other morning. After eating a hearty breakfast, it spent the day resting, starting on its journey again toward night.

In the obituary of Frank Fanning Jewett in Saturday's Bulletin, Mrs. Jewett was confused with his father, Dr. Charles Jewett, the temperance advocate. The younger Jewett never took a pronounced stand in favor of prohibition.

"In an unselfish attempt to preserve the junior Prom, the Sheff fraternity houses should abolish all Monday parties." So the Yale News suggests, adding that unless something like this is done, "the Prom holiday may be abolished by the university authorities."

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund A. Prentice of Cliff street, have returned from a visit with friends in Mystic.

Judge and Mrs. John H. Barnes, of Broadway are at the Spring House, Block Island, for the remainder of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Story are home after a motor trip of a week to the Rhody Island beaches and over the Mohawk Trail.

Mrs. Frederick LaFontaine and son, Henry J. LaFontaine have been spending the week at The Breakers, Narragansett Pier.

Mrs. Bruce G. Clark and little daughter Esther, of Miami, Fla., are passing the season with the former's father, Mrs. Frank C. Turner of Broad street.

Mrs. Grace Hall Guglielmetti and daughter Anna, were passengers on steamer Republic on her last trip from New York to Europe, their destination Italy.

The Cunader Lancastria, on which Mr. and Mrs. Harrison C. Noyes have been touring to Mediterranean ports, France and the British Isles sailed from Southampton late Thursday night and is due in New York Saturday.

PRESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hall had as their guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall, Kenneth Hall and Miss Dorothy Hood, of Middletown. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hall and Sidney Hall of Ledyard.

The sewing class met with Mrs. Frank Crary Thursday.

Miss Evelyn Butler is in Maine, attending the grange lecturers' conference.

PERSONALS

Henry Cook of West Town street is visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. G. W. Mansfield of Poquonock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schontzler of Attleboro, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hill of Church street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Morrison of New Haven is the guest of her sister, Miss Agnes Brennan of Main street, Norwich.

Miss Elizabeth Sullivan and Miss Nellie Sullivan of Prospect street, are spending their vacation at Atlantic Beach and Watch Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Barry of Arnold street have returned from a ten days' visit to Cape Cod and the beaches about Providence.

Mrs. Mary Thompson of Providence and Earle Thompson of Athol were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hill at The Osgood.

Miss Marie Desmond, Miss Catherine Finnegan, Miss Mary Weiller, all of Norwich, and Miss Helen Rogers are at the Nedgus cottage, Block Island, for several days.

OBITUARY

Albert G. Greene

Following a short illness, the death of Albert G. Greene of Griswold occurred Saturday morning at his home in that town. Mr. Greene was born in Plainfield, April 27, 1858, the son of Jeremiah and Sarah Gallup Greene. He was educated in the schools in Plainfield.

Mr. Greene was twice married, his second wife being Dora Barber of Preston City, who survives him with a daughter, Mrs. Philip DesJardins of Jewett City and a son, Wilfred Greene of North Stonington.

Mr. Greene was engaged in farming during his life and was a member of the Sterling Hill Baptist church.

Mrs. Simeon Abell

The death of Fanny Banning, 82, widow of Simeon Abell, occurred at the Johnson home, Norwich Town, Saturday morning. Death followed a critical illness of about a week, although she had not been in the best of health for some time.

Mrs. Abell, who only survived a very serious illness of long duration the early part of this year, suffered a shock about a week ago.

Born in North Lyme, Conn., August 14th, 1844, she was the daughter of Edwin H. and Emily Wells Banning. Mrs. Abell died on her 82nd birthday.

During her young life she taught in the public schools for five years. She was united in marriage with Simeon Abell of Bozrah, October 9th, 1867. Mr. Abell died April 14th, 1897.

She was the mother of two children, Lucy L. Abell, who died January 19th, 1893, and Charles J. Abell, who died September 5th, 1911.

All her life Mrs. Abell was a member of the Bozrah Congregational church, never having relinquished her interests there.

Since coming to the Johnson home, October 26th, 1910, where she was a loved member of the household, her interests in the First Congregational church of Norwich Town, where she was a faithful attendant at services when health permitted, were just as strong. Her tithe money was divided equally between these two churches.

An interested attendant at the meeting of the Home chapter of the King's Daughters, when held at the home, Mrs. Abell will be missed among this group of women.

She is the last of her family. A sister, Mrs. Erastus Gardner, the first matron of Johnson home, at its opening in 1906, having served for a few years, resigned and lived elsewhere for about four years, later becoming a member of the home family, where she lived for about 12 years prior to her death. The two sisters were most companionable at the home and after the death of Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Abell was practically alone as to relatives. Her days have been brightened however, by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hall of Preston City for whom there was a strong devotion through former family ties, and who have shown loyal attachment in return. Mrs. Abell was conscientious, kindhearted, a true Christian woman. She is survived only by cousins. During her illness she was tenderly cared for at Johnson home, under the supervision of the matron, Mrs. May Rollins.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Patrick Sullivan

Funeral services for Mrs. Patrick Sullivan were held Saturday morning at 8:45 o'clock from the home of her son, John J. Sullivan, No. 15 Deane street, Groton. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church, Norwich, at 10 o'clock, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Miss Helen K. Dougherty was at the organ during the service. At the offertory Roderick Sullivan sang De Profundis and for a waiting hymn he rendered Lead Kindly Light. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service many attending from Norwich, New London, New Haven and Springfield. The floral pieces were most beautiful.

Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May. The bearers were Timothy Twomey, Walter J. Twomey, Timothy J. Driscoll, Matthew J. Delaney, Dennis G. Driscoll and Daniel F. Driscoll. Arrangements were by Hourigan Bros.

James W. Reise

Funeral services for James W. Reis were held Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock from his late home, No. 14 Arnold street, requiem mass being celebrated at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Memorial church by Rev. William A. Keefe. At the offertory, Pie Jesu was sung by Horace Corning, a nephew of the deceased. As the waiting hymn he sang Beautiful Land on High. Mrs. Farrell was at the organ during the mass. Many relatives and friends attended the service several coming from out of town. Beautiful floral pieces bore testimony to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held.

Burial was in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery, where the committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Keefe. The bearers were Horace Corning, Sr., Horace Corning, Jr., E. F. Clerk of Elizabeth, N. J., John J. Corcoran, George Keppler and B. H. Armold of Springfield, Mass. Arrangements were in charge of Cummings & Ring.

WEDDING

Botham-Hansen

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of Rev. G. F. Bailey at Norwich Town Saturday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Dorothy Hansen became the bride of Carlisle Botham. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Hector Gaucher, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left on a wedding tour over the Mohawk Trail and will visit Montreal, Quebec and other places in the Canadian provinces.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE ON EXCURSION TRIP

Many local people availed themselves of the opportunity to enjoy an excursion to New York and took the trip Sunday via the New Haven railroad. The weather was fine for the trip and the crowd which left the train at the local depot about 10:45 o'clock Sunday evening looked as though they were "tired but happy."

Motored to Cape Cod

During the week Rev. John J. Reilly of St. Patrick's parish was on a motor trip to Cape Cod with friends.

STEAMER CARISCO FLOATED AFTER GROUNDING IN THAMES RIVER

The steamer Carisco of the Thames River line grounded in the Thames river Saturday afternoon about five o'clock, when the steering apparatus jammed. The boat remained on the flats until two o'clock Sunday morning when she was backed off under her own power on the flood tide. The boat was not damaged and made her trip as usual Sunday afternoon carrying a big load of cargo for New York.

The Carisco, Captain James Chase, left the pier in the Thames river shortly after noon Saturday and proceeded to the Tide Water Paper company where 80 tons of paper was stored in the hold. The boat then headed back up the river to dock again and had reached a point opposite the Richmond Radiator company when the steering wheel jammed and the ship swung to port, grounding on the flats on the west side of the river. It was impossible to back her off under power as the tide was ebbing fast and she was held there until Sunday morning for a flood tide, then backed off under power and docked at 2:15 a. m.

An examination of the plates showed that the strain had not injured them and that after the chain of the steering apparatus had been straightened the boat was ready for her regular trip. During the day, Sunday, a heavy cargo was taken aboard and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon she cast off for the regular run to New York.

The Carisco draws about 11 feet of water and is the largest boat the Thames River line has placed on the Norwich-New York run. R. V. Mott is agent for the company.

NORWICH RECRUITING OFFICER TELLS OF NAVY'S PLANS

The air force with each major division of the United States fleet will be provided by a distribution of some of the ships of the navy, effective on July 1927, and it is expected that the new air craft carriers, U. S. S. Lexington and U. S. S. Saratoga will be ready to join the fleet, said Justin F. McCarthy, navy recruiting officer in Norwich, Sunday.

The U. S. S. Lexington which will be commanded by Captain Walter R. Cherardi, U. S. N. will be assigned as flagship of the air craft squadrons of the scouting fleet. The U. S. S. Saratoga, which will be commanded by Captain Henry V. Butler U. S. N. will be the flagship of the aircraft squadrons of the battle fleet.

One of the newest air craft carriers will in this way be stationed on the Atlantic coast and one on the Pacific coast. The Saratoga will be completed first, about Dec. 1, 1926 and the Lexington will be completed about April 1, 1927. Both ships will go on a shake down cruise and acceptance trials before joining their respective stations.

When the air craft carrier Langley is relieved by the Saratoga as flagship of the battle fleet air squadrons, she and the aircraft tender Aroostook will form an aircraft squadron with the fleet base forme (Pacific).

The U. S. S. Wright, now flagship of the craft squadrons, scouting fleet, will when relieved by the Lexington, go to the Asiatic station and relieve the U. S. S. Jason as tender for the air craft squadrons of the Asiatic fleet. The Jason will then return and join the fleet base force as an air craft tender.

With the above forces there will be a total of 21 squadrons of air planes consisting of fighting, torpedo and bombing, scouting and observation planes. Of these squadrons, five will be assigned to each of the large carriers, Lexington and Saratoga.

The battle ship divisions of the battle fleet will be assigned three squadrons of observations and fighting planes.

The battle ship division of the scouting fleet will have two squadrons of the same type of planes.

The destroyers of the battle fleet will have with them one squadron of observation planes. In addition there will be on the west coast three scouting squadrons with the fleet base force and some experiment planes on the Langley.

With the Atlantic forces, afloat, in addition to the planes on the Lexington, there will be one squadron of observation planes with the light cruiser divisions. All of the light cruises carry two planes and are equipped with catapults for and launching them. The rigid airship Los Angeles will continue her observations from Lakehurst. The squadrons of torpedo and bombing planes will be with the U. S. S. Wright on the Atlantic station. The navy recruiting officer at Norwich Justin F. McCarthy, announces that about 3,000 men will be needed when these monster aircraft carriers are commissioned. A concentrated effort will be made by the recruiting service, consisting of over 600 men and officers distributed in 265 stations to obtain the men so required. Such opportunity for service in the newest and finest of the types afloat will attract many continuous service and former service men and cause many re-enlistments. Recruiting Officer M'Carthy said.

AUTO PLUNGED OVER BANK ONTO TRACKS

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 15.—Daniel DeLong, this city, was brought to the Lawrence hospital here tonight suffering from lacerations, received when the automobile he was driving plunged over an embankment, landing on the N. Y., N. H. and Hartford railroad tracks, off the Millstone road, a short distance west of this city. The cause of the accident could not be learned.

BRINGS COURT ACTION TO RECOVER ON NOTE

Antonio Gavoli of Miami has brought suit in the superior court for New London county against James Matassa of Montville, claiming damages of $1,300. The plaintiff alleges that February 11, 1926, the defendant gave him his note for $1,112. The note is due and unpaid. The papers in the case have been filed with the clerk of the superior court in this city.

PAST COUNSELLOR'S JEWEL FOR CHAS. W. PEARSON

At a meeting of Norwich council, No. 309, U. C. T. in this city Saturday evening Charles W. Pearson of Norwich was presented a past counsellor's jewel. It was voted to mail to three other past counsellors similar jewels, as they were unable to be present.

DR. CLARENCE M. GALLUP PREACHES IN HOME CHURCH

The preacher at both services at the Central Baptist church Sunday was Rev. Clarence Mason Gallup, D. D. of the Central church, Providence.

Dr. Gallup is a native of Norwich and was brought up in the Central Baptist church, so that there was a large number out to hear him at each service.

In the City Court

In the city court Saturday morning a North Grosvenordale man, charged with intoxication, was fined by Judge Arthur F. Libby, and will have to serve out his fine in the county jail. His total bill was $16.80. A local man was fined $5 and costs, totalling $14.50, for intoxication.

Norman Dolduc of Norwich paid $5 flat for driving to the left of the traffic beacon on Broadway. This ended the session for the day.

One of the most important matters for discussion at the sixth annual state conference of the Swedish Young People's Federation to be held at Cromwell from August 17th to the 22nd will be the construction of a large tabernacle to house the conference in future years.

OVER 600 ATTENDED FARM BUREAU OUTING

Over 600 people, members of the New London County Farm bureau, their wives and families, enjoyed the annual field day at the Strand, Great Neck road, Waterford, Saturday. The members came from all parts of the state and there were also visitors from nearby states. The events began with swimming and boating, while others enjoyed a tour of the farm of Valentine Chappell, host for the day. At 11 o'clock games started with "barnyard golf," or pitching horseshoes, while others played baseball.

In the late afternoon, following the speaking, the annual field meet took place. The meet was hotly contested throughout but the athletes from Waterford carried off the honors winning the silk banner awarded as first prize. Silk banners for second and third place were presented to athletes from Lebanon and Stonington respectively. At noon a clam chowder was served by the women of Jordan church. Basket luncheons were also enjoyed beneath the shade of the stately trees on the estate.

The arrangements for the affair were in charge of County Agent Walter T. Clark of Norwich.

The speaker of the day was Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut whose address was on Western Farmers and the Troubles. Always a hail fellow, well met, the senator quickly called upon his audience to remain seated, after they had been requested to rise, as a greeting.

In his address Senator Bingham pointed out differences between Connecticut farms and western farms.

At the conclusion of the address of Senator Bingham, State Treasurer Ernest Rogers of New London, a guest for the day, was called upon for remarks. Treasurer Rogers spoke briefly of the excellent work being done by the Farm bureau and that he always watched its work with interest.

The outing proved most enjoyable and is an event looked forward to each year with considerable interest by the large membership of the Farm bureau of New London county.

SUES NORWICH MAN FOR $500 DAMAGES

Suit in the superior court has been brought by Domenico Genese of Norwich against Vincinzo Fimagnara, also of this city. The plaintiff claims damages of $500 and also asks a court decree setting aside an alleged fraudulent conveyance of property and that title to the property be restored to the plaintiff. It is claimed that July 2, 1926 the plaintiff was the owner of certain real estate located at 475 East Main street, which property is subject to a right of way three feet wide from Main street to the southerly line of the land and the right of way to Peter Barber to maintain the garage without charge so long as Barber owns the adjourning property.

On July 2, it is alleged the defendant, Fimagnaro requested the plaintiff, Mrs. Genese to sign a document which Fimagnaro represented necessary to be executed in connection with the payment of interest on a mortgage of the real estate.

It is alleged that said representation was in fact false and was made with the intent to deceive and defraud the plaintiff and with the expectation that Mrs. Genese would rely on the same; the said document in fact being a warrantee deed of said real estate for the plaintiff and defendant.

Relying upon the representation of Fimagnaro, the plaintiff claims she signed the deed. Mrs. Genese claims that she has been and will be deprived or the use of profits of said real estate, which were reasonably worth $40 per month.

NEW HIGHWAY STRETCH IS OPEN TO TRAFFIC

The easterly shore of the Thames river, or, over the military highway, is by far better traveling for motorists than the west shore road, motorists claim. Work on the Norwich- New London road is being pushed rapidly between Montville and the beginning of the cement highway below Jerome place, but the road-bed is extremely rough at present for a considerable distance.

On the military highway the dangerous curves have been done away with and the new highway stretch was open Sunday for travel. Those who drove over the road were convinced that the state had done a fine piece of work in cutting the road straight through, saving not only distance for travel but eliminating the worst danger spot on the highway.

MADE AUTO TRIP TO CANADIAN CITIES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brayman and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Revell have returned from a motor trip that took them through all the New England states and a part of New York state, thence to Montreal and Quebec.

Several stops were made at points of interest along the route. A stop was made at the Kent house, also at Montmorency Falls and Lacien Rapids. The trip was made without trouble of any kind and proved most enjoyable, excellent weather prevailing practically every day.

STARTS DAMAGE ACTION AGAINST NORWICH PEOPLE

Frank Zietara of Jewett City has instigated action against Agnes and Julian Wojkowski of this city, claiming damages of $99. The suit is returnable August 21st before Justice of the Peace Frank N. Gardner at his office in Norwich. Plaintiff alleges defendants failed to live up to the terms of a contract entered into May 14, 1925, whereby the plaintiff was to perform certain labor for and furnish certain materials to the defendants for which he was to be paid $100. He claims he has only received $50.

When Mrs. Albert S. Comstock was hostess at the D. A. R. museum at Norwich Town Saturday afternoon, the visitors included a motor party from Freeport, Ohio. Edward Harland Miller, of New York, presented a number of heirlooms to the museum.

Norwich Produce Market

(Furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture of Connecticut).

Native apples of excellent quality are now offered in liberal quantities but the abundance of peaches and their low price causes the apples to move slowly. Raspberries are offered in a very limited way and blackberries and blueberries only moderately. Cantaloupes are not offered quite as freely and many of them are over ripe. Watermelons are also less abundant with other shipped in fruits in normal supply.

The rains have improved the quality of beans and they re a little more plentiful, while sweet corn is abundant and cheaper. Tomatoes are also abundant and considerably cheaper, especially the lower grades. Native celery, peppers and potatoes are available to a limited extent and are of excellent quality.

Broilers especially leghorns, are plenty but fowl and eggs are strong while butter, dressed meats and grains are steady to firm.

Heavier supplies of tomatoes were available in Hartford, New Haven and Waterbury. Green and wax beans held firm for stock of good quality but poor stock was sold at buyers' prices. Lima beans declined in the leading markets. Shell beans were in poor demand. Beets were abundant and sold slowly. Cabbage showed a somewhat firmer tone. Carrot supplies were liberal and markets weak. Celery held firm with fancy stock bringing somewhat higher prices than previously reported. Cucumbers were in good demand and high quality stock brought from $2.50-3.00 per bushel on Hartford, New Haven, Waterbury and Bridgeport markets. Receipts of yellow sweet corn increased and sold at slightly lower prices. Native lettuce prices advanced for good stock. The onion market continued weak with native and Connecticut valley stock selling slowly. Pepper prices were steady and good stock brought from $1.50-2.00 per bushel in the larger markets. Native squash was down to lower levels than earlier in the week.

The Connecticut egg market is very firm with demand good and prices gradually advancing on all grades. A shortage of fancy stock was recorded. Live leghorn broilers were more freely offered than heavy colored breeds. Colored stock sold for 3-5. per pound more than leghorns.

Fruits, vegetables: *Apples, 14 qts. .50; .60; *blackberries, qt. .20, .28; *Blueberries, qt. .20; oranges, 76-216) 6.00, 7.00; *raspberries, Red, pt. .18, .20; *beans, green, bu. 1.25, 2.00; *beans, lima, bu. 3.50, 4.00; *beets, doz. bun. .40, .50; *cabbage, bbl. 1.00, 1.50; *carrots, doz. bun. .45, .55; celery, 12-stalk bun. 1.00, 1.75; *corn, sweet, 100 ears, 1.75, 2.25; *lettuce, doz. .50, .75; onions, bu. 1.50, 1.75; *potatoes, bu. 1.35, 1.75; potatoes, new, bbl. 3.00, 4.25; *squash, bu. 1.00, 1.50; *tomatoes, 14 qts. 1.35, 1.75.

Poultry, Dairy: *Broilers, dressed, lb. .40, .45; *broilers, live, lb. .28, .33; *fowl, dressed, lb. .33, .38; *fowl, live, lb. .26, .30; *eggs, Conn. N'G, Fan. .40; *eggs, Conn. hennery .50, .55; *eggs, Conn. gathered .42, .48; eggs, western, .34, .40; butter, best tub, lb. .40, .42; butter, best print, lb. .44, .46.

Meat products: *Calves, best, live, lb. .12, .14; *calves, heavy, lb. .09, .11; *cows, live, (100 lb.) 4.00, 5.50; *cows, live com. 2.00, 3.00; ham, best smoked, lb. .34, .38; lard, pure lb. .17 1-2; beef prime, lb. .17; beef, medium, lb. .12 .16; cows, dressed, lb. .11, .14; *cows, com. dressed, lb. .06, .09; lambs, fancy lb. .28, .30; veal, med. dressed, lb. .15 .18; veal, fan. western, lb. .18, .21; *veal, fancy lb. .22, .24.

Grain (retail) door: Beef scraps, 100 lbs. 2.35, 3.35; bran, 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; corn, No. 2, 100 lbs. 2.05, 2.10; cottons'd meal, 100 lbs. 2.25, 2.80; dry mash, 100 lbs. 2.70, 3.00; flour, 196 lb. sack, 11.00, 12.00; gluten, 100 lbs. 2.30, 2.50; hominy chop, 100 lbs. 1.95, 2.05; linseed meal, 100 lbs. 2.90, 3.00; middlings, std. 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; oats, No. 1, 80 lbs. 1.75, 1.85; poultry, grain, 100 lbs. 2.75, 2.85; Timothy, bale, 100 lbs. 1.50, 1.60; *Timothy, loose, 100 lbs. 1.40, 1.50; wheat, 100 lbs. 2.95, 3.05.

XDenotes native products.

SIXTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL CAMP-MEETING IS OPENED

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND, Aug. 15— The first Sunday of the sixty-seventh session of Willimantic Camp meeting proved bright and cool after the night's shower. Worshippers filled the centre seats of the auditorium in the grove at 10:30 o'clock.

Superintendent of Norwich District Rev. Myron E. Genter had charge. Prayer was offered by Rev. Frederick C. Baker, of North Grosvenordale, secretary of the Camp Meeting association.

"The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," was sung by Mrs. Florence B. Manuel and Miss Addie Sprague, of the Manuel Concert company of, Whitman, Mass., with Miss Mildred Waters, the third member of the company accompanying on the piano. A fine musical program had been presented in the tabernacle the previous evening by these artists.

Scripture was read by a retired member of the New England Southern Conference, Rev. Joseph B. Ackley, of Burnside. An offertory, "Open the Gates," was given by Mrs. Manuel, with Miss Waters at the piano, and Miss Sprague playing a violin obligato.

As Bishop Badley, the expected speaker, failed to appear, District Superintendent Genter preached from Luke 24:15, "While they communed together and reasoned, Jesus Himself drew near and went with them." His theme was "Reason or Revelation for the Discovery of God in Christ?"

Reason and logic are needed in the sciences and arts, but no man can experience and thus know the Fatherhood of God save through Jesus who said, "No man cometh unto the Father but by me."

The accompanist on the piano for the hymns was Howard T. Pierce, organist of New London Methodist church who is engaged for the entire week. During the last hymn Policeman F. H. Bushnell informed the district superintendent that word had come over the telephone that Bishop Badley had arrived in Willimantic. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. P. MacLennan, of Old Mystic.

Bishop Benton T. Badley, of India, gave a very interesting description of that wonderful land, at the two o'clock service. This opened with a fifteen minute praise service led by Mrs. Manuel, Mr. Pierce at the piano. Rev. H. B. Conklin, of Baltic, offered prayer. Miss Addie Sprague and Mrs. Florence B. Manuel sang a duet, "Guide Me, Thou Great Jehovah."

Scripture was read by Rev. Joseph Cooper, of South Manchester, who introduced the speaker Bishop Badley who was born in India, stated that India is trying to reform her industrial, social, intellectual, political and spiritual life India has more mileage of railroads than any country in the world, save the United States; it also has a fine network of macadam roads. He emphasized the fact that India is the most religious country in the world. She is now engaged in re-thinking her spiritual life. He called attention to the fact that all the six great religions of the world came from Asia, Buddhism, Brahmism, Confucianism, Mohammedanism and Christianity. He said that while the great man of India of the present day, Gandhi believes in prohibition and in the elevation of the lower classes, he nevertheless has room for the obscene Krishna and the atheistic Buddha and the Christless Mohammed. Gandhi thinks it a greater sin to kill a cow than to kill a man. Hinduism is really pantheistic. The bishop spoke depreciatingly of the emphasis America places on materialistic wealth.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Joseph Cooper, of South Manchester.

At four o'clock in the New London house on Church Circle there was a children's meeting conducted by Mrs. Gray, wife of Rev. Frank W. Gray, of Burnside.

Saturday evening an excellent musical program was given in the tabernacle to a good sized audience, representing many churches in Norwich district by the Manuel Concert Artists of Whitman, Mass. These are Mrs. Florence B Manuel, soprano; Miss Addie L Sprague, alto, and Miss Mildred Waters, pianist.

The program included a piano solo by Miss Waters, who responded to an encore, three soprano solos by Mrs. Manuel, Miss Waters at the piano, and a violin obligato by Miss Sprague. A whistling solo was the next number, by Mrs. Manuel, she playing her own accompaniment. She responded to an encore, and Miss Sprague assisted with violin obligato.

On the program for Monday at the camp are the prayer and inspiration period at 9 a. m., directed by Dr. Charles E. Spaulding of New London; a church school period at 8:30, Miss Mabel M. Pollard, deaconess of South Manchester, director; a stewardship and mission period led by Dr. R. E. Gornall, of Chicago; a psychological interpretation of religious facts at 10 by Dr. Philip L. Frick, of Schenectady, N. Y. The afternoon is devoted to Woman's Missions. Dr. Charles W. Barto, of the President Blakeslee Training school in New Haven, and Miss Florence L. Nichol, of India are the speakers.

Dr. Rees, well known evangelist and Mrs. Rees, song leader, who were at New London in the winter of 1922 are scheduled for the evening.

Next followed four negro spirituals by Mrs. Manuel and Miss Sprague, the musicians accompanying on mandolin were sung by these same entertainers after which Mrs. Manuel sang three solos.

Rev. Myron E. Genter, of Norwich, spoke. "What We Are Here For?" as his theme. He urged his hearers to set aside time for meditation. We are here he said for decision and dedication. Conviction of truth will produce new expressions of life.

— The —

Porteous & Mitchell

Company

Clearance Prices

—on—

RUGS

HAMMOCKS

$25.00 Couch HAMMOCKS.. $12.50

Couch Hammocks, plain and striped duck, with spring upholstered back—at $12.50, value $25.00.

$5.00 WOVEN HAMMOCKS $2.50

Woven Hammocks, strongly made. Will give good service—at $2.50, value $5.00.

RATTANIA RUGS at $9.75

6x9 feet—$9.75, value $11.50
7 ft. 6x10 ft. 6—at $12.50
9x12 feet—$14.75, value $18.00

KIMLARK RUGS at $9.50

6x 9 feet— $9.50, value $11.50
8x10 feet—$13.50, value $16.50
9x12 feet—$16.50, value $19.50

$7.50 CREX RUGS at $3.75

Summer Crex Rugs, size 8x10 feet—Clearance Price $3.75, regular value $7.50.

PORCH SHADES REDUCED

The well known Aerolux and Koolite Porch Shades. Sizes 4 to 12 feet—all at 20 per cent off regular prices.

COTTAGE SETS at 79c

Five-piece Cottage Sets or Double Dutch Curtains, ruffled, with tieback—at 79c a set, value $1.25.

POETRY

The Sun Flower to the Sun

Hymettus' bees are out on filmy wings,
Dim Phosphor slowly fades adown the west,
And Earth awakes. Shine on me, O my king!
For I with dew am laden and oppressed.

Long through the misty hours of morning gray
The flowers have watched to hail thee from yon sea!
Sad Asphodel, that pines to meet thy ray,
And Juno's roses, pale for love of thee.

Perchance thou dalliest with the Morning Hour,
Whose blush is reddening new the eastern wave;
Or to the cloud forever leavest thy fold-ar,
Wiled by the glance white-footed Thetis gave.

I was a proud Chaldean monarch's child!
Euphrates' waters told me I was fair,—
And thou, Thessalia's shepherd, on me smiled,
And likened to thine own my ambes hair.

Thou art my life—sustainer of my spirit!
Leave me not then in darkness here to pine;
Other hearts love thee, yet do they inherit
A passionate devotedness like mine?

But lo! thou lift'st thy shield o'er yonder tide;
The run clouds fly before the conquering Sun;
Thou like a monarch up the heavens dost ride,—
And, joy, thou beam'st on me, celestial one!

On me, thy worshiper, they poor Parsee,
Whose brow adoring types thy face divine;
God of my burning heart's idolatry,
Take root like me, or give me life like thine.
—Mary Elizabeth Stebbins.

The Laughter of a Friend

It's so easy to be happy,
It's so easy to be gay,
When other people's laughter
Is ringing in your ears,
But to be so happy
And to be so gay
When other people's laughter
Wholly disappears,
That's another story,
And shows how we depend
On the priceless glory
Of the laughter of a friends.
—Ralph Robert Larsen in Boston Transcript.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Mack—"Well, how're you getting along since you're married? Pretty expensive, isn't it?"

Jim—"Oh, not so bad, not so bad. We're still eating on the rice and most of the old shoes had some wear in 'em yet."—Cappers Weekly.

Mr. Gee—"You say your laundress reminds you of a good preacher."

Mrs. Cue—"Yes, she's always bringing things home to me that I never saw before."—Kansas City Star.

"A lady wishes to speak to you on the 'phone, sir."

"How do you know she is a lady?"

"She said, 'Is that you, old pickled onion?' when I answered, sir."—London Opinion.

"Dad," said the tactful youth, "I want to be a radio expert when I grow up."

"Why a radio expert, son?" asked the busy father.

"So I can put your new radio back together again."—Bursts and Duds.

"Always and everlastingly late," snapped wifey as hubby came home late for his supper. "Why, you were late at church the day we were married."

"Yes, my dear," he replied bitterly, "but not late enough."—O. Beall in Cappers Weekly.

KALEIDOSCO

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

DIED

BROWN—In Preston, Aug. 13, 1926. Delia, widow of Wesley Brown, formerly of Salem, aged 65 years.

MARSH—In Solomonville (Stonington), Aug. 13, 1926, Gustave Adolph Marsh, aged 69.

HOLLOWAY—In New London, Aug. 15, 1926, Julia W. Haas Holloway, daughter of the late John T. and Minnie Haas.

BORN

WHITE—At Poquonoc Bridge, Groton, Aug. 11, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Wilburt B. White.

KALAMIAN—In New London, Aug. 12, 1926, a son to Mr. and Mrs. David Kalamian.

BARRETT—In New London, Aug. 12, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett.

MARRIED

BOTHAM—CARLISLE—At Norwich Town, Aug. 14, 1926, by Rev. Gurdon W. Bailey, Carlisle Botham and Miss Dorothy Hanson, both of Norwich.

NOYES—SMITH—In St. James' Episcopal church, Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 14, 1926, Charles F. Noyes of New York city and Mrs. Jessie C. Smith of Brooklyn, N. Y.

BARBER—FINLEY—In Westerly, R. I., Aug. 14, 1926, by Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, Clifford Thomas Barber and Miss Elizabeth Reid Finley, both of Potter Hill.

FUNERAL NOTICES

ABELL—In Norwich Town, Aug. 14, 1926, Fannie M. Abell, wife of the late Simeon Abell of Bozrah, daughter of Edwin H. and Emily M. Banning of North Lyme, Conn. Funeral service at the Johnson Home, Monday afternoon, Aug. 16, 1926, at 1 o'clock, D. S. T.

GREENE—In Griswold, Aug. 14, 1926, Albert O. Greene, aged 68 years. Funeral from his late home, Griswold, Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 17, at 2 o'clock (S. T.) Burial in Plainfield.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our darling niece and sister
BERTHA ELLA SLATER who passed away one year ago today
August 16, 1925

Safe and lonely, softly sleeping
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly
In her lonely, silent grave.

More and more each day we miss her,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within our hearts concealed.

MR. AND MRS. WM. BICKNELL.
MR. AND MRS. THEO. KENDALL.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
16 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 238-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
38 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 610-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GEORGE G. GRANT
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER
Phone 2720 Providence St., Taftville

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 226 Lady Assistant

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Black pocketbook containing money, rosary beads and key, between Thayer Bldg and Woolworth's. Finder leave at Bulletin Office. Reward. aug16d

FOUND—Came to my pasture, white and black cow; no horns. A. Sralarck, R. D. 1. aug16

LOST—Horse, run away a week ago last Thursday, a chestnut bay mare horse. If found please notify Alex Abugel, R. F. D. No. 7, Norwich, on Fitch Hill Road, known as Browning Place. $10 reward will be paid immediately. aug16

FOUND—Black and tan hound dog. No name or tag on collar. P. J. Navin, Clark's Corner. Tel. 645-3, Willimantic Div. aug10d

LOST—Bunch of keys between Jewett City and Norwich. Finder call 739-3. Reward. aug9tf

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Two-family house, 16 Boswell Ave. 16 rooms. Estate of Helen Sumner Lennen. Inquire at house. J. L. Sumner, Exr. aug16

FOR SALE—A very productive farm in good location, stock, tools, farm machinery of every description and growing crops included. Good 8-room dwelling, barn and other buildings with electric lights and water. Must be sold at once. Price made accordingly. Apply to A. C. Bindick, Realtor, Jewett City and Thayer Building, Norwich. aug16d

FOR SALE—Dump cart with double harness. Tel. 1473-3. aug14d

FOR SALE—Two new rowboats; also boats made to order. Tel. 102-15, Jewett City. Emey Dupont, Voluntown. aug14d

FOR SALE—Baby Grand Hoover Sweeper, slightly used, very reasonable. Phone 374-14 aug14d

75 ACRES HIGH ELEVATION

7-room cottage, in best of condition. Good stock barn; plenty of fruit; trout brook. Price $3300—$300 cash.

TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

DA YA remember the old days when you usta kill the umpire and throw soda bottles at him. Ya can't do that any more. Helmar cigarettes, 20 for 20c. Myrad and Melachrino, 20 for 20c. Old Coon and Noble cigars, 5 pack 20c. A fine leather tobacco pouch 25c. Old Gold cigarettes are goin' good. Try a pack today. 20 for 18c. Pagan's Smoke Shop, Woolworth is openin' us. aug13

FOR SALE—An old established grocery store. 54 Golden St., New London. aug11d

FOR SALE—Everhot Jr. electric cooker. Roasts, bakes, browns and stews from ordinary lamp socket current. Special price $8.95. City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. aug11tf

FOR SALE—One Papec ensilage cutter, No. 12. Irwin M. Jones, P. O. Leonard Bridge, Conn. Tel. Lebanon 43-3. aug11d

FOR SALE—A two-family house; Falls section; for quick sale $5,500. Two-family house on East Side, for quick sale, $7,800. Norwich Land Title and Ins. Co. Tel. 2279. aug10tf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 8 Bath St. Tel 2465. may28

FOR SALE—A high grade Columbia Grafonola; all latest improvements; beautiful mahogany cabinet; cost new $120. Our price $49.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—A high grade 88-note player piano at half regular price. Used as demonstrator only. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—8 6-tube Fine Arts radio set with built in speaker completely installed $89. This is a brand new set at half its value. Easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jul27

FOR SALE—23 acre farm located 1 mile from state road. Price attractive William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn jul14tf

FOR SALE—Three family house on state road, with several acres of land. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ideal poultry farm near Jewett City. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—2 acres land with 2 cottages. Price $2,100. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—Ten acre farm located on the state road. Price $3,000. Easy terms William McNicol, Maynard Bldg. Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

FOR SALE—17 acre farm with good buildings. Ideal location for poultry. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jul14tf

E. J. PETRAULT—Agent for New Home sewing machines. Tel 874-22, Baltic, after 5 p. m. Repairing on all kinds of sewing machines promptly done. All work guaranteed. Thirty years' experience. jul7

FOR SALE

Geer avenue, 9-room residence. Large reception hall. Lot is 75x128—$7,500.

JAMES E. MOORE
REALTOR.

FOR SALE

In Chelsea Parade Section, a six-room cottage, with improvements, including heat, room for garage. Price $5,500. Owner leaving town. For particulars inquire

FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Phone. Norwich.

WE ARE OFFERING
RIDGEWOOD PARK LOTS
(OCEAN BEACH)
AT A SPECIAL PRICE OF $790
GOOD UNTIL AUGUST 15
MAY WE TELL YOU ABOUT THEM
WRITE — TELEPHONE — CALL
JAMES L. CASE
REALTOR
40 SHETUCKET STREET

FOR SALE

One of the best located Gasoline and Oil Stations in the state. Always doing good, profitable business. Sold on account of owner's death, so it's a great opportunity for someone.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER
44 Shetucket Street.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

OPPORTUNITY for energetic woman, take orders for beautiful hosiery. Fashioned and full-fashioned, all colors; pay every day. Quality Silk Hosiery, Norristown, Pa. aug14

LADIES—Earn money at home gilding cards. Interesting, easy work. $7 hundred. No selling. Write Handcraft Shoppe, 103 East 125th St., New York City. aug14

WANTED—Bookkeeper and stenographer. Address Box 69, Bulletin Office. aug14

WANTED—100 teachers at once. Must be Normal graduates. Free registration. The Holman Teachers' Agency, 326 Williams St., New London, Conn. aug10d

COAL AND WOOD

SEASONED hard wood, $10 a load, cash; slab-wood, $6. Delivered anywhere. Phone 488. jun18tf

FOR SALE—Split wood and kindlings. 3 baskets for $1.00. Fountain St. Wood post. Tel. 2242. may17

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

TO RENT

TO RENT—Tenement, 6 rooms, 2d stairs. 7 Lincoln Court. aug14

FOR RENT—Apartment, 366 Washington St. Write M. Fuller, Norwich Town jul9FMW

TO RENT—Six-room tenement with modern improvements. 11 Division St. aug14d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, 22 Winchester St., all improvements. Phone 633-2. aug14d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; newly furnished at 58 Cedar St. Inquire next door. aug13d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment with all modern improvements. All recently remodeled. Apply to Charles Rubin, 200 West Main or call 2212-3. aug13d

TO RENT—8 rooms, electricity. $30. 55 Washington St. aug12tf

TO RENT—One of those fine 7-room apartments in the "Marion"; heat and hot water furnished by owner. Phone 896-2. aug11tf

TO LET—5-room flat. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St. Tel. 2146. aug11

FOR RENT—5-room tenement with all improvements. 110 N. Main St. aug10tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 72 McKinley Avenue. aug10tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 3 rooms; all improvements. 89 Asylum St. aug6d

FOR RENT—Six room apartment Phone 482. aug6tf

FOR RENT—One 5-room tenement; all improvements. Inquire Commercial Garage. aug3tf

TO RENT—5 room apartment, all improvements. 35 Fairmount St.

TO RENT—6-room tenement; all improvements; call at night downstairs. 51 Division St. jul29tf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; all latest improvements, 316 Franklin St. Also 5-room apartment, 302 Franklin St. Inquire of Thos. Buckley, real estate agent. jul27tf

TO RENT—Lower flat, 6 rooms; also furnished room on second floor, 120 Broadway; ring 2nd bell. jul23tf

TO RENT—6-room apartment, 78 School St. jul8tf

TO RENT—Apartment of seven rooms; hardwood floors, nice locality. Call 931-4. jul3tf

FOR RENT—3 rooms; pantry, gas, lights. School St. $10 a month. Call 2474-2. jul1tf

TO RENT—One of the finest 7 room apartments in the city, in residential section. Phone 896-2. mar15tf

FOR RENT—At 175 Broadway 3 room furnished apartment, heated, hot water, the year round. Phone 1506 or 1811. apr29

TO RENT—6-room apartment, also 6-room cottage. Phone 289. apr8tf-eod

TO RENT—10-room apartment on Church St. Very desirable; rent reasonable. Inquire C. W. Cassidy, 16 Main St. jun2tf

TO RENT—Beautiful modern apartment at 66 Broad St. Heat and hot water furnished. Moderate rent. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. apr23tf

AUCTION

Auction

Will be sold at public sale without reserve or by-bidding

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1926
At 10:00 O'clock A. M.

at my farm on the Whippoorwill Hollow Road in No. Franklin, about one mile east from the Willimantic and Norwich Road.

The lifetime accumulated antique furnishings of my Colonial House.

1 Field bed with canopy, 1 mahogany card table, 1 Marsh clock, 1 other old clock, copper warming pan, brass kettle, 6 mirrors, Colonial lantern, 3 foot stools, 50 old pictures, Currier and Ives; 1 settle, dozen Pewter pieces including coffeepot and teapot, a large collection of china and crockery, 1 Piel Colonial cradle with hood, 1 baby chair, candlesticks, 2 fireplace sets, Windsor arm chairs, Bannister back, rush-seat arm chairs, fiddle-back rocker, Boston rockers, ladder back rocker, splint seat rockers, ribbon back basket-seat rocker, Hitchcock cane seat chairs and a large quantity of odd chairs.

Wash stands, 5 tables, bedsteads, bureaus, sewing tables, 1 Martha Washington; chests, hair cloth sofa and chairs, a large quantity of hook and rag rugs and rag carpeting, beds and bedding, 2 poke bonnets, 2 Mantillas, antique silk dress and apron and other articles too numerous to mention.

Not a dealer's collection.

M. L. BAILEY,
North Franklin, Conn.

If stormy next fair day. Caterer in attendance

WANTED—Male

WANTED—One or two men to receive our special training as salesmen. Salary and commission paid while learning. Apply 48 Main St., Norwich. aug16d

DEPENDABLE MAN to take orders guaranteed trees, shrubs, roses. Profitable year around work. Commissions weekly. We deliver and collect. New methods. Growers 41 years. Brown Brothers Co., Rochester, N. Y. aug14

WANTED—Young man who is interested in the poultry business to work as assistant in poultry plant on private estate. Experience not necessary. Also good single farm teamster wanted. Wages $50 and board. Write Wenga Farm, Armonk, N. Y. aug14d

WANTED—Immediately, a top-notch farm hand who is willing to work on a good farm for man willing to pay highest wages. W. S. Brown, Shepard Hill Farm, Central Village, Conn. Tel. Moosup, 28-12. aug14d

BRICKLAYERS—For Hartford, Conn. minimum rate $1.87 1-2 per hour, experienced tradesmen, steady work, normal conditions. Apply ready for work to Hartford Open Shop Building Trades Exchange, 721 Main St., Hartford, Conn. aug6d

WANTED—Young man for selling work outside. Liberal commission paid. Very pleasant work. Some of our men make as high as $50 weekly. Write Box 44, care of Bulletin. jul27tf

WANTED
Young Man Over 18 Years
AMERICAN THERMOS BOTTLE CO.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Wednesday, near J. B. Martin's mill, Taftville, black Boston bag. Finder rewarded if left at this office. aug14d

FOUND—Last Tuesday, finger ring. Owner can have same by calling at this office. aug14d

FOR SALE—HORSES

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Horse for cow or bull. Geo. Saderstrom, Voluntown. aug14

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1924 Hup, coach, 1 new Star 4 roadster, 1 new Star 6 touring, 1925 Olds. sedan, 1925 Chevrolet coupe, 1924 Buick coupe, 1923 Reo sedan, 1925 Henderson cycle, 1921 Cadillac 7-pass. touring, 1926 Ford del. Cash or terms to suit you. Adams Tavern Garage, Auburn Sales and Service. aug14

FOR SALE—1926 Hupmobile 6 cyl. sedan, 1924 Hupmobile sedan, 1923 Hupmobile sedan. Several older cars. Exceptionally low priced. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. aug13

FOR SALE—1 1924 Chrysler Royal Sedan, 1 1925 Chrysler 70 Roadster, 1 1922 Lafayette Sedan, 1 1923 Cleveland Touring Car, 1 1922 Ford Roadster, 1 1922 Buick Touring Car, 1 1925 Maxwell Panel Delivery. John J. Herbert, 195 No. Main St. aug11

FOR SALE—Latest improved Lincoln, 5-pass. sedan; driven about 3000 miles; demonstration. A wonderful bargain; over $1,000 off of list price; terms if desired; trade considered. Waterman & Wolfe, Inc., New London. Phone 3040. aug10tf

WANTED—Ford coupe in trade for '23 Essex touring. Phone 1139-32. aug7d

FOR SALE—1925 Rickenbacker roadster, 1925 Chrysler roadster, 1925 Hudson coach, 1922 Buick roadster, 1920 Cadillac coupe. Small down payment; balance 10 months. 62 Shetucket St. jul13d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, U-61, Victoria coupe; 1925 Hudson coach; 1923 Buick coupe; 1923 Hupmobile 4-passenger coupe; 1923 Dodge coupe; 2 1923 Ford sedans; 1924 Ford coupe; 1922 Chevrolet coupe. Krieger Motor Sales, 191 No Main St. Phone 646 jul12

FOR SALE—1925 Chrysler sedan, model 70. Excellent condition; low mileage. Privately owned. Box 56, Danielson, Ct. jul7tf

FOR SALE—New and used Harley Davidson motorcycles. Real good machines for real live fellows. Prices reasonable. Easy terms. J. P. Donovan 135 No. Main St. mar24d

LAUREL HILL GARAGE
USED CAR SALE

Buick Six, 5-pass. Touring, 1923 model	$445
Cadillac Sedan	$85
Essex Four, Touring	$75
Ford Sedan	$85
Overland Sedan	$235
Star Touring	$235
Star Coupe	$165
Dodge Touring	$65

Small down payment on any of the above cars. Your car in trade.
LAUREL HILL AVENUE
(In rear of Laurel Hill School)
Open Evenings and Sundays

USED CARS
AUGUST CLEARANCE

of every used car in stock at tremendous reductions. Prices are now lower than ever. Come in today—it will pay you.

1922 Ford Roadster	$45.00
1922 Overland Coupe	$130.00
1924 Essex Touring	$120.00
1918 Dodge Roadster	$55.00
1923 Chevrolet Touring	$90.00
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring	$50.00
1921 Overland Touring	$45.00
1923 Ford Roadster	$80.00
1922 Gardner Roadster	$75.00

STAR GARAGE
Plainfield, Conn. Phone 196.

USED CARS

1925 Ford Touring . . . $200
1923 Jewett Touring . $175
1925 Essex Coach . . . $475
1922 Hupmobile Road. $275

The Norwich Motor Sales Co.
HUDSON-ESSEX
Sales and Service.
394 N. Main St.—Tel. 1780

WANTED—Miscellaneous

HIGHEST prices paid for used furniture and antiques. Louis D. Ward, Box 258, Norwich. Phone 861-13, Norwich and Willimantic. sept7d

WANTED—Tenement, cottage preferred; central location. Write Box 122 Bulletin Office. aug14d

NOTICE—We buy old fashioned furniture. E. H. Ward, 31 Huntington Ave Tel. 1002-2 jun26d

NOTICE
IMPORTANT—Wife Mrs. Hattie C. Record communicate with the following address. Box XYZ, Bulletin Office. aug13d

WANTED—Carpenter work of all kinds. Estimates cheerfully given for large or small jobs. M. Krugman, 97 Mechanic St. Phone 274 aug13tf

WANTED—An electric ceiling fan. Call 1932-4 or 1402-2. aug4d

E. J. CONNELLY—Tree cutter and remover 65 Boswell Ave.

CALL 2661-W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H Sanders, 31 Market St. apr30d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves highest prices paid. Call 1405 nov17d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A Bruckner, 107 Franklin St. Phone 559. nov17d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 32 Market St. Phone 2158 tf

Copyright 1926 The Picture Advertisers Box D Oregon City Oregon

GLASS — PUTTY — PAINT
HARDWARE—TOOLS—CUTLERY
Examine our line of Aluminum Ware
THE HOUSEHOLD

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

PARTS THAT ARE STANDARD EQUIPMENT
ON THE BEST BUILT CARS IN AMERICA ARE SOLD BY Norwich Auto Parts Co.
Cor. Main and No. Main St. Phone 2118

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

CARS bought to wreck. Parts for all cars. Tires and tubes (new and used), big bargains. Hodes Auto Parts, 351 West Main St., Norwich. Tel. 1391. aug12

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Authorized Service Station for Rusco Brake Lining. Brakes Inspected Free
JOE MOORE'S GARAGE
95 Chestnut St. Phone 2348

FAIGE, JEWETT AND GARDNER
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM O. NOYES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 731-2

General Repairing, Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2338
95 Chestnut Street

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

ALEXANDER H. MANES
Certified Public Accountant
13 Broadway Norwich

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Rural Homes
Need a Sanitary Sewage Disposal System.
Let us show you the best Vitrified Septic Tanks on the market today and explain their most exceptional advantages.
—The—
Peck-McWilliams Company.

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

CONTRACTORS

JAMES FURNIGNARO
Contractor, Excavating and Mason Work
Phone 2301—123 Oakridge St.

A. COSENTINO
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Excavation, Stone Work, Specialist in Plaster Work
5 Valley St. Tel. 627-4

CALL 2566-M for painting and cement work, done reasonably and expertly. may23tf

CASTINGS
Gray Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

DENTISTS

DR. ALFRED RICHARDS
Dental Surgeon
Rm 305, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 299

INSURANCE

R. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance. Prompt Service
Room 14, Central Bldg. Tel. 2425-2

Suppose You Have a Fire Tonight —
Are you sufficiently protected with Insurance?
Isaac S. Jones
Insurance Agent.
91 Main Street
Norwich, Conn.

MERCHANT TAILOR

SWAHN THE TAILOR
HAS MOVED TO 1 CLIFF STREET
Opposite Chelsea Bank Phone 2191

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Sell It

Business Notices.

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
to Pay All Those Small Bills That Are Worrying You
WE FURNISH THE CASH
and you repay us in monthly installments to suit your means.—
On $ 50 you pay $ 5 monthly
On $ 75 you pay $ 6 monthly
On $100 you pay $ 8 monthly
On $150 you pay $10 monthly
On $200 you pay $10 monthly
On $300 you pay $20 monthly
plus legal interest on unpaid balance as designated by State law
Loans made to housekeepers on home furniture without removal and to anyone on guaranteed note
We operate under State Banking Dept. supervision and are licensed and bonded under State laws. For details, call, write, or phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG
16 FRANKLIN STREET

MATTRESSES

SUSSMANS BEDDING
"The Best for Rest"
At All Furniture Stores
SUSSMANS MATTRESS CO.
Chestnut St. Phone 877

MACHINE SHOP

BARBER'S Machine Shop, (L. and A. P. Guertin, proprietors) 53-55 Chestnut St., Tel. 2442, does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly day or night. jun14tf

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 66 Franklin St.

PLUMBING

T. F. BURNS
31 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
139 Franklin St. Tel. 1333

TRUCKING

WANTED—Trucking and expressing. Good service. O. Eccleston. Tel. 1873-13. jun28tf

O. W. TRYON—Light trucking, parcel delivery. Reasonable rates. Tel. 2149 jun28tf

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING. Low rates. Phone 1342. jun28tf

CALL 707 FOR
Local and Long Distance Moving
W. F. CONDON, 80 Chestnut St.

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-3. jun28d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing
Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341

O. D. JOSLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1683-3.

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR E. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 985-2

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via the New London Line
One Way Fare $3.38 From Norwich
Special Summer Service
Effective June 28 to Sept. 11, inc.
NIGHT SCHEDULE—Daily
Lv. New London 10.00 P.M.
Due New York, Pier 40 (Houston St.) 5:00 A.M.
DAY SCHEDULE—Daily, Ex. Sun. and Mon.
Lv. New London 9.00 A.M.
Due New York, Pier 40, N. R. 4.30 P.M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME

$4.00 Round Trip from New London
Popular 1 day excursions to New York and return. Tickets sold Monday to Friday inclusive, good on day or night steamers going and returning next day.
Tickets sold Saturday good only on day steamer going and night steamer returning same day
Tickets and Staterooms on sale at Union Station New London.
Special rates for accompanied automobiles
The New England Steamship Co.

To Block Island
Daily Excursions from Norwich and New London
—Via—
MOTORSHIP NELSECO II
Leaving Norwich Mondays to Fridays at 9 A. M.; Saturdays at 10 A. M.; Sundays at 9:15 A. M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
Round Trip Fare $2.00
Special Price Every Tuesday and Thursday, $1.50
Children Under 12 Half Fare
Bus Connections
Norwich, New London and Block Island Line, New London, Conn.

WALL PAPER

FOR SALE—$1.00 a gallon for paint; 10 cents a roll for paper. 183 West Main street. Max Blazer. mar1

WINDOW WASHING

WANTED—Windows to clean. New England Window Cleaner Co. Phone 820. Calls answered immediately. apr6d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

VERMONT EXCURSION PARTY JOINS CROWD AT NEW LONDON BEACH

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 15.—The largest crowd of the season at Ocean Beach was that which visited the shore resort today. The crowd started to arrive by trolley car and by automobile during the middle forenoon and continued throughout the afternoon. Shortly before 1 o'clock a special train reached New London from Bellows Falls, Vt., with 1000 men, women and children. The excursionists were provided with transportation to and from the beach and it required nine trolley cars to convey them to the shore. The excursion was the opening one of the season there.

WIFE, SON, IN HOSPITAL
LAVEY'S BODY SENT HOME

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 15.—The body William Lavery formerly of Hartford, who died at Lawrence hospital, Friday night from a fractured skull, sustained when the automobile he was riding in Thursday afternoon collided with a truck at Sound View and overturned, was forwarded to Hartford Saturday, for the funeral and burial. Mrs. Lavery, who suffered a fractured hip and son, William Jr., who received lacerations and bruises, are still patients at the hospital.

MUCH WORRIED MRS. WALSH IN JAIL TO THINK IT OVER

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 15.—Florence Walsh, alias Florence Mae Halliday, is in the county jail here, where she will have abundant time to consider her folly in having married at least two men without having secured a divorce from the man she first married and then to have entered into a second marriage while her husband was alive and in the enjoyment of health and in possession of mental capacity. The woman married Harris Morle in New York in 1923. He was a World war veteran and went to a hospital for treatment. She then came on to New London and here when this city was having its anniversary observance, last May 6, she married Walsh and he since lived with him as his wife. Two men happened to be in New London recently and they talked over the fact that they were married. They even mentioned names, so it soon became apparent to each that there was a similarity in that which could not be explained. Further talk convinced them that they had married the same woman. Walsh then went about straightening out his marital difficulties, for they seemed to be difficulties. He took the matter up with the prosecutor and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Florence that she might be compelled in court to explain her conduct. She was traced to Waterville, N. Y. and from there to Washington where she was taken into custody and Detective Cavanaugh was sent from here to bring her to Connecticut. She decided to return when she realized that she was wanted to tell in court that she was a bigamist. Saturday she was given a hearing in court and demurring to the complaint was bound over to the September term of the superior court in the sum of $1000, Morle, Husband No. 1 was in court during the proceedings and manifested every attention to Florence, but he had no money to become her bondsman, so she was forced to go to jail. She is about 25, and prepossessing.

An automobile owned by Junius J. Martin, 27 Morgan street, was struck by a Jefferson avenue trolley car of the Connecticut company on Broad street, near Cedar Grove cemetery, Friday night. The automobile was wrecked and Martin and a companion were thrown out. The police automobile conveyed the two men to the Lawa hospital, but when they arrived there both refused medical attendance. Neither was suffering from severe injuries, although both had lacerations and bruises.

The presidential yacht Mayflower anchored in this harbor Friday, in commission, that she may answer the call of President Coolidge in the event that he should desire to take a sea trip during his vacation from the White house. The day after the vessel arrived a couple of her sailors, Bill Bergen and Tom Breslin, were ashore and they sampled the stuff that goes for whiskey around here, with the result that they became very much intoxicated. They were at Ocean Beach and there met a fellow who was inclined to be "mussy." The result was that a contest with fists took place and the sailors from the president's ship were arrested. They might have been fined for they said they were guilty as alleged, but as they had then overstayed their leave of absence from the Mayflower, they were allowed to go to the ship that they might get the medicine prepared for offenders of their class.

William F. Driscoll, employed by the F. H. & A. H. Chappell company, was arrested Saturday afternoon charged with drunkenness and driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was released upon Henry C. Chappell furnishing a bond of $100 for Driscoll's presentation in the police court Monday morning. Driscoll was driving his automobile on Bank street, near State street when traffic was at its height and the irregular course taken by the auto caused Sergeant John Cavanaugh and Traffic Officer William Corcoran to hold up the driver. When they did so it was determined that Driscoll was drunk.

An automobile driven by Walter M. Desser, 3416 Murray Lane, Flushing, N. Y., struck Edward Maynard, 8, of 41 Lee avenue, Saturday afternoon. The child was knocked down but escaped injury other than a few bruises. The child was attempting to cross Bank street at the corner of Lee avenue, when he ran in front of the car.

Mrs. James McVeigh, of Briggs street, is a patient at Lawrence Memorial Associated hospital, where she underwent a serious or ration several days ago. Mrs. McVeigh's condition remained critical until yesterday when a slight improvement was noted.

An automoile driven by Albert Martel, 277 Pequot avenue, struck an automobile, the owner of which was not determined, on Howard street, Friday night. The colliding automobile was passing through Howard street and in a southerly direction, when it sideswiped the other car, which was parked beside the curb. Martel today visited the police station and stated that he did not know the owner of the automobile, but that he would willingly pay for any damage, if the owner made known the amount of the cost of repairs. The auto damaged carried Connecticut registration, N-5676.

R. L. Kibler, 380 Thames street, Groton, made a complaint to the police today that a tire and rim was stolen off his automobile last night while the auto was parked at Ocean Beach.

Cornelius Fisherty, 11 Culver street, was robbed at Ocean Beach, Saturday afternoon. While he was in bathing his bathhouse was entered and $28 stolen. Flaherty went to the shore about 2 o'clock, obtained a bathhouse and then proceeded to enjoy the bathing. He remained in the water and on the sand about three hours, and during that time the thief forced entrance to the bath house and stole the money. Flaherty discovered his loss when he returned to dress, and reported the theft to the police.

A Ford touring car owned by Charles DeRose, 289 Elm street, Northampton, Mass., was stolen by sailors last night and this morning was found abandoned. The automobile, a delapidated one, was parked by DeRose on Willetts avenue, corner of Viets street. He absented himself from the automobile a long time, and when he returned it was missing. DeRose reported the theft to the police and this morning when Patrolman William Graham was passing through Main street he observed an automobile parked by the curb on Federal street. The officer found that it was the stolen one. The auto was brought to the police station and later was taken in charge by the owner.

Edward Clark and Charles Davis were arrested in Waterford this morning by Constable Charles Tubbs and Constable William Follows. The pair were charged with breach of the peace and were brought to New London and locked up to await court trial Monday. Clark and Davis engaged in a quarrel and finally hard "words brought about a fight and that caused their arrest.

Erick Junselo and Toivo Rose, of Waterford, were arrested this morning by Constables Frank Peabody and Charles Brigham. The former was charged with violation of the automobile law and the latter with intoxication. Neither could furnish a bond for his presentation in the Waterford town court Monday afternoon and both were brought to the New London police station and locked up.

The funeral of George E. Hammond of Jersey City, N. J., whose sudden death of heart disease occurred while visiting here Thursday, was held Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the residence of his brother-in-law, George Haven, 99 Blinman street. The services were conducted by Rev. Horatio J. Chase, pastor of Montauk avenue Baptist church. The bearers were relatives, W. H. Thomas, Morgan Haven, George Benson and Thomas Comstock. Burial was in Cedar Grove cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Josephine Perrino, wife of Frank Perrino, 45 Howard street, was held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church. A mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Raymond O'Callahan. Relatives of Mrs. Perrino acted as bearers. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Salvatore Longo, of 20 Shaw street; George Noyes, Montville; Mrs. William Brown, Noank; Mrs. Walter Shea, Mystic; Dominick Nastrandrea, 36 Grand street and Caroline Modeler, Marie Pettie and Anna O'Connor, patients at Lawrence Memorial hospital, were discharged Saturday.

Saturday afternoon James H. May, agent for the Fournier estate, owner of

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Aug. 14—(AP)—A complete reversal of form in the stock market, which rallied briskly after an early period of weakness; a stiffening of money rates, coincident with the increase from 3 1-2 to 4 per cent in the rediscount rate of the New York Federal Reserve bank; a sharp decline in the wheat and cotton markets nd the declaration of 50 per cent stock dividend by the directors of the General Motors corporation were the high lights in this week's financial and commodity markets.

The decline in stocks apparently started as the correction of a weakened technical position, but was extended early Friday by heavy bear selling on the theory that the higher bank rate would be construed as an official warning against stock speculation. Wall street generally, however, failed to get excited over the reserve bank's action, regarding it as a natural development in view of the increased commercial demand for funds, with the result that a sharp rally set in late today which continued through today's brief session. Bond prices, which invariably decline as interest rates go up, started to lose ground.

Wheat broke several cents a bushel and cotton futures collapsed to new low levels for the season onselling inspired by the publication of a bearish government crop estimates, indicating a larger yield than had been expected. Heavy consumption of sugar imparted a firm undertone to the market for the raw and refined product.

MONEY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Treasury balance, August 12th, $184,778,430.99.

STOCKS.

Sales.
(in hundreds) High. Low. Close.

Ab & Straues	49½	49¼	49½
Adv Rumely pf	58	58	58
Air Reductles	136¾	136¾	136½
Ajax Rub	9¼	9	9¼
All Ch & D	142¾	140¾	142¾
Allis Chalm	92½	91	92½
Am & F pf	21½	20¾	20¾
Allis Chalm pf	109	109	109
Amerada	31¼	31	31¼
Am Ag Ch	19¾	19¾	19¾
Am Bk Note	40	40	40
Am Beech Mag	18¾	18½	18¾
Am Br Shoe	147	145¾	147
Am Can Bov	49	48¾	49
Am Car	61¾	60¾	61
Am Car & F	101	100¾	101
Am Drug	7¾	7¼	7½
Am Express	128½	125	126
Am Hide & Lpf	36¼	35	35
Am Ice	124¾	124¾	124¾
Am Ice pf	83½	83½	83½
Am La Fr	13	13	13
Am Linseed	42¾	41¾	41¾
Am Linseed pf	83½	81¾	83½
Am Loc	105½	105	105
Am Mch & Fdry	77	76¾	77
Am Radiat	117¼	117¼	117¼
Am Sm & Lr	68	67¾	68
Am Safety Ras	69¾	69¼	69¼
Am Ship & C	6	7¾	8
Am Smelt	150	147¾	149
Am Stl Fdrs	45¾	45¼	74¾
Am Sug Ref	74¾	73¼	63¾
Am Sug Ref pf	103	103	103
Am Sum Tob	31	30	30
Am Tel & To A	32¾	32¾	32¾
Am Tel & Tel	144	143¾	144
Am Tob	121	118¾	121
Am Type Fdrs	122	122	122
Am Tob B	120	118¾	120
Am Type Fdrs pf	102½	102¾	102½
Am Wool	28	26¾	27¾
Am Wool pf	73¾	73¾	75¾
Am Wr Pap pf	¾	¾	¾
Am Zinc pf	33	33	33
Anaconda Cop	51¼	50¾	51
Arch D & M	35	35	35
Armour Del pf	94	94	94
Armour Ill A	14¾	14½	14¾
Armour Ill B	7¼	7¼	7¼
Armour Ill pf	86¾	86¾	86¾
As Dry G	65	64¾	65
As Oil	50	50	50
Atlas Tack	11¾	11¾	11¾
Atchison	149¾	148¾	149
At Biv & Atl	¾	¾	¾
Atl Coast L	226¾	224	225
Atl G & WI	39¼	39¼	39¼
Atl Ref	114¼	113¾	114¼
Austin Nich	112	111¾	111¾
Baldwin Loc	151¾	150¾	151¾
Balt & Ohio	104¾	104¾	104¾
Balt & Ohio pf	73	73	73
Barnedall A	25¾	25¾	25¾
Barnedall B	24	24	24
Bayuk Cig	48	47¾	47¾
Beechnut Pack	63	63	63
Beth Stl	48¾	47¼	47¾
Briggs Mfg Co	28	28	28
Br E Stl	½	½	½
Brk Edison	150	150	150
Brk Man Tr	66¾	65¾	65¾
Brd Un Gas	96½	96	96½
Brown Shoe	38	38	38
Brunsw Bal Col	29¾	29¾	29¾
Brunswick Tor	12¾	12¾	12¾
Burns Br A	136¼	135¾	136¼
Burns Br B	35	35	35
Bur Add M	110¾	108¾	108¾
Bush Ter db	93¾	93¾	93¾
Butte Cop & Z	5¾	5¾	5¾
Butterick Co	59¾	59¾	59¾
Byers A M	38¾	38	38¾
Cal Pack	73	72¾	73
Cal Pet	32¾	32¼	32¾
Cal & Arizona	72¾	72	72¼
Cal & Hecla	17¼	17¼	17¼
Can South	60	60	60
Can Pac	165	165	165
Case Thr M	165¾	164	164¼
Case Thr M pf	118¾	118	118¼
Cerro de Pasco	71¾	71¾	71¾
Ches & O	149¾	147¾	149
Chi & Al pf	8¾	8¾	8¾
Chi & NW	78¾	78¼	78¾
Chi Gt W	9¾	9¾	9¾
Chi Gt W pf	25	24¾	24¾
Chi M&SP ct	12¾	12¼	12¼
Chi M&SP pf	23¼	22	23
Chi M&SP	13¾	13¼	13¼
Chi M&St pf	12¾	12¼	12¾
Chi M&SP pf ct	22¾	22¾	22¾
Chi RI & P	60¾	59¼	59¾
Chi RI&P 7pc pf	101¾	101½	101¾
Chile Cop	34¾	34¾	34¾
Christie Brown	44¼	44¼	44½
Chrysler	37½	37	37½
Chrysler pf	103¾	103¼	103¾
Col Fuel & Ir	45½	44¾	45¾
Col & So	67¾	67¾	67½
Colum G&E	83¾	82	82¾
Colum G&E pf	115	115	115
Com Solv B	164¾	163¾	164
Congol-Katan	24	23	24
Coll & Aikman	49¾	49¼	49½
Congress Cigar	42	42	42
Con Cig	72¾	71¾	72¾
Con Distrib	2¾	1¾	2
Con Gas	121	119	119
Con Textile	2¾	2¾	2¾
Cont Can	84	83	83½
Cont Mot	12	11¾	11¾
Corn Pro	46¾	45¾	45¾
Cub C Sug	9¾	9¼	9¾
Cub C Sug pf	40¾	39	40¾
Cub Co	50¾	50½	50½
Cub Co rts	10¾	10	10¾
Cub A Sug	24¾	24¾	25¾
Cudahy Pack	97¾	97¼	97¾
Curtiss Ch	37¾	36¾	37¾
Del & Hud	168	168	168
Del & RG W pf	43¾	43¾	43¾
Det Edison	134½	134¾	134½
Dodge Br A	32	31¾	31½
Dodge Br pf	57¾	57¾	57¾
Dome Mines	12½	11¾	11¾
Dupont de N	314½	300	313
Durham Hos	10	10	10
East Kodak	114¾	114¼	114¾
Eaton Axel	28¾	28¾	28¾
El Boat	8¼	8	8
El Pr & Lt	19¾	19¼	19¾
El Pr & Lt pf	96½	96½	96½
El Storage Bat	86½	87¾	85½
Elec Refrig	66¾	65¾	66
Erie	34¾	34	34¾
Erie 1st pf	43¾	43¾	43¾
Erie 2d pf	41¾	41	41
Eureka Vac	52¾	52¼	52¼
Fam Play	117¾	116¾	117
Fa Pub Ser	23¾	23¾	23¾
Fed Mot Tr	32¾	32¾	32¾
Fed Lt & Tr	32½	33½	33½
Fisk Rub	18¼	18	15
Fleischmann	51¾	51	51½
Fox Film	71	71	71
Freeport Tex	30¼	30¼	30¼
Gabriel Snub A	32	31½	32
Gen A T Car	45¾	44¾	45¾
Gen Asphalt	73¾	71½	73½
Gen Asphalt pf	114	113½	113½
Gen Cig	50¾	49¾	50¾
Gen El	95½	93	95¾
Gen El spl	11¾	11¼	11¾
Gen G & E	49¼	48½	49½
Gen Mot	214	210	211
Gen Ry Sig	90½	88¼	89½
Gimbel Br	57¼	57	57
Glidden Co	15¾	15½	15¾
Gold Dust	51½	50¾	50½
Goodrich	50¾	50½	50½
Goodyear pf	109¾	109	109¾
Gotham Hos	55¼	54¼	55½
Gotham Hos pf	118	117¾	118
Gotham Hos new	54½	51¾	54½
Granby	23	24¾	24¾
Gt Nor pf	75¾	75	75½
Gt Nor Ore	20	20	20
Gt West Sug	97	97	97
Greene Can	20	20	20
Gulf St Stl	74¾	74	74
Hoe & Co A	32	31¾	31¾
Homestake	55¼	55¼	55¾
Houston Oil	59¾	59	59¾
Howe Sound	57¾	57¼	57¾
Hud & Man	38¾	38¾	38¾
Hud & Man pf	79	79	79
Hudson Mot	70¾	68½	68¾
Hupp Mot	26¾	25¾	25¾
IM Cen	124	123¼	124
Ind Oil & Gas	26½	25	26½
Inger-Rand	92½	92½	92½
Inspiration Cop	25	25	25
Intercont Rub	16¼	16	16¼
Int Rap Tran	45	44¾	45
Int Cem pf	82	82	82
Int Com Eng	57¾	55¾	57½
Int Harvest	134	132¾	132¾
Int Mer Mar pf	30	30	30
Int Nickel	37¾	36¾	36¾
Int Pap	55¾	55	55
Int Tel & Tel	118	118	118
Int Tel & Tel rts	7¾	7¾	7¾
Jewel Tea	40¼	39½	40½
KC So	45¾	45¾	45¾
Kayser	39	39	39
Kelly S T	13	13¾	13
Kelly S T pf	61	61	61
Kennecott Cop	57¾	57¾	57½
Kresge St	23	23	23
Kreske SS	53½	53½	53½
Lago Oil & T	22¾	21¾	22¼
Lehn & Fink	37	37	37
Lee Rub & T	8	8	8
Lehigh	90½	90½	90¼
Life Savers	21	21	21
Lig & Myers B	84¾	84¾	84¾
Lig & Myers pf	123½	122½	122½
Lima Loc	62	62	62
Loew's Inc	41¾	41¾	41¾
Lorillard	33¾	32¾	33
Louisiana Oil	16¼	15¾	16¼
Lou & Nash	137¾	136¼	136½
Lou Gas & El	24¾	24¾	24¾
Ludlum Stl	38	34	38
Mack Tr	131¾	130½	131½
Macy RH	114¼	114	114½
Magma Cop	39¾	39¾	39¾
Mallinson	16¾	16¾	16¾
Man El Sup	84¾	83¾	84¾
Maracaibo Oil	34	34	34
Marland Oil	59½	59¾	59¾
Math Alkali	79¾	76	79¾
May Dep St	125¾	125½	125¾
Maytag Co	22½	22½	22½
McCrory St B	51	50	51
Mex Seabd Oil	10¾	10¾	10¾
Miami Cop	14¾	14¾	14¾
Mid Cont Pet	33	30¾	33
Mid States Oil	1¾	1¾	1¾
Mid Stl Pro pf	122	122	122
MStP & SSM	55	55	55
Mo K&T	37	37	37
Mo K&T pf	92¾	92	92
Mo Pac	39	38¾	39
Mo Pac pf	90¾	90¼	90¾
Montana Pr	79¾	79¾	79¾
Mont Ward	72	72¼	71¾
Mother Lode	6	6	6
Motor Wh	23¾	23¼	23¾
Murray Body	10¾	10¾	10¾
Nash Mot	58¼	57¼	58¼
Nat Biscuit	93	92¾	92
Nat Biscuit pf	129	128	129
Nat Cash Reg	42¼	42	42¼
Nat Dairy Pro	21¾	21¾	21¾
Nat En & St	21¾	21¼	21¾
Nat Lead	22	21¾	21¾
Nat Sup	64¾	64	64
Nevada Con	14¼	14	14¼
NY Air Br	42¾	42¾	42½
NY Canners	49	48¼	48¾
NY Central	139	138½	138¾
NY NH & H	46½	46	46¾
NY Ont & W	26¾	25½	25¾
Niag F Pr pf	29¼	28¼	28¾
Nor & W	163¼	161	165¾
Nor South	42½	40¾	42
Nor Am Co	55¾	54¾	55¾
Nor Pac	76¾	75½	75¾
Nor T&R	7¾	7¾	7¾
Nunnally	16¼	16¼	16¼
Oil Well Sup	34¾	34½	34½
Omnibus Co	15¾	15¾	15¾
Omnibus Co. pf	90	90	90
Otis El	120¼	120	120¼
Otis Stl	10	9¾	10
Pac Gas & Elec	129¾	129¾	129¾
Pac Oil	1½	1½	1½
Packard Mot	37¾	36¾	37¾
Pan A Pet	68	68	68
Pan A Pet B	69¼	67	68¼
Pan A W Pet B	38¾	38¼	38¾
Pan Pro&R	19¾	18¾	19¼
Park Utah Min	6¾	6¼	6½
Pathe Ex A	56½	56¾	56¼
Penn RR	54¾	54½	54½
Penn Seabd Stl	1¼	1¼	1¼
Peoria & E	23	23	23
Pere Mar	99¾	98¾	99¾
Phil & R C&Ir	40	39	39½
Phil Pet	48¼	47¾	48¼
Pierce Ar	30¾	30¼	30¾
Pierce Ar pf	118¾	117½	118¼
Pierce Oil	¾	¾	¾
Pierce Pet	3¼	3	3¼
Pit Tar Coal	40	40	40
Postum Cereal	107	104¾	105½
Pub S NJ	91	90¾	91
Pullman Co	36¼	35½	36½
Punt Al Sug	36½	35½	36½
Pure Oil	27¾	26¾	27¾
Radio Corp	43¾	42¾	43¾
Ray Con Cop	14¾	14¾	14¾
Reading	97	95¾	95¾
Reading rts	17¾	17¾	17¾
Reis Robert	10	9¾	10
Rem Type	119½	118¼	119
Replogle Stl	10½	10¼	10¼
Rep Ir & Stl	61¾	61	61¾
Rep Ir & Stl pf	93¼	93¾	93½
Reynolds Tob B	97½	97¼	97½
Roy Dutch NY	50½	50¾	50½
Rutland pf	55¾	55¼	55¾
St. Jos Lead	44¾	44¾	44¾
StL & SF	97	96¼	96¼
Schulte St	50	49¾	49¾
Seabd Air L	24¾	24½	24¾
Seabd Air L pf	37	36¾	37
Sears-Roebuck	57¾	56¾	57¾
Seneca Cop	5¾	5½	5½
Shattuck FG	62½	62½	62½
Shell Un Oil	28¾	28¾	28¾
Shell Un Oil pf	107½	107½	107½
Shubert Th	69¾	68¾	69
Simms Pet	17¾	17½	17¾
Simmons	33¼	33	33
Sin Con Oil	22	21	22
Skelly Oil	54¼	53¾	54
Sloss Sh Stl	142	139	139
So Dairies A	53¾	53	53½
So Dairies B	31¾	31½	32½
So Pac	107¾	106¾	106¾
So PR Sug	114½	112	112¾
So Ry	125¾	120	120¾
So Ry pf	93½	95	93¾
Spicer Mfg	23¾	23¼	23¼
Stand G&E	55	54¾	55
Stand O Cal	61¾	60¾	61¾
Stand O NJ	44¾	43¾	44
Stand O NJ pf	116½	116¾	116¾
Stewart Warner		75¼	75¾
Stromberg	67	66¾	67
Studebaker	55½	54¾	55¾
Submar Boat	1¾	1½	1¾
Tenn Cop	11¾	11¾	11¾
Tex Co	54¼	53¾	54
Tex Gulf Sulph	171¾	166¾	171½
Tex & P	56½	55¾	56
Tex & P C&O	15	14¾	15
The Fair	27¾	27¾	27¾
Tide W Oil pf	91¾	91¾	91¾
Timken Roll B	61½	61	61¾
Tob Pro	107	106	107
Tob Pro A	112¾	112¾	112¾
Transcon Oil	5	4¾	5
Un Bag & Pap	54	54	54
Un Carbide	90¾	88¾	90
Un Oil Cal	53¾	52¼	53
Un Pac	158	157	157½
Un Pac pf	80	80	80
Un Alloy Stl	34	33¾	33¾
Un Cig	108¼	105¾	108¼
Un Drug	161	159¾	160
Un Drug 1st pf	57¾	57¾	57¾
US CIP & F	243½	140	242
US Distrib	55¾	55	55
US Hoffman	49¾	49¾	49¾
US In Alco	70¾	68½	69½
US R & Im	62	61	62
US Rub	60¼	59¾	60¼
US Rub 1st pf	107	107	107
US Smelt	38½	38¾	38½
US Steel	156¾	153¾	156¼
US Steel pf	128¾	128¾	128¾
Un Pipe & R	25	24¼	24½
Vanadium	41¾	38¾	41¾
Va C Chi	13¾	13¾	13¾
Vick Ch	48	47¾	47¾
Vivaudou	31¾	31¾	31¾
Wabash	46¾	46¼	46¾
Wabash pf A	75¼	75	75½
Waldorf	30¾	30½	30¾
Walworth	18	18	18
Ward Bak B	31	30	30¾
Ward Bak pf	91	91	91
Warner Pic A	30¾	29¼	30¼
Warren Br	49¾	49¾	49¾
West Penn El pf	100	100	100
West Md	13¾	13¾	13¾
West Md 2nd pf	22	21¾	21¾
West Pac pf	84¾	84¾	84¾
West Penn pr pf	111¾	111¾	111¾
West Union	146¾	146	146¾
Wesths Air Br	134¼	133½	134
Wesths El	70¾	69¾	70¾
Weston El In	18¼	18¼	18¼
Wheel & LE	24½	24½	24½
White E Oil	26	26	26
White Mot	62¾	62¼	62¾
Wick Spen Stl	1	¾	1
Willys-Over	23½	23	23¾
Wilson	10	10	10
Woolworth	168¾	167	167¾
Wor Pump	23¾	23¾	23¾
Wright Aero	37¾	36¼	36¼
Yel Tr & C	31	32¾	32½
Yel Tr & C pf	105	105	105
Youngs S&T	93¾	93¼	93¾

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat—	High	Low	Close
Sept.	135½	137	135¼ 136¼b
Dec.	146¾	141½	140¾ 141¾-½
May	146	146¼	146¼ 146½
Corn—
Sept.	86¾	89½	89¾ 91¼-⅝
Dec.	85¾	85¾	85 85¾-¾
May	92	92¾	91¾ 92⅛
Oats—
Sept.	39¾	40¼	39½ 39¾-½
Dec.	43¼	43½	43 43⅝-¾
May	46⅞	47¾	46⅝ 47⅛b

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

Sterling—	Yesterday	Year Ago
Demand	$4.85 9-16	$4.85 9-16
Cables	4.86	$4.85 15-16
Francs	2.73½	3.71½ 4.87⅛
Lire	3.29¾	3.29¾ 3.62
Swiss francs	19.33	19.31½ 19.43
Pesetas	15.26	15.25 14.50⅛
Belgian francs	2.09½	2.09 ....
Guilders	40.16	40.10 40.28
Greece	1.10¾	1.09½ 1.58
Kronen	.00143⅛	.00143⅛ .00143⅛
Marks	23.81	23.81 23.81
Sweden	26.78	26.77 26.89
Denmark	26.60	26.56 22.91
Norway	21.60	21.90 18.46
Argentina	31.60	31.60 31.60
Brazil	15.40	15.37 12.10
India	36.56	36.46 36.68
Japan	47.90	47.52 41.14

WHITE & ALEXANDER
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS
OFFICES
Norwich ..... Shaw Bldg
New London ..... Plant Bldg

THE WIDE-AWAKE CIRCLE

Boys' and Girls' Department

RULES FOR YOUNG WRITERS

1—Write plainly on one side of the paper.

2—Use pen and ink, not pencil.

3—Short and pointed articles will be given preference. Do not use over 300 words.

4—Original stories or letters only will be used.

5—Write your name, age and address plainly at the bottom of the story.

POETRY FOR THE WIDE AWAKES

The Snare

I Hear a sudden cry of pain!
There is a rabbit in a snare:
Now I hear the cry again,
But I cannot tell from where.

But I cannot tell from where
He is calling out for aid;
Crying on the frightened air,
Making everything afraid.

Making everything afraid,
Wrinkling up his little face,
As he cries again for aid,
And I cannot find the place!

And I cannot find the place
Where his paw is in the snare,
Little one! O, little one!
I am searching everywhere.
James Stephens, In Our Dumb Animals.

Looking Forward

'Tis midnight flow; the world's asleep:
The vigil long, the darkness deep;
The groaning earth is cursed with kings
And the wind of night no comfort brings.
But the dawn will break
And the world will wake
And nemesis the time o'ertake!

The strong ones grasp the reins of power
And claim creation as their dower;
Like grain upon the threshing floor
They tread the helpless and the poor;
But the world will wake
And the earth will quake
And the tyrant's chain asunder break!

Or west or east in all the land
Oppression rules with iron hand
Instead of peace behold a horde
Who make an idol of the sword!
But the world will wake
And the chain will break
And the hurts be healed for conscience's sake!

Despite the toiler's pain and sweat
He gets not his reward as yet;
Few think of justice for the poor
And less rebuke the red wrongdoer,—
But the day will break
And the light will wake
And the fruit of wrong the wrong o'ertake!

'Tis midnight now, but the dawn will come,
And the lips of Truth be no more dumb;
And the proper price of zeal did await
Be paid to cheated effort yet!
For the day will break
And the world will wake
And the cruel gods and the false forsake!

Arthur Goodenough.

UNCLE JED'S TALK TO THE WIDE AWAKES.

One day this week in Norwich a number of boys played a joke on some older people nearby and it gave them no little pleasure to see the men rush to the river expecting to see a boy drowning. The whole thing was a joke by the boys in swimming, one of them crying out for help, which was not needed.

Every member of the Wide Awake circle knows that this was a dangerous thing to do. If the boys continued to joke about someone drowning the day is sure to come when one of them may really be in need of help and people will hear their cries for help and pay no attention to them, thinking it is simply another poor joke.

If such a thing happened some boy would drown and sorrow would come into what was formerly a happy home. How little did these boys think of the danger of their joke when they tried it. Had they stopped to think of the danger they were likely to encounter at some later day they would never have tried it.

A cry for help should never be used as a joke. Everyone hearing a cry for help naturally rushes in the direction of the appeal, determined that the life of the party in danger shall be saved if it possible for them to do so.

If they find that they have been made to play the part of the "goat" the would be rescuers will probably be shy of answering future calls in that vicinity at least.

Let every Widawake make a pledge today he or she will never take part in such a dangerous joke and feel that it is his or her duty to see that other children are taught to realize the danger, and never use the cry for help unless real danger faces them or the life of companions.

WINNERS OF PRIZE BOOKS.

Vida Burgess, Danielson—The Girl Scouts Rally.

Elizabeth L. Lurenier, Jewett City—Little Prudy's Cousin Grace.

Margaret Hines, Baltic—Ruth Fielding at the War Front.

Edwin Carl Cole, Jr., Versailles—The Boy Scouts, Automobilists.

Clarencer Chandler, Danielson—The Moving Picture Boys Great Venture.

Gladys E. Daigneau, Plainfield—The Girl Scouts at Home.

LETTERS OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Doris E. Day, Plainfield—I received my book this noon and I am very much pleased with it. Thank you for it.

Florence Blackburn—I received the book you sent me and I like it very much.

LETTERS WRITTEN BY WIDE AWAKES

Making The Flag

Dear Uncle Jed: This is my first letter to you and the Wideawakes When George Washington wanted the American flag he told Betsy Ross just how he wanted the flag, with seven white stripes, six red stripes, and thirteen white stars in a bluefield. Betsy said she could make it, so George Washington said he would come the next day. I hope I win a prize.

ODILLO CORIATY, Age 10.
Willimantic.

Connecticut

Dear Uncle Jed: I am going to write and tell you some facts about Connecticut and its cities. The first settlement in Connecticut was made about 1614 by the Dutch, who sailed up the Connecticut river and established a trading post where the city of Hartford now stands. In 1633 English settlers from Massachusetts began to come to the same region.

The first English settlements were made at Hartford, Windsor and Wethersfield.

There was constant friction between the English settlers and the Dutch traders, and the Dutch were soon outnumbered and finally withdrew leaving the English in full possession.

English settlements were made at Saybrook in 1635, and at New Haven in 1638. New Haven is the largest city in the state, and the second in the value of its manufactured products. It is the seat of Yale university. Bridgeport is situated about seventeen miles west of New Haven, on the best harbor in western Connecticut. Other cities are, New London, Norwich, Hartford, and Meridan.

The population of New Haven is, 147,096 people. I hope the Wideawakes will enjoy my story.

CLARENCE CHANDLER, Age 10.
Danielson.

My Pet Bantam

Dear Uncle Jed: I thought I would write and tell the Wideawakes about my pet. My pet is a bantam hen, I call her Little Betsey, she is brown with a white feather on her wing; she is eight weeks old, every night she goes in the hen house last. She picks at the buttons on my shoes. Last night when I went to shut up the hens she wasn't in the hen house, then I went and looked for her, I found her in some bushes: I picked her up and carried her to the hen house and shut the hens up then. I hope I don't have to find her tonight.

VIDA BURGESS, Age 11.
Danielson.

A Dead Shot.

Dear Uncle Jed: I am going to tell you about the red squirrel I shot. I saw something jumping along on the ground. I thought it was a bird at first, but soon found it to be a squirrel. So I took my rifle, loaded it up and went out. The squirrel started up a tree, to hide from me. I saw him lying on a limb watching me, so I brought my rifle carefully to my shoulders, took aim and fired. He dropped down from the tree dead. I had shot him in the head.

I have shot four woodchucks.

Yours truly,
MILTON GEER.
Baltic.

A Bad, Errand

Dear Uncle Jed: This is my first letter to the Wide Awakes. My little brother Henry and I were playing house and my brother Henry told me to go to the store and buy two loaves of bread and one pound of lard. I went to the store, and bought 10 cens worth of candy and some peanut butter and then I went home. When my brother saw what I had bought he put me to bed and told me to stay there for the rest of the day. I fell asleep and he could not wake me up so he began whipping me until I awoke.

ROSALIE YERRINGTON, Age 9.
Norwich.

The Nothing Cow.

Dear Uncle Jed: I have not written to you or the Wide-Awakes for a long time, so I thought I would write and tell you about our cow. Her name is Daisy. She is red and white.

A few days ago my father sold her to a man living next door. The man tied her to an apple tree and she broke the rope and came home. He came up after her and took her home. Then he put her in the barnyard and she knocked down the fence and came home again.

I don't think she will ever forget her own home where she was brought up and cared for.

GRACE BITGOOD, Age 10.
Voluntown.

A Trip.

Dear Uncle Jed: This is my first letter to the Wide-Awakes. I am going to tell you about a trip I took on my birthday to Atlantic Beach. The next door neighbor took the whole family in her car. The first thing we did when we got to the beach was to go in bathing. After that we had lunch and cut the cake that my mother made, decorated with candy, for my birthday. I got a bathing suit from my mother.

RUSSEL YERRINGTON, Age 10.
Norwich.

A letter From New York City

Dear Uncle Jed: I am writing to tell you and the Wideawakes what a nice visit I am having in New York. Mother and I went to Battery park to visit the aquarium, where every kind of fish in the world is kept. Next we went to Central park to see many kinds of interesting animals, but most of our time we are spending at Coney Island and there are all kinds of attractions here. We enjoyed a visit to the Statue of Liberty, at Bronx Zoological park we had the variety which is the spice of life. We saw lions, turtles, porcupines, bears, seals, tigers, skunks, weasels, beavers, reptiles of all kinds, minks, wild-swine, giraffes, sea-lions, hippopotamus, kangaroos, monkeys, elephants also all kinds of birds. The gray squirrels ate peanuts from my hand. I hope to visit the American museum of Natural History located on the west side of Central park, also the Metropolitan museum of Art before I leave New York. I like to ride on the subway and elevated trains. Hoping to see my letter in the Monday morning Bulletin, I will close with good wishes to you all. Your friend.

EDWIN CARL COLE, Jr, Age 9.
Versailles.

Aboard a 'Navy Boat

Dear Uncle Jed: I am writing to tell you about my trip to Newport. I had a very nice time. We were taking my dad back to his boat. He is a lieutenant on the U. S. S. New York. While we were driving in Providence we went to Roger Williams park. It was very pretty there. There was a flag and the words Long May it Wave in flowers. It was beautiful.

We had a shore dinner at Newport beach and then dad checked the car and we went aboard a small naval boat which took us over to the New York. We were shown all over the boat and to me it was a wonderful sight as I never before had seen the inside of such a large boat.

We had a pleasant trip home but not so pleasant for mother and me because we had left dad behind.

We reached home just before 11 o'clock and I was soon in the land of nod.

FREDERICA GRISHAM, Age 9.
Groton.

My Father's Garden

Dear Uncle Jed: This is about the third time I have written to you. I am going to tell you about my father's garden. My father has a big garden and in it there is corn, peas, potatoes and many other things. We help him water the garden. One night we took our dog Prince to the garden. He didn't want to get in the auto but my father put him in. When we were coming home he got in all right. That was the first time he

POSSIBLY SHOWERS TODAY; FAIR TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., MONDAY, AUGUST 16, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Monday, August 16, 1926

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

High pressure prevails over the North Atlantic states

Winds.

North of Sandy Hook: Gentle moderate west winds over north and moderate to fresh easterly over south portion; weather partly overcast Monday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Moderate northeast and east winds; weather partly overcast with occasional showers Monday.

Forecast.

For eastern New York, southern New England: Cloudy, possibly light showers Monday, Tuesday fair and warmer followed by thundershowers in afternoon or at night.

Observations.

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Saturday and Sunday:

Saturday—	Temp.	Bar.
7 a. m.	74	30.20
12 m.	45	30.20
6 p. m.	70	30.20
Highest 85, lowest 69.
Sunday—	Temp.	Bar.
7 a. m.	70	30.25
12 m.	81	30.30
6 p. m.	74	30:40

Comparisons.

Predictions for Saturday: Local thundershowers.

Saturday's weather: Threatening in morning, rain in evening.

Predictions for Sunday: Probably local thundershowers.

Sunday's weather: Fair.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

(Standard Time)

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
16	4.57	6.47	2.00	11.00
17	4.58	6.46	3.56	11.38
18	4.59	6.45	4.57	morn.
19	5.00	6.44	5.56	0.23
20	5.01	6.43	6.54	1.17
21	5.02	6.40	7.47	2.22
22	5.03	6.39	8.40	3.35

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Miss Irene Barry has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barry of Merchants avenue, following a visit of five weeks with relatives in North Adams, Mass.

Miss Elizabeth Houston of South Second avenue and Miss Mary Greenhalgh of North A street have returned from Montreal, Canada, where they have been spending the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Whitehead and Peter Lukoff of Boswell avenue were Sunday visitors in Woodville, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stoklosa and family are moving this week from Norwich avenue to a house on Terrace avenue.

A Hartford Sunday paper carries a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Blanchette, who were recently married, and their bridal attendants.

Mrs. O. Senecal, Armand Senecal and Miss Jeanette Senecal of 14 South B street are visiting relatives in Sherbrooke, P. Q., Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fontaine and family of Hunters avenue moved Saturday to their new residence on Merchants avenue.

A colorful floral exhibit may be found in the gardens at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newton of North A street, where gladioli in beautiful and unusual hues may be found blooming profusely.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Crowell of Edgewood, R. I., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earle M. Wood of North Third avenue.

Oscar Dube of the Ponemah house has resigned his position with the No. 6 weaving department of the Ponemah company.

William Hardy of South Fourth avenue has been confined to his home with an infected finger.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Heselton and children Kendall and Revella of North B street motored to Baltouville, where they were guests of relatives over the week-end.

Gustave Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fogarty and two children Grace and Thomas of South Second avenue were at Watch Hill Sunday.

Matters of considerable importance will be discussed by members of the Taftville Rod and Gun club at a special meeting to be held this (Monday) evening at the French club. This club, which was recently organized, has a membership of 83 lively members and the president of the club is Fred Dugas, who has caught the biggest bass, weighing close to 5 pounds, in the contest conducted by the club.

Sixty pheasants secured from the State Fish and Game commission have been released in Taftville and Lisbon the past week and a consignment of 120 pheasants is expected to arrive in a short time to be distributed in the vicinity where persons hold membership. Trout were to have been released in the Lisbon brooks by the club, but owing to the unfavorable conditions of the water, they will not be planted until the water reaches a lower temperature.

Although the club is not yet a year old, the members have done considerable work in the way of feeding quail, partridge and other birds during the winter, releasing pheasants, etc. Members of the club, who have taken scouting trips in the woods, report the quail as plentiful, but that the partridge are scarce and advise hunters to refrain from killing them the coming hunting season.

IRA M. ORNBURN HEADS CIGARMAKERS' UNION

Returns of the election of officers of the Cigarmakers Int. Union received here show that Ira M. Ornburn of New Haven has been elected international president to succeed Geo. W. Perkins who declined the nomination for re-election on account of ill health. Mr. Ornburn who has been very active in the labor movement in Connecticut has served as first vice president since the death of Samuel Gompers and also was secretary of the Connecticut F. of L. for a number of years. He is well known in labor circles in Norwich and his many friends here will be pleased to learn of the cigarmakers' selection and wish him well in the new field. Two other New England men were also elected to office, Wm. Smith of Manchester, N. H., as first vice president and E. Van Poppel of Boston as fifth vice president.

Swimming Pool Popular

The local Y. M. C. A. swimming pool was never so popular as during the last few weeks, large numbers of men and boys are taking full advantage of the cooling waters these hot days.

Hartford will have no aviation meet this year, it was announced yesterday.

OVER 1,000 KLANSMEN ATTEND MEETING AT NORTH STONINGTON

Over 1,000 knights of the Ku Klux Klan representing three New England states, gathered at the fair grounds in North Stonington Saturday night for a conclave at which several speakers of prominence in the eastern part of the country were heard. The names of the speakers were not divulged. Norwich Klansmen were present at the meeting, making the trip by automobile. One of the Norwich Klansmen who attended the session authorized the statement that there were exactly 583 automobile parties at the meeting, an accurate count of the machines being made by Klan guards at the fair ground's gate.

The three New England states represented at the meeting were Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts and in addition there were Klansmen present from New York state, it is said. Two truckloads of robed Klansmen from the vicinity of Danielson drove through Franklin square late Saturday afternoon en route to the Klan gathering.

During the session at the North Stonington fair grounds, Windham county Klansmen in robes formed a human cross. A band provided a concert programme during the evening and about midnight a cross was burned on the grounds. It was one of the largest Klan gatherings held in this section of the state in months.

SLEEPY DRIVER BARELY ESCAPES ONCOMING TRAIN

The current issue of the motor vehicle department bulletin quotes as follows from an explanation offered by a motor vehicle driver against whom a complaint was lodged for having driven over a railroad crossing in front of a train in disregard of a watchman's signal:

"I was just dosing off to sleep at the time I happened to reach this crossing at 9:45 p. m., so in that case I couldn't very well pay much heed to the flagman's signal. The party with me at the time poked me with his elbow when we got over the crossing which suddenly I brightened up and come to. Where and what do you think you just done, he says. I says why? He says you fool you just run in front of a train at the crossing and I thought that was the end of both of us."

The incident is cited in the bulletin in connection with a discussion of the necessity for close attention to the business of driving by all people in charge of motor vehicles, especially when in the vicinity of a railroad crossing. Disregard of signals at crossings, including the act of trying to drive a car over a crossing as gates are being lowered, is condemned.

"Just why a railroad crossing should be selected as a proper point at which to turn a car is hard to say, yet many cars are reported for this ill-judged operation," says the bulletin, this issue of which is from the pen of Miss Helen W. Traver, chief of the complaint section of the motor vehicle department. She says that, in a small percentage of cases in which operators are called upon to answer to complaints of reckless driving at railroad crossings, the operator involved admits that he was driving "a bit fast" for such a location, usually because he was late for a business engagement or in quest of a doctor.

Thirty-four per cent. of the grade crossings in Connecticut are protected either by men or mechanical devices, according to the bulletin. It quotes a judicial decision in a Missouri case in which the court held that "the law requires the traveler to anticipate that the company may fail to give the statutory signals, and to act upon that theory; just as it requires the railroad company to anticipate that the traveler will fail to hear, or will disregard the signal when given, and to keep reasonable watch for such instances, and be prepared to protect those guilty of such carelessness." It also quotes Berry's book on "The Law of Automobiles" to the effect that while the motor vehicle driver has an equal right with the railroad company to use the crossing and is under the same duty to exercise all reasonable care to avoid a collision, he never has the right of way over the train.

The department received 792 complaints last year against operators driving over railroad grade crossings at rates of speed that would make it impossible for them to stop in the event of the approach of a train. Connecticut ranks high, however, in a recent survey made by the safety department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company. The Bulletin says that only two other states had a lower percentage of grade crossings accidents than Connecticut, in proportion to their registrations.

HAS PLANS DRAWN FOR DOUBLE BUNGALOW

Contractor Charles W. Burton of No. 744 North Main street has had plans drawn for a double bungalow that he will build on one of his lots on North Main street, near his residence.

This will be the first double bungalow to be built in this city and each section of the bungalow will contain six rooms and bath and all the up to date improvements with fireplaces, etc. A double garage will be built in the rear.

Mr. Burton has named all his houses and this one will be called "Burton's Twin Six."

He also has plans drawn for a bungalow containing six rooms and bath that he plans on building on the Boswell avenue section of his property.

This bungalow will have all modern conveniences and will be up to date in every respect.

Both bungalows and garages will be built of rock face cement blocks manufactured by Mr. Burton and when built will be coated with white Trus-con Stone Fex giving them a beautiful finish.

NORWICH BOYS TO ATTEND REUNION OF OLD 56TH

The reunion of the 56th Artillery (C. A. C.) in which many local boys served in the World War will be held in Greenwich Sunday Sept. 5th. Word has been received by Dist. Vice Pres. Geo. J. Malcolm that the Greenwich boys have gone over the top in raising the funds and that this reunion will be the largest ever held. There will be a business meeting at 10 a. m. in the armory after which there will be a short street parade followed by a clam bake and entertainment in the afternoon. Norwich will be well represented at the reunion.

NORWICH WOMAN TO SPEAK AT CONVENTION

Miss Anna McGrory of this city, Miss Elizabeth Cronin of Colchester, Mrs. John Reilly of Willimantic and Miss Clara Larned of Putnam will take prominent parts in the programme for the annual conference of the Connecticut Council of Catholic Women to be held at Lakeville Manor, Lakeville, Ct., Thursday and Friday, September 2nd and 3rd. For the past few years, this conference has brought together leaders in the work from all parts of the diocese. Members from towns throughout eastern Connecticut will be present at the conference.

Not only has it been a pleasure for the members to meet and become better acquainted but they have gained a great deal of inspiration through interchange of ideas in regard to the various activities in which the council is engaged. The programme has not yet been completed, but the preliminary programme is as follows:

Thursday, Sept. 2, at 10 a. m., subject, The Study Club Movement; chairman, Miss Mary P. O'Flaherty, speaker, Miss Elizabeth Sweeney, Natl. Catholic Welfare conference, Chicago. Discussion, Mrs. Joseph McElroy, Norwalk, Mrs. Chas. Harris, New Haven, Mrs. Chas. Jackson, Waterbury, Miss Helen Pagnam, Wallingford.

2 p. m., subject: "Other Peoples' Daughters"; chairman, Mrs. Howard E. Critchfield, Hartford. Discussion, Mrs. Rose LeGrande Clark, New Haven, Mrs. John Pickett, Middletown, Miss Clara Larned, Putnam, Mrs. Jane Smith, Winsted.

4 p. m., subject: "Publicity Methods in Our Work"; chairman, Mrs. Peter Davey, Bridgeport. Discussion, Mrs. M. J. Morrissey, Hartford, Mrs. Daniel F. Toomey, Norwalk, Mrs. Lucy Kelson, Torrington.

Friday, Sept. 3, at 10 a. m., subject; "Our New Neighbors"; discussion, Miss Mary Lengen, Bridgeport, Mrs. Joseph Woods, New Britain, Miss Bertha Lichnoosky, Mrs. E. W. Nolan, Meriden.

2 p. m., subject: "Rural Catechism Centers and Vacation Schools"; Rev. Matthew J. Judge, diocesan director. Discussion, Miss Anna McGrory, Norwich, Mrs. John Reilly, Willimantic, Miss McCarthy, Rockville, Mrs. Henry Lee, Danbury, Miss Elizabeth Cronin, Colchester.

4 p. m., subject: "National Catholic School of Social Service and the Endowment Fund"; chairman, Mrs. Thomas F. Garvan. Reports from members of the diocesan committee on the endowment fund.

The National Council of Catholic Women, in order to pay off the indebtedness due on the property of the National Catholic school of Social Service and to put the school on a sound financial basis, launched the country-wide campaign to raise an endowment fund of $600,000 May 15th. The closing date was at first set for June 30th, but has now been extended to December 30, in order to give every council an opportunity to participate in the campaign to the fullest extent and thus insure its success. The quota proposed is $40,000, to be raised by solicitation from Catholic men and women throughout the diocese. Mrs. Thomas F. Garvan is chairman of the diocesan committee, charged with the responsibility of raising the fund in Connecticut. The following members are represented on the central committee:

Mrs. Joseph Horne, Stamford; Mrs. Joseph McElroy, Norwalk; Mrs. P. F. McDonough, New Britain; Mrs. John F. Pickett, Middletown; Mrs. John D. Desmond, New Haven; Miss Anna Sheehan, New Haven; Mrs. Charles A. Jackson, Waterbury; Mrs. Arthur T. Keefe, New London; Mrs. W. K. Tingley, Norwich; Miss Kathleen Regan, Rockville; Mrs. James J. Quinn, Hartford; Mrs. John Reilly, Willimantic; Miss Rita Dolin, Hartford; Mrs. Charles Barrett, Hartford; Mrs. Allan Brosmith, Hartford; Miss Marguerite Boylan, secretary.

Representatives on the central committee have organized local sub-committees to assist in the work in the various communities. One member who pledged to raise $1,000 reports that she has almost raised her quota by securing $10 each from 100 persons. Another member, who pledged to raise $1,000 reports that she has already exceeded her quota by accepting contributions in amounts ranging from $1 to $100.

Scholarship to the National Catholic School of Social Service for 1926-27 has been awarded to Miss Alice Moran, of New London. Miss Moran graduated from Connecticut college in June. For two summers Miss Moran has volunteered her services at the Diocesan Bureau of Social Service in Hartford, in order to gain practical experience in the work. She has proved herself an ambitious and diligent student and her achievement gives promise of a successful career in the field of social service.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA AFTER LONG ABSENCE

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Montapert of Los Angeles, California with six children are spending a month in this city visiting Mrs. Montapert's mother Mrs. William Burton of No. 147 Prospect street.

This is their first visit here since they left 14 years ago.

SISTERS FROM EGYPT AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH

From the pulpit of St. Patrick's church Sunday at the four masses it was announced that the Bishop of the diocese had granted permission to two Sisters of Notre Dame to receive donations toward their work in Egypt, following the services. Sister Felix de Valois and Sister Laura du Sacrement accordingly met the members on the congregations in the vestibule, and although no previous announcement had been made of their coming, they received very liberal donations. These "White Sisters," wearing the white habit of their order, were guests over Sunday of the French nuns at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Taftville, going from there to Providence today (Monday) in the interest of their work.

While in America they are making their headquarters at St. Francis' hospital, 142nd St. and Brook Av., New York city. Their mother-house is in Grenoble, France. They are members of a mission band of 15 nuns stationed in Alexandria, Egypt, where they maintain schools for girls and boys, a convent, hospital and dispensary, teaching, ministering to the sick and aged and needy. Their charity reaches all classes and includes all denominations—and in urging a generous donation for their work, the rector of St. Patrick's, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May reminds this people that all charity should be catholic—that is, wide in its aim and scope, taking in the world, not limited to mere parochial or diocesan efforts.

Very aptly, the gospel read in all the masses throughout the world Sunday—the twelfth after Pentecost—was Luke X. 23-27—the parable of the Good Samaritan.

The nuns of Notre Dame, while devoting their lives and strength, talents and training to the charities indicated above, stress especially their efforts in rescuing and reclaiming wayward and unfortunate girls and young women in and about Alexandria, where conditions of morality are especially loose, and temptations rampant, because of soldiers, sailors, tourists and others thronging the city, also the attitude of certain of the government officials regarding young women in immoral resorts. For that reason the self-sacrificing and devoted nuns would extend the scope of their work for these unfortunates, consequently have been granted the permission of their superiors to place this special missionary effort before the ever liberal Catholics of America. Once the girls are rescued fro mtheir evil surroundings they are taught and trained to become useful and self-supporting women and are given help to continue in ways of virtue and morality. The two French nuns of Sunday, who speak English very well, had letters and credentials giving their holy and consecrated lives and labor the approval and the praise of civic as well as religious authorities.

It was announced from the pulpit at the various masses that th eItalian Catholics of the parish were extending an invitation to the other members to be present at the solemn festal mass at 9:30 this (Monday) morning by which the Italians will repeat the custom of their native country in their public honor of the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin. This feast fell on the 15th, Sunday. The Catholic church affectionately holds that, as the life of the Mother of Christ differed from the life of every other human being, so her death must have been different, that she must have been assumed by her Divine Son into Heaven, body and soul. The lesson of Sunday was Ecclesiasticus XXIV, 11-20, the Gradual Psalm 4 and the communion Luke 10, "Mary hath chosen for herself the best part, which shall not be taken from her forever." Hundreds received holy communion during the four masses.

DOUBLE LINE PARKING AT CHURCH PROHIBITED

Again Sunday it was necessary for the rector of St. Patrick's church, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May to remind his congregations to strictly observe the parking regulations during the Sunday services. Monsignor May requested owners of cars not to create a danger situation by parking in double lines, especially in front of the church on Broadway. He expressed the wish that every car owner live up to the request of the authorities, leaving cars standing in single lines on Broadway, Union street, or Perkins avenue, or to park in the parish school grounds when the streets are lined with machines. Then, too, cars must be parked parallel with the sidewalk. So many cars stand outside this church during the four masses that any infraction of rules has a tendency to impede traffic.

BOYS HELD FOR THEFTS FROM CAMP

Deputy Sheriff John J. McGuire of Baltic has arrested two boys who for some time past have been raiding the summer camp owned by Grosvenor Ely of Norwich, located this side of Baltic. The youths are aged 13 and 17 years and are brothers.

Suspicion pointed to the brothers and after an investigation Deputy Sheriff McGuire arrested the older brother, the younger appearing before the juvenile court. The hearing was held Saturday morning in the Norwich city court, before Judge Arthur F. Libby, but as Mr. Ely was out of town the hearing was postponed until Wednesday next.

It is alleged that the brothers have confessed their acts and are to make restitution for the damage done.

At Silver Bay Summer School

Word from Emery H. Davis of the Y. M. C. A. indicates that the Silver Bay "Y" Summer school where he is spending two weeks is a very busy place, a large number of "Y" men being in attendance.

NORWICH TOWN

Friends and acquaintences learned with profound sorrow of the death of Mrs. Charles Rogers (Ruth Marion Kinney) eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Kinney (Bessie Benham), of Roosevelt avenue, Norwich. Mrs. Rogers death came as a shock to those who knew her best. A faithful wife, mother and daughter, her loss will be most keenly felt in the home where are two small children, Ruth, an attractive little girl about three and an infant son, less than a week old.

Although born and reared in New London, much of her life has been passed in Norwich Town, only having moved from there July 1st, the family having lastly resided on West Town street. For about one year the Rogers family occupied an apartment in the former Harland mansion, on Sentry Hill.

District Agent Frederic H. Wyant of the Connecticut Humaine society, paid a visit to the society's general office at 300 Washington street, Hartford, Thursday, in the interests of the work. In covering the Norwich-New London district, Agent Wyant finds plenty to do and it is noticeable that the work of relieving suffering humanity as well as animals which come under the society's jurisdiction is constantly increasing. It is equally as noticeable that the activities of the management and agents, in different sections of the state, are also increasing in an effort to suppress distress.

While the society is appreciative of the co-operation of the public in past years, it is always desirous of increasing interest in its work. Agent Wyant is prompt in answering humane calls and in answering questions concerning his branch of the work. There is a penalty for abandoning animals, and a liberal reward has been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person who cruelly abandons a cat, dog or any other animal.

Notices are also in circulation concerning the sale, trade, or giving away of an unfit or disabled horse; as well as rigid instructions concerning the handling and transporting of live poultry.

Connecticut Humane society handles in the course of a year many hundreds, even reaching into thousands of such cases. If people when leaving for a vacation of a few weeks would communicate with Agent Wyant about the family cat, providing there is no one to care for it during their absence, he will either call for the animal or suggest necessary proceedings as to its disposal. For the New London County Fair association, Agent Wyant will have charge of about 100 of the prize winning posters, in the Humane Poster Contest, held the early part of this year under the auspices of that society. These posters will be on display at the fair. Agent Wyant at this time, will have the assistance of two boys from Troop No. 20, Boy Scouts of Norwich Town, of which he is scoutmaster.

Although leaving early Thursday morning with apparently favorable weather, those who attended the picnic of the First Congregational church held at Ocean Beach, encountered the terrific thunder shower, with a heavy down-pour of rain, that afternoon. While at the beach many enjoyed bathing while others took the sail around the Lighthouse to have a view of President Coolidge's yacht, the Mayflower. At noon basket lunches were eaten and watermelon, the gift of a friend was cut and distributed.

The special trolley car which left the church at 8:25, that morning was nearly filled. In returning, the trolley left the beach at six o'clock, nearly an hour later than was scheduled because of the severity of the storm. On Montauk avenue, there was so much water on the track the car was obliged to halt for a time. Because of this the picnic party did not reach Norwich Town until about 9:20. A number of members went to the beach by automobile. The Sunday school was accompanied by its superintendent, Dwight W. Avery, also by the pastor, Rev. Gurdon F. Bailey. Clyde M. Beebe was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Miss Edith A. Hatton of Boston, is spending a vacation of two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Wagner of 27 West Town street.

At the opening of Willimantic Camp Meeting Saturday, following out a custom of years, Frederick H. Bushnell of Huntington avenue began his duties of special policeman. Mrs. Albert G. Miner has charge of the Norwich Town house.

A. D. Zabriskie of Vergason avenue is among those who will remain through the week on the Camp Ground.

IN THE DAYS OF OUR FOREFATHERS

When America was young, the wise pioneer women learned to gather, in woods and fields, the remedies the Indians used. From the rafters of colonial houses hung great bunches of dried roots and herbs. From these, in times of sickness, the busy mother brewed remedies for her family.

From roots and herbs, Lydia E. Pinkham, a descendant of these sturdy pioneers, made her Vegetable Compound. For more than half a century this dependable medicine has been taken by women with very satisfactory results.

If it has helped other women, why shouldn't it help you?

Frigidaire
THE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR for MODERN HOMES
CARL W. BROWN. Inc.
Telephone 348.
ASK FOR LIST OF OVER 100 LOCAL USERS.

Kelvinator
The Oldest Domestic Electric Refrigerator
ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR
O'NEIL ELECTRIC CO.
Phone 86.

You can smoke them-
morning noon
and night
...because they're Smoothest
You can smoke OLD GOLD from Big Ben's morning call until you hit the hay at night . . . without parching your tongue or dulling your enjoyment. The new mellowing method does it . . . a Lorillard discovery which has made OLD GOLD the smoothest and most satisfactory cigarette in the world. One pack makes you a fan; two, a lifelong rooter.
OLD GOLD
The WORLD'S SMOOTHEST CIGARETTE
The Product of P. LORILLARD CO. Established 1760
Old Gold CIGARETTES THE TREASURE OF THEM ALL Old Gold CIGARETTES 20
20 for 15 cents

Norwich Bulletin

1786 1926

VOL. LXVIII—No. 196. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1926. TEN PAGES—76 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

JUDGE HENRY WADE ROGERS DIED AT HIS SUMMER HOME

Had Been Dean of the Yale Law School From 1903 to 1913—Succeeded Walter C. Noyes on Circuit Court Bench—Was a Famous Authority on International Law and Legal Jurisprudence.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 16—(AP)—Judge Henry Wade Rogers of the United States circuit court of appeals, famous authority on international law and legal jurisprudence, and widely known educator, died early today at his summer home on the Pennington road. He was 72 years old.

Judge Rogers, who made his home in Pennington seasonally since his marriage to Miss Emma F. Winner of that place, in 1876, stood in the forefront of the country's lawyers.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed. Interment will be at Nyack, N. Y.

Judge Rogers was born at Holland Patent, N. Y., in 1853. After being graduated from the University of Michigan he took his legal degree at Northwestern university, of which he later became president. He also held the post of dean of the Yale Law school.

He was a member of the bar associations of several states, served on many committees on legal policy and was the author of many legal works, including "Introduction to constitutional history as seen in American law," and "Illinois Citations."

SKETCH OF THE CAREER OF HENRY WADE ROGERS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 16—(AP)—Henry Wade Rogers was dean of Yale Law school for ten years and during his residence here he had active part in many civic affairs. After being appointed by President Woodrow Wilson to be a member of the United States Circuit court of the second district he continued to hold a chair in jurisprudence in the Law school until January 1921 when he retired having reached the retirement age for Yale professors. At that time the Yale corporation adopted a minute in recognition of his work at Yale Law school. It said in part: "Prof. Rogers assumed the duties of the deanship of the Law school in 1903 after the death of Dean Wayland and served in that position until 1913. He was the leader in the movement to place the law school on a graduate basis and to modernize both the curriculum and the methods of instruction. The university owes much to him as a gifted teacher, an able administrator, and a man of high ideals in his profession whose work resulted in placing the Law school on a sound educational basis to the great good of commonwealth."

Judge Rogers succeeded Walter C. Noyes of New London, Conn., who quite recently died, on the Circuit court bench. In his participation in politics in the state, he being a democrat, Dean Rogers made a speech in the national convention held at Baltimore in 1912 placing the name of Governor Simeon E. Baldwin of Connecticut before the convention for the presidential nomination.

Judge Rogers was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1874 and received the Master of Arts degree there in 1877. He was made a Doctor of Laws at Wesleyan university in 1890 and Yale gave him an honorary Master of Arts degree in 1907. He was admitted to the bar of Michigan in 1877 and became Tappan professor of law at the University of Michigan in 1883 and was dean of the Law school there from 1885 to 1890. He was president of Northwestern university from 1890 to 1900, lecturer at Yale Law school the next year, a professor in 1901 and became dean two years later.

In his outside activities he was chairman of the World's Congress of Jurisprudence and Law Reform at the Chicago exposition in 1893, general chairman of the Saratoga conference on the foreign policy of the United States in 1898, and had many times served as chairman at legal and international church conferences. He was an adherent to the Methodist Episcopal church and long was active in its affairs.

Judge Rogers was often mentioned during his residence in New Haven as a possible nominee for governor, for United States senator and for other offices but he always declined to permit use of his name even when nomination would have been without contest in the convention. He had presided over one state convention and had served his party in other ways.

Judge Rogers was a widower, Mrs. Rogers having died several years ago during residence in New York city.

Combated Hazing

CHICAGO, Aug. 16—(AP)—Federal Judge Henry Wade Rogers, who died in Trenton, N. J., was one of the first college presidents to take a stand against hazing. He was the tenth president of the Northwestern university.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF 18-YEAR OLD GIRL

GREENEVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 16—(AP)—Mrs. Robert Tipton, charged with murder, and her husband, held as a material witness, are in jail here tonight as the result of finding the almost decapitated body of Leola Winkle, 18, in a sub-cellar of the Tipton home near here today.

The girl, daughter of John Winkle, a neighbor of the Tiptons, had been their guest for about three weeks, since last Thursday she had been missing and Mrs. Tipton is said to have stated on that day that the child had gone back to her home. A search was started and armed with a search warrant, the searching party after several days hunt again reached the Tipton home today.

Mrs. Tipton was accused by an officer as the slayer of the missing girl and is said to have admitted the killing and led the searching party to the body over which it had passed innumerable times since Saturday.

The child's body gave evidence of having been dead for three or four days. The face had been beaten almost to a pulp and there were two huge gashes in the throat.

MOST DANGEROUS CHURCH THIEF IN UNITED STATES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A negro, known as the "church mouse" and the "Alabama leech," and characterized by the police as the most dangerous church thief in the United States, pleaded guilty before Judge William M. Lewis today to a charge of jail breaking.

The prisoner, Samuel Clark, 29, was recently arrested in Denver and brought here to face charges of robbing more than a score of the churches in this city of chalices and altar decorations valued at $10,000. He denied the thefts, but admitted having escaped from a local police station last March by picking the lock of his cell.

After Clark's escape, police said they found in his room three trunks containing silverware stolen from several churches.

ESCAPED COLLISION WITH "PHANTOM" SHIP

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—The story of a narrow escape from collision with a "phantom" fishing schooner off the Nantucket coast was brought here today by the commander of the steamship Transylvania, which arrived with 641 passengers from Glasgow, 24 hours overdue after battling a dense fog since Thursday.

Captain David W. Bone said his ship was about 30 miles off Nantucket yesterday morning when the fishing schooner was sighted almost under the bow of the vessel. No fog signals had been sounded, he said, and only by rapid maneuvering of his vessel was he able to clear the schooner.

The captain said there was no one visible aboard the schooner, but two dories with men in them were seen going toward the craft as the Transylvania moved on.

GOVERNMENT TO ENTER MONEY MARKET SEPT. 15

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Federal Reserve banks were notified today by Acting Secretary Winston of the treasury that the government would find it necessary to go into the money market on Sept. 15 for funds.

The nature of the government's financing operation at this regular quarterly period was not disclosed. Obligations totalling $486,000,000, which mature at that time, Mr. Winston explained, will not be offset entirely by tax collection in September.

CONDITION OF RUDOLPH VALENTINO FAVORABLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Rudolph Valentino, movie actor, lies seriously ill in the Polyclinic hospital tonight, waging a fight that is far different from any he has ever fought in his shiek roles on the movie screen.

The enemy in his present fight is not a cutlass-wielding bad man of the Arabian deseert, but thousands of tiny, invisible germs that caused complications, including peritonitis, following a double operation yesterday for gastric ulcer and appendicitis. An official statement from the hospital late today said, however, that the patient's condition showed improvement, and could be described as "favorable." His temperature had returned to normal and his pulse had grown stronger.

"He was able this afternoon to thank the nurses for their care for him, and even to pat them on the cheeks," said A. B. Jaller, superintendent of the hospital. The crisis, however, will not be passed for three days, it was explained.

Valentino was especially solicitious today for Pola Negri, the movie actress now in Hollywood, to whom he has been reported engaged. He directed his manager, George Ullman, to wire Miss Negri that he was all right and also asked that cable messages be sent to his brother Alberto Guglielmi, in Paris, and his sister, Maria Guglielmi, in Rome. She is to be married next month.

Jean Acker, motion picture actress, and Valentino's former wife, telephoned the hospital and inquired about the patient's condition, Mr. Jaller said.

Valentino was the recipient today of flowers and messages of sympathy from friends and associates in the movie world. He came here a month ago for the premiere of his latest picture. While with his valet at his apartment at the Hotel Ambassador yesterday he suddenly collapsed. He was removed to the hospital and the double operation performed.

Three physicians performed the operation.

STILL DISCUSSING MISS EDERLE'S CHANNEL SWIM

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Continuing the discussion of Gertrude Ederle's famous channel swim, the Westminster Gazette publishes a statement from an unnamed member of the Royal Cinque Ports Yacht club, of Dover, to the effect that Miss Ederle's success was due to an accident of the weather.

He explains that when Miss Ederle entered the water, the ebb tide was on the wane and within 45 minutes had died altogether. Then followed seven hours of flood tide, during which the drift was all in her favor, and, far from any counter-effect of wind, a strong southwest wind blew all day, assisting her still further.

When the ebb tide set in again, the southwest wind increased in force to such an extent as to take all the strength out of the tide.

"That is the reason why, in my opinion," says the writer, "she kept so near to a direct course, crossing in 30 miles, whereas others had to swim 50."

MONTREAL BUSINESS MAN FOUND SHOT TO DEATH

MONTREAL, Aug. 16.—(AP)—J. Antonio Beaudry, 49, well known Montreal business man, was found shot to death in his office today. It was at first thought he had died from natural causes, but an examination at the morgue disclosed a bullet in his back.

No clew as to who did the shooting was found by the police. There were no signs of a fight. Detectives were unable to learn of anyone suspected of having animosity against Beaudry. An inquest will be held tomorrow.

CABLED PARAGAPHS

SHANGHAI, Aug 16.—(AP)—Rainfall and lower temperatures presaged the end the Cholera epidemic which has taken the lives of thousands of Chinese in Shanghai and Kiangsu province, in which Shanghai is located. Few foreigners suffered from the disease.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Donald G. Crocker, ex-service man and said to be American-born, who yesterday drank to the health of the unknown soldier and broke the glass on the tomb, was today handed over to the prosecuting authorities by the commissary of police. His case will probably be acted on tomorrow.

WITHHOLD DETAILS OF KILLING OF J. A. DERHAM

WHITSTABLE, England, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The detailed story of the killing of John Derham, with which Alphonse Francis Austin Smith is charged, will remain a secret until August 30, the coroner's inquest into the tragedy, which took place at the Smith residence, Stella Maris Villa, Friday night, was adjourned after a brief testimony was submitted today.

The public's appetite for the revelations had been whetted by sensational stories of the case, which has to do with notable families, and crowds packed the little Parsian hall for the inquest proceedings.

Derham's aged father brought an abrupt end to the hearing by declining to divulge his son's alleged death statement. The coroner did not press for answers, saying he would wait until both sides were represented by counsel.

Mrs. Smith, who is reputed to have been the cause of the quarrel between her husband and Derham, arrived at the inquest with the elder Derham. She appeared very young. She is Smith's second wife, they having been married after his first wife, formerly Miss Ruth Wynne, daughter of a former United States post-master general, divorced him.

Jealously over Derham's attentions to her is believed to have led a fight between Smith and Derham after the three had supped together at a hotel and returned to the Smith residence.

No reference was made to Smith's first wife or to his antecedents during the proceedings. He said his parents were at present living in Vancouver, B. C., prominent London lawyers, have been retained for his defense.

Although Smith is credited with office having an income of $750,000 annually, he had recently been in somewhat straightened circumstances, and the house where he and his family lived and where the tragedy occurred is a most unpretentious "middle class" villa.

It appears that he got an occasional financial windfall, and one was in celebration of one of these that the Smiths and Derham had a dinner party, which was followed by the killing.

DECLARES MILK OF MODERN MOTHERS IS TOO SCANTY

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Faulty nutrition by mothers before their children are born and faulty feeding of children in their early years causes most of the cases of abnormal and misfitting teeth, Dr. Percy R. Howe, of Boston, noted orthdontic specialist, declared today.

Speaking at the first international orthodontic congress before 600 orthontists from all parts of the world, Dr. Howe presented conclusions he had drawn from experiments in feeding monkeys in order to produce the same types of teeth found in human beings.

By varying the monkeys' diet, he said, he had produced the same deformities which are produced in humans by faulty diet. Specialists, he continued, have paid too much attention to thumb sucking, adenoids, mouth breathing, heredity and early infection as causes of bad teeth.

Pointing out that human milk is the most ideal food for building up tissues ho ling the teeth, he said the milk of modern mothers is often too scanty or deficient in some of its properties to provide the tissues with the necessary building materials.

POLA NEGRI WORRIED OVER CONDITION CF VALENTINO

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 16—(AP)—Pola Negri, film star, appeared "on the set," at the Famous Players Lasky studio here today, careworn and wan after a night of worry over the condition of Rudolph Valentino, shiek of the films and, according to her own statement, he betrothed.

Valentino was operated on last night in New York for an infected appendix and gastric ulcer.

Miss Negri said: "It was almost impossible for me to go on with my work with Rudolph in such a critical condition thousands of miles away. Every one knows my sincere regard for him, and I want to be at his bedside to comfort him and help him back to health. The moment my present picture is finished I shall take the first train for New York."

MURDER WARRANT FOR SLAYER OF DON R. MELLETT

CLEVELAND, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A murder warrant naming a man believed to be the actual slayer of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, probably will be issued in 24 hours as an outgrowth of the federal investigation here.

The announcement followed a conference late today between District Attorney A. E. Bernsteen, his assistant, Miles E. Evans, Joseph Roach, special investigator from Chicago and H. C. Fontius, attorney for the Canton Daily News of which Mellett was publisher.

The man to be named in the warrant was arrested in Canton this afternoon and was started immediately for Cleveland.

Louis Maiser and Karl Studer, Canton underworld figures who were taken into custody today later were charged with conspiracy to violate the National Prohibition law. Their arrest resulted from the federal inquiry into vice conditions at Canton.

SEIZED MACARONI THAT WAS ARTIFICIALLY COLORED

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 16—(AP)—About 80 cases of so-called "bologna styled" macaroni have been seized in various wholesale houses in this city, Hartford, Stamford, Waterbury and Bridgeport, it was made known today. The macaroni, it was charged, does not comply with the pure food act in that it is artificially colored. It is thought that the macaroni was manufactured in New York city and shipped to places throughout the state.

Cases growing out of the seizures will be heard in United States court here on September 4.

Nip Plot Against the Mexican Gov't

Arrest of 174 Men and Seizure of Ammunition Near San Diego, Cal.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 16.—(AP)—General Enrique Estrada, former secretary of war for Mexico, was named today as the engineer of the latest plot to overthrow the Mexican government, foiled near here last night with the arrest of 174 men and seizure of a large amount of ammunition and equipment.

A. A. Hopkins, department of justice agent, said that the general "from all the information we have been able to gather, was the sponsor for the movement against the lower California government. I do not think the Mexican religious troubles had anything to do with the movement or that any one but Estrada was behind it. I believe it was simply an attempt of the outs to get in."

Gen. Estrada and more than a score of others including J. T. Degman, a Culver city contractor and Earl C. Parker, president of the Parker Hardware company of San Diego, as well as Aurelio Seupsiveda, well known Mexican army officer, who has been living in Los Angeles for the past two years, are lodged in the county jail here, while the remainder of the prisoners are quartered at Fort Rosecrans under guard of the United States marines.

Gen. Estrada and the members of his staff refused to make any statement. The few "soldiers" who would talk declared they had been hired as laborers although they admitted they did not know on what kind of a job they were to work.

Hopkins said the suspicions of the American authorities first became aroused when it was learned that Estrada and Seupiveda were holding conferences in Los Angeles. Details of the revolutionary movement were later learned, together with plans of the expedition.

Estrada and several of his intimates left Los Angeles several days ago. A detachment started from Los Angeles toward Mexico in several trucks, including an armored car. Hopkins said department of justice cars followed those occupied by the Mexicans.

The caravan of Mexicans was headed by a scout car and followed by an active rear guard. The car containing the rear guard would remain behind the main body and would frequently be driven behind sign boards and under bridges to determine whether or not the party was being followed. To avoid having the Mexicans learn that they were followed, the department of justice agents were compelled to do some frequent and clever "ducking," Hopkins said.

Most of the prisoners were captured at Dulzura, 25 miles east of here, and three miles from the border. Later others were caught at La Mesa, while headed for Dulzura.

The equipment seized included an armored truck, two ten-ton trucks, 400 Springfield rifles, two machine guns, an assortment of small arms, and 155,000 rounds of ammunition.

Charges of violating a section of the criminal code which prohibits an organized military movement against a friendly foreign country are to be placed against members of the expedition, federal officials said.

W. C. T. U. MAKE FIRST MOVE IN GREAT "DRY" CAMPAIGN

CHICAGO, Aug. 16—(AP)—The first move in a great dry campaign pointed toward the fall elections was made today by leaders of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

It was decided to send speakers into each of the referendum states, Illinois, Montana, Nevada, Wisconsin, Missouri, California, Colorado and New York, to carry facts and figures compiled by the W. C. T. U. and a message that prohibition is the best means of handling the liquor situation.

A report was made that a survey is under way in 100 cities to determine the kind of business being carried on where saloons formerly were located, and whether the property had increased or decreased in value.

SESQUI-CENTENNIAL TO CONTINUE OPEN SUNDAYS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16—(AP)—The sesqui-centennial will continue to be open on Sundays, despite the campaign of opposition being waged by church organizations and others, it was announced late tonight after a conference of a majority of the exposition's board of directors.

Rep. Headquarters Opened in New York

Representative Tilson, Supervisor, is Confident of Republican Success This Fall.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Headquarters for the direction of republican senatorial and congressional election campaigns this fall in the states east of the Ohio river were opened today in the Hotel McAlpin. The offices will be maintained by the republican national congressional committee and the republican national senatorial committee.

Representative John Q. Tilson, of Connecticut, majority leader in the house of representatives, is supervisor of the headquarters, which will have charge of the campaigns in New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and the southern Atlantic coast states. Before leaving for Maine today, to confer with republican leaders of that state and to assign national speakers, Mr. Tilson expressed confidence that the elections this fall would continue with the republicans in control of congress for another two years.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS TOPIC AT SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Foreign affairs occupied the attention of President Coolidge today with Secretary Kellogg of the state department, who is a guest at White Pine camp reporting to him on various problems before the department.

The substance of the speech Mr. Kellogg will make Wednesday at the unveiling in Plattsburgh of the monument to Commodore Thomas MacDonough of the war of 1813 was communicated to the chief executive but details of their general conversations on foreign problems were not announced. In general, it was said, Mr. Kellogg took up matters that had developed since Mr. Coolidge left Washington and had not been reported upon.

Arrangements were made during the day by Secretary Kellogg for him to receive James R. Sheffield, the American ambassador to Mexico, on August 25 in Washington. The ambassador is en route to the United States for a vacation and to report in person on Mexican conditions. He is expected here late this month to occupy his summer camp at Saranac Inn near here, but whether he will at that time visit President Coolidge has not been indicated.

Mr. Kellogg accompanied President Coolidge to the executive offices this morning and received newspaper correspondents but it was said that he was not in a position to discuss Mexican or other foreign questions.

It was made clear, however, that he expected the position of several governments toward the senate reservations to the protocol for American adherence to the permanent court of international justice to become known after representatives of those nations had conferred during the September meeting of the league of nations at Geneva.

CELLULOID SUN VISORS FOUND TO BE A MENACE

HARTFORD, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Lighted matches and celluloid sun visors provides the newest hazard to the eyesight. The recent extensive practice of wearing these visors is found by the state department of health to be a menace because of the danger of possible blindness. Warning everyone to think twice before selecting this latest summer style, the department in a bulletin says that already one serious and several minor accidents have occurred when the visors became ignited.

"Celluloid in contact with fire burns instantaneously," the bulletin says. "Matches are almost constantly used for lighting cigars, pipes, and cigarettes. With the wearing of sun visor the conditions are right for a quick flare-up and unavoidable escape from accident. Smokers should be careful for blindness can result from burns."

GIVE UP HOPE OF FINDING 25 NOVA SCOTIA FISHERMEN

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Hope that the government steamer Lady Laurier might find some trace of the 25 Nova Scotia fishermen lost in the wreck of the Lunenburg fisherman, Sylvia Mosher, in last Tuesday's great blow, was dissipated today. The Lady Laurier merely wirelessed that she had arrived safely at Sable Island. She was on her regular supply trip and passed over the storm area.

LORD KITCHENER COFFIN STORY WAS CHOULISH HOAX OF NEWSPAPERMAN

LONDON, Aug. 16—(AP)—The British nation today found itself the victim of a hoax of a particularly unpleasant character, when the investigation of the home office revealed today that the coffin brought from Norway to the accompaniment of much newspaper publicity and purporting to contain the body of the late British field marshal, Lord Kitchener, was empty.

Frank Power, a British newspaperman was responsible for the story that he had found Kitchener's body in Norway, which he brought to London and delivered at the Waterloo station. Officials from the home office and Coroner Oddie were present when the case was opened this morning with great secrecy, and shortly afterwards the home office issued the following statement:

"The packing case, alleged to contain a coffin and human body which on Saturday night was removed by the police from an undertaker's on Waterloo road, to the Lambeth coroner's court, was this morning opened in the presence of Coroner Ingleby Oddie and Sir Bernard Spilsbury, noted pathologist. The packing case was found to contain an empty coffin. The coffin was new and obviously had not contained a human body."

The government recently made public a detailed statement which had convinced a majority of the people of the groundlessness of many of the published Kitchener myths. But such myths die hard, and many persons still entertained doubts respecting the fate of the national hero.

In the meantime the police are looking for Frank Power, originator of the hoax, who seems, for the time being at any rate to have disappeared. Power's real name is declared to be Arthur Vectis Freeman, and he is said to have been a student of criminology. He has already admitted, in his last press statement made yesterday, that although he in a bonafide spirit, began his investigation into the sinking of the H. M. S. Hampshire, on which Kitchener was voyaging when he perished, he had later accepted an offer from a moving picture promoter, with a view to recouping himself for the heavy expenses of his investigation.

What view the authorities will take of the affair is not known, but Power's strange activities are the subject of general denunciation by the newspapers.

The Daily Mail declared: "It is a ghoulish act thus to exploit the fame of one of the greatest of England's soldiers" and the Morning Post said: "It is repugnant to decent feeling that the disinterred coffined remains of the dead should be carried about here and there at a private person's caprice and without any sanction of authority. If the dead were without note to offense would be rank."

Apparently nobody dreamed of the contingency that the coffin would, as the home office states, he absolutely empty.

Leading members of the Kitchener family, when questioned, said, according to the Westminster Gazette, that they desired to make no comment on the affair. The paper adds: "Scotland Yard does not intend to pursue the matter further."

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Hugh Sutherland, prominent in Candian railroad and lumbering industries, died in London Saturday.

General reduction in the interest rate charged farmers on loans through federal land banks is planned by the treasury and federal farm loan board.

More than a score of passengers were injured in Jersey City when a fuse blew out and started a panic on a west-bound tube train at Exchange place station.

A Havas dispatch from Beirut, Syria, says that the 5,000 rebels who held the suburbs of Damascus have been completely dispersed and have returned to their villages.

Jacob McGinnis, 32, of Arlington, died at a Lowell, Mass., hospital three hours after he had been thrown from a coupe by freight train at Freeman's crossing in Westford.

The call for the 1926 convention of the Investment Bankers Association of America to be held in Quebec, Canada, on October 11 for five days, was officially issued in New York.

A large barn in the rear of the Community school, New Canaan, in the center of the town, was burned to the ground when the firemen were unable to get water for 20 minutes.

Loans held by brokers and dealers from New York city Federal Reserve member banks amounted to $2,720,332,000 for the week ending August 11 compared with $2,668,717,000 for the previous week.

Daniel Marrow and George Murphy, both of Taunton, Mass., were fatally injured at Seekonk, Mass., when a big touring car in which they were riding overturned on the Taunton-Providence pike.

Police revealed that they have a warrant for the arrest of Eleanor Smith, 23, of Springfield, Mas., for the alleged theft of a $200 payroll of the American Tank company in Stamford on August 7.

There were 192 cases of septic sore throat in the outbreak last week which started at Guilford, where it was traced to a milk supply, according to the weekly morbidity report of the state department of health.

China's desire to rid herself of foreign control was described before the Institute of Politics at Williamstown, Mass., as merely the original manifestation of an almost world-wide revolt against capitalism.

Jackie Strong, seven year old son of H. W. Strong of Gresham, Oregon, was found alive by searchers, in the dense woods on the slopes of Mount Hood, where he had been lost for three days and nights.

Seven men, including three policemen, went to the rescue of Elmer Hawkins, 11 year old negro boy when he fell into the Charles river at Boston, but the lad died after he was finally dragged from the water.

Vice President Charles G. Dawes returned to Chicago after a vacation in the Colorado Rockies filled with energy for a new speaking attack, to start somewhere in the east next month, against the senate filibuster rules.

Judge Lowell in Federal court in Boston, denied the petition of receivers of the Southern New England railroad for the right to issue $10,000 of receivers' certificates for the purpose of repairing road crossings along the right of way.

Seventy women employes of the United Cloak Manufacturing company, Stamford, who with the employes of three other factories here have been on strike for several weeks, have been granted a 40 hour week and a varying pay increase.

The cornerstone of the new Immaculate Conception church, Waterbury, was laid by Rt. Rev. John J. Nilan, bishop of Hartford, Sunday afternoon. Hundreds of priests attended the ceremony, which was witnessed by 3,000 persons.

Carmi A. Thompson, personal representative of President Coolidge, and his party were greeted in every town and village on their trip across the island of Panay, P. I., by placards demanding independence from the United States.

Walter W. Head, of Omaha, Neb., and a former president of the American Bankers' association, was announced as chairman of a committee of 100 chosen from the A. B. A. to work for national legislation to curb branch banking.

Lincoln Ellsworth, co-leader with Captain Roald Emundsen of the Norge's flight over the north pole, cabled the Norwegian Aero club of Oslo to deny the report he had charged its officials with bad faith in its dealings with him.

Antonio Padula, 31, wanted in connection with the fatal shooting August 8, of Genero Clementi, 30, and the stabbing of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Parella, was arrested in Montreal, Que. yesterday, according to word received by police in Norwalk.

The police in Mexico City made known the fact that about 50 persons have been arrested in the federal district in connection with what they say they believe was an abortive plot for widespread uprisings Sunday against the religion regulations.

Fresh from a western tour which took them "almost everywhere," Viscount Astor and his son William arrived in Rockland, Me., last night on their way to join Lady Astor and other members of their family who are sponding a vacation at Dark Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. James Abaline, of Netcong, and two of their eight children, were killed yesterday when their auto crashed into the caboose of a Delaware and Lackawanna railroad freight backing across a road near Kenville, N. J., known as "Dead Man's Highway."

The fraternal insurance societies licensed to do business in Connecticut had in force in this state on December 31, 1925, a total of 93,100 certificates for $83,842,727 according to volume 3 of the Connecticut insurance report issued by Commissioner Howard P. Dunham.

Arranged by members of a committee, commissioned 50 years ago when they were children, the members of the North Cornwall Congregational church celebrated the centennial of the church, which is one of two in Litchfield county possessing a Christopher Wren spire.

WATER SPOUT FROM SOUND CAUSED DEATHS AND DAMAGE

Assumed the Proportions of a Tornado When It Struck Land Between Glen Cove, N. Y., and Sea Cliff, L. I.—Two Men Reported Killed, One Missing and Two Injured—Wind Uprooted Trees, Demolished Cottages and Razed Telephone Poles.

GLEN COVE, N. Y., Aug. 16—(AP)—A water spout, sweeping in from Long Island sound about 9 o'clock tonight caused extensive property damage for a distance of about half a mile along the Creek road. Two men were reported killed, another is said to be missing and two men were injured.

The spout travelled at terrific speed, uprooting trees, demolishing cottages on the road, which fronts on the Long Island sound and breaking telephone poles.

The estates of J. P. Morgan and other wealthy New Yorkers are located nearby, but it was reported they were untouched.

The spout assumed the characteristics of a tornado when it reached land. It struck about two miles from Glen Cove and one mile from Sea Cliff, L. I.

One of the houses reported to be demolished is that of Lynn Hammond, actor which was lifted from its foundations and carried several feet away.

An unidentified man, said to have been repairing his car in a garage, is missing and his car and the garage are said to have disappeared completely.

The known injured are John Conroy and Joseph Goodman, both of Sea Cliff, who were buried under the debris of their cottages and rescued by Glen Cove firemen, who were summoned immediately.

One of the spectators of the approaching spout was William H. Harkness, son of the late William L. Harkness, who was aboard his yacht in Glen Cove harbor.

The Creek road is reported littered with debris along a half mile stretch, cutting off direct access to the scene.

Eye witnesses said the spout itself was dissipated by the time it reached shore and that all of the damage was done by high winds which accompanied it.

Arthur D. Francis said he saw the spout rushing through Glen Cove harbor but that, although many yachts were anchored near its path, none was damaged. The column of water caught two racing sloops of the New York yacht club in the harbor, spun them around and capsized one of them.

High tension wires as well as telephone wires were broken and Glen Cove and Sea Cliff were plunged into darkness. Firemen and policemen said the damage extended along a mile front, and that the Creek road was impassable for that distance.

Mr. Hammond and his mother were in their residence at the time it was struck by the winds, but although the house was carried 40 feet away, neither was injured.

Tree tops were cut off and branches torn from the trunks. Porches, chimney sand roofs of cottages were carried away.

DEFENSE OPENS IN THE GAINES MURDER TRIAL

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Denial of a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal was followed by the opening of the defense's case in the trial today of Wallace Cloyes Gaines, accused slayer of his daughter Sylvia, 22, Smith college graduate.

The court also refused to strike out testimony introduced by the prosecution as to the relations between the father and daughter.

John E. Mullane, first defense witness, testified that Louis Stern, a witness for the state who told the jury that Gaines had confessed to him, had said he "hoped Bob didn't do it." Bob is a nickname for the defendant.

Mullane said he talked with Stern June 18, two days after the girl was choked and beaten to death, and that after remarking that he hoped Bob didn't do it, Stern explained that "it is because of a feeling in my heart."

Mullane swore that he confronted Stern with William A. Gaines, brother of the defendant and chairman of the King county commissioners, and Stern to "come clean and tell William Gaines everything he knew."

On that occasion, continued Mullane, the state witness declared that "Bob went to his house about 9 or 9:15 o'clock the night of June 16, the night of the killing and that Bob told Stern to hurry as Sylvia was gone and he must find her."

Robert S. MacFarlane of counsel for Wallace Gaines, told the jury in a statement preceding presentation of evidence on his side that the defendant was near a fire shop close to his home when the girl met death two and a half miles away.

The lawyer promised to prove:

That a narrative of Louis Stern, a friend of Gaines, which included a confession of the killing, was false.

That the man who killed Miss Gaines did return the night of her death, June 16, to the scene of the tragedy, but that this man was not Wallace Gaines. MacFarlane said that the defense would not be able to name or identify this man.

COMEDIAN AL JOLSON HAS RETURNED FROM PARIS

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Al Jolson, black face comedian, returning from Paris today, brought with him evidence to uphold his denials that he and his wife were planning a divorce.

"Look at that trunk," he said, waving at a huge wicker enclosed trunk on the pier. "It is filled with magnificent gowns and lingerie. They are all for Mrs. Jolson. Does that sound like trouble in the air?"

Jolson said there was nothing significant in the fact that his wife departed from Europe a week ahead of him. He explained he believes it is "cheaper to remain married," because a court action might affect his stage career and his income as a comedian.

DAMAGE BY ELECTRICAL STORM IN NEW HAVEN

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 16—(AP)—Heavy damage was reported in this city tonight following a violent electrical storm during which more than an inch of rain fell in a short time.

Most of the damage done was from the destruction of wood block pavements. The loss in this item alone will be heavy, according to Director of Public Works Michael D. McGovern.

Five street cars of the Connecticut company were derailed by washouts and delays ranging from ten minutes to half an hour, were occasioned by surface water flooding the tracks.

Manhole covers were forced from the sewers in many streets when the underground passages could not take care of the rushing water.

Hundreds of cellars and basements were flooded.

GUNBOAT ASHEVILLE ENCOUNTERED TYPHOON

HONGKONG, Aug. 17—(AP)—The American consul general here has been advised that the American gunboat Asheville has encountered difficulties in a typhoon. The British gunboat Magnolia has gone to the assistance of the Asheville.

MISS CANNON STARTS ENGLISH CHANNEL SWIM

CAPE GRIS-NEZ, France, Aug. 17—(AP)—Miss Lillian Cannon of Baltimore started at 12:55 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning in an attempt to swim the English channel.

CORROBORATIVE EVIDENCE IN HALL-MILLS MURDER CASE

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 16.—(AP)—The story of Mrs. Jane Gibson, pig raiser, that she was in De Russey's lane the night Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Miss Eleanor Mills were slain was corroborated in part today by a state witness not questioned by previous investigators.

Mrs. Gibson had previously testified that while she was searching for a lost moccasin she had come to the spot where the bodies of the two were found. She also pointed out Henry de la Bruyere Carpender and Willis Stevens, cousin and brother of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of the slain rector, as men she had seen at the spot where the state contends the murder was committed.

The testimony was given at the hearing held before County Judge Frank L. Clery for the purpose of deciding whether Carpender and Stevens should be held for the grand jury on the murder charges on which they were arrested last week.

The witness who gave partial corroboration to Mrs. Gibson's testimony was Robert Erling, of New Brunswick. He said he had driven into De Russey's lane about 8 o'clock the night of the murder. In the automobile with him was a girl companion, whose name he would not reveal. He said he knew Mrs. Gibson, and that as he was driving along the lane, slowly, Mrs. Gibson peered into his car. He could not tell what she wore or whether she carried a light. He fixed the time he saw her as between 9 and 10 o'clock. From the testimony of persons who heard shots fired, the state has fixed the time of the murder at 10:30 o'clock.

Asked why he had waited four years to tell his story, Erling replied he had desired to shield his companion. He heard no shots fired, he said, although he was within two or three thousand feet of the crab apple tree, until about 10:30 o'clock.

CANADIAN CRUISER ARRAS SIGHTED FLOATING MINE

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 16—(AP)—The Canadian cruiser Arras, arriving here today, reported having sighted what was believed to have been a German floating mine in latitude 43.54 north, longitude 50.56 west.

This position is approximately 900 miles east of Boston and about 150 miles north of the westbound trans-Atlantic steamship route.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Catherine H. MacCracken

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 16—(AP)—Mrs. Catherine Hubbard MacCracken, mother of President Henry Noble MacCracken of Vassar college, died at Atlantic City, today, aged 83 years.

Alfonso De Navarro

NE WYORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Alfonso de Navarro, vice president of the Atlas Portland Cement company, lawyer and prominent clubman died suddenly at the shooting lodge of George F. Baker, Jr., at Brechin, Scotland, on Sunday, cable advices said today.

Mr. Navarro was born in New York, July 14, 1868. He was a director of the Equitable Life Assurance company and was a trustee of St. Patrick's cathedral. He held membership in eight of the leading clubs in the metropolitan area.

Charles Chauncey Stillman

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Charles Chauncey Stillman, brother of James A. Stilman, financier, died aboard the Cunard liner Aquitania this morning following an operation for acute appendicitis, it was reported by radio to the Cunard line offices.

The Aquitania is due here Friday from Southampton.

Charles Chauncey Stillman was one of three son sof the late James Stillman, under whose direction the National City bank of New York became the largest in capital, resources, and business in the United States. After graduating from Harvard university, he set out to learn the railroad business from the ground up by working as a baggage man and section hand. He was later a director in two western railroads, the Oregon Short Line, and the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company. He also was a director of the New York Shipbuilding corporation.

In 1901, Mr. Stillman heir to a fortune, became attached to the nurse who attended him during a serious attack of typhoid fever while at Harvard. She was Mary Wight, a jeweler's daughter of Augusta, Me. They were married two years later and Mr. Stillman introduced his bride to New York society. Mrs. Stillman died last September.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 864 Main St. Telephone 1191-2.

OWNER OF SUSPECTED WELL WELCOMES INVESTIGATION

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 16.—It has been stated in connection with stories published concerning the re-digging of a well under the direction of County Detective William E. Jackson on the premises of Frank Marsala on the South Windham road, that at the time Joseph Raitano disappeared, February 28, 1925, Marsala was digging the well in question, work on which was suddenly stopped and the well filled up in one night. This information was obtained from parties connected with the digging who seemed very reticent in giving out any information. Yesterday a member of the Marsala household cleared up a number of matters in connection with the case. It was stated that in December, 1924, Mr. Marsala and his son-in-law began the work of digging the well and had reached a depth of about 25 feet when a ledge was encountered, so, rather than blast the ledge at an excessive cost, the work was halted. The well remained open until the early part of August, 1925, before it was refilled by Mr. Marsala. The work was done at intervals, not in one night as stated. The well was filled in nearly eight months after it was first dug and six months after the reported disappearance of Raitano.

It was stated that when approached by the authorities in the matter of excavating on his premises, Mr. Marsala offered no objection. In fact he was willing to assist in view of the fact that stories had been circulated that there was a body at the bottom of the shaft.

The reason given for refilling the well was that during July, the month previous, Marsala had purchased an automobile and the logical place for a garage was a location where the open well was. With the decision to build the garage, the well was filled in. The entrance to the garage is just over the mouth of the well. Work was continued yesterday, re-digging the well and becomes more difficult as the depth increases. When the work was halted early in the afternoon, the well had been dug to a depth of about 18 feet.

ANDOVER MOTOR LICENSE PUZZLING AUTHORITIES

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 16.—Two officials of the town of Andover, First Selectman William E. Palmer and Deputy Sheriff Allison L. Frink, were in Hartford yesterday afternoon on a visit to the office of the state motor vehicle department which had to do with the suspended operator's license of Roscoe Post Talbot. There is a missing link somewhere between the town of Andover and the state department, they declare, and their purpose was to discover it. A week ago yesterday, according to Selectman Palmer, he received notice from the state motor vehicle commissioner's office that the operator's license held by Talbot had been suspended. During the week he learned that Talbot had been driving his car as usual. A complaint was made by Selectman Palmer to Deputy Sheriff Frink and the latter was ordered to investigate the matter.

According to the story told Deputy Sheriff Frink, when he called on Talbot Saturday morning, the latter said that his operator's license had been restored and showed it to the officer, stamped with the date, "August 13, 1926." Talbot told the officer that he had obtained it at the office of the state motor vehicle commissioner. Frink reported this to Selectman Palmer and the latter immediately got in touch with the motor vehicle department and received information that there was no record to show that Talbot's license had been restored. Mr. Palmer then told Frink to arrest Talbot, which was done. Talbot was taken before Selectman Palmer and the license was produced. Again the motor vehicle commissioner's office was communicated with by telephone and the same information was forthcoming. The case against Talbot was then ordered in abeyance, pending the personal investigation by the Andover authorities.

TWO BOYS PENALIZED IN AUTO THEFT CASES

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 16.—In the police court this morning, George Feeney, 17, of 141 Crescent street, one of two boys who appropriated a Dodge sedan owned by James P. Twomey Saturday, pleaded guilty to a charge of the theft of two automobiles, the other being one owned by Ernest Herrick, and taken Thursday night. It was found that Feeney had served a term of four months for the theft of an automobile in Rhode Island. Deputy Judge Russell A. Andrews bound the young man over to the next term of the Windham county superior court, under bonds of $1,000.

Oscar Dubois, 15, of 114 Quercus avenue, Feeney's partner in the theft of the two cars, was given a suspended sentence to the reform school June 30th last, for his part in breaking open freight cars at Columbia Junction and with another boy, leaving a hand car on the main track of the New Haven railroad, at Hop river. The hand car was knocked from the tracks by the engine of an east-bound early morning train and it is considered fortunate that the train was not wrecked. Dubois at that time, was placed on probation for six months, and following court Monday, Judge Andrews ordered that the suspended sentence be put into effect. Both cars which the youths stole were recovered, Herrick's on Selden street the following morning and Twomey's on Windham road while it was being driven by Feeney.

Monday morning Herman Perimutter, 18, of R. F. D. No. 1, this city, pleaded guilty to driving without a license. He admitted that his father had owned the machine for some time but that a license had not been secured by either. Judge Andrews imposed a fine of $15 and costs, amounting to $22.15 which he paid.

Eli Bergeron of 126 Elm street, West Springfield, Mass., pleaded guilty to reckless driving and was fined $25 and costs, total of $33.15.

Joseph Beaudry, 41 Temple street, was charged with breach of the peace and Alphege Potvin of 26 Temple street, charged with assault on Beaudry. Beaudry, who is Potvin's father-in-law, went to the latter's home to bid his daughter farewell before leaving for Westchester to work. It was there that an argument started, a flat iron was wielded with results by Potvin's and Beaudry's head became subsequently done up in bandages. Potvin said he tried to put Beaudry out before his (Beaudry's) inclination to fight got the best of him. Beaudry made a grab for the flat-iron which was used to keep the door open. Potvin got hold of the iron first and swung it. Mrs. Olivine Potvin, wife of Alphege Potvin and daughter of Beaudry, corroborated the testimony of her husband. She said that her father showed signs of having been drinking. Beaudry, on cross-examination, admitted having had several drinks. Judge Andrews imposed a fine of $10 and costs, amounting to $15.99 in Beaudry's case and found Potvin not guilty.

The funeral services for Mrs. Rose Justine Obernesser were held at 21 Union street at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Beautiful floral tributes came from relatives and friends. Burial was in the family plot at St. Joseph's cemetery. Rev. E. A. Mathieu read the committal service.

Funeral services for Mrs. Luella Perkins Larrow were held at her home on North Windham road at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Rev. John H. Knott officiated. Burial was in the North Windham cemetery. Avery and VanZandt were in charge of the arrangements.

At the session of police court Monday morning Joseph Moriarty and Thomas Lessard of Pawtucket, R. I., pleaded guilty to intoxication. Each was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $17.16 in the first case and $18.15 in the second.

Miss Madeline A. Hoey of Naugatuck and E. Wilkie Pringle of Dallas, Texas, were united in marriage at St. Francis' church, Naugatuck, Monday morning. Miss Catherine Hoey, sister of the bride and graduate of the Willimantic State Normal school was bridesmaid. Gerard E. Loiselle of Willimantic was best man.

At the rectory of St. Mary's church Monday morning at 9 o'clock, Miss Evelyn M. Bertrand, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Arthur B. Bertrand of No. 129 Union street, became the bride of Richard E. Herrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herrick of No. 106 High street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hormisdas C. Belec. Miss Rose Bertrand, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Jerome Piche was best man. The bride wore a gown of light pink georgette, trimmed with lace. She had a black picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore orchid georgette, had a black hat and carried yellow gladioli. Following the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Relatives and friends were in attendance from Hartford, Taftville, Rhode Island and this city. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Herrick left on a trip during which they will motor through Massachusetts, over the Mohawk Trail and into Vermont. The bride's going-away gown was of black and blue satin. Upon their return to this city they will reside at No. 106 High street. Both bride and groom are well-known and popular.

While engaged in jumping rope with a number of other young people at Eagleville, Sunday afternoon, Miss Clara Gervais, aged 14, of this city, fell, breaking the bone of her right forearm in two places. She was taken to her home and the fracture was reduced by a local physician.

Bennie Mandell and Isadore Krug are on a business trip to New York.

Leroy A. Dissinger of Plainfield, formerly of this city, is spending his vacation at Atlantic City.

The colony of local people who have been spending two weeks at The Wigwam, Pleasant View, R. I., returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Williams of Windham road have returned, after ten days' vacation spent at Quonochontaug.

Morris Cavanaugh and son, Attorney Cavanaugh of Boston, were week end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. M. Sullivan of Godfrey street.

Mrs. Daniel J. Killourey, Mrs. Anna James, Mrs. M. L. Stearns and Miss Frances Stearns of this city, with Miss Amy Lillie of Hartford, motored to Old Lyme Sunday.

Frank Edgar was before Mansfield town court Friday evening, charged with taking an automobile last November without the owner's permission. Justice of the Peace George H. Andrews found the accused not guilty and ordered his discharge because of lack of evidence.

Victor DeCamp of Providence, R. I., was before Justice of the Peace Charles A. Faulkner in the Andover town court Saturday afternoon on charges of speeding and operating a motor vehicle with an open cut-out. He was fined $10 and costs on the first count and $5 on the second. State Policeman Henry Heinold of the Stafford Springs barracks made the arrest. DeCamp settled.

EASY TO PASS BAD CHECK— NATHAN POLLACK ARRESTED

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 16.—Nathan Pollack of Eagleville was arrested tonight by County Detective William E. Jackson and Captain of Police Albert Denison of Mystic represented the town. Taxes with interest in each case amounted to $6.84. They were fined $19.75 which was paid.

FIVE PERIODS OF ACTIVITY DURING FORENOONS THIS WEEK

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND, Aug. 16.—The forenoons during this week are divided into five periods, after the manner of an Epworth league institute. The first is a devotional period of prayer and inspiration under the leadership of Dr. Charles E. S. Spaulding of New London. After speaking briefly on the theme, many answered his call for brief petitions. Miss Mabel Pollard, deaconess in South Manchester, has general direction of "the second hour" "church and school" period. Different speakers are present each day for the six days of the week. This morning she introduced Mrs. Robert A. T. Bitgood of New London, who took for her special topic, "A Good Graded School."

The third period, on stewardship and missions, was occupied by Mrs. Cora Downs Stevens, who told of her work as representative of the Home Missionary society in the far west, among the Indians.

The fourth period is in charge of Dr. Philip L. Frick, of Schenectady, N. Y., whose general theme for the week is "Psychological Interpretations of Religious Facts." His special topic was "The Mysteryland of the Subconscious Mind." As the outer world is governed by laws, the same is true of the inner world of intellect; the sub-conscious mind plays a larger part in our mental processes than does the conscious mind.

Dreams, somnambulism and hypnotism all prove there is a sub-conscious mind. Coleridge once wrote a beautiful poem when asleep, "When Mozart was playing once, there flashed into his thought that musical gem, "The Magic Flute". Memory is a miracle of the sub-conscious mind. No inspiration of the soul nor experience with God is ever lost.

The fifth period is given to "Evangelism—The Art of Saving Others." This period is conducted by Dr. Milton de Rees. As Dr. Rees could not be present at the hour today, Rev. H. B. Conklin of Baltic, spoke on the subject. During an intensive evangelistic campaign in Baltic and Versailles last fall he received into these two churches some 125 persons. Later he had similar success within the borders of the New York east conference, in Kensington, Conn.

Woman's Missionary Field Day

This afternoon was devoted entirely to missions, as sponsored by the women of Methodism, both at home and abroad. The exercises opened with a song service led by Chorister Pierce, Miss Roberta Bitgood at the piano. A solo was sung by Mrs. Gertrude Jackson of Mystic with her son, Walter, accompanist. District Superintendent Genter read the Bible and offered prayer.

Mrs. E. A. Gallup of Moosup introduced as the first speaker Rev. Charles W. Barto, D. D., president of Blakeslee training school, New Haven. Dr. Barto compared the missions represented to a bicycle, the two wheels being home and foreign missions. Quoting from Prof. MacDougall of Harvard, he said some of the dangers in America today are a growing rebellion against authority, a lack of real brotherhood, banditry, inordinate love of pleasure and the denying of the reality of the spiritual. Dr. Barto stated that there was a membership of 456,000 in the W. H. M. S., and that it has 22 departments.

Mrs. Bitgood of New London spoke briefly concerning the work which the women of the New England southern conference are doing at Silver lake, near Providence.

Her daughter, Miss Roberta Bitgood, gave a fine violin solo, Howard T. Pierce at the piano. Miss Ella M. Stanley of Manchester introduced the speakers on foreign missions, Miss Florence L. Nichol of Indian, who gave an interesting address upon this great land in the Orient.

Rev. Roger C. Stinson of Danielson arrived on the grounds today for the week. He has charge of recreation for the young people. On account of the rain the usual 4 o'clock recreational period today took place in the tabernacle, where games were played.

Mrs. F. W. Gray of Rockville has charge of the children's meeting each afternoon in the New London house.

James W. Jackson of Mystic is playing at Mrs. Barrow's "Kamp Kumfurt" on Church circle.

Harlan Hill of East Hampton is with his mother at "Hill's Cottage," Church circle.

Rev. John Pearce of Middletown, R. I., recently purchased the eight-room Tucker cottage on Prospect avenue and is occupying it.

Clarence Jeffers of Jewett City, with his wife and children, are occupying for a fortnight their cottage at 71 Wesley circle. He is building on a two-story four foot addition to the rear of the main house. Friends are pleased to note his recovery in good degree from a recent surgical operation.

About the Grove

Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Genter, their daughter Ruth and son Paul are at the Eldersgre corner Norwich and Haven avenues.

Rev. and Mrs. Wilfred Hamilton of Gales Ferry with their daughters Dorothy and Helen and sons Robert and David are occupying a cottage on Simpson avenue for the campmeeting season.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain of Hope, R. I., are spending August at their cottage, 8 Simpson avenue. Mrs. A. E. Withee and daughter Ida, of Myrtle, are occupying a room in the cottage.

Rev. Jerome Greer, of Thompsonville, Mrs. Greer, and their daughter, Ruth are at their cottage on Simpson avenue. This was formerly Mt. Vernon cottage owned by F. H. Bushnell of Norwich Town.

Rev. J. M. Von Deck, of Oneco with his wife and children, Ethel, Alita, Ernest, Edith and Charlton, are at Friendship cottage on Church Circle.

BAKER'S CERTIFIED VANILLA

Pride in your baking is certainly justified when founded on the 100% purity of BAKER'S CERTIFIED FLAVORING EXTRACTS.

For cakes, use BAKER'S VANILLA—its alluring flavor and tempting aroma are lures that seldom fail to bring requests for more!

BABY'S COLDS are soon "nipped in the bud" without "dosing" by use of—

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

WOMAN COULD NOT SLEEP

Her Mother-in-Law Knew A Remedy

Mrs. Belle Thompson, of Georgia, was in a very weak and run-down condition for four years. She had great difficulty in getting to sleep at night and even then did not sleep soundly. She would wake up again and again. Besides this her appetite was poor. "My mother-in-law told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash," she writes. "I took six bottles of the Vegetable Compound and I was not the same woman at all. I could sleep and would get up in the morning singing and feeling fine. I am the mother of three children and always after the babies came I had to take treatments, but I can truly say that this last time I have only used the Sanative Wash. It does me more good than the treatments. It keeps me on my feet to care for my children and I do most of my work. I feel it my duty to let you know how both of the medicines have helped me."—Mrs. Belle Thompson, R. 3, Rossville, Georgia.

Are you on the Sunlit Road to Better Health?

WESTERLY

TWO ROAD DISTRICT MEN OBLIGED TO PAY UP TAXES

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Aug. 16.—Before Judge William A. Wilcox of Pawcatuck Monday morning in a session of Stonington town court Elam Baker and Fred A. Nye of the Road district of the town of Stonington, appeared on complaint of Prosecuting Attorney George R. McKenna when informed by Tax Collector D. Everett Hoxie of Wequetequock that they had not paid their personal taxes for 1923, 1924 and 1925. Assistant Prosecuting Officer Albert Denison of Mystic represented the town. Taxes with interest in each case amounted to $6.84. They were fined $19.75 which was paid.

JAMES A. ATWOOD HEAD OF GOLF CLUB COMMITTEE

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Aug. 16.—The Misquamicut Golf club of Watch Hill is to hold its meeting next Saturday at the clubhouse. Announcement has been made by the nominating committee of the following list of names for the governing committee:

Harry Darlington, Pierpont V. Davis, Theodore I. Driggs, J. Frederick Eagle, William Everdell, Jr., Henry K. Goetchius, John M. Goetchius, Frank Hibbard, Walter E. Hope, William S. Innis, Richard B. Mellon, Elton Parks, James M. Pendleton, Samuel G. Rea, Charles E. Sherman, Isaac T. Starr, Rodman E. Griscom, A. Clifford Shinkle, Thomas D. Thacher, A. T. Wall, Jr., and Ridley Watts.

The nominating committee comprises James A. Atwood, J. Frederick Byers and Philip Cheney.

Yesterday afternoon at the Misquamicut golf course Miss Glenna Collett, national women's golf champion, who is staying at Winnapaug, the adjoining resort, played the Misquamicut course as the guest of Princess Anita Lobkowelcz of Norman Hall and New York. Miss Collett played in a foursome with Princess Lobkowelcz and Count Alexander Orlowski and George Larsy of Russia, guests for the week end of Princess Lobkowelcz.

The Hudson coach owned and driven by William Ferguson of West Main street, Jewett City, was struck Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock, as it was proceeding toward Watch Hill and near Thompson's Corners by the Ford touring car of Joseph Marino of 48 Pierce street, Westerly, going in the opposite direction. Mr. Ferguson was accompanied by his wife and two other passengers. The Marino touring car had four adults and four children passengers and all escaped injury. The bumper of the Hudson coach and the left fender were dented and broken while the front of the Ford was stove in by the head-on collision. Mr. Marino assumed responsibility for the accident and paid damages. Patrolman George H. Champlin was called to investigate and reported the collision accidental.

All records for automobile traffic in Westerly this year were broken Sunday. Traffic Officer George H. Champlin on duty in Dixon square in the morning reported the largest number of autos passing in each direction and at times the procession was almost continuous. Motorcycle Traffic Officer George L. Madison, on duty on the roads out of Westerly leading to the beaches, also reported the heaviest traffic of the year. A week of hot, sultry weather combined with the fact that Sunday was the 15th of August, the beginning and ending of two-week vacation periods, swelled the numbers of homeward-bounds, also the number of those seeking cooling breezes by the sea.

Work progresses on the construction of the new office and business blocks of the South County Public Service company on High street and the Nardone block at the corner of High and Canal streets. At the new site of the electric light and power block, the forms for the underpinning had so far progressed that the work of pouring cement was begun Monday morning. The forms have yet to be constructed on the side of the New Park hotel. At the Nardone block site, all the stone in the offset front wall on High street formerly in front of the old Lemuel Vose house which was moved back, and located at the rear of the Alba inn, have been removed. The large elms having been cut down and taken away, the Westerly highway department is occupied in removing so much of the embankment as to widen High street ten feet at that point. Back of this the steam shovel is rapidly removing the earth to take the surface down to the level of the basement of the building to be constructed on the site.

"Very favorable", the condition of John Richards, aged three, was reported Monday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richards of Downer street, Pawcatuck, who was struck Sunday by the automobile operated by Mrs. Leo Nye at the corner of Liberty and Morgan streets. The boy escaping from the path of another auto was struck and injured by the second auto.

John Galin of Westerly, well known and for many years connected with local restaurants, is listed as a passenger on the Conte Russo, of the Lloyd Sabaudo line, which sails Wednesday noon from New York for Naples and Genoa. He is returning to make his permanent home at his birthplace, Torino, Italy.

Senator Abraham P. Datson left Monday morning on the Federal express for Boston on a business trip.

Mrs. B. Astbury has arrived in Westerly, having been a passenger on the Cunard liner Coronia, which sailed from Southampton, Aug. 7th, and docked in New York Aug. 15th.

Rev. Marvin S. Stocking, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Westerly, left Monday morning by automobile for Willimantic to be in attendance at the sessions of camp meeting.

Alexander Marr and George R. Mc Kenna of Pawcatuck have returned to Westerly after a several days' automobile trip which included a visit at Niagara Falls and in the Canadian provinces.

Theodore Samuel was at Narragansett and Point Judith Sunday.

William C. Smith of New York was the week end guest of relatives and friends in Westerly.

Thomas Gerarity of Stonington was in Westerly Monday morning on his way to Providence.

Andrew W. Moore of El Monte, Cal., formerly of Shanhock, is the guest of his cousins, Charles H. and Misses Mary L. and Florence C. Nichols at their home, Spring Brook avenue, White Rock. This is Mr. Moore's first visit east since he went to the Pacific coast 12 years ago.

NIANTIC

There was a food and cake sale Saturday afternoon on the lawn of the public library for the benefit of the Library association.

Next Sunday at Pine Grove the speaker and message bearer is to be Mrs. Gertrude M. Hemler of Waltham, Mass. Next Sunday's service will be the final one of the season. The hours of service are 2 and 7 p. m. (standard time).

There was a bazaar and lawn fete on the lawn at The Elms at Crescent Beach Saturday afternoon and evening under the auspices of St. Francis and St. Agnes' Roman Catholic churches.

Next Sunday Rev. Ernest M. Ligon of New Haven will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church at 11 o'clock (advanced time). His topic will be "Luther." Junior sermon topic, "What a Watermelon Seed Can Do."

The prayer meeting service held Friday evening in the vestry of the Baptist church was led by the pastor, Rev. George O. Hilbert, topic, "The Life of Peter." His Sunday morning topic was "The Firmness of Jesus." His evening subject was "Bought With a Price."

The Lyme Electric Power Co. has installed a new light at the corner of Broadway and Center street. Pine Grove, to replace one broken by vandals a week ago.

The chamber of commerce met last Monday evening at the public library building. The president, George P. Hill, occupied the chair. Among the matters brought up for consideration were road conditions, street lights, the parking problem and traffic congestion, especially by Sunday picnickers at Crescent Beach and the hastening of the improvement of the Chesterfield road. The advertising committee submitted a sample booklet for distribution among the business men of Niantic for their approval. The special committee reported that the red danger signal requested by the chamber had been set up at the corner of Main street and Pennsylvania avenue by order of the selectmen. The meeting adjourned till the second Monday in September.

The Pine Grove Woman's club weekly whist is to be held with Mrs. Samuel Erwin. The whist held last week was at the home of Mrs. Allan B. Johnstone.

Rev. William Baldwin of Simsbury celebrated the masses at St. Francis' church, Crescent Beach, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Main Cox of Washington, D. C., are spending their vacation in Pine Grove with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall B. Johnson.

Mrs. Frank Bush, accompanied her mother, Mrs. Ora Bill of Willimantic and spent Sunday at their Pine Grove summer home.

Henehantic chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held a dance at the Pine Grove pavilion Thursday evening, which was successful in spite of trouble with poor lighting service due to the fact that a hard thunder shower in the afternoon had affected the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith and child have returned to New York after two weeks' vacation at Mr. Smith's home in the village.

Byron Clark has returned after a trip to Bridgeport.

Dr. Paul A. Kumpitsch of Waterbury spent the week end with his family in the Grove.

Walter Bruin of New York city spent the week end with his family at the Brown cottage, Pine Grove.

Henry E. Smith of New Haven spent the week end at Whip-poor-will cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dellbridge of Bridgeport were at Fairfield cottage over the week end.

Gabriel Fazio has moved from East Hope street to the new Griswold building recently erected.

Major and Mrs. Arthur D. Macintyre of Putnam spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. Robert B. Macintyre.

Mr. and Mrs. George Neuschafer and son George of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived Sunday evening, to spend two weeks vacation at the Alabama bungalow, Pine Grove.

GRISWOLD

Bertha Geer has returned to Massachusetts after spending a month with her mother, Mrs. E. A. Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Montague have the sympathy of many friends in the loss of their infant daughter, Doris.

Miss Gladys Wilkinson spent Sunday in New York.

Stephen Peckham of Norwich and Mr. and Mrs. John O. Peckham of Voluntown, visited at Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Edmond's recently.

Preston City and Norwich granges will visit Pachaug grange and furnish the program Thursday evening, Aug. 19.

The Pachaug Ladies' Aid society is to meet with Mrs. W. B. Montgomery Aug. 18.

The Sunday school of the First Congregational church is to hold its annual picnic at Mohican park Aug. 21.

Serena Peterson of New York is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Montgomery.

Patrons of the dining room are pleased to find it is again in charge of A. D. Zabriskie, of Norwich Town, who has had direction here for some 23 seasons. In former years he conducted the restaurant. His helpers this season are Mrs. Zabriskie, Miss Marion Bentley of Westerly, headwaiter, who has for assistants Miss Gladys Cruthers of Norwich, and Misses Charlotte Schmall and Wyla Rawson, of North Grosvenordale; also Mrs. Francis Perkins, of Willimantic and Jesse Crary of Preston City. In the kitchen are Mrs. Mary Bentley of Westerly and Mrs. Irva Barnes of Preston. Leon Tumicki of Yantic and Miss Inez Edmonson, of Norwich Town have charge of the ice cream and confectionery. William Burdick of Norwich Town, is ticket seller.

Frederick Henry Bushnell, of Norwich Town, is again policeman on the grounds, as he has been for some 30 years.

At the Norwich Town house on Church Circle are Mrs. Albert Miner, her granddaughter, Miss Virginia Lucille Ward, and Misses Doris and Muriel Rose, all of Norwich Town. Rev. W. D. Woodward, of Staffordville, who was pastor in Norwich Town from 1903 to 1905 is occupying a room in this cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton W. Brown, and daughter Florence and Louis Aldrich came from Norwich Town to the grounds for a few hours Sunday.

Mrs. Lilliam Bartlett of Gales Ferry, has charge of the Gales Ferry house for the week. She is accompanied by her young grandson, Harold Hurlbutt. Miss Lucretia Ladd, of Staffordville, is also lodging at this cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland E. Colver, of the submarine base were on the grounds for Sunday with their son, C. E. Colver, Jr., and daughters, Helen and Margaret.

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Baker and daughter Ruth of North Grosvenordale, are at their cottage, Pleasant View, corner of Haven and Prospect avenues, for the week.

Mrs. Sarah Ballou, of Staffordville, is at Friendship cottage with her daughter, Mrs. Edith Matthews, and granddaughter Miss Ruth Bosworth, both of the same village.

Mrs. Sarah Morse and Miss Ruth Fiske, of Danielson, are at the Danielson house, Church Circle for the week. Other occupants are Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Burdick of Jewett City, and daughters, Arlene and Christine. The last named preached in the Staffordville Federated church Sunday morning.

MYSTIC

The World Wide Guild of the Baptist church held a picnic Saturday evening with Mrs. Harold Thorp at the cottage of Capt. Elias F. Wilcox, at Pleasant View beach. Fifty-eight were present and enjoyed the picnic lunch and social time. Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Osborn attended.

Mystic Grange No. 171 P. of H. held a picnic at Atlantic Beach Saturday afternoon and evening. It was planned to meet at Grange hall at 2:30, but owing to a shower, some gave up going while a few who had planned to carry members put up their cars and went with others. It was 3 o'clock before they got started. About 100 went. Quite a number were in bathing and at 6 o'clock all sat down to well laden tables for a picnic supper. Watermelon was served to all. Mrs. W. C. Morgan was chairman and with her committee made the outing a success.

Floyd Watson and Miss Lucille Willis were married at the Congregational parsonage, Groton, Saturday at 6 p. m. by Rev. Henry W. Hulbert. They were attended by Miss Clara Watson, sister of the bride and Harry Gleason. After a short wedding trip they will reside in a newly furnished home in Mystic.

Mrs. Edgar V. Whiting returned Saturday form a visit with her niece, Mrs. W. R. Lewis in New London.

Rev. George P. Jones preached at Old Mystic Baptist church Sunday mirning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holdridge of Providence are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William L. Main.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd of Stamford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Allyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Albertus Brown and little son of Hartford are visiting Mr. Brown's mother, Mrs. Mary S. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Stark are spending a week in the village.

E. P. Bliss of Hartford spent three days with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hall recently.

Orville Lewis visited the Sesqui-Centennial in Philadelphia last week.

Rev. J. G. Osborn preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. His text in the morning was Genesis 31-18. In the Sunday school bars were given to add to their pins to Stanley Dodd for nine years of perfect attendance and Beryl MacDonald for three years. Notice was given of a meeting of the church Wednesday evening to receive the report of the pulpit committee upon the selection of a pastor. Deacons E. F. Wilcox and L. P. Allyn were appointed to arrange for a Sunday school picnic.

Camp Mystic has been active the past week. Camp fire features were held evenings. One day the entire camp cooked dinner on the hill. The girls have been fortunate in seeing some films "The Truth North" taken with Mr. Akeley's camera showing snow capped peaks. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the Martin Jackson films of Africa were shown. Mr. and Mrs. Akeley have recently visited their camp North Meiru. Campers and counselors are busy preparing for the recital of athletic finals next week. Costumes are being created. Life saving tests are taking place and tournaments being played off, occupies much of the time.

Mrs. Albert Neff and daughters Deboria and Barbara have been visiting in Chaplin.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson have been attending the Sesqui-Centennial in Philadelphia.

Miss Hattie Palmer of New Haven is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Cushman.

Miss Dorothy Heath of Norwich is a guest at the home of Ralph H. Wheeler.

Misses Eva Talbot has returned from Baltic and has re-entered the Sadonia mills.

Wallace Phillips spent Sunday at Black Hall, visiting relatives.

Miss Gladys MacDonald is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald.

Wallace Pierce and family spent Sunday at the home of George Main in Ledyard.

Mrs. Abraham Berkowitz and son of Pittsburgh, Penn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max Bendett.

Miss Kate Fish who has been ill is improving.

Miss Daisy Verry has re-entered the Sadonia Mills.

Mrs. Bertha Wither and daughter Ida are attended the camp meetings at Willimantic.

Rev. Walter R. Davenport preached in Willimnatic Sunday evening.

Leonard Donohue of Boston visited relatives here last week.

COLUMBIA

The people of Columbia were given an unusual musical treat Friday evening by several pupils of the Hart Music school of Hartford. In spite of the excessive heat and humidity an audience of over 200 including residents, summer visitors, and many from neighboring towns, gathered in the church, which was beautifully decorated with gladioli, donated and arranged by Madison Woodward, of Merrythought Farm. The concert was arranged by Moshe Puranov, a summer resident of Columbia, for the benefit of the Columbia Improvement association. The programme follows: Contralto solo, Miss Evelyn Marcel: Aria from Heriodiode. Massenet; violin solos. Alfred Cahn, Romanze, Wieniawski, Largo, Zimbalist, Minuet, Zimbalist; piano solos, Miss Irene Kahn, Valse, Chopin, Music Box, Leadow, Turey in the Straw, Guion; violin solos, Rubin Segal, Taborin, Rameau-Kreisler, Melodie, Gluck, Hubay, Herj Kati; contralto solos, Miss Marcel, The Quest, Smith, The Roses Cup, Ward-Stephens, My Love is a Dashing Muleteer, Di Nogero; violin duet, Messers Segal and Cohn, Concerto, De Beriot.

The accompanists were Messrs Puranov and Deckelman. The hearty applause and the enthusiasm of the audience were proof of the excellent rendering of the programme. At the close of the concert a vote of thanks was tendered the artists who had so kindly given their services.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hutchins, of Chestnut Hill, are visiting their son and wife in Washington, D. C.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Haun and family, now located in Pennsylvania have been spending several days here visiting friends. Mr. Haun was pastor of the local church previous to the present one.

Miss Florence Lane and Miss Georgia McDonald of Baltimore, have bought the Elbert Little place on the top of Woodward Hill and will use it as a summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carpenter have returned home, after spending some time in New Hampshire and Vermont.

A demonstration of painted furniture was given at the town hall Thursday afternoon, under the auspices of Tolland County Farm bureau.

Thin Rickety Children Find Sturdy Health in New Food Help

New Form of Natural Food Builds Up Frail, Puny Bodies

Children who are pale, thin and listless are seriously ill. They need immediate help to bring them back to the radiant health and strength that is the right of childhood.

Oftimes the little weakened bodies are unable to extract from their daily food the necessary supply of the vital food factors such as vitamins, lime, phosphorous, and iron.

Lack of these elements in childhood means rickety bones and poor teeth throughout life.

Science has recently found the way to concentrate all these vital elements into pleasant, easy-to-take tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Everybody knows how wonderful Cod Liver Extract is to build children up to normal weight and give them strong bones and sound teeth.

But many sickly children cannot take it because of its nasty, fishy taste and odor. Now in McCoy's Tablets all these objections are removed. They contain the vital elements of Cod Livers without the disagreeable oil and they are made doubly effective by the addition of other well-known body building ingredients.

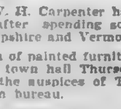
If your children are not growing and gaining weight as they should, don't delay a day to give them these wonderful McCoy's Tablets. So remarkable have been their results in literally thousands of cases, they are now sold by Lee & Osgood Co., or your favorite druggist anywhere with a specific guarantee to add at least 5 pounds of healthy flesh after 30 days' use or your money will be instantly refunded.

Protect your child's health, fortify his strength for future years. Give him the priceless gift of sound teeth throughout life by beginning treatment with McCoy's Tablets today. 50 for 50 cents.

CORNS

In one minute the pain is Gone!

Gets at the cause of corns



Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads work like magic, because they remove the cause—pressing or rubbing of shoes. The pain goes instantly. Zino-pads are safe, sure, antiseptic, healing. They protect while they heal. No liquids, no tape, no bother. Results guaranteed. Get a box at your druggist's or shoe dealer's today.

Dr Scholl's Zino-pads

Put one on—the pain is gone!

666

is a prescription for

Colds, Grippe, Flu, Dengue, Bilious Fever and Malaria.

It kills the germs.

Dietz baking has satisfied two generations of New England mothers

FORTY YEARS AGO some of the best bread makers in New England found that they could delegate this time-taking task to Dietz with no lessening of their standards.

Dietz Bread was at home with the other well-cooked foods on their tables.

Father and son, the Dietz family has carried on the tradition of making fine bread. Always they have had before them an ideal—a loaf perfect in appearance, in nutriment, in texture and in flavor.

A few years ago Mr. Dietz thought he had realized this ideal. For his bread had the perfection which only years of experience, the finest ingredients and a wonderful recipe could give.

Now better than ever!

BUT new experience has brought him even further skill—taught him the secret of new improvements.

Today Dietz Bread—made in the Dolly Madison bakery which Mr. Dietz has purchased and equipped with a marvelous new oven—is better than ever. Richer, crustier, more evenly browned, with a texture fine and firm for smooth, thin slicing, yet so tender and fresh it fairly melts in your mouth.

* * *

GET DIETZ BREAD from your grocer today—in its inviting green and red wrapper with the homey farmhouse and New England maples. Your husband will say when you serve it—"That's good bread!" Dolly Madison Baking Corporation, Springfield, Mass.

DIETZ BREAD has the wholesomeness and honest goodness you require for your children

DIETZ BREAD

DANIELSON

GEORGE JACQUES FINED $100—JAIL SENTENCE SUSPENDED

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 16—George Jacques of Goodyear was in the town court here this morning charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. The charge against him was brought by Officer Irving H. Nelson of the local state police barracks who made the arrest. Sabin S. Russell represented the accused, who pleaded guilty. The maximum sentence is a fine of $200 and costs or sixty days in jail. Judge Fenner F. Woodward fined the accused $100 and costs with a sentence of thirty days in jail. The defendant paid the fine and costs which amounted to $113.53. Because of Jacques' fine record heretofore, the jail sentence was suspended.

LOCAL TROOP OF SCOUTS TO CAMP WITH PUTNAM BOYS

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 16—The members of the local troop of Boy Scouts will camp in conjunction with Putnam troop at Old Killingly Pond from September 5 to September 7. The local scouts will join the Putnam boys in their second encampment since reorganization in April. The boys were in camp over July fourth at Old Killingly. There are about forty boys in each troop which means a total of about eighty boys will join in camp over the Labor day week end.

Scoutmaster Sidney P. Marland of the local troop is to have charge of camp, assisted by his staff. The camp director's staff will include Scoutmaster Jerome W. Andrews of Putnam and Assistant Scoutmasters Gale of Danielson and Mayotte and Woodward of Putnam and Scribe Niel J. Bulger also of Putnam.

The camp will be established on the shores of Old Killingly Pond, popular with summer cottagers and bathers. This body of water is excellent for this purpose allowing bathing, boating and canoeing facilities and with plenty of woods about the shores in which to practice forestry experience and other features which promise to give the local boys a busy week-end.

Charles Hanley, 52, of Pomfret, died at Day Kimball hospital Sunday night. Mr. Hanley is the son of the late Martin Hanley of Pomfret. He was well known around Pomfret and had many friends. Mr. Hanley leaves his mother, Mrs. Martin Hanley of Pomfret, two sisters Katherine and Elizabeth Hanley of Boston, his wife, Mary Hanley and four sons, William, Charles Jr., Lawrence and Harold, all of Pomfret.

The Paco Mills opened Monday after being closed for two weeks to give their employes a vacation.

Showers again Monday brought with it relief to the residents, farmers and the crops.

Rain caused the game between the Cleavers and Kilowatts to be again postponed and will probably be played Friday.

Tonight (Tuesday) the Nail Drivers play the Buddies in what will probably be the most interesting game in the league. The Buddies are leading the league, but if they are defeated in tonight's contest and both teams win the remainder of their contests, it will result in a tie between these two teams for second place.

Walter G. Bruce, agriculture teacher at that school was in town Monday. He is spending this summer with his wife and family on his father's farm in Stafford Springs. Mr. Bruce and his family have just returned from a week's vacation trip in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. G. Herklots left Monday on a week's vacation to Atlantic City.

Bernard Casey has returned to his duties in the post office after a vacation of a week.

Mail Carrier Howard Withey is off duty on a week's vacation.

Frouses Tillinghast is spending the summer at Nantucket Light.

Miss Mildred Tillinghast has returned from Rockville where she spent a week with relatives.

An article in this column Monday said the library would be open the middle of the month. The library will not be open until the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marizo, Mrs. M. E. Hallagen and Miss Cathryn Connor of Providence, R. I., and Miss Margret O'Connor of New York city were guests Sunday of Mrs. John Greeley, on Academy street.

Donat Gaudreau has returned from a week's vacation at Parkaville, Mass.

Officer Martin Wolf was in New Haven Saturday and attended the policemen's field meet.

A horse mounted upon the chassis of a Buick motor car and ridden by an army officer proved an interesting advertising stunt for the recruiting station established on the park this week.

Rev. James F. English of Putnam occupied the pulpit at the Union Congregational church at Rockville Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. George H. Brookes, who has been at Ellsworth, Me., for four weeks on his vacation. He will return this week.

Women's Health

Is protected and charm assured this NEW way of solving their oldest hygienic problem; true protection; discards like tissue

SCORES of women's disorders are largely traced today to old-time "sanitary pads," insecure and unsanitary.

Eight in 10 better-class women today employ "KOTEX."

Wear lightest gowns and frocks without a second thought, any day, anywhere.

NO LAUNDRY

✓ Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

Deodorizes. Ends ALL fear of offending.

You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." No embarrassment.

In fairness to yourself, try this new way. Costs only a few cents. Twelve in a package.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

STONINGTON

Mrs. William H. Brown and daughter, Beatrice, are visiting Mrs. Charles Moore of Groton park.

G. L. Duke of Providence was here on business during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Murray Henry and the latter's mother, of Chickoson, Okla., are spending a month with relatives here. Mr. Henry was formerly a borough resident.

Mrs. William States of New Haven is visiting here.

Clarence Way of East Haddam was here on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor of Hartford spent the week end visiting borough relatives.

Jack Winthrop of New Haven and a friend, Chester Porter of Bridgeport, were week end visitors in Stonington.

The Holy Ghost celebration was continued Sunday with the removal of the crown from the home of Joseph Maderia in Omega street to the home of Joseph Pont of Gold street. Music for the procession was by the Stonington band.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Edgar spent the week end with Westerly relatives.

Miss Ie Brown was in Providence Sunday.

Capt. Fred Ostman of the local fishing fleet brought in from his last trip to Block Island waters a large shark. This is unusual and the shark has been on display at the docks at the point.

On Sunday evening at the First Baptist church, Howard Kelb, a Newton Theological Seminary student, addressed those present in place of Rev. H. M. Thompson, D. D.

The catch basin, corner of Water and Diving streets, overflowed Thursday evening as a result of the heavy storm, resulting in the foundation of the store of Frank Andrews on Water street becoming undermined and causing the house to collapse. More than 20 feet of wall must be rebuilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellery and son, Roy, Jr., of New London, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt and Mrs. Herbert Elsworth of Willimantic, and Mrs. James Shay and Mrs. Norman Marshall of Saybrook, visited Stonington friends Sunday evening.

UNCASVILLE

The following books have been received at Raymond library branch during the past week. Shepards, by Marie Conway Oemler; Shepards of the Wild, E. Marshall; Spinster of This Parish, M. B. Maxwell; The Perennial Bachelor, Anne Parrish; Through Russian Snows, C. A. Henty; Russian Pictures, Thomas Mitchell; C. B. Young Folks' History of Russia, Nathan H. Dole; Rival Pitchers of Oakdale, Morgan Scott; The Power and Glory, Gilbert Parker; The Misty Flats, Helen Woodbury; Boys of Oakdale Academy, Morgan Scott; The Madcap of the School, Angela Brazil; The Pony Express, Henry James Forman and Walter Woods; Leave it to Psmith, P. G. Woodhouse; The New Boys at Oakdale, Morgan Scott; Personality Plus, Edna Ferber, Rocking Moon, Barrett Willoughby; The Lion's Mouse, C. N. and A. M. Williams; The Girls, Edna Ferber; The Iron Horse, Edwin C. Hill; The Mother's Recompense, Edith Wharton; The Priceless Pearl, Alice Duer Miller; The Beauty of the Purple, William Stearns Davis; Seven Keys to Baldpate, Earl Deer Biggers; Joan or Arc, Laura E. Richards; Linda Lane, Linda Lane Helps Out, Josephine Lawrence; Adventures in Understanding, David Grayson; The Callahans and the Murphys, Kathleen Norris; The Immortal Girl, Berta Ruck; The Great Oakdale Mystery, Morgan Scott; The Blue Window, Temple Bailly; The Black Hunter, James Curwood; The Land of Forgotten Men, Edison Marshall; Half Portion, Edna Ferber; Saint Joan, Bernard Shaw; Laughing Last, Jane Abbott; The Tigers Claw, Albert Payson Terhune; Emily Climbs, L. M. Montgomery; Judith and Jane, E. M. Jewett; The Life Savers James Otis; Oakdale Boys in Camp, Morgan Scott; The Midnight Sun, Adventures in Norway, Sweden and Russia.

The library branch has a pleasant room for reading and good lights and many good magazines and books. If books desired are not in the library branch they usually can be obtained from the main library. There are at the present time 30 names on the list of those taking books. During the month of July 332 books and 98 magazines were in circulation.

Thursday afternoon an interesting meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union was held at the home of the president. During the meeting it was voted to make aprons for the W. T. C. U. booth at the Norwich fair. Miss Louis Allyne of New London, who is a teacher in Trinity school for colored children at Athens, Alabama, gave an interesting talk about the work being done there and told of interesting incidents in connection with the school. One incident which proves the interest of the colored parents was particularly striking. One of the rules of the school is that the boys and girls are not to be together on the school grounds and one boy was seen repeatedly with one of the girls during the lunch hour. When reprimanded by the teacher he explained, "Why that's my mother."

Work is progressing on the new cement road and through the village it is badly torn up. Many tourists, instead of making a detour, are going on the trolley tracks until they have passed the torn-up places. This means of travel is not very convenient when two autos meet and a trolley car comes along at the same time. Many are puzzled to know why signs have not been placed at roads which might be used for detour and avoid congestion on the trolley track.

Mrs. Sarah J. Green of New London was the week end guest of Mrs. A. A. Keeney.

Miss Nellie Lion of New London is visiting Elizabeth Crocker.

Mrs. Charles Rogers of Hilton and Mrs. Calitela Burgess of Palmertown attended Old Home Day at East Killingly Thursday.

Everett L. Starr of Providence spent the week end with his mother, Mrs Mary E. Starr, of Jerome Place.

At the Willimantic Camp ground, August 17, when the Woman's Christian Temperance union is to held a Gold medal contest, Lloyd Keeney of Uncasville is to be one of the contestants.

THAT LITTLE RASH

May become serious

It needs immediate attention. Don't wait for time to heal your skin-do it now with

Resinol

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

PUTNAM

BICYCLE TRIP OF 350 MILES FROM THOMPSON TO QUEBEC

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 16—Anatase Vonsiatsky and Lev-Bec Manendov, of Thompson, have started on a bicycling trip to Quebec. Their first stop was Leomonister, Mass., covering 50 miles on the first day. They expect to make the distance of 350 miles to Quebec in about ten days. They will remain in Canada for a week or ten days and will probably return to Thompson by train. This is probably the longest bicycle ride taken from this vicinity for many years.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED OF MISS HELEN COPP, OF OXFORD

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 16—Mrs. Elizabeth I. Copp, of Oxford, at a luncheon Saturday, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Helen Copp to William W. Windle, president of the W. W. Windle company, Millbury, Mass. Miss Copp is a graduate of the Memorial hospital at Worcester and has a number of friends in Putnam where she has specialized a number of times and where she acted as district nurse for some time.

The following list of nearly 50 young people, of Putnam or Pomfret, graduates of the Putnam high school or students there will continue their education at colleges, business or other schools this fall:

Rhea de Coudres, Frances Miller and Marion Wilcox, Brown university; Michael Maher and Leon T. Wilson, Jr., Norwich, Vt., university; Misses Pearl Morse, Doris Bonig and Dorothy Chapmann Bay Path Institute; F. Ryeburn Lynch, Middlebury; Miss Alice Andrews Post Business Institute; Miss Edith Pease Oberlin; Gerald Cartier, New York university; Chandler Morse and Franklin Perry, Amhurst college; LeRoy and the Misses Thara and Dorothy Ames, Aurora college; Rudolph Metty, Rhode Island School of Pharmacy; Miss Doris Barrett, Bryant Stratton Business school; Miss Irene Dugas, finishing school at Joliette, Canada; Edward E. Keefe, Stone Accounting school at New Haven; Allen Thayer, West Point Academy; Francis Curran, Holy Cross at Worcester; George H. Gilpatric, Deerfield Academy; Harold Arnold, Tilton Academy; William Valentine, Williston Academy; Gerald P. Marcey, Worcester Polytechnic institute; Misses Edith and Bertha Child and Miss Irene Robinson, Simmons college; Miss Esther Wilson, Wellesley college; Miss Hazel Mougeon, Stone School of Accounting; Miss Ruth Perry, Boston university; Michael Hannifan, Recker's Business institute; Lewis White and Gordon Caffrey, Bryant and Stratton Business institute; Sylvio Dupre, Post's Business college; James Valda, Northeastern university; Miss Rhoda Gilpatric, Mt Holyoke college; Misses Sarah Barber and Jane Haines, Connecticut Women's college; Alfred Barber, Worcester Polytechnic institute; Carl Geissler, Connecticut Agricultural college; Paul Wheaton, Boston university; Frances Obletz, Juilliard foundation.

Putnam Caddies played a return match with Willimantic Caddies at Willimantic, and again lost to the Willimantic boys, this time by a score of 6 to 12. Carmine Leo of Putnam had the best score of the afternoon, 41 and 42 for an 84 for the two rounds. The same manner as the Putnam club en- local boys were entertained in the tertained the Willimantic boys the week before.

Word has been received in Putnam that a former local boy, Jerry Bernard has recently fought four bouts in New Jersey and has knocked out his man every time. He is now in training at a New York gymnasium and keeping his fighting weight at 128 pounds. His manager expresses great hopes for his future in the ring.

The annual field meeting of Quine-baug Pomona grange is to be held at Roseland park, Woodstock August 26 at 10 a. m. Those attending the outing are to take a basket lunch; lemonade will be furnished. Freeman Nelson, Harry Wells and Frank Haines are the outing committee. There will be competitive athletic contests between the different granges, with numerous special and interesting events. Following the busy day there will be dancing in the evening at Stone Bridge pavilion, under the auspices of the grange.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Jewett of Brooklyn, N. Y., with their two sons who are on their way to their summer home in Maine, stopped to call on Dr. E. F. Perry of this city. The men were classmates at Medical school.

Miss Catherine Kerrigan of Westerly, spent the week end with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibney of Farrow street.

Miss Ruth Hatfield, one of the office force of the Putnam Light and Power company is spending two weeks' vacation in the vicinity of Bar Harbor.

Miss Rita Gaucher of Providence is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs Joseph Maynard.

Henry Weissard of Danielson has been the guest of his brother Telesphore Weisard and family.

Mrs. Louis Lombardo and little daughter Marie are visiting friends and relatives at Oakland Beach.

Miss Lucille Beauregard of Springfield is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beauregard.

Richard Collins of North Brookfield, Mass., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Murray.

Miss Jennie Obletz of the Bugbee store, is having two weeks' vacation and is spending it with friends and relatives in Boston and Springfield.

Mrs. John J. Gahan has been entertaining Mrs. James Feighy and son John of Worcester.

Mrs. T. Morris Murray of Pomfret is the guest of Mrs. Edward Crowinshield at Gloucester, Mass.

Henry W. Peterson, radio operator on the Gulf of Venezuela has returned to his ship after a vacation of three months with his parents at Pomfret while his ship has been under repairs at Chester, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Cannity and two children of Pawtucket are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkinson on the West Thompson road.

Miss Dora Allard of Norwich spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allard of Church street.

Miss Maria Giraca of Lee street is the guest of relatives at Warwick Neck, R. I.

Miss Anna Sherlock was a visitor in Worcester, Mass. last week.

Miss Doris McCoy is visiting relatives at Providence.

Mrs. Albert F. Ralston is recovering after an operation which she recently underwent. Mr. and Mrs. Ralston are now living at Franklin, Mass. Before coming to Putnam they were residents of Danielson. Mr. Ralston is editor of the Franklin Sentinel.

Charles and William Goulet are visiting friends in camp at Ocean Grove, New Bedford.

Mrs. Morris H. Feifhan and little son Orin, of Main street have returned from a visit with relatives in Boston.

JEWETT CITY

OWNER OF RADIO LEARNS A NEW FORM OF PRANK

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 16—Earl Hiscox, owner of the big and popular radio set in Carey's store, took it out the other day for a well earned vacation. There was evidence of incipient lyaraingtai difficulty, and besides that its internals needed callibrating.

This set, like many others, needs no outside aerials, but has a sort of inside antennae apparatus, that makes it a three-ring travelling show within itself.

The owner got the big case into the back seat of his automobile, and when prepared to move, started its sky scraping connections, and proceeded down the road with the thing a going something lovely to hear. No Barnum's steam calliope or seven horse-power siren, ever had anything on that machine, as, tooting its finest tune the journey was begun. Across post office square, Dr. Browning, has in connection with his most modern dental machinery, an electric excavating affair, that can, and will, do all and everything, to which its manufacturers make claim. Mr. Browning heard the merry lay of the approaching radio, and, looking from his office window, he saw the erstwhile Fatima, coming down the road The "Doc" as well as the electric man, are both appreciative of a good joke, so the former threw in the switch which operates his dental battery. Straightway the radio in the auto, gave evidence of not being altogether comfortable, reared up in its seat, sputtered and finally in desperation, spat over the left hind wheel to the curb. Its owner sprang to the rescue; the doctor on watch, eased off his electric connection, with the result that Miss Radio, started off O. K. on the interrupted song. Again the dental man jammed on the juice, with corresponding eruptions from the back seat of the auto, now some distance away. At this point the driver smelled a rat, and at the same time caught a fleeting glimpse of the smiling face of his friend. His brawny fist shot aloft, then came an answering truce from the distant window, with the result that the merry rigadoon proceeded all uninterrupted to the journey's end.

Finn's tonight, Laura La Plante in "The Beautiful Cheat."—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hourigan are at home from a week's automobile trip through western N. Y. state, and to Buffalo, where they were guests of Mr. Hourigan's sister, Mrs. W. T. Bulkley. The returning party tell much of interest about the Queen of the Lakes.

At home, after a delightful tour of the Finger lake and Watkins Glen section of N. Y. state, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tracy, are telling of their pleasant trip. Calls at Richfield Springs, Ithaca and Port Jervis were of interest. Mr. Tracy tells of the terrific electrical storms in the mountains, and relates that once at midday it became so dark that he, with other automobile drivers found it necessary to turn on their headlights.

Town books will be closed on Sept. 1st. All taxes must be paid before that date. C. E. Jodoin, collector.—Adv.

In the item published Monday morning concerning the Sunday evening meetings at the Baptist church for the next two weeks, the word "not" was substituted to read "now". The statement should have read "It is not planned to hold evening meetings on these two Sundays."

Mrs. J. P. Richardson of Dorchester, Mass., is a guest at Mrs. Walter Johnson's home in Pachaug. She has been at Pine Orchard, Conn., with her daughter Miss Viva Richardson. They leave August 31st for Miss Richardson's new position as musical instructor in the Illinois College for Women at Jacksonville, Ill., Wednesday afternoon, the Pachaug Ladies' Aid society is to meet at Mrs. W. B. Mongomery's so that the members may greet their former pastor's wife.

William R. Palmer, deputy game warden in the state and dog warden for the town of Griswold, was in communication Monday afternoon with the deputy state commissioner, Warden Palmer has been receiving complaints that dogs are at large within the limits of the town. The law to keep dogs confined is not removed yet, nor will it be for some weeks, as according to the state official's information received Friday there are two or three cases under observation, of dogs in Plainfield that may develop rabies. Mr. Palmer is calling attention to the fact that the innoculation of dogs here must have taken place ten days previous to June 14th otherwise they may not be allowed loose. A combing of the town is due again soon for the purpose of rounding up stray dogs.

No hardship is contemplated for dog owners, it is an absolutely necessary means of protection and, in fact, this section was overrun with a pack of unrestrained curs, that did all sorts of damage, sheep killing included.

S. W. Albertine is at Oswegatchie Hills with his sister, Miss Charlotte Albertine, R. N. Mr. Albertine's daughter Charlotte returned from there on Sunday.

Miss Anna St. John, R. N., a nurse in Springfield Infirmary is with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Edmond St. John, in Voluntown, for a month.

Mrs. Charles Peterson is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Fred Stimpson at 19 Caton street, Hartford, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Campbell and Miss Bessie Blake were in Southbridge, Mass., Saturday to attend the funeral of J. Frank Casavant, husband of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell's daughter, Martha. Mr. Casavant was born in Southbridge. In recent years he had lived in Providence, where for a long time he conducted a restaurant. He was one of the first motormen on the electric railroad when it opened between Southbridge and Fiskdale. He was a member of old Co. K Mass. Volunteer Militia. Death followed a lingering illness. He is survived by his wife, a brother and three sisters, all of Southbridge, Mrs. Georgiana Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Officer of Wethersfield, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jervis and Mr. and Mrs. William Jervis of Norwich also attended the funeral.

More rain has fallen during the first two weeks in August than for several years. The reservoir and local streams are not showing the usual low water of previous summers. More steady heat is recorded here than for 10 seasons past.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Hiscox and Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and son were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kingsley at their cottage at Nantasket, R. I. Mrs. Hiscox and Mrs. Davis and son are remaining until Thursday.

Fred S. Campbell has left Backus hospital and is at Mrs. S. R. Waters' home in Lisbon, for the present.

Mrs. Patrick Shea and son Richard of Pawtucket, are visiting at Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald's.

EAGLEVILLE

Jas. C. Green and daughters Nettie and Annie and Mrs. James W. Green motored to Providence, Anthony, Coventry, Green and other places in Rhode Island, Sunday the 8th, and visited relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Porter and daughter Ruth, of North Coventry, Mrs. John Wilson and daughter of Hartford, Jas. Bennett and friend from Harrison, N. Y., called on Mrs. Estella Taylor and son Sunday the 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dore, of Worcester, Mass., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. William Dore.

Mrs. Myra Medbery spent a day recently with Miss Esther Medbery, at Willimantic.

Mrs. Jas. W. Green and children who have been visiting relatives at Storrs, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Landen entertained friends from Hartford recently.

Mr and Mrs. Wayland Stannard, of Ridgefield, have returned home, after a short visit with Mrs. Stannard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace McKinney.

Sheriff and Mrs. F. O. Vinton are entertaining their niece, Betty Landon, of New London.

Mr and Mrs. B. M. Lormis entertained relatives from Suffield, Sunday the 8th.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren recently were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. E. Johnson of Meridn, Margaret Anderson of New Britain, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of New Haven, Mrs Carl Goodman and children of East Hampton.

HOPKINTON

Rev. Eric I. Lindh occupied the pulpit of the First Hopkinton S. D. B church Saturday morning and will preach there again next Saturday.

George H. Gilman and family have been camping at the residence of Mrs. Wallace B. Wells the past week.

Dr. James N. Lewis attended church at Pendleton Hill Sunday and met several of his former patients and friends.

Walter D. Blake and family called last week on Mr. Blake's mother, Mrs. Daniel E. Blake, who is home from the hospital, in Providence.

Mr B Schart has been ill at his home at Hopkinton city.

The shower of Thursday did not damage here except putting the electric lights out of commission temporarily.

Mrs. Carrie Bowman of Barre, Mass., who several years ago assisted the former postmistress of Ashaway, Mrs. Sarah F. B. Good, was calling on friends last Monday.

Henry D. Currie of Glendale, Cal., fifty years ago, a resident of this town called on Mrs. S. T. B. Hood recently.

John H. Moffitt, 84, president of the Plattsburgh National Bank and Trust company, died at his home in Plattsburgh, N. Y.

WHY oil in your Ford must do double duty

WHEN your Ford doesn't run smoothly and economically the trouble usually lies not in the car but in the oil that's used.

For unlike a gear-shift car, the Ford system of lubrication makes it necessary for one oil to lubricate both the motor and the transmission—two very different lubrication jobs. Failure to do either job correctly results in chatter, repairs, and uncertain control.

It was exclusively to meet that dual Ford lubrication problem that Tide Water technologists created Veedol Forzol, which is not simply a different grade of oil but a different kind of oil. Today Veedol Forzol is giving a million Ford owners the smooth performance of high priced cars plus 8 definite economies in operation.

The 8 Economies of Veedol Forzol

10 to 25% gasoline saving	Resists heat and friction
Eliminates costly chatter	10 to 25% saving in carbon
10 to 25% saving in oil	Resists fuel dilution
Increased ability to coast	Reduces repair bills

To enjoy the economies you have a right to expect from your Ford, always use Veedol Forzol. Ask for it by name where you see the familiar orange and black Veedol Forzol sign—the sign of a good dealer.

TIDE WATER OIL SALES CORPORATION

New London, Conn.
Quaker Hill

VEEDOL FORZOL

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

The economy oil for Fords

Taking the ANT out of pANTry

ANTS ruin food. Spray Flit and kill them.

Flit spray destroys ants, bed bugs and roaches. It searches out the cracks and crevices where they hide and breed, and destroys insects and their eggs.

Kills All Household Insects

Flit spray also clears your home in a few minutes of disease-bearing flies and mosquitoes. It is clean, safe and easy to use. Spray Flit on your garments. Flit kills moths and their larvae which eat holes. Extensive tests showed that Flit spray did not stain the most delicate fabrics.

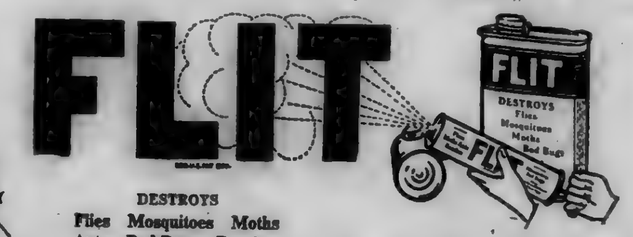
A Scientific Insecticide

Flit is the result of exhaustive research by expert entomologists and chemists. It is harmless to mankind. Flit has replaced the old methods because it kills all the insects—and does it quickly.

Get a Flit can and sprayer today. For sale everywhere.

STANDARD OIL CO. (NEW JERSEY)

FLIT



DESTROYS
Flies Mosquitoes Moths
Ants Bed Bugs Roaches

"The yellow can with the black band"

Children Cry for

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:— Fletcher's Castoria is a pleasant, harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, especially prepared for Infants in arms and Children all ages.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

1796 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business office 650
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3
Bulletin Job Room 35-2
Willimantic Office, 854 Main St. Telephone 1731-2.

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Tuesday, August 13, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 14, 1926:
12,778

BUDGETS AND ESTIMATES

[illegible] pronounced himself in favor [illegible] government economy. President [illegible] is pared the department [illegible] which, it [illegible] is pretty much of a [illegible] should be remembered [illegible] estimates is not saying [illegible] past expenditures. [illegible] case. After the [illegible] time what must be pre- [illegible] expenditures will [illegible] excess of these for [illegible] Legislation enacted [illegible] called for an increase of [illegible] The President has cut [illegible] down to $20,000,000, so [illegible] that we are reducing [illegible] from those for the pres- [illegible] are not increasing them [illegible] was at first proposed.

[illegible] will it is said, [illegible] observed if any progress is [illegible] government financing [illegible] already $100,000,000 in [illegible] the amount proposed by the [illegible] budget speech, when [illegible] of $3,000,000,000. [illegible] excess of [illegible] is estimated for next year. [illegible] Land estimates the [illegible] year ending next July [illegible] regards as [illegible] and sees no [illegible] next year. He says [illegible] chance for [illegible] year. It is as nec- [illegible] to exercise a rigid con- [illegible] finances. The [illegible] really appreciate a re- [illegible] preceding years [illegible] question is, of [illegible]

[illegible] government expen- [illegible] and must be met. [illegible] for continuing [illegible] greater. One possibili- [illegible] passage of the reorganiza- [illegible] general overhauling of [illegible] the abolition of [illegible] commissions, boards, [illegible] employees. This measure [illegible] before congress since 1921 [illegible] not been passed because it [illegible] much patronage [illegible] one of the administration's [illegible] measures next [illegible] to be enacted with- [illegible] session. It should mean [illegible] things to the country. [illegible] government payroll. [illegible] from the high [illegible] 536,672 to 246,419 should be [illegible] reduced.

[illegible] Coolidge is about to find [illegible] program forced to fight every [illegible] from the time on [illegible] entirely willing to [illegible] a strong and [illegible] budget.

THE COURSE OF THE LAW

[illegible] Reese Whittemore has paid [illegible] in the Maryland prison for [illegible] was sworn out 24 years [illegible] record which he began [illegible] Whittemore leaves [illegible] At fifteen he was [illegible] reform school; then a brief [illegible] followed by a [illegible] kept him [illegible] under the eyes of the police [illegible] character. He was [illegible] specifically for [illegible] a prison guard in his [illegible] the Maryland peniten- [illegible] had failed to con- [illegible] in a bank [illegible] murder of bank [illegible] the guidance of the crim- [illegible] unconcerned un- [illegible] His passing [illegible] notorious under- [illegible]

[illegible] respectable parents with [illegible] other boys did not [illegible] Whittemore [illegible] the society of de- [illegible] on a life of [illegible] was comparatively [illegible] life was [illegible] walls. Records [illegible] he was [illegible] made by [illegible] When he was [illegible] the last ef- [illegible] execution had failed, [illegible] determined to make [illegible] example." This is [illegible] was an example, reduc- [illegible] and lowest terms, of the [illegible] crime does not pay. Hanged [illegible] there is nothing in Whittemore's [illegible] the evil doer. So- [illegible] exacts its penalty from those [illegible] break its laws. Crime does not [illegible] and never will. The bandit, the [illegible] the murderer may "get by" for [illegible] while, but it is inevitable that soon- [illegible] later the laws set up for pro- [illegible] of the state will prevail to [illegible] and those who mock them. Think [illegible] straight and act straight: that is the [illegible] the progress of civiliza-

SUNDAY AT THE SESQUI

[illegible] Philadelphia is in trouble over Sun- [illegible] for the sesquicentennial. The great exhibition is not drawing the financial returns which were expected and the management has proposed to have it open on Sunday, realizing that the receipts from admission charges and what would be taken in by the various concessions would go a long way towards decreasing the present deficiency, but an old "blue law" of 1794 has been invoked against the Sunday opening. Judicial decisions sought on the subject have been vague and on Sunday the exposition had 60,000 visitors, who paid regular admission fees at the gate, but no admission fee was charged for the amusement features.

It is easy to understand why the judicial rulings on the effect of the 1794 "blue laws" are so contradictory and indecisive. Social economic and political conditions today are so different from those at the end of the eighteenth century that it is not strange that legal restrictions framed at that time are no longer practicable today. The 1794 law has been stretched so often, there are so many exceptions to its inhibitions, that every attempt at its literal enforcement becomes discriminatory and inconsistent.

The letter of the law is violated in scores of instances every Sunday in the year and nobody pays any attention to these breaches. The courts have not been asked to explain why it is perfectly legal to open an art gallery or a zoo on Sunday, or to charge carfares on the trolleys, or to employ chauffeurs to operate private automobiles on pleasure trips, or to pay singers and musicians for church services, while it is held to be illegal to hold a commemorative exhibit, without expectation of profit, on a great national anniversary. In this unsatisfactory situation, the best that can be hoped for is a mutual spirit of tolerance pending the wise revision of a law which is admittedly no longer applicable to present-day conditions.

DOOMING RUM ROW

Rum row is doomed once more. This time its doom is pronounced by General Andrews, back from Great Britain, with an air-tight, and thus far, secret, agreement calculated to doom the rum runner and make life less exciting for the coast guard. The general reports his mission "125 percent successful," and is sure the blockade will be 100 percent perfect.

Rum row has been doomed many times. In fact, is always being doomed by somebody. Major Roy A. Haynes in his halcyon days wiped it from the water every day or so. Its life may be said to have been one doom after another. Last summer it was doomed and last spring it was doomed again. It has had more lives than ninety-nine cats all having ninety-nine lives apiece. In fact, there is not supposed to be any rum row any more. The results will show whether General Andrews knows what he is talking about this time.

JOBS-MANAGED POLITICS

Morris Eller, Crowe-Barrett leader and republican boss of the twentieth ward in Chicago, testified with some degree of pride in the Illinois senatorial investigation that he had a "wonderful" organization under his command. "The best in Chicago," he boasted, explaining that it was composed of friends and jobholders. "I get my men jobs in the city and county when they want them." He gets his followers excused from jury service, sends coal to the poor and looks out for their interests when they get into legal difficulties. Eller testified that six members or his family were on the Chicago city pay roll. His plan of mixing jobs and politics and holding control may be new to some political observers, but it will not cause any excitement among the old-timers. By these same methods Tammany Hall has ruled New York and to some extent, happily limited in many instances, the distribution of patronage, or the giving of jobs, is the recognized prerogative and reward for political service. The senatorial quiz did not go into the question of service rendered by the men and women who hold the jobs Eller hands out. If the public is getting an adequate return for the money it pays there may be no ground for complaint. One crowd of jobholders may give as satisfactory results as another. If Chicago and other places are misgoverned because the system is to give rewards to those who are inside the organization, a different situation exists. The people can get all the facts if they are sufficiently interested. The voters have lost none of their power. A few reformers may object to the Eller plan of rewarding the faithful but nothing will change the system anywhere as long as it is felt that it is easier to permit affairs to go on as they are.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The man on the corner says: Well, summer is nature's time for cutting melons, too.

Texas now has a woman state senator. She is Miss Margie Neal—and a Jam in sight.

King George is another one of those fellows who don't have to put on a sub when they take a vacation.

Stories of the President's fishing have lacked one feature, not a word said about the bait he uses.

So far the French people have not become too indignant to forget to overcharge the American tourists.

While everybody else is taking a vacation nobody has succeeded in inducing the mosquitoes to follow suit.

The old family driving horse, if let alone, would go home, but the family automobile starts for heaven or elsewhere.

Many nations provide the fall styles for the women of this country but they will be paid for in American money.

American tourists land in Syria and start blithely to trek over to Damascus, despite all warnings. Only an American would actually train for the role of innocent bystander.

Poison liquor has killed 700 persons in New York this year. Any good calculator can figure out at that rate how long it will take prohibition to score a complete success by eliminating its reckless violators.

An eminent architect regards city life as impractical in view of the concentration of population which a short time will bring. This concentration may find a relief as good roads, motors, the motion picture and the radio make it about as convenient to live in one place as another.

FEATHERING HER NEST

Burling laid his magazine down and stepped across the room to the book shelves. A look of astonishment crossed his face.

"Where in thunder is the encyclopedia?" he asked his wife, who was reading by the fire. "Have you and Biggs been housecleaning? You know, dear, I hate to have things changed around."

"No, Peter, we haven't begun the housecleaning yet, and of course I wouldn't change anything in your bookcases. I know better than that."

"Then where is the encyclopedia?"

"Well, you see, last Sunday, when you were up in the country, Kathryne and Payton were here to dinner and just as they were starting home Kathryne said to me that she would put the encyclopedia volumes in the roadster. It was a good chance to take them, she said, and——"

"Please tell me why she should take them?" demanded Burling, with a frown.

"Why, dear, she said they belong to her and now that she and Payton have moved into their bungalow she is glad to have them. She reminded me that you bought the encyclopedia the first year she was in the university on account of her English course. Don't you remember?"

"No, I don't," grumbled Burling, "but I suppose we shall have to let her keep it."

"Of course, dear," mildly agreed Mrs. Burling. "You have your dictionary, Peter."

"Vintage of '78," muttered Burling, and the next evening as he settled himself to read he missed his footrest. He said nothing, but glared at his wife.

"Kathryne drove over this morning," Mrs. Burling answered his look, "to get the pictures from her old bedroom, and she said she thought she might as well take the mahogany footrest with her, as she was alone in the roadster and she could carry it."

"Will you please tell me why she took my footrest? Did I buy that for her comfort when she began to go to college?"

"Of course not," laughted Mrs. Burling, "but she says it is hers—that when it came from your old home in Vermont when she was a little girl she asked you for it and you said she could have it. Don't you remember, Peter?"

"No, I don't, but I suppose we can never replevin it now."

"No, not very well," placidly replied Mrs. Burling. "The child is delighted with it. She says she just loves the old family things and she asked me to ask you if you would mind her taking the old hisstbox that also came from your mother's. She says it would just fit in her hall and give the place an air. I told her I knew it would be all right with you, dear."

"Oh, you did, did you? You never could refuse her anything."

"Could you?" inquired Mrs. Burling gently, and her husband merely grunted.

"She is having my great-grandmother's sampler framed," remarked Mrs. Burling. "She says Payton appreciates it."

"I suppose I never did," sniffed Burling.

"Oh, I don't know. She said that you told her long ago to have it framed if she wished, so she is having it charged to you, Peter."

"Umph," was Burling's only comment, but a fortnight later when he returned from a brief absence from the city he remarked dolefully that the house looked empty. He gazed about in a bewildered way.

"What has Kathryne annexed now?" he asked.

"She sent for the piano, Peter. She reminded me that you turned in the old upright and bought the baby grand when she began taking singing lessons. She said it was really the nicest present you ever gave her, except the bungalow of course. Don't you remember giving it to her, dear?"

"No, I don't." Burling grinned, "but everything goes, I guess. I tell you what, phone her and Payton to come over here tomorrow night and pick out anything else that's left that they went. We'll sell the old house and go to a hotel to live. It isn't home here anyway without Kathryne."

"No it isn't," agreed Mrs. Burling softly. "By the way, Peter, the price for moving the piano was $31.50."

"Umph," said Burling. "Well, she's all we have. What's money for?"

"For Kathryne," answered Mrs. Burling.—Chicago News.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

In connection with the celebration this week in honor of the centenary of Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion, the fact that Marquis wheat was originated at the Canadian government's central experimental farm by one of its workers, is to be emphasized. By this discovery in 1904 Dr. Charles E. Saunders, who was then the government cerealist, has increased not only the agricultural wealth of Canada by many millions of dollars, but also that of the hard wheat-growing area of the United States, for 90 per cent of the spring wheat grown in Canada and 60 per cent of that produced in the States is Marquis. This famous variety of wheat which has won more world prizes than any other is the product of a long series of experiments. Dr. Saunders, to whom the credit for its development belongs, is now living in retirement in Ottawa, on a handsome annuity granted by a country that appreciates his great services to agriculture.

Today's Anniversaries

1648—Beginning of the battle of Preston, in which the forces of the Commonwealth under Cromwell defeated the Scots.

1786—Frederick the Great, king of Prussia, died at Sans Souci. Born in Berlin, Jan. 24, 1712.

1817—Gen. Andrew Pickens, one of the great Southern commanders in the Revolution, died at Pendleton, S. C. Born at Paxton, Pa., Sept. 9, 1739.

1876—The Albert Memorial in Edinburgh was inaugurated by Queen Victoria.

1887—The cornerstone was laid for Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis.

1889—The convention to frame a Constitution for the new state of Montana completed its work and adjourned.

1901—William Franklin Coston, whose system of night-signals is used by ships the world over, died at New Brighton, N. Y. Born in Washington, D. C., in 1847.

1924—Disastrous floods over a large sections of China followed a break in a Grand Canal dike, in western Shangtung.

1925—Evidence of human culture 12,000 years ago was discovered in Mongolia by Roy Chapman Andrews.

YOUR HEALTH

Public Drinking Utensils

Though states and municipalities have been busy eliminating, by law and ordinance, one of the greatest diseases by the use of the common dangers to health—the spread of germ drinking utensils—the public often grows careless. The medical profession, recognizing the dangers inherent to the use, by many, of the cup or glass not sterilized between usings succeeded in gaining the cooperation of the law makers to the extent that such usage, in all places catering to the public, because unlawful. That the spread of communicable diseases was lessened by these laws cannot be doubted. The glass in the railway coach disappeared and paper envelopes took its place; the mug or goblet was seen no more in the hotel wash-room, and rarely now does one see anyone borrowing the drinking utensil of another. The battle against typhoid fever and consumption, with the splendid assistance given by the press, was largely responsible for the eradication of those "public carriers" of germs from one mouth to another. The success of the effort at the education was noted almost immediately in the vital statistics compiled by our state board of health. Then came the "flu" with its enormous capabilities for easy transmission from one to another throughout the nation. Can any intelligent person who witnessed the terrible destruction of lives incident to that pidemic doubt that it would have been much worse had the public persisted in the promiscuous use of common drinking utensils?

But the public soon forgets!

All the profession asks is just a chance to protect each individual to prevent unnecessary suffering and economic loss.

Schwartz Bros. Inc.

Reward! Reward!

A brand new Glenwood Range given away, absolutely Free, for the capture of the oldest Glenwood Range in Norwich or vicinity, sold years ago to "make cooking easy." How old is yours? Let us hear from you.

SEND COUPON

—to—

SCHWARTZ BROS.,

NORWICH, CONN.

Name .....
Street .....
City or Town .....
Name of Stove .....
Year of Manufacture .....

Glenwood Ranges Make Cooking Easy

COMPLETE HOME FURNISHERS
SCHWARTZ BROS
BIG STORE WITH THE LITTLE PRICES
76-84 MAIN ST. NORWICH, CONN.

Glenwood Ranges Make Cooking Easy

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Suggests Traffic Solution

Mr. Editor: That the blinker signal at Broadway corner has been of great assistance in handling traffic flow is admitted by many drivers, but that the beacon alone and in its present state cannot handle it to best advantage, was clearly demonstrated Sunday night when traffic reached a peak flow, especially through Shetucket St.

This is the opinion of a number of people who stood at the corner Sunday night about 9 o'clock and saw what was due to be a jam to last for some time, completely cleared away in in a few minutes.

Without warning shortly before 9 o'clock several scores of cars came into the city at approximately the same time from the Norwich-New London road and military highway. These two streams met at Shetucket street and within a short time the street was blocked completely, traffic moving out of the city through Shetucket street being blocked at Water street intersection. The green light flashed and some twenty cars managed to pile through; then there was another jam.

Suddenly the signal light was turned off and the officer stepped to the street. Stopping the light traffic on Main street and Broadway he signalled the Shetucket street traffic to pile through. The drivers were ready and they did, less than three minutes being necessary to change a traffic jam into a traffic flow of ordinary nature.

The traffic then handled itself but those who saw the thing done stated that the thing most needed at the corner is a governing box to be handled by an foficer, the blinker to handle regular traffic and the governing box to be brought into use to flash red on slow movin; traffic and hold the green on the street tangled up with automobiles and trucks.

This control, it is claimed, would allow the officer to clear up the bad spots if a jam came in any one section. If the jam came both on Main, going west, and Shetucket street, coming into the city, the opinion was that by holding the green on Main street and Shetucket street at the same time, with red on Broadway, the jam would clear quickly if traffic from Shetucket street was allowed to make only right hand turns.

The argument, in brief, was that the automatic signal needed the brain work of a human being to make it work to full advantage.

Another suggestion made is that Church street be made either a one way street into the city, or left a two way street with parking on the south side only, and, this strictly enforced.

This would work out with the automatic box at Broadway corner, the officer there when a jam occurs, to press a button which flashes a light at Washington Square. While this light burns the traffic officer at Washington square sends all incoming traffic over Church street. When the Broadway corner jam is ended, then the light goes out at Washington Sq. and traffic resumes normal motion.

Another suggestion is that Talman street be macadamized and that a guide light be placed at the south end of Laurel Hill bridge. When traffic is heavy the guide light would inform the officer to send all traffic through Talman street from Laurel Hill avenue.

These emergency signals need only to be used when traffic is extremely heavy and then only for a sufficient period to allow the main avenue to be cleared of traffic.

Boosting for Norwich and with the understanding that these suggestions are of constructive nature, not knocking, I thank you for the space you have allowed me in your valuable paper.

MOTORIST

Norwich, Aug. 16, 1926.

Today's Birthdays

Sir Eric Drummond, the Canadian who fills the post of secretary of the league of nations, born 50 years ago today.

Caroline Bartlett Craine, noted minister, author and civic worker, born at Hudson, Wis., 63 years ago today.

Julia Marlowe, one of the foremost actresses of the American stage, born in England, 56 years ago today.

Admiral E. W. Wzerke, U. S. N chief of naval operations, born at Denton, Texas, 62 years ago today.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

The Collar Made of Sand

More often than you ever dream
Things really are not what they seem.

—Jimmy Skunk.

Jimmy Skunk was wandering along the beach, poking over this and poking his nose into that. Never had Peter Rabbit any more curiosity than Jimmy Skunk possessed. There were so many curious things on the beach that Jimmy was finding something new and unexpected and queer every other thing.

Farther along on the beach Reddy Fox was doing the same thing. It was curious how many queer things were washed up with every full tide. Then when the tide went out, ebbed as they say these queer things were left behind. Jimmy looked over toward Reddy. Reddy was looking very intently at something. "I wonder what he's found," thought Jimmy. "I wonder if it's anything new; anything I haven't found. I believe I'll go over there to see."

So Jimmy Skunk shuffled along over toward Reddy Fox. "Reddy," said he, "you look puzzled. What have you found?"

"I wish you'd tell me," replied Reddy promptly. "It seems to be made of sand, but I've never seen anything like it before. Anyway, I don't see how sand can hold together this way."

Jimmy came over and looked down at the thing Reddy was taring at. It looked a whole lot like a collar, the shape of one of the big white collars that little boys sometimes wear. It was just about that size. But it was made of sand. At least, it looked so. When Jimmy touched it, it felt so. He turned it over and still it didn't break. That was as puzzling as was the shape of the thing. How could anything as thin as that be made of sand and not break when it was turned over? Jimmy looked at it very closely. It certainly was made of sand; he could see the grains.

Just then Graywing the Gull came flying over. He saw Jimmy and Reddy. Of course. Nothing escapes those sharp eyes of Graywing's. He swung in a circle and then flew low. "What are you fellows looking at?" he inquired.

"You tell us," retorted Reddy.

Graywing alighted a few feet away. "Oh that?" said he. "Why, that is nothing but a lot of eggs."

"Eggs!" retorted Jimmy scornfully.

"What are you fellows looking at?" he inquired

"Eggs! Say, what is the matter with your eyes, Graywing? Can't you see that this is all sand?"

Graywing chuckled. "I see the sand all right," said he, "but with that sand a lot of eggs are mixed."

Reddy and Jimmy bent over the Sand Collar and looked at it more closely. But for all their looking they couldn't see any eggs. "Where are the eggs?" demanded Jimmy.

"Under the sand," replied Graywing. "Do you see that big, round snail over there? Well, those eggs belong to her."

Reddy and Jimmy looked. Sure enough, right close by was a great big snail, one of the round kind. It was bluish white and at the time they looked was moving slowly away from that Sand Collar.

"You se-" explained Graywing, "those eggs are very tiny, and there is a great number of them. When they were laid by Mrs. Snail, they were covered with something sticky, and the sand right away stuck to this on both sides, so that the whole thing looks as if it were made of sand. But it isn't. If nothing happens to that, there will be a whole lot of baby snails come out of that some day. So now you know what a Sand Collar is."

"Of course, Mr. Gull, if you say so, it must be so," replied Jimmy most politely. Then he sighed. "But it is hard to believe," he added.

(Copyright, 1926, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story—Leather Eggs.

They Know What They're Getting

Some of the shrewdest "low cost per mile" buyers in this section are coming to me for Goodyear Tires. They have proved, by experience, and careful figuring, that Goodyears are cheapest in the end.

Of course I could do it the other way. I could sell cheaper tires at a lower price. I could fatten up retail prices on inferior tires in order to "discount" them down so the proposition would look good to you.

But I have no burning desire to make myself a good fellow at your expense. If I did I'd have to be looking for new customers all the time—few of the old ones would ever come back for another stinging.

No—I'll stick to Goodyears.

You will too—once you've used them.

2 Cliff St., Norwich Tel 230.

The A. C. Swan Co.

126 Main St., New London Tel. 574.

OUR STANDARD GOODYEAR SERVICE FREE

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"

Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co., and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Beech-Nut Breakfast Coffee

For an especially fine flavored coffee you can't do better than Beech-Nut Breakfast Coffee. We sell it.

THUMM'S

DELICATESSEN STORE

40 FRANKLIN STREET

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Joseph Hall and family of Broad street are at their camp in the Rangeley Lakes.

Miss Helen Atwood of Wauregan is spending part of the month at the Atwood cottage, on the sea wall, Neptune Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurdon L. Bidwell of McKinley avenue have returned to town, after two months' tour of the Pacific Slope.

The Monday Afternoon Sewing club was entertained by Mrs. Harry E. Prentice of Washington street, at her cottage at Lord's Point.

Mrs. Benjamin Cooke, now at her summer home at Elberon, N. J., has sent out cards announcing the marriage of her daughter, Jessie Cooke Smith and Charles Floyd Noyes, on Saturday, the 14th of August, at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Noting the sixth birthday of her son, Master Austin Flint Hubbard, Thursday, Mrs. James L. Hubbard gave a swimming party at Eastern Point, for Huntington Worth, Weston C. Pullen, Jr., Buddy Clapp, Robert Tongren, with Charles and Austin Hubbard. Later the boys had lunch on Mr. Hubbard's power boat, The Louise, and were given a cruise out on the Sound.

Coins for State Library

Hubert Roper of Hartford has presented to the state library to be added to its historical collections another gift consisting of nine miscellaneous coins, medals and tokens.

The most interesting is the silver token, size of a half dollar, "God for one drink," issued by the Elite Saloon of San Antonio, Texas, the front of which bears a representation of the government water tower located in the center of the garrison with the officers' quarters in the background. On the reverse is represented the fall of the Alamo in 1836.

Federal Judge Burns yesterday formally approved the action by United States District Attorney Buckner in New York to nolle presse the first indictment returned in the American Metal company case. This removes as defendants the German and Swiss individuals and concerns that were among the defendants in the original indictment.

Quaker Oats "stands by" you through the morning

That's why millions start their days in this way

TO feel right through the morning, you must have well-balanced, complete food at breakfast. As most other meals—that is, at luncheon and at dinner—you usually get that kind of food.

But at breakfast the great dietary mistake is most often made—a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 68% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamines and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Food that should start every breakfast in your home.

Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Piles Go Quick

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds, because it relieves this congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has given quick, safe and lasting relief to thousands of Pile Sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. Lee & Osgood and druggists everywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.

1786 1926

Norwich, Tuesday, August 17, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 7:16 (S. T.) this evening.

The August moon quartered Monday, at 11:39 a. m.

Dr. Coyles' office will be closed till August 23rd.—Adv.

Auto-truck parties from Spuce lodge, Fitchville, are daily visitors in Norwich.

During Monday, sweet apples were selling at 50 cents a peck in some Norwich stores.

Many small boats are fishing along the beaches, making an occasional catch of mackerel.

Woodbine in places is beginning to show red leaves—one of the first signs that fall is drawing near.

By mid-afternoon Monday the mercury had fallen to 70 degrees; at the same hour Sunday it was at 89.

Farmers passing that way are interested in a very good looking field of clover at the Geger farm, at Mohegan.

The annual picnic of Griswold Congregational Sunday school is planned for Aug. 21st, at Mohegan Park, Norwich.

Vernon town school board has plans for an addition to the Hale Street school, which will give the school a rear entrance and a coat room.

Hampton residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moshier are at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Huntington Lathrop of Lebanon for two weeks.

Miss Fae Hope, a teacher in the Westerly Public schools last year, has returned to her home in Moosup, after a three weeks' tour of Canada.

Although it was chilly Monday, the Old Farmers' Almanac predicts "Hot, with occasional showers," as the weather for the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds of New Britain and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kroer and family of Hartford spent the week end at Crystal Lake, Tolland county.

People from this section, who have been going to Pine Grove for the weekly spiritualist meetings have been notified that the season there is to end Sunday next.

Due to the flushing of Market street, Rockville, previous to the laying of the concrete road, the Connecticut company has been put to considerable expense leveling its rails.

At Weekapaug, Miss Ethel Kelley of London, Eng., is spending two weeks as the guest of Miss Susan Lyman. This is Miss Kelley's first visit to the seashores of the United States.

Rev. O. E. Tourtellotte, pastor of the Center Methodist church, East Hartford, was born in Thompson. He was educated in the public schools of the town and at Woodstock Academy.

At South Killingly the other day, G. W. Barlow was attacked by a vicious cow which was hitched by the highway and which knocked him to the ground. No bones were broken.

There is to be a United States Civil Service examination for associate chemist in these lines, advanced inorganic, analytical, organic and physical chemistry. The salary is $3,000 a year.

An exchange mentions that Miss Ruth Tracey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles K. Tracy of West Hartford left Saturday for Crescent Beach where she will stay with friends.

The message on the wayside pulpit of the Church of the Good Shepherd (Universalist) this week reads: "If you think that the world is all wrong, remember that it contains people like you."

The contractors who are building the addition to the school at Saybrook are making progress, but will be delayed in their work, caused by the steel work and other materials being belated.

Friends are receiving cards from Mrs. John L. Riley, of West Thames street and her daughter, Mrs. Olive R. Roberts, who, with the latter's little son, are on a vacation visit to Canadian cities.

Trumpet vines, hollyhocks, hydrangeas and other plants are in flower at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Bishop, on Broadway, which was the school of Mrs. Lydia Huntley Sigourney, in 1810.

Walter L. Hill of Norwich, has been awarded the contract to paint the 91 outside mail boxes in Norwich, as well as six at the post office. The new green paint which he is using was sent on from Washington and is a shade of olive.

Although everybody realizes the need of rain and much of it, the showers of Monday disappointed many who had made plans for coming to Norwich in the evening to watch the fine display of fireworks always provided by the Italian citizens.

Tailored blouses are having a free sale, and a steadily growing business is reported in velvet blouses, according to local merchants. Broadcloth garments are also taking well. In the higher-priced goods novelty satins and metallic effects are being offered successfully.

PARIS DIVORCE GRANTED D. H. FANNING'S GD.-DAUGHTER

Relatives and acquaintances in eastern Connecticut were interested in The Bulletin's cabled news from Paris Saturday, announcing the fact that a divorce had been granted the wife of Barclay Warburton, Jr. The latter is a grandson of John Wanamaker. Mrs. Rosamund Lancaster Warburton is the only granddaughter of David Hale Fanning, who died recently in Worcester.

She was named for her grandmother, Rosamund Dawless Fanning and is the only daughter of Mrs. John E. Lancaster, of Worcester. Her mother spends much of her time in Paris.

The Warburtons have two children, a son and daughter. Shortly after the announcement of their engagement at Philadelphia, in 1919, they eloped and were married Dec. 10th, 1919 at Elkton, Md., going abroad immediately.

Mr. Warburton served overseas in the Signal Corps, having the rank of lieutenant. He also served on the Hoover Commission in Poland. His wife, too, was active in war work. The alleged grounds for her divorce petition was abandonment. In the will of her grandfather Mrs. Warburton received only $5,000 and the same sum was left to her husband; but her mother we sleft $600,000, with other portions of Mr. Fanning's estate.

The latest fashionable divorcee was married when very young and at a time when she was a favorite in the winter smart set at Palm Beach and was considered very clever there as an interpretive dancer.

When she attended the funeral of her grandfather at Worcester she was not accompanied by her husband; but the fact that they were not living in harmony did not become known until late in the spring of the present year.

Granted Year's Absence

Leave of absence with permission to leave the state is given to Colonel Charles H Allen, aide de camp on the governor's staff in an order from the adjutant general's staff. It will expire September 7th

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cleary have returned from a week's visit in New Haven and Woodmont.

John T. Sullivan of Providence is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. John S. Hartie of Boath St.

Miss Marjorie Shea and Miss Mary McCarthy of Norwich have returned home after spending the week end in New Haven.

Rev. Alfred Driscoll has returned to Bridgeport after a two weeks' visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Driscoll of Uncas street.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. M. May and his junior assistant Rev. J. J. Reilly of St. Patrick's church, are in retreat at Manresa Seminary, South Norwalk for the week.

Miss Edith L. Boynton of Norwich, has been the guest of Mrs. J. Ogden Stuart and Mrs. E. Ainsworth Baker of New York at the Massasoit Inn, Narragansett Pier.

Miss Maisie Maloney of Norwich and Miss Nora Brennan of Westerly were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. William J. Murray of 42 Williams street, New London.

Miss Helen Green of Fourth street and Miss Elizabeth Fleming of Tenth street have returned home after spending a week visiting with Mrs. John E. Orr of New Haven.

Miss Annie G. Stanton of Summer street, Mr. J. Murphy of Washington street and Miss Catherine O'Connell of Union street were week end visitors at Ocean Beach.

Miss Mabel Fleming of Tenth street and Miss Dorothy Messler of Division street left Saturday to spend their vacations with relatives in Newark, East Orange and Jersey City, N. J.

Robert Woodmansee, Jr., of Penobscot street, W. J. Fedace of Main street left Sunday for a week's motor trip, starting for Saratoga, then to Canada, returning by way of Maine.

Miss Clarice Melvin, Miss Louise D. Lessard and Miss Eleanor Ludwig have returned from a motor trip to Maine and New Hampshire. They spent a week at Old Orchard, Maine.

Frank Devine, who recently resigned his position with the Wauregan hotel, has returned home from a trip to Schenectady and Saratoga, N. Y., and has taken a position with the International Silver company.

OBITUARY

Edwin Russell Gillette

Edwin Russell Gillette, 56., former representative in the state legislature from the town of Colchester, former first selectman and master of the Colchester grange, died Saturday at the Hartford hospital. Poor health for a period of six months necessitated the taking of the former representative to the Hartford hospital last Monday, where he underwent an operation Thursday.

Mr. Gillette was a farmer. He was first selectman for a number of years and in 1917 represented Colchester in the legislature. He was master of the grange and deacon of the Congregational church and was a member of Worcester lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Colchester and patron of Worcester Star chapter, O. E. S.

He leaves his wife, a stepson, William B. Gerhardt of Florida, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Wallace B. Frann of Deep River.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Simeon Abell

Funeral services for Fanny Banning, widow of Simeon Abell, were held Monday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, at the Johnson home with a large attendance. Rev. Gurdon F. Bailey, pastor of the First Congregational church conducted the service, also read the committal service at the grave. Burial was in the family plot in the Johnson cemetery, at Bozrah.

There were beautiful floral pieces.

The bearers were Albert Avery, Edward Bishop, Clarence Parker, all of Bozrah and Nathan H. Hall, of Preston City.

The Henry Allen and Son Co., was in charge of the funeral arrangements for which Mrs. Abell had arranged years ago. Relatives and friends were present from Preston City, New London, Waterford, Colchester, Bozrah and Norwich.

Mrs. Wesley Brown

Funeral services for Della Brown, widow of Wesley Brown, who died Friday of last week in this city, were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the grave in Linwood cemetery, Colchester, the service being conducted by Rev. W. O. Berckman of Colchester.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service and the many beautiful floral pieces evidenced the love and esteem in which Mrs. Brown was held by her many friends. Arrangements were by Charles A. Gager.

FOUND JOBS FOR 254 MEN IN NORWICH

Jobs were found for 254 men in Norwich by the local employment service during the four weeks June 1 to June 26, the United States employment service announced in Washington Monday. During the same period jobs were found for 3,063 men in five Connecticut towns.

In Hartford 1,093 men registered with the service; 897 requests for employes were received; all of the 1,093 men were referred to possible employers and 827 were placed in positions.

Bridgeport's registration totalled 1,077; 945 employers asked for help; $1,012 of the applicants were referred and 827 of them were placed. In New Haven 765 applicants registered; 742 help wanted requests were received; 729 men were referred to possible jobs and 706 fo them were placed.

Of 723 registrants in Waterbury, the service was able to place only 349. But 382 requests for men were received, to which 373 men were referred.

The service in Norwich registered 624 applicants and succeeded in placing 254 of them. Requests from employers totalled 249 and 235 applicants were referred.

CAMP SCHULZE IS DEDICATED AT NIANTIC

"Work collectively," General Edward Schulze urged Disabled American Veterans of the World War at the dedication of the camp named after him in Niantic Sunday. "In unity there is strength and when you pull together your chances multiply. I hope that your camps in this beautiful spot will continue year after year.

General Schulze went far back in his memory to the day in 1867 when he enlisted in the Thirty-seventh United States infantry to "chase Indians" on the frontier. Later he enlisted in Company A of the old First regiment and he told about his first sight of the camp ground in 1873 as a sergeant of that company. He gave a reminiscence about the gorgeously uniformed captain of a company of the old Third regiment who gave the dubious command: "Left wheel, double time, march!"

He complimented Lieutenant Lyman Root, head of the old Second division, Naval militia, as an officer of excellent merit with a rare mingling of social qualities and soldierly merit, saying that that officer was a leader and "mixer" among his men when out of uniform and an "Indian" when enjoying himself, and a leader and a disciplinarian when in uniform, admired and highly respected by the division.

BROOKLINE MAN HELD FOR DRIVING ON GIRL'S LICENSE

Following an automobile accident at the corner of Water and Shetucket streets Monday evening Frank Lane of No. 41 Kenwood street, Brookline, Mass., was held by the local police on two counts of violation of the automobile laws. He is charged with driving without a license and failure to grant the right of way and his bond was fixed at $100.

An Essex coach driven by Lane and a Hupmobile touring car owned by C. V. Pendleton and driven by John F. Ludwig came together at the junction of the two streets. The police in investigating the crash found that the machine driven by Lane is owned by Dorothy Frances Aldrich of Brookline, and that Lane was using the girl's driving license. He expressed surprise when he learned that he could not drive a car on the girl's license.

The front axle and left front mudguard on the Hupmobile were damaged and a mudguard on the Essex was damaged. Thomas Grice, colored, No. 5016 Petrie avenue, Chicago, was riding in the rear seat of the car driven by Lane and received a slight cut in the eye.

WESTERLY MEN WERE USING WRONG NUMBERS

Leon Gadbois, 19, and Henry Pelland, Jr., both of Westerly, found themselves in trouble Monday evening when Officer Patterson discovered that they were using wrong registration numbers on their car. They were on their way through North Main street when held up, the officer noticing that there were no lights showing on the machine.

The car is owned by Pelland and was being operated by Gadbois. According to the story of the case, Pelland and Gadbois decided to come to Norwich for a ride in Pelland's car. They equipped the car with registration plates that were not issued for the machine and Gadbois, who had no driver's license, drove the machine to this city.

Both were arrested, booked at police headquarters and held in bonds of $100 each.

NORWICH EAGLES HOLD PAST PRESIDENTS NIGHT

Norwich Aerie No. 367, F. O. E., held a past president's night Monday evening at their home on Cliff street. A large number of members being present in spite of the extremely wet weather.

The meeting was opened by President August Hastedt and after brief remarks he called upon the past presidents to occupy the stations in the lodge. The stations were then taken as follows: Edward J. Mullins, president; William R. Hastedt, vice president; George Nadolny, chaplain; George Goepfert, junior vice president; Martin Keough, worthy conductor.

During the meeting, the initiation committee announced that plans were well underway for the initiation of a large class of candidates on September 4th, and that a large sign was to be placed on the lawn in front of the building announcing the preparation for the class. It is anticipated that there will be several delegations of Eagles from various sections of the state at the meeting and that state officers will attend in a body.

The building committee announced that plans are completed for the alterations to the building, to provide for a new stairway on the easterly side of the building. This stairway is to lead to the hall in the upper part of the building so that the hall can be used by outside organizations for dances or card parties, also for public occasions under the auspices of the lodge. The specifications for the alterations are soon to be put out for bid and the work will be rushed to completion.

The committee on entertainment reported that the lodge stands open to challenges from the Sons of Hermann, Foresters, Moose or other lodges for a series of pinochle games for the city championship. The lodges mentioned above had been defeated by the Eagles and the lodge seeks to give them an opportunity to regain their lost crowns.

At the conclusion of the business session the lodge was presented a handsome lodge room ingraham clock by George Bellows, the gift being accepted with thanks.

The several past presidents spoke briefly on the good of the order and at the conclusion of their remarks the members enjoyed a social hour, refreshments being served.

FRUIT GROWERS TO TOUR COUNTY TODAY

Fruit growers in this section will hold their annual New London County orchard trip today (Tuesday) under the auspices of the New London County Farm bureau.

The tour will start at 9 a. m. standard time, at J. R. Haley's orchards, Center Groton. Mr. Haley has 15 to 20 acres of apples. The Haley farm is located on the road from Groton to Old Mystic. The cranberry bog of Elwin Haley will also be visited. Thence the party will visit orchards of W. L. Allyn in Ledyard (F. W. Burton, manager), where there are 25 acres of apples, 5 to 25 years old, one of the most successful apple orchards in the county. At the Allyn Farm a basket lunch will be enjoyed.

The third stop on the tour will be at the farm of George Wheeler, Stonington, who has 1,000 to 1,200 apple trees of standard varieties. He also has an apple storage house, and operates a cider mill to utilize the surplus and cull apples.

W. H. Darrow and others from the state college, and E. M. Stoddard of the Connecticut Experiment station will be on the tour and will discuss timely orchard topics as time permits.

SHELTERING ARMS FAMILY IS TO MOVE WEDNESDAY

Because of the rain Monday, the family at the Sheltering Arms was compelled to defer moving to the fine new building at the head of McKinley avenue. A portion of the furniture has been transferred to the new house and the family members will leave the Harland road home Wednesday.

In Saturday's account of the new Sheltering Arms, a typographical error deprived of credit the secretary of the building committee, Mrs. Charles H. Preston. Mrs. Preston has devoted time and thought to the fitting and furnishing of the new building and her associate members on the committee recognize her valuable aid and her practical interest in the home and its family.

GRACE KEMPTON VISITS GRANDPARENTS AT YANTIC

Miss Grace Kempton of New York city spent Sunday at Yantic with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kempton. Miss Kempton has been an understudy for the leading role in the Vagabond Prince and begins a long engagement in Chicago on Labor day.

Miss Kempton made an enviable reputation over the radio in Springfield and for the past two years has been singing in New York where her voice met with much appreciation.

Griswold Family Chart

A geneological chart of the Griswold family of Connecticut has been received at the state library in Hartford. The chart was presented to the library by Mrs. Marian D. Kilpatrick of Beatrice, Neb., in memory of Laurence Brainard, who compiled the chart at Boston in 1922. Other charts also presented by Mrs. Kilpatrick are of the Castle family, the Tenney family and the Tyler and Swaine families.

Sent Body to Rockville

The body of Patrick Coleman of Rockville, whose death occurred Friday at Preston after a long illness was taken in charge by Cummings & Bling. On Saturday the body was sent to Rockville where burial took place. The deceased leaves relatives in Rockville.

TELLS OF NAVY'S PART AT SESQUI-CENTENNIAL

Speaking of the Navy's part in the Sesqui-Centennial celebration at Philadelphia, Justin F. McCarthy, recruiting officer in this city said Monday:

Two novel exhibits at the Sesqui-Centennial exposition at Philadelphia have been prepared by the bureau of supplies and accounts at the navy department. One shows the development of the meals issued to the navy crews from the time of the revolution to the present day. Wax reproductions of the cooked meals in their natural colors make this a realistic exhibit. It is interesting to note the difference in the amount of food and its condition that could be bought for the current prices. During the revolution, a ration cost twenty-eight cents. Hard tack and salt pork were favorite bits in those days with navy beans as dessert. During the Civil war it cost 30 cents a day to keep each man of the fleet fit.

Even at that time our modern foods had not replaced the hard tack and other indestructable foods.

Today the allowance for feeding crews of naval vessels average 55 cents per day, and this provides each man with "three squares" and ice cream for dessert.

The second exhibit consists of eight life size figures, of officers and enlisted men dressed in the uniforms in use from the days of the revolution to the present day. The Marine corps have a similar exhibit of four figures showing the development in the marine corps uniforms.

Models and relics have been sent to Philadelphia by water route, up Chesapeake bay to the Delaware and Chesapeake canal, through the canal and up the Delaware river to Philadelphia. This avoided repeated handling of the models and relics, some of which are old and fragile.

ANNUAL AUTO TOUR OF POULTRY ASS'N

The annual automobile tour of the Connecticut Poultry association will this year be conducted entirely in Connecticut, visiting many of the best poultry farms in the eastern half of the state. Special effort is being made to provide unusual entertainment, as well as the valuable instruction associated with previous trips.

The trip is being planned in cooperation with the following county workers: Ernest E. Tucker of Rockville, Tolland county; Walter T. Clark of Norwich, New London county; Raymond K. Clapp of New Haven, New Haven county; and Sidney A. Edwards of Middletown, Middlesex county.

The tour will line up on the North Coventry state road east of Bolton Notch. Those coming from the northern border of the state, who could more easily assemble at Rockville, will be met at the Main square by E. Tucker. Box lunches should be provided for the first day. Hotels and meals will be taken care of from that time on for those who sign up for the entire trip.

Banners and numbers will be provided for all cars. Road maps will be supplied and the usual guide system will be used.

HEAVY RAINSTORM WILL GREATLY BENEFIT FARMS

Crops throughout the country will be greatly benefitted by the heavy downpour of rain Monday afternoon and evening. The rain started in shortly before 4 o'clock and from then until 11 o'clock at night there was a continuous downpour. About 9.30 o'clock there were several brilliant flashes of lightning.

Crops throughout the country have needed a heavy rain for several weeks. Recent thunderstorms helped out somewhat but the water that fell during the storms was quickly dried up in the heat wave.

With the coming of the rain storm Monday there was an appreciable drop in temperature.

TOTOKETT CO., OCCUM, FURNISHED POWER 12 YEARS

The Totokett Manufacturing company of Occum which for the past twelve years has furnished electric lightining for the homes of its employes, for St. Joseph's church and rectory, Versailles M. E. church, Totokett store and the village streets, on Saturday turned over the lighting service to the Eastern Connecticut Power company. During the severe thunder shower of last Thursday afternoon the generator of the Totokett Mfg. Co., was burned out. The Totokett company will not replace the damaged generator, the Eastern Connecticut Power company taking over the lighting permanently.

ANOTHER CHECK FOR FIREMEN'S PENSION FUND

A check for $25 from the Richmond Radiator company, Joseph W. Curtis, general manager, has been received by Chief Howard L. Stanton of the Norwich fire department in appreciation of the department's services at a recent fire in the company's store house. The money will be added to the firemen's pension fund.

Rain Spoiled Fireworks

The rainstorm which broke at Westerly about 9 o'clock Sunday night terminated the fireworks display at the Stillman avenue grounds, the feature event in the celebration of the feast of Madonna della Assunta by the Pawcatuck residents of Italian descent.

Miss Toomey Recovers

Friends are welcoming Miss Ella Toomey back at the Cranston company store, after an absence since May. Miss Toomey was in Boston for surgical treatment and since returning to town has been visiting among friends.

Porch shades and piazza [illegible] have had a good sale since the beginning of August.

INSURANCE SOCIETIES SHOW MEMBERSHIP GAIN

The fraternal insurance societies licensed to do business in this state had in force in Connecticut on December 31, 1925, 98,190 certificates for $83,842,777, according to Volume III of the Connecticut Insurance report issued Monday by Insurance Commissioner Howard P. Dunham. Of this number, 20,945 certificates were in the five societies incorporated in Connecticut, while 72,155 were in the forty-seven societies of other states licensed to do business here.

The total assets of all societies licensed here was $456,782,023, an increase of $47,557,609 over the previous year. The liabilities amounted to $20,963,152, leaving a balance of more than $408,000,000 as reserve for the protection of contracts.

An analysis of the assets shows that 19.35 per cent. was invested in real estate and mortgage loans, 60.73 per cent. in bonds and stocks, 2.63 per cent. in cash in office and banks and the balance in miscellaneous items.

The total membership of all societies increased from 4,728,349 in 1924 to 4,995,086 in 1925, an increase of 223,737. Four of the five Connecticut societies showed an increase in membership while one showed a decrease. Of the outside societies, twenty-four showed increases in membership, while twenty-three showed decreases.

The total amount paid by members was $110,585,067. The claims paid amounted to $71,051,131, of which $1,481,321 were Connecticut claims.

The tables show that the average death rate for all societies was 11.35 per 1,000 of membership. The average for the five Connecticut societies, however, was only 7.27. Each of these is an increase over last year. The average number of lapses per 1,000 of membership was 80.66 for all societies and 68.59 for the Connecticut societies.

MONTVILLE PASTOR HAS PART IN GOLDEN JUBILEE

Rev. James A. O'Meara, pastor of St. John's church, Montville, was master of ceremonies at the golden jubilee of St. Mary's church, Lakeville, Sunday. Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. John F. Donahue, pastor of St. Joseph's church, New Britain, a former pastor of the Lakeville church.

Rev. William P. Kennedy, pastor of St. Peter's church, New Haven, was deacon of the mass and Rev. Arthur O'Keefe, pastor of St. Francis' church, Torrington, formerly of Taftville, was sub-deacon. Father O'Meara was master of ceremonies. The sermon was preached by Rev. Walter McCrann of St. Mary's church, New Britain, a native of Willimantic. Mass was first said in Lakeville under a tree near the Davis mine July 4, 1849, by Father Howard, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

NORWICH TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver of Huntington Green, Norwich Town, opened their home Saturday to the relatives of Mrs. Weaver, for the 18th annual Brown reunion, held the second Saturday of August each year. There were about 50 present, guests coming from North Billerica, Linwood and North Uxbridge, Mass., Cranston, R. I., and Willimantic, Hartford, Talcottville, Hampton, Jewett City, Lisbon, Staffordville, Mystic and Norwich from this state. A number attended who were not present at the reunion last year.

During the dinner at noon on the lawn, when the many tempting lunches were eaten, Mrs. Weaver served coffee, lemonade and soft drinks.

Most of the guests came by automobile and while at the Weaver home, visited the beautiful flower and vegetable gardens. To those who were unable to be present because of being shut-ins due to advanced years, Mrs. Weaver sent bouquets of choice gladioli blooms. These included: William Brown, Douglas, Mass.; Thomas Brown of Plainfield, and Mrs. William H. Brown of Jewett City. Many others availed themselves of the privilege of taking home some of the exquisite aster blooms grown in these gardens.

Mrs. Weaver's family at the present time stands as the first generation. Mrs. Weaver who was the retiring president this year, presided at the business meeting Saturday afternoon, at which time the election of officers took place.

Crosby Peck of Otrobando avenue left last week for Westchester, where he was joined by his aunt, Miss May Peck for a week's automobile trip to Canada. Leaving early Thursday morning, they motored the first day to Lake Champlain, arriving that evening at 7 o'clock, after covering 255 miles. Miss Peck and her nephew, after visiting places of interest while touring, were expected to leave for home Monday morning, as stated on cards received from them that morning by Mr. Peck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Peck.

While on a visit to relatives at her former home in Lebanon, Mrs. Drake, wife of Dr. Drake of Little Falls, N. Y., was a supper guest Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Peck of Norwich Town. Mrs. Peck and Mrs. Drake were schoolmates.

After 17 years of faithful service as nurse at the Johnson home, Mrs. Mary White has resigned and is taking a necessary period of rest. Mrs White, after having had a vacation of one month, had the time extended another month, finally tendering her resignation. During her absence, Miss Elizabeth Waugh of Plainfield substituted, assisting Mrs. May Rollins, matron at the home.

Miss Marion L. Bailey of Elm avenue, was a guest over the week end of Mrs. Ruth Johnson of Swampscott, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey of Hartford visited over the week end at the home of Mr. Bailey's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Gurdon F. Bailey at the Congregational parsonage, Elm avenue.

Miss Katharine Buchanan of Staten Island, N. Y., is the guest for some time of her great-uncle, William Weaver and Mrs. Weaver.

Miss Nellie Buckley, doctor of chiropractic, New York, has been visiting her sisters, the Misses Buckley of Norwich Town, at the homestead on Canterbury turnpike.

Having motored to Norwich Town from Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. H Lee Sterry arrived Saturday afternoon at Mr. Sterry's former home on Lee avenue, to be the guests for several days of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Sterry. Mr. and Mrs. Sterry (Wilamae Harvey of Lead, S. D.) were married July 24th.

DIED

SMITH—In this city, Aug. 17, 1926 Josephine O. Lavander, wife of Ernest R. Smith of 12 Bliss place. Funeral notice later.

Explains How Enlarged Veins Can Be Reduced

Often Times Veins Burst and Cause Much Suffering, Expense and Loss of Employment.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it at home as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil has brought much comfort to worried people all over the country, is one of the wonders of the present years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded as Lee & Osgood Co. sells lots of it.

— The —

Porteous & Mitchell Company

Clearance Prices —on— RUGS HAMMOCKS

$25.00 Couch HAMMOCKS.. $12.50

Couch Hammocks, plain and striped duck, with spring upholstered back—at $12.50, value $25.00.

$5.00 WOVEN HAMMOCKS $2.50

Woven Hammocks, strongly made. Will give good service—at $2.50, value $5.00.

RATTANIA RUGS at $9.75

6x9 feet—$9.75, value $11.50
7 ft. 6x10 ft. 6—at $12.50
9x12 feet—$14.75, value $18.00

KIMLARK RUGS at $9.50

6x 9 feet— $9.50, value $11.50
8x10 feet—$13.50, value $16.50
9x12 feet—$16.50, value $19.50

$7.50 CREX RUGS at $3.75

Summer Crex Rugs, size 8x10 feet—Clearance Price $3.75, regular value $7.50.

PORCH SHADES REDUCED

The well known Aerolux and Keolits Porch Shades. Sizes 4 to 12 feet—all at 20 per cent off regular prices.

COTTAGE SETS at 79c

Five-piece Cottage Sets or Double Dutch Curtains, ruffled, with tieback—at 79c a set, value $1.25.

THIS WEEK

$10 SAVED

on the Purchase of a

SUNBEAM CABINET HEATER

You save $10.00 in actual cash if you order your Sunbeam Cabinet Heater before August 21st. Here's the way—place your order now. Deposit only $5.00 and you will be given credit for $15.00. No further payments required until the time when you want your heater installed in the fall!

Do you know of any easier way to save $10.00? And is there any better investment you can make than the purchase of a Sunbeam Cabinet Heater, the wonderful heater that takes the place of two or three stoves, saves one-third your fuel costs, burns hard or soft coal or wood and ensures the solid comfort of a completely heated home, next winter—many winters?

Come in today. Let us show you this "whole home" heating plant and tell you more about our $10.00 Saving Plan.

—THE—

Plaut-Cadden Co. Company

"Everything For the Home"

135-143 Main St., Norwich

224-236 Bank Street, New London

We Are Exclusive Eastern Connecticut Distributors of Oil-O-Matic Oil Burners and Servel Electric Refrigerators.

SUSIE HAS HARD TIME TRYING TO PICK OUT SUBJECT TO WRITE ABOUT

Susie seems to be in a quandry as just what to write about in her letter this week and although she mentions a number of subjects she does not say much about them. Her letter follows:

Dear Sports Ed.:—

Maybe its the weather we been having but the fact is that I ain't got no pep nor nothing this week and I'm afraid this letter is going to be a bust. It ain't no cinch to sit down and write a letter what folks like to read when you ain't got nothing to write about which is the case with me. I thought of a number of subjects that I might write on but modesty and feelings for others prevent.

I thought I'd write about a weenie roast what three fellers went on a coupla weeks ago, but as the boy friend says they is pretty good fellers, I guess I won't say much about them, but from what I know, I can safely say it was a large evening—who cares

Then I thought maybe I'd write about my going claming down to Mago Point, but there ain't no kick in that. All you get out of claming is a lotta sore fingers and plenty of sunburns and less clams. You know when it was first suggested that we go claming I thought you had to catch 'em on a hook and line or set traps for 'em, but when I found you had to dig 'em out like potatoes there weren't so much fun

Another thing what I could have wrote about was a pinockle game what I heard about where a feller holds a whole flock of aces but I guess where ignorance is bliss it's a crime to put a feller wise.

There was a party up in the wilds of one of our neighboring townships a while ago where a wild Indian from Norwich got a poke in the nose, but as I ain't strong for scandal I ain't going to tell nobody only a couple of girl friends. Of course, they'll never tell nobody; womens never do. Then there was a lobster party that some of my friends went to but I ain't going to say much about that.

There is one thing what is settled and that's where we is going on my vacation. For once I come out of the battle with the old flag still waving. We is going on a camping tour and it being the first what I ever went on I is anticipating it with mingled feelings. Since we called a truce on the battle up to the house everybody is now offering suggestions as to what we'll take and where we'll go. The first thing that we hadda settle was what kind of a car we was going in. I wanted a snappy touring car with a lotta trunks on the side but Pa insists on a close car. Then Ma who comes from a good old Scotch family says that we ain't going to spend no big money on no classy car but we is going to buy a second hand flivver. Oh boy, can you imagine us five traveling in one of them bone-shakers. Pa and I starts a argument but it ain't no use 'cause Ma informs us she has made the first payment on a 1918 model which she got for only $65. That comes of having a woman what don't know a steering wheel from the cushions buying a mechanical buggy. Now the question is who's going to drive this delapidated old chariot. I made my bid as shauffer seeing as how I'd droved the boy friend's car once. Pa says it's up to the man of the party but Ma says seeing that she bought it and as how the nice (?) man what sold it to her guaranteed to teach her to drive she was going to be the pilot of this cruise. All I can say is "God be with us!"

Now that we has got the car, not actually, but as soon as two more payments is made, we is debating on what to carry. Believe me, Ed., everybody has made out a list what we wants take and if everything goes, not including the tent and cooking tools and grub, we gotta get a five-ton truck to carry it all. Pa says that we women has gotta cut down and that we ain't going to move the household furniture as we is only on a camping trip.

The way the matter stands now is, that all we gotta do is either make the car bigger or cut down on some of the things we gotta take. Well, Ed., I gotta stop now, 'cause there's a coupla more things I gotta put down on my list before I forget 'em

Well, so long Ed.

Yours as ever

SUSIE

"Boots" Ruffo Wins at Horse-Shoes

"Boots" Ruffo, the champion horseshoe pitcher of the city, took his first opponent into camp on Thursday evening and landed a victory when he defeated Stewart Sedrone easily.

Ruffo took five games in a row, while Sedrone succeeded in capturing one.

Ruffo challenges anyone in the city to a series of games to be played at the Lake St. playgrounds.

If this challenge is accepted answer through this paper.

PLAYGROUNDS SPORTS

Track Meet

The final track meet of the season between the Elizabeth St., Lake St., Laurel Hill and Jail Hill playgrounds teams had to be called off because of the heavy rain of Monday afternoon. The meet was started at the Academy campus but had to be abandoned after but a few events had been run off. Activities are scheduled to be renewed at the Academy campus this (Tuesday) afternoon when the remaining events of the program will be staged.

The start is set for 2:00 o'clock sharp.

WARRIORS AND POWERMEN IN CLASH THIS EVENING

Owing to the bad weather of Monday evening the game between the Eastern Conn. Power team and the Warriors in the Norwich Twilight league, was postponed and will be played this evening. The Warriors although pretty well down in the standing of the league have yet to put up a poor exhibition of baseball. In every game these youngsters have played exceptionally fine baseball and have lost out only by small margins. Some of the best games of the season have been those in which the Warriors participated.

The league leaders have been sailing along at a good rate but it would not be surprising if the youngsters should take a fall out of them in tonight's game.

Junior Twilight Game Postponed

The scheduled Jr. Twi league game between the Bearcats and Brasscos was postponed because of the rain of Monday and will be played later in the season.

This evening at the Academy campus in a Jr. Twi league game the Centennials and Gas and Electric teams are scheduled to clash. A fast game is promised and it is scheduled to start at 6:30 sharp.

Warriors After Games

The Warriors are without a game for the coming Sunday and any fast team wishing a good attraction can book this club by either calling 2352 or writing Mgr. 59 Union street.

The Warriors also have a few open dates for the latter part of the season and would like to schedule some fast teams. Games with such teams as Over the Top of North Grosvenordale, Aspinwaga Mills of Dayville, Wauregan Grays, Rossie A. A. of Mystic, Saybrook and any other teams in this section. The Warriors lost close games to the first two named but since that time both have for some reason or other kept shy of the local club.

TAFTVILLE A. A. AND BURELLE'S TOWNERS PLAY THIS EVENING

The last twilight game of the 1926 season at the Providence street grounds will be played this evening when the Taftville A. A. and Red Burelle's Taftville Town team will clash. There is keen rivalry between these two clubs and they have met several times this season with the honors being about evenly divided. Manager Froland will use either Lloyd Jarvis or Rabbitt Gauthier against the Townsers while Joey will be on the mound for Burelle's club. The Taftville Town team was to have clashed with the Bon Tons but the game has been called off.

REDS BUY TWO PLAYERS FROM PORTLAND, ORE. CLUB

CINCINNATI, Aug. 16—(AP)—The Cincinnati Nationals today purchased from the Portland, Oregon club, Roy Meeker, pitcher, and Thirdbaseman Dos Prothro. Meeker will report for immediate service, but Portland will hold Prothro until a player they are after as a part of the deal has been obtained by Cincinnati. The sum of $75,000 and two players, neither of whom is a Red at present, are involved in the transaction.

Chapman-Lord Bout Postponed

HARTFORD, Aug. 16—(AP)—Owing to rain the boxing bout between Red Chapman of Boston and Eddie Lord of Waterbury, scheduled here tonight was postponed until tomorrow night. All the boxers reported to Commissioner Thomas E. Donohue this afternoon and were weighed and examined. Chapman and Lord each tipped the beam at 128 pounds

STATE COMMITTEE REFUSES DEMPSEY A LICENSE UNLESS HE MEETS WILLS

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Jack Dempsey's application for a license to fight Gene Tunney here September 16, today was denied by the state license commission until he has complied with the state athletic commission's order that he meet the negro, Harry Wills, first.

The resolution of the license board recited that Dempsey must present articles for a bout with Wills to take place before he meets any other man in order to receive recognition in this state.

This decision followed receipt of an opinion from Attorney General Ottinger in Albany stating that the license body was not within its power in refusing a license to the heavyweight champion after he had been declared eligible by the state athletic commission.

The license committee's resolution follows:

"The license committee will not further consider the application of Jack Dempsey for a license until he has complied with the resolution and orders of the New York state athletic commission and license committee issued to him declaring Harry Wills his logical opponent.

"He, Jack Dempsey, must therefore enter into proper articles of agreement in accordance with printed rules and regulations of the New York state athletic commission and license committee, and specify particularly in this agreement that Harry Wills will be his first opponent."

Observers foresees a battle in the courts with Tex Rickard, promoter, supported by the Ottinger finding, the athletic commission having voted Dempsey eligible to license last week. The decision of the license board, on the other hand, is regarded as a victory for James A. Farley, chairman of the commission who all along has held out for a Dempsey-Wills contest.

Farley often has said that Tunney and the champion would not fight at the Yankee stadium in September, but his fellow commissioners, George E. Brower and William L. Muldoon, recently combined forces in an effort to obtain the battle. Brower, a lawyer, asked the attorney general for the opinion which was made public today.

Arthur F. Driscoll, an attorney for Dempsey, requested Colonel John J. Phelan, chairman of the license committee, to make a clearer statement of the board's stand.

"It speaks for itself," Colonel Phelan said.

Driscoll then informed newspaper men that he would confer immediately with Rickard to decide upon what the next step would be. "We undoubtedly will go to the courts for a legal interpretation of the license committee's ruling," said Driscoll, "then we will institute mandamus proceedings to force the license committee to grant Dempsey his license.

"This license committee, in refusing Dempsey a license, has assumed more power than allowed by law."

Colonel Phelan, when apprised of the ruling of Attorney General Ottinger, said he had not heard of it officially, therefore had no comment to make.

The next regular meeting of the license committee will be held August 28, it was announced.

In support of its contention that Dempsey should first enter into proper agreement to fight Wills, the license committee delved into the commission files for a great heap of data bearing on the Dempsey-Wills and Dempsey-Tunney cases.

For instance, the committee had before it the minutes of the commission meeting of July 17, 1925 when the forfeit and challenge of Harry Wills was accepted. Then in May, 1926, meetings of the commission were found records of the commission refusing to accept the forfeit and challenge of Tunney.

Thus, the license committee, it was understood, still recognized Wills as the logical contender and accepted challenger by the commission's own acts. Colonel Phelan was asked if the later action of the commission, in voting two to one, that the Dempsey-Wills contest could not be arranged and that Tunney should get the chance at the title, did not nullify the commission's previous action in the matter. But on this angle he refused to be drawn into discussion.

KEARNS FILES SUIT AGAINST DEMPSEY FOR $333,333.33

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Attorneys for Jack Kearns, former manager of the heavyweight boxing champion, Jack Dempsey, today announced that suit had been filed against the champion for $333,333.33.

It was said that complaint and summons in two actions had been served on Dempsey at his training camp in Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Kearns declared he had contracted with Tex Rickard for bouts with Gene Tunney and Harry Wills, in each of which Dempsey was to receive $500,000, before his term as manager expired early this month.

Kearns declared he signed a contract with Rickard for the appearance of Dempsey in a bout with the negro on or before July 4, 1926 and that he signed another contract with Rickard for a bout between the champion and Tunney on or before October 15, 1926. In both cases, Kearns charges, Dempsey failed to abide by the terms of their contract.

According to this contract, Kearns says in the complaint, he is guaranteed 33 1-3 per cent. of the net profits of "any and all public exhibitions, theatrical engagements, athletic entertainments, and events of any kind whatsoever."

FAVORITES SURVIVE FIRST ROUND IN NAT. TENNIS

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 16—(AP)—More than fifty players today drew their racquets in quest of the national women's tennis crown relinquished by Helen Wills, with six seeded stars scoring decisive, straight set triumphs

As Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, and Miss Mary K. Browne, veterans of more than a decade's competition, swept into the second round with other favorites by impressive triumphs, the youthful champion of 1925 sped westward to her home in California after an unsuccessful attempt to regain her stride.

Until Saturday, the three-time titleholder, whose battle against Suzanne Lenglen last winter attracted world-wide interest, held forth hope that she would be able to defend her laurels, but the task of recovering within two months from an operation in Europe proved too much to ask from even so fine a physique as that of Miss Wills, and the colorful touch which her appearance in former years had supplied was missing from the event today.

Versailles Cubs Challenge

The Versailles Cubs challenge the Federals, Norwich Orioles, Ashland Accos, Rosedales, Cardinals or the Lions for a game Sunday either at Versailles or out of town. For further information call 2230 or 1222-5. The Cubs also would like a twilight game with the Taftville Sluggers.

Farnsworth Nine Challenges

The Farnsworth baseball team of Central Village would like to arrange a game for Sunday, Aug. 22, in Central Village with any team in Norwich or vicinity, but prefer the Norwich Valiants. For games write to Manager Howard Kelleher, Central Village, Conn., Box 206.

LYONS AND GIBSON BATTLE 10 INNINGS TO SCORELESS TIE

DETROIT, Aug. 16—(AP)—Ted Lyons of the White Sox and Sam Gibson of the Tigers waged a 10-inning pitchers' battle here today that ended scoreless when the game was called to permit both teams to take a train for the east. It was the second successive game that the Chicago and Detroit clubs have played without making a run. In Chicago yesterday, rain halted proceedings after five scoreless innings. Score:

Chicago	ab	h	o	a	e	Detroit	ab	h	o	a	e
Mostil cf	3	2	2	0	0	Neus 1b	4	1	10	0	0
Morehart 2b	3	0	1	2	0	Manush cf	4	0	4	0	0
Sheely 1b	2	0	12	0	0	Fothergill rf	4	1	1	0	0
Falk lf	4	0	0	0	0	Heilman rf	3	0	1	0	0
Harris rf	3	0	1	0	0	Gehringer 2b	3	0	1	3	0
Barrett ss	3	0	3	6	0	O'Rourke 3b	2	0	0	2	1
Hunnefield 3b	3	0	2	2	0	Palmer ss	3	0	2	7	1
Kamm 3b	3	0	1	3	0	Manion c	2	0	6	0	0
Crouse c	3	1	6	1	0	Bassler c	1	0	0	0	0
Lyons p	2	0	0	2	0	Gibson p	3	0	0	1	0
						Blue x	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	28	3	30	11	2	Wingo xx	1	0	0	0	0
						Cobb xxx	1	0	0	0	0
						Totals	32	2	30	15	2

x—Batted for Manion in 9th.
xx—Batted for O'Rourke in 10th.
xxx—Batted for Palmer in 10th.

Score by innings:

Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—3
Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—2

BOSTON SPLITS DOUBLE HEADER WITH BROWNS

BOSTON, Aug. 16—(AP)—Reaching his brother Milton for a triple in the second inning with three on base, Alex Gaston, Red Sox catcher, started Boston on the road toward a 7 to 1 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Haney cleaned the bases with another triple in the third. The game was called in the seventh when a light rain that had been falling through the game became a downpour.

By bunching their hits in the late inning of the first game, the Browns won 6 to 1. The fielding of Regan was brilliant in both contests. Score:

St. Louis	ab	h	o	a	e	Boston	ab	h	o	a	e
Rice cf	3	0	1	0	0	Tobin rf	4	0	2	0	0
Sisler 1b	4	1	10	0	0	Rigney ss	3	0	1	1	0
Williams lf	4	0	4	0	0	Jacobson cf	4	1	4	0	0
Miller rf	3	0	1	0	0	Todt 1b	4	1	15	0	0
McManus 2b	3	0	2	4	0	Regan 2b	2	0	2	4	0
Hargrave c	3	0	5	0	0	Shaner lf	2	1	1	0	0
Gerber ss	3	0	0	2	0	Haney 3b	3	0	0	4	0
Robertson 3b	4	1	0	1	0	Gaston c	3	1	4	1	0
V Gulder p	4	0	0	2	0	White p	2	0	0	1	0
						Rosenthal x	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	30	1	27	9	0	Welzer p	0	0	0	0	0
						Totals	30	4	27	11	1

x—Batted for White in 8th.

Score by innings:

St. Louis	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1—1
Boston	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	0—4

Two base hits, Rice, Miller, Hargrave.

St. Louis	ab	h	o	a	e	Boston	ab	h	o	a	e
Rice cf	3	0	1	0	0	Tobin rf	4	1	1	0	0
Sisler 1b	3	0	7	1	0	Rigney ss	3	1	2	2	0
Williams lf	3	0	0	0	0	Jacobson cf	3	0	1	0	0
Miller rf	3	0	3	0	0	Rosenthal lf	3	0	1	0	0
McManus 2b	3	1	0	0	0	Regan 2b	3	0	2	3	0
Schang c	3	0	2	2	0	Todt 1b	3	0	11	0	0
Robertson 3b	3	1	1	2	1	Haney 3b	3	1	1	2	0
Gerber ss	3	1	1	3	0	A Gaston c	3	1	3	6	0
M Gaston p	3	0	1	2	0	Harriss p	3	0	0	4	0
Totals	27	1	18	10	1	Totals	31	5	25	17	0

Score by innings:

St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—1
Boston	0	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	5—5

Two base hits, Robertson, Rigney 2; three base hits, Haney, A. Gaston

BOTTOMLEY'S SINGLE WINS FOR CARDS IN NINTH

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16—(AP)—Bottomley's single in the ninth inning with the bases filled and two out broke a tie and enabled the Cardinals to win the final game of the series from the Chicago Cubs 5 to 4 here today. Wilson, Cub centerfielder, tied the score in the eighth by poling his second homer of the game, scoring Heathcote ahead of him. The Cubs tried hard but failed to score in the ninth. Heathcote got a home run in the third. Score:

Chicago	ab	h	o	a	e	St. Louis	ab	h	o	a	e
Adams 2b ss	4	1	4	2	0	Blades lf	2	0	0	0	0
Heathc'e rf	4	2	2	2	0	Southw'th rf	4	2	5	0	0
Stephen's lf	4	1	1	0	0	Hornsby 2b	3	0	1	2	0
Wilson cf	4	2	3	0	0	Bottomley 1b	4	2	9	1	0
Grimm 1b	4	1	9	1	0	L. Bell 3b	3	1	0	2	0
Fretgau 3b	4	1	2	3	0	Hourihan cf	4	1	1	0	0
Kehriber ss	3	0	0	3	0	O'Farrell c	4	0	6	2	0
Gonzales c	4	1	1	1	0	Thevenow ss	3	0	2	1	0
Osborn p	2	0	0	1	0	Rafer x	0	0	0	0	0
Jones p	0	0	0	0	0	Reinhart xx	0	0	0	0	0
Back 2b	0	0	0	0	0
Kaufmann p	0	0	0	1	0	Totals	30	10	27	8	0
Piercy p	1	0	0	0	0
Milstead p	0	0	0	0	0
Kelly z	1	0	0	0	0
Tolson zz	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	9	26	14	0

x—Batted for Kaufmann in 7th.
xx—Batted for Schreiberg in 8th.
Two out when winning run scored.
z—Batted for Southworth in 9th.
zz—Ran for Hines in 9th

Chicago	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	3—4
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	4	0	0	1	0	0—5

Two base hits, Heathcote, Graham; home runs, Heathcote, Wilson 2.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

St. Louis 6, Boston 1. (1st game)
St. Louis 1, Boston 7. (2nd game)
Chicago 0, Detroit 0. (10 innings)
Cleveland-Philadelphia, rain.
Only games scheduled.

THE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	74	44	.627
Cleveland	65	52	.556
Philadelphia	62	54	.534
Detroit	60	56	.517
Washington	59	56	.513
Chicago	57	58	.496
St. Louis	50	66	.431
Boston	38	78	.328

GAMES TODAY

St. Louis at Boston.
Cleveland at Philadelphia.
Detroit at Washington
Chicago at New York.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

St. Louis 5, Chicago 4.
Boston-Pittsburgh, rain.
Only games scheduled.

THE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	61	45	.575
St. Louis	63	50	.558
Cincinnati	63	51	.553
Chicago	58	54	.518
New York	57	53	.518
Brooklyn	55	60	.478
Boston	46	66	.411
Philadelphia	42	66	.389

GAMES TODAY.

Brooklyn at St. Louis
New York at Chicago
Boston at Pittsburgh
Philadelphia at Cincinnati.

Eastern League

All games postponed; Rain.

International League

All games postponed; Rain.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Over two billion smoked a month!

—how do you explain it?

Natural tobacco taste that's the answer!

IT'S a difference hard to put into words—but it takes no expert to taste it. Character; natural tobacco character, natural good taste—get that in a cigarette and you get everything!

For four consecutive years, Chesterfield has remained America's fastest-growing cigarette; over two billion are smoked per month. Do men want natural tobacco taste? The record speaks for itself!

Chesterfield

CIGARETTES

Such popularity must be deserved

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

SAILOR CRAWLING FROM UNDER BED— NEW LONDON WOMAN IS SENT TO JAIL

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 16. — Nina Bryant is in the county jail, having been sentenced to spend three months there. She was found guilty this morning in the police court of having maintained a disreputable house at 39 Tilley street. The police were called to the house Sunday evening about 10 o'clock by a neighbor who gave the tip that white sailors and black men and women were gathered at the Bryant house. A squad of five officers found three white sailors and three black men with Nina. There was a half gallon of liquor on the table in the kitchen that tested 66 per cent alcohol. Tumblers were beside the booze so there was no doubt as to what the presence of the liquor denoted. In the room off the kitchen were a couple of gallons of the same stuff and of the same alcoholic content. In Nina's room a pair of trousers belonging to a sailor were found, no search was made for the owner. He proved to be a white sailor. He was crawling from under the bed when a life line was thrown to him. Nina's defense was that she was a garment worker for a tailor shop. She said she had the colored men there as friends, her only associates, and represented that she gave them of the beverage she possessed. She denied that she sold even a spoonful and said she got no money for what she dispensed, the beverage being supplied without money and without price.

The sailors told a different story which was to the effect that one of them had left a package in the tenement on the floor below and that the party went after it. Then, they said, Nina saw them and invited them into her parlor. That seemed like a sea yarn, but there was no one to contradict it and it went for the truth. The white sailors were not convicted, but the negroes were fined $10 each and paid. Nina appealed from the decision of the court and a bail bond of $300 was fixed. She tried hard to raise the money or its equivalent in real estate but was not successful.

CONG. AND MRS. FREEMAN BUY LOTS ON MOTT AVE. EXT.

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 16.—Congressman and Mrs. Richard P. Freeman today purchased two building lots on Mott avenue extension. One lot was acquired of Frank T. and Guy T. Arms. The other was purchased from Mrs. Katherine C. Bagnall of Hampden Roads, Va.

H. F. HOLLOWAY ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLING $6,682

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 16.—Harry F. Holloway of Groton, who has been in the employ of the H. P. Handy provision house in this city, was accused of embezzling $6,682.14 from the house. He desired counsel, and for that matter had secured an attorney, but the latter was not in court, and the case was continued to the 23rd inst. Holloway gave a bond of $4,000 with his father as surety on the bond, for appearance then. No particulars of the case were disclosed in court.

Jennie Phillips was charged in the city court with having in her possession and control a dog that has not been registered. Her defense was that she was keeping the dog for a sailor in the employ of the Southern California Transportation company and that he had promised to take the dog and have the animal registered. She was given until the 13th of September to have the animal registered or to place it in the custody of the owner.

James Brennan, a sailor, was charged with having punched Christus Paul a blow that sent him to the hospital for treatment. Paul represented that he was attacked at his place of employment, the Star Lunch on State street and that Brennan came up to him unawares and slugged him. Brennan admitted that he struck Paul a stinging blow, but held that he was justified in what he did, because Paul had characterized him by one of the lowest names possible. He brought the commander of his ship to testify as to his previous good character and to his proper conduct always. The court listened to what was said and to the testimony of P. J. Scanlan who heard what was said in the use of the vile name. The testimony led the court to find that Brennan was not guilty.

William Driscoll was fined $50 for reckless operation of an auto. He paid his fine. Harry Cohen was charged with having driven his auto past a trolley car on Montauk avenue that was discharging passengers, but his case was not tried today, being postponed to tomorrow.

Patrick Reagan, a laborer in the employ of the H. Wales Lines company, was fined $10 for intoxication, because he appears too frequently before the court. Reagan said the fine would be beneficial to him and expressed the opinion that he should have been arrested earlier in the week. The court will take these facts into consideration when he appears again.

Archibald S. MacFarlane has sold to John L. and Julia Sikora a building lot on Willetta avenue extension, the land being located on the New London-Waterford line.

Attilio and Guglielmina Paolin have sold to Carmillo and Rose Burnett a house and lot on Nameaug street.

Michael Salem of Springfield, Mass., came to New London yesterday afternoon in search of his wife, Gertrude Green Salem, who, Salem stated, deserted him recently, coming to this city accompanied by their child, two years old. Salem declared that his wife was living here with James Buck, a sailor, stationed at the submarine base, but he does not know her address. Salem went to the submarine base this morning and told of his trouble to the commander of the boat where Buck is a member of the crew.

Patrolman George Labeue found a calf roaming around Bank street, about 2 o'clock this morning. The animal was taken to a barn to await being claimed by the owner. The calf probably wandered from the yard of a market, as several markets are located in the vicinity where the calf was found.

James F. Marshall, submarine base, will be presented in the police court tomorrow morning, charged with violation of the automobile law in passing a standing trolley car that was receiving and discharging passengers. Marshall was driving a borrowed automobile several days ago and on Bank street he is declared to have barely missed hitting several persons as they alighted from a street car. The conductor of the trolley car made complaint to the police. Marshall appeared at the police station this afternoon to give himself up and was ordered to appear in court. Marshall does not possess an operator's license, but he stated that the night he drove the car he had a friend in the car who does possess a license.

Daniel DeLong, 11 Moore court, is a patient at Lawrence hospital suffering from lacerations of the scalp, sustained Sunday afternoon when the automobile he was driving was operated off the highway bridge at Dingleville, Waterford. The automobile was wrecked. DeLong was not familiar with the highway, which accounted for the accident.

Demi Koskin of Long Hill road, Groton; Woodrow Darrow, Oawegatchie; Thomas Hayes, 7 Colt street; Mrs. John Young, Hartford; Miss Beth Shead, this city; Dr. Elizabeth Lawrence, 53 Huntington street; Mrs. Lester E. Miller and infant son, 37 Federal street; Mrs. Glen Kenney and infant son, 444 Montauk avenue and Joseph Jones, 135 Bank street, patients at Lawrence-Memorial Associated hospital, were discharged Sunday and today.

Patricia M. Donohue, 11 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Donohue, 27 Waller court, died this morning at the residence of her parents. She had been ill but a short time.

Thomas O'Connor, chauffeur in the employ of Edward S. Harkness, at Goshen Point, Waterford, is a patient at Lawrence hospital, suffering from a fractured shoulder, the result of his having been knocked from his motorcycle Sunday afternoon. O'Connor was driving the cycle in Waterford when an automobile driven by Mrs. Jane Gardner struck the wheel with sufficient force to throw O'Connor to the highway. He was placed in the automobile and brought to the hospital.

Miss Elizabeth Roath of Montauk avenue, employed as clerk in the office of City Clerk Julian D. Moran, has returned from a week's vacation spent at Portland, Me. Miss Helen Austin of Williams street, clerk in the city clerk's office is having her vacation.

Lieut. C. H. Peterson, United States coast guard destroyer McCall, reported to the police this morning that his Elgin comparing watch was either stolen from or lost by him Sunday.

CITY COUNCIL FAVORABLE TO HELPING OUT FIREMEN

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug 16.—(AP)—The city council this evening tacitly agreed to contribute to the fire companies of the city to help them defray the expenses necessary to entertain visiting firemen at the meeting of the state Firemen's association here on Thursday and Friday next. Ex Councilman Thomas F. Gragan, a foreman of the Allen Hook and Ladder company was extended the privilege of the floor at the council meeting this evening to present the matter. He did this modestly and in a way that met with approval of the men who apportion the funds of the city to expenses. Foreman Gragan asked for an appropriation of $1000 and more if the council could see its way to provide the money. He got what he sought, that is he got assurance that the council would be as generous as its funds would allow. Manager Holt pointed out that it was uncertain just what amount could be contributed for it was uncertain just what the receipts of the city would be in August and September. He said there were some funds in the amount provided for such purposes as the council saw fit to provide for and that and some more could be contributed, he believed, by transferring from one fund to another.

Foreman Gragan told the council that under the former government an appropriation of $100 was made to each company for the annual parade of the fire department, and that meant an expenditure of $700. He believed that the present government could afford to be more liberal. After Messrs Scott, May, Streeter and Mayor Fox had expressed themselves on the matter the question of an appropriation and the amount of it was referred to the committee on administration with the assurance that the council would be liberal to the extent of its means.

Foreman Gragan told the council that the firemen did not mean to send their guests away with empty stomachs. They meant to feed them and supply chowder and hot coffee. He said the parade would be the most pretentious the city had ever known and the best this part of the state had known.

Mayor Fox facetiously asked if only coffee was to be served, the former alderman Mr. Gragan replied that coffee would not be all that the visitors would be served. And he smiled at the mayor in a way that spoke more positively than did the words of the old foreman. It was an intimation that the firemen would get what they wanted and that they were not partial to water except for the extinguishing of fires.

It is hoped there will be no fires while the state association is in New London. There are to be 42 companies in line next Friday when the visitors parade the streets of this city.

men like the flavor women enjoy the fragrance

"Half and Half" is great for cigarettes — smooth, fragrant, and rolls easily.

The American Tobacco Co.

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN NORWICH

During the past week five building permits were issued at the office of Fire Marshal Howard L. Stanton bringing the total for the month of August to 18 which is an increase of 2 permits over the previous month. The permits issued during the past week are for small jobs including additions to present buildings and the erection of a garage and small barn.

Rain during the past week has materially hindered the work on local buildings, especially where the greater part of the work was on the exterior of the buildings.

The building permits issued by Fire Marshal Stanton were as follows:

To Benjamin Andruskiwicz to erect a frame barn on Carpenter street, 9 ½x13½ feet.

To Alexander Kiviatkowski to add a frame piazza to the present house at No. 157 Hickory street. The veranda will be 5x20 feet.

To Sam Chinigo to build a frame veranda on the house of Clain Laone at 230 Franklin street. The veranda will be 8x25 feet and two stories high.

To Bronislaw Isypulewski to erect an addition to the present garage on Bill avenue. The addition will be of frame construction 4x10 feet.

To Frank A. Skinner to erect a frame garage in the rear of 92 Washington street for Edward Ely. The garage will be 10x18 feet with slate coated shingles on the exterior.

REAL ESTATE SALES AND MORTGAGE LOANS

During the past week there were 9 sales of real estate in Norwich as compared to 13 sales for the corresponding week a year ago. The mortgage loans for the respective weeks were $48,350 and $31,140.

The sales of real estate in New London during the past week numbered 13 a decrease of four sales as compared to the same week in 1925. The mortgage loans for the respective weeks were $76,349 and $82,960.

Connecticut Building

Permits issued during the week in the cities and towns of the state reported in The Commercial Record numbered 385, as against 334 in the like week in 1924. The cost of the proposed new construction for this week amounted to $1,498,138, a slight increase over last year, when permits were issued for buildings whose total cost was $1,378,664, and in 1924, when the estimated cost of new buildings for the corresponding week was $1,-418,766.

Building Prospects Bright

A decrease from May of less than 1 per cent and a decline from June of last year of only 2.3 per cent occurred in the building contracts awarded during June. New construction during the first half of 1926 reached a total of $3,113,158,500 which represents an increase of 13 per cent over the corresponding period of last year and a new high record for the first half of any year in history. Contemplated building and engineering work for 37 eastern states was reported in June to the amount of $307,281,800, which is 2 per cent above the amount reported for May of this year and 16 per cent above the amount reported for June, 1925.

New London

With the ending of the second week of August little change is noted in the general building situation although there is a slight decrease in the number of building permits issued. Past experience has shown that prospective builders usually tide over any action in the two summer months, July and August, but apparently the consistency with which private building has gone on since last February gives fair promise to continue.

Most local contractors are at present kept busy by a large amount of private building such as dwellings and garages. Those contractors who are not engaged in contracting work as mostly building for themselves, considered as realty speculation. Of recent years the matter of building a house first and then finding a purchaser has provided a way for contractors to keep going between outside contracts and there are several instances locally where this method is a steady procedure even when there is outside work.

The exterior of the new frame dwelling being built for Anthony Irlandi at 112 Ocean avenue is complete. The new house is 21 by 32 with a garage 10 by 20.

Work has been completed by Contractor John L. Aitchison on the remodeling and alterations of the Hallam chapel of the St. James Episcopal church at Huntington and Federal streets. The work included a new ornamental doorway to the chapel with the chapel walls and floor being renovated.

Work is about completed on the new gas station constructed for the Gulf Refining company at Church and Main streets. The structure is of red brick and hollow tile with a large roof over the driveway, which is provided with cement entrances from both Main and Church streets. The appearance of the station is enhanced by ornamental fences.

The exterior of the frame garage, being built for Agnes Atchison at Bristol and Walker streets is nearing completion. The structure will be 20 by 61 feet with an ell 15 by 23 feet.

The exterior work has been completed on the frame cottage being built for Charles J. Long at 25 Colman street. The building now is being lathed. Specifications call for a foundation 28 by 30 feet.

Finishing details are being applied to the two-story cottage built for Harry Rakosky at 29 Waller court. The residence is 23 by 25 and contains modern improvements.

The exterior work on the new frame cottage being built for Mrs. Annie M. Hislop in Ledyard street is near completion. The new house is two stories high, with the upper half shingled and the lower half finished with Colonial clapboard. The structure occupies space 22 by 36.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new greenhouses being built for H. Verkade in Gardner avenue. The side frame work is most completed and is painted white. The new structure will be 161 by 24 feet with an ell 18 by 57. Work is being done from private plans.

The framework and sheathing has been completed on the two-story dwelling being built by H. R. Griswold at Connecticut and Garfield avenues. The new house is designed for two-family use and the dimensions are 37 by 48 feet.

The new printing shop being built for M. J. Sullivan in Masonic street is enclosed and work rushed on the interior. The new building is of concrete and brick construction with cement floor and is one-story in height. The shop will occupy space 50 by 45 feet with an ell 9 by 20 feet. On completion the shop will be occupied by the Sullivan Printing company.

Work on the exterior is nearing completion on the two-story frame cottage being built for Henry Coogan in Fitch avenue. The house is of modern design with the dimensions of 22 by 26 feet.

Work was being completed on slating the roof of the new two-story brick residence being built for Michael Schwartz at Ocean avenue and Faire Harbour place. Thomas Occhialini, contractor, is supervising the construction. Plans prepared by Bilderbeck and Langdon specify the foundation at 28 by 40 feet.

Excavation has started at the site for one cottage and the site laid out for another to be built by H. R. Griswold in Montauk avenue at Thames street. One of the houses will be 32 by 41 and the other 24 by 33 feet. Both will be of frame construction.

A frame gas station, 24 by 18 feet, has been completed for Mrs. Nora Sauter at 31-33 Jefferson avenue. The station is equipped with a board roof overhanging the gasoline pumps.

A two-story frame cottage is being completed for Byron E. Wilkinson at Ocean and Evergreen avenues. The house is of Colonial design with a green pointed shingled roof and large sun porch. The exterior now is being painted white with the green roof.

Eight applications for building permits, approved and recommended were granted by the council Monday night.

Leon Kaplan, four-car garage, 18 by 35, Gorton street.

Thomas F. Moran, two-family dwelling, 26 by 42, 75-77 Colman street.

Adam Snosky, addition to garage, 10 by 10, Bayonet street.

E. B. Thomson, bungalow, 24 by 44 Fremont street.

S. Shapiro, addition and veranda, 24 feet 6 inches by 10 feet 6 inches, 111 Ocean avenue.

Felix Niedweckl, stone garage, 13 by 20, Graham place.

Pawel Buckowski, new brick front 28 feet 8 inches long, 27 high, 35 North Bank street.

Westerly

Zoning building permits in Westerly for the second week in August, 1926, have been issued by Westerly Zoning Inspector Louis J. Rossi, as follows:

Aug. 9. E. A. Hill, R. F. D. No. 1, Westerly. Gasoline station, 4 feet 5 inches by 8 feet on state highway, Westerly to Ashaway.

Aug. 11. Mary Turo Grasse, 6 John street, Two-car garage, 13 feet by 20 feet at No. 2 Cottage court.

Aug. 14. Richard Ople, Jr., R. F. D. No. 3, Westerly. Addition 8 feet by 12 feet on rear of house on Boston Post road.

Aug. 10. John S. Hebb, Watch Hill, R. I. One-family house, 28 feet by 31 feet 6 inches, on Breen plat.

Aug. 10. George V. Maggs, 60 Wells street. One-story addition, 12 feet by 14 feet, to residence at 60 Wells street.

Aug. 11. Richard E. Newton, Post road. Five year permit for gasoline station on Boston Post road.

Aug. 11. Frank Manfredi, 40 Pleasant street. Bungalow, 22 feet by 26 feet on Lot No. 52, Clark avenue, Pleasant View.

PRESTON

The grange met Tuesday evening, when the following program was presented by Worthy Lecturer Evelyn Butler; reading, Esther McClimon; solo, Sydney Hall; reading, Belle Rude; piano selections by Mr. McKay, of Glasgow, Scotland; reading Harriett Crary; sketch, My Old Kentucky Home, Beda Butts, Lydia Crary and Pearl Holden. During the recess, Mr. McKay gave several selections. Bananas were passed.

TO LEASE VOTING MACHINES WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE

(Special to the Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Aug. 16—This city is to have automatic voting machines and to put them into service as soon as it can get them and be allowed by law to use them.

Councilor Streeter brought the matter up in the council meeting this evening by reporting for the committee to which the matter was referred a week ago. He pointed out that the machines could not be used for the next city election as a change in the charter must be made to accommodate the action to the charter, but he moved and the motion was adopted that not more than ten voting machines be procured and that they should be obtained on lease of $75 each machine with the option of purchasing the machines outright, the lease money to apply to the purchase price. There was no objection and the motion was adopted unanimously by a vote instructing the city manager to enter into a contract to secure the machines.

Avoid Imitations

Safe Milk and Food For Infants, Invalids, The Aged

Nourishing—Digestible—No Cooking
The Home Food-Drink for All Ages

What Is Going On Tonight

Shetucket lodge No. 37, I. O. O. F., in Odd Fellows' hall.

Norwich Nest, No. 1196, O. O. O., in Owls' hall.

Izaic camp, No. 7194, M. W. A., in Stalner hall.

Norwich Building & Loan association meets.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Fifteen years ago today business in England was brought to a standstill by a strike of 100,000 railway workers.

The annual Southern Retail Merchants' conference will meet in Richmond, Va., today for a session of four days.

Philadelphia is to be the meeting place today of the annual convention of the National Shorthand Reporters' association.

The National Association of Poultry Instructors and Investigators will open its annual convention today at State College, Pa.

In a State-wide primary today the democrats of Mississippi will choose their candidates for congress and the minor offices to be filled at the fall election.

In the democratic primaries in Wyoming today Gov. Nellie Taylor Ross, first woman governor, has no opposition for renomination. Frank C. Emerson, state engineer, and Frank E. Lucas, secretary of state, are contesting for the republican nomination.

Peter F. O'Keefe of Boston, originator of the universal slogan, "Say It With Flowers," is to be given a gold medal by the Society of American Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists at its annual convention which meets in New Orleans today for a three-day session.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Standard Oil Contest

The winners in the $2,500 prize contest held recently by the Standard Oil company of New York were announced today. In all, there were 79 winners of prizes ranging from $1000 down to $5.

These winners represented the pick from thousands of replies received in the contest which was open to all motorists. It consisted of answering five questions pertaining to the care of a motor and the service which a motorist expects from a service station. The great percentage of answers showed a surprisingly wide mechanical knowledge on the part of the average car owner. A number of women competed, and not a few of them won prizes.

The first prize of $1000 was carried off by H. A. Grant, Hillside Place, Rye, N. Y. The second prize of $500 was won by John A. Terrell, 283 Springdale avenue, Meriden, Conn., while Leonard J. Hoag, C. M. M. U. S. Navy, U. S. S. Lawrence was awarded the third prize of $250. The fourth and fifth prizes of $100 were given respectively to E. Belknap, Jr., 603 North Broadway, Yonkers, N. Y., and John G. H. Muehlke, 521 Tuckahoe road, Tuckahoe, N. Y.

Prizes of $25 each were captured by Mrs. Russell M. Arundel, 1316 I street, N. W. Washington, D. C.; Easton A. Elliott, 525 West avenue, Lockport, N. Y.; W. E. Irish, 25 Berkeley Place, Bloomfield, N. Y.; and Herbert C. Kennett, Sanbornville, N. H.

Among the $10 prize winners were Miss A. Earhart, West Medford, Mass.; Frank S. Prendergast, Syracuse, N. Y.; Frank E. Mott, Boston, Mass.; Miss Vivian Dutra, Waverly, Mass.; Miss Elizabeth H. Kingsley, Northampton, Mass., and Bert H. Small, Penacook, N. H.

Breed theatre

Marshall Neilan's latest picture production, "Wild Oats Lane," which will have its premier showing at the Breed theatre Wednesday, has been warmly endorsed all over the country as a dramatic photoplay, tensely dramatic and appealing. The scenes are laid in a country town and in the underworld of New York. The story deals with a boy and girl who go astray but who are regenerated through love and find happiness. Viola Dana and Robert Agnew are featured.

"The Gilded Butterfly" the Fox Films production coming to the Breed theatre Wednesday and Thursday as the second feature is a thrilling story of a lovely young social butterfly. Alma Rubens and Bert Lytell are co-featured at the head of an all-star cast which includes Frank Keenan, Huntley Gordon, Herbert Rawlinson, Vera Lewis, Arthur Hoyt and Caroiynne Snowden.

It is a production filled with pathos, romance and suspense intricately woven together by a master hand. John Griffith Wray directed the production.

ICED "SALADA"
TEA
V108
Quenches thirst on hot days.

Our Closing Out Sale

Has demonstrated that it is surpassing every sales record in the history of Norwich.

COME NOW AND SEE WITH YOUR OWN EYES THE CLOUDBURST OF MIGHTY

Furniture Bargains

Six floors still nearly filled with FURNITURE, STOVES, CARPETS, RUGS, WALL PAPER, PIANOS, SEWING MACHINES, WASHING MACHINES, DINNER SETS, LAMPS, Etc.

SHEA & BURKE

37-47 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

Ye Olde White House Inn

On the Boston Post Road
Between Westerly and Stonington
OPEN FOR THE SEASON OF 1926

Specialty—Chicken, Steak and Lobster Dinners.
Accommodations for Private Dinner Parties.
Unsurpassed Cuisine and High Class Service a la carte.
Restaurant Open Daily at 1 P. M.
Telephones—Westerly 2140 and 33 Ring 51.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Broadway Theater

Reginald Denny has scored again.

This time it is in Rolling Home that the popular farceur has touched the laugh nerve of his audiences at the Broadway theater, where his latest Universal production is now playing.

Rolling Home does the difficult trick of surpassing Denny's Skinner's Dress Suit, What Happened to Jones, and others, if such a thing is possible.

The story, in brief, is that of a young man, virtually penniless, who returns to his home town, where the villagers believe him to be a millionaire, and tries to live up to his reputation as a capitalist.

By using a borrowed automobile and bluffing his way through every situation which arises, he almost gets away with it, and when he is found out, has promoted his interests so well that his deception is forgotten.

Marion Nixon, who plays the feminine lead opposite the star, seems too beautiful to be real in many of the shots, and displays a keen sense of comedy herself. Ben Hendricks, Jr., as the pal of the impoverished young adventurer, E. J. Ratcliffe as the thundering capitalist, Margaret Seddon, George Nichols, and other members of the large cast, contribute excellent performances.

Much credit for the highly entertaining picture should go to the director, William T. Seiter, who shows a veritable genius for the construction of laugh-provoking comedy scenes.

Rolling Home is a picturization of the stage farce of the same name by John Hunter Booth.

A Mermaid comedy and Kinogrames wind up a splendid program.

YANTIC

The members of the Yantic fire department had a picnic at Rocky Point Sunday making the trip by automobile.

The first Sunday excursion of the year to go through Yantic over the Central Vermont railroad was held the 15th when a ten-coach load of excursionists from Brattleboro en route to Ocean Beach ran through here at noon south-bound and at 7 p. m. on the return trip. The salt water has for generations been a great attraction on "Lady's Day" the Feast of the Assumption.

Employes of the Central Vermont railway were busy Sunday repairing the damages to the spur track caused by the derailing of a few freight cars Saturday.

Miss Mary Lyons and Miss Nellie Lyons, of Peacedale, R. I., were the guests Sunday of Mrs. F. H. Tracy.

Miss Margaret Lyons of Worcester is spending two weeks in Yantic with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sullivan and children, Robert, John, Eleanor, Virginia and Harriet were guests Sunday at Pine Tree cottage.

Miss Marion Wolff of Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending some time as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kempton.

Miss Ruth Kempton of New Britain is spending the week in town with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kempton.

Miss Marjorie Kingsley has returned, after two weeks' stay at Hampton Beach, N. H., with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Mullen.

H. J. Gibbs is spending a few days at St. Alban's, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan and Miss Jane Sullivan and Thomas Sullivan, Jr., have returned from an outing at Gardner Lake.

Charles Carden is home after a few days' stay at Gardners Point with his aunt Mrs. Louis Engler.

Miss Mary Shea of Colchester was a recent guest of relatives at The Towers.

BREED THEATRE

—TODAY—
RICHARD BARTHELMESS
—in—
"THE BEAUTIFUL CITY"

Wednesday — Thursday
TWO FEATURES
Don't Miss
"WILD OATS LANE"
Story of a Boy and Girl Who Go Wrong

Friday — Saturday
JACKIE COOGAN
The Kid Himself
—in—
"OLD CLOTHES"

BROADWAY

Today — Wednesday
Mat. 2:15—Evng., 7 and 9
CHILDREN 15c

COME AND LAUGH WITH
REGINALD DENNY

Mermaid Comedy | News

To the Men of Norwich
Who Love Their Comfort

Perhaps right now your idea of comfort is a cool, shady spot, a hammock with nothing to do until tomorrow.

But don't forget that before very long your ideas will change and you'll think that there is no more comfortable place than your own warm home—with plenty of coal in the cellar.

There is no use talking, good coal means winter comfort. And the way to insure that comfort is to buy dependable coal at a time when you can get the best grades at the lowest prices.

We carry only dependable, comfort giving coal, bought at the best mines in the country. Now is the time to buy it.

THE EDWARD CHAPPELL CO.
ESTABLISHED 1857
NORWICH, CONN. Telephone 24

WHAT WE SELL

COAL—Wholesale and retail. In stock—all sizes anthracite coal in hard and medium burning. Genuine Blacksmith Coal. Pennsylvania and New River Bituminous Coal. Wholesale shipments on any of the above.

LUMBER—Wholesale and retail. A complete line of lumber and building materials. Framing, Boarding, Shingles and Siding, Oak, Maple, Yellow Pine and Spruce Flooring. Windows, Doors, and House Trim. Brick, Lime, Cement and Mason's Supplies. Nails. Upson Board, Celotex, Roofing Paper.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

BORN

MURTHA—In Melrose, Mass., Aug. 14, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Murtha, formerly of Norwich.

WITTER—In Providence, R. I., Aug. 15, 1926, a daughter, Margaret Hubbard, to Wilfred Brown and Ruth May Utter, of Westerly, R. I.

CLARK—In Norwich, Aug. 16, 1926, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce G. Clark of Miami, Fla. (Miss Esther Turner, formerly of Norwich).

DIED

DONOHUE—In New London, Aug. 16, 1926, Patricia M., daughter of William and Gertrude Donohue, aged 11 months.

MARRIED

SYLVIA—BURNS—In Stonington, Aug. 14, 1926, by Rev. Edward A. Cotter, William Valentine Sylvia and Miss Julia Regina Burns.

HERRICK—BERTRAND — In Willimantic, Aug. 16th, 1926, by Rev. Normisdas C. Belec, Richard E. Herrick and Miss Evelyn M. Bertrand.

WATSON—WILLIS—In Groton, Aug. 14th, 1926, by Rev. H. W. Hulbert Floyd Watson and Miss Lucille Willis, of Mystic

FUNERAL NOTICES

COLES—At rest in Voluntown, Aug. 15, 1926, Mrs. Harriet Coles. Funeral at her late home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock (d. s. t.) Burial in Pachaug cemetery. Funeral private.

GREENE—In Griswold, Aug. 14, 1926, Albert O. Greene, aged 68 years. Funeral from his late home, Griswold, Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 17, at 2 o'clock (S. T.) Burial in Plainfield.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
16 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

Shea & Burke
Funeral Directors
41 Main Street

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-2
DAVID H. WILSON

GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
122 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

HOURIGAN BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Norwich and Jewett City

WILLIMANTIC

Avery & Van Zandt
Successors to JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
89 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 998 Lady Assistant

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
DANIELSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Special Attention to Every Detail.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN.
Tel. Moosup 282-2

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Black pocketbook containing money, rosary beads and key, between Bayer Bldg and Woolworth's. Finder [illegible] at Bulletin Office. Reward. [illegible]

LOST—Bunch of keys between Jewett City and Norwich. Finder call 709-3. Reward. aug9tf

COAL AND WOOD

SEASONED hard wood, $10 a load, oak, slab-wood, $8. Delivered anywhere. Phone 639. jun18tf

FOR SALE—Split wood and kindlings a bushels for $1.00, Fountain St. Wood yard. Tel. 2116. mar17

WANTED—Male

WANTED—Reliable and capable man to take orders guaranteed nursery stock. Liberal pay weekly. Apply at once. Mr. Spicer, Central Village, Conn. aug14d

ACTIVE middle aged man to book orders for roses, shrubs, plants, fruit and ornamental trees. Free replacement guarantee. Free equipment and salesmanship lessons. Pay weekly. Write today. Wayne Nurseries, Newark, New York. aug17

WANTED—One or two men to receive our special training as salesmen. Salary and commission paid while learning. Apply 48 Main St., Norwich. aug16d

WANTED—Young man who is interested in the poultry business to work as assistant in poultry plant on private estate. Experience not necessary. Also good single farm teamster wanted. Wages $40 and board. Write Wenga Farm, Armonk, N. Y. aug16d

WANTED—Immediately, a top-notch farm hand who is willing to work on a good farm for man willing to pay highest wages. W. S. Brown, Shepard Hill Farm, Central Village, Conn. Tel. Moosup, 28-22. aug14d

BRICKLAYERS—For Hartford, Conn. Maximum rate $1.37 1-2 per hour, experienced tradesmen, steady work, normal conditions. Apply ready for work to Hartford Open Shop Building Trades Exchange, 731 Main St., Hartford, Conn. aug4d

WANTED—Young man for selling fruit outside. Liberal commission paid. Easy pleasant work. Some of our men make as high as $50 weekly. Write Box [illegible] care of Bulletin. jn17tf

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—A Francis Bacon 88-note player piano; as good as new; cost new $650; our price $190. Easy terms to suit your purse. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. aug17

EXCHANGE—Will trade building lots on Norwich and New London trolley line for city property. For particulars apply to G. P. Coates, 50 Franklin St. aug19d

FOR SALE—Two-family house, 46 Boswell Ave. 16 rooms. Estate of Helen Sumner Lennen. Inquire at house. J. L. Sumner, Exr. aug16

FOR SALE—A very productive farm in good location, stock, tools, farm machinery of every description and growing crops included. Good 8-room dwelling, barn and other buildings with electric lights and water. Must be sold at once. Price made accordingly. Apply to A. C. Bindick, Realtor, Jewett City and Thayer Building, Norwich. aug16d

FOR SALE—Dump cart with double harness. Tel. 1473-3. aug14d

FOR SALE—Two new rowboats; also boats made to order. Tel. 102-15, Jewett City. Emey Dupont, Voluntown. aug14d

FOR SALE—Baby Grand Hoover Sweeper, slightly used, very reasonable. Phone 374-14. aug14d

75 ACRES HIGH ELEVATION

9-room cottage, in best of condition. Good stock barn; plenty of fruit; trout brook. Price $3300—$200 cash.

TRYON'S AGENCY
Willimantic, Conn.

DA YA remember the old days when you usta kill the umpire and throw soda bottles at him. Ya can't do that any more. Helmar cigarettes, $9 for 20c. Myrad and Melachrino, 20 for 30c. Old Coon and Noble cigars, 5 pack 20c. A fine leather tobacco pouch 25c. Old Gold cigarettes are goin' good. Try a pack today. 20 for 15c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, Woolworth is opisit us. aug13

FOR SALE—Everhot Jr. electric cooker. Roasts, bakes, browns and stews from ordinary lamp socket current. Special price $8.95. City of Norwich Gas and Electrical Dept. aug11tf

FOR SALE—One Papec ensilage cutter, No. 13. Irwin M. Jones, P. O. Leonard Bridge, Conn. Tel. Lebanon 45-3. aug11d

FOR SALE—A two-family house; Falls section; for quick sale $2,500. Two-family house on East Side, for quick sale, $2,900. Norwich Land Title and Ins. Co. Tel. 2279. aug10tf

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 5 Bath St. Tel. 2663. may28

FOR SALE—A high grade Columbia Grafanola; all latest improvements; beautiful mahogany cabinet; cost new $120. Our price $49.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jn127

FOR SALE—A high grade 88-note player piano at half regular price. Used as demonstrator only. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jn127

FOR SALE—A 6-tube Fine Arts radio set with built in speaker completely installed $50. This is a brand new set at half its value. Easy terms. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. jn127

FOR SALE—22 acre farm located 1 mile from state road. Price attractive. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jn14tf

FOR SALE—Three family house on state road, with several acres of land William M McNicol, Jewett City, Conn jn14tf

FOR SALE—Ideal poultry farm near Jewett City William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jn14tf

FOR SALE—2 acres land with 2 cottages. Price $3,150. William M. McNicol Jewett City, Conn. jn14tf

FOR SALE—Ten acre farm located on the state road. Price $3,000. Easy terms. William McNicol, Maynard Bldg., Jewett City, Conn. jn14tf

FOR SALE—17 acre farm with good buildings ideal location for poultry. William M. McNicol, Jewett City, Conn. jn14tf

E. J. TETHAULT—Agent for New Home sewing machines. Tel 574-32, Baltic, after 6 p. m. Repairing on all kinds of sewing machines promptly done. All work guaranteed. Thirty years' experience. jn17

FOR SALE

Gear avenue, 9-room residence. Large reception hall. Lot is 75x128—$7,500.

JAMES E. MOORE
REALTOR.

FOR SALE

In Chelsea Parade Section, a six-room cottage, with improvements, including heat, room for garage. Price $5,500. Owner leaving town. For particulars inquire

FRANCIS D. DONOHUE
Young's Block. Phone. Norwich.

INVEST YOUR SURPLUS FUNDS
IN SAFE AND HIGH GRADE BONDS.
May We Help You?
Write or Telephone
JAMES L. CASE
Investment Broker
40 Shetucket Street.

FOR SALE

One of the best located Gasoline and Oil Stations in the state. Always doing good, profitable business. Sold on account of owner's death, so it's a great opportunity for someone.

For further particulars inquire of

JOHN A. MORAN
REAL ESTATE BROKER
44 Shetucket Street.

FOR SALE

Price $5500.

Three-family house, No. 135 Hickory street. Reason for selling, owner leaving town. Inquire of

Thos. H. Beckley
AGENT
278 MAIN ST. PHONES.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

FOR SALE

RIGHT out to the lighthouse for 15c and a sale back free. How can a man give such a bargain at Cahun Beech? Fine lot of 50c pipes. A 15c tin of Dills free with each 35c package. Manila cigars, 10 for 35c. Noble and Old Coon cigars, five pack 20c. Fagan's Smoke Shop, opp. Woolworth's. aug17

FOR SALE—Building lot with 65 feet frontage on School St., near Washington St. Property has sewer. Address Bulletin, Box 55. aug17d

FOR SALE—A fine Columbia Grafanola upright. Cost $130 new; as good as new; our price $29.50. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. aug17

FOR SALE—A fine upright mahogany genuine Steinhauer piano, used at the Palace Theatre for about 8 months; a wonderful bargain at $165. $20 down, $2.50 weekly. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. aug17

FOR SALE—An Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph. Cost $80; our price $29. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. aug17

FOR SALE—Standardyne 5-tube radio outfit, brand new, completely installed, with aerial installation; tubes, batteries, loud speaker, ready to play, $69.50. Terms $20 down, $2.50 weekly. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. aug17

FOR SALE

Cottage of eight rooms, all improvements. Lot 78x130; house could easily be made into two apartments. Bargain for quick buyer. Very little cash required. For further information inquire of

PANEK & TYMCHECK
301-302 Disco Bldg., Norwich, Conn.

TO RENT

FOR RENT—5-room tenement. 32 Prospect St., Sept. 1. aug17d

FOR RENT—4-room tenement. 38 Prospect St. aug17d

TO RENT—Furnished rooms, light housekeeping. 75 School St. aug17d

TO RENT—Furnished room; convenient to Franklin Square. Tel. 631-12. aug17d

TO RENT—1 light housekeeping room; gas, electricity, furnished. Phone 142 at 41 Boswell Ave. aug17

TO RENT—Desirable apartment of 5 rooms for small family; improvements; 1 iron Sept. 10. Inquire owner, Mrs. Lavinia P. Hill, 24 Colt St. aug17tf

TO RENT—One of the finest 5-room apartments in the city in residential section. Phone 896-2. aug17

FOR RENT—Two choice apartments in fine residential section. One of 5 rooms, heat furnished. One of 6 rooms. All modern. Garage for one apartment. Write Bulletin Box 56. jul17TuTh-tf

TO RENT—Six-room tenement with modern improvements. 11 Division St. aug14d

TO RENT—Six-room apartment, 24 Winchester St., all improvements. Phone 638-22. aug14d

TO RENT—8 rooms, electricity, $30. 58 Washington St. aug12tf

TO RENT—One of those fine 7-room apartments in the "Marion"; heat and hot water furnished by owner. Phone 896-2. aug11tf

TO LET—5-room flat. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St. Tel. 2146. aug11

FOR RENT—5-room tenement with all improvements. 110 N. Main St. aug10tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 78 McKinley Avenue. aug10tf

TO RENT—Tenement of 8 rooms; all improvements. 89 Asylum St. aug6d

FOR RENT—Six room apartment. Phone 489. aug5tf

FOR RENT—One 6-room tenement; all improvements. Inquire Commercial Garage. aug3tf

TO RENT—5 room apartment, all improvements. 36 Fairmount St.

TO RENT—6-room tenement; all improvements; call at night downstairs. 51 Division St. jul29tf

TO RENT—Six-room apartment; all latest improvements, 316 Franklin St. Also 3-room apartment, 308 Franklin St. Inquire of Thos. Buckley, real estate agent. jul27tf

TO RENT—Lower flat, 6 rooms; also furnished room on second floor, 120 Broadway; ring 2nd bell. jul23tf

TO RENT—6-room apartment, 78 School St. jul8tf

TO RENT—Apartment of seven rooms; hardwood floors, nice locality. Call 931-4. jul3tf

FOR RENT—3 rooms; pantry, gas, lights. School St. $10 a month. Call 2474-2. jul1tf

FOR RENT—At 178 Broadway 3 room furnished apartment, heated, hot water, the year round. Phone 1506 or 1811. apr2d

TO RENT—6-room apartment, also 8-room cottage. Phone 269. apr8tf-eod

TO RENT—10-room apartment on Church St. Very desirable; rent reasonable. Inquire C. W. Cassidy, 46 Main St. jun2tf

TO RENT—Beautiful modern apartment at 60 Broad St. Heat and hot water furnished. Moderate rent. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St. apr23tf

WANTED—Miscellaneous

VAULTS and cesspools cleaned. L. J. Beauregard. Phone 1219-12. aug17d

LOUIS D. WARD pays big prices for used furniture and antiques. Box 349, Norwich. Phone 381-13, Norwich; 806 Willimantic. TuThSmay14

WANTED—Tenement, cottage preferred; central location. Write Box 122 Bulletin Office. aug14d

WANTED—Carpenter work of all kinds. Estimates cheerfully given for large or small jobs. M. Krugman, 97 Mechanics St. Phone 574. aug12tf

T. J. CONNELLY—Tree cutter and remover 65 Boswell Ave.

CALL 2661-W. Upholstering, crating, carpet and linoleum laying. George H. Sanders, 35 Market St. apr29d

WANTED—To buy poultry and calves, highest prices paid. Call 1405, nov17d

WANTED—Second hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A Bruckner, 107 Franklin St. Phone 559. nov17d

WANTED—Highest cash prices paid for second hand furniture, household goods, antiques, store fixtures and tools; try me before selling. N. Weisinger, 23 Market St. Phone 2158 tf

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED — Saleslady for women's ready-to-wear shop. Good salary. Only experienced woman need answer. Write Box 800, Bulletin. aug7d

WANTED—Bookkeeper and stenographer. Address Box 69, Bulletin Office. aug14

WANTED—100 teachers at once. Must be Normal graduates. Free registration. The Holman Teachers' Agency, 325 Williams St., New London, Conn. aug10d

FOR SALE—HORSES

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Horse for cow or bull. Geo. Saderstrom, Voluntown. aug14

POULTRY

FOR SALE—100 White Rock pullets; 100 broilers; also German police puppies. C. Chamberlain, Warren St. Tel. 1279. aug17d

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Automobiles

FOR SALE—1924 Hup. coach, 1 new Star 6 roadster, 1 new Star 6 touring, 1925 Olds. sedan, 1925 Chevrolet coupe, 1924 Buick coupe, 1923 Reo sedan, 1925 Henderson cycle, 1921 Cadillac 7-pass. touring, 1926 Ford del. Cash or terms to suit you. Adams Tavern Garage, Auburn Sales and Service. aug14

FOR SALE—1926 Hupmobile 6 cyl. sedan, 1924 Hupmobile sedan, 1923 Hupmobile sedan. Several older cars. Exceptionally low priced. C. V. Pendleton, Majestic Garage. aug13

FOR SALE—1 1924 Chrysler Royal Sedan, 1 1925 Chrysler 70 Roadster, 1 1922 Lafayette Sedan, 1 1923 Cleveland Touring Car, 1 1922 Ford Roadster, 1 1922 Buick Touring Car, 1 1925 Maxwell Panel Delivery. John J. Herbert, 195 No. Main St. aug11

FOR SALE—Latest improved Lincoln, 5-pass. sedan; driven about 3000 miles; demonstration. A wonderful bargain; over $1,000 off of list price; terms if desired; trade considered. Waterman & Wolfe, Inc., New London, Phone 3040. aug10tf

WANTED—Ford coupe in trade for '22 Essex touring. Phone 1139-32. aug7d

FOR SALE—1925 Rickenbacker roadster, 1925 Chrysler roadster, 1925 Hudson coach, 1923 Buick roadster, 1920 Cadillac coupe. Small down payment; balance 10 months. 68 Shetucket St. jul13d

FOR SALE—Cadillac, U-61, Victoria coupe; 1925 Hudson coach; 1923 Buick coupe; 1923 Hupmobile 4-passenger coupe; 1923 Dodge coupe; 2 1922 Ford sedans; 1924 Ford coupe; 1922 Chevrolet coupe. Krieger Motor Sales, 191 No. Main St. Phone 646. jul12

FOR SALE—1925 Chrysler sedan, model 70. Excellent condition; low mileage. Privately owned. Box 56, Danielson, Ct. jul7tf

FOR SALE—New and used Harley Davidson motorcycles. Real good machines for real live fellows. Prices reasonable. Easy terms. J. P. Donovan, 188 No. Main St. mar14d

USED CARS

PRICES LOW TO SELL QUICK

1922 Ford Coupe	$60.00
1922 Ford Sedan	$65.00
1919 Ford Touring	$25.00
1923 Overland Truck	$50.00
1919 Reo Touring	$40.00
1920 Ford Truck	$45.00
1922 F. B. Chevrolet Touring	$50.00
1918 Dodge Sedan	$60.00
1920 Maxwell Touring	$45.00
1921 Essex Touring	$95.00
1918 Buick Touring	$65.00
1922 Ford Roadster	$40.00
1918 Dodge Roadster	$60.00
1925 Ford Touring	$130.00

STAR GARAGE
Plainfield, Conn. Phone 196.

LAUREL HILL GARAGE
USED CAR SALE

Buick Six, 5-pass. Touring, 1923 model	$445
Cadillac Sedan	$85
Essex Four, Touring	$75
Ford Sedan	$85
Overland Sedan	$235
Star Touring	$235
Star Coupe	$165
Dodge Touring	$85

Small down payment on any of the above cars. Your car in trade.
LAUREL HILL AVENUE
(In rear of Laurel Hill School)
Open Evenings and Sundays

USED CARS

1925 Ford Touring ... $200
1923 Jewett Touring . $175
1925 Essex Coach ... $475
1922 Hupmobile Road. $275

The Norwich Motor Sales Co.
HUDSON-ESSEX
Sales and Service.
394 N. Main St.—Tel. 1780

LOST AND FOUND

WILL THOSE two young ladies who picked up the purse containing money, in the rest-room of the Boston Store Saturday evening, please return same to the Bulletin Office? aug17

FOUND—Brown collie dog with white breast. No name or tag on collar. Tel. 2275-5. aug17d

LOST—Brown pocketbook containing money, between Oakridge and Williams Sts. Finder leave at this office and receive reward. aug17

LOST—Wednesday, near J. B. Martin's mill, Taftville, black Boston bag Finder rewarded if left at this office. aug14d

FOUND—Last Tuesday, finger ring Owner can have same by calling at this office. aug14d

LEGAL NOTICE

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 16th day of August, A. D. 1926

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of James W. Reiss, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Mary T. Reiss of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court and filed a petition, praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that administration be granted upon the estate of said deceased alleged to be intestate.

Whereupon, it is ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 20th day of Aug., A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record
Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

CASTINGS
Grey Iron and Semi-Steel Castings
Pattern Making and Machine Work
—ALSO—
Daily Trucking Service Between Norwich, New London and Vicinity
BABCOCK PRINTING PRESS MFG. CO.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

AUCTION

AUCTION NOTICE
—BY—
WITTER BROS.,
AUCTIONEERS,
Office 48 Main St., Danielson, Conn.

We will sell for Herman Frink, at his farm, located on Ekonk Hill, in the town of Sterling, Conn., on

FRIDAY, AUG. 20, 1926,

at 1 o'clock p. m., standard time,

RAIN OR SHINE,

40 — HEAD OF CATTLE — 40

consisting principally of Ayrshires and Holsteins, of large size, good age, and carrying plenty of flesh, including many 25-quart cows either strictly fresh or near by; several beef cows, 3 bulls, a lot of veal calves, 1 fat shoat and 1 good roan farm mare. Mr. Frink informs us that these cattle are as choice a lot as stands in his section of the state today; therefore the sale should be well attended. Terms cash

Auction

Will be sold at public sale without reserve or by-bidding

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1926
At 10:00 O'clock A. M.

at my farm on the Whippoorwill Hollow Road in No. Franklin, about one mile east from the Willimantic and Norwich Road.

The lifetime accumulated antique furnishings of my Colonial House.

1 Field bed with canopy, 1 mahogany card table, 1 Marsh clock, 1 other old clock, copper warming pan, brass kettle, 6 mirrors, Colonial lantern, foot stools, 50 old pictures, Currier and Ives; 1 settle, dozen Pewter pieces including coffeepot and teapot, a large collection of china and crockery, 1 Piel Colonial cradle with hood, 1 baby chair, candlesticks, 2 fireplace sets, Windsor arm chairs, Bannister back, rush-seat arm chairs, fiddle-back rocker, Boston rockers, ladder back rocker, splint seat rockers, ribbon back basket-seat rocker, Hitchcock cane seat chairs and a large quantity of odd chairs.

Wash stands, 5 tables, bedsteads, bureaus, sewing tables, 1 Martha Washington; chests, hair cloth sofa and chairs, a large quantity of hook and rag rugs and rag carpeting, beds and bedding, 2 poke bonnets, 2 Mantillas, antique silk dress and apron and other articles too numerous to mention.

Not a dealer's collection.

M. L. BAILEY,
North Franklin, Conn

If stormy next fair day. Caterer in attendance

Business Notices.

ARTESIAN WELLS

Water! Water! Water!

WE ARE STILL DRILLING WELLS IN THIS LOCALITY.
SEE TRASK FOR THAT WELL.
TRASK ARTESIAN WELL CO.

AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES

OVERHAULING and REPAIR WORK
OF ALL KINDS
Automobiles, Carriages, Wagons, Trucks and Carts
Mechanical Repairs, Painting, Trimming, Upholstering and Wood Work. Blacksmithing in All Its Branches
Scott & Clark Corp.
607 TO 615 NORTH MAIN STREET

AUTO ACCESSORIES—TIRES, PARTS

CARS bought to wreck. Parts for all cars. Tires and tubes (new and used) big bargains. Rodes Auto Parts, 391 West Main St., Norwich. Tel. 1391. aug13

AUTO PARTS—TELEPHONE 1600
Replacement parts for all cars
WILLIAMS TIRE & SUPPLY CO.

Authorized Service Station for Buick
Brake Lining. Brakes Inspected Free
JOE MOORE'S GARAGE
95 Chestnut St. Phone 2838

PAIGE, JEWETT AND GARDNER
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
WILLIAM G. SOTES
317 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 731-3

General Repairing. Day and Night Service
JONES' GARAGE
East Great Plain Tel. 2171-2

"JOE" MOORE'S GARAGE
Mechanical, Electrical and Body Repairs
PHONE 2838
95 Chestnut Street

RADIATORS REPAIRED
Dents Removed from Bodies and Fenders
Auto Metal Work
Quality Work at Low Rates
Used Tires, $3.00 and up.
Norwich Radiator Works
375 Main Street. Phone 2215.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

ALEXANDER H. MANES
Certified Public Accountant
63 Broadway Norwich

CONTRACTORS

JAMES FURMIGNARO
Contractor, Excavating and Mason Work
Phone 2391—122 Oakridge St.

A. COSENTINO
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Excavation, Stone Work, Specialist in Plaster Work
5 Valley St. Tel. 627-4

CALL 2464-M for painting and cement work, done reasonably and expertly. apr27tf

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Rural Homes
Need a Sanitary Sewage Disposal System.

Let us show you the best Vitrified Septic Tanks on the market today and explain their most exceptional advantages.

—The—
Peck-McWilliams Company.

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street.

DENTISTS

DR. ALFRED RICHARDS
Dental Surgeon
Rm 505, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 293

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

E. J. YOUNG
Automobile Insurance a Specialty
Travelers' Insurance Prompt Service
Room 14, Central Bldg. Tel. 2425-2

MERCHANT TAILOR

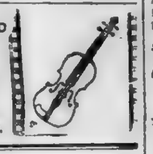
SWAHN THE TAILOR
HAS MOVED TO 2 CLIFF STREET
Opposite Chelsea Bank Phone 2191

MONEY TO LOAN

LOANS
to Pay All Those Small Bills That Are Worrying You
WE FURNISH THE CASH
and you repay us in monthly installments to suit your means,—
On $ 50 you pay $ 5 monthly
On $ 75 you pay $ 6 monthly
On $100 you pay $ 8 monthly
On $150 you pay $10 monthly
On $200 you pay $10 monthly
On $300 you pay $20 monthly
plus legal interest on unpaid balance as designated by State law. Loans made to housekeepers on home furniture without removal and to anyone on guaranteed note. We operate under State Banking Dept. supervision and are licensed and bonded under State laws. For details, call, write, or phone 1470.
New England Equity Corp.
Members of Chamber of Commerce
ROOM 206 THAYER BLDG.
16 FRANKLIN STREET

MUSIC

ERNEST E. BULLARD
Teacher of the Violin
Phone 127-4
Bliss Place
I Have a Few Outfits to Lend.



MATTRESSES

SUSSMANS BEDDING
"The Best for Rest"
At All Furniture Stores
SUSSMANS MATTRESS CO.
Chestnut St. Phone 572

MACHINE SHOP

BARBER'S Machine Shop, (L. and A. P. Guertin, proprietors) 33-35 Chestnut St. Tel. 2142, does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly, day or night. jun14tf

PRINTING

PRINTING of all kinds promptly and neatly done. Estimates promptly and cheerfully given. The Bulletin Co., 48 Franklin St.

PLUMBING

T. E. BURNS
91 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

PICTURE FRAMING

THE PHOTO SHOP
159 Franklin St. Tel. 1332

TRUCKING

WANTED—Trucking and expressing. Good service. O. Eccleston. Tel. 1373-13. jun28tf

G. W. TRYON—Light trucking, parcel delivery. Reasonable rates. Tel. 2146. jun28tf

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE MOVING. Low rates. Phone 1342. jun28tf

CALL 787 FOR
Local and Long Distance Moving
W. E. CONGDON, 50 Chestnut St.

Hartley & Gallup—Truckmen. Local and long distance furniture and piano moving a specialty. High grade sand and loam for sale. Storage of any description. At 363 and 365 Hamilton Ave. Telephone 701-2. jun28d

Long Distance Moving and Expressing. Zimmerman, 17 Boswell Ave. Tel. 1341.

O. D. JORLYN, 293 West Main street. We move everything anywhere. Special attention given to moving boilers and machinery. Telephone 1533-3.

Established 1873 Telephone 175
ARTHUR H. H. LATHROP
Auto trucking, Teaming and Expressing
Furniture and Piano Moving
Shetucket Street

RADIO

Tuesday, Aug. 17

WEAF—New York—492

6:45-7:45 a m—Setting-up exercises.
7:45 a m—Prayer services.
11:00 a m—Jeanne A'Dair, soprano.
11:15 a m—Undercurrent in Current Events, Louis Connolly.
11:30 a m—Jeanne A'Dair, soprano.
11:45 a m—Motion picture forecast.
12:00 m—Market and weather reports.
13:15 p m—Greenwich Village orchestra.
4:00 p m—Vera LaMar, contralto.
4:15 p m—Milton Gershenson, piano.
4:30 p m—Women's League talk.
5:00 p m—Hazel Dudley, soprano.
5:20 p m—Edward Steele, piano.
5:40 p m—Leon Chrisal, baritone.
6:00 p m—Dinner music.
6:55 p m—Baseball scores.
7:00 p m—W. H. Preston, baritone.
7:10 p m—French lecture, Dr. Thatchel Clark.
7:30 p m—Wilson orchestra.
8:00 p m—Salon Concert; Devora Nodworney, contralto.
8:30 p m—Gold Dust Twins.
9:00 p m—Eveready Hour; Symphony orchestra.
10:00 p m—Talk, Bob Davis.
10:15 p m—Moment musicale.
10:20 p m—Lentz orchestra.
11:30 p m—Albino's orchestra.

WNYC—New York—526

6:25 p m—Market high spots.
6:45 p m—Bear Mountain orchestra.
7:30 p m—Police alarms.
7:35 p m—Hayfever, Dr. G. M. MacKenzie.
7:55 p m—Baseball results.
8:00 p m—Shannon's results.
10:00 p m—Civil Service announcements.
10:10 p m—Walter Grohe, tenor.
10:30 p m—Police and weather.

WJZ—New York—455

1:00 p m—Pennsylvania luncheon music.
2:00 p m—Weather.
4:00 p m—Baseball reports.
4:05 p m—Daily menu, Mrs. J. Heath.
4:25 p m—Garden talk, Olive Foster.
4:35 p m—Baseball.
4:40 p m—G. I. Fisher, tenor.
5:32 p m—Market closing; summary.
5:50 p m—Farm markets reports.
7:00 p m—Baseball.
7:05 p m—Frank Dole.
7:20 p m—Waldorf-Astoria orchestra.
8:30 p m—Delilah hour, Gems of Romance.
9:00 p m—Keystone entertainers
10:00 p m—Tour.
10:30 p m—M. J. Cross, tenor.
10:50 p m—Olsen's orchestra.

WHAR—Atlantic City—275

2:00 p m—Seaside trio.
7:30 p m—Theater talk.
8:30 p m—Seaside trio.

WFG—Atlantic City—300

6:30 p m—News; organ recital.
7:00 p m—Dinner music.
7:45 p m—Fashion; musicale.
8:00 p m—Studio program.
8:30 p m—Minstrel show.
9:00 p m—Dual trio.
10:00 p m—Movie talk.
10:30-12:00 p m—Orchestras.

WGY—Schenectady—380

6:00 p m—Stock reports; news; baseball scores.
6:30 p m—Dinner music.
7:25 p m—Baseball scores; race results.
7:30 p m—Talk, Steinmetz.
7:45 p m—Farm program.
8:30-10:30 p m—Same as WJZ.

WHAM—Rochester—278

7:30 p m—Eastman orchestra; baseball; organ.
7:45 p m—Same as WGY.

WGR—Buffalo—319

11:00 a m—Talk, Mrs. K. N. Britt.
12:00 m—Market reports; weather.
13:45 p m—Statler ensemble.
2:30 p m—Concert.
6:30 p m—Dinner music.
8:00 p m—Program from WEAF; weather.

WMAK—Lockport—286

7:15 p m—News.
7:45 p m—Same as WGY.

WJAR—Providence—306

1:30 p m—Weather report.
8:00 p m—Baseball.
8:05 p m—Talk; musicale.
8:30-10:00 p m—Same as WEAF.

WBZ—Springfield—333

6:55 p m—Market reports.
7:00 p m—Kimball trio.
7:30 p m—Baseball results.
7:33 p m—Orchestra.
9:00 p m—Artist recital; dance music.
10:00 up m—Studio recital.
10:30 p m—Concert.
11:00 p m—Weather; missing persons.
12:00 p m—Weather reports; markets.

WTAG—Worcester—545

12:00 m—Weather report; markets.
12:05 p m—Luncheon music.
2:00 p m—News.
6:45 p m—Dance music.
7:40 p m—Baseball scores.
9:00 p m—Same as WEAF; news.

WNAC—Boston—430

10:30 a m—Women's club.
1:00 p m—Luncheon concert.
4:00 p m—Musicale.
6:00 p m—Smilers.
6:30 p m—Dinner dance.
7:00 p m—What's Going on Tonight.
8:00 p m—Program.
8:30 p m—Kenmore ensemble.
9:00 p m—Katherine Ker, contralto; Marie Ellmore, soprano.
9:30 p m—Artists recital.
10:05 p m—Dance music.

WEEI—Boston—349—349

6:45 a m—Same as WEAF.
10:15 a m—Talk; news.
12:45 p m—Market report.
4:15 p m—Dance music.
5:50 p m—Market; business news.
5:55 p m—Lost and found; radio review.
6:10 p m—Events of day; baseball scores.
6:20 p m—Joy and Canter, songs.
8:00-11:00 p m—Program from WEAF.

WCSH—Portland—256

10:00 a m—Housekeepers' hour.
12:00 p m—Recital.
12:45 p m—Lions' Clu luncheon.
12:57 p m—Time signals.
2:30 p m—Weather.
3:00 p m—Victor hour.
6:00 p m—Recital.
6:55 p m—Farm news; markets.
7:10 p m—Weather; announcements.
7:18 p m—Lost and found; news.
7:40 p m—Sport results.
8:30 p m—Same as WEAF.
9:00 p m—Studio program.
10:00 p m—Same as WEAF.

WBAL—Baltimore—246

7:30 p m—Dinner music.
8:30 p m—Mandolin orchestra.
8:00 p m—Artist recital.
10:00 p m—Band concert.

WRC—Washington—469

7:45-8:45 p m—Setting up exercises.
12:55 p m—Time signals.
1:00 m—Organ recital.
2:00 p m—Washington orchestra.
7:55 p m—Baseball.
8:00 p m—Willard orchestra.
8:30 p m—Same as WJZ.
10:30 p m—Kitt hour.
11:30 p m—Le Paradis and.

KDKA—Pittsburgh—309

7:15 p m—Setting-up exercises.
10:45 p m—News; market reports.
12:55 p m—Time signals; weather.
2:30 p m—Baseball half hourly.
4:20 p m—Market closings.
6:30 p m—Dinner concert.
7:15 p m—Final baseball scores.
8:40 p m—News; market reports.
9:30 p m—Sacred concert.
10:55 p m—Time signals; weather.
11:28 p m—Grand theater music.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices.

TREES AND SHRUBS

Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
East Great Plain Tel. 986-2

TRANSPORTATION

New York
Via the New London Line
One Way Fare $3.38
From Norwich
Special Summer Service
Effective June 28 to Sept. 11, inc.
NIGHT SCHEDULE—Daily
Lv. New London 10.30 P.M.
Due New York, Pier 40 (Houston St.) 6.30 A.M.
DAY SCHEDULE—Daily, Ex. Sun. and Mon.
Lv. New London 9.00 A.M.
Due New York, Pier 40, N. R. 4.30 P.M.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
$4.00 Round Trip from New London
Popular 2 day excursions to New York and return. Tickets sold Monday to Friday inclusive, good on day or night steamers going and returning same day.
Tickets sold Saturday good only on day steamer going and night steamer returning same day.
Tickets and Stateroo

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

New York

Stocks strong; U. S. Steel and several rails at new highs.

Bonds firm; convertible rail issues higher.

Foreign exchanges: Irregular; French francs easy.

Cotton firm; bullish crop advices.

Sugar steady; foreign buying.

Coffee higher; favorable Brazilian markets.

Chicago

Wheat lower; increasing stocks.

Corn easy disappointing cash demands.

Cattle weak; receipts largest of season.

Hogs lower; slow demands.

HIGH RECORD FOR U. S. STEEL

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Establishment of a new high record for all time by United States Steel common at 159 1-2 and the revival of activity and strength in the railroad shares, several of which attained their highest prices in a year or longer, featured today's stock market. The general industrial list disclosed considerable irregularity, due to rather extensive profit taking in recent strong spots and a resumption of bear attacks.

Wall street was surprised, as well as disappointed, at the failure of the directors of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey to take any action today toward the retirement of the preferred stock. Reports have been current for several weeks that the preferred would be called at 115, the funds to be derived from the sale of a large block of common stock at prices which would give present stockholders valuable subscription "rights", and that, in addition, the dividend on the common would be increased. Only the regular was declared. Standard Oil of New Jersey common yielded only fractionally to 43 3-4, but several of the other units, which had been accumulated recently on the theory that the retirement of Standard Oil of New Jersey preferred would signalize the beginning of an "oil market," fell back a point or more. General Asphalt was a conspicuous exception, closing four points higher at 77 after touching a new 1926 peak at 77 1-2.

Du Pont registered an extreme loss of nearly 10 points more than half of which was later recovered, on the traditional "selling on the good news" following the announcement that the directors had increased the quarterly dividend from 3 1-2 to 3 1-2 per cent and had called a stockholders meeting to approve a plan for changing the capitalization of the company by authorizing the issuance of 5,000,000 shares of no par common to replace the present 1,590,000 shares of $100 par, with the announced intention of issuing two shares of new stock for one of the present common. Trading in General Motors was of a nervous character, though still on a large scale, the stock closing 1 1-4 points lower at 209 3-4 after having fluctuated between 207 3-4 and 210 1-4.

Although the next regular quarterly meeting of the United States Steel directors is still more than two months away, Wall street professed to have information that a 40 or 50 per cent stock dividend would be declared, which probably explained the demand for that issue. It closed at 158 1-2, up 2 3-8 net. Steel mill operations are being maintained at a high rate, but uneasiness is expressed in some quarters over the reported falling off in building contracts and the possible slackening of activity on the settlement of the British coal strike which is obviously quickening steel manufacture in England.

Among the other industrials to better their previous maximum prices were Allied Chemical, American Smelting, American Safety Razor, Collins and Aikman, F. W. Macy, Pullman, Tobacco Products common and preferred, United Cigar Stores, U. S. Industrial Alcohol and Union Carbide.

The rails were bought on the strength of excellent earnings reports and maintenance of record breaking freight traffic, with rumors also current of special dividend action by some roads before the end of the year. Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio common and preferred, Pere Marquette, New York Central, Norfolk and Western, Norfolk and Southern and Northern Pacific also topped their previous 1926 high prices, some of them selling at their highest prices in 26 years.

Call money held steady at 4 1-2 per cent. Banks called about $20,000,000 in loans but the supply of funds was plentiful all day. Time money and commercial paper held firm.

Active wheat futures dropped 1 1-2 to nearly 2 cents a bushel on selling inspired by the unusually large increase in the visible supply in this country. Cotton rallied 35 to 38 points on reports of widespread insect damage. Raw sugar was unchanged and coffee prices held firm.

Foreign exchanges held steady in quiet trading. Japanese yen sold above 46 cents for the first time in four years. Demand sterling was quoted around 4.85 7 1-8 and French francs ruled just above 3.70 cents.

STOCKS.

Sales
(in hundreds) High. Low. Close.

Abitibi Pow&Pap ..	53¼	51½	53¼
Abraham & Str	54½	49⅝	52½
Adams Exp	117	115	117
Ahumada Lead	8	8	8
Air Reduction	139⅝	137	137
Ajax Rubber	9¼	9	9
Al Chem & Dye	92¼	90	90
Allis Chalm Mfg ..	92¼	90	90
Amerada Corp	31½	31¼	31½
Am Agri Ch pfd	64⅝	64⅝	64⅝
Am Bank Note	40	40	40
Am Beet Sugar	24¼	24¼	24¼
Am Booch Mfg	20	19½	19½
Am Br Sh Fdy	147¼	145	145
Am Brown Bov El ..	49½	48⅛	49¼
Am Can	61½	60	60⅝
Am Can pfd	126	126	126
Am Car & Fdy	102¼	101	102
Am Drug Synd	8⅛	7⅝	7⅝
Am Express	127	127	127
Am & For Pow	20⅝	20⅝	20⅝
Am Hide & Lea pf ..	35⅝	34¾	35
Am Home Pro xd	26⅝	26¼	26⅝
Am Ice	124⅝	124⅜	124⅜
Am Intl Corp	34½	34½	34½
Am L Pr Fire En ..	13	12⅝	13
Am Linseed	45⅝	42½	45½
Am Linseed pf	84½	13½	84½
Am Loco	106½	105½	106½
Amal Lea	19⅝	19⅜	19⅝
Amer Mach Fdy	80¼	78	80
Amer Mach Fdy	120¼	120½	120½
Am S T new	31	30⅝	30⅞
Am Pow & Lt xd ..	66⅝	65	66
Am Radiator	120	118	120
Am Safety Raz	70⅝	69¼	69½
Am Smelt & Ref	151⅝	147¼	149⅝
Am Steel Fdrs	46⅝	46⅝	46
Am Sugar Refin	74	73½	74
Am Sub Th opt A ..	33½	33¼	33¼
Am Tel & Tel	144⅞	141	144⅛
Am Tobacco	120½	120½	120½
Am Tob B	120	120	120
Am Type Fdrs	123⅛	122	123
Am W Wks & El	60	60	60
Am Woolen	28⅛	27	28⅛
Am Wool pfd	75⅝	75	75
Am Wtg Pr pf	⅝	⅝	⅝
Am Wtg Pr pf cf ..	⅝	⅝	⅝
Anaconda Cop	51¼	50½	51
Arch Dan Midl	40	39½	40
Ar & Co of Bl A ..	14⅞	14⅝	14⅞
Arn Cons Corp	28¼	27	28½
Art Met Constr	21⅝	21⅜	21⅝
Asso Dry Gds	54	44	44
Asso Oil	50	50	50
Atchi Tp & S Fe	151⅛	148	148⅛
Atchison pfd	100	99⅝	100
Atl Bir & Atl	⅛	⅛	⅛
Atl Cst Line	227⅞	223½	223½
Atl Refin	114¼	110½	110¾
Atlas Pow pfd	97½	97⅜	97½
Aust Nich pfd	67	67	67
Bald Locomo	122½	121	121
Balti & Ohio	105¾	103⅝	104⅞
Balti & Oh pfd	73½	73¼	73¼
Bang & Aroo	42	42	42
Barnsd Corp A	26	25⅞	26
Bayuk Cigar	49	47¾	49
Beechnut Pack	62⅞	62¼	62¼
Belding Heming	31	30⅜	30⅝
Bethlehem Stl	49¼	48	48⅝
Beth Stl 7pc pf ...	103½	103	103
Booth Fisheries	5⅝	5⅜	5⅜
Bot Cons Mills A	23	23	23
Briggs Mfg Co	29¼	28	28
Brooklyn Edison	161¾	150½	150½
Bkdyn Manh Tra	65⅝	65	65
Bklyn Man Tr pf	85	85	85
Bklyn Un Gas	96¼	95¼	95¼
Brown Shoe	38	38	38
Brunswick Balke ..	29⅝	29⅜	29⅜
Bruns Term & R ..	14¼	13½	13½
Burns Bros B	137⅝	136⅜	137⅜
Burroughs Ad M	109½	108	109½
Butte Cop &	5⅝	5	5
Butte & Sup Min	10¼	10⅛	10⅛
Butterick Co	62	60	61
By Products Co	56⅞	56⅞	56⅞
Calif Packing	72⅜	72	72
Cal Petrol	33	32½	32½
Callahan Lead	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Calu & Ariz Min	72⅜	71½	71½
Cal & Hecla Con	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜
Can Pacific	165¼	164⅞	165
Case Threshing	162	158½	162⅝
Cent Leth pfd	52¾	52½	52½
Cent RR of NJ	297	285	294
Cerro de Pasco	72½	71	71
Certain-teed Prod ..	46½	46¼	46½
Chandler Cleve p ...	29¾	29½	29½
Ches & Ohio	150½	148¼	149¼
Ches & Ohio pfd	149	149	149
Chi E Ill pfd	42⅛	41⅝	42
Chi Gt West	9¾	9¼	9¼
Chi Gt West pf	25¼	25	25¼
Chi Mil & St P	13⅛	13	13⅛
Chic Mil & St P	12¾	12⅛	12⅛
Chic Mil & St P p ..	23¼	22⅝	23
Chic Mil & St P p ..	22¼	22	22
Chic & No Wes	124	124	124
Ch & No W pfd	124	124	124
C R I & Pac	60¼	59⅞	59⅞
C R I & P 6pc pfd	89⅝	89⅛	89⅝
C R I & P 7pc pf ..	102	101⅞	102
Childs Co	52	52	52
Chile Copper	36¼	36⅝	36½
Chrysler Corp	37⅝	37	37½
Chry C pfd A	103⅜	103½	103⅜
Cluett Peabody	63	63	63
Coca Cola	162⅜	161⅝	161⅞
Coll & Aikman	52	49½	51
Colorado F & Ir	46⅝	45⅞	46⅛
Col So 1st pfd	72	72	72
Col Gas & El	82½	82¼	82¼
Col Gas & El pf	114⅝	114⅜	114⅜
Col Carbon	62⅝	62½	62⅝
Com Credit	27½	27½	27½
Com Solv B	164½	164½	164½
Cong-Nairn	24½	23	23
Cong Cigar	43⅜	42⅝	42⅝
Cons Cigar	72⅜	71⅜	72⅜
Consol Dist	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
Consol Gas	111¾	110	110
Consol Textile	2⅛	2	2
Cont Can	83¼	82¼	82½
Cont Motors	12	11⅝	11⅝
Corn Prod	45⅝	45½	45⅝
Cruc Stl	77⅛	75⅞	76⅓
Cruc Stl pfd	101¾	101⅛	101⅛
Cuba Cane Sugar	9¾	9⅝	9⅝
Cuba C Sug pfd ...	40¼	39	39
Cuba Co rts	10⅛	10	10
Cuba Co	50⅜	49¼	49
Cuban Am Sug	26	26	26
Cudahy Pack	97	97	97
Cuyamel Fruit	47⅞	46⅝	47⅞
Davis Chem	37⅝	37	37½
De Beers Cons	36½	36½	36½
Del & Hud	169	167⅞	168½
Del L & W	147¾	145	145
Det Edison	134½	134½	134½
Dodge Bros A	31⅞	30	30½
Dodge Bros pfd ...	87⅜	87½	87⅜
Dome Mines	11½	11	11
Doug-Pectin	33½	33	33½
Du Pont de N	313⅜	305	309
Du P de N deb	107½	107¼	107¼
Eastm Kodak	114½	114	114½
Eaton Axle Spr	28⅝	28⅝	28⅝
Elec Auto Lite	71	70½	70½
Electric Boat	8	7⅞	8
El Pow Lt	19⅝	19⅜	19⅜
El Pow Lt 40 pc ..	104⅜	104⅛	104⅛
Elec Refrig	66½	65⅞	66⅜
Elect Stor Bat	91⅞	89⅝	90
Endicott John	66⅜	66⅜	66⅝
Equit Off Bl pf	125	122½	125
Erie R R	34⅝	33⅞	33⅞
Erie 1st pfd	43⅞	43½	43⅝
Eureka Vac Cl	52⅞	52⅜	52⅞
Fairb Morse Co	53	53	53
Fam Play Lask ...	117	116	116½
Fed Lt & Tract	33¾	33¼	33¾
Fed Motors new ..	32⅞	32	32
Fed Min Sm pfd ..	77	76	76½
Fid Ph Fire Ins	189⅞	189⅝	189⅝
Fisk Rub	18⅝	18⅛	18⅛
Fisk Rub 1st pf ..	98⅜	98	98⅛
Fleisch Co	52	51	51⅛
Foundat Co	94½	92	93
Fox Film A	71	70½	70½
Freeport Texas	30	27	27
Gabr Snub	31¼	31¼	31¼
Gen Am Tank	47⅝	46	46
Gen Asphalt	77½	73⅜	77
Gen Asph pf &d	116	113¾	115⅞
Gen Cigar A	50½	50½	50⅝
Gen Elec new	95¼	93	93⅛
Gen Elec spl	11¼	11¼	11¼
Gen Gas & El A	50¼	49	50
Gen Motors	210¾	209⅜	209⅜
Gen Mot 6pc pf	103¾	103⅜	103⅜
Gen Mot 7pc pf	119½	119½	119½
Gen Outdr Adv A	54	54	54
Gen Outd Ad cfs	34⅝	34⅜	34⅜
Gen Sky Signal	90½	89½	90⅜
Gen Refract	46	46	46
Gimbel Bros	57¼	56¾	53½
Glidden Co	15⅝	18½	18½
Gold Dust	52	51⅛	51⅜
Goodrich BF Co xd ..	51¼	50½	51
Goodrich BF Co pf 816		816	816
Gdyear T&R pf	109⅞	109	109
Gotham Silk Hos	58½	56¾	58
Goth Sk Hos new ..	56⅜	54½	56
Goth S H 1st pf	122	118½	122
Granby Cons Min	25¼	24⅝	25¼
Gt Nor Ore cfs	20	20	20
Gt Nor Ry pfd	76⅜	75⅜	76½
Gt West Sug	97	96	96
Grene Can Cop	21	20½	20½
Gulf Mob & Nor	36½	35½	36
Gulf Mo & N pf	106	105⅝	105⅝
Gulf States Stl	75½	73¾	74⅜
Hartman Corp	27⅜	27⅜	27⅜
Hayes Wheel	34	34	34
Hoe R & Co A	32	31⅜	31⅜
Homestake Min	57½	55½	57½
Houston Oil	59⅞	59¾	59⅞
Howe Sound Oil ...	37⅝	37¼	37½
Hudson Mot Car	69	67½	68
Hupp Motor Car	27½	25⅝	27⅛
Ill Cent	124⅞	123⅝	124
Independent O & G	26⅝	25⅝	25⅝
Indian Refining	10	10	10
Indian Refin cfs ...	9¾	9¼	9¼
Ingersoll Rand	93½	93½	93½
Inland Steel	43	42½	43
Inspiration Cop ...	25½	25¼	25½
Interb Rap Tran	45¼	44½	44½
Intercon Rubber	16¾	16	16¾
Intern Agri Corp	14½	14½	14½
Int Ag pfd ext	82	82	82
Int Business Ma	49⅜	48⅝	49½
Int Combust Eng	57¾	56	56
Int Harvester	132½	132½	133⅜
Int Match pfd	63¼	63	63
Int Merc Mar pfd ...	39	39	39
Int Nickel	38½	37	38¼
Int Paper	55	54½	54½
Int Tel & Tel	119⅝	117	118½
Int Tel & Tel rts ..	2⅝	7⅝	8⅝
Jewell Tea	42	40¾	42
Jordan Mot Car	24	23½	24
Kan City Sou Ry ..	45⅞	45⅞	45½
Kan City S pfd	67⅝	67⅝	67⅝
Kayser J Co	39½	39	39¼
Kayser J Co pfd	103¾	103¾	103¾
Kelly-Spring Tir	13⅝	13¼	13⅝
Kennecott Copper ...	57⅞	57½	57⅝
Kinney (GR)	56½	56½	56½
Kresge SS Co	53	52½	53½
Lambert Co	57⅝	57	57¼
Lago O & Tr	22½	21¾	21⅝
Lee R & T	8	8	8
Lehigh V R	90⅜	89½	90
Lehn & Fink P	37	36½	37
Life Savers cfts	21¼	21¼	21¼
Lig & M Tob	83⅜	83¾	83⅜
Loew's Inc	42	41½	41½
Loft Inc	7½	7½	7½
Loose W Bis	162	150	160
Loose W B 2 pf	162¼	155	162¼
Lorillard Co	38⅝	38	38¼
Lou Oil Ref	16½	16⅛	16⅛
Lou & N	128¼	127⅜	128
Lou G & E A	24½	24⅜	24½
Mack Tr 2 pfd	108	108	108
Mack Trucks	127⅞	120	120¾
Mackay pfd	71¾	71¾	71¾
Macy Co	118	114	118
Magma Cop	41¾	40½	40¾
Mallinson Co	16¼	16⅛	16¾
Manati Sug pfd	65	65	65
Manhat E S	85⅝	83½	83⅝
Manhat R m gtd	54¾	54	54⅝
Maracaibo O E	23⅝	22½	23½
Mark S R p pfd	43⅝	42¾	43⅜
Marland Oil	59¼	58½	58⅝
Mathieson A W	81⅝	80	80
May Dept St xd	124⅝	124	124⅜
Maytag Co	28⅝	27¼	28⅛
Metro-Goldwyn p ..	23½	23½	23½
Mex Seab Oil	11¼	11¼	11¼
Miami Copper	15	14⅜	14⅝
Mid-Conti Pet	32⅝	31½	31½
Mid C Pet pfd	98	98	98
Mid St Oil	1⅜	1¼	1⅜
Midl St Prod pfd ..	123½	122	123½
Miller Rubber	37	37	37
Minn & St Lo	27⅛	25¼	25⅞
Minn St P & SSM ..	37¾	35⅝	36½
Minn St P&SSM	37¾	35⅝	36½
M St P&SSM	65½	65¼	65½
Mis Kan & Tex	36⅞	36⅜	36⅝
Mis K & T pfd	91⅞	91⅜	91⅝
Missouri Pacific	39⅝	38⅜	39
Mis Pacf pfd	91½	90½	91½
Montana Pow	80	79½	79½
Montgom Ward	72	70¾	71½
Moon Motor Car	23⅞	23⅛	23½
Mother Lode Coal	6	6	6
Moto Meter A	4½	40	40
Motor Wheel	23½	23¼	23¼
Mur Body's Corp	10⅞	10¼	10⅜
Nash Motors	59⅞	58¾	58¾
National Biscuit	93½	92¾	92⅝
Nat Ca Reg A	42½	31¼	42½
National Clk & S ..	23½	23¼	23⅜
Nat Clk & Sp	73¼	73¼	73¼
Nat D Prod	22	22	22
Nat Dis Pr pfd	49	48	49
Nat Enam & Stp	21¾	21½	21¾
National Lead	165¼	163¾	165¼
National L pfd	117¾	117¾	117¾
Nat Pow & Lgt	92⅝	92	92
National Supply	65½	64¼	65½
New Con Cop	14⅜	14	14
NY Air Brake	44½	44¼	44¼
New Yk Canners ..	48⅜	47¼	47½
New York Cent ...	140⅞	138½	138½
N Y C & S L	173	178	179
NYC & SL pf xd ..	100¼	100¼	100¼
N Y N H & H	46½	45⅝	45⅝
N Y O & W	25¾	25⅜	25½
N Y O & W pf	11½	11½	11½
Norf South	11¾	11½	11½
Norf & West	166⅜	164	165⅜
Nor Amer Co	55⅝	55	55⅝
North Pac	77⅜	75¾	76
Norw T & R	7½	7½	7½
Oil Well Sup	24⅜	24⅜	24⅜
Omnibus Corp	16	16	16
Oppen Collins	59¾	57¾	58⅞
Otis Elevator	124½	122	122
Otis Steel	10	9¾	10
Otis Stl pfd	100	100	100
Outlet Co	48⅝	47⅜	48⅝
Outlet Co pfd	102	101⅞	102
Owens Bottle	72	72¾	72¾
Pac G & E	129½	129½	129½
Pac Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
Pack Mo Car	28	27	27⅝
Paige Det Mo C	16½	16¼	16¼
Pan Am Pet	68	68	68
Pan Am P B	68⅝	67¾	67¾
Pan Am W B	38½	37¾	37⅝
Pan P & R	19½	18⅝	18⅝
Penick & Ford	20	20	20
Penn Coal & C	10¼	9¾	10¼
Penn R R	55	54½	54⅝
Penn Sea Steel	1¼	1¼	1¼
Pere Marq	101½	100	101
Pere M pr pfd	93	93	93
P & R C & I	40⅝	39⅝	39⅞
Phil Morris & C	23	22	23
Phil Pete	48¼	47⅞	48
Pierce-Ar Mo C	30½	29⅝	30½
Pierce Ar pfd	119⅝	118	118⅝
Pierce Oil	⅝	⅜	⅝
Pitts Term Coal ...	40	39¾	40
Pitts & West Va ...	108	108	108
Postum Cereal	106⅞	106⅛	106
Pressed Steel Car ...	41½	39½	40¾
Pr Stl Car pfd	83	82½	82½
P S Corp N J	92	91	91⅞
Pullman Co	180	178	181
Punta Aleg Sug	37	36½	36½
Pure Oil	27	26⅝	26⅞
Radio Cp of Am	43⅝	42	43
Radio Corp pfd	48	48	48
Railroad Sec ol	74⅛	73½	74⅛
Rand Mines	36⅛	36⅜	36¾
Ray Cons Cop	14⅝	14⅜	14⅜
Reading Co	97⅝	95	96¼
Reading rts	18¾	17⅞	18
Reid Ice Cream	48⅛	46	46
Reis & Co Robt	8	8	8
Reming Type	119½	117	117
Replogle Stl	10⅝	9¼	10⅛
Repub Ir & Stl	61⅞	60½	61⅝
Reyn Spr	6¼	6⅛	6¼
Rey Tob B	97⅜	97	97⅝
Roy Dutch NY sh ..	50⅜	50⅜	50⅜
Safety Cable Co ...	51⅝	51⅝	51⅝
St Jos Lead	45	44⅝	44⅝
St L Sn Fr Ry	98	96⅞	97½
St L San Fr pf	91½	90½	90½
St L South	71¾	69½	70⅛
St L South pf	80	80	80
Schulte Ret St xd ..	50	49½	49⅝
Seaboard A L	35⅜	34	34⅜
Seaboard A L pf ...	39½	37¾	38¼
Seagrave Corp	137	135	135
Sears Roebuck	57⅞	57½	57⅝
Shattuck FG Co	66⅜	65	65⅞
Shell Union Oil	29⅝	28⅝	28⅝
Shubert Theatre Co	70⅝	69	69½
Simmons Co	33⅞	33	33⅝
Simms Petroleum ..	17⅞	17½	17½
Sinclr Con Oil	21⅝	21⅜	21⅝
Sinclr C Oil pfd	99¾	99¾	99¾
Skelly Oil xd	34⅞	34⅝	34⅝
S Sheff St&Ir xd ...	141⅝	141¼	141¾
So Por R Sugar	116	114	114
So Sal Edison	31¾	31	31
South Dairies A	54	53	53⅝
South Dairies B	31⅝	31	31
South Pacific	108	106⅝	107⅞
Sou Ry pfd	95⅝	95¼	95¼
Southern Ry	122⅜	121⅝	121½
Spicer Mfg	23½	22½	22½
Std Gas & Elec	55	54⅜	55
Std Gas & El pfd	57	57	57
Std Oil Calif xd	61½	60⅞	61½
Std Oil NJ	44⅜	43⅞	43⅞
Std Oil NJ pfd	116½	116⅛	116⅜
Sterling Prod	84¼	84	84
Stewart War Spd	75½	74¾	74¾
Studebaker	55½	54½	55⅜
Submarine Boat	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Sun Oil Co	32	31½	32
Superior Oil	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Symington Co	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
Ten Cop & Ch	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞
Texas Co	54½	53½	54
Tex Gulf Sulp	170⅝	169½	170
Tex & Pac Ry	57½	55⅝	57
Tex & Pac C & O ...	15	14⅞	15
Tex Pac Land Tr ...	950	950	950
The Fair Co	28	28	28
Tide Water Oil	30½	30⅛	30½
Tide Water O pfd ..	91¾	91¾	91¾
Timken Roll Bear ..	61½	60⅝	61¼
Tobacco Prod	111⅜	109⅞	110⅞
Tobacco Prod A	114⅜	113	114⅜
Transcont Oil	5	4⅝	4⅞
Underwood Typ e...	54⅜	54	54
Union Bag & Paper .	59	54	56½
Union Car and Car .	92⅝	90	90⅝
Union Oil of Cal ..	58⅜	52⅝	53⅜
Union Pacific	158½	157	157½
United Alloy Stl ...	34⅛	34	34⅛
United Cig Stor ...	109⅝	107	109½
Unit Drug xd	161½	159	161
United Fruit	116	115	116
US Cast Ir P&P ...	242½	239	240
US Distributing	56⅞	56	56½
US Hoffman Ma	49⅞	49⅞	49⅞
US Indust Alcoh	75⅝	70¾	75⅝
US Real & Im	62	62	62
US Rub	61½	59½	61¼
US Rub 1 pfd	107	106⅝	107
US Sm & R	40¼	38⅝	40¼
US S & R pfd	48½	48⅜	48½
US Steel C	163½	154⅝	158½
US Steel pfd	128⅝	128⅛	128⅛
Un P & R	25	24	24¼
Ut P & L A	30⅞	30	30⅞
Vanad Corp	43	41¼	42⅝
Van Raalte Co	14⅜	14⅛	14⅞
Vick Chem	49½	48¼	49½
Va Car Ch new	13½	13⅛	13½
V-CC 6s pf	44¼	44½	44½
Vivaudou Inc	31½	31	31½
Wabash Ry	46⅝	45¾	46⅝
Wabash pfd A	75½	74⅝	74⅝
Waldorf Sys	30⅝	29⅝	29⅝
Ward Bak B	36⅜	35⅞	35⅞
Ward Bak B pf	90½	90½	90½
Warner Br Pic A....	31⅞	30⅝	30
Warren Bros Co	50	50	50
West Md	13⅝	13⅝	13⅝
West Md 2d pf	22½	21¾	22¼
West P

10

SHOWERS TODAY;
CLOUDY TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1799 1926

NORWICH, CONN., TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1926

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Tuesday, August 17, 1926

THE WEATHER

Conditions

The disturbance that was over Minnesota Sunday night has advanced northeastward and is central a short distance south of Hudson Bay, with a trough extending southward to eastern Pennsylvania.

Pressure is high from Nova Scotia, southward to Bermuda.

The outlook is for a continuation of unsettled showery weather Tuesday and Wednesday in most of the states east of the Mississippi river. It will be slightly cooler on Wednesday along the north Atlantic coast.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh south, shifting to southwest and west winds and weather overcast with occasional showers Tuesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh southwest winds and partly overcast weather Tuesday with occasional showers over extreme north portion.

Forecast

For northern New England and southern New England: Showers and slightly warmer Tuesday; Wednesday partly cloudy, cooler on the coast.

Observations

The Bulletin observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Monday:

	Temp.	Bar.
7 a. m.	68	30.30
12 m.	78	30.20
8 p. m.	69	30.10

Highest 78, lowest 65.

Comparisons

Prediction for Monday: Cloudy possibly light showers.

Mondays weather: Cloudy in morning; rain in afternoon and night.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises	Sun Sets	High Water	Moon Sets
	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
	(Standard Time)
16	4.57	6.47	3.00	11.00
17	4.58	6.46	3.56	11.38
18	4.59	6.46	4.57	morn.
19	5.00	6.44	5.56	0.23
20	5.01	6.43	6.54	1.17
21	5.02	6.40	7.47	2.22
22	5.03	6.38	8.40	3.35

Six hours after high water it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

TAFTVILLE

Maynard-Lambert

At a nuptial high mass, before the main altar banked with colorful gladioli, Miss Yvonne Irene Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lambert of Providence street, became the bride of Arvin Ernest Maynard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salime Maynard of Wauregan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. U. O. Bellerose, pastor of the church, who also sang the nuptial mass which followed. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

As the bridal party entered the edifice, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Alice Frechette, the church organist, and during the ceremony Ave Maria was sung by Solomon Lambert, father of the bride. The bride was charming in a gown of white romaine crepe with white silk lace. She wore a hand embroidered silk veil and carried white rose buds with a shower of arbutus and lillies-of-the valley.

She was attended by her younger sister, Miss Marie Germaine Lambert, who wore yellow romaine crepe trimmed with rhinestones. She wore a black picture hat, and her arm bouquet was of pink and yellow gladioli. The best man was Raymond Maynard, brother of the groom.

A reception and wedding breakfast for many guests at Parish hall, followed the church ceremony. The gifts were numerous and included linen, cutglass, silver and household furnitufe. Included among the gifts was a generous check from the parents of the bride.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handpainted mesh bag and to the best man he gave gold cuff links set with diamonds. The bride gave the groom a silver shaving set and to her maid of honor she presented a white gold wrist watch.

The bride is one of the popular members of the Taftville younger set, being well known and having a wide circle of friends. She is a graduate of the Sacred Heart school. The groom is one of the well known young men of Wauregan where he was graduated from the Sacred Heart school. He is employed as a mechanic.

During the afternoon the happy couple left for a motor trip which will take them to points of interest in New York state, the White mountains and to Montreal, Canada. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends at their newly furnished home in Wauregan. The bride's going away dress was of black moire crepe with white trimmings.

Motored To Clark's Corners

An enjoyable and interesting trip was made Sunday by Mrs. Flora B. Wheeler, who motored to Clark's Corners where she visited Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson. Mrs. Wheeler made the trip from Clark's Corners to Norwich Town by way of Howard's valley, Brooklyn, Danielson, Plainfield and Jewett City. She was accompanied by Woodard, Nathan and Florence Wheeler and Gilmore Sage.

Housewives now enjoy a freedom,
From the work of bygone days,
Salads made with good Blue Ribbon,
Save their time, and win high praise.
MAYONNAISE
Write for free Recipe Book, Calendar and Cooking time table to Richard Hellmann, Inc.
Long Island City, N. Y.
HELLMANN'S
BLUE RIBBON
Mayonnaise

RAIN CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF BAND CONCERT AND DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS

The steady downpour of rain that struck in about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon called a halt in the celebration of the feast of the Assumption by the Italian residents of the city. The celebration had been planned as an all day affair starting at 7 o'clock in the morning with the firing of giant bombs on Edward's hill. It was the annual celebration of the feast of the assumption of the Blessed Virgin, their native feast of the Madonna della Assumpta.

As there was no sign of a letup in the heavy rain storm throughout the afternoon and early evening the committee called off the band concert which was to have been held at Union square and the fireworks display which was to have followed at Edward's hill. During the evening the committee announced that the band concert and fireworks display will take place this (Tuesday) evening.

At 9 o'clock there was a solemn festal mass, celebrated by request of the committee, at St. Patrick's church at 9:30.

Rev. John J. Reilly was celebrant of the mass, Rev. Myles P. Galvin was deacon and the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May was sub-deacon. Many of the Italian men of the city had to work Monday, but there was a good representation of them present with a good sized congregation of women and children.

The vestments and altar hangings were of white and gold and the three altars were adorned with flowers. Henry J. LaFontaine was at the organ, the solos being sung by Roderick F. Sullivan. At the offertory Mr. Sullivan gave Dr. Jules Jordan's beautiful setting of "Ave Maria," interpreting the immortal composition with a finish and harmony which brought out its admirable adaptation to the words of the angelic salutation. Mr. LaFontaine played a varied program of numbers preceding the mass and for the recessional gave a festival march.

FAVOR CENTRAL POOR HOME FOR STATE

Some form of consolidation of the poorfarms of the state is favored by the state department of public welfare according to two of its members, Judge Walter H. Clark of Hartford, and Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell of Norwich. This has been made known by them in an interview following the publication of the criticism of the poorfarm system in Connecticut contained in the book, The American Poorfarm and Its Inmates, written by Henry C. Evans of Des Moines, Ia., on behalf of several mid-western fraternal organizations.

The problem of the poorfarm in the state was described as very serious by Judge Clark and as one which had engaged the serious attention of the department.

"It would be a great mercy to the poor and relief to the towns if the poor could be sent to some centralized institution where they could get better care," said Judge Clark.

If there was such an institution, said Judge Clark, experts could be called in to run it and it would be much better managed than under the present system.

"It is not the disposition to build a castle of gold and set it with diamonds, as was suggested in the article recently," said Judge Clark, "but a certain standard of cleanliness is required and should be maintained on behalf of these unfortunates."

Judge Clark's reference was to the answer of First Selectman Leslie Spencer of Guilford to the criticism of the Guilford poorfarm, when he said:

"The people down here don't feel they should build a castle of gold and set it with diamonds, as these investigators would have us do."

Judge Clark observed that the department had obtained an appropriation of $3,000 from the legislature last year to pay for the services of an inspector to make the rounds of poorfarms, and make suggestions to the selectmen for the improvement of the poorfarms. The selectman always seemed willing, he said, to adopt the suggestions of the department.

The authority of the department over the poorfarms was described by Judge Clark as hazy. Its capacity was more nearly advisory, he said, rather than one of authority.

Mrs. Mitchell, who has long been a most active member of the department, agreed that there were too many poorfarms scattered about the state and said they should be consolidated.

"I should like to see the poorfarms of some of the towns in the country consolidated," she said, "to eliminate the waste that is going on and to improve the conditions of the poor."

She recalled that at the 1925 legislature the department of public welfare, through its secretary, Charles P. Kellogg of Waterbury, had a bill introduced providing that the state build an infirmary which would take care of the inmates of the poorfarms who were suffering from infectious diseases or needed care of some sort.

This bill was not adopted, as the appropriations committee reported that because of the demands on the treasury a state infirmary could not at that time be attempted, it is understood.

Ex-Senator John N. Brooks of Farmington, a member of the Connecticut infirmary commission appointed by Governor Trumbull, approved the idea of a state infirmary to which the ill, the chronic sick and those suffering from infectious diseases might be sent. The work of the commission was largely carried on by Mr. Kellogg, said Senator Brooks. The other members of it are Comptroller Frederick M. Salmon, Westport; State Health Commissioner Stanley H. Osborn, Hartford; Charles P. Kellogg, Waterbury; Isadore Wise, Hartford, and Milton C. Fessenden, Stamford.

BARBECUE COMMITTEE TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

Secretary Herbert R. Branche of the Thames Valley Citizens committee has issued a call for a meeting of the committee and the general committee in charge of the plans for the eastern this week at the Mohican hotel. New has been called for Friday evening of this week at the Mohican hotel, New London and will be called to order at 7:30 o'clock by General Chairman Robert W. Perkins.

At the meeting recommendations from all committees will be received. These committees are the committees on time and place, barbecue and refreshments, publicity, resources, athletics, invitations and Boy Scouts. It is probable that the date and place for the barbecue will be decided at the meeting.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MR. AND MRS. A. A. PARKER

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Parker of Versailles were given a delightful surprise Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Parker's sister, Mrs. Henry LaPlante, Merchants avenue, Taftville. A chicken dinner was served and games and dancing were enjoyed. There were piano selections and a pleasing vocal solo was given by Miss Louise M. Durr, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Paul.

The house was prettily decorated in pink and white. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Parker who are soon to leave for their future home in Natick, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were presented a beautiful basket of pink and white flowers and a purse of money.

The Sheldon family reunion was held Sunday and Monday at Plainville Camp ground, by descendants of Amos R. and Young Gridley and Rhaldon.

SIX NORWICH BOYS AT C. M. T. C. AT FORT TERRY

Six Norwich boys are in training at the citizen's military training camp at Fort Terry. They are John Booth Baynes, Harold Byron Frink, George Albert Jennings, James Cyril O'Neill, Orrin Sutliff Talbot, and Claude Graham Eccles. In all there are 15 New London county boys at Terry for the two weeks camp, including Harold Malcolm Bryson of Groton, Hamilton Cheney Fish of Mystic, Rudolph Andrew Fedus of Colchester, Stephen Joseph Jasklewitz of Jewett City, Charles Morgan Foote of Mystic, Albert Luker Van Cleve, Jr., of Colchester, Howland Wheeler Vibber of New London and John Charles Toupass of Lyme.

Monday the boys started the second week of the training period. Sunday was visitors' day at the fort and a special boat from New London carried 150 relatives and friends to Terry. The battalion staged an exhibition drill, the batteries being commanded by cadet officers. Following the drill the 11th Coast Artillery band gave a concert.

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, the battalion was formed for review and inspection by Assistant Camp Commander Lieut. Col. E. D. Towers, of the 11th Coast Artillery Corps and his staff and the boys showed up in a manner that brought for the hearty commendation of their superior officers. After the battalion review an inspection was made of the barracks, where everything was found to be in a splendid state of cleanliness and orderliness.

At noon Saturday, Maj. Gen. Preston Brown, commander of the first corps area, accompanied by Col. Frank K. Fregusson of the 11th Coast Artillery Corps, and camp commander arrived at Fort Terry from Fort Wright and made an inspection of the mess halls, where the citizen soldiers were partaking of the noonday meal. General Brown was greatly impressed with the appetites the boys displayed and after talking to several of them said that they all were apparently well pleased with their tour of camp life, are having a good time and are in good health.

At 1 p. m. the boys were assembled on the drill grounds where they listened to an interesting talk by General Brown on the advantages to be derived from military training.

M. M. CLUB MEMBERS RETURN FROM BUSHY POINT

The members of the M. M. club have returned to Norwich after spending a delightful week at Bushy Point. Swimming, rowing, hiking and other outdoor attractions made the week an unusually pleasant one. The ukelele orchestra furnished pleasing programmees around the fireplace and on the boat rides. The Thamesville firemen kindly loaned the club members a portable phonograph for the week.

A marshmallow toast, frankfurter roast and corn popping were included in the events of the week. The club will meet Thursday at the home of the Misses Celia and Julia Cook.

REAL ESTATE CHANGES RECORDED RECENTLY

Recent real estate transfers recorded in the office of the town clerk are as follows:

Estate of Mary T. Ring to Mary M. Ring, house at 49 Broad street to Joseph and Bernard Ring, land at Fanning Park and household furnishings at 49 Broad street.

Isaac Gelfond to Harry Mopsik, land in Fairmount street.

Grace H. and Lois A. Manning to Frederick F. Manning, land and buildings in Yantic.

Eagle Realty Co. to William and Rosanna Carter, land off Old Canterbury turnpike.

Estate James D. McCarthy to Arthur T. Avery, land and buildings on Scotland road.

John H. Lynch to James R. Moran, house and lot on East Town street.

Estate Louisa J. Brewer to Julia E. Brewer, house and lot at 92 Washington street.

Emily C. Rix to Lucy R. Saunders, house and lot at Norwich Town.

Patrick F. Jeremiah P., Estate Ellen Downing to Mary C. Sullivan, house and lot at 455 North Main street.

Fred Holdsworth to Orville L. Blasonnette, house and lot in Taftville.

Mary A. Finn to Stanislaw Zaremba, house and lot at 81 Sixth street.

Joseph Toczko to Piote Sucharzewski, land and buildings on Howard street.

Jacob R. Slosberg to Mary A. J. Conlon, house and lot at 306 West Main street.

Sofie Wliszek to Peter Bohara, land and buildings on Star street.

Margaret Kukla to Walter D. Moran, house and lot at Winchester place

Estate Austin W. Meyers to Jeremiah A. Desmond, house and lot at 103-105 Cliff street.

Frederick N. and Mary M. Clark to Anthony and Mary Kozloski, house and lot at 310 Geer avenue.

Mattie F. Land to Martin E. Mullen, house and lot at 7 Lafayette terrace.

Edward H. and Jennie Noble to Joseph C. Chretien land and buildings in Occum.

Mrs. Charles Rathbun to Bernard G. and Catherine E. Schmidt, land and buildings in Occum.

Mattie F. Land to Fannie S. Slosberg, house and lot at 180 Washington street.

Herbert M. and Alice M. Fargo to Joseph Ribiero, house and lot at 84 Talman street.

Domenica Genese to Vincenzo Fimagnaro, house and lot at 475 Main street.

Anna Counihan to John H. and Elizabeth A. Sullivan, house and lot at 30 Spruce street.

Patrick F. Manning to Isadore and Samuel Berkman, house and lot in Yantic.

Arthur H. and Celia Sabrowski to Angelo and Mary S. Cosentino, house and lot on Mulberry street and Carter avenue.

Eagle Realty Co. to George Barlow, land and buildings on Old Canterbury turnpike.

Elphege Chenette to George A. Gregory, land and buildings off Bolduc lane, Taftville.

Martin E. and Mary E. Mullin to Albert A. and Eva R. Ducharme, land and buildings in Taftville.

Atlantic Carton Corp. to City of Norwich and Norwich Water Power Co., land and buildings on North Main street.

Robert F. and Mabel P. Glasbrenner to Benjamin F. Krieger and Benjamin Mandell, house and lot at 17 Kinsley street.

Bankrupt Estate Henry Pukallus to H. F. and A. J. Dawley, land and buildings at 9-11 Pukallus avenue.

Abraham Bruckner to Daniel C. and Christine Stevens, house and lot at 432 Asylum street.

LOCAL VEGETABLE GROWERS TO HAVE OUTING

Saturday of this week the Norwich Vegetable Growers will hold an outing and clam bake at Quenochontaug Beach, R. I., making the trip by automobile. The outing will take place at the summer cottage of Prof. A. D. Wilkinson of Connecticut Agricultural college.

BOYS WILL GO ON DAIRY JUDGING TRIP

Eight boys residing in New London county will take part in the dairy judging trip for Connecticut boys to be held Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The boys will visit Willington Farms, South Willington; Suffield Woodford Farms, Simsbury, and other places.

End your foot troubles

Positive and Instant Relief with Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer

Straining and weakening of the muscles and ligaments that support the arch of the foot is the direct cause of most foot ailments. When these muscles and ligaments become weakened they allow the arch of the foot to sag and break down under the body's weight. Thousands of people are suffering from this condition without knowing the nature of their trouble. They only know that they have tired, aching, burning feet, weak ankles, pain in the legs and back, pain in the heel, cramped toes, corns, bunions, callouses, etc.

Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer is a scientifically made device that bridges the feet from heel to ball. It gently but firmly supports the arch—relieves all strain on the aching muscles and ligaments—instantly relieves all foot trouble. The Foot-Eazer is light in weight, springy and durably made. It is always comfortable. Being made of two finely tempered special silveroid springs, it is self-adjusting to any foot. It has just enough "give" to tone up the weakened muscles—thereby giving permanent relief. No larger shoes need be worn.

Call today and see our Foot Comfort Expert. Let him give you a free demonstration. You will be astonished at the relief and comfort you will receive from Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer and Foot Comfort Appliances.

Certain Relief from—

1. TIRED FEET. Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer immediately relieves the strain from overworked muscles.
2. WEAK ANKLES instantly strengthened by Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer.
3. PAIN IN THE LEGS AND BACK is often caused by foot trouble. This is instantly relieved by Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer.
4. RHEUMATISM is often caused by muscular strain in the foot. It is relieved by Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer at once.
5. PAIN IN THE HEEL. Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer equalizes the weight of the body and stops this pain immediately.
6. FLAT FOOT, WEAKENED ARCHES. The Foot-Eazer strengthens the sagging muscles and prevents flat-foot.
7. CRAMPED TOES. The Foot-Eazer holds the foot up in place and instantly relieves this condition.
8. CORNS, BUNIONS, CALLOUSES. Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer instantly removes the cause—(friction and pressure)—and gives quick, sure relief.

Utley & Jones
PHARMACISTS
145 Main St. Norwich, Conn.

WIDOW AWARDED $15.89 FOR $12 WEEKS

In a finding filed Monday with the clerk of the superior court in this city Compensation Commissioner James J. Donahue awards Mrs. Angelina Laura of No. 127 Elm street, New London, compensation for 312 weeks at the rate of $15.89 and $100 toward the funeral expenses of her husband's burial. She is the widow of William Laura who while employed by the Connecticut Power company of New London, suffered third degree burns as the result of an electric shock. He received the burns July 28 and died three days later.

COMPENSATION FOR FIVE INJURED EMPLOYES

The following compensation agreements were filed Monday with the clerk of the superior court in this city:

Babcock Printing Press Mfg. Co., New London and Allen F. Winters of Waterford; he received an injured finger August 3; compensation began August 11.

Millstone Granite Quarries, Millstone and Louis Fazio, Millstone; ends of three fingers crushed August 4th; compensation began August 12th.

Atwood Machine Co., Stonington and William Weber, Westerly; slight cut in left eye July 14th; compensation began July 22nd.

The Aspinook Co., Jewett City and Sam Kucupaboff, Packerville; hernia, date unknown; compensation began April 9th.

Rossie Velvet Co., Mystic, and Richard Schmidt, Mystic; secondary infection and abscess palm left hand, July 3rd; compensation began July 14th.

PAYS FINE FOR USING WRONG NUMBERS

Raymond J. Geer of Norwich paid $25 and costs, a total of $37.68 for driving his automobile without proper markers. His arrest came about when he was stopped by State Policeman Elton T. Nolan. It was stated that the young man was anxious to try out his new Buick and therefore took a chance and drove with the markers issued for the Ford automobile. The fine was given out by Judge Arthur F. Libby at the local police court session Monday.

Constande Trubenski, star witness for the state in the liquor violation case of Poselovski, was arrested Sunday for intoxication. He was in court Monday morning Judge Libby informing him that a man with seven children should not waste money in liquor. Trubenski was given a five day jail sentence, execution of judgment suspended providing he keeps dry for six months.

The cases against two local men were continued for one year after costs of $5 were paid. The charges were breach of the peace.

A Norwich man paid $5 fiat for violation of a city ordinance.

CIVIL WAR VETS TO HOLD REUNION TODAY

Veterans of the 26th Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, will assemble in Norwich today (Tuesday) for their annual reunion. The reunion which will include a business meeting and election of officers, will be held at Buckingham Memorial. Dinner will be served the civil war veterans by the members of Sedgwick Woman's Relief Corps, No. 16. The veterans of the 18th Connecticut Volunteers will be held Wednesday at Buckingham Memorial and the woman's relief corps will serve dinner.

RELIABLE PRESCRIPTION FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

When your stomach is upset from Gas, Acid, Indigestion or Nervousness, Professional Men have found that Pepsinio Seltzer is a most capable and pleasing corrective and if taken in the morning before breakfast and when a person is distressed it has a very remarkable effect. It is absolutely safe for everybody, including children. Pepsinio Seltzer can be obtained at Drug Stores. Take no substitutes.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

AUGUST SALE OF BLANKETS

It is a well known fact that Blankets are cheaper in August. It's because Manufacturers can better afford to sell their product reasonably than not to sell it at all. And the savings that we enjoy in buying we pass on to our customers. Check up and see just what you need in the way of Blankets and choose from our samples.

Cotton Blankets
White assorted colored borders. Size 64x76. $2.50 value—Sale Price $1.95

66x80 Plaid Blankets
Part wool, tan, blue, rose. $6.00 value—Sale Price $3.95

Gray Cotton Blankets
Colored border. Size 66x80. $2.98 value — Sale Price $2.69

Plaid Blankets
Size 66x80. Value $3.69— Sale Price $2.95
ENTIRE STOCK OF $9.00, $10.00 and $11.00 Blankets. Plaids and plain colors—Sale Price Pair $7.95

Gray Blankets
Size 72x82 Part Wool. Colored borders. $6.50 value— Sale Price $4.95
ENTIRE STOCK OF $12.50, $13.00 and $14.00 Blankets, plaids and plain colors—Sale Price..... $9.95

Men's Silk Hose
39c
MEN'S FANCY SILK, RAYON AND SILK AND FIBRE HOSE—Seconds of a regular dollar grade—Pair 39c

BOYS' FANCY CUFF HOSE
39c PAIR
A new purchase and sale of Boys' Fancy Cuff Hose. These are an exceptional value.

WOMEN'S RAINCOATS, $2.95
These Coats were made to sell for $5.00 and would be a good value at that price. Cemented and stitched seams, in colors of blue, red and green, with a corduroy lined collar.

POETRY

Gossip

A word was dropped in Hearsay's hall,
And Gossip stood nearby;
But Gossip did not let it fall,
She has a watchful eye!
Her saddled coursers waited near;
Each courier, booted, spurred,
Stood ready, with attentive ear,
To carry forth that word.

This word let fall in Hearsay's hall,
Just when the evening sun
Was fading from the western wall
And night had just begun,
Soon multiplied a thousandfold;
And long ere day had birth
In every clime it had been told,
And circled all the earth!
—Alonzo L. Rice.

Busy Flame

Oh, child, with what a will
You keep from being still!
How bonelessly you bend,
How tensely reascend—
Five fingers stretch, five fingers close,
One hand a starfish, one a rose.

My head is in a whirl
To see each antic curl
On yours point up and prance
An individual dance—
Wistful, I watch and never tire,
Still as a dog before the fire.
—Winfred Welles.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Tramp—Lady, could you give me something to eat?

Lady—My good man, have you no work?

Tramp—Kind lady, I am an artist.

Lady—What do you do in art?

Tramp—Kind lady, I make house-to-house canvasses.—Pathfinder.

"Look here," said the owner of the property, "you have no right to fish on this place. This is a private lake and I stocked it myself."

"Just a moment," said the trespasser calmly. "What did you stock it with?"

"With trout."

"That's all right, then," said the other with a flick of his rod, "I'm fishing for pike."—Boston Transcript.

Are you a fiction writer?
Yes, that's my business.
Oh, won't you think of a good name for my new police dog.—Life.

What did you do when your husband disapproved of your bathing suit?
Oh, I just laughed it off.—Life.

She (watching a friend disport on the beach)—Maud allows! nothing to dampen her spirits.
He—Oh her bathing suit.—Boston Transcript.

Robert—I've a question to ask you, Leo—All right, shoot.
Robert—If a boy is a lad and the lad had a stepfather—
Leo (deeply interested)—Go on.
Robert (walking away)—Does that make the lad a stepladder?—Washington Star.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Spiders have eight eyes.

There is no satisfactory way to remove freckles.

A waterproof cigarette case for swimmers has been invented.

Oysters and clams contain about 60 times as much iodine as beefsteak.

Sleet and ice cause more property damage than any other kind of storm.

The seafood menu of Hawaii includes 70 different kinds of marine algae.

A machine to measure the exact color of different kinds of hay has been invented to help local inspectors in the grading of hay.

A fruitless attempt to interest the British public in eating corn was made in the early nineteenth century by a British journalist.

Several new types of cotton have been discovered by three government plant experts who have just returned from the West Indies and South America.

Japanese motion picture censors deleted 837,000 meters of kissing, rioting and "other destructive actions" last year. That was, however, only 5 per cent of the film imported.

A letter mailed in 1914 to a former inhabitant of Lye, Worcestershire, England, was recently sent to the dead letter office for disposal. The man to whom it was addressed died 11 years ago.

A Moscow physician, A. G. Brainev, recently saved the life of a woman, who had drunk acid and was threatened with starvation through the contraction of her esophagus, by preparing an artificial tube out of skin taken from her chest and feeding her successfully through this.

Hundreds of persons killed in automobile accidents every year could have been saved from death had first aid been given the victims, according to the American Red Cross. Tourists are urged to carry in their cars a Red Cross first aid kit as a regular part of their emergency equipment.

MOTORED TO CAMP MERRITT IN HARTLAND

A party of 16 from East Great Plain motored Sunday to Camp Merritt in the town of Hartland to visit Miss Edna J. Maples of Norwich who is engaged there as camp nurse for the season. On the return trip the party encountered considerable traffic and on leaving East Hartford a count was taken of the cars met, which revealed an average of 50 per mile between that place and Colchester. As the party left Colchester for the Norwich turnpike a line of cars was still in evidence on the Hartford turnpike.

Cuticura Talcum
Unadulterated
Exquisitely Scented

CLOSE-OUT SALE OF
LAWN MOWERS
$8.50 Machine $7.00
$12.00 Machine $10.00
$15.00 Machine $12.50

THE HOUSEHOLD
Bulletin Bldg., 74 Franklin Street

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through The Bulletin.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXVIII—No. 197. POPULATION 29,865 NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1926. TEN PAGES—76 COLUMNS PRICE TWO CENTS

ATTITUDE OF WASHINGTON TOWARD THE MEXICAN GOV'T

President Coolidge Declares the United States Has No Authority Under International Law or Treaty Rights to Interfere in the Purely Domestic Matters of Mexico—Whenever the Rights of American Citizens Are Infringed in a Foreign Country the American Government Will Do What It Can to See They Are Duly Respected.

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Informed through a personal report by Secretary Kellogg of the state department of the last aspects of the Mexican situation, President Coolidge today authorized the reiteration that the policy of the Washington government was one of non-intervention in Mexican domestic affairs.

The government of the United States, it was said on behalf of the president at the summer executive offices, has no authority under diplomatic usage of international law or treaty rights to interfere in the purely domestic maters of Mexico.

Although Mr. Kellogg had come to White Pine camp prepared to report to Mr. Coolidge on his recent conference in Washington with James A. Flaherty, Supreme Knights of the Knights of Columbus, no direct reference was made in the statement of the government's position to the petition of that order at its Philadelphia meeting asking intervene to protect Catholic church men in their dispute with President Calles of Mexico.

Neither was there any reference to the position of James R. Sheffield, American ambassador to Mexico, who is enroute to the United States for a vacation and a personal report to his superiors on the situation in that country. There have been indications that Mr. Sheffield would like to see a stiffening of the Washington government's attitude in its oil lands controversy with Mexico. He is to confer with Mr. Kellogg in Washington next week but whether later he will come to the summer white house has not been announced.

Whenever the rights of American citizens as to their persons or property are infringed in a foreign country, it was made clear, the American government will do what it can to see they are duly respected.

Insofar as the religious controversy in Mexico is concerned, it was added, Secretary Kellogg has knowledge of but one specific complaint, as distinguished from any general complaint, concerning the taking of church property in Mexico. That specific complaint was lodged with Ambassador Sheffield, who, it was said, made representations to the Mexico city government and was informed that the case would be adjusted.

In reference to the oil lands controversy, which has been marked from time to time by the dispatch of notes from Washington to Mexico city, it was asserted that Mexico had made large concessions to the demands of the United States on this question but there still were a number of matters in this regard that have not been definitely determined.

The state department for the most part has conducted its oil lands correspondence with the Mexican foreign office without reference of many details to the white house, acting under a general policy laid down by President Coolidge that accords with the agreements entered into by the United States and Mexico three years ago as a condition of recognition by the United States of the Republic of the south.

As a general rule, it was said today, it is difficult to say whether American citizens have suffered indignities in Mexico as that is a broad term.

Some Americans have been expelled from Mexico, it was added, under article 33 of the Mexican constitution which gives to the government the right to expel foreigners. But whenever it has appeared that this authority has been used against Americans without any action on the part of the person against whom it has been used that would justify the use, it was added, it has been the practice of the American ambassador at Mexico city to intercede—sometimes successfully and sometimes unsuccessfully.

GAINES ON WITNESS STAND IN DEFENSE FOR MURDER

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Wallace Gaines, on trial here as the accused slayer of his daughter, Sylvia, 22 year old Smith college graduate, denied on the witness stand today his automobile was parked near the spot where she was slain the night of June 16.

The testimony was given to repudiate the story of Harry Wurster, an automobile mechanic, who testified Friday for the prosecution that he knew the car well and that he recognized it the night of the tragedy when he said it stood 30 yards from where Miss Gaines was beaten and choked to death on the shore of Green lake, in this city.

Gaines swore that about a week before Miss Gaines was slain, he and she stopped at about that place and purchased ice cream sodas while returning from a drive.

Explaining stains of blood on a shirt of his, the defendant told the jury he had cut his thumb and that he kept cigarettes in a pocket near which the marks occurred.

The witness admitted that from the time he entered the army during the World war until his daughter's death he drank heavily, but he declared himself a light drinker before his military service.

In his early cross-examination, Prosecutor Colvin failed to shake Gaines on his version of any detail. The defendant calmly answered each question, using about the same words he had in direct examination.

Colvin questioned him particularly about his familiarity with Green lake, near which the girl was killed, and his knowledge of Sylvia's acquaintanceship with young men. Gaines had previously said Sylvia had no men friends so far as he knew, except that she was writing to Thomas Lowe, formerly an instructor in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Gaines' explanation of an incident in a park near his home when policemen testified they found him and Sylvia early one morning 150 feet off the road in his roadster which was unlighted, was that he had stopped to wipe the windshield, and the patrolmen took him to a police station because they said there was an irregularity in his license plates.

SHOT IN BATTLE WITH POLICE IN LAWRENCE

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Caseloff Daniels of Methuen, was taken to Lawrence General hospital late today with four bullet wounds in his body after a revolver duel with two policemen here. His condition was said to be critical.

The police said Daniels appeared on Valley street flourishing a revolver and threatening to shoot the first police officer he saw. Patrolmen Sullivan and Busby responded to call from a citizen and attempted to arrest Daniels.

He fled when he saw the officers. Patrolman Sullivan caught him after a chase of several blocks but Daniels escaped after wrestling with the officer. While the policemen were chasing him a second time, Daniels turned and fired pointblank. The bullet grazed Sullivan's shoulder. The officer drew his gun and fired four times at Daniels, each bullet taking effect.

TWO MEN WERE CRUSHED BENEATH BLOCK OF GRANITE

MILFORD, Mass., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Ambrigio Pacciorelli, aged 43 years and Pietro Luchini, aged 59, quarrymen, are dead as the result of being pinned beneath a big block of granite which it is stated, slipped from the derrick at the Dodds Brothers quarry this afternoon. Pacciorelli died instantly and Luchini died on the way to a hospital.

Each left a wife and several children.

MARRIED IN AN AIRPLANE 5,000 FEET ABOVE NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—In an airplane 5,000 feet above Central park, Dr. Henry C. McKown, university professor and former army aviator, took Miss Ruth I. Hord, a Mount Pleasant, Tenn., school teacher, as his bride today.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leslie J. Barnett, of the Morningside Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by W. H. McMullen, pilot of the plane, and Miss Elizabeth Worack of Pittsburgh, a friend of the bride.

The plane took off from Curtiss field about 4 o'clock and landed there again safely three-quarters of an hour later. After reaching the 5,000-foot altitude, the pilot shut off the motor and the words of the marriage ceremony were plainly heard by the plane's five occupants.

Dr. McKown, who served as an aviator in France, is assistant professor of secondary education in the University of Pittsburgh. The couple left by boat for Bermuda.

WAITRESS AT BLOCK ISLAND WAS KILLED BY A FALL

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Hazel Wilson, of this city, 18 year old waitress at a Block Island summer hotel, was fatally injured when trying to climb from a boat to the dock at the resort Sunday night, it was learned late today. Her death is ascribed purely to accident by doctors who attended her and by the island coroner, but state police are investigating persistent reports that a woman was fatally shot during a party on a yacht at about the same time.

Miss Wilson is said to have been invited to a party on the-yacht Pericanna of New York, by two members of the crew. To reach the Pericanna's deck they had to cross another craft tied up at the dock, and while doing so, were warned not to board the Pericanna. Turning about, Miss Wilson is said to have started back the narrow gangplank to the wharf and to have fallen onto a stanchion, breaking her back. She died this morning at the hotel where she had worked.

STANDS BY CHALLENGE FOR ENDURANCE SWIM IN OCEAN

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 17.—(AP)—An endurance swim in the open ocean with no distance limit would be more to the liking of Henry L. Sullivan, first American to swim the English channel, than a race across that 21 mile tretch of water in accordance with a challenge made today by Gertrude Ederle.

"I don't care to say anything definite at this time about Miss Ederle's challenge," he said today. "I haven't the $20,000 to put up. I do stand ready to back my own challenge made at Chiswick Baths in London after my successful crossing. I am ready at any time to meet any man or woman without regard to race or color for a $10,000 purse in a swim to a finish in the open ocean. I have repeated that challenge in every large city in the United States and Canada."

COMMISSIONERS NAMED AT EXPOSITION AT SEVILLE

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Commissioners were named today by President Coolidge to the International Exposition at Seville, Spain, next April, for American participation in which congress has approximated $200,000.

Those named were former Governer Thomas E. Campbell of Arizona, Miss Agnes Reppller of Philadelphia, Mrs. Fred W. Upham of Chicago, John F. O'Brien of Plattsburgh, N. Y., George Cameron of California, and Roderick Matson of Wyoming.

An attempt to smuggle $10,000 worth of lace through Quebec was frustrated despite a $500 bribe offer.

CABLED PARAGAPHS

PARIS, Augs 17—(AP)—The Continental Steel and Iron trust which was expected to come into being on Saturday last is hanging fire. The combination was expected to include the industrial interests of France, Belgium, Germany and Luxembourg.

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy, Aug. 17—(AP)—Roberto Farinacci, former secretary general of the fascist party and for some time a stormy petrel in fascist politics, publicly slapped the face of the Marquis of Bonaccorsi, who immediately challenged him to a duel.

NAPLES, Italy, Aug. 17—(AP)—Mt. Vesuvius, which was in eruption during the latter part of July, has resumed activity, several fresh streams of lava flowing down its sides. Flames were visible all last night and a steady rumbling was heard. There is no danger of a serious eruption.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 17—(AP)—Two reports have been received here of discoveries of ancient buried cities. The first of these, a Maya city was found near the village of Santa Elean, in the state of Chiatas by a government scientific party, and the other is said to have been discovered on a ranch, near Jutiahuaca, in the state of Guerrero.

ATHENS, Aug. 17—(AP)—A new plot to overturn the government has been discovered, according to the afternoon papers, among politicians and army officials. Former Premier George Kafandaris has again been arrested and police are seeking General Kondilis and General Panayotopoulos. The mayor of Pireaus has been also arrested as well as a number of army officers.

BINGHAM TO BE EULOGIST AT NATHAN HALE ANNIVERSARY

HARTFORD, Aug. 17.—(AP)—United States Hiram Bingham will be the eulogist at exercises in observance of the 150th anniversary of the death of Nahtan Hale, Connecticut's martyr patriot, on September 22, at the capitol, under the auspices of the state committee appointed by the governor.

His speech, with others including that of Governor Trumbull and members of the committee will be broadcast by raulo to make the ceremonies here the center of statewide and national observances by communities, schools and patriotic groups.

Nathan Hale has become a national hero, N. Searle Light, director of rural education said in making announcement of the plans today for Commissioner of Education Albert B. Meredith, a member of the committee. Fully as many organizations outside of the state as in, he said, will observe the anniversary and the committee had this in mind in arranging this state's official program.

While the date of the observance comes a short time after opening of the school year, he added the committee feels that each school will have opportunity to plan ceremonies. The program at the capitol has been set for 1:30 p. m., and it is expected that this time will not interfere with arrangements made by various localities in the state for special programs, he said.

The governor's committee includes Congressman Schuyler Merritt, of Stamford, State Treasurer Ernest E. Rogers, of New London, Commissioner of Education Albert B. Meredith, Dr. George Dudley Seymour and Carl Northrup, of New Haven.

RECEIVED $30,000 FOR ADDING RUM RUNNERS

BEACH HAVEN, N. J., Aug. 17.—(AP)—An unnamed member of the coast guard received $30,000 for aiding rum runners, according to an alleged confession of Chief Boatswain's Mate J. Edward Falkenburg, commander of the Shipbottom station, who is being tried by court martial for permitting rum-runners to operate.

Captain M. W. Rasmussen, superintendent of the fifth district, testifying at Falkenburg's trial today, said the accused man also admitted receiving $100 for transporting eight cases of liquor across Barnegat bay in a coast guard boat.

The confession was made by Falkenburg, Captain Rasmussen told the court, during investigations last month, which resulted in the arrests of eleven members of the service.

MISS EDERLE WILLING TO MEET ALL COMERS

BISSINGER, Germany, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Miss Gertrude Ederle, the American girl, who recently swam the English channel from shore to shore establishing a new record, is ready to meet all comers in a contest against those turbulent waters for a purse of $20,000.

Miss Ederle, who is visiting her grandmother at this place, thus informed the Associated Press today. This was her answer to the criticism by some continental and London newspapers of her remarkable achievement, they charging that she had accomplished the swim only with the aid of tugs.

INJURIES PROVED FATAL TO HAZARDVILLE MAN

HAZARDVILLE, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Injuries received a few days ago when he fell between a team of horses he was driving on a tobacco farm here, today proved fatal to Myron H. Bush, 52, who died in the Johnson Memorial hospital in Stafford Springs. Bush was adjusting the reins on the horses when he lost his balance, fell and was trampled by the team. He was a native of Springfield, Mass., and is survived by a widow and two children.

$50,000 SUIT OUTCOME OF AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 17—(AP)—The accident on West Boylston street July 21 in which three men met death through high tension wires when an automobile struck a pole has resulted in a suit for $50,000 being filed in superior court against the New England Power company by Alvrid Gotha, administrator of the estate of Albert Gotha who was killed when he went to the aid of the occupants of the car.

ACTRESS MAUDE FULTON HAS BEEN GRANTED DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Maude Fulton, playwright and actress on the speaking stage, was granted a divorce in superior court today from Robert M. Ober, actor. Testimony supporting a charge of cruelty and neglect was heard.

Miss Fulton and Ober were married Dec. 20, 1920.

Plan Investigation of Graft in B[illegible]on Reports Involve[illegible] Officials and Cont[illegible]s in Conspiracy.

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)— District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien has begun an investigation of reports that certain Boston city officials and contractors have engaged in a conspiracy that would result in a loss of $2,000,000 to the city in the next three years. The district attorney announced today that he had taken the first steps in an investigation in the course of which he expected to call before him Mayor Nichols, four city councillars, the public wroks commissioner and others.

Mr. O'Brien already had conferred with Chief Justice Walter Perley Hall of the superior court with relation to the possible summoning of a special session of the grand jury. Such a course, he said, must await developments.

The active complainants who have brought the matter to the attention of Mr. O'Brien are contractors whose bids, although the lowest, were rejected. One has published and circulated a pamphlet, in which serious charges were made against city officials. The district attorney has already taken steps to investigate the fraud charges. He has conferred with Charles Keene, who as chairman of the city council has been acting as mayor in the absence of Mayor Nichols. Guy C. Emerson, chief engineer of the finance commission has also conferred with Mr. O'Brien.

Other persons may be examined, he said, indicating that the investigation might assume a wide scope. Snow removal contracts and the purchase of fire apparatus, he indicated, would figure in the investigation.

HAD BEEN A DRIFT IN SMALL BOAT MORE THAN 24 HOURS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 17.—(AP)—"I prayed as I never played before and thank God I am on land once more."

These were the words of Gordon White, 16 year old son of Wilfred L. White, Boston compass manufacturer, as he greeted newspaper men at the coast guard base this afternoon after being rescued off Beach Haven by the CG-115. He had been adrift in a small boat for more than 24 hours and little hope was held out for his rescue.

The youth was one of a party of 13 students of the Tabor Academy, Mercer, Mass., who came to the resort last night on the Cabin Cruiser Tabor Boy, a 30-footer. When the craft was within 200 feet of Brigantine Beach a sudden squall broke and a small tender, with Young White aboard snapped a tow line and drifted out to sea.

It was the same heroic spirit that tempted the Bay State boy to leave the cruiser in order to save the smaller craft that remained with him during the lonely hours of the night.

Commander H. G. Hemingway in charge of the local base as the sturdy coast guard official grasped his hand said: "You are to be congratulated, because you are a good sailor and were not afraid of death."

It was Commander Hemingway who ordered the officers and crews of CG-112 and 223 and 215 to proceed to sea and search for the youth who had been missing since 6:40 last night. White was located after being picked up by the "Pequod," a fishing craft that found the youth floating in the water-filled dingy 12 miles east of Beach Haven shortly after 1:30 P. M. today.

CONDITION OF RUDOLPH VALENTINO UNCHANGED

NEW YORK, Aug. 17—(AP)—Despite a rise in his temperature tonight the condition of Rudolph Valentino, motion picture star, was reported "unchanged" in a bulletin issued by three surgeons who operated on him Sunday for appendicitis and gastric ulcers.

An earlier bulletin said that the star had passed a fairly satisfactory day at the Polyclinic hospital, to which he was rushed after collapsing in his apartment Sunday night. No mention of local peritonitis which set in following the operation, and made Valentino's chances of recovery doubtful, was contained in tonight's bulletin. The crisis is not expected before from 36 to 48 hours.

Valentino's temperature rose when night came, but physicians said this was not cause for undue anxiety. Early this evening his temperature was reported as 103, respiration 26 and pulse 108. During the day his temperature was 101 1-2, pulse 100, and respiration 22.

All visitors are still barred from the patient's room. Even Joseph Schenck, film producer who has the star under contract and holds a $1,000,000 insurance policy on his life, and his wife, Norma Talmadge, were refused admittance today.

Valentino's former wife, Jean Acker, sent a telegram saying she expected to leave for Europe Friday but would endeavor to see him before she sails.

WEST HAVEN MAN WAS FATALLY INJURED BY AUTO

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 17.—(AP)—William Frey, 55, of 42 Fourth avenue, West Haven, was fatally injured tonight when he was struck by an automobile operated by Raymond A. Brown, of 176 York street, this city, supervisor of traffic of the Southern New England Telephone company. Frey was employed by the Seamless Rubber company and had just left the plant and was crossing Hallock avenue when the accident occurred. He died of a fractured skull while being taken to New Haven hospital.

Brown claims that Frey stepped out from behind another automobile and into the path of his machine. He was arrested on a charge of reckless driving and was released under $500 pending an investigation by the coroner.

ENACTED SCENES OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Hundreds of school children from recreational schools and playgrounds of the city enacted scenes of the Revolutionary war on the Green today in the sixteenth annual playground and recreational school pageant. The pageant this year commemorated the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

More About Abortive Revolt of Mexicans

Warrants for Arrest of Persons Who Ordered Armored Motor Trucks.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 17—(AP)—More arrests in connection with the proposed revolutionary movement in Lower California—nipped last Sunday with the arrest of nearly 200 men—were imminent tonight.

Warrants charging neutrality violations are to be issued against the persons who ordered construction of two armored motor trucks for participating in the revolt, Lucien Wheeler, chief agent of the department of justice, said. Department agents todays identified these persons after uncovering another war-equipped truck in a Hollywood garage.

The truck was similar to one seized Sunday night when General Enrique Estrada and his "command" were taken near San Diago.

Other information tending to disprove the first belief of federal agents that the round-up of Estrada and his men had cleaned up the alleged revolutionary movement was in the hands of the federal operatives, it was learned today. Information was obtained indicating that a second movement had been contemplated from Imperial valley, presumably in co-ordination with Estrada, but that it had disbanded when word of Estrada's arrest was received.

While search was being made for reported caches of reserve munitions supposedly in or near Los Angeles, federal agents were making efforts to determine what method of financing was behind the movement of Estrada, who formerly was secretary of war in the Mexican cabinet.

TESTIMONY ABOUT SCENE OF HALL-MILLS SLAYING

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 17.—(AP)—A dozen witnesses were called by the state today to establish proof that Henry De La Bruyere Carpender and Willie Stevens should be held for the murders of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills in September 1922.

William J. O'Rourke, of New Brunswick, whose testimony, State Senator Simpson, special prosecutor, said was "of tremendous import," told of seeing three persons in Derussey's lane, near the Phillips farm, on the outskirts of New Brunswick, shortly before the time the state has fixed for the murders.

The man, O'Rourke said, "Looked like Dr. Hall." A woman standing beside the short, heavy man in dark clothes resembled Mrs. Mills, he believed. Another and larger woman, who seemed to be berating the others, he could not identify. He said he did not know if it were Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the rector's widow now at liberty on $15,000 bail charged with the murders.

Under cross-examination, O'Rourke was asked if Derussey's lane were not a noted trysting place for lovers and if he had gone into it. He replied that "There were so many lovers in there that there wasn't room for me to go in." This brought loud laughter from the crowd in the court room and County Judge Cleary, sitting as a committing magistrate, ordered the court room cleared of all but interested parties.

"People who have no more brains than to laugh at a murder hearing should not come into court," he said, banging his gavel. The crowd, after its ejection, sat on the steps of the court house and waited for news of the hearing.

LIQUOR ADS BARS ENGLISH MAGAZINE FROM THE U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17—(AP)—A tentative decision barring an English magazine from the United States because it contains an advertisement for alcoholic liquor was made known today by custom officials.

A section of the national prohibition law which makes it illegal to advertise "anywhere, or by any means, the manufacture, sale, keeping for sale or furnishing" of liquor was cited by Edward Barnes, acting solicitor of the customs office. He said that the magazine "The Key to London," published by the American Information bureau, was temporarily barred as an "illegal importation" pending a final decision by federal authorities, because it told where, in England, one might buy a certain brand of cherry brandy.

The only publications exempt from the ruling, he said, were "newspapers published in foreign countries when mailed to this country." The barred magazine was neither a newspaper, nor was it mailed, arriving here in 1,000 copy lots in packing cases, he said.

Federal Attorney Buckner, to whom the matter will first be referred for a decision, is out of the city. Major Chester P. Mills, federal district prohibition enforcement director, is also out of town, but an official of his office said that he did not believe the director would issue an opinion on the matter.

SPINNERS FORM AMERICAN COTTON YARN ASSOCIATION

MANCHESTER, England, Aug. 17—(AP)—The formation of a limited company to be known as the "American Cotton Yarn association was decided upon at a mass meeting of spinners today. This organization will have as its object control of the prices of American yarns to prevent their being sold at a loss.

Two hundred and thirty-three companies with more than 19,000,000 spindles are uniting in adherence to this scheme, comprising 78 per cent of the total trade.

The spinners will become shareholders in the association according to the number of spindles they control, and penalties will be provided for the members failing to observe the association's standard of minimum prices.

It is hoped to provide for a reasonable profit and to raise a fund to prevent unfair competition from firms outside the combine.

NEW HAVEN MAN DEAD, DEEP RIVER MAN INJURED

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 17.—(AP)—John Phelan, of View street, this city, was fatally injured and Francis O'Leary, of Deep River, was serious hurt when an automobile in which the two men were riding collided with a trolley car at James and State streets.

Phelan died on the way to the New Haven hospital. O'Leary is suffering from a fracture at the base of the skull and [illegible] the danger list.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

James R. Sheffield, American ambassador to Mexico, will confer with Secretary Kellogg of the state department in Washington Aug. 25.

Exports of grains from the United States totalled 6,100,000 bushels for the week ending Aug. 14, as compared with 6,451,000 the week before.

Search is being made for Hoseman James E. Moran of Engine Company number 14, New Haven, who has not been heard from since Friday night.

Cornfield Shoal Lightship which swings at anchor off the mouth of the Connecticut river in Long Island sound was hit by the freight steamer Boston.

Policeman Richard Connelly, of the Howard avenue station, New Haven, was injured when he was struck by an automobile operated by Frank Palmisano.

Funeral services for Charles G. R. Vinal, former secretary of state and former mayor of Middletown who died Saturday, were held from his home in High street.

Every citizen of Worcester is credited by the assessors with being worth $1,640, the total valuation being $323,265,700. The per capita increase in ten years is $584.

Two Americans who landed in Canada with an airplane were arrested by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, fined, and their plane seized when they failed to report to immigration authorities.

The Boston & Maine was granted an extension until next October 1, by the interstate commerce commission in which to install automatic train control devices on certain sections of its line.

The will of Thomas W. Cutting, who died in Bridgeport, Aug. 3, was admitted to probate. An estate estimated at $50,000 has been divided by percentages among a long list of relatives and friends.

Improvement in the condition of U. S. Senator Bert M. Fernald, who is ill at his home in West Poland, Me., was noted by his physician. Senator Fernald's illness has been diagnosed as intestinal poisoning.

Nearly 3,000 members and delegates were present for the opening session in Cromwell of the sixth annual summer conference of the Swedish Young People's federation which will continue through Sunday.

The supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias voted in Chicago to recognize as a junior order the Princes of Syracuse which will be call the Pythian Princes. The fraternity is for boys from 14 to 21.

The Standard Oil company of New Jersey yesterday advanced the price of kerosene for export one quarter of a cent a gallon. Standard white kerosene in cases is now 19.65 cents a gallon and water white, 21.15 cents.

The Continental Steel and Iron trust which was expected to come into being on Saturday last is hanging fire. The combination was expected to include the industrial interests of France, Belgium, Germany and Luxembourg.

An unidentified man picked up alongside the Boston Post road near Adams corner, Second Beach, in an unconscious condition Friday night, died in the Greenwich hospital. Death was caused by a fractured skull.

Choosing marriage rather than $100,000, Miss Marie Kryl, of Chicago, daughter of Bohumir Kryl, noted violinist and composer, is busy purchasing her trousseau for her coming marriage to a titled Greek nobleman.

Roberto Farinacci, former secretary general of the fascist party and for some time a stormy petrel in fascist politics, publicly slapped the face of the Marquis of Bonaccorsi, who immediately challenged him to a duel.

The condition of three men injured in an explosion at the Landers, Frary and Clark factory in New Britain, remained unchanged last night, according to a report from the New Britain General hospital where the men were taken.

The body of William Ostrander, 48, of Brookfield, who had been missing since last Saturday, was found today in the Brookfield woods with the head nearly blown from the body. Near the body a shot gun lay, indicating that the man ended his own life.

Mt. Vesuvius, which was in eruption during the latter part of July, has resumed activity, several fresh streams of lava flowing down its sides. Flames were visible all last night and a steady rumbling was heard. There is no danger of a serious eruption.

Condemnation proceedings will be brought by the Greenwich Water company, it was indicated last night, for the acquisition of land on both sides of the Mianus river above the proposed dam of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company.

Dillon, Read and Co., New York Bankers, have acquired a financial interest in Germany's largest bank, the Diskonto Gesellschaft will increase its capital by 35,000,000 gold marks, of which 10,000,000 marks has been acquired by Dillon, Read & Co.

Edwin A. Olson, district attorney, of Chicago, denied the report made yesterday that his office and that of E. C. Yellowley, prohibition administrator, were planning wholesale action against merchants who sell stills and other paraphernalia for the manufacture of liquor.

A postcard mailed by a friend in Ellinburg Center, N. Y., on Aug. 10, 1909, has just been received by Mrs. Clara Coopes Marion of Oliver street, East Hampton, Mass. Mrs. Marion had to pay the increase in the postage fee of one cent before she could receive the card.

Two reports have been received here of discoveries of ancient buried cities. The first of these, a Maya city was found near the village of Santa Elean, in the state of Chiatas by a government scientific party, and the other is said to have been discovered on a ranch, near Jutiahuaca, in the state of Guerrero.

A new plot to overturn the government of Greece has been discovered, according to the afternoon papers, among politicians and army officials. Former Premier George Kafandaris has again been arrested and police are seeking General Kondilis and General Panayotopoulos. The mayor of Pireaus has been also arrested as well as a number of army officers.

POLICEMAN CLAIMS ALIBI FOR A MURDER SUSPECT

Patrolman Streittenberg Avers that Louis Mazer Held in Connection With Murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton Publisher, Was With Him at the Time the Murder Was Committed—Mazer is Being Grilled by Authorities in Cleveland.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Patrolman Streitenburg said tonight that he was prepared to give testimony that will be a complete alibi for Louis Mazer, charged with the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher. Streitenburg is attending the fraternal convention here.

Mazer, he declared, was with him from midnight until nearly 1 o'clock and at no time during that hour was within 20 blocks of the scene of the murder.

"Louis Mazer is innocent of the murder of Don Mellett," Streitenberger declared. "He was at my home from midnight until 12:50 o'clock or 12:55 a. m., the night of the killing and I will do anything I can to clear him."

SUSPECTED MAN WAS ON VERGE OF BREAKING DOWN

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Louis Mazer, Canton vice-lord, charged with the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, throughout hours of grilling today shouted defiance at his inquisitors. He stoutly denies any connection with the crime.

Several times during the day Mazer was reported on the verge of a break down. Upon occasion he wept. Generally he shot back at his accusers, "The man lies."

His erstwhile business companion, Carl Studer, called "Crown Prince of the Jungles", in Canton, was tight-lipped declaring: "I'll lie in this cell until I rot before I make any confession."

Both men are held here on federal charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law. Their arrest yesterday was admittedly a ruse to get them into custody away from Canton's allegedly corrupt political atmosphere, although Joseph R. Roach, Chicago, "clean-up" attorney, says he has an "air tight" liquor conspiracy case against the pair.

Evidence with which Mazer was confronted included:

Testimony by Steven Kascholk "informed" against Mazer and others, that Mazer was an employer of the men who were designated to "get" Mellett.

Identification by Kascholk of Mazer's automobile as the car in which he was taken to the Mellett home to look over the scene of the intended murder.

Identification by Kascholk of a police dog belonging to Doll Carey, known in Canton's underworld as "Louis Mazer's Woman," as one of the occupants in the automobile on that occasion.

Evidence that the white-handled revolver of peculiar foreign make, from which the fatal bullet is believed to have been discharged, was owned by Mazer.

An affidavit signed by Norman Clark, Canton attorney, that his life was threatened by Mazer who accused him of "talking too much about the murder."

Mazer's own admission that he was in the neighborhood of the Mellett home near the hour of the murder and that he visited the home of Patrolman Streitenberg between 11:30 p. m. and 1:30 a. m. Mellett was slain at about 12:15 a. m.

For a moment this morning it looked as if Mazer were on the verge of a confession, but the nervousness he exhibited was later attributed to the shock he received when confronted for the first time with information that he faces a first degree murder warrant.

"Louis, what is the matter?" Mazer's 62 year old mother cried.

"It's a lie; I didn't do it." Mazer screamed.

A moment later, when confronted by Studer, Mazer said.

"Studer knows I didn't do it."

District Attorney A. E. Bernstein farily pounced upon the remark. "Then Studer knows who did do it," he shouted. Bernstein began grilling Studer and Mazer was whisked into another room where Joseph R. Roach, Chicago criminal attorney, Detectives Ora Slater and George V. Armstrong, Cincinnati, and Acting Chief of Police Earl W. Herhammer, Canton, proceeded to question him.

Bernstein announced he would hold Mazer until tomorrow for further questioning.

Mazer and Studer thereupon were taken to the Cuyahoga county jail for the night.

Indicted in Canton a grand jury of eight women and seven men, already convened, was held in readiness to consider the evidence against Mazer and others he may implicate.

Meanwhile Andrew Pretsky, Akron, gave himself up to United States Marshall George A. Stauffer, when he learned he was wanted on a liquor conspiracy charge. Pretsky is alleged to have had a part in conveying liquor from Cleveland to Canton and is reported to have overheard a drunken many say:

"Mellett is going to get bumped off."

20TH CENTURY VIKINGS ARE VISITING NEWPORT

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Four twentieth century Vikings today visited scenes described by tradition as the haunts of norse seafarers of 900 years ago. Captain Gerhard Folgero who with three shipmates crossed the ocean in a little ship modelled on Elit Erickson's tenth century craft, came here today and made a Pilgrimage to the Old Norse mill.

Historians differ as to the origin of the ancient stone structure on Touro park but tradition ascribes it to the hardy Vikings who crossed the Atlantic in tiny ships centuries before the settlement of America. The "Old Stone Mill" socalled, is a circular building two stories in height, standing on masonry columns. The upper part has been pierced for windows. Writers who have rejected the story of its Viking origin have advanced the theory that it was erected by the earliest settlers as a corn mill, or as a watch tower to guard against Indian forays.

48 POUND CHERRY PIE AT SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 17.—(AP)—An immense cherry pie, measuring 30 inches in diameter and four inches in depth, weighing 46 pounds and containing 5,000 cherries, was presented to the President and Mrs. Coolidge today from the cherry growers of Michigan.

The pie was baked in Traverse City, Mich., Saturday night and brought here under high speed in an automobile by Wallace H. Keep of that city, who was student at Amherst with Mr. Coolidge, and Hugh Burkhart, a cherry grower of that region.

The two reported they were held up in Canada by a police officer for speeding but were permitted to proceed when they explained their mission and urged considerations of international comity.

WOOL COUNCIL OF AMERICA WAS ORGANIZED IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Wool Council of America, organized to popularize the use of woolen and worsted goods, was formed today at a meeting here. Temporary officers chosen included Alban Eavanson, Philadelphia Wool and Textile association, chairman, and Walter Humphreys, National association of wool manufacturers and selling agents had sat down together to formulate a plan for the improvement of the wool industry. The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of five to arrange for a permanent organization.

"LOVE AND AFFECTION" OF AN UNSTATED AMOUNT

HARTFORD, Aug. 17—(AP)—"Love and affection," of an amount not stated was given to Harry Lassman, 33 Milford street, last September by his wife Anna Lassman, in consideration for a half interest in a certain piece of Bristol real estate valued at several thousand dollars, Lassman is a partner in the Modern laundry, which is now in bankruptcy, and his creditors maintain that the property should be listed among his assets. John Markham, counsel for the trustee, has been instructed to get aside the transfer, if it is proven that Lassman was insolvent when he deeded the property to his wife.

CHIMPANZEES RAISED RUCTION ON SHIPBOARD

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The second mate was minus a cap, the ship's library was in tatters and the temper of the crew was in a similar condition when the Steamer West Irmo arrived today from African ports with a miscellaneous cargo and three wild chimpanzees from the Belgian Congo destined for a New York Zoo.

Captain Arthur W. Phillips gave the passengers the freedom of the ship and an hour out of Matadi found his shoes in the wastebasket with the laces chewed to shreads. Jimmie and Mike, eldest of the three, discovered that books could be torn and liberated in an interesting shower of paper from the stern. The library suffered severely until the visitors turned their attention to clothing. Neckties blossomed all over the ship and the crowning touch came two days out when the second mate reached the rail two jumps behind Jimmie and three behind his best hat as it sailed into a gently heaving sea.

NO KNOWLEDGE OF $100,000,000 FUND FOR AGRICULTURE

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—No official confirmation was forthcoming in Wall street today to reports that bankers and members of President Coolidge's official family would soon confer on a plan that would afford agricultural relief to the farmer through a $100,000,000 credit fund. President Coolidge at his summer camp in the Adirondacks, made it known today he had no knowledge of any reported conference which has stirred up great interest in financial circles.

Members of the firm of J. P. Morgan and Co., indicated they had received no invitation to a conference while all bankers agreed that until an official invitation was received they did not care to discuss any reported plan for farm relief.

"If we are asked to confer on a plan to aid the farmer," said a member of one of the big banking houses, "we should certainly do so and we would lend every effort we could, consistent with economic conditions, to remedy the situation of the farmer in the west."

CHANGES IN COAST GUARD DIVISION COMMANDERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Orders were received at the barge office today transferring two coast guard division commanders and retiring another.

Captain George C. Carmine, who has been in command of the New York division, is ordered to Boston and his place will be taken by Captain Andrew J. Henderson, present commander at Norfolk, Va., Captain P. H. Uberroth, in command at Boston will etire from the service under the age limitation.

ESCAPE OF PRISONER SERVING LIFE TERM

STATESVILLE, Ills., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Clarence Langford, 38, serving a life term for murder, sawed his way out of his cell in the new penitentiary here last night and escaped.

Langford was believed at first to be hiding inside the walls but he could not be found after a long search.

Several months ago seven convicts escaped from this prison after slaying a deputy warden. All but one were recaptured.

WILLIMANTIC

Office, 894 Main St. Telephone 1193-2.

TRAFFIC VIOLATION CASES ARE NOLLED IN CITY COURT

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 17.—Trial of cases of violations of the traffic ordinances in which three local jitneymen, Harold Connors, Stokes Watson and Eddie Alibozek were defendants, were resumed in police court this morning, having been continued from last week. All cases were proved to be of a technical nature and in recommendation of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Frank P. Fenton, Deputy Judge Russell A. Andrews nolled all three, on the payment of costs of $5.15 each. The three men were charged with parking their cars for more than the time limit of fifteen minutes allowed on Railroad street. Connors, a driver on the Willimantic-Hartford Jitney association line was represented by Attorney W. A. King who pointed out that it took some time to unload passengers and baggage from the busses. It was stated that action to remedy this situation in regard to the short time allowed for loading and unloading, would be taken up at the next meeting of the common council.

The case of Nathan Pollack of Gurleyville, charged with passing an alleged fraudulent check on E. Phillips of South Windham Road, July 15, was continued for one week. Pollack is under bonds of $1,000. His arrest was made by County Detective Jackson and Captain of Police McLean. The check was for $60 drawn on a Hartford bank in payment for some [illegible]

MOTHER TOOK HER BABY BACK TO HARTFORD

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Aug. 17.— In chambers adjoining police court, the case of Gladys Lajoie, 25, of Hartford, was heard this morning with the main evidence presented by Miss Elizabeth Anderson, secretary of the Welfare Bureau. The Lajoie woman left her baby in care of Mrs. Peter Stone of 41 Bank street, this city. This was more than five weeks ago and the mother failed to live up to an agreement to pay seven dollars a week for the support of the child. Nor had the mother visited the child since leaving it in her care, according to Mrs. Stone, who complained to the authorities. The Lajoie woman agreed to settle with Mrs. Stone whatever amount was due and after being placed on probation until the money is paid she returned to Hartford with her child. The Lajoie woman is employed in a theatre in Hartford.

Talk of the Rotary Fall Conclave, one of the events of the year which will be held at the Hotel Aspinwall, Lenox, Mass., the last three days of September, gave indications, at the weekly luncheon of the Willimantic Rotary club, Tuesday noon that a large number is planning to attend. President James P. Bath who presided appointed the following an Onto-Lenox committee: James P. Mustard, chairman; Aime J. Martineau, Roland B. Jordan, Edward G. Kenney and Jerry J. Sullivan. Three guests present at the meeting were, A. W. Bryan, Rotarian of Hartford, Carl Eriksson, Rotarian of Ridgefield Park, N. J., and Daniel Daley, manager of the Nathan Hale hotel. Noting that thirtieth anniversary of their wedding, cigars were received from Professor and Mrs. Richard E. Dodge and presented by Secretary G. E. Loisell, on behalf of the givers. In reporting for the Committee on Overworked, Harry Blanchette called attention to the return of the Ministerial Trio, Parson Arthur Wheelock, Justice George E. Hinman and "Y" Secretary Albert Smith, who have been on vacation. Harry Standish reported for the Boomerang committee and was followed by remarks by Justice Hinman. Hotel Manager Daley expressed his thanks for the manner in which he was being received since arriving in the city and complimented the business men of Willimantic on their co-operative spirit. The session adjourned at 1 o'clock.

Herbert K. Sparrel, of West Brookfield, Mass., was charged in Mansfield Town court Tuesday morning with failure to give the right of way to an approaching automobile. He pleaded guilty and Justice of the Peace George E. Andrews imposed a fine of five dollars and costs, totalling $17.30. Sparrel drove a Dodge coupe which collided with a Ford touring car operated by Paul Belanger of 23 Valley extension, this city, at The Ridges in Mansfield at 6:45 o'clock Tuesday morning. There was no evidence of reckless driving, as Sparrel's car, headed for Stafford, had skidded on the wet road and slid against the Ford, which was headed toward this city. There were no personal injuries, but the Ford was damaged from the collision and had to be hauled to this city by a wrecker. The damage centered about the rear end and top. The left rear mudguard was ripped off and bumper damaged on the Bay State machine. Sparrel assumed all responsibility.

The closing of the August festival for the benefit of St. Mary's church, South Coventry, at Lakeside park, and to be postponed one day on account of the rain, it was announced Tuesday by Rev. Dennis F. Moran, pastor of the church. Vaudeville acts, novelties and dancing to music by Lyman's orchestra of Columbia were the attractions which drew a large crowd Tuesday evening. The trolley car made special trips between this city and South Coventry for the accommodation of festival-goers.

Given good weather, Willimantic Country club links will be a busy place next Thursday afternoon when 16 members of the Stafford Springs Country club are to engage in a big match game with the local players. When they met in Stafford several weeks ago Stafford was victorious in a closely contested match. Next Sunday the second tourney for local players will be held to select the team which will oppose the Norwich golfers, Sept. 4. In the first of the two tourneys William H. Nichols and Dow Ahern tied for low gross scores, which 81 each, while the latter made a low net score of 69, having a handicap of 12. Favorable progress is being made in the sale of tickets for the lawn fete which is to be held at the club house.

Mrs. Harry W. Standish entertained at her home, 325 Prospect street on a recent afternoon for the seventh birthday of her daughter, Harriet Wilmarth Standish. Luncheon was served on the lawn amid decorations of pink and yellow. Rose baskets filled with bon bons were distributed as favors. Prizes were awarded winners in the games. Present were, Phyllis Jordan, Margaret and Peggy Riordan, Ann Louise Little, Ruth O'Neill, Hilda Emma Hendry, Dorothy Gifford, Dorcas Harrington, Shirley Burleson, Phyllis Sharpe, Clara Bond, Patricia Curtis, Ruth Elinor Moxon, Lorraine Searles, Pearl Emmons, Barbara Fenton, Bond Welch, Porter Little, Robert Greer, Billy Kenney, John Reynolds, Clayton Lathrop, Roland Peckham, Robert Barrows, Lois and Phyllis Savage and Marvis and Wilmarth Starr of Springfield, Mass.

Five cases of reckless driving, involving the drivers of the two Mack trucks which plunged down embankments at the foot of Bolton Hill last Wednesday morning and three other truck drivers who coasted down the hill and were detected by state policemen doing traffic duty at the site of the accident, were nolled, in Bolton town court Tuesday night. Justice of the Peace Jeremiah Connors heard the cases, Grand Juror Charles Maine prosecuted. State policemen Heinold and Willis of the Stafford Springs barracks and Deputy Sheriff Allison L. Frink of Andover presented evidence for the state. Each defendant paid $16.40, the costs of the case.

Over 21 feet of the refill in the well on the premises of Frank Marsala on South Windham road had been removed, up to Tuesday afternoon, under direction of an investigation into stories that the body of Joseph Raitano, who disappeared February 28, 1925, lies at the bottom of the well. The bottom of the well is now less than five feet deeper and it expected to be reached sometime this Wednesday provided that the work is not delayed by heavy rain.

Franklin C. Wadsworth of Westerly, R. I., has disposed of his property, consisting of a residence and one and one-half acres of real estate at The Ridges, to his brother, John Wadsworth, a resident of that section.

The bearers at the funeral of Mrs. Luella Perkins Larrow held Monday were Joseph and Bruce Larrow, Eugene Campbell and Raymond Standish.

Michael Nelson of Plainfield, well known to the local police court and having a strong failing for imbibing bay rum mixed with water, will again face the court this (Wednesday) morning. He was arrested Tuesday when his favorite concoction caused him to lose control of his navigating powers.

Work of repainting the exterior woodwork of the Congregational church house was completed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Dennehy, the latter's sister, Miss Julia Murphy of this city and Mrs. Mary Sanborn of New York, with James Healey of this city, are on a ten-day motor trip to Montreal and St. Anne de Beaupre, the Thousand Islands, Niagara Falls and western Massachusetts.

Mrs. William Bigley arrived here Monday night from a two months' visit to her former home in England, returning on S. S. Laconia of the Cunard line which docked in Boston.

Sister Alberta is Guests and Sister Cyrene of the Order of the Holy Family, left Monday to visit the former's father, Norbert Rousseau and family in Washington, D. C. They also visited in Pawtucket, R. I. Miss Anzelie Rousseau and Miss Marie S. Ouelette accompanied them as far as New Haven.

Purely Personal

T. Frank Cunningham, his aunt, Miss Norah Cryne and Misses Mildred Fitzgerald and Mary Hevrin, are motoring through the White mountains and over the Mohawk Trail.

Misses Mae Moriarty and Eleanor Moriarty attended the Hoey-Pringle wedding in Naugatuck Monday.

E. L. Manare and son, John Manare of Chicago, are at the former's summer home in Chaplin for the remainder of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Keegan and the Misses Mae Keating and Rae Hevrin are on an automobile trip to the White and Green mountains.

Michael Brennan of Fall River, a former resident of this city, is the guest of local friends.

Charles F. Risedorf left Tuesday for two weeks' stay at Carry Pond, Me.

Dr. George Caillouette of Hartford was in this city Tuesday.

Fred Little and Miss Mildred Sweeney returned Tuesday from a stay at the Sweeney cottage, Crescent Beach, Niantic.

MYSTIC

All the representatives of the different societies that attended the meeting last year when the war memorial committee was organized here received a notice from Secretary Theodore Anderson to attend a meeting in Odd Fellows hall Monday evening Aug. 23rd for the purpose of selecting a suitable location for the proposed war memorial. The meeting is public.

The committee in charge of the tea room at the art exhibition Tuesday was Mrs. L. M. Allyn, chairman, Mrs. James Maxson, Mrs. William Maxson, Miss Violet Story, Mrs. Howard Fuller, Miss Eleanor Davis, Miss Molly Palmer and Miss Juliet Haley.

Those from Mystic attended the annual re-union Tuesday of the 26th regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, held in Norwich were the president, Horace Clift, Miss Sarah Clift, Mr. and Mrs. Odell D. Thompkins, Mrs. Carl Cutter, Mrs. Gurdon Allyn, Mrs. Julia B. Coates, Miss Nellie Beebe, and Miss Clara Burnett. The father of Miss Burnett was a member of that regiment.

Miss Antoinette Burdick, R. N., of Norwich spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Fanny Burdick.

Workmen have completed the dock for John Wilbur at Mason's Island and one for C. H. Lutrell at the same place and have regraded the bathing beach, making a great improvement.

Miss Helen Crandall has returned from Ivoryton, when she visited friends.

Miss Mary Burdick of Norwich, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eva Burdick.

No services will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday. The service is omitted to give the members an opportunity to attend Willimantic camp meeting.

Sunday, Aug. 29 the Old Mystic Methodist church will observe its 150 anniversary of the congregation and the 75th of the church. Services will be held all day with several preachers in attendance.

Miss Callie Chapma has returned to Old Mystic after a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Congdon.

Miss Mollie Bruce after spending the summer at Mason's Island, has returned to New Jersey.

Alexander Murray has returned to New York after spending the week end here.

The new born to Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Pendleton of San Francisco, Cal., is grandson to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Pendleton of Denison avenue.

Mrs. Robert Greer of Colchester, spent Monday with friends here.

Mrs. M. Bede after spending several weeks at a camp on Masons Island, has returned to Little Falls, N. J.

Workmen are engaged making improvements on the exterior of George Wallace's house.

The stone wall at the residence of A. W. Van Winkle, on Masons Island, is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamilton Smith and four children of New Haven spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldredge.

Many from Mystic are planning to attend the New London county Pomona field day at North Stonington grange fair grounds Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Osborn and Mrs. J. P. Hudgins spent Tuesday with Mrs. John K. Bucklyn.

W. C. T. U. GOLD MEDAL WON BY EILEEN LEWIS, NEW LONDON

(Special to the Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND, Aug. 17.—Though the weather was damp and threatening, a large number gathered in the tabernacle at 8 a. m. today, when Dr. C. E. Spaulding led a prayer service, speaking briefly on the subject of intercessory prayer, alluding to Christ's prayer on the cross for his enemies, and Paul's prayer for the Ephesian church.

Mrs. W. D. Harris of New London spoke during the next period on "The Departmentalized School in Action."

Dr. R. E. Gornall, field speaker of the world service commission, Chicago, spoke on "The Lord's Money and the Believer's Obligation, at the stewardship hour, which followed.

Many are becoming more and more interested in Dr. Philip L. Frick's period on Psychological Interpretations of Religious Facts, his theme today was "The Demons and Angels of Heredity," he claiming there was both more and less in heredity than some think. He alluded to God's statement that the sins of parents would be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generations of the godless and cited the notorious Jukes family as an illustration. Also that God showed mercy on thousands who love and obey him, citing the Edwards family on this brighter side. He also laid stress on the great importance of environment.

The closing period of the forenoon was in charge of the evangelist, Dr. Milton S. Rees. His theme was The Art of Soul Winning as shown in the tact and wisdom of Christ in converting the woman of Samaria, when she came to Jacob's well for water. "How to change demons into angels is our business," said he. "In personal work we must seek contact by broaching a matter mutually interesting. Doubt will open. Let us learn to recognize the approach of Jesus always and let us not reduce the divine to the limitations of the human."

This afternoon was devoted to a Gold Medal contest under the auspices of the state W. C. T. U. In a few pleasant words the district superintendent, Rev. M. E. Genter, of Norwich, introduced Miss Hattie M. Newton, the able president of the Conn. W. C. T. U. who conducted the program below: Though blind, Miss Newton carries out effectively the great work of the W. C. T. U. throughout the state. She announced that all of the contestants had already won silver medals.

Hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"; scripture reading, Mrs. Ida M. T. Pegrum of Central Village; prayer, Mrs. Annie P. Service of South Willington; song, "Some Glad Day"; recitation No. 1, "The New World, Who Will Build It?"; No. 2, "The Judge Makes a New Year's Resolution"; No. 3, "The New Crusade"; solo, Mrs. Esther S. Brown of Danielson; recitation No. 4, "Liberty Within the Law"; No. 5, "Wait 'Til I Light My Cig"; song, "It's In the Constitution," Mrs. Nellie R. Arnold of Meriden; recitation No. 6, "Shall We Make Our Victory Secure?"; No. 7, "Hats Off to the Past, Coats Off to the Future"; song, "Everybody Sing"; address, "Noah—Ancient and Modern," Mrs. Mary B. Wilson, Southington; solo, Mrs. Esther S. Brown; presentation of medal; hymn, "America"; benediction.

The contestants were John Barsfrede, East Hampton; Lloyd Kenney, Uncasville; David Leit, New London; Loretta Brannack, Middletown; Eileen Lewis, New London; Dorothy Ray, New London; Gertrude Schroll, Danielson.

Conspicuously placed upon the wall back of the platform were terse mottos like these: "The Press for the People," "Liberty in Law," "Buyers Make Bootleggers," "Character in Candidates," "Do Not Fear Politics, Make Politics Fear You," "The 19th Amendment Comes to the Aid of the 18th Amendment," "Make Our Democracy Safe for the Constitution," "Use Your Head—Not the Head Line," "Know Your Courts," "Study Your Politicians."

There was a very large attendance and all the children did well.

Mrs. Mary B. Wilson's interesting address contained vigorous warnings against the indifference of people against dangers in America, stating that there are 125,000 murderers at large in the United States, 50,000 more than there are policemen.

The judges were Rev. E. M. Pickop, of South Coventry; Mrs. Annie D. Service, of South Willington and Mrs. Jennie R. Scripture of Willimantic.

Rev. Mr. Pickop announced that the gold medal had been awarded No. 7, Miss Eileen Lewis of New London and honorable mention to No. 1, Dorothy Ray, of the same city.

Mrs. George Cramer, of New London, who had drilled the three speakers from New London, was introduced and made a short address.

The pianist for the session was Mrs. Dorothy Wilson Rue, of Denton, Maryland.

Dr. Rees' First Sermon

Dr. Milton S. Rees, the evangelist, who is here during the week, preached his first sermon before a large audience in the tabernacle Monday evening from the words, "Launch Out into the Deep."

Dr. P. L. Frick, of Schenectady, read the Scriptures, and Rev. F. W. Gray, of Rockville, offered prayer. Miss Roberta Bitgood, of New London, was at the piano.

Clayton E. Richard, and Horace F. Floto, both of Vernon, assisted with trumpets. Dr. Rees made a fine impression upon the audience. At the close Dr. C. E. Spaulding of New London, offered prayer.

SPRING HILL

In the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Jones who are way on a vacation, Rev. W. M. Brown of Windham preached at the Baptist church Sunday.

Wallace Babcock has been spending a few days with his family at their summer home.

Rev. H. M. Bartlett and family of Jeffersonville, Vt., recently made a short visit at the home of Mrs. E. F. Storrs. Gilbert Storrs and family of Coventry were also there on Sunday.

LeRoy Smith went with a party of Grangers who are attending the New England lecturers' conference at Orono, Me., this week. His family went also.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols started Saturday for a week's vacation trip to Stafford, New Britain and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Flaherty went to Springfield and Northampton, Mass., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Kimball of Gardner, Mass., spent last Friday night at Alanweld. Mr. Weld is spending a few days at Block Island; Mrs. H. P. Longley of Newark, N. J., is at Alanweld during her absence.

Father—"I never kissed a girl until I met your mother. Will you be able to say the same to your son when you become a married man?"

Offspring—"Not with such a straight face as you can, father."—Wall Street Journal.

WESTERLY

HEARING IN TONY RUSSO CASE CONTINUED TO AUG. 27TH

(Special to the Bulletin)

WESTERLY, R. I., Aug. 17.—Tony Russo, who has conducted a barber-shop on Bay street, Watch Hill, was presented in a special session of Third District court Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 before Judge Oliver H. Williams in his office in the court house. The complaint made by Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown that on Sept. 15, 1925, Sunday and other times Tony Russo, alias assaulted Isabel Leon, feloniously, in an attempt to ravish.

A plea of not guilty was entered. Attorney Ferguson for the state asked that the hearing be set for next Friday and Attorney Dunn for defendant, asked for five days in which to file papers. Hearing was finally set for Friday, Aug. 27th. Bond was first at $10,000 by Judge Williams. Offered as surety by the defendant were Louis Leon and Pasquale Furcola and wife, but the total of property offered was not sufficient and a continuance was granted to secure an additional bondsman.

Judge Edward M. Burke held a stormy session of Westerly Probate court Tuesday afternoon. At the close of the session the Salemano family, divided into two factions, warred over the appointment of an administrator for the estate of Gusipena Salemano, wife of Antonio Salemano, whose death occurred July 14th. The altercation took up more than half the court session.

Judge Burke disposed of probate matters at follows:

Estate of Alfred B. York. First account of Washington Trust company as guardian of the estate of Alfred B. York, was presented by the bank trust officer, Thomas Perry. There being no objection the account was received, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of James M. Blake...First account of Washington Trust company as guardian of the estate of Alfred B. York, was presented by the bank trust officer, Thomas Perry. There being no objection the account was received, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of James M. Blake. First account of Washington Trust company from July 21, 1925 to July 21, 1926, as executor of the estate was received from Trust Officer Thomas Perry. With no objection the account was received, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Josephine Royster. Inventory received showing deposits in the Industrial Trust company. Attorney Rocha, appearing for beneficiaries asked for the filing of an account. Attorney Dunn told the court that the statuory limit of one year had not elapsed and was reminded by Judge Burke that such an account had been ordered by the court. Mr. Dunn told the court that the administrator had already suffered two shocks and Judge Burke explained that if the administrator could sign his name it would be sufficient to an accounting which could be amended or parts stricken out when it came before the court. The matter was continued to the first Tuesday in September, when Attorney Dunn agreed to have an accounting at that court session.

Estate of Leon Nider Archangeli. Inventory received, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Joseph W. Gaffney. First and final account of Julia Gaffney, administratrix, received, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Gusipena Salemano. Petition received from Pasquale and Louis Salemeno, sons of the deceased, whose death occurred July 14th, for the probate of the estate. These petitioners were represented by Attorney John J. Dunn, who told the court that the husband of the deceased, Antonio, was first desired as the administrator, but later it was thought unwise, as Antonio Salemano could neither read nor write the English language, which he understood with difficulty. It was now asked that his nomination as administrator be withdrawn and the Industrial Trust company be substituted. He said that resulting from a family quarrel and family squabbles a division of the children had been caused in the matter and that on the account of one some favoritish had been shown, in that Mr. Salemano would refuse to collect rent due the mother for use of a store which was formerly conducted by her. Attorney Roche said that he represented six of the children, James, Raphael, Thomas, Joseph, Rose and Anilia, who desired that their father be named the administrator, and declared that he had not heard of family squabbles. When a question was raised as to mental condition, the father was questioned by the judge, who declared him mentally competent. Judge Burke said that under the new law more freedom was given in the appointment of an administrator, and while he did not favor taking the administration out of the family, he thought in this case, where there appeared to be a division, a neutral party would best meet the issue.

There were many acquisations and counter charges as to disposal or disappearance of money and use of real estate property by members of the family and much loud talk and heated arguments ensued. In again reminding the belligerents to come to an agreement, Judge Burke said that under the new law one-half of the property of the wife went to the husband and the other half to the eight children. After many unsuccessful attempts to form an agreeable combination of the beneficiaries as administrators, Judge Burke appointed the Industrial Trust company administrator. Charles L. Fontana was named appraiser.

Recorded in the office of the Westerly Town Clerk are the following transfers:

April 16. Maynard Land company of Providence, to Panagiota P. Haveles, lots Nos. 166, 167, 168, 170, 171, 172 and 173 Melrose park.

Dr A. H. Gold has been appointed to the Permanent Field Advisory Board of the Palmer school of chiropratic at Davenport, Iowa, and is leaving Saturday for a conference in that city. While away he will also make a special study of the heurocalometer an instrument put upon the market by the Palmer school by which the degree of pressure on impinged nerves may be detected.

Chiropractic is based upo nthe principle of nerve impingment and the consequent interference with the flow of the mental impulse of nerve force, and the neurocalometer will be invaluable to the chirapractor in the detection of pressures on spinal cord, and nerves.

Dr. Gold leaves for Davenport, August 21st, to be gone until some time in September.

Lieut. James Nelson, well known physical instructor, of Connecticut, was a visitor in Westerly Tuesday. Lieut. Nelson formerly passed his summers in Westerly and was a well known on the bathing beach at Watch Hill, to which he frequently walked from Westerly.

Attorney Albert L. Saunders returned to Boston Tuesday morning after being the guest of Westerly relatives and a visitor to his summer home on the Shore road.

Dana Curry, a former Westerly resident, later of East Greenwich and New London, has entered the employ of a mayonnaise manufacturing company of Westerly.

George E. Phillips returned to Providence on Tuesday morning from his summer home at Pleasant View.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Goodgeon, who are on a European trip, have been heard from by Westerly friends and now in Switzerland, in the Alps.

Miss Elizabeth Kelsey of Amherst, Mass., a frequent Westerly visitor has been heard from at Los Angeles, Cal., while on a trip to the Pacific coast.

Mrs. W. G. Hey of Fall River, is visiting for a short time with relatives and friends in Westerly.

Misses Gertrude Celia, Peggy Labounty and Mary Whalen have returned to Westerly after visiting in Manchester, Conn.

J. S. Glen has arrived in Westerly having been a passenger on the Atlantic Transport Minnekahda from London to New York sailing from England on Aug. 7th.

Mis Ann Fidler of Manchester, Conn., is the guest of Miss Gertrude Celia at Pawcatuck.

Mrs. William J. Smith of East Hampton, Mass., is visiting Westerly friends.

STAFFORD

Mrs. J. F. Fredette and daughter Inez, of Worcester, called on local friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Selah Walbridge have returned after spending their vacation with relatives in Newport, R. I.

Mrs. Charles Brown and family of Lowell, Mass., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alva S. Brown.

NOANK

Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Jones of Chicopee Falls, Mass., are spending a week in the village with relatives.

A coast guard boat is on the ways at the ship yard to have a new lead sleeve. She will also have the propellor shaft straightened.

Forty members of two classes of the Baptist church united for their annual picnic. Mizpath class and the Woman's Missionary society. The picnic was held on the lawn of Mrs. Charles Cox on Prospect Hill and at 6 o'clock supper was eaten.

Copies of the monthly magazine The Dawn, established by and for the Connecticut School for Boys at Meriden, have been received in the village. The typographical class is made up of two sections, twelve members in the morning class and thirteen members in the afternoon. Harold Sweet of this village is a member of the afternoon class.

Miss Estelle Johnson of Troy, N. Y., was a recent caller on Mrs. Ira Statts.

Mrs. Margaret Hendrickan, widow of James Hendrickan, who died at her home on Spicer avenue, was taken ill Tuesday. News of her sudden death was heard with regret by friends in this village, where she resided for many years. She leaves five daughters, Mrs. Catherine Elliott, Mrs. Jennie Gale, Mrs. Margaret Heasley, Miss Annie Hendrickan of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell of this village. There are several grandchildren.

Mrs. Arthur Fish has returned from a visit with Ashwillet relatives.

Mr. Delphino is soon to move from Pearl street to the Caracasa building on Peal street. Mr. Bochiachia recently purchasing the Pearl street property.

At the Tea Room known as Clark's Tea Garden, in Noank, a visitor, having tea one afternoon recently noticed that there were automobiles representing 17 different states of the union parked outside.

Mrs. Henry Langworthy is ill and has a nurse in attendance.

Mrs. Harry Park was a recent caller in Providence.

John Robertson is employed at the Chappell Shipyard at New London.

Quality Beyond Comparison
Results from CHRYSLER
Standardized Quality

CHRYSLER "60"
The Finest Low Priced Six in the Industry

Compare the lighter, lower-priced six Chrysler "60" with any car near it in price.

In it you have, unit for unit, the same Chrysler standardized quality comprehended in the Chrysler "70" and Imperial "80"—in features, in materials, in craftsmanship, in rigid inspection and test, in characteristics of dependability and long life.

Sixty miles, and more, per hour; unprecedented get-away; gas economy of 22 miles and more per gallon; striking beauty; astonishing riding ease and roadability; the safety of Chrysler four-wheel hydraulic brakes; oil-filter and air-cleaner; full pressure lubrication; seven-bearing crankshaft; impulse neutralizer; road levelizers front and rear; roomy, luxurious bodies.

There isn't a low-priced six on the market that will begin to give you as much for your money.

See it for yourself; drive it; put it to any test. That is all we ask. We know the new Chrysler "60" will sell itself to you—that you'll be satisfied with nothing else.

CHRYSLER "60"—Touring Car, $1075; Roadster, $1145; Club Coupe, $1165; Coach, $1195; Sedan, $1295.

There is scarcely a motor car of importance today that does not reflect in either design or practice the influence of Walter P. Chrysler and his engineers.

This is because in the past three years the organization of which Mr. Chrysler is the head has pioneered more improvements in the automobile than has been brought forth in the preceding decade.

The result has been quality beyond comparison and now Mr. Chrysler further emphasizes this quality—makes it more than ever outstanding in all price classes—by his plan of Standardized Quality.

Mr. Chrysler is the first and only large scale manufacturer building four cars under one name and one management in one group of unified plants on a standardized quality basis. This standardization of quality is the result of an extraordinarily complete coordination of engineering and manufacturing facilities and resources.

Thus certainty of Chrysler unsurpassed performance is built into each and every Chrysler model by the Chrysler principle of Standardized Quality.

It brings Chrysler superiority in speed, power, beauty, comfort, roadability and long life within the reach of practically every purse.

It enables every motorist to buy in any of the four general price classifications, with complete assurance of receiving all the brilliancy and dependability of service for which Chrysler has established a reputation throughout the world.

CHRYSLER "70"—Phaeton, $1395; Coach, $1395; Roadster, $1525; Sedan, $1545; Royal Coupe, $1695; Brougham, $1745; Royal Sedan, $1795; Crown Sedan, $1895.

CHRYSLER IMPERIAL "80"—Phaeton, $2495; Roadster (wire wheels standard equipment, wood wheels optional), $2595; Coupe, two-passenger, $2895; Coupe, four-passenger, $2895; Sedan, five-passenger, $3095; Sedan, seven-passenger, $3195. Cabriolet, $3495; Sedan-Limousine, $3595.

All prices f. o. b. Detroit, subject to current Federal excise tax.

Chrysler Model Numbers Mean Miles Per Hour

JOHN J. HERBERT
195 NO. MAIN ST. NORWICH, CONN.
TEL. 1716-2

H. R. HERBERT
TEL. MOOSUP 225
PLAINFIELD, CONN.

FLOYD C. BARBER
JEWETT CITY, CONN.
TEL. 18-12

MAIN ST. GARAGE
BALTIC, CONN.

DANIELSON

WHITESTONE MILL PLANT TO BE SOLD FOR BACK TAXES

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 17—The town of Killingly is to witness the sale at public auction, of what is known hereabouts as the Whitestone mill property in East Killingly. The public sale was brought about by virtue of a decree of sale passed by the superior court at Willimantic earlier in the summer. The foreclosure proceedings were instituted by the town of Killingly after tax liens had been placed by the town and disregarded by Charles R. Kapstein, of Providence, owner of the property. The sale is to foreclose the tax liens in favor of the town unless Mr. Kapstein pays the amount of the judgment which is some $599 in the meantime and also the legal interests and costs of the suit and advertising.

On the property is the remains of the Fernlea mill, destroyed on the night of Dec. 3, 1923, by a fire of unknown origin. Some time prior to this blaze, Mr. Kapstein had acquired the property at a public sale for a nominal price, had installed some machinery and was getting ready to operate on a big scale when the fire put an end to his plans. The mill, a four-story stone structure built about 1857-1858, and with an interesting history, was completely gutted and the stone walls crumbled and fell under the intense heat. The ruins stand as they were after the fire. Mr. Kapstein collected a liberal amount of insurance to cover his loss and since then has allowed the property to stand idle.

From time to time Mr. Kapstein has been notified by officials of the town that foreclosure proceedings were contemplated. On each occasion he would inquire as to the amount of the taxes due, but never paid. Finally, the town considered further delay out of the question and legal action was taken.

Considering the water privilege, the water wheel and other assets of the property, competent judges rate its value at far more than the judgment which the town has obtained, at one time the Whitestone property was one of the most prosperous in this corner of the state.

During the Civil war it had a great boom, but in the years that have passed it has changed ownership a number of times and with the passing of the Danielson-Providence express line it gradually passed out of the picture until a few years ago when the Fernlea Mills Inc., took it over. This firm built up and operated the mill for about a year before it was again abandoned and it has not been operated since that time.

DEFACED PRIVATE PROPERTY—THREE MEN IN BROOKLYN COURT

(Special to the Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Aug. 17—Meredith Pratt, of Brooklyn was before Justice of the Peace Frank Bedard in Brooklyn co rt this morning charged with defacing private property in the state highway. This morning Byron Parker and Frank Baker also of Brooklyn were brought before Justice of Peace Bedard charged with the same offense. The state asked that the hearing be continued to Saturday, Aug. 21, when t is alleged that further developments will be brought out. All three young men were allowed freedom on a bond of $300 each, which they furnish. State Officer Streamens made the arrest after working on the case since last Saturday, bringing in Pratt about 10:30 Monday nigh: and Parker and Baker about 3:30 Tuesday morning. The arrests were made in connection with the painting of signs on the state highway and placing signs on private property.

Miss Lillian Bailey is very much improved, it was reported from the Backus hospital, Norwich, where she is a patient while being treated for typhoid fever.

Miss Clara Brown, formerly of Danielson, now of Washington, D. C., has been visiting with Miss Kathleen Varney of Cottage street during the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Stevens is spending her vacation at Reading, Mass.

Construction work on the high school has been resumed this week after a short delay caused when the supply of bricks gave out, toward the end of last week.

Relaying a line of pipe on Academy street has been completed.

Charles White of Pawtucket has returned home, having spent two weeks' vacation at the home of Mrs. Monohan, of School street.

Merrill Gallup is back having spent the major part of last week visiting friends at Highland beach.

Mrs. Gordon Taylor is spending this week motoring through Canada.

Miss Dora Varieur of Academy street has return from St. Francis' hospital, Hartford, where she underwent a surgical operation.

Albert King of Ware, Mass., is visiting Frances Capen.

Van Thompson and family spent last week on a camping trip throughout the New England states.

BOLTON

Misses Dora Pinney and Beatrice Pinney spent the week end at Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Pinney's.

Mrs. Charles F. Sumner, Jeannette Sumner, Arline Donahue, Mrs. J. Wesson Phelps and daughter, Louise spent Wednesday at Deerfield.

Clarence C. Fries has returned to Boston after spending two weeks with his sister, Miss Lavania C. Fris.

Howard Hart of Cromwell is spending a week with his uncle Roswell Kneeland Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bently has returned home after a week trip up New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lawton entertained recently at their newly built bungalow situated on Bolton Hill in honor of their son Edwin. Their guests were Sylvia Mather, Ruth Ludlow and Jack Bitter all of Hartford.

Mrs. Frederick C. Taylor and daughter Dorothy are visiting in Wisborough, Mass.

Mrs. Howard Hart and two children have returned to Cromwell after spending a week with Mrs. Harts' brother, R. K. Jones.

Ruth Jones spent the week end with Louise Phelps.

J. White Sumner spent Wednesday at Eastern Point. It was the outing for the judges.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McGurk and family have returned home after spending a week at Lake Waukapaug.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fogil and son Kenneth, of Hockanum, spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Jones'.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie S. Bolton, Mrs. Mary Hutchinson and daughter Louise have returned home after two weeks' trip to Old Orchard.

Miss Jeannette Sumner spent the week end with friends in Manchester.

Callouses
Quick, safe, sure relief from painful callouses on the feet.
At all drug and shoe stores
Dr Scholl's Zino-pads
Put one on—the pain is gone

PUTNAM

FORMER PATIENTS HELP HOSPITAL FIRE ESCAPE FUND

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 17—The fire escape fund of the Day Kimball hospital needs but $308 to reach the $2,500 required. The checks received for this fund range from $300 down to $2. Small amounts from former patients would soon swell the fund to the necessary amount. With these new fire escapes the hospital will be as near fireproof as it is possible to make it.

LADY McMILLAN ATTENDS WOODSTOCK ACAD. REUNION

(Special to the Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Aug. 17.—As a result of the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the Woodstock Academy it is now expected that it will be able to reach the amount needed to build Hall Memorial gymnasium. One of those attending the reunion was Lady McMillan of British East Africa, a daughter of the late Professor George Webber, principal of the Academy in 1855.

Woodstock Academy was started in 1801, 23 residents of the town donating $100 each for it. Rev. Eliphalet Lyman, pastor of Woodstock Hill church, was the most active and ardent advocate of the new school. There was much enthusiastic help from the townspeople during the erection of the first school building. It was incorporated by the legislature in the spring of the following year.

In 1873 a new and larger academy building was constructed at a cost of $20,000, this amount being donated by the citizens. It was dedicated a year later and this building is still in use, although greatly altered.

Rev. Y. O. Walm has preached his last sermon at Abington and with Mrs. Walm leaves this week for a visit to his former home in Ohio, before going to Germany, to take up his new work. His appointment to the work abroad is in the nature of an advancement. Mr. and Mrs. Walm have made many friends throughout the county during their stay at Abington.

A number of members of the local order of the Eastern Star are planning to attend the 44th annual outing of that organization which meets this year at Wilson's Pier at West Haven. This outing will celebrate the 108th anniversary of the birth of Robert Morris, founder of the order in the United States.

Witter Bros., Auctioneers, Office 42 Main St., Danielson, Conn., will sell an attractive nine-room cottage house located on Sunnyside Heights in the city of Putnam at public auction, on Saturday, August 21, at 3 o'clock P. M., new time. For terms and conditions apply to the auctioneers.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmanska and little son, Paul, of Walnut street, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan and son, Ruessell of School street are at St. John's, New Brunswick, for a visit.

Thomas Bell, Louis N. Girard, Police Captain William J. Jarvis and Alderman Charles A. Ryan of the local American Legion are making their plans for joining in the American Legion vacation trip to France next summer, a trip which will enroll thousands of veterans of the World war.

Mrs. Joseph Clark Hoppin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Brunt Cushman have taken a house at Saratoga for the racing season. Miss Rosamund Murray and Edward Murray of Pomfret and John Steward of Bar Harbor made the trip with Mrs. Hoppin. Mr. Cushman has some of his horses entered.

Day and Lawrence Kimball who are practicing law in London, England, arrived at Montreal Monday and will come to Pomfret to spend six weeks with their parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Marcus Kimball at Bark Meadow house.

Many in this vicinity are interested in the marriage at Ridgefield, N. J., of Miss Charlotte Potter, daughter of William C. Potter of Westbury, L. I., and of Mrs. Harry F. Guggenheim, to Reginald Lewis, son of Mrs. Frederic E. Lewis of New York city and Ridgefield. Mr. Lewis is a graduate of Pomfret school and his mother gave the Lewis gymnasium to the school.

At Simmons college where she has been taking a summer course, Miss Sybella Gilman won a speed contest on the Underwood typewriter for which a pearl medal was the award. Among the witnesses to the contest was the fastest typist in the United States.

The following district teachers have been engaged by Woodstock school committee: Elmvale, Miss Annette May; South Woodstock still vacant; Harrisville, Miss Ruth Fallon; Quasset, Miss Hilda Morrison; Woodstock Hill, Mrs. Louise Clark; West Woodstock, Miss Ilo Hammond; Redhead, Mrs. Myrtle Miller; English Neighborhood, Mrs. Clara Rawson; Chandler, Mrs. Banks; North Woodstock, Miss Rose Nieviedzel; Center district, Mrs. Alice White. The Red-White school may be closed.

Rev. James F. English of the Second Congregational church returned from Camp Devens where he was a chaplain on the D. R. C. and is now with his family at Saybrook to spend the remainder of the month.

At the farewell reception tendered Maurice Child, principal of the Woodstock Academy for the past several years, and attended by about 150, Rev H. D. Baker took charge of the program, which consisted of instrumental and vocal music and several short addresses. Miss Elizabeth Rollins, in behalf of the graduated of the past four years presented Mr. Child a ten dollar gold piece and Mrs. Child a bunch of roses. A reception followed and cake and punch were served.

Walter Hughes and daughter, Virginia of Manchester, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Armand Valade of Lakeport, N. H., are guests of Mr. and Mrs Frank Bernier.

Miss Helen Morse, Miss Jeanette Marion and Miss Florence Spellacy have been spending a week in camp with friends at Crystal lake, Eastford.

Miss Gertrude Marion of Providence is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dugas at their summer cottage at Fall River.

Miss Elizabeth Lavine of Chapel street is the guest of her sister, Miss Ruth Lavine at Norwich.

Mrs. Max Goldman of Roxbury, formerly of Putnam, has been the guest of friends here.

Recent guests at the Sen Grosvenor inn, Pomfret, were Edward Bloom of Paterson, N. J.; Miss Anne P. Gaillard and her brother, John P. Gaillard, New York; Paul P. Gaylord and daughter, Miss Margery Gaillard, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sporborg, Syracuse; Mrs. Horace B. Clark and Rev. and Mrs. Bradley Gilman and daughter, Miss Dorothy Gilman, Boston.

Lillian N. Page of Putnam has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Robert F. Page of Putnam, by Judge David Flagg. Mr. Page was recently drowned while bathing in Quadic Pond.

John H. Bulger has returned from Burlington, Vt., where he was called by the death of his sister.

Mrs. Lillian Russ has returned from a visit with her son, H. M. Russ of Norwich.

JEWETT CITY

BILL MAGEL, FISHERMAN, PILING UP A BIG RECORD

(Special to the Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Aug. 17.—Bill Magel, the premier fisherman of Griswold, went out for black bass before sunrise on the day the close season ended, and has been every Sunday since, with now and then a week day thrown in. Up to Tuesday night he had caught 151 black bass, 126 small mouth and 25 large mouth. The largest weighed 7 1-2 pounds, according to J. H. Tracy's scales, the official weigher for the Ashland Fish and Game club. One Sunday in July Magel caught six that weight 20 pounds, flat. The next Sunday he caught two that weighed 12 pounds. A record is kept of each fish of over 16 ounces, with data of time of day, weather, bait used and name of water. The 151 caught to date average two pounds apiece, 302 pounds.

He has caught this season 212 pickerel, ranging in length from 12 inches to 19, with an average of 15 inches.

The 212 pickerel were in all, 3180 inches, 265 feet in length. The Congregational spire is 110 feet from the cornerstone to the base of the cross. Magel's pickerel if placed head to tail would reach twice up the steeple, with enough left to reach to the coping on the Flinn block, 45 feet above the pavement.

Although Bill Magel lays over everything in sight, when it comes to fishing, yet, the record bass for Griswold, according to Mr. Tracy's data, was caught in the Hopeville pond, just below the bridge, in the late afternoon of an early September day in 1923. The modest fisherman was none other than a well known Hopeville farmer; the bass, large mouth, weighed eight pounds and a half. Excepting one caught in Winsted, it is the record for black bass in Connecticut. There was the report that George had used a live kitten for bait, but such is not the case; it was a newly hatched rat, found in a nest in the wall under his barn.

A few amateur botanists who kept their interest after the school closed are adding new mid-summer flowers to herbariums left incomplete. Jewel weed is to be found growing beside any meadow brook, where the two sorts, impatiens fulva, and impatiens pallada, may occur side by side. On the cross road from McCoy's corner to the town farm, the fragrant horse gentian, five feet high, is in bloom. It is to be met with nowhere else in Griswold.

Mrs. Dona Sallou, worthy matron of Faith chapter, O. E. S., and several members are planning at attend the annual Robert Morris day, which this year is the 108th anniversary of Robert Morris' birth. It is to be held at West Haven, Aug. 31st, at the Wilcox Pier restaurant. The next past matrons' association meeting is to be entertained by Wooster chapter, No. 34, of Colchester, on Sept. 15th, at 2 o'clock (s. t.) The first week in September, the grand officers are to be entertained by Faith chapter, a turkey supper to be served in the Congregational vestry by the women of the church.

Mrs. George A. Haskell and Misses Margery and Eunice Webster, also Dr. G. H. Jennings attended the 26th Regt. Conn. Vol. reunion at Buckingham Memorial in Norwich Tuesday.

Miss Stella Gaska of the Aspinook office force is away on a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kingsley are at Nausauket, not Nantasket as Tuesday's item was changed to read.

Miss Christine Burdick preached at Staffordville Federated church Sunday.

Clark C. Palmer was stricken with a shock Monday night at his home and is in a critical condition. His daughter Mrs. Pearl Morgan came from Hartford Tuesday to help care for him.

Mrs. Arthur Strickland came from Middletown Saturday, and took her sister Miss Dorothy Paul to Manchester, N. H. for two weeks' stay. Her aunt Mrs. Thomas Patts returned with her to visit Mrs. Paul. Miss Marian Paul Strickland, who has been spending the summer with her grandmother, returned with her mother to Middletown.

Mrs. E. A. Faust and Miss Ellen Faust have returned after a month's stay at Watch Hill

Joseph Jankiewicz, is at the Citizens' Military Training camp at Fort Terry, N. Y., for two weeks.

W. H. Brown, Miss Alice A. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cathcart, Jr., of Jewett City and Mrs. W. S. Cott Rood of Lisbon were present at the Brown family reunion held at the Weaver home in Norwich Town Monday. A five dollar gold piece is always given any member of the family who has been married since the last reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Cathcart received one this year. Mrs. Cathcart is Mr. Brown's grand-daughter. Mrs. Brown who is an invalid, was remembered with a bouquet.

Invitations have been received to a Lawn Fete on Sterling Hill church lawn. A Japanese drill and musical playlet are part of the programme.

Mrs. Clovis Casavant, Rena, Roderick and Claire Casavant and Miss Edwardina Boucher have returned after a week's visit with relatives in Spencer, Mass., coming home by way of Fiskdale, Mass., visiting Ste. Anee's shrine.

Tomatoes have taken a sudden start, and although now bringing the price of three pounds for a quarter, it looks as though, once more, they would be offered for sale by the peck.

CHAPLIN

The Congregational Sunday school and others from South Chaplin and North Windham held a well attended and enjoyable picnic on the attractive grounds of E. L. Mansure by the lakeside Friday. Basket lunches were carried and there was plenty of lemonade. This is the fourth time a picnic has been held there and Mr. Mansure as in former years provided a six piece orchestra. Prof. A. E. Lyman of Columbia director played popular selections during the day; also he furnished an abundance of fine ice cream. Boating and bathing was enjoyed by a large number. Before the picnic party broke up a hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. Mansure for his generous hospitality. A vote of thanks was also given Samuel A. Chappell, who worked through the day to help all have a good time.

Mrs. Cora Trowbridge, Mabel Trowbridge, Paul Trowbridge and Miss Mabel A. Lanphear, took a trip by automobile this week to New Jersey where they visited Charles Sanford, a former resident of South Chaplin for many years.

Rev. John H. Knott performed a marriage ceremony at the parsonage at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon for Harold Adelbert Chick, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chick and Viola J. Bellaire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Bellaire. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chick. The bride and groom left in the evening for an automobile trip.

GALES FERRY

The Mystery of Life was the theme of Rev. George H. Wright, who supplied for Rev. Wilfred D. Hamilton in the M. E. church at the Sunday morning service. Text, Colossians 3:3. For ye are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God. The anthem, He Walks With Me was sung by a trio Miss Grace A. Chapman, Mrs. Amos Main and D. R. Povey. Announcements for the week included a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, and the Community Fair and Woman's Exchange with Mrs. Walter T. Clark chairman of the exchange at the Country club. The altar flowers were baskets of gladioli given by Mrs. Frank A. Apiin, in memory of her husband and were greatly admired for their beauty and coloring. At the close of the church services they were sent to the sick and shutins.

The church school session at noon was in charge of Assistant Superintendent Dudley C. Perkins. Miss Jennie G. Perkins' class of girls was again awarded both banners for offering and attendance.

Those attending Field day of the New London county farm bureau at the farm of W. Ellery Allyn, in Waterford, Saturday included Walter T. Clark farm bureau agent of the county and Misses Em Beth Bennett, Rose Norcross and Dorothy Daudro; these girls attended the recent junior short course at Storrs from July 21 to 29 and are members of the girls' cooking club or this place and of the 4-H club work of the state.

Mrs. Fanny J. Heeley of Willimantic is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt at Wood Lawn for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Blair who were married here at the home of Mrs. Blair's mother, Mrs. J. A. Birch, July 17, have taken an apartment on Franklin street, Norwich and left for their new home Saturday. They were given an aluminum shower by neighbors and friends here Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Birch. Those taking the gifts were Mrs. Emma S Bennett, Mrs. Joseph DeRusha, Mrs. Lucy B. Hempstead and Misses Em Beth Bennett and Helen De Rusha.

Mrs. William H. Brooks of Hartford, motored here Friday with her cousin, Mrs. George W. Green and little daughter, Ann Rogers of Panama who have been her guests for a week coming to the home of Mrs. Brooks' mother Mrs. Delphine Fish where Mrs Green has been spending the summer. Sunday Mrs. Green left for New York to meet Mr. Green and her sister Miss Marion Rogers also of Panama who are to spend a three months leave of absense in the states.

Judge Billings F. S. Crandall attended a meeting of the probate assembly with dinner Wednesday at the Hotel Griswold Eastern Point. Topics relating to probate procedure were discussed and an interesting and instructive address by Judge Gilson of the New Haven court who has just returned from France was heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crossman and son Harold with Misses Gertrude Brown and Ruth Miller all of Noank motored here and were callers on Mrs. Fanny A. Molthrop Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Colby Morgan accompanied by Miss Collins and Miss Lamb all of Mystic, motored here and were guests Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Morgan's mother, Mrs. Delphine Fish.

Mrs. Horace H. Sears of Hastings-on-the-Hudson entertained a party of 12 at her summer home, Wren's Nest cottage Allyn road Wednesday afternoon. Salad, sandwiches, cake and punch were served.

Prof. and Mrs. Chester E. Dimick are entertaining the latter's mother, Mrs. W. B. McKelden, her sister, Miss McKelden and brother, W. B. McKelden and niece Miss Alice Kaufman, all of Washington, D. C., who arrived Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Risdon have as guests at their summer home Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lewis, Jr., and their son Charles Risdon, with Mrs. Archer all of New York.

Prof. and Mrs. Chester E. Dimick returned last week from a visit in the Catskills.

Mrs. Elmer Maynard and family of Hartford motored here Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Raford.

COLCHESTER

Word was received here Saturday of the death of Edwin R. Gillette, 56, at Hartford hospital about 4 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Gillette had been ill for several months and it was decided that an operation was necessary. He was taken to the hospital and the operation was performed Thursday. He seemed to come out of the operation all right, but the surgeons discovered that his condition was much worse than was expected and Saturday morning he passed away. He was a native of this place and was a farmer until he sold his farm and moved into the borough. He represented the town in the general assembly in 1917; he was first selectman a few years ago. He was a master of the grange, a member of Wooster lodge No. 10 F. & A. M., also a member of Wooster Star chapter O. E. S. He was a deacon of the First Congregational church of this place. He is survived by his wife Mrs. Clara Gillette, a stepson William Gerhardt, of Florida a step daughter, Mrs. Wallace B. Prann of Deep River and a half brother Mark Gillette of Boston. The funeral services were held at the First church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the pastor Rev. William O Berckman officiating. Wooster lodge F. & A. M. carried out the Masonic ritual at the grave in Linwood cemetery. During the World War Mr. Gillette was a sergeant in the local company of Home Guards.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chapman of New London and Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Rudd of Savannah, Georgia, were guests of Mrs. Sarah J. Bingham Sunday.

Ronald K. Brown of New York was at this summer home on Broadway several days the past week.

Edward M. Day of Hartford was a guest of his sister on Norwich avenue over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Clark were guests of Mr. Clark's sister in Salem Sunday. Mrs. Clark will spend the week there.

Harry Levine returned Monday from a few days business trip to New York.

The new power lawn mower was tried out on the park Monday and is a great saver of time in mowing the park.

Bradford Cragin of New York was a guest over Sunday of his sister Mrs. Raymond Lewis at the summer home on Broadway.

Miss Hazel Draper of Rockville was visiting her father George Draper on Broadway Sunday.

Supervisor of the town schools, James W. Frost and family returned Sunday from attending the summer school for supervisors near Boston.

Charles J. Lyman, who has been confined to his home on Norwich avenue, for several days on account of illness was able to be at his place of business Monday.

A. Goldstein returned Monday from a few days business trip in New York. Iva Gifford of Salem was here Monday.

NORTH STERLING

Samuel Witherly and daughters Edna and Lois and two grandchidren of Plainfield visited Mr. and Mrs. George C. Spooner and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crowell one day the past week.

Mrs. Benjamin Hall and daughter of Providence, R. I., visited friends here Monday.

Miss Mildred Pierce is camping with relatives for two weeks in New Hampshire.

B. H. Benway and family, and Mrs. Anthon, Kilday, of East Killingly, visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams of Pawtucket, R. I. spent two days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crowell.

C. R. Pierce and family were in Providence Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crowell, George C. Spooner and Robert Spooner motored to Scituate, R. I., the past week to see the great dam, which will supply the city of Providence with water.

MANSFIELD CENTER

The Christian Endeavor society served a cafeteria supper on the church lawn Friid y evening. Small tables from larger tables placed near the entrance. Small tables held olives, milk, cake, ice cream and soft drinks were served. Mrs. Harold James was chairman. Mrs. Willis Haner impersonating a Gypsy told fortunes, and Clarence Anthony and Harold Hawkins were clowns.

Rev. and Mrs. T. Hawthorne Jones returned Saturday from a visit of a few days in Torrington and Torringford. They left Monday to spend a few days in Providence.

THE BOSTON STORE
THE REID & HUGHES COMPANY
NORWICH CONNECTICUT

A Remnant Sale of Silks

One-third to One-half Off the Regular Price.

Here's an opportunity for you to pick up some very usable lengths of attractive summer fabrics. Printed Silks, Plain Crepe-de-Chine, Satins, Flat Crepes, Habutai, Printed Georgette and Black Silks. Many lengths are long enough for a child's dress or a pretty blouse for yourself, others will do beautifully for trimming. The prices are remarkably low.

BUFFET SET
39c
A three-piece buffet set, stamped for crocheting on Belgian Linen. Complete set of instructions with each set. A fortunate purchase by our buyer enables us to sell these at 39c.

Gift Sale of the Famous ST. DENIS BATH SALTS and DUSTING POWDER
Assorted Odors—One for 25c
Assorted Odors—Two for 26c

Treo and Nemo Brand GIRDLES
$5.00
Models adapted for all types of figure. Expertly fitted.

"The Thoroughfare"
Main Aisle
Shannon Store

Hundreds of women are already taking advantage of the money-saving opportunities on the New Thoroughfare. ARE YOU? 15 reasons why you should shop on The Thoroughfare Today—

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 1
ALL LINEN GUEST TOWELS—Stamped for embroidery— Value 75c—For, Each 50c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 2
CHILDREN'S MUSLIN BLOOMERS—Lace trimmed— Special at 39c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 3
MEN'S ALL SILK PONGEE HANDKERCHIEFS—Hand-drawn colored threads. Value 65c—For, Each.. 39c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 4
PLAY SUITS—Two pieces, made of heavy chambray. Sailor collar and tie attached. 3 to 6 years—Special 79c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 5
RAYON VESTS—White and orchid—Sizes 36 to 42— For, Each $1.00

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 6
CHILDREN'S SOCKS—Plain and fancy—Sizes 6½ to 10— For, Pair 50c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 7
WOMEN'S LISLE SPORT HOSE—All sizes. $1.50 and $2.00 values—For $1.39

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 8
HALF WOOL BLANKETS—Size 66x80, in pink and blue plaids. Value $6.00—For $3.95

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 9
LACE TRIMMED PILLOW CASES—Size 45x36. Value $1.00—For Pair 79c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 10
SILK-FINISH POPLIN—27 inches wide. Value 39c—For, Yard.... 29c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 11
IRONING BOARD COVERS—Made of heavy muslin. Will fit any board—Each 29c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 12
MEN'S COTTON and MERCERIZED PAJAMAS—Well made and trimmed with silk frogs. All sizes— For, Each $1.19

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 13
BOYS' UNDERWAISTS—Made of Fruit of the Loom Cotton, in two styles—Each 39c

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 14
RADIUM SLIPS—All silk. Sizes 36 to 42. Colors green, peach, yellow, rose, also white and grey— Special $2.50

THOROUGHFARE TABLE No. 15
PICTURES—Le Busch's Nature Subjects. Value $1.25—For, Each 79c

WILLIAMS' ROOT BEER EXTRACT
SPARKLING REFRESHING DELICIOUS
AT ALL GROCERS
The Williams & Clarkson Co.
EAST HARTFORD CONN.
5 GALLONS for 25¢

1796 1926

Norwich Bulletin and Courier

130 YEARS OLD

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Suscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms, 35-3
Bulletin Job Room 35-2
Willimantic Office, 354 Main St. Telephone 1331-2.

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Wednesday, August 18, 1926

Daily Average Circulation
WEEK ENDING AUG. 14, 1926:
12,778

ADMINISTRATION'S FARM PLAN

[illegible] conferences [illegible] Coolidge Senator [illegible] Secretary Hoover and [illegible] agriculture leaders [illegible] agricultural marketing as the one [illegible] solution to the farm problem. [illegible] plan is not [illegible] It is simply a further offer of [illegible] to the farmer. Private credits, [illegible] insurance and [illegible] interests, are to be [illegible] the farmer extend the [illegible] marketing system. In [illegible] is expected to help in holding [illegible] orderly marketing their surpluses. It is understood that [illegible] will be made available [illegible] have been to the war finance [illegible] and the use of $10,000,000 [illegible] years ago to [illegible] the wheat farmers of the northwest out of a hole.

The plan has a double purpose. It is hoped that giving the farmer more credit will bring him prosperity and [illegible] But there is a [illegible] that further credits [illegible] cannot satisfy every[illegible] the more radical elements [illegible] thereby undermine the entire [illegible] The Government will not go any farther [illegible] by making [illegible] a farm subsidy. [illegible] that this will not be favored in the [illegible] farmer is not much [illegible] credits. What [illegible] more money in the [illegible] some direct form [illegible] He has not been about co[illegible] and they put too [illegible] upon him. Price[illegible] would be much easier, so much [illegible] and direct. McNary-[illegible] with its price guarantees, [illegible] imagination. The [illegible] the east dominates [illegible] and discriminates [illegible] in respect of revenge [illegible] threatens to destroy [illegible] farmers are denied. [illegible] but no price-fixing and is [illegible] anything else.

[illegible] projects. It [illegible] patiently explored [illegible] but in the end [illegible] back to co-operative marketing as [illegible] solution. By the use [illegible] public credit, [illegible] to be stimulated, [illegible] and new life breathed [illegible] farmers [illegible] and they [illegible] for all [illegible]

[illegible] path may be [illegible] does not meet the [illegible] too much emotion [illegible] for it to [illegible] it may be the [illegible] but it is not what [illegible] Any re[illegible] of congress. [illegible] the so-called [illegible] of McNary-[illegible] will satisfy the corn [illegible] administration [illegible] in the long run, it [illegible] comply with farm demands. [illegible] to be seen to just what [illegible] will succeed in check the political [illegible] in the corn belt, or how [illegible] nothing at all the political [illegible] of the farm problem.

THE NEW YORK REFERENDUM

[illegible] decision that Judge [illegible] New York supreme court [illegible] day in upholding the [illegible] proposed [illegible] referendum on the Volstead act he was asked upon [illegible] application [illegible] against submitting the [illegible] to the people by a referendum. [illegible] The justice discusses the [illegible] question of temperance and [illegible] upon in a sane moderate and [illegible] that what he says [illegible] general reading.

[illegible] reasons for denying [illegible] he gives a synopsis of [illegible] evils of intemperance, [illegible] that "habitual drunkness [illegible] and crime, hastens [illegible] destroys friends and [illegible] disease, season and [illegible] danger. Its blighting [illegible] one hundred and fifty [illegible] produced in our land [illegible] without windows, gardens [illegible] fields, roofs without tillage, [illegible] with roofs, and children [illegible] clothes, principles or morals." He reminds us, prohibition [illegible] devised to eliminate these [illegible] When he sums up the claims of [illegible] the evils of Volsteadism, Judge [illegible] says they are as follows: [illegible] constitutes an unwarranted [illegible] of personal liberty; that it [illegible] confiscation of property [illegible] due process of law or compensation; that it was wrong in principle as substituting for self control [illegible] restraint; that it has [illegible] excesses; drinking and [illegible] to make drunkenness common; that it has undermined the public [illegible] by the substitution and practice of inferior and at times poisonous drinks for relatively harmless wines and liquors; that it is incapable of enforcement because running counter to the public judgment; that it breeds contempt for law; that it has clogged court calendars, impeded private litigants, delayed the administration of both civil and criminal justice and impaired the security of property; that it has made a new form of organized criminality pecuniarily so profitable that an army of bootleggers defying the law pursue it in every state of the union; that it has created an army of federal officials and a nationwide system of governmental espionage, and that it has increased the cost of government while cutting off a source of national revenue, and they regard the Volstead act as going beyond the requirements of the Eighteenth Amendment."

This all makes a chain of circumstances which brings Judge Crain to conclude that it is only reasonable that the voters of New York state should have a chance to say at the polls what they think of the law. Whatever they say there will be no immediate legal effect, for the Volstead act will still be on the national statute books; but congress will have heard from the greatest state in the Union. Other states will hold similar referendums in November, and if an overwhelming dissatisfaction with Volsteadism were shown in all parts of the country, our lawmakers at Washington would no doubt sit up and take notice.

AMERICAN NEEDS ABROAD

The United States, says the shipping board, is not a self-sustaining nation. This statement is a somewhat extreme generalization, but it is none the less salutary as a reminder and warning. On the whole, the dominant current of popular thought today underestimates the extent of the dependence of the United States on foreign sources of supply for certain great essential commodities. A people who, though possessing only six per cent of the world's population, raised 25 per cent of the world's total supply of wheat and 30 per cent of other cereals in 1924, naturally thinks of itself with large confidence.

But with America's vast resources in grain, oil, cotton, coal, iron and copper justifiably contributing to our people's sense of economic self-sufficiency, there are other assets in our national balance sheet which tend to inflate this popular confidence in a mistaken manner. For example, the United States, as the public knows, had in 1924 eighty-three per cent of the automobiles and motor trucks in the world. 58 per cent of the world's telegraph and telephone wire mileage, and 33 per cent of the world's railroad mileage. Now such a record as this is of course invaluable as evidence of American prosperity, progressiveness and productivity. But if it is used, as the average American uses it, merely as a further ground for enlarging his sense of this nation's economic self-sufficiency, it risks grave misapplication. For one must remember that to the very extent that the United States outstrips all other nations in the present employment and service of the leading instruments of modern economic civilization, to that extent is it more important to the United States than to any other nation to make sure that this country will continue to enjoy uninterrupted access to all the essential raw materials entering the manufacture of these instruments.

In this connection, one must never forget, for instance, the point made by Professor Charles K. Leith at Williamstown, the other day, when he remarked that "every time an American steps into an automobile he creates a mandate for the continued supply of some thirty different commodities, the chief sources of which all lie outside the United States." We have an immense economic and industrial development here, but that is not only a reason for national pride and satisfaction. It is also an excellent reason why we should not exaggerate our national self-sufficiency, and why, on the contrary, we should recognize more and more clearly how vital it is that trade doors should be kept open as widely as possible to the United States in every quarter of the globe, and in every one of the raw material markets which, since the war, have been more and more hedged about by restrictive monopolies.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The early campaign keynote speech may need revision before the season is over.

Whatever is going on in Russia, it is always a good place for rumor to start a revolution.

Jack Dempsey says he is not a street fighter; nor any other kind it sometimes seems.

When the dear old summer is over at least we shall remember that President Coolidge caught a fish.

One of the hardest things is to keep up with and out of the way of the 1927 model automobiles.

There is to be a record orchard crop this year, but that does not necessarily mean any cheaper apples.

New Jersey is such a wet state that nobody need be surprised if the same leopard is seen in two places at once.

The senatorial quiz seems to have spent a lot of money to find out that some politicians spent a lot of money.

One of the strongest things is how a man with ordinary eyesight loses out when it comes to seeing a stop signal.

General Andrews declares that rum row has been demolished by his pact with Great Britain. It must be a high-powered pact.

Talking movies, if they eliminate the fellow who always reads the titles aloud, will be welcomed as a scientific achievement.

The farmer, like every other citizen, is more or less inclined to complicate his affairs by nursing a get-rich-quick ambition.

The man on the corner says; Uncle Sam doesn't encourage thrift in the rich when it is displayed in smuggling past the custom house.

If payment to workers at the polls is forbidden, senatorial primaries in Illinois and Pennsylvania will be mighty tests of the party patriots.

PREDICTIONS

"I've decided what I'll do if I ever have to earn my own living," declared the pretty girl who would have to talk fast if she would keep the devoted young man from saying what he most evidently wanted to say.

"There isn't the slightest necessity of your earning anything!" the young man burst out instantly. "If—"

"It would be the easiest job on earth to relate their futures to people," the pretty girl went on as though she had not heard him. "I proved it today when I was lunching downtown. There was a fat lady at the next table wearing out one of her sleeveless dresses beneath her fur coat and looking terribly queer when she slipped the coat from her shoulders. She had the kind of arms the possession of which should put a woman on a voluntary diet of lemons and toothpicks. So right away, looking into the future, I decided that when her lunch came it would prove to be something creamed, hot chocolate with plenty of whipped cream, chocolate fudge, pecan cake and ice cream and my only mistake was that I forgot the salted nuts and cottage cream cheese!

"There was a girl sitting all alone a little farther down the row of tables. She had not ordered and every two minutes she would reopen her vanity case and powder her nose, tuck back a wisp of hair, anxiously survey an eyebrow and occasionally dab on more rouge and tip her hat a bit more over one eye.

"'Young woman,' I mentally said to her, in five or ten minutes a tall, handsome dark or blond young man is coming through the entrance, will look eagerly around the room and then head for your table radiating smiles that will melt every frozen dessert he passes by on his way to you! The first remark he makes will be, have-you-been-waiting-long-dear, and your answer will be, I- thought-you-never-were-coming-George, and then you will claim that you aren't a particle hungry and he'll say 'nonsense!' and proceed to order a spiffy luncheon and then not in the least know what he is eating as he talks to you! Really, I was almost scared when it all happened just a I had predicted to myself!"

"Wonderful!" declared the devoted young man. "Did you ever try to predict—"

"I really think such powers should be utilized," the pretty girl went on determinedly. "Think how much good I could do! When a sloppy-looking married woman with run-down heels and straggly hair, a shirt too long and hat too old, dropped in to see if there was anything ahead of the same it would be no trick at all to say, 'Madam, you want to look out for a young, up-to-date, stylish blond who knows how to use lipstick and has tried 13 shades of rouge before finding just the one to suit her; she has her eye on your husband and he is slipping.' Or when a fat, seedy man whose coat collar needed brushing came in to ask if his gold mine stock bought at 5 cents a share is going up into the millions within the year I could tell him that, unless he quit dreaming of fabulous wealth that was going to descend upon him unearned and go to work, he was bound to die of obesity in six months and his wife was apt to drop dead at the washtub before then.

"Listen!" broke in the devoted young man sitting down beside her and taking possession of both hands. "Put your powers to work on this! When a desperate young man who positively will not take no for an answer proposes to the most wonderful girl in all the world who already has refused him five times what is she going to tell him on the sixth occasion? That is, if she really can see into the future and realizes that he is going to keep right on asking the same question month in and month out forever and ever until—"

"Oh, my grief!" sighed the pretty girl somewhat contentedly as she let her head remain on the shoulder that had appeared suddenly just beneath it. "It looks to me as though she were getting tired of being contrary and was going to say yes for a change! That's easy!"—Exchange.

Today's Birthdays

Prince Nicholas, second son of the king and queen of Roumania, born 23 years ago today.

Hamilton Holt, noted editor and publicist, now president of Rollins college, born in Brooklyn, N. Y., 54 years ago today.

Bishop Francis J. McConnell, of the Methodist Episcopal church, born at Trinway, O., 55 years ago today.

Jack Pickford, a well-known actor in the films and brother of the famous Mary, born in Toronto, 30 years ago today.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Ben Tillett, who heads the delegation that has come to America to solicit aid for the wives and children of the striking British coal miners, is a well-known figure in all movements affecting the welfare of the workers, whether of the British Isles or of other countries. Few men have had a more strenuous struggle than this "leader of men." As a boy he travelled over England with a circus troupe, afterwards being sent to work in a brickyard. When he was 12 he "signed on" as one of the crew of a fishing smack. A year later he returned home to be apprenticed to a bootmaker. But sea life could not be laid aside, so he joined the navy. After serving his king and country in that capacity for some years, he was invalided out of the service. Then it was that he set about organizing the dock workers, of which he has since been the dominant leader.

Today's Anniversaries

1830—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria - Hungary, born at Schoenbrunn. Died there, Nov. 21, 1916.

1850—John P Gaines became third territorial governor of Oregon.

1852—Margaret Smith Taylor, widow of President Zachary Taylor, died in Louisiana. Born in Calvert county, Va., about 1790.

1870—Battle of Gravelotte, in which the French under Marshal Bazaine met a crushing defeat at the hands of the Prussians.

1890—Davis Dalton, an American, claimed to have swam the English channell from Cape Gris Nez to Folestone.

1910—A bronze statue of Washington, presented by Virginia to France, was unveiled in Paris.

1916—U. S. house of representatives passed the Philippine bill, granting the islands an increased measure of independence.

1924—Governor Bryan of Nebraska accepted the democratic nomination for vice president.

1925—The Belgian debt agreement was signed by representatives of Belgium and the United States at Washington, D. C.

YOUR HEALTH

Acute Appendicitis

By RICHARD R. SMITH, M. D.
Grand Rapids
Member Gorgas Memorial Institute

The control of acute appendicitis constitutes one of the greatest conquests of modern surgery and when one regards the frightful mortality, frequent serious complications and prolonged invalidism that were almost the rule in the pre-surgical days of this affection, the surgeon may well look upon present day results with satisfaction. But the acute abdominal pain always calls for attention until its cause can be definitely determined. To be sure, that cause is often innocent, but it may often mean an attack of appendicitis or some other serious trouble, that calls for great skill.

The first pain of acute appendicitis is usually not located over the appendix itself, but over a considerable area of the abdomen or commonly in the pit of the stomach. When pain occurs in the abdomen the patient should go immediately to bed, abstain from food, water, and above all from cathartics or laxatives, since such tend to spread the inflammation.

If the pain is severe or lasts more than three hours a physician should be called. It is not always easy to determine the diagnosis at once, but if appendicitis is reasonably certain or strongly suggested he will send his patient to the hospital where he may be properly cared for, or he will at least summon surgical aid. Certain examinations at a well equipped hospital may be very useful in clearing away uncertainties. If the diagnosis of appendicitis is certain or reasonably so, a surgeon will remove the appendix before the inflammation has spread beyond control. When every step before operation has been well taken, one may reasonably expect a prompt recovery, a minimum of suffering, and a permanent relief from this treacherous disease which has threatened his life.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Idiots or Villains?

Mr. Editor: Are you idiots or villains? I mean you who drive motor vehicles in the highway on Spring Hill, Mansfield, Conn., at a rate of speed exceeding 35 miles an hour. If you don't know any better you ought not to be allowed to operate a motor vehicle anywhere, and if you do know better then you surely ought not to be granted that privilege. If you are alone on a straight, broad, level, smooth stretch of road, where there are no houses and no other vehicle or person in sight, and you want to risk your own neck by doing that sort of thing, no one is going to do very much kicking, but you have no right—no moral right—to do so under any other circumstances or conditions. Don't try to fool yourself with the idea that it is smart or cunning to do that kind of a thing, and nothing can possibly make it necessary. I consider it a diabolical insult to the people who live in the houses along that highway, and particularly so because there are at least 25 children under 15 years of age. But, I suppose if you belong to either of the two classes mentioned above any appeal of this kind will have no effect.

UNCLE BILLY.

Aug. 17, 1926.

MIDDLE AGE BRINGS NEW INTERESTS

For Women in Good Health

MRS. HARVEY TUCKER
408 WALKER STREET, SHELBYVILLE, IND.

"Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be"

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women of middle age, say they owe their vigor and health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Those who have learned through their own experience the merit of this dependable medicine are enthusiastic in recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

"I had been in bad condition for three months. I could not do my work. One day I read what your medicine had done and just had a feeling that it would help me, so I sent and got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had only taken half a bottle when I got up and started to do my work. It gave me an appetite, and helped me wonderfully. I can not praise this medicine highly enough. I surely will advise all women and girls to take it, and they don't have to use rouge to look healthy. My two daughters are taking it now and one is also using the Sanative Wash. I am willing to have you use this testimonial and I will answer letters from women asking about the medicine."—Mrs. Harvey Tucker, 408 Walker St., Shelbyville, Indiana.

"I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the little books you give away and began to take the medicine. After the first few bottles I began to feel better and could eat better and had fewer headaches. I feel like a different person. At anytime that I don't feel good I take the Vegetable Compound again, as I always keep a bottle on hand. You may use this letter for every word is true. I will answer any letters sent to me."—Mrs. Jennie Bollerman, 516 Smith St., West Hoboken, N. J.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Leather Eggs

Don't say a think cannot be so,
Until you know you really know.
—Graywing the Gull.

Reddy Fox had found cast up on the beach a curious creature. It was dead. Reddy supposed it must be some kind of fish, but it wasn't like any fish he had ever seen. It was big and flat and round and had a long, rather spike like tail, and its mouth was on the under side. Reddy isn't overparticular about what he eats, but somehow this thing didn't look appetizing. He turned up his nose at it. When he saw Graywing the Gull a few moments later, he asked Graywing what it was.

"It's a fish," replied Graywing.

"Thank you," said Reddy. "What kind of a fish?"

"It's a Skate," replied Graywing.

"A what?" exclaimed Reddy.

"A Skate," repeated Graywing.

"All right, I suppose it is so if you say so," said Reddy. "But it's a mighty funny looking fish, if you ask me."

"It's a fish," replied Graywing

"Oh," replied Graywing, "that isn't a funny-looking fish. You wouldn't think so if you could see some of the really funny-looking fish that there are in the sea. Haven't you found any eggs of the Skate?"

"Not that I know of," replied Reddy. "Since being told that those Sand Collars are made of eggs and sand, I begin to think that I don't know anything about eggs. Are these eggs rolled up in sand too?"

"No," said Graywing. "You must have found some of the empty shells around in the seaweed. If you haven't you haven't used your eyes."

"Well, I certainly haven't seen any eggs," retorted Reddy. "I haven't seen any eggs and I haven't seen any empty eggshells. What are you laughing at?"

Graywing was chuckling. There was no doubt about it. Graywing was chuckling. Reddy had a suspicion that he was being laughed at, and he didn't like it. "You've got one paw on an eggshell now," said Graywing, and chuckled more than ever.

Reddy looked down. His forefeet were resting on a roll of seaweed which had been washed up by the waves. Under one paw was a black thing. It was about two and one-half inches long and two inches wide, and at each of the four corners was a long, black, stringlike thing, which was hollow. The whole thing was leathery, shiny, and unlike anything Reddy had ever seen. He had taken it for granted that it was a part of the seaweed.

"Do you mean this thing?" he inquired, lifting his foot.

Graywing nodded. "Yes," said he, "that's the eggshell of a Skate."

"What are these long string things on the corners for?" inquired Reddy, who couldn't for the life of him see anything egg-like about that thing.

"Oh," replied Graywing, "those eggs are laid in the water and those string like things wind around the seaweed and cling to it. If that seaweed hadn't been washed up by the water, that eggshell wouldn't have come up on shore. It came along with the seaweed. I've heard that some folks call these eggshells 'Mermaids' Purses.'"

"Huh!" said Reddy. "If you ask me, I'll say that a Skate is a queer fish; and a Skate's egg is just as queer. Anyway, I'm glad to know what these things are. I find I'm learning a lot from you, Graywing, and I'm much obliged to you."

"Pray don't mention it," replied Graywing. "I find I am learning some things myself."

"What?" inquired Reddy curiously.

"How little some folks know," answered Graywing, and off he flew.

The next story: "The Prickly Porky of the Sea."

Salaries of employes of municipal water works are exempt from taxation, the board of tax appeals held today in dismissing a claim for taxes on the salary of P. Frank Durkin, superintendent of the bureau of water of Syracuse, N. Y., for the years 1922 and 1923.

The Plaut-Cadden Co.

Savings You Should Not Miss In Our August SALE

These Few Great Underselling Values Are Typical of the Opportunities This Sale Offers

Hand Decorated Parchment Shade
FLOOR LAMPS $7.90
Regular $15 values. The stands are of wrought iron, attractively designed and finished. Complete with cord and plug.

Bridge Reading Lamps
With Parchment shades and wrought iron stands $3.90

Regular $6 Porch Rockers
$3.95
Good, strong comfortable Rockers. Ideal for year 'round use. Natural finish. Cane seats. Slat backs.

$7.50 Willow Arm Rockers
$4.65
Bar Harbor round arm style as shown. Finished in natural.

Reg. $65 3-Piece WICKER SUITES—Settee, Arm Chair and Rocker. Cretonne upholstered $32.50

Reg. $75 3-Piece WICKER SUITES—Settee, Arm Chair and Rocker. Cretonne upholstered $45.00

Reg. $130 8-Piece WALNUT SUITES—Consisting of Extension Table, Buffet and 6 Chairs $72

Reg. 9-Piece QUEEN ANNE SUITES in Walnut—Extension Table, China, Buffet and 6 Chairs ... $98

Reg. $155 8-Piece WALNUT SUITES—Bowfoot Bed, Three-Mirror Full Vanity, Chiffarobe ... $109

Regular $255 4-Piece WALNUT SUITES—Bowfoot Bed, Dresser, Full 3-Mirror Vanity and Chiffarobe $159

Regular $38 3-Piece BEDROOM OUTFITS—Metal Bed, Spring and Good Cotton Mattress $24.50

Kitchen Tables
Reg. $8.90—Sale Price $6.50
Finished in white or gray enamel, with porcelain tops and drawer. Rigidly built. Unusually good value.

DINERS
$2.65
Reg. $3.50. Strongly built and finished in mahogany.

ICE BOXES REDUCED
All styles to select from—at Sale Prices Low As $7.85

8-Day MANTEL CLOCKS
Mahogany finished cases. Dependable movement. Hour and half-hour gong strike.
Reg. $13.50 ..... $6.75

EVERYTHING REDUCED

The Best in Electric Refrigeration and Oil Heating

SERV-EL

We Are Exclusive Eastern Conn. Distributors of These Two World Leaders in Home Conveniences.

WILLIAMS OILOMATIC HEATING

The Plaut-Cadden Co
ESTABLISHED 1876
TWO BIG STORES UNITED ONE BIG BUYING ORGANIZATION
EVERYTHING FOR THE HOME AND EVERYTHING IN MUSIC

FOR SKIN TORTURES

Zemo, the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Just What You Need

Don't worry about Eczema or other skin troubles. You can have a clear, healthy skin by using Zemo.

Zemo generally removes Pimples, Blackheads, Blotches, Eczema and Ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zemo is a clean, penetrating, antiseptic liquid, that does not show and may be applied day or night.

Ask your druggist for a small size 60c or large bottle $1.00.

Beech-Nut Breakfast Coffee

For an especially fine flavored coffee you can't do better than Beech-Nut Breakfast Coffee. We sell it.

THUMM'S DELICATESSEN STORE

40 FRANKLIN STREET

CHAFING, ITCHING SKIN

INSTANTLY RELIEVED BY

Sykes Comfort POWDER

HEALS THE SKIN

FOR 30 YEARS NOTHING AS GOOD

Electrical Contracting is a specialty of ours. We give careful attention to every job of electrical work.

If you want a new lighting system installed send for us. If you have a small job of wiring or repair work we can give it expert attention.

Try us if it's

ELECTRICAL

RADIOS AND RADIO SUPPLIES

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 8 O'CLOCK

J. WALSKI

WASHINGTON SQUARE

"CATCHER TO CUSTOMER"

All native varieties brought to your table without delay: Sword, Butter Flounders, Mackerel, Lobster, Little Necks, Clams, Large Prime Soft Crabs at

POWERS BROS.

16 BATH ST. Phone 114

Alfred A. Carroi, 56 years old, of New Haven, was returned to state prison yesterday from White Plains, N. Y., where he went last Monday in violation of his parole.

FLY-TOX

Kills Roaches

Developed at World's Foremost Scientific Industrial Research Institute. Will not stain. Pleasant odor. Harmless to humans and animals.

AT YOUR RETAILER'S

1700 1926

Norwich, Wednesday, August 18, 1926

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 7:15 (S. T.) this evening.

Goodyear's annual field day is to be held this year on Saturday, Sept. 4.

Letters reaching Norwich come marked with the new post office stamp, "Air mail saves time."

The length of the day has now decreased an even hour and a half, since the longest days in June.

Tents and campers' supplies have had a better sale since the last hot wave and excessive humidity.

Miss Eleanor Marzin and Miss Doris Gilmour of New London are spending a few days at Crystal lake in Stafford.

The leader appointed for the family gathering at the Central Baptist church Thursday evening is Harold S. Burt.

Katy-dids have been chirping for a week at Ballouville, foretelling a frost inside of six weeks—according to an old belief.

Dr. Coyles' office will be closed till August 23rd.—adv.

Inspectors of the federal government have been at Lord's Point examining the corn fields for European corn borers.

There was so marked a drop in the temperature early Tuesday morning that many Norwich residents slept under blankets.

This week's weather has not been very favorable for cottagers and others improving the last half month of the vacation season.

Many Watch Hill summer residents have attended the annual exhibitions of the Lyme Art association and Society of Mystic Artists.

At Old Lyme, Conductor Peter Duprey, of the Valley branch, who has been confined to his home by illness for three weeks, is improved in health.

Michael Piacensa was the only barber from the town of Groton, belonging to local 330, who attended the Barbers' picnic held at Crescent Beach.

At Norwich Almshouse this summer Supt. Charles E. Ellis has growing about 2 1-2 acres of nice looking field corn. There is also an acre of fine sweet corn.

In the Norwich court house grounds Supt. J. J. Fields has a nice display of blossoming petunias, geraniums, cosmos, phlox, cannas and other summer flowers.

Mrs. L. C. Livermore of Lebanon and Kissimmee, Fla., recently was at the Wigwam cottage, Pleasant View, while on a motor trip along the Atlantic coast.

The hostess at the D. A. R. Museum this (Wednesday) afternoon will be Mrs. E. Allen Bidwell.

Salem library committee met the other night when plans for the annual sale for the benefit of the library were formulated, the sale to be held on the center green.

Fire of undetermined origin Sunday morning destroyed a barn belonging to John F. Mullen of Broad street extension, Groton, the damage amounting to about $1,000.

Leading Norwich merchants paid the Italian citizens a fine compliment Tuesday evening by flying their Shenandoah flags for the parade and postponed fireworks celebration.

Many of the cloth coats are fur lined this season, buyers returning from New York say, the fur being mainly German kid dyed to imitate leopard, civet cat, chipmunk, etc.

There is to be a United States civil service examination for heraldic draftsman at $1,860 a year. The appointee must be capable of designing coats of arms for heraldic blazonry.

Mrs. Howard Stanley, lecturer of Andover grange, and Miss Julia Perkins are on the ten days' tour and attending the New England Grange Lecturers' conference, at Orono, Me.

A birthday party was given in Sterling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Peloquin recently in honor of Mr. Peloquin's 60th birthday. Ten of his grand-children were present at the supper.

Belts of gold kid for women's dresses are proving especially popular, both in the solid color and in combination with black. The belts most in demand run in width from three-eighths of an inch to an inch and a half.

The walls of the new fire station being constructed on Atlantic avenue at Pleasant View, have reached the highest point and steel girders have been placed which will help to support the roof.

Rockville will be quiet Thursday. All stores and places of business will be closed for the annual outing of the Rockville Chamber of Commerce. The outing this year will be held at Sandy Beach, Crystal lake.

A Tolland young woman, Miss Bernice Hall is home from the Springfield Public library for a month's vacation after which she will have charge of the children's department at the Indian Orchard library.

Miss Freelove Place, of Moosup Valley, a recent graduate of Rhode Island college of Education, has been appointed a state critic teacher by the board of education. She will be located in the grammar school at Jamestown.

Friends in Norwich have been invited to the garden party under the auspices of the New London chapter of the Association of University Women, to be held at the Winship estate, formerly Father Riggs' mansion, on Ocean avenue.

The children at the Tolland County Temporary Home, at Vernon Center, will be entertained Saturday afternoon by Rockville lodge, No. 1547, Loyal Order of Moose, and the Rockville Home club. The lodge will take a band and a special orchestra to the home.

Salaries of employes of municipal water works are exempt from taxation, the board of tax appeals at Washington held in dismissing a claim for taxes on the salary of P. Frank Durkin, superintendent of the bureau of water of Syracuse, N. Y., for 1922 and 1923.

Mrs. Elisha Flagg, mother of James Montgomery Flagg of New York, artist and illustrator, suffered a broken shoulder and lacerations of the forehead in an automobile accident at Biddeford Pool, Me.

FUNERAL NOTICES

BUCKLEY—In Montville, Aug. 17, 1926, Gladys Mildred Johnson, wife of Thomas D. Buckley, aged 22 years.

Funeral from her late home (Palmertown) Montville, Thursday afternoon, Aug. 18, at 2:30 o'clock (d. s. t.) Burial in Comstock cemetery.

SWEENEY—In Norwich, Aug. 17th, 1926, John T. Sweeney, of 288 Central avenue.

Funeral from his late residence, Friday morning, Aug. 20th, at 8:15. Requiem mass in St. Mary's Memorial church at 9 o'clock. Burial in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery.

PERSONALS

Miss Helen Moran of Norwich is visiting at the home of Mrs. William Leary of Stillman avenue, Westerly.

Simon Mesnier and Peter Levenoche, long time residents of Ballouville, are moving with their families to Norwich Falls.

Elizabeth S. Rafferty, W. F. Rafferty, Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Nettleton, Rockville, Conn., are among recent registrations at the Plimpton House, Watch Hill.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Sleeper and son, Harold R. Sleeper of Groton and Miss Mary Sendora of Groton were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Finn of Jewett City.

Laurent Genard of Baltic and Town Clerk William H. Buteau of Moosup are on a ten day motor trip to visit friends and relatives in St. Alban's and Randolph, Vt.

Dr. Thomas H. Gallivan of Hartford with his wife and son, sail from New York Saturday on the Tuscania, intending to spend four weeks touring in England and Ireland.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nolan and family who have been spending a month in Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Baltic and Norwich, have returned to their home in Chicago.

Miss Elizabeth A. McCabe, of Grove street, Norwich, has returned from a vacation spent in Hartford with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donahue, in motor trips to various points.

Mrs. Anna Merris of Bradford, R. I., has returned from a visit with her brother, Dr. Myron M. Maine, at his home in Bolton Notch. She also visited Wales and points of special interest on Lake George.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Ernest R. Smith

After being in poor health for several years the death of Josephine O. Levander, beloved wife of Ernest R. Smith, occurred Tuesday morning at 12:45 o'clock at her home at No. 12 Bliss place. Mrs. Smith was born in Sweden September 7, 1884 and came to this country in early life. On May 18, 1901, in this city, she was united in marriage with Ernest R. Smith of Norwich.

She was a member of the Trinity Episcopal church and was a woman of kindly qualities, possessing a host of friends who learned of her death with sincere regret. She was a faithful and loving wife and mother and in her passing a loved one has been taken, whose place can never be filled.

Besides her husband Mrs. Smith leaves a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Barrie of Norwich and a son, Albert Smith, also of Norwich.

Mrs. Lester L. West.

(Contributed)

News of the passing of Eleanor Osborn, beloved wife of the late Lester L. West, D. D., a former pastor of the old Second Congregational church of Norwich, brings real grief to many homes in this city. The seven wonderful years of her life, and of his among us are written deep in hearts that can never forget.

Mr. West was born in Belmont, Wisconsin, in 1853. At Tabor, Iowa, in 1874 she was united in marriage with Dr. West. Both had attended Tabor college, Dr. West also graduating later from Union Theological seminary in Chicago. Although an invalid for many years, her loving sympathy and charming personality were a great help to her husband in the forty years of his ministry in Fort Dodge, Ia., Winona, Minn., Norwich, Conn. and Everett, Washington. Indeed one cannot separate, even in thought, those two lives—she the loved wife and co-operator always, through those long years of her invalidism, and, later, when a large measure of health returned, to be of greatest assistance when she needed it most during the years of, his failing health and final passing.

Before coming to Norwich in 1902, their daughters, Irene and Margaret, spent a year abroad. This year of travel was taken in part to help alleviate the pain and the heart break of the death by three of their children, Winifred, age 11 years, Eleanor, age nine and an only son, Paul, age sixteen.

While in charge of the parish in Everett, Washington, Dr. West's health failed and he was forced to give up a definite pastorate. He continued his preaching, however, by supplying in various places in southern California. After his death in December 1916, Mrs. West and her daughter Margaret went to Los Angeles to live.

During the later years of her life Mrs. West saw a number of her old college friends, Rev. O. V. Rice whose wife was her girlhood friend and who himself was a college mate of Dr. West's, officiated at the funeral services in Glendale, Cal., on July 30th.

Many relatives of both Dr. and Mrs. West attended the service. Mrs. West's remains have been cremated and the ashes sent to Winona, Minn., for interment with those of her husband and three children who had passed.

Mrs. West leaves two daughters, Mrs. Irene W. Wells of Cambridge Mass., and Mrs. Margaret W. Moss of Glendale, Calif., and a grandson, Lloyd Kent Moss, also two sisters, Mrs. Belle Webber of Cambridge, Neb. and Mrs. Lester Anderson of Merna, Neb.

Loving sympathy reaches out to the Glendale home, of which Mrs. West has been a member during these last years, and to the Cambridge home where she spent a happy summer only a few years ago.

BACKUS HOSPITAL GRADS RECEIVE R. N. DEGREE

Word has been received at the Backus hospital from Hartford that the entire graduating class of 1926 have successfully passed their state board examinations and received the degree of R. N. The class comprises Grace L. Mahoney, Colchester; Mary A. Burdick, Mystic; Sigrid C. Aston, Massapoag; Margaret T. Lynch, Fitchville; Julia A. Savage, Taftville; Helen H. Bjurstrom, Norwich; F. Cherrilla Smith, Norwich; and Dorothy C. Doolittle, Poquetanuck.

FLAG DISPLAY FOR CIVIL WAR VETERANS

Main street and the principal streets of the city where the Shenandoah flag system has been installed, was in full dress attire Tuesday, the national colors being displayed in honor of the "Boys in Blue" who were holding their 63d annual reunion in this city. The veterans of the 26th regiment, Connecticut Volunteers met Tuesday in this city and today (Wednesday) the city will be host to veterans of the 18th regiment, Connecticut Volunteers.

On Auto Tour To Detroit

Mr. and Mrs. Appleton Main of Poquetanuck and Mr. and Mrs. Allan York of Hartford left Monday for an automobile trip to Detroit, Mich., via Niagara Falls and the Great Lakes. On the return trip they will stop in Philadelphia to attend the sesqui-centennial.

President Borno of Haiti has given complete amnesty to all persons charged with political offences since Dec. 1, 1924.

BRILLIANT FIREWORKS DISPLAY BRINGS ITALIAN CELEBRATION TO CLOSE

Forced to postpone their celebration of the Feast of the Assumption on Monday, owing to rain, the Italian residents of Norwich celebrated Tuesday evening by giving a band concert at Union square and ending the celebration with a street parade and a brilliant fireworks display of set pieces and aerial bombs.

The concert at Union square was by the Italian-American band and under the able direction of Prof. Pasquale Puca a concert was given which well merited the applause given the musicians. The conclusion of each number was the signal for the "tooting" of horns by those who had driven near the square to enjoy the program.

Features of the concert were the saxophone sextette composed of players of the Italian band of Willimantic, who rendered The Prisoners Song, which was sung by Euclid J. Pimpare of Willimantic, a veteran of the World war, having lost a leg and arm during that conflict; and a trombone tenor played by Harold Ceccolini of the Norwich Italian band, who favored with Divertimenti, specially arranged for the trombone tenor. The sextette and Mr. Ceccolini are pupils of Prof. Puca.

The concert program follows:

Teano, March ..... G. Manente
Barber of Seville, Overture G. Rossini
Traviata, Selection ..... G. Verdi
Mirgli, Fox-Trot .... M. Bartolucci
Caramanico, March Symphonique ..... L. D. Penna
Merry Widow, Gran Selection ..... F. Lehar
Faust, Fantasia ..... C. Gounard
Flower of May, Waltz ... F. De Bueris
Star Spangled Banner

At the conclusion of the concert the bandsmen paraded to Preston Bridge and the signal was given for the firing of the first bomb. The fireworks display lasted a half hour and as usual came to a close with dozens of bombs bursting in the air.

TELLS OF AVIATION TRAINING FOR OFFICERS

Speaking of aviation training for naval officers, Chief Quartermaster Justin F. McCarthy, navy recruiting officer in Norwich said Tuesday:

Aviation classes for officers and men at the naval air station will be doubled by a new order issued by the bureau of navigation.

The classes will be assembled in February, May, August and November, instead of semi-annually. In addition to the regular number of student aviators under training at Pensacola, about 48 officers of the rank of lieutenant commander and above who graduated from the naval academy prior to 1912 will be sent through the training course. This is expected to produce about 32 qualified naval aviators of senior rank. The first class of eight of these officers will be assembled at Pensacola by Aug. 15, 1926 and every three months thereafter. Eight more officers of these ranks will join the school.

The training course will be continued six months which will make the classes over-lap. There will be constant training in this way; in ground work, radio and actual flight training in land planes and sea planes.

For naval academy classes subsequent to 1912, applicants for aviation duty will still be required to meet the age limit of 31 years and to have not less than two years of sea duty prior to their assignment to aviation duty.

The classes which graduated in June, 1926, from the naval academy have been made exceptions to this rule and will be available for aviation training in November, 1926 and August, 1927, respectively. Assignment to aviation duty will normally be for a period of five years.

In addition to the above officers, the regular classes, about 80 officers, will be maintained at Pensacola, and 25 ensigns will be under training at all times at the naval air station, Hampton Roads, Va., and 25 more at the naval air station, San Diego, Calif.

As a result of these last orders, arrangements are now completed for the training of officers of all ranks from rear admiral to ensign and qualifying them as either aviation pilots or aviation observers.

AUGUST MEETING OF BUILDING AND LOAN

The regular monthly meeting of the shareholders of the Norwich Building and Loan association was held in the office of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening with a good attendance.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer for the month of July were presented and approved. The report of the treasurer showed disbursements for the month of over $21,000.

Several new applications for mortgage loans were received and referred to the board of management.

Report was made upon the new series of shares opened in July and which will close the last day of August. Opportunity is given during the next two weeks to those who may wish to subscribe.

The meeting of the board of management followed that of the shareholders.

The secretary reported upon the loans made during the past month, after which the new applications for loans were refered to appraisers and if approved by them will be consummated as funds become available.

Bills were approved and ordered paid and withdrawal of shares granted. Attention was called to an address on Economics of Installment Buying recently given at the annual convention of the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks at Columbus, Ohio, in which the following statistics were given:

The amount of all savings deposits in 1920 was $15,314,061,000 and in 1925 was $23,134,052,000.)

The number of building and loan associations in 1920, was 8,633, in 1925—11,844.

The memberships in building and loan associations in 1920 was 4,962,913, in 1925, 8,554,352.

The assets of building and loan associations in 1920 were $2,512,914,971, in 1925, $4,965,937,197.

CALVARY CHURCH LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN FOR $2,000

Mt. Calvary Baptist church has launched a financial campaign to raise $2,000 for the purpose of installing a new steam heater in the church and to pay off the present indebtedness. Six captains have been chosen to head teams to solicit contributions for the fund and all have been supplied with contribution books bearing the official seal of the church.

The team captains are Deacon Samuel Lacey, Augustus Vera, James Green, Henry Lacey, Mrs. Mary Jane Brown and Mrs. Frances Evans. Rev. William C. Pittman, pastor of the church said Tuesday:

"We earnestly appeal to the public to contribute generously to this worthy cause and to help us go over the top. For the convenience of those who may not be visited and who wish to contribute, donations and pledges may be left with C. Edward Smith at the Cranston company store."

Mr. Smith has consented to act as treasurer for the campaign. Mrs. Annie F. Drury is the church clerk.

CAPT. G. WALDO OAT SAILING FOR INDIA

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Oat of 101 Cliff street received word Monday from their son, Capt. G. Waldo Oat, that he is leaving Baltimore this week for a second trip to India aboard the Standard Oil tanker Royal Arrow. Capt. Oat returned to Baltimore last week after a trip of five months to India, having sailed from Texas.

Made Trip To Montreal

Mr. and Mrs. C. Herskell of Mystic, former residents of this city have returned from a trip to Montreal. On the trip they visited places of interest in Massachusetts, Vermont and New York state. Mrs. Eva Danesi of Norwich made the trip with them.

EXPECT KEEN RIVALRY IN BICYCLE PARADE

All arrangements have been completed for the bicycle, scooter and tricycle parade to be held this (Wednesday) evening under the supervision of the local playgrounds. Supt. of Recreation Earle E. Brigham has seen to it that everything will be in readiness when the parade gets underway at 7 o'clock from Preston bridge.

The line of march as given out on Tuesday is as follows: Starting at Preston bridge at 7 p. m. sharp the parade will procede through Main street to Franklin square where it will circle the three beacons and then return through Main street to East Main street and on to Duwell field where it will finish by circling around the field once between the innings of the baseball game scheduled there between the E. C. P. and Yanks. The winners will be announced and prizes awarded from the grandstand after the game.

The East Side Drum corps will lead the parade and this fact will no doubt lend interest to the occasion.

Chief George Linton of the local police is cooperating and will have the traffic well taken care of.

In this evening's parade the local children will be striving for nine prizes, the majority of which have been donated by local merchants. There are six prizes to be awarded in the bicycle division, two in the scooter division and one in the tricycle.

The tricycle prize is an addition to those already announced and is awarded by the Norwich Recreation commission. The list of prizes in the various divisions follows: Bicycle, 1st prize, bicycle, donated by Jack's Sport shop; 2nd prize, 2 tires, Jack's Sport shop; third, bicycle light, Jack's Sport shop; 4th, saddle, Donovan's bicycle and motorcycle shop; 5th handle bars and grips, Alling Rubber oC.; 6th, bell A Friend; scooter, first, boys, Hub Cycle Co., Boston, Mass., through Jack's Sport shop; first girls, scooter, Alling Rubber Rubber company; tricycle, first, Norwich Recreation commission. With prizes of this caliber as rewards for their efforts no doubt rivalry will be keen and some works of art will be seen this evening in the parade.

The list of judges for the parade have been selected by Supt. of Recreation Earle E. Brigham and are as follows: Mayor Milo R. Waters, President Edwin A. Harris of the Norwich Rotary club, President William A. Anderson of the Norwich Lions club, J. J. O'Rourke of the Norwich chamber of commerce, John M. Lee of the park commission, Mrs. Annie E. Turner, senior vice president Daughters of Union Veterans, Mrs. Joseph E. Byrnes Connecticut Council of Catholic Women. The judges are to report to the chairman of the judges committee, John M. Lee at the Elks home at 6.30 o'clock and receive instructions from him.

The prizes to be awarded are now on display at the Paanik Co. store on Main street while a decorated bicycle is now on display in the Cranston Co., store on Broadway.

Miss FarreH. industrial instructor of the local playgrounds has completed a tour of the playgrounds, giving suggestions as to the proper way of decorating the bicycles, scooters and tricycles.

A bazaar is being planned for the Lake street playgrounds on Friday afternoon and evening and this affair should be one of the largest of its kind ever attempted by a local playground.

According to present plans of Terrence Finnegan and Miss Irene Werth, instructors at this center a band concert is to be held in addition to the many other features of the day. Berghinzo's Norwich band has donated its services for the affair and the band concert alone should attract a large number as this is quite an innovation.

At the bazaar on Friday evening there will be all the features of shows of this kind with the various side shows, athletic shows, booths, etc., to entertain the public.

Both the afternoon and evening performances are expected to be well patronized. The proceeds derived from the bazaar will be used to help defray expenses for an outing for the children of this playground. The affair is under the supervision of instructors Irene Werth and Terrence Finnegan.

GREENEVILLE BOY IS KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO

Tuesady evening Robert Dunion, son of Police Officer and Mrs. John Dunion of Twelfth street, was knocked down at the corner of Twelfth street and Central avenue by an automobile owned and driven by John Filburn of No. 61 School street. Mr. Filburn claims the boy ran from the sidewalk from behind a tree, directly in front of the machine.

The front end of the machine hit him and he crawled out from the rear end of the auto. He received a bump on the head and his back was considerably scratched.

AWARDED CONTRACT FOR SIDEWALK AT SCHOOL

Contractor Charles W. Burton has been awarded the contract for the building of a new cement sidewalk at the Greeneville school. The contract was awarded at a meeting of the town school committee Monday morning. Mr. Burton's bid was $345. Other bids were as follows:

I. B. Roubena & Co., $399.36; W. S. Spencer, $489; Peck & McWilliams, Co., $620; F. F. Sweeney, $622.

SUES FOR DIVORCE ON DESERTION GROUNDS

William H. B. Miner of North Stonington has brought suit in the superior court against Edith I. Miner, also of North Stonington, for divorce on grounds of desertion. They were married March 5, 1913, and desertion is alleged since May 30, 1913. Her maiden name was Edith I. Blanchard. The papers in the action were filed Tuesday with the clerk of the superior court in this city.

Norwich Produce Market

(Furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture of Connecticut.)

Trading on the market was inactive and stocks sold slowly. Native apples are supplying the market but vary considerably in quality. Moderate supplies of blackberries and blueberries but raspberries are practically gone. Southern peaches are very abundant and of excellent quality for shipped stock. Normal supplies of pears 3.50-3.75; plums 2.75-3.00; cantaloupes 2.75-3.00 for crates and 1.25-1.60 for flats, honey dews 2.00-2.50 and watermelons .40-.50.

Beans are offered only to a limited extent, especially shell beans and limas. Sweet corn, squash and tomatoes are abundant and cheaper. Cucumbers are plenty but good stock meets a strong demand with common grades moving slowly.

Eggs are very firm and show advances for all grades and butter also shows a firmer tone.

Live calves are scarce and western veal is stronger while other dressed meats and grain are steady.

Native apples of excellent quality are now being offered in liberal quantities and low prices prompted the appearance of fresh apple pie. Heavy supplies of native huckleberries were offered and prices generally lower. Only limited quantities of raspberries appeared and the season for good stock is practically finished. Moderate supplies of blackberries were available. Native Greensboro peaches brought low prices due to heavy supplies of shipped-in Elberta stock being marketed. Native peaches brought from 40-75c per 14-qt basket; the bulk of stock, 40-50c. per basket and a few extra fancy peaches, 50-75c. per basket. Shipped-in Elberta peaches from the Carolinas, Delaware and Maryland were in heavy supply and markets nearly demoralized. Supplies of watermelons were light but cantaloupes were plentiful and sold slowly due to an immature condition.

On Connecticut farmers' markets, reports from Bridgeport indicate that the largest supply of vegetables so far this season was offered on the farmers' wholesale market Saturday. Trading was active and demand good for native sweet corn and tomatoes. Moderate supplies of string and lima beans were available in New London, but sweet corn was plentiful.

Broilers were plentiful in Norwich, but fowl and Connecticut eggs were firmer. Sweet corn and tomatoes were firm in Waterbury, but string and lima beans sold slowly due to increased receipts. Native potatoes represented the bulk of offerings on the Waterbury market.

Heavy supplies of peaches were marketed in Hartford and native melons appeared from Glastonbury. Prices for good stock ranged $2.00 per dozen today. Potatoes and tomatoes were generally lower.

Heavy supplies of native vegetables were marketed in New Haven. Sweet corn was in good demand and market firm. Potatoes and tomatoes were generally lower.

Fruits, vegetables: *Apples, 14 qts. .50, 1.00; *blackberies, qt. .20, .28; *blueberries, qt. .20; oranges, 76-216), 6.00, 7.00; *raspberries, red, pt. .20, .22; *beans, green, bu. 1.25, 1.50; *beans, lima bu. 3.50, 4.00; *beets, doz. bun, .40, .50; *cabbage, bbl. 1.00, 1.25; *carrots, doz. bun, .45, .55; celery, 12-stalk bun 1.00, 1.75; *corn, sweet, 100 ears, 1.50, 2.00; *lettuce doz. .50, .65; onions, bu. 1.25, 1.50; potatoes, bu. 1.35, 1.75; potatoes, new, bbl. 3.00, 4.25; *squash, bu. 1.00, 1.25; *tomatoes, 14 qts. .75, 1.50.

Poultry, dairy: *Broilers, dressed, lb .40, .50; *broilers, live, lb. .28, .33; *fowl, dressed, lb. .32, .38; *fowl, live, lb. .26, .30; *eggs, Conn. N'tld. fan. x; *eggs, Conn. hennery, .52, .58; *eggs, Conn. gathered, .45, .50; eggs, western .38, .45; butter, best fub. lb. .40, .42; butter, best print, lb. .44, .46.

Meat products: *Calves, best, live, lb. .12, .14; *calves, heavy, lb. .09, .11; *cows, live, (100 lb.) 4.00, 5.50; *cows, live, com. 3.00, 3.00; ham, best smoked, lb. .34 .38; lard, pure, lb. .17 1-2; beef, prime, .16, .17; beef, medium, lb. .13, .16; cows, dressed, lb. .11, .14; *cows, com. dressed, lb. .06, .09; lambs, fancy, lb. .28, .30; veal, med. dressed, lb. .15, .18; veal, fan, western, lb. .20, .23; *veal, fancy, lb .32, .24.

Grain (retail) door: Beef scraps, 100 lbs. 3.25, 3.35; bran, 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; corn, No. 2, 100 lbs. 2.05, 2.10; cottons'd meal, 100 lbs. 2.25, 2.50; dry mash, 100 lbs. 3.70, 3.90; flour, 196 lb. sack, 11.00 12.00; gluten, 100 lbs. 2.30, 2.50; hominy chop, 100 lbs. 1.95, 2.05; linseed meal, 100 lbs. 2.90, 3.00; middlings, std. 100 lbs. 1.85, 1.90; oats, No. 2, 80 lbs. 1.75, 1.85; poultry, grain, 100 lbs. 2.75, 2.85; Timothy, hale, 100 lbs. 1.50, 1.60; *Timothy, loose, 100 lbs. 1.40 1.50; wheat, 100 lbs. 2.95, 3.05.

HEAVY FINES FOR TWO WESTERLY AUTOISTS

Leon Gadbois, 19, of Westerly pleaded guilty to operating a non-registered automobile, operating without a license and operating a car with improper markers; while his chum, Henry Pellan, Jr., 25, also of Westerly, was found guilty of operating a car with false markers, when they appeared before the city court Tuesday morning.

Gadbois was fined $25 for driving without a license, $20 for driving an unregistered car and $20 more for driving with false markers, which, when added to costs of $11.50, made a total court bill of $76.50. Pellan was fined $25 on the first count against him and $50 on the second, his court bill being $86.50.

The pair got into trouble Monday night when Officer Patterson found them driving down Central avenue without lights. The young men claimed the battery of the car had gone dead and the officer withdrew this charge figuring that they had broken sufficient laws of the state. The car they were driving was a Chevrolet. Pellan, who works in a Westerly garage, determined to make a trip to Norwich, taking the license plates off a car in his employer's garage to use on his machine.

The men were locked up after the court session waiting for their parents to provide the money to gain their release.

Frank Lane, 26, of 41 Kenwood street, Brookline, Mass., was fined $2 for not having his license and $5 for failure to grant the right of way. His arrest took place Monday night following an accident at Shetucket and Water street crossing.

Lane was operating a car owned by Dorothy Aldrich of Brookline and struck the car owned by C. V. Pendleton of Norwich and operated by John Ludwig. Mr Lane testified that he had left his own car in Brookline and his license was in that car, but as he was in a hurry to get to Norwich he took the car owned by his fiancee, license and all.

Two local girls, found in New London Monday night in company with sailors, and who had run away from home several times, were committed to the House of the Good Shepherd at Hartford.

A Lebanon man and a New York man paid fines and costs for intoxication. The New Yorker claimed that someone had stolen a diamond pin and $10 in money from him while he was under the influence of liquor.

Body Sent to Danbury

The death of Miss Mary Swift of Danbury occurred Friday in Preston. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Charles A. Gager and were sent to Danbury Tuesday morning at 8.50 o'clock. Miss Swift is survived by relatives in Danbury where burial took place following the arrival of the body.

Explains How Enlarged Veins Can Be Reduced

Often Times Veins Burst and Cause Much Suffering, Expense and Loss of Employment.

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it at home as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil has brought much comfort to worried people all over the country; is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Lee & Osgood Co. sells lots of it.

HIGHWAY LOAFERS CREATE TEMPTATION TO "CUT IN"

Highway loafers who drive their cars along main thoroughfares of the state at a speed varying from ten to twenty miles an hour during heavy traffic will hereafter face the possibility of arrest, according to Superintendent Robert T. Hurley of the state police, who said that, in spite of frequent warnings and widespread publicity, many drivers still refuse to maintain a reasonable speed, and thus cause excessive delays and create a possibility of serious accidents.

According to the superintendent, the great danger created by the slow drivers is the temptation to "cut in" that is felt by those motorists who are in a hurry to reach their destination and attempt to swing out of line to pass the man in front. Mr. Hurley added that the expedient of drawing the slow drivers out of line until traffic jams were straightened out or rushes had abated, but he said that this had not sloved the problem by any means.

Robert L. Sengle, executive secretary of the department, pointed out that no special motor vehicle law covers the slow driver, but said that the patrolling state policemen will warn those who hold up traffic in this manner and that those who do not heed the warning will be arrested on a charge of failure to obey an officer.

